Where Does "Pot" Come From? Some Of It Is Grown Right Here

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of interviews on drug abuse in the Twin Falls area. This interview was conducted with a student at the College of Southern Idaho. The name is being kept confidential.)

By FRED DODDS
Times-News Staff Writer

Q: You are a student at the College of Southern Idaho, is that right?

A: Yes.

Q: Are you familiar with drug abuse on campus?

A: Yes I am.

Q: How extensive is it?

A: I would say that there is a great deal of drug abuse at the College of Southern Idaho. Probably as high as 25 per cent.

Q: Twenty-five per cent of 2,000 students?

A: Yes, I'd say 25 per cent have used or are using drugs regularly.

Q: What kind of drugs?

A: The majority of them are marijuana, hash (hashish), there is a great deal of mescaline, acid and various amphetamines being used also.

Q: How about barbiturates?

A: I don't know of anybody using barbiturates.

Q: These drugs that you have mentioned, most of them, can't be obtained by prescription. How do these people get hold of them?

A: The majority of the drugs that come in here are brought in from the coast and there is some marijuana grown locally but most of the drugs are brought in from out-of-town.

Q: What does a student do if he wants to get a hold of say marijuana?

A: Generally at the college it's pretty well known who would have it or who would know where to get it. So a student if he wants some marijuana all he has to do is ask one of these students—he knows or highly suspects and generally in the informal atmosphere at the college they can find it within 15 or 20 minutes.

Q: If you wanted to buy some marijuana now, how long would it take to make such a purchase?

A: I'd probably have to make a phone call and a trip to someone's house and that would be it. Probably half an hour at the most.

Q: How much would you expect to pay for this marijuana?

A: Probably $10 a lid.

Q: Would you explain what a lid is?

A: A lid is an ounce of marijuana. It is generally brought in by the kilo. This is 34 ounces. A kilo would cost the dealer about $100 or $90 and he could sell the lids for $10, making a profit of $200 to $250.

Q: You said marijuana was grown locally. Do you know where?

A: It's growing in the canyon right now between Twin Falls and Jerome. I can't be more specific than that.

Q: Is it being cultivated by certain individuals?

A: Yes it is.

Q: When you speak of individuals are you speaking of transients or local people?

A: Generally local students and young adults. The stuff has been growing wild down there for a number of years and every once in a while the supply is replenished.

Q: Have you observed students taking drugs on campus?

A: Do you mean taking drugs at the college or being under the influence of drugs at the college? Which?

Q: Being under the influence and taking drugs, both.

A: I haven't seen anyone openly taking drugs at the college but I have seen students under the influence of drugs.

Q: You mentioned this 25 per cent figure. How do you arrive at this?

A: Well I can sit in the lounge at the CSI campus and look at the people and about 25 per cent of them I know have taken drugs or are taking drugs.

Q: When you say have taken or are taking, you mean illegally?

A: Yes, illegally.

Q: What is your personal feeling on this?

A: What aspect?

Q: Drug abuse, how do you feel about it?

A: See "POT", Pg. 2, Col. 3

Suit Filed Against Bank

Thieu Willing To Talk

By DANIEL SOUTHERLAND

SAIGON (UPI)—President Nguyen Van Thieu said today South Vietnam is willing to discuss a cease-fire at the Paris Vietnam talks, but he ruled out an unconditional cease-fire which has been urged in some quarters.

Thieu had said previously the Saigon government was willing to discuss any subject in Paris but his speech today concerning talks about a cease-fire was considered less negative than his other statements on the subject. It was not seen as any real reversal of policy, however.

"Today we make it clear that we are ready to discuss with the other side every subject provided that they want to hold serious discussions to end the war," Thieu told the National Assembly.

"I say that if we want a cease-fire to really end the war, we should discuss the subject first. We cannot order an unconditional cease-fire first and then discuss its procedures afterwards."

Thieu said that "in order to help the U. S. government with its internal problems" South Vietnam is determined to replace the bulk of U.S. fighting units in 1970.

Try Foiled

AMMAN, Jordan (UPI)—Jordanian security forces have foiled an attempt to overthrow the government of King Hussein, an official announcement said today.

Amman Radio, quoting a statement by the Interior Ministry, said the coup plot was organized by the outlawed Al-Tahrir Liberation Party, known in the Middle East as a small and politically insignificant part of Islamic extremists.

Cuban MIG Under Guard In Florida

By MATTHEW T. KENNY

HOMESTEAD AFB, Fla. (UPI)—A MIG-17 jet fighter with a hammer and sickle stamped on its gunsight and a Cuban flag emblazoned on its tail was under heavy guard today while authorities questioned the man who flew it from Cuba.

The Soviet-built jet landed at this sprawling home of long-range SAC bombers and sleek fighters Sunday after it loomed on a radar scope 80 miles east of Key West.

The pilot, an unidentified Cuban, promptly asked for asylum and got it.

"Any plane that comes in with its wheels down is allowed to land," said one Air Force veteran on the Homestead runway. "If he comes in with his landing gear up he will be shot down."

The MIG-17, of the type which dealt trouble to U.S. fighters during the Korean War, touched down near President Nixon's plane—Air Force One—which was waiting to carry the Chief Executive back to Washington.

City Candidates Deadline Nears

One new petition was filed Monday morning, final filing day for the Twin Falls City Council election.

W. G. (Bill) Crilpen turned in his petition at 10 a. m. Monday, according to Consuelo Leiser, city clerk. Mrs. Leiser said she had not yet checked the petition to see how many signatures it contained.

Mrs. Leiser said seven petitions have been filed thus far, and four petitions still are out for unnamed people and

Bank Card Interest Protested

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Robert M. Robson and State Finance Commissioner John D. Silva brought suit in federal court today to prevent First Security Bank from charging 18 per cent interest on its BankAmericard.

Robson brought the complaint in his official capacity "to protect the general public from unlawful business practices." His complaint said he was acting in the public interest in the name of the state.

He and Silva, who is charged with executing all laws of Idaho relating to banking, named acting comptroller of the currency William B. Camp and the First Security Bank of Idaho as defendants.

They contended, "In effect, that First Security was limited to the 11 1/2 per cent interest per year governing small loans by state chartered banks and that the comptroller of the currency was wrong in saying in effect national banks could charge small loan rates.

Their complaint seeks a declaratory judgment that First Security was exacting an interest rate on BankAmericard loans that is prohibited by both federal law and state statute. And they asked the comptroller of the currency be prohibited from enforcing a ruling under which the First Security was exacting the questioned interest rate.

Robson told a news conference there was a question about his authority to bring such a suit in the name of the people and about whether national banks could indeed

Arab Bomb Exploded In Israeli Town

By United Press International

An Arab guerrilla bomb exploded today in the Israeli town of Afula, killing one person and wounding 24. A Cairo official rejected the latest U.S. plan for a middle East peace.

Israeli police said the bomb, weighing four to eight pounds, went off beneath a fruit and vegetable stand in the crowded market. Eleven of the wounded were reported seriously hurt.

Policemen set up road blocks in and around Afula, an Israeli city 25 miles southeast of Haifa. They detained dozens of Arabs who had gathered in the market to sell their wares.

It was the latest in a series of guerrilla-forays into Israel proper.

In a crackdown on the Arab underground in Israel occupied territories, Israel today deported nine Arabs from the occupied west bank to Jordan, charging that they were Arab guerrillas.

The Afula explosion followed a weekend of fighting across the Suez Canal.

An aide to President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt condemned the United States Sunday as Egypt's principal enemy.

"The American plan is aimed at tying Egypt to the wheel of Imperialism," said Anwar Elasad, a member of the Arab Socialist Union's executive committee, about the latest U.S. peace plan.

"He gave no details of the plan but said the United States 'wants us to surrender, but we will not... It is enough to say that they call for internationalization of the Suez Canal.'"

State GOP Official Raps Party Policies

BURLEY—Dave Little, Emmett, state Republican national committeeman, blasted the party's patronage policies Saturday evening in Burley.

Mr. Little told a meeting of the state committee he is not notified of political positions being opened on a national level. Consequently, he said, Idaho Republicans never get a shot at the political plum dished out by the national party.

Little said he would like to see a more organized national patronage system. He said committee members hear of the jobs, or read about them in the paper when the positions are already filled.

National committeewoman Mrs. Steele Barnett, told the committee members that the state group should follow the

Child Development Contract Awarded

2 Burglary Suspects Are Caught Here

Two California men wanted for burglary by Burley authorities were apprehended Sunday night near Twin Falls by Twin Falls City and County officers.

The men, Billy Joe Jones, 26, and William C. Gregory, 26, both Shafter, Calif., were caught about 10 p.m. at the junction of highways 74 and 93 when officers from Twin Falls closed in on the pickup truck the pair was operating.

Sheriff Paul Order said the pair was taken to Twin Falls County jail and will be transported to Burley.

Three city officers and the sheriff were able to apprehend the Californians after a local resident saw them traveling on Addison Avenue.

Musician Is Honorary Fire Chief

By PAUL ROBBINS
 BOSTON (UPI)—Music has been "only" a career for Arthur Fiedler, chasing fires has been an obsession.

Now, as the 57-year-old and mustachioed conductor of the Boston Pops moves toward his 75th birthday in December, he admits following fire trucks may play second fiddle to music in life.

"I still go out after a fire when I can," he said, looking up from his desk at the offices of his Boston Symphony Orchestra, parent organization of the famed Pops, which Fiedler has directed for nearly 40 years.

"I don't give up my work for it any more, but it's very relaxing for me. If I can get a ride out with a cruiser car now, I like to go."

Behind him perched a model fire truck; pictures of him wearing an honorary fire chief's helmet hang throughout the symphony headquarters; some two dozen honorary chief's hats are piled atop a wooden storage closet in the maestro's office; several other chief's helmets are on the opposite side of the third floor office.

He stood up and pointed to the doorway and said, "I'm going to have a shelf put over the door. I think I'll bring in some more hats and put them up there."

If someone somewhere is keeping track, Fiedler must have the world's largest fire chief's hats and other fire chief's badges, cards and helmets from more than 260 departments around the globe, he said.

In his definitive biography of Fiedler, Robin Moore—who shifted gears nicely from his book, "The Green Berets," and turned out a nifty life-story of the maestro—tells of a 1953 tour in which Fiedler returned to Boston with honorary chief credentials from 40 of 61 cities visited.

"We lived near a firehouse when I was young and I guess that's what started me off," Fiedler said.

He declined to list one favorite department, but it's no secret—he holds a special emotional soft spot for the Boston and San Francisco fire departments.

His Boston attachment is a natural—not only was he born in this history-drenched city but he's been with the Boston Symphony Orchestra for nearly 55 years, joining as a violinist in 1915 after returning from Berlin as World War I erupted while he was in the German

Wage And Price

St. Louis Post-Dispatch

If anybody could bring himself to laugh, there is a grim joke in George Meany's assertion that nothing can curb inflation but wage and price controls...

an over-all freeze would be undesirable. That is not what such economists as J. K. Galbraith are talking about...

Organized labor is not, of course, exclusively responsible for inflation. The basic cause was the Johnson Administration's decision to wage a Vietnam war without promptly adopting the fiscal and monetary policies that would keep the wage-price spiral in hand...

The critical question is whether the inflationary spiral has really begun to level off, as the Administration contends...

Everybody was out to get his. The result is that today we are all getting ours, in the form of a still rising cost of living, unconscionable interest rates, high taxes and all the rest...

During 1968, when the big wage settlements were being made and prices were being increased accordingly, real hourly compensation in the private economy went up only 3.3 percent...

Nevertheless we think the Administration will have to begin thinking about selective wage price restraints...

One way or another, the cost-push factors contributing to inflation must be brought under control...

When Administration spokesmen like Paul W. McCracken, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors, oppose wage-price controls...

For nearly seven months the Nixon Administration has marked time on its policy for Latin America, saying it was necessary to await Governor Rockefeller's report on his trips for the President...

This is highly disturbing; it is bad public policy and plain bad politics as well. Mr. Nixon has been in public life too long to believe anyone can suppress for long a report that has aroused as much interest as this, one, especially a document to which many individuals contributed...

Governor Rockefeller himself described the mission as a new concept in the making of foreign policy, which could cut through ordinary Government bureaucracy and pave the way for Washington's first-ever integrated policy for Latin America...

There can be no legitimate reason, however, for trying to keep secret the main points in the Governor's analysis of the situation...

NEW YORK — A sudden loss of support by the Controller Mario Procaccino, law-and-order Democratic nominee for mayor of New York, can be directly attributed to the success of his enemies in roading him out of seclusion...

Dear Dr. Thosteson: In three weeks I have had two gall bladder attacks and X-rays show massive gall stones...

You try to hang onto your gall bladder for a bit longer. You may even run into complications that will make you a less favorable candidate for surgery...

I have also been troubled with colic in the last six months. Getting that from the gall stones? — Mrs. M.

I'd get rid of the pesky thing which you're in generally good health and haven't a sufferer through your father with only "colic" as otherwise are they...

At the same time, the cities' capacity to cope with the mounting burden imposed by a host of social ills is generally diminished. Thirty-five years ago...

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What is your opinion of a report that a woman had one ovary and part of the other removed at age 15 but still had babies? Is that possible? — Mrs. W. R.

It is possible, in the case you mention, that the remaining ovary remained to provide adequate ovulation.

Are you having a gall bladder problem and find out but the gall bladder works and what types of trouble to look for next...

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am interested in all his readers' questions, and whenever possible uses their questions in his columns...

Government will not find the answer, either, in mere sandbags full of money.

Therefore, Mrs. M. F., even though you feel that you are on the young side to be having gall bladder trouble (as indicated by you) you aren't going to gain anything by postponing surgery.

Even if they are developed, they probably will yield only partial answers. Illnesses, imperious complications, are being met when the things the implementers deplore — are destined to endure and grow.

Don't be able to give you any appreciable help.

You are, very likely, going to have more painful troubles if...

Now will that prevent the major complications that can develop from a group of gall stones — a stone totally plugging the bile duct, causing lots of pain...

Dr. Thosteson is interested in all his readers' questions, and whenever possible uses their questions in his columns...

Alexander Dubcek Is Down - But Whether Or Not He Is Out Is Matter Of Opinion

BY GERD KRIWANEK
PRAGUE (UPI)—By any measure, Alexander Dubcek is down. Whether or not he is out depends on whom you speak. When the Communist Party Central committee met last week, it ousted Dubcek as a member of its 11-man ruling presidium and ordered him removed as chairman of parliament. The only spark left to him was his membership in the party and on the central committee itself.
For a rising young politician, central committee membership is a plum. For a 47-year veteran who as first secretary of the party has been the face of the nation, it is an insult.
Dubcek, the son of a

College Chief Vows To Keep Black Muslim

FRESNO (UPI)—The chairman of Fresno State College's ethnic studies program has vowed to retain a Black Muslim lecturer whose proposed appointment drew the ire of statewide Chancellor Glenn Dunke.
Richard Keyes said the controversial lecturer, Marvin Jackson, who is also known as Marvin X, would lecture even if the ethnic studies faculty has to pay his salary out of their own pockets.
Jackson, who has been lecturing on the campus for three weeks, was rejected Thursday by Fresno State President Frederic W. Ness for a $9,444-a-year-lectureship on the campus.
Ness issued a written statement citing irregularities in Jackson's application, his "renunciation of U.S. citizenship" and his indictment for draft evasion as matters of concern.
Keyes said Saturday the refusal to hire the Black Muslim was due to "pressure from above," specifically from Dunke.
Dale Burnett, dean of arts and sciences who originally approved Jackson's hiring, said he withdrew his endorsement after a meeting with Dunke on Sept. 26. He said the chancellor's staff had cleared the hiring was not approved by the Los Angeles office.

Communist who once lived in the United States, was a resistance fighter against Nazis, went into party work after the war, attended the Communist College in Moscow and signed for Party membership in the ranks to become chairman of the Slovak Party.
In January, 1968, the Stalinist dictator Antonin Novotny was expelled and party leadership passed to somebody "safe" as his successor, agreed on Dubcek.
But the "Prague Spring" in Czechoslovakia's exuberant period of liberal reform was already in motion. Whether Dubcek could have stopped it is open to question. He did not try.

The people loved him. He used to walk the streets at night, talking to Czechs he met there. Occasionally, he would slip off for a beer with workmen. Communist leaders had behaved that way before.
The Russians ordered a return to orthodoxy. Dubcek refused them. And so, on Aug. 21, 1968, the Soviet Army and four of its Warsaw Pact allies marched in.
The "Prague Spring" was over, but Dubcek was allowed to stay on as party leader. He tried to maintain the reforms—press freedom, rehabilitation of Stalinera victims, economic reforms—he had instituted. But little by little they were chipped away.
Last April, Dubcek was dropped from the leadership to the presidium and the parliamentary chairmanship. His supporters were purged. He had the trappings of power—private office, a limousine, a suit at the Praha Hotel—but little real influence over events. Rumors spread that Dubcek, too, would be purged. And last week the rumors came true.

Lots Of Construction Work Going On At White House

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Backstairs at the White House: A lot of relatively quiet construction work is going on around 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue at night on the weekends and when President Nixon is away.

Until now, most of it has been painting and general refurbishing. His oval office, for example, is now a much brighter place than during recent administrations—such as a bright blue rug bordered by gold-colored stars and a colorful presidential seal in the middle.
There is a new, hard floor covering beneath the rug, too, replacing the section near the rose garden door which through the Kennedy and Johnson eras continued to show the golf spike marks made by the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower when he walked out to the south lawn for practice shots in the late afternoon.
Also, White House police uniforms have been spruced-up by the addition of gold braid loops on their right shoulders and brilliant gold-yellow stripes down the outside of each trouser leg.

All of this is in line with a general Nixon policy to give the White House an added touch of color, as well as improving the general ambience of being in a place of dignity, history and ceremony.

The gold braid and leg stripes have led to some rather raffish remarks which make these highly dedicated officers a bit sensitive—remarks such as "What times does the next show start?"
These added touches of color and ceremony undoubtedly are in part derivative from the President's travels to Europe and Asia since taking office. Also, there is a very realistic fact that his office set-up in the west wing is one of the House establishments in this ordinarily beautiful and spacious capital.

Negroes Continue Hunger Strike

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — Black inmates of San Quentin's disciplinary section spurned their meals again Sunday on the fifth day of a hunger strike.

The rebels, some 63 out of 88 blacks in the prison's high-security disciplinary section, began their fast Wednesday in an attempt to force the acceptance of 10 demands.

Associate Warden Albert Jacobs said 63 inmates, the same number as Saturday, returned their breakfast trays untouched Sunday. The number of strikers, he said, has fluctuated between 20 and 65 from meal to meal.

Among the strikers' demands are immediate release of all blacks from the disciplinary section, formation of an all-black parole board for Negro inmates, hiring of a black warden and more Negro guards and permission for a prison fund-raising drive for the Black Panther party.

Prison officials, who said 32 percent of San Quentin's inmate population and 6 percent of its staff are black, said efforts were initiated before the strike to recruit more black staff.

The strikers, many of whom were placed in the disciplinary section in connection with racially-motivated stabbings in the prison last spring, said their "unalienable rights" were being violated.

"If our strike is met with violence, we are prepared to achieve these demands by whatever means necessary," they warned last week.

Address Is Given To Americans

PARIS (UPI) — Families of American servicemen missing or reported dead in North Vietnam who want to inquire about the fate of their relatives should write to:

The Democratic Republic of Vietnam Delegation to the Peace Conference in Paris, 8 Avenue General LeClerc, 9 Rue La-Rol (Val-De-Marne), France.

Six Americans conferring with Hanoi diplomats Friday offered the address. The North Vietnamese delegation told them the relatives "should not be vague about the military circumstances during which the man became missing."

Xuan Ganh, who heads the North Vietnamese delegation, said such details should include the type plane the man was flying when downed, the base they were flying from and the target of their mission, along with a full description and photo of the man missing or believed imprisoned.

Airlines President Says Denver Plane Crash Was Caused By Weather Conditions

DENVER (UPI) — A small commuter airplane which went down in a freak autumn snowstorm Friday night, killing five persons and injuring two others, crashed because of weather, the airlines president said Sunday.

"The pilot made the proper decision on the basis of what information he had been given," Kent Joeger, president of Metro Commuter Airlines, said. "There was no failure of personnel or aircraft."

Joeger said the plane became so heavy with ice that it could not stay airborne. The crash was the result of "a freak of nature," Joeger said.

The small, twin-engine plane crashed and overturned while trying to land at Lowry Air Force Base. It was on a return flight to Denver after having made stops in Cheyenne, Rawlins and Laramie, Wyo.

One of the two survivors, Robert DeWesse of Tulsa, Okla., was removed from the critical list today at Fitzsimons General Hospital. The other, Jack Rowe, 57, of Laramie, Wyo., was reported still in serious condition today at Denver General Hospital.

Those killed were the pilot, James Leonard Faulk, 25, of Denver, who had made an emergency landing on foam at Stapleton International Airport a month ago; Floyd Wayne Pizzell, 24, the co-pilot; Richard Joseph Donnelly, 59, of Minneapolis; Eldon Reisinger, 59, of Eldora, Iowa; and Howard Wade Vesey, 63, of Santa Barbara, Calif.

The landing was made during a snowstorm that dropped more than a foot of snow in the Denver area. The pilot had made one unsuccessful attempt to land at nearby Stapleton International Airport and reported that one of his engines was "shut down" on the second landing attempt.

The National Transportation Safety Board has opened its investigation into the accident, but has released no details yet on what it has learned.

Firemen Answer 2 Calls Sunday

Twin Falls city firemen were called out twice Sunday, but one call was a false alarm.

Firemen said they were called at 1:03 p.m. to 157 Monroe St., but the call apparently was a prank.

At 4:40 p.m. one truck responded to a blaze at 490 Fall St. A shed and woodpile were on fire at the vacant property. The shed was destroyed. Firemen said there is no indication what caused the fire, but neighbors had seen children playing near the shed before the fire started.

Car Breakdown Strands Group

A car full of Twin Falls residents reported missing in the South Hills late Sunday was located early Monday morning by one of the party's relatives.

Twin Falls County Sheriff's officers said members of the Bob Strack's family and Gary Meier had driven into the hills Sunday looking for a good deer hunting area.

The car they were in broke down and the group spent the night in the car until located about 5 a.m. Monday.

Narcotics Dealer Is Arrested

BEATTY, Nev. (UPI) — A man described by police as the "kingpin" of Nevada narcotics dealers has been arrested in this community about 115 miles northwest of Las Vegas.

Las Vegas police, Nye County sheriff's deputies and Nevada Highway Patrol officers arrested Curtis Lee Austin, 38, and a woman, identified as Tanya Edwards, 25, Friday night. Seven bags of heroin were confiscated.

Police said an undercover agent befriended Austin, who sent the agent and the woman to Portland, Ore., to pick up a shipment of heroin and deliver it to him in Beatty.

The agent remained in Portland while the woman returned to Nevada by bus. The agent called Las Vegas police, who were waiting at the depot when she met Austin.

Austin and the woman were booked in the Tonopah, Nev., jail on charges of possession of heroin. Bond was set at $50,000 each.

"Ugly American" Destroying Greatest U.S. Treasures

By JOHN FAYNE
GRAND CANYON, Ariz. (UPI)—A privileged thief with the combination to the safe is destroying America's greatest national treasures.

Prof. Rocco Tocher of the University of Michigan told 42 foreign park administrators "Right now an 'Ugly American' is destroying our greatest beauties right in the places where they're supposed to be protected—in the parks."

"He's like the privileged thief who has the combination to the safe," Tocher told the group which ended a month-long tour here of Canada and the western United States.

"Who is the 'Ugly American?'" He—or she—is the uneducated and undisciplined worst in all of us. The tourist who leaves heaps of rubbish at his campsite; the camper who insists upon roads which destroy fishing streams; the businessman who ignores his social responsibilities; the American people going to wake up and discover that a thing of beauty is not a joy forever? It can be bulldozed to "death," trampled out of existence, littered out of sight or pesticated into pollution and extinction," Tocher said.

"Must we put this 'Ugly American' who lives in our own back yards, back into the pages of fiction."

In order to even begin the task of the American public must realize—the "Ugly American" isn't found only in a mythical country in Southeast Asia.

There are at home those interested in conservation must educate the people to his existence. We must do something about him now.

To the administrators, with 31 homelands dotting the face of the globe, Tocher said the United States appeared to the foreign guests as "the colossus of the world with the fate of every people in every land linked to our own fate."

Spoke the men were accompanied by charming Czechoslovakian park administrator, Miss Milada Leiska of Prague, the only female.

"There were very concerned about the fate of this nation," said Tocher's colleague from Michigan, Prof. B. L. Driver, who expressed his concern about our conservation program.

"One reason why I'm concerned," Richard Baillie, Kinlochewe, Scotland, said, "is that I believe that the survival of humankind may be involved in the fight for conservation.

"Pesticides could destroy human civilization as easily as the bomb. We have mounting evidence for that," Baillie said.

"And the United States is faced with such overwhelming responsibilities, and problems throughout the world and here that we are interested as men and women and as professional park administrators in your responses to conservation problems."

The administrators were shown a weed garden of American poor planning and bureaucratic indifference to park problems by Prof. Robert Lundey, also of Michigan's School of Natural Resources.

Lundey said blacktop parking directly over New Mexico's Carlsbad Caverns prevented water from percolating down to the caverns.

He said lodging had been built over priceless Eskimo archaeological sites at Kaimai Park in Alaska, losing forever a valuable link in the history of the Eskimo and the settlement of the North American Continent.

Lundey criticized the use of roads in American parks. He said that not only did the roads themselves "destroy" scenery but their effect on the ecology is continuing.

"Oil drops off cars, for example, and you often see oil streams after a rain, and we frequently make the mistake of building a road along a stream where runoff fishes it," Lundey said. "Today a cog railway or tramway often could be used in place of roads, especially at Yellowstone."

The tour, which began with trips to the Canadian parks, ran into bad days early in the United States, with Yellowstone a notable example.

Tocher said, "almost uniformly believed Yellowstone National Park was incredibly dismal. The commercialism—seemingly rampant—to them after the restricted control village approach in Canada."

Egannu Ornilo, Tupolia, Finland, said, "Dr. Lundey was certainly right about the roads. There were major roads, minor roads, connecting roads, all sorts of roads. There was commercialism and lack of planning."

"There were more visitors than there was nature," the young Finn added.

"But, after those last days in southern Utah, Colorado, and Arizona," Tocher said, "we wound up real strong. These were the best days of the tour for everyone."

Earlier in the tour, one administrator had exploded, "All the average American thinks of now is Friday night and how the hell to get out of the area he's in."

"You see," Tocher said, "while the 'Ugly American' is fiction, the concept is useful. But I am resigning because of the ultimatum.

The peace march was signed to protest military training on the Laramie campus.

Former Burley City Employee Files For Councilman Post

BURLEY — Ted Smith had filed his petition for one of three city councilman posts with the City Clerk's Office. A mayor and three councilmen will be elected in the Nov. 4 city election.

Mr. Smith was born in 1931 in Burley, grew up in Burley and graduated from Burley schools.

During the Korean War he served two years in the 82nd Airborne Division. After being discharged from the service he was employed by the Bureau of Reclamation and the Bureau of Land Management for 10 years.

He has been employed by the City of Burley for the past three years as power use advisor. Recently he resigned from the city post to operate Teds Insulation for home and commercial buildings.

"I feel that as a former city employee I have inside knowledge of city operation and could serve my community as a city councilman," stated Mr. Smith.

"I believe that city councilmen should study and investigate all topics and projects thoroughly before making a decision, even if it called for a topic to be tabled until the next council meeting, before a council vote is taken," Mr. Smith said.

He is a member of the Burley Lions Club and is presently serving on the board of directors for the club.

Ex-Burley Cleric Quits Guard Post

BURLEY—Rev. George Quarterman, Episcopal chaplain at the University of Wyoming at Laramie, and former Burley Episcopal minister, has resigned from the Wyoming Air National Guard.

He resigned because of what he calls "intimidation in connection with a peace demonstration last spring. Rev. Quarterman, who was the Episcopal minister at Burley from June, 1963, to December, 1966, said the state's adjutant general, Maj. John R. Carson, told him: "If you participate in the peace march, you must resign the Guard."

The Rev. Quarterman, 35, was a captain and chaplain in the Air Guard.

He said he turned in his resignation after several telephone conversations with his commander.

The clergyman did not participate in the May 8 peace march on the University of Wyoming campus. He said, however, "My reasons for not participating in the march had to do with other church matters and not the ultimatum. I am not refusing to participate because of the ultimatum. But I am resigning because of the ultimatum."

The peace march was signed to protest military training on the Laramie campus.

No Authority

BOISE (UPI) — A so-called "wild card bill" enacted by the legislature did not give the state finance commissioner authority to raise bank interest rates, an attorney general's opinion said.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Richard Greener wrote Finance Commissioner John D. Silva the new law gives him discretionary power to allow state banks to engage in operational activities allowed national banks.

He said that "operational activities" does not mean the power to increase interest rates and that state usury laws still apply.

There were more visitors than there was nature," the young Finn added.

"But, after those last days in southern Utah, Colorado, and Arizona," Tocher said, "we wound up real strong. These were the best days of the tour for everyone."

Earlier in the tour, one administrator had exploded, "All the average American thinks of now is Friday night and how the hell to get out of the area he's in."

"You see," Tocher said, "while the 'Ugly American' is fiction, the concept is useful. But I am resigning because of the ultimatum.

Dear Abby

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Sometimes I suspect that in order to check on your readership, you deliberately give a stupid answer just to see how many protests you will receive.

Well, I strongly protest your answer to "MRS. FUNNYNAME," who asked her husband to change his name to something more acceptable, but he wouldn't allow it. Instead of giving her some encouragement you sided with the husband, saying, "He's the one who has the last word, so why fight it?"

I have been a school teacher so I know how a comic or witty-sounding name can humiliate a child. How sad to think that a man would handicap his children thus.

Please change your answer, Abby, and encourage her husband to think of his children.

MRS. H.J.K. of L.A.

DEAR MRS. H. J. K.: Had "MRS. Funnyname" asked me if he should change his name because it was a source of embarrassment to his family, I'd have encouraged him to do so. But "MRS. Funnyname" wrote to say that her husband was "proud" of his name and refused to change it (which is, of course, his right), so since he had already turned a deaf ear to his wife's pleading, I say, skip it. Her husband DOES have the last word.

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a divorcee and I want to marry her. She says she loves me, too, but she doesn't want to get married again. Her reason: If she marries, it will end her alimony checks, which are considerable.

I am not a rich man, but I could support her well enough.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Frank Tarcento hit Joe Morrison for a 26-yard touchdown pass with only 59 seconds to play Sunday to give New York a 28-24 victory over the Chicago Bears after the Giants held down a 14-point halftime lead.

Chicago had gone ahead for the first time in the game, 24-21, only a minute and a half after the first half with a 25-yard field goal.

But Tarcento, who had capitalized on three Chicago errors—the first with a pair of TD passes to rookie end Don Herrmann and another to tight end Freeman White.

Surging Rams Coast Past Saints 36-17

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Roman Gabriel threw three touchdowns—passes to Jack Snow and a fourth to Bill Truax Sunday to give the Los Angeles Rams a 36-17 victory over the New Orleans Saints and their third straight National Football League win.

The underdog Rams, who had lost their first three league games, made a battle of it for the first half and trailed by the score 17-0 at the intermission.

Bill Kilmer, the much-harassed Saints' quarterback, threw touchdowns passes to Dan Abramowitz and Andy Livingston.

Hill Guides Dallas To 38-7 Romp

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Calvin Hill, the muscular theology student working on the premises it is more blessed to give than to receive, contributed 206 yards to the Dallas offense in the first half Sunday and set the pace for the Cowboys to whip the Philadelphia Eagles 38-7.

The big back from Yale, off to a flying start as a rookie, outdrew the Eagles after the home team scored first and was the big lift which sent the Cowboys off to their third straight victory behind a three-touchdown passing show by quarterback Craig Morton.

Hill ran 91 yards from scrimmage, including a 53-yard touchdown dash on speed and power in the second quarter, caught three passes for 71 yards and threw a 42-yard pass during a Cowboy touchdown drive.

50-1 SHOT WINS LONGCHAMPS, France (UPI)—Levmoss, a 50-1 outsider, held off Park Tap in the stretch to win the $363,000 Prix De L'Arc De Triomphe Sunday by three-quarters of a length.

On the other unusual play, rookie placekicker Tom Dempsey from California's Palomares Junior College booted a 55-yard field goal for the Saints. It was only one yard short of the NFL record of 58 yards set by Bert Rechichar of the Baltimore Colts against the Chicago Bears in 1953.

Hill graciously contributed a 36-yard pass to Lance Rentzel with a fumble on the four yard line which bounded into the Eagles' end zone where the Cowboys' wide receiver recovered for the tying touchdown in the first quarter.

Lions Edge Past Cleveland 28-21

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Mel Farr and Nick Eddy outplayed the Detroit Lions' back advantage of a bad pass from center on a field goal attempt, a fumble recovery and an interception to rally from a two-touchdown halftime deficit and defeat the Cleveland Browns, 28-21, Sunday.

The Browns took a 21-7 halftime lead on two 23-yard touchdowns—passes from Bill Nelson to Gary Collins—which came within 30 seconds of the end of the first half and which both followed Detroit fumbles. All but one of the seven touchdowns in the game—followed turnovers and the game was marked by numerous penalties and fights.

Decler took it on the chin 25-12 in its second game of the season at Shoshone. It should be a high-scoring battle, with the accent on putting the ball in the air.

Orioles Take Twins In 11 By 1-0 For Commanding 2-0 Lead

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Dave Boswell, knocked out by manager Billy Martin in a July brawl, was lifted by Martin in the 11th inning Sunday and Curt Motton greeted his successor with a single that gave the Baltimore Orioles a 1-0 victory over the Minnesota Twins in the American League playoffs.

Boswell, who allowed seven walks and was constantly in trouble but managed to blank the Orioles until Motton decided to pull him in favor of Ron Peranski with two out and two on in the 11th inning.

'FOUR ACES' WON FIRST SPINGOLD

Jim: "It was wonderful for you and mother to win the Senior Championships at the Summer Nationals."

Oswald: "And very appropriate, too, since 'The Dallas Aces' consisting of you, Bobby Wolt, Bob Hamman, Mike Lawry, Billy Eisenberg and Bob Goldman took home the Spingold Cup."

Jim: "Didn't your team 'The Four Aces' win it the first time it was put in competition?"

Oswald: "Yes, but it was much easier then. There were only 30 teams entered then, as against 140 this year. Incidentally, I am delighted with your success. Now I can really retire from the very tough team competition and watch your team take over."

Jim: "I hope we can. It will be quite a task to match your seven wins, including four with 'The Four Aces.' How about a hand from the first Spingold?"

Oswald: "The Four Aces" included Dave Bruce, Mike Goren, Howard Schenck and myself. We added a fifth young player named Charles Goren that year. I played with Charley and his grand slam helped him win his first national title.

Jim: "The bidding looks like expert modern style. It is interesting to see you found the spade suit. The hand makes seven spades but only six hearts."

Oswald: "There wasn't much difference between the 1936 Four Aces' system and Standard American. I had to ruff drawing trumps in order to ruff out Charley's third club. Then I got rid of my losing diamond by his fourth trump—and his losing diamond on my fifth heart. Incidentally, the few times we have played together, Charley and I have had no bidding problems."

Jim: "I should say so! I hope that 'The Dallas Aces' will all bid as well as you and Mr. Goren bid that hand."

Girls Who Tint Their Hair Prefer Not To Be Blonde

With those girls who tint their hair, you would think blonde would be the most popular. At Q. "WHAT DOES YOUR Planet man say about Leo girls?" A. He says—they're responsive. Extraordinarily responsive.

DECISIONS — Who makes most of the decisions around your place, you or your partner? Let's say one of you is pretty talkative, the other a strong, silent type. Here's a researcher who says the factious boys are glibly "adequate" to give all the judgment and authority to a close-mouthed hero. They say one man in four said yes to a lady one man in eight says yes to the same question. . . .

A GARDENER of lengthy experience says he keeps the neighborhood dogs from ruining his flora by hanging stacks of Bull Durham here and there on the yard shrubs. "Dogs hate the smell of tobacco," he contends.

FAT VEGETARIANS — Have you ever seen a fat vegetarian? That's what I asked. "Yes, indeed, writes a Tacoma, Wash., client, "the Doukhobors, 10 or 15 Russian cultists who live in Canada, are vegetarians. And that's some vegetarians are fat is apparent to anybody who has ever watched the Doukhobors parade in the nude."

CUSTOMER SERVICE Q. "What's the most dangerous year of marriage?" A. Our Love and War man's file contains the notion that most couples who call it quits do so in their second year of marriage. . . . O. on his red long johns. Printed "HOW MANY MEN were in Fidel Castro's original revolution— was a sensation.

"Let's not read the fairy tales tonight—they may be OK for you but they give me nightmares!"

Burley Credit Women Hear About U.S. Money Problems

BURLEY — Reed Starley, an official of the Idaho Bank and Trust Co., was guest speaker during the luncheon meeting of the Credit Women International at Nelson's Cafe.
Money problems in the nation was discussed by Mr. Starley. The nation has approximately $10 billion on gold, but on the other hand has over $30 billion in debts, reported Mr. Starley. He called for control and balance, with more selling than buying. He said the dollar is decreasing in value at the rate of five to six per cent per year. Gold was priced at $35 per ounce in 1939 and the selling price remains at that same price today.

Mr. Starley deplored the worth of paper money, questioning the real value of such a commodity. However he said, "we accept it without any question." The practice of printing paper money commenced in 1640 when the King of England had spent all of the nation's money for his own personal debts, and had money printed to clear up the matter.
"We all spend money faster than we make it, including the government," Starley stated. "We all should learn a little more about our country and where our money's going," he added.
Mrs. Ralph Butters introduced Mr. Starley. Mrs. Fern Peterson gave the invocation.
A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Joan Dickson president. It was announced that the installation banquet will be at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 16 at Nelson's Cafe.

Trial Begins In Moslem Mosque Fire

JERUSALEM (UPI) — An Australian sheepshearer pleaded innocent today to setting fire to a Moslem mosque, an incident which brought Arab cries for holy war against Israel.
But a three-judge tribunal allowed as evidence an earlier confession of the crime.
"I got up in the morning, went out and burned Al Aqsa Mosque," the police deputy quoted Dennis Michael Rohan, 26, as telling police who questioned him when he was arrested.
Gen. Melr Shamgar, whose assistant prosecutor, Gabriel Bach, helped prosecute Nazi war criminal Adolf Eichmann eight years ago, asked police deputy David Ofer to read to the court a confession police said—Rohan gave them after the Aug. 21 fire in the Israel-occupied East Jerusalem.
The trial, in a hall for chamber music, opened under security precautions nearly as tight as those for Eichmann.
