Agnew Confers With Viet Officials, Tells Troops To Disbelieve War Foes

SAIGON (UPI) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew arrived in an unscheduled overnight visit to Vietnam today and told GIs at an artillery base not to believe everything they read about antiwar sentiment in the United States.

He settled in for the night following a day of meetings with South Vietnamese officials and a visit with allied artillerymen north of Saigon. For security reasons, his overnight bivouac remained secret.

Agnew flew from the Philippines to Saigon and conferred immediately with President Nguyen Van Thieu at the presidential palace, where former Vice President Hubert H.

Humphrey came under Communist mortar attack in the morning.

A helicopter took Agnew to fire support base Kien, 37 miles northwest of Saigon, the first gun base operated jointly by U.S. and South Vietnamese troops under President Nixon's Vietnamization plan. Sniper fire was reported there two hours before Agnew arrived.

"People back home are pretty darned proud of you and what you're doing over here," Agnew told the gun crews. "Don't be misled by what you may see and read in certain publications—it just doesn't reflect the feeling of the American people about the job that's being done by American fighting men in Vietnam."

A helicopter returned Agnew to Saigon shortly before nightfall.

Agnew said he expected to report to President Nixon that "the spirit of American fighting men and their South Vietnamese counterparts is high and high as it ever was, and that the resolve is there, and the determination and all they need from him is the continuation of good executive management to work the thing out so we can get it over with."

A number of GIs at the artillery base asked Agnew when they could go home.

"I hope for your sake you'll be out soon," Agnew told one GI. "But I don't know what soon means."

French Generals Ousted

HAIFA, Israel — (UPI) — The arrival of five gunboats from detention in France sparked editorial criticism of the French government in Israeli newspapers today.

The dramatic adventure of the boats called attention in a striking way to the injustice of the French arms embargo policy, the Jerusalem Post said.

The gunboats pulled into Haifa after sunset Wednesday night, bolstering the New Year's Eve recovery of thousands of Israelis after a strenuous 3,700-mile journey from Cherbourg, France.

The newspaper Hagetz said the arrival of the boats "is full of significance with French law, has put France in an inconvenient position with the Arabs."

Israel kept security tight around the boats after the first flush of celebration.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said in Tel Aviv the Israeli ambassador to Paris, Walter Eytan, would meet soon with French officials, apparently to discuss France's plan to "oust Israeli's Paris-based Israeli diplomats who were instrumental in getting the boats released."

The French government announced it was dismissing two generals from their jobs in the Defense Ministry for letting the boats escape the Israeli embargo to Israel and slip out of Cherbourg on Christmas.

The stroke of midnight, the 270-ton vessels joined the New Year's celebration in this Mediterranean port with victorious tools that echoed off the slopes of nearby Mt. Carmel.

In two groups the gunboats pulled into Haifa just after sunset Wednesday, completing a 3,700-mile voyage through rough seas without any report of threat from the Egyptian air force or navy.

A small army of newsmen was waiting at dockside for the vessels, along with the families of the crewmen and Israeli officials, one of whom jumped quickly aboard and began shaking hands.

Hundreds of Israelis cheered and applauded the arrival as the boats pulled into the docks, their crews standing on the deck and waving triumphantly.

The only marking on the boats was the word "Starboat," the name of the Panama-based firm that bought the gunboats from France but turned out to be a front for Israeli investors.

IT'S A DOGS DAY — at least for those who had that extra drink to bring in the new year properly. "Pierro," a 95-pound Boston Terrier owned by Bob Hamilton, 1800 Ontario Ave., has that reputation. He is shown here at his post, the dog's bed, which he had returned quietly to home by the warm fire with a bowl of milk — like his more intelligent human friends. (Photo by Dan Johnson)

Car Overtakes, Kills Twin Falls Child, 2

RURLEY — A 2-year-old Twin Falls child was killed while his parents and a baby brother were seated and dismissed in a one-car rollover on Interstate 80 seven miles east of Burley at 5:10 p.m. Wednesday.

The victim, Darin Sorensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Val Spencer Sorensen, Twin Falls, was thrown from the 1969 Ford his father was driving after it went out of control on black ice. State Patrolman Gordon Mills, investigating, said the car skidded as it crossed over a canal bridge and hit the rise which separates the east and west bound lanes.

The vehicle went back across the highway and overturned twice and one-half times. The child was thrown out and the car rolled over him.

The Sorensen's baby, Douglas, 4 1/2 months, was in a basket in the front seat between his parents while Darin was in the back seat. The parents and baby were treated for minor injuries at Minkler Memorial Hospital.

The family was en route to Utah for the New Year's holiday. The traffic death crushed

Bad Weather Plagues U.S. On Holiday

By United Press International

Thousands of persons spent New Year's Day in temporary shelters as floods plagued the Appalachians. In California, highway crews worked while the clock passed 12 trying to reopen the Golden State Freeway — blocked by a mudslide — for Rose Bowl traffic.

At least nine persons were drowned in the Central and Southern Appalachians as streams swelled from melting snow and downpours. Kentucky had four flood-related deaths, Tennessee three and West Virginia two.

National Guardsmen were summoned to active duty or placed on alert to aid victims.

The bodies of the West Virginia victims — two young women — were discovered Wednesday in their automobile. The vehicle slid 100 feet into the flood-blasted, winding Gulf River near Stonebary after a section of road caved in.

Two infants drowned in Kentucky — McGuffin County when their father's truck slid backward down a hill into a flooded creek. The body of another Kentucky victim was found floating in a flooded Middlesboro Street and the fourth, a Sellersville youth, also drowned.

In Tennessee, a man was electrocuted when he went into his flooded basement to check an electric pump. A youth drowned when his car overturned in a flooded culvert and another victim perished trying to tow his car from a flooded creek.

Savings Insurance Hike Pleases Banks

Bankers and savings and loan officials in Twin Falls will have to change the signs on their windows soon but none of them seem to mind.

The signs now read, "Savings deposits insured to $15,000," or something like that. They will have to be changed to read, "To $20,000," or something like that.

It's all because of new federal laws signed by President Nixon last week. Accounts insured under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp. are being protected up to $20,000 for personal accounts. But this is by no means the limit.

Not too long ago accounts were insured to $10,000. This was increased to $15,000 by federal law several years ago. Then last week this was increased again to $20,000.

Some bankers and savings and loan officials in Twin Falls have received official notification of

Pat Nixon Says She Agrees With Poll On Women

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI) — Mrs. Pat Nixon, who finished third in the 1969 Gallup poll list of women most admired by Americans, says she agrees with the first place ranking of Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

She said Wednesday that Mrs. Nixon has always described the widow of the late President as her "favorite first lady" in history.

However, the spokeswoman said Mrs. Nixon had no comment on her own standing.

Also named on the list were Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, Mitti, and Lady Bird Johnson, eighth.

Viet War Enters 10th Year

By WALTER WHITEHEAD SAIGON (UPI) — The Vietnam War entered its 10th year today with Allied troops ending a battle-scarred New Year's truce and official U.S. sources reporting 40,000 Americans slain in the conflict.

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew arrived for an overnight visit and headed straight for the presidential palace, where his predecessor, Hubert H. Humphrey, came under a four-round mortar attack in 1967.

U.S. and South Vietnamese troops ended a 24-hour New Year's truce at 6 p.m. (5 a.m. EST) and went back to full operations, leaving the Communists to continue their three-day handover until 1 a.m. Friday (noon today EST).

Military spokesmen said the first 18 hours of the Allied cease-fire was violated 65 times by guerrilla troops, triggering fighting that killed five Americans and wounded 10. Headquarters said 72 Viet Cong or North Vietnamese were killed. The South Vietnamese command reported 18 of its men killed and 57 wounded since the Viet-Cong standdown began Tuesday morning.

The destruction that U.S. battle deaths had surpassed 40,000 came from American military sources after a command issued its weekly casualty report for last week, showing 86 Americans killed and 557 wounded.

In the Korean War, 33,029 American troops died.

No Baby Enters 10th Year

Magic Valley Memorial Hospital still was without a New Year's baby at 10 a.m. today.

Officials said there are two expectant mothers in the hospital and there may be some announcement tomorrow.

British Youth Named Adults In New Law

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's 2.25 million 18, 19 and 20 year olds legally came of age today. Under legislation passed by parliament in April and July, what is known here as the age of majority, was lowered for the first time in this country from 21 to 18.

From today, 18 year olds may make binding contracts, hold and dispose of property, obtain mortgages, insure their lives, marry without parental consent, make a will, act as a trustee, buy or rent a home, and give blood.

They may be hypnotized for public entertainment and be sent betting circulars.

They may give their own consent to have medical or dental treatment. They may not be wardens of court and they may not be legally adopted without their own agreement.

From Feb. 16, when new electoral rolls are published, they will be entitled to vote in both parliamentary and local government elections.

They still may not become members of parliament, be liable for jury service or sentenced to prison as adults.

Parliament may call on later to pass additional legislation deemed to protect "adult" teenagers from "harsh or oppressive" contracts, if there are indications they are getting a rough deal in the hard world of business.

Twin Falls Greet New Decade Quietly

There were six traffic accidents, one of them with an injury, during the early hours of New Year's Eve and police arrested one 17-year-old boy for illegal consumption of alcohol to disorderly conduct and drunkenness.

But outside of that, police said it was "quiet" for New Year's.

The youth was arrested by officers near the Lynwood Shopping Center. He was yelling obscenities and had kicked in a window at a home on Robinson Avenue shortly before, officers said. The youth was taken to the station and while being booked tried to start a fight with several officers, it was reported.

In the accident with the injury, Ken Nakayama, 34, 407 Du Bois Ave., was ligated and released at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital for head cuts.

The van he was driving and a station wagon driven by Mrs. Joy Worthington, 20, 1066 Sherry Drive, collided at the intersection of Sunrise Boulevard and Maple Avenue at 6:55 p.m. Mrs. Worthington was not hurt.

The five other accidents were minor and were scattered throughout the city during a five hour period.

Pact Averts Transit Halt In New York

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mayor John V. Lindsay announced today that the Transit Authority and the Transit Unions had settled their contract dispute, averting a bus and subway strike.

The Transport Workers Union and Amalgamated Transit Union had threatened to walk out at 5 a.m. today but extended the deadline, four hours at the request of mediators who had reported progress in the negotiations.

Present when the announcement was made beside Lindsay were city mediators Theodore D. Kheel, Transit Authority head William J. Ronan, Vincent D. McDonnell of the state mediation board, mediator Joseph O'Grady, and Matthew Guinan, head of the TWA.

Holiday Deaths Blamed On Drink

By United Press International

Half of the New Year's holiday period traffic fatalities in the nation will involve alcohol, the National Safety Council says.

The council said 450-550 persons could die between 6 p.m. Wednesday and midnight Sunday, local time. "Fully half of all traffic fatalities involve alcohol," the council President Howard Dyle said Wednesday.

Youths See Violence For Decade

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI) — Leaders of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), which wound up a national convention Wednesday, predicted there would be increased turmoil and social unrest and more battles in the streets.

However, they said YSA members did not plan to arm themselves or to provoke confrontations.

Larry Seigle, who was re-elected chairman, said that violence "is the result of the actions of the cops and the government."

"We are not pacifists and we may be forced to defend ourselves," he said. "But the need of all we are not out to cause violence."

LONDON (UPI) — The annual royal honors list today gave actor-playwright composer Noel Coward the knighthood at 70. He had refused at 50 because he then thought "Sir Noel" might look bad on theater signs.

Series In Times-News Will Help With Income Tax Form

The Internal Revenue Service has sent its annual holiday "gift" to millions of American taxpayers — the revised and clarified tax forms for declaring 1965 income. The forms were mailed this week from the various sectional centers of the IRS.

The familiar Form 1040A, the card for low-income taxpayers, is missing, with the standard 1040 form revised to meet the needs of all.

Filing of taxes is still a difficult procedure at best, and a 14-page series of articles scheduled for release in the Times-News will go a long way to easing the problems. A 64-page book of instructions will be available at the various centers of the Times-News, which includes a unique records section to keep tax documents current throughout the year ahead.

Look for the first installment of Cut Your Own Taxes on Monday in the Times-News.

Philippine President To 'Give Away' All Belongings

MANILA (UPI) — President Ferdinand E. Marcos announced today he will give away all his "worldly possessions" to the Filipino people in order to set an example of self-sacrifice.

President Marcos said he will give away all his worldly possessions to the greater needs of the people.

Moved by the "staggering" example of self-sacrifice for all our people, I have today decided to give away all my worldly possessions to the greater needs of the people.

IT ISN'T RIGHT FOR a husband and wife to fight, unless the cause is just. And since the donation of blood is a just cause, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Vollmer here are doing their bit to help. The bloodmobile visits Twin Falls from 2 to 7 p.m. Monday at the American Legion Hall and the theme this time is "Women, don't!" In the past, more men than women have donated blood. Since Mr. Vollmer is president of the Jaycees and his wife president of the Jay-Cettes, there will be a real battle to see which sex can give the most blood. Mrs. Vollmer is honorary chairman of Monday's blood drive.

Pentagon Says Desertion Of Soldiers Rises Sharply As 1,403 GIs Cross International Borders For Asylum

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Pentagon survey showed Wednesday that since July 1, 1966, 1,403 GIs have crossed international boundaries to desert in foreign countries.

The total, the Defense Department said, does not include men who were already in the foreign country at the time they became absent without leave (AWOL), or those who merely overstayed their leave after entering the country for legitimate purposes.

The Pentagon said that in only 107 of the cases was there any clear-cut evidence the desertion was a protest against the Vietnam War.

The department also said 371 of the deserters have returned; 468 others were alien members of the U.S. armed forces who deserted to their native countries, and 569 were in serious financial trouble or had other personal problems at the time of their departure.

Nevertheless, as of Dec. 31, there were 576 American deserters in Canada, 88 in Mexico, and 85 in Sweden. The rest were scattered through a score of countries.

The survey reveals a general situation, is unprecedented and is the result of a general increase in military absenteeism.

The Army, for example, listed its rate of "absentees over 30 days" — technically desertion — at 21.4 per thousand in fiscal 1967, 29.4 per thousand in fiscal 1968 and 42.4 per thousand for fiscal 1969, which ended last June 30.

Corresponding rates for the Marine Corps for the same three years were 20.3, 22.4 and 40.2.

Air Force and Navy rates were far lower, probably because unfavorable living conditions in these two services are less likely to be encouraged.

The Air Force rates for the three years were 42, 44 and 63, a slight increase. But the Navy showed a decrease — 9.7, 8.5 and 7.3 — possibly due to an antidesertion program.

Farm Bureau Meeting Held

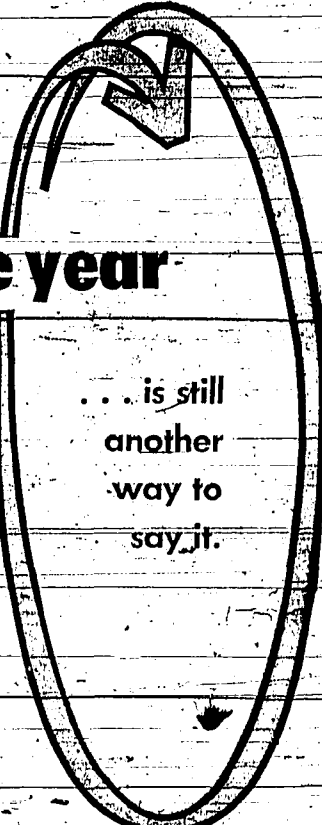

Twin Falls County legislators were guests at the county Farm Bureau luncheon recently. A workshop was held during the afternoon session at the Farm Bureau building with questions based on Farm Bureau policy. Some subjects discussed were House Bill No. 304, general obligation bonds, legal taxing, Constitutional revision, the extension service, and the wholesome meat act.

"Saith The Lord"

History records that for ages, men with legal sanction and easy conscience, have killed other men for their crimes, as little as petty theft or as evil as murder... The barbarities of the Dark Ages and the Inquisition paled before Hitler's, charcoal camps and the world stood against it... Its collective conscience stirred, but death as the expiation for capital crime remained civilization's standard retribution... In earlier times, men seemed to seek executions of the utmost cruelty as a deterrent to the rest of men, so much so that the founders of this republic outlawed cruel and unusual punishment... To make the punishment fit the crime, men gradually removed all except the most heinous offenses from punishment by death... In more recent times, men sought more humane ways of killing than by the rack, drawing and quartering, keelhauling, stoning and other ugly killers... They came up with the guillotine, the gallows, the electric chair and the gas chamber... And, more and more, grew their reluctance to use even the gentlest way to commit what some called "legal murder..." More than two years have passed... How do our readers feel about it?

WASHINGTON — The dominant mood of a national, often hellscape, strategy meeting of left-center politicians Dec. 10 in Manhattan was a cannibalistic desire to purge Democrats who fall short of purity on the Vietnam issue... Although a few hard-headed liberals present protested that the priority for 1970 is to save liberal Democratic incumbents from Republican challenges, the real enthusiasm was to remove from public life errant Democrats... The chief sponsor of the meeting, Prof. John Kenneth Galbraith of Harvard University, originally scheduled for his home in Cambridge, Galbraith shifted the meeting to the New York City Hilton in New York... Galbraith's view is to purge Democrats who fall short of purity on the Vietnam issue... Galbraith's view is to purge Democrats who fall short of purity on the Vietnam issue... Galbraith's view is to purge Democrats who fall short of purity on the Vietnam issue... that moratorium activists not be sent to help any candidate unless requested... Galbraith insisted that rejected candidates ought to be helped whether they want it or not... A footnote: Although the war was made the sole criterion for support or opposition, nobody at the Galbraith meeting could deny that for now, President Nixon has both the initiative and the heavy public support on Vietnam... Another of those inexplicable goofs that have plagued the Nixon White House popped up again last week when Prof. Bernard J. Ward of the University of Texas law school received an effusive letter from Clark Mollenhoff, the muckraking journalist turned White House squire... Mollenhoff, who spearheaded the unsuccessful White House effort to confirm Judge Clement F. Haynsworth, was still concerned with the letter in his office because of the performance on an excellent performance on the 60 Minute Show (CBS-TV) dealing with Judge Haynsworth... Mollenhoff began praising him for his support of Haynsworth... Mollenhoff told the press that he had written the letter to Ward's colleague at the Texas law school Prof. Charles Alan Wright, who did appear on the program and with a defense of Haynsworth...

Item: U.S. Lifts Trade Ban With Red China

There were some responsible dissenters to this rampant cannibalism... Sam Brown, leader of the 1968 McCarthy youth movement and anti-Vietnam war protester, suggested that the saving friends in Congress have a much higher priority than quibbling threats at invulnerable enemies... Another difference between Galbraith and Brown was revealed when Brown suggested...

Oil Spills

Three years after the Torrey Canyon disaster off Cornwall, England, and almost a year after Santa Barbara's beaches were blackened, industry representatives have agreed that methods of preventing oil spillage at sea are inadequate... The technology for cleaning them up, furthermore, is still primitive... Still, the fact that the subject was explored at length at a conference sponsored jointly by the American Petroleum Institute and the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration is encouraging... Knowledge is a necessary prelude to action...

ANDREW TULLY Ride On Pan Am

SANTO DOMINGO, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC — There is a modicum of relief for the spinners of the New York Times... Sometimes he gets to ride on a flying machine operated by an outfit named Pan American World Airways... Admittedly, my chauvinistic love affair with Pan Am goes back to World War II when I experimented with it in New York... Pan Am also is in business to make a buck... Put it more specific terms, Pan Am actually seems to like kids... This may be of more than casual general interest because these days a substantial number of air travelers come with attached sprouts... Therefore, it would be churlish not to acknowledge that on the flight from Washington to the sunshine and caressing breezes of Santo Domingo Pan Am's highly cosmetic hired hands treated Mark and John like people... The performance was especially noteworthy, since none of my kids and kin is named Rockefeller or Kennedy... Why, my dear sir and madame, traveling with kids is a breeze and even, perhaps, a pleasure... Pan Am, I suggest, has made nannies obsolete...

At Notre Dame

It was inevitable that some students at Notre Dame University would test the rule laid down by its president, Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, earlier in the year that demonstrators who disobeyed campus regulations would be given "15 minutes to meditate" and then expelled or suspended if they refused to comply... Some 150 students tried to block interviews being conducted by the Central Intelligence Agency and Dow Chemical... Now the students attending one large university know they are expected to comply with the rules of the school... There will be some, of course, who will decry such discipline on a college campus... But many more Americans will applaud the resoluteness of Notre Dame's administration in backing up the school's established policy... Learning that there are rules in a civilized world-one is expected to follow might even make useful citizens of them.

PAUL HARVEY Get Up When You Fall Down

There is no more pertinent advice anybody could give to anybody than this: Get up when you fall down... Christ said nobody is beyond redemption... Dr. George C. Thosteson believes Christ meant what he said and has dedicated his life to demonstrating it... He's called "Director of the Department of Corrections." What that means is that he runs the Texas prison system... In 14 units he has confined 12,000 bad guys who are thus paying for an assortment of sins ranging from black to scarlet... But instead of just locking them up for whatever period is prescribed by law, this former Lutheran clergyman is rebuilding character and integrity in these evildoers... It's by their fruits that we are to judge others... Most prison systems overflow with desperadoes... In the years since Dr. Beto instituted his pre-release program, the rate of recidivism (repeaters) has been reduced from 68 per cent to 17.5 per cent... He's a worker and everybody around and under him works... Most modern penologists would call Beto's administration "tough." He's "Dr. Beto" when he's around and "The Man" when he is not... It's the character building is doing necessary things even when they'd rather not... So, says Dr. Beto, after the family and the church have failed to do this, the prison administrator must... "Failure is not the falling down, but the staying down." Under the administration of this uncommonly dedicated man, a man in a men are picking themselves up again...

Traffic Deaths Hit Record High Of 55 During 1969 In Magic Valley; Camas Is Only County Without Fatality

A record high for traffic deaths in Magic Valley was established during 1969, as more than half a hundred people perished in accidents on the area's highways.

The total for 1969 was 55, compared with 48 in 1968, and the previous high of 51 in 1965, according to Idaho State Police figures.

The only county in Magic Valley to keep a clean record during 1969 was Camas county, which has not recorded a traffic fatality in several years.

Jerome County was high this year with 15 deaths, two more than recorded in Cassia County, which normally leads other Magic Valley counties in number of traffic deaths.

Jerome County had only two fatalities in 1968 and Cassia had 14 during the same period.

Out of the 55 deaths, 19 were in accidents involving multiple deaths.

There were two accidents in 1969 which claimed four lives each. On Feb. 16 all four members of the Gerald Duane Maxwell family of Gooding were killed when their car slid into a train on an icy county road.

Also on Feb. 16 in Gooding County Dr. Marvin N. Lewis, Seattle, was killed in an automobile accident, making it the bloodiest weekend of the year in Magic Valley roads.

On May 25 four people were killed in a three-car collision 10 miles east of Jerome. Three of the dead, Heidi Marie Robinson, twin girls, Charley E. Crawford, Eden, and Robert McCarmick, were in one of the cars, and the fourth, Larry K. Schaefer, Bellevue, was driver of a pickup truck involved in the mishap.

And, in December, three members of a military family from Mountain Home were killed when their pickup truck and camper collided with a tractor-trailer rig on Interstate 80N in Cassia County. Sgt. and Mrs. Richard Johnson and their 2½-year-old son were killed, and two other children survived the crash.

In 1969 Magic Valley traffic accidents there were 36 people 21 years of age or older killed, while 19 people under 21 died. There were 44 Idaho residents who became traffic victims, and 11 out-of-staters.

Two people were killed in pedestrian accidents, two of the victims were operating motor-cycles, and trains were involved in three mishaps which took six lives.

Top of the fatalities were on Interstate 80N and were among a rash of accidents which took place on the freeway.

Lt. Dean Bennett, head of the Idaho State Police in District Gooding, 8; March 2; April 3; May 6; June 2; July 5; August 10; September 4; October 3; November 5, and December 12.

Breakdown by counties is: Blaine 1; Camas, 0; Cassia, 15; Gooding, 8; Jerome, 15; Lincoln, 1; Minidoka, 5; and Twin Falls, 12.

Salvation Army Leader Here Gains Promotion To Major

George Driver, commanding officer of the Salvation Army in Twin Falls since June, 1964, has been promoted to the rank of major, according to word received here from the Army's western division head - quarters in San Francisco.

The promotion was effective Dec. 15.

"The notice of promotion from the Commissioned William J. Barkins reads: 'We feel sure you will accept this recognition as an evidence of confidence on the part of your leaders. You will, I believe, devote yourself to your work and the duties and responsibilities which come with the promotion, with renewed zeal and wholehearted concentration.'

Major Driver has devoted his entire adult life to the work of the Salvation Army, having entered training in New York in September, 1937.

Prior to coming to Twin Falls he served in El Centro, the San Francisco Bay area, Hanford and Chico stations, all in California.

Major Driver is a member of the Twin Falls Kiwanis club and

Kidnap Victim Appeals To Husband To 'Do Something'

WFMN-EDON, England (UPI)—Alex, darling... can you do something soon? ... she appealed. Mrs. Alex McKay, kidnaped wife of the head of the world's largest Sunday newspaper, in a note Scotland Yard released today.

The note indicated Mrs. McKay 55, was still alive. She was abducted from her home Monday night. Police did not say how the note was delivered. Her husband is acting chairman of the News of the World, a Sunday newspaper with a circulation of eight million. He has received several ransom notes, one demanding $2.7 million.

Judge Raps Witness On Profanity

CHICAGO (UPI)—Abbie Hoffman had used the word "hell" and U.S. District Court Judge Julius J. Hoffman was admonishing him.

"Mr. Hoffman, witness, allow profanity from a witness, the judge said. And if you're being laughed at by a witness, I don't laugh at you."

"You should," Abbie told the judge. Abbie, leader of the Yippies, continued his testimony Wednesday in the trial of seven men charged with conspiring to incite riots at the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

The trial was recessed today for New Year's. Friday or Monday, Mayor Richard J. Daley could testify as a defense witness.

Twice during Wednesday's trial, a prosecution witness, Hoffman, was asked to take the 5th Amendment. The first time he testified.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Richard Schultz asked him if he ever thought about seizing an empty building across the street from Lincoln Park during the August, 1968, convention.

"This might be incriminating," Abbie replied. "Should I take the 5th Amendment, judge? Yeah, I think I might. I've always wanted to take the 5th."

The judge recessed the trial so Hoffman could consult with his attorney. When the trial resumed, Hoffman answered the question affirmatively.

The second instance came when Schultz asked Hoffman about his activities in Chicago on Thursday of convention week.

"I consider that an unfair ruling and I won't answer the question," Hoffman said. "I take the 5th Amendment."

The judge ordered him to answer and Hoffman did, saying, "Yes, I was there (on Thursday) but in all my years on the witness stand I've never heard anything like that (the judge's ruling)."

Police Wound Youth Who Slew Sister
SANTA ANA, Calif. (UPI)—A teenager accused of murdering his 12-year-old sister and wounding a 45-minute gun battle with police Tuesday night remained in critical condition at the Orange County Medical Center today.

"We are most concerned about her," said Mrs. McKay's son-in-law, David Dyer. "She had a doctor's appointment on Tuesday and she is not 100 per cent fit. She is a middle-aged person and it is the middle of winter."

"At present, we must accept that Mrs. McKay has been forcibly abducted and is being held against her will," said a police spokesman. "We have now taken certain measures which must remain secret in the hope of finding her as soon as possible."

The family said they recognized her handwriting on the note. "Alick, darling," the note said. "I am blindfolded and cold. Only blankets. Please help me. I can't keep going. I think of you constantly and the family and friends. She said in a second segment, 'I have been calling you for, darling. When I do, I deserve such treatment. Can you do something soon?'"

Police said they were puzzled because the note gave no details how the kidnapers would arrange for the return of Mrs. McKay. Dyer said he and McKay, 60, had appealed to the kidnapers to let them know how to pay the $2.7 million ransom they had asked.

"We are hoping the family's appeal will reach the heart of whoever is holding Mrs. McKay," said Detective Chief Supt. William Smith. "Police with dogs and an horseback searched the Epping Forest outside London all day Wednesday and of the park, many frozen."

Groups of detectives searched every hotel in the Epping area looking for clues.

Mountaineer Fails Again In Teton Try
MOOSE, Wyo. (UPI)—Mountaineer Paul Petzoldt and 10 fellow climbers were beaten back again New Year's Eve in an attempt to reach the summit of 14,000-foot Grand Teton Mountain.

"We made an attempt, but the winds just blew us right off," Petzoldt radioed to the Grand Teton National Park ranger headquarters Wednesday night.

The 61-year-old climber from Lander, Wyo., said the team failed to get even as far as Tuesday's attempt when climbers gave up some 500 feet from the top.

"We went up only part way and turned back because the winds were so strong," Petzoldt said.

Petzoldt, who planned to lead another assault attempt today, was told forecasters were predicting less wind but colder temperatures for the Northwestern Wyoming mountain peak.

Astronauts Lead Parade At Festival
PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—The three Apollo 12 astronauts led a five-mile, one-half-mile beflowered stream of floats and marching bands today to usher in the 1970s at the Tournament of Roses Parade.

Charles Conrad, Richard F. Gordon and Alan L. Bean, grand marshals of the 81st of this granddaddy of parades, were assigned three separate responsibilities to spearhead a procession of 60 floats laden with pretty girls.

THE GOLDEN STATE FREEWAY in Southern California lies under a mountain of mud and dirt following a landslide Wednesday afternoon near Los Angeles. The slide completely blocked the southbound lanes and forced closing of the remainder of the freeway when mud slides slid across the center divider. (UPI telephoto)

Landslide Blocks Freeway, Threatens 'Bowl' Traffic

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Highway crews worked throughout New Year's Eve to reopen the Golden State Freeway for today's Rose Parade and Rose Bowl traffic.

The eight-lane freeway was completely blocked Wednesday by a massive landslide in the Elysian Park area near Dodger Stadium. The slide dumped tons of mud and rock along with trees and power poles on the heavily traveled freeway.

The area in which the slide occurred—where the Pasadena Freeway intersects with the Golden State—was known in the 1930s as the "moving mountain." The fire department said the latest allpance apparently was caused by an underground spring.

Miraculously, no one was injured. Authorities said the slide began just above a pumping station operated by the city's Recreation and Parks Department. It buried the station under about 40 feet of dirt.

An eight-inch main water pipe broke, turning the slide into a torrent of mud which wiped out a fire road, downed power lines and swept loose a telephone pole.

Two northbound lanes were reopened shortly after noon and the two others about three hours later, but southbound traffic was diverted throughout the night.

The California Highway Patrol closed the southbound lanes at the junction of the Hollywood and Golden State freeways, causing a jam through the Caluanga Pass, which links the San Fernando Valley with downtown Los Angeles via Hollywood.

One motorist said traffic on the Hollywood Freeway Wednesday night "was as bad as rush hour on a weekday morning."

One witness said trucks carrying debris from the scene looked "like little matchboxes trying to move a mountain."

Tax Slash, Pension Hike Open '70s
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The 1970s opened today with a 15 per cent Social Security boost for 25 million Americans and a drop in taxes for most wage earners through a raising in the 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Other tax relief, because of the big income tax reform and relief bill voted by Congress, starts helping low income people and single people immediately. In all, 63 million taxpayers families will be getting some relief by the time 1970 has ended.

Starting at midnight, the surcharge dropped to 5 per cent. It expires June 30. The tax reform and relief bill signed by President Nixon Tuesday contained the Social Security increase for all retirees, disabled workers and widows and children covered by the social insurance plan.

The tax reform bill contains an increase in the present $600 personal exemption to $650 effective July 1. The first six months of this year, however, will be counted for paycheck withholding as $600 and the last six months as $650. The effective full year rate will be $625. Thus, on April 15, 1971, when taxpayers file income tax returns for 1970, they will deduct from their gross income $625 for themselves and $625 for each dependent.

The $500 personal exemption will become fully effective in 1971, and goes to $700 on Jan. 1, 1972, and to $750, on Jan. 1, 1973.

Nixon Faces New Decade With Hope
SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI)—President Nixon today faced the decade of the 1970s with cautious optimism over the agood function of a Chief Executive, the signing of a relatively unimportant piece of legislation.

Nixon and his family spent a quiet New Year's Eve in their splendid coastal residence here Tuesday. The President planned morning activity Thursday to clear five bills left for his approval by Congress.

Arab Guerrillas Mark Fifth Anniversary Of Revolution

BEIRUT (UPI)—The fifth birthday of the Palestinian revolution—in the form of its most vigorous proponent, the Arab Al Fatah guerrilla organization—will be marked today with celebrations appropriate to a key year in the struggle for the liberation of the Holy Land.

Proponents claim the law will put men on equal footing with women and guarantee a "step forward" towards property such as stocks, bonds and bank accounts.

But critics argue the new law passed by the 1969 legislature is a rehash of the old and offers little to eliminate the agonies of divorce.

Gov. Ronald Reagan, divorced in 1948 by his first wife, actress Jane Wyman, signed the new law, which applies to any complaint filed this year that goes to trial in 1970, also guarantees that spouses will share equally in community property.

water-pumping station and other facilities for the founding of Fatah.

"Sixteen years have elapsed with our people living detached from their cause, while the enemy plans an extended stay on our homeland," the communiqué said.

In the light of this distressing fact and because of the adverse effect of the lapse of time, the Assifa forces (military arm of Fatah) have been launched to reiterate that this people (of Palestine) did not die and that armed revolution is the road to victory.

But Fatah then was scarcely recognizable as Fatah now. The organization had few weapons, no public recognition and was widely suppressed or regarded with disfavor by Arab regimes.

Indeed, it was not until the battle of Karameh in March 1968, 11 months after the June war, that the guerrillas first captured the Arab imagination.

Antagonists have been at pains to stress the inflated nature of the guerrilla casualties in this battle and in the continuing claims are ludicrously disproportionate.

Fatah marked the Jan. 1, 1969 anniversary by claiming to have killed or wounded over the previous four years 3,650 Israeli soldiers and 44 officers for the loss of about 359 guerrillas. The figures claimed scores of destroyed vehicles, destroyed ammunition dumps, factories, gas stations, outposts and electric projects.

Few persons believe the figures bear much resemblance to reality. But then few guerrillas do either, though they might be reluctant to say so.

To mark the fifth year of its activities, Fatah has printed hundreds of postcards, postcards adorn the streets giving the Fatah message there are even silk college-style pennants for hanging on walls and auto back windows.

Students Solve School Thefts

Twin Falls City Police have credited three Twin Falls High School students with clearing recent thefts of money from a locker room at the high school last week.

Officers said the youths, who were not named, apprehended another high school student Wednesday and turned him into city officers. The 15-year-old has been charged with petit larceny in connection with the theft of a room at the high school.

During this week the three youths had lost a total of about $60, officers said.

FOLLOWING HIS SWEARING-IN as Mayor of New York City on Wednesday, smiling John V. Lindsay moves through the crowd, exchanging greetings with witnesses of the ceremony. In a brief speech, Mayor Lindsay pledged his efforts to bring the city's diverse communities together. He faces a major transit strike as a test of office today. (UPI telephoto)

Term Divorce To Be Changed In State Of California To Marriage Dissolution

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—(UPI)—With the start of the new year, the word "divorce" will be dropped from California's legal terminology to be replaced by a "dissolution of marriage."

The change in terms is part of a broad revision of California's divorce laws under which a judge can end a marriage if he is satisfied the couple has "irreconcilable differences."

Proponents claim the law will put men on equal footing with women and guarantee a "step forward" towards property such as stocks, bonds and bank accounts.

But critics argue the new law passed by the 1969 legislature is a rehash of the old and offers little to eliminate the agonies of divorce.

Spry 'Mom' Turns 100 On Holiday

By CLYDE JABIN
 STEVENSON, Wash. (UPI)—Mrs. Sarah Moore Smith, a spry lady who always wears high heels to do her chores, will kick in the 107th and a new century with the help of her family.

Mrs. Smith will be 100 years old today.

Her son, Earl, 80, doesn't worry about his mother's ability to take care of herself and another son, Bill, 75, except for one thing.

"I wish Mom would wear sensible shoes," Earl said.

Mrs. Smith lives with her oldest son on the rim of Wind River Canyon in a home built in 1931 by her second husband, Orson Smith, who died in 1965.

Mrs. Smith was born in Smartsville, Calif., on Jan. 1, 1870 and is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon). She does her own housework and cooks on a wood stove.

She has always abstained from alcohol and tobacco. Her diet consists mostly of toast and fruit.

"I haven't cared for meat ever since I ate it when I was a small child," she explained. However, this doesn't stop her from cooking meat for Bill or for visitors. Earl, who lives nearby, sometimes provides her with game, including venison from a deer he recently killed with a bow and arrow.

Mrs. Smith has a living sister and brother, but they probably won't be on hand for the celebration. The sister, Mrs. Louise Jennings, 83, lives in Long Beach, Wash., and a brother, Clayton Moore, 81, resides in California. But, she does have four grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

In 1885, Mrs. Smith's family moved by covered wagon from California to Long Beach, Pennsylvania in Washington State. She married William J. Seaman in Astoria, Ore., in 1894 and they had sons, Bill and Earl. She married Smith in 1927 and they moved to the Stevenson area in 1929.

PLACING THE FIRST MARCH OF Dimes envelopes into a mail bag at the Twin Falls Post Office is Jana Lasure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lasure. Kimberly, she is the Twin Falls County poster child. At left is Rev. Delbert Romaley, chairman of the drive, and at right is Mrs. Barbara Crawford, chairman of the mailing. Mrs. Crawford was assisted by the Twin Falls Jay-Cettes, the women's Bible study group of the Twin Falls First Christian Church, and the women's interest group of the Kimberly United Methodist Church. She received special assistance from Mrs. Vera Woolley and Mrs. Evann Taylor, both Twin Falls.

Twin Falls March Of Dimes For 1970 Is Launched With Appeal For Contributions

The busiest young lady in Twin Falls County from now until Jan. 31, will be Jana Lasure, local March of Dimes poster child. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lasure, Kimberly.

Miss Lasure began her duties officially Tuesday when she placed the first of some 15,000 letters in the Twin Falls Post Office. The letters are the annual mail appeal to the residents of Twin Falls County for funds to carry on the fight against birth defects.

Jana's selection was announced recently by Rev. Delbert P. Romaley, Kimberly, Twin Falls County March of Dimes chairman.

"Jana will represent more than 900 babies born in Idaho every year who need the help of the March of Dimes," Rev. Romaley said. "For the past five years Jana, who was born with spina bifida (open spine), has been receiving treatment at the Primary Children's Hospital in Salt Lake City. This year she was able to begin kindergarten.

Her mother is also involved in the March of Dimes as a volunteer worker.

The March of Dimes is pledged to the prevention and treatment of birth defects. Since 1958 it has established more than 100 birth-defect centers such as the one at Primary Children's Hospital. The centers are scattered throughout the United States. The March of Dimes supports research into the nature and cause of birth defects, patient care, community services, as well as professional and public health education programs.

BERLIN (UPI)—All East Germans will be given numbers to simplify personnel administration and allow greater use of computers. The East German press office announced Tuesday. The numbers will be introduced slowly beginning Jan. 1 and will be entered in the identity cards of all persons' are required to carry, the announcement said.

School Chief Praises Youth

BOISE (UPI) — D.F. Engeling said Tuesday students are showing an increasing awareness of the necessity of at least high school education to meet the demands of today's complex society.

Engeling, state superintendent of public instruction, said statistics showed an increasing number of students enrolled in the ninth grade—increasing in school through graduation.

Economic Indicators Prove Unreliable; Scribe Advocates Unique Prognosticators

By DICK WEST
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — It has become increasingly clear in recent months that this country badly needs a new set of economic indicators. The traditional ones, which have been fairly reliable in the past, obviously are no longer capable of pointing the direction in which the economy is moving.

Some signal an upturn; others portend a downturn while others show a lateral, or sideways, movement. Even ladies' hemlines, regarded by most economists as infallible indicators of boom or bust trends, now present a murky, confusing, contradictory picture.

In the classic pattern prosperity follows rising hemlines; lengthening skirts are recessionary. Recently, however, we have witnessed interest rates and maximized stock prices coexisting simultaneously. And nobody can be certain what it means.

Apparently, the national economy has become so complex that the old indicators no longer refer to reality.

In other words, the consumer price index may be influenced by economic factors that cause living costs to rise while the work force is being influenced by entirely different factors that cause a drop in employment.

What is needed are more sophisticated indicators that can detect all of the conflicting currents and arrive at a consensus.

After examining the problem closely, I have concluded that the economists might do well to latch onto some of the signs that used to serve as weather omens before meteorology became the exacting science it is today.

The ground for Indiana could easily be converted into an economic indicator.

If he sees his shadow on Groundhog's Day, it means the country will have six more months of inflation.

Matching his predictions against the economic divinations of the Federal Reserve Board and I'll put my money on a soundhog every time.

In the fall, we could turn to the woolly beg enterprise of economic prognosticators. If the caterpillar's coat has only one ring, that is the sign of a mild recession. But if it has two or more rings, brace yourself: We'll be having a depression that will curl your hair.

Finally, as a year-round economic indicator, you could rely on your Uncle Ole's corn. Any time his corns start hurting, prosperity is just around the corner.

Prison Aide Arrested In Drug Probe

BOISE (UPI) — Leonard E. Wood, 40, Boise, a steward employed in the food services section at the Idaho State Prison, has been arrested and charged with the illegal possession of drugs.

The Ada County prosecutor's office announced the arrest.

Wood was arrested, law enforcement officers said, after he was seen with a recent arrest and a quantity of drugs, including marijuana and barbiturates, were seized.

The Boise man was arraigned before Justice of the Peace J. R. Cromwell and bond was set at $1,000.

The arrest followed an investigation of about two months in which prison officials cooperated with the state's investigation service, Canyon County Sheriff Dale Halle, Boise city police and other law enforcement agencies.

Director of correction Raymond May said the investigation is continuing and that Wood has been suspended from his job at the prison until further notice.

Highway Income Shows Increase

BOISE (UPI) — The state's highway user revenues for the 1968-71 biennium may be from $2 million to $1 million over original estimates.

State Highway Engineer Ellis Mathes said the additional revenue could occur if the revenue tax increase instead of a 1-per-cent increase as projected. When the estimates were prepared late in 1968, he said if the trend continues the revenue from the gasoline tax could be about $1.75 million above the estimates for the biennium ending June 30, 1971.

Area Students Included In Cast Of ISU Production, "The Short Life Of A Laugh"

POCATELLO (ISU) — The production will be given Jan. 7-10 beginning at 8:15 p.m. in the Frazier Hall Flexible State University Theatre, The Theatre.

FOUR OF THE cast members for the next Idaho State University Theatre production are shown in rehearsal for the Readers' Theatre presentation, "The Short Life of a Laugh." From the top down are Allen Gruner, Pocatello; Katherine Kuzoff, American Falls; and Judith McFarland and Robert Thomas, both Ketchum.

Paul LaPrise, Ketchum, is compiling and editing the script with the advice of Donald Aboe, assistant professor of speech and drama, who is the director. Mr. LaPrise said the production will feature humor of various types, including farce, irony, sarcasm, satire and burlesque.

"It is very definitely not an imitation of 'Laugh-In' on television or anything similar to it," Aboe said.

Other Magic Valley students involved in the production are Judith McFarland and Robert Thomas, both Ketchum, and Sherril D. Jones, Jerome.

Tickets go on sale Jan. 3 in the "Frazier Hall" box office which will be open from 2 to 5 p.m. daily.

T.F. Drivers Have Mishaps In Blaine

HAILEY — Two minor accidents involving Twin Falls drivers, were investigated Tuesday by the Blaine county sheriff's office.

Mike Harper, 17, Twin Falls, was cited for failure to yield the right of way after the 1969 Rambler he was driving collided with a 1961 Oldsmobile operated by Stephen Tallfort, 19, Boise at the intersection of the Warm Springs road and Warm Springs bridge.

Total damage to both cars was estimated at $260.

The other mishap Tuesday occurred 1.2 miles south of Ketchum on Highway 93 when Mrs. Ida Bruchhurst, Bellevue, stopped her 1967 Pontiac to pick up a passenger, and her car was struck from the rear by a 1967 Mercury operated by John Alan Carver, Twin Falls, who officers said was driving too fast for the road conditions.

Damage to both cars totaled an estimated $450, the accident report shows.

Times-News New Press Installed

In the middle of February the Times-News will move to its new location at 132 Third St. W. and convert from its "hot metal" type of composition and letter press production to the new photo-composition and off-set newspaper production.

The press for this new operation was being installed in the new building Wednesday.

To prepare for the change, 1,000 letters were sent to Times-News advertisers, informing them of the change.

According to Wiley Dodds, advertising director, "Converting to this bright new method of printing requires careful preparation for best results."

He said, advertisers should order both mats and offset printing material for the period between Feb. 1 and April 1. "After April 1, zincs and metal cuttings (zincs) can no longer be used."

He said the paper is "eagerly anticipating our conversion to this totally new photo-composition and offset printing method. We will be able to provide our readers and advertisers with the finest in newspaper reproduction available today, both in black and white and in one, two and three colors."

SPANISH CHIEF OF STATE Generalissimo Francisco Franco delivers his traditional New Year speech to the Spanish nation late Wednesday. A great deal of speculation arose from his remark that he would continue working for the nation as long "as God gives me life." It had been expected he would set a date when he would turn over authority to Prince Juan Carlos of Borbon, whom he named as his eventual successor last June. (UPI Telephoto)

Bad Luck

TACOMA, Wash. (UPI) — Three Tacoma men feel they could have done without one Christmas present they received: a rabbit and a tree, causing a short-circuit which started a fire.

The rabbit Wednesday apparently chewed through the wiring to the meter. Christmas as tree, causing a short-circuit which started a fire. It gutted the men's apartment in a two-story, wooden building. The residents of the apartment were not injured, but the rabbit did not survive to see the new year.

15 Per Cent Social Security Benefit Hike Is Automatic

Social Security beneficiaries need not apply for the 15 per cent benefit increase just signed into law by President Nixon, according to Robert M. Ball, commissioner of Social Security. "Every one of the 25 million men, women and children now on the benefit rolls will receive the increase automatically," Mr. Ball said.

Utah Woman, Tot Killed In Wreck

MURRAY (UPI) — A Kearns woman and a 10-month-old girl were killed Wednesday when they were thrown from a car after it collided with a Union Pacific freight train at a crossing here. The victims were Mrs. Linda Stock, 25, a passenger in the auto, and Jeanette Stock, 10 months, daughter of Mrs. Flora Jean Stock, driver of the car. Investigators said the child's mother also was hospitalized with head injuries, but three other children riding in the back seat escaped injury.

THIS SPECTACULAR VIEW of the earth from the moon typifies the startling accomplishments of mankind during the decade of the 1960s, in which the landing on the moon was acclaimed as the top story not only of 1969 but of the entire decade. The July flight and landing of Apollo 12 only reinforcing the feeling that man can do anything he sets his mind to do. North American newspaper editors said the moon flights ranked as the top news of the year, followed by the Vietnam War. (UPI telephoto)

U. S. Moon Landing Tapped 'Top Story' Of The Year

NEW YORK (UPI) — Military regimes, was among the top-10 listed by Latin American and American editors and it was ranked eighth. The Sino-Soviet border clashes ranked second, followed by the moon landing, which was the top story of 1969, a poll by United Press International showed.

The top-10 list followed by the alleged Song My massacre; election of Chancellor Willy Brandt in West Germany; U.S.-Soviet talks on strategic arms limitation; Middle East conflict; Sino-Soviet border clashes; resignation of the West German chancelor; U.S. troop pullout in Vietnam; and Catholic-Protestant conflict in Ulster.

Liar Lied

BURLINGTON, Wis. (UPI) — The Burlington Lions Club has outdone itself. It had about the world's champion liar.

A few days ago Otis Hackett wrote United Press International with the results of the club's 1969 competition to select the most outrageous prevaricator of the past 12 months.

He said A. Wunderwald of Ura, Switzerland, had won the contest for saying it was so cold in his home town in August that snible furs ran after the ladies.

But said Wednesday he wasn't sure just how it happened, but the real winner was Danny Tomovich, Rosemead, Calif.

His whopper was, "four town is so strict about litter laws that anyone will be fined $50 for telling a dirty joke."

State Mental Health Aide To Visit T.F.

The Twin Falls County Mental Health Association has invited a representative from the Idaho Mental Health Association to attend its next meeting on Jan. 10 at the Valley Christian Church.

The group decided during a meeting Tuesday to ask a state official to attend the session to discuss the relationship of the county chapter with the state and national mental health associations. The board of directors, officers and appointed officials will attend the meeting to discuss public relations and education programs the local chapter can initiate.

The county unit also voted to participate in providing finances for the hiring of a fulltime state executive director. This individual will be selected by the state association.

North American Newspaper Editors Pick Moon Landing As Top Story Of Decade

NEW YORK (UPI) — Man's first landing on the moon was named the best story of 1969 and of the decade in a poll of North American newspaper editors conducted by United Press International.

Second in 1969 behind the July flight and moon landing of Apollo 11 was the Vietnam War.

President Kennedy's assassination in 1963 was judged the second most important story of the decade.

Other 1969 top stories were all domestic or related to the Vietnam War. Following the moon landing and the war, in order, were: Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's auto accident at Chappaquiddick; youth unrest, including the Vietnam moratorium; the alleged Song My massacre; the U.S. economy; Justice Abe Fortas' resignation from the U.S. Supreme Court; the Senate's refusal to confirm Clement Haynsworth; Hurricane Camille and racial unrest; and Kennedy's assassination.

Following the moon landing and Kennedy's assassination, the other top stories of the decade were listed as the black revolution in the United States; the Cuban missile crisis; student unrest and activism at home and abroad; Richard M. Nixon's comeback to win the presidency; the Bay of Pigs invasion; Lyndon Johnson's decision not to run for a second term; and the Arab-Israeli conflict.

Hughes Parents Charged In LSD Case Of 2 Children

ELV, Nev. (UPI) — Billionaire Howard Hughes has added 85 unpatented mining claims to his holdings in Nevada, county records disclosed Wednesday.

Over the years, Hughes, who owns six Las Vegas casinos, has purchased some 500 mining claims in Nevada.

His recent 85 claims are in the Red Hills Eagle district about 30 miles northwest of here. James Mackney, county recorder, said the claims were filed Dec. 19.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The parents of two toddlers who accidentally ate LSD-coated candy with possession of dangerous drugs and endangering the health of minors.

Police should a complaint against John B. Wilson, 37, and his wife Christine, 45, who lured their youngsters, a one-year-old boy and two-year-old girl to a hospital Monday.

Extradition Of 'Panther' Is Signed

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan Wednesday approved the extradition of Black Panther leader Bobby Seale to Connecticut to face murder charges in the torture slaying of a fellow panther.

The California governor, vacationing during the holidays in Southern California, announced his action in a New Year's Eve statement distributed by his press office in the state capitol.

Reagan's brief statement said all the legal points raised, there was no basis on which to decline the extradition request.

Attorney Charles Garty, who represented Seale, said extradition hearing conducted Dec. 26 by Reagan's legal affairs secretary, Herbert Ellingwood, has vowed to file a suit in San Francisco Municipal Court to block extradition. He said he also insisted the suit be filed by a Black Panther to receive a fair trial anywhere in the United States.

Seale, 33-year-old party chairman, is sought by Connecticut on charges of murder, kidnapping and conspiracy in the May 21 slaying of Alex Rackley, 24, a New York panther believed to be a police informant.

Extradition Of 'Panther' Is Signed

Garry said the refusal by Reagan's office to allow Seale to attend the hearing denied the Panther leader a "basic right." He also insisted it be "possible" for a Black Panther to receive a fair trial anywhere in the United States.

Seale, 33-year-old party chairman, is sought by Connecticut on charges of murder, kidnapping and conspiracy in the May 21 slaying of Alex Rackley, 24, a New York panther believed to be a police informant.

Executioners In Utah Might Be Needed Feb. 5

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — The warden of Utah State Prison said Wednesday the state may have to advertise for a hangman and a five-man firing squad if two executions scheduled Feb. 5 are not stayed by the courts.

Warden John W. Turner said he wasn't sure where he would obtain executioners for convicted murderers Walter B. Kelbach and Myron D. Lance, both 31.

As provided by Utah law, the men were given the choice of dying by hanging or firing squad. Kelbach selected hanging and Lance chose shooting. The last execution in Utah was in 1860.

Turner said the county shortly previously obtained the services of executioners for this year the state may have to advertise.

Youth Program Set In Salt Lake City

The Department of Labor has approved a Neighborhood Youth Club work experience program for 100 youths in southern Utah. Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, announced Wednesday.

U.S. Voices Regret On War Losses

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department Wednesday "expressed regret" to the Cambodian government over casualties caused by American forces during battle in a Cambodia-South Vietnam border area.

The Cambodians claimed 23 Cambodian military personnel were killed, eight wounded and 150 missing during the Nov. 16-17 fighting.

Department spokesman Carl Burtch said the United States is still investigating the incident and has come to no final conclusions. In the meantime, however, the U.S. envoy in Phnom Penh has expressed regret at the Cambodian deaths.

SDS Faction Talks Of Killing Police, Establishing 'Free Love' During 1970s

FLINT, Mich. (UPI) — The young revolutionaries try to decide on the best mental attitude to adopt as they move toward physical violence. Earlier the same day, Genesee County sheriff's deputies arrested three Weathermen and charged them with possession of marijuana. Police said the three students were stopped in a car for allegedly having a defective tail light and officers found 14 ounces of weed in the glove compartment.

Lee Winfrey passed himself off as an SDS member to attend the Friday "war council" which had been barred to the press. He reported that the discussion revolved largely around training at the Longfellow school in Richfield.

Tough Japanese University Controls Are Credited With Averting A Potentially Disastrous Rebellion

By LEON DANIEL
TOKYO (UPI) — A Japanese university control law is credited with putting down a nationwide campus rebellion.

Last spring at the height of the unrest about one-third of the nation's 227 institutions of higher learning were widely or partially tied up by student strikes.

The education ministry reports that only 20 schools are now troubled by student disputes.

The law that brought this relative stability to the campuses empowers the government to close schools that fail to quell campus disputes. When it was tampered through the Diet in August, critics branded it as a classic case of legislative overkill.

The immediate effect of the law was to add fuel to the campus rebellion, but student power in Japan is very much on the decline.

The law was rammed to passage by the ruling and conservative Liberal Democratic party (LDP) amid shouts of outrage by leftist lawmakers. The opponents said the law was an encroachment on academic freedom and university autonomy.

Prime Minister Eisaku Sato and other LDP leaders stuck to their guns, insisting the law was necessary to control the rampaging student. They anticipated opposition to the measure but rightly believed the public temper was high enough for its acceptance, particularly after the rigging at Tokyo University last January.

Basically, the law forces universities to settle disputes on their own campuses. If the government can step in to close the universities temporarily or permanently.

The government has not used the law to close a school. But its provisions have forced the administrations of struck campuses to get the schools back into operation—often with the help of riot police. In the past, university presidents had been ordered to ask for police help because they feared to do so would damage university autonomy.

The education ministry reports that many of the most militant students are now buckling down to their studies and trying to make up for the time they lost demonstrating.

At the Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, 300 students are packing a lecture room for three extra hours of study each day. Some schools have shortened holiday periods to make up for lost time.

Some teachers report that the radical students are losing the support of the other students, and the real militants are becoming isolated.

Yamamura, one of Japan's future newswriters, commented that the public power and combat strength of the radical student groups quickly vanished after riot police took over the campuses from them.

Police Arrest T.F. Man-On Forgery Charge

Charles H. Givens, 48, Twin Falls, has been arrested and charged with forging police records showed Wednesday.

He is accused of forging a check at a Twin Falls market. He was arraigned in Police Court and bond was set at $1,000. Mr. Givens is being held in lieu of posting that amount.

NIXON OMITTED
VIENNA (UPI) — Romanian newspapers carried articles Friday recalling the 1954 points of 1959. Romania's 22nd year as a communist nation. But there was no mention of one major event of the year—President Nixon's one-day visit in August.

Controversial Catholic Calendar Goes Into Effect

By BARRY JAMES
VATICAN CITY (UPI)—The controversial new Roman Catholic universal calendar goes into effect New Year's Day minus such popular saints as Christopher, Nicholas, Valentine, George and Barbara.

The Vatican announced last May it would remove them and other saints from the calendar, meaning that they need no longer be mentioned in special prayers on their feast days.

However, they remain in the Roman martyrology—the official roll of saints—and they may be venerated by particular churches, religious communities, individuals or nations.

Many Catholics resented the downgrading of their favorite saints.

Pope Paul VI explained at the time that his intention was to strip the calendar of anything that might be considered a "Christian tenet of the Resurrection of Christ and redemption of mankind."

"In the course of time, the multiplication of (saints) has often driven the faithful to particular devotions, in such a way that their minds have been somewhat diverted from the fundamental mysteries of our redemption," he said.

The reform swept out much qualified, doubtful saints whose origin was doubted or whose deeds probably were mythical. Few, if any, theologians believed the story of St. Christopher, carrying Christ across a river, for example.

Under the new calendar, Roman Catholics everywhere are obliged to make 60 pilgrimages during the year, including those to Mary, St. Joseph, the angels, and the Apostles—instead of more than 100 under the old calendar.

In addition, 95 saints are listed for veneration by Catholics in their home cities or nations.

Outside of these lists, veneration is entirely optional.

Glenns Ferry Chamber Eyes Road Plans

GLENN'S FERRY—The Glenns Ferry Chamber of Commerce is working to obtain improvements in road conditions between the Bell Rapids agricultural project and town.

Chamber members have told that both the project and town share an equal need for a road directly to the 25,000-acre development. Estimated cost is approximately $5 million.

According to Val Tolson, chairman of the project, the initial stage of the development, developers expect that between $3 million and $4 million will be realized from the first potato crop there in 1970.

There were 51 desert entries filed to found an irrigation corporation to initiate the Bell Rapids project. The present 5,000-acre inclusion land—16 of these persons and 15 about three-quarters completed. Next year another 5,000 is expected to be brought into production and will involve between 15 and 20 more entries. The project is expected to take five years for completion.

Plantings will be planted entirely the first year since this is the only crop which will do well the first year on desert land. Rotation of crops will begin in 1971, Mr. Tolson said. Water for this first stage will be pumped into a one-mile and one-half mile long canal for sump pumps to push the water into irrigation structures.

The completed Bell Rapids project will extend within three and one-half miles of the present Bell Rapids project, and its western edge will be within 10 or 12 miles from Glenns Ferry.

Civil War In Nigeria Tops Africa News

By United Press International Events in West Africa in 1969 were overshadowed by the continuing civil war in Nigeria.

No efforts from within or by individuals, agencies or nations without have managed to halt the slaughter, starvation and general disintegration.

Mediation efforts thus far have floundered because both sides refuse to meet rationally.

Federal Nigeria insists that peace talks take place only within the framework of an acknowledged, undivided Nigerian government.

At year's end the brightest mediation hope was the efforts of Nnamdi Azikiwe, former president of federal Nigeria and a one-time prime minister of the secessionist eastern region.

After working for Biafran leader Gen. Odumegwu Ojukwu for two years, Azikiwe recently changed sides in the belief the only future for Nigeria was a Biafra firmly integrated in the Nigerian nation.

1970 May Be Renaissance For Movies

By VERNON SCOTT HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The new year should signal a renaissance of motion pictures.

Producers and directors will crack the whip on difficult performers and catch up with audience mentality.

If television is guided by producing shows for the 12-year-old mind, then films are aiming for more and more mature minds.

Among the pictures to be released in 1970: "Catch 22," "The Great Escape," "Myra Breckinridge," "Airport," "Tchotchky," and "The Andromeda Strain."

More movies will be made in the coming 12 months because the overburdened studios have finally recognized that the day of the super budgeted film is over.

Just as "Easy Rider" and "John and Mary" came out of nowhere to delight audiences, so should the new year surprise audiences with significant "little" pictures.

The "road" shows move — that strange, which requires patrons to buy tickets in advance at inflated prices — will become more and more rare.

Young people, who comprise the majority of moviegoers, can't afford to pay $5 for a movie today which they can see four months hence for $2.

1970 should be the peak year for the "road" picture.

Thereafter, according to many producers, moviegoers' curiosity will be satisfied. But not until after the sex act has been fully exploited.

The star system, which has been proclaimed dead for the past decade, will remain very much alive.

The emergence of Robert Redford, Mia Farrow, Dustin Hoffman, John Voight, Rachel Welch, Clint Eastwood and a dozen others will cause movie buffs to run to the box office.

Nor have such oddities as Steve McQueen and Newman, Joanne Woodward, John Wayne, Warren Beatty, Burt Lancaster, Elizabeth Taylor, Julie Andrews lost their luster.

Last year picture makers discovered that they must do more than overwhelm the customer with their airtight combat television.

Instead, producers found adult themes, mature comedy, sophistication and superlative acting provide entertainment absent Americans with an alternative to television.

Movies in 1970 should forecast a booming decade for films and their makers.

New Movie To Tell Story Of Swedish Immigrants

By LOTTE SEIDLER MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI) — The story of the Swedish immigrants who settled in the Midwest more than a century ago is coming to life again in a five-hour motion picture.

Except that much of it is not being filmed in Sweden. Instead, the Swedes have come back to Minnesota and North Wisconsin to do the job.

At a time when Hollywood producers, mindful of costs, are turning their eyes to the Swedish movies. His younger brother, Rober, is Eddie Axberg, at 27, quite the young in Sweden.

The group in the United States consisted of just 40 persons, including 14 actors.

The director, Jan Troell, did his own camera work — not for economic reasons but because that's the way he works best. Until five years ago he was a school teacher, shooting documentaries in his spare time.

Whenever the Swedes went, the local people were pleased both to meet them and to hear about the movie.

A few of the younger set got a chance to work as extras.

ASYLUM REQUESTED BERN, Switzerland (UPI) — A request for political asylum by the charge d'affaires of the Czechoslovak embassy was under consideration by Switzerland.

The government announced Tuesday the diplomat, Dr. Radko Fajfr, 39, acted as chief of the embassy in the absence of Ambassador Pavel Winkler from October to late December.

No reasons were given for the request.

His wife, Kristina, is played by Liv Ullmann, a Norwegian actress frequently seen in

Strong Gains 184 Yards As Houston Rips Auburn In Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl

HOUSTON (UPI)—Halfback Jim Strong raced for 164 yards and two touchdowns to lead the University of Houston to a 30-7 victory over Auburn in the 11th annual Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl Wednesday night.

Strong, 6-1, 200-pounder who was the nation's No. 4 rusher last year, scored on runs of 12 and one yards. Quarterback Gary Matlock added 101 yards and a touchdown. Auburn's defense held Houston to a one-yard sneak at fullback Ted Heiskell, wearing a shoulder harness, scored on a one-yard plunge.

Rusty Clark, a reserve quarterback, passed 20 yards to Jimmy Mackey for Houston's other touchdown with 36 seconds to go in the game. Carlos Lopez kicked a 27-yard field goal and two extra points. Auburn's only touchdown was on a 36-yard halfback pass from Mackey to Tommie Frederick in the second quarter.

Conference Races Begin This Weekend; Minico And Filer Face Major Tests

The middle phase of the basketball season—the conference races—got underway in earnest this weekend with 15 games scheduled and all but two of them counting in standings somewhere.

Minico, rated one of the teams to watch in the Southern Idaho Conference, will play host to defending champion Highland Saturday night in a top attraction while Filer opens with a Big Six Conference game against Wood River and Glenns Ferry on Sunday.

Namath Edges Lamonia For AFL Player Of Year

OAKLAND (UPI)—Joe Namath thoroughly upset at himself for not leading the New York Jets to another title game, can take solace today in the fact the American Football League coaches think he is the circuit's Player of the Year for 1969.

Joe won the award in close tussle with Daryle Lamonia, Oakland Raiders quarterback, whom Namath can watch on television this Sunday in the AFL title game.

Celts Rally To Overhaul Detroit

BOSTON (UPI)—The Boston Celtics, overcoming second half deficits of up to 10 points, came from behind on John Havlicek's clutch shooting Wednesday night to defeat Detroit Pistons, 121-112.

Havlicek, who finished with 30 points, and Don Nelson combined for eight of Boston's last 10 points. Havlicek tallied five of his last six shots before 6:50 in the afternoon game at Boston Garden.

K. Whitworth, Nicklaus Are Golf's Best

NORWALK, Conn. (UPI)—On the basis of consistent high performances, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player were named top professional golfers of 1969 in a poll magazine said Wednesday.

The awards, made annually by Golf Digest magazine since 1954, were the fourth for Nicklaus and the third for Miss Whitworth.

Atlanta Claims Third Straight

ATLANTA (UPI)—Joe Caldwell scored 13 points in the final period, lighting an Atlanta rally and leading the Hawks to their third consecutive win and fifth in their last six games, 122-111 over Baltimore Wednesday night.

The Hawks led just 87-84 after three periods of what had been a tight game. Then Caldwell, who had only three points for the first three quarters, went to work in the fourth, scoring nine points within two minutes at the start of the last period to get Atlanta up 100-90.

Worsley Retires

MONTREAL (UPI)—Lorne "Gump" Worsley, veteran goal tender of Montreal Canadiens, told the club Wednesday that he plans to retire from the National Hockey League.

The announcement, made by the Canadiens, came after consultations between Worsley, team general manager Sam Pollock, and Canadiens' vice-president Hector "Toe" Blake.

76ers Pin Fifth Loss On Chicago

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Archie Clark and Hal Greer provided the spark Wednesday as the Philadelphia 76ers used a big third quarter to defeat the Chicago Bulls, 129-109 in a National Basketball Association game.

The 76ers outscored the Bulls 34-21 in the third quarter to take a comfortable 86-81 advantage into the final 12 minutes. The winners built up a 40-point lead at 107-67 at the start of the last quarter and had little difficulty the rest of the way.

Boston's Garrett Is AFL Rookie Of Year

OAKLAND (UPI)—Carl Garrett, the Boston Patriots gully running back, Wednesday was named the 1969 American Football League Rookie of the Year, edging the more plannorous Greg Cook of Cincinnati.

Garrett, who gained 691 yards and scored five touchdowns for a team going nowhere, was named first by five of the 10 league coaches who voted for rookie honoree. With 33 first-place votes and had 10 points from first through third.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR honors in the American Football League were given to Carl Garrett of the Boston Patriots. In voting by the 10 head coaches in the league, the Patriots halfback gathered almost twice as many votes as Greg Cook of the Cincinnati Bengals, his nearest rival. (UPI Telephoto)

JANE DRAGO

Jane Drago, Reagan Reveal

Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Drago, Payette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to Kenneth L. Reagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reagan, Twin Falls.

Miss Drago is a graduate of Payette High School and is employed at LaNik Beauty Salon, Boise.

Mr. Reagan is a 1968 graduate of the University of Idaho and is affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta. He is employed as a tax accountant by Boise Cascade Corp.

A Jan. 21 wedding is planned.

of it again. I am reminded of a widow I knew years ago. After her husband's death the widow was left with $1,000 and four grown children. The children got together and decided to make mama an offer. If she would give them each $1,000, she could come to live with each one for three months every year. She said, "No, I ain't a pin to do it. Why—because a widow woman with $1,000 is always more welcome anywhere than a widow woman who ain't got nothin'."

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Scrap Basket Material Used

GLENNIS PERRY—Squares from your scrap-basket materials can be made into mini-scarves for leads, fun handkerchiefs, luncheon napkins, and small toss pillows. Make pillows for farm tables with a pattern on one side and a solid on the other. Use a zipper closure for easy removal of cover for laundering.

Kitchen charms that appeal to women and use very little fabric include small-appliance covers, egg warmers, tea cozies and hot holders. Or purchase a small basket and line it with washable material for a bun and

Events

FILER—The Mary T. Imler Club will not meet Jan. 6 as previously announced. The date has been postponed to Jan. 20 at the home of Mrs. Lud Bierkes.

breast warmer, advises Marilyn Jordan, Elmore County extension home economics agent.

CAROLING PARTY HELD

HABERMAN—Members of the Haberman Chapter of Future Homemakers of America held a caroling party and gift exchange recently. After the evening of caroling, members reassembled at the school's home economics room for refreshments and gift exchange. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Glenn Patterson, chapter mother, and Mrs. Alfred Sandy. Transportation for the caroling was furnished by Peggy Hendrickson.

Temple. There will be joint installation of officers and all persons attending are asked to bring either sandwiches or coffee for refreshments after the meeting.

Magic Valley Favorites

MRS. BERT WALKER
Route 2, Twin Falls

Orange Kiss Mac Cake
Grind one cup raisins and one large orange and rind. Save small amount of this to add to frosting.
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, added one at a time.
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
1 cup milk
1 cup flour
Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and mix. Then add rind and orange mixture.

Use low speed. Bake 25 minutes or until done at 350 degrees. The Times-News will pay $5 each week for the best recipe submitted for Magic Valley Favorites. If you have a favorite recipe, just mail it to the Recipe Department, Women's Page Editor. The recipe becomes the property of the Times-News and cannot be returned.

HOLIDAY PARTY HELD
FILER—The North Street Club members and husbands held a Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schenkel.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a problem that is positively driving me up a wall. Jim and I have been happily married for 27 years and have 3 children. Recently, a good-looking 21-year-old girl came to work as a secretary in the same firm where my husband works. Jim said that this "brunet girl" let him know very soon that she was "fond of him," and asked if he could get her transferred to his department. He told her no, he couldn't.

I guess this idea didn't appeal to him because I never heard another word about it. That was a long time ago. My carpet colored curls have turned to gray, and next year we will celebrate our golden wedding anniversary. We are happily married, and he still calls me "Darling."

EVE IN CLEFTON, N.J.

DEAR EVE: Congratulations. I think it's going to last.

DEAR ABBY: A mother wrote to say that when somebody asked her where her son was, she wished to God that she could say he's living in a hippie colony in San Francisco, because then at least there would be some hope that he might straighten himself out and come home, but instead he lies dead—killed in Vietnam.

Please tell her for me that she is better off than I am—I would be proud to say that my son gave his life fighting for his country in Vietnam. Instead he threw it away.

He was expelled from high school two weeks before graduation. He came home a few months ago looking so sick and dirty. He's only 19 and living with his mother. He said he'd tried all the drugs but he didn't think he was "hooked," yet then he disappeared again not even knowing where he was going. And he tells us not to worry.

We don't sleep nights, expecting to hear any minute that he'd be home. He's been murdered, or committed suicide. We hold little hope that he will come home safe and sane. In the meantime, when someone asks us where our son is, what do we say?

A MOTHER, TOO (I.A., CAL.)

DEAR ABBY: Apropos your recent letter from "FOOLISH IN COLUMBUS," the widow who "loaned" her money to her children and never saw a dime other side. All right?

DEAR WIFE: You ARE "in." Your husband has seen to that. You are being "driven up the wall" by Jim's daily reports on the "progress" it seems to me that a grown man could find some way of discouraging a 17-year-old girl from pursuing him so hotly. (Could it be that Jim is enjoying it?)

Tell your aging Lechwinor to tell the little olive flirt to get lost. And tell him, too, to please discontinue the "progress reports."

When I was a bride, I, too, faced that problem, and I said, "Fine, you have your night out with the boys. Enjoy yourself, but be fair, and give me equal time for a night out with the girls, and no questions asked on either side. All right?"

DEAR ABBY: I was particularly amused in your answer to the newlywed who said that her husband wanted a night out with the boys, and wondered if that could be dangerous. Your reply, "It's not dangerous, as long as the boys are boys."

ALYSMA JONES

Alysma Jones, Quinton Plan

January Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, Buhl, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Alysma, to William E. Quinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Quinton, Buhl.

A Jan. 10 wedding is planned at Buhl LDS Church.

Miss Jones was graduated from Buhl High School in 1968 and from Northwestern College of Business, Portland, 1969. She is presently employed as assistant buyer for the Paris Co. in Salt Lake City.

Mr. Quinton is a 1966 graduate of Buhl High School and from the College of Southern Idaho in 1967. He served in the Navy, recently returning from Vietnam.

Party Held

FILER—The annual American Legion-Auxiliary Christmas party was attended by 50 members and their families at the American Legion Hall. A potluck dinner was served with Mr. and Mrs. William Rude and Mr. and Mrs. William Yoder in charge of serving.

The group sang Christmas carols and a children's program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Charles Shepherd, with Janice Shepherd and Barbara Schaefer assisting. Highlight of the evening was a visit from Santa Claus who distributed gifts and treats.

Winners In

Area Contest

Are Announced

GLENN PERRY, Mrs. Barbara Crane, in charge of the Christmas decorating and lighting project for the Exemplar Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Spiritally, announced the contest winners Tuesday.

The John Shrum residence and that of John Inenhardt took the judges' eye for two firsts in the outdoor decorating and scenery category.

In outdoor lighting, first went to Glenn Sellers and second to the Dick Kings. Jim Williams won first in the window decorations, and Glenn Hill, second. C. W. Pierson won the special award. Identity of the judges was not revealed.

Semifinalist in the competition included the homes of Brent Taylor, Ed Bostic, Leo Tripple,

THE YEAR OF THE UNDERDOG

JOE NAMATH and his New York Jets were the first big story of 1969. They beat the Baltimore Colts in the Super Bowl, becoming the first AFL team to win a world championship in one of football's greatest upsets. Namath, who engineered the victory, later retired after dispute with Commissioner Pete Rozelle over his New York bar. Namath finally sold his interest and announced his return (below).

JOE FRAZIER defended his share of the heavy weight title by defeating Jerry Quarry (above), Jimmy Ellis, the World Boxing Association champion, who led the entire year.

BILL RUSSELL, above, led Boston Celtics to their 13th NBA championship in 13 years, beating Los Angeles Lakers in dramatic seven-game playoff. Russell then retired as player-coach to become director.

OHIO STATE, led by fullback Jim Ols, above, finished No. 1 in the country after beating Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl. Buckeyes stayed on top until upset by Michigan in last game of 1969 season.

UCLA completed the greatest era in college basketball history by winning third straight NCAA title in Louisville, Ky. Law Alcindore left, was again Player of Year and Coach John Wooden, right, won his fifth national championship.

LONG the quiet man on the pro golf tour, Frank Beard emerged as the leading money-winner in 1969.

THE SOARING SIXTIES

MAN ON THE MOON has to be the outstanding achievement of the decade. The space age, launched in 1957 with the Russian Sputnik, came to a thrilling climax in 1969 when the United States landed Apollo astronauts on the lunar surface. In this photo, astronaut Ed Aldrin stands beside the deployed U.S. flag during the Apollo 11 mission. His footprints are clearly visible.

DALLAS DAY OF TRAGEDY came on Nov. 22, 1963, when a sniper's bullets mortally wounded President Kennedy during a motorcade. Photo at left shows the President slumping into the arms of his wife moments after the fatal shooting. Arrested and charged with the murder was Lee Harvey Oswald. While being moved from one Dallas jail to another, Oswald was slain by Jack Ruby, a nightclub owner. Photo at right was made at instant of shooting.

THE VIETNAM WAR saw increased American involvement in 1963. The Gulf of Tonkin Resolution in 1964 led to U.S. bombing of North Vietnam and the sending of thousands of combat troops to the Asian abyss. At the end of the decade, the Communists seemed determined to accept nothing short of surrender by the U.S. and Saigon governments.

PLACED ON THE MOON were names of 1967 space program casualties: from the top, Roger Chaffee, Edward White, Virgil Grissom and Vladimir Komarov.

THE REINS OF GOVERNMENT were held by these men in the '60s. John F. Kennedy ushered in the decade in a spirit of hope and vitality. His assassination in 1963 brought Lyndon B. Johnson to the White House. Beset by opposition to his Vietnam war policies, LBJ declined to seek reelection in 1968, a year of destiny for Richard M. Nixon.

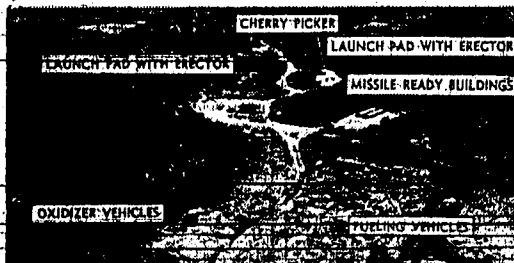

THE BEATLES, with their "shocking" long hair and "outrageous" dress, looked like this in the early '60s when they made the music scene and set the pace for a new sound and look in pop culture.

HUMILIATING DEFEAT was the Arabs' lot when they engaged in a six-day war with Israel in 1967. In this prize-winning photo, Egyptian prisoners are seen being transported by truck and passing an advancing Israeli armored column in the Sinai Desert near El Arish.

RIOT AND PROTEST marked the '60s. Racism raised its ugly head in 1968 as destructive riots broke out in major cities across the nation. More followed in 1967, when this picture was made in Newark, N.J. Student protests swept campuses here and abroad in 1968 and '69 culminating in the war moratorium demonstrations involving hundreds of thousands.

CUBA CRISIS brought the United States and Russia to the brink of war in 1962 when a Soviet offensive build-up on the island was revealed by President Kennedy, who ordered a naval and air quarantine. The Soviet missile bases subsequently were dismantled.

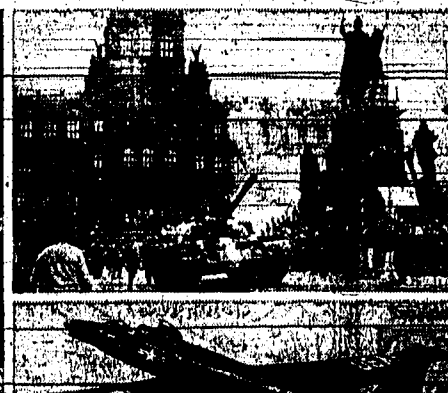

ASSASSIN'S BULLETS cut down Martin Luther King in April, 1968, and Robert F. Kennedy two months later. James Earl Ray confessed to King's murder and Sirhan Sirhan was convicted of the Kennedy killing.

AFTER A DECADE of dominance in France and Europe, Charles de Gaulle walked out in 1969 when his programs were repudiated.

HUMAN HEART TRANSPLANTS came in rapid succession after the dramatic success in 1968 of Dr. Philip Barab's surgery by Dr. Christian Barnard. While the operations were performed throughout the world, the largest number was reported in Houston, Tex., by Dr. Denton A. Cooley of Baylor University.

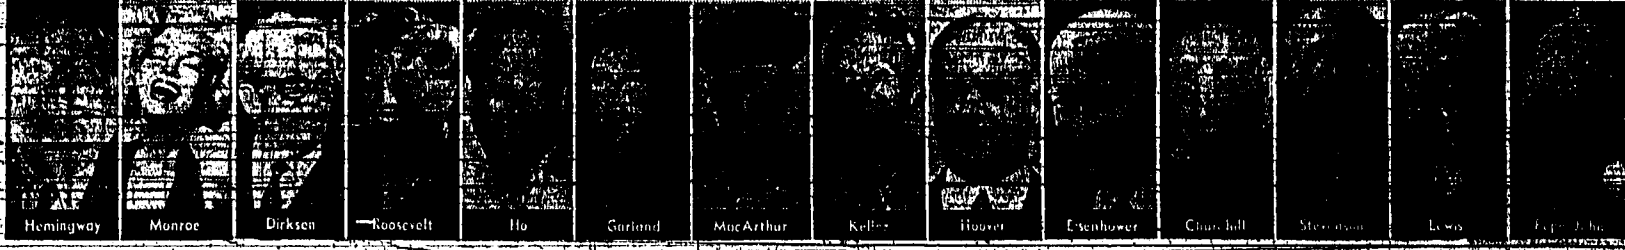

U.S.-SOVIET relations were strained by the U-2 spy-plane incident in 1960, the construction of the Berlin wall in 1961 and the Russian-led invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968.
