Germany Endorses Atom Pact

BONN (UPI)—Chancellor Willy Brandt announced today the West German cabinet had voted unanimously to instruct Bonn's ambassadors in Washington, London and Moscow to ratify the treaty banning the spread of nuclear weapons. The ambassador in Moscow was the first to act.

Ambassador Helmut Allardt signed the document in a ceremony in Spiridonov House, a foreign ministry reception center in Moscow, shortly after Brandt made his announcement.

The West German ambassadors in London and Washington were expected to sign the treaty before 12 noon EST.

The signings were ordered to take place before the close of business today, Brandt said, making West Germany the 25th nation to approve the pact. Another 18 still must carry their ratification to obtain the 43 signatures required to put it into force.

The United States and the Soviet Union ratified the treaty Monday, some seven years after negotiations on it first began.

A West German government statement said it was signing "in the expectation that the treaty will be a milestone on the path to disarmament, international relaxation and peace."

In ordering the treaty signed, Brandt's government overrode opposition demands that it first reopen negotiations with Moscow.

"We have not signed this treaty prematurely," the chancellor said.

Brandt said the government would delay asking Parliament to ratify the treaty until a satisfactory arrangement for verifying compliance has been worked out between Euratom, the atomic organization of the common market countries, and the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA).

Germany and other West European members of Euratom want it to carry out inspections of their nuclear installations on behalf of the IAEA, which was assigned to police the treaty.

North Viets End Barrage Of U.S. Camp

SAIGON (UPI)—North Vietnamese troops today completed a 120-round mortar, rocket and artillery barrage into the Green Beret camp at Bu Prang in opening the second month of their offensive along the Cambodian border.

For the U.S. and South Vietnamese defenders at Bu Prang, it was the heaviest overnight shelling in 11 days and one of the heaviest of the daily bombardments that began 31 days ago. No one was killed.

The shelling of Bu Prang was one of 32 overnight salvos against allied targets. Headquarters reported generally light fighting across the war zone.

No Joke!

MONTFERRY, Calif. (UPI)—A rookie Monterey policeman put on a show Thursday worthy of any of the silent screen's "Key-stone Kops."

The officer—whose identity was mercifully withheld by his colleagues—pulled over a traffic violator and leaped from his patrol car in his eagerness to give the man a ticket.

When he discovered he had left his citation book in the patrol car, he walked back and also found he had left the keys in the ignition and locked the front doors. The police man decided to let the erring motorist off with a warning.

Then he climbed in to the back seat and tried to reach through the wire grill to unlock a front door. The policeman closed the back door to prevent an oncoming car from hitting it—and discovered he'd locked himself in the prisoner section of the car.

The officer used a portable walkie-talkie to call the chief of police, who drove down and released him.

on earth. Intrepid landed about 600 feet from Surveyor, proving the possibility of pinpoint navigation in space travel. Note the ebony-black sky—eternally black from the airless surface of the moon. (NASA photo via UPI telephoto)

Apollo Crew Nears End Of Sea Voyage

ABOARD USS HORNET (UPI)—Apollo 12's crewmen end the longest part of their long journey, a sea voyage of almost 5,000 miles at 28 miles an hour, with a Hawaiian welcome today at Pearl Harbor.

Charles "Pete" Conrad, Richard F. Gordon and Alan L. Bean must receive their welcome to U.S. soil in isolation, however, taking out the crowds and banners and honored speakers through a sealed glass window.

All three spacemen are living in isolation inside a cramped quarantine trailer aboard this old aircraft carrier, which picked them up after splashdown in the South Pacific Monday.

Thanksgiving was a day of work—a traditional turkey dinner, clowning and football for the men who made America's second moon landing last week.

The astronauts let a spokesman reveal they had sent a telegram to the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, wishing the cadets a victory over Army Saturday in Philadelphia when the two schools meet in their traditional gridiron rivalry.

Surprised Geologists Note Difference In Moon Rocks

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Geologists found the moon still is full of puzzles and surprises when they opened the first rock box filled by Apollo 12's astronauts and discovered stones bigger and higher-colored than those returned by Apollo 11.

Today they opened the second box from Apollo 12, a more carefully collected selection believed to contain 12 to 15 1/2 sample boxes, was seven inches long and weighed more than four pounds. The first case was opened Wednesday night and geologist Jeffrey Warner said its samples appeared medium charcoal-brown-gray, in contrast to the dark gray of the moon rocks gathered four months ago.

One rock, a crystalline chunk that delighted geologists when they peered into the first Apollo 12 sample box, was seven

Labor Woes Beset Europeans, British

By United Press International

Mounting labor problems beset Italy, France and Britain today, with economic experts predicting the possible downfall of London as one of the world's major seaports if a longshoremen's strike there continues.

Thousands of metalworkers converged on Rome to demand more pay. French students organized a march to protest educational cutbacks and in Britain, 200,000 teachers threatened to close down schools for the rest of the year.

Striking metalworkers from as far away as Turin and Milan agreed to a police appeal to move their demonstration out of the heart of Rome and to march along the Tiber River to a rally at the Piazza del Popolo to prevent traffic jams and possible violence downtown.

In Britain, Mrs. Barbara Castle, the minister of productivity, appealed to striking longshoremen Thursday night to lift their 22-month strike at London's Tilbury container terminal. The dockworkers struck first for higher wages, won those demands but then held out for more pay for other British longshoremen.

Two corporations representing Britain's nine biggest shipping lines said they would move to Belgium if the strike at Tilbury was not settled soon. Economic experts said this could ruin London as a major port.

Viet Losses Near Toll Of World War I

By United Press International

SAIGON (UPI)—The number of Americans killed or wounded in nine years of fighting in Vietnam surpassed 300,000 this week and is approaching the American casualty total for World War I.

Official U.S. records show that as of last Saturday, 39,572 GIs had died in Vietnam and 258,778 had been wounded—a total of 299,697.

American military sources said today that fighting across South Vietnam since Saturday has cost the United States at least 309 dead and wounded, pushing the losses for the war above 300,000.

The sources said that if this rate of casualties continues, the Vietnam war will surpass World War I by April, 1970, and become the second costliest foreign war America has fought.

Official records show 320,710 U.S. casualties in World War I—116,708 killed and 204,002 wounded.

TO NAME BISHOPS VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope Paul VI announced Thursday he has begun work on carrying out one of the promises he made at the World Synod of Bishops last month, naming 15 residential bishops from around the world to work on the agenda for the next synod.

Israelis Attack Egypt Near Suez; 'Word War' Flares

By United Press International

Israeli warplanes attacked across the Suez Canal into Egypt today as if in retaliation for cross-canal raids by Egyptian jets Thursday which triggered a lengthy aerial dogfight.

Egypt said one of the Israeli planes was shot down by anti-aircraft fire; Israeli said all the planes returned safely to base.

At the same time a new Arab-Israeli war of words flared over the Arab guerrilla bombing of the Israeli airline office in Athens, with Israel accusing the Arabs of a worldwide campaign to kill Jews and destroy Israel. A military spokesman in Cairo said the Israeli jets attacked positions at Fayid overlooking Bitter Lakes south of Ismailia and at Agrad near Suez City.

"They were engaged by our anti-aircraft weapons which hit one plane. It was seen falling in flames on the eastern (Israeli occupied) bank of the canal," the spokesman said.

The military command in Tel Aviv said the warplanes began their 30-minute strike at midnight today, hitting unspicified Egyptian military targets in the central sector of the Suez Canal.

All the raiders returned home safely, the announcement said. These raids followed the fourth Egyptian cross-canal air strike of the month Thursday; Israeli interceptors who challenged the raiders came away shot down, Cairo reported the loss.

The Cairo command described its air raid as one of the biggest since the 1957 Middle East War. Flying low, the raiders hit their targets with "great precision, destroying them and setting them ablaze," its announcement said.

On the ground, Israeli troops reported two overnight clashes along the frontier with Jordan, one involving heavy artillery and Israeli ground-to-ground missiles. Four Israelis were reported wounded.

The Arab guerrilla bombing of the El Al Airline office in Athens left two persons critically wounded, one of them a 2-year-old boy whose family was waiting in the office for a flight to Canada.

From Amman, Jordan, the guerrilla Popular Struggle Front claimed credit for the bombings, saying it was necessary to "hit the Zionist-imperialist enemy everywhere and widen the area of confrontation."

3 T. F. Boys Survive Cold Night On Ledge

Three Twin Falls boys who spent the night on a ledge in the Snake River canyon walked out to safety Friday morning and, except for being a little hungry, were none the worse for the experience.

The boys, Ron Luker, 12, and John Luker, 14, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Luker, and Jim Williamson, 14, had gone to the north side of the canyon about 2 p.m. Thursday to hunt birds.

Lynn Williamson, brother of Jim Williamson, also was with the group. He became separated from the other three boys, however, and walked out of the area prior to nightfall.

The elder Luker boy said the trio had started up the north side of the canyon wall as night was falling. They became stranded on a ledge about five feet from the top, and were not able to climb off of it until daylight.

"The rocks were slick and we kept sliding back down," John said, "and we couldn't see what we were doing."

The boys were observed by Sheriff's officers just moments before Sheriff Paul Corder was to meet a helicopter on the north side of the canyon and begin searching the area.

None of the boys was warmly clothed. They were wearing only light jackets or hooded sweat shirts over their regular clothing and they had no matches to build a fire. Thursday night was the coldest of the season, with temperatures hovering just over 10 degrees.

"Next time we go, we'll take some matches," John said. "We are a little bit hungry, but we all ate big dinners yesterday," he added.

Twin Falls County officers, Idaho State Police and the boys' parents spent the night searching the canyon area, firing periodic shots in an attempt to attract the boys' attention.

"I used up all my shells firing back," John said. "We could hear them, but I guess they couldn't hear us."

The ledge on which the boys spent a cold, fitful night was just east of the Perrine Memorial Bridge, several miles to the west from where the boys started their hunting excursion. John said it "must have been about 8 p.m." when they crawled up a crack in the canyon wall and found themselves on the ledge.

"We could get on to the ledge," he said, "but we couldn't get back down and we couldn't go up."

When daylight came, the boys crawled off of the ledge to the top of the canyon wall. They then crossed the bridge and were at about the intersection of U.S. Highway 93 and Blue Lakes Boulevard North when officers found them.

A helicopter from Reeder's Flying Service was called into the search early Friday, but the helicopter pilot, Lavern Haney, had to come from Boise: It was about 8:45 a.m. when the helicopter arrived at the canyon, as the boys walked to safety.

James Williams, power plant operator for Idaho Power Co., said the two were found in a rocky area where they had decided to spend the night, as searchers combed the area downstream from the Shoshone Falls power plant.

Friends of three other missing youths located the two about a quarter of a mile below the plant and apparently thought they were the youths who had been reported lost.

Mr. Williams said he called the parents of the other boys and advised them their sons were safe, then later found out the two were from an entirely different hunting party.

An Idaho Power Co. boat brought the Omelia and Cochran youths to the power plant where they were taken to the top of the canyon.

Mr. Williams said they were "awfully glad to be rescued, even if they were the wrong boys."

He said it was about 10 p.m. when the two were taken from the canyon.

Highway Toll Hits 301 As Two More Die

By United Press International

Two more persons died in Idaho traffic accidents Thursday, raising the state's death toll for the year to 301—25 more than a year ago at this time.

Latest victims, whose deaths brought the Thanksgiving Holiday toll in Idaho to two, were Linda L. Jones, 17, Boise, and Denny L. Timonen, 24, Coeur d'Alene.

Still another person, Rose McLinn, 78, Emmett, remained in critical condition at St. Luke's Hospital in Boise from injuries received in a Payette County accident early Wednesday.

The Jones girl died Thursday night when a car driven by Larry G. Ricketts, 19, Boise, went off highway 21 about 24 miles north of Boise and plunged into Mores Creek. Ricketts received less serious injuries but was hospitalized in Boise.

Timonen died Thursday night when the car he was driving went off a slow curve on U.S. 95 six miles south of Naples at high speed. The car careened off the roadway for 394 feet before coming to rest on its top against a telephone pole.

State Police said Timonen and a passenger were thrown from the vehicle.

DENVER (UPI)—Negotiations were to reconvene today as the Denver School Board and Denver Classroom Teachers Association (DCTA) attempt to settle a strike which has idled some 2,000 of the city's 4,300 teachers since Nov. 17.

Officials said Thursday 78 of the 117 schools in the district were open, but operating on limited schedules. Other schools will open Monday even if the strike is not settled, school officials said.

Too Sad

LONDON (UPI)—A local pub owner has banned Saturday night folk-singing sessions because they make his customers too sad.

"They weren't drinking any beer. I think I may start country and western nights instead," the owner said.

Films Show Lunar Dust May Pose Problems On Landing

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Engineers today examined dramatic movies of the swirling dust storm Apollo 12 kicked up on the moon. It may point to new problems for astronauts trying to land on hard-to-reach stretches of lunar terrain.

The startling footage was shot by Apollo 12 astronauts Charles "Pete" Conrad and Alan L. Bean as their landing craft Intrepid dodged craters and descended to a billowy touchdown on the moon's Ocean of Storms last week.

The dust kicked up by the exhaust from Intrepid's descent engine appeared first as a light haze. But it grew quickly into a raging storm that masked the lunar surface as the pilots performed their most critical maneuvers.

During the final seconds before the landing, gray dust was blown with tremendous force across the crater-pocked surface.

The 240-foot film clip was released by the space agency Thursday. It also showed Conrad walking stiff-legged on the surface and a spectacular view of the earth eclipsing the sun and the resulting rainbow of hues.

It was the eclipse scene that Bean said was more fantastic than the moon.

Also released were 15 still photographs, four in color, snapped during the astronauts' 32 hours on the lunar surface.

Nation Enjoys Fair Weather

By United Press International

Across much of America the second day of the long Thanksgiving holiday weekend started fair and dry, although the weather was on the cold side across much of the nation. Precipitation was limited to the deep South and to the lower Great Lakes region. Hazardous driving warnings were in effect today in parts of New Mexico and west of the Pecos in southwestern Texas.

Occasional snow and some sleet fell throughout the warming area. During a six-hour span an additional inch of snow fell on El Paso, Tex., where at least a two-inch snow cover was reported.

Weather Synopsis

High pressure continues to dominate the Northwestern plateau and the northern Intermountain area. Storm systems from off the Pacific Ocean are being pushed northward into Western Canada and across the Canadian Rockies before dropping southward into the Northern Plains states.

Dry and cool weather will prevail throughout the valleys of South Idaho and East-Central Oregon. The high temperatures today and Saturday will range in the 30s and 40s throughout the valley areas and the lows at night from slightly above zero in the higher valleys of the Upper Snake River to the teens and low 20s elsewhere. The daytime temperatures Sunday may be slightly warmer.

The extended outlook for the next five day period Saturday through Wednesday indicates that temperatures will average near normal. No precipitation is anticipated.

Impact Of Bridge Load Limit Studied

The Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce is collecting data on the effect load restrictions on Perrine Memorial Bridge has on local business firms, according to Ray Rostron, chamber manager.

Mr. Rostron said a number of firms have responded, but the chamber hopes to collect considerably more information. The businesses were asked to submit facts and figures on anticipated increased operating costs, additional mileage trucks will have to travel, etc.

The information, when compiled, will be given to the city highway advisory commission, which will, in turn, present the facts to the Idaho Department of Highways.

Jean Miller, city engineer, said the highway board will be meeting Dec. 10, and he hopes to have a representative at this session to make a presentation.

Magic Valley Obituaries

Funeral Services

William Hanchev, 11 a.m. Saturday, Calgary, Pennsylvania Church. Friends may call at Twin Falls Mortuary.

Mrs. Durall

FAIRFIELD — Mrs. Beatrice Irene Durall, 63, wife of former Camas County school superintendent Harry Durall, died Thursday at Glens Ferry while en route from a Twin Falls hospital to a Boise hospital.

She was hospitalized Wednesday from a sudden illness. Death was attributed to a massive stroke.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler, pioneer residents of Camas prairie, and was born Oct. 23, 1906, in Pullman, Wash., moving to Camas prairie with her parents in 1907.

She attended schools at Minard and Fairfield, graduating from Gooding High School and the College of Idaho, Caldwell.

Mrs. Durall taught in both high school and elementary school in Fairfield.

On March 30, 1929, she was married to Harry Durall. They lived in Meridian for five years before returning to Fairfield. She was the editor of the Camas County Courier for several years and belonged to the Eastern Star and the Methodist church.

Survivors include her husband, one son, Max Durall, Anchorage, Alaska; one daughter, Mrs. Tom (Barbara) Cox, Steve, Ark.; one sister, Mrs. Gladys Youell, Bend, Ore., and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be announced by Thompson Funeral Chapel, Gooding. The family suggests memorials contributions to the Idaho Youth Ranch as a favorite charity.

Roy Bullen

BURLEY — Roy N. Bullen, 51, former hotel and restaurant operator in the Burley-Rupert area, died Tuesday in the Ogden, Utah, hospital.

He was born March 7, 1915, in Logan, Utah, and on Feb. 28, 1950, he married Shirley Day, in Elko, Nev. Mr. Bullen formerly managed the Ben Lomond Hotel in Ogden, the National Hotel in Burley and Cousin Roy's Restaurant in Rupert.

At one time he managed the air terminal coffee shop at the Salt Lake City International airport. He was a former member of the Ogden and Burley Rotary Clubs and the Ogden Jaycees.

Several years ago Mr. Bullen was named the outstanding man of the year in Ogden. He was a World War II veteran. Survivors include his widow, Ogden; two sons, Roy G. Bullen, and Joseph D. Bullen, both Ogden; two daughters, Mrs. Linda Neeson Goleta, Calif., and Mrs. Nan Hutchins, North Brook, Ill.; mother, Salt Lake City; three brothers, Charles Bullen, Logan; David Bullen, San Francisco; and Robert Bullen, Walnut Creek, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Rulon Johnson, Wilmington, Del., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Larkin Chapel of the Dawn, Ogden. Final rites will be held in the Logan City Cemetery. Friends may call at the Larkin Chapel Friday evening and Saturday prior to time of services.

High Stakes

ASHTON, England (UPI) — Housewives here are going to play a "grumpy" football match against their husbands, and the stakes are high.

In case of a female victory, the husbands will do the housework and pay for a night out for their spouses. But if the husbands win, they will have unlimited permission to play Saturday golf and the wives finance a night out at a strip club.

Texas Women To See Reds On Captives

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Two U.S. Air Force wives from Texas will meet with Hanoi diplomats in Stockholm Saturday to try to find what happened to their husbands who are missing in North Vietnam, their spokesmen said today.

Murphy Martin of television station WFAA in Dallas, Tex., said Mrs. Bonnie Singleton, 27, and Mrs. Paula Hartness, 30, both of Dallas, would see North Vietnamese charge d'affaires Nguyen Dinh Thanh in the Hanoi embassy.

Swedish Premier Olof Palme promised the women Thursday he would try to use his nation's offices in Hanoi to find out about their husbands.

Winter's Coming Everywhere Else, But It's Growing Season At CSI

THE "PROCEED TO WORK" order has been given on two building projects at the College of Southern Idaho. Approval of a bid by Nelsen and Miller Construction Co., Twin Falls, was given this week by the Office of Education and the Department of Housing and Urban Development, which are financially participating in the projects. Shown here, looking from the top of the Shields Academic Building, is the site of the commons, where ground was broken earlier this month. The commons, which will include student union, library and administration facilities, and a coeducational dormitory will be the newest buildings on the growing campus.

SPRINGING FROM THE TURF at the College of Southern Idaho is the new health-PE building, which is constructed partially below ground. The building, one of three now under construction on campus, is scheduled for completion next year. The three new buildings will bring the total on campus to six. Present structures are an academic building, a fine arts center and a maintenance building. Jones-Fehlberg Associates is the architectural firm, which has designed the campus master plan. The health-PE building will include a gymnasium, locker rooms, offices and instructional areas. Arrington Construction Co., Idaho Falls, is contractor.

Pope Says Changes In Mass-Ritual Aimed At 'Jolting Lazy Churchgoers' Out Of Habit

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope Paul VI said this week that his reform of the mass was not a departure from Roman Catholic doctrine but an attempt to jolt lazy churchgoers out of their "habitual slumber."

The pontiff, speaking at his weekly general audience, defended the new mass against conservatives who threatened to boycott churches in protest when the reform goes into effect Sunday in Italy, the first country to adopt it. The new mass, made shorter by cutting the length of offertory prayers and communion, will come into general use throughout the Catholic world within the next two years. Catholics in the United States will begin using it during Lent next year.

Idaho Attorney General Files Suit Against Plumbing Firms

BOISE (UPI)—Idaho Attorney General Robert Robson Wednesday filed an anti-trust suit against eight plumbing manufacturers in the U. S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Robson is joining with other states in bringing the civil suit and seeks treble damages when the state is able to show its dollar losses as a result of what he alleges are damages through a "conspiracy."

The case is an outgrowth of a federal case brought against the defendants and others in October of 1966 in U. S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

suit were American Standard, Inc., Kohler Co., Crane Co., University-Rundle Corp., Rheem Manufacturing Corp., Borg-Warner Corp., Wallace-Murray Corp. and Briggs Manufacturing Co.

The attorney general alleged the defendants at meetings of the Plumbing Fixtures Manufacturers Association agreed to raise prices, to limit discounts, to discontinue the lower priced regular enameled cast iron plumbing fixtures, to issue price sheets and bulletins at staggered times, and further "discussed deviations from prior agreement and agreed to meet from time to time in order to insure the effectiveness of their illegal combination and conspiracy."

"He alleged in his complaint the defendants used the office of the secretary of their association to coordinate "these conspiratorial" activities and to maintain a line of communication. The attorney general alleged that "the aforesaid combination and conspiracy has unreasonably restrained interstate trade and commerce in several ways."

Postoffice Being Built At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — The new Postoffice building for Shoshone progresses toward the completion date of Jan. 1, according to Postmaster William Haux. The brick building measures 71 feet on West A Street and is 57.8 feet deep. There are 3,668 square feet in the building. The postoffice parking area will accommodate 11 cars, besides the street parking.

The owner and contractor for the building is Marvin Pierson, Gooding, who purchased the land from the Legion post here and from Dr. Clinger, Gooding. There are four lots included. Pierson will be leasing the building to the Postal department.

Gina Fends Query From Newsmen

NEW YORK (UPI)—When she arrived at Kennedy Airport from Rome Wednesday, Italian actress Gina Lollobrigida was confronted by reporters who wanted to know: Is your wedding to George S. Kaufman off?

"You're too curious," Gina replied coyly. She got into a limousine and left. Reports circulated in New York Wednesday that the 41-year-old beauty and American businessman Kaufman, 42, had called off the Dec. 20 wedding.

Leon Pickett Heads Idaho Roads Group

BURLEY — Leon Pickett, Murtaugh, was elected president of the Idaho Association of Highways and Good Road districts during the annual convention at McCall.

Other officers also from Magic Valley include Alvin Neddo, Malta, vice president, and Jeanette Chamberlain, Burley, re-elected secretary-treasurer. They will each serve two years. Directors of the state group include Roy Bodine, Post Falls; John Hartle, Hayden Lake; Ralph Olmstead, Twin Falls; W. C. Egan, U. E. Wilson, Jerome; Sylvester Libby, Nez Perce, and C. Cash Harper, Nampa. Mr. Pickett is seeking re-election.

DISSENER SENTENCED MOSCOW (UPI)—Army Capt. Genrikh Altunyan, a Soviet dissident who once signed a petition to the United Nations, has been sentenced to three years imprisonment, informed sources said Thursday night.

Dogs To Die

LONG BINH, Vietnam (UPI) — The approximately 1,000 scout and sentry dogs now serving alongside U. S. troops in Vietnam will have to be killed once they outlive their usefulness because of a mysterious blood disease.

U. S. Army veterinarians who made the disclosure today said more than 40 per cent of the sentry and scout dogs in Vietnam are afflicted annually with the often fatal disease.

The affliction is known as ideopathic hemorrhagic syndrome and its symptoms include bleeding through the eyes, nose and other body openings, in internal organs and even under the dog's skin.

Catholic Nun To Speak At Farm Meeting

BOISE — Sister M. Thomas More, head of the history department at Holy Family College, Mannville, Wis., will be a speaker at the Idaho State Wheat Growers Association convention in Boise next week.

ISWGA president Lyle Smith, Felt, said Sister Thomas More has been lecturing to agricultural groups for about three years on unity among farm organizations as a necessary first step in the formulation of realistic agricultural policy. In 1962, she completed a study for the U. S. Department of Agriculture on national farm organizations.

Sister Thomas More holds MA and PhD degrees from Catholic University, Washington, D. C., in history. In the last two years she has addressed many agriculture groups, including the National Federation of Grain Cooperatives, National Institute of Animal Agriculture, National Turkey Federation and many others.

Defense Agency Verifies Names Of Prisoners

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department Wednesday verified the names on a list of U. S. Air Force and Navy air personnel which the North Vietnamese are reported to claim as prisoners of war.

The list released in Chicago by David Dellinger and Rennie Davis, leaders of the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, gave 59 names. The Pentagon said it previously had listed 54 as captives and five as missing, but refused to identify any in either category or to furnish their hometowns.

Marine Drill Sergeants Punished For Mistreatment Of Recruit With Fatal Kidney Ailment At Parris Island

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (UPI)—Two sergeants were stripped of their drill instructor status at Parris Island training center Wednesday when an investigation revealed they had mistreated a Marine recruit who had a fatal kidney illness.

The Marine Corps said the actions of Gunnery Sgt. J.L. Payne and S.Sgt. G.G. Thompson, however, in no way contributed to the death of 18-year-old Pvt. Stephen E. Melson of Millsboro, Del. Melson died in South Carolina Medical University Center Hospital Sept. 21 of chronic kidney failure.

The investigation showed there was evidence that drill instructor personnel and other recruits harassed Melson. Payne, in addition to losing rank, was ordered to forfeit $300 for violating guidelines. A third instructor was cleared in the case.

Marine training guidelines were overhauled 13 years ago following the so-called "Marine death march" through tidal swamps surrounding the training installation. The 1956 march led by Sgt. Matthew McKeon resulted in the deaths of six recruits. Under the guidelines, a drill instructor is forbidden to touch a recruit except to adjust his uniform or correct his position. Payne was alleged to have grabbed Melson by the shirt and jerked him into an upright position. Thompson, said to "have used poor judgment in dealing with Melson," is alleged to "have pushed the recruit" causing him to lose his balance and fall into a sitting position in a chair in a classroom.

A few days before he died, Melson told his mother and physicians he had been beaten and kicked by drill instructors. The corps denied the instructor hit the youth but said it reprimanded several recruits for improper conduct toward Melson. Melson enlisted in the Marine Corps Sept. 2 Five days later, while undergoing processing for the training program, he was admitted to the U.S. naval hospital at Beaufort, S.C. He was later taken to the university hospital for treatment by an artificial kidney machine.

Marine spokesmen said Melson had some physical problems without having the disease detected.

Sister Thomas More's speech to the Idaho wheat growers will be during the luncheon session on Tuesday at the Downtowner, Smith said.

Off And On

By turning the cyclamate spigot off and on, the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare is confusing everyone, from the manufacturer of low calorie foods to the public. If the original action was valid, it is difficult to follow the reasoning behind the department's actions in recent days. When HEW Secretary Robert Finch announced the ban on use of cyclamates, to be effective next February, eyebrows were raised because he acknowledged there was no direct evidence of harm to humans, only laboratory evidence that cancer could be produced in animals by greatly expanding the intake of the additive. OK, it was reasoned, it is better to be safe than sorry, though the ban caused a major disruption in the food industry. Then, the February deadline was moved to next September, although not for soft drinks. Now, a panel of doctors advising Finch has recommended that perhaps cyclamates should not be barred for human consumption at all, but only identified on the package as perhaps dangerous to health - like cigarettes now are. A total ban might work a hardship on diabetics and others who rely on sugar-free foods. This is a point which should have been considered before any action was taken. As things now stand, a clarifying statement is needed from HEW to let everyone know what the government's stand on cyclamates is and will be one month from now.

WASHINGTON (NEA) - This nation is groping seriously but in some puzzlement toward fundamental and highly significant changes in its foreign policy across the globe. But the going is hard and slow. The Washington Moratorium march, huge though it was, does not represent the crucial evidence of the country's deeply changed mood. The altered condition of the people's state of mind is less highly visible but much more impressive than the unnumbered tens of thousands who walked down Pennsylvania avenue on a cold Saturday in November.

The change is of sufficient magnitude, affecting tens of millions of Americans across the broad age spectrum, to have caused President Nixon to assert in Guam on July 25 what he now calls a "major shift" in U. S. foreign policy. It is great enough, too, to have led the politically acute Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird to put the Pentagon on a downward spending course (though there are other reasons for this undertaking). If what the President is saying and Laird is doing have not yet made heavy impact, it may be because they themselves have not fully measured the national mood and are treading tentatively.

"Our military-industrial complex exists because we have asked for it. In the broadest sense, we now ask our government: Make us safe from any attack by any foe." Said Bundy in Foreign Affairs magazine. "The fault is less in our leaders than in ourselves." "Trust after World War II into the role of free world guardian, we saw no way to respond but in the hardest military terms. The generals did not hatch a juicy plot, though there may have been some among them who have been carried away by the scope of things." The fact is, as Warnke notes, that we, the people, laid upon the Pentagon the most sweeping assignment imaginable - "protecting" us and our free world friends in nearly every corner of the earth where trouble flared.

Mr. Lodge Departs

Resignation of Henry Cabot Lodge as chief U.S. peace negotiator in Paris, as well as that of his deputy, comes as no surprise. Mr. Lodge has made no secret of the frustration he has felt in dealing with an adversary that has yielded not the slightest concession in 18 months of fruitless meetings. By way of explanation, the retiring envoy says only that "personal matters at home require my attention." After service in Saigon and Paris extending over the last six years, that is understandable. It is likely, however, that some "give" on Hanoi's part would have impelled Mr. Lodge to carry on.

Therefore, a more compelling reason for his departure may be found in this statement by his deputy: "In view of the manner in which these meetings are now being conducted by the other side, no purpose would be served by my continuing to hold this office." The "other side" has left little doubt it is counting on popular do-

Those Soviet Peace Hopes

WASHINGTON - President Nixon and his top foreign policy advisers still have medium-high hopes for help from the Soviet Union in bringing the war in Vietnam to a close. That is the background for some recent pronouncements about the war by administration spokesmen. It helps put in proper context some statements which are otherwise quite confusing. For example, Secretary of State William P. Rogers said publicly last week that he saw "no immediate prospect of success" in the present peace negotiations. He made the statement publicly after a talk of nearly three hours with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee behind closed doors. However, Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., told newsmen after the same closed-door session that he took some encouragement from certain "secret negotiations" alluded to by Rogers. Gore is usually a sharp critic of administration policies in Vietnam, whether the administration is Nixon's or Johnson's. He did not elaborate. We can report that the secret negotiations which gave encouragement to some of the committee members were, as Rogers indicated, not negotiations in Hanoi, in Paris or elsewhere. They were initiatives designed to get the help of Kremlin leaders in winding down the war. The idea is, of course, that Moscow can bring more than words to bear in asserting its influence with North Vietnam and the Viet Cong. Most of the supplies for the fighting in Vietnam still come from Russia, and many experts here think the Kremlin leaders could shut off the war by choking off logistic support - or even by threatening to do so. The newly opened strategic arms talks in Helsinki are merely the most visible of current U. S. contacts with the Russians. Others, with varying shades of official sanction, take place frequently. Contacts with Soviet spokesmen made with the cooperation of the British are believed to have been the ones which encouraged senators last week. After the committee meeting Rogers said the Russians were not being helpful "at the moment," but said help might be forthcoming later. There is, of course, nothing new in the efforts to get Russian assistance in ending the war. The same sort of contacts were made during the Johnson administration. At times, particularly during the final months of his White House tenure, President Johnson was sure that the Kremlin leaders, increasingly occupied with problems in China, would eventually decide to help stop the fighting in Vietnam. All indications are that Hanoi is, if anything, now more dependent than ever on supplies from Russia filtered into South Vietnam over the Ho Chi Minh trail.

(Navy experts here say water shipments to South Vietnam are decreasing under pressure of U. S. and South Vietnamese naval units.) Free world shipments into North Vietnam are on the downgrade too. Ten-month statistics through October show that only 85 ships from the non-Communist world have stopped at Haiphong this year - down 30 percent from the same period last year. There are, however, no public indications now that Russia is ready to apply any logistic pressure on the caretaker government left in Hanoi by Ho Chi Minh's death. Public utterances indicate that even the Helsinki talks have not changed the Kremlin policy with respect to Vietnam. In his long anniversary speech early this month, the Kremlin's number three man, Nikolai Podgorny, referred to the "fraternal" pending arms limitation talks. He said success of those talks would undoubtedly improve U. S. relations "and preserve and strengthen world peace." "The Soviet Union is striving for a radical improvement of the world political climate," Podgorny said in winding up his remarks at the Kremlin palace. Earlier in his speech, however, Podgorny was applauded (according to radio Moscow reports) when he noted that a North Vietnamese delegation had just concluded an agreement in Moscow calling for "Soviet delivery of industrial equipment, provisions, arms, raw and other materials to strengthen the DRV's defense potential and develop its economy." More applause was noted when Podgorny predicted that the cause of the departed Ho Chi Minh would triumph, and still more when the chairman of the Supreme Soviet pledged that "the Soviet Union has been doing and will continue to do all in its power to help the fraternal Vietnamese people in their just struggle against U. S. imperialism."

Enclosed is 25 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for a copy of your booklet on hypoglycemia. Mrs. D. F. Hypoglycemia (low blood sugar) has gone unrecognized so often, and caused so much protracted misery, that I think testing the sugar level is a wise and profitable course whenever there is a suspicion of the trouble. A single blood sugar test taken at the time of symptoms (hunger, weakness, visual disturbances, giddiness, etc.) is significant if it shows how low the blood sugar level has fallen at that moment. However, there is no way to be sure that you can be ready to take the test right at the proper moment. Therefore a sugar tolerance test is a more useful method. That is a series of tests taken each hour for six hours. It provides a pattern of how the patient's sugar level swings up and down. "Low blood sugar" isn't a fixed condition; it is a dynamic thing, and the rate at which the level varies is as important as well as the actual level. Yes, it is recognized that some diabetics experience hypoglycemia before the diabetes develops. The hypoglycemia may manifest itself as a low fasting blood sugar - that is, a test taken in the morning before the patient has eaten. Or it may be noted by a low level appearing in the fourth to sixth hour of a tolerance test.

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Hypoglycemia

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Are blood sugar tests necessary to determine how severe hypoglycemia has become? Have you ever questioned newly-diagnosed diabetics as to their having had trouble with hypoglycemia previously?

However, if the patient shows high sugar levels at the second and third hours, that becomes significant in determining whether the diabetes pattern is present. With both diabetes and low blood sugar, a patient has to pay strict attention to his eating, his physical activity, getting proper rest, and may require medication, but it can be done.

A member of our family who became diabetic in his early 30s always had difficulty with low blood sugar which he kept under control through diet.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please write about paregoric. Is it supposed to be mixed with whisky and can it be harmful?

Enclosed is 25 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for a copy of your booklet on hypoglycemia. Mrs. D. F. Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please write about paregoric. Is it supposed to be mixed with whisky and can it be harmful? I'm not sure I see what you are driving at. Who's putting it in whisky, and why? Paregoric is a form of opium, useful for diarrhea and abdominal cramps. Occasional, moderate use is not harmful, but with more than limited use, it can become an addict. If you are speaking of medical use of paregoric, I see no point in mixing it with whisky, because the whisky could aggravate the condition you are trying to correct. If you mean someone mixes paregoric in the whisky he drinks, then you'd better find out whether he is an addict already. It sounds suspicious. Never take a chance on diabetes! For better understanding of this disease, write to Dr. Thosteson for a copy of the booklet, "Diabetes - The Sneaky Disease." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling. Because of the tremendous volume of mail received daily, Dr. Thosteson regrets that he cannot answer individual letters, but whenever possible he uses readers' questions in his column.

Medical Utopia

A research panel of the British pharmaceutical industry has produced one of the most optimistic predictions of medical advances to date. Not only does it foresee spare parts surgery for all but the brain and the spinal column becoming routine within 20 years, but complete cures for most known diseases except cancer. Even cancer, it believes, will be 70 per cent curable by the 1990s, but it is concerned that new and more difficult cancers will appear to replace the old. It also predicts a whole new family of social drugs will be in use in two decades to improve learning processes, to counter stress and fatigue and to change man's perception of his surroundings. Dreams? Yes, but attainable ones. That is the challenge.

MR. SPECTATOR

Custer Sleeps Again!

It's all over for this season, and you'll have to wait until next year to go through it - after the snow is gone - but we thought you might like to know that recreation visits to the historical mining museum at the old ghost town of Custer up Yankee Fork in the Stanley Basin near-area has set a new record. The old town - or what remains of it - is in the Clayton Ranger District and Dan Pence does the rangers. But it was the museum, of course, that attracted the people. It's housed in an old school house and most of the relics were collected by the late Arthur "Tuff" McGowan and his wife, Edna. They sold the facility to the forest service in 1966. Ranger Pence wrote to report that 10,947 people toured the facility last season compared to 9,670 in 1968. Visitors came from 48 of the 50 states and from many foreign countries. The two states not represented among the tourists were Alabama and Mississippi. The museum opened for visitors on June 7 with Wayne and Susan Nelson, students at Brigham Young University, manning the facility for their second season. The museum remained open 93 days. It closed Sept 7 after an average day visitation of 118. The museum consists of old antiques and mining relics reminiscent of early gold rush days in the Yankee Fork district. The forest service has plans to expand the school house as soon as funds become available. The same ghost town atmosphere will be maintained in the new construction. Also, any other new buildings will be constructed from weathered-appearing lumber and structures will resemble the shape of the original buildings. The Yankee Fork area, as most Mr. Spectator readers know, is one of the "mists" to see when you travel over Galena Summit and on to Challis and Salmon. But if you plan to go into that area now, then take care because you may never make it and, if you make it, you may never get out. So, just to make it safe, we'll see you next summer at Custer. It's sleeping right now!

NOT SO PERILOUS

Several months ago the Congressional Record carried a depressing note for senators to the effect that since 1930 they have been dying six years sooner, on the average, than their white male constituents.

Now the source of that information, the Statistical Bulletin of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., has issued a reassuring correction. The flaw in the original study, according to the Bulletin, is that it overlooked the many senators who are still here, and who knows how long they will live? Consequently, Metropolitan Life compared white males born in the same years and found that senators elected since 1930 have so far lived 1.5 years longer than the average. Apparently senators are bearing up better than had been thought under the pressure of today.

ROWLAND EVANS

On John Lindsay

WASHINGTON - An important reason why Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York decided to remain a registered Republican for the time being was a plea from one of the party's power brokers of the recent past, Herbert Brownell. Brownell, campaign manager for both Thomas E. Dewey and Dwight D. Eisenhower, also was Lindsay's political mentor at the start of his political career in the early 1950s. Thus when Lindsay was besieged with offers to switch over to the Democratic party in the wake of his reelection on Nov. 4, Brownell contacted him and urged him not to make any precipitous decisions.

berg, whose late endorsement was critical to Lindsay's election as Mayor. A footnote: Stephen Smith, the Kennedy brother-in-law who has swayed back and forth in thinking about running for Governor, is interested again. He had finally and firmly decided against running last summer and, after Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's accident, advised friends he had not changed his mind. More recently, however, Smith's interest has been revived, and he has commissioned polls which show him beating Rockefeller.

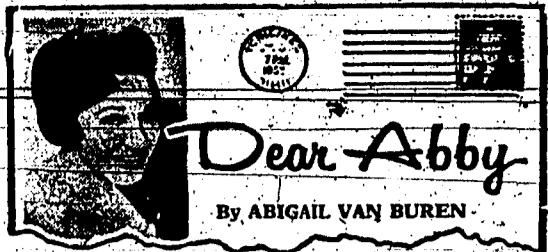

He was not alone. Liberal Republicans both in and out of New York (Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois telephoned from Washington, for example) contacted Lindsay and urged him to stay within the Republican party. Reminders came from some of the big liberal Republican money men in Manhattan who reminded the Mayor they had stayed with him through adversity this year even after he lost the Republican nomination in June. As a result, Lindsay probably will remain Republican, at least nominally, through 1970 and not consider party switching until 1971. However, he may well oppose the probable bid for a fourth term for Governor by Nelson Rockefeller. Lindsay's old foe within the Republican party, particularly if the Democratic nominee is Arthur Gold-

Atty. Gen. John Mitchell was privately surprised that Chief Justice Warren Burger, named to the Supreme Court by President Nixon as a "strict constructionist," opposed the Administration's ruling for immediate racial desegregation of all Southern schools. Mitchell and the rest of the Administration's political strategists had realized that their attempt to delay Southern school desegregation would certainly be overruled by the Supreme Court. Indeed, the Justice Department's moves were made not in any real hopes of delaying desegregation but to make political points with the South. What surprised the Attorney General, however, was the courts 8 to 0 unanimous opinion for immediate desegregation. Just before the Court ruled, Mitchell had told friends he expected a decision of around 5 to 3 against the Justice Department, with Burger voting in the minority.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We are a group of girls in our late 20s who love to ski. The social life at night is marvelous. But we have one big problem.

MARRIED MEN! What is wrong with wives who let their husbands come up to a ski resort alone for a week-end? Are they naive? Or just plain stupid?

We girls are free, and are out for a good time, but basically we are looking for husbands. These married men probably tell their wives they ski all day and are too tired at night to do anything but sleep. (I wish their wives could see them at night. They are peppier than the bachelors.)

We do not want to get involved with married men, but how can we tell who is married?

Our only hope is for you to tell the wives to smarten up and either go with their husbands or keep them at home.

BUNNY

DEAR BUNNY: There is no way for a girl to tell whether or not a man she meets on the slopes, the beach or any other place men hang out is on the level. Her only protection is her own common sense. She should beware of giving too much of her heart (or anything else) to a man she knows only casually.

DEAR ABBY: My mother died recently, and the night she died Mom's sisters went over to Dad's house and went thru all Mom's things and took what they wanted. My dad was home, but he is blind, and was still in a state of shock over Mom's death so he couldn't be expected to stop them.

My question is this: Did they have a right to do this without first consulting my brother and me? And isn't it considered unethical to do this before the funeral?

I might add that I am furious because I left a pair of MY shoes at the house while I was staying there taking care of Dad during Mom's illness, and they even took THEM.

MRS. B.

DEAR MRS. B.: I can't imagine anyone wanting ANYTHING that desperately. Your aunts were clearly out of line. Ask your Dad to tell them to bring back everything they took until HE decides who shall get what. And if he's too timid, your lawyer can put it in a letter.

DEAR ABBY: I am an amateur photographer and I process my own film.

When my wife first became pregnant, several months ago, I asked if I could accompany her into the delivery room to take pictures of her giving birth to our firstborn child. At first she hesitated, but she finally agreed.

I purchased a very expensive high quality camera and have been looking forward to getting some exceptional shots of this "big event."

Now as the time draws near, my wife tells me that she has changed her mind and would be "embarrassed" for me to take such pictures. I would do my own developing so no one but my wife and I would see these photos.

Do you think she is being fair to me?

STATEN ISLANDER

DEAR STATEN ISLANDER: It's a woman's prerogative to change her mind, and I don't blame her.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

MARY MULCAHY

Mary Mulcahy, Wycoff Reveal Wedding Date

A Dec. 20 wedding in St. John's Presbyterian Church, Reno, is planned by Mary Ellen Mulcahy and Marvin Robert Wycoff.

Miss Mulcahy is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Glover, Reno, and the late Mr. Edwin C. Mulcahy. She is a graduate of Fort Myers High School, Fort Myers, Fla., and is a senior at the University of Nevada. She is affiliated with the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority.

Mr. Wycoff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Wycoff, Twin Falls. He is employed as an accountant with Semenza, Kottinger and McMullen Certified Public Accountants, Reno. Mr. Wycoff is a graduate of Elko County High School and the University of Nevada.

Weekly Craft Workshops Set

FILER — The first of weekly workshops in a number of crafts will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church, according to Rev. Roy Watson, pastor.

The weekly craft lessons will be open to all interested people in the community. All materials will be furnished and a small fee will be charged to cover the cost of materials only. This is not a profit-making venture, stressed the Rev. Mr. Watson, but an opportunity for people interested in crafts to learn how to make many beautiful and useful things.

December will be devoted to the making of articles suitable for Christmas gifts. After the first of the year, lessons will be given on antiquing furniture, working with gold leaf and making paper flowers.

CLUB CONVENES
RICHFIELD — Mrs. Neil Anderson was hostess for members of the North End Club recently. Mrs. Lester Ward received the club special prize and Mrs. Ray Appell and Mrs. Andreason were presented Pollyanna gifts. The Dec. 4 meeting is at the home of Mrs. Edward Appell.

Centennial Ball Slated

RUPERT — Final preparations have been made and all signals are for the Centennial Ball, planned by the Minidoka LDS Stake from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Friday at the stake tabernacle in Rupert.

Some 100 area dancers have been practicing regularly and will present the floor show entertainment at 10 p.m. The entertainment is under the direction of Howard Corless, stake dance director.

Mr. Corless said festivities include demonstrations of the various dances of the eras between 1870 and now. Included will be the square dance, a combination of the barsouvianna, rye waltz and the schottische, the charleston, fox trot and an all-girls dance.

Long dresses will be in style for the evening, which is planned to celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association of the Church.

Allan Devries Orchestra will provide the dancing music and the ball is open to the public 14 years-of-age and older.

The event is under the direction of the Stake MIA Organization, and no admission will be charged.

Mrs. Bowman Is 'Best Loser'

HANSEN — Mrs. Paul Bowman was best loser of the week at the Slim and Trim TOPS Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Steelsmith. All gainers as penalties had to unload bricks from the car and bring them to the meeting room.

Plans were made to hold the Christmas party Dec. 15. A gift exchange, not to exceed a $1 in value or homemade items, will be held.

Measurements were made at the evening meet. Mrs. Avis Allen was hostess and program chairman.

Date Cake
1 cup chopped dates
1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon soda
1 egg
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2/3 cup oil or melted butter
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup nuts

Pour boiling water over dates, add soda and set aside to cool. Beat egg. Add sugar, vanilla and oil. Sift flour and salt together twice and add alternately with mixture of dates and water. Bake in loaf pans for 50 minutes at 350 degrees. Remove from oven and quickly cover with topping and return to oven for 10 more minutes.

TOPPING
1/4 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup unsifted whole wheat flour
1/4 cup melted butter
2 tablespoons water

Embittered Veteran Finds Many Folks Do Care After All

DETROIT (UPI)—The ex-Army private returned from the Vietnam war with three Purple Hearts and without a right arm. A week ago he was ready to give up on the human race. Today he feels different. Alvin Williams has a wife and two children to support, but for a year after returning from the war everywhere he looked for employment he received the same answer: "Fine, Alvin, we'll call you."

Youth Saves Two Women From Death

SAGINAW, Mich. (UPI)—Two elderly women were saved from drowning Thanksgiving Day by a 19-year-old youth who plunged into an icy river and cut loose their seat belts. Bay County sheriff's deputies said that a car carrying Mrs. Mildred McIntire, 64, and Mrs. Beryl Davis, 62, both of Pigeon, Mich., skidded off Michigan 25 near Saginaw and plunged into the Quannicassee River.

VENICE, Calif. (UPI)—Pauline Cooper's car, a 1967 Chevrolet, has been stolen three times in recent weeks. Police recovered it each time but there was always something missing—the battery, the front wheels, the radio.

Police said it's the type of old car thieves like. But they're going to have trouble soon now on.

Bandits Refuse Deal For Ham

EAST CHICAGO, Ind. (UPI)—It was no deal for canned ham—they wanted a turkey and settled for $300.

Two gunmen entered a small East Chicago grocery store Thanksgiving Day and demanded a turkey. Mrs. Lillian Walt, the owner, said she didn't have any left and suggested they settle for a canned ham.

But the deal was no deal. The gunmen, instead, fled with $300.

Indians Cling To Claim On Alcatraz Island As Symbol Of Injustices Against Red Men By Whites Over Years

The old men are all killed, the little children are freezing to death. Hear me, my chiefs, I am tired. My heart is sick and sad. From where the sun now stands, I will fight no more forever.

Chief Joseph's surrender

By ROBERT STRAND
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The old men went on dying and the children suffered for nearly a century after Chief Joseph laid down his arms to the white man's soldiers.

But perhaps even the Nez Perce Indian leader, the old realist himself, might see a glimmer of hope in the "occupation" of Alcatraz Island by a band of brash young braves.

Anthropologist Margaret Mead called the Nov. 20 seizure of Alcatraz "a magnificent piece of dramatization."

It isn't funny to Indians—one calls it the most important event since red men actually stopped fighting white men.

The 100-odd youths still huddling in the former federal prison in San Francisco Bay are serious in their claim to the island.

They are even more serious in their determination to cause trouble all over the country with demands for the righting of long lists of injustices.

"We have been silent and turned the other cheek too damn long," says Lehman Brightman, local head of United Native Americans. "This is the most important event since we actually stopped warfare with white men in 1889."

This was a reference to the battle of Wounded Knee Creek in which 200 Sioux men, women and children, including relatives of Brightman, were killed by the U.S. Cavalry. The event ended the ghost dance, a movement for rejection of white man's ways and a return to the old style of life, then sweeping western tribes.

In recent months new Indian militancy has resulted in picketing in Albuquerque, N.M., of Interior Secretary Walter Hickel and the boycotting of Nebraska businessmen by the Winnebagoes.

Now Indian leaders say the Alcatraz occupation has electrified their people and in one stroke unified members of the nation's 300 tribes.

"We are attacking the whole system by attacking Alcatraz," says Adam Nordwall, president of the United Bay Area Council of Indians. "It has become a symbol."

Indians also hope Alcatraz will focus attention on a staggering list of problems. Infant mortality among 700,000 Indians is three times the national average. The average life span of 42 is one-third shorter than the national average. Yearly income averages only $1,500.

The Indian's dilemma is if he stays on the reservation, he is hopelessly mired in poverty; if he moves to the city, he is unskilled and unprepared for urban life, and so remains mired in poverty.

The claim on Alcatraz actually began in 1964 with an unsuccessful U.S. district court suit based on an 1868 treaty giving the Sioux the right to claim "unused federal land."

Alcatraz is that. Federal and local officials have been unable to agree on a use of the rocky 12 acres, lacking fresh water, since the prison was closed in 1932.

The claim, based on new legal grounds and on the notion the Indians have a prior right, was renewed in October with a war dance on the island.

The Nov. 20 invasion, accord-

Solons Debate Divorce Bill Over Protest

ROME (UPI)—Six more clauses in a bill to legalize divorce in Italy came up for debate today. The Chamber of Deputies already has approved three of the measure's clauses despite opposition from the Vatican.

The bill will come up for a final vote by the Chamber of Deputies on Saturday. If it passes, it will go to the Senate, where a long delay is expected. Legal divorce still appears a long way off in Italy.

The ruling Christian Democrats have tried to sabotage the bill and vowed to put it to a national referendum if it gets through the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate.

Unique Task

BOSTON (UPI)—Twin girls born joined at the abdomen were reported in "every word" condition Thursday and breathing on their own following separation surgery during which one girl's heart stopped beating.

Doctors cautioned that the two face many hazards in the next few weeks.

An eight-man surgical team operated 5½ hours Wednesday night to separate the twins, who were born Sunday joined from the lower chest to the bottom pelvic area. Doctors said it was the first such conjunction reported in medical history.

A spokesman for Massachusetts General Hospital reported the heart of one of the girls stopped beating as the surgeons separated their fused livers.

By opening the chest and massaging the heart they were quickly able to return the heart to normal without apparent injury to the child, the spokesman said.

The twins, whose parents were identified only as being from Danvers, Mass., were breathing without assistance early Thursday and were to be transferred to the hospital's children's section sometime today.

Once he gets on the road, there'll be no peace on earth.

Fred celebrates the holidays pretty strenuously. Getting rather high. And even three cups of coffee won't bring him down.

Another car will. No one wants to preach at Fred, especially when he's having a good time. So they'll feed him coffee and send him on his merry way. Which probably means a wide awake drunk, weaving along the highway.

We don't want to preach either. But your new car dealer does care. He knows the sobering truth that drinking is a factor in 800,000 traffic accidents every year...and in 25,000 deaths every year, nearly half of all traffic fatalities. So before the 'Auld Lang Syne' is over, don't forget: the only way to control a car during the partying season is to control your partying.

Don't drive if you've been drinking. Instead, think of Fred...resting in peace by the side of the road.

SECTION

700 Grangers Expected Here For Confab

Nearly 700 Grangers from throughout Idaho will be gathering in Twin Falls next week for the week-long Idaho State Grange Convention, scheduled to get under way Tuesday.

A. E. (Ed) Harper, Filer, master of the Twin Falls County Pomona Grange, and Ralph Kohntopp, Jerome, master of the Northside Pomona Grange, are co-chairmen of the convention and about 300 voting delegates are expected for the confab besides other Grangers.

The two men state the Grange Mutual Co-Op Fire Insurance Co. will meet Monday, with general Grange sessions starting Tuesday morning in the Elks Lodge. Registration for the 61st annual convention will be at the Rogerson Hotel.

Featured speaker Tuesday morning will be Gov. Don Samuelson. Tuesday afternoon reports by state officers will be given. Committee meetings will be held that night.

Wednesday, Rep. Orval Hansen, R-Idaho, is scheduled to speak during the luncheon.

Demonstrations and degree work will highlight the Wednesday afternoon sessions.

John Scott, master of the National Grange, and Dr. James E. Krauss, dean of the College of Agriculture, University of Idaho, will speak during Thursday's sessions.

Thursday also is youth day during the week-long convention. Thursday afternoon there will be a special youth recognition hour at which special young Grangers will be honored. Mr. Scott also will speak during this special event.

Thursday evening a banquet has been planned for the young Grangers.

Friday evening the sessions will close with installation of officers.

Mr. Harper and Mrs. Kohntopp say Wednesday will be degree day. The Junior Degree will be exemplified by the Emerson Junior Grange, the Fourth Degree by the Northside Pomona Grange and the Fifth Degree will be conferred by the Twin Falls County Pomona Grange.

The Sixth Degree will be conferred Wednesday evening by the State Grange officers, assisted by the Rose Drill Team from Twin Falls County. Following the Sixth Degree, a mixer has been planned under the direction of the Northside Pomona Grange.

All Grangers are urged to attend this convention and the public is welcome to most general sessions.

Open House Is Held By Magic Grange

SHOSHONE — Magic Grange open house was held in conjunction with Booster Night at the grange hall. Dinner preceded the special program presentation.

George Horn, master, introduced the guests. Oscar Kerner, assisted by David G. Mitchell was in charge of the program.

Piano solos were by Wanda Faught and her sister, Heather Tews, and Kathleen Kerner. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander gave a humorous skit and Mitchell recited poetry.

Prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bäneroff, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Barney, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kerner, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. William Tews.

Frank Burdett was introduced as a charter member of the grange.

Tax Guides

The 1970 income tax guides for farmers are now available for any farmer or rancher needing help in making out his tax forms.

Copies of this tax guide are available at any county agent's office.

2 Win Trip

Two Magic Valley Allis Chalmers equipment dealers have won an all-expense paid trip to the Bermuda Islands.

A contest among the dealers throughout the nation was sponsored by Allis Chalmers and Oliver Molyneux, Molyneux Machinery Co., Twin Falls, and Bob LaPray, Andy and Bob's Motor Co., Buhl, were the winners in Magic Valley.

The two dealers and their wives have left for the trip to the Islands.

200 Steers Expected For Evaluation Test On Dec. 6

Southern Idaho cattlemen are contending to show great interest in learning and seeing what their beef cattle will do in the feedlot.

This is noticed considerably by the number of feeder calves entered in the Feedlot Evaluation Test, sponsored by the Magic Valley Cattlemen's Association.

To date, over 150 steers have been entered and about 50 more are expected by the time the test starts on Saturday, Dec. 6. Last year some 65 steers were in the program.

Jack Pierce, Twin Falls, secretary of the association, said the steers will be received at the Twin Falls Livestock Commission Co., starting at 10 a.m. Dec. 6. After the cattle are brought in, they will be tagged and put into pens. After lunch a program will be presented, including a body type demonstration. The steers entered in the test will also be weighed that day.

Producers entering steers in the test will receive complete data on feedlot performance and carcass information at the end of the test as well as rate of gain periodically throughout the test.

This information then can be used in establishing a proven record of performance of cattle within a herd. Successful programs of this nature in other states have enabled producers to sell at $3-$5 hundredweight above prevailing prices.

All beef producers in Magic Valley and those interested in the beef industry are urged to attend the program Dec. 6, which starts at 12:30 p.m.

Utah Speaks On Farming At Burley Farm Meeting

BURLEY — Dr. Royal Graff, the job done that needs to be a professor of marketing and done. The majority groups are speech at the University of Utah, was the featured speaker for the 50th anniversary of the Farm Bureau banquet held at Price's Cafe.

The American farming population has decreased to about five per cent but the farmers can strive for cooperation between themselves and the local businessmen, because in farming areas healthy farming operations make for prosperity in business, Dr. Graff told the group.

"Cooperation makes the difference between something which is very good and something which is very bad," he stated. "We the silent majority need to be regenerated to get

Meeting Set

The Twin Falls County Livestock Marketing Association will have its annual meeting Thursday in the Rogerson Hotel Roundup Room.

The business meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m. Those planning to attend are urged to contact Donald Yount, Twin Falls County agent and secretary of the association.

3 Join Club

KING HILL—Three new members were taken into the Town and Country 4-H Club at a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Ruberry.

They were Gene and Bobby Campbell, and Glenna McCleary.

Cattlemen To Meet Next Week In Burley For Annual Confab

BURLEY — The Idaho Cattlemen's Association and the women's auxiliary Cowbelles will hold their annual state convention Sunday through Tuesday at Ponderosa Convention Center.

Registration will begin at 3 p.m. Sunday and committee meetings will begin at noon Sunday with general sessions opening the following morning.

HERRELL DEGRAFF and JOSEPH H. TUDOR are the two main speakers during the Idaho Cattlemen's Association annual convention next week in Burley. The confab starts Sunday and concludes Tuesday. Mr. DeGraff is with the American Meat Institute in Chicago, and Mr. Tudor is with the Public Lands Council in Washington. Nearly 500 cattlemen and their wives are expected for the three-day event.

Potato Growers Plan State Meet Next Month At Burley

BURLEY — Potato growers throughout Idaho will gather in Burley Dec. 9-10 for the annual state meeting and convention of the Potato Growers of Idaho, Inc.

According to Daryl E. Espin, executive secretary, the convention will be held at the Ponderosa Inn.

On Dec. 9, R. D. Ensign, University of Idaho, will give recent potato research; Edd Moore will discuss transportation rate increase and Bill Bergeson will talk on recent developments in processing.

Speaking at the luncheon will be J. R. Simplot. During the afternoon of Dec. 9, Don Johnson, a California potato grower, will discuss the labor problems in California agriculture.

A men's breakfast will be held Dec. 10 with Don McKay, Idaho First National Bank, Idaho Falls, talking about financing. Other speakers, according to Espin, will include a Maine potato grower, National Potato Council secretary, a Minnesota

Hayride Is Planned By Wendell FFA

WENDELL — The Wendell Chapter of the Future Farmers of America met recently under the direction of its advisor, James Benson.

Bill Royce conducted the opening ceremonies followed by a short business meeting. Plans were made for a hayride which is jointly sponsored by the Future Farmers and the Future Homemakers, Wendell Chapter. It was decided the boys will furnish the hay and wagon while the girls will provide the food.

The group made plans to sponsor an aftergame dance. A date was set later in the year for a Green Hand Initiative. One hundred per cent attendance certificates were discussed. A Christmas party was planned for Dec. 15.

Thanksgiving Discussed At Grange Meet

HAGERMAN — "Thanksgiving" was the theme for the meeting of the Hagerman Valley Grange recently.

A story on the first Thanksgiving was read by Bill Scruggs. Janae Scruggs read a poem, "My Twelve Loveliest Things". A film "Credit Where Credit is Due" was shown by Mrs. Edna Bell. Elden Kennel sang three selections accompanied by Rick Adams on the guitar.

Plans for the Christmas program were discussed. A change of time for meetings was agreed on. The regular business meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. and the potluck supper meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. beginning with the Dec. 1 meeting.

102 Simplot Employees To Be Honored

HEYBURN — Some 102 J. R. Simplot employees will be honored for their service during an awards banquet beginning at 5 p.m. Dec. 12 at the Ponderosa Inn in Burley.

Each year the company hosts an awards banquet for all employees having 10 years or more of service with the company. This year, according to John McBride, Heyburn plant personnel director, will be the largest one in the 16-year history of the Heyburn operation with 95 awardees and seven retirees expected to attend. Some 220 people are expected to attend the program with awards to be handed by Jack Simplot, founder of the business.

The awards to be given range from $50 and 15-year certificates to watches for 20 years, personal gifts for the 25 and 30 years of service and recognition for the retirees.

Top-Ranked Longhorns Score On Fourth Play In 49-12 Win Over A&M

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI) — The top-rated Texas Longhorns sparked by a 63-yard touchdown run by Jim Bertelsen on the fourth play of the game and a razzle-dazzle end around scoring pass by Cotton Speyrer, rolled over the Cotton Bowl Classic, unleashing a first half offensive blitz en route to their 18th straight victory.

TEXAS HALFBACK Billy Davis (22) hurries the Texas Aggie line for a pickup of seven yards in the Thanksgiving Day Longhorn-A&M battle Thursday. The top-ranked Texas squad ripped A&M 49-12. (UPI telephoto)

Vikings Clinch NFL Central Title 27-0

San Diego Tips Oilers By 21-17

HOUSTON (UPI) — Safety Kenny Graham returned a pass interception 31 yards for a touchdown with 7:05 to go in the fourth quarter Thursday to give the San Diego Chargers a 21-17 victory over the Houston Oilers, and maintain their jinx over Houston.

Graham's catch came with the Oilers leading 17-14 by the margin of Roy Gerela's 42-yard field goal. Houston was put in the hole on its 4-yard line by a 47-yard punt by Dennis Partee.

On third down, reserve quarterback Don Trull attempted to pass to fullback Roy Hopkins when Graham reached up, grabbed the ball and scored untouched.

Graham preserved the victory with 3:24 to go in the game when Leskie Duncan tumbled a punt on his own 35 and Graham grabbed the ball before it hit the ground in front of two onrushing Oilers.

San Diego's first two touchdowns came on a 23-yard pass from quarterback Marty Domres to Gary Garrison in the second quarter and a two-yard plunge by Russ Smith in the third period. John Hadl came off the bench at halftime to engineer the 73-yard third quarter drive that kept the Chargers in the game.

Last-Second Kick Blocked As Dallas Ties With 49ers 24-24

DALLAS (UPI) — Defensive tackle Charlie Krueger blocked Mike Clark's 37-yard field goal effort with 12 seconds to play Thursday night to preserve the San Francisco Fortyniners' 24-24 tie with Dallas and prolong the Cowboys bid to clinch a Capital Division title.

The Cowboys had worked the ball into field goal range after a 19-yard pass from Craig Morton to a diving Lance Rentzel had knotted the count with 4:13 to go to keep the Fortyniners from winning only their third game of a rather disastrous season.

San Francisco, with John Brodie repeatedly hitting key third down passes, broke into a 14-point lead and the Cowboys' catchup efforts were constantly frustrated by interceptions, dropped passes and interceptions.

Two Cowboys Given Topps All-Star West Positions

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Rich Zinniger, stand-out fireballer for the Salt Lake Bees and 'Player of the Year' in the Pioneer League this past season, will receive the George M. Trautman Memorial Award from the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues and the Topps Bubble Gum Company.

The Association announced its list of 1969 all-star rookie league teams, with squads from the East and West named. The East selections were made from two leagues, the Appalachian and Gulf Coast, while the West all-stars came from the Pioneer League.

Brodie hit Ken Willard and Gene Washington for 18-yard scoring passes and Willard bulled three yards for another after fleet Nolan Smith had set it up with a 60-yard runback of the opening kickoff. Momcilo Gavric also chipped in a 21-yard third quarter field goal for the eventual tying point.

Burnett And Arkansas Rap Texas Tech

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — Tailback Bill Burnett stamped over for three touchdowns to spark unbeaten Arkansas to a 33-0 rout of Texas Tech Thursday in the Razorbacks' final tuneup for the Dec. 6 showdown with No. 1 ranked Texas.

Burnett sloughed over the rain splattered field for touchdown runs of 1, 9, and 1 yards in the nationally televised Southwest Conference match.

The third-ranked Razorbacks showed their record to a 9-0 season and will tangle with Texas for the conference championship in a battle of two unbeaten teams.

Louisville Tips Tulsa 35-29

TULSA, Okla. (UPI) — Louisville tailback Lee Bougess provided two scoring runs and carried the ball 28 times for 171 yards to host his Missouri Valley Conference rushing total to 1,064 yards and give the Cardinals a 35-29 win over Tulsa in a season finale Thursday.

Bougess scampered for 44 yards in the second quarter after breaking a tackle by Tulsa halfback Harold Williams and went over from the 1 in the third period. Bougess wound up the season 308 yards short of the MVC rushing record set by Tulsa's Howard Waugh in 1957.

Francisco touchdown.

Aggies Edge Colorado State

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (UPI) — New Mexico State sophomore halfback Ron James scored 14 fourth quarter points to lead the Aggies to a 21-20 comeback win over Colorado State Thursday.

James scored on runs of 4 and 9 yards as the Aggies whipped out a 20-7 Ram lead in the final 10 minutes of play.

Francisco touchdown.

Raft River Returns Two Veterans In Backcourt

RAFT RIVER — Edwin (Kay) Harper, in his first year as head coach at Raft River, finds five regulars lost to graduation off a squad that finished with a 2-16 record, 1-11 in the Magic Valley Conference. But first glances are five: top-notch prospects coming up from a junior varsity team that took 15 out of 20 games last year. Add that with a total of six years experience in the backcourt and the Trojans don't appear half as unformidable.

Returning at the guard slots are Paul Edwards, 5-8 senior and Bob Booth, also 5-8 and three-year letterman. Dwaine Kosman, 5-5, is the other returnee at guard. Harold Hutchinson, 5-10, is the lone man back at forward.

Top man off last year's junior varsity, and tallest is Jim Wickel, at a slender 6-3 and 160 pounds. Nick Naddro, six foot, and Kenny Darrington, 5-10, will fight for corner spots. Sophomore Kenny Tracy and Delbert Hutchinson, both 5-5, should add depth to the Trojan guard ranks.

Raft River's schedule includes: Dec. 2, Intermountain School of Brigham City, Utah at Raft River; Dec. 5, Camas County at Camas County; Dec. 12, Bancroft at Raft River; Dec. 13, Firth at Raft River; Dec. 19-20, Declo Tournament; Jan. 8, Castleford at Castleford; Jan. 13, Hansen at Raft River; Jan. 20, Murtaugh at Raft River; Jan. 23, Oakley at Raft River; Jan. 24, Camas County at Raft River; Jan. 31, Castleford at Raft River.

Feb. 3, Hansen at Hansen; Feb. 6, Rockland at Raft River; Feb. 10, Murtaugh at Murtaugh; Feb. 13, Oakley at Oakley; and Feb. 20, Declo at Declo.

McAndrew Signs '70 Mets Pact

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jim McAndrew, a righthander who pitched 23 consecutive scoreless innings last season, has signed his 1970 contract with the New York Mets, team officials said Thursday.

McAndrew's string of 23 scoreless innings tied the club record set earlier in the campaign by Jerry Kosman. Five rookies, all of whom played in the recently concluded Florida Instructional League, also have returned signed contracts. They are pitchers Les Rohr, Fred Rheam and Birch Folkers, utilityman John Milner and outfielder Leroy Stanton.

COPS BOWL WIN STERLING, Kan. (UPI) — Dave Wassonberg ran for two touchdowns, and quarterback Donnie Witcox threw for two more as Hutchinson Community Junior College rallied behind a tenacious defense to whip Nassau (N.Y.) Community College, 32-7, Thanksgiving Day in the fourth annual Sterling Silver Bowl.

TO TAKE REST

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) — University of Kentucky basketball Coach Adolph Rupp Thursday was ordered by physicians to stay off his feet completely for six weeks due to a serious foot ailment.

Rupp's right foot became infected several weeks ago when a shoe blistered his heel.

UK sports information director Russell Rice said Rupp plans to attend all games, practices and trips for the Wildcat team but has cancelled all other engagements.

The Wildcats are scheduled to meet West Virginia here Monday.

Ole Miss Routs Arch-Rival State Behind Manning

STARKVILLE, Miss. (UPI)—Quarterback Archie Manning ran and passed for four touchdowns Thursday to lead Sugar Bowl-bound Mississippi to a 48-22 romp over arch-rival Mississippi State in the regular-season finale for both teams.

The amazing Manning, recently named Southeastern Conference offensive player of the year, hit wingback Vernon Studdard with touchdown passes of 58 and 15 yards and scored twice himself on 24 and one-yard runs.

The 14th-ranked Rebels, favored by three touchdowns, exploded for one touchdown in the third quarter and four in the final period after a surprising close first half. The score was deadlocked 14-14 at the midway point.

The Rebels' other touchdowns came on runs of six yards by tailback Leon Felts and 17 yards by fullback Bo Bowen and a 12-yard pass interception return by defensive halfback Bill Lones. Perry King kicked six of seven extra points.

Mississippi State jumped off to an early lead in the gloomy, rain-hammered Thanksgiving Day battle with senior tailback Lynn Zeringue plunging over from the one in the first quarter. The Bulldogs struck again in the second period with quarterback Tommy Pharr hitting end David Smith on a 7-yard scoring pass to climax a 37-yard drive.

First Negro For Jackets Draws Praise

ATLANTA (UPI)—Eddie McAshan, first Negro ever to play football for Georgia Tech, is the most accurate passer the Yellow Jackets have had in at least four decades.

That appraisal of the freshman from Gainesville, Fla., comes from none other than Bobby Dodd who has been at Tech since 1931.

McAshan was on the losing side Thursday as the Georgia freshmen beat the Georgia Tech freshmen 28-20 in their annual Thanksgiving Day charity clash.

But, make no mistake about it. From the time he entered the game early in the second period, McAshan was the dominant offensive personality on the field.

"Wait until you see this boy play with a sound knee," Dodd said, noting that the reason McAshan didn't start was because of an injury and that he probably wouldn't have gotten in at all if the baby Yellow Jackets hadn't needed him so desperately.

In the three quarters he did play, McAshan completed 13 of 24 passes for 165 yards and at least a half dozen of those he didn't complete were in and out of the hands of his intended receivers.

"We haven't had a more accurate passer since I've been here at Tech and that's covering a lot of ground," Dodd said.

ABA Scoring Leader Injured

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The Pittsburgh Pirates of the American Basketball Association announced Thursday that Charlie Williams, the league's leading scorer, would be out of action four to six weeks with a knee injury.

Williams suffered the injury Wednesday night in the second period while driving for a layup against the Los Angeles Stars at the Civic Arena. An opposing player knocked Williams off balance, causing him to fall heavily to the floor.

Williams did not dress for the second half. Los Angeles won the game 108-101 with a fourth period rally.

Williams did not dress for the second half. Los Angeles won the game 108-101 with a fourth period rally.

Dr. John Perri, Piper team physician, said Williams' ligaments in his right knee and would have to wear a cast until his injury healed.

Hagerman Builds Hoop Squad Around 6-4 Center

HAGERMAN — With four of the first five graduating from last year's club now Coach Ben Dunn will build his Hagerman Pirate basketball team around five veterans and 6-4 center Russ LeMoine.

The Pirates lost their top two gunners in Ray Lapp, 303 points, and Randy Clark, 258 points, but LeMoine was third high with 253 points overall, although he missed the last two games.

Coach Dunn, who comes to Hagerman after coaching at Culesac, has depth at guard position with senior Jeff Tupper and Kelly Behrens and junior Bill Partin. All three have lettered once and stand 5-9. The only experienced forward is Steve Bennett, a 6-1 senior.

However, there are three forward prospects coming up from last year's frosh-soph squad. Tallest is junior Greg Nicholas at 6-1, while Dick Bennett, a junior, is 5-10 and Craig Laughlin is a 5-10 sophomore. Providing backup at the center spot will be 6-2 sophomore Doug Butler. Incoming guards are Ron Caster, 5-8 junior, and Tony Hendrickson, 5-9 sophomore.

Palmer Holds Heritage Golf Classic Lead

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (UPI)—Arnold Palmer, hitting his irons stiff to the pin but putting erratically, carved out a workmanlike 68 Thursday to grab a share of the first round lead in the first Heritage Classic with lanky George Archer.

Palmer, his army a mere platoon when he started play shortly after dawn, picked up support when he made the turn in 34, then added another 34 on the back side for his three-under-par finish. Palmer hit 10 of 18 greens in regulation and had only one bogey. Archer, meanwhile, birdied six holes but also had three bogies in recording his 34-34-68.

Palmer said his 68 was "about as bad as it could have been" because he was hitting his irons so close to the pin. Palmer is trying to break a 14-month drought during which he has failed to win on the PGA circuit.

If his putts had been dropping, Palmer said, he could easily have been eight under after seven holes. Instead of three under. He missed putts of less than 12 feet on all but three of the first seven greens, and one would have been for an eagle. His only bogey came on No. 8 after a tee shot strayed into the rough.

Sharing second place in the $100,000 tournament, were Charlie Sifford 33-36-69, and Jim Colbert Jr., 32-37-69, and B. R. McLeon 34-36-69. Colbert had a 30-foot putt on No. 9 for his sixth birdie and a 30-foot "hooked like a dog" and three putts for a bogey.

Knotted at one-under par 70 were Terry Wilcox, Fred Marti, Dave Ragan and Greg Jones. Jack Nicklaus, the course designer, and pre-tournament favorite, led a field of seven pros at even-par 71. Nicklaus "played better than I've been playing, but didn't play well enough," and predicted no golfer would have four sub-par rounds this year.

Still in position at 72 to make a run at the leaders were 10 golfers.

MIKE GARRETT (21) of Kansas City leaps over guard and teammate Ed Budde (71) just before he was hauled down in the first quarter after a six-yard gain. The Chiefs took the game from the Denver Broncos 31-17. (UPI telephoto)

Chiefs Grind Past Denver By 31-17

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Mo Moorman also sat out the second half after suffering the hip pads, drove 80 yards twice for first-half touchdowns and defeated the Denver Broncos, 31-17, before 48,773 Thanksgiving Day fans.

The victory may have been costly for the Chiefs, however. Quarterback Len Dawson was sidelined in the first half with a knee injury. Tight end Fred Arbanas and offensive guard

Tatum Gets Unanimous Big Ten Tab

CHICAGO (UPI)—Only two players, defensive backs Tom Curtis of Michigan and Jack Tatum of Ohio State, were unanimous choices of Big Ten coaches in selecting the 1969 United Press International all-conference football team announced today.

Tatum, a junior from Passaic, N.J., was named at linebacker by two coaches and at defensive back by the other eight, while Curtis, who intercepted five passes, second in the conference, was placed at safety by every coach.

Ohio State, starting the Big Ten title with Michigan, the Wolverines and third-place Purdue dominated the all-conference team. The Buckeyes placed 13 men on the 44-player offensive and defensive units of two teams each. Michigan had nine and Purdue eight.

Ohio State's strength was on defense and seven of the 11 man first defensive unit came from the Buckeyes, including three of the four backs. Also in the backfield with Tatum were Mike Sensibaugh, the league leader in interceptions, and Ted Provost.

Other Buckeyes on the first defensive unit were end Dave Whitfield, tackle Paul Schmudlin, guard Jim Stillwagon and linebacker Doug Adams. Other players on the top defensive team were end Rich Saul of Michigan State and tackle Bill Yancher and linebacker Veno Paraskevas of Purdue.

ISU, Boise State Meet Monday In Pocatello For Hoop Opener

POCATELLO — The 1969-70 version of Basketball — Idaho State Style — will be presented for its first official appearance on December 1st. Boise State will be the first opponent. The game will be played at 8 p.m.

Idaho State may present a starting lineup of O'Neil Simmons (8-0) and Willie Humes (6-1) at guards, Charley Barber (6-8) at center, and James Bonner (6-0½) and John Cullum (6-4½) at forwards. Coach Dan Miller has a talented array of performers who could work up to a start, or at least play a lot.

6-9 center Abe Gibbons has turned on lately with a variety of keyhole moves. Mike Gurnel (6-4½) and DeWitt Walton (6-6) are brutal rebounders and Trent Magner (5-11) is a fine playmaker.

BSC coach Murray Satterfield has indicated he will send all veteran quintet against Coach Dan Biller's Bengals with Senior Keith Burke out of the opener with a sprained ankle, the Bronco mentor will shuffle his veterans somewhat.

Either Junior Ron Austin 6-2 or Joe Gillespie 6-7 will get the nod at the pivot while Wendy Hart 6-2 and Renee Ruth 6-2 go at Guards. This leaves 6-8 Bill Otey and 6-9 Don Barnes at the Forwards.

Boise State divided a pair of games against the Bengals last season, dropping a 67-63 opener in Pocatello and then handing the Bengals a 93-75 setback in Boise a month later.

"Our workouts this past week have gone well and with some four weeks of practice behind us we feel we are ready for the opener", Satterfield said Friday.

Besides the first five mentioned, Satterfield also said Marty Morin, the Tacoma Junior College transfer and Tom Dreschel, North Idaho J.C. transfer would see plenty of game action against the Bengals.

Connor remained undecided on his starting Frosh five, but hopes to play the entire squad against the Bengal Freshmen to get an idea of the future.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—Head Coach Charley Winters of the St. Louis Cardinals said Thursday that Jim Holt will start at quarterback Sunday against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

ROANOKE, Va. (UPI)—Tailback Terry Smoot scored four touchdowns Thursday in leading a Virginia Tech stampede that buried winless Virginia Military 52-0.

Smoot, a 198-pound senior who set three school records with his performance, scored on runs of one, eight, 25 and 22 yards and repeatedly hammered the porous Keydet line for long gainers to keep drives alive as VMI went down to its 10th straight defeat to wind up its worst season ever.

King Hill Area Granges Install Aides

KING HILL — Officers of the King Hill Grange were installed during a recent joint installation ceremony with the Elmore County Pomona Grange and the Mariposa Grange of Mountain Home.

Frank Jones was installed master of the King Hill Grange with Karl Anderson, steward; Mrs. Jones, assistant secretary; Mrs. John Davis, treasurer; John Davis, assistant steward; Mrs. Arthur Greer, Ceres; Mrs. Anderson, pianist, and Mrs. Greer, women's activity chairman.

Pomona officers installed were Karl Anderson, King Hill, master; Frank Jones, steward; Joseph Bonecher, overseer; John Davis, assistant steward; Mrs. Davis, assistant secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Swensen, secretary; Mrs. Steven Waters, treasurer; Mrs. Lyle Northrup, Ceres; Lyle Northrup, gatekeeper, and Mrs. Anderson, pianist.

A committee was named to draft a resolution on changing the electoral college to be presented at the State Grange Convention. Members of the committee are Mrs. Swensen, Mrs. Waters and Joe Bonecher.

Rupert Man Honored By Kraft Foods

RUPERT — Glen O. Hill, 1401 E. St., Rupert, has been honored by Kraft Foods with the presentation of the J. L. Kraft Ring Award, in recognition of his outstanding services. He is plant engineer for Kraft in Rupert.

A jade ring, a citation certificate and a personal letter of thanks from Kraft's president, O. E. Swain, were presented to Mr. Hill, at the Holiday Jant, Pocatello, by E. W. Virtue, plant manager.

Glen Hill was cited for going far and above normal job requirements in his contributions to the development of a separator disc washer and a control for the cooking vat in the Swiss cheese making operation. He was praised for improving plant efficiency, improving cheese quality and eliminating sanitation problems. His efforts have resulted in increased efficiency and cost reductions.

The Jade Ring Award which Glen Hill received is one of the company's most prized awards, initiated in 1933 by the late James L. Kraft, founder of the company for special recognition of meritorious service.

Of this award Mr. Kraft said: "Jade in ancient times was considered a symbol of worth and honor; therefore, it is a fitting gift to bestow on Kraft men who have merited special recognition. It is a particularly fitting emblem to recognize service and initiative beyond normal job requirements."

Political Science Professor Foresees Problems At 1972 Democratic Convention

By RAYMOND LAHR
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dr. Austin Ranney, professor of political science at the University of Wisconsin, leaned on the horseshoe desk in the Senate committee room to preface some remarks with a paternal warning.

The 1972 Democratic National Convention, he said, is sure to have "a record number" of challenges to the seating of delegates sent by the 50 states.

There was no visible wincing on the part of his fellow members of the Democratic party's commission on party structure and delegate selection.

Yet that committee was created to write standards to be followed by state Democratic organizations to avoid contests over seating delegates. It was set up at the behest of followers of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, who felt they had been cheated by party bosses in the delegate selection for the 1968 convention.

Under the chairmanship of Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota, it has agreed on a set of 19 guidelines to be followed by the state party organizations, each state is asked to give the presidential candidates their share of delegates while insuring representation for Negroes, Jews, the young, Democrats of Polish ancestry and other groups. At the same time, delegates are supposed to be drawn from areas within a state so as to give equal weight to population and the Democratic vote in the 1968 election for those areas.

By 1972, the Democratic party may be in a mood for accommodation and compromise. But in 1969, it appears that it had surrendered to conservatism. Will D. Davis, former Texas state chairman, said some of the commission's proposals were so radical that they never would be carried out.

John F. English, national committeeman from New York, suggested that all state chairmen be invited to a meeting to hear the commission's decisions explained and defended. Each state party organization, he said, felt that it alone was the target of the McGovern commission.

The commission voted to require delegations to include representation for minority groups, women and people under 30 in "reasonable relationship to the group's presence in the population in the state."

A majority of the commission opposed winner-take-all presidential primaries but merely urged that they be abandoned. In the quilted pattern of practices followed by 50 state party organizations, each state is asked to give the presidential candidates their share of delegates while insuring representation for Negroes, Jews, the young, Democrats of Polish followed by the states in picking delegates for the 1972 convention.

Some state Democratic organizations probably will be docile in their acceptance of the new standards and others rebellious. Members of the commission disagreed about the impact of the product.

Dr. Aaron Henry, Negro Mississippi party chairman, felt that it had surrendered to conservatism. Will D. Davis, former Texas state chairman, said some of the commission's proposals were so radical that they never would be carried out.

Religion Today

By Rev. Lester Kinsolving

A unique concept of "unlawful entry" was established during a "peace mass" at this city's enormous shrine of the immaculate conception, during the recent conference of Catholic bishops.

Six people, including a priest and a girl in a wheelchair, were arrested for "unlawful entry"—despite the fact they were outside the building.

They neither shouted nor in any other way disrupted the incoming congregation of 7,000—except to distribute leaflets.

The arrests, upon order of Cornelius Hein, a representative of the shrine's director, Monsignor William McDonough, took place at the time that the massive congregation was singing about "The Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave," during what is probably history's most military "peace" service.

Featured in the service were the Catholic choirs of all four of the service academies (although nobody at the shrine was able to disclose just who paid the transportation costs from Colorado Springs of the Air Force Academy Choir.) There were also bands of sword-wielding Knights of Columbus, one of whom, a bit rusty on his manual of arms, very nearly put out the eye of a fellow knight.

Following the opening procession (25 minutes in length) which included 200 of the richly robed prelates, there was another procession, in awesome silence punctuated only by loud military commands, of five flags, with a rifle-carrying color guard.

The leaflets distributed by the six arrested persons called this service a "quasi-military mass" which is a scandal and asked the bishops to "speak about the American war in Vietnam," because "the bishops are the pastors of American Roman Catholics and a pastor must care about the problems of the people—more than 700,000 soldiers and countless civilians have been killed in Vietnam."

But aside from a brief statement regarding prisoners of war, the bishops declined to speak on this issue.

"We have spoken on this subject on three previous occasions," explained the president of the Conference of Catholic Bishops, John Cardinal Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit. "I don't believe there are any new elements about it. I don't feel we need to pass judgment on a political issue."

(As for the propriety of arresting six Catholics for the crime of standing outside of a Catholic Church, the Cardinal replied: "This is not a conference matter. I don't know what happened there." This answer came four days after the arrests on the grounds of a church which is a national shrine rather than under the jurisdiction of the local archdiocese. And Cardinal Dearden is the president of the national hierarchy.)

Yet the Cardinal offered no explanation as to what "new elements" motivated the bishops to issue a strong defense of priestly celibacy (which they have addressed before) as well as a bitter attack on the U.S. government for its "programs against the right to life . . . in the matter of population control through limitation of births."

There was, however, some hope for the millions of Catholics who will regard this anti-population control resolution as a sort of ecclesiastical death wish, for the resolution had opposition: with 20 of the 163 bishops voting against it.

There was, however, some hope for the millions of Catholics who will regard this anti-population control resolution as a sort of ecclesiastical death wish, for the resolution had opposition: with 20 of the 163 bishops voting against it.

Bishop Aloysius Wycislo of Green Bay, who wrote the resolution along with New York's Cardinal Cooke and Bridgeport's Bishop Walter Curtis, explained to a press conference that in debate among the bishops, the expressed opposition consisted of the question "why repeat our stand?"

When asked if this was the only opposition, he conceded that one bishop had "felt that this resolution might be regarded as imposing the church's views upon all Americans."

And while Bishop Wycislo refused to identify this dissenter, later in the press conference, after he had departed, Father Robert Trisco, an official conference observer, revealed that the Bishop in point was Bernard Kelly, Auxiliary Bishop of Providence, Rhode Island.

Father Trisco also disclosed that yet another bishop had expressed objection. Bishop Peter Gerry of Portland, Maine, he reported, warned his fellow prelates that "this resolution will open us to all kinds of attacks."

And very probably in the vanguard of the attacking force predicted by the intrepid Maine bishop will be thousands of Catholic women who find it outrageous for a majority of their bishops to be so much more concerned about pills than the loss of their sons and husbands in Vietnam.

THIS FARMER is one of thousands who donate labor and equipment for use on the Minidoka LDS Stake welfare farm near Rupert. His LDS member is donating his time and equipment to help harvest the sugar beet crop on the farm.

Thousands Of LDS Members Donate Labor, Equipment For Welfare Farm At Rupert

RUPERT—When a thousand people band together voluntarily and donate thousands of hours to make sure others less fortunate than they are cared for, they are to be commended.

One such group of people is to be found in Minidoka County where last year alone 1,337 people donated 6,411 hours of their time to making a go of the Minidoka Stake LDS welfare farm. The 360-acre plot is located two miles west and four miles north of Rupert and was opened in 1962.

Prior to the purchase of the farm by the stake, several of the 12 wards in the stake owned and operated individual smaller farms.

In that year, however, it was decided to sell the smaller farms and purchase one large one. Some $75,000 was borrowed at that time to finance the transaction, and that amount was repaid from farm income in five years. Also financed was the building of a $30,000 home for the hired manager of the operation.

Norman Seibold has been manager of the farm since 1962. Since then also some four miles of concrete ditches have been poured, and an existing shed remodeled within to provide facilities for a shop. In the shop are welders, cutting torches, and various tools necessary for minor repair of the machinery, and also storage space for the equipment.

The farm owns two tractors and a potato harvester, so much of the farm equipment also is donated. Also in 1968, some 973 equipment hours also were donated to the farm.

Granaries near the shop store about 12,000 bushels of grain grown there and sold for feed or shipped to the Salt Lake City flour mills.

This year the land was divided into 90 acres each of potato and sugar beets, 10 acres of wheat, 64 acres of barley, and about 56 acres of hay. The wheat is sent to Salt Lake while the barley and hay are sold to dairymen and feeders.

Average yields per acre this year included 75 bushels of wheat and a ton and a half of hay from the wheat fields, 100 bushels of barley, 225 hundredweight sack of potatoes, and 22 tons of beets.

From the yields on the farm, about $15,000 is sent to the Salt Lake City headquarters for the stake's assessment for the church-wide welfare program. Part of that money is paid for in wheat and in sugar beets sold for sugar for the program.

Mr. Seibold and most of the ward members seem eager to help add when help is needed he just notifies the wards, gives them a certain day, and workers are on the job to help on that day.

The program is designed to care for needy members who are unable to care for themselves because of advanced age, physical or mental handicaps, or other reasons. Some 244 church members are on the county's welfare list.

Welfare items are distributed by way of the Deseret Industries. The largest storehouse unit for the Industries is at Welfare Square in Salt Lake City. From the square is supplied clothing, shoes and food to the needy.

Most food comes from the local farm. Evaporated milk, dried milk, cottage cheese, butter and milk are processed at Welfare Square. A giant storage elevator at the center holds enough grain to load a train of 191 boxcars nearly two miles long.

CAROL JAY KUNZLER

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kunzler, Vlow, has been awarded the Golden Gleam Award by the LDS Church. She is a Bur-Joy High School and Brigham Young University graduate and currently is a secretary in the administrative offices of Seminaries and Institutes of Religion at Provo.

Evangelistic Crusade To Conclude Sunday In Filer

FILER — The 12-day evangelistic crusade at the Filer First Baptist Church, will continue nightly through Sunday with Ernie Habecker, Tampa, Fla., as speaker.

Rev. Roy W. Watson, pastor of the church, said services are held at 8 p.m. daily.

The choir and congregational singing is under the direction of Rev. Joe Johns, Missionary Church, Filer. Assisting him is Linda Sharp of the Filer Nazarene Church, as pianist and Phyllis Peterson, organist.

Saturday, a musical trio known as the Spiritones, will be featured in the service. They will be singing several selections from their recently released album, "Born to Serve the Lord." This is the group's first album.

A community-wide youth fellowship will follow the Saturday evening service. A special skit will be presented by the evangelist followed by refreshments.

Subjects to be discussed during the remainder of the crusade include "Who Am I?" tonight, "The Regeneration Gap" on Saturday and on Sunday, "The Greatest Battle Ever Fought."

Everyone is invited to any or all services.

First Presbyterian Church Of T.F. Organized In 1905

By REV. ROBERT C. HARVEY
Pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Twin Falls

Presbyterians have always been mixed up in the life of the world about them. So mixed up in the American Revolution were they that a British member of Parliament is said to have remarked to one of his colleagues, "Cousin America has run off with a Presbyterian Patson!"

This concern for all of life is found all through the pages of the Bible from the Prophets through the teaching of Jesus to the Letters of Paul, and other early Church leaders.

It took very concrete form in the person of John Calvin, who is usually known as the Father of Presbyterianism. Calvin was one of the original reformers living in Switzerland at the same time that Martin Luther was working in Germany. He was as much concerned about the city council and garbage collectors of Geneva as he was about its churches. His determination that the whole city should be obedient to God got him into trouble and he was run out of town. A few years later, however, the city government was in such chaos that he was begged to come back and set up a kind of theocracy in Geneva.

One of his most ardent disciples was a Scotsman by the name of John Knox. He too believed that Christianity was a religion for every day and every act, not just for Sunday and worship. For several years he carried on a running battle with Mary, Queen of Scots, to secure religious freedom for Protestants in Scotland. He was successful and the result was the first church to be called Presbyterian.

It remains to this day the state church of Scotland and to it most American Presbyterian Churches eventually trace their lineage.

From the very beginning, Presbyterians stressed representative government, education for everyone and a trained clergy. Thus, everywhere they have gone, Presbyterians have worked hard for public education, have established colleges and universities, and have insisted that their pastors have a seminary education beyond college.

It has also maintained its interest in the total life of man and the society in which he lives. Many of those interests are reflected in the local church. There is an emphasis on the education, not only of children and youth, but also of adults. Many short-term study groups have been held over the years in which adults can sharpen their awareness of God's word, the theology that relates to it and the world to which it speaks.

On-going groups, such as the Women's Association, have also made education an important part of their activity. Christian growth in young people revolves around two week-day programs. On Tuesdays, senior highs come to the church for fellowship and learning in areas of importance to them in the light of the Christian faith. On Thursdays, the same goals are in mind as junior high young people gather at the church. In addition, there are occasional opportunities for travel and services to those who need their help.

Today With All Faiths Presents CHURCH OF THE WEEK

Young people are also encouraged to come to worship services and to take part in some of the church committees and structures. Occasionally they participate in services of worship. Education for children is centered in the Sunday morning program of the church. Classes for each age level stress the kind of knowledge that a Christian ought to have in order to act out his Christian faith in all areas of life by the time he is an adult.

The representative government envisioned by Calvin and Knox is carried out in the local church through the session. It is composed of twenty-four Elders, elected by the congregation, to be the governing body of the local church. An equal number of pastors and elders form the Presbytery, an area-wide governing body that had jurisdiction over the sessions.

Two more representative bodies, the Synod and the General Assembly, form the remainder of the Presbyterian system of government.

Recognizing that the sweeping changes in today's society are both a challenge and a source of irritation, the session has authorized two services of worship for Sunday morning. One, held at 9:30, makes greater use of contemporary materials and is more informal; utilizing discussion, panels and other means of presenting topics of current interest in their Christian setting.

This service is held in the Fireside Lounge so that the physical arrangement can be varied according to the kind of service. Church School is also held at this hour so that families may all come to the church at the same time and be involved on their own age levels if they wish.

The second service, held at 11 a.m. in the Sanctuary, is more traditional in nature. In both services, the claim of God upon all of life is upheld.

Service to the community is of continuing interest to the congregation. Through the Board of Deacons, the Women's Association and other groups, as well as through many concerned individuals, the congregation seeks to show compassion in the name of Christ to any whose needs come to its attention.

The First Presbyterian Church of Twin Falls was organized in 1905. Its first pastor was the Rev. John Gourley, some of whose great-grandchildren are still active in the church. The first unit of the present building, the Sanctuary, was constructed in 1920.

A Christian Education unit was added in 1950 and further space for Christian Education, offices and a gymnasium were completed in 1960. The building is used by a variety of organizations other than the church, including the YMCA, the YWCA, the Headstart Program, and a number of other groups.

This wide usage is in line with the Presbyterian concept of making the whole church an instrument of God's service to all men.

Church Group Is Collecting Toys

SHOSHONE—The Mets group, sponsored by the Shoshone Episcopal Church is collecting repairable toys to give as Christmas presents to Children of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation and to the orphanage at Boise, according to Geanine Kistling, member of the group.

Anyone wishing to donate may leave the toys at the green house next to the Church before Dec. 14.

The Mets and Beta Club will ring doorbells the evening of Dec. 7 for collection of donations for the Muscular Dystrophy Fund.

THIS CHURCH building, home of the First Presbyterian Church of Twin Falls, was built in 1905.

Gooding LDS Stake Has Conference

JEROME — Sessions of the Gooding Stake quarterly conference of the LDS Church were held recently at the Gooding Stake House in Jerome, with Stake President Richard N. Everson presiding.

Ellen Cox, Wendell, was the chorister for the conference, with Maurine Byington at the organ. Special musical numbers were presented by the Wendell Ward Choir with Hartje Smith, directing.

The theme of the conference was "How to make the Brotherhood of the Priesthood a real and rich experience for the individual."

A film was presented entitled "The Three Witnesses," covering the testimony of the three witnesses to the Book of Mormon, after which Lucille Merkley, Jerome second ward, and Grant B. Humphries, Jerome first ward, gave short talks on the most important message of the film to them.

Speaking were W. B. Butler, Gooding stake patriarch; Bishop Karl Black, Hunt; Kenneth Gifford, Jerome First LDS Ward; John Morley, Jerome First LDS Ward, and President Everson.

J. Glen Anderson was released as Gooding Stake M.I.A. president and was sustained as a high councilman.

Also released from the Stake M.I.A. were Raymond O. Peterson, first counselor, and Robert Fisk, secretary, as well as Gilbert and Cathy Schmitt of Gooding as Men and Gleaner leaders.

Wilma Hougaard, Gooding, was released as counselor in the Stake Relief Society, and Mabel Smith, Jerome, also was released as counselor in the Stake Primary, and Caroline Van Orman from the Primary Board.

Lloyd Williams was released as Stake audio visual librarian. Ruth Peterson was released from the Relief Society.

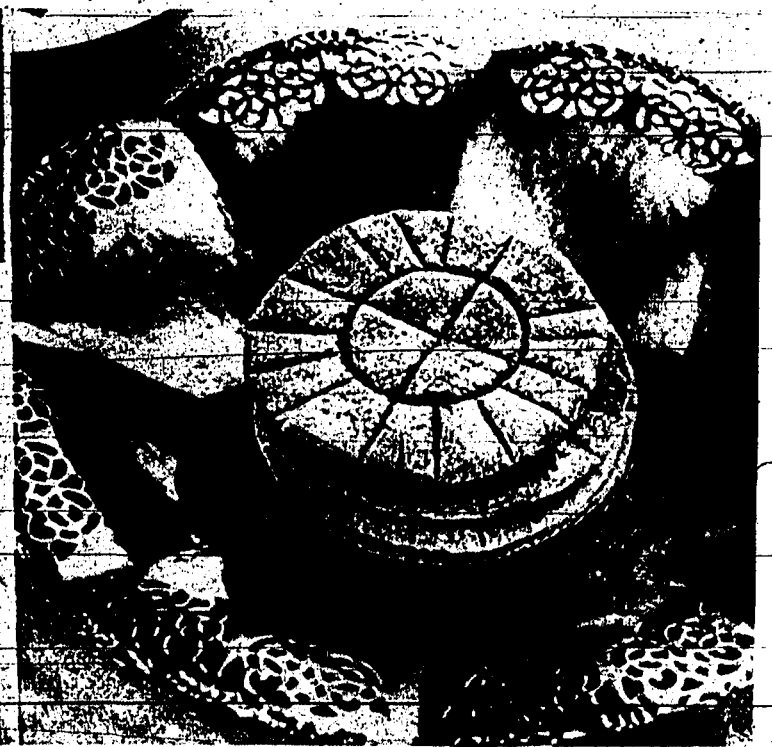

Lyman R. Dixon was sustained as an Elder. Leland Hansen, Wendell, was sustained as Stake M.I.A. superintendent, with Ray Olsen, Jerome, first counselor.

Anna Laura King, Wendell, was sustained as Stake Relief Society home making leader. Evelyn Fjala, Jerome, was sustained to the Stake Sunday School Board, and Charles and Rosalee Hawker from Hazelton were sustained as Stake missionaries.

The ordination of Michael Christensen to the office of Elder was ratified.

ALPHONSE E. WESTHOFF holds a new type host that may be used in the new Catholic Mass rite. The new rite specifies that the matter used for the Eucharistic celebration should really have the appearance of bread. It further specifies that this bread be unleavened and able to be broken into smaller parts for distribution to the faithful. The new host, right, rests in a tray which is one of the type containers that replace the traditional cup-shaped ciborium. Msgr. Westhoff gave a demonstration of the new mass rite to priests attending the recent Fall Pastoral Institute. (UPI telephoto)

Drug Films

Two Twin Falls detectives will be showing color films on drugs at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the Tyler Street Baptist Church.

The two films, "LSD, Insight or Insanity" and "Flight or Fight," will be shown by Ron Strolberg and Jim Kistler. The later films is the story of four young people who have used drugs, but who now with professional help have seen the error of their ways.

Both young people and adults are invited to view these films.

Dinner, Bazaar Planned At Paul

PAUL—The annual dinner and bazaar sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Paul United Methodist Church will get under way at 5:30 p.m. Dec. 5 with serving of the meal.

Committee members planning the event include Mrs. John Klamm, Mrs. Wesky Stoller

"Arab Feast" Planned By T.F. Church

Members of the Twin Falls First Southern Baptist Church will have an "Arab Feast" when they meet for a mission study about the Middle East at 7 p.m. Thursday in the church.

The book to be studied is "Sons of Ishmael: How Shall They Hear?" Each chapter will be presented by various church members. They include Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bossard, Mrs. Phil Cryder, Mrs. H. Clark and Mrs. Wayne Beus.

Arab recipes have been distributed and will be prepared for this meal by those attending. Planning the activities are Mrs. Don Hall, Mrs. Phil Cryder and Mrs. Howard Gibbs.

The mission study is in observance of the Foreign Missions Week, Nov. 30 Dec. 7.

and Mrs. Frank McCall. The menu will include ham and all the trimmings and homemade pie for dessert. No admission will be charged but a free-will offering will be accepted.

Party Slated By Walther League

WENDELL—The Gooding Wendell Walther League plans a Christmas party for Dec. 7 and will invite the Jerome, Rupert and Eden Leagues.

The meeting, held at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Gooding was called to order by Dale Thomas who led the devotions. Pastor John Freese, Jerome, presented the topic.

Loren Adams reported on a hay ride he had attended at Rupert. Carolyn Hill resigned as treasurer and Kathryn Serr was elected to fill the vacancy.

Dale Thomas is chairman in

Official To Talk

WENDELL—William Hooper, synod executive for the Synod of Idaho, will be guest speaker at the Wendell United Presbyterian Church at the 11 a.m. Worship Service Sunday.

Before coming to Idaho as synod executive in June, 1968, Rev. Hooper served as a missionary to Iran for 17 years. Mr. Hooper presently has charge of all Presbyterian work in Idaho.

Rev. L. I. LaMance, Pastor Of Assembly Of God Church, Came To T. F. In 1966

Rev. L. I. LaMance is one of Twin Falls' newest ministers, having moved here in July, 1966, to assume duties as pastor of the First Assembly of God Church on North Locust Street.

Rev. LaMance was born and raised in Spokane and Yakima, Wash., areas. When he was 18 years old, he became a Christian and shortly thereafter, felt the call of God to prepare for the ministry.

He enrolled in the Northwest College of the Assemblies of God in Seattle, and was graduated in the spring of 1944. During these college years, he found practical experience in ministering during the summer months and on school assignments to churches in Washington during the weekends.

During his final year in college, he helped form and became a part of, a men's quartet, which traveled in Washington representing the college. During the summer following graduation, he continued his ministry with the quartet until he married in July, 1944, in Seattle.

He and his wife, Sadie, then traveled to Montana where he pioneered and established a church at Laurel. In the years following, he pastored churches in Montana and North Dakota. While in North Dakota, he also served as district youth director.

In the fall of 1952, he became violently ill and it was discovered he had polio and was confined to the hospital in Grand Forks, N.D. In answer to much prayer and medical skill, he was able to return to his duties as minister after several months.

In 1958, while pastoring a thriving church at Sidney, Mont., he was asked to accept an administrative position with the Montana District Council of the Assemblies of God as the district Sunday school and youth director.

For 7½ years he served in this capacity until he decided to re-enter the pastoral ministry. He accepted a call to serve the Twin Falls First Assembly of God Church and moved to Twin Falls in 1966.

Besides his pastoral duties, Rev. LaMance is district men's fellowship director for the Southern Idaho District Council of Assemblies of God and also as presbyter of the district council.

He is treasurer of the Twin Falls Ministerial Fellowship and treasurer of the Magic Valley Chapter, National Association of Evangelicals.

He and his wife have three children. Jeanelle is a music and youth director in a church at Aberdeen, Wash. Dennis, a graduate of Twin Falls High School, is in his third year at Northwest College in Kirkland, Wash., and Joyce, a student at O'Leary Junior High School.

150 Attend Area LDS Ward Event

HAGERMAN—More than 150 persons attended the ward party at the Hagerman Ward LDS Church recently.

A potluck supper was held for ward members with the Relief Society in charge of preparing the turkeys and rolls. Bishop W. C. Choules was master of ceremonies.

A vocal duet was presented by Debbi Larson and Micci Akers, accompanied by Katie Choules, Lana Williams and Shelli Larson presented a novelty number.

Members of the ward primary sang, "Give Said the Little Stream," and Sylvia Dalton sang, accompanied by Mrs. Floyd Marsh.

Most Missionaries Sent Abroad Are White People

By LOUIS CASSELS
UPI Religion Writer

An overwhelming majority—more than 95 per cent—of the missionaries sent abroad by American churches are white people of Western European background.

The people among whom they serve in Africa, Asia and Latin America are predominantly non-white. They look with suspicion on white men and their cultural exports, including religion.

It has long been obvious that the missionary enterprise could be carried on more effectively, in many parts of the world, by dark-skinned American Christians.

But U.S. churches which recognize this fact have had little success in recruiting missionaries from black, Indian and Spanish-American communities.

Why? This question, often debated in private, has at last been dragged into the open by the Rev. Dr. Isaac Biven, personnel secretary of the Board of Missions of the United Methodist Church.

Dr. Biven's answer is that churches haven't tried hard enough to persuade minority group members that they are really needed and wanted for missionary service abroad.

In a recent statement addressed to Methodist leaders throughout the country, Dr. Biven said:

"Full recruitment efforts of minority people for missionary service is an indication that we want them as peers. It is precisely the appearance that we do not want them as peers which makes the task of recruitment very difficult at the moment."

Another obstacle, he said, is the "tremendous economic problem habitually present in the minority community."

"Minority young people state emphatically that they cannot afford to volunteer for our programs. Many of them are still the first of their families to go to college and are heavily in debt for their education. After graduation they are under pressure to 'get a good job' for they must prove to the family and community that education pays off."

There is still a third reason, not mentioned by Dr. Biven, why minority young people are disinterested in missionary careers. Idealistic youths of the black, Indian and Spanish-American communities are intensely preoccupied with relieving the plight of their own people right here in America. With so much to be done at home, they feel no great urge to seek fields of service in distant lands.

Reunion Set By 2 Buhl LDS Wards

BUHL — The Buhl First and Second LDS Wards will have a reunion Thanksgiving weekend.

The reunion commemorates the 50th anniversary of the organization of the First LDS Ward in Buhl, having been organized on July 30, 1919. The first church building was completed that same year.

On Jan. 1, 1950, the ward divided to make two new wards. A new church building was built and dedicated in 1954.

On Saturday, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., a social will be held. Sunday, from 2 to 5 p.m., an open house will be held at the church building. At 5 p.m. a combined sacrament meeting will be held.

All former ward members are invited as well as the public.

VISIT PLANNED

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Dr. Oswald Hoffman, speaker on The Lutheran Hour, has accepted an invitation from Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, "to be with us for a few days at Christmas-time 1969." Dr. Hoffman will leave here Dec. 17.
