Israeli Pilots Down Three Foes In Air Battles

V.P. Says U.S. Will Back Asia

By United Press International
Israeli jets shot down three Syrian MIGs in a series of dogfights over Syria today, a Tel Aviv military spokesman announced. Other Israeli planes carried out two strikes against Egyptian and bombed guerrilla bases inside Lebanon for two and a half hours.

The strike against Lebanon was the second this week. It came as Lebanon underwent a new political crisis in which the government, led by Gen. Emile Bustani, 60, the chief of staff, and replaced him with Maj. Gen. Jean Nijem, 54.

Miners Flock To Pay Last Respects

CLARKSVILLE, Pa. (UPI)—The miners came, many dressed in unaccustomed white shirts and neck ties. They ignored temperatures hovering below zero, the dirty smog in the narrow crevices, the snarl on the long, low lunge of the funeral home.

Miss Rodeo Will Attend Denver Meet

Carolyn Harvey, Miss Rodeo Idaho, will be a personal guest of the new Miss Rodeo America, Chris Vincent, California, during the Western Miss Rodeo Christmas through Tuesday.

Malaysia is faced with a withdrawal of British troops, its traditional defenders, by late next year. And Communist terrorists are stepping up activities in the Malay eight months ago.

Agnew assured Rahman the United States "is not engaged in any precipitous withdrawal from Vietnam," he also said.

The vice president mentioned the fact we are a Pacific power, propose to remain in the Pacific and remain true to our commitments.

Agnew boarded a U.S. Marine helicopter for a 15-minute ride to Malaysia's Rubber Research Institute, an experimental farm where he tried his hand at tapping a rubber tree.

En route to a nearby factory to see latex turned into rubber blocks, the vice president ordered his motorcade to stop when he spotted a group of 200 primary school children along the roadside. He chatted with them for a few minutes.

As they marched by the three simple brown coffins and into along the wall of the funeral home chapel, one phrase was like a refrain: "What a shame, a damn shame."

Notably absent from the mourners were officials of the UMWA, including President W. A. "Tony" Boyle, who won reelection against Vabonick's dead man's sons said they did not want them there.

New Public Defender Setup Is Explained

By FRED DODDS
Times-News Staff Writer

Lloyd Webb is an experienced attorney, was once a District Court Judge and, beginning Monday, will head a seven-man legal team in the defense of indigents in criminal actions.

MRS. MAUREEN MEEHL

She has resigned her post as Twin Falls County deputy prosecutor, citing low pay as the reason for her action.

T.F. Deputy Prosecutor Resigns Post

Twin Falls County's deputy prosecutor resigned today, and in doing so took a slap at the county commissioners in what she terms "neglect of county employees."

Mrs. Meehl was hired for $7,800 a year.

Her superior, Prosecutor Robert Galley, had recommended to the commissioners that her salary be raised to $9,220 a year in the 1970 budget.

"I have learned the commissioners are raising my salary to $7,950 a year, which is a $10 a year increase. Consider this a slap in the face," she said.

She said, "I therefore resign as I feel after three years of experience as a lawyer, I am underpaid. I appreciate the privilege of serving Mr. Galley and the Twin Falls County. But I do hope the salaries of all county officials and subordinates can be raised to meet the minimum standard of living costs."

Mr. Webb feels it isn't in fact, it is difficult to come up with the firm could — along with its regular public defender duties — use up the $25,000 before the end of this year and, in effect, work for nothing until 1971.

Day Care Centers Get OK

The South Central Community Action Agency will continue to operate day-care centers in Twin Falls and Burley, according to the funds have to be raised within the communities, according to Larry Mack, agency director.

Mr. Mack said he had received verbal approval of both the Day Care and Headstart programs, which come under the same application. He said he has gone from one system to another and back again. The firm of May, May and Bennett was hired last year to handle public defense cases. But the firm asked to be relieved of the duties last spring and another system was installed.

U.S. Admits 40,000 GIs Die In Viet

SAIGON (UPI)—The U.S. Command made it official today, the number of American killed in Vietnam since the start of the war in the first days of the war's ninth year.

Odd Present

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Someone dropped a sack in the middle of the intersection at 21st Avenue and Vincent Street early Wednesday, and police are anxious to return it.

Ex-Treasurer Of Twin Falls County Dies

Mrs. Jack (Dorothy) Fuller, 74, 225 3rd Ave. N., former long time Twin Falls County treasurer, died early Wednesday evening in a short illness.

But if we can make a deal with the prosecutor and the deal to the defendant's advantage we will make a deal," he said.

Witness Contradicts Time In Kennedy's Testimony

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (UPI)—Witnesses at the secret inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne contradicted a crucial time element in Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's account of the auto accident which took her life, UPI learned today.

The 28-year-old Washington secretary died when her car struck in his guns Wednesday during 45 minutes of questioning at the inquest. Kennedy had denied Look's account in his appearance Monday.

Shoshone Department Heads Renamed At Special Meet

SHOSHONE—Department heads were reappointed by Shoshone new mayor, E. R. Werry, at recessed meeting of the now city council Wednesday night.

When he was 30 or 30 feet away, Look said, the car sped off down the dirt road toward the bridge. He said he was certain it was the same car pulled from a crater Sunday following a warning with Miss Kopechne's body in it.

Mrs. Fuller was elected county treasurer in 1940 on the Republican ticket and served continuously until retiring in 1961. She is survived by her husband; a son, Richard A. Reynolds; Las Vegas, Nev.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Norma Crippen, Redwood City, Calif.; and a stepson, Wayne A. Fuller, Sacramento, Calif.; and one grandchild.

What's the philosophy of the public defense system?

"To do our best for the client and society," he said. "Many people frown on a probation, but in the long-run society is better off by putting a man on probation and keeping him out of the big house, the prison."

Deep Freeze Ices Nation

Hawaii was the only state not touched by freezing temperatures, but snowing 5-6 inches across the Lower Plains states, eastward to New England and westward to the Central Rockies.

Lebanon, N.H., reported 10 below zero—Burlington, Vt., 15 below; Houston, Tex., 6 below; and Springfield, Miss., 8 below. Pennsylvania reported readings as low as 6 below.

Chicago had an official temperature of 4 below zero at 3 a.m. But the wind, at 15 miles an hour, sent the apparent temperature to the "chill factor"—plummeting to about minus 40 degrees, Minneapolis, Minn., had a 14-below temperature. St. Louis, Mo., 3 below and Denver reported 3 below.

Four inches of new snow fell at Muskogee, Mich., bringing the total on the ground to 18 inches. The inches fell at Buffalo, N.Y.

Leon Gilbre presented a 4-membered bill of $20,732.93 for the flood control project which has been a cooperative effort of Shoshone and Gooding cities and Gooding and Lincoln counties.

Frost Shivers Florida

Florida faced the weather with tourists in mink instead of bikinis. Fruit pickers raced the frost and citrus growers used ammonia pots to protect their crop.

Four trainloads of Chicago commuters were stranded for two hours Wednesday in 12-below-zero temperatures when a power line snapped in the cold.

A Gary Ind., mother of three accepted a radio station's offer of a $25 prize for anyone willing to walk through its front door clad in a bikini. When Mrs. Irene Wallace strolled through the store it was 4 below zero.

Mayor Werry stressed there is an ordinance requiring all property owners to clear their sidewalks within 24 hours after a snowfall.

At the Tuesday night meeting it was decided to hold several public meetings and hearings on the Feb. 24 sewer plant revenue bond election. Voter qualifications will be the same as for other city elections, Mrs. Chess said.

Mental Health Board Seeks Federal Grant

The regional board for a Comprehensive Mental Health Center in Magic Valley will apply for federal funding, Lloyd Webb, Twin Falls, chairman of the eight-county group said today.

Blaine county, which currently operates a small mental health clinic, has indicated willingness to cooperate in the regional center, continuing the local services on an expanded basis, according to Dr. Charles Terhune, Burley, Idaho, Blaine State hospital, Blaine, Ketchikan, vice president of the regional planning board.

The federal funds being sought are to be used for staffing only, it was noted at the Jerome meeting by Jack Stenick and Dr. Lisa Fuller, Blaine State Health department officials, who are assisting with the grant application.

Leon Gilbre presented a 4-membered bill of $20,732.93 for the flood control project which has been a cooperative effort of Shoshone and Gooding cities and Gooding and Lincoln counties.

Orval Hansen

So what's wrong with Orval Hansen? A small, far-out-somewhere group of individuals would have you believe Orval Hansen is some sort of sinister individual who must be replaced as Congressman from Idaho's Second District. They are frantically looking for someone — anyone — to oppose him.

his voting record shows that he plays no favorites and that he has the interest of the people of Idaho behind his actions. When you send a man to Congress it is for the purpose of representing the people back home.

The Overruns

"Cost overrun" has become such a sensitive phrase in the Pentagon that Deputy Defense Secretary Packard has issued a memorandum asking his subordinates to consider saying "cost growth" instead.

remarkable story of 12 submarine rescue craft which the Navy ordered for a total of $36 million; as costs have escalated, the $36 million now won't buy even half of one vessel. And inflation is only an incidental factor.

MR. SPECTATOR

The BYU Story

As a public service, and because Mr. Spectator believes the country's racial undertone should be of interest to all thinking citizens, today's column will present portions of a "Questions and Answers" presentation made in a recent issue of "Brigham Young University Today."

(7) You haven't mentioned Negroes yet. Are there any at BYU? Yes. Three that we know of. There have been more in past years.

Yes. Black students are entitled to athletic grants-in-aid just the same as players of any other race who excel. As in the case of white athletes, we welcome black athletes. Some universities have vigorously recruited blacks to exploit them as athletes. We will not do that.

(11) Are any black athletes on BYU teams this year? No. (12) Has BYU ever had black athletes? Yes. (13) Does BYU try to recruit black athletes? Yes.

WASHINGTON — A dispute over the basic ideology of President Nixon's black capitalism program which has been developing inside the Administration all year became clearer at the last meeting of the Cabinet-level Urban Affairs Council.

It came out when Sam Wyly, the high-powered young computer tycoon from Dallas, who heads the President's advisory council on minority business enterprise, delivered a carefully prepared presentation to the closed-door meeting attended by the President and several Cabinet members.

The bulk of Wyly's remarks proposed an extension of the minority business enterprise idea beyond the black ghetto into other parts of the economy — out from the affluent economy — Appalachian whites, for example. Obviously appealing politically, the idea was readily endorsed by Mr. Nixon.

But far more controversial and of far greater long-range significance were Wyly's closing comments. He pointed a successful minority business enterprise program, whether in the urban ghetto or the Appalachian hills, should not merely create a handful of new merchants but draw the entire community into participation in the economic system.

Wyly felt strongly that substitution of a few Negro merchants for a few white merchants in the ghetto would solve nothing. What was needed, in their view, was bringing great numbers of ghetto residents into the economic system by some method of cooperative ownership.

Modern Methods Of Communications

Restless Leg

Dear Dr. Thosteson: This writer is in his 87th year and enjoys fair health. But the night's rest is disturbed by the right or left leg "jumping." Is there a reason for this? Can you suggest a cure? — W.H.G.

Memories

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Reporters like myself who covered the incredible 1960's on the national political front come away from the decade with a pattern of visual images that surely must be among the most deeply etched in our lives.

—At Atlantic City's Convention Hall, scene of Johnson's 1964 nomination for a term in his own right, the seemingly endless rise and fall of hand-clapping from delegates paying memorial honor to John Kennedy while his brother, Robert, stood silent on the rostrum — he to be struck down by an assassin's gun in the very next campaign.

Arthritis sufferers can be helped. Dr. Thosteson's booklet discusses many types of arthritis and related joint diseases — as well as outlining effective treatments and medications. For a copy of "How You Can Control Arthritis" write to Dr. Thosteson in care of this newspaper enclosing 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

—The quiet degrading interlude "at Labor Day" in Chicago, 1967, when white and black militiamen gathered in the Democratic conference which produced an unrelieved chaos, an unworshiped break from the realities, and a pathetic bowing and scraping by white radicals before blacks who gave them contempt in reply — as they seized "power" at the meeting.

—In early April, 1968, the stunning effect of walking out on my front porch in the dawn hours for days after Martin Luther King, Jr.'s murder — seeing Robert Kennedy's soldiers, bayonets fixed, at a curfew checkpoint down the block.

—In a crowded Pittsburgh hall in late October, 1960, Vice President Nixon, thinking he needed to play "catchup" in his race with Kennedy, struggling to sound tough after two months of gutter talk.

—Being awakened by telephone and sent stumbling to the television set to watch the horrendous assassination in a hotel kitchen corridor in Los Angeles . . . a few days later, the campaignlike funeral train from New York to Washington, a passage way swarming with people but made most poignant by the sight of long farmers standing a hundred yards away in rigid, respectful salute.

—Two years later, my tripping with a defeated Nixon in the sunny library of his new Southern California home, sensing he already knew he was out of place so far from Washington where lay the real focus of his life, guessing the near-disinterest he had in his then current quest for the California governorship.

—Armed soldiers lined three-deep in Chicago's Michigan Boulevard to help make the Democratic convention hotel "safe" from Vietnam peace protesters. Vice President Humphrey, into the 1968 campaign, monied by blacks in Watts and shouted down by students in Boston — the feet of new-black-white hate in hills filled for George Wallace.

—The sea of aroused but calm black humanity surging up Washington's Constitution Avenue in the great civil rights march of August, 1963. The shock of the words "Kennedy has been shot" as I stood a few feet from the news teletype that clocked out the cruel message which set the tone for a decade of violence. The harried look of the new President Johnson as I passed him on the concrete black limousine late one night and glimpsed him reading by the light of a small lamp . . .

—Richard Nixon, riding the revolution again all the turmoil, moving in shrewdly planned setting — with outward calm — to the presidency. Kennedy, standing in the cold dusk of a tiny Indian mountain village in northern Alaska, trailed improbably by political reporters — three months later, on July 18, 1972, threat to Nixon ended abruptly in his dark, snow-covered island bridge in Massachusetts.

Jordan Cites Vital Need Of Economy

By PAUL M. QUINN
BOISE (UPI) — Sen. Len Jordan, R-Idaho, told a news conference today it is imperative to balance the federal budget but said of increasing taxes to do it: "We have to use the fiscal knife instead and cut back."

On a trip through Idaho that will last until Jan. 13, Jordan covered a variety of topics during a half-hour meeting with the news media. He dealt with topics ranging from tax reform to the battle over the wild rivers bill between the state and federal officials.

On tax reform, recently signed into law by President Nixon, Jordan said the lawmakers in Washington "tried to close the loopholes that have been abused in the tax structure."

He said he had voted against the bill as it had originally left the U.S. Senate but when it came back from the Senate-House conference committee he voted for it.

"It is still inflationary to some extent," Jordan stated. The Idaho senator said, however, that the bill that finally came out was "a fairly good compromise."

He said some of the highlights of the tax package included extending the carryover to June 30, 1970 while trimming it from 10 to 5 per cent, giving the single taxpayer a better break, reduction of depletion allowances to some extent for oil, gas and some metals and "an additional $5 billion to $7 billion available to spread out to give relief to the taxpayer."

On another matter, Jordan said he hoped differences between the state of Idaho, voiced by Attorney General Robert Robson, and federal officials on the wild rivers bill as they apply to the middle fork of the Salmon River can be ironed out.

Robson announced last week he plans to meet in Washington with members of the Idaho congressional delegation to discuss "state problems connected with the wild and scenic rivers act."

Robson has told the State Land Board that the Forest Service is seeking to obtain control of the beds of the middle fork of the Salmon and the middle fork of the Clearwater River through administrative regulation.

Jordan said the issue seems to be that Robson has challenged the Forest Service and stated that the middle fork of the Salmon River beds constitute a navigable stream and should be under state control.

"The middle fork certainly should qualify as a wild river," the Idaho senator said. Discussing the 10-year moratorium that he and Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, proposed for development projects on the Middle Snake, Jordan stated, "I just want enough time for the people of Idaho to explore the situation."

He said the state has tremendous recreation potential and pointed out that by the turn of the century recreation areas will be at a premium since the population of the country will have doubled.

"All I want to do is insure the people of Idaho do not foreclose their options...the thirsty southwest is drooling when they see this water (from Idaho) flowing into the Pacific Ocean," Jordan stated.

On other topics the Idaho senator said: — He does not foresee any future, large scale layoffs for the National Reactor Testing Station near Idaho Falls and that potential uses are being gone over with a fine tooth comb.

— The U.S. space program has been cut back but since so much money has already been invested in the moon program. "I think it is better to spend a little more rather than go on to something else."

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI) — President Nixon is expected to act shortly and favorably on more than 100 Justice Department recommendations for pardons and prison sentence commutations.

Proclamation Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the recommendations for executive pardons were flown here Tuesday evening. He said he expected Nixon to approve them.

Census Forms Remain Unchanged Despite Furor Over 'Communal Showering' Idea

By NORMAN KEMPSTER
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The federal government still wants to know if your family has its own bathtub but it no longer gives a hoot whether you go in for communal showering.

As the Census Bureau prepares to take its 10-year head count of Americans, the controversy that boiled up two years ago over the nature of the questions to be asked has all but died out.

The 1970 questionnaire is basically unchanged in spite of the furor. But the most controversial questions have been reworded and some of the sections have been simplified.

The champion eyebrow raiser on the preliminary form was this question: "Do you have a bathtub or shower? Yes, for this household only; Yes, but shared with another household; No bathtub or shower."

Some interpreted the second answer as implying that a person showered or bathed with more detailed forms which require them to answer an average of 68 questions. The remaining 5 per cent will get a still more detailed questionnaire requiring answers to an average of 73 questions.

or any other on the form. The penalty is 60 days in jail or a $100 fine but no one has ever been jailed for a violation.

Critics of the census argue that the questions are "too personal, that the forms are complex and hard to handle, and that the information is sold to commercial firms which should be required to do their own market research."

The Census Bureau replies that all answers are kept confidential; the information is tabulated by computers on an anonymous basis, and that the information is needed by government agencies. The bureau concedes that some information is sold to commercial firms to recapture some of the cost of conducting the head count but it insists that names are never matched up with the reports.

Eighty per cent of the nation's homes will get a "short form" with 23 questions. An additional 18 per cent will get a more detailed form which will require them to answer an average of 68 questions. The remaining 5 per cent will get a still more detailed questionnaire requiring answers to an average of 73 questions.

The effective date for the census is April 1. All questions will ask the status of persons on that date.

The bureau expects to employ about 180,000 enumerators, 10,000 more than in 1960. They will be hired by telephone and most of them are expected to be women. They will be paid by the questionnaire with earnings averaging between $2 and $2.50 an hour.

The enumerators are forbidden by law to reveal any of the information they pick up. The government has been taking a census since 1790 and there always have been questionable questions.

Judge Rejects Mistrial Motions In Extortion Trial

NEWARK, N.J. (UPI) — The federal judge who ordered mistrials of FBI recordings released to the public rejected motions Wednesday to declare a mistrial in the extortion and conspiracy trial of four reputed Mafia figures.

U.S. District Judge Robert A. Shaw rejected contentions by lawyers for Angelo "Gyp" De Carlo that the FBI manuscripts had produced widespread and prejudicial publicity. Shaw who ordered the papers released Tuesday, said the jury had been sequestered and would not know of the information, Shaw also rejected other dismissal motions. The manuscripts revealed names of numerous New Jersey political and judicial officials along with some internationally known entertainers linked with reputed Mafia figures. Outgoing Gov. Richard J. Hughes was mentioned — but — denied any knowledge of the source — De Carlo.

De Carlo is quoted as saying, "If Hughes gets in we're all right." Hughes said, "I never saw him (De Carlo) or had any contact of any kind with him. I know of the information, Shaw is back fence gossip in which hoods brag to each other about how big and important they are." Several other public officials denied any ties with the Mafia.

The state investigation commission, meanwhile, said it might look at the manuscripts to see if the information in them could aid in its probe of organized crime in New Jersey. An unqualified federal official, however, said he would not look at them because he felt it might prejudice future cases. Three federal grand juries are investigating alleged crime in the Garden State.

witness George Martin Zelmanowitz testified that Louis B. Superstein, who was found dead in 1968 with what officials said was "enough arsenic" in him to kill a mule, had been warned by De Carlo to pay up a $250,000 loan or die. Superstein was Zelmanowitz's partner.

The other defendants in the case are Daniel "Red" Ciccera, Joseph "Indian Joe" Polverino and Peter A. "Peter the Bull" Landusco.

Gun Control Amendment Helps Here

An amendment in the Federal Gun Control Act has made it a little easier for Twin Falls sporting goods dealers but the act came too late to help during the hunting season rush.

Dealers in Twin Falls said Wednesday they had cases last fall where people walked out of stores without buying anything because they got tired of waiting.

The waiting was caused when store employees were busy filling out forms and checking identification for the sale of rifle and shotgun shells.

Now records do not have to be kept on the sale of rifle or shotgun shells.

But any kind of ammunition that fits into a pistol must be registered. Clerks have to keep a log of each sale. These making the purchase must not be convicted felons, have a history of mental illness or drug addiction and must be more than 21 years old.

The law was passed Dec. 16, 1968 and amended about a month ago.

Before it was amended, people 18 and older could purchase firearms and ammunition. Now people must be 21 or older to buy firearms and ammunition.

Dealers said the amendment on the sale of rifle shells and shotgun shells is a welcome relief, although the relief came too late for the hunting season. They said the amendment will help with sales this year.

FROSTED ICICLES HANGING from its canopy makes this old steam engine resemble a surveyor with a fringe on top. Extremely cold temperatures in the Fairfield area, where the old engine rests in a small park on Main Street, have caused nearly everything to be covered with a mantle of sparkling frost.

Testimony Heard In Death Case

JACKSON, Wyo. (UPI) — An expert medical witness testified Wednesday a drug prescribed for Russell Payne, 25, who has pleaded guilty to two counts of manslaughter in the deaths of his parents last summer, was known to be capable of producing a "primitive killer instinct."

Dr. Albert A. Lavigne, who has testified as an expert witness at more than 1,000 criminal trials, said the drug Deener, prescribed for Payne by his father, can in certain instances produce epileptic seizures which cause uncontrollable behavior and would give a person the strength of 10 to 12 men.

Both prosecution and defense attorneys stipulated the record show that on April 19 a Jackson pharmacist had given Payne's father, a Jackson, a boxed surgeon, 10 Deener tablets of 25 milligrams each for Russell Payne.

And subsequently, date not determined, the elder Payne had picked up 100 tablets of Deener that were 100 milligrams each, without designation for whom it was intended.

Lavigne said, in laboratory experiments, a month of treatment with Deener was required to produce seizures in mice and another month required for the animals to regain normal behavior.

The doctor was called as the final defense witness in a presentencing hearing expected to end by late Wednesday.

Defense Attorney Harry Reid charged Tuesday as his opening in his case that Dr. Martin Payne had prescribed drugs for his son, and it was under the influence of those drugs that Russell shot his father and his mother, Emmalynn while they were in bed last June 12.

Payne admitted in court Tuesday he had begun using Deener after he had several arguments with his father over heavy drinking. He blamed the drinking problem on the breakup in late 1967 of an engagement to be married.

Headstart Consultant Visits Here

Juan Cordova, a Headstart consultant from Denver, Colo., is visiting Headstart schools in the area this week.

Mr. Cordova is stressing parent involvement in the program, according to Mrs. Ann Kester, local coordinator. He has talked with the Twin Falls Headstart policy advisory committee on these needs.

The committee is composed of 51 per cent of parents of children in the program and 49 per cent of other people in the community. It serves as an advisory capacity to directors of the program.

Mr. Kester said volunteers are needed to transport children to doctors' offices and to the Easter Seal Center for special training. She also said volunteer help is needed in this program as well as at the Day Care Center. No special training is needed for this work.

FACT RENEWAL EXPECTED LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The mutual security pact between Japan and the United States will be renewed without difficulty, U.S. ambassador to Japan Armit H. Meyer said Wednesday. The 10-year alliance will be extended automatically June 23 if neither country objects.

Convicted Murderer In Los Angeles Is Sentenced To Die For Killing Son Of Oscar-Winning Writer Last February

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Chester Allen Johnson, convicted murderer of Loren E. Siliphant, was sentenced Wednesday to die in the gas chamber after pleading vainly that "there wasn't no premeditation or malice aforethought proven in this case."

Johnson, yet to stand trial for the murder of an Oakland dentist, was convicted last month of the first-degree murder last February of the 18-year-old Siliphant, son of oscar-winning screenwriter Strling Silliphant. The prosecution contended Johnson shot him because he could not find any drugs.

Superior Court Judge Raymond S. Roberts ordered the sentence, following the recommendation of the jury that convicted Johnson.

Judge Roberts also denied the defendant a new trial after Johnson claimed his attorney — public defender Charles Hoag — had not let him testify during his trial and had refused to call a number of witnesses.

The "Great Imposter" Is Alive, Well As Church Pastor In Washington City

FRIDAY HARBOR, Wash. (UPI) — The "Great Imposter" is alive and well in Friday Harbor.

— Fred W. DeMara, the subject of a best-selling book and a 1961 movie, is the pastor of the San Juan Baptist Church in this island community northwest of Seattle.

But Dr. DeMara won't have any truck with news reporters. He refuses to discuss his own role as pastor of the 30-member conservative church.

Members of his congregation are vaguely aware that their pastor at one time was the subject of considerable notoriety, but they are not concerned.

DeMara is a legend elsewhere. He once performed an appendectomy aboard a Canadian ship off Korea in a raging storm. At that time he was posing as

Dr. Joseph Cyr. He once served as assistant warden of the Texas Prison at Brownsville under the name of Benjamin W. Jones.

He also taught school at St. Martin's College in Lacey, Wash., became a monk in the midwest and has even gone by the name of Ferdinand Walter DeMara, the name he was born with.

In a recent edition of the Friday Harbor Journal, a weekly newspaper, DeMara wrote an account of himself ending with these words:

REFERENDUM FAVORED BOISE (UPI) — Idaho State auditor Joe Williams said Monday he would favor a proposal by Gov. Don Samuelson to put before the people the question of the extent of the auditor's duties.

"Reverend DeMara received the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior in 1958 and has been in full time Christian service ever since."

Odd Gift Given

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI) — Former San Francisco Forty-Niner football star Bob St. Clair was given a spittoon Tuesday when he retired as president of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

The gift was from the new president, Mrs. Joan Fazzler, who said she noticed the 6-foot, 9-inch St. Clair's "interesting little habit" of chewing tobacco during meetings.

U.S., China May Resume Conference

By CHARLES R. SMITH
 HONG KONG (UPI)—Diplomatic talks between the United States and Communist China have been interrupted for two years but prospects for a resumption of the discussions are brighter now than in months.
 An agreement to resume the talks may be announced within the next month, if not sooner.
 The talks between Washington and Peking date back to August, 1955, but the last time the diplomats met was in Warsaw on Jan. 8, 1969.
 Diplomats of China and the United States were all set to resume the meetings last Feb. 20. But just two days before the meeting, China denounced "the current anti-China atmosphere" and said it was created by the United States.
 "It is obviously most unattractive to hold the 15th meeting of the Sino-U.S. ambassadorial talks on Feb. 20 as scheduled," the statement said.
 The only example the Chinese gave of what they were talking about was the defection of a Chinese diplomat in the Netherlands. The diplomat was granted political asylum in the United States.
 Diplomatic sources said this was a pretext and the reason for the escalation was China's own unsettled internal situation and inability to formulate new policies.
 In the following months, the United States made written approaches to the Chinese for a resumption of the talks. Last November, U.S. Ambassador Walter J. Stoessel approached the Chinese delegation's Polish interpreter at a fashion show and suggested the discussions resume.
 On Dec. 11, Stoessel called at the Chinese Embassy for an hour-long meeting with Lei Yang, Chinese charge d'affaires. It was in response to a Chinese invitation.
 The United States recently relaxed its trade restrictions with China and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew told Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek the United States had embarked on a policy of friendly overtures toward mainland China, although it would stand by its commitments to Taiwan.

 Mrs. Alice Reed, home extension agent, assisted by Virginia Eldredge as a model, gave a demonstration on accessories which business women can use to vary their wardrobes. The program was introduced by Faye Hoffman, personal development chairman.
 A memorial tribute was paid to Myrtle Anderson and Thelma Sturgill, deceased members, by Mrs. Alda Strong.
 Guests at the dinner meeting at the Depot Grill were Norma Fica, Fica, Ketchum, and Melba Wilkins and Arthella Shillingburg.

Largest Mirror Is Completed
 TOLEDO, Ohio (UPI)—Owens-Illinois Inc. announced completion Wednesday of work on its 168-inch "ceiling" telescope mirror, largest single piece of glass ever cast in the world.
 The 17-ton mirror, which will be installed in a powerful telescope high in the Andes mountains by 1972, was inspected by a group of international scientists and astronomers from the Association of Universities for Research in Astronomy.
 Owens-Illinois will store the mirror at the development center here until it goes to Tucson, Ariz., at mid-year for final polishing.

'Street Academies' To Help Dropouts

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government announced plans Tuesday to open storefront "street academies" in six big cities next spring to give high school dropouts part-time postal jobs and a second chance at getting an education.
 The "academies" will be staffed entirely by post office employees. Mail carriers will be enlisted to recruit drop outs for schooling and to help them find jobs, and volunteer postal workers will be assigned teaching chores in the schools.
 Postmaster General Winton M. Blount told a news conference the schooling will be "basically in the three Rs." The program will begin next May on a pilot basis in Washington, Newark, Atlanta, Chicago, San Francisco and Detroit, and will be expanded if there's promise of success.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks were slightly higher as trading moved past mid-session Thursday. Turnover was running ahead of Tuesday's pace. After about three hours, the UPI market indicator, measuring all stocks traded, had gained 0.25 per cent on 4.7 billion shares.

The Dow Jones Industrial average, which reflects movement in 30 selected blue chips, was up 1.98 at 803.73. One analyst said "the market is holding back as it waits for positive proof that Washington is moving toward a moderation of its tight money policies."

Cut Your Own Taxes, Chap. 4

Tax Advantages Are Set

For Senior Citizens

By RAY DE CRANE
Distributed by Enterprise Press

Senior Citizen status does not enjoy as many tax-saving opportunities as income tax returns as it once did, but that medical expense deductions are a lifeline for everybody regardless of age. But there are three principal ways in which they may benefit.

1. An extra $500 exemption starting with the year in which they turn 65.
2. An opportunity to escape taxes completely or at least to minimize the tax on the profitable sale of their home after they are 65.
3. The possibility of enjoying a Retirement Income Credit which, could materially reduce the amount of tax otherwise to be owed.

Income tax filing time is no time to be shy about your age. If you were 65 by Jan. 1, 1970, don't be hesitant about checking the "65 or over" block on your Form 1040 and getting that additional exemption for the husband. Above all, wives should not be hesitant about claiming the extra exemption if their husbands should be younger. IRS auditors see returns every day where this block is checked by the wife, but not by the husband. Don't let an age difference deter you. (Remember, your tax return is completely confidential; no one else will ever find out.)

From a tax standpoint, after reaching 65 is the ideal time frequently to sell your home and consider moving into an apartment. Depending upon the selling price, the profit on the sale is either completely or partially free from tax. To qualify for the tax break (it may be claimed only once) the home must have been owned by you and used as your principal residence for at least five of the eight years prior to the sale.

If the adjusted sales price of the home (gross selling price less the total of "fixing-up" expenses and selling expenses) is $20,000 or less there is no tax on the profit, no matter how large it is.

If the adjusted sales price is more than $20,000, the amount of the gain which is tax-free is the ratio between $20,000 and the adjusted sales price. For example, if the adjusted sales price was $30,000, two-thirds of the gain would be free of tax. The remaining one-third would be reported as a long term capital gain, on which only half would be taxed.

The third avenue for tax savings by Senior Citizens is the Retirement Income Credit. This credit, computed this year on new Schedule R, could be as high as $228.00 on a separate return, or $457.20 on a joint return.

To be eligible to claim the credit, you must have retirement income (it could be from pensions and annuities, interest, dividends or gross rents) and you must have received earned income in excess of $600 in each of any 10 years prior to retirement.

The maximum retirement income to be subject to the 15 per cent credit is $1,524 for each spouse if both meet the prior earned income requirement, or $2,286 on a joint return where the credit was claimed on the retirement income of both spouses. (In community property states, retirement income is community income, one-half of which is reported by each spouse. This permits the wife to claim a Retirement Income Credit on her separate return even though she may not have

Photography Proves Help To Students

By FREDERICK H. TRESH
United Press International

The picture shows a narrow space between two tenement buildings. The caption says "Somebody fell down here and died."

The photograph was taken by a teenage boy in Brooklyn as a school project and it eventually was published in a book, "The Way-It-Is," a picture-story of urban life created by 7th and 8th graders. The quality of the work is remarkable.

The picture-taking in Brooklyn and in other cities and tenements across the nation is convincing educators that the camera—still or motion picture—is a useful tool in teaching and motivating children.

By tradition, communication in the classroom has been by the written or spoken word. But there is a cause to believe now that photography—placing a camera in a child's hand and allowing him to record on film the world around him—is a powerful educational medium.

Educators call this emerging technique "visual literacy." It simply means effective communication by means of pictures rather than written words.

It is proving to be especially effective in urban schools where many children do not read well.

Dr. Francis A. J. Tanni, former associate U.S. commissioner of education and now a professor at Teachers College, Columbia University, believes picture taking and filmmaking is leading to an end of "over-reliance on reading" in American schools.

He sees these techniques as a bridge across the experience gap between the middle class teacher and the street-wise but academically slow urban child. Used as a basis for lessons and discussions, the class-produced pictures and films can cut the disparity between what is normally taught in school and what the child actually experiences in the community.

Gordon Tubbs, Eastman Kodak Company's director of instructional technology market development and a leading proponent of visual literacy, says children really need ways to express themselves.

"They need to make other people understand their feelings. Photography is a good way. Sometimes words may not do so well," he said.

Laird Says He Will Cut Spending

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird said that he plans to continue reducing military expenditures next year "in a very substantial way" to help meet domestic needs.

However, Laird said the United States might have to develop new offensive weapon systems if the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT) were fruitless or if the Soviet military threat increases.

Laird told an impromptu news conference that he realized the importance of health, education and welfare programs and urban affairs to the American people.

"It is most important that we get defense expenditures in line with other priorities," he said.

He pointed out that since taking office almost a year ago he had reduced expenditures.

"We are still going to reduce expenditures in fiscal year 1971 (beginning July 1) in a very substantial way so that we can move ahead in these other areas," he said.

Laird commented.

Invader

DAU TIENG, Vietnam (UPI)—Next time, Spec. 4 Roric Russell will think twice before deciding to clean-up his bunker in the dead of night.

Russell, Van Nuys, Calif., recently completed a tour of guard duty at this 1st Infantry Division camp 40 miles northwest of Saigon when he decided to "police up" his bunker.

"I was moving down into it when I heard some movement," he said Wednesday. "I looked around and got the scare of my life. I moved out smartly!"

Peering up at Russell were two tiny eyes glowing in the dark and attached to a 12-foot king cobra.

Russell called 1st Lt. William F. Pavone to the bunker for a hurried conference.

"After we decided that neither of us was going to catch it alive," Russell said, "I put several M19 rounds into it."

Youth Loses Right Arm To Disease

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)—Surgeons removed a 12-year-old Texas farm boy's remaining arm Tuesday rather than have him die of infection.

Brent Gray's arm was ripped from his body in a feed grinder accident at his farm home near Henrietta, Tex. A quick-thinking doctor packed the arm in ice and rushed Brent to Oklahoma City, where doctors reimplanted the arm in an operation that had little chance of success.

Two days later, the left arm had to be amputated because of circulatory problems. Doctors hoped they could save the right arm, even when they discovered infection Dec. 30 but when Brent's temperature rose dangerously the surgeons had to remove it.

During the 3 1/2 weeks doctors worked to save Brent's arms, Texas and Oklahoma citizens collected funds to help pay medical costs and provide for the boy's education. More than $14,500 was raised in Henrietta.

Miners Walk Off Jobs In Dispute Over Showers

INDIANA, Pa. (UPI)—About 500 coal miners were on strike here Wednesday in a dispute over the distance they must walk to take a shower.

They complained their employers refused to furnish transportation from mine portals to the bath house. Some said they had to walk as much as two miles to take a shower after spending eight hours underground.

The miners, members of United Mine Workers Local 1287, alleged the North American Coal Corp. violated its labor contract by not providing transportation from its five district mines to the bath house.

Urban Renewal Program Gets Underway In 1969 With Acquisition Of Properties

The Urban Renewal program, which seemed to be bogged down in red tape for the past few years, showed some real action and progress in 1969. Actual execution of the program began early last spring with the acquisition of properties. The better part of the year was spent with acquisition and the relocation of tenants.

Evan Robertson, assistant agency director, said the acquisition is now about 65 per cent complete and the relocation is about 50 per cent complete. Phase I of the program began in October with the demolition of seven structures and was finished in December.

Mr. Robertson said execution of Phase II will soon begin. The Urban Renewal Agency is advertising for bids for the demolition of four structures — the Boater Key Shop, the Rent-All Co. store, the old Foss Manufacturing Co. building and the Idaho Theatre. Bids for this work will be opened Jan. 23.

The next step will be sale of cleared property, with eight parcels scheduled for sale this year, beginning with the Idaho Theatre site in February.

The agency is also working on long-range plans with the local Improvement district and the Twin Falls Futures Unlimited for development of the downtown mall.

With the Urban Renewal program on schedule, Mr. Robertson said, construction will begin in the near future.

The rig of the first commercially successful oil well drilled in Oklahoma still stands in a city park in Bartlesville.

Congressional Committee Opens Probe Of Reported Censorship Of News Broadcast To Troops In Vietnam

By DANIEL RAPAPORT

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A congressional subcommittee has begun an investigation into an Army broadcaster's charge that American GIs in Vietnam are listening to censored newscasts.

The inquiry, ordered by Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., may culminate next month with a public hearing in Saigon, where the broadcaster, and other servicemen will be invited to elaborate on the allegations.

Moss is chairman of the House government information and foreign operations subcommittee, a unit of the Government Operations Committee which has come to be known as Congress' watchdog on government news and propaganda programs.

Moss telephoned the subcommittee staff from his Sacramento, Calif., home Monday and directed them to look into the charges by Spec. 5 Robert Lawrence of Atlanta, Lawrence was suspended from his job with the Armed Forces Radio and Television Service after having told listeners Sunday night the network's newsmen were "not free to tell the truth" on the air.

The Army has refused comment until its inspector general completes an investigation begun immediately after the incident.

A spokesman for Moss said the Defense Department in Washington has been asked for the facts on the case and for a copy of the inspector general's report, which he said he hoped would be completed by the end of the week.

The probe led to issuance of an order by then Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara that members of the armed forces were "entitled to the same unrestricted access to news as are all other citizens."

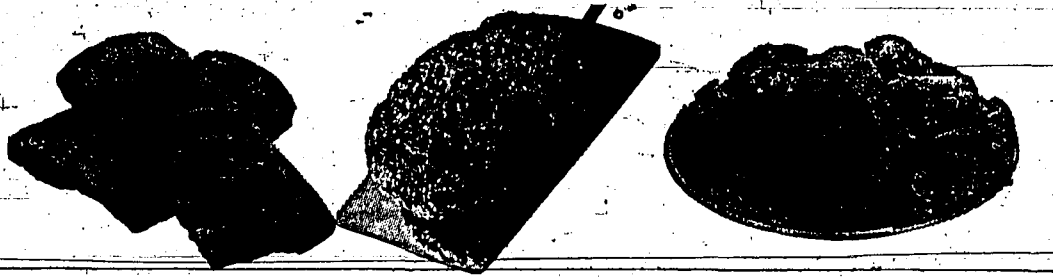

The May 1, 1967, memorandum went on to say that the "calculated withholding of unfavorable news from public relations such as Stars and Stripes or the censorship of broadcasts over outlets such as the Armed Forces Radio and Television Service was prohibited."

This is not the first time that Moss has investigated a news service operated by the military. In 1967 his subcommittee conducted an inquiry into charges that the armed forces newspaper, Stars and Stripes, was censoring, suppressing and manipulating news.

New College, Industrial Construction During 1969 Boosts Twin Falls Activity To Total Of $4,911,659

Construction was the big money (a multi-purpose library, student union) and the dormitory. The Kellwood Co. holiday plant, now nearing completion, was the largest of the industrial structures mushroomed throughout the city, making 1969 a record year for such activity.

The total estimated value, $4,911,659, of permits issued during 1969 was nearly double the $2,714,502 figure of 1968.

There was a great amount of construction in the high-priced category. Work began on three new buildings on the College of Southern Idaho campus—the health-P. E. building; the com-

Twenty-three permits were issued for new commercial buildings in the city. Among them were the Plaza Hut and Paysons Shoe Store, both Five Points North. Several office buildings were constructed on Blue Lakes Boulevard North, including one by Globe Realty, which also houses several other businesses. Bud and Marks, a boating supply store, also relocated in a new building on this boulevard. There were four-7-11 grocery stores built during the past year.

There were 43 permits issued for the alterations of commercial buildings. The work done at First Security Bank was probably the most costly and nearly doubled the size of the bank's facilities. Popo's Clothing Store also received a face-lifting and a story was leveled off the top of the building housing Hudson's Shoe Store and Crowley Pharmacy. They, too, spent considerable money remodeling the fronts of their businesses.

Another large addition to the community is the Child Development Center currently under construction on Harrison Street near Falls Avenue. The state of Idaho is building this $187,000 structure which is to be completed this spring.

There were 24 new single residences constructed in 1969 at an estimated cost of $301,000 and 71 permits were issued for home additions at $106,761. In the miscellaneous category there were 17 private garages built at an estimated cost of $24,157. 15 carpenter at $7,835; 13 painters at $4,350; 88 electric sign permits for $246, and 71 permits for fence moving, demolition, etc., at $80,659.

Most of the costly construction was for new additions to the city, but many of the office buildings and face-liftings were brought about either directly or

News Of Record

LINCOLN COUNTY Sheriff's Blotter

Damage resulted to four vehicles in two separate accidents in Lincoln county over the weekend.

A 1970 Dodge pickup truck, driven by Byron Wells, Dietrich, received $100 damage and a 1968 Volkswagen, driven by Larry Nelson Manning, Ogden, Utah, was damaged $300. He was cited for failure to yield the right of way. The accident happened three miles south of Dietrich on a county road intersection.

In another intersection accident, at 4 p.m. Sunday four miles northwest of Richfield on a county gravel road, a head-on collision resulted between a 1962 pickup truck and a 1968 Mustang. Driving the Mustang was Patrick Ward, Richfield, whose vehicle was damaged about $1,800. Carl Riley was driving the pickup which received $300 damage. Neither driver saw the other until it was too late to stop. The roadway, one lane, was cut into a single lane, making stopping or moving difficult, officers said.

High Smokes

HARRISBURG (UPI)—Pennsylvania soon will have the nation's highest cigarette tax.

Legislation raising the state cigarette levy from 12 to 18 cents per pack was given final approval in the senate Tuesday night and sent to Gov. Raymond P. Shafer for his signature.

Budget officials expect the higher cigarette levy will provide the state treasury with an additional $21 million for the balance of the current fiscal year and with $50 million for the full 1970-71 fiscal period.

Sports Figures Deny Gambling Contacts

By United Press International

Dennis filed up Wednesday against a report that four pro football quarterbacks and a top college football coach are listed for questioning by a federal grand jury in the investigation of a $100,000-a-day nationwide gambling ring.

The top brass of the National Football League and one of the chief federal investigators in the case also sharply contradicted the report of National Basketball Association Commissioner Bud Selig.

Both Dawson and Stram said they thought the incident would have no effect on the Chiefs' performance in their Sunday game in 1969. Dawson pointed out that the players still on the Chiefs were in that game "now have three more years experience and figure to be better just from that alone."

Glenns Ferry And Hansen Face Major Foes, Filer Can Open Up League Lead

Glenns Ferry and Hansen are on the spot and Filer has a chance to make a big dent in the Big Six Conference title this weekend as Magic Valley teams go through a 21-game schedule. Glenns Ferry, which plays Hagerman Wednesday night, faces the rugged Wendell Trojans in what even in early January must be described as a must game. Meanwhile, Hansen faces the rough-horse of playing the powerful Oakley Hornets and Mur-

Bruins Host I.F., Poky Invades Minico

Twin Falls hosts Idaho Falls Friday night while Pocatello invades Minico in a pair of Southern Idaho Conference battles. It will be the only action for both teams. Twin Falls, looking for its first league win and carrying a 2-5 record, draws a tough challenge in the Bruins who have a top scorer in Bill Dupree and good size under the boards. The Tigers aren't overpoweringly tall but have good bulk and strength. Coach Charles Farmer says the only opportunity Twin Falls will have will be to eliminate its mistakes. "We had 27 turnovers against Skyline last week and lost by six points. We hit 37 per cent from the field. So if we could have gotten by on a minimum of 10 turnovers in that game it would have made the difference of a rather 12 points for us."

Idaho Opens Loop Slate With Weber

MOSCOW, Idaho (UPI)—The University of Idaho Vandals basketball team will open its Big Sky Conference action on the road in Ogden, Utah, Friday against the Weber Wildcats. The Vandals, 4-5 in pre-season play against some of the top teams in the nation, completed their holiday tournament action with a victory over St. Francis in the final game of the All-College Tournament in Oklahoma City, Okla. Coach Wayne Anderson said the team showed signs of being a good squad, "but they must get tougher under the boards." Against Weber, the Vandals, in the tournament, lost to most of the game and at times played like a great team. Anderson said, "We must keep up this type of play for a complete game instead of just getting 20-30 minutes of good play."

Mountain View Claims City Win

Milt Horton and Brian Ward combined to lift Mountain View Nursing Home from a 12-point deficit into a 71-69 decision over Neilson-Miller in city league action Wednesday night. Horton wound up with 22 while Ron Bird had 21 for the losers. Kirk Williams blazed for 28 points as Title and Trust defeated Flux Cigar Store 65-64 despite 14 points by Noel Rabier. Varsity Barberop, getting 16 points from Henry LeMoine, dropped Twin Falls Tractor and Implement 52-41 with Rusty Schwartz hitting 19 for the losers.

North Carolina Ends N.C. State Unbeaten Boast

RALEIGH, N. C. (UPI)—Charlie Scott's four straight buckets late in the second half sparked fifth-ranked North Carolina to a 78-69 victory over previously unbeaten and 14th ranked N. C. State Wednesday night. Scott, who made only two of 10 field goal attempts in the first half, waited until 8:55 was left in the game to bring the Tar Heels to life and ended the night with 23 points. The Tar Heels went into a stall after grabbing the lead with about six minutes remaining.

Siller said he was told that the formal denial would be forthcoming in a letter to the NAACP.

Carr and Irish Belt Fordham

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI)—Austin Carr poured in 20 points Wednesday night to lead Notre Dame to a 91-76 nonconference basketball victory over Fordham. The Rams led 36-32 at the half, thanks to cold shooting and sloppy ball handling. Fifteen turnovers were committed in the first half. Fordham scored only 14 of 30 shots from the floor in the first half. Notre Dame outscored Carr with a 10-11 of 25. The Irish putted to an 8-31 lead with 10:51 left in the game and was never in trouble beyond that point. Carr pumped in 23 of his points during the final 30 minutes of play.

Bonus Seals Garland (UPI)—Phil Espo and Johnny Bucyk each tallied two goals Wednesday night in a 2-1 trouncing of the Oakland Seals.

Southern Idaho Defeats Rangely By 71-60

RANGELY, Colo. — College of Southern Idaho's Golden Eagles won a 71-60 lead in the opening half and then they largely into basket matching Wednesday night to drop Rangely College 71-60. The Eagles move to Mesa, Colo., Thursday for a practice session and then will meet the host Thunderbirds in the Inter-mountain Collegiate Athletic Conference game Friday night. They will go to Eastern Utah Saturday night to wrap up the three-game week. The Eagles clamped on a tight defense in the first half and worked the ball inside well for their big early points. But their largest lead was 18 points at one stage before Morris-Mee, having his biggest scoring night of the year, tanked two field goals and Al Davis came up with four more points while Rangely managed one field goal. The Eagles kept about a 13-15 lead lead throughout. Rangely's 71-60 record is 1-1. The Eagles' record is 2-1. The Eagles' record is 2-1. The Eagles' record is 2-1.

O'Donnell-Led Minico Rallies In Last Quarter To Edge I.F.

IDAHO FALLS — Forward Mike O'Donnell and Terry Ketterling, along with Jim Boatwright as usual, sparked a big fourth quarter Wednesday night that carried the Minico Spartans away from a dog fight and into an 82-69 Southern Idaho Conference victory over the Idaho Falls Tigers. Naving only a three-point lead with 5:09 left in the game, the Spartans held a way to win it up entirely. O'Donnell had the biggest night of his Minico career, pouring through 24 points while Ketterling, after sitting out much of the first half, came out in the final three minutes to hit six points. Basically it was a victory for Minico's board strength as the Spartans got dozens of extra shots. The second effort kept them in the game in the opening three minutes of the fourth period when Idaho Falls waxed hot and pulled from nine behind at 60-61 to within three at 64-61. During that time, O'Donnell and Boatwright got rebound points to keep the Spartans ahead.

Atlanta And Bullets Win In Twin Bill

BOSTON (UPI)—The Atlanta Hawks reeled off five straight points in the final two minutes Wednesday night, the clincher coming on a dunk shot by Bill Bridges, as the Atlanta Hawks downed the Boston Celtics 112-106 in the second game of a doubleheader. In the first game, the Baltimore Bullets defeated the Detroit Pistons 121-116. A veteran forward Bailey Howell missed five consecutive free throws to end Boston's recovery from a first half in which the Celtics trailed by as much as 16 points. The Celtics had their last lead at 104-107 with 1:51 left, but Atlanta scored five points in a row, including a game-winning layup dunk with 43 seconds left, 108-104. The burly Bridges, scoring a game high of 30 points playing center as well as forward, got 13 of his points and pulled down 20 rebounds to lead the Hawks to a 37-21 first quarter lead. Atlanta built its largest lead, 46-31, with 10:25 left in the half. Emmett Bryant started the Celtics' comeback drive after that with 10 points, four rebounds and a strong defense. Boston pulled to within four points, 64-62, at intermission. The Celtics stopped the Hawks' damaging fast break in the third quarter, holding them to 20 points and taking the lead 89-83. Atlanta came back and went ahead 99-98 on a Jim Davis drive shot with 4:15 left in the game. Howell then misfired on his five free throw chances. Lou Hudson completed the scoring for Atlanta by sinking two free shots after time had run out. John Havlicek's 28 points was high for the Celtics while Hudson added 25 for the Hawks. In the first game, Baltimore guard Earl Manigault gave the Bullets a lead in the waning seconds of the game.

Boise State Outscores East Montana

BOISE (UPI)—Hitting the century mark for the first time this season, Boise State College cruised to a 100-85 basketball win over traveling Eastern Montana of Billings Wednesday night. In the victory, the Broncos now head for Missoula, Mont., Saturday night for a tussle with the Montana Grizzlies owning a 6-3 record, as compared to a 6-8 mark for the Yellow Jackets of Eastern. Firing 45 per cent from the field, Boise State swept to a commanding 49-31 halftime lead and then the starters turned the game over to reserves with 10 minutes left to play in the contest. Eastern led 8-7 with six minutes gone in the game, but that was the last time the Montana starters were in the game. Big Keith Burke led the Boise State scoring with 25 points but picked up ample help from Wendy Hart with 22, Bill Oley with 21 and Ron Austin with 16. The four combined for 84 of Boise State's 100 total. Steve Bell needed the Eastern Montana quarter with 13 points and Fred Johnson clipped in 12 to 10 for Cal Winslow. Boise dominated the backboards with a 53-45 advantage as Oley scraped down 23 errant points to lead the contest and Bell picked off 15 for Eastern.

Knicks Rally To Beat Warriors

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The New York Knicks overcame a rigid third period and a gallant San Francisco comeback for a 90-84 National Basketball Association victory over the Warriors Wednesday night. The Knicks, who have won six of their last seven conference games over the last three seasons, frittered away a 15-point first-half lead by scoring only 14 points in the third period, but finished strong to boost their record to 35-9. Dick Barnett, Walt Frazier and Dave DeBusschere each scored six points in the final quarter, with DeBusschere's two long jump shots placing New York ahead to stay after Nate Thurmond's free throws gave the Warriors an 82-81 lead.

Starless Gators Whip Alabama

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Playing without high-scoring forward Andy Owens, the Florida Gators used a balanced attack to whip Alabama, 79-70, Wednesday night in a battle of Southeastern Conference collar dwellers. Owens was advised by doctors to stay off an injured ankle to give it time to heal. Taking up the attack were Earl Findley with 20 points and Jerry Hoover with 16. The only Florida player to score in double figures was 8-10 center Doug Gamble who hit 18. Florida held the lead throughout the game and at one point in the second half built a 31-point margin.

Dell Retires As Captain Of Net Team

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Donald Dell bowed out as non-playing captain of the U.S. Davis Cup team Wednesday after guiding a youthful team to international supremacy two years in a row. Dell, 31, announced he was voluntarily giving up the captaincy to devote full time to the "new law office" he established recently and to participate in Maryland politics. He told a news conference he had relinquished the trophy to Marvin president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association to withdraw his name from consideration for the job when the group meets in Tucson, Ariz., next month. Named to oversee the U.S. team 23 months ago, Dell and a youthful squad of players featuring Arthur Ashe, Bob Lutz and Charles Pasarell, recaptured the Davis Cup from Australia 4-1 in 1968 and retained the trophy by a 3-0 margin against Romania in last year's challenge round. The flags of Algeria, Libya, Malaysia, the Maldives Islands, Mauritania, Pakistan, Singapore, Tunisia and Turkey all have a crest device.

Eden Miss, Praegitzer Wed

Jonna Roico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Roico, Eden, and Jerry Praegitzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Praegitzer, Twin Falls, were united in marriage Dec. 6 in rites at the First Presbyterian Church, Twin Falls.

Officiating at the double ring candlelight ceremony were Rev. Bill Hiler, Hazelton, and Rev. Bob Harvey, Twin Falls, before a setting of pink and white chrysanthemums centered by an arch of candelabra and a Christ-mas wreath. Pews were marked by pink bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over tulle, styled with a fitted bodice, a sash and neckline detailed in seed pearls and iridescent sequins and a long train. The full lace skirt featured a scalloped edge with a silk overskirt with lace scallops and a chapel-train of Chantilly lace. She wore an elbow-length veil of imported bridal illusion accented with an edging of Chantilly lace which matched the gown. It was held by a rose tiara accented by seed-pearls.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of pink roses, stephanotis and ivy on a white lace-covered Bible, a gift from her parents. She carried an heirloom silk handkerchief.

Matrons of honor were Jerry's sisters, Mrs. Betty Hilder and Mrs. Mike Stephens. Bride's maids were Cindy Smith and Nancy Wilson, classmates of the bride. Flower girl was Carrie Linder and ringbearer was Shelley Stephens, both nieces of the bride.

Best man was Stephen Jenks. Ushers were Tracy Watson, Bruce Peterson, and Jim Praegitzer, brother of the bride.

Candlelighters were Rhonda and Gary Shoup, cousins of the bride.

Soloist was Mrs. Dave Mead.

MR. AND MRS. JERRY PRAEGITZER (Shlg Morila photo)

and organist was Mrs. Charles Simpson.
Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Roico, Eden, grandparents of the bride.
A reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the Fireside Lounge of the church. The bride's table was covered with a dotted Swiss cloth, centered with the wedding cake, which was decorated with pink roses and wedding bells. It was topped with doves and pink roses.
The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Bill Meador and Mrs. Henry Neiwert. Punch was served by Mrs. Roy Shoup and col-le was paired by Mrs. Truman Simpson.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Doug Nakano. Gifts were opened and arranged by Janet Herrmann and Dianne Meyerhoff. Receiving gifts were Sheila Simpson, Jerry Linder, Mike Stephens and Jim Roico.
A lingerie shower was hosted by Carla Nakano and Rose Harmon. A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bride's parents at the Colonial Room of the Rogerson Hotel.
The bride is employed by the Idaho Power Co. and the bridegroom is stationed with the Army in Fort Benning, Ga.

Fashion Forecast For 1970 Includes Freedom, Comfort

We have before us 1970 — not only a new year, but a new decade filled with new inventions and innovations. With this will come a new look in fashion. The dramatic changes in our world which have affected manners, morals and life in general, are certain to influence fashion.

Woman's role in this new decade may be more complicated and demanding than ever before, but her clothing and accessories will be somewhat simplified. She'll have the freedom to weigh and play with color, design, proportion — how much, how little to put on — when, and — and — how — selectiveness will be a key word. Comfort will be a foremost factor in her dress, and good design a necessity. "Great designs support each other," says William H. Scholl, President of the Scholl Mfg. Co., Inc. Clothes, shoes and accessories should work together to create a look of distinction in whatever a woman undertakes as a wife, mother, career woman, hostess and so on.

There'll be more than one way to look — this calls for a selection of shoes in various styles, materials and colors. Although clogs, sandals and platform shoes will be popular this spring, a variety of sleek little pumps and pants shoes in a range of heel heights are also in the running. Footwear colors, like a sun beam, will be bright, warm and beautiful — the clear, definite colors of the '70s — sky blues, soft violet and mauve, jade green, warm yellow — and, of course, gray and beige.

Look for the rise and shine of patent for the spring, aged and crinkled; summer suede; fake lizard; and the languorous lace. Sensational fabrics — some shining — others hand-

Royalty Named At Area Ball

WENDELL — Sandra Freeman and Ralph King were crowned queen and king of the Senior Ball held in the Wendell Elementary Grade School all-purpose room recently. The theme of the ball was "Crystal Blue Persuasion" with music provided by the Myd Knights from Blackfoot.

Programs were distributed by Diane Drake, daughter of Mr. Mickey Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Little, both preschoolers.

Debbie Rost stated the class effected a heavenly atmosphere by having the couples enter by way of a golden staircase. A plastic ceiling with a fan anchored above made the impression of floating clouds. The walls were decorated with shades of blue and white crepe paper. A water fountain surrounded by two harps was in the center of the room.

Mrs. Annette Eaton, senior class adviser, stated, "The decorations were very unique, much more work was put into the decorations by this class than by any previous class."

Recital Given — BURLEY — Robert D. Hamblen presented Don Millard in an organ recital recently at his studio.
Mr. Millard, who has studied music for about three years, is a sophomore at Minico High School and is active in the school band. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smythe, Rupert.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our 20-year-old daughter who attends a college in another state rang us up this morning to tell us that she and her boyfriend got married last night. They had planned to get married when they both finished college, but I guess they couldn't wait that long.

I want to send our relatives and friends formal announcements of their marriage, but something just occurred to me. What if they "had to" get married in a hurry?

COLORADO MOTHER

We hardly speak now, and are in separate bedrooms for the first time. I consulted our family doctor and he said my wife would not improve unless she visited him for treatments, which she absolutely refuses to do. Do you recommend a permanent separation? I am seriously considering it.

BELFAST, IRELAND

DEAR MOTHER: In that case, send them airmail.

DEAR ABBY: After being married for 28 years to a dear, sweet, lovely little woman, several months ago she was hit with something called "change of life."

I found myself living with a complete stranger who only wanted to pick a row with me and go into a tantrum over the most trivial matters.

She refused to go on a holiday with me this year for the first time, so I went alone, and I must confess I had the best holiday of my life. When I came home after 12 days, she was not the least bit glad to see me.

DEAR BELFAST: You took this woman "in sickness and health." This is sickness. Are you sure the memory of your holiday without her isn't influencing your decision? Talk to your doctor again and ask for some suggestions on how to get this once dear, sweet, lovely woman to go for the treatment she so desperately needs. Don't desert her in her hour of need. Her condition may be temporary.

DEAR ABBY: Our ex-daughter-in-law has refused us the privilege of seeing our grandchildren. She claims that she has been in psychiatric school, and that she is completely ignored in the poem.

Demmy wrote this camera when he was only 21, and with it he won the coveted Prix de Rome, enabling him to study at the Villa Medici, where he remained for only two years.

The children are 8, 10, and 12. Our ex-daughter-in-law recently remarried, and our son agreed to let her new husband legally adopt the boys. We love these children, Abby, and this is breaking our hearts. It's true, our son was not the best husband and father in the world, but why should he be punished for his misdeeds?

Tell me, Abby, do you think it is in the best interests of the children to deny them seeing us?

DEAR GRANDPARENTS: Knowing nothing of how your visits affect the children, I cannot say. Obviously the girl is punishing you along with your son, which seems unfair. But there are no rights in the world, and your former daughter-in-law is now holding all the trump.

DEAR ABBY: I was amused at the letters you published from some of those women who remarked on the impotency of men of advanced age. They brought to mind a neighbor of mine who at age 80 announced that he had married! When talking to his son, I asked, "Why did you dad want to get married again at that age?" The son replied, "He didn't want to. He HAD to."

Yours Truly,
INDIANAPOLIS-NELIGIBOR

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclosed stamped, addressed envelope.

KING HILL—A reunion of the Everett family was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Moore, with Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ova Everett, Gooding, attending.

Music Club Program Scheduled

The Twin Falls Music Club, an affiliate of the National Federation of Music Clubs, will hold its first meeting for 1970 on Monday at 8 p.m. in the music room of the CSI Fine Arts Center. The public is invited, and members are urged to bring guests.

Mrs. William Kendall, president, will have charge of the business meeting. The concert will be read by Mrs. Ross Boyan. The hymn of the month, "Love Divine," by Charles Wesley, will be introduced by Mrs. Donald Heller, and sung by Mrs. Heller and Mrs. James Kinney, accompanied by Mrs. R. A. Sutcliffe.

The program, "L'Enfant Prodiges," by Claude Debussy, will be introduced by Mrs. Sutcliffe, chairman for the evening. It is a dramatic cantata for soprano, tenor and baritone, complimented by a dancer, who represents the merrymaking of the townspeople at the return of the prodigal. This particular version of "The Prodigal Son" was based on a poem by Eduard Gutzkow, and, rather than on the well-known story in the Bible, contained in the book of Luke.

In the poetic version, the mother is given a very prominent role, whereas no mention is made of her in the Bible. The second son, who plays a violin, is also completely ignored in the poem.

Demmy wrote this camera when he was only 21, and with it he won the coveted Prix de Rome, enabling him to study at the Villa Medici, where he remained for only two years.

Mrs. David Mead, soprano, will sing the part of Lia, the mother of Azael, a young Gallien, and Simeon. Lia's husband will be sung by Richard Smack, baritone. Mrs. Harvey will be the accompanist. The dancer, Bunny Killen, is a student of Beverly Hackney. Mrs. Tanner is assisting with the stage direction.

Mrs. Mead attended Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind., and the American Conservatory in Chicago, where she studied voice with Nancy Carr. After coming to Twin Falls, she studied for six years with Lucille Lippincott. She has sung in a number of operas, including "Carmen," "Barbara," "The Telephone," "The Marriage of Figaro," and "Cosi Fan Tutti." She is a past president of the Twin Falls Music Club, and has sung the lead in a number of Dilettante Productions. Mrs. Mead is very active in community affairs.

Rev. Dr. Harvey is a graduate of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, where he studied voice with Dr. John Milton Kelly. He also studied in Twin Falls with Lucille Lippincott. Mrs. Harvey has a Bachelor of Music degree in piano from Simpson College in Iowa. She has also done graduate work at the San Francisco Theological Seminary. She minored in organ, both in college and in graduate school. She prefers accompanying to solo work, and has been a studio accompanist for vocalists since she was in the sixth grade. The Harveys, who have three children, have resided in Twin Falls for the past seven years. Dr. Harvey is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Richard Smack, a native of Twin Falls, is a 1958 graduate of Twin Falls High School. While a student here, he studied voice with Mrs. O. P. Duvall. He is a 1968 graduate of Brigham Young University, with a Bachelor of Music degree in voice. While there he studied with Dr. Ralph Woodward and his wife, Margaret Woodward. He sang in a quartet which performed "Bach's To Deum Oratorio," was soloist with the A-Cappella choir on their tours, and sang the tenor lead in the opera, "Gloria Schickel," by Puccini, and was lead tenor in the college male quartet, the Y-lows. Mr. Smack is married and has three children. He is in his second year as vocal music instructor in Twin Falls High School and O'Leary Junior High School.

Salesman Is Hero Despite Disclaimers

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Franklin Hall insists he's no hero, but the 63 other persons aboard a Delta Airlines jet aren't so sure. Hall, a 140-pound salesman, wrestled a knife away from a man who grabbed a stewardess and ordered the hijack diverted to Switzerland just as the plane was making its landing approach to Jacksonville for an intermediate stop on a flight from Orlando to Columbus, Ohio. Police arrested Anton Funjek, 41, and later learned he was awaiting trial on charges of threatening the life of President Nixon. Funjek, an alien traveling with a Yugoslav passport, was charged with attempted hijacking and air piracy. Hall, a sales representative from Columbus, Ga., waited until the big Delta jet landed and began braking before he rushed the off-balance knife-wielding man. Once Hall wrestled the six-inch knife away from the man, passengers Charles Scripp of Willard, Ohio, and W. T. Miller of Green Bay, Wis., helped Hall overpower the would-be hijacker. "When the plane lurched on the runway I thought the girl was struggling and without thinking, I grabbed him," Hall explained. "I holed for someone to grab his other arm and two other men helped me. "I don't consider myself a hero. It's just one of those things you know has to be done," Hall said.

Melba Woman Killed In Wreck

MELBA (UPI)—Mrs. Martha Estrada, 20, Route 1, Melba, was killed and her 6-year-old son, Guadalupe, 24, was injured when their car went out of control on Melmont road and crashed Wednesday. Estrada, an Army specialist, was hospitalized in Nampa with undetermined injuries. A report said the car the two were riding in failed to stop at a stop sign and plunged off a dead end road into a ditch. Estrada was home from the Army on leave.

Militants Surrender Church, Go To Jail After 11 Days

NEW YORK (UPI)—A group of 105 white and Puerto Rican militants who had barricaded themselves in a church for 11 days to back demands for a free breakfast program for poor children were arrested Wednesday and hauled off to jail. Police removed the door of the locked First Spanish Methodist Church shortly after 7 a.m. and shoving William Kent and several deputies entered and placed the sit-ins under arrest. There were no incidents as the activists were led from the East Harlem church to waiting police vans and buses. Arrest warrants were issued for the activists after they opened a courtroom.

VIRGIL MALONE, vice president of the Twin Falls County Chapter of the March of Dimes, presents a plaque for appreciation of services to Peggy Morgan. Miss Morgan has been active in the local chapter for the past 18 years and has served as secretary for the last two years. She contracted polio in 1952 and began working in the March of Dimes chapter in 1953. Miss Morgan said she hopes the March of Dimes can do for birth defects what it has already done for polio. She expressed her gratitude for what the March of Dimes had done for her.

Thieves Haul Equipment, Silence Radio

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A San Bernardino, Calif., radio station went off the air Monday night until further notice. The reason: all its transmitting equipment was carted off by thieves. About 1,000 pounds of equipment worth an estimated $20,000 was hauled from the transmitter building of FM station KOLA on Rex Springs Mountain while the owner, Frederick R. Cote, was broadcasting from its Riverside studio. A Federal Communication Commission spokesman said the agency had never encountered such a theft before. "That's a lot of equipment to carry off," he said. "It would fill a small building." In reporting the theft to the FCC, Cote said that despite offers of help from local stations, he did not know when he could resume broadcasting.

Federal Food Stamp Plan Penalizes Some Families, Offers Profit To Many Others

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Nixon administration's liberalized food stamp allotment schedule will deliver considerably more than it promises to some needy families, but far less to others. The new payment schedule, due to go into effect early this year, was set to give needy families enough to cover the "economy diet" budget calculated by economists at the Department of Agriculture. At current retail prices, Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin announced recently, the means food stamp allotments of $100 per month for a four-member family. Under this plan, every family of four will get the same $100 stamp allotment, regardless of their ages. Agriculture Department studies, however, show that actual food needs vary widely on the basis of age. Economists calculate that as of September a family of a father, mother and two pre-school children would have needed $98.50 per month to purchase the "economy diet." Its $100, therefore, is $16.50 more than the September cost of the economy diet and probably about $15 to $16 above costs at today's retail prices. For a family of four with two school-age children, both under 12, the $100 food stamp allocation will just about equal the current cost of an economy diet. But a family with two 15-year-old boys would need $124.25 a month to cover an economy food budget—$16.08 more than they will receive.

A flat per-person rate regardless of age—a practice in use ever since the food stamp program began in 1961—tends to penalize small families and those with younger children. Pediatricians estimate feeding costs are highest for teen-agers and lower for young children and older adults. A man and wife, both aged 60, need $30.48 per month but will get $50 in stamps. For a hypothetical family of six including two boys of 13 and 16, a girl of 13 and a girl of 9, an "economy diet" would cost $154.87. Their allocation will be $144. For a widowed or divorced mother aged 40 with a girl of 16 and a boy of 9, the economy diet is estimated at $72.16 a month. This family's allotment would be $84. But for a 40-year-old mother with a girl of 16 and a boy of 14, economists estimate "economy" diet costs at $82.82—and the stamp allotment would still be $84. An official said the department has not tried to adjust stamp allocations for two reasons. One is the administrative problem involved in getting and verifying age information. The second is that the "economy diet" plan itself is not regarded as especially generous. Food economists recently estimated that on the basis of 1964 studies, fewer than 50 per cent of the families whose food budgets were at the "economy" level managed to buy a fair amount above the "economy" level.

Scientists Bicker Over Moon Origin

HOUSTON (UPI)—Scientific teams from around the world are showing surprising agreement on what they have found from the first detailed study of pieces of the moon, but some startling differences on what they think it means. This has prompted Nobel Prize-winning lunar scientist Harold C. Urey to criticize some of his colleagues for a "very narrow point of view" in their theories on how the moon developed. In reports presented at the second day of the four-day session: Dr. Gary Cottrell of New York's Lamont Geophysical Observatory, said the moonquake detector planted on the lunar surface by Apollo 12's astronauts in November is producing evidence the moon is blanketed by a layer at least 12 miles thick of rock fractured like safety glass. He said this would account for long bell-like reverberations caused by impacts on the moon. Dr. W. V. Elmann, of the University of Kentucky, said a chemical analysis of material returned by the Apollo 11 astronauts in July showed that the moon soil and rocks are different in composition. This was a surprise and meant the soil must have material mixed in that came from a different source, probably from distant highland regions on the moon. Dr. G. G. Coles, of the University of Oregon, said his chemical studies of the Apollo 11 samples suggests the moon has always been dry. If so, it would spoil the idea there might be a layer of frost beneath the lunar surface that would provide a source of oxygen and hydrogen for future spacemen. The unprecedented moon meeting began Monday and some scientists already have interpreted their studies as indicating the moon began as a molten ball, or at least was hot in its first billion, or so years. Others, however, found evidence they said supports the theory the moon has always been cold and inactive.

SWENSEN'S MARKETS SAY: DOWN WITH DIRTY BOOKS!

We just want everyone to know we're against PRINTING PRESS POLLUTION! If you think rivers and lakes are getting DIRTY, you ought to take a look at our magazine racks sometime. The trouble is: it's hard to tell what's smut and what's not. Like, if all those accumulated degrees on the SUPREME COURT can't tell a DIRTY book when they see one, think how hard it is for common folks like us. For example, a few years ago, the only place you could see a naked woman was in the National Geographic, now they're in almost everything. Nasty words are cropping up in nice magazines too. The point is: we know we're selling 'em, but we don't like 'em. But on the other hand it's so hard to tell the difference anymore. As far as the rest of our merchandise goes, it is strictly CLEAN and strictly designed to SAVE YOU MONEY! Please See Below!

In these over-amplified days of 'now' and 'go', more people than ever before are turning to the quiet, insured and dependable comforts of First Federal. In the year just ended, First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Twin Falls created a growth in assets of $1,860,309.37 and raised reserves to another all-time high of $4,107,392.24.

Some may wonder why this should be. Why, in these run-like-there's-no-tomorrow times should so many people deposit their money at First Federal.

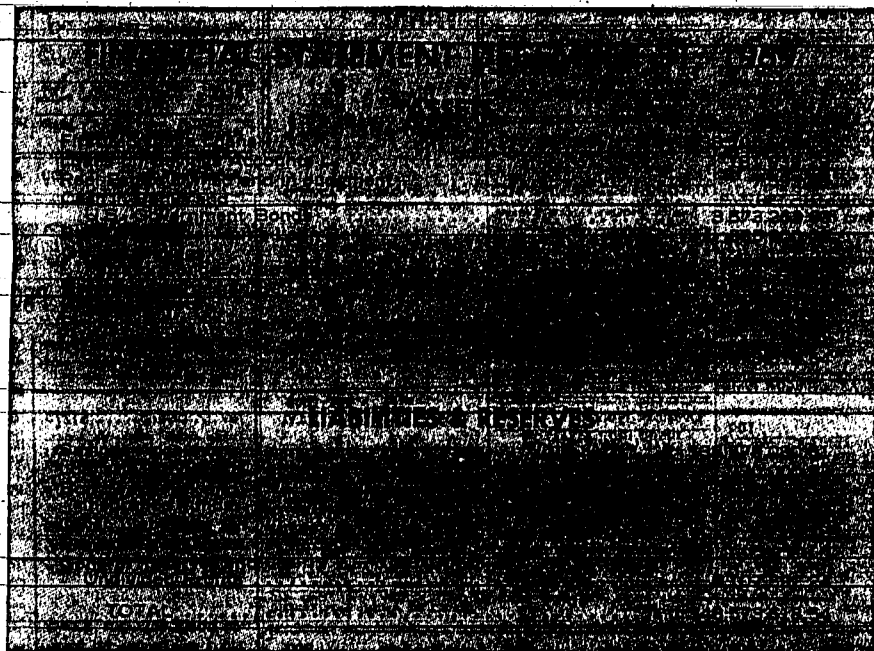

Because those who have seen the first strand of gray know that there is a tomorrow to think about. Those who have lived through changing times know what a comfortable feeling it is to have money deposited where they can count on the earnings as sure as the sun rises . . . where there is no risk, no speculation, no worry. At 5 1/4 % on Savings Deposit Certificates and 4 3/4 % on Savings Deposit Passbook accounts, First Federal paid $1,743,407.24 to savers in 1969. This was the largest ever paid by any savings institution in Magic Valley.
