TEN CENTS

ARRIVING AT WIND-SWEPT, rainy Twin Falls City-County Airport Sunday, en route for a Christmas holiday at Sun Valley, were Mrs. Robert Kennedy and family. Mrs. Kennedy and one of her sons walk down the steps as they leave the Kennedy plane.

Celebrities Are Flocking Into Sun Valley For Holiday Season

SUN VALLEY — Hollywood celebrities, a former astronaut and his family and Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy and family are enjoying cool mountain air and weather while vacationing at Sun Valley, Idaho's famed ski resort.

The well-known personalities came here this weekend for the ski resort's famous Christmas holiday period.

The list of dignitaries, besides Mrs. Kennedy and family, includes Col. and Mrs. John Glenn, Warren Miller and family (Mr. Miller is maker of ski movies); Helmut Dantine, actor of war movies; Voltaire Perkins, actor; James Garner and family; Janet Leigh and her husband, Ray Stark, producer of the movie, "Funny Girl"; Mr. and Mrs. William Wyler, movie producer, and Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Peck.

Others include Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mancini, Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart, Nick Vonoff and family and William Harback and family, movie producers, and Steve McQueen, who is staying with Bill Janss, owner of Sun Valley.

Most of the celebrities are skiing and it is reported that most all runs are open. Dollar Mountain is in full operation with 16 inches of snow. Runs open today include River Run, Lower Warm Springs, Gray Hawk, Roundhouse Float, Blue Grouse, Cutoff, College and Upper Warm Springs. There are 18 inches of snow at the Roundhouse and 21 inches on top of Baldy.

3 Arrested In Hijacking Attempt

ATHENS (UPI)—Three suspected Arab commandos, arrested as they tried to board a Trans World Airlines plane with guns and grenades, could get life sentences if convicted on charges of attempted airliner hijacking and illegal possession of arms.

A source close to Athens police said the trio intended to force the American airliner to fly to Tunisia and possessed a proclamation to be read to passengers and crew in mid-air.

The Arabs, two men and woman, were thwarted Sunday by TWA station master Frikos Servertopoulos, who spotted a hand grenade in the cabin bag carried by one of them. Servertopoulos summoned police who discovered other grenades, explosives and arms in the Arabs' possession.

The Arabs were identified as Issam Doumit, Sami Abdul and Abu Khamil. The woman, a 22-year-old brunette, was described as "very beautiful."

The plane, TWA flight 841 to Rome and New York, took off three hours later after police searched the baggage of another 10 passengers who boarded at Athens and the 25 passengers who had flown from Tel Aviv where the flight originated.

Charges of illegal possession of arms and intention to hijack an airliner are expected to be filed against the detainees before an Athens magistrate. If convicted, they could be sentenced to life imprisonment.

Israeli Cabinet Has Emergency Session

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The Israeli cabinet met in emergency session today to discuss its crisis in relations with the United States over how to achieve peace in the Middle East.

Attending the meeting was Israeli Ambassador Itzhak Rabin, summoned from Washington, to brief the ministers on the latest U.S. proposals which called for Israeli withdrawal from the occupied Sinai Peninsula of Egypt and the west bank of the Jordan.

Israeli radio said Premier Golda Meir summoned the emergency meeting to discuss what "is suggested to be American pressure on Israel to accept U.S. proposals to withdraw from occupied Arab territories and the deterioration of relations between the two countries."

"Israel will oppose with all its strength every effort to fix restrictive conditions prior to negotiations," Foreign Minister Abba Eban said on his arrival from London with Rabin last night.

"Every effort must be seen as a blow to peace," Eban said. Rabin sounded gloomy when asked at the airport if there was any truth to reports the Nixon administration's policy toward Israel was eroding.

"There are certain issues on which I would say there is an erosion," he replied.

U. S. Attorney Bows From Post

NEW YORK (UPI)—U.S. Attorney Robert M. Morgenthau bowed to pressure from the White House today and agreed to resign from his office to make way for appointment of a Republican.

Morgenthau, a Democrat who previously had refused to follow the custom of offering his resignation to the new administration, said that he would step down Jan. 15.

The White House announced last Wednesday that President Nixon planned to remove Morgenthau from the nation's most important federal district and replace him with former Republican State Sen. Whitney North Seymour Jr.

Action Expected On Tax Package

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A last Friday after months of work, was up before the House for a vote and sure passage today. The Senate will act when the House is finished.

But how Nixon will greet the measure was less certain. The President was reported to be irked at the way the bill would cause the Treasury to lose funds by 1972. One high administration official, however, predicted Nixon would sign it anyway.

The official, who gave his opinion anonymously on a "background" basis for newsmen, said the measure was largely acceptable because it brings in money in 1970 and 1971. Through a combination of tax reforms, plus a continuation of the income tax surcharge at 5 per cent for the next six months and a repeal of the investment tax credit, the bill would bring in $6.4 billion in 1970 and another $315 million in 1971.

In 1972, however, tax cuts totaling $9.1 billion would become fully effective.

Arabs Attack Israelis

VC Expected To Violate Truce

By WALTER WHITEHEAD
SAIGON (UPI)—Allied intelligence officers predicted today the Viet Cong will violate their own Christmas cease-fire with scattered attacks in the provinces surrounding Saigon.

"We have every reason to believe they will violate this cease-fire just as they have all the others," one of the officials said. "We think subregional, not division-sized, units will be involved."

The three-day Viet Cong standdown for Christmas is scheduled to begin at 1 a.m. Saigon time Wednesday (12 noon Tuesday EST), 17 hours before the Allies begin their 24-hour truce.

There were these other developments:

—Guerrilla groundfire shot down a U.S. helicopter Sunday just below the Demilitarized Zone, killing eight Americans and wounding two. It brought to 1,432 the number of U.S. 'copters shot down in the war.

—The number of GIs in their war zone rose by 300 last week to 472,800, the first increase since September. The figure meant 11,800 Americans already have left the war as part of President Nixon's latest withdrawal of 500,000 men, which will drop the number of troops in Vietnam to 434,000.

U.S. B52 bombers meantime mounted their heaviest raids along the Cambodian border in two weeks Sunday night and today in the campaign against North Vietnamese infiltration.

The American Command said it sent seven waves of Stratofortresses on a raid against a target area 80 to 100 miles north of Saigon, a long-time entry point for Hanoi soldiers coming into the southern war zone.

Allied intelligence reports have said infiltration has nearly tripled in the past few weeks through Laos and Cambodia, perhaps portending a winter-spring offensive.

Military spokesmen reported two terror attacks Sunday—one killing two U.S. Marines and wounding 15 on the northern coast, the other killing seven civilians and wounding 18 southwest of Saigon.

Dangerous

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Mistletoe is dangerous.

The Poison Information Center issued a warning for parents Sunday on the danger of mistletoe around children. "Since it is poison mistletoe can cause illness or death," the warning said.

Dr. Jane Speaker, the center's associate director, urged parents to consult a doctor immediately if a child eats even the smallest amount of mistletoe.

Plan For New Ketchum Ski Area Revived

Prospectus for development of the Butterfield winter recreation area north of Ketchum has been completed and sent to the Regional Office, U.S. Forest Service in Ogden for publication, and should be ready for review by interested persons within one to two weeks.

Robert Hoag, recreation officer, Sawtooth National Forest, said the project will then be submitted to the public for special use permit and development. It will include ski lifts, lodges and other winter sports facilities.

While there will be no snowmobiling at Butterfield itself, he said, another program is taking shape on Baker Creek for the snowmobilers. The old Gruener Lodge, which was built many years ago by Ted Gruener as a cross country ski shelter and area from which skiers could launch their cross country jaunts, will be converted to more modern use.

It will be accessible only by snowmobile from the main road-way and parking areas will be opened in the lodge and the building will serve as a day lodge for the use of snowmobilers.

Mr. Hoag said ideal flat country for the machines is accessible from the lodge and machines will probably be available there for rent. This facility is expected to be ready for use this winter as soon as sufficient snow permits operation.

Murder Count Reduced To Manslaughter

Charges against Thomas Joseph Huff, Twin Falls, accused of a Halloween night slaying have been reduced from second degree murder to voluntary manslaughter.

The order, binding Mr. Huff over to stand trial in district court on the lesser charge, was made Monday by Harry Turner, police judge, in whose court the preliminary hearing took place two days last week.

In making his decision, Judge Turner said he did feel the killing of Harry Agee, 26, Eden, last Nov. 1 was intentional, but not committed with the malice aforethought required for a second degree murder charge.

More than a dozen witnesses were called by the prosecution and defense Tuesday and Wednesday during the hearing. May, May and Bennett are defense attorneys and Robert Galley has been conducting the prosecution.

40 Killed In Air Vietnam Plane Crash

SAIGON (UPI)—An Air Vietnam DC6 passenger plane damaged by an explosion in flight skidded off a runway today while making an emergency landing and smashed into a school which exploded in flames. Loss of life was heavy.

Military sources said the bodies of 40 persons had been counted at the crash site at the edge of Nha Trang Air Base on the coast 183 miles northeast of Saigon. More bodies were still in the wreckage and the death toll mounted steadily.

The names of four Americans were carried on the passenger list but it was not immediately known if they were casualties.

The DC6 with 78 persons aboard suffered an explosion which ripped a hole six by four feet in its side as it flew over Cam Ranh Bay, an inlet in the South China Sea, and sped to the emergency landing at Nha Trang. Cause of the explosion was not known.

Police at the scene said at least 40 persons aboard the plane escaped but there were about 100 children in the schoolhouse and many of them were killed.

Manson, 2 Women To Enter Pleas

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Charles Manson, accused high priest of a weird hippie cult, and two of his young women followers enter pleas today to conspiracy and murder charges stemming from the brutal Tate-LaBianca slayings.

The Superior Court hearing will bring Manson, 35, face to face with Linda Louise Kasabian, 20, and Leslie Van Houten, 20, for the first time since they were rounded up at a commune near Death Valley.

Manson and Mrs. Kasabian were indicted Dec. 8 on seven counts of murder and one count of conspiracy in the slayings of five persons at the home of actress Sharon Tate Aug. 9 and the killing two days later of Leno LaBianca, a wealthy grocer, and his wife.

Miss Van Houten also was indicted on a conspiracy charge, but only two murder counts were lodged against her in connection with the LaBianca killings.

During the hearing, Judge William B. Keene was expected to rule on Manson's request that he be permitted to act as his own attorney.

The bearded, long-haired Manson and 23 of his followers were arrested in an old cabin on the edge of Death Valley in October on auto theft charges. Late in November, Susan Atkins, 21, one of six members of "The Manson Family" indicted for the slayings, told authorities Manson and his cult were responsible for the killings.

In other developments in the case, a lawyer for another of the suspects, Patricia Krenwinkel, 22, was given until noon Dec. 29 to either file a protest to her extradition from Mobile, Ala., or allow her to be brought here for trial.

The sixth suspect, Charles D. Watson, is in Texas awaiting a Jan. 5 extradition hearing in Houston.

IEA Members Meet With Lawmakers

IDAHO FALLS (UPI)—Members of the Idaho Education Association met here Saturday with eastern Idaho lawmakers in an attempt to arrive at a closer liaison on legislative matters.

Educators urged legislators to consider the teachers' position on pending bills dealing with professional negotiations, appropriations and school reorganization.

The representatives similarly advised the teachers as congenially as possible and not antagonize or alienate lawmakers with threats.

State Rep. Terry Crapo, R-Idaho Falls and House majority leader, advised the school people not to take positions publicly on individual representatives, but to "try to persuade them to your point of view."

Arab guerrillas attacked a string of Israeli settlements along a 21-mile sector of the Lebanese border today, their spokesmen in Amman announced. It was their first major strike from Lebanon.

The announcement coincided with an Israeli communique reporting a second successive day of battling with Jordanian troops. Two Israeli warplanes raided near the Jordanian town of Irbid.

On Israel's third front with the Arabs, the Suez Canal, Israeli fighter-bombers went on the attack again this morning, hitting what Tel Aviv described as Egyptian military targets for 20 minutes.

Both Arab and Israeli leaders were discussing the Middle East conflict today—the Arabs at their summit meeting and the Israeli leadership at an emergency cabinet meeting.

Guerrilla spokesmen said the offensive along the Lebanese border began at midnight against the Israeli settlements of Al Matallah, Kfar Gelwadi, Kiriati Shomna and Dan. It continued past daybreak, they said.

The guerrillas, after two weeks of fighting Lebanese troops, won permission from the Beirut government in October to set up camps in Lebanon despite the government's fear of retaliatory Israeli air strikes.

Arab leaders holding their first summit since 1967, in Rabat, Morocco, voted Sunday to increase their support for the Arab guerrilla movement and for Palestinian insurgents in Israeli-occupied Arab territory.

Israel issued no communique on the Lebanese border fighting but said fighting flared anew along the Jordanian frontier despite nearly four hours of retaliatory Israeli air strikes into Jordan Sunday.

Nixon Plans World Tour For Spacemen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon has announced he will send the Apollo 13 astronauts on an around-the-world good will trip in early February.

The decision was announced Sunday after members of the second moon landing team and their wives had spent the night at the White House as overnight guests.

The President also disclosed that the lunar trio, Navy Capt. Charles "Pete" Conrad Jr., Richard F. Gordon Jr., and Alan Bean, had agreed to be grand marshals at the Rose Bowl football game in Pasadena, Calif., on New Year's Day.

The projected good will tour will be the second undertaken by U.S. astronauts after returning from a successful landing on the moon's surface. The Apollo 11 team early this year received often tumultuous welcomes from the countries they visited.

MOSCOW (UPI)—Idaho must strengthen its environmental manpower, according to Dr. H. Sidwell Smith, dean of the University of Idaho's college of engineering.

"Until Idaho faces the fact that environmental quality control depends upon qualified personnel for regulation and enforcement, it can do little more than talk about its growing environmental problems," Smith said.

Shultz Says Unions Block Integration Efforts In Labor

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Labor Secretary George P. Shultz accused the AFL-CIO and building trades unions Saturday of trying to block government efforts to get more black workers into skilled construction jobs.

At a White House news conference, Shultz said efforts of the Nixon administration to require federal contractors to use workers from minority groups was "gravely jeopardized" by a provision of the supplemental appropriations bill now pending before congress.

The provision, Shultz said, "is part of an effort by some unions in the construction trades, and supported vigorously by lobbyists for the AFL-CIO, to block affirmative steps to open skilled and high paying jobs to black and other minority groups."

Shultz' news conference, his second in three days, signalled an all-out effort by the Nixon administration to block House passage of a measure outlawing the requirement to use minority group workers. Shultz also criticized Negro civil rights groups for failing to campaign actively against the measure.

Trombone Player Seeks To Follow Famous Father

By MYRAM BORDERS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—A slender, dark-haired trombone player has picked up his father's musical instruments and his musical arrangements and his musicians—and set out to perpetuate his father's name.

In show business, where a famous parent can be the toughest act an aspiring entertainer will ever have to follow, Jack Morgan, son of the famous band leader, Russ Morgan, is not striving to be "another Russ" but to advance the style of music his father made famous—"music in the Morgan manner."

Whether he can retain the following that over the years grew up with Russ Morgan's music remains to be seen, Jack admits. But he made a big stride ahead when he completed his father's engagement at a strip hotel here after the elder Morgan's death in August, 1969, and then took the "Russ Morgan Band" on a seven-week tour of college campuses. Now, the band has been booked to return to the Dunes Hotel this month.

"There is a place in America for 'Music in the Morgan Manner,' the kind that dad made famous," Jack said.

"I know it is popular to identify music by words and phrases—like country, and rock, and rhythm and blues, and so on. But I prefer to describe it as listenable music. 'Fanciable music' that helps to make you a better person and music to make your day a better day."

Jack, his wife, Linda, and their year-old son, Russell Gray Morgan, make their home in Las Vegas. At the time of his father's death from a heart attack, Jack was featured as a trombonist in the orchestra. Jack picked up the trombone and the trombone mouthpiece his father had used during his longship of Jack.

Box Factory Construction Nears Windup; Production Will Begin By June, 1970

Construction of the $1 million Longview Fibre Co. box factory on South Park Avenue will be completed by the end of January, according to Robert Goss, area sales manager.

Mr. Goss said the contractor, Gilbert H. Moen Construction Co., Yakima, Wash., is on schedule. He said the firm was especially pleased with the quality of workmanship in this area and this has been a factor in the rapid progress.

Although the building will be complete next month, Mr. Goss said actual production will begin in June. He explained there is a great deal of heavy equipment which must be installed before production can begin. Mr. Goss said the railroad spur is nearly finished and when this is done some of the equipment can be brought in by rail.

The Longview Fibre Co. is the second largest corrugated box supplier in the state. The local plant will employ approximately 50 people, mostly men except for the office staff.

'Trainwreck Jim' Claims Link With Hippies, Detests Wars

By KENNETH R. CLARK

SANTA FE, N.M. (UPI)—The calls himself "Trainwreck Jim" because "it's as good a name as any," and he says he was a hippie for six months before he even knew it.

His friends finally told him. Jim is 20 years old. His light brown hair hangs below his shoulders, his wit is quick and wry and he loathes all wars—especially the one in Vietnam.

Contrary to the public image of the hippie, he bathes every day. Right now, he lives in a Santa Fe "crash pad" where the number of roommates varies from 6 to 11 as some drift in and others move out. But he said his singular ambition in life was to escape the "pointless struggle" and the "funny little games" of 20th century urban civilization by establishing his own communal village somewhere in New Mexico's sparsely populated northern hill country. There, he hopes, the world will simply go away and leave him alone.

Since the beginning of what has become a major exodus from such city colonies as San Francisco's Haight-Ashbury, New Mexicans have kept a nervous eye on their growing hippie population. The state health and social services department estimates there are now more than 2,000 of the young nonconformists in the northern part of the state.

The hippies, however, indicate the "official" census may be something less than accurate. "Trainwreck Jim," for instance, said he is one of about 21,000 young people who have fled cities to seek peace of mind in the hard, primitive life of the New Mexico hippie communes.

Jim also claims about 600,000 more passed through the state last summer "desperately looking for a scene," and he predicted those ranks would swell next summer to nearly a million.

"Don't write that," he said with a broad grin. "The state will flip out."

What makes an intelligent, city bred youth like Jim, born to a middle class American family where reasonable comfort and a solid future are assured, turn at 20 to the harsh nomadic life typified by today's hippie phenomenon?

His answer is "the city"—and he makes it sound like "desperation." His philosophy indicates beards and love beads may be something more than just a passing irritant to a generation already shackled with rising taxes, crime, inflation and the frustration of Vietnam.

"It's as if there were a thick plate of glass between the little spaced-out world where I live and the straight world," he said. "I know I can never exist over there, any more than my father could exist where I am. If I have a piece of land where my people are, and where the finance man is not going to come and take it away, I'll stay on it for the rest of my life."

Life in the communes, the average one of which supports anywhere from 30 to 50 men, women and children, is rugged—especially for the former city-dweller who has grown up in a home with central heat and a grocery store just around the

Hope Arrives

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI)—Bob Hope and a bevy of 18 showgirls arrived Saturday to begin his sixth Christmas entertainment tour for American servicemen in Southeast Asia.

A U.S. Air Force man in a Santa Claus suit kissed Hope on the cheek and several girls strung flowers around his neck when he stepped from the plane.

"I feel like a flower girl at Tiny Tim's wedding," Hope said.

Hope said Neil Armstrong, the first man to walk on the moon, will join the tour for at least one show. Armstrong arrived in Thailand earlier Saturday to meet with Peace Corps officials on a mission for President Nixon.

Sen. Hollings Asks Ouster Of Democratic Chief

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Ernest F. Hollings, D-S.C., said Saturday that Sen. Fred R. Harris, D-Okla., should resign as chairman of the Democratic National Committee because his Senate responsibilities leave him too little time to give the party the leadership it needs.

In calling for Harris' resignation, Hollings said, "He's overboard. You cannot give full attention to your duties as a senator and run a national Democratic party. You just can't handle it."

MOUNT TIRES CAREFULLY A note of caution from the Idaho State Police. When mounting snow tires left from last year, they must be mounted so they rotate in the same direction as they did before or the studs will tend to tear loose.

They do not enjoy going hungry, freezing in winter and struggling to raise a few vegetables in the rocky desert soil, but they share a single conviction: It beats the city.

Feared 'Dracula' Of Fiction May Have Been Real Person

By ALINE MOSBY

HUNEDOARA, Romania (UPI)—This is Transylvania, a wild and lonely territory where the peasants remember stories their grandparents told about an evil prince named Dracula who had feet like a goat; where in this century stakes were driven through the hearts of the dead to keep them in their graves.

The clear line of Dracula's castle cut the sky, perched on the summit of a sheer precipice. Bram Stoker wrote in "Dracula" in 1897. "There was something wild and uncanny about the place... the distant howling of wolves, even though muffled through the deadening snowfall, was full of terror."

Here in Hunedoara, a 15th century castle cuts the gray winter sky from its precipice. It is as Stoker wrote—"the shadows are many and the wind breathes cold through the broken battlements, from whose tall black windows came no ray of light."

Stoker wrote of a fictional "Count Dracula," a medieval nobleman who rose from his coffin to drink blood from the necks of Victorian ladies.

Ghoulish imagination? An American scholar, Prof. Raymond McNally, thinks not. He is writing a book and a film script in Romania based on his research that a real, non-vampire but decidedly unfriendly Dracula once lived and died in Transylvania. Hunedoara, he believes, could well have been Dracula's home.

The road to what may have been the evil prince's castle winds through the green and brown foothills of the Carpathian Mountains, past stone huts painted pink pale green or yellow, around churches with curved steeples, shepherds in sheepskin cloaks and peeked caps and grandmothers in head kerchiefs and black skirts over stiff white petticoats.

Hunedoara itself has gone modern. Grimy steel mills choke out peasant houses hard by the castle moat and the view from the slit windows these days is of smokestacks belching red smoke.

Schoolchildren troop merrily across the drawbridge to visit the torture chambers and a photographer may be found snoozing in the great dining hall with his feet on the giant wooden table.

But the rest of the silent keep remains as Stoker described it: "The driver was pulling up the horses into the courtyard of a vast, ruined castle... in the gloom several dark ways led from it under great round arches... mist curled around the crenellated walls and a stained glass window banged in the wind that whined across the turrets."

According to McNally, a 15th century prince named Vlad Tsepesh lived in the Hunedoara castle. His name meant "sharp stick" and he liked to kill his enemies by ramming sticks through them.

He was the son of another prince, Vlad Dracula, which means "devil."

Proper Care Of Boat Said Essential

NEW YORK (UPI)—Proper boat storage in winter means another carefree season of pleasure on the water when spring rolls around again.

Too many small boat owners figure that once the hull is pulled out, bottom cleaned, equipment removed and cover attacked—that's it. But there's more to it than that, and here are a few do's and don'ts:

—Provide adequate support. Any boat hull, particularly one made of wood or fiberglass, is flexible and can gradually change shape when pressure is applied to a few places for a long time.

—Never store a boat on its side, especially small open boats. This puts a twisting force into the hull that can eventually result in permanent distortion.

—When a boat is stored upside down, place some support under the midsection as well as the bow and stern to prevent a sagging strain.

—Raise wooden boats far enough from the ground so splashing rain or drifting snow won't keep lower areas of the hull constantly damp and prone to rot. And never allow any part of a wooden boat to rest on the ground, for rot then is almost certain.

—Any boat stored upright should have the bow tilted slightly upward to allow accumulating water to flow aft and out through the transom drain.

—A good wax job is recommended for fiberglass hulls.

Odd Fellows At Wendell Elect Aides

WENDELL—At a recent meeting of the Wendell IOOF Lodge No. 131, Joe Leeper was elected a noble grand.

He will be assisted by Ray McCord, vice grand; Nelson King, secretary, and Walter Stockham, treasurer. Roy Bishop was elected as trustee. Melvin Gibson was appointed to fill the remaining term of Jim Hartwell as trustee.

Ray Lancaster, presiding officer, announces the Wendell Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges will have a joint installation on Jan. 3 at 8 p.m. The installing team will include a member from each of the following lodges—Fairfield, Gooding, Hagerman, Jerome, Shoshone and Wendell.

Installing practice has been scheduled for Dec. 28 at 2 p.m. at the Gooding Lodge Hall.

The social hour was under the direction of Joe Sellers.

'Traitor' Sees Himself As Patriotic

PARIS (UPI)—Leon Degrelle, the wartime Belgian collaborator whose reputation as a traitor ranks alongside those of Pierre Laval and Vidkun Quisling, believes he is a prophet not entirely without honor in his own country.

Sentenced to death in his absence in 1946 for war crimes against his own people, Degrelle has lived in exile for 25 years knowing if he tried to reenter Belgium he probably would be retried and given a life sentence. He might be shot.

But Degrelle, now 63, said in an interview that he still believes he is well remembered by the Belgian people.

"I am ready to return unconditionally," he said. "They can clap me in irons and put me in prison for as long as they like. All I want is one simple thing—the right to present myself in an election in Brussels so that the people themselves can judge."

Degrelle first became notorious when he formed the Nazi-like Rexist party. When World War II broke out he led a detachment of Flemish volunteers on Germany's Eastern front and ended it as a Waffen S.S. general decorated with Nazi Germany's highest order. He has lost none of his admiration for Adolf Hitler. And he regrets nothing.

ORPHEUM

His Gift

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy has vowed to remain in the Shelby County Jail through Christmas as "my gift to the children of the world."

Abernathy, the successor to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, refused to pay $1 bond and went to jail Thursday on charges stemming from a school boycott.

"What could be more meaningful for a clergyman at Christmas," said Abernathy in a handwritten statement, "than to cry out from jail for peace on earth and good will toward men."

Miss Devlin Sentenced On Riot Charge

LONDONDERRY, Northern Ireland (UPI)—Bernadette Devlin, youngest member of the British Parliament, was sentenced today on charges of inciting to riot.

Miss Devlin, 22, was convicted on three counts of incitement to riot and one of behaving riotously during the city's inter-religious riots last August.

Nine other charges against her were dismissed and she was freed on bail of $600.

The verdict and sentence on Miss Devlin came after a five-day hearing during which witnesses alleged she threw stones and used insulting language Aug. 12. She denied the charges.

On the last day of the hearing on the 13 counts against Miss Devlin, defense witness Sarah McCauley painted a picture of the situation that resulted in street barricades separating Roman Catholics and Protestants in the Bogside area of Londonderry.

"I was afraid that the police would come into Bogside with shields and batons and terrify us," said Miss McCauley. "The people were panic-stricken."

Miss Devlin, in her campaign to win full civil rights for the Roman Catholics in Northern Ireland, went to the United States on a fund-raising tour.

As sentence was passed on the diminutive Miss Devlin, the Northern Ireland government office announced that a ban on outdoor meetings would be lifted Dec. 31.

The ban had been in effect since August.

2 Germanies Agree To Open Negotiations On Relations

BONN (UPI)—The two Germanies have agreed in effect to open negotiations on establishing diplomatic relations—a tenuous breakthrough after a generation of cold war.

"Obviously there will be negotiations," said an official in the office of West German Chancellor Willy Brandt.

Each side made public Sunday its half of the correspondence last week between President Walter Ulbricht of East Germany and President Gustav Heinemann of West Germany, the first of its kind in 18 years.

Ulbricht initiated the exchange, sending Heinemann a draft treaty proposing negotiations but demanding that West Germany, among other things, recognize his nation as sovereign and sever its ties with West Berlin.

Bonn has refused to do either in the past.

Antique Steam-Car Engine Is Revived For Use In California Anti-Smog Test

By DWAIN HANSON
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An engine design used in a steam car abandoned more than 40 years ago has been dusted off and updated for one of California's latest anti-smog tests.
The engine is based on one used in the Doble Steam Car, a relic of the Roaring 20s. It will be installed in a Bay Area transit bus.
The $750,000 test will measure pollution emissions and give officials an idea of whether steam engines may be an answer to reducing motor vehicle smog.
Engineers know that steam engines burn cleaner than today's internal combustion engine in most cases, but it will take a one-year experiment to collect precise data. According to the firm that will supply the experimental engine, tests a few years ago by Williams Bros., engineers of Ambler, Pa., show that a steam engine in a car reduced emissions of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide by 90 per cent.

If more federal funds become available, three more steam buses will be added to Bay Area road tests scheduled to be completed late in 1971. Two would go to the San Francisco Municipal Railway and two to AC Transit of Oakland.
Steam engines also will be tested next year in two cars that will be assigned to the California highway patrol.
The first steam bus will be provided by the engineering consulting firm of William M. Brobeck & Associates of Berkeley, whose namesake and chief executive did steam development work for Doble in the early 1930s.
Doble was out of the auto business then, but Brobeck recalls that the Berkeley-based firm produced about 30 steam cars in the mid-20s and sold most of them before running into financial difficulty over the sale of stock.
A few of the relics are still running.
"They have good performance," Brobeck says. "They will accelerate as fast as modern cars." And they have something the 1970 models don't—a steam whistle.
But there is a major disadvantage. After turning on the ignition, it takes about two minutes to get up steam. "Most people don't want to sit in their garage for a couple of minutes before driving off in the morning," Brobeck says.
The date that steam-driven vehicles might become available

ble—assuming they are feasible from cost and other standpoints—is a point of debate.
Inventor-industrialist William Lear, whose Reno-based Lear Motors Corp. is to provide one of the steam buses, says "you can probably get some kind of production from steam for trucks and buses within a period of 18 months." Production of steam cars, he says, would take longer—probably about 30 months.
But Brobeck vice president Warren Eukel thinks mass production of steam buses would be "closer to a decade away than five years." He notes it will take 12 to 15 months for his firm to deliver the first experimental bus and another year to test it. Production then would take several more years, Eukel says.
The California air resources board's technical advisory committee is not getting all steamed up. It says neither the steam engine nor other alternatives to the internal combustion engine has demonstrated "that by 1975 it will be equal in cost, operating economy and acceptability to the gasoline piston engine controlled to standards set by the state's 1968 pure air act."

Cost hurt the steam car in the 1920s and kept the major auto manufacturers with the internal combustion engine.
"It was largely economics that hurt steamers," Brobeck says. "You couldn't build as good a car as cheaply."
But neither Brobeck nor Lear is pessimistic about a steam car's chances today of being competitive on costs.
"I think it could be competitive," Brobeck says. "If, in order to meet pollution requirements, the internal combustion engine has to be cut back in power and you increase the cost, then steam cars would be more competitive."

Soldier Wins 17th Medal For Heroism

HONOLULU (UPI)—Spec. 5 Daniel E. Evans of Middle Ridge, Ohio, has a distinguished Service Cross to go with the 16 other medals he has won for heroism in the Vietnam War.

The DSC, second only to the Medal of Honor, was pinned on the 22-year-old medic by Maj. Gen. Gen Sternberg, commander of the Army in Hawaii.

Evans, who volunteered for Vietnam duty because "I wanted to see what it was all about," will be released from the Army within two weeks.

He said he plans to return to college in the Midwest for a degree and then to Southeast Asia as a civilian. He has already applied to the Tom Dooley Foundation to work in Vietnam.
Evans' citation for the medal told how he ministered to wounded soldiers including some within 50 meters of the enemy and helped shepherd them back to safety.
"For more than five hours he exposed himself to hostile fire to bring prompt medical attention to his fallen comrades," it said.

CLEAR WINDOWS NEEDED
Cold-weather driving calls for clear windshields and windows, cautions the Idaho State Police. Just scraping a clear spot on a frost-covered glass is not enough for safety, nor is it legal. Don't start to drive until you can see clearly out of front, side and rear windows.

"Sweden" Program Presented

REPRESENTING ST. LUCIA during a recent Christmas program on Sweden is Julie Hove, Kimberly, at the Ladies Pioneer Club meeting. The program was presented by Mrs. Gerald Heidemann who told the group St. Lucia Day is Dec. 13, marking the beginning of the journey toward Christmas. Miss Hove was dressed in a long white robe accented with a red sash and wore a crown of lighted candles.

KIMBERLY — Mrs. Ferris Freestone was hostess for the Ladies' Pioneer Club meeting recently, assisted by Mrs. Lyle Jones, Mrs. Don Whitehead, Mrs. Charles Renfrow, Mrs. Hallie Jansen and Mrs. Marcus Pomeroy. A program on Sweden was presented.

Guests were Mrs. A. F. O'lund, Mrs. E. E. Johnson and Mrs. Robert Worstell, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Grace Durk.

"Can You Forget" was the good thought for the day given by Mrs. Frank N. Palmer. It was written by Henry Van Dyke.

Mrs. Freestone gave the legislative and international relations report and read the article, "Matching Russia."

The safety report was given by Mrs. Jack Claiborn Jr., who told of improvements made on the new automobiles.

Mrs. Roger W. Thomas, speaking on American citizenship read excerpts from newspaper articles. One clipping told of the selection of three Kimberly senior boys as outstanding Americans. They are Brad Claiborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Claiborn Jr.; Steve Emerson, son of Mrs. June Emerson, and Mark Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fisher.

The program was presented by Mrs. Gerald Heidemann. "Christmas in Sweden" was the theme. Mrs. Heidemann wore a costume of the Swedish housewives of 100 years ago. She displayed various handwork. Customs and traditions were explained.

Mrs. Don Heller, accompanied by Mrs. W. B. Arness, sang several selections.

Mrs. Heidemann said that St. Lucia Day is Dec. 13. That is the beginning of the journey toward Christmas. Julie Hove represented St. Lucia. She was dressed in a long robe, with a red sash and wore a crown of lighted candles. She served the Lucia rolls baked by Mrs. Thomas.

Christmas carols were sung by the group to close the afternoon program. Mrs. Earl Sahee presided at the tea table.

HOLLISTER OES Chapter Honors Local Masons

HOLLISTER — Hollister Chapter No. 47, Order of Eastern Star, honored the Masons after their recent business meeting.

A program paying tribute to them was given by the Star Points under the direction of Mrs. Joe Miller, worthy matron. The Masons attending were George McGregor, Homer Roberts, Clarence Stanley, Richard Brown, Lester McGregor, Alfred Rickus, George Clark, Tom Kunkel and Lloyd Nelson.

A Christmas program was presented by the children of some of the members. Tom, Mary and Tim Miller gave the welcome; Cathy Miller recited a poem; Joni Matney played a piano solo; Pamela Miller sang a song, and Rose Miller played two selections on the accordion.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Miller and George McGregor. Mr. Miller announced the January meeting will be Friendship Night, and that the theme would be a "Backward Theme." Members with birthday anniversaries were George McGregor and Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Ray Clark, in the absence of Mrs. William McDaniel, chairman, reported for the sick and visiting committee.

Lloyd Nelson, worshipful master of Hollister Lodge No. 71 announced the Masons are giving a dinner for the Eastern Star members and their families and an open installation for the Masons will follow.

Mrs. Miller served the refreshments.

Sorority Holds Holiday Dinner

GLENN'S FERRY—Mrs. Betty Gruffe served a holiday dinner to members of the Alpha Delta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

Individual meat loaves were the main dish, with a Christmas tree cake for dessert. Table decorations included poinsettias and candles, with a miniature Santa Claus figure at each place setting.

Christmas gifts were exchanged and mystery sisters revealed, with new names drawn for the next year. Games were played with all members receiving prizes.

The Jan. 8 meeting will be with Mrs. Ericka Janousek, at 8 p.m., when Mrs. Louise Johnson has the program.

The annual Christmas party for members and husbands at the Trophy Club Steak House followed a cocktail hour. Mrs. Terry Owings and Mrs. Peggy Watkins, in charge of arrangements, provided gaily wrapped gift favors for the guests.

DEAR ABBY: We have a 30-year-old son who has never been married. He is very good looking, has personality plus and everybody likes him. He's a hard worker and has always been wonderful to his father and me.

About two years ago he started to date this divorced woman who had two small children. Her husband left her, and we heard that he had good reason to.

Now our son is living openly with this woman as man and wife. He still comes home often and is good to us, but we are so ashamed of the way he is living. We have lied to cover up for him, but so many people know the truth. How can we face them? What can we say to our son? Please help me. I can't sleep nights.

HIS MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: There is nothing you can say to your son! Don't lie to cover up for him. If he's living "openly" with this woman, he doesn't care what people think or say. YOU are not responsible for the actions of a 30-year-old offspring. He's a big boy now. So, open your windows and close your mind, and get some sleep.

DEAR ABBY: Since our honeymoon (four years ago) we have had a lousy marriage. Different backgrounds, different temperaments, money problems, booze, and sex problems. But because of two wonderful kids, my wife and I have remained in the same house. We have had some good times, and some bad times. But mostly bad.

We made—and broke two appointments with a marriage counselor. Embarrassment! However, we did keep the third one, which seemed to be the turning point in our lives.

Nothing has happened overnight, but in the last few weeks, with the help of our counselor, my wife and I have established a new attitude toward each other. We aren't out of the woods yet, but we have certainly made a beginning. The new thoughtfulness and consideration we have begun to show each other has brought a joy to both of us that is exciting.

Abby, so many people read you. Why don't you tell married couples who are unhappy with each other that they need to learn how to communicate their needs in an uninhibited manner, and an impartial and competent counselor may be able to help them?

MAKING PROGRESS IN L.A.

DEAR MAKING: Where have you been? I have recommended marriage counselors so often in this column that I have actually been accused of getting a rake-off!

DEAR ABBY: Please tell that lonely 65-year-old spinster who bought herself a big doll to talk to after her sister's death to:

1. Take a picnic lunch to a second-rate nursing home, and share it with a little doll who can smile back.
2. Don't read the morning paper before you bathe, dress and have walked to the nearest hospital. Then go to the poorest ward and find someone whose eyes are bad, or maybe someone who is paralyzed or in a cast, and read the paper to HIM. And keep thinking every minute, "I can bathe myself, I can walk, and I can read."
3. Go to the animal shelter and adopt some doomed little creature. Spend days and nights replacing its fears and neglect with love and care. The joy you will receive by its response will be well worth the trouble.
4. Study up on our feathered friends, then get a bird feeder. Most birds are hungry.
5. Take an outpatient for a day.

I think you get the message. The worst disease in the world is self-pity. BEEN THERE

CONFIDENTIAL TO "TIME ON MY HANDS": It's admirable that you want to share your husband's professional interests and make him proud of you. But examine your motives honestly. If you're trying to compete with him (and I think you are), you'd be wise to choose another field.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 6700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90068. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Hollister OES Chapter Honors Local Masons

HOLLISTER — Hollister Chapter No. 47, Order of Eastern Star, honored the Masons after their recent business meeting.

A program paying tribute to them was given by the Star Points under the direction of Mrs. Joe Miller, worthy matron. The Masons attending were George McGregor, Homer Roberts, Clarence Stanley, Richard Brown, Lester McGregor, Alfred Rickus, George Clark, Tom Kunkel and Lloyd Nelson.

A Christmas program was presented by the children of some of the members. Tom, Mary and Tim Miller gave the welcome; Cathy Miller recited a poem; Joni Matney played a piano solo; Pamela Miller sang a song, and Rose Miller played two selections on the accordion.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Miller and George McGregor. Mr. Miller announced the January meeting will be Friendship Night, and that the theme would be a "Backward Theme." Members with birthday anniversaries were George McGregor and Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Ray Clark, in the absence of Mrs. William McDaniel, chairman, reported for the sick and visiting committee.

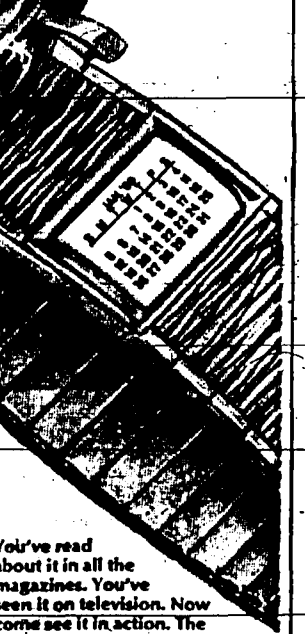

Lloyd Nelson, worshipful master of Hollister Lodge No. 71 announced the Masons are giving a dinner for the Eastern Star members and their families and an open installation for the Masons will follow.

Mrs. Miller served the refreshments.

CLUB MEETS

HANSEN — Mr. and Mrs. Blake Froehlich were hosts to the members of the Ace Hi Pinochle Club. Mrs. Cecil Macaw, Mrs. Kenneth Naylor, Ralph Simmons, Kenneth Naylor and W. I. McFarland received game prizes.

Now that you're thirty, you ought to do better.

It used to be easy to please your mother. Remember? A crumbly piece of paper could bring tears to her eyes. Well, she hasn't changed. Any words you write will still make her feel happy all over. But she'll feel even happier with a little more. She won't turn down a few beautiful gifts from Paris or Paris Jr. And if she says, like mothers always do, "Oh, you should have saved your money" ... you can always tell her you did.

Foes Of War Train Dogs For Combat

By NANCY BENTSON
RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI)—Anti-war youths are working here for an organization that trains German shepherd dogs to find land mines and booby traps set for American troops in Vietnam.
The organization, Behavior Systems, Inc. (BSI) was formed in 1966 by two North Carolina State University professors engaged in research for the Army and Air Force.
The training of dogs for Vietnam is carried out under a Department of Defense contract, but it draws its 130 employees from what one BSI executive calls a "sub-culture of creative, intelligent people who object to conventional methods of dress and work."
The place looks like a long-hair sanctuary. Many of the employees also sport beards. They dress as they please, mainly in jeans and shirts or sweaters.
Elizabeth Carr-Harris, executive vice president of the company, has walked in anti-draft picket lines at the armed forces induction center here. She believes most BSI employees use her line of moral reasoning in training Vietnam-bound dogs.
"We see the dog training as a life-saving thing. They are defensive, not offensive in any way," she said.

Pharmacists Serve As Peru 'Medics'

By MAX JENNINGS

LIMA, Peru (UPI) — The neighborhood pharmacist is the man most Peruvians turn to when they are sick. And many pharmacists in turn like to play doctor.
They stand behind their counters in white coats and offer easy diagnoses on everything from heart disease to impotence, and accompany them with prescriptions.
The results have Peruvian physicians worried sick.
Consider the experience of Lima physician Raul Gamboa, a highly regarded cardiologist and pediatrician who has taught at the Southeastern Medical School in Dallas and Georgetown University Medical School in Washington, D.C.
Gamboa said he recently treated a patient suffering from a cold and fever.
"I gave a prescription for a cold," Gamboa said. "This patient went to the pharmacist and the pharmacist looked at the prescription and said, 'Well, this is no good. You should take penicillin for your cold!'"
Gamboa said the man returned to him complaining that he felt no better after three shots.
"I told him I didn't prescribe penicillin," Gamboa said. "I told him I didn't want to see him again if he was going to do this because he was playing with his life."
Although there are strict controls on narcotics in Peru, antibiotics of all types can be had for the asking.

Dutch Lose Vote On Offer To Break Market Deadlock

BRUSSELS (UPI) — Dutch proposals to break the deadlock over financing the Common Market during the next decade failed Saturday to win approval from the Netherlands five trading partners.
Asked after a meeting of Common Market foreign, finance and agriculture ministers if France rejected the Dutch proposals, French Finance Minister Giscard d'Estaing replied: "No, they just dissipated."
The Common Market executive commission met Saturday afternoon to draft new proposals to provide the European Economic Community (EEC) with its own resources after 1971.
The ministers, who have been meeting in Brussels since Monday, originally set Saturday as a deadline to work out a plan for financing the community after Dec. 31, 1969, when the Common Market's 12-year transitional period comes to an end.

With time running out, the ministers have agreed to prolong for one more year the present financing system.

THE CABOOSE RESTAURANT in Ketchum provides an unusual eating place for visitors. Food and beer are served in the old water tower area which boasts a large circular fireplace. The caboose is used as a kitchen. The restaurant was opened about a year ago.

Old-Time Railroad Caboose, Northeast Is Water Tower Serve As Diner Blanketed With Snow

One of the most unique eating places in the Ketchum-Sun Valley area is "The Caboose" in Ketchum. The business consists of an early 1900 wooden caboose and a water tower which was first in service in the 1880s in the Ketchum area. The caboose and water tower were installed in August by Ned Bell and Bob Wright, two area businessmen. Mr. Bell, a former railroad man, and Mr. Wright came up with the idea of using an old railroad car for a diner. They bought the caboose from Union Pacific Railroad and it was towed by train from Nevada. Later they bought the old water tower. Mr. Wright said the moving of the tower was the biggest operation since it weighed about nine tons. It was hauled for about a mile by a crane to its present location. He said the tower is of solid redwood and was in use until the steam engines were pulled out of Ketchum. The tower originally was installed as a complement to the caboose, but it has now been remodeled and is the serving area for the restaurant. The caboose is used for the kitchen. Last spring Mr. Bell and Mr. Wright sold the operation to Steve Bysic and Doug Kolstead who now operate it. Short orders and beer are served there and the restaurant also caters food.

early today reported 15 inches of snow on the ground at Bradford, Pa., and 11 inches at the northeastern part of the Keystone State. A heavy snow watch for Pennsylvania was changed to a heavy snow warning shortly before midnight.

Postal Ruling On Unmarried Clerk Brings Loud Protest From San Francisco Resident

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — U. S. Dist. Judge Robert Peckham has been asked to rule that a postal clerk can't be fired because of an FBI report that he is living with a woman without benefit of a marriage certificate. The clerk, Neal Mindel, 23, was dismissed in February, 1968, when the Civil Service Commission ruled he was not suitable for employment because of "immoral conduct."

'Lovely Man'

BRISTOL, England (UPI) — Frank Colston, a landlord described by his tenants as "a lovely, gentle old man," left them a surprise Christmas gift in his will published Saturday. Colston, who died in August, left 11 families the houses they live in.

East Germany Terms 'Beat' Music 'Plot Against Youth'

BERLIN (UPI) — After four years of deliberation East German Communists have reversed their stand on Western beat music and rediscovered it is part of an imperialist plot to subvert Soviet bloc youth. The new party line on beat music was given Saturday in the Young World (Junge Welt), official newspaper of the Free German Youth, the Communist youth organization, in a commentary headed "Does beat concern only the feet?"

Six Arrested When Drugs Kill Boy, 14

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stepped up police activity following the heroin death of a 12-year old Harlem boy last weekend has resulted in the arrest of six teen-agers, including a 13-year old boy and a 14-year old girl. The youths were arrested Friday night outside a candy store on Manhattan's upper West Side. Members of a special police narcotics squad said heroin, other drugs and instruments were seized. The 13-year-old boy was held on a charge of possessing heroin. The 14-year old girl was accused of having in her possession a hypodermic needle.

Actor, Wife Argue Over Separation

LONDON (UPI) — Actress Rachel Roberts told newsmen Saturday she would be reconciled with her actor husband Rex Harrison. They are now living apart. But Harrison, 61-year-old costar of the musical "My Fair Lady," said through his attorney for the second time in 24 hours that "there is no reconciliation." The attorney, Brian Eagles, said "the effect of the statement that I was authorized to put out yesterday has not altered at all in any way." Miss Roberts, 42, married Harrison in Italy seven years ago. She said Friday she had spoken to her husband, who has the flu, and said he told her "the whole thing had been blown up out of all proportion."

Shoshone Senior Ball Scheduled

SHOSHONE — The high school senior ball will be held at 9 p.m. Monday at the Lincoln school auditorium. DeVries orchestra will provide the music. The theme from "Romeo and Juliet" will be carried out with Michael Manning reciting excerpts from Shakespearean drama and royalty crowned during the intermission. Julie Cope, Ann Freeman, Layne Hadlock and Dave Holt have been selected as King and Queen candidates.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS KING HILL

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS KING HILL — Home for the holidays at the Knox Pitch Fork Ranch are Ann Knox from the Castile boarding school for girls at Palo Alto, Calif.; Miss Mary Knox of the Kloman Business University, Spokane, and Harry Knox from the University of Idaho.

GAME LAWBREAKING FRANKFORT, KY. (UPI)

Conservation officers attribute a rise in game and fish law violations partially to skyrocketing meat prices. The State Fish and Wildlife Resources Department says the record number of 5,210 arrests by conservation officers in 1968 is expected to be broken this year. If the sun shines through fruit trees on Christmas Day, it is a sign that the trees will bear much fruit.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Declines were well ahead of advances on Wall Street Monday, with electronics and rails among the weakest groups. Turnover was moderate.

One analyst noted that "stocks were pressured by tax-loss selling in a pattern likely to continue over the next few days."

Shortly before 1:15 p.m., the UPI market indicator, measuring all stocks traded, showed a loss of 0.63 per cent on 1,575 issues. There were 825 declines, 491 gains.

The Dow Jones average of 30 selected blue chip industrials was off 2.50 at 787.36.

A turnover of around 8,500,000 shares was running about two million shares behind Friday's pace.

Among the electronics, IBM lost around 5/8, Litton 1/4, Honeywell 3/4, Control Data 2/4, Motorola 1/4, and Fairchild Camera 2/4.

Xerox and Polaroid fell more than 1/2 piece. Penn Central lost more than a point in the rails.

Time For Living

By ROGERS FRANKLIN

The debate on Social Security continues. And this is one debate most of us will be following closely.

As I've remarked more than once in this column, we can't expect Congress to be more interested in our problems than we are.

The House Ways and Means Committee is presently hearing the voice of the public on the subject, before drafting the Social Security Amendments of 1970.

No final action is expected before the next few weeks, so this would be a time for thought on our part - and for letters to congressional representatives expressing our views.

How do things stand? The President Nixon is asking for a 10 per cent rise in monthly benefits, beginning April 1970, with automatic increases geared to the cost of living.

He wants to raise the wage base for social security taxation from $7,800 per year to $8,000, and to pay widows of 65 and up a full 100 per cent of their late husband's benefit.

Other proposed measures: That the "retirement test" be liberalized to permit retirees to earn more than $1,680 without losing benefits.

Jury Indicts 11 For Sparking 'Insurrection' In Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI)—A special grand jury has indicted 11 alleged members of the Weatherman faction of Students for a Democratic Society in connection with demonstrations it termed a "planned insurrection" in Chicago.

The report praised work of the Chicago Police Department during the demonstrations, saying police "conducted themselves in a most exemplary and restrained manner and in so doing prevented complete chaos."

The report offered several recommendations, including publication of "the financial and communistic connections of the SDS and other subversive factions," support for police, and praise for "the silent students who are on the side of law and order."

The jury also recommended "The teaching in all schools of the meaning of law and order and of the proper respect for the flag. Newspaper and television coverage of the proper display of the flag and of American pride of country would be helpful," the jury said.

CHICAGO (UPI)—A special grand jury has indicted 11 alleged members of the Weatherman faction of Students for a Democratic Society in connection with demonstrations it termed a "planned insurrection" in Chicago.

There is no question that the Weatherman faction of SDS is a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist organization dedicated to the violent overthrow of our present form of government and the creation of a Godless, communistic society," the grand jury report said Friday.

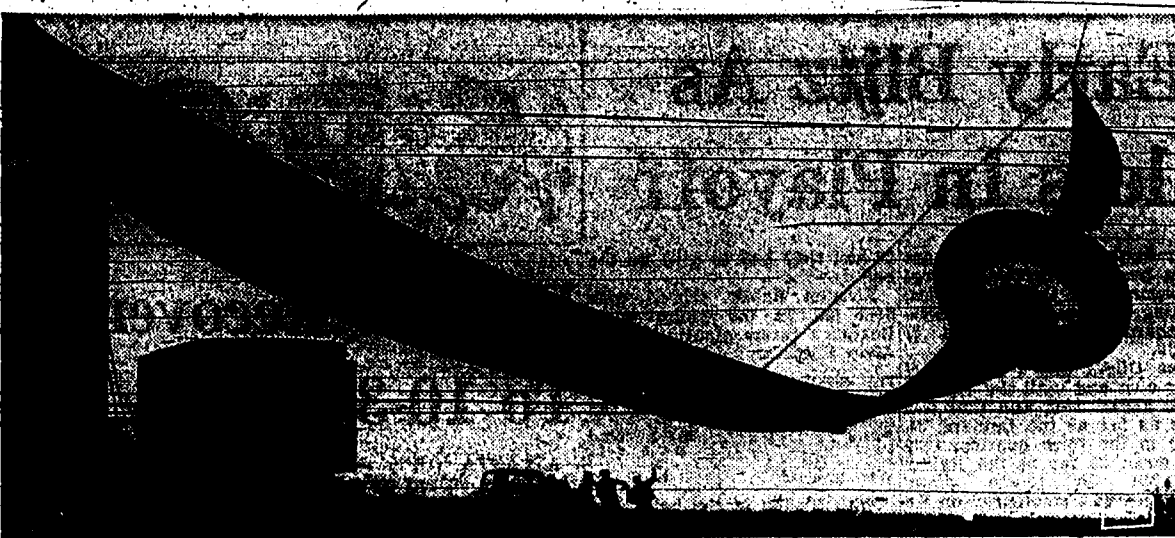

One of those indicted, Brian Flanagan, 23, New York, was charged with aggravated battery, battery and resisting arrest. Flanagan allegedly attacked assistant corporation counsel Richard Elrod during the October demonstrations. Elrod was hospitalized with a broken neck.

Charges against the others ranged from aggravated battery to mob action and resisting arrest.

Most of the charges stemmed from an Oct. 11 march from Haymarket Square through the downtown area. Several persons were injured during the march and storefront windows in the Loop area were smashed.

Demonstrators also engaged in a window-smashing spree through the plush Near North Side on Oct. 8.

"The confrontation was a would-be helpful," the jury said.

SMOG STACK may clear the air. Scientists in the Magdalena Mountains near New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology send up a device to blast a strong electrical charge into a cloud. They hope their experiment will lead to a method of removing smog from the atmosphere by causing moisture to form around smog particles, making them settle toward earth. Airborne instruments measure results and feed them to an IBM computer for analysis.

Moscow Citizens Struggle For Space In Jammed Stores To Buy Gifts For Annual Celebration Of The New Year

MOSCOW (UPI)—Muscovites began a song.

"Ded Moroz, Ded Moroz, red nose, red nose," he croaked.

"I'll show you how the robins sing." He whistled. The children laughed.

Nearby more than 100 boxes containing curly-haired dolls were piled high, and a shopgirl stood on a counter opening and closing various boxes for customers jammed at her feet.

"How much for the red-head?" cried a woman with a yellow kerchief tied over her head.

"Does it say anything?" The girl turned the box upside down. It squeaked.

"I'll take it," the woman said.

The girl passed the box to another clerk and the customer began the tedious process of making a purchase.

After the clerk filled out a slip describing the doll and stating its price, the woman struggled through the crowds to join a line of about 30 persons at a cashier's cage.

In about five minutes she paid her eight rubles and with receipt in hand, started the trek back across the floor to the doll counter. A clerk took the slip and spent about five minutes finding, then wrapping, the box with the red-haired talking doll.

Finally the customer took the box and, apparently still full of determination, began nudging her way toward the toy truck counter.

Lamonica Sparks Early Blitz As Oakland Buries Oilers In Playoff

OAKLAND (UPI)—All-league quarterback Daryle Lamonica threw six touchdown passes Sunday, three during a 28-point first quarter, in leading the favored Oakland Raiders to a 56-7 rout of the Houston Oilers and into the American Football League title game against Kansas City, Jan. 4.

Lamonica, who led all pro quarterbacks with 34 regular-season TD passes, threw twice each to Fred Biletnikoff and Rod Sherman and once apiece to Charlie Smith and Billy Cannon before turning the ball over to George Blanda in the fourth quarter.

The Raiders, 12-1 in the regular campaign, were 13-point favorites over the Oilers, runnersup in the AFL's Eastern Division with a 6-6-2 record, and looked it in the first 10 minutes as they rolled to four quick scores.

Two of the Raider TDs came after fumble recoveries and one on a pass interception. George Atkinson made the interception, picking off a pass play by Pete Beathard and running it 57 yards.

Oakland Quarterback Didn't Think Game Would Be So Easy

OAKLAND (UPI) — Daryle Lamonica, the man of the hour in Oakland's 56-7 rout of the Houston Oilers Sunday in their AFL playoff game, said he thought the Raiders could do it all the time.

"But I never thought we could do it as easily as we did," said the handsome quarterback, who threw six touchdown passes in a game this year for the second time.

"There were things we saw in the films which we thought we could do," continued Lamonica, who now has thrown 40 TD passes this year, 34 in regular season games.

N.Y. Giants Upset Cleveland 27-14

NEW YORK (UPI)—Veteran Joe Morrison scored a pair of fourth period touchdowns, on a one-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton and a one-yard plunge, to give the New York Giants a 27-14 upset victory Sunday over the Central Division champion Cleveland Browns.

next Sunday in the Eastern Conference title game, and the Browns are hoping that Kelly will be back at full speed.

The Giants, who finished the season with a 6-8 record, took the lead 20-14 with 11:47 left in the game when Tarkenton tossed a one-yard pass on a second-down play to Morrison in the end zone.

Table with 2 columns: Cleveland (Clev) and New York (NY). Rows include First downs, Rushing yardage, Passing yardage, Return yardage, Punt, Fumbles lost, and Yards penalized.

Tarkenton had been severely criticized in the Giants' 28-17 loss to the Browns when a pass on the one-yard line was intercepted by John Garlington.

Coach Wally Lemm of the Oilers agreed with that observation. "You can't give the ball away as many times as we did against a club like Oakland and not have it hurt you," he said.

Cleveland, which lost the services of Leroy Kelly with a sprained ankle when his two-yard touchdown sweep gave the Browns a 14-13 lead midway in the third period, finished its regular season with a 10-3-1 mark. Cleveland meets Dallas

But, after Dick Houston caught a pass on the one, and Ernie Koy gained no yardage on a running play, Tarkenton hit Morrison to climax a 63-yard drive. On the Browns' ensuing drive, Milt Morin fumbled while running with a pass reception from Bill Nelsen and Scott Eaton recovered on the Giant 30.

Coach John Madden of the Raiders, a winner in his rookie year, was as pleased as could be with the victory. But seconds after the game ended he began mapping plans for Kansas City.

Seattle Downs San Diego

SEATTLE (UPI)—The Seattle SuperSonics won their third straight NBA basketball game Sunday night as they defeated the San Diego Rockets 112-96. The Sonic victory broke a four-game San Diego winning streak.

Morrison then ran the ball over from the one two plays later with 8:49 left in the game to pick up his 11th touchdown of the season.

RANGERS WIN NEW YORK (UPI)—Bob Nevin, celebrating his promotion to the Rangers' first line, scored the decisive goal while his team was short-handed Sunday night as New York beat the Oakland Hockey Seals, 3-1, in a National Hockey League game.

Fumble Recovery Keys Falcons To 10-3 Victory Over Vikings

ATLANTA (UPI) — Claude Humphrey scored on a 24-yard fumble recovery in the closing seconds of the first half and the aroused Atlanta Falcon defense made it stand up in the rain and cold for a 10-3 victory that ended the Minnesota Vikings' 12-game winning streak.

Only minutes earlier, the Falcons, then trailing 3-0, had made a valiant goal line stand, holding the favored Vikings four times from the one-yard line.

The Vikings' only score, oddly enough, was set up by an Atlanta interception. Falcon safety Al Lavan, who had another interception and a fumble recovery during the game, intercepted a Joe Kapp pass at the Atlanta 25, but fumbled the ball back to the Vikings at the Atlanta 17. The Vikings gained only five yards in three plays, so called on Cox for his field goal.

Green Bay Raps Cards By 45-28

GREEN BAY (UPI) — Reserve quarterback Don Horn passed for a team record 410 yards and tied another club mark with five touchdown passes Sunday, leading the Green Bay Packers to a 45-28 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Neither team was able to generate much of an offense in the rain and mud and the only other scoring in the game were Fred Cox's 19-yard field goal early in the first period, Bob Eiter's 23-yard field goal early in the third period and Eiter's extra point after Humphrey's touchdown.

Table with 2 columns: Minn and Atla. Rows include First downs, Rushing yardage, Passing yardage, Return yardage, Punt, Fumbles lost, and Yards penalized.

Horn completed 22 of 31 passes, including eight in a row at one point, as the Packers charged from a 14-7 deficit with a 24 point explosion in the second quarter to take a 31-14 halftime lead. The Cards never got closer than 10 points behind thereafter as Horn passed for touchdowns 7, and 43 yards to Boyd Dowler, 34 and 10 yards to Carroll Dale and 12 to Travis Williams.

A five-yard touchdown run by Dave Hampton and 28-yard field goal by Booth Lusteg rounded out the Green Bay scoring as the Packers finished their National Football League schedule with an 8-6 record. St. Louis finished with a 4-9-1 record.

Lions Grind Past Chicago Bears 20-3

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Detroit Lions ground out a 20-3 victory over the hapless Chicago Bears on snowy Wrigley Field Sunday to clinch third place in the Western Conference of the National Football League.

The Cowboys jumped into a 10-0 first quarter lead on Mike Clark's 12-yard field goal and a 26-yard pass from Morton to Pettis Norman, and another 24-yard field goal by Clark in the second quarter and then fought off one mistake after another to stay in front.

Table with 2 columns: Detroit and Chicago. Rows include First downs, Rushing yardage, Passing yardage, Return yardage, Punt, Fumbles lost, and Yards penalized.

St. Louis scored two touchdowns in the first quarter on an 18-yard pass from Charlie Johnson to John Gilliam and an 83-yard runback of a fumble recovery by Larry Wilson.

It was the second defeat of the season for the Vikings, who won the Central Division championship and who will play Coastal Division champion Los Angeles for the NFL's Western Conference title next Saturday.

Charlie Sanders gave the Lions all the points they needed in the first quarter when he leaped behind George Youngblood to take in a 27 yard touchdown, pass from Bill Munson. It was a 2-yard rifle shot from Munson to Sanders which set up the score.

Curt Knight's 34-yard second quarter field goal was the only other Redskin scoring as big other Redskin scoring as big Jethro Pugh blocked Knight's third-quarter field goal try from 20-yard line and Knight missed another effort in the fourth quarter.

St. Louis scored two touchdowns in the first quarter on an 18-yard pass from Charlie Johnson to John Gilliam and an 83-yard runback of a fumble recovery by Larry Wilson.

It was only the second defeat of the season for the Vikings, who won the Central Division championship and who will play Coastal Division champion Los Angeles for the NFL's Western Conference title next Saturday.

Mac Percival, the Bear field goal specialist who has been doing Chicago's only scoring of late, saved them from a shutout for the second successive week with a 38-yard field goal—his only success in three tries in the third quarter.

Brodie Comes Off Bench To Spark 49ers

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Quarterback John Brodie, nursing a sore knee, came off the bench midway through the third quarter Sunday to lift the San Francisco Forty Niners from a 13-point deficit to a 14-13 win over the Philadelphia Eagles in the season finale for both teams.

A five-yard touchdown run by Dave Hampton and 28-yard field goal by Booth Lusteg rounded out the Green Bay scoring as the Packers finished their National Football League schedule with an 8-6 record. St. Louis finished with a 4-9-1 record.

Table with 3 columns: Phila, San Fran, and GB. Rows include First downs, Rushing yardage, Passing yardage, Return yardage, Punt, Fumbles lost, and Yards penalized.

Brodie hit tight end Bob Windsor with a 22-yard touchdown pass with 3:32 left and Mommolo Gavric booted the extra point for San Francisco's winning score. That gave the Forty Niners a 4-8-2 record.

It took a leaping interception by cornerback Jimmy Johnson of George Mira's pass on the Forty Niner 27 with 17 seconds left to insure the victory. Only 45 seconds earlier Sam Baker of Philadelphia barely missed a 19-yard field goal.

The Eagles, ending with a 4-8-1 record, took a 13-0 halftime lead on a 10-yard pass from Mira to wide receiver Harold Jackson and a five-yard run by Cyril Einder.

After Mira hit Jackson with the scoring toss with 5:42 remaining in the opening period, the center snap on the conversion try was too high and Baker was forced to heave an incomplete desperation pass.

Minico Meets Arch-Rival Burley Tuesday

BURLEY — The highly-regarded Minico Spartans, fresh off a win in their first big meeting of the year with Twin Falls, take on arch-rival Burley in the Bobcats' gym Tuesday night in the only Magic Valley game before the weekend.

This meeting, between two of the fiercest rivals in the state, is the first of the year for the two schools — and the going is usually tough no matter who's on the floor. Last year Minico took both games from the Bobcats, 52-44 and 76-70.

Russell Most Outstanding In Classic

LAWRENCE, Kan. (UPI)—Pierre Russell, Kansas' hustling 6-3 high-post man, was voted the Most Outstanding Player in the inaugural Jayhawk Classic, it was announced Sunday.

Russell, a junior from Kansas City, Kan., scored 37 points and led the team with 26 rebounds as Kansas defeated Southern Methodist and Western Kentucky in the two-day tournament over the weekend.

Despite the honor, Russell made the all-tournament team by a scant one vote. Twenty-six writers and broadcasters cast ballots.

Gene Phillips, SMU's sensational one-man show, was a unanimous choice. He scored 67 points in the Mustangs' two losses.

Others selected to the team were Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniel (24 votes) and Kansas' Dave Robisch (24), Bud Stallworth (20) and Russell (18).

McDaniel scored 56 points and snagged 28 rebounds. Robisch had 47 and 25, Stallworth 50 and 24.

Texas-El Paso's Nate Archibald narrowly missed the team, garnering 15 votes. Kansas' Aubrey Nank was the only other player to receive support. He got three votes.

Kansas slashed Western Kentucky, 104-81, in Saturday's championship game.

Unitas, Colts Top Los Angeles 13-7

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Thirty-six-year-old Johnny Unitas showed flashes of his all-time brilliance Sunday and, with the help of workhorse running back Tom Matte and two field goals by Lou Michaels, steered the Baltimore Colts to a 13-7 win over the Los Angeles Rams in the final game of the regular National Football League season.

It was the third loss in succession for the Rams, who won their first 11 games and took the title in the NFL Coastal Division. The Colts finished second in the same division with an 8-5-1 record.

The Rams opened the 1969 season by beating the Colts 27-20 but the story was an entirely different one Sunday afternoon before a disappointed hometown crowd of 73,226.

A punishing Colt defense, bulwarked by Bubba Smith and Billy Ray Smith up front and by Tom Maxwell and Jerry Logan in the secondary, held the Rams to one touchdown, an eight-yard pass from Roman Gabriel to Jack Snow in the second quarter.

The Ram touchdown was made possible by Jim Nittle's interception of a Unitas pass. Unitas threw one other interception, this one picked off by Clancy Williams but it led to no further damage.

Unitas, a 14-year pro veteran, completed 19 of 33 passes for 260 yards.

First downs	25	18
Rushing yards	129	62
Passing yards	260	168
Return yards	13	7
Passes	33-19	33-17
Fumbles	3-2	3-2
Fumbles lost	1	1
Yards penalized	23	41

In the first period, the Colts took the opening kickoff and marched 87 yards in 11 plays but bogged down and Michaels kicked a 22-yard field goal.

City League Sets 6 Games

Just six games are on tap this week in city league basketball, with all action coming Monday and Tuesday.

Monday night at O'Leary, Nielsen and Miller meets Sherwoods at 8 p.m., Twin Falls Title and Trust takes on Farmer's Market at 9, and T.F. Firemen meet the Cove in the 10 p.m. finale.

Tuesday at O'Leary, Bean Growers faces Varsity Barber Shop at 7 p.m., Mountain View meets Faux Cigar at 8, and Abbie Urigen Olds-Buick plays Uhlig Feed at 9 p.m.

Weber State Has Only Winning Slate Of All Big Sky Schools

By United Press International

Weber State College will carry the only winning record by a Big Sky Conference school into action against Seattle when it hosts the Chieftains tonight in Ogden.

It will be Weber's first outing since last Tuesday, when the Wildcats convincingly dumped Loyola of Los Angeles, 87-64, to make their record 4-2.

Willie Sojourner, Weber's 6-8 center, is setting an impressive pace for the Wildcats as they prepare to defend their league championship and bid for post season honors.

The league's already poor record against non-league opposition took another battering in Saturday night's action with Montana State and Gonzaga suffering defeats.

Oregon clipped Gonzaga, 74-63, and Yale sidetracked the Bobcats, 78-63, in a battle for third place in the Volunteer Classic at Knoxville, Tenn. Host Tennessee, a 71-62 winner over MSU Friday night, edged LaSalle, 55-47, for the championship.

A 17-point outburst in the final six minutes carries Oregon to its victory over Gonzaga.

Gonzaga's scoring was spread out, with four players in double figures. Tom Hunt led with 15, Doug Rehaume had 13, Jim Brennan 11 and Blaine Bundy 10.

The Ducks, trailing most of the way, finally pulled ahead on Billy Gaskins' field goal 59-58, with less than six minutes remaining. The Bulldogs were never able to regain the lead.

Sloppy passing by Montana State and a lightning fast Yale offense were the big factors in the Bobcats' loss in the battle for third place honors in the Volunteer Classic.

However, game scoring honors went to MSU's Don Luce with 20. Bill Brickhouse added 14 for the Bobcats.

The conference picked up a pair of wins Friday night when Idaho outscored Portland State, 88-86, and Idaho State whipped Chico State, 90-76.

Both Idaho schools will compete in holiday tournaments this week. The Bengals meet strong New Mexico State in the Roadrunner Invitational Dec. 26 at Las Cruces, N.M., and Idaho is in the eight-team field for the All-College Tournament, which opens on the same day in Oklahoma City.

Montana returns to action Friday night against Utah in Salt Lake City.

Buckeyes Draw Most Fans

NEW YORK (UPI) — College football in 1969 drew 27,628,160, an increase for the 16th straight season, and Ohio State won the national attendance championship for the 12th straight year, according to statistics released today by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The Buckeyes drew 431,175 in five home games for an average of 86,235 per game — the highest average by any team in 20 years and 5,808 more than Ohio State drew last season.

A record of 33 teams averaged more than 40,000 per home game and 10 teams averaged more than 60,000.

Favorable weather was a factor as only 12.5 per cent of all games were played in bad weather — the lowest since 1964's 11.9 per cent.

WINNING HAND FOR DALLAS ACES

Oswald: "When the Dallas Aces won the right to represent North America in the 1970 World's Championships, I was delighted, in spite of the fact that, as nonplaying captain, problems may arise from having my son, on the team." Jim: "It shouldn't bother you too much. When Ira Corn con-think they would have won as the American team and I know you are going to win in Sweden next summer, provided you never relax." Jim: "I see you have picked a hand in which Bobby Goldman and Billy Elsenberg gained two IMPs for us by bidding and making six no-trump while at the other table, the Walsh team played at six diamonds." Oswald: "Yes, I was really impressed by Billy's answer when asked what his partner's bids meant." Jim: "Their system covers this hand perfectly. Bobby's two-diamond and three-no-trump calls showed a no-trump-oriented hand with 15-17 high-card points and six diamonds, to two of the three top honors." Oswald: "It is almost frightening to see what real study can do. Will you take over the column for awhile and discuss the three systems used by your team?" Jim: "Delighted. I'll start tomorrow."

Bob Hope, Armstrong Launch Tour

LAI KHE, Vietnam (UPI)— Bob Hope launched his sixth Christmas tour of Vietnam today with a two-hour show before 13,000 sun-baked GIs at this base Division. Astronaut Neil Armstrong put in a surprise appearance.

The 66-year-old Hope flew in from Thailand to this dusty base 28 miles north of Saigon with an 83-member troupe which included singer-actress Connie Stevens, the 12-girl dance group "The Goldiggers," and other television personalities.

"This is really a mixed audience," said Hope, wearing 1st Infantry Division fatigue jacket and swinging the ever-present golf club. "We had to give the Viet Cong half the tickets."

Sitting near the stage were members of a "Big Red One" platoon who Sunday night discovered six rockets in nearby jungles aimed at Lai Khe. The GIs were brought into the camp from surrounding artillery bases and other posts in the region.
