

Hunting Enthusiasts Blast State Commission Over Game Shortage

By LARRY HOVEY
Times-News Sports Editor
BOISE — Based on a poor success ratio in big game hunting, the expected three-phase controversy over management by the Idaho Fish and Game Commission and the state department raged through nine hours in two public hearings Wednesday.

During three and one-half hours in the usual public hearing phase of the quarterly commission meeting and then through another long five-and-one-half-hour talkathon before the state Legislature's joint wildlife and recreation committee, the demands ran from cutting back on hunting seasons and two-deer limits through call for elimination of "at least part" of the commission and back to expressions of complete confidence in the commission. A large number of those attending urged restriction or outright elimination of non-resident hunting in the state.

Ray J. Holmes, Twin Falls, commissioner from the fourth district, and Glenn Stanger, Idaho Falls area commissioner, came in for the bitter attacks of the day as the protest group that has been building came to the fore.

Woodrow Bean, a state legislator from McCall, noting that the "three commissioners" appointed by Governor Don Samuelson hadn't a fair test as yet, asked for immediate dismissal of Holmes and Stanger on the basis of many years of "derelict" decision making both in management and in hiring of department personnel. Asked if he would like to see a return to the political system, voted out in 1939 by a state initiative, Bean said, "I would give them six months to correct the situation. If they don't I'd fire the entire commission and start something new."

While Bean was attacking the commission, George Dowel, Boise, charged that department personnel from the director and assistant director to the biologists, were, abetted by the commission, not following the outline of the state code and were hired under circumstances not covered by state law. He joined Bean in seeking a major overhaul.

Both hearings followed very similar patterns, with most of the speakers and statements being identical. The commission marshaled heavy support from the Boise, Twin Falls, Pocatello and Idaho Falls area. In the evening meeting, the number of expressions of confidence in the commission outnumbered those of the protesters. But in most cases the protests were restricted to game as encountered by hunters this fall.

John Getty of Challis asked for seven points, including (1) Gus Orman of California brought in to give a final decision on the Morgan-Creek sheep-deer wintering area and his decision be final; (2) maintaining usual checking stations, but include many more roving stations for spot checks to discourage poaching; (3) abolish all two-deer areas; (4) open all major drainages in Custer County on the same date; (5) arrive to rebuild the Morgan-Creek sheep herd; (6) resume salting for big game animals and (7) provide supplemental feeding as required in harsh winter conditions. These points, presented by the Central Idaho Rye and Gun Club were echoed later by a Farm Bureau statement from the same area.

North Idahoans expressed alarm at the reduction of the area's elk herd and asked for uniform and shorter seasons to discourage poaching and prolonged harassment of elk. Max Walker, president of the Idaho Outfitters Association, said success of his hunting parties had dropped from 80 or 85 per cent to 45 per cent this year. Walker touched on the predator problem, from coyotes and bears to the two-legged predators. He also noted blood samples indicated presence of blue tongue in the herd and said See HUNTERS, Pg. 2, Col. 3

SQUEEZING AHEAD BY A SKI Is the way Jean-Claude Killy, triple-gold medal winner in the 1968 Olympics, managed to beat Poph Stiegler in the runoff on parallel slalom courses of the Killly Challenge Cup at Sun Valley Tuesday. Poph, Jackson Hole Ski School head, beat Killy in the giant slalom on the previous day while Killy reversed the order in the slalom, resulting in the runoff. Jean-Claude had a $10,000 winning trick at the finish line, where he managed to break the electric eye timing an eyelash ahead of Stiegler by a powerful forward thrust of his ski. North Viets Send Envoy To Break Talk Deadlock

PARIS (UPI)—Le Duc Tho, political leader of the North Vietnamese peace talks delegation, is returning to Paris with apparent instructions to try to break the year-old Vietnam deadlock, Communist diplomats said today.

The sources said Tho, the senior Communist official with the North Vietnamese delegation, will arrive in Paris on Friday. He has been in Hanoi and is now in Moscow for talks with Kremlin leaders.

The Communist sources said Tho apparently is bringing new instructions to Xuan Thuy, the leader of the actual negotiating team from North Vietnam. They have boycotted the last several sessions on grounds President Nixon has "downgraded" the talks.

Nixon Agrees On Hike

By GENE BERNHARDT
WASHINGTON (UPI)
House lawmakers started work today on a new education and welfare appropriations bill, a commitment from President Nixon to spend $450 million more for education than he originally proposed.

The administration compromise came Wednesday shortly before the House voted to sustain a veto of the $19.7 billion appropriation bill. The Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare. The vetoed bill included a $1.2 billion increase over his budget. The House voted 238-191 against the veto, but since it required two-thirds of the House to sustain and the bill did, Thirty-five Democrats joined the 165 Republicans to give Nixon the victory.

Hearing Set On Sale Of Old Albion Campus

ALBION — Albion residents are looking enthusiastically to the sale of the old Albion campus, a farm oriented vocational school on the now abandoned campus of the former Magic Valley Christian College here.

The Albion council feels, Mr. Nielson explained, that rather than "let the campus fall apart, or have a bunch of hippies take over, if the state will deed it to us, we will buy it."

The councilmen pointed out, however, the council has made no commitment as to its future action with the campus, if the sale goes through.

The former Magic Valley Christian College, which was located on Baker, Ore., at the Land Board meeting Monday in Boise, Atty. Gen. Robert Robson said he "would like to get the whole thing off from around our necks."

Mr. Robson said he would like to get the whole thing off from around our necks. The sale would involve the campus buildings, furniture and all improvements, but the Albion library, sought after by many state institutions, would be inventoried into the state library.

Gov. Don Samuelson, who is a member of the Land Board, said the board would make its decision within days after the Feb. 16 hearing.

Mrs. Keith Ambide, whose husband is a board member for the planned vocational school, said Mr. Briggs is enthusiastic about the Albion area for the job farm training since both dry land and irrigated farming are in operation in the area. Mechanical, welding and business courses are planned for the school and students could start at the beginning of any nine week term.

Lincoln County Proposed 1970 Budget Shows $8,199 Hike Over Last Year

SIHOIONE — The Lincoln county proposed budget for 1970 is $240,875, an increase of some $8,199 over the 1969 budget which was $232,676.

Mrs. Luella L. Kinsey, clerk, notes that expenditures last year were below the budget, and while it may appear that the increase this year is more than the 4 per cent minimum set by the last legislature, the increases are in areas controlled by the state.

One increase is a $5,000 appropriation for elections, which was not necessary last year; $7,500 for replanting in the assessor's department and $5,500 for the court reform necessitated by state law.

The county share for public defender expenses will remain at $2,000. Eliminated from the new budget is a $2,501.62 item for flood control work which was completed last year on the diversion at the Dietrich canal near Richfield. The court reform budget is $2,500 for wages and $2,800 for other expenses.

A total of $20,100 has been set in the Commissioners' special budget for 1970, while $28,300 was approved last year and $23,000-25 was actually spent. The Capital Outlay budget is set for $5,000, the same as last year, though $5,007.24 was spent.

The County Extension agent's budget is set at $8,450, compared to $8,250 last year. Of the amount, $6,350 is for wages and $2,000 for other expenses. The difference in the amount this year over last, Mrs. Kinsey said, is for increase in salaries of the office help.

A sum of $975 has been set in the county Coroner's budget, with $150 for wages and $525 for other expenses. Last year $694 was budgeted with $169 spent.

The building and grounds budget is set at $11,600 with $4,100 for wages, $7,500 for other expenses. Last year the budget was $10,300 while $9,791.79 was spent.

The county commissioners' budget is set at $5,500, compared to $5,300 last year. Of the $5,800, $4,500 is for wages and $1,300 for other expenses. Last year $4,500 was spent on wages and $651.24 on other expenses.

There was no budget set for the Justice Court as it will not be set up in the county this year. Last year a total of $3,769 was appropriated for that department. The Probate Court is handling the cases that previously went to the Justice Court and will do so until the court reform goes into effect next January.

District court budget is $3,200, compared to $2,700 last year where $2,710.25 was spent.

The Prosecuting Attorney's budget is proposed at $9,600 for 1970, while last year it was $8,217. This includes $8,400 for salaries and $1,200 other expenses. Last year $9,200 was spent for wages and $664.89 for other expenses.

The Probate Judge's budget is set at $9,300 compared to $7,832 last year. This includes $7,750 for wages and $1,550 for other expenses. Last year $6,850 was for salaries and $704.14 for other expenses and the increase is because the Probate Court is now handling all Justice cases.

The County Treasurer's budget is set for $12,400, compared to $12,278 last year. Spent last year was $9,400 for wages and $2,714.86 for other expenses. This year it calls for $9,000 for wages and $2,500 other expenses.

The County Assessor's budget is proposed at $14,500 this year, while last year appropriation was $13,089. Of the amount for this year, $10,800 is for salaries and $3,700 for other expenses. Last year salaries were $9,048.80 and other expenses were $2,040.73.

The county Clerk's budget is proposed at $13,000, compared to $12,000 approved last year. This year, $10,800 is for salaries and $2,200 for other expenses. Last year $10,100 was spent on wages and $1,887.05 for other expenses.

The Sheriff's budget is set at $15,200 for 1970, while last year it was approved at $14,839. Of the amount proposed, $11,000 is for wages and $4,200 other expenses. Last year $10,067.60 was for wages and $3,762.74 for other expenses.

All of the above makes up the Current-expense part of the county budget, totaling $149,285. In addition to the Current-Expense, other sections of the budget include $700 for pest control, while it was $500 last year; $600 for Memorial fund, the same as last year; $11,200 in Public Health fund, while last year it was $7,955.

Mrs. Kinsey states the addition this year is partly due to county participation in the mental health clinic operated in Blaine County.

The Convalescent Center fund is proposed at $12,000, while last year it was $7,000; though only $2,816.01 was spent. The Junior College fund has been proposed at $20,000 compared to $18,000 last year when $16,556.08 was spent. This amount goes to pay tuition for Lincoln County students in the Junior College.

The Wood Control fund is to continue at $45,000, though last year expenditures were $45,208.25.

Soviets Claim 'Mummy Balsam' Will Heal Broken Bones, Cure Many Diseases Of Man

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet news agency Tass hailed today the curative powers of a substance called mummy balsam, calling it a cure-all that quickly heals broken bones.

Tass said the dark brown ooze, a 2,000-year-old folk nostrum, was partly responsible for the recovery of world high jump champion Valery Brumel from a broken leg.

Brumel broke his leg in a motorcycle accident in 1965 and is just returning to competition. The Tass report quoted him as saying his future still would be in doubt "had it not been for mummy."

And now, the news agency said, the miracle working substance is going on sale in local drugstores across the Soviet Union.

"Under the effect of mummy, man's broken bones are growing together twice as fast as when a usual treatment is applied," Tass said. "Tests have shown that patients feel better, too. Pain goes away quicker and soft tissues are being recovered faster."

The report was vague on the ways and wherefores of mummy's curative powers, saying only that it contains "amino acids and over two score of microelements."

"Mummy, as a rule, occurs high in mountains, in caves and grottoes," Tass said. "Big accumulations of mummy were discovered in central Asia and the Caucasus."

According to Tass, mummy not only heals broken bones but also osteitis, the blood, hemorrhoids, radiculitis and kills germs better than penicillin.

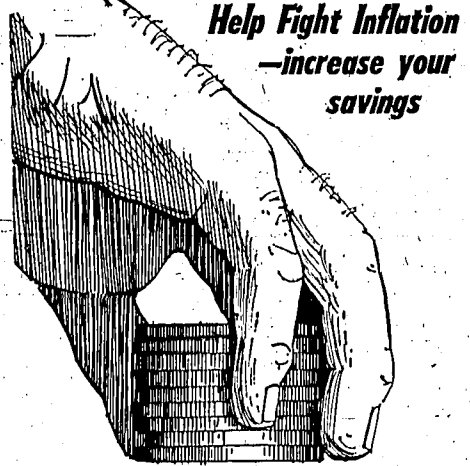

Billie Sol Estes Sued By Texas

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Billie Sol Estes, the Texas financier who built a $150 million empire on various swindles involving the sale of fertilizer tanks that never existed, was sued Tuesday by the state of Texas for $4.376 in back taxes.

Estes, who went to prison in 1965 for 15 years upon conviction for fraud, is now in Sandstone, Minn., federal prison. A federal parole board considers his case Friday.

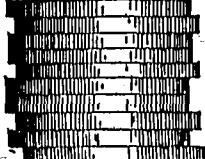

YOSEF TEROKAI, Israeli ambassador to the United Nations, told newsmen this week that 25 Soviet Jews have written his government, requesting aid of U.N. Secretary General U Thant in securing permission for them to leave Russia. The group's letter stated that all appeals to Soviet authorities have been rejected, and that they are being "forcibly detained." Ambassador Terokai's appeal marked the third time in recent weeks that Soviet Jews have sought U.N. intervention. (UPI telephoto)

Rep. Palmer Urges Cut In Funding

BOISE (UPI) — Rep. Jenkin Palmer, R-Mad., a co-chairman of the Joint Finance Appropriations Committee, said Wednesday he thinks it may be possible to trim supplemental funding to "under $8 million."

The joint committee has requests totaling $11.7 million.

Palmer said, however, "we have to take care of state participation in water pollution control." He indicated the legislature might appropriate $50,000 for state aid in the 1970-71 fiscal year.

The Mad. Republican said the $11.7 million total includes more than $500,000 requested from the permanent building fund. He said some of the general fund requests for capital outlay may be filled from the permanent building fund.

At the beginning of the legislature Gov. Don Samuelson told the lawmakers his existing budget included requests for supplemental appropriations of $7.5 million. He recommended that only $4.2 million of it be filled.

Palmer also said he would like to see the legislature reduce the requests below $8 million they will include authorization to increase the amount of classified state employees five per cent.

The governor has requested at $200,000 and the legislature in his $4.2 million recommendation.

Senate Demolishes House Bill To Set Up Seven Public Health Districts In Idaho

By PAUL M. QUINN

BOISE (UPI) — The Idaho Senate Wednesday shot holes in a house bill to create seven public health districts in Idaho and returned it to committee even though the House last week approved the measure 59-2.

Sen. John Barker, R-Buhl, floor sponsor of the proposal, asked that the bill be recommended to the Senate's Health and Welfare Committee for more study after it was apparent the proposal was going to fail.

Sen. Walter Yarbrough, R-Grand View, called the proposal "one of the most repulsive bills that has come before me in this legislature" and Sen. Joe Preston, R-Deer, asked why certain services, such as measles shots, could be just paid for by a resident of a county rather than "being handed down by the Great White Father" in Washington, D.C.

The bill would establish the seven health districts to be headed by seven-member boards of directors. It would provide public health services to residents of nearly half of Idaho's counties which are not presently part of any district.

The measures:

- Call for appointment of district boards by county commissioners participating in the district.
- Call for the counties to contribute to the operation of the district on the basis of "population only."
- In debating in favor of the proposal, Barker told the Senate that the measure calls for 35 per cent state funding of basic programs with the remainder to be made up by county governments in proportion to their population. It would go into effect July 1, 1971.

Barker told the Senate that at the present time only 24 of 44 counties in Idaho have some form of public health services now. He said the proposal "would allow" counties to levy up to two mills to finance the district operation.

Among the services to be provided would be organized nursing and immunization programs, inspection services for restaurants, food, water and sewage systems and child development programs.

Barker pointed out that similar measures in the last legislature failed but said that all objections had been removed in the bill debated Wednesday.

Yarbrough was the first to disagree.

He said, "This is not permissive legislation... it gets right down to the grassroots of democracy."

Forest Land Withdrawal Is Sought

BOISE (UPI) — The Bureau of Land Management said Wednesday the secretary of agriculture has filed for withdrawal of approximately 2,334 acres of land within the Sawtooth National Forest for three recreation areas.

The three areas involved consist of 204 acres in the Dollar Lake Recreation Area and 211 acres in the Galena Summit Overlook Recreation Area, both in Blaine County, and 1,700 acres in the Howell Canyon Recreation Area in Cassia County.

The application for withdrawal precludes entry for prospecting and location of mining claims.

The notice provides a 30 day waiting period during which written comments or objections may be submitted to land office manager of the Bureau of Land Management in Boise.

Darrow Is Convicted In Church Case

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — A Third District Court jury Wednesday convicted S. Edgar Darrow of forgery in connection with the disappearance of more than one-half million dollars from the Mormon Church.

Darrow, 32, Salt Lake City, was found guilty of forging a $15,000 check of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. A jury of four men and four women deliberated less than two hours before returning the verdict.

Darrow faces trial again today on another charge of forgery in the disappearance of $50,000 in church funds from September, 1967 to October, 1968.

Last November, LaMar Edward Kay, 42, also of Salt Lake City, was convicted of forgery in the case and is serving a one-to-two year sentence in the Utah State Prison.

Judge Bryant H. Croft delayed sentencing until today's trial is completed.

Police recovered more than $72,000 in cash and cancelled checks totaling $604,000 after the arrests.

Former Official Testifies

CHICAGO (UPI) — Former U.S. Attorney General Ramsey Clark testified for an hour Wednesday in the riot conspiracy trial of the "Chicago Seven." The jury didn't hear a word of it.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Richard G. Schultz argued Clark's testimony would be "irrelevant and immaterial," and would "seriously prejudicial" to the government case. He also charged that defense attorneys would "make a spectacle of this as they have in the past."

U.S. District Court Judge Julius J. Hoffman allowed defense attorney William Kunstler to question Clark, who was jury out of the room. When Kunstler, after many government objections, was asked to ask Clark "any questions," Hoffman said he would not allow anything to be asked in this matter. He said he would not allow any "unconventional" questions that the government attorneys were asking. Defense witnesses and would be a "precedent" horrendous to contemplate.

HERE IS AN exclusive photograph of American Motors' "Gremlin" which will be on the automobile market in April. The picture was taken during tests at a racetrack at Carlsbad, Calif., after it had been secretly unveiled to dealers and others at LaCosta, Calif. It will sell for about $1,800 and will compete with Volkswagen and the Ford Maverick. This picture, which is copyrighted by the Blade-Tribune of Oceanside, Calif., was taken by their staff photographer using a 200-mm. lens. The photographer crawled through brush for over a half mile to get close enough to the guarded test area in order to take this first picture of the new vehicle.

Kidnaping Trial Held At Reno

RENO, NEW. (UPI) — Dean Peterson, millionaire Las Vegas real estate man, identified Joseph Rischko and William McCoolle Wednesday as the men who abducted him in an unsuccessful, $800,000 ransom attempt.

He said a third man also was involved in the plot which failed when he escaped the next day before the money could be paid.

Peterson, 35, said Rischko, 50, Carson City, and McCoolle, 27, Seattle, accosted him at his car in a Las Vegas parking lot Oct. 9.

Rischko had a jar of what he said was acid and McCoolle had a gun, Peterson testified in Washoe District Court where the two are on trial on "first degree" kidnaping charges.

"They used a lot of profanity and obscene language," he said. "Rischko said 'let me throw this acid in your face,' McCoolle had a gun in my face and threatened to shoot."

"I thought it was a robbery so I didn't resist strenuously. I didn't want to get hurt over the money I had on me," he said.

A LIVE KODIAK BEAR tipping the scales at nearly 1,200 pounds and standing 12 feet is lathered up and about to be given a very gentle trim here. The bear is appearing at a sportsmen's show in Boston, Mass., at the present time. The barber, Jim Gusimano, approaches the shaving job with great care. The bear's owner, George Allen, decided the bear, "Victor," needed a shave before his first public appearance in Boston.

Elks Offer Scholarships To Students

Roy Russell, Exalted Ruler of Twin Falls Lodge No. 1183 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, announced today that Feb. 14 is the closing date for applications for Elks college scholarships.

He urged students in this area who need financial help for college to consult their school advisors or obtain further information and application blanks at the Elks Lodge at 700 Shoshone St., N.

The Elks National Foundation is offering 538 college scholarships totaling $307,600. Included are 200 awards ranging from $700 to $2,500 offered in nationwide competition. Supplementing these are 338 scholarships of $600 each. These will be awarded on a quota for each state.

In addition to the above awards, the Idaho State Elks Association will award to both boy and girl divisions, $250 for first, $150 for second, and $100 for third place winners. Twin Falls Elks Lodge No. 1183 will award $100 for first place and $50 for second place in both the boy and girl division.

Boys and girls compete separately for identical awards. High school and prep school seniors and college students below the senior class are eligible if they are citizens of the United States and reside in the jurisdiction of the Order. In addition to scholastic attainment, applicants are judged on citizenship, personality, leadership, perseverance, resourcefulness, patriotism, and financial need. The local chairman is Norman Wiseman, 1338 Wilmore Ave., and may be reached at 733-3160.

Labor Department Survey Shows Price Of Groceries Will Continue To Rise

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government reported Wednesday that wholesale prices of processed meat, fish, cheese and sugar rose sharply this month, raising the almost certain prospect of higher grocery prices, perhaps early as next month.

The Labor Department reported the wholesale price index rose seven-tenths of 1 per cent in January—more than double the December rise—as the nation's worst inflation since the Korean War continued unabated despite growing signs of a slowdown in the economy.

The higher wholesale prices will ultimately filter down to consumers with the higher food prices considered likely to show up in food stores as early as February.

Prices for farm products and processed foods and feeds on the wholesale market rose 1.4 per cent in January, due mainly to a 2 per cent rise for processed foods and feeds, while farm products rose only four-tenths of 1 per cent, the Labor Department said.

Processed meats rose 3.4 per cent, despite declines in prices farmers were receiving for cattle and hogs—Joel Popkin, assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said this may have been caused by bad weather curtailing shipments of livestock to market and creating a shortage of meat for processing.

Wholesale prices for processed fish climbed 2.8 per cent. Those for cheese were up 2 per cent, while confectionery products and sugar rose 1.6 per cent.

Fruits and vegetables, however, were up only two-tenths of 1 per cent, and milk prices were unchanged.

The January increases added more fuel to growing indications that the nation may be in for double trouble in 1970—a business recession accompanied by the worst inflation in 20 years—Only a day earlier, the Commerce Department predicted there would be little real growth in the economy this year, and "some rise" in unemployment. But it said, price increases would remain "strong."

The wholesale price rise this month appeared to contradict administration spokesmen who have repeatedly said government efforts to cool the economy are taking effect and will be showing up in lower rates of price advances. Industrial commodities at wholesale rose three-tenths of 1 per cent in January, down from the four-tenths of 1 per cent rise in December.

U.S. Aid To Starving Ibo Tribesmen Starts Arriving

Lagos, Nigeria (UPI) — Two the end of the war, were being quickly overcome.

Earlier Wednesday, a group of Catholic missionaries and nuns who had worked in Biafra before its collapse arrived in Lagos on the way home. They are among 32 Catholics being expelled from Nigeria for allegedly helping the rebel cause.

Most of the missionaries and nuns are from Ireland and worked for the Catholic relief organization, Caritas International. It is one of the groups from which Nigeria said it would not accept relief aid.

The Red Cross said the transportation problems, which delayed delivery of food to refugees immediately following the meeting starts at 8 p.m. and refreshments will be served after discussion.

Vincent Smazal, chairman of the Twin Falls County Democratic Central Committee, said talk will center around various elective offices up for grabs in the election this fall, but there will be some discussion on what the Legislature is doing at present time and the Democratic Primary Convention to be held in Twin Falls this summer.

"Everyone's invited. We don't limit this just to Democrats," Mr. Smazal said. "People who have anything to contribute are welcome to present their views."

Comedian In Vaudeville Is Dead At Age 82

GREENPORT, N.Y. (UPI) — Funeral arrangements were being made Wednesday for "Senator Ford," 82, a vaudeville comedian whose jokes on radio's "Can You Top This" gained him national fame.

Ford, whose actual name was Edward H. Ford, died Tuesday night of cancer. He was a New Yorker who dropped out of school after the eighth grade to work as a comedian. He became "senator" in his early 20s when he was mistakenly introduced as Senator Ford at a club dinner. The name stuck for the rest of his career.

He climaxed a long vaudeville career with Broadway and radio appearances, and then joined "Can You Top This"—a radio show where Ford, Joe Laurie Jr. and Harry Hershfield tried to top jokes sent in by listeners.

Chariot Racers Plan Championship Event In Burley

BURLEY — The Magic Valley Chariot Racing Association will start on the first leg of its championship races this weekend with 12 races each day.

Because of the mud in the area of the airport track which the group has used for years for racing, the association had to find a new place to hold the races. Presently the races are held on the Robert Stevens Ranch, Declo, which is located four miles east, three-fourths mile north and three-fourths mile west of Burley.

Last week several of the races were very close with dead heats and photo finishes used to determine the winner. From this weekend to the end of the season, each race will be held on Saturday and Sunday of each weekend.

Matched for Saturday's race are Don Vandenberg, who so far is undefeated this season, and Scott Loveland, who just has one loss to his record. A. Lowry is matched with Jack Funk, Declo, and the race will be held at Oosterhout vs. Glen Funk, Burley.

Other matches include Lee Jolley vs. Alma Turner, Anderson and Neilson vs. Edy Martin; Milton Harris vs. Gino Bortz; P. C. Miller vs. Jon Duran; Garland-Markham vs. Eldon Anderson; and Wendell Bailey vs. Clyde Kendall.

Two year old matches include Bailey and Durfee vs. Markham and Burns; and Clyde Kendall vs. Ron Nelson.

The National Chariot Racing Association, R.I.P., will be in charge of the races. The Magic Valley Chariot Racing Association at the Declo Race Track.

Singular Ship

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Although seagoing vessels are always considered feminine, the U.S. Navy has named only one combat ship after a woman.

She is the destroyer USS Higbee, which celebrated her 25th birthday Tuesday.

The Higbee, part of the Tenth Fleet, is based at the Naval Station in San Diego. She is named after Mrs. Lenah S. Higbee, superintendent of the Navy Nurse Corps during World War I. Mrs. Higbee was the only woman to receive the Navy Cross, one of the nation's highest awards, while still living.

DETROIT (UPI) — Patrick V. Murphy, who came from Washington to be Detroit's new police commissioner, has been staying in comfortable quarters in a jail.

The apartment includes a dining room, living room, kitchen and four bedrooms.

British Prime Minister Says Talks With Nixon Bolster International Links

By HARRY KEYS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — British Prime Minister Harold Wilson says his talks with President Nixon have helped to bolster international links between the two countries during the decade and beyond.

"The relations between our two countries have never been closer," Wilson said in a toast at a state dinner in the White House Tuesday night. He said the closeness was not just in helping settle the international monetary picture. He said the situation is so stable that there was no mention made of the health of the dollar or the major Anglo-American meeting during Tuesday's discussions.

The talks between representatives of the two governments have involved a debate of "the way forward" for the two countries' initiatives for propelling the world economy beyond the "stagflation" of the 1970s.

Wilson also praised the cooperation of the two nations in helping settle the international monetary picture. He said the situation is so stable that there was no mention made of the health of the dollar or the major Anglo-American meeting during Tuesday's discussions.

Magic Valley Church Council Plans Annual Meeting In T.F.

REV. THOMAS J. GRIFFIN

The Magic Valley Council of Churches will hold its annual meeting on Friday, jointly with the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) of the Valley area.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. with a dinner at the Episcopal Church of the Ascension in Twin Falls.

The Rev. Thomas J. Griffin, Indianapolis, Ind., will be the featured speaker for the joint meeting. He will discuss the racial and urban crises which face America today.

Rev. Griffin is presently an executive minister for Reconciliation, the emergency urban program of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). His denomination has pledged $1 million to be deployed by 1971 in ghetto ministries, directed towards public understanding, economic development, improved housing, higher quality education, and increased employment for ghetto persons.

Russell Payne Faces Trial On Weapons Charge

CHEYENNE (UPI) — Russell S. Payne, 25, already serving a 40-year prison sentence in the slaying of his parents, stands trial here Feb. 10 on a federal firearms indictment, U.S. Atty. Richard V. Thomas said Tuesday.

Payne was indicted by a federal grand jury last December on six counts of violation of federal firearms laws.

Earlier this month, Payne pleaded guilty to two charges of manslaughter in the shooting deaths last summer of his parents, Dr. Martin Payne and his wife, Emmalyn, at their home near Jackson.

Payne's lawyers requested a "speedy trial" on the firearms charges, Thomas said. U.S. District Judge Ewing T. Karr set the Feb. 10 trial date on the charges, which carry a maximum combined penalty of 35 years in prison and fines totaling $55,000.

Less Durable

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Ford Motor Co. executive testified Wednesday that Americans may have to accept less durability and economy in their cars to keep them from polluting the air.

Herbert L. Misch, vice president for engineering, discussed what the industry calls "trade-offs."

Misch said Ford's tests on low-emission vehicles were not complete but one possible trade-off might be "fuel economy and operating economy."

Work To Resume On Filer City Park; Completion Is Expected For This Fall

FILER — As soon as weather permits, work on new phases of the Filer City Park will begin, according to Harold Huston, secretary of the Filer Community Park Board.

A check for $1,302 recently presented to the city by Harold T. Brown, State Park Board chairman from the Land and Water Conservation Fund, will pay for improvements made on the park last year and enable the board to buy materials for projects expected to be completed this year.

The park, being erected on the six-acre site which formerly housed the Victory School, was originally planned for a five-year work schedule. As money was raised by the city, matching funds were to come from the Land and Water Conservation Fund.

However, work has progressed so satisfactorily the last two years since the park was begun that it is expected to be completed well ahead of the original five-year schedule, stated Mr. Huston. If work continues as planned, it should be completed this fall, he added.

The board will meet next month to outline plans for this year's work which will include finishing the two tennis courts and putting up nets, placing fencing around the baseball fields, making a parking area and completing the irrigation system.

Money has been earmarked for bleachers and these will be constructed as soon as possible.

The board hopes for volunteer labor to build the bleachers and tables for a picnic area.

The year before last was spent in setting up plans and presenting a proposed budget for the new park. The old Victory School building was contracted to be torn down, and actual work on the park grounds could not be started until all the old building had been hauled away.

Last year, part of the irrigation system was put in, the baseball lights were erected and a back stop made, an area for two tennis courts was poured, and a storage building and restrooms were erected with lights and plumbing put into the building.

Much of the work on the park has been done by volunteer labor and this has been much appreciated by Mr. Huston, who added he hopes volunteers will continue with their much-needed labors this year to finish this community project.

Accounting Class Offered At CSI

An intermediate accounting/bookkeeper, director of admissions class, Accounting 91, will begin at 7 p.m. Feb. 3 at Shields Academic Building.

Those who still wish to register may do so, Mr. Meyer said. Anyone taking the course should have some previous experience in accounting.

Youth Ranch Seeks Older Couples As Counselors

RUPERT — "On-the-job" training in second careers for senior citizens is being offered by the Idaho Youth Ranch near Rupert.

The career is in caring for children at the ranch and the senior citizens are paid and housed while in training. The situation requires couples, and the pay scale is graduated automatically. The present scheduled calls for 10 days on duty with five days off duty.

Lee Childs, executive director at the youth ranch, said that older people adapt "extremely well" to this type of environment in which the required judgment, compassion and authority can be easily coordinated in the training program.

"The talents of this group of citizenry are being wasted in total retirement and their knowledge and ability should be valuable as any other of our great natural resources," Mr. Childs said.

"These senior citizens create exactly the right type of atmosphere for our purpose and we are willing to pay well for what they have to give," he explained.

While there is nothing new in an on the job training program, it is believed this is the first time a whole second career opportunity has been offered to this group of our citizenry. Here, age is no barrier; it is an asset.

"The golden years can prove an interesting and rewarding challenge and the solid experience these people have accumulated through the years, must not be wasted," he added. Several senior citizens already are in training at the ranch and other couples are needed.

A RARE 14-FOOT 250-pound oar fish that washed ashore at Leo Carillo Beach near Los Angeles is examined by John Prosser, right, curator of Marineland, and John Fitch, director of the California Fish and Game Laboratory. The slender creature normally lives at depths of 1,200 feet. It lost four feet of its tail to hungry shark before losing its life on the beach. Only five of the fish have washed ashore in the last 100 years, with none living in captivity. (UPI telephoto)

Defendant In LDS Fraud Case Claims He Was Merely 'Following Orders'

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—A man charged in the disappearance of more than $600,000 from the Mormon Church Tuesday threw the blame on a friend convicted for the theft and serving a prison term. Seldon Clarence Darrow, 37, Salt Lake City, charged with forging a $15,128 check, testified he was merely following instructions and did not know of a scheme to defraud the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Darrow, 42, also Salt Lake City, former bookkeeper for the Mormon Church, was convicted last November of forging in connection with the loss of $850,000 and is serving a one-to-20-year sentence. Darrow testified in Third District Court that Kay told him friends were financing an auto rebuilding operation and told him to open a bank account for Barker and Clayton, the same name as an architectural firm which was hired by the church, Darrow said Kay gave him a stamp to put on all deposited checks, insisted he have at least three signed checks at his disposal and told him he could draw "what I needed to live on" from the account. The prosecution identified 34 checks drawn on the account, most of them for $14,000 to $19,000. "I figured it was all right," said Darrow, a mechanic. "Me and Lamar was doing business with the church. We was rebuilding cars." Asked if he was not suspicious about depositing church checks, Darrow said he "honestly believed I had the right to stamp them and put them in the bank." Lamar said I could ...

Novelist Norman Mailer Cites Import of 'Nuances' In Trial

CHICAGO (UPI)—The prosecutor at the "Chicago Seven" trial told novelist Norman Mailer Tuesday he was trying to get the "facts" in the case. "The facts are nothing without their nuance, sir," Mailer shot back. There were nuances in Mailer's testimony in behalf of seven men charged with conspiring to incite riots during the 1968 Democratic national convention, just as there are nuances in his award-winning writing. "Police," Mailer said, describing one confrontation, "cut through the crowd like sheets of rain, like swords cutting down grass. They cut the crowd into two, four, eight pieces, then they'd beat them." He said Gov. John Love of Colorado "looked sick" at the sight. U.S. District Court Judge Julius J. Hoffman sustained an objection. The words were stricken from the trial record. "I don't think the sickness of the governor of Colorado is at issue in this case," Hoffman said. Mailer said of the Michigan Avenue battle between police and demonstrators: "It was twilight. It was a rare twilight and the police uniforms were sky blue. So wore their helmets and some of them got so hot swinging their clubs that they took them off. It was quite clear there was a signal for the attack." The remark about the "signal" was stricken. There was also hard testimony. Mailer said defendant Jerry Rubin told him "the establishment would provoke all the violence." Mailer also testified he spoke with David Dellinger, another defendant, during the convention. He said Dellinger told him he was doing everything he could to avoid violence. He said Dellinger, a Quaker pacifist, said of violence, "I detest it."

Philippines Turn 'New Face' To World In Effort To Increase Tourism Income

MANILA (UPI)—The Philippines is turning a new face to the world in order to win a bigger share of the tourist dollar.

No matter whether its reputation as a dangerous place for anyone valuing life, limb or pocketbook is deserved, the Philippines has taken a good, hard look at its tourist industry and come up with a promise to be smiling, clean and ready to give its best.

Though few would dispute that the attractions of the Philippines are worth the effort, the change sparked by serious economic problems is a recognition that tourists want more than views and a perpetual tropical summer.

Major emphasis of the tourist drive is on the individual, his safety and comfort.

The Philippines had 125,000 visitors in 1969. They spent about $25.6 million. That is a poor showing when compared with neighboring countries, particularly since Manila is strategically placed on international air routes. Tiny Singapore got 369,000 visitors last year. Taiwan had close to 400,000, Japan more than 750,000.

Tourism Commissioner Gregorio Aranaeta II said the target for 1970 is 135,000 tourists. Promotion will be concentrated in the United States, Japan, Australia and Europe.

Officials express cautious hopes that by November, when the jumbo jets begin landing in Manila, the number will leap dramatically. A $0.25 million expansion of Manila International Airport has begun in preparation for the giant planes.

President Ferdinand E. Marcos kicked off the hunt for tourists with a policy he calls "open skies, open door." Government officials admit qualifications in the openness.

Airlines seeking landing rights probably will still have to negotiate for reciprocal rights. The 11 international airlines now flying into Manila—the only airport being used for international operations—cannot expect unlimited extra flight frequencies. Chinese, South African and national of Communist States still face tougher visa requirements than others.

Tourists with a confirmed outward passage can now visit for up to 21 days without having to get an entry permit

Perplexing Nuances Of Official Language Vex Reporters Trying To Cover Capitol

By MERRIMAN SMITH
WASHINGTON (UPI)—This is a company town where the more heavily-traded commodities are nuances and redundancies.

This is more than the argot of bureaucracy, but the safety of obfuscation. The experienced civil servant knows that the most direct line to trouble is a simple declarative sentence.

As for nuances, diplomats would part with their anchorvies and amusing little wines before they would stop using nuances.

Delicately indirect phrasing, the mere suggestion of a suggestion—these are the tools of the working diplomat.

All of which makes it difficult at times for a reporter with a working knowledge of ordinary understandable English to give the public a cogent idea of what is going on.

A laboratory case: Secretary of State William P. Rogers said in a recent television interview that President Nixon's plans to end or get out of the war in Vietnam were "irreversible."

To some diplomats and diplomatic reporters who, of necessity, have learned to talk and think like diplomats, the word "irreversible" spelled policy change. After all, the President said in November that if the enemy escalated the war, naturally this country would take another look at its own military posture.

Apparently, all Rogers meant to convey was that Nixon still was determined to scale down the U.S. presence in Vietnam and this was "irreversible."

What Rogers left unsaid was the obvious—that Nixon, while embarked on a withdrawal program, has no intention of letting our side get shot up without doing something about it.

Asked about Rogers—and the word "irreversible," White House Press Secretary Ronald Ziegler answered forthrightly, "The point, I think, is that the plan the President is pursuing is a course of action that he is pursuing."

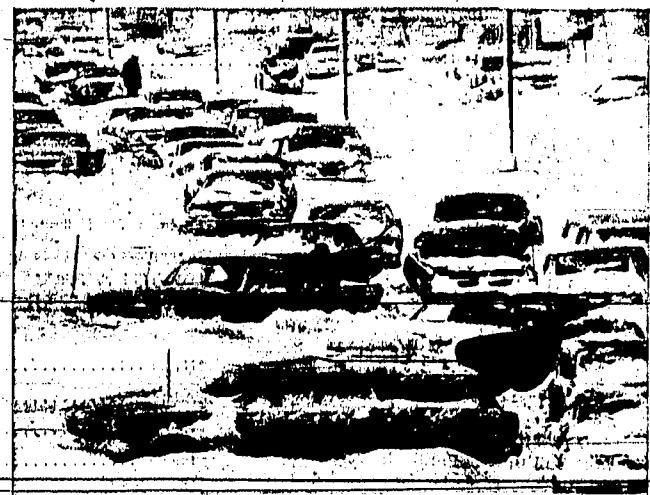

The nuance specialists counted to ten, took deep breaths and started out again. Possibly Rogers was in error by using the word "irreversible."

"I would not take the question in that form because we are dealing with two different questions in two different contexts," Ziegler said. He continued: "What I am stating to you this morning is the consistency of the President's plan, the consistency of our policy."

regarding Vietnam as the President has previously spelled it out and the fact that the Secretary of State was referring to the Vietnam situation as the President has stated it, referring to the plan and the course of action which the President is pursuing and has referred to which relate the three criteria as they relate to withdrawal.

One reporter began to sag dangerously close to Ziegler's log-burning fireplace, muttering that he was feeling a bit thick. Did Ziegler mean, the man asked, that if the enemy mounted a heavy attack, we might slow the rate of withdrawal?

"There have been some interpretations based upon questions I have received, based upon the secretary's statement, that there would be a change in policy," the press secretary said gravely. "What I am saying to you is that this interpretation should not be put on this. That what the secretary was saying is consistent with the plan as the President has previously stated it. He is pursuing a course of action and pursuing a plan and within that plan are the three criteria that relate to withdrawal."

Rep. Hansen Explains Why He Supported Nixon's Veto

WASHINGTON, D.C. (Special) — Rep. Orval Hansen, R-Idaho, explained today why he voted to sustain President Nixon's veto of the $10.7 billion Labor-Health, Education and Welfare appropriation bill.

"The issue," he said, "is not whether we support education and health programs. It is whether we are determined to win the battle against inflation.

"If we fail in our effort to control inflation all government programs, including education, will suffer. All Americans will suffer great hardships if inflation continues to run rampant, especially those on the lowest rung of the economic ladder.

Hardest hit by the rapid rise in the cost of living are the old, the sick, the disabled and others who struggle to make ends meet on low or fixed income."

Rep. Hansen, who has a record supporting education, said that to "defeat the President now would pull the rug out from under his attempts to control runaway federal spending and inflation. If the veto were not sustained, the President would lose all control over federal spending."

"I have been assured that the President will approve the funding of most federal education programs at last year's level and that provisions will be made in a new appropriation bill so that no school district will suffer undue hardship by reason of the veto," Rep. Hansen said.

"I will continue," he said, "to lend my strong support to the funding of educational programs at the highest level that is consistent with our effort to win the fight against inflation."

At the Magic Mountain ski area in the South Hills, approximately seven feet of snow covers slopes. Snow collecting on trees has caused some problems as trees have broken and fallen into ski runs and the canyon road during weekends. Approximately 18 inches of new snow fell in the area this week.

Golden Eagles Coast To 12th Straight Victory, 87-64 Over Rangely

Uninspired CSI broke out with a 36-point second half Wednesday night to drop the pesky Rangely, Colorado Spartans 87-64 — the Golden Eagles' 12th straight win. CSI now meets Big Bend Thursday night in Twin Falls before facing North Idaho Saturday in the school's homecoming battle.

The Eagles need one more win to equal the longest winning streak in CSI history. A victory Saturday coupled with a Thursday win would snap the mark.

Looking sluggish in the first half, the Eagles went with a variety of compliments, while Rangely kept plugging away the entire ballgame. Much shorter and getting demoralized on both boards, the Spartans stayed close for the better part of 30 minutes behind little Willie Ellerson and Larry Ward.

Villanova Topples St. Bonaventure

VILLANOVA, Pa. (UPI)—Villanova bounced third-ranked St. Bonaventure from the unbeaten ranks Wednesday with a 64-62 victory after the Bonnies missed four chances to tie in the final 58 seconds.

St. Bonaventure missed two shots and lost the ball, stole it back and had a layup by Bill Kalbaugh blocked from behind by Tom Sklentnotskowt. The Bonnies got the ball back after a missed foul shot, lost, and then O'Hanlon converted a foul for Villanova's final point with 3:29 to play, and the Bonnies' Matt Grant hit a layup and a jumper to make it 64-62 with 2:15 to go.

CSI Dropped To 17th In National Poll

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (UPI)—Christiana College of South-west, boasting a 20-2 record, retained its No. 1 ranking in this week's National Junior College Athletic Association basketball poll.

Villanova led by as much as 11 points in the second half after taking a 40-34 halftime bulge.

Louisville Tips St. Louis In Last 6 Seconds

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Sopomore Tim Price sank a 10-foot jump shot in the final six seconds of an overtime period Wednesday night to give the Louisville Cardinals a 62-60 victory over St. Louis.

It was the Bonnies' first defeat after 12 victories. Villanova, now 11-5, has not lost on its home court in three years.

White Sparks Boston Win

BOSTON (UPI)—Rookie guard Jo Jo White scored a career high 28 points Wednesday night to lead the Boston Celtics to a 112-100 victory over the Philadelphia 76ers.

Porter and Chris Ford led Villanova with 15 points each. Bob Lanier paced St. Bonaventure with 21 points.

Jets Grab ISU's Bell As Pros Dig Deep Into Small College Talent

NEW YORK (UPI) — Pro football teams, faced with one of the thinnest talent crops in recent years, dipped deep into the small college ranks for possible "sleepers" Wednesday at the 35th annual draft of college players.

Few "nanus" players were chosen as the owners were selecting nearly one-third of their players from the college division ranks in Tuesday's opening session, concentrated heavily on possible gems in the fourth on Wednesday's meeting.

The biggest "nanus" pick was Jim Orlis, the All-American fullback from Ohio State, who went to New Orleans on the ninth round, Orlis, 6-foot and 200 pounds, was 12th list the nation in rushing despite the fact that his team played only nine games. He carried 125 TDs, but his lack of size and speed apparently discouraged many teams from picking him earlier.

Another prominent player was tackle Alton Jones, South Miller, the 6-foot-2, 212-pound defensive back from Arizona State who led the nation with 11 interceptions, on the eighth round.

Los Angeles took Rick Saut, the Michigan State linebacker whose twin brother Ron was taken by Houston Tuesday, also on the eighth round.

On the ninth round, Pittsburgh took Carl Crennel, West Virginia's linebacker; Buffalo took guard Billy Bost, of Houston; and the New York Jets grabbed Ed Bell of Idaho State who set three college division pass receiving records while leading the nation with 96 catches.

But the concentration was mainly on the largest unpublicized talent abundance in the small college ranks.

Eighth Round
Chicago—Dana Stephenson, DB, Nebraska; Pittsburgh—John Smith, WR, Indiana; (A); Miami—Marcel Chavers, RB, Auburn; Buffalo—Gordon Clark, RB, Auburn; New York Jets—Hiram Jones, QB, Oklahoma; Cincinnati—William Trout, DT, Miami (Fla.); St. Louis—Tom Banks, C, Auburn; Philadelphia—Billie London, OT, Kansas State; New York Giants—Lawrence Exum, DE, Akron; Kansas City—(from Denver)—Fred Harry, DB, Houston University; Atlanta—(from New York Jets)—Mark Lewis, WR, Alabama; Green Bay—(from New York Jets)—Tommy Bessie, WR, Minnesota; Dallas—(from Houston Oilers)—Marvin Williams, WR, Wyoming; Houston—(from Denver)—Bryant Young, RB, Whitewater State; New York Jets—(from Houston Oilers)—Paul Johnson, DE, Penn State; Houston Oilers—(from Denver)—Bob Hantley, QB, Boston College; St. Louis—(from Denver)—Mike Hagarty, QB, Southern California; New York Jets—(from Houston Oilers)—Mark Lewis, WR, Alabama; Dallas—(from Houston Oilers)—Marvin Williams, WR, Wyoming; Houston—(from Denver)—Bryant Young, RB, Whitewater State; New York Jets—(from Houston Oilers)—Paul Johnson, DE, Penn State; Houston Oilers—(from Denver)—Bob Hantley, QB, Boston College; St. Louis—(from Denver)—Mike Hagarty, QB, Southern California.

Otis Not Happy With Draft Status

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Ohio State's All-American fullback—Jim Orlis—says he was disappointed not to be chosen until the ninth round of the pro (football) draft but "I'm the type of guy I think I am—I'll just go out—and prove them wrong."

Otis was chosen by the New Orleans Saints after more than 200 other players had been chosen.

"I didn't think I'd go that far," Otis said. "I'm a little disappointed. Coach (Woody Hayes) had so much faith in me and I feel like I've let him down. I don't know how I can face all my friends."

Otis said he had been told by every club which had contacted him that he was high on their list, but Ron Wolf, director of player personnel for the Oakland Raiders, told him a few days ago that there was a rumor going around that he had a bad shoulder and would be operated on. "But that's not true," Otis said.

"I feel like I could go as low as the third or fourth round," Otis said. "I thought, 'Oh, no.'"

Eleventh Round

With 'Three And Two' Count On Pilots, Owners Allow 9 More Days

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—With the count two-and-three on efforts to keep major league baseball in Seattle, American League owners, Wednesday gave Seattle backers until Feb. 6 to raise enough money to buy the struggling Pilots.

League President Joe Cronin refused to specify a deadline for the hometown businessmen's group to come up with an estimated 9 million—other than that it will be considerably "before July 4th."

But another executive, Edward E. Carlson, who heads the Seattle group, said the league owners had set a Feb. 6 deadline.

Carlson was optimistic his group could come up with the money, and also convinced skeptical owners of the soundness of their plan for baseball's only publicly-owned franchise. In case the Seattle group goes down swinging, representatives from Dallas-Fort Worth and Milwaukee stood by during the entire meeting to assure A.L. owners the Pilots could find a safe port in either city.

Tommy Mercer and Lamar Hunt, the millionaire oilman who owns the Kansas City Chiefs, were there for Dallas-Fort Worth.

Mercer told reporters he thought Seattle had only a 50-percent chance to keep the franchise, and if it went elsewhere, Dallas-Fort Worth had a "90-10" chance of getting it.

"I don't know where he is booking the bet," retorted Judge Robert Cannon of the Milwaukee group. "Minneapolis has a great chance because of our attendance record when we had the Braves."

The Braves eventually moved to Atlanta, after just such a last-glimch battle by Milwaukee as Seattle has been waging there.

Cronin said it was "only fair" that Mr. Carlson be given the allotted time.

"But we certainly won't give them until July 4th," he said.

The $9 million is the price tag put on the franchise by Pacific Northwest Sports, Inc., which originally bought it more than a year ago.

Carlson said earlier the group had arranged a line of credit for $2 million of the amount.

The Pilots have been a lion in the standings and the boxoffice during their year in Seattle, and at least two other cities — Dallas — Fort Worth and Milwaukee — were standing by in the wings ready to make an offer if the Seattle men could not raise the money.

But Cronin made it clear from the beginning the owners wanted to help Seattle keep the Pilots if it could be arranged.

Cronin concluded that year-long training just around the corner, it is essential that the Pilots' future be settled as soon as possible.

AN 18th-CENTURY CHAMBER POT from the sailing ship "Association" is auctioned at Sotheby's auction house in London on Wednesday, during a sale of "treasure" recovered from the wreckage of the vessel which sank off the Scilly Islands in 1707. The pot, believed extremely rare in view of the primitive sanitary conditions prevalent on sailing ships of the 18th century, is thought to have been the property of a high-ranking ship's officer, possibly an admiral. Coin dealer R. Lubbock of London bought the pot for $648. (UPI cablephoto)

Former Twin Falls Resident Receives Mental Health Award

WASHINGTON (UPI)—"When you work with anyone who is mentally retarded, one step is a long way."

This is the philosophy which included Mrs. Mack Bright, Blackfoot, former Twin Falls resident, to receive the nation's highest mental health award from the National Association for Mental Health.

Essentially, it is the type of voluntarism which Mrs. Bright, a slight, cheerful widow, has done which is being encouraged by the nation's first lady, Mrs. Richard M. Nixon. Helping those who are retarded became "respectable" during the administration of the late President Kennedy when it was revealed his sister, Rosemary, was born with that handicap.

During a visit to Washington, Mrs. Bright talked of how she became interested in the problem by working with her own retarded nephew, Tommy.

She spent hours helping the child from the time he was three-years-old until he was 14. "As many of them do, Tommy deteriorated then and it was necessary to put him in the state hospital at Blackfoot for better treatment," she explained. She advised visiting him there "but offering her services to other patients whenever she felt a need."

When the Bonneville County (Idaho) Mental Health Assn. recommended her for the national award, their nominating letter stated in part:

"In the hospital when she joined in January, 1963—Maxine was quick to see what could be done to make life happier and open a new world to chronic patients living in a slump of despondency."

"She organized volunteers in good grooming projects for women patients and planted all the hospital buildings and before the days of activity therapists at our state hospital, she organized outside games such as volleyball. A most worthwhile project of hers was organizing a group of patients to do volunteer work at the hospital."

Nominations for the coveted award given to Mrs. Bright came from 18 states. Only close relatives of patients who are or have been hospitalized with mental illness are eligible for the award, the association says.

Mrs. Bright joined the paid hospital staff a few months ago after the death of her husband, Her daughter, Mrs. Kathryn Lewis, lives in Volantown, Conn.

"It takes a certain kind of person to work with these people," Mrs. Bright said. "It requires so much patience. But the recognition you expect to get in helping the mentally-retarded is through their progress, no matter how small. Because when you work with anyone who is mentally retarded, one step is a long way."

Among many letters and telegrams of congratulations was this one from Mrs. Nixon: "I am most pleased to have the opportunity to congratulate you for your outstanding and selfless work on behalf of the mentally ill."

"In being chosen to receive the Katherine Hamilton Volunteer of the Year Award, you have earned the recognition of the many Americans who, like yourself, are devoted to voluntary action on behalf of those who suffer the tragedy of mental illness."

"The appreciation of your fellow Americans goes beyond this well-deserved acknowledgement of your years of volunteering at the State Hospital in Blackfoot, Idaho. I join them in expressing the deepest appreciation of your contribution in voluntary service. There is no greater gift a person can make than the gift of one's own self so that the hours of someone less fortunate may be gladdened."

"Your dedicated work is an inspiring example of the fact that the concern and service of individual citizens is one of our country's most precious resources."

"With my very best wishes to you, Sincerely, Patricia Nixon."

Oregon Miss, Richard White Exchange Nuptial Promise

Darlene M. Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Schmidt, Albany, Ore., and Mr. Richard L. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin White, Twin Falls, were united in marriage Dec. 10 in rites held at the First Baptist Church, McMinnville, Ore.

Officiating at the double ring, candlelight ceremony were Rev. Everett Ward and Rev. Richard Orr, both McMinnville, before a setting of white chrysanthemums and red carnations and candelabra. Red bows decorated the aisles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white velvet, styled with an empire waistline accented with braided pearls and trimmed with white fur at neck and sleeves. The white velvet train, attached at the empire waistline, was accented with the delicate velvet bows. Her illusion veil fell from a velvet and pearl headpiece. Both gown and veil were fashioned by the bride. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis on a pierzoni red ribbon with white streamers and bows falling from several favorite scriptures.

Mrs. Melvin Hurley, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and Mrs. Douglas Foster and Gladwyn Pruett were bridesmaids. Warren Baker, a member of the teaching staff at Linfield College, served as best man.

Ushers were Christopher Boyle, Daniel Franklin, Melvin Hurley and John White.

Traditional wedding music was provided by Mrs. Elmer Miller, organist, with Marion Vay Dyke, Linfield College, as soloist.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells and decorated with red sweetpeas. The cake was decorated by Mrs. Melvin Hurley, sister of the bride.

Pouring punch and coffee were Mrs. Melvin Smith, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. John Cude. Assisting were Mrs. Larry Schmidt, Karen Rose and Ethel Rose.

In charge of gifts were Lois Nouchwander and Ellen Hoetter. Sharon White, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Albany High School and Albany School of Radiologic Technology and the bridegroom is a graduate of Twin Falls High School and Linfield College.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches, the couple will reside in Vancouver, Wash. The bridegroom is presently teaching music in the Ridgefield, Wash., schools.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length gown of white bonded crepe with long tapered sleeves made by her mother. Her fingertip veil, fashioned by her sister, Mrs. Loren Holloway and worn at her wedding, fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of dark red roses.

Sheryl Rlenke, Buhl, was maid honor. Robert Maxwell, Seattle, Wash., served as best man.

Organist was Phyllis Petersen, with Paulette Patterson, sister of the bride, as soloist. After the ceremony a buffet dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents after which the young couple cut the three-tiered wedding cake. The pink and white cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Herbert Thieme, featured a host-shaped-top layer topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. This top had been used on the bridegroom's grandparents' 60th Anniversary cake.

Special guests were Mrs. Ruth Harrison, Boise, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Amanda Partin, Mountain Home, grandmother of the bridegroom.

DEAR ABBY: We recently moved to Virginia, and like living here very much, but there is a custom here which baffles and disturbs us. It's giving parties and asking the guest to bring their own liquid refreshments!

We live in a neighborhood where the income ranges from $8,000 to $30,000 a year, and from time to time we have received invitations to cocktail parties, New Year's parties, etc. Well, I've worked three years and Larry won't let me quit. He keeps buying things we can't afford and I have to work to keep up the payments.

Larry now says he doesn't want to be a father as kids get on his nerves. He does have an awful temper. Our dog got loose the other day and when Larry finally caught him, he threw him against the basement wall several times with all his might. He's really broken my heart.

I'm an only child, Abby, and Larry takes me to visit my folks once a week for only one hour, and he keeps looking at his watch all the time we're there. I know my parents are hurt, but they don't say anything. My parents have a little money, and Larry curses them because they won't give us part of the money now that I will one day inherit. I feel trapped. I know this marriage was a mistake, but I married Larry against the advice of so many people I feel determined to make a go of it. What advice can you give me? TRAPPED

ing project. Are we wrong to feel as we do about this custom? "HAPPY IN RICHMOND"

DEAR HAPPY: Not in my book. Next it will be "B. Y. O. W." (Bring your own wife.)

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago Larry (not his name) and I were married. The plan was that I would work one year and then quit and start a family. Well, I've worked three years and Larry won't let me quit. He keeps buying things we can't afford and I have to work to keep up the payments.

Larry now says he doesn't want to be a father as kids get on his nerves. He does have an awful temper. Our dog got loose the other day and when Larry finally caught him, he threw him against the basement wall several times with all his might. He's really broken my heart.

I'm an only child, Abby, and Larry takes me to visit my folks once a week for only one hour, and he keeps looking at his watch all the time we're there. I know my parents are hurt, but they don't say anything. My parents have a little money, and Larry curses them because they won't give us part of the money now that I will one day inherit. I feel trapped. I know this marriage was a mistake, but I married Larry against the advice of so many people I feel determined to make a go of it. What advice can you give me? TRAPPED

DEAR TRAPPED: What's "trapping" you? If you spend the rest of your life trying to prove that you were right and everyone else was wrong, knowing that YOU were wrong, you are foolish. Take the dog (the four-legged one) and clear out.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a very nice person and I love him very much, but there is something that upsets me terribly, and I just can't seem to get him to listen to reason. His dentures!

He got them years ago when he couldn't afford anything better. Now his face has fallen in, and his dentures don't seem to fit his face. His teeth look so big and artificial, and they are grey and ugly. Also, there are two teeth missing on the side and it's not noticeable when he laughs and smiles.

Believe it or not, Abby, he is a professional man, who speaks before groups. We are very well off financially, now, and my husband has the best dentures, but for some unknown reason he is so sensitive about the subject. I don't dare bring it up for fear that he will fly off the handle.

Abby, he knows that I'm his best friend and I don't say anything to hurt him. If he only knew how much better looking he would be if he changed those dentures? Oh, Dear, I feel so helpless. Sign me "SILENT PARTNER"

DEAR "PARTNER": One's "best friend" is often the worst one to offer criticism of a personal nature. Ask someone else, whose judgment your husband respects, to wise up your darling. (P. S. Ill-fitting dentures are not only unattractive, they can cause serious complications to one's health later on.)
