Accidents Concern Governor

BOISE (UPI) — Gov. Don Samuelson told his statewide safety conference today that Idaho needs more state patrolmen to help prevent fatal accidents on the highways.

Samuelson said if the fatality toll continues at its present rate more than 200 persons will have died from traffic accidents this year.

That, he said, would be the equivalent of wiping out the total population of such towns as Declo, Firth, Idaho City, Melba, Midvale, Murtaugh, Roseland, White Bird or Worley.

"I am convinced as I stated to the last legislature that we need additional state patrolmen to work our highways and provide the necessary deterrent to give us more instant highway safety results," he said.

"Other states will be adopting highway policing forces find this a remedial solution to reducing death and accident rates.

He said Idaho also must take some other steps, including a revised driver licensing program. He said a study has shown that Idaho is grossly deficient in many areas with our antiquated driver licensing function.

Projects include upgrading the training and requirements of ambulance drivers and attendants, an inventory of roadside hazards, and various speed limiting devices to assist undermanned state police forces.

Driver retraining and rehabilitation courses are in the offing, Samuelson said.

BRITISH TROOPS STAND behind wrecked cars in Shankill Road district of Belfast, North Ireland, Sunday after night of rioting. Three persons were killed and more than 50 were wounded in fresh fighting when a mob of several thousand militant Protestants attempted to storm a Catholic apartment. (UPI cablephoto)

Troops Push Back Irish Protestants

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (UPI)—British troops fired volleys of tear gas bombs Sunday night and early today in pushing back 1,000 militant Protestants who hurled bricks in two attempts to march on a Roman Catholic neighborhood.

The fighting broke out in the Shankill Road area, where a night of disorders Saturday left three dead and 66 injured. No injuries were reported in the violence Sunday and this morning.

Snipers fired sporadically at the troops. The soldiers had orders to fire if fired upon but none of the snipers could be located.

The crowd of Protestants chanted "Soldiers out!" and "British army go home!"

They referred to the 600 paratroopers flown in Sunday to put down the demonstrators, which brought to more than 8,000 the number of British troops stationed in Northern Ireland.

The weekend violence followed the government's announcement that Northern Ireland's Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC) would be disbanded and the predominantly Protestant B-special reserve police eventually would be abolished.

The changes were recommended by a special government commission investigating the August riots that killed 10 persons and injured hundreds.

Soviets Put Third Manned Spacecraft Into Earth Orbit

By DUSKO DODER

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union put a third manned spacecraft into earth orbit today and now has seven men orbiting the earth in three Soyuz space vehicles in a reported attempt to build the first permanent space station.

Soyuz 8 with two experienced cosmonauts aboard roared aloft at 1:28 p.m. Moscow time (6:25 a.m. EDT) to join Soyuz 6, launched Saturday with two men, and Soyuz 7, which went up Sunday with three men aboard.

to new mineral wealth in the vast, barely explored regions of the Soviet Union.

The cosmonauts put into orbit today were space veterans Col. Vladimir Shatalov and Alexei Yeliseyev, a civilian, who were made heroes of the Soviet Union when they transferred from Soyuz 5 to Soyuz 4 last January.

Shatalov, 41, grew up in Yelena, 8.

The Russians gave almost American type television coverage of these space flights although they ran tapes of the events some after launches instead of filming the launches live.

There was speculation in Moscow two of the orbiting Soyuz craft would be linked together in the first space welding and would remain in orbit as a space station supplied from earth by satellites.

The Soviet space launching program would remain aboard was not known.

The Tass news agency said that in addition to space research the three ships would be used to compile geological maps of the earth's surface and oceanic, indicated the geological-geographic work would be concentrated on seeking clues to the development appeared certain to provide ammunition for both sides of the Haynesworth debate. Supporters of the President have argued to emphasize the fact the endorsement was renewed; detractors to claim the new allegations presented to the committee were sufficient to cause some lawyers to change their minds.

The result will have an impact on the senators who still have not decided how they stand on the issue. The latest UPI poll indicated there are 25 senators who are uncommitted or unwilling to express their views, in addition to 40 who oppose the nomination and 35 who support it.

Plans for Wednesday's nationwide moratorium to protest the Vietnam War solidified today but so did growing opposition to the demonstration.

The President Nixon already has said that "under no circumstances will I be affected whatever by demonstrations against the war. However, he plans to clarify and presumably soften those remarks made at a press conference.

Controversy Rises Over Haynesworth

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An American Bar Association committee has thrown the Supreme Court nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynesworth Jr. into new controversy by failing to reach a unanimous agreement on Haynesworth's qualifications.

The 12-member committee on the federal judiciary did reaffirm its support for Haynesworth but where the vote was unanimous when it was first given Sept. 19, the latest vote was 11-1.

Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York, running in a tough re-election campaign, said Sunday he was proclaiming Wednesday a day of observance as part of the moratorium. He said flags would be flown at half-staff and church bells would toll at noon in the nation's largest city.

But Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said "I am not in favor of the moratorium because it is directed as a protest toward

Cambodian Border Area Is Bombed

SAIGON (UPI)—Eight flights of B-52s bombed along the Cambodian border Sunday night and today despite reports that the United States had ordered a cutoff in their raids in response to the July 11 Communist attacks.

Official sources said Sunday the President ordered a 10 percent reduction in Stratofortress strikes to show the Viet Cong military officials that the Communists are training for more attacks. The officials said today the toll could continue another month before the guerrillas are ready.

Famous Skater, Sonja Henie, Dies Sunday Of Leukemia

OSLO (UPI)—With her dimpled smile and her flashing skates, the little Norwegian blonde in the fur-trimmed skirts helped America forget the great depression.

Millions knew Sonja Henie for her starring roles in such movies as "One in a Million" and "Sun Valley Serenade" than for her 10 world figure skating titles, including three Olympic titles.

Miss Henie, 57, died Sunday night of leukemia in a special ambulance plane between Paris and her home of Oslo. She had been in Paris with her third husband, Nils Onstad, when her condition worsened and doctors decided to take her home for treatment.

Dr. Torjus Moe of Oslo said she died of leukemia after a year's affliction.

Miss Henie was born in Oslo on April 8, 1912, and at the age of eight was given a pair of skates for Christmas. The next year she won the city of Oslo skating title and when she was 11 the national championship.

She paid her own way to the 1924 Olympics and placed last. She sold later the judges could not take her seriously because she was only 12. By 1928, she was the world champion.

She won every world title until 1937 then turned professional, became queen of the ice extravaganza.

She made her last movie, "The Count of Monte Cristo," in 1948 and retired. She died of leukemia until the mid-1950s.

Protesters Repulsed At Ft. Dix Base

FT. DIX, N.J. (UPI)—Nearly 8,000 civilian demonstrators stormed Ft. Dix Army base Sunday but were repulsed by tear gas and bayonet-wielding military policemen.

There were no injuries or arrests in what one of the organizers called a "perfect demonstration." Spokesmen promised a larger demonstration if the protesters involved in a stockade riot last summer.

The demonstrators—mostly militant college students from Philadelphia and New York representing 29 organizations—protested the arrests of 38 enlisted men charged with masterminding the June 5 stockade riot. Shouting "Power to the people" and "Free the PTs," thousands of demonstrators broke through the ranks of 1,000 military policemen to get onto the mammoth post. They were driven from the installation within half an hour.

Minidoka Certifies County Tax Levies

RUPERT — This year's Minidoka county tax levies have been certified by the board of county commissioners, according to county clerk August Bethke.

In releasing the figures, Mr. Bethke noted the county stayed within the 104 per cent increase limit set by House Bill 103, with the exception of the hospital levy, which will amount to $38,000.

The commission, however, obtained a court order for the levying officials.

The Twin Falls Planning and Zoning Commission will make recommendations tonight on the proposed zoning for areas under study for annexation to the city.

The commission will meet in regular session at 8 p.m. in the city hall. It will consider recommendations made during a public hearing Friday on the zoning matters.

The recommendations will then be presented to the Twin Falls City Council at its next regular meeting Oct. 20.

Lennon Slay Suspect Kills Himself

SONORA, Calif. (UPI)—The man who killed the father of the singing Lennon sisters has been found shot to death in a bizarre suicide in a remote area of California's gold country, according to Tuolumne County authorities.

"It was not easy to walk three hours to kill Bill Lennon," Chet W. Young said in a letter found in his car 23 miles northwest of here. "I should have finished myself off two months ago."

Lennon, 54, was shot Aug. 14 while leaving the Marine Del Ray Golf Range in Southern California, where he was an instructor.

Clifford Willard D. Sandella, 38, Alameda, Calif., shot himself about Oct. 5 after an unsuccessful attempt to take his life by asphyxiation. His body was found by deer hunters Saturday.

Sherrill's relatives found a package in Young's car containing a letter, a picture of Lennon and his four daughters, and news clippings about the girls and the fatal shooting of Lennon.

One letter was addressed to Peggy Lennon and the other to "To Whom It May Concern." The one to Lennon said "I'm the only thing. I have no friends, if anybody tells you that you go to hell."

Japanese Officials To Visit Idaho

BOISE (UPI)—Idaho will be one of six states to host a group of Japanese governors and vice governors who are scheduled to arrive in Boise next Saturday.

Gov. Don Samuelson said Frank Ogami, prominent Japanese-American Welfare resident, has been appointed as co-chairman of arrangements for the visiting officials.

During the afternoon the delegation plans to visit Amalgamated Sugar Co. at Nampa, a Simplot processing plant and a canteen.

The guests will be honored at an evening dinner and plan to leave Boise on Monday.

Court Will Study Welfare Ceiling

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court agreed today to study the question of whether states may establish a ceiling on welfare grants to poor families.

Arguments will be heard next time this term in the case, which deals with a $250-a-month maximum imposed by Maryland on grants to families with dependent children.

A special three-judge federal court in Baltimore invalidated the limitation on Dec. 13, 1968, Maryland Atty. Gen. Francis B. Bowers appealed to the Supreme Court.

Opposition To Moratorium Urged Here

An appeal for everyone to fly the Stars and Stripes Wednesday to show their opposition to the planned Vietnam War moratorium was made Monday by Ray Crandall, commander of VFW Post 2138.

"This is in the spirit of patriotism," Mr. Crandall said. "It is a way we can show there are more patriotic people than there are un-patriotic ones."

He also urged all members of veterans organizations to wear their group pins on Wednesday.

"This is my own appeal," Mr. Crandall said, "but I've talked with a number of members of our VFW post and they all agree heartily in favor of this move."

Solons Hope To Keep 40th Session Brief

By RICHARD CHARNOCK

COLEUR D'ALENDE (UPI)—Legislative leaders are hopeful that they can keep the second regular session of the 40th Idaho Legislature a brief one, but are uncertain whether they can do it.

Five Republican leaders from the House and Senate and two Democratic legislators yesterday discussed session objectives and other legislative session at an informal session of the night following a legislative council meeting.

Rep. William Lanting, R-Holt, House Speaker and co-chairman of the council, said he felt it would be his mistake for the lawmakers to meet for 75-80 days next year. At their first session this year they went 74 days.

He said if the 40th session should be longer than 60 days, "the sorry they passed the 1968 constitutional amendment" in 1968 which provided for annual instead of biennial sessions.

"But when he and other leaders discussed how the session might be shortened, they were in a difference of opinion. Some felt restrictions— even elimination of personal bills at the second session— might help. Others felt restrictions on the individual legislators could lead to slowdowns.

House Majority Leader Terry Crapo, R-Idaho Falls, said he felt the "mental attitude" of the legislators themselves would control the length— if they are in the mood for a short session it will be short.

Sen. James Ellsworth, R-Leandor, Senate president pro tempore, suggested perhaps both houses look into setting up committees to act on legislation and establish priorities for action.

"Rep. Harold Snow, R-Moscow, said the House majority leader agreed. He said the first regular session of each legislature could be wide open and the schedule could be governed by a sitting committee.

To help speed up action at the forthcoming session, he said, Ellsworth discussed the possibility of getting the legislators to submit their personal legislation for processing before the session begins.

"At the informal discussion, the lawmakers also debated whether they should go to an interest-free, under the budget direction of the 1971 session.

Sugar Beet Truck Checks Are Planned

Trucks hauling sugar beets in Magic Valley will be checked for weight limit violations by Idaho State Police at best dumping sites, Lt. Dean Bennett said Monday.

Amalgamated Sugar Co. has agreed to the State Police using the firm's scales at the dump sites, Lt. Bennett said. This will eliminate officers having to set up check points on highways and delaying trucks en route to the dumps.

Lt. Bennett said periodic checks will be made at sugar beet dumps and that trucks also will be checked for defective equipment during these times.

Father Groppi Will Appear In Court

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Father Groppi, arrested, freed and re-arrested, faces another appearance in court today.

Groppi was scheduled to appear before Milwaukee County Court Judge F. Ryan Duffy in a hearing to determine whether the priest had violated terms of probation set for him in February, 1968.

Groppi was taken to the Milwaukee County Jail the day after he was released from the Dane County Jail in Madison on a $500 signature bond. Groppi had signed a signature bond with U.S. District Court Judge James Doyle, who ruled the military priest could be held on bail.

Doyle's decision followed more than a week of legal work by Groppi's attorneys to free him from a jail term imposed by the federal government.

Groppi led 1,000 persons protesting welfare cuts in a 10-hour takeover of assembly chambers Sept. 20.

Red Peace Talks Team Slams Nixon

PARIS (UPI)—To the woman who led the Vietnam peace talks team, President Nixon's promises to end the war in Vietnam are no different than those of former President Lyndon B. Johnson made a year and a half ago.

She reassured the Communist demand for a total U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam and that the peace talks were fighting until they were given a part in a cessation of hostilities in Saigon.

A revolutionary since she was the 1954-55 member of the Viet Cong "foreign minister" and comfortably on her living room sofa Sunday, she said she was reaffirming her hardline position.

Nixon To Discuss Protests

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon, launching a peace offensive of his own, plans to clarify and presumably soften his recent remarks about the war's "unwinnable" nature.

The White House said a announcement on the moratorium July demonstrations would be forthcoming.

On Sept. 26, at his last news conference, the Chief Executive was asked for his reaction to the demonstration of opposition planned for Wednesday.

"Under no circumstances will I be affected whatever by demonstrations against the war," Nixon responded.

Since the press conference statement, White House aides have been busy privately to what he said was a mistake to infer from those remarks that the President was indicating how America was trying to make, aides argued, that the administration was totally committed to peace, had worked out a contract of "retreat" designed to bring about that peace in an orderly manner, without a resounding bloodbath, and that Nixon was "convinced" the strategy would work. What he could say, they said, was a show of unity in the country.

Question ...

(Q) Is there any difference between a Memorial Service and a Funeral Service?

Answer ...

(A) Not too long ago the terms were interchangeable.

With the advent of Memorial Societies the term "Memorial Service" has come to have a different meaning.

A funeral service is still a religious ceremony in a church or Mortuary with the body present and followed subsequently by burial or cremation.

A memorial service is defined by the Association of Memorial Societies as the occasion for a religious observance or a philosophical meditation. This service is held after the body has been cremated and is usually held some place other than the church or Mortuary.

Bursar At University Faces Suit

MOSCOW (UPI) — A suit charging Joseph W. Watts, business manager and bursar at the University of Idaho, with "non-feasance" for alleged refusal to allow a student to view certain records of the school has been filed in Second District Court.

John Orwick, Moscow, alleged that Watts refused on two occasions to allow him to inspect the financial records of the university which are in the bursar's custody.

Orwick said this was contrary to the Idaho code which provides that public records of the state are to remain open to inspection by any resident of the state during office hours.

Orwick claimed he tried to inspect university records concerning the dormitory fund, the Wallace Complex project, a student bookstore, the agricultural experiment station and the extension service, but was refused by Watts who said he was under orders from the board of regents that only the board could release the information.

Ashe and Charles Izatt, 23, Logan, Utah, have been involved in several disturbances in the county jail in the past few weeks, the latest last Monday night when they allegedly set two fires in the building, tore loose a sink and broke windows and doors before being subdued by deputies.

They return to the coastal site at dawn each day just like suburbanites going to work.

New Evidence Indicates Leif Ericson Found America Long Before Columbus

United Press International

The nation pays honor to Christopher Columbus today — three days after a presidentially proclaimed Leif Ericson Day, which probably is as it should be.

Latest historical findings give evidence that Viking Ericson discovered America nearly 500 years before Columbus landed in the New World.

Researchers now credit Ericson with putting ashore in the Cape Cod area sometime in August or September of the year 1000. And even before Columbus reached San Salvador on Oct. 12, 1492, two other Viking voyagers were firmly believed to have set foot on the American continent — Leif Erikson, Thorwald, and Torfinn Karlsefni — who took his long ships up Hudson's Bay and as far south as the Chesapeake Bay.

The seafaring exploit by Columbus is not to be belittled. The Italian mariner had the boldness and the geographic perception to ignore Middle Age fears that a ship would fall off the edge of the world if sailed westward from Europe. He believed the impossible that the earth was round.

He persuaded Queen Isabella of Spain to bankroll him in the belief that he could find a quicker sea route to the wealth of the Orient and India by sailing beyond the Canary Islands.

Lack Of Land Curbs Growth Of Housing

By NORMAN KEMPSTER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's largest producer of manufactured housing believes assembly-line techniques can make it possible for millions of low and middle income families to buy homes of their own.

But James R. Price, chief executive officer of National Homes Corp., recently told a congressional committee that a shortage of suitable land stands in the way of major prefabricated home development.

Price's company, and several similar firms, produce modular houses on an assembly line much the way autos are put together.

A housing module is a room or several rooms complete with plumbing, wiring and other necessary finishing.

The modules are wrapped in plastic at the factory and delivered to the lot where they are joined together to form a rambler or two-story house.

"The scarcity of suitable housing sites for low- and middle-income housing is the first important bottleneck to meeting the housing goal," Price recently told the Senate Housing Urban Affairs subcommittee.

Continuous Art Exhibit At YMCA Is Unique Activity

An art display of 24 entries now hanging at the Magic Valley YMCA is art of a continuing show the likes of which Chet Bartlett, executive director of the YMCA, has never seen before. Mr. Bartlett, who has been involved with "Y's" in other cities, noted the wall hangings at the Twin Falls facility are highly unique. He said normally buildings are hung with stuffy portraits of past greats in American or "Y" history. The 24 paintings in the current show aren't all "greats," but they are colorful and add a bright and interesting touch to the decor of the building. Most of the paintings are submitted by amateurs, but an occasional professional painter from the area does submit a painting in the show. The display is changed every Thinning box office receipts, not movie censorship, will mark the end of bottomless, topless, thoughtless films, Valenti predicted.

Panama Coup Is Third For Arias

By WILLIAM H. GORISHEK PANAMA, R.P. (UPI)—Last year on Oct. 11 National Guard troops closed Tocumen International Airport, silenced radio stations and sent troops into the capital city—in surplus—U.S. military trucks. President Arnulfo Arias was "at a cocktail party with a U.S. military officer attached to the embassy. He sent that officer to the embassy to see if U.S. intelligence sources knew what was happening. The 5,000-man guard had deposed Arias in a silent and bloodless coup. The 61-year-old surgeon slipped into the Canal Zone with his entire cabinet and asked asylum. Ten days later, disenchanted because Uncle Sam would not back him in a counter coup by letting him use a military airplane to fly in guns nor allow him to broadcast over a clandestine radio station in the zone, Arias flew to Washington in a U.S. Air Force plane. It was the third time in his attorney political career that the guard had toppled Arias from office.

Neal S. Barth Is Named As Director For Little Theatre Group's First Production

Director for the first dramatic production of the newly organized Little Theatre Group of Twin Falls, will be Neal S. Barth. He will direct "The Mousetrap" by Agatha Christie, a popular mystery, with a sense of humor. Auditions for the production will be held Monday and Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Presbyterian Church of Twin Falls.

Mr. Barth has long been affiliated with theatre productions and has a Master's Degree in arts received earlier this year from Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah.

A graduate of the Twin Falls High School in 1955, Mr. Barth received a bachelor of science degree at BYU in 1964 and returned, after serving as a U.S. Navy pilot, to complete his masters degree.

Having been active in Dilettante and Children's Theatre in Twin Falls in previous years, Mr. Barth has performed in more than 55 productions.

These include a number of BYU Drama Department productions, summer stock and on tour. Productions included "Charley's Aunt," "My Three Angles," "The Mousetrap," "Death of a Salesman," "Blithe Spirit," "Darkness At Noon," "Taming of the Shrew," "Julius Caesar," "Othello," and many others.

He performed in summer stock at Ledges Playhouse, Grand Ledge, Mich., and toured the Far East with the USO in "The Man Who Came To Dinner" in 1964. Mr. Barth also served as director of the BYU Touring Repertory Theatre in 1968. He has also taught school for two years in Los Angeles and was soloist with the Naval Aviation Cadet Choir. The local resident, now employed on the staff of Radio Station KTFI, also sang in several musical productions with the Dilettante group and appeared on the Steve Allen Show, sang and escorted during the Miss Universe program and participated in the Memphis Cotton Carnival.

He said he looks forward to directing the forthcoming production for the Little Theatre Group.

It is still playing in London, having started in 1952 in the West Side area of that city and has set a record there on continuous performance," Mr. Barth said.

It is one of a number of prominent mysteries written by Agatha Christie, but when it was written the authoress had little hope for it. In fact, the director explained, she gave her nephew all rights to the play and he is now comfortably wealthy—from this production alone.

Mr. Barth and his wife, formerly Kris Call, Twin Falls are the parents of two sons.

Pope Claims Bishops Hold Solution

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope Paul VI said Sunday the world Synod of Bishops holds the key to the solution of all "the grave and numerous problems" confronting the Roman Catholic Church.

The pontiff spoke to an unusually large crowd of 30,000 Romans and pilgrims gathered in St. Peter's Square for his Sunday blessings.

A few hours later the square beneath the Pope's apartment was the scene of a shouting and showing match between rival groups of Catholic liberals and conservatives. Police made no attempts to intervene and there was no indication the Pope was aware of the incident.

The rioting started when liberal Italian students sat down on the cobblestones after distributing handbills complaining the voice of the people was not being heard at the Synod. Conservatives began heckling them and there were some acts of fistfighting. However, both sides contented themselves with shouting at one another. "Long live the Pope," the conservatives chanted. "Clowns, clowns," the liberals yelled back.

Jews Deny Nomination Opposition

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Jewish Congress denied Sunday that it opposes the Supreme Court nomination of Clement F. Haynsworth because he would occupy the coveted seat committed to the organization's governing board, said the group's opposition to the nomination was based on Haynsworth's "judicial philosophy" and criticized Sen. Ernest A. Hollings, D-S.C., for "injecting the Jewish question" into the debate.

"We reject the concept of a 'Jewish seat,'" Poller said in a telegram to Hollings released by the American Jewish Congress to the idea that the sole qualification for the Supreme Court shall be merit.

In his statement, Poller referred to newspaper accounts quoting Hollings as saying that Jewish circles were raising serious issues, including the "Jewish question," in the Haynsworth debate.

Wants To Retire

NEW YORK (UPI)—Henry Cabot Lodge, the chief U.S. delegate to the Paris peace talks, wants to retire from public life, Time magazine says it has learned.

Only the fear of embarrassing President Nixon prevents the veteran diplomat from doing so, the magazine reports in this week's issue. As last week's session in Paris "ended on the same note of stalemate in the House of Majestic," the magazine says, "one thing was plain: Lodge, 67, longs to retire from public service."

Broadcasters Plan To Run Antismoking Ads After Cigarette-Advertising Curtailed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—To preclude even harsher government restrictions on cigarette advertising, to give tobacco firms a $220 million financial windfall for use in diversification, and to squelch commercials warning that cigarettes can kill.

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has ordered all stations which broadcast cigarette ads to also air the antismoking messages.

Cigarette industry leaders have privately condemned the health commercials as a prime factor in a "slight drop in per capita cigarette consumption 1.5 a year. Some said broadcast advertising was no longer worth the cost since it reaped commercials knocking the product.

Train-Car Crash Kills Nine People

MEADVILLE, Pa. (UPI)—Nine persons, all riding in a compact sedan, were killed Sunday night when a Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad freight train plowed into their auto at a crossing.

Eight of the victims died in the accident and the ninth died a short time later at a hospital. State police said the bodies were scattered over the tracks. Only three of the victims were immediately identified. They were the driver, Hue; D. Hamrick, 39, of Conneautville; Lutz Schrader, 34, of Conneautville; and Franklin C. Monts, 23, of Saegertown. Police said the other victims ranged in age from 5 months to 14 years.

The accident occurred at a marked crossing in Conneautville, about 15 miles from here in northwestern Pennsylvania.

Neil Armstrong Speculates On Logical Soviet Procedure

BONN (UPI)—Construction of a space platform by Soviet cosmonauts currently orbiting the earth would be the next logical step in Moscow's known program, American astronaut Neil Armstrong said Sunday.

Armstrong made the statement when he and fellow moon walker Col. Edwin Aldrin Jr. appeared at a news conference in the West German capital.

A few hours earlier, Moscow announced that Soyuz 7 with three men aboard had joined Soyuz 6 and its two-man crew in orbiting the earth.

"Building a space platform would be in keeping with their inventive and hard-working program—in operation at this time," Armstrong said in reply to a question about Russian intentions.

He said welding in space is technically possible and the United States has included experimenting with an electronic beam welding gun in its space program for 1973.

Armstrong, Aldrin and Col. Michael Collins arrived here Sunday from Oslo aboard one of President Nixon's jet planes.

A crowd of about 3,000 caused a traffic jam around the airport where they gathered to greet the astronauts. Another crowd of about 7,000 jammed city Hall Square in Cologne and an estimated 0,000 awaited them in Bonn's Beethoven Hall.

More Troop Cutbacks Are Foreseen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., predicted Sunday that President Nixon will respond to increasing impatience with the Vietnam War by announcing "substantive cutbacks in U.S. Vietnam troop strength before the end of 1969.

Without the cutbacks, he said the Nixon administration could expect another confrontation like those which plagued the Johnson administration.

Brooke declined in an interview to say how many troops would be withdrawn because he serves on the Armed Services Committee. He did say in some information and I think I had just better stand with just substantive troop withdrawals rather than give an interview.

"The troop reductions would begin in December and generally continue right into 1970. And who knows, as he (Nixon) has said, he may very well be able to disengage prior to the end of 1970," Brooke added.

Newsweek Story Hit By Goldwater

NEW YORK (UPI)—Newsweek magazine said Sunday Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., asked President Nixon to withdraw the nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth to the Supreme Court, Goldwater said the story was "in God-damn lie."

The magazine said Goldwater telephoned Nixon and said: "Mr. President, I am getting telephone calls from people in my state who are upset by the Haynsworth nomination. Some of them are so conservative they think I'm a socialist."

Goldwater said he would like to withdraw the nomination, Goldwater said, according to the Newsweek story, "I think I've got to have a strict constructionist on the court but why must we be embarrassed?"

Goldwater told UPI Sunday the article was "in God-damn lie" and "about us twisted around a story on I've ever heard."

Early Winter Storm Hits Midlands

By United Press International

An early winter storm dumped snow and rain on much of the nation's interior today, blocking roads, snapping power lines and causing some flooding in the Midlands.

Clear weather prevailed over the nation's periphery from the Pacific Coast along the Southwestern States to the Atlantic Seaboard.

Heavy wet snow of up to 12 inches bogged down residents of Northeast Colorado and Western Nebraska. In Colorado, snow spread into the Upper Mississippi Valley today and heavy snow warnings were posted from Northwest Kansas through Nebraska and South Dakota to the northwest half of Minnesota.

Torrential rains, with reports of up to 10 inches in Oklahoma, continued south of the snow belt.

Cleaver Asks Soviets To Fight U.S.

MOSCOW (UPI) — Eldridge Cleaver, the fugitive minister of information of the American Black Panther party, says the Russians ought to provide nuclear weapons for the fight against the United States in Vietnam.

—He said he was speaking as a member of the world communist movement.

Cleaver, 34, stopped off in Moscow recently, on his way to Algiers, where he has been given asylum by the Algerian government, after attending an international conference of journalists on the tasks in the fight against U.S. imperialism, which was held in Pyongyang in North Korea.

Cleaver said he spent a month there.

His traveling companion was Bron V. Both, an escaped convict who is wanted in the Jan. 28 hijacking of the American Airlines Los Angeles to Miami Super DC-8.

Both, 24, and Clinton R. Smith, both identified themselves as escapers from the California Institute for Men, allegedly used four sticks of dynamite in an empty cigarette carton to hijack the plane with 25 passengers and a crew of seven to Havana. The two were serving terms for first degree murder.

Cleaver is wanted on a charge of assault and attempted murder stemming from a shooting between Black Panthers and Oakland, Calif. Police and the FBI are searching for him on a warrant charging him with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. He disappeared Nov. 27, 1968.

Although he claimed he was happy in Algiers, he has been described as a haven for refugees belonging to the revolutionary and national liberation movements, he insisted, he had not relinquished American citizenship.

"My home is still at 2277 Pine Street, San Francisco," he said, "and I fully intend to return there."

Miss Silvers, Eacker Wed

MURTAUGH — The United Methodist Church was the scene of a candlelight service, Sept. 22, which united in marriage Shirley Kathleen Silvers and Paul Duane Eacker, twin girls.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Delbert Remaley before tall beauty baskets of apricot-colored gladioli and gold pom-pom chrysanthemums tied with apricot-colored satin bows. Candelabra of lighted tapers were in the background.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Silvers, Murtaugh, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Eacker, Twin Falls.

Mrs. Kent Davis and Mrs. Eugene Syverson sang a duet, accompanied by Gordon Graff who also played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess styled floor-length gown of white tulle with long sleeves and a skirt of scalloped empire length gown of white peau de soie. The lace jacket was of scalloped empire length with long, long-point sleeves and a rounded neckline clipped along the pattern of the lace and buttoned down the back. The gown and veil were styled and made by the bride.

Her bouffant veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a pearl ornament of an anchor made of lace with seed pearl accents. Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations centered with apricot-colored ranunculus and tied with white rose streamers.

She wore a necklace fashioned with a pearl and gold and a gold cross, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried out the bridal traditions and carried a white linen handkerchief with a gold edging made for her by her maid of honor.

Janey Goodman was maid of honor, and Wilma Silvers, sister of the bride, and Mrs. James McGill, Twin Falls, a college classmate, were bridesmaids.

Gene Deer, Twin Falls, served as best man, and the groomsmen were Robert Beer and Steven Eacker, brother of the bridegroom, Twin Falls. Ushers were Dana Silvers, brother of the bride, and Jack Eacker, Kimberly, and Arthur Eacker, Twin Falls, brothers of the bridegroom.

A reception was held in the church basement immediately after the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered with a white organza, flounce and draped along the edge with apricot-colored net. The four-tiered wedding cake, decorated in white with apricot-colored roses and white carnations, was topped with three white satin bells backed with an arch of hearts. Candelholders of white anemone and pink gerbera and apricot candles flanked the cake.

The quartet guest tables were covered with gold and apricot-colored taffeta and centered with brandy snifters holding single gladioli flowerettes.

Mrs. Marvin Sheridan, Twin Falls, aunt of the bridegroom, who baked and decorated the cake, also served it. Mrs. Marlon Hansen, Burley, cousin of the bride, served the punch.

Terri Fix, Twin Falls, attended the guests book and giftbearing were Janice McCord, Wendell, cousin of the bride, Carol Laitimer and Judy Goodman. Gifts were displayed by Mrs. Roy McCord, Wendell, cousin of the bride, Susan Hogue and Linda Huey.

Mrs. Harold Menger, Mrs. Wayne Hogue and Mrs. Robert Howard, members of the Women's Society of Christian Service, assisted at the reception.

After a wedding trip to North Idaho and into Montana, the couple reside in Twin Falls where both are employed.

Bridal showers were given for the bride by Janey Goodman and Linda Huey; Faye Peterson and Deanna Egbert; employees of The Paris Co. and by Dorothy McFaulen, Linda Eacker and Janice Eacker.

Guests attended the wedding from Wendell, Jerome, Buhl, Twin Falls, Murtaugh, Burley and Coocletto.

Miss Eichelberger, Hildreth Exchange Nuptial Promise

Rev. Marjory Young performed the double ring ceremony before background setting of tall pedestals of gold pom-poms, burnt orange chrysanthemums and green gladioli. The couple repeated vows under an archway of burnt orange candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length princess-styled gown of white satin, trimmed with lace flowers and seed pearls. The gown was designed with long, broad point sleeves and a flowing train of satin. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion, with lace flowers was attached to a headpiece of lace petals and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of orange and gold chrysanthemums and roses.

Carolyn Veeder, Jevome, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Almya Jackson, Ohio, and Pat Akers, Logan, Ohio. Barbara Stutzman was flower girl. Taper lighters were Carol and Mary Ann Hildreth, Hansen, niece of the bridegroom.

Guests were greeted at a reception immediately after the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a gold cloth overlaid with a white tablecloth. Silver candelabra held orange tapers and flanked the white wedding cake which was trimmed with orange flowers, green leaves and white bells.

The bridal table was covered with a lace cloth over gold. Sixteen candles with an orange rose decorating the top and French illusion flowing over the candle trimmer. The table was decorated with the table. Two fall centerpieces of white and gold flowers, furnished by Mrs. Kenneth Snyder, decorated both the serving table and the bridal table. The bridal corner was trimmed with gold, orange and green streamers.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Truman Clark, sister of Mrs. Hildreth, and Mrs. Gerald Hildreth, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Mrs. Floyd Miller served punch and Mrs. George Hildreth, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, poured coffee. Assisting at the bridal table were Shirley Stutzman and Bonnie Miller. Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: In the 25 years "Tina" and I have been married, he has gained and lost the same 90-pounds—at least five times.

Each time Tina has a weight loss he is so proud, he treats himself to a new wardrobe. But he doesn't wear it long because he puts the weight back in no time.

He has two closets filled with practically brand-new suits to fit a 150-pounder, a 190-pounder, a 220-pounder, and right now he is wearing suits to fit a 250-pounder—because that's what he weighs!

When I tell him I want to give away some of those suits he's had hanging in his closet for 15 years, he blows his top. I think it's a crime to let perfectly good suits hang there when somebody could get some use out of them. The same goes for shirts and shoes. What do you think? TINY'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I'm with you. Call the GOODWILL INDUSTRIES and let them pick up Tina's "outgrown" wardrobe. Their resale shops put money back into the GOODWILL organization whose policy it is to employ the handicapped, and teach them to recondition furniture, appliances, and clothing, thus becoming employable, self-respecting wage earners. Now if they're more important than hoarding clothes (that are going out of style anyway) I don't know what is!

DEAR ABBY: This is to "FAITHFUL READER" who thinks he is possibly the oldest person ever to write to Dear Abby:

You say you will be 81 in September? Well, I was 81 in August, so stop your bragging young fellow. I have written to Dear Abby several times over the years and listen to her on CB radio—nearly every morning.

The lady never came. Sincerely yours, "81," WASHINGTON, D.C.

DEAR "M.D.": Thank you for your warm letter. I see by your signature that you are a doctor. You could make me give up eating apples.

DEAR ABBY: The other night my husband and I were invited to his mother's house for supper. My husband's brother and his wife were also invited and they were there when we arrived. My mother-in-law had the table set with her good china and silver.

Just as we were about to sit down, my sister-in-law got up and she and her husband had to leave without eating.

All of a sudden the good dishes and silver disappeared, and ON went the chipped, old everyday stuff!

I felt like I'd been slapped in the face. If you had been in my place, what would your feelings have been? SIGN "NOBODY"

DEAR NOBODY: I'd probably have felt like "disappearing" with the "good dishes and silver."

TV Season Deemed 'Ghastly'

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Perfection in show business until now has been attainable, but the new television season is the zenith.

It is, in all respects, perfectly ghastly. There is not a single flaw in the purity of the claptrap beamed into the homes of innocent viewers.

Shows are unique in their resemblance to all that has gone before. One would suspect an enormous consistency among producers, writers, directors, actors and networks to drive viewers away from their sets—indeed, out of their homes and into the streets to escape the 25 or so "new" dramas, comedies, musicals and other disasters.

CBS-TV must be deemed least culpable of the three networks if only because it presented the fewest number of new shows—six.

NBC-TV insulted set owners with seven. ABC-TV dropped enough bombs—11—to wipe out Ohio.

A national poll doubtless would find "The Brady Bunch" the most dismal of the lot, followed closely by "The Courtship of Eddie's Father," "The Survivors," "Room 222" and "Bracken's World."

Princess Anne Of Britain Prepares For Social Whirl

LONDON (UPI) — How's this for an embarrassing moment: You are dancing with Britain's young Princess Anne and she stops short. The band stops playing immediately — that's Royal protocol.

In the silence the Princess's voice rings out: "Look here! Are you afraid of me? No? Well, for pity's sake, get hold of me properly then!" How do you feel?

A shy young man who actually went through this experience isn't available to tell. His name is secret in royal circles where the story is told merely to illustrate that the 19-year-old princess likes to be given a strong lead on the dance floor and isn't happy about being treated "as if I'm made of glass."

The princess is getting ready for a spot of dancing with young army officers who can be counted upon not to be too tentative when she flies to Germany Oct. 29 to spend two weeks with the 14th/20th Kings Hussars of the British Army of the Rhine. She is colonel-in-chief of the regiment which is stationed at Paderborn.

By coincidence the 150-year-old prediction journal, "Raphael's Prophetic Almanac," has just announced in its 1970 edition that Princess Anne is likely to marry an army officer in 1971.

The princess is said to have giggled at the prophecy. The only army officer among her escorts at the moment is her second cousin, 25-year-old Prince Michael of Kent.

Princess Anne is taking her first official military duties outside London very seriously. There is the important question of choosing suitable clothes for the various ceremonies and parties. For the inevitable Hussars parade, the princess must wear a color that will not clash with the uniforms and flags and is therefore sticking to the traditional colors.

Amendments to the annual uniform adjustments to insure that all taxable property is assessed at 20 per cent of market value by 1982.

Remove the 30 mill limitation on maintenance and operation levies in local school districts.

Eliminate the 4 per cent revenue increase limitation on school districts.

House Minority Leader Ed Williams, D-Lewisville, asked if the committee wanted to eliminate the 4 per cent revenue increase ceiling only on the school districts or repeat it for all taxing units.

Sen. Nels Solberg, D-Grangeville, said the committee felt it could not go beyond the school districts.

Driver, Late For Work, Has Crash

GOODING — A driver who told officers he was late for work struck a large truck head-on near Gooding Saturday, but no injuries were reported.

Sheriff Earl Brown said Charles E. Williams of rural Gooding was cited for basic-rule violation after he struck a Wycoff truck near the packing plant Saturday morning. The driver of the truck, who was unidentified, struck Sheriff Brown, had halted at an intersection stop sign when the truck was struck by Williams' car.
