Perrine Bridge Replacement Will Take At Least 3 1/2 Years

A Twin Falls delegation was told Thursday in Boise it will be at least three and a half years before a replacement structure can be built for the Perrine Memorial Bridge.

Ellis Mathes, state highway engineer, told the board the department could begin foundation investigations for a new structure and work on designs for a new bridge so construction could move quickly if funds become available.

He said it would take two years for completion of the investigation and design and about a year and a half for construction.

Making the trip to Boise were Henry Woodall, chairman of the Twin Falls City Highway Commission, Jean Milar, city manager, and Ray Rostron, chamber of commerce manager.

Mr. Woodall said the board was "very sympathetic and knowledgeable about our problems." He first expressed his appreciation for the survey of the bridge. As spokesman for the group, Mr. Woodall presented letters from the city highway commission and the chamber.

A 32-YEAR-OLD KIMBERLY WOMAN, Diane Baker, was trapped inside the wreckage of her car for nearly half an hour Thursday night before she could be freed and rushed to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. She is in fairly good condition. The car she was driving went out of control on an icy road four and three quarters miles east of Twin Falls on Falls Avenue. The accident happened at 4:55 p.m. and Twin Falls County Sheriff's officers investigated. The car was demolished in the wreck, officers said.

Greece Resigns Post In European Council

PARIS (UPI)—Greece resigned today from the Council of Europe before the group could expel it on grounds its military regime had suppressed democratic principles. Greece's resignation was accompanied by a veiled threat to withdraw from NATO or curtail its NATO activities.

The Scandinavian countries which have led the fight for ouster of Greece from the Council of Europe have strong connections with the Greek royal family and Denmark's Queen Anne-Marie is the wife of King Constantine of Greece. The Scandinavians charged that the military backed Greek regime violated the principles of democracy the council is sworn to uphold.

Senate Shuns Threat Of Veto, Endorses Massive Tax Reform

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate brushed aside a veto threat and a last-ditch Republican plea for economy Thursday and passed a massive tax bill which will touch the life of every American taxpayer.

The biggest tax measure since the adoption of the income tax in 1913 was approved by a vote of 69 to 22 with most Republicans voting against it and most Democrats voting no.

Both those who supported it and those who opposed it sometimes with acidic and sarcastic language—expressed certainty that a House-Senate conference committee, which now receives the bill, would tone down its tax cuts and make its tax reforms more severe.

The women represented wives and mothers of 1,361 Americans listed either as missing or prisoners in Vietnam. Five women, accompanied by Nixon, met with reporters and told of mistreatment suffered by their husbands.

With so many involved, all have a contribution to make and all are looking at it from different angles, he declared. So far as killing plants is concerned, he said that "99 per cent of all the plants (and animals) that ever lived are now extinct." To those who say that things must be "in balance" to survive, Dr. Sutherland said "man has survived because he is unbalanced. The safety record of pesticides is unbelievable," with about 150 deaths a year charged to this. Most deaths, he said, are caused by improper use or by ignorance. With 50,000 killed on highways, he said, "the materials now in use are doing pretty well despite all the talk."

He also recommended 90 per cent of the mineral royalties be returned to Idaho. About That Republican Tax Mess

WASHINGTON — When Republican Congressional leaders gathered at the White House for their weekly meeting, a grim, tight-lipped President Nixon posed this question for Charles Walker, Under Secretary of the Treasury, seated down the table from him: What happened yesterday?

Mr. Nixon's concern was justifiable. Less than 24 hours earlier, when the Senate voted to increase the $800 personal income tax exemption to $900, Republicans were in chaotic array. An astonishing absence of communication between the White House and Senate Republicans, ineffective party leadership in both Senate and Administration, and deep personal animosities among Republicans were peeled bare.

Although the Republican mess probably won't influence the final tax reform bill, it raises the deeper question of whether Mr. Nixon's soaring popularity, source of boundless White House supplies, can be maintained while vital fundamentals of government are neglected. Few Republicans could disagree with the Administration's opposition to a costly like-in-the-personal exemption with inflation running out of control. But despite this, few could agree with the Administration's conviction — until a few days before the actual vote — that the $800 exemption offered by Democratic Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee might be defeated.

That was the assessment of Under Secretary Walker. Operating in the unique Congressional relations arrangement now in vogue, White House Congressional lobbyists have stayed away from the tax reform bill. Treasury Secretary David Kennedy seldom deals with Congress (and was at the NATO meeting in Europe last week anyway). Thus, the able but overworked Dr. Walker, in addition to many other duties, has been a free agent counting heads and calling shots.

Two days before the vote, Walker had finally come to agree with Senate Republican chiefs — leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and assistant leader Robert Griffin of Michigan — that the Gore amendment was sure to pass. The question then became whether to fight it anyway or sponsor an Administration substitute giving Republicans a chance to vote for popular tax relief. That crucial question was not answered clearly — until too late.

The politics of the situation can be argued endlessly, but real indictment of the Administration is its failure to develop and coordinate strategy with Senate Republican leaders. That failure was compounded at the weekly Tuesday luncheon meeting of Republican Senators when Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois proposed an alternative to the Gore amendment designed to minimize the revenue loss during the present inflationary period and give the Republicans an out.

Edwin Cohen, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for taxation, made technical suggestions at that luncheon. But neither he nor Walker, also present, rebuffed Percy until the luncheon was over. Only after the meeting adjourned did Walker tell a knot of Senators that the Administration could not back the Percy amendment even as a tactical ploy.

Incredibly enough, Walker's verdict was not heard by Percy or Griffin. The fact that Treasury technicians worked into the night Tuesday perfecting the amendment was misinterpreted by Percy as tacit approval. Scott got the same idea after chatting with Kenneth Belieu, chief White House Senate lobbyist. Amazingly, however, Scott and Walker did not discuss the matter together at anytime Tuesday.

So, early Wednesday morning, Griffin ordered a telephone call to all Republican Senators which described the Senate party leadership as favoring the Percy amendment. Sen. John Williams of Delaware, senior Republican on the Finance Committee and Mr. Fiscal Responsibility, was in a state of enraged disbelief. Neither Scott nor Griffin had bothered to consult him.

Both Williams and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona placed hurried calls to the Treasury. The word came back from Walker: We oppose the Percy amendment. Yet, not until Goldwater announced this on the floor was Percy aware of this opposition.

Black Market

Reports of a flourishing black market operation in currency in Vietnam, with international implications, which threatens to undermine the United States aid effort in that country, have been given by a former U. S. diplomat assigned to Saigon.

Robert R. Parker, in testimony before the Senate Permanent Investigating Subcommittee, has told of Moslem money manipulators in India using a network of American deserters and banks in the U. S. and Hong Kong to undermine the official rate of exchange for dollars and South Vietnamese piasters.

Parker described the operation as a $150-million-a-year one, but other sources refer to it as a billion-dollar-a-year racket. The black marketeers are so well organized they have a legal arm which promptly pays fines for anyone arrested and sets him back up in business.

exchange rate of 118 piasters to the dollar. On the black market the dollar brings up to 200 piasters. Apparently the participation of Americans in Vietnam is widespread, although the deserter hiding in Saigon is a particular target.

These men pay protection to the black marketeers — up to $50 a day, according to some reports — for their freedom.

Black market operations in a war zone are nothing new, but the type of operation described by Parker could seriously undermine efforts to stabilize the local economy. Perhaps more disastrous is the demoralizing and corrupting influence it has on the population.

As a result of the evidence being uncovered by the Senate subcommittee, U. S. officials in Vietnam should have little trouble uncovering the perpetrators and dealing with them appropriately.

Holiday Road

Only The Free

The traditional holiday season of the free world has again arrived and the contented feeling engendered by watching the happy faces of people hustling to participate in the utter pleasure of celebrating a joyous event individually and in concert with their neighbors is all pervading.

Therefore it is not amiss to reflect for a few moments upon that half of the world which has nothing to celebrate.

There are official holidays behind the iron curtain, of course, but they are hardly of the type to bring smiles to the faces of the celebrants. Even in countries of captive thought, the idea of yahooping a day which represents nothing more than a bureaucrat's victory offers little to the creation of a festive occasion. But this is something beyond the comprehension of the overlords of proletariat utopias.

Here, as in other free countries, the days celebrated as local or national holidays began with a spontaneous desire by the people to honor a person or event considered to be worthy of more than passing recognition. So great was the spontaneity of these celebrations, and their persistence over the years, that government finally made them "official," by legislative or executive recognition of the holiday.

Politicians can change directions radically to coincide with the dictates of the moment if the alternative is exile or worse. But people cannot be forced to a convincing display of jubilation if their hearts are not in it.

And that's why holidays are so much fun here. We not only have something worthwhile to celebrate, but the sheer delight of being able to celebrate makes it all much more enjoyable.

Will China Be Ready To Talk?

WASHINGTON — A new flurry of reports is circulating in diplomatic circles here that Red China will soon indicate willingness to resume the long-suspended talks with the U. S.

These backstage intimations are deemed particularly significant because they are emanating from East European satellite sources. These quarters are usually well informed about what is afoot in the Communist sphere.

It has been nearly two years since the ambassador-level talks were suspended. The last were held in Warsaw in early 1968.

At that time, Red China was in the throes of Mao Tse-tung's widely disruptive Red Guard "cultural revolution," and virtually all of Peking's ambassadors were summoned home. Among them was the ambassador to Poland, who had been holding the meetings with the U. S. ambassador.

Early in January of this year, Peking let it be known the discussions would be resumed in February. But nothing came of that when a Chinese diplomat defected in Holland. When he was given political asylum in the U. S., Peking charged U. S. complicity in the defection and in retaliation slammed the door on more talks.

Various explanations are being offered for the new thaw that reportedly is underway.

According to satellite diplomats, Chinese authorities deem it advisable to re-establish direct exchanges with Washington because of the war-clouded relations with Moscow. The two Communist powers began border negotiations more than a month ago, but nothing has been heard about them. They have been enveloped in a drum-tight blanket of silence.

Another reported reason is that Peking is again dispatching envoys to its embassies around the globe. With an ambassador in Warsaw, the Chinese would be in a position to resume the U. S. talks. It is also being pointed out that the Nixon Administration has expressed desire to reopen these discussions.

They were started in 1955 in Geneva, under President Eisenhower. Later they were shifted to Warsaw, where they were conducted for a number of years.

While talks between ambassadors of the two countries were halted in January 1968, actually low-level contacts between them have continued unbroken.

These have been in the form of meetings between minor members of their Warsaw embassies, exchanges of informal communications and other messages, and other "informal" contacts. It was through such backstage exchanges that the two countries reached an understanding several months ago on the status of Chinese fishermen held by the U. S.

Several months ago the State Department announced that, for the first time, it was prepared to issue visas to Americans to go to China — if they could gain admittance. None have so far.

It was stressed this innovation was particularly instituted for newsmen.

It now develops that the Pentagon's own auditors became concerned about cost overruns on the giant C-5A transport plane as early as late 1965.

The Defense Contract Audit Agency has unearthed a written report made soon thereafter, on May 17, 1966, when the C-5A contract was only a year old. It states in classic Pentagonese, that the project had already incurred some $82 million in potential "additive dollars."

The audit agency has recently advised Congress that its auditors subsequently discussed the contract's "impending cost growth" with Air Force experts in the fall of 1967, the spring of 1968 and again in the fall of 1968. No further written audit was submitted, however.

The 1966 report examined only three aspects of the then very new contract: direct labor rates, overhead costs, and the costs of Lockheed-Georgia Company's subcontract. The audit was sent by Andrew Stennett Jr., a resident auditor, to the Air Force representative at the Marietta, Ga., plant.

At that time, according to the audit, Lockheed's own cost analysis indicated a possible overrun of $3.1 million on the development portion of the contract, but the sum was offset by funds from a "management reserve" account.

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Arthritis

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is it true that if you have rheumatoid arthritis you will always have it? And perhaps be totally disabled?

I have it. My mornings are unbearable. My friend says keep going and I will overcome it. I work hard all day. By evening my ankles and legs are swollen. Do you think I am overdoing it? I take pain pills every six hours.

I've been hearing on the news that we are getting close to a cure. What is your opinion?— Mrs. W. J.

Let's take your questions one at a time. The truth is that once you've had rheumatoid arthritis, you should always be on guard against a recurrence. You may be lucky and escape it, but it's better to keep the suspicion in your mind. For when rheumatoid arthritis attacks, prompt care in the acute stages is the best insurance against subsequent disability.

Evidently you know the difference between rheumatoid arthritis and other types (such as gouty arthritis, osteoarthritis, etc.). That's good. Because it is still difficult to get people to understand that these different types exist, and require differing treatment. In fact, in my booklet, "How You Can Control Arthritis," I make quite a point by explaining the differences. It's important. (Booklet available by mail; send 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for a copy.)

With rheumatoid arthritis, which flares up sharply and can move from one inflamed joint to another, it is imperative to protect the joints. That inflammation must be subdued by medication and by keeping pressure off the joints during the acute stages. It is necessary at the same time to keep the joints mobile to some extent. They must move—or be moved. That is to prevent them from "freezing." At the same time, no great strain must be exerted.

Once the acute inflammation has subsided, the program changes. The joints have been damaged, it is true, but they now can stand more exertion. Even though they are painful, the patient must be encouraged to move. Usually the stiffness and pain are worse in the morning, but the patient must be encouraged to make himself start moving about. Otherwise the joints may become steadily stiffer until movement becomes greatly limited.

There is a difference between forcing oneself to move and subjecting the joints to needless abuse. Learn the pattern of resting the joints — by never letting a day go by without moving them to the fullest extent possible. That is what maintains mobility.

Keep going — but don't overdo! When ankles and legs are swollen at the end of the day, I would suspect that the patient is overdoing it. The final question: are we getting close to a cure? I cannot honestly say I think so. Month by month year by year, we learn more about finding the right balance of exercise and rest. A few new drugs have appeared over the years. We are learning more about using them effectively.

But, much as I hope to see it, I don't expect any sensational break through. Some others disagree with me. While we seek the unknown cause of arthritis, we must in the interim make maximum use of the relatively few methods we have of controlling arthritis.

Note to Mrs. G.W.R.: No, taking vitamins would have no effect on blood sugar, and there's no reason a diabetic should not take them if needed.

"Bad Breath Can Be Corrected" is the title of Dr. Thosteson's booklet explaining the causes and cure of bad breath. For a copy write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Times-News, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes a 11 reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his columns whenever possible.

MR. SPECTATOR

Perhaps An Idea?

If it weren't for human ego, conservationists would have a much easier time trying to save some of the most fascinating species of wildlife from extinction. Reminiscent of another generation, when the battle for survival of the egret and heron centered on plumage for ladies' hats, is the current struggle to preserve what remains of such creatures as the ocelot, jaguar, leopard and alligator.

These creatures and others provide a lucrative business for poachers who find a ready market for their skins and hides. Fashion houses which turn them into expensive fur coats, shoes and handbags aren't particular about where their raw materials come from.

It is reassuring that Congress has finished work on legislation making it a federal crime to engage in interstate commerce in hides taken in violation of any federal, state or foreign law.

Implementing such a law could be a step toward eliminating the threatened animal's greatest enemy. A larger step would be for the public to refuse to buy products made from skins and pelts which could not be proven to have come from legitimate sources.

THE BROKEN LEG

The soul searching by medical men over the morality and practicality of human heart transplants has something of a counterpart in the world of veterinary medicine.

Traditionally, the only treatment considered possible for a horse with a broken leg was a merciful bullet. This destruction of good horseflesh may some day be the exception rather than the rule, according to veterinarians who attended the 62nd annual Veterinary Conference at Auburn University in Auburn, Ala. Orthopedic work with large animals is the coming thing, they predict.

"There is no limit to what one can do for a horse or mule with a fractured limb, given proper equipment and a good attitude by the owner," said Dr. L. A. Scott, a member of the faculty of Auburn's Large Animal Surgery and Medical Department. Scott recently repaired a fracture in the leg of a 20-year-old mule by using a bone plate.

Another form of treatment that has been successful in many cases is amputation, followed by fitting an animal with an artificial leg. Veterinarians have been putting pegs on horses for 20 years, said Dr. F. G. Schell, head of the department.

"The question is: Is this the humane thing to do? The repairs of fractures are easily possible, but they may not hold. Many ponies are given artificial limbs, but they are not usually seen serviceable for normal riding use afterwards. . . . Too often successful repairs cannot be maintained because of the nature of the individual horse."

The vets agreed, however, that both failures and successes advanced scientific knowledge in this area. Even as in human medicine.

MALTHUS REVISITED

India, with its present population of 500 million, frequently is singled out as the horrible example of overpopulation. But young Americans may live to see the day the United States reaches the 500 million level, if population growth continues at the current pace.

In the 15 years ending in 1975, the world will add about one billion people to the three billion inhabitants already here. It took from the beginning of man to the year 1850 to accumulate the first billion. One of every 22 persons born since the Stone Age is living today.

All of which supports the theory propounded by T. R. Malthus more than a century and a half ago that man tends to increase in a geometric ratio while his means of subsistence increase only arithmetically. It was the gloomy Malthusian conclusion that nothing could stop this arrangement except starvation, war or some other major calamity.

Man in the twentieth century has done nothing to disprove the Malthus concept, but mankind's fate is not irrevocably sealed in an overpopulation disaster. Some nations will act before it is too late.

New Confusion

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The first year of the new draft by lottery is going to see extreme confusion and widespread complaints of inequity.

Because of the way in which the lottery system will operate under President Nixon's executive order, a young man in one place whose number is 142, for example, may be drafted and sent to war, while a young man in another town whose number is 137 may not be called at all.

Men farther down the list in some states will be called before men higher on the list in other states.

For all men with No. 67, for example, will not be called at the same time throughout the United States.

The Defense Department, in a particular month, will call for so many men, say 12,500. That call will be divided among the states and then broken down among the local draft boards in each state.

Each local board will call men in the order established by the lottery. But if, in one board's area, there are few or no men with numbers 1 through 12, for example, that board may have to dip early into the 13 through 20 group.

Another board may have a great many young men with numbers 1 through 12 and will dip later in the 13 through 20 group. As one call follows another, by the end of the year some boards may thus be digging a lot deeper down the line of lottery numbers than other boards, particularly in areas where considerable numbers of young men are rejected for physical or mental reasons.

These discrepancies, of course, will bring complaints.

The change-over will also present some quite serious decisions for young men with college or other deferments.

Since the pool from which draftees will be chosen is scheduled to be larger in 1970 than in 1971 or 1972 or the years after (because the 20 through 25 age groups are included in the initial lottery), would it be better for him to drop his deferment and take his chances now when he would presumably have a better chance of going scot free? Or would it be better for him to continue his deferment in the belief that in 1971, 1972 or 1973 the draft calls will be lower and his chance of being drafted perhaps less even though the pool of eligible men will be smaller?

Further, by 1971, 1972 or 1973, it may be that the number of U. S. troops committed in Vietnam may be so reduced that even if drafted a young man's chances of facing combat would be less than if he were drafted in 1970.

These are the sort of questions that young men are already asking Selective Service advisers.

ANOTHER TREE IS PLACED ON the grounds of the Twin Falls County courthouse. Commissioner William (Bill) Chancey supervises the work here. This is the second planting of a large tree on the courthouse. The tree is similar to one planted on the grounds last year. It's all part of a program to make the courthouse grounds Idaho green and beautiful.

Instant trees are becoming a regular sight around the Twin Falls County Courthouse.

A number of residents may have noticed there's another 30-foot tree on the southeast lawn that wasn't there a week ago. William (Bill) Chancey, county commissioner, who was instrumental in obtaining another tree on the northeast corner of the lawn last year, gave a sigh of relief Wednesday when the second was safely planted.

Al Peters, Twin Falls Canal Co. manager, donated a large blue spruce, which was prepared for transplanting several months ago, but when it was lifted from the ground an old post that had been a corner post on the property and egged by the root system caused the "ball" to fall apart.

Dee Pace promptly volunteered another, this a Norwegian Spruce, which was successfully removed earlier in the week and transplanted Wednesday. Jack Wright, Kimberly Nurseries, said the new tree is also a beautiful one and transplanted without difficulty.

He and his assistant, Ken Nielsen, also planted the first tree a year ago. This year county employees decorated the tree with Christmas lights, but said it will be another year before the latest planting is strong enough to be used for holiday decorating.

Appeal Ends In Conviction, Defendant Jailed And Fined

Delbert Crawford was convicted of a charge of exhibiting a deadly weapon in a Fifth District Court trial Thursday.

The trial was held before Judge Theron Ward.

Crawford, at the conclusion of the day-long court trial, was sentenced to six months in the county jail and ordered to pay a $300 fine.

Witnesses were heard throughout the day.

Crawford was accused of exhibiting a deadly weapon, a pistol, on the night of July 29 in Twin Falls. He was convicted of the charge in Probate Court on Sept. 22, and that conviction was appealed to the District Court.

The defense claimed Crawford exhibited a jack handle, not a pistol, on the night in question. Several witnesses verified this.

However, Mike Jansson, a defense witness, testified that he saw Crawford holding a pistol, not a jack handle.

Judge Ward, in his ruling, said there was conflicting testimony and said it was apparent Mr. Jansson did in fact see Crawford holding a pistol in a threatening manner on the night in question.

It was based on the testimony from the defense witness that Crawford was convicted, according to Judge Ward's ruling.

Defense attorney was Golden Bennett. Robert Galley, Twin Falls County prosecutor, represented the state.

Democratic Delegate Selection Study Slated In T. F. At 1:30 p.m. Saturday

The problem on how to select delegates to national Democratic presidential-nominating conventions will be studied at a special meeting at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Twin Falls American Legion Hall.

Vince Smazal, chairman of the Twin Falls County Democratic Central Committee, said hearings are being held throughout the state in order to come up with an answer.

He said under the present Idaho law Idaho delegates to national conventions, both Democratic and Republican, are selected by state party delegate committees. The committees are composed of legislative district chairmen and representatives of county central committees, all of whom were elected to office two years prior to national conventions.

But at the Democratic convention in Chicago last year, it was determined the Idaho system does not truly reflect public thinking when the candidates for the presidential nomination are known.

Mr. Smazal said a special resolution was passed at the convention, and it reads: "It is understood that a state Democratic party, in selecting and certifying delegates to the national convention, thereby undertakes to assure that such delegates have been selected through a process in which all Democratic voters have had full opportunity to participate. In determining whether a state party has complied with this mandate the convention shall require that the unit rule not be used in any state of the delegate selection and all feasible efforts have been made to assure that delegates are selected through party primary, conventions or committee procedures open to public participation within the calendar year of the national convention."

In other words, Mr. Smazal said every Democrat should get a chance to voice an opinion on who to send to a national convention.

In order to deal with the problem, E. T. Waters, chairman of the State Democratic Committee, has formed a committee on delegate selection.

The committee, Saturday, will study Idaho's present election laws; formulate proposals for amendment of the Idaho law to conform with the mandate of the Democratic convention last year; make every effort to secure passage of legislation to the amendments; and to give widespread publicity to the work of the committee.

Mr. Smazal said failure to face the problem could result in a challenge of the credentials of the 1972 Idaho delegation to the national Democratic convention.

Testimony and opinions are being asked from all interested citizens; it was reported.

3 Million Still Unpaid In Taxes

There are still some three million dollars to be collected from Twin Falls County taxpayers before the Dec. 20 deadline, reports Mrs. Ruth K. Jones, county treasurer.

She said the total 1968 tax charge is $5,043,639.84 of which approximately $1,500,000 has been collected. Payments must be postmarked by Dec. 20 or may be paid in person at the tax collector's office in the courthouse.

Payments offered after the deadline cannot be accepted until Jan. 28 and a two per cent penalty and 8 per cent interest charge will be added. With only five office days left, Mrs. Jones urged taxpayers to pay real property taxes as soon as possible to avoid the long waiting lines on the final days.

Film 'Pinocchio' Scheduled For Show At Idaho Theater

The show "Pinocchio" is coming to the Idaho Theater at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, theater manager K. P. Boyer said Thursday. Seats for the matinee performance are 75 cents.

Mr. Boyer said he hopes that many parents will attend with their children to "relive their childhood with this story of the little wood doll who eventually becomes a real boy."

Colloidi's tale, embellished by Childhood Products' storybook color and a new song, "A Boy Named Pinocchio," was made under the Omega banner with an all-live cast aided by puppets under the supervision of the famed Prague Marionette Theatre.

"Pinocchio is surrounded by all the characters of the original story, Papa Geppetto, Stromboli, Artura, Mirzilla the Fox, Eusebius the Cat, Euphorsina the Good Fairy and even the children-turned-donkey in the land of the wicked circus.

Mr. Boyer said the show "Pinocchio" at the Idaho Theater is the story as it has been told through the years.

A matinee performance is also set for Sunday, he said.

Ley Assails FDA Shakeup As Useless

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dr. Herbert L. Ley Jr.'s parting shot at the men who eased him out as commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration was simply:

"A new commissioner and another reorganization of FDA are only partial solutions to its problems."

"The real solution is to isolate FDA functions from political pressures," Ley said Thursday, "to give the agency the resources to do its jobs, and to provide the kind of national leadership and support that will allow any commissioner to act responsibly and responsibly, solely in the public interest."

Ley was to be replaced Feb. 1, but he decided to leave today. He declined to take a job upstairs as deputy to Assistant H.E.W. Secretary Roger O. Egeberg.

Folk Singer, Poet Enliven Chicago Trial Proceedings

CHICAGO (UPI)—It was one of the best "theater" days so far in the trial of the "Chicago Seven," and David Dellinger was enjoying it with his fellow defendants.

Folk singer Phil Ochs almost got to play his guitar for the jury and, later, poet Allen Ginsberg was going to appear. Ochs came to the witness stand with his guitar and testified Yippie leaders Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin came to Chicago in August, 1968, "to theatrically sort of spook" the Democratic National Convention.

He said they wanted to show that "fantasies in the street" were a means of "dealing with what seemed to be an absurd world." He also said Hoffman and Rubin wanted to avoid violence in their "festival of life."

Defense attorney William H. Kunstler said Ochs was ready to play his guitar and sing a song he sang at the convention. Judge Julius J. Hoffman forbade singing, but permitted Ochs to recite the words of "I Ain't Marchin' Anymore."

Then Ginsberg was called to testify, his long hair and beard flowing as he made his way to the witness stand. Defense attorney Leonard I. Weinglass carried a harmonium under his arm and asked the poet—whose most famous poem is "Howl"—to identify it.

"Oh, an instrument, too?" Judge Hoffman said. Ginsberg took it and squeezed it a few bars, to the prosecution's objection which the judge upheld.

Ginsberg chanted his "Mantra of Preservation," which he used to try to bring good feeling back to Chicago during the violent convention activities.

"Here here
"Hare rama
"Rama rama
"Rama Krishna."

Judge Hoffman cut off Ginsberg's deep, resonant voice and courtroom laughter.

"I just don't understand the whole thing. The language of the U.S. District Court is English. I don't know what language that is we have just heard."
"It's Sanskrit," Ginsberg replied.

"When you offer testimony in a foreign language, you must have an interpreter," the judge said, ruling Ginsberg could not interpret for himself.

After his testimony—in which he spoke of his writings and studies in Oriental religions, and of "the planetary crisis"—Ginsberg was excused. He turned to the judge as he left the witness stand.

"Hare Krishna," he said.

Opponents of the administration bill hold a slight edge.

Japanese Voters To Decide Future Of U.S. Relations

TOKYO (UPI)—Japan's 69.6 million registered voters will decide Dec. 27 whether their nation is to join the United States as a full partner in the defense of Asia.

Trade School Plans Listed For Albion

BURLEY—Bob Briggs, Pocatello, president of Inter-mountain Trade and Technical School, Inc., told Burley Chamber of Commerce members of the proposed school at the Albion campus during the Albion luncheon meeting at Bryan's Cafe.

The non-profit corporation has encountered difficulty in trying to lease the Albion campus owned by the state, from the State Land Board since the board wants to sell the Albion facility.

Just recently the State Land Board had given the library at the Albion Campus to Boise State College. However, when the truck from Boise arrived at Albion to pick up the books and material, prompt action by Albion residents and J. Vard Chatburn, Albion, Cassia County Representative, stopped the removal of the library for the time being.

Now the fate of the college is in the hands of the state legislature which meets in January, since the decision whether to lease the campus or not has been transferred from the Land Board to the legislature, Mr. Briggs reported.

Several programs were proposed for the new trade school including a grant from the federal government for a Mexican-American family training program.

"The emphasis of the trade school will be on farm vocational training and related aspects including business training," stated Mr. Briggs.

The proposed trade school already has one scholarship from a resident of Soda Springs, he said.

"We need active participation from the merchants of Burley and Rupert, and residents of the two counties. This participation includes sending students to the college, financial backing if needed, and places for on the job training in stores and factories in this vicinity," Mr. Briggs stated.

"The school would be a private school and it is hoped the institution could get started with the least amount of private financing in the form of selling stock," Briggs reported.

Other officers of the non-profit corporation are Norval Waldman, Burley; Dale Stoller, Rupert, both vice presidents, and Ed Frank, Burley, director. Mr. Frank introduced Briggs at the chamber meeting.

CAROLING PLANNED
FILER — Filer churches are planning the annual community caroling service, around the Christmas tree on Main Street and will start at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Leading the singing will be Rev. Joe John. The street will be closed off and the public is invited to participate.

conservative politician with a knack for winning the confidence of Washington and Wall Street.

On Sato's orders, Emperor Hirohito dissolved the 488-seat lower house of the Japanese Parliament earlier this month and called a general election. Sato asked the Japanese people to return his Liberal-Democratic Party (LDP) to power for four more years. In a final speech before the diet, Sato said he wants to renew the U.S.-Japan security treaty next year. He also made it plain that he is edging Japan toward closer cooperation with American policies in Asia.

Although the U.S. State Department would be the first to deny that America is trying to play a role in a Japanese election, U.S. interest in Sato's welfare is clear.

The LDP, which has ruled Japan without a break since 1948, is the only part in Japan that advocates all-out alignment with U.S. foreign policy. It is also the only one that U.S. government trusts completely. The opposition consists of four smaller parties, whose foreign policy stances range from neutrality to outright alignment with communism. If they won enough seats in parliament to form a coalition government, they would almost certainly begin phasing out the U.S.-Japan security treaty.

Women's Section

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Roger and I have been married for less than a year and I could use some advice.

Roger was a confirmed bachelor (or so everyone thought) before he married me. Well, it seems that about five years ago he came very close to marrying another girl, but at the last minute something happened and the wedding never took place.

of the blue, five months ago, I found him in the arms of a young woman who lived in one of our apartments. I kicked him out, and now he is lying openly with HER. We haven't even had a preliminary hearing to court yet, so you can imagine how shocked I was to learn that a close relative of MINE had invited my husband and this woman to her home for dinner. I think that by doing this she is condoning what he did. Am I wrong? Also, if my husband is invited to dinner on any function and he brings HER, uninvited, would it be in order to ask them to leave?

Anyway, Roger and this girl agreed to meet at the top of the Empire State building on July 4th, 1970, at 6 p.m. Eastern Standard time — exactly five years to the minute from the time they parted. They agreed that if either one married, they'd bring their spouse along. Roger wants to keep the date, and he wants me to go with him. (We now live in Manchester, N. H.)

Abby, I don't care to meet the girl he almost married, but I don't want to seem like a jealous wife. What should I do? THINKING-OF-1970

DEAR BURNED: In answer to your first question, NO. To your second, YES.

DEAR THINKING: What if Roger's old girl is married and her husband doesn't want to meet the man she almost married, so he sends HER alone? Then Roger, and his old flame will be up there on the top of the Empire State building, just the two of them, with their memories? Silly girl, Go!

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have five school-age children. I am not saying that I am the best organized person in the world. Marvin (my husband) never complained. Every summer Marvin's sister, who teaches school in New York, comes to visit us for a month. We've always welcomed her visits — but no more!

DEAR ABBY: For 37 years my husband and I have had a very good marriage. Then out

While a guest in our home she would supervise the house-keeping, rearrange the drawers and cupboards, and act as a self-appointed "efficiency expert." I didn't mind, because I suspected she wanted to keep busy. However, I did mind when she started to find fault with the way I was raising the children.

After she left I was furious to learn that she thought it was her "duty" to speak to Marvin about his wife's "sloppy house-keeping, extravagance, and the poor training she is giving the children." Not one word to ME, mind-you, but she told Marvin to try to "straighten ME out" before it was "too late."

My question to you: Do you think she is really a good person who wants me to be "straightened out" before it is "too late"? Or is she just a meddling old maid who can't keep her nose out of other people's affairs? FURIOUS

DEAR FURIOUS: The letter. And tell Marvin that should his sister, the "efficiency expert," wish to visit you again, he should "straighten HER out," as she appears to be full of kinks.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the lazy engineer's wife who "hid" her dirty dishes in her oven made me laugh.

Before I had a dishwasher, I used to put my dirty dishes in a plastic dishpan and stick it in my oven to keep my kitchen looking neat.

Not once—but TWICE I forgot, and "pre-heated" my oven. Can you imagine the mess I found with my dirty dishes setting on the racks with great globes of plastic hanging off them? LESSON LEARNED

Cassia Livestock Marketing Group Hear Reports At Meet

BURLEY — Wade Wells, extension animal husbandman or the University of Idaho, was the featured luncheon speaker at the Cassia Livestock Marketing Association annual meeting held in the conference room of Nelson's Cafe.

Mr. Wells told of the changes that are taking place in the meat industry and the lamb market was starting to go through those changes. He reported that cutability consists of fat and lean meat. Cutability will tend to standardize testing of ewes to produce their own replacement ewes and by doing this you will produce a better quality lamb and help to standardize the fleece, he said.

Farm Bureau Honors Utah And Writer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The American Farm Bureau Federation presented its highest honor — an award for distinguished service in the interest of organized agriculture — to a retired wire service farm reporter and a Utah farm leader.

The awards, presented during the federation's golden anniversary convention, went to Ovid A. Martin, retired Associated Press farm writer, and A. V. Smoot of Coriande, Utah. Smoot is a former president of the Utah Farm Bureau Federation and a 1964-68 member of the American Farm Bureau board of directors.

Martin, a native of Iberia, Mo., son of a small town newspaper editor and graduate of the University of Missouri journalism school, worked for the Associated Press at bureaus in Kansas before coming to Washington in 1937.

Martin retired officially early this year and continues to write on agriculture from his home at McLean, Va.

Smoot, the other award recipient, "has served agriculture for more than 30 years at county, state and national levels in the development of farm cooperatives, dairying, natural resource and education," the bureau said.

174 Steers Are In Feedlot Test

By ROBERT VANAUDEIN Times-News Farm Editor

Livestockmen interested in improving the quality of beef cattle within their own herds as well as in this area, have put 174 feeder calves into the Feedlot Evaluation Test.

This number of steers, composed by 37 area ranchers, indicates that local cattlemen are interested in learning and seeing what their beef cattle will do in the feedlot and what the cutability of each animal will be. Sponsoring this test, the second one, is the Magic Valley Cattlemen's Association, in cooperation with the College of Southern Idaho and University of Idaho extension service.

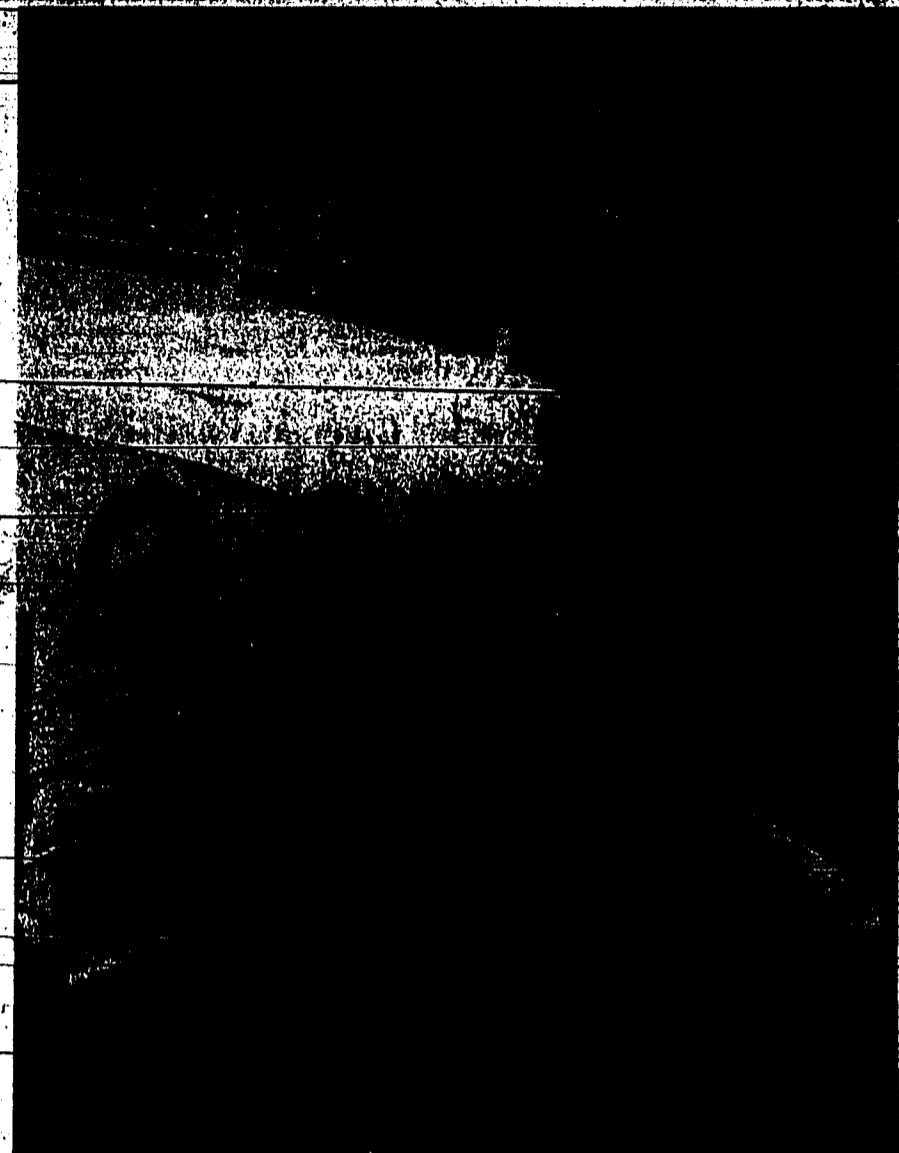

Weighing

The initial weighing of the steers, individually, will be held at 9 a.m. sharp on Friday, Dec. 19, at Olmstead Cattle Co. feedlots.

All ranchers having steers in the Feedlot Evaluation Test as well as others interested in the program are urged to attend this weighing. All steers will be weighed individually.

TAGGING a steer for the Feedlot Evaluation Test, sponsored by the Magic Valley Cattlemen's Association, is Randall Brewer, Three Creek, while Art DeVlaser, Filer, right, looks on. Area ranchers entered 174 head in the test.

SOME OF THE area ranchers who are participating in the Feedlot Evaluation Test are shown here looking at some of the steers entered in the test. The steers, totaling 174 head, were tagged, weighed and graded at the Twin Falls Livestock Commission Co. prior to entering the feedlots at Olmstead Cattle Co.

Kimberly Grange Has Yule Party

KIMBERLY — A potluck dinner and Christmas party were held in the Kimberly Grange Hall recently.

The hall was decorated by Mrs. Les Lowe, Mrs. Bruce Luloff, Mrs. Viola Brown, Mrs. James Messersmith and Mrs. Ogle Wall.

The Grange meeting was opened by ritual. Guests were introduced. Everyone sang "Joy to the World" to begin the program. "The Origin of the Christmas Gifts" was read by Mrs. Grace Durk.

An article, "Foreign Customs at Christmas" was read by Mrs. Burton Harmon. "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear" was sung. Todd Messersmith played several guitar solos.

The poem "The Night Before Christmas" was given by Melody Britt.

Rhea Messersmith sang "Jingle Bells." A piano solo was played by Ranae Messersmith.

The reading, "School After Christmas" was done by Rajeed Messersmith. Phyllis Britt read "The Christmas Mouse."

Ogle Wall related a humorous story. A musical stunt was done by Mrs. Luloff and her daughter, Clody. The program ended with a medley of Christmas songs.

Santa Claus arrived with toys, popcorn balls and candy for the children.

Members were reminded Pomonas Grange will meet in Murtaugh Saturday at 7:30 p.m. for a potluck dinner.

Meetings Set

A special meeting of the Twin Falls County Farm Bureau directors and community legislative committee has been set for 1:30 p.m. Monday in the county office.

Plans for a legislative program, membership drive and the annual banquet will be made at this meeting.

Another meeting for the directors and committee has been scheduled for Dec. 22 at 1:30 p.m.

DDT Substitute

WASHINGTON — Australian scientists have reported a breakthrough in the development of a pesticide to replace DDT.

One member of the scientific team says the chemical has proven to be nontoxic to animals in acute doses, and has been found to be very effective against insect strains immune to DDT.

However, the scientist also noted that it might be several years before the product is marketed, because of the need for thorough "fool-proof" testing.

Charter Is Draped By Area Grange

WENDELL — The Wendell Grange draped its charter at a recent meeting for Mrs. Lucia Amussen, former member.

Ray Smith, insurance agent for the grange, gave an insurance report. Members agreed to perform the fourth degree this year.

Discussion was held pertaining to the exchange program which will go into effect this winter between subordinate Granges.

Hosts for the evening were Ray Smith and Mrs. and Mrs. Ronald Smith.

2 Elected

KING HILL — Two directors of the King Hill Irrigation Board were elected during a recent election.

Blaine Steel, Bliss, was named a director of district one, and C. J. Russell, Glenns Ferry, is director of district four.

T. F. FFA Member Receives American Farmer Degree

A young Twin Falls farmer, who is never too busy to lend a helping hand, has been honored by the Future Farmers of America.

Don Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris, farms 120 acres just east of Twin Falls, and recently was awarded the American Farmer Degree, the highest honor a FFA member can receive from the national organization.

While in high school Don had 10 acres of alfalfa his second year of vo-ag and during his third year he raised beets, and beans as he did during his fourth year in vo-ag.

— Since then he has farmed 120 acres, his father also helps him once in a while and also he and his father are partners in the farm equipment used on the two farms.

Don's leased 120 acres are located just east of Twin Falls and this past year he raised peas, beans, sugar beets and alfalfa. This winter he and his father will feed about 100 head of beef cattle.

Don contributes much of his farming knowledge to his father and to the vo-ag instruction he received while attending the Twin Falls High School. Don said vo-ag in high school teaches a young man agriculture in general, but "I have learned a lot from it."

Don's vo-ag instructor was

John Lawrence, now the principal of the Twin Falls High School. Don is still a member of the Twin Falls FFA chapter.

Champions

Two Paint horses owned by Dr. Lyle Wonderlich, Twin Falls, took top honors at the recent Golden Spike Livestock Show in Ogden.

"Tinky's Spook" was named grand champion stallion and "Tinky Josie" was named the grand champion mare.

Hazelton Farmer Is New Director Of Bean Growers

A Hazelton farmer has been named a director of the Bean Growers Warehouse Association, Inc.

John Ottman was elected by members of the farm cooperative during the group's annual meeting recently in the Holiday Inn, Twin Falls.

Two other directors were re-elected. They are Edwin E. Brune, Murtaugh, and Clyde Hansen, Jerome. Holdover directors are Edward Reichert, Eller; M. R. Cothran, Buhl; Leslie R. Jones, Twin Falls; Carl D. Irwin and Jack Claborn, both Kimberly, and Harold Atkins, Buhl.

In other business during the annual meeting, Robert English, general manager of the firm, told members he would "like to see the market for both beans and grain a little more stable."

Reward Offered

SHOSHONE — A reward is offered by Earl Hutchison and Thomas Hutchison for information leading to the apprehension of person or persons who rustled 35 head of their range cattle.

The cattle were taken during summer range, between Oct. 26 and Nov. 19, from the East Fork Canyon of Big Wood River, east of the old Triumph mine, near Halley.

CONVENTION PLANNED

CINCINNATI — A chief event in 1970 for Ohio Baptists will be hosting the annual sessions of the American Baptist Convention to be held May 13-17 in the new convention hall in Cincinnati.

SPEAKING to the members of the Twin Falls County Livestock Marketing Association is Reed Hulet, Wendell, state sheep inspector. He explained briefly various diseases that have hit area sheepmen. He was one of three speakers during the group's annual meeting recently in the Rogerson Hotel Roundup Room.

Obligations Given Livestock Marketing Group To Mrs. White

GOODING — Mrs. Dorothy White was given the obligations in the first and fourth degrees at a recent meeting of the Gooding Grange by Ben Glauner, master.

Mrs. Edward Bush, women's activities chairman, announced the last regular meeting of the Grange this month will be Dec. 19.

Several resolutions were read by Ira Kistler, chairman of the resolutions committee. These resolutions were discussed at the recent State Grange convention in Twin Falls.

Livestock Marketing Group Elects Officers, Directors

Officers and directors of the Twin Falls County Livestock Marketing Association were named during the group's recent annual meeting in Twin Falls.

Re-elected directors were W. E. McCoy, Buhl; Marvin Lohr, Eller; L. E. Venable, Kimberly, and Louis Alastra, Hazelton. Officers elected were Mr. Alastra, president; Charles Potucek, Kimberly, vice president; Donald Youz, Twin Falls, secretary, and Marvin Custer, Twin Falls, treasurer.

During the business meeting Mr. Potucek, chairman of the wool committee, told the group that there were 51,129 pounds of wool sold during the 1969 wool pool for about 43 cents per pound to the Caron Spinning Co.

Mr. Potucek said the quality of the wool was better than in past years.

Explaining about the lamb pools this past year was Mr. Lohr, chairman of the lamb committee. He said a total of 2,280 lambs were marketed through four pools this year. He said the price of the lambs ranged from $28.66 to $30.51 per hundredweight. The average weight of the lambs for the four pools were 161 pounds.

Mr. Lohr also said there were several problems that arose during the lamb pools, but everything seemed to have been worked out.

Those attending the meeting expressed their feelings that the lamb pools should continue even though the association is a small group as compared to other marketing associations.

Reed Hulet, Wendell, state sheep inspector, talked briefly about the Idaho Sheep Commission and also on the various diseases confronting the sheep industry and local sheepmen.

Also speaking during the annual meeting were L. M. Williams, Boise, executive secretary of the Idaho Wool Growers Association, and Wade Wells, Boise, University of Idaho livestock specialist. Mr. Williams discussed various problems confronting the sheep industry and Mr. Wells talked briefly on re-

Scribe Suggests 'Adult' Game For Yuletide Shoppers

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Since Christmas shoppers buy a lot of adult-parlor games as gifts, I thought it might be fun to invent an adult parlor game called "Christmas Shopping."

The rules are pretty complicated, so pay close attention: Before the game begins, each player draws a card upon which is written his "gift list." He then receives $100,000 from the bank. The object of the game is to try to acquire all of the items on the "gift list" without having to get more money from the "bank."

The game is played on a board shaped like a suburban shopping center. Spaced around the board are a number of "obstacles," which are called

Theater Men Say Miss Day Is Still Tops

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Theater owners are by nature the greatest cynics in show business—they love the stars who ring the boxoffice bell, and write them off when they don't.

In its unimpeachable annual poll, the trade journal Boxoffice asked more than a thousand theater owners their favorites for 1969.

The replies are more authentic than most polls in that released pictures and their stars are included along with new releases.

This, Doris Day, who did not make a picture this year, still found herself rated among the top dozen favorites with the guys who keep an eye on the girls in the ticket booth. Some of her oldies were shown.

There were three names on this year's most popular list among male stars which did not appear last year: Dustin Hoffman, Alan Arkin, and Gregory Peck.

Sacked from the elite dozen this year were Rod Steiger (11th last year), Warren Beatty (12th) and Walter Matthau (7th).

Among the ladies there were also three newcomers this year: Barbra Streisand, Sophia Loren and Vanessa Redgrave.

They knocked off Debbie Reynolds (12th last year), Julie Christie (9th) and Audrey Hepburn (2).

It must come as a shock to Audrey to know she was adored second only to Julie Andrews in 1968 and totally ignored by the hard-eyed film emporium owners in 1969.

At the top of the list this year was John Wayne for "True Grit." It was his 20th appearance in the past 21 years among the top 12 male stars. Theatermen love him.

Top female stars were Joanne Woodward, who made her 10th appearance in the poll.

In order of popularity the theater owners voted:

Males—Wayne, Paul Newman, Dustin Hoffman, Steve McQueen, Clint Eastwood, Richard Burton, Lee Marvin, Alan Arkin, Jack Lemmon, Sidney Poitier, Dean Martin, Gregory Peck.

Females—Joanne Woodward, Julie Andrews, Shirley MacLaine, Katharine Hepburn, Jane Fonda, Barbra Streisand, Rachel Welch, Sophia Loren, Elizabeth Taylor, Doris Day, Faye Dunaway, Vanessa Redgrave.

Any or all of the above could be missing from next year's poll if the stars don't pay off at the ticket wicket.

Idaho Legislators Face Renewed Debate On Key Issues Left From Last Session

By PAUL M. QUINN

BOISE (UPI)—Key legislation, bypassed by the first half of the 40th Idaho Legislature, awaits the lawmakers who will be on hand Jan. 12 when the second half gets underway.

It will come as no surprise to the 105-legislators that this is to be a "working session."

Under terms of a resolution passed by the last session, bills that were not killed or passed, instead of automatically dying at the end of the session, were referred back to the committee where they originated and remain alive.

This, at first glance, may not sound like much of an accomplishment, but with yearly legislative sessions it should save untold hours of drafting and printing. The lawmakers are also familiar with the bills. Just exactly how this legislation will be reported out of committee remains to be seen.

This was one small detail in the giant step that the last session overlooked.

Lt. Gov. Jack Murphy, president of the state Senate, said, "I objected to this at the time. I tried to get them to lay the ground rules."

But Murphy said he appreciated the problems of the legislature in the waning days of early this year when the first half the session was fighting through major problems and trying to adjourn.

Some of the key legislation still pending in the Senate includes such bills and resolutions as the legislative code of ethics, a bill authorizing charging of tuition for resident students at higher education institutions, a measure transferring control of the state training center from the Board of Education to the Department of Public Instruction and a proposal to make enforcement of drug control laws the responsibility of the Department of Law Enforcement.

In all, there are 125 bills still before the Senate and 16 joint resolutions or memorials.

Not all of the remaining legislation is major, but it all had a sponsor or sponsors pushing for it in 1968. In most cases they will want to see their proposals out for consideration during the second half.

An example of the relatively inconsequential legislation that is still alive in the Senate is a bill to make the rainbow trout the official state fish of Idaho. There are also bills like the one that sets a new schedule of fees for cosmetologists and a proposal requiring that court records of adoptions be sealed.

Bills are also before the Senate and House which might as well be dead since the legislators passed measures in the first half that do the same thing as the bills they left.

Examples of these are the proposals establishing a State Human Rights Commission and creating a State Investment Board.

Many of the Senate proposals that lawmakers have indicated will be out on the floor and could be troublesome include some of these:

- A measure creating seven public health districts and establishing district boards of health.
- A bill prohibiting the advertising of eye examinations.
- A proposal requiring Senate confirmation—unless barred by the constitution—of all gubernatorial appointments.
- Exempting food from the state sales tax.
- And Senate resolutions that propose constitutional amendments to change and modernize the State Land Board, change the terms of state senators to four years instead of two, prosecuting attorneys and authorizing classes of property for tax assessment purposes.

And, if this isn't enough in the Senate, there's always the controversial liquor legislation.

Richfield To Bill Citizens For Sidewalk

RICHFIELD — Residents of block 45 will be billed for one-fourth of the cost of sidewalk installation, Mrs. Ruth Swainston, city clerk, reports.

Councilmen told Mrs. Swainston at the December council meeting this week, to request payment from Lincoln county of tax money due the city to complete the year's business.

Beer and liquor licenses were approved for three business firms for the first quarter of 1970. Councilmen voiced their appreciation to Chet Moulton, director of Idaho Aeronautics Department, for visiting the local airport while improvements were being made.

Mayor Clifford Ward reported he was assisted by Donald Riley and Ronald Bell in getting a large Christmas tree for Main Street intersection, with Councilman James R. Brown and Fireman Duane Stirling helping with placement and decorating.

Mayors Ask Nixon's Aid On Poverty

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Big city mayors and civic spokesmen sought President Nixon's help Thursday in their battle to keep the war on poverty from being turned over to state governments.

John W. Gardner, chairman of the Urban Coalition, and Mayors John V. Lindsay of New York and Carl B. Stokes of Cleveland led the campaign on the eve of House debate of poverty legislation.

PRISON PLAN SUCCEEDS

BOISE (UPI)—An official at the state prison says a "work release" program being conducted by the penitentiary and the State Department of Employment appears to be a success.

Lord Harlech Weds Editor Of Fashions

LONDON (UPI)—Lord Harlech, once the escort of Jacqueline Kennedy, married fashion editor Pamela Colin Thursday in a ceremony attended by royalty and a procession of Harlech's flamboyantly dressed jippie children.

Nearly 150 persons, including former Prime Minister Harold MacMillan and Princess Margaret and her husband Lord Snowdon, attended the wedding in the tiny 18th century Grosvenor Chapel.

Harlech's daughters wore Indian robes, wild hats and beads. Alice, 18, walked to the church in a leather patchwork jacket, her arms swinging. Then came Jane, 26, in harlequin boots and a billowing red velvet Victorian Gown. On her hip she carried her 9-month-old daughter, Rose.

FPC Endorses BPA Power Rate

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—The Federal Power Commission has approved Bonneville Power Administration's rate for electric power at the current level until 1974, BPA administrator H. R. Richmond reported Wednesday.

Federal law requires the FPC to review BPA rates every five years.

The order retaining the present prices will be effective through Dec. 20, 1974. BPA's only increase in rates was a 3 per cent raise in 1965.

Former Viet Cong Captives Walk Unharmed To U.S. Post

SAIGON (UPI)—Two Americans captured by the Viet Cong 38 days ago walked into a South Vietnamese command post Wednesday, the U.S. Army announced Thursday. Indicators were they had been released.

The men were captured after their helicopter was shot down. A communique identified the men as WO Michael T. Peterson, 21, of Redmond, Wash., and Sgt. Vernon C. Shepard, 21, of Akron, Ohio. Both were wounded and suffering from "moderate malnutrition," spokesmen said, but well enough to return to the United States this weekend.

Peterson and Shepard were listed as missing in action Nov. 2. They walked into a South Vietnamese command post near Duc Lap, 125 miles northeast of Saigon on Wednesday.

The two Army men were shot down during fighting around the Duc Lap and Bu Prang Special Forces camp, both of which are situated within three miles of the Cambodian border. More than 5,000 North Vietnamese troops were believed operating in the area at the time.

It was presumed the men had been held in Cambodia, but spokesmen declined to give details of the captivity until interrogation is completed.

CARELESS PLAY COSTS CONTRACT

South looked at dummy and relaxed. He was in a nice, comfortable, game contract and, if everything went well, he might make two overtricks. Certainly there was no reason to think about the whole play. He led dummy's jack of trumps at trick two, just to see if the queen would cover. Not that he thought it would. East wasn't one of those automatic honor covers.

When the queen did not appear, he put up his ace and then decided to set up a diamond discard for his potential club loser before playing any more trumps. He led his jack of diamonds. East took his ace and made the inspired return of a low trump.

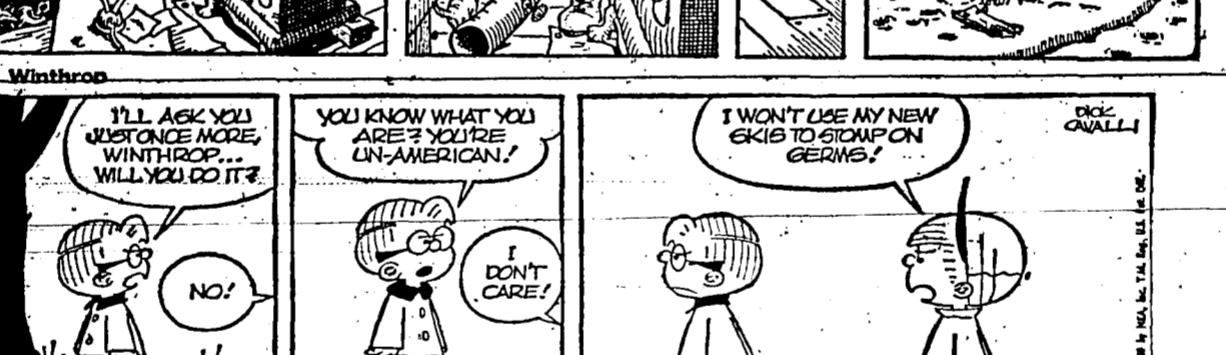

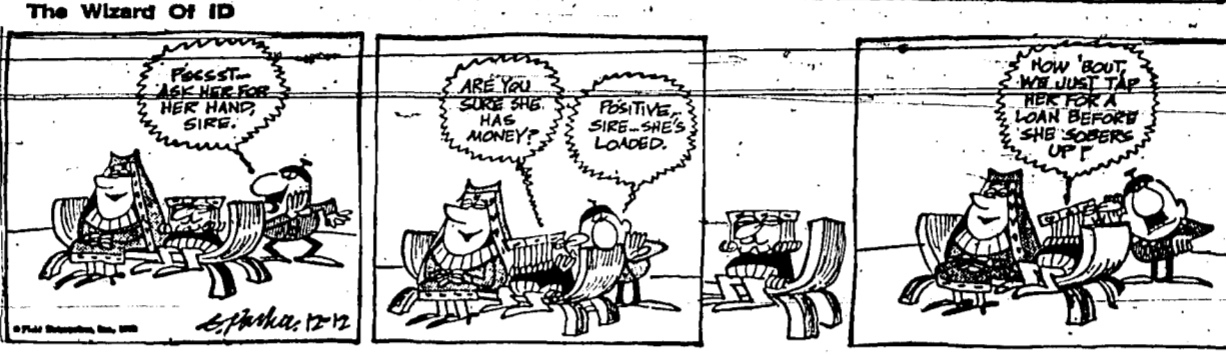

South played his king after long thought, entered dummy with a diamond and tried the spade. West took his king, played his queen of hearts to pull dummy's last trump, and continued with his 10 of clubs. South could discard his losing spade or losing club on dummy's last high diamond, but could not get rid of both of them and was one down.

East made the old remark, "When both sides play trumps, one is wrong." South had no answer.

He should have looked over dummy carefully after winning the club lead. If he had done that, he would have noted that one trump but would have started diamonds immediately. This would make it impossible for the defense to pull dummy's last trump and he would have been able to ruff his last spade in dummy and make his contract.

Just for the record, South could have made the hand after the bad start if he had simply stripped the West hand of diamonds and clubs and thrown West in with the queen of trumps to force a spade lead, but the simple line of just not leading a trump too early was far better.

Tampa Eliminated As Site For Frazier-Clay Match, Orlando Is Next In Line

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI)—Tampa was eliminated Thursday as the site for the "dream fight" between Cassius Clay and Joe Frazier, and agreement was reached to push for the fight in Orlando Feb. 16.

Promoter Ron Gorton, who had tried unsuccessfully to stage the fight here, joined forces Thursday afternoon with Orlando fight promoter Pete Ashlock to have the fight at Ashlock's Orlando Sports Stadium.

Gorton said Clay's attorney, Bob Arum, was meeting in New York with Mike Malitz of Sports Action Inc. to discuss the possibility. Malitz firm would show the event on closed circuit television.

Ashlock said he did not anticipate the adverse reaction in the Orlando area that developed here.

The opposition in Tampa was based on the fact Clay has been convicted and sentenced for five years in prison for failure to report for induction into the Army. That conviction is under appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Late Thursday, another Orlando area promoter, Lawrence H. "Larry" Sunbrock, filed a petition in federal court in Orlando seeking to bar the fight anywhere in the middle district of Florida — including Tampa, Orlando and Jacksonville.

Sunbrock, who said in his petition that he had a son who was wounded in Vietnam, requested the restraining order on the grounds Clay has been convicted of refusing to be inducted into the military service.

"He, Clay, has made a mockery of the U.S. Selective Service Act but because of affluence and influence, has evaded serving in the U. S. Armed Forces," the petition read.

Sunbrock also asked the court to remand Clay to jail pending the outcome of his appeal of his conviction.

"I think it's great the fight was finally put together," Ashlock said. "I think right now Cassius Clay is an idol to the young people and I'm willing to stick my neck out to see that the championship is settled in the ring."

The stadium is outside Orlando and there is no boxing commission to deal with, Ashlock said he anticipated no trouble from the county commission.

Commission Chairman Paul Pickett said he saw no reason why the fight could not be staged at the facility, which has a roof. The stadium will seat between 7,500 and 9,000 depending on how it is arranged.

The move to Orlando was begun after Gorton withdrew his request for use of the 40,000-seat Tampa stadium.

In addition to the Ashlock proposal, Billy Herndon of Tampa, owner and operator of Central Florida Dragway near Orlando also had made an offer to Arum guaranteeing $700,000 if he could stage the fight.

Details on guarantees, contracts and other negotiable items still have not been ironed out, Gorton said.

Dissension Rumored On Cards, Coach May Get Axe

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—During most of the St. Louis Cardinals' disastrous football season, signs hung by fans in Busch Stadium for home games have declared "Winner's a Loser" and "So Long, Charley."

The fans' wrath for the losing season, which now shows a 4-1 record, has come down on the head of coach Charley Winner, currently not enjoying his fourth year with the Cardinals.

Winner could tolerate the derision if his players remained loyal, but that loyalty apparently is now in question.

Recent reports have talked of dissension on the team and a lack of confidence in Winner's leadership. Winner says only that winning teams need pride and those that don't have it don't win.

Winner said, "our guys have physical abilities. It's just a matter of each one wanting to do the very best at his position."

"The ball player with pride feels a mistake more than anyone else," Winner said. "You don't have to point it out to him."

Part of the reported dissension on the club comes from the fact that the players have taken sides on the question of whether Charley Johnson or Jim Hart should be the starting quarterback.

Winner has been careful all season to treat the two equally. Each quarterback has started some games, and the two have alternated in the offensive lineup with the ebb and flow of the team's fortunes and their own individual performances.

Johnson was quoted recently as saying, "I think the Cardinals know I just can't be a second-string quarterback. There's only one way I can be the No. 1 quarterback next year."

Replying to Johnson's remark, Bill Bidwill, team vice president, said, "I expect he'll come in and see us after the season and we'll talk about his future."

Bidwill said, "I don't really think there is dissension. I think the better word is apathy. In New York Sunday there was a lack of effort shown by the players."

The Giants beat the Cardinals, 49-6, last Sunday. The Cardinals have games remaining with the Cleveland Browns and Green Bay Packers.

Bidwill said, "We realize something will have to be done. It may come to getting rid of Winner or 20 players."

Umpires Lose Latest Round In Courts

NEW YORK (UPI)—American League umpires Al Salerno and Bill Valentine have been called out on strikes in Federal Court.

Their only chance for another time at bat now seems to be before the Supreme Court or Congress.

Judge Thomas F. Croake has dismissed a damage suit filed in Manhattan Federal Court by the umpires, who were fired near the end of the 1968 season.

The umpires had filed the suit claiming "unlawful dismissal and boycott" as part of a "conspiracy."

Croake ruled his court lacked jurisdiction to handle the case. One reason given was a series of U. S. Supreme Court decisions ruling baseball exempt from the anti-trust laws.

Salerno and Valentine argued that baseball had grown into "interstate commerce" but the judge said any change in the exemption must come from Congress.

The American League said the umpires were fired for incompetence but the umpires argued it was because they tried to organize umpires into a union.

Huskers Don't Plan Contact

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Nebraska football coach Bob Devaney said Thursday the Cornhuskers would not risk injuries by having contact drills before their appearance in the Sun Bowl game with Georgia.

"We decided against contact and we won't have any scrimmages once we get to El Paso," Devaney said.

"When you don't have contact for nearly a month, you have to be careful that you don't lose too much in timing," he said. "But if you decide to have contact, you run the risk of injury."

The Huskers leave Lincoln Monday for El Paso. The game is Dec. 20.

Crippled Cougars Beaten By Bucs

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—James Jones scored 28 points and Gerald Govan pulled down 17 rebounds to give the New Orleans Buccaneers a 114-87 victory over the crippled Carolina Cougars Wednesday night.

The Cougars were without the services of a point makes Doug Moe and Bob Weaga, who were sidelined with aggravated muscle pulls.

The Buccaneer defense held the Cougars to 34 points in the first half, a new home court record for the defense.

Colorado Raps Texas Tech

BOULDER, Colo. (UPI)—Cliff Meeley paced the University of Colorado Thursday as they broke away from Texas Tech in the second half to take a 75-58 win.

It was the first loss for Texas Tech after three straight victories and gave nationally-ranked Colorado a 5-1 record.

Texas Tech held the Buffaloes throughout the first half and the score at halftime stood at 31-31 but couldn't keep Colorado from controlling the second half.

Meeley scored a game high of 27 and pulled down 11 rebounds. Mike Coleman added 12 rebounds and nine points for the Buffaloes.

Valley Trips Filer 30-17 In Wrestling

EDEX-HAZELTON—The Valley Vikings piled up most of their points in the middle weights Thursday night to defeat the Filer Wildcats 30-17 in a dual wrestling match.

Three forfeits, two draws and one no-match abbreviated the usual 12-match scoring.

Valley next will host the Jerome Tigers Tuesday and travel to Kimberly Thursday afternoon.

Results of the matches, Valley men listed first, include: 98 pounds, Bloxham won by forfeit; 107 pounds, McClain pinned Miller; 115 pounds, Brooks pinned Kay; 123 pounds, Waters declared share; 130 pounds, Miller was declared by Ochsner; 137 pounds, Valley forfeited to Chadwick; 145 pounds, Muncel drew with Klous; 155 pounds, Boyd drew with Lutz; 165 pounds, Gott declared Meyer; 175 pounds, Silgar pinned Nelson; 185 pounds, Valley forfeited to Joslin, and heavyweight, no match.

Rams Activate Linebacker

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Rams Thursday reactivated middle linebacker Myron Pottios and announced he would play in Sunday's game at Detroit against the Lions.

Pottios had missed five games while recovering from injuries he had suffered in an automobile accident.

At the same time, Rams spokesman Jack Teele, assistant to the club president, said safety Richie Petitbon had been placed on the ready reserve list while running back Izzy Lang went on the injured reserve.

Both Petitbon and Lang were injured in last Sunday's game with the Minnesota Vikings.

Maravich Hits 61 In LSU Win

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—All-American Pete Maravich scored 61 points Thursday night to break his own Southeastern Conference single game scoring record and lead Louisiana State to a 109-86 victory over Vanderbilt.

It was the first time the Tigers have beaten the Commodores since 1963.

The scoring outburst by Maravich erased his old single game SEC scoring record of 59, set last year against Alabama.

LSU jumped to a 28-point lead in the first half and never lost the edge.

Oakland-Chief Battle To Settle West Division And Playoff Site

By JOE CARNICELLI UPI Sports Writer

The American Football League schedule makers couldn't have planned it better when they set up Saturday's season finale between the Oakland Raiders and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Not only is the Western Division title and home field advantage for both playoff games at stake, but a host of individual records could fall in the game.

The teams met two weeks ago in Kansas City with the Raiders coming out on top and taking over first place. The Raiders, playing on their home field, are four point favorites to beat the Chiefs and take the Western title.

The winner will play Houston, the Eastern Division runner-up, at its home field while the loser must play in New York against the Eastern Champion Jets.

Should the Western champion beat the Oilers, the AFL title game would be held in the Western city.

Daryle Lamonic, Oakland's quarterback, will be attempting to break the pro mark of 38 touchdown passes for a single season. Lamonic has thrown 33 entering the game and makes no secret that he wants the record badly.

Warren Wells, the Raiders' wide receiver who is Lamonic's favorite long-range target, is also shooting for the league record of 17 touchdown receptions, set by Houston's Bill Groman. Wells has 14 TD passes this season and ranks fifth in the league with 46 catches.

Jan Stenerud, Kansas City's placekicker, already has broken the record for consecutive field goals with 16 and trails New York's Jim Turner by only one point in the battle for the league scoring title.

Both Oakland and Kansas City are remarkably similar. Both have excellent offensive lines to protect Lamonic and the Chiefs' Len Dawson. Both have powerful defensive lines, with Oakland's slightly more consistent and slightly more excellent corps of linebackers, with Kansas City's showing a bit more cohesion.

Otis Taylor and Gloster Richardson provide the Chiefs' long-range striking power while the "mini-backs"—Mike Garrett, Robert Holmes and Warren McVea, all 5-foot-9, handle the running.

The teams met in the Western Division's only playoff last season, with the Raiders winning the title. Oakland needs a victory or a tie to clinch first place this season.

In Sunday AFL action, New York is a four-point choice over Miami, San Diego is a 10-point favorite over Buffalo, Boston is a four-point pick over Houston and Denver is favored by four points to beat Cincinnati.

New York will rest most of its regulars against Miami after winning the Eastern title with last Saturday's victory over Houston. Defensive end Gerry Philbin is out of action for the Jets, suffering a shoulder separation and Bob Griese, the Dolphins' passing star, is out for the year.

Tulsa Takes Liberty Bowl Cage Crown

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—The University of Tulsa, following the 25-point scoring of 6-10 center Dana Lewis, defeated Memphis State University 82-72 Thursday night to win the championship in the first Liberty Bowl Classic basketball tournament.

In consolation match, Mississippi State beat Arkansas 76-74 for third place in the tourney, a prelude to Saturday's 11th annual Liberty Bowl football game between Alabama and Colorado.

Aiding Lewis in leading Tulsa to victory were Larry Morris with 20 points and Ron Carson who came up with 19 with accuracy from outside.

Game scoring honors, however, went to Don Holcomb, Memphis State's 6-10 center, who had 13 in the first half and 16 in the second period for a total of 29 points. Other Tigers in double figures were Joe Proctor, with 16, and James Douglas, who had 12.

Mississippi State used a fraction of a second that remained in a five minute overtime period to vanquish Arkansas.

Utah State Hikes Win Sken To Five

LOGAN, Utah (UPI)—Utah State University's high scoring basketball team won its fifth consecutive game Thursday night with a 112-87 triumph here over West Texas State.

By halftime Utah State roared to a 58-41 lead which was never challenged.

The big gunners were sophomore Nate Williams, who scored 40 points, and junior forward Marvin Roberts, who scored 26 points.

For Williams, who is now averaging 27.6 points per game, it was his second 40-point performance of the week. He scored 45 Monday night against St. Peters. Roberts is averaging 28.6.

High for West Texas was Dale Blaut with 24 points and Eddie Fitzgerald with 22.

Detroit Beats Royals, Big O

DETROIT (UPI)—Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson poured in a season-high 44 points Thursday night but Detroit's McCoy McLemore, who scored only three points all night, made the difference in a 119-116 overtime win in National Basketball Association play.

McLemore hit a jumper with 20 seconds remaining in the overtime period and then added a free throw at seven seconds to clinch the contest for the Pistons. The score was tied 108-108 at the end of regulation time.

The Pistons, who led by as much as 11 points in the third quarter, repeatedly fought off Cincinnati rallies. The contest was tied 13 times and the lead changed hands on 11 different occasions.

Kentucky Hikes Division Lead

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Mel Daniels collected 25 points and 22 rebounds for the Indiana Pacers Thursday night as they overpowered the Kentucky Colonels, 115-96, to widen their American Basketball Association Eastern Division lead to 3 1/2 games.

The Colonels, minus their leading scorer, Darel Carrier, were no match for the Pacers who took quick command. Carrier missed the game due to a severe cold.

Daniels, in a superb all-around performance, made 10 of 16 shots from the field, converted all five of his free throws and blocked seven Colonel shots.

In addition he grabbed nearly twice as many rebounds as Kentucky's best rebounder, Sam Smith, who had 12.

Dark Gambles On Chance, Trades Tiant To Twins

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Cleveland Manager Alvin Dark is counting on a comeback by Dean Chance next season to justify the trade Thursday which sent Luis Tiant to the Minnesota Twins.

The Indians sent Tiant and righthander Stan Williams to the Twins in exchange for Chance, outfielder Ted Uhlaender, infielder Graig Nettles and a player to be named later. The trade was the work of Dark, who has almost total control of player personnel.

Last season, Chance, a 28-year-old righthander, labored under the burden of a sore shoulder and posted a 5-4 record with a 2.97 earned run average.

Chance, a native of Wooster, Ohio, was the winner of the Cy Young Award in 1964. He led the American League in shutouts that year.

He was dealt to Minnesota by the California Angels in 1966 for outfielder Jimmie Hall, first baseman Don Mincher and pitcher Pete Cimino. The following year he pitched a no-hitter against the Indians.

Tiant, who had 21 victories against nine losses in 1968 for a 1.90 ERA, had a disastrous season in 1969. He won only nine games and lost 20 and his ERA ballooned to 3.75.

"I feel Chance's arm is 100 per cent okay," Dark said. "He tried to get ready too soon last spring after an injury. He has a lot of pride."

"He is a winner, that's the big thing," the Indians' manager added, "and his earned run average has always been low."

Uhlaender is expected to provide some help for the Indians' anemic offense. His batting average last season was .273 and he had 62 RBI's, 18 homers and 15 stolen bases.

Nettles could work into the Cleveland infield. Last season he batted .222 with seven homers and 28 RBI's. Both Uhlaender and Nettles are left-handed batters.

Williams had a bad year with the Indians last season as a reliever and part time starter. His record was 6-14 with 13 saves. He finished with a 3.94 ERA.

"We won't have as many shutouts as we did in 1968, but we'll have an overall stronger club," Dark said. "We've got better players to back up the pitchers now."

On the first day of the Inter-league trading season, Cleveland announced it had acquired outfielder Vada Pinson from the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for outfielder Jose Cardenal.

Dark plans to use Uhlaender in center with Pinson in right and Ken Harrelson in left.

"We didn't go into the baseball meetings with the idea of making a trade just to make one," Dark said. "It's important to make changes as long as you feel you can help yourself."

Initial reaction to the trade here was favorable, but there was some regret over losing Tiant, a favorite with the fans.

T.F. Boxers Split In Boise Card

BOISE—Four Twin Falls Boxing Club fighters split two and two in a golden gloves boxing card Thursday night in the Boise State gymnasium.

Earl Shields outpointed John Miller of the Clearfield Job Corps and Ken Gorringer outpointed Harry Leeksa of Boise State.

Rick Pedrow dropped a decision to Arthur Roddy of Clearfield and Joe Lopez of Clearfield outpointed Danny Robbins.

oming used six straight free throws to get back into the game. But it was another story in the second half with Western opening hot while CSI struggled through the first eight minutes with only one field goal. That spell, with Western's Flansburg picking up eight points and Bob Randle adding four more, allowed the Spartans to close from a 31-22 deficit to within 37-36.

Then Tim Bassett hit a free throw, Steve Hegens, sparking on the boards and shooting, got a field goal and Al Davis, who hit only two of seven free throw attempts, managed a charity toss. Hegens added another long jumper to take CSI out in front 43-36 and after that Western Wyoming trailed by just five.

The Spartans pulled to within five twice before Hegens hit on a jumper and a couple off a steal for a 51-42 lead with nine minutes left. With 3:15 remaining, Flansburg and Randle got back-to-back field goals to start another run at the Eagles but Hegens and Ron Behagen killed it with four straight from the foul line.

CSI went into a slow down with 2:10 left and Hegens and Behagen slipped in closing crimples to ice the victory. The Western Wyoming press gave CSI some trouble, especially in the first half when the visitors were called three times on the 10-second rule.

Brundage Tells Hockey To Drop Pros

NEW YORK (UPI)—Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) said Thursday that if pro players compete in the World Hockey championships, all the players participating will probably be banned from the Olympics.

Brundage said the matter will not be discussed until the executive board of the IOC meets in late February in Switzerland but he would expect that players who played with or against pros would lose their Olympic amateur status.

"We have nothing to do with the Olympic championships, but the Olympics are restricted to amateurs and always have been," Brundage said.

The championships are scheduled for March in Montreal and Winnipeg. But Bunny Ahearne, president of the International Ice Hockey Federation, said after hearing from Brundage that Canada must play without pro players or lose their right to stage the world championships.

Vandals Overcome Early Deficit To Beat Whitworth

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Idaho Vandals overcame an early lead built up by Whitworth College and went on to down the Pirates 95-78 Thursday night. Whitworth jumped out to a 15-7 lead but Idaho came back to tie the score 21-21 with nine minutes remaining in the half.

The Vandals went ahead a minute later on a free throw by Gary Koethe but were tied again when Btk Pettigrew, and Willard Rance scored back to back free throws for the Pirates.

Then, with a little less than eight minutes left in the half, the Vandals mounted a lead they never relinquished. Idaho went into the dressing room at the half carrying a 41-38 lead.

Big 10 Is Concerned By Inflation

CHICAGO (UPI)—Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed said Thursday that a financial squeeze caused by inflationary pressures has "become a governing principle" in the conference's sports program.

Reed commented in a news conference following a meeting of athletic directors seeking to trim expenses of non-revenue sports such as baseball, tennis, track and swimming.

Football in the main and basketball to a smaller degree supply the funds to keep the rest of the athletic program going, he said.

Under consideration as one way of cutting costs for sports which do not pay their own way, Reed said, is a divisional alignment of the Big Ten to reduce travel expense.

Others proposed were the selection of one perennial site for sports which are box office attractions at individual schools, such as swimming at Indiana.

Toomey Sets New Record In Decathlon

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Bill Toomey, 30-year-old Olympic champion, set a new world decathlon record of 8,417 points Thursday, bettering the mark of West Germany's Kurt Bendlin by 96 points.

The Santa Barbara, Calif., schoolteacher felt he was on the verge of a record after repeated futile attempts to break Bendlin's mark of 8,319 points when he posted 4,448 points in the first five events Wednesday at UCLA.

Toomey scored 3,969 points Thursday that included a career best in the pole vault of 14 feet, 1-4 inch for 876 points. His best mark, however, was in the 110 meter high hurdles in which he was timed in 14.3 seconds for 926 points.

He threw the discus 152 feet, 6 inches for 809 points, hurled the javelin 215 feet, 8 inches for 830 points and won the 1500 meter run in 4:39.4 for 528 points.

Although Toomey had indicated he may retire if he set a world record, he said he still might compete a few more times to fulfill promises to friends.

Purdue Tops ISU Despite Humes' 39-Point Effort

LAPAYETTE, Ind. (UPI)—Guard Larry Weatherford, picking up the slack created by an injury to All-America Rick Mount, poured in 29 points Thursday night to lead Purdue to a 116-95 college basketball victory over Idaho State.

Mount was sidelined Tuesday night with an injury and may be out two weeks or more. The Bollersmakers rolled into an 8-1 lead and maintained at least a five-point spread throughout the first half, which ended 56-43, then put the game out of reach in the second half.

Weatherford scored 20 of his 29 points in the first half as Purdue racked up its 23rd straight homecourt victory. Willie Humes of Idaho State topped all scorers with 39 points.

Centennial Ball At Burley Honors MIA Anniversary

BURLEY — The Burley LDS Stake Centennial Ball was held at the stake house in honor of 100th Anniversary of the founding of the Young Ladies Re-trenchment Society, which Brigham Young formed for his own daughters on Nov. 28, 1869, in Salt Lake City.

The organization has grown to worldwide proportions and is now called the Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association. Centering the dance floor was a gazebo with the roof formed of napkins in wren from which the band from Logan played. Surrounding the hall were old fashioned stores decorated and manned by the eight wards of the Burley Stake.

A cider booth and country store was operated by the First Ward; candy booth, Third Ward; a surrey, Second Ward; the bake shop, Fifth Ward; root beer, Eighth Ward; ice cream parlor, Seventh Ward; chipped beef, Star Ward, and cheese, pickles and crackers, Fourth Ward.

The floor show began with a grand promenade featuring dignitaries of the Burley stake.

Dances that have been popular during the past century followed the grand march. Some of the dances were waltz, square dances, cha-cha and the Charleston.

Past general stake presidents were honored, including Elmina S. Taylor, 1880-1904; Martha H. Tingey, 1905-1929; Ruth May Fox, 1929-1937; Lucy G. Cannon, 1937-1948; Bertha S. Reeder Richards, 1948-51, and Florence S. Jacobsen who served since 1961.

Since the Burley Stake was organized in 1919, the following have served as head of the YWMA:

Edith Langlois, 1919-26; Jane Nielson, 1928-30; Evelyn Crane, 1932; Mary Rencher, 1942; Mae Ballantyne, 1944; Virginia Carber, 1950; Lucille Darrington, 1954; Ruby Huber, 1955; Harriet Woodard, 1956; Eva Wrigley, 1957; Olivia Banner, 1960; Belva

Russell, 1963; Betty Shelby, 1966, and Ruth Heiner has served since 1966.

Six of the ladies were in attendance. They were Mrs. Rencher, Mrs. Nielson, Mrs. Woodard, Mrs. Wrigley, now Bountiful; Mrs. Shelby and Mrs. Heiner.

Several hundred dancers presented the floor show.

"Century of Sisterhood" theme for this year was climaxed by the auctioning of a quilt made by the YWMA Girls and leaders of the Burley Stake.

Dr. Walter Petersen was the high bidder for the quilt.

Displayed throughout the evening was the history of the stake organization which had been prepared in a scrapbook by Jane Wilson.

Hagerman Ward Has Yule Party

HAGERMAN — "Christmas Around the World" was the theme for the annual Christmas party held recently by the officers and teachers of the Hagerman ward LDS Primary.

The ladies host a Christmas party each year honoring their husbands for their cooperation and "hurried meals" on primary day. Other special guests included the Gooding Stake Primary president, Mrs. Alton Johnson and her husband, Wendell, and the Hagerman Ward Bishopric and their wives, Bishop and Mrs. C. W. Choules, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Marsh and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Larson.

The dinner table was decorated with dolls dressed in costumes of countries around the world, place cards bearing the greeting, "Merry Christmas" in various languages, pine cones, evergreen and decorative tree ornaments.

Arwyn Thornton was master of ceremonies. The program presented following the turkey dinner was under the direction of Mrs. James Meeham. A Christmas story, "Christmas Day in the Morning" by Pearl Buck, was read by Mrs. Ernest Tolley.

Valerie Hall and Linda Thornton presented a novelty dance. Sylvania Dalton sang two Christmas carols. She was accompanied by Mrs. Bill Buckland, who also played a medley of Christmas songs pronounced by Floyd Marsh. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jolley.

Games were played under the direction of Mrs. Roy Kenitzer.

The invocation and blessing on the food was given by Bishop Choules. The benediction was pronounced by Floyd Marsh. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jolley.

Assisting with the serving and clean-up were Micci Akers, Debbie Larson, Michele Larson and Laurie Hafen.

Religion Today

By Rev. Lester Kinsolving

DETROIT — "We are fools for Christ's sake!" shouted the Rev. Malcolm Boyd, in an attempt to project his voice above the milling crowds in one of the cavernous corridors of this city's immense Cobo Convention Hall.

The onlooking (or bypassing) delegates to the Eighth General Assembly of the National Council of Churches (NCC) may have had some doubts about the last three words of this familiar scriptural claim.

But Father Boyd's next statement left little doubt as to the validity of his claim to foolishness:

"Some of you people act as if we were going to throw a bomb at you! We don't have any bombs! We don't even have a strategy!"

The Washington, D. C. Episcopal priest-author-lecturer was leading a band of some 40 people, most of them young and hippie, who had announced themselves as pledged to "revive, renew and revolutionize" the NCC.

From the initial inspiration of one of their number, Presbyterian Minister Stephen Rose of Stockbridge, Mass., they named the group "Jonathan's Wake."

"Jonathan" was selected in reference to the famed hell-and-brimstone Colonial minister, Jonathan Edwards who, it was claimed, "so enlightened new England as to have helped significantly in bringing about the American Revolution."

The "Wake" was designated as being for the church which, everyone in the group loudly and ceremoniously chanted, was "dead." (This just after Father Boyd had assured onlookers: "We believe in the church — We're not leaving it!")

Just how Father Boyd and his burial squad meant to go about resurrecting the church was apparent in the wake's initial meeting in Central Methodist Church. The procedure and accomplishments of this meeting suggested that even were the church dead, it would certainly be beyond any hope of resurrection if its leadership ever fell into the hands of such a congenial and often courageous collection of ecclesiastical eccentrics.

The wake's proposed actions for the NCC ran a long gamut from a simple "give away most of the church's wealth" to the more specific "give $100,000 for defense costs of political trials in Chicago and elsewhere."

But before any such exciting goals could be voted upon by the group, another proposal, that "The World Council of Churches set up a tribunal to try U. S. war criminals," evoked a furious protest from Mrs. Louise Orr, of Cleveland, Tenn.

Mrs. Orr, representing a group called the "Committee of Southern Churchmen," contended: "It would be immoral for the church of Jesus Christ to set up a tribunal!" Instead, she proposed that "we offer ourselves to be tried for their sins — and the NCC should ask each of its members (48 million) to plead guilty!"

At this point, the meeting was further electrified by a gray-haired man with a piercing voice, who refused to identify himself. Shouted he: "You're all nuts! The American flag has stood for a lot of junk! You can never have peace until you're willing to fight the bankers and their interest rates!"

A number of the wake's critics cried: "Right on!" Later, another of their number, a Southern Baptist clergyman named Will Campbell, advised the NCC delegates:

"Get rid of all your churches' riches; give the money to the Black Economic Development Conference and the Ku Klux Klan and don't ask any questions!"

The NCC Assembly officials were most tolerant of the wakers — even when they intruded into the procession at the opening service. There they marched behind an American flag on which the stars had been covered with the familiar peace symbol.

The Rev. Messrs. Boyd and Rose show considerable intelligence and commendable compassion in much of their writing and their speeches. Hence it is difficult indeed to suppose that they are totally oblivious of the fact that both denominational income and denominational attendance are being substantially reduced as church members become angry and impatient over their church services and conventions being turned into wild and irrational encounter sessions.

One such group, for instance, is "The Children of Israel" (formerly "Teens for Christ") of Huntington Beach. This conglomeration of 30 or so teens and twenties dress in sackcloth and ashes, walks into church

DR. CYNTHIA WEDEL

61, Alexandria, Va., is the new president of the National Council of Churches. She is the first woman president in the organization's 30-year history. The council is a federation of 34 protestant and orthodox denominations with 45 million members.

Castleford Church Group Hears Report

CASTLEFORD — The Group Two of the Buhl First Christian Church Christian Womens Fellowship met at the home of Mrs. Joe Wisecaver, Castleford, for its regular meeting.

Mrs. Pauline Walcott, president of the CWF of the First Christian Church, met with the group. She reported on the CWF participation for the month of November.

They served the District Men's dinner, and the banquets and meals for the Bi-State Youth Convocation held recently in the Church Fellowship hall. She also reported on the cooked food sale and bazaar.

Mrs. John Bybee, CWF service chairman, was in charge with Mrs. Walcott, of all three activities and was thanked for her leadership by the group. Mrs. Walcott also thanked the ladies for their support in these projects.

Mrs. Blanch Smith presented the program. Devotions for the meeting were given by Mrs. Russel Lively. The offering was dedicated by Mrs. Smith.

The Christmas meeting for the general CWF was announced for Dec. 17 at the Buhl First Christian Church Fellowship hall. It will be a 1 p.m. potluck luncheon. Group two will be in charge of the program and devotions and Group one will be in charge of the table arrangements. This will be a guest meeting and all CWF members are urged to bring guests.

Mrs. Joe Wisecaver, Group two chairman, presided at the business meeting. The report of the Thanksgiving clothing drive, sponsored by the Church World Service was given. This is an annual affair and the Buhl First Christian Church is taking part in this project.

The next meeting of Group two will be held Jan. 7 at the home of Mrs. Russel Lively.

services loudly beating staffs upon the floor, recites passages from Jeremiah, breaks a pot on altar or floor and then swiftly departs. This leaves congregations (such as Stanford University's Memorial Chapel, or San Francisco's Grace Cathedral) completely puzzled as to their purpose.

Shoshone Relief Society Lessons Given

SHOSHONE — There will not be a Cultural Refinement lesson for the LDS Relief Society during the month of December, because of the Christmas holidays. However, the other lessons will be presented as usual.

The spiritual living lesson will deal with the topic "Government and Laws", pertaining to basic rights, standard of judgment, governments and officials and related thoughts.

The visiting teacher's message is a study of the Compassion of Jesus, to emphasize that Jesus' compassionate acts are a standard for us all.

For the homemaking, lesson deals with ways women can give strength to their home, through family happiness and solidarity, avoiding debt and better management practices.

"Unwarrantable indebtedness is one of the curses of this day and age. It causes many people to live their lives in bondage."

"When a family finds itself too far in debt, the atmosphere of discouragement enters the home, relationships become tense, tempers become short and marital trouble begins to erupt," the author of the text quotes.

"The Upward Reach" is the social relations topic, and the objective is to teach that all may enjoy man's material progress but our spiritual achievements must be individually attained."

The wider horizons of growth are to be discussed, and Christmas is pointed to as a time when "we reach out beyond ourselves with compassion for others, motivated to a generosity of thought and deed."

Members of the Relief Society will be encouraged "to bring as much spirituality into your home this Christmas time as possible."

Eden Lutheran Church Was In Home Of Mrs. E. Brune

By REV. DAVID ATROPS

Pastor,
Eden Trinity Lutheran Church
As the name Eden suggests, Trinity Lutheran Church, perched in a quiet rural setting, is a scene of tranquility.

That's the way it appears to this pastor. This "country preacher" still has plenty of room for a garden, and should he happen to like animals, there's a small barn and grazing land besides.

In the early days of this rural congregation the pastor kept his own milk cows, and the congregation farmed five acres toward his salary. That practice is no longer followed. In spite of its serene appearance the needs of people and the many activities centered in the church keep one active.

Trinity Lutheran Church started with 13 members attending Monday evening services conducted by Rev. F. E. Traub, of Paul. These services were in the home of Mrs. E. M. Brune, the first organist. Charter members were E. M. Brune, M. A. Brune, C. H. Meyerhoff, J. A. Huettig and G. A. Krohn. In 1916 the church organized as a member of the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod.

Establishment of a Christian Day School was the first item of business. School was soon conducted at the home of C. H. Meyerhoff. A parsonage was completed, and this housed Pastor Traub and served as the church and school until the new church building was completed in 1920.

A school building was set up in 1924, and the classes could then leave the church balcony for more adequate facilities. Christian education has always been a prime concern with the Lutheran Church. Nationwide it operates over a thousand parochial schools today.

The church expanded again with the present church and school plant dedicated in January, 1962. The new building has a seating capacity of 300. Since that time the parochial school has been discontinued. With rising costs of education and increased specialization it is a difficult project to maintain a private school.

There are presently 200 baptized members of this church serving the Eden-Hazelton area and extending to the Hunt tract. The church is in the Eden-Riverside area, located three miles south of Eden or one mile south of the Interstate on Eden Road.

Pastor and Mrs. David Atrops, fresh out of school, have been at Trinity Lutheran since August, 1968. Since this summer, Eden shares its pastor with the Redeemer Lutheran Church, Kimberly, in a dual parish arrangement, designed to lighten financial support and handle the shortage of pastors.

The Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, is hardly a Missouri clan, though it still bears the name of its place of origin in the United States. It is rigorous in its theological study and teaching.

It is a church not seeking to make only a nice people for this earth, but "new men" who are loyal to God because of His grace and mercy revealed to mankind through the Savior Jesus Christ.

Turkey Dinner Tops Almo Fete

ALMO — A turkey dinner highlighted the recent Almo Ward Primary Christmas party at the LDS Church.

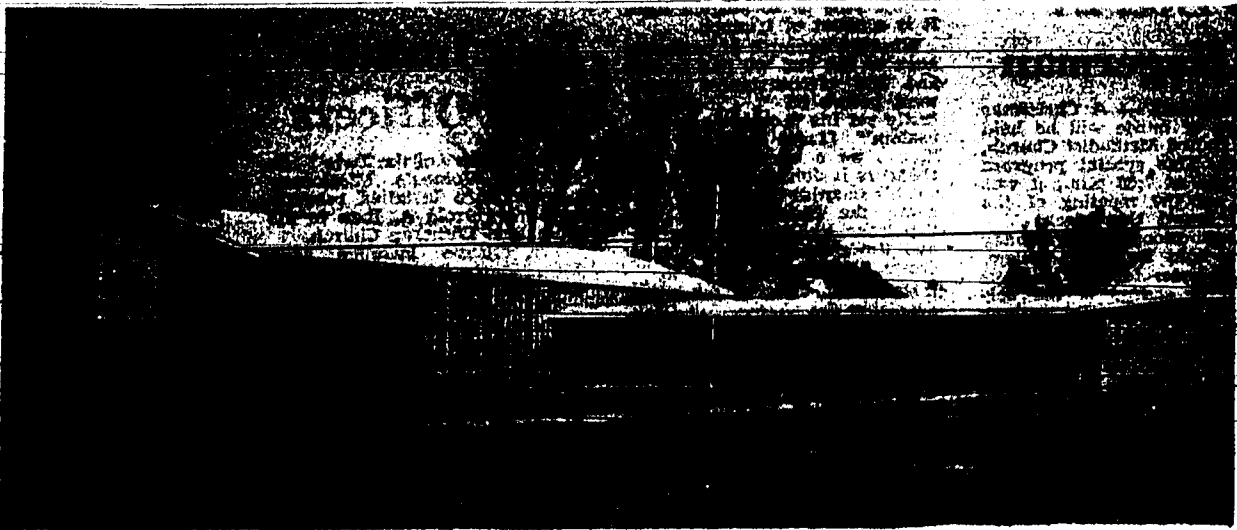

A Christmas program was presented with a duet, poem and story. Honored at the party were the retiring Bishopric, Bert Tracey, Jack Erickson and Robert Ward, as well as the new bishopric, William Jones, David Boden and Curtis Durfee.

Mrs. Robert Ward, president of the Primary, was in charge of the decorations. Mrs. Arley Calhoon, first counselor, was in charge of the program and Mrs. Zennith Taylor, second counselor, arranged the food.

Membership

NEW YORK — Lutheran churches around the world gained 150,000 baptized members during the past year, boosting the denomination's global membership to 75,157,352, the Lutheran World Federation reports.

This makes the Lutheran Church the third largest grouping of Christians, following the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches.

THIS IS THE new Trinity Lutheran Church near Eden. This building was dedicated in 1962 and serves all of the Eden, Hazelton and Hunt areas.

Pastor Says Discouragement Is Enemy Of Achievement

By ROBERT J. SEAMAN
Pastor, Grace Baptist Church

Discouragement is the great enemy of achievement. We start out with smothered enthusiasm and when we do not immeditely see the results or if the obstacles are greater than we anticipated, the temptation is to say, "Well, I cannot do it anyway," and give up.

Most of us are tempted by discouragement to quit. Often times the difference between the man who is a failure and the man who is a success is that one yields to the temptation and the other resists it. This holds not only in the struggle for material things, for fame and knowledge, but also in the struggle to live a victorious Christian life. We grow weary in well doing.

It was discouragement which caused Elijah under the juniper tree to pray for death. "It is enough," he said, referring to the opposition of the rulers of Israel to his message and the power of the priests of Baal and the hardness of the hearts of the people. "It is enough," he said, meaning "I have had all I can stand. I cannot take anymore."

Any man who tries to accomplish anything for God in the world feels like making the prophet's wall a duet by blending his cry with the discouraged Elijah's, "It is enough." This is the cry of a weary body and a tired mind and a heavy heart. It is the cry of the man who has given up the struggle with the goal unachieved or who is despondent because of the difficulties and trials that harass him. It is the cry of surrender, of defeat, and of failure.

But there is another cry—the cry of victory and fulfillment, the peal of triumph when the job is done. This is the cry of the Lord on the Cross, seeing man's redemption accomplished and the price of sin paid.

It is finished. (John 19:30). This is no languid sigh. It is a shout of triumph.

What an example of perseverance to the end we find in this and the circumstances which went before it! "... he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem" (Luke 9:51) to die, "... as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth" (Isaiah 53:7) beneath the blows of the lash, the jeers and the persecution, and the piercing of the thorny crown. He never hesitated.

He "... endured the cross, despising the shame..." (Heb. 12:2). There is no word of complaint but, at the end, the shout of victory: Man's redemption was complete.

The price of man's salvation was fully paid. All that remained was for fallen, sinful man to appropriate to himself this blessed sacrifice. (Acts 4:12)

How much better the cry, "It is finished," when the task is completed, than the sigh, "It is enough," when the work is only half done.

Caroling

FILER—A youth caroling evening has been set for Sunday and young people of all area churches are invited to take part in the event.

Those planning to attend are asked to meet at 8 p.m. at the United Methodist Church and then will go caroling at a number of places in the community.

Wendell Boy Working On 'Folk Mass'

WENDELL — During the month of November the youth of the United Presbyterian Church of Wendell have been working with other youth groups throughout Magic Valley on the presentation of a Folk Mass.

"The Folk Mass or abbreviated form of them are being used more and more in both Protestant and Catholic Churches as a means of familiarizing congregations with new forms of worship," says John A. Steppert, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church of Wendell.

Mr. Steppert stated that a Folk Mass is composed of liturgical confessions and religious folk music taken from an order of service that has been proposed by the Council on Church Union.

After the youth groups of the Magic Valley have completed their Folk Mass they will accept invitations to the churches of the area on request to share the Folk Mass with the congregations.

The officers installed were Mrs. Monroe Dierker, secretary, and Mrs. Art Eacker, treasurer. The Twin Falls league will present a resolution to the district projects committee at the district meeting in May at Pocatello. The resolution proposes that the district LWML give $200 to aid students at the Seminary in the Philippines.

A zone workshop will be held on Jan. 29 at Filer. It was announced. This will be of interest to all new league officers.

Guests were Mrs. Chris Reinke, Mrs. George Burgess, Mrs. Wayne Phillips, Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Leonard Warner. Mrs.

Quiche Indian To Become A Priest, First In 450 Years

SPOKANE — Next year Bishop Hop Angelico Melotto of Guatemala will ordain Pedro Chavajal—the first Quiche Indian to become a priest in 450 years.

"Also, for the first time in the 11 years I have been Bishop, I will ordain a Ladino."

Both, he said in his first visit to Spokane this week, are symptomatic of the great changes that have come to the Guatemala Mission area where the Padres de Spokane have labored for the past decade.

Priests of the Spokane, Helena, New Orleans, Oklahoma City, and New Ulm, Minn. dioceses who labor in bishop Melotto's vineyard have won the trust of the natives. The bishop said that 20 years ago, when he first visited Nahuuala, heart of the Spokane Diocese's Guatemala Mission, "everyone ran away. Now they are very friendly."

The Bishop's reason for visiting Spokane was two-fold: to thank the people of this diocese for their mission support and to confer papal medals on two mission veterans, Fathers John Rompa and Cornelius Verdoorn.

Father Rompa, who launched the famed mission radio station, "Voice of Nahuuala," and its "schools," received his award "for the great work he did in Guatemala" at a special luncheon Thursday. Father Verdoorn, first priest to serve at the Central American mission, was to receive his medal later this week from the Bishop.

Changes noted in the mission area in the past 10 years, the prelate said, are: "All Quiche children now speak Spanish, almost all wear shoes, and vocations to the priesthood are multiplying far faster than was thought possible."

He said he hoped that in four or five years to have as many Quiche Indian priests.

"Already they are in philosophy and theology studies at the major seminary in Guatemala City."

Bishop Melotto now resides at Panajachel near Lake Atitlan six miles from the sea city of Solola. His former rectory there and the adjacent minor seminary house the Benedictines who teach the diocesan seminarians.

"It's one of the best seminaries in Latin America," he said. The students have the equivalent of five years of high school before graduating to Guatemala City's major seminary. Now studying at Solola are 125 native boys. Built with funds raised in the United States, the seminary was dedicated just four years ago. Among the seminarians are five from Nahuuala. The drop-out rate among native seminarians—for reasons of home ties, cultural differences—may be higher than that among U. S. seminarians, but their training is not lost.

Warner was accepted as a new member.

Hostesses were Mrs. Gerald Reinke, Mrs. Owen Rowe, Mrs. Kenneth Hilton and Mrs. Ellis Linder.

"They have a solid foundation—religiously and academically—even if they don't finish," he said.

As a guest of Bishop Topel while in Spokane, Bishop Melotto received an extensive tour of diocesan institutions—Mater Cleri Seminary, Morning Star Boys Ranch, St. Margaret Hall and Bishop White House of Studies. He was impressed, and added: "I like Spokane. It has nice streets, plenty of trees. I have always wanted to see Spokane, since your first priests came down to us."

Arab Nations Studied By Church Unit

A study group from the Twin Falls First Southern Baptist Church studied about the Arabs, descendants of Ishmael, recently.

Topics were given about the Arabs of Lebanon, Yeman, Jordan and other countries by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bossard, Mrs. Phil Cryder, Mrs. H. Clark and Mrs. Wayne Beus. They told of the foods, customs, history, living adobes, marriages and family life under the shieks, etc.

After the lesson, the banquet committee, consisting of Mrs. Don Hall, Mrs. Cryder and Mrs. Howard Gibbs, served all types of Arab foods to the group.

Following this, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stafford, Kimberly, who have visited the Arab countries, showed slides. There were slides of black goat hair tents, black goats and fat-tailed sheep grazing along the Dead Sea and by the shores of the Sea of Galilee. Other interesting sites in the Arab countries were shown and explained by the Staffords.

Today With All Faiths—In Tribute A PORTRAIT OF SERVICE

Rev. Garrabrandt, Methodist Pastor At Jerome, Has Been Minister Since 1950

"I serve God from my fathers, and I adhere to their faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior."

This statement by the Reverend John N. Garrabrandt, minister of the Jerome United Methodist Church, in a sense summarizes his creed—a vital Biblical trust in Christ which bears fruit in service to individuals and to society.

Rev. Garrabrandt is a descendant of pioneer colonists from the Netherlands who settled in the Hudson River valley. In 1809 his great-great-grandfather Jacob Garrabrandt moved from New York to the eastern part of Monmouth County, N. J. There the family soon became active in Methodism, the evangelistic movement founded by John Wesley.

Rev. Garrabrandt's great-grandfather, John Martin, was one of the founders of Ocean Grove, N. J., world-famous Methodist camp-meeting resort. It was there that the Jerome pastor was born, in the parsonage occupied by his grandfather, Rev. James D. Bills, minister of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church.

"I was converted at a Methodist revival service when I was about 12 years old," recounts Rev. Garrabrandt, "and I shall never forget the pure joy of that experience of the Holy Spirit."

After graduation from high school, he entered De Pauw University in Greencastle, Ind. There he majored in Political Science with minors in history, English and sociology. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and graduated summa cum laude.

He was also granted a scholarship to Columbia University Law School but lacked the supplementary funds to attend. For a while he worked in the business world.

During this time he was married to Doris Roberson. The couple are parents of three children—Ted, Debbie and Pamela.

"The circumstances of my life after college led me to answer the call of God to the Christian ministry," states Rev. Garrabrandt. "Accordingly, in 1943, I entered Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Pa., a school dedicated to the principles of God's Word. I received my bachelor of divinity degree in theology in 1946.

"In 1950 I received my master's degree in philosophy of religion from Temple University and in 1952 completed my doctoral residence requirements at the same school in the field of Church History."

Rev. Garrabrandt served Baptist Churches in Philadelphia and Camden, N. J.; then in 1956 moved to Idaho for the sake of his health. His first pastorate in the West was the First Baptist Church in Buhl.

In 1962 he decided to return to the church of his forebears, and was appointed as associate pastor of the Twin Falls Methodist Church. In 1965 he was appointed minister of the Jerome Methodist Church.

Rev. Garrabrandt has endeavored to follow the laws of his church by being a minister to the whole community in which he has lived. He early saw the need for greater harmony with the black race, and, while in Camden, N. J., held union services each summer with a nearby Negro church.

It was in Camden that he foresaw the need for more concern for the elderly. As president of the Camden Baptist Association, he was instrumental in establishing the Baptist Home for the aged in Riverton, N. J.

In Jerome he was the first chairman of the Jerome Housing Authority, which has now completed 50 units for senior citizens.

His concern for youth is demonstrated by the fact that for the past three years he has served as vice-chairman of the board of trustees of the College of Southern Idaho.

"The cause of mental health has been close to his heart. While in Twin Falls he served as chairman of the speakers bureau of the Twin Falls County Mental Health Association. Presently he is a member of the Magic Valley Mental Health Planning Board.

"We need much more study, education, and care in this field," says Rev. Garrabrandt, "and I am dedicated to eradicating the ignorance, superstition and stigma surrounding this problem, which brings suffering to so many families."

Rev. Garrabrandt is a member of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce and has served on its board of directors. He has also served as chairman of the Jerome Library Board, and has been the leader in numerous other community activities.

"Notwithstanding all of these forms of service, I consider it my main task to preach Christ, and Him crucified," declares the Jerome minister. "The world stands in great need of sound Biblical preaching. In the Jerome church God's Word is preached in the pulpit and over radio station KART each Sunday in order that the people of this valley may hear the Gospel, be saved from their sins, receive the Holy Spirit and find eternal life."

REV. JOHN N. GARRABRANDT

FBI Agent Is Speaker At Wendell

WENDELL—Jack Newell, Twin Falls, area agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Men's Council of the United Presbyterian Church of Wendell recently.

Mr. Newell used as his topic "Cause of Increased Crime in the United States." He said much of the crime that is taking place in the nation today seems to be resulting from the breakdown of the ties in the American family. To highlight this fact, Mr. Newell pointed out that 47 per cent of the crimes committed are being committed by persons under 18 years of age.

Also, he said, due to the increased sophistication of the criminal and the crimes being committed, law enforcement officials have had to update their methods and procedures of training their personnel.

Services Set

RICHFIELD—Church services will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday at the American Legion.

Rev. Donald Mason, Gooding, is the evangelist. The public is invited.
