Strong Opposition Voiced To Proposed Idaho Power Rate Hike At Hearing Here

By BONNIE BAIRD JONES
Times-News Staff Writer

Farmers, business owners and tax-supported institutions let it be known power utilities are not the only ones facing rising costs of operation when they appeared to testify in an Idaho Public Utilities Commission hearing in Twin Falls Monday morning.

The hearing was called to obtain comments on the proposed 20 per cent rate increase requested by Idaho Power Co.

A majority of the testimony presented in the Twin Falls portion of the state-wide hearing, came from pump land farmers of large and small land holdings. Approximately 75 persons attended the hearing and all testimony, aside from an opening statement from the utility, was strongly opposed to the increase.

Albert Carlson, president, Idaho Power Co., opened the testimony, presenting a resume of the firm's plans for expansion of facilities and the need to raise $250,000,000 to meet obligations and assure the user adequate power for any peak period. This must be obtained over the next five years, he said.

Hospital Board OK's $2,781,520 Budget

Members of the Magic Valley Memorial Hospital board of directors officially gave their approval to a $2,781,520 budget for 1970 at its monthly meeting Monday night.

The 1969 budget was $2,680,350.

cleaned each year without difficulty.

At the last meeting, the power situation was termed an emergency in that the switching device gets dirty and corroded and may not operate if outside power goes off.

Mrs. Irene Oliver said at the meeting the mill levy would remain the same next year. The levy brings in $146,000 annually, and it is this amount that taxpayers pay. The balance of the budget is raised by the operation of the hospital.

Hospital board members were told the hospital could be without power for as long as 30 minutes if the switch did not turn on the emergency power unit.

Mrs. Oliver said with the cleaning of the transfer switch, the power unit will work. She added the bypass switch will be installed in the near future.

It was also pointed out that the hospital's power comes from two substations, but lines from these substations go to one power pole outside the hospital.

Mrs. OTTIVER reported all Licensed Practical Nurses who completed training at the hospital this fall have passed their state licensing examination. She said 217 have graduated from the program since it was started in 1952.

Board Chairman Sid Greaves said he has talked with officials of the Idaho Power Co.

"And the majority of these people come to work at our hospital," she said.

It was reported an automatic transfer switch in the hospital's emergency power generator room has been cleaned. Additional work is required before a permanent bypass switch is installed so the unit can be

On the other hand, the company president said, overall revenue is low and the firm is the fifth lowest in the nation in kilowatt hour revenue.

He said 28 cents of every dollar of revenue goes to taxes which the utility pays as one of the state's largest taxpayers.

Rexburg Man Heads Idaho Spud Growers

BURLEY — New officers of the Potato Growers of Idaho, Inc., were announced Tuesday morning at the seventh annual state meeting opened at the Ponderosa Inn.

Research is aimed toward production of better quality, both in fresh potatoes and in frozen spuds, Dr. Ensign said. There are 18 research people conducting the various projects at Aberdeen, Twin Falls, Moscow, Parma and Peticola.

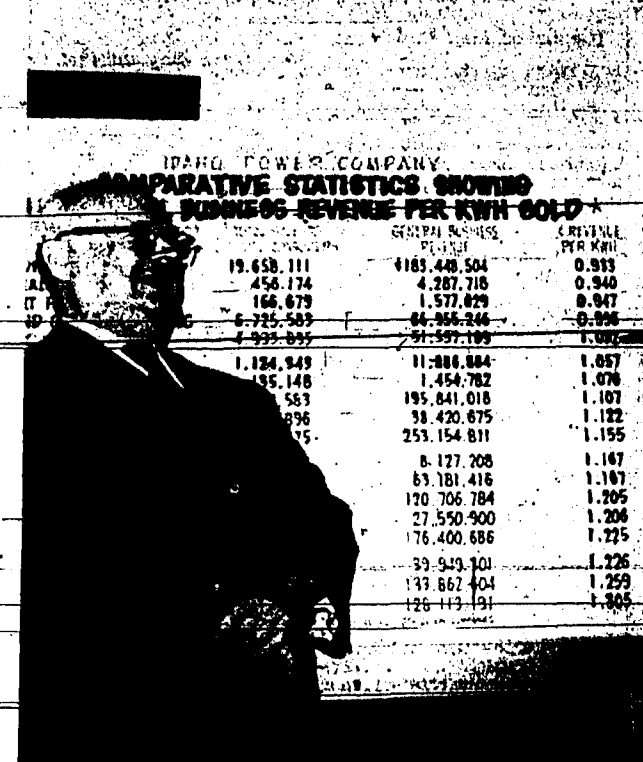

Dell Raybould, Rexburg, is the new president, with Leonard Schritter, Aberdeen; Dr. Ben Humphrey, Rupert, and Clarence Parr, Burley, all vice presidents.

Research in storage of potatoes is an important phase of the entire program and Walter Sparks, at the Aberdeen experimental station, is considered a world authority on this subject, Dr. Ensign said.

Dr. Ron Ensign, of the University of Idaho, reported on some 30 research projects underway in five locations in the state during the Tuesday morning session. He said research activities have been expanded in recent years with special grants received from the Onion and Potato Commission and the Idaho Potato Growers.

Richard Kerns, retiring president, and Don Robertson, vice chairman of the Potato Commission were other speakers this morning and J. R. Simplot addressed the luncheon.

A banquet is slated for 8 p.m. today followed by a dance and the state convales ends Wednesday after a full day of speeches and reports.

Nixon To Trim Viet Forces By Christmas

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon says his timetable for ending the Vietnam War is on schedule and he will be able to announce around Christmas plans to bring more American soldiers home.

He told a national television audience Monday night the war will end regardless of what happened at the Paris talks. He also said there appears to be a massacre of Vietnamese civilians at My Lai, and although it was an "isolated incident, under no circumstances was it justified."

It was his first news conference since September and second since June.

Nixon also:

—Threatened to veto the tax reform package if Congress sends it to him with a 15 per cent hike in Social Security benefits and a $200 increase in every taxpayer's income tax exemption.

—Praised Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's criticism of the nation's news media. He said Agnew's comments on separating editorial comment from news reporting were "useful suggestions."

—Said progress has been "good" in the U.S.-Soviet talks on the limitation of strategic arms and the outlook is encouraging.

—Said no decision has been made yet on whether he will call Congress back after Christmas to finish its work. "This Congress has the worst record in terms of appropriation bills of any Congress in history," he said.

In a 30-minute session dominated by questions about the war and hopes for peace, Nixon said North Vietnamese infiltration into the South is lower than it was one year ago and his plan to pull all combat forces out of Vietnam—"regardless of what happens in the negotiations"—is "going forward."

"As I will report to the nation, when I announce the troop withdrawal two or three weeks from now, I believe that developments since Nov. 3 speech have been on schedule."

On Nov. 3 Nixon said he had a timetable for Vietnamizing the war, aimed at turning the fighting over to the South Vietnamese.

The Pentagon said Monday the United States still has 475,200 troops in Vietnam. Nixon said he will have pulled 60,000 out by Dec. 15.

Price Of Gold Plummet To $35

LONDON (UPI)—The price of gold fell again today to the official price of $35 an ounce—a new free market low in the 20 months of operation of the gold market. A number of gold speculators and hoarders were believed to have suffered losses.

The price of $35 an ounce is the price at which government banks exchange the metal among themselves. It had reached a high of $43.83 earlier this year in Zurich during a currency crisis that led to French devaluation of the franc and West German upward revaluation of the mark.

Hearing

er counts up his acres from 900 to several thousand. At the same time, some of the large farm companies testifying said their margin of profit is now calculated at about one per cent and at the same time they must compete with farmers who obtain their water from canal companies and pay only a fraction of pumping costs.

Lloyd Walker, Twin Falls attorney, presented testimony on behalf of a group called the Twin Falls County Association, which he said included small independent businesses, individual farmers and customers of the power company.

Mr. Walker questioned the firm's planned tie-in with the companies of the Great Basin rather than the Pacific Coast regions. He asked the PUC to check closely into the question of whether or not the company was making the best decision for users and company stockholders.

J. P. Kelly, Jerome, also urged the commission to look behind the scenes in the company's requested rate increase. He said the Idaho Power Co. is actually owned by a J. C. Kennedy because Mr. Kennedy owns all of the bonds and thus dictates from out of the state to the Idaho concern.

Jean Milner, Twin Falls City Manager, said the taxpayers of Twin Falls would be paying another $19,000 per year under the rate increase and said the city expands its power use annually so this would increase further the city's power bill, he said, by more than $116,000 per year.

Ernest Ragland, Twin Falls School Superintendent, also opposed the rate, noting schools in Idaho are limited in revenue by new tax rate limitations, but their costs are mounting rapidly.

In 1962, he said, the district paid $25,000 in light and power bills and last year the figure was $36,465. While there are reportedly no major rate increases, he said the school is paying more and he questioned the rate of consumption had increased by that extent.

Burt Lemmon, president of Idaho Alfalfa Producers, objected to the demand as well as actual energy rate increase, saying this would hit the plant hard in off-season operations which make very little profit.

Merle Wolverson, Mark Moorhead, Howard Conrad, all Mountain pump and land farmers, Mr. Conrad also appeared on behalf of the Magic Valley Water Pumpers Association, 400 members strong; Idaho Irrigation Pumpers Association, involving several smaller groups including the Magic Valley unit, and the Idaho Reclamation Association. He said on his 900 irrigated acres he irrigates with wells of 4 to 500 foot depths and it costs about $17 per acre per year for power to operate the pumps. "An increase would raise this about $3 per acre per year which he said cannot be absorbed.

He asked for a show of pump farmers attending but not planning to testify but who object to the increase. A total of 30 persons stood to be counted in the hearing audience. Mr. Conrad said the Idaho Reclamation Association voted in its November meeting to oppose the rate increase.

Roger Bean, Rupert, president, Minidoka North Side Project Pumpers, gave similar testimony and reminded PUC officials of the 10-year contract binding farmers who use ground water pumped by electricity.

Others who testified included Maurice Eckert, Buhl, president, Magic Water Co., and Harold Griffith, Hazelton, superintendent of the North Side Pump Co., also opposed the rate increase.

PUC officials said at the close of the hearing it will reconvene Wednesday in Pocatello. When all testimony is presented, formal interviews will be able to cross examine, and it is believed a decision on granting or denying the increase can be expected by spring.

Weather Synopsis

Snow was still falling this morning over Eastern and Central Idaho, but had decreased considerably in the Southwest Idaho and Malheur Valleys. The snow should decrease to an occasional flurry in the Eastern Idaho valleys by tonight. However, another in this family of Pacific disturbances is approaching the coast; and general snow is likely to spread across Eastern Oregon and Southern Idaho again Wednesday and Wednesday night.

The air mass is so moist that considerable cloudiness and areas of fog are expected to continue between the periods of snow.

Winds are likely to increase to 10 to 18 miles per hour at times this afternoon and to cause some drifting snow in exposed areas. However, this snow seems to be fairly wet, so that drifting will not be as severe as it would be if it were colder.

Motorists should exercise the usual wintertime precautions and carry chains and a shovel. Temperatures will change little unless unexpected general clearing occurs tonight. Fog and and one-half inches in the current storm.

Although the snow was not heavy, a second storm was reported moving in later in the week.

Highway officials said in addition to plows and defroster blades, all sanding trucks also were busy Tuesday. Intersections in major towns were sanded early and trucks sanded the entire section of U. S. Highway 93 from Twin Falls to the Perrine Bridge.

Even though the storm brought only nominal amounts of snow to most ski resort slopes, it brightened the outlook for skiers who have generally been unable to ski because of shallow snow cover.

Officials at Sun Valley Ski Resort differed with the Highway Department reports, estimating snowfall on the Valley floor at four inches. Much more fell on the ski slopes the publicity department reported and the resort will be able to open on schedule this Saturday.

All equipment will be operating Saturday for the official season opening and most accommodations are well booked for the weekend.

Pomerale, near Burley, opened last weekend and will undoubtedly be greatly improved by the new snowfall.

No opening date has been listed by Magic Mountain, Soldier Mountain or Rotarun, although the Magic Mountain area reports ski runs improving with each snowfall and it is hoped to open Dec. 30.

Forest Service reports from Fairfield indicated about two inches of snow in town from the current storm.

The membership approved a recommendation made earlier by the board of directors in withdrawing the protest.

Air West had been scheduled to discontinue Hailey flights Dec. 1, but since the protest, the carrier has been making a required one flight a day in and out of the area. The flight, however, is primarily for mail service and does not provide passengers in or out of the resort area connections with flights at other airports.

Robert Vernon, chamber member, said it is the aim of the chamber to improve air service at the Hailey Airport.

The chamber announced Santa Claus will visit Hailey again Dec. 20 and on that date the chamber will sponsor a free movie for children in Wood River Valley.

It was announced a cleanup project at the Hailey Airport, requested by Chet Moulton, Idaho's director of aeronautics, will be delayed until spring because of the weather.

Charles Harris, Hailey businessman, told chamber members he will again furnish a loudspeaker to broadcast Christmas music in the city.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin C. Johnson, Eugene, Ore., formerly of Filer and Twin Falls. Funeral services were held Tuesday in Eugene.

Mrs. Olga Okyan Hazelton, has been admitted to the Twin Falls Clinic Hospital for medical treatment.

Deadlines On Tax Payments Are Nearing

Deadline on personal property taxes, as well as on real property taxes, is nearing Clifford Thompson, county assessor said Tuesday.

He said about 20 per cent of the total approximately $444,000, or some $80,000, has been paid to date and there are only nine office days remaining before the deadline of Dec. 22.

Mr. Thompson reminded personal property owners their payments must be brought to his office on the third floor of the courthouse or mailed to his office. If mailed they must be postmarked by midnight Dec. 22 to avoid the two per cent penalty and eight per cent interest that is required under state law on all late tax payments.

Jones said the real property collections also are coming in unusually slow this year and she looks for some waiting lines at her office and a heavy influx of mail in the remaining few days. Deadline on real property tax is Dec. 20.

Bull Mauls

Youth, 3, At Wendell

WENDELL — Three-year-old Eric Brown is feeling a little better now. He was mauled by a 1,500-pound bull on his parent's farm Monday.

"He'll be in a little pain and uncomfortable for some time, but he's going to be okay," his mother said.

Eric is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown.

The mishap happened Monday on the Brown ranch west of here.

Eric was playing while his father milked some cows. His father heard the boy yelling and went out to see what was happening and saw the bull mauling the boy about the head and chest. It was reported.

The boy was treated by a physician. The bull was destroyed.

Rumors Of Marriage Are Denied

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House sought Monday to squelch new reports that Tricia Nixon is about to become engaged to a Harvard law student.

Connie Stuart, Mrs. Nixon's staff director, told reporters she has been busy knocking down rumors that the President's 23-year-old daughter was about to announce an engagement to Edward Finch Cox, a member of a New York socialite family.

A dinner arranged by Cox's parents, Col. and Mrs. Howard Cox, for next Saturday in New York for their son's friends, including Tricia, set off the latest rumors.

Mrs. Stuart insisted that there are no plans for Tricia to announce her engagement at the dinner.

"She's definitely not engaged," Mrs. Stuart said with a sigh. "She is going to get engaged some day."

Mrs. Stuart said Tricia had told her she has "other dates" from time to time.

Both Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Cox have emphatically denied a White House wedding is in the offing.

Singers Banned At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Attorneys for the singing group known as "Steppenwolf" accused a gambling spa Monday of refusing them accommodations because of their appearance.

In a telegram addressed to President Alex Shootery and Vice President Bill Miller at the International Hotel, a Los Angeles law firm said legal action would be taken unless the resort took steps "to remedy the wrongs committed against our clients" within 24 hours.

Sen. Edward Kennedy Issues Protest On Magazine Story Of Father's Death, Says It Was 'Unnecessarily Cruel'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., has protested as "unnecessarily cruel" a news magazine's article on the death of his father, former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy.

In a letter published in the current edition of Newsweek, Kennedy wrote: "In evaluating the long life of this man, Newsweek failed to provide a balanced view."

The senator cited three examples of what he termed unjustified statements in the Newsweek account. The first was that the eldest Kennedy son, Joe Jr., had been "reckless" in the World War II mission which cost him his life.

Kennedy also objected to a statement that his father had been "ashamed" of the fact that a "daughter, Rosemary, was mentally retarded. He also took issue with the article's implication that his father had "stared" his children and abandoned them "to be raised by my mother."

Lady Waits For '70 Sticker, Puts It On Wrong Vehicle

BUHL — License sticker time is bad whenever it comes, but when the lines are long and the waiting even longer then people should pity the woman who put her sticker on the wrong car.

It happened here last week.

Officials in the assessor's office here said a woman purchased her 1970 sticker, then went into the parking lot to put it on her car.

Only one thing wrong. She put the sticker on the wrong car. By the time she discovered her mistake the owner of the car had driven off.

The woman, who was not identified, reported her plight to officials in the assessor's office. A search was made and the owner of the wrongly stickered car was found.

The matter, at last report, is being taken care of.

The woman who put the sticker on the wrong car at least won't have to wait in line all over again.

Toastmistress Awards Listed Following Meet

Blue pencils were awarded to Mrs. Dale Ghan and Mrs. James Sinclair for their speeches at the regular meeting of the Twin Falls Toastmistress Club.

Their speeches followed the theme of the meeting, "Women and the Holidays." Mrs. William Jamison was the third speaker.

Mrs. DeAnn Fuller received the best performance traveling trophy.

Mrs. Les Jones, president, conducted the Friday meeting at the Colonial House. Mrs. Carl Grabert was grammarian and Mrs. Lee Blitzenburg was general evaluator. Other evaluators were Mrs. Jones and Mrs. John Pastoor. Mrs. Ben Eldredge served as timer and presented the closing reading.

Mrs. Carl Grabert conducted table topics and Mrs. Larry Anderson gave the lexicology.

Mrs. Eldredge conducted induction for Mrs. William Jamison and Mrs. E. D. Taylor, new members.

Guests were Nancy Kennedy, who recently moved here from Texas; Mrs. Maurice Huffman, Hooten, and Mrs. Lois Andrews, Wendell.

The next meeting will be at 9 a.m. Jan. 9 at the Colonial House.

Senate Hearings Slated Dec. 16

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate hearings on President Nixon's consumer program will begin Dec. 16. Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, announced Monday.

Moss, chairman of the Senate Consumer Subcommittee, said he would hold two days of hearings that would be "general in nature" and that further hearings would be held Feb. 3-5 to study "specific details" of the president's program.

Also to be taken up at the hearings, Moss said, would be his own bill to strengthen government protection of consumer interests.

The last living Kennedy son said "the article was unnecessarily cruel and its presence in our home, so soon after his death, added to my mother's grief and the sorrows of the rest of my family had to bear."

At another point, the senator wrote: "I wish you could have devoted at least a line to the generosity, humor and heart my father had in such abundance, but nowhere were these qualities indicated. I could not recognize my father from your portrayal of him."

An aide confirmed that Kennedy had written the letter and expected no reply from the magazine. Newsweek published it in their letters-to-the-editor section without comment.

Peace Initiative

President Nixon's renunciation of chemical and bacteriological warfare should effectively live up to his hope that it will prove "an initiative toward peace."

There is no question that it will have a salutary effect around the world, which sorely needs peace to have a chance of solving other problems of mankind's survival such as the population explosion and environmental degradation.

His unilateral pledge is one of commonsense. With an overkill supply of nuclear weapons at his disposal (and at Russia's), there is no need for any reliance on gas and germs. Other nations surely will join in rejecting such repugnant weapons. Nixon said he believed his action will sharply reduce the possibility that chemical or germ weapons ever will be used by any nation.

His action is expected to lead to early ratification of the 1925 Geneva protocol prohibiting the first use in war of "asphyxiating, poisonous or other gases and of bacteriological methods of warfare."

Nixon said he would resubmit to the Senate the 1925 Geneva protocol which never was formally adopted by the U. S. Senator Mike Mansfield, Democratic majority leader, predicted its swift approval, commenting: "I see no reason why there should be any controversy. It's 44 years overdue."

Long-standing American policy has rejected first use of lethal chemicals. Now President Nixon has extended the renunciation to first use of chemicals which incapacitate without killing, and to all use of germ warfare, even to retaliate. Therefore, existing germ warfare stockpiles will be destroyed.

"Biological weapons have massive, unpredictable and potentially uncontrollable consequences," Nixon said, which could produce global epidemics and impair the health of future generations.

"Mankind already carries in its own hands too many of the seeds of its own destruction," Nixon said. "By the examples we set today, we hope to contribute to an atmosphere of peace and understanding between nations and among men."

The Soviet Union has called in the United Nations for a new international pact barring the production of chemical and bacteriological weapons. The United States also will support a British proposal to reinforce the Geneva protocol by spelling out more specifically a total ban on germ warfare and destruction of existing bacteriological weapons.

Nixon said the U. S. would seek to assure necessary safeguards in the British draft so as not to "leave us vulnerable to surprise by an enemy who does not observe these rational restraints."

With the ratification Nov. 22 by the U. S. and the U. S. S. R. of the A-ban treaty and the auspicious opening of their Helsinki discussions on arms limitations, Nixon's new move may well presage a new era of greater mutual trust, essential to disarmament and peace.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—President Nixon clings seriously to the prospect of a negotiated settlement with Hanoi in the Paris because it is probably the only way of getting all U.S. forces—not just ground combat troops—out of Vietnam within the next few years.

His withdrawal timetable, unannounced but considered likely in most informed circles here to keep moving on its unilateral course, concerns only ground combat units and possibly a modest number of backup elements. Assuming, not unreasonably, that the President's timetable foresees a ground combat cutoff point somewhere between the end of 1970 and April, 1971, it leaves out of all account the later withdrawal of our air-sea support forces and perhaps 200,000 noncombat troops intended, for a time, to back up the South

Vietnamese armies. Within the last few weeks, two high administration officials have deliberately fended off newsmen's questions—though posed in a "background" setting—on how and when these remaining forces could be removed from Vietnam. There is more than a faint suspicion among knowledgeable analysts here that at this moment, the President does not have a suitable answer.

The potential magnitude of the problem, in terms of numbers and time, was indicated to a group of newsmen the other day by Dean Acheson, secretary of state under former President Truman. Said he: "If anyone had said to me that the United States, nearly 20 years after the Korean war began, would still have 50,000 troops in Korea, I'd have said he was crazy."

Acheson suggested we might have a force of at least comparable size in South Vietnam for 10 years. Hints have been dropped of administration concern that perhaps as many as 100,000 men might be there for a long time.

It is this issue which sustains the President's interest in a negotiated settlement in Paris. Only such an agreement—involving Hanoi, Saigon and the Viet Cong in some plan for supervised elections, leading toward some kind of coalition government—could provide an excuse for the early withdrawal of all our forces.

New poll findings show Americans in a ratio of more than 3 to 1 opposed to quick withdrawal of all U.S. forces. Not unfairly, high U.S. officials argue that this indicates quite general support for Nixon's idea that withdrawal must be staged in a way that allows South Vietnam full chance to achieve stability and at least relative independence.

There is evidence that, once withdrawal of our combat troops is complete and our prospective casualties cut to a very low figure, the nation's patience with the process of stabilizing South Vietnam might be sustained a long time. A professional and largely volunteer army might bear the burden of our continuing noncombat assistance.

Why, then, retain any faith in the Paris talks and the presumably related prospect of faster withdrawal of all our units? That faith, as voiced today by a handful of key U.S. officials, sounds almost mystical, like the grossest sort of wishful thinking. One man suggests, "maximum and implacable ferocity" in its attitude until just before it is ready to settle at Paris. The talks so far have been history's most fruitless.

The reasons for hoping must lie in this range: Fear of the uncertain but probably heavy budgetary drain that would accompany a long-sustained, though noncombat, U.S. presence in Vietnam; and the serious inconsistency of that persistence with Nixon's new doctrine of a lowered American profile all around the globe.

Good Foods

(Second in a series of three articles)

Yesterday Mr. D.M.V. remarked in his letter, "It seems we have to count most good foods as taboo on account of cholesterol."

When it gets to that stage, cholesterol-phobia has been carried too far. In my opinion, no food should be considered taboo because of cholesterol. Limiting the quantities of high fat and cholesterol foods is quite another matter.

My new booklet includes a list showing the cholesterol content of various foods which will be handy to refer to, but actually you can do a pretty good job just by knowing the types of food that are high in it.

In general, animal fats are the basis for cholesterol formation—in meat, you can see most of the fat, and you can trim it off. Cream and butter are animal fats. Eggs, being an animal product, are high in cholesterol which is concentrated in the yolk, not the white. (The white is largely protein.)

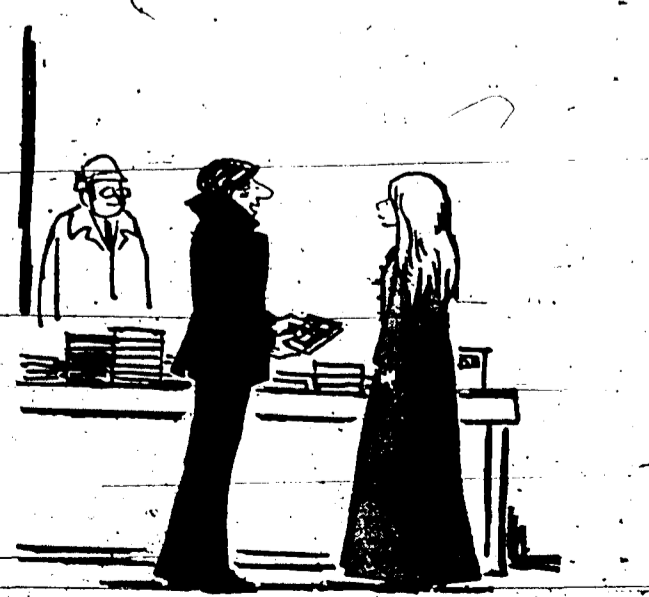

Beef brains are extremely high in cholesterol, and some other organs are high, but not nearly as high as brains. Liver, such an excellent nutritional food in so many ways, is high, but it varies according to the animal. A quarter pound of beef liver is rated at 250 milligrams (mg) of cholesterol; calf's liver at 450 and the same for pork liver, but lamb liver soars to 700. So for items like that, it is well to have a list to refer to.

For comparison, one egg yolk is rated at 300. Some very excellent people lately have been urging that no more than two egg yolks be eaten per week. This seems to me to be pretty rigid, and for myself, I figure that an egg a day is a reasonable number. The egg, after all, is excellent nutrition, and there are other ways of reducing cholesterol.

Of course, with a patient with very high cholesterol, a rigid diet might be necessary, along with medication to reduce the level, because that is effective. Don't take chances with "kidney trouble." It may be only minor, but it can be dangerous. Read Dr. Thosteson's booklet, "Your Kidneys—Facts You Need to Know About Them." Write to Dr. Thosteson in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

BERRY'S WORL D

"If the characters in the book are anything like the characters in the cast, Myra Breckinridge ought to be quite a movie!"

Step Toward Equity

The House of Representatives has an opportunity now to make the social security law more equitable as it studies its revision and higher benefits.

This is to remove the limitation on earned income, now $1,680 a year, before cutting down benefits. This limitation does not apply to income from investments. The well-to-do or the wealthy may get full benefits although their income from investments may be considerable. Clearly, justice calls for an end to this discrimination.

Rep. Ben Blackburn (R-Ga.) has introduced a bill which would remove the limitation on earned incomes. Blackburn says: "I feel strongly that if a man during his working years continually pays into social security, he should have the right to receive his benefits. If he wishes to work after 65, in effect he has paid for his insurance policy and should be allowed to receive the benefits."

The administration has asked Congress to raise the limitation to $1,860 a year and both Democrats and Republicans have suggested higher limitations or the removal of any limitation, which would be preferable because it would be fair and equitable.

Restrictions on earnings permitted without reducing benefits dates back to the depression, when jobs were so scarce it was felt that the elderly, once they started receiving benefits, should not hold jobs needed by others. That situation has changed as markedly as the economy has changed, along with rising inflation.

The elderly, who have the health and desire to work, should be allowed to do so without penalty. Such employment would benefit them not only financially, but physically and mentally. The economy at large would benefit from their experience and desire to prove their worth.

As Rep. Blackburn observes, the earnings limitation has no relationship to the recipient's economic status. It simply places a penalty on gainful employment, which is manifestly unfair.

It should not be a policy of government to cause any discrimination on account of age or financial position, any more than on account of race, sex, color or creed.

Lineup: For-Against Agnew

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 — At this point in the ascent of Agnew, who to kitchen-table recognition, it may be interesting to examine the lineups in the official White House family for and against the Vice President's generally hard line views on practically everything.

It could, of course, be an academic exercise. President Nixon is remaining neutral, having decided to continue to let Agnew play free safety and speak out on his own, and the President's vote will be decisive when and if he chooses sides. But Nixon will be influenced in considerable degree by those around him and their views are therefore of substantial significance.

The positions taken on Agnew's side by some of the official family should come as no surprise. Atty. Gen. John Mitchell, for instance, is solidly behind Agnew, and so are John D. Ehrlichman, counsel to the President, Dr. Henry Kissinger, the President's national security adviser, and Deputy Counsel Harry Dent, envoy of Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., to 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. The Vice President also has a casual ally in Bryce Harlow, Nixon's liaison man with Congress.

But there is an element of shock in the intelligence that Daniel P. Moynihan, the White House's liberal in residence, also is mollifying Agnew to give 'em hell. Moynihan's support is not based on ideology or politics. He simply rather likes the idea of shaking up the press and electronic Establishment, and while he has reservations about Agnew's rigidity he believes the Vice President's outbursts may cause the country to take a long-overdue look at itself.

Moynihan has put it another way to intimates. He holds that the generally favorable response to Agnew's public utterances shows deep dissatisfaction across the country with the policies of both major parties.

He is fond of assuming an anti-Agnew role for argument's sake, and then concluding wishfully that "there must be something wrong if so many people disagree with me." His point is that Middle America has been trying for years to tell the Democratic Party something and the Democrats have refused to listen.

Moynihan does not argue for a swing to the right, quite the contrary in most matters. But he does argue that Middle America is demanding a more moderate approach in domestic affairs than that pursued by the Kennedy and Johnson administrations. In this position, he is joined by Herb Klein, director of communications, and Secretary of State William P. Rogers.

Both Klein and Rogers are concerned lest the hard-line advanced by Agnew further divide the country. But they agree there is a therapeutic, purgative quality to the Vice President's utterances, in that they have delivered a jab to both sides.

That leaves two Cabinet officers who disagree with the Agnew approach almost utterly. One is Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Robert Finch, the other is Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney. Both insist that the Agnew position conflicts with the administration's "bring-us-together" theme. Both argue that Agnew's speeches should be screened—read censored—by the White House.

The President also is under pressure from such moderate, respected Republicans as his Senate Majority Leader, Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and Sen. George Aiken of Vermont. All have urged that Agnew be put on the check rein for the sake of national unity. Richard Nixon is listening to all these views and not saying much. But it is significant that he has not gagged Agnew. The conclusion of expert guessers is that the President wants to hear more from the country before moving one way or the other. High office has not diminished his political prudence.

ART BUCHWALD

Martha At Home

WASHINGTON — All of Washington is talking about Attorney General John Mitchell's wife, Martha. Mrs. Mitchell has made almost as big a splash as Vice President Spiro Agnew, with such remarks on TV as the one that her husband would like to trade some American liberals for some Russian Communists.

She also told Time magazine's Dean Fischer, "Any time you get somebody marching in the streets, it's catering to revolution. My family worked for everything. We even had a deed from the king of England for property in South Carolina. Now these jerks come along and try to give it to the Communists."

Commenting on life in Washington, she said: "It's quite a comedown in many ways. We're not living on the same means we had in Rye, N.Y. I think the government should give us free housing. We'll be happy to go back and make some money."

Mrs. Mitchell in her TV broadcasts and interviews has given us an insight into a Cabinet officer's life that we never had before, and I can imagine what happens when the Mitchells return home in the evening to their posh apartment at the Watergate in the Foggy Bottom part of Washington.

The attorney general enters first and checks all the closets. "There's none in here," Mrs. Mitchell looks under the bed. "There's none here."

They both look in the laundry room. "There's none here," the attorney general says. Mrs. Mitchell sighs, "Oh, John, can't you do something about the liberals so we don't have to go through this every night?"

"I'm trying, Martha. I'm working on a list of liberals to exchange for Communists with the Soviet Union. Once we get it drawn up, we'll present it to Russians at the SALT talks in Helsinki." Mrs. Mitchell replies, "I'd rather have out and out Communists in this country, than people with Marxist ideas who won't admit their true colors."

"Well, let's go to bed, Martha."

"Suppose they march tonight?" Mrs. Mitchell says. "I don't think they will. The Justice Department would have let me know if they had any plans. We should be able to get a good night's sleep."

"How do we know they're not in the lobby waiting for us to go to bed?"

"Don't the lobby remember? I checked the lobby before I came up. There isn't a liberal in the entire Watergate complex."

"If they only gave us a free house, we could electrify the fence."

"Martha, you shouldn't fret. Why shouldn't I? This place is costing us a pretty packet and it's certainly a comedown from Rye, N.Y. Why don't we go back and make some money, John?"

"We will, Martha, but there is important work to be done. Do you know I managed to keep a Marxist-Beijing professor from entering the United States last week, over the objections of the secretary of state?"

"I'm so proud of you, John. Have you done anything yet about the 55 senators who voted against Haynsworth?"

"I've got everyone at Justice working on it now. We think we may be able to prove a conspiracy between the mobilization organizers, the Establishment, John Baez and the senators who voted against Haynsworth."

"That would be wonderful, John, did you hear something in the bathroom?"

"The water's running. Stay back, Martha."

The attorney general goes into the bathroom and comes out white-faced. "It's John Kenneth Galbraith. He's taking a shower!"

"I knew it," Martha cries. "I told you we should have never come to Washington."

MR. SPECTATOR

Are You Hungry?

Ever wonder how much you eat? A lot of people are interested in just that and they have statistics to prove that they know what they are talking about—and just how much you are eating.

For instance, if you are what is termed an "average" person then in 1968 you ate 182.7 pounds of meat (carcass weight) in the 12 month period. During 1969 it is estimated that you will consume 99 per cent of that poundage.

And what kind of meat do you eat. Beef is the most popular, with pork next, followed by veal and lamb. But people eat more beef or more pork than all the veal and lamb put together. Beef per individual tips the scales at 109.4 pounds and pork at 66 pounds. Veal and lamb total only a little over seven pounds.

In 1968 the per capita consumption of fish was only 11 pounds and it is expected to total the same when the 1969 figures are in.

In 1968 each individual consumed 320 eggs a year which was down 36 per capita from the year previous. Dairy product consumption per individual totaled 316 pounds per person in 1968. By far the greatest poundage was fluid milk with 279 pounds. And yet this great amount was about 60 pounds per individual less than in 1967.

Per capita consumption of butter in 1969 was 5.6 pounds while consumption of margarine was 10.8 pounds.

Per capita fruit consumption in 1968 came to 125 pounds, down nearly 20 pounds from the previous year.

During 1969 each person consumed over 15 pounds of coffee, six pounds of peanuts, 22 pounds of melons and 98 pounds of refined sugar.

And, for benefit of Idaho farmers, per capita consumption of fresh potatoes tipped the scales at 112 pounds in 1968. It is expected to be a little less when the 1969 figures are available.

So there you have it. And Mr. Spectator opines that the reason for some of the drop in consumption expected in 1969 is that people are trying to reduce through diet.

Idaho Officials See No Hope Of Tax Relief Despite Excess

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE (UPI) — There is no longer any talk of tax relief in the statehouse even though it appears there will be a $3-million to $4 million general fund surplus this biennium.

Instead, Sawyer said in an interview Monday, agency heads are talking of ways to corner a little bit of that extra money to take care of some needs unforeseen when the legislature last met.

Rodeo Contest Moves Into Fourth Day

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Competition between 23 of the country's top cowgirls for the Miss Rodeo America crown moved into its fourth day today.

Although not all requests for supplemental appropriations are on file with Sawyer's office, those submitted to date and those anticipated exceed the expected but unappropriated surplus.

While there is a surplus predicted now, it was not foreseen at the time when the $221 million general fund budget was adopted last winter. Estimates of the surplus have arisen since the new biennium began last July 1.

The contestants were judged on horsemanship Monday at the nearby Dean Shendal Ranch where the cowgirls showed their ability to maneuver a horse through an obstacle course and figure riding.

Contestants will be judged on personality and appearance today during events which will not be open to the public.

Five finalists will be announced Wednesday. But until then, none of the contestants will be eliminated from the contest.

Carolyn Jean Harvey, 19, of Twin Falls, Idaho, perhaps summed up the feeling of home-state loyalty when she said: "Since the moment I was crowned Miss Rodeo Idaho, I have never been so proud of Idaho and I realize with my responsibility I have also acquired an honor."

"Most of this honor is found in representing such wonderful people as we have in Idaho and I want to represent them to the best of my ability. My heart swells with pride whenever I think that I am my state's official representative and I hope I have combined the sincerity and warmth of the people, the power and personality of the rodeo, and just being myself to represent a good representative for Idaho."

Trenhaile To Curtail Ads Raking Butter

BOISE (UPI) — State agriculture commissioner Stanley I. Trenhaile said Monday he intends to crack down on what he called illegal advertising that mentions butter and other dairy products.

Trenhaile said he has already notified certain advertising media that they are carrying illegal oleomargarine advertisements which draw a comparison with butter. He said under Idaho law such mention of butter is unlawful.

Unless the Idaho media cease and desist from such advertising, Trenhaile said, he will take what necessary steps he must as provided by Idaho law.

The state dairy law reads: "It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to make use of the words milk, cream, butter, cheese, creamery, dairy, churn, cow, the name of any dairy breed or any pictorial representation of any of these items in connection with the sale, offering for sale or advertising of any substance designed to be used as a so-called substitute for milk, cheese, butter or any other dairy products."

Trenhaile said the law provides that violation is a misdemeanor and provides for a fine of up to $200 and/or six months in the county jail.

Sirhan Fasts To Protest 'Protection'

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — Condemned assassin Sirhan B. Sirhan is on a liquid diet hunger strike protesting stringent security arrangements on San Quentin's death row.

Sirhan, convicted killer of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, stopped eating Nov. 28, the prison disclosed Monday.

"I'm going on a hunger strike to protest the Nazi concentration-camp-like treatment of yours," Sirhan said in a note to Warden Louis Nelson. "Nelson had more mercy than you do."

The note, which opened with an obscenity, was written by the 25-year-old Jordanian immigrant after Nelson refused to make requested changes in the tight security conditions around Sirhan's isolated cell.

Associate Warden James Park said Sirhan had been complaining for some time about mesh screens which block the corridor near his stark concrete and steel cell.

Sirhan also demanded the right to exercise with other death-row inmates and reduction of the intensity of a light in front of his cell. Park said a shade was rigged for the light, but the other demands were rejected.

"He has subsisted on instant cocoa and coffee since then," Park said. "He is a very light eater. In normal times he only eats one meal a day and very sparingly of that meal. This is one reason we waited before announcing this."

"He will start eating eventually or we will force food into him."

He was sentenced last May 21 to die for the slaying of Kennedy, who was shot June 5, 1968 during a primary election victory celebration at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles.

No execution date has been set pending automatic review and appeal procedures which are expected to take at least six more months.

FOR THE "CHILD WHO HAS EVERYTHING," a 8 1/2-foot giraffe might fill the bill. The $500 "toy," being examined with awe by a young shopper in Chicago, might stretch the ceiling as well as the budget. (UPI telephoto)

Pocatello Police Hold Man Wanted In Texas For Murder

POCATELLO, Idaho (UPI) — A 35-year-old man wanted in connection with a triple murder in Texas was arraigned in Pocatello Monday after being arrested by FBI agents Sunday in Blackfoot, Idaho.

Charles Lester Tew, Tyler, Tex., was being held in the Bannock County Jail. He was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner R. Don Bistline on a federal charge of unlawful flight from Texas to avoid prosecution for murder.

Tew had been working recently as a ranch hand in the Blackfoot area.

The charges against Tew stemmed from the murders of the Wylie Smith family, Cleveland, Tex.

Tew had been arrested a day after the alleged murders of the three persons in Liberty, Tex., and officers said he escaped from the Liberty County Jail on Sept. 4, 1968. He had been at large until his arrest Sunday.

The three members of the Smith family—including Tew's wife — were found slain in their beds on Sept. 2, 1967. Smith, 65, had been shot in the chest with a shotgun blast and had a fractured skull. His wife, Viola, had been shot in the head. His daughter, Lula Pearl, Tew's wife, had been strangled, the FBI said.

The FBI said that Tew was arrested the day after the murders and charged.

Law enforcement officers said that in October of this year Tew phoned a relative in California and informed him he was in Idaho.

The man was arrested in a rooming house while in Blackfoot. Officers said he had been using the name of "Donald Ray Oxvord" and had been working as a farm and ranch laborer in the general area.

Boisean Given 30-Year Term

BOISE (UPI) — Fourth District Court Judge Merlin S. Young Monday sentenced Nellie Gilson to 30 years in the Idaho State Prison.

The woman was found guilty Dec. 5 by a jury of first degree murder in connection with the death of her husband, Leonard, 60.

The man was found dead in the couple's Boise home following a fire on Sept. 8, 1968. Ada County coroner Ed Paris had testified that Gilson had suffered "multiple head injuries that damaged the brain" before his body was found.

Mom Drives School Bus Five Hours After Giving Birth

By DIANE BAUER
Washington Daily News
Distributed by UPI

WASHINGTON — Daniel Robert Alasfair Kitts was born 12 days ago at 3 o'clock in the morning in the living room of his parent's Bethesda home.

Five hours later, his mother was out driving the school bus. Sibly Kitts likes having "home babies," with only her husband, Bernard, to help. "It's just natural," she says.

"I went under the shower for the worst pains, and you can hop around or fuss if you want to. There aren't any restrictions. And you have the love of your family and security around you."

The pains? "Just held-on to Bernard's wrists for the worst pains—We wanted to keep his hands sterile."

Mr. Kitts regarded his wife and newborn son and said, "It's not an easy thing for a woman to go through—and it's no use a man kidding himself. I think it's good for men to appreciate how much of an experience it is to bear a child. It really isn't anything for a man to do—it's just more or less being there to reassure the mother." To prepare for the newest Kitts, the prospective parents got new sheets to make a sterile area, borrowed surgical scissors—which they sterilized in a stainless steel basin—to cut the cord, and 25 cents worth of bias-tape-to-tie.

"We also looked up the rescue squad number and put out our coats, a hot water bottle and some blankets by the door," Mrs. Kitts said, "just in case."

She said that first baby, Bernard Jr., "was born in a hospital in the usual way."

The second, Audrey, was born at home, 15 days before she was expected. "I was alone," Bernard was talking to a doctor on the phone and we had a rescue squad trip to the hospital," Mrs. Kitts said. "They put me in surgical and the baby in pediatrics. She couldn't go in the nursery because she was 'contaminated' by being born outside of the hospital. We were fallout victims."

For the next one (Howard) I went ahead of time to the hospital," Mrs. Kitts said. "I was in the labor room and I had the baby all by myself. I'm still mad about that. "After that, I was determined I'd have Lee, the fourth, at home, regardless of what anyone said. I finally convinced Bernard but it was a hard convincing. He was a medic in the army but he'd never delivered a baby."

With no difficulty, Lee was born at home. He now is 5. The Kitts studied a half-dozen books. The best one, Mrs. Kitts said, was called "what to do for a birth in an air raid."

On the Monday following Daniel's birth 12 days ago, Mrs. Kitts resumed her job as a teaching assistant at Spring Billingsall Montessori Academy.

She takes the baby with her to school in the bus, along with the 10 pupils she picks up on the way.

"Having a baby that way is so sort of exhilarating," she said. "It's a tremendous plus to know you have done it. You feel as if you have really accomplished something wonderful. That's why I drove the bus that morning. Driving down Wisconsin Avenue, I felt like a queen."

NASA Plans Ruling On Date, Landing Site Of Apollo 13

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI) — The space agency was expected to decide today when Apollo 13 will fly and where on the moon it will land, based largely on reports from the Apollo 12 moon explorers.

The space agency tentatively has selected March 12 as the launch date and Eris-Maura, a group of craters in the foothills of the lunar highlands, as the target.

But the dust problems Charles "Pete" Conrad and Alan L. Bean encountered landing in the lunar Ocean of Storms last month and troubles they had with moon exploration tools might influence this tentative decision, officials said after the Apollo 12 splashdown Nov. 24. They said a final decision would be made two weeks after the flight.

A geologist quarantined with Conrad, Bean and Richard F. Gordon said Monday night the crew explored the moon as well as "any geologist" could have, and better than most. Dr. Robin Brett said geologists need not go to the moon until late in the Apollo program, in 1971-73.

The astronauts have their last briefing today, a session with guidance and navigation experts. They get Wednesday off to prepare for their release from moon bug quarantine Thursday.

Brett said he and five other scientists, quarantined with the crew after accidental exposure to lunar material, had learned much through informal discussions with the astronauts.

Scientists, he said, have "no complaints" about the pilots' accomplishments in observing and collecting moon rocks for study on earth. Before Apollo 12, many scientists were bitterly critical because no scientist-astronaut geologist, Brett said. "This crew has been so well trained, and the previous crew as well, that none of the scientists (in quarantine) can see any dissatisfaction at all" in exploring the moon with pilots trained in geology.

"We all decided at the Geological Society of America meeting last month," he said, "that if you got three geologists off the street they wouldn't do nearly as good a job as that crew."

"In later missions, towards the end, the scientists are all agreed it would be a lot of help to have a geologist along. But at this time—with this sort of geology—these guys are doing a great job," Brett said.

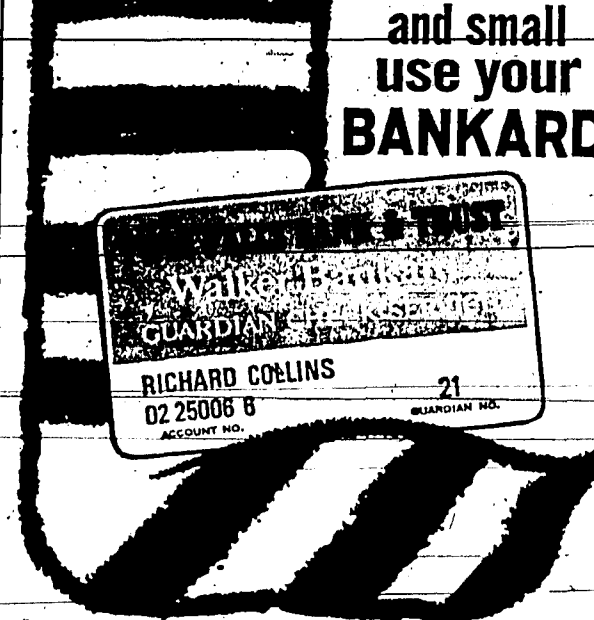

Nixon Plans TV Session Tonight

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon holds his first news conference in 2 1/2 months tonight at 9 o'clock and is certain to be asked of his views of the reported My Lai massacre.

As usual, Vietnam is expected to dominate the meeting with reporters. Asked this morning if the President might make any announcement of a new troop withdrawal, Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said, "No."

Penniless Commoner's Lawyer Will Plead To King Of Tonga To Make Way For Love

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (UPI)—The lawyer for a penniless commoner, whose storybook marriage to a princess was annulled by the king of Tonga, will plead to the premier of the tiny Polynesian kingdom for tradition "to make way for love."

Lawyer Kevin Ryan is working for university student "Siola" Liavaa, free of charge to have him reunited with the 21-year-old daughter of Prince Tupuetele, the premier of Tonga, a 269-square mile British protectorate about 1,200 miles north of here.

Liavaa secretly married Princess Mele Siuilikutapu last Oct. 5. But when the marriage became known five weeks later, the king had it annulled.

Princess Mele was summoned home and Liavaa, a football-playing student in Auckland on a government scholarship, was expelled from the Tongan hostel where he was living.

Ryan said Thursday he thought right was on the couple's side though they had breached a constitutional provision requiring the king's approval before a member of the royal family can marry. He said he will approach the girl's father at the Tongan royal holiday home here within the next few days to ask the prince whether there is any chance of reuniting the two.

"The whole thing is a question of love, and tradition should make way for love," Ryan said. Liavaa sought an audience with the prince of Tonga, also known as the Friendly Islands. But Tongan commoners — there are about 78,000 of them — cannot approach the royal household. They have to be summoned.

The prince, who is living 50 yards from Liavaa's lodgings, has not summoned him.

Ryan said Liavaa may be punished as a felon if he goes to Tonga. It seemed unlikely the prince will be allowed to come to New Zealand, he said. He said he will ask the New Zealand government to extend Liavaa's temporary visa.

Mine Safety Board Works On New Code

BOISE (UPI) — Members of the Mine Safety Advisory Board hope to complete their proposed revision of a safety code today and Tuesday, State Mines Inspector O. T. Hansen said today.

Began last March under direction of a legislative act board, the seven-member group which created the advisory has narrowed its work to two final areas, Hansen said:

- Solitary underground employment.
- Protective clothing.

He said when the revision of the safety code is completed public hearings will be held. Then the proposed new code will be published and it will take effect 60 days after publication.

Originally, the new code, which is supposed to conform with federal law, was supposed to be ready by Oct. 1. An extension of time was granted, Hansen said, when the committee found it did not have sufficient time to finish the work by then.

This is the first major revision of the mine safety code since 1963, Hansen said.

Taxpayers To Hear National Official Talk

BOISE (UPI) — Robert Brown, chairman of the National Taxpayers Conference, will address a luncheon session Jan. 9 or the 23rd annual meeting of the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho.

The meeting will get under way at 9 a. m. in the Downtown Hotel at Boise.

Brown, who also is executive vice president of the California Taxpayers Association, will discuss national tax reform.

State fiscal matters will be discussed at the meeting by Edward W. Sawyer, director of administrative services and acting state budget director.

There also will be panel discussions on state legislation and on local government and an analysis of proposed revisions of the state constitution.

Bear In Custody State Official Plans To Recommend Extra Funds For Swan Falls-Guffey Project

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Joshua, a 75-pound Malayan bear, was in custody Monday and so was its owner.

Joshua's troubles with the law began when he climbed a tree on a Hollywood street. David Thompson's troubles began when he failed to take care of a traffic citation.

Mrs. Dina Babbit was passing by when she saw Joshua in the tree. She knew it was a bear because she draws animated animals for children's books.

She notified the department of animal regulation which traced Joshua to the nearby home of Thompson.

It also turned out Thompson was wanted for a traffic violation and he was hauled off to jail while Joshua was taken to an animal shelter.

Greek Aide Lobbies On Suspension

By JOHN F. SIMS

PARIS (UPI)—Greek Foreign Minister Panayotis Pipinellis lobbied today to head off moves to suspend Greece from the 18-nation Council of Europe for allegedly violating human rights and democratic freedoms.

A two-day meeting of the Council of Europe's Committee of Ministers is scheduled to open here Friday.

The committee of Ministers last discussed the Greek question in London May 5 and 6. At that time it was agreed any final action by the group would not be taken before the Dec. 12 meeting.

Greece has been accused of violating Article 3 of the Convention of Rome on Human Rights by imposition of a dictatorship and torturing political prisoners.

Diplomatic sources in London said Britain and three Scandinavian nations, Denmark, Norway and Sweden, have agreed they believe Greece should be suspended unless it shows readiness to restore democracy or unless it withdraws from the council.

The council has no binding authority but is one of Europe's most prestigious advisory and consultative bodies.

By RICHARD CHARNOCK

BOISE (UPI) — Acting State Budget Director Edward W. Sawyer said today he plans to recommend a supplemental appropriation for the proposed Swan Falls-Guffey project on the Snake River.

Sawyer said this probably will be the only one of the supplemental appropriations sought by the State Water Resource Board which will bear his endorsement. But he said he felt this one was justified and would suggest Gov. Don Samuelson ask the legislature to appropriate the money.

He stressed, however, that as acting budget director he can only recommend to the governor. It then is up to Samuelson to decide what shall be recommended to the legislature when it returns Jan. 12 for its second regular session.

Sawyer, who also is director of the Department of Administrative Services of which the budget office is one division, said the water board requests for supplemental appropriations totaled approximately $1 million. However, he said they were more or less "multiple choice" in nature.

Other requests from the water board included money for an across the board pay increase—something Sawyer has under study for all rank and file employees in state government. He said earlier this problem may be included in the total budget package given the legislature when it returns to Boise.

He said the board asked for a $175,000 general fund supplemental appropriation for preparation of the necessary documents for revenue bond financing and presentation of the proposed joint venture project to the Federal Power Commission.

Idaho Power Company has proposed a joint venture development of the Swan Falls-Guffey reach of the Snake River and the Mountain Home desert.

In its letter to Sawyer, the water board said its resource development fund would be "augmented by approximately $25 million as a result of the power company proposal."

It said that it would get about $150,000 of the proposed supplemental appropriation from proceeds of the bond issue.

Sawyer said he would recommend the supplemental appropriation because he feels the proposed project is a good one.

"It's manageable in terms of money," Sawyer said. "It's a matter of choosing what will provide the greatest benefit with the minimum expenditure of funds over the long pull."

"Some of that money comes back," he said, "but you've got to have it to get going."

Gift To BYU To Purchase Rare Literature

PROVO, Utah (UPI) — Roy E. Christensen, San Marino, Calif., has given Brigham Young University $143,000 to acquire what one authority says is the most substantial and important collection of Victorian literature to be assembled in recent years.

The collection, recently obtained from San Francisco antiquarian book dealer David Magee, contains nearly 3,000 volumes of rare first editions, author's presentation copies and mint-condition volumes.

Christensen is a nominee by the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce for "Outstanding Young Man of America." He has served on President Nixon's task force on Medicaid.

Manson Viewed

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A one-time Haight-Ashbury hippie Monday recalled meeting Charles Manson, now in custody in connection with the Sharon Tate murders, and members of Manson's weird "family" in the hippie district last year.

"Manson didn't seem to be into a heavy trip," said John Muni, 45, now a tuberculosis patient at a San Francisco hospital.

Muni said Hanson, the self-styled Jesus-Satan figure who assembled his cult in Haight-Ashbury two years ago, was "not much of a dooper or into a spiritual thing. Like, mostly he was quiet, pretty normal and not harebrained."

STRIKE THREATENED

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—A union strike against a half dozen southern Nevada supermarkets was threatened Monday by members of the Meatcutters Local 457.

Dope Peddler Prosecution Is Upheld By Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court upheld today the prosecution of narcotics peddlers who fail to comply with federal statutes requiring them to register all drug transfers with the government.

The court ruled last term that the registration requirement could not be used against narcotics buyers because it would tend to incriminate them. But in today's ruling, the court said that ruling did not extend to a seller.

The court, with Justices Hugo L. Black and William O. Douglas dissenting, said "there is no real and substantial possibility" that the requirement would subject sellers to self-incrimination because they will "seldom if ever" be confronted by a buyer willing to accede to the registration requirement.

Under federal law, a buyer must secure a federal registration form and pay certain taxes to secure marijuana or heroin and other hard narcotics. The forms must be filled in with the buyer's and seller's names and copies filed with the government.

The defendants in the two cases decided by the Supreme Court argued that they might have incriminated themselves if they had insisted on an order form from prospective buyers. But the court said that argument "founders" when "in reality there is no substantial possibility that the buyer would or could have secured an order form."

The cases involved James Minor and Michael Bule.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband quit smoking seven months ago (doctor's orders) and he insisted that what he missed the most was something to do with his hands.

As a gag I bought him a beginner's embroidery set. It was a cheap little tea towel with a blue bird on it — to be done in a simple cross-stitch. Well, he finished it in no time at all and it was beautiful!

Next thing I knew, he went downtown and picked out a bridge cloth with four napkins, and he embroidered that, too.

Now wherever he goes, he takes his embroidery work. He calls it his "therapy" and he doesn't care who sees him working on it. I hope you'll print this, Abby. I am so proud of him. (P.S. — I am your wondering, no — is it a MAN. We have had six kids in six years, and this will be the first Christmas I haven't been pregnant.)

PROUD WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Congratulations. Just keep your man embroidering, lady.

DEAR ABBY: I am one of those who never thought that I would write. Mine is a different type problem, but maybe you can help because by daughter is a reader, too. I am the father of a beautiful, well-educated girl in her early twenties. She has had many social advantages and has recently married a fine, young, professional man who is on his way up the ladder.

The problem is her table manners. We are a refined family, and both her mother and I have tried since she was a small child to train her properly in table etiquette, but for some reason we have not succeeded.

She eats as tho someone were about to take her food away from her, gobbling, slurping, and taking enormous amounts of food into her mouth at one time. It is revolting to see! Even today if I correct her, there is terrible resentment, even a fight.

I don't know whether she eats this way when she is with others, but I can only assume that she does. She and her husband socialize with some of the best young people in town — and she could hurt her husband's future if she doesn't shape up. What do you suggest?

DEFEATED DAD

DEAR DAD: I suggest that you never mention her table manners to her again. It's possible that she eats that way only in your presence just to irritate you. In any case, she has a husband now, so let this "fine, professional" man correct her if her table manners embarrass him or present a threat to his "future."

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and my problem is my brother who is 30. He is married and has a wife and child. About a year ago he made some indecent advances to me, but I straightened him out fast and told him if he ever pulled anything like that again, I'd tell our mother and HIS wife.

Well, since we don't live in the same part of the country I didn't have much to worry about. Recently I heard that my brother and his wife took a 15-year-old foster girl into their home. Shortly after, the girl told my sister-in-law that my brother got fresh with her. My sister-in-law called her a liar, phoned the social worker and told her to come and get the girl, and place her in another home.

Abby, I feel terrible because I am sure the girl was telling the truth. If I tell, it might break up my brother's mar-

NEW YORK (UPI)—The University of Texas, capping a perfect season with a dramatic come-from-behind victory, is college football's 1969 national champion.

The Longhorns, who finished 10-0 with a stunning last period barrage that enabled them to beat Arkansas 15-14 Saturday, were named No. 1 on 28 of the 34 ballots cast by the 35-member United Press International Board of Coaches. One coach did not vote in the final balloting.

"Great, that's wonderful," said Texas coach Darrell Royal when informed of the final voting. "I was sweating it out. I'm happy for myself, the coaching staff, the players and the university."

Utah State Raps St. Peters 125-108

LOGAN, Utah (UPI)—Underfated Utah State, behind the 78-point scoring of Nate Williams and Marv Roberts, tied a school scoring record in racing to a 125-108 victory over St. Peters Monday night.

Williams scored 45 points and Roberts added 34. St. Peters scored first and held a lead for the first few minutes. Roberts then sank a layup with 17:33 left, however, to give Utah State a 9-8 lead. The Aggies never trailed again. By halftime Utah State had raced to a 58-41 lead. In the BUHL — The Buhl Indians took the last three matches Monday night, piling up 15 quick points and a narrow 29-23 wrestling victory over the Burley Bobcats.

10 things America's new small cars won't talk about.

- Nova talks about things those new little cars prefer not to mention.
- For instance, (1) a cargo-guard luggage compartment; (2) an extra set of fenders inside the fenders; (3) flush and dry rocker panels that help prevent rust and corrosion; (4) a quality built body by Fisher; (5) Magic-Mirror acrylic lacquer finish; (6) a firm, steady ride programmed by computer-selected springs; (7) six different engines and five transmissions available; (8) an available lighting group that even includes a monitor for your windshield washer fluid; (9) radios you can order with antennas built right into the windshield and (10) the availability of a new, more compact radio/stereo tape system. America's little cars don't offer them. Nova does.
- Nova also has a very appealing price. And a lot of loyal friends. Wonder why.
- Putting you first, keeps us first.

FREE TRUMP TRICK PROVES COSTLY

South's five-club call represented some degree of optimism. He had overcalled with eight high-card points and then shown his second suit. After all, his partner had been willing to settle for game.

Therefore, he played out two rounds of trumps immediately after ruffing that first club. Then he led dummy's king of diamonds and continued with the deuce. East looked at that deuce in amazement. Could South have forgotten about his little five of trumps? Of course, he had! East slapped down his trump in triumph.

South was delighted. Now he was going to make his slam. He ruffed the club return, led a diamond to dummy's queen, ruffed another club, discarded dummy's queen and eight of spades on the last two diamonds and eventually ruffed out his last spade.

East should have remembered that, when declarer offers a trick, he may have some ulterior motive. Pass that deuce of diamonds and collect 50 points instead of paying off for a slam.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
Pass 2♣ Pass 2♦
Pass 4♥ Pass 5♠
Pass 5♠ Pass 6♥

Opening lead—4♠

You, South, hold:
♠A64 ♣KJ93 ♣Q1075

What do you do now?
A—We wouldn't quarrel with a pass but, if you play the unusual no-trump, you bid two no-trump to ask your partner to bid a minor suit.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Maybe you should have acted directly over the one-spade opening. How about it?

Customers Who Order Steak Cooked 'Rare' Get Best Meat

STEAKS—A restaurant man effective for Mr. Durante, of long experience claims those customers who ask for their steaks rare get the superior beef. As far as he knows, it's not a house policy anywhere. It's just that the best cut comes out when the order reads rare, and the poorest cut when the order reads well done. Purely a personal penchant of the chefs, he says, but it's almost universal.

OPEN QUESTIONS: 1. Can an alligator run on its hind legs? 2. Is there any scientific evidence anywhere ever actually squeezed a human being to death? 3. Do any songbirds sing in flight? Or only when perched?

THE MATCH—On the night of January 20th, upcoming, the late Rocky Marciano will fight Muhammad Ali in a computerized match to settle the heavy-weight boxing championship of all time. Bunk? No, sir, not quite. True, this money maker will be shown nationwide on closed-circuit television. But to film the oddity, Marciano and Ali fought 70 rounds. I said fought, not faked. Something not altogether computerized happened in the ring to those two personally proud gentlemen while they belted away at each other for footage. And the result, I'm told, is absolutely electrifying.

CUSTOMER SERVICE—Q: "How old is Jimmy Durante?" A. 76. Which brings to mind, a client once asked if Mr. Durante were superstitious. Research turned up—the fact he always insists on kissing a pretty girl before going to work. This policy has proved highly effective for Mr. Durante.

Should it not be adopted by working men nationwide? Q: "That Actor Gig Young—what's the gig stand for?" A. I don't know. His real name is Byron Barr.

THE DRUG FIRMS have come up with a tranquilizer to quiet barking dogs. Good news what? The vets call this pill the hush puppy. . . . JUST BEEN INFORMED of a pumpkin grown at Haysville, N.C., alleged to weigh 280 pounds. That is about as much pumpkin as a fellow needs, actually. . . . SAN DIEGO ranks No. 7 on that list of towns where the citizenry would most like to live, the pollsters say. Honolulu ranks No. 9.

ONE MAN in every 25 would rather be a woman. . . . NEVER SAW a covered bridge in the Deep South. Must not be any. . . . SCHOLARS at the University of Wisconsin say their studies prove women are far, but very far more parsimonious than men. . . . THE MOST BEAUTIFUL of women must be the violet-eyed redhead, I'd guess. . . . THAT PROTESTANT who contributes the most money to his church every year on the average is the Wesleyan Methodist.

RAPID REPLY: No, sir. It only costs the Federal tax boys 40 cents to collect $100. How would you like to have that franchise?

not reflect this optimism. An optimist might well try for an overtrick by means of a dummy reversal play. A heart to the ace, ruff a second club, heart to the queen, ruff a third club, diamond to the queen, ruff a fourth club, and so on.

This line would work as long as the diamond suit acted in a friendly manner but, with West holding four diamonds to the jack and East holding the king of spades, South would wind up going down one on this line of play.

South noted that simple play would allow him to make six, even though diamonds broke 4-1 and the spade king was off side, provided trumps broke 2-2.

Today's Market And Financial Report

Stocks

NEW YORK (UPI)—An early flurry of buying on the stock exchange Tuesday gave way to renewed selling under the continued weight of tight credit, high interest rates and prospects of reduced corporate profits next year.

With trading past the halfway point, most early gains had been pared and the margin between advances and declines was narrowing.

The UPI market indicator, measuring all stocks traded, showed a gain of 0.17 per cent, while the Dow Jones average of 30 blue chip industrials was up 3.11 at 788.15.

Of the 1,566 issues on the tape, advances topped declines, 711 to 567.

A three-hour volume of around 8,500,000 shares was running well ahead of Monday's pace.

Analysts said the recent slide had attracted some bargain hunters, although they noted buying interest dwindled after early dealings.

Among the strongest issues were Burroughs up about 2 1/2%, IBM 3%, Hogevelly 2 1/2%, National Cash Register 2%, Polaroid 2%, American Register 2%, and Natomas 2%.

Senate Approves Military Measure

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate approved 82-0 today a $1.7 billion military construction appropriations bill including $15 million for the Safeguard Antibalistic Missile (ABM) system.
