Suspect's Wife Is Charged With Conspiracy In Murder

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Annette L. Gilly, who refused a chance to testify against her husband, now stands accused with him in the murder of rebel union member Paul E. Gilly, 36; Aubran W. Martin, 21, and Claude E. Venley, 27, all arrested on the same indictment and jailed on $25,000 bond each.

Mrs. Gilly, 29, a tall, slim blonde, was indicted for conspiracy Thursday by the same federal grand jury which indicted her husband and two other men a week earlier.

The commission ordered Mrs. Gilly jailed in $250,000 bond on federal charges of interfering with the rights of a union member by force or violence, obstruction of justice and conspiring with others to interfere with the rights of a

Judge Studies Order In Annexation Trial

A court trial involving one of Twin Falls' annexation issues came to a halt Thursday afternoon but the outcome of the two and a half day event won't be known for several weeks.

Judge James Towles of Idaho's First Judicial District said Wallace took the case under advisement. He has the same thing after a short hearing on another annexation matter last Monday.

The trial which ended Thursday involved about 200 homeowners living near the Northwest edge of the city against the city of Twin Falls.

More than 25 witnesses were heard during the two and a half days of the trial and it was thought the matter, scheduled to last one day, might take a week.

Computerized Letter Gets Right Reply

CHICAGO (UPI) — Wrote Roger Fischer to the computer, "I have sent to the humans who try to control you are being disregarded. I hope you can make someone understand as apparently human letters to other humans are of no use."

Replied the computer, "Dear Human, At last I have found someone who understands my language. You don't know how frustrating it is to deal with the humans that run me... as to your problems, you were right. It was a human error."

It all began when Fischer, a Chicago businessman, received a parking ticket on a car he does not own. He wrote three letters to the office of Circuit Court Clerk Matthew Danaher but never got an answer—just another ticket.

Fischer decided to circumvent the fallible humans in the Traffic Violations Bureau by punching cards on his company's computer which could be read only by another computer.

When Danaher read the computer print-out of Fischer's letter, he ordered the ticket revoked and wrote a reply—in the form of computer punch cards.

Danaher said he continued the format because "government has acquired an image as humorless institution. It isn't."

Rail Strike Is Delayed

Southern Crisis Grows As Louisiana School Closed

By United Press International

The South's desegregation crisis deepened Thursday when racial tensions closed a Louisiana school and Mississippi's governor, in apparent defiance of federal courts, asked his legislature to re-establish the principle of freedom of choice for students.

In a surprise move, Mississippi Gov. John Bell Williams said he was recommending legislation to provide that "no student shall be assigned or compelled to attend any school on account of race, color, creed or national origin, or for the purpose of achieving (racial) equality in attendance."

He said the bill was identical to a law passed last year by the state of New York, but admitted that should Mississippi school officials abide by the law he proposes, they might find themselves in contempt of the federal courts, which have

Walkout Chance Remains

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There will be no nationwide rail shutouts until at least Feb. 21 but the threat of union strike action and carrier retaliation in the form of an industry-wide lockout on or after Washington's Birthday remains very serious.

The chief negotiators for both sides promised Thursday in telegrams to Labor Secretary George P. Shultz that they would continue contract talks through the date "regardless of the outcome of pending court litigation."

But neither William W. Wimpfinger, the top union representative, nor John J. Hiltz Jr., head of the industry negotiating team, gave any hint along with their pledges that they were ready to compromise on the long-complicated work rules issue that has blocked a settlement.

Shultz, who announced the new agreement at a news conference, said there will be no further bargaining until next week in Miami, where many of the negotiators also will be attending preliminary meetings of an AFL-CIO Executive Council conference.

The agreement came at the secretary's request and was a great relief to many officials in the Nixon administration.

Two temporary restraining orders forbidding any union strike or industry-wide lockout are due to expire Tuesday, the day Congress begins a Lincoln Day recess by voting until Feb. 16. The administration feared that failure to get these orders extended—or a preliminary injunction in their place—before Congress adjourned would have left the unions free to strike knowing there was little risk of speedier legislative action against them.

Thick Smog Greets Nixon In Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI) — President Nixon, who came to Chicago to find out what can be done about pollution, stepped out of his hotel today into a thick smog and headed through smoky skies to visit a sewage plant.

Chicagoans said the President could not have picked a better day to get a good look at pollution.

Nixon brought many of his administration leaders to Chicago to continue studies of attacking the pollution problem on a regional and national scale. Thursday the presidential party conferred in Indianapolis with mayors. Friday's meeting will include four Midwest governors.

The Chicago conference, closed to reporters, was scheduled to begin after Nixon tours a sewage treatment plant designed by U.S. and the Soviet Union.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Nixon was "very pleased" with his two-day tour of the Midwest.

The President and the 21 cabinet members and top-level advisers listened to the group of mayors in Indianapolis talk frankly about a lack of control over the model cities program, crime and pollution, Ziegler said.

As a result, Ziegler said, the President decided to cut down on today's federal presentation to give the governors a chance to "speak up."

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley gave Nixon a colorful welcome with fireworks shooting out streams of red and blue.

T.F. Student Commended At Pageant

MOSCOW (UPI) — Laura Vincent of Twin Falls walked off with honors in youth fitness and creative and performing arts divisions during the first night of preliminary judging at the Idaho Junior Miss Pageant Thursday.

Miss Vincent, 17, a senior at Flors High School, demonstrated her talent in the arts division by playing a classical number on the piano.

Nampa's Junior Miss, Nancy Yamashita, was awarded the preliminary night trophy in the poise and appearance division, and Carol Shirk of Prater River was named second runner up in the scholastic achievement division.

Preliminary judging continues tonight and the state Junior Miss for 1970 will be named after a final night of competition Saturday.

The pageant drew 25 high school seniors who were named Junior Misses from various localities in the state.

Weather And Snow Good For Skiing

Another weekend of good weather and good skiing and snowmobiling awaits outdoor enthusiasts.

Reports from various ski areas indicate top snow conditions and most snowmobile areas are reporting firm snow floor and very little new snowfall.

Return to Hillyard reports 24 inches of snow base with partly cloudy and dry weather partly cloudy. All facilities are open and in operation.

Bald Mountain has 44 inches at the top and the Roundhouse, with 27 inches on the floor. No new snow has fallen and weather is fair and clear. All runs and lifts are open including the new and in operation.

Soldier Mountain reports 53 inches of total snow depth, of which 50 inches is base. Roads are snow covered, but good. Weather is partly cloudy. There is some powder from last weekend.

Magic Mountain has 57 to 70 inches of snow on ski runs with several inches of new snow which fell early in the week. The lift was open including Friday and the lower part of the canyon road has been graded and is in good condition. Facilities operate Thursday through Sunday.

Pomerelle, near Burley, lists 44 inches of snow on the mountain at the top of the mountain, 8 to 15 feet in depth. The road has been widened for two-way traffic and weather Friday was clear and sunny, with only a slight wind. The area is open to skiing through Sunday.

Willow Run, Diamond Field Jack and areas in the Ketchum and Stanley region all report excellent snowmobiling.

Repeal Of Tax Limit Could Affect Budget

Repeal of House Bill 304, the measure designed by Gov. Don Samuelson, could make a difference in Twin Falls city budget planning by making additional revenue available, City Manager Jenn Miller said Friday.

He said he expects the city budget to be ready for the council members within the next two weeks. City officials have been holding up final budget preparations pending legislative action.

Mr. Miller said regardless of House Bill 304, there is other pending legislation which could bring changes in the budget over the year, but he said a deadline of the end of March for final budgeting must be met.

A three-week advertising period plus public hearings must be provided, he said, and the city must go ahead with the 1970 figures.

No major city expenditures are planned for addition to the 1970 budget, he said, and the increase from Urban Renewal and downtown improvement will be covered by completion of major projects funded last year such as Falls Avenue.

No city services, he said, especially street maintenance, will be allowed to suffer because of the money work.

As for city employee salaries, Mr. Miller said as long as the cost of living continues to climb, the city will have to meet the needs of city employees with at least some salary increases. He said just how much can be given this year will depend on other demands on the budget.

Vote Delayed For 10 Days On Carswell

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A delay of 10 days in the committee vote on G. Harbald Carswell's Supreme Court nomination has given his opponents more time to search his private and public record.

Their sought any evidence that Carswell's performance as a federal judge in Northern Florida showed an anti-civil rights bias. They also proved his private life for instances of suggestions of racial discrimination.

Carswell himself submitted a two-page letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee late Thursday in which he denied he ever was hostile to civil rights lawyers and litigants, an accusation made against him repeatedly during two weeks of committee hearings.

Sewage System Costs Won't Decrease, Citizens Told

SHOSHONE — Cost of installation of a sewage system for the city of Shoshone, will not go down in the future, if voters fail to approve the bond issue March 17.

This amount would be paid at a public hearing Thursday night at the Lincoln County Courthouse called by the city council and attended by some 130 residents, many of whom asked questions concerning the cost of the proposed improvement project.

Shoshone is one of the few cities left in the state which has no type of sewage system. The septic tanks and drilled holes in the lava rock which serve as a disposal "system" here is a hazard to public health, Melvin D. Alstager, Boise, Public Health Department official noted.

He said there are 20,000 drilled holes in the Snake River plain and this is extremely dangerous to health. Noting the 1964 State Legislature outlawed drilled holes-for waste disposal, he commented, "So far we aren't going around tapping persons on the shoulder, but with increased danger to health, we are going to have to take more steps."

Mayor Ellwood Werry traced the efforts to obtain a local sewage system beginning in 1955, showing how costs have increased over the years. The cost 15 years ago would have been $370,000, while current estimates are for $550,000 bond issue.

This bond issue, if approved by a two-thirds majority March 17, will cover complete installation of a sewer system and a lagoon-to be located on outskirts of the city in the northwest corner of the LDS Church grounds.

This amount would be paid for by a two-thirds majority to the FIA over a 30-year period at not more than 6 per cent interest.

Weldon Weigle, Boise, FIA official, explained the agency's authority to purchase bonds, and even set up individual loans for bondholders to help them pay for cost of installation from their home to the city main.

Others assisting with the explanation were Wendell H. Smith, Preston, and William Jewell, Montpelier, engineers, who reported on installation details.

Latin Americans Deemed 'Unstable'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, today predicted a decade of "unstable" change in Latin America including major revisions in dispensing aid.

"This doesn't mean that we should throw up our hands in despair, or turn our backs on our hemisphere," Church said. "What is necessary is that we get off the backs of our neighbors."

"We must learn to hold ourselves at arms' length, we must come to terms with the inevitable, letting the changes take place without insisting upon managing and manipulating them," Church said.

'Smoking' Dogs Prove Link Between Cigarettes, Cancer

By DELOS SMITH
UPI Science Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two scientists produced Thursday what they said was the longest direct cause-and-effect proof that cigarette smoking causes lung cancer.

They got it from 67 dogs who were trained to "smoke" nine unfiltered cigarettes daily for up to 875 days or two years and more than four months. Fourteen of them developed lung cancers.

These dogs were the "heavy" smokers among 88 male dogs who were trained to smoke through tubes inserted in their windpipes. Two smoked nine filtered cigarettes daily for the same period and 12 smoked unfiltered cigarettes at half the "heavy" rate. None of these dogs got cancer.

But they did develop other lung diseases—emphysema, fibrosis and non-malignant lung

Sokons Pass Repeal Of Tax Limit

BOISE (UPI) — The second half of the 40th Idaho Legislature entered its 28th day today with the lawmakers—at least in the House—a little out of breath after House Bill 304.

The lawmakers in the house passed the Senate version of the measure to repeal the 4 per cent limitation on property tax revenues.

The bill cleared the House 44-25 after going through the upper chamber earlier in the session by a margin of 22-13.

Both the House and Senate today had full calendars and both were scheduled to go back into session at 10:30 a.m.

The House had a lengthy final reading calendar in the session also had several bills up for debate.

In addition, the lawmakers were planning for another weekend session.

Thursday, the legislators spent the entire day on House Bill 304 while the Senate whizzed through and passed 14 bills.

The reporting scientists were Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond, vice president of the American Cancer Society, and Dr. Oscar Auerbach of the "Veterans" administration Hospital, East Orange, N.J., both long engaged in scientific efforts to prove the harmful effects of cigarette smoking.

Their work was the first unequivocal association of inhaled cigarette smoke and lung cancer. A few lung cancers have been produced in small animals such as mice and rats confined for long periods in smoke-filled chambers and cancers have been produced by painting tobacco tars on the backs of mice.

Clawson Charged With Violation Of Wage Laws

BOISE (UPI) — The U.S. Department of Labor has filed suit against Jack A. Clawson, Twin Falls, alleging violation of the federal wage-hour law.

The suit in U.S. District Court alleges that Clawson failed to pay employees at the J.A. Clawson Construction Co. and Magic Valley Asphalt Paving, Inc., firms he controls, the time-and-a-half overtime due under the law.

The Labor Department has asked that Clawson be enjoined from further violations and that he pay the back wages due to his employees.

Forecast

Partly sunny and mild today, and Saturday, increasing clouds and a southerly wind Saturday afternoon with a chance of rain by Saturday night. High today in the 40s; low tonight 23 to 35; high Saturday 45 to 53. Chance of precipitation increasing to 20 per cent by late Saturday. Outlook for Sunday — rain likely.

Today's 8 a.m. Magic Valley temperatures: Twin Falls 41, Weather Bureau, 32, with 88 per cent humidity; T. F. Entomology Laboratory, 30 and 100 per cent humidity; Jerome, 31; Rupert, 29; Buhl, 32; Castleford, 29; and Fairfield, 10. Soil temperatures: Twin Falls Weather Bureau: Four-inch, 33-32; eight-inch, 35-35; 16-inch, 36-36; 36-inch, 41-41. Buhl, three-inch, 34; 32; Castleford, three-inch, 31-30. The Twin Falls Weather Bureau at Kimberly reported Thursday that total precipitation for the month is .12 inch, and for the year to date, 3.50 inches, compared with .39 inch for the same period in 1969. The Entomology Laboratory reported total for the year is 3.33 inches, compared to .81 inch in 1969 and a normal for the period of 1.18 inches.

Temperatures will be mild for this time of year. The morning weather maps continue to show increasing storm activity in the Eastern Pacific. A disturbance now approaching the coast is expected to spread increasing cloudiness across Eastern Oregon and Southern Idaho Saturday. Intermittent rain is likely to begin in Eastern Oregon and Western Idaho late Saturday or early Saturday night, and then to spread on eastward through the remainder of Southern Idaho Saturday night or early Sunday. Storms may be mixed with the rain in Eastern Idaho and in the higher elevations elsewhere. Southerly winds will increase to 15 to 25 miles per hour or more on Saturday. These southerly winds will bring in somewhat warmer air Saturday.

Weather Synopsis

A little light snow was falling in Eastern Idaho early this morning but this is expected to end by late afternoon with no accumulation. Skies were partly cloudy over the remainder of Southern Idaho, and this partial clearing is expected to spread to the eastern Idaho border by noon today. There should be clearing in the remainder of the agricultural valleys this afternoon.

Samuel Berkey FILER — Samuel Berkey, 74, Union Street, Filer, died of a long illness Thursday at the Veterans Hospital, Boise.

He was born May 12, 1895, at Wathena, Kan., and married Elsie Fritch June 27, 1924, in Seneca, Kan. She died March 30, 1945.

Mr. Berkey lived in Sheridan, Ore., until 1944, when he moved with his family to Pawnee City, Neb. In 1946 he moved to Filer where he was employed by the city. He lived there until the fall of 1967 when he moved to Filer Hospital.

Surviving are his daughter Mrs. Arthur (Darlene) Weisman, Twin Falls; two sons, Ronald E. Berkey, Fairbanks, Alaska; and Donald L. Berkey, Everett, Wash.; a grandson, Vernon R. Weisman, Twin Falls; a brother, Carl Chester Berkey, Twin Falls; three sisters, Mrs. J. C. (Leah) Phoenix, Torrence, Calif.; Katherine Evelyn (Mrs. L. B.) Berry, and Cordella Bush, Greeley, Colo.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at White Mortuary Chapel by Rev. Eugene Tjark. Friends may call at White Mortuary Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Final rites will be at the Filer IOOF Cemetery.

Ivan E. Johnson Ivan E. Johnson, 65, 676 All St., died Thursday in a Kimberly Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was born Nov. 25, 1904 in Carterville, Mo. He came to Twin Falls in 1936 and had resided here since.

Surviving are two sisters, Minnie A. Divine, Chico, Calif.; Urich Heller, Indianapolis, Ind.; a half sister, Julie Smith, Kansas City, Mo.; two half-brothers, Alvin Edwards, Kansas City, Mo., and Frank Edwards, Kansas City, Mo. Memorial services will be held in Kansas City, Mo., with White Mortuary in charge of local arrangements.

60 Students Stage Riot In Belfast

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (UPI) — Sixty university students, supporting the Catholic cause in this predominantly Protestant land, smashed into a vacant house and occupied it Thursday in defiance of a new law banning certain kinds of demonstrations.

The students strung banners from the windows of the three-story Victorian house and traded taunts with a large group of Protestant militants outside. The Catholics are demanding greater civil rights, including better jobs and housing.

Across town, another group of pro-Catholic students picketed the home of Lord Grey, governor of Northern Ireland who gave royal assent to the new anti-demonstration bill and made it law.

Police took no immediate action at either place. The new measure, which went into effect at noon, may be illegal to stage sit-in demonstrations or to occupy public buildings and is an attempt to prevent the sort of violence which swept this nation last August.

The students occupying the house left their classes at Queen's University at the stroke of noon and battered their way into the boarded-up building owned by the school.

COLUMBIAN DIES MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — Howard C. "Buck" Herzog, a columnist for more than 35 years for the Milwaukee Sentinel, died Thursday. He was 64.

Rustled

KIMBERLY — Twin Falls County Sheriff's officers are investigating a rustling which took place this week near Kimberly.

Robert Boyd reported to officers Thursday that a 200-pound Holstein heifer calf disappeared from a pen at his ranch Wednesday night.

He said the calf was penned with four others and that it apparently was led through a ditch running under one side of the pen and then under a fence.

The names of honor students at the College of Southern Idaho for the past semester are announced by Dr. James L. Taylor, CSI president, and Dr. Jerry Smith, academic dean.

Employment Statistics Are Listed

Completion of preliminary estimates for December brought down the curtain on a decade of record keeping for the Twin Falls labor market area.

The period also accounted for a good deal of record-breaking. Employment eased upward during the first half of the decade then gathered momentum during the second half for an average growth rate of 2.3 per cent per year. Outstanding years, year-wise, were 1962, 1964 and 1968.

A moderate growth rate was shown in 1969 over 1968. The largest single gain was made from 1965 to 1966 when employment rose 3.3 per cent. In reviewing 1969 data as the end point for the 10-year period it is obvious the economic base for the area has expanded, the number of employing firms increased and the opportunity for employment improved considerably.

Total employment reached its highest point ever during 1969, while unemployment during the year was well below the high point for the decade. Comparing 1969 with 1960, employment showed a growth of 16.9 per cent while the 10-year average difference from 1950 to 1969, the difference from 1950 to 1969, was off by 30 workers per month.

The employment office believes an optimistic outlook would be justified for the 70's on the basis of recent trends. The expectation would be a further broadening of the economic base of the area with particular emphasis on nonagricultural manufacturing. Generally speaking, the officials believe the area job seeker can expect to find a wider variety of jobs within the area and certainly more jobs, in total, than during the past 10-year period.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Urban Renewal Agency of the City of Twin Falls, Idaho, is offering a parcel of real property in the Four Parks Central Business District Urban Renewal Project for sale for redevelopment by private developers.

The parcel available is: Lots D and H of ELDREDGE SUBDIVISION of Block 47 of TWIN FALLS TOWNSHIP, Twin Falls County, Idaho, according to the plat thereof recorded in the Office of the County Recorder of said County.

The proposals for purchase and development of the property indicated on the plat shall be submitted to the Urban Renewal Agency of the City of Twin Falls, 126 Second Street East, P.O. Box 115, Twin Falls, Idaho 83301, no later than 3:00 P.M. on the 10th day of February, 1970, at which time proposals will be publicly opened.

All proposals shall be submitted in sealed envelopes plainly marked "PROPOSAL TO PURCHASE LAND IN THE FOUR PARKS CENTRAL BUSINESS DISTRICT URBAN RENEWAL PROJECT." The proposals shall be submitted on the appropriate bidding forms and in accordance with instructions to bidders which are available at the Office of Urban Renewal, 126 Second Street East, Twin Falls, Idaho 83301.

Bidding forms and related documents may be obtained by depositing ten ($10) dollars with the Twin Falls Urban Renewal Agency for such set of documents to be obtained. Each such deposit will not be refunded.

Each bidder must enclose a certified check, bank draft, bank cashier's check, negotiable bonds or other similar obligation of the United States of America, or a surety bond, payable to the order of the Urban Renewal Agency of the City of Twin Falls in an amount not less than ten (10%) percent of the sale price of the parcel for which he is bidding. This deposit is to be held by the Agency until the successful bidder is selected. If he is selected as the successful bidder, he will sign an agreement with the Urban Renewal Agency to develop the land and will complete the development in accordance with his proposal and the agreement, including payment in full by cash or certified check upon delivery of the conveying property to purchaser. In the event the successful bidder refuses to enter into the agreement for sale of the property for any reason, the deposit will be forfeited to the Urban Renewal Agency as liquidated damages.

Bids may be held by the Twin Falls Urban Renewal Agency for a period not to exceed (60) days from the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders prior to the award of the parcel to the successful bidder.

All bids shall be irrevocable for a period of (60) days following the date of bid opening and shall remain in effect thereafter until and unless withdrawn in writing by the bidder.

After having considered all bids, the Agency reserves the right to reject any or all bids received, the right to waive informally in the bidding, and the right to accept such bids as it deems to be most in the public interest and the furtherance of the Urban Renewal Plan.

NEW YORK (UPI)—It's a $10 a head or get out," growled the taxicab driver in front of the National Airlines terminal at Kennedy Airport in New York.

Charles Wallen, regional sales manager for Intertype Co., a division of Harris Inter-type Corp. and a friend just back from a business trip to Florida, had asked the cabbie to drop him at the Grand Central railway terminal in Manhattan. That's a $6 to $6.25 ride by the meter. All that a cabbie is legally allowed to charge, according to a spokesman for the New York Hack Bureau.

Even though Wallen and his friend complained to a nearby policeman, who said "That's life," the cabbie's "no meter; $10 bucks apiece" dictum stood. And the weary travelers had to wait for a bus since other cabs in the area were following the same illegal price policy.

The service segment of the U.S. economy, now higher than the production end, is a major cause of rampant inflation. Hospital bills are prohibitive. Shoe repair charges look like mortgage payments. And home owners shudder when the plumbing goes bad.

Latest Bureau of Labor statistics figures show that Americans pay 48.3-cent more now than they did in the Bureau's base years of 1957-59 when the base was established at 100, or one dollar.

The cost rise has been particularly high in the field of health.

Daily service in hospitals is up 16.9 per cent. Semi-private care shows a 16.1 per cent boost and private care, 15.7.

Cost for a doctor is up 58.3 per cent with office visits 60.6 per cent higher and house calls, when you can get them, 65.9 per cent. Psychiatrist bills, however, are 21.7 per cent; the dentists', 46.0.

In personal grooming, men's haircuts are up 55.2 per cent and women's 23.4 per cent. Overall beauty shop costs are 37.7 per cent higher than in the base years.

Any housewife will testify that it takes a lot more money now to keep clothing cleaned and repaired. Bureau statistics show how much. Dry cleaning a suit is 32.2 per cent higher; the laundering of a man's shirt, 23.8 per cent; hem adjustments at a tailor's, 27.5 per cent; heel lifts at a shoe maker's, 22.7 and automatic laundering, 14.4.

Public transportation is another area of service which has been draining money out of the consumer's pocket.

Cost of local buses and other transit lines is up 61.7 per cent. Riding in a railroad coach costs 15.1 per cent more and coach travel by airplane, 11.6. Inter-city bus fares have increased 27.7 per cent.

Which brings us to the Kennedy Airport cab driver and his brethren. They're getting 27.5 per cent more today than they did in December of 1963.

Pickpocket Takes $235 In Theft

A pickpocket lifted a wallet containing $235 in cash from the trouser pocket of Elbert Hedrick, 473 Jackson St., Twin Falls County sheriff's officers reported Thursday.

The incident happened Tuesday night at a suburban shopping center, officers said.

The wallet was returned to Mr. Hedrick Wednesday by postal officials. It was the wallet, containing everything but the cash, was placed into a mail box at the corner of Fourth Avenue North and Addison Avenue.

"That money was everything I had to pay bills with," Mr. Hedrick said. He said the money was his social security payment for the month, along with some money from a daughter's paycheck.

"I have good information that the person who dropped the wallet into the mail box was seen. If they will put the money into that same box, the Post Office will see it gets back to me," he said.

Twin Falls League Of Women Voters Pledge Mental Health Center Support

Support for establishment of a regional mental health center in Magic Valley was expressed today by the League of Women Voters of Twin Falls.

Mrs. Roy Sluiter, president, said members of the league are in agreement with plans of the Regional Mental Health planning board to apply for a federal grant. She pointed out that league members are working closely with the board.

"Actually the league's interest in establishing such a facility dates back to 1950 and after 10 years of a support position we are in hopes that 1970 will see some positive action," Mrs. Sluiter stated.

Mrs. E. M. Wright published a booklet about the need for a mental health facility in 1961 as a result of the original league study.

Recently members have restudied the issue and included the programs of the mental health center. The official support position reads, "The League of Women Voters of Twin Falls has supported the development of mental health facilities since a 1960 study of needs was completed. During the past two years the league has reevaluated the mental health study and examined the proposed program of the Child Development Center and has arrived at a new support position: The League of Women Voters of Twin Falls favors continued support of efforts to obtain mental health facilities in the Magic Valley and supports the present program offered by the Child Development Center."

Latus Schmuicker is chairman of the league study.

FBI Looks At Heyburn Copper Loss

HEYBURN — The Federal Bureau of Investigation is checking the reported theft of 400 pounds of lead-covered copper cable from the Heyburn city substation of the Bonneville Power Administration, according to Guy Hughes, BPA official from Idaho Falls.

The theft was discovered Wednesday by Charles Ross, Vancouver, Wash., foreman of a BPA construction crew working at the substation. A hole had been cut in a remote section of the fence to admit the thieves, Mr. Ross said. The theft could have taken place over the last weekend or any time before Wednesday as the cable had been stored in a place where it was not readily seen by the construction crew.

Damage to the fence was estimated at $50, and the value of the cable was put at $130, though it could be resold for $250 to $300, Mr. Hughes said.

The FBI entered the case in cooperation with the Heyburn Police Department, as the BPA is a federal agency.

Libya, Israel And The Warplanes

WASHINGTON—All of the indicators now point to a continuing close association between Egypt and Libya which could further escalate tensions in the already "uplight" Middle East.

Libya has had the silver lining for the immediate or long term future in that explosive part of the world. Already Egyptian troops are known to be in Libya at both Benghazi and Tripoli. Authorities here understand that there are plans already developed for moving Libyan troops to the Suez canal area. Thus there is every reason to take very seriously Israel's fears that the Mirage fighter bombers, which are to be supplied to Libya by France, will wind up in an air war, overt or undeclared, against Israel—despite paper restrictions on the use of the planes.

Some of the experts here are now saying that the Pompidou government has less than the regime of Charles de Gaulle but somewhat differently, is pursuing France's short-term interests at the expense of long-term stability in Europe.

There is, however, no reason to doubt the close relationship which, in the view of some experts, may have been firmly cemented after the ill-fated Arab summit meeting late last year.

Goals Within Reach

President Nixon's wide-ranging State of the Union message challenged Congress and the American people to go down in history as the generation that had the means and the vision to enter "a great age of reform."

The President's address was a masterpiece, revealing awareness of the historic watershed his administration may represent, if he is able to stir the nation to pursue his dream of a 200th birthday of the republic in 1976, celebrating peace with every nation in the world, hunger abolished, inflation and crime checked, and with enormous progress in restoring the purity of our air and water, improved health and education, better housing and a balanced budget.

"This," he said, "is not an impossible dream. These goals are within our reach."

It was a philosophical and idealistic speech, couched in general terms with details to be spelled out in subsequent communications.

"Echoes of history," he said, "remind us of that special genius of American democracy, which at one critical turning point after another has led us to spot the new road to the future and given us the wisdom and the courage to take it."

Nixon outlined specific goals with which scarcely the most partisan could disagree, but inevitably, in a political year, the pulling and hauling for partisan advantage will come when specific implementation is proposed.

Nixon made a powerful thrust to take the initiative in several major issues—improvement of the environment, inflation, crime control and welfare, noting that two score measures requested last year had yet to be acted upon by Congress. He said a dozen more would be forthcoming, including a $10 billion, five-year program to restore the purity of water resources, "and do it now."

"Clean air, clean water, open spaces—these should once again be the birthright of every American," he said.

He urged Congress to join the administration "in the battle to stop the rising cost of living."

Inflation, which the Democrats had staked out as a campaign issue, Nixon said must be blamed upon the government spending in the Sixties $57 billion more than it took in taxes, causing the American people to pay for it with a rise of $200 a month in the cost of living of an average family of four. "We must balance our federal budget," he said, "so that American families will have a better chance to balance their budgets."

Nixon called for urgent action on his welfare reforms and the war against crime. Of 13 anti-crime bills submitted last year, none have been passed, he said, adding he doubted if many Congressmen living more than a few blocks from the capitol would dare to walk home alone at night. As television cameras panned around the audience, it seemed some stirred in embarrassment. Nixon urged that Washington, for whose safety Congress and the Executive share primary responsibility, should become an example of respect for law, not lawlessness.

Nixon said more funds for the fight against crime and pollution would be asked and that other programs would have to be cut, and new or higher taxes might be sought to keep the budget in balance.

"The price tag of pollution control is high," Nixon said, and "each individual must enlist in the fight if it is to be won." He suggested "the price of goods should include the cost of disposal without damage to the environment."

Stricter controls of automobile engines and fuels to end the automobile's role as "our worst polluter" were promised.

Addressing the "great issues which are above partisanship," Nixon challenged Congress to act while praising its support of a just peace in Vietnam, which enhanced prospects for peace and gives hope "for a generation of uninterrupted peace."

Noting the Sixties brought economic growth but rising crime, social unrest, and unhappiness, Nixon said we need "the lift of a driving dream," and urged "let us inspire young Americans with a sense of excitement, a sense of destiny, a sense of involvement in meeting the challenges in this great period of our history. Only then are they going to have any sense of satisfaction in their lives."

The President clearly was more relaxed and confident than in his Nov. 3 address on the war in Vietnam and protests at home.

In calling for a new national growth policy, reordering national priorities and better management of what we have, Nixon appeared confident of the support of the people, if not of Congress. He obviously left some Democrats wondering where their issues went.

MR. SPECTATOR

Interest To Women

A checkbook-sized booklet, recently published by a former Twin Falls man, promises to make comparison shopping for grocery and drug items easy enough so that everyone can get the best buy consistently.

The man who came up with the idea is Harold W. Seale (a brother of Eugene Seale, who still lives here) and the booklet is called the Per-Unit Shopper. In a note from Mr. Seale, whose address is 7774 Wyandot St., Denver, Colo. 80221, he writes that he visited in this area last summer and enjoyed every minute of it.

But getting on with the Per Unit Shopper, which he has perfected, he writes:

Every housewife has experienced the frustration of attempting to compare prices between packages, cans or bottles of different sizes. Nothing seems to divide evenly and after three or four attempts to find the elusive "best buy" the housewife often realizes that she has identified a tough problem.

Mr. Seale, in his Per Unit Shopper, has performed all the mathematical the harassed housewife ordinarily attempts and has systematically tabulated the results in chart form. The charts, and related sheets which discuss per unit buying, form the booklet which he calls the Per Unit Shopper.

The housewife, armed with Mr. Seale's "Invention" has only to consult her charts to determine the best buy between different sized packages. Mr. Seale does admit that it takes time to use his Shopper but declares that most shoppers buy the same items time after time and that after the housewife has used her Shopper on several shopping trips, she finds herself using it less and less since the best buys were identified during a previous shopping trip. In any case, Mr. Seale contends that the housewife is well paid for the time expended.

Mr. Seale writes that recent testimony before a Senate Commerce Subcommittee indicated that shoppers in a New York City study couldn't select packages offering the best per unit price. Inability to pick the best buys cost those shoppers in the test group a whopping 11 per cent extra on their food bills. Seale declares that such studies indicate that ample savings are available to the shrewd shopper equipped with the latest in shopping tools.

So there you have it. Interested? Then write Mr. Seale at Educational Materials, 7774 Wyandot St., Denver. He forgot to include a price in his letter but if you gals want to save money, then write him for the cost of the handy little gadget.

Nasser's Arms Search

CAIRO—Egyptian frustration over the quality of weapons supplied by the Soviet Union is getting deeper, fueled by Israel's military superiority over President Gamal Abdel Nasser's clearly inferior forces.

The Soviets have flatly refused up to now to give Egypt its latest model SAM III anti-aircraft defenses, insisting that SAM II is good enough. At one point, Egypt had 40 of the SAM II sites, with six launchers each, but many of these have been eliminated by Israel, starting with total destruction of forward defense positions near the Suez Canal.

Having destroyed these forward defenses, Israeli aircraft are now moving against SAM II sites deep inside Egypt. With their easy penetration of Egyptian air space, they are pounding military camps and defense installations on the outskirts of Cairo.

Last Wednesday (Jan. 28), the shock-of-exploding-bombs-in-a-mid-morning air attack in the vicinity of suburban Maadi, for example, knocked out windows in the American School. Authorities at the school, which teaches the children of the small U.S. diplomatic mission and resident American businessmen, informed Donald Bergas, top U.S. diplomat here, of the obvious fact that the attack was a threat to the school itself.

Moreover, that was the first of five separate attacks on Cairo's suburbs in the past three weeks, clearly visible from the center of Cairo. From balconies of Shepherd's Hotel, in downtown Cairo, black puffs of exploding anti-aircraft shells were only a few miles distant. The thump-thump of exploding bombs, mixed with staccato fire of heavy machine guns, sounded just around the far corner.

Although reliable eyewitnesses are scarce, most experts say that the Israelis are using the new F-4 Phantom for their attacks against Cairo. Some 22 of these American-made planes have been delivered to Israel, with 20 more to come from Egyptian and Western sources. It is Israel's making conspicuous use of the Phantom to exploit the growing Egyptian hostility against the U.S.

True or not, what is known for sure is that the Soviet-Mig-21 and the SAM ground-to-air missile system, with its electronic complex of radars and fire-control, are no match for these Israeli air attacks.

But the late-model SAM III, which is designed for low-level attacks, is not available from the Russians. Moscow obviously fears that this equipment might be seized by the Israelis, thus handing top secret performance characteristics to the enemy. The Soviets may also fear that their Egyptian clients lack the technological competence to handle the equipment.

wants a newer model bomber than the TU-16, which is no longer a front-line bomber. The 20 or so TU-16s in the Egyptian arsenal, moreover, are dispersed in hardened sites all over the Middle East, from Aswan, some in Algeria, some near Cairo. They are virtually out of combat.

What the Egyptians want is a more modern Soviet light bomber as a threat for possible use against Israeli cities to retaliate for the growing attacks on Cairo. The Russians say "no."

Thus there are signs here that the Egyptians are looking elsewhere for modern military hardware, but the odds against obtaining it are heavy.

The French, Germans, British, and Italians, for example, aren't about to send new electronic equipment to Nasser for inspection by Soviet technicians here.

But on less sophisticated hardware, Nasser is getting help from both the British and the German. West Germany has agreed to supply 5,000 Mercedes trucks to the Egyptian army to replace Soviet trucks which, because of the extreme difference in climate, constantly overheat and break down in the Egyptian desert. From England, the Egyptians are now obtaining modern survival equipment for downed pilots (further evidence of the critical shortage of trained pilots).

But this is peanuts. As an underdeveloped country in battle against probably the most sophisticated military force in the world today, trucks and survival kits are not even a finger in the dike.

The hard fact is that Egypt is now exposed to a systematic attack from Israel almost at will, an attack that will probably soon shift from military to economic targets. This indisputable truth should be taken into account by U.S. politicians now pressuring Nixon to send a new batch of F-4 Phantoms to Israel.

France, however, appears bent on mischief-making which could set the stage for more Arab militancy in North Africa and further penetration by Moscow, which already has a number of temporary bases there for its expanding Mediterranean fleet.

Such a trend has serious implications for Europe and the NATO alliance. What is the future policy of mostly Arab Turkey, for example, if this is to be the direction of developments on the southern shore of the Mediterranean?

Intelligence circles abroad hear that a top Egyptian intelligence operator, Fathi el-Dib, dreamed up the Libyan plane purchase from France as a means of securing arms which Egypt's President Nasser had not been able to acquire on his own account.

According to one version of this story, accepted and published here in the United States, at least one member of the "Libyan" arms deal was actually an Egyptian officer carrying a Libyan passport. French Defense Minister Michel Debre is said to have been fully aware of that sham.

Authorities here say there is

The New Testament—Matthew—is the authority for the view that a prophet is without honor only in his own country.

In December 1967, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., spoke in New York City to a group of bankers and investment analysts. He devoted most of his speech to foreign affairs, concentrating on potential world trouble spots.

In the course of his informal comments, Jackson predicted a coup in Libya within two years. As he recalls it now, Jackson had no inside information or intelligence data which forshad-dowed any such development. He says he based his prediction on general knowledge of how the Arab nations had been operating and on the fact that Libya had the only major oil reserves in the area which were accessible without use of the Suez canal.

Jackson's off-the-cuff comments were not widely publicized, but his prediction was eventually reported to policy makers in the Johnson administration. It was quickly dismissed.

Jackson's two-year prediction was good with months to spare, but the Gospel's comment still applies.

The Countdown

WASHINGTON—A countdown in the campaign of the Beautiful People, to glorify the Black Panthers, began Monday. Twenty-one members of this armed revolutionary force went to trial in New York City on charges of conspiring to murder policemen and to blow up department stores and public buildings.

The official accusations have been obscured in recent weeks by cries from some of Manhattan's penthouses that the defendants were denied their Constitutional rights, because they were held in excessive bail.

Nominal leader of this crusade appears to be Mrs. Leonard Bernstein, wife of the composer, who held a meeting in the Bernstein penthouse to "arouse concern" over the legal issues. She and her friends later were joined in this concern by the ubiquitous Rev. Ralph Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, who said he was giving all possible moral and material support to the Panthers.

Well, dandy. I have known prosecutors and cops who did not flinch from infringing, even violently, on the rights of accused. And, as a sect which spreads an unpopular and probably subversive ideology, the Black Panthers have special need of every right a lawyer can find in the books. After all, it is the troublemakers for whom such rights were constitutionally proclaimed.

But I suggest we address ourselves to the irony of the situation. A recent FBI report notes that "Panthers and other black extremists murdered seven policemen in a six-month period and wounded another 120." Yet it is not recorded that any Beautiful People so much as vent a furtive tear over those dead and wounded cops.

When two Panthers were slain

These are circumstances that suggest to some cynics that it has become unfashionable to grieve over the death of a white—namely, the right to live—to a cop. The Beautiful People have discovered that the way to crash the newspapers and the Huntley-Brinkley show is to show concern for members of an organization publicly committed to the overthrow of the government by force.

I wonder at the selectivity of Mrs. Bernstein and her chic friends. There has been no evidence that any policeman anywhere has committed genocide on any black militant organization. But there is self-admitted evidence that the Black Panthers are out to kill as many cops as they can manage.

The Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations reported that the Panthers had illegally assembled arms supplies, including rifles, machine guns and Molotov cocktails. The Panthers advised children in their feeding centers: "There is a pig (policeman) on the hill. If you don't kill him the Panthers will." And "The only good pig is a dead pig." The archives show that many Panther leaders have long criminal records.

In another time, such statistics would suggest that the Panthers go looking for trouble and richly they deserve it when they find it. Even today, some plain, tenement-dwelling citizens would rather encounter a had cop on his beat than a Black Panther out for a Sunday stroll.

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Very Sorry Now

Dear Dr. Thosteson: When I found I was pregnant, I started taking all kinds of stuff trying to get rid of the baby. I took quinine along with hot tea and hot baths plus foot soaks. I repeated this method only to vomit everything up.

Next I tried some kind of herbs and wine, hot ginger tea, hot baths until I almost took the skin off. The only thing I didn't try was castor oil and root beer. All these ideas came from friends and relatives.

When I told the baby's father, he was really mad because he wanted the baby. Well, after all this, guess what? I'm still pregnant and in my seventh month. Will taking all this stuff have affected the baby physically or mentally? Each night my husband (the baby's father) prays for a healthy baby. So do I, but I've myself to sleep wishing I had better sense.—S.P.H.

There's nothing to be gained by tears and self-accusations which may in any event, be unfounded.

It is known that some drugs, X-rays, and certain diseases can harm a baby. If they occur or are taken in the early stages of development of the fetus, you did not include the most important ones in your list.

However, nature has arranged things so that, with certain exceptions, the baby is protected from most things the mother may eat or do, so I think you should be much more hopeful than you are.

Your letter may help somebody else, particularly if it points up one cardinal fact. Despite folklore to the contrary, there is nothing that one can take to "get rid of the baby." Nothing, that is, which will not ruin the mother's health horribly.

REA Okays Loan For Phone Firm

RUPERT — A loan of $365,000 to the Mutual Telephone Cooperative Association at Rupert has been granted by the Rural Electrification Administration.

Donald Dickson, manager of the cooperative, said the funds would be used over a five-year period to upgrade telephone service for both local and long distance calls.

Dickson said that approximately $252,000 will be used at the central office in Rupert while the remainder will be divided among the other three exchanges with $31,000 earmarked for Paul, $33,000 for Norland and $22,000 for Mindoka. Another $10,000 has been set aside for engineering and contingencies.

Included in the program will be changes and additions in the central office equipment. Additional carriers will be installed for toll trunks to the outer exchanges from Rupert to Twin Falls and additional Extended Area Service (EAS) to Burley and the surrounding area.

The increased lines will require additional central office equipment plus additional building space at Norland to handle the anticipated increase in subscribers.

The loan will also cover cable additions to handle the increased trunk requirements for long distance calls and other outside plant additions. Work on this section of the project was completed by company employees in July of last year. Some of the central office equipment additions have been completed and were interim financed pending REA approval of the loan.

Application for the loan was necessitated because subscriber growth of the cooperative has been much faster than equipment replacements could be made from earnings, Dickson said.

IN ADDITION TO BEING the Magic Valley distributor of Olympia beer, Matt Smith is now distributing Miller High Life beer. Manager of the Twin Falls Beverage Co., Mr. Smith got the contract to distribute Miller High Life recently and at the present time has several thousand cans of beer in stock, ready to transport to retail outlets throughout the area.

Rupert CPA Will Audit City's Books

RUPERT—Rupert City Council hired Mrs. Helen Dickinson, CPA, to audit the city books for this year, at their regular meeting Tuesday night. The work has been done in past years by an out-of-town accountant and it was suggested to be done on a local basis this year.

Councilman Bill Whitton was authorized to work with a committee on establishing a county-wide museum in the old city jail with the stipulation that the city has access to the facilities housed there. The city would formulate some type of lease for the unit, it was noted.

Elmer Schenk was authorized to draw up specifications for bids for a voltage regulator at the Itay Mill substation. A reciprocal operating and emergency repair agreement was signed with BPA for electrical emergencies.

In other business the council agreed to meet with county officials Monday at 7:30 p.m. on the solid waste disposal problem regarding the lease on the county dump grounds. The meeting is scheduled to be held at the city offices.

An apparent low bid of $30,254.49 by Home Plumbing and Heating Company of Twin Falls was accepted by the Rupert City Council when bids were opened Jan. 28. The bid was for installation of domestic water, irrigation and sewer lines in the Grandview addition. Specifications call for cast iron pipes for domestic water and transite pipes for sewer and irrigation lines.

Hartwell Excavating of Idaho Falls entered a bid of $32,813.50; Empire Construction Co. of Pocatello, $33,018.45; and Tony Russell Construction Co. of Ketchum, $37,415.50.

Insurance Meet Ends Here

A field management seminar sponsored by the Sierra Life Insurance Co. was held at the Holiday Inn recently.

Gaining special honors at the seminar were Lyle Uscola, a Sierra Life agent in Twin Falls. He got an award for being a member of the Century Club, four years in the Leaders Club and for being a member of the Application A Week Club for two years.

In addition, he was named to the Company's highest sales club, the 1970 President's Cabinet.

Jim Winkle was given an award for being a member of the Century Club and was awarded a trophy for being the first agent to have 1,000 policy holders.

Shoshone City Council Mulls Volunteer Firemen's Salary

SIOSHONE — A study will be made of the City Ordinance regulating salary of the volunteer firemen with an aim to possibly eliminate the section which requires six hours on a fire call before any additional amount can be added to the $2.50 per fire call fee.

The City Council made this decision at their Tuesday night meeting at the city hall.

The firm of Murphy and Adkins was hired to act in behalf of the city to arrange for the sewer revenue bond proceedings and the firm was appointed as city attorneys.

Norvel Rutherford was reappointed as city police judge and Adolph Braun was rehired as park caretaker.

Approval was given for hiring Dave Estelle as city sanitation officer. He replaced Bill Moon, who resigned.

Wilson F. Churchman was named chairman of the Council and will preside in absence of Mayor Elwood R. Werry.

Authorization was given to the city attorney to negotiate an option to purchase land which will be needed for a portion of a lagoon for the city sewer project from Thurman Jackson and an option to purchase land for an easement for a line in connection with the sewer from the LDS Church.

Approval also was given for purchase of uniforms for the city police.

Two bar tenders permits were issued. Award for the financial audit for 1969 was granted to Mrs. Helen Dickinson, CPA.

The library statistical report by Mrs. Marx Nielsen was approved, and officers reports were received.

The certificate of 1969 assessment rolls valuation within the city from the county clerk showed $761,681, which is $13,048 less than the 1968 valuation.

Work was begun on the city budget, but publication will be withheld pending the legislature action on Bill 304.

BYU President Affirms Policy Of University

PROVO (UPI) — President Ernest L. Wilkinson said Thursday that unlike three other private schools, Brigham Young University had "not deserted the church in order to call ourselves a non-denominational institution of higher learning."

Wilkinson told a forum assembly at the Mormon-owned school he heads, that BYU "has not apostasized from the faith of its founder."

"We have not gone through the transition of throwing off the yoke of the founding church," he said.

California Electronics Firm Plans Plant Near Pocatello

POCATELLO (UPI) — A California electronics manufacturer announced tentative plans Tuesday to construct an expansion plant in Pocatello this year.

Warren C. Wheeler, vice-president of American Micro-Systems Inc., San Clara, Calif., told a news conference a final decision ten days on formal plans for construction of the 30,000 square foot complex. He said the plant would eventually hire 550 persons with a large number from the local area, and would operate a full capacity in three years.

Wheeler's announcement culminated more than two weeks of negotiations between company officials, the officials of Pocatello, a representative of Idaho's Department of Commerce and Development, and Idaho State University.

Wheeler said the company had selected Pocatello because it wanted to locate in an area with a good labor supply, with an adequate labor supply, and with no competitive firms.

Wheeler said the company would use an above-average electricity rate, but said Idaho Power Company assured him it could meet the electrical demands.

Lloyd Howe of Idaho's Department of Commerce and Development led a delegation from Pocatello to meet with company officials and to discuss preliminary plans.

Wheeler, who discussed the plan with Gov. Don Samfelson Monday, said the firm had arrived at a tentative agreement with Idaho State University to develop a training program for personnel.

Wheeler said he and Robert M. Gile, chief of operations for American Micro-Systems, also met with representatives of the Bureau of Indian Affairs to explore the possibility of developing a training program for residents of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation, which would be coordinated through the ISU Vocational Technical School.

Wheeler emphasized the plans were still in the preliminary stage and that a final decision would rest with the company's board of directors in California. He said once the decision is reached final plans will begin immediately for site selection and construction of the plant.

The firm manufactures semiconductor electronic component for computers and related equipment.

Court Ousts Suit Against Idaho Auditor

By LINDY HIGHT

BOISE (UPI) — Fourth District Judge Merlin S. Young Thursday dismissed the case filed by Idaho's board of examiners against State Auditor James R. Williams.

Judge Young asked that an order for a summary judgment of dismissal be prepared and Williams' attorney, Tony Parks, Boise, said the order would be delivered to the court Friday.

The decision seemingly ended the long dispute between Williams, the board and the Division of Management Services, although Parks noted the board could appeal the decision.

The dispute came to a head when Williams, complaining of errors in payrolls prepared by the Division of Management Services, instituted new payroll forms and ordered all state agencies to use the new forms. The board of examiners in turn disapproved the forms and ordered agencies to continue under the old system.

Members of the board — Gov. Don Samuelson, Secretary of State Pete Cenarrusa, and Attorney General Robert M. Robinson — then asked for a temporary injunction against Williams, which was denied Dec. 24 by Young on grounds there would be no irreparable injury if Williams was allowed to continue to use his own payroll system until a final decision was made.

The court memorandum said testimony indicated the Board of Examiners did not find "fault with the defendant's forms and system per se."

Judge Young said rather than testimony from Gov. Samuelson and Cenarrusa "clearly indicating they thought this should be done by the data processing division of management services, and that it had been the intent of the legislature that this department, which it authorized in the 1967 legislative session, do these functions."

Judge Young also pointed to Wright vs. Callahan, in which the court said the State Board of Examiners "is not a board of auditors" and thus cannot infringe upon or conflict with the constitutional rights of an elected state auditor.

Judge Young's decision of last week, which the state auditor should have "supervisory control" over the bookkeeping process and added that in his opinion the board of examiners did not have authority to refuse approval of forms "solely because they wish the department of management services to do the bookkeeping functions instead of the auditor."

Senate Committee Will Conduct Hearing On Idaho Water Resource Development

By PAUL M. QUINN

BOISE (UPI) — The Senate Resources Committee decided Thursday to hold a general public hearing on water resource development, possibly involving experts from California and Utah to testify.

The experts would be the same as those who have testified in the past year before the Idaho Water Resources Board and before the Governor's Blue Ribbon Committee on Water Development.

The decision on the hearing was made after the committee decided to hold for further study a proposal sponsored by Sen. Reed Budge, R-Soda Springs, that would require that hearings be held on any reclamation project affecting lands or water rights in any counties in the state.

Budge argued in the committee meeting, "the little guy who is pushing the water with a shovel has the right to be heard."

He said, "with possible exportation of Idaho water becoming a reality, these people have a right to be heard."

The bill, introduced through the resources committee on Tuesday, would require that hearings be held in each county affected before action is taken on any feasibility study by the state reclamation engineer, water resource board or any agency or department of the State of Idaho or the federal government.

State Reclamation Engineer R. Keith Higginson told the committee "as far as our operations are concerned there has been a radical change in our department . . . previously all hearings were held in Boise. As a policy now the hearings are held in the counties. We have done this to allow the local people to testify."

Budge said he realized this "but under the present law there is nothing to spell this out."

Dr. Robert Lee, director of the State Water Resources Board, said: "It is possible to do this (hold the hearings) but there is an attempt to 'save money' why not leave it to the discretion of the board as to where a hearing is held."

The matter of the hearings came up when Lee, after Budge had left for another hearing, said that he wished the committee would "listen to some of the real important problems that Idaho is facing."

He was asked if he had any specific legislative proposals to present and replied "no" but added that he wanted the committee to listen to some of the long range planning proposals that the resource's board and others have been considering.

Sen. John Evans, D-Mald, debating the bill, said, "All we are talking about here is if we are going to leave it up to the majority or a super majority."

"I fail to understand why people hang their hats on mill levies to limit government," he added.

Powers Given Legal Aide Are Disputed

BOISE (UPI) — The House Judiciary Committee Thursday heard contested the broad powers that would be given the attorney general under a proposed Idaho Consumer Protection Act.

Adm. County Prosecutor Ellison Matthews told the committee the measure would allow the attorney general to invade the province of the county prosecutors.

He said Idaho law as a general rule does not allow the attorney general to initiate criminal actions, although a prosecutor may ask the state to provide special prosecutor.

FISH SEIZED

Senate Endorses Measure To Comply With Bond-Vote

BOISE (UPI) — The Idaho Senate Thursday passed by a 22-12 vote and sent to the House a bill to bring Idaho into compliance with U.S. Supreme Court rulings on voting on mill levies for school districts.

The proposal met with opposition from those opposed to approval by a simple majority in such elections rather than a two-thirds majority.

Under the bill, just a simple majority would be necessary to pass on any maintenance and operating levy exceeding 30 mills.

Sen. John Mix, D-Moscow, floor sponsor of the measure, said recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions on "the one man, one vote" make such a change necessary.

But, Sen. Joe Preston, R-Deer Lake, said, "This is just another occasion where we put the camel's nose into the tent."

He said he was opposed in the first place to the Supreme Court's ruling and added, "Someday I hope it will be different."

Also opposing the measure was Sen. Richard Egbert, D-Teton, who said, "I am placing ourselves in the position that those not willing to assume the responsibility are telling those who are they have to pay."

Under the bill, just a simple majority would be necessary to pass on any maintenance and operating levy exceeding 30 mills.

ONE OF TWIN FALLS' newest supper clubs, "George's," at the Twin Falls City-County Airport, offers a unique atmosphere for dining and drinking. The French influence is carried out in the club's menu and the Highjacker Lounge offers favorite mixed or bottled drinks.

Engelking Says Public Kindergartens Will Require Outlay Of $4.4 Million

BOISE (UPI) — Supr. of Public Instruction D.F. Engelking Thursday estimated that public school kindergartens will cost Idaho about $4.4 million and suggested local districts match the state 50-50 to assume the burden.

He made his estimate at a hearing before the Senate Education Committee on bills to establish kindergartens in the public schools.

Another bill considered would allow the State Board of Education to set up regulations for admittance of children under the age of seven.

Engelking noted that the State Board of Education had recommended that kindergarten students be merged in the minimum education foundation program starting in the fall of 1971. He said his department has placed the kindergarten program high on the priority list.

Testifying against the proposal was Charles Whipple, Boise, representing the National Association of Retired Civil Employees.

He said the program would require additional buildings and more facilities and said he thought that perhaps the private kindergartens could be retained and subsidized to handle children whose parents could not otherwise afford the program.

Engelking told the committee his department estimated that kindergartens would be established for about 16,000 students and that if they enrolled 20 students to a unit, 800 units would be needed.

He estimated the total cost at $4,392,000 to include teachers, instructional supplies, transportation and maintenance and operation.

He said the legislature would have to increase the 30-mill levy for local school districts if it is to match funds with the state on a 50-50 basis.

Engelking also suggested that it be added to the foundation program.

Rep. McClure Offers Bill On Land Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. James A. McClure, R-Idaho, Thursday introduced legislation to initiate a comprehensive study of new programs aimed at the protection of environment.

The measure provides for a four-year extension of the Public Land Law Review Commission and gives that group a new mission following termination of their land law studies later this year.

The bill instructs the commission to study water and air quality, weather, modification, waste disposal and protection of the scenic heritage of the United States and to make recommendations for legislation to protect that environment.

McClure said there was no overall direction or balance to plans to save the environment. "Here is a commission that is already stifled and already functioning," he said. "They can give the environmental effort the kind of coordination it needs. We will not lose a lot of time by setting up a completely new group."

Senate Backs 16 Nominees Of Governor

BOISE (UPI) — The Senate State Affairs Committee Thursday recommended the confirmation of 16 persons appointed to office by Gov. Don Samuelson.

There are still 16 other appointees to be confirmed, committee Chairman H. Dean Summers, R-Boise, said.

The 16 recommended for confirmation were:

Uldine Thelander, Boise, Commission for the Blind; Wayne Summers, Boise, Public Employees Retirement System; William M. Frome, St. Anthony, Idaho Park Board; Ray Burge, American Falls, Judicial Council; Herbert A. Berman, Moscow, Board of Tax Appeals; and H. Dean Summers, Boise; Joe N. Wagner, Lewiston; Steve M. Meikle, Reubensburg; D.F. Engelking, Boise; and John D. Silva, Boise, all reappointed to the Idaho Investment Board.

NEW TAPES DEVELOPED
NEW YORK (UPI) — Celanese Corp. has established an advanced engineering section to develop the possibilities of its graphite-exposed structural tapes. These tapes can be laminated and shaped into various structures such as a turbine blade that will be stronger than steel yet weigh only 20 per cent as much. The aerospace industry is expected to provide the prime market for the graphite-exposed material.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Now that Alvin is retired, he's at home all day, but that's not my problem.

There is a young woman who rents the apartment directly across the hall from us, and her claim to fame is that she is "44-34-42" — or something like that. Anyway, last Sunday when "Miss 44" was getting her morning paper, the wind blew her door shut and locked her out. All she had on was one of those shirty see-thru peek-a-boo nighties.

Well, "Miss 44" rang our doorbell, and when poor Alvin opened the door and saw her standing there like that he was so embarrassed he didn't know what to do, so he yelled for ME to get the caretaker while HE stood there talking to her.

Now, Abby, there are two old maid sisters living in the apartment right next to hers. Why didn't she ring THEIR bell?

I get so nervous thinking this might happen again I can't sleep at night. What do you suggest?
ALVIN'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I suggest you forget it. Your locked-out neighbor was probably more embarrassed than Alvin, and it's not likely to happen again.

DEAR ABBY: My dearest friend whom I love very, very much is addicted to diet pills and sleeping pills. She goes to two different doctors and gets prescriptions from each. One doctor doesn't know about the other. This has been going on for years, and now she has found still a third doctor who doesn't know about the other two.

We have had long talks, and this woman confides in me. I have begged her to tell her family doctor what she's doing, but she refuses.

I am very worried about her, Abby. She used to be groggy all morning, and now it's mid-afternoon before she can shake herself out of the fog.

Do you think I would be justified in calling her doctor and telling him what I know? If you say so I will call him immediately.

By the way, this woman's husband can't be too sharp because he doesn't know she is on pills. She has two young children and is such a wonderful person, I hate to see what she is doing to herself. Please advise me to herself. Please advise me to herself.

NAMELESS FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: Tell your friend that you will give her three days in which to tell her doctor, and if SHE doesn't tell him, YOU will tell him, because you love her too much to stand idly by and watch her destroy herself. In this way, you'll be giving her a chance to ave her face. I'll bet she tells her doctor.

DEAR ABBY: Re the letter from the widow whose son was turned away from a father-son night at the YMCA. I'm sure that the "Y" would not have turned her son away if this had been a "Y" function. Perhaps it was a private group, who had rented the pool for the evening.

As for her son getting involved in some activities where there would be a man around to look after him, why doesn't she enroll him in a good Cub Scout pack or Boy Scout group? Surely there is a local chapter of the Big Brothers, who would be more than happy to assist her. How about the local Boys Club in her town? These organizations would be more than glad to have her son as a member. Wise up, Mom, stop whining and start looking. Sign me.

BIG C IN ROCKFORD, ILL.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the benefit of "DISGUSTED SISTERS" who wonder why her brother "Gordy" left a beautiful 36-year-old wife for an old wrinkled grandmother of 50."

I happen to be married to a young, unwrinkled granddaddy of 50 and I couldn't be happier. This little granddaddy is warm and affectionate and full of love. She has never said, "Not now — you'll miss your hair!" And when I am in a loving mood, she'll never say, "Is that ALL you ever think of?"

No man wants to be married to an "untouchable goddess."

Dental Tips

This is the sixth in a series of articles on dental health published by the Times-News, in cooperation with the South Central Idaho Dental Society, in observance of National Children's Dental Health Week.

"My dentist has recently joined the list of people, including my physician and my wife, who are trying to get me to quit smoking. Why should my dentist be concerned about smoking?"

Dentists have a very real concern with smoking and its harmful effects. For example, we know that cigarette smokers have about four times the risk of death from oral cancer that non-smokers do. Some 15,000 new cases of oral cancer are reported each year, and about two out of three of these people will be dead within five years.

The fact that cigarette smoking is a very serious health hazard is no longer disputed in informed circles. Twenty years of research — laboratory, clinical and epidemiological — have given sound foundation to this conclusion. Of particular relevance to dentistry are findings relating the smoking of cigarettes and oral cancer.

Oral cancer is one of the most malignant of all cancers. Only persons with lung and stomach cancers have a lower survival rates than those with oral cancer. Frequently oral cancer is painless until it is too late for treatment. Even when oral cancer is treatable, the treatment is often disfiguring.

Cutting out smoking entirely is one way to help prevent oral cancer. Also, you should see your family dentist at regular intervals so he can check for possible malignancies, as well as for dental problems.

It is interesting to note that smokers are, on the average, absent from their jobs about six to seven days more during the year than non-smokers. If you add all the days together for all smokers, this means that about 77 million more work days are lost by cigarette smokers than by non-smokers.

If you are concerned about smoking and oral cancer, see your family dentist. Early detection and treatment of oral cancer are essential to effective cure. You should watch out for the following signs of possible malignancies:

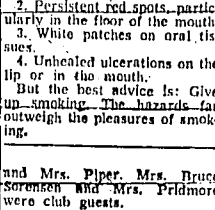

- 1. A swelling in the palate or other intra-oral areas.
- 2. Persistent red spots, particularly in the floor of the mouth.
- 3. White patches on oral tissues.
- 4. Unhealed ulcerations on the lip or in the mouth.

But the best advice is: Give up smoking. The hazards far outweigh the pleasures of smoking.

and Mrs. Piper, Mrs. Bruce Stronach and Mrs. Pridmore were club guests.

Murtaugh Homesteader To Be Honored By Magic Valley Livestock Hall Of Fame

MURTAUGH — In 1915 a Missourian and eight mules came to Idaho in a railroad car. Upon arriving in the Murtaugh area in the railroad car, Glen Briggs and the eight mules did contract work in clearing some 2,600 acres. Mr. Briggs then cleared and homesteaded the area now known as "Poverty knob," located east of Murtaugh.

Since then Mr. Briggs has built up the farm and runs about 600 head of Hereford cows. For his efforts in improving the livestock industry in this area, Mr. Briggs will be honored by the Magic Valley Livestock

Hall of Fame later this month in Burley at the Ponderosa Inn. Mr. Briggs was born near Carthage, Mo., and moved with his parents to Joplin, Mo., in 1914 to North Dakota. Then in 1915 to Idaho.

About the time he and his brother, Fergus Briggs, homesteaded, the Moorman Tract, a private water development pumping out of Milner Dam, was converted to the Milner Low Lift Irrigation District and took in the Briggs land and much more.

Glen and his only son, Dr. Kenneth Briggs, Twin Falls, operate much of their farming and livestock operation as Briggs and Briggs—in addition to the farming, they keep a large herd of Herefords.

Mr. Briggs was one of the original directors and organizers of the Milner Low Lift. He served as a director for many years. He also has been on the Murtaugh school board for some 14 years.

He also has served on the Magic Valley Memorial Hospital Board for some 20 years. He is a director of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust Co. and in 1964 was the Twin Falls County Grassman of the Year.

Of course, behind Mr. Briggs' success is his wife, Hazel, whom he married on Jan. 7, 1920, at Egeland, N.D. Last month, the two celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

In addition to his outstanding service to his community and to Twin Falls County, Glen has a tremendous sense of humor as all who know him can vouch for.

Horseshoeing Class Planned Next Week

A horseshoeing class will be offered in Twin Falls starting Friday, Feb. 13, by Idaho State University.

This popular class will continue Feb. 14 and 15.

Bill Byrne, director of the Office of Continuing Education at ISU, said the course will begin at 7 p.m. Feb. 13 with a lecture section in room 109 in the College of Southern Idaho academic building. The Feb. 14 and 15 locations will be announced then.

Cost of the course is $35. Enrollment is limited to 12 persons, so those interested must register and have their enrollment fee paid by Tuesday. Registrants may send their fee to Marvin Glasscock, College of Southern Idaho, P.O. Box 1238, Twin Falls, or they may register in Glasscock's office in the Area Vocational School, 1300 Kimberley Road, Twin Falls.

Don Applegate, a reading specialist at the Snake River Center for Improvement of Instruction, will teach the class. He has graduated more than 100 men and women in classes in Idaho Falls, St. Anthony, Rexburg and Blackfoot.

As owner and trainer of race horses, he began shoeing horses when he was 14. Recently he taught a class for the Wilderness Park Horse Show in Pinedale, Wyo.

Mr. Applegate will use slides and visual aids for his lectures, which will cover the anatomy and structure of the animal's foot-and-leg. Instruction on the care and maintenance of the hooves also will be given, as well as principles involved in corrective shoeing.

As a practical application of the instruction, each student will shoe his own horse.

Federal Land Bank Sets Annual Meet

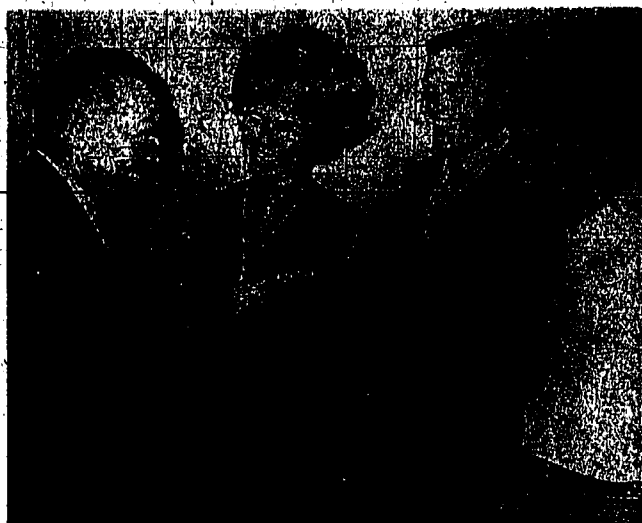

Stockholders of the Federal Land Bank Association of Twin Falls will hold their annual meeting at the Turf Club on Tuesday with registration commencing at 11:30 a.m., followed by luncheon at noon.

During the business meeting two directors will be elected. The terms of Clarence Hillfield, Hanson, and W. M. Whittington, Eden, will expire. Hold-over directors are Melvin Yagley, Clowers, Elmer Dousett, Twin Falls, and George Atkins, Buhl.

Stockholders of the Association include about 600 farmers and ranchers in Twin Falls County and the Eden-Hazelton area in Jerome County.

CUT ORDERED
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Following declines in U.S. cigarette production, the agriculture department has ordered planting allotments for Burley tobacco cut about 10 per cent in 1970.

Farm AND Ranch SECTION

Don Depew, Hansen, Is New President Of Magic Valley Appaloosa Horse Club

JEROME — Don Depew, Hansen, has been named president of the Magic Valley Appaloosa Horse Club, Idaho's newest horse club.

Mr. Depew was named during the first annual meeting of the organization held recently in Magic Valley Cafe, Jerome.

Other officers named were Jerry James, Jerome, vice-president, and Mrs. James, secretary-treasurer. Richard Savago, Murtaugh, was named chairman of the racing committee; Robert Harney, Twin Falls, is chairman of the Youth Committee and Tod Uhrig, Sun Valley, is in charge of activities.

Directors named, besides Mr. Depew and Mr. James, include Clint Foster, Sun Valley; Clint Abernombro, Gooding; Bob Stevens, Declo; Larry Stevens, Piler, and Mr. Uhrig, directors-at-large.

Speaking to the group was L. W. (Bill) Moore, Hansen, president of the Appaloosa Horse

Club of America. He spoke of the recent board meeting in Moscow headquarters of the national organization.

He said a new class has been added on the national level — working horses with cattle.

Also speaking briefly was Mr. Harney on the trophy saddle to be given to the high point youth of 1970.

A film on the history of the Appaloosa horse was shown and several items were auctioned with Bronson Ostic, Jerome, as auctioneer.

Clear Pedigree Hereford Show, Sale Set Feb. 20-21

GOODING — The 10th Annual Clear Pedigree Hereford Show and Sale, sponsored by the Idaho Hereford Breeders' Association, will be held Feb. 20 and 21 at the Gooding Fairgrounds according to Lewis Rothwell, Arco, president of the organization.

Rothwell reports that 100 top range bulls and 20 quality heifers have been consigned by leading Idaho Hereford breeders. The horned and polled listings include bulls aged 10 to 32 months and open and bred heifers.

Judging and sifting of the 120 head of sale cattle will begin at 11 a.m., Friday, Feb. 20, in the indoor arena at the fairgrounds. Herschel Boydston, College of Southern Idaho, Twin Falls, will serve as official judge with Sherman Swim, Pocatello, and Dick Galicia, Nampa, assisting on the sifting committee. Ribbons and rosettes will be awarded to winners and Gooding businessmen provide trophies for champion animals.

The Clear Pedigree sale is scheduled at 11 a.m., Saturday, Feb. 21 with Ken Trout, Emmet, as auctioneer.

Consignors include Callender and Kendall, Cascade; Clark Hereford Ranch, Buhl; Louis Corgateall, Darlington; Don Da sie, Rothwell Herefords and John Techick, all of Arco; Paul Flier, Salmon; Harper Broth-

Jerome Grangers Planning Benefit

JEROME — Plans for an open card benefit party were made recently by members of the Jerome Grange.

Along Fences And Canals

How a calf swallowed a baseball and lived has caused considerable speculation at the Mark Jaynes ranch at Richfield where the calf died from bloat last week. F. M. Crowther helped Jaynes and his son, Charlie, cut up the 400 pound calf for dog meat and they found the baseball. Jaynes had purchased the calf two months ago at a sale yard and he's sure the ball must have been swallowed before he bought the calf.

Eighty-one steers from the Knox Pitch-Fork ranch, King Hill, were hauled to the Gooding Sale by the Adams Trucking Co.

Wayne Draper attended a Beet Growers Association directors meeting in Mountain Home and Mr. and Mrs. Draper attended a directors' meeting at the Owyhee hotel in Boise.

Seventy replacement heifers were given vitamin A and D shots by the Knox Pitch-Fork ranch crew of Alvin Irving, Donnie Donahue and Gale Miller.

Mud in feedlots has been a real problem in the King Hill area, during the rainy period. The feedlot at the Pitch-Fork Ranch is in good shape, with old railroad ties around the feed bunkers, but a caterpillar is being used to feed in the fields and more straw has been used so far than was used in the past three years together.

The George Larachs, Glenna Ferry, were in Denver attending a livestock show when one of their cows dropped twin calves, their first duplicate birth of their herd of registered Herefords.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mathieson, who operate a large dairy farm southwest of Filer, recently sold 40 head of registered Guernsey cattle to The Shamrock Dairy, Tucson, Ariz. The sale was completed by Clifford Knight, advisor for the dairy, and Wendell Fuhrman, fieldman. The Shamrock Dairy has one of the top herds in the nation and ranks first in milk production. The cattle were transported to Arizona in one large van with the trip taking 38 hours. The day following the Tucson sale, the Mathiesons sold 10 more head to a dairy in Tooele, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Turner, Tuttle, have the new addition to their farm house almost completed. They have added three bedrooms, a half bath and a utility room.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Patrick, Castleford, and Mr. and Mrs. Noy Brackett, Hagerman, have returned from Washington, D.C., where they attended the Congressional Dinner in the Sheraton Park Hotel where Sprig Agnew was featured speaker. The two ladies were guests of Sen. and Mrs. Frank Church at a luncheon.

A 3-year-old registered Holstein cow, "Hot-Stein Uva Killa," and owned by Frank W. Houston, Jerome, has completed a lactation of 17,580 pounds of milk, 640 pounds of butterfat and 1,331 pounds of solids-not-fat in 307 days.

Ross Craner, Kimberly, is helping his nephew, Toby Dayley, with milking and farm chores at the Clifford Dayley northeast Richfield ranch, while Mr. and Mrs. Dayley are vacationing in Hawaii this month.

MAGIC VALLEY Livestock Hall of Fame will honor Karl E. (Chick) Bodke, an Oakley rancher, shown here with his wife, Norma, and grandson, Terry Bennett, at the Hall of Fame Banquet Feb. 16 in Burley. Terry, 5, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bennett, Rupert. Chick will be honored for his contributions to the livestock industry of Southern Idaho.

Hall Of Fame To Honor Oakley Rancher

OAKLEY — A livestockman who has continued in his father's steps in improving the livestock industry in Southern Idaho through hard work, sweat and luck, will be honored later this month by the Magic Valley Livestock Hall of Fame.

Karl E. (Chick) Bodke, who has holdings in Idaho and Nevada and runs several hundred head of commercial and purebred cattle, will be named to the Hall of Fame on Feb. 16 in the Ponderosa Inn at Burley at a banquet. Four other area livestockmen will be honored that same night.

Chick, who is 56, was born and raised at Oakley. His father, Frank Bodke, was a pioneer in the cattle business in Southern Idaho. He raised commercial cattle and also started raising and selling registered Herefords in the early 1920s.

Frank purchased his first foundation purebred stock at an annual American Hereford Association sale. He developed his own range and purebred operations. Next, he purchased the old "Bull Gray" ranch on Goose Creek, then he purchased the famed "Rancho Grande" in Elko County, Nev., near the Idaho border.

The latter was purchased from the Utah Construction Co., of the large, old time livestock companies. These, together with what Frank owned, brought the total holdings up to about 11,000 acres of deeded land, including 20 square miles of grazing land near the "Rancho Grande" in Nevada. Cattle operations included about 1,500 head, including registered cattle which are kept at home under fence the year around. In 1947, Chick and his dad imported more purebred heifers and bulls. These were purchased from the Wyoming hereford ranch, a widely-known source of choice breeding stock, located near Cheyenne.

Chick's father died in 1957, and he took over the ranch and the entire operation. He has made several purchases of cattle, including Polled Herefords, from widely-known breeders. He has purchased cattle from the National Livestock Show in Denver in 1953; 127 head of heifers, cows and bulls in 1963 from Emmett Reaser, Salmon; several head from Northern P.U.M.P. Ranches in 1964; 59 head, including a $5,000 and $4,500 bulls from the Rice Ranch, Sheridan, Wyo., in 1965 and in 1967, several head from the Delmar Johnson Ranch in Kansas.

A few years ago he purchased a ranch between Doclo and Burley. His main reason was to keep some of his registered cattle there. Chick also has made a special and successful effort to develop top horses about four years ago he purchased four mares and a stallion at the National Quarter Horse Sale at Fort Worth. He still has three of the mares. The original stallion has been replaced now with a son of the known as "Modesto-Rock."

Chick attributes much of his success in the livestock industry to hard work, sweat and luck. He also notes that his wife, Norma, had a lot to do with it. "When asked if a young man can hope to have the same kind of success starting out today, Chick said, "I don't think it would be possible today for a young man. The government has reached the point that it stifles the young starter."

With due respect to his father, who must be given a lot of credit for building a good, well-balanced cow outfit, Chick helped develop it and following his father's death, has made great strides in making it even stronger by excellent breeding and management.

Most well-informed people regard his operation as one of the best, if not the best, of its kind in Southern Idaho.

The regular business session was conducted by master Ogle Wall. Special attention was called to a request from the state level for profligence in ritual work this year.

Practice has been planned for the two February meetings before the visitations with other Granges begin. Judging of the work will be done to aid in perfecting that part of the officers duties.

An announcement of the Twin Falls County Grange Dinner at Robert Stuart Junior High School, Feb. 21, was made. Tickets are being sold now. Sponsors of the dinner are Knoll and Twin Falls Granges. A motion was approved to raise the local dues to $5 because of the increase of state dues. The state organization has also asked $1 per member to help finance the national meeting at Boise next fall.

Mrs. Dean Britt, youth chairman, told about another first being planned on the state level, a Young Married Couples Conference in the Treasure Valley Feb. 13-15. Several agricultural remarks were made by various members regarding pollution, DDT, tax increases, etc. On March 9, the local group will be held at the Twin Falls Grange. Visitations are scheduled to Mountain Rock and Murtough the same month. Master Wall and his wife, who attended every session of the state meeting in Twin Falls, gave their reports. The three young folk also expressed their feelings regarding the degree work they saw and took part in.

Manager Of Unit Named Fertilizer

Roy Russell has been named manager of the Twin Falls office, Simplot Soilbuilders.

Mr. Russell, who has worked in both the Twin Falls and Jerome offices, has been with Simplot Soilbuilders for 6 1/2 years. Prior to joining Simplot Soilbuilders, he was with the U.S. Army infantry. He retired in 1963.

He is active in community affairs. He is exalted ruler of the Twin Falls Elks Lodge.

He is married and resides at 1340 Evergreen Drive.

ROY RUSSELL is the new manager of the Twin Falls office, Simplot soilbuilders.

Farmers Get Some Beet Damage Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. James McClure, R-Idaho Falls, said payments totaling $60,000 have been made to Idaho beet farmers who suffered losses on their 1969 crop due to disease carried by the white fly.

McClure said his information came from George V. Hansen, deputy administrator of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. McClure said the funds represented the maximum amount of relief available under ASCS abandonment and deficiency payments.

McClure said sugar beet farmers in Southern Idaho suffered extensive losses due to the disease carried by the flies who left adjoining public lands due to weather conditions.

He said he will continue to meet with Farmers Home Administration officials in an effort to secure further relief under programs administered by that agency.

You deal with local folks

You know the benefits of trading at home: a fair price, dependable service, an understanding of local conditions. These are the same reasons why farmers prefer to obtain their long-term credit locally. And thoughtful local service is another advantage of the Land Bank system.

We know the possibilities, and probabilities for this area... we understand why modern agriculture demands a dependable credit source. We'd better know—we live here. Stop by and get acquainted, neighbor.

Potato Growers Of Idaho Having Membership Drive

BURLEY — Members of the Potato Growers of Idaho, Inc. held a membership drive kick-off breakfast recently at Price's Cafe. Attending were members of District Five, which includes Cassia and Twin Falls Counties, and District Six, which includes Blaine, Gooding, Jerome, Lincoln, Mindoka and Camas counties. The event was held state-wide and the membership drive is open for one week. A $100 prize being offered by the association to the individual in each district who signs up the most new members.

give up its data information on potato prices. The service will be available 24 hours a day. Dr. Ben K. Humphrey, Rupert, state vice president of the Potato Growers of Idaho, Inc., in charge of research and education, noted, "that this group is a commodity organization and is not in competition with any other farm organization. We are seeking the highest prices through bargaining for our product", he added. It was reported in a recent input-output study on potatoes that it was discovered that $4.18 was generated at the grower level for every dollar that was invested by the grower. An additional $7.50 or a total of $11.68 was pumped into the state's economy when the potatoes were processed.

Five Counties Represented At Beef School In Gooding

GOODING — The beef school held here recently attracted livestockmen from five counties. There was excellent cooperation from those participating on the program, reports Gooding County agent Ed Koester. The program was planned by a beef planning committee from Gooding and Lincoln Counties. Mr. Koester was coordinator and made various arrangements for the school.

Basket Lunch Planned By Area Grange

KING HILL — A "Basket Lunch" will be held at the next meeting of King-Hill-Grange at 7 p.m. Tuesday. A prize will be given to the best box decorated by a man, a woman, and the most unusual box. The boxes will not be auctioned, but each one attending will pay 50 cents for his or her lunch. The funds collected will be divided between the health charities. Each couple is to bring a box lunch for this affair.

Secretary Mrs. Denver Allred read a letter from state master William Adams, Eagle, asking each Grange to write his or her state legislator asking for the passage of bill 404, relative to the survivor's spouse not being required to go through probate to have title to the home estate and also bill 1414 which would retain the four per cent limit on property tax. After a discussion, both bills were endorsed.

Potato School Set At Burley This Month

BURLEY — Ways to make famous potatoes even better in 1970 will be studied at a school Feb. 25-26 at the Ponderosa Inn. Richard Ohms, potato specialist of the University of Idaho extension service, announced today. The school is for potato farmers and others concerned with production and storage. A wide range of topics such as fertility, planting dates, irrigation, weed control, insect control, and the advantages of using certified seed will be discussed. University specialists in several fields will present the latest information.

CHAROLAIS DAYS SET

Cecil Calhoun, Buhl Farmer, Comments About Today's Rural Lending Policies

By CECIL CALHOUN
(Editor's note: The ideas expressed in this article, written as a public service by Mr. Calhoun, a well known Buhl area farmer, are those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Times-News.)
The past 20 years has witnessed a complete revolution in rural lending policies. From the country banker, whose very existence depended upon the well being of his farm community, we have progressed to an almost wholly branch system based on an installment and credit card structure.

The economical and mechanical revolution that completely changed the face of agriculture was not matched by lending policies which could assist in maintaining a realistic balance between a stable rural community and an insupportable urban congestion. While long term financing for remodeling, re-equipping a farm, even selection of a crop, is necessary, banking continued to serve agriculture on a hand to mouth basis. The slim margin of profit could not cope with the insistence on seasonal repayment of capital investment and readjustment loans.

Consequently the movement of rural population into urban environment was accelerated and continued far beyond any rational need, either of industry or agriculture. Agriculture is not sick as the politician selling "programs" would have you believe. The sickness is in an outmoded and unresponsive banking system that, because of economic trends and the inability of agriculture to command a fair return on investment, turned to a more liquid form of investment.

Thousands of competent farmers have been forced to leave for no reason than a financial system that failed to work with them in developing the modern potential of their holdings. Highly capable in production they could not meet the annual payment of capital investment and finally the time element involved in shifting from obsolete crops to a more profitable loan. Intensive travel throughout the western U.S. reveals that most newer developments are headquartered in large metropolitan centers. Here one chain boasts openly of 27 million credit cards in use, besides their installment financing. And herein lies the limiting factor in rural financing. It takes no financial wizardry to manage a bank where every sign is posted from the side lines and the well being of a community is dependent on a battery of machines a thousand miles distant.

Yet we cannot fault the manager for this. Take the return on a 2-year housing loan of $20,000 at eight per cent interest paid in monthly installments. Invest and reinvest that income and when the last payment is made the bank has $20,111 in interest. Now use the same amount in credit card financing. Here the game starts with the shopkeeper paying four per cent just for the bank acting as bill collector. Then 18 per cent annual interest is set up in three to 36-month installments. Now start comparing the return on credit lending until your mind cracks. For comparison take a straight farm loan at 9 per cent. Consider 365 days of risk in weather, markets and personal integrity. Risk? Records from Mount Rainier, Ill. (Chicago) show just over one per cent loss in installment collections. Again a banker can take his free deposits and buy Treasury Bills at 7 1/2 per cent and relieve himself of all risk and mental turmoil without leaving his swivel chair.

Lending for taking up deficits, taxes, etc., while essential in emergencies are in the parlance of ranchmen, "buying dead horses." Capital investment chairman of the various commodity committees make up the Over-all Extension Advisory Committee.

every citizen should concern themselves with the need of clarifying and enlarging the scope of assistance within that agency.
Today over $20,000,000 in FHA funds is spent financing gold courses, swimming pools and entertainment. Worthy as these endeavors may be, they should not be charged to agriculture. Neither should the $75,000,000 spent on "community facilities". Or the $307,000,000 in housing loans. Tax dollars used for such purposes cannot be allowed to hide behind the word "farm". Here are three fields of lending hiding behind the corral fence of agriculture. Insist on driving them out into the open and operating them under their own colors.
Too long for the good of this country, we have worshipped the word "BIG". Got big or get out has been the watchword of every economist and every banker.
The result has been twofold. First the massing of hundreds of thousands of uneducated, untrained and largely unneeded people in slum environment where they will forever remain a burden on society. This in terms of human values is tragic.
Secondly, the placing of this nation in a position of utter helplessness should a recession crumble the monolith of industry, resting as it does on a foundation of paper credits and leveraged mortgages. A breakdown of "economic stabilization" will not come from a depressed agriculture but from the fact that our massive cities, regardless of all ballyhoo about unprecedented prosperity, show almost one third of their population on some form of welfare. A breakdown of magnitude in this field would destroy the very form of government we now boast.
Indicative of this danger are reports from unimpeachable financial journals that $400 billion in investment capital is being annually sent to foreign lands. Additional billions are quietly stashed away in tax exempt securities.
Agriculture, with its diverse products and relatively slow returns, cannot compete in this type of financing. Just as like conditions forced the formation of the Land Bank system that saved agriculture in 1913-14, so will modern means be developed to protect a minority industry from policies that send thousands of its people into an untenable situation.

Two Couples Get Grange's 4th Degree

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cammack and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Davis received the fourth degree during a recent meeting of the Twin Falls Grange. Conferring the degree upon the two couples was Thomas Spreddly, executive commissioner.
The history of the Grange was explained by Gary Custer, steward, and Mr. Speedy. They also explained the Grange's objectives.
Gamer-Lowe, lecturer, outlined "rules" for the ritual. He gave this year. Mr. Lowe announced the Deep Creek Grange will be visiting the Twin Falls Grange on Feb. 25 and that the Twin Falls Grange will visit the Kimberly Grange on March 9. Mountain Rose Grange on April 8 and the Murlough Grange on April 17.
The next meeting of the Twin Falls Grange is Thursday and the public is invited to this open meeting. Ralph Cisco, Sawtooth Valley Forest Ranger, Hinkley, will make and show slides on the White Clouds mining issue.

Outlook Bright On Wheat Sales To Philippines

BOISE — The immediate outlook for U.S. wheat sales to the Philippines has brightened considerably in the last few weeks. It was revealed today by the Idaho Wheat Commission. The Philippines has been a trouble spot recently for U.S. wheat exporters. Since mid-1969, the highly competitive pressure of other major world wheat suppliers has threatened the virtual monopoly the U.S. had on the Philippines' annual 600 ton cash wheat purchase requirement. A three-year, $18 million line of credit offered by the U.S. Commodity Credit Corporation has been accepted by the Philippines government. Wheat Commission officials said. It now appears as though the U.S. will supply a majority of the Philippine wheat requirement this year.

Pakistan To Buy Gem State Wheat

BOISE (UPI) — The Idaho Wheat Commission reports the second USDA issued two public law 480 purchase authorizations to Pakistan for $9,515,000 worth of wheat. The average annual rainfall in Hong Kong is 85 inches.

Ziegler Mounts 3-Shot Margin Over Devlin In Second Round Of Tourney

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI)—Larry Ziegler, chipping and putting better than he has in a long time, shot a seven-under par 65 Thursday to break out of the pack and take commanding lead after two rounds of the $125,000 Bob Hope Desert Classic.

Carlos Wins Two Sprints In Toronto

TORONTO (UPI)—John Carlos swept to victory in the 50 and 100 yard sprints Thursday night in the Telegram Maple Leaf Indoor track and field games, and Willie Davenport captured the 50-yard hurdles.

Ralph Doublin, Australian star, registered his 14th straight victory on the North American continent by winning the 1,000 in 2:07.

Carlos edged Herb Washington of Michigan State in the 50, covering the distance in 5.2. In the 100, Carlos posted a meet record of 1:17 as he bested Trinidad's Ed Roberts to the tape.

The featured three mile event was swept by Canadians, with Bob Finlay scoring in 13:19. Jerome Drayton was second in 13:27 and Grant McLaren third.

In women's events, Chi Cheng of the Republic of China was a double winner, setting a world record of 6.5 in the 50-yard hurdles and then capturing the 50-yard dash.

Mamie Ballina of the United States who held the record of 6.6 in the hurdle event, hit the tape in the same time as Miss Cheng, but was placed second.

In the dash, Miss Cheng edged Barbara Ferrel of California. Marly McGrady beat Olympia Lee Evans for the second time within a week as the Washington, D. C. runner captured the 600 yard event in 1:11. Evans was clocked in 1:13.

Henryk Szordykowski of Poland took the mile run in 4:06.4, with little Sam Bair, the former Kent State runner, finishing second in 4:08.8.

Reynaldo Treown of the California track club leaped 7 feet 2 inches to win the high jump with Ken Lundmark of Sweden second in 7-1.

The pole vault went to Sam Caruthers of San Jose, who vaulted 17 feet to oust world record holder Bob Seangren, who finished second with the bar at 16 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

Warriors Climb In Standings

CHICAGO (UPI)—Starters Joe Wallace, Jerry Lucas and Clyde Lee combined for 74 points Thursday night to lead the San Francisco Warriors to a 127-105 victory over the Chicago Bulls, moving them into third place in the National Basketball Association's Western Division.

The Warriors, despite playing without Nate Thurmond and Jeff Mullins, trailed the Bulls only in the opening three minutes and then broke away from a 16-16 tie to hold a solid lead the rest of the way.

Aide Blasts Nagel, Iowa Feud Flares

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI)—Gary Grounwickel, an assistant football coach at the University of Iowa, said Thursday he was given for his dismissal included his failure to invite head football coach Ray Nagel to a Christmas party.

Grounwickel listed six reasons for his dismissal, including that he had played paddle ball with Athletic Director Forest Evashevski on one noon during Spring, 1968, football practice, Grounwickel said.

The alleged feud is apparently a long-standing one, which he had played paddle ball with Athletic Director Forest Evashevski on one noon during Spring, 1968, football practice, Grounwickel said.

Usual Protest Attends BYU's Loss To Rams

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (UPI)—In a game marked by protests against Brigham Young University, the Colorado State University Rams downed BYU 9-7.

Rams' coach Jim Williams had said before the game he wanted to forfeit the contest because of the protest by black militants against the Mormon Church, operators of BYU.

A demonstration at halftime was quelled by some 30 officers.

CSU took a commanding halftime lead of 50-30. George Price was high man for the Rams with 23 points. Brigham Young was paced by Paul Ruffner with 20.

BYU is now 5-14 in the Western Athletic Conference. CSU climbed over the 500-mark with an 8-7 record.

Boston Makes Last-Ditch Proposal To Keep Patriots

BOSTON (UPI)—The president of the Boston Patriots and Mayor Kevin H. White met for more than an hour Thursday and came up with an 11th hour plan to possibly save the pro football franchise.

White and Bill Sullivan of the Patriots ruled out use of George Robert White Stadium, a 10,000-seat schoolboy facility, and said the last-minute proposal was not in East Boston but declined to elaborate further.

The announcement came three days after Harvard University again turned down a bid by the Patriots for temporary use of Harvard Stadium, a 30,000-seat facility, while the club worked on acquiring a permanent home.

Sullivan said the city and the Patriots were working together on the proposal. An agreement was ready "within 48 hours," the mayor said. "I think that—for Boston—will be the final answer."

Sullivan said he was "always optimistic" about finding a home for the club. White cautioned, "I don't want to deal with false optimism. I want to be realistic."

The proposal offers the best opportunity if the pieces can be put together," Sullivan said. He said the suggestion was "the best chance as well as the last chance for Boston."

The Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) is working with the Patriots on the plan. White said. Pending before the legislature is a bill to allow seizure by eminent domain of 35,000-sq-ft Fenway Park with construction of a second deck on the ancient home of the Boston Red Sox to expand the capacity.

Gov. Claude Kirk of Florida met with Sullivan Wednesday to argue switching the franchise to Florida if no plans can be reached to stay in Boston.

Tampa has a 46,000-seat stadium and Jacksonville is offering a 70,000-seat facility.

Among other prospective new locations are Memphis, Tenn., Birmingham, Ala., Portland, Ore., Montreal, Toronto, Seattle, Carolina. Sullivan said the Patriots' directors decided Wednesday night to form two committees, one to consider possible stadium sites in the Boston area and one to study offers elsewhere.

Son of the famous Col. Jim Beam, T. Jeremiah is the fifth generation of a Kentucky family that's been making the same Bourbon since 1795. That's a long time for one family to make one product, according to one formula.

As a matter of fact, 1970 marks the 175th anniversary of the year in which Jacob Beam, founder of the Beam clan, sold his first barrel of Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey.

Since then, six generations of Beams have been following in Jacob's footsteps, making Bourbon the way he did, according to a formula that's been a Beam family secret, practiced as a family art.

When Springtime comes to these Kentucky hills, it works its seasonal magic on thousands of white oak barrels, aging the Beam family's Bourbon. The same as it has for the past 175 years.

So when you take a sip of Jim Beam, savor it for a moment. Notice its quality and its light taste. That's what we mean when we say it's a 175-year-old family art.

T. Jeremiah Beam. Part of the Beam family art for 175 years.

Skiers Say They're So Good Qualifying Isn't Required

VAL-GARDENA, ITALY (UPI)—The world's top skiers were prepared for another strike Thursday saying they will not start in Saturday's qualification slalom, the curtain-raiser of the World Alpine Skiing Championships.

"The top 30 skiers of the world ratings agreed not to start in the qualification because we feel we are already qualified for the world championships," said Karl Schranz, the Austrian star skier, but he pointed out he was not the leader of the planned strike.

Only last Friday the leading skiers went on strike at Garmisch, West Germany, forcing postponement of the Kandahar Downhill because of poor visibility.

The French reportedly started the movement asking all the other top competitors to join them. "I was approached as well and agreed immediately as all the others did," Schranz said.

The 31-year-old Austrian veteran explained that the top skiers had qualified in every race of the season by collecting points for the world ratings of the international skiing federation.

"To qualify again for one single race is idiotic to be frank," Schranz said. "We have proved during the races of this season that we are the best and qualified for a world championship race. It would be very unfair to any top skier who might fail to qualify in this planned qualification, just because of bad luck," the Austrian said.

Schranz pointed out that nothing was official yet and that there has been no reaction on the matter by the international jury, so far.

Challenger Cops Cup Of Kenny-Conley

The Challenger Inn skiing team won the Kenny-Conley cup this year in competition at Sun Valley between employees of the Challenger and the Sun Valley Lodge.

First place in the men's division went to Werner Wunderwacker, Austria, a cook in the lodge. First for the women was Claudia Hill, Portland, Ore., a waitress in the El Torito, which is located in the Challenger Inn. Trophies were also given to the first of the men and women who did not quite qualify as winners. These went to Charlie Tucker of the Inn and Barbara Giant of the Lodge. The "Dead Last but Finished" award went to the Sun Valley's most prominent race enthusiast, Ron Coleman, formerly of Twin Falls.

The race originated to satisfy an age old rivalry between the employees of the Lodge and the Inn. Since most of the Sun Valley employees are skiers, and better than average at that, it is only natural that one source of friendly bantering would be about skiing and their respective capabilities. This is how the race began.

The couple of room service waiters, who lacked like a very good employee relations stimulant so Rich Kenny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Kenny, San Carlos, Calif., formerly of Kimberly and Twin Falls, and Frank Conley, Oregon, both seasoned employees, decided to promote this spirit year after year by providing a perpetual trophy. Hence, the Kenny-Conley Cup was born.

Bulldogs Top Shoshone In Dual Match

KIMBERLY — The Kimberly Bulldogs defeated the Shoshone Indians 38-15 Thursday night and wrapped up the regular wrestling season with a 9-4 record.

The Bulldogs, with three first-string men either injured or ill, and the Indians now are pointed toward the district wrestling tournament Tuesday through Thursday at Buhl.

Results of the matches, Kimberly men listed first, include 101 pounds, Berrelth was pinned by Hata; 110 pounds, Hylton won by forfeit; 118 pounds, Johnson drew with Gschill; 120 pounds, Aldritt pinned Johnson; 133 pounds, Eslinger decisioned Farnworth; 140 pounds, Ledbetter won by forfeit; 148 pounds, Heath decisioned Daniels; 158 pounds, Dodds won by forfeit; 168 pounds, Hank Reinster was decisioned by Swamer; 178 pounds, Dry was pinned by Lowe; 188 pounds, Gott won by forfeit, and heavyweight, Steele pinned Schoolcraft.

Rudy York Dies Of Lung Cancer

ROME, Ga. (UPI)—Rudy York, who set a still-standing major league baseball record when he hit 18 home runs in one month as a rookie back in 1937, died here Thursday of lung cancer.

York, 50, had been returned Thursday morning to Floyd County Hospital where he underwent surgery and radiation treatments last November.

York's last association with major league baseball was back in 1959 when he served as first base coach for the Boston Red Sox.

BROWN ACQUITTED
SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Jim Brown was acquitted of charges of felony assault and misdemeanor battery Thursday after a jury of seven women and five men deliberated for only 30 minutes.

Ex-Ellor Couple To Enter Race

A husband and wife snowmobile racing team, Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Schroeder, Boise, formerly of Ellor, have entered the world's richest and most competitive snowmobile race.

They will compete in the King's Castle Casino Grand Prix on the North Shore of Lake Tahoe at Incline Village, Nev., which will be held Feb. 28 to March 1.

The Grand Prix will feature more than 350 drivers competing for more than $50,000 in prize money. Racers will come from the U.S. and Canada.

Mr. Schroeder, 1968 North American Snowmobile Club champion, is a native of Ellor, and moved to Boise last June to become an area representative for Western Polaris, Inc., of Boise.

His wife, Marcella, in highest classes women are allowed to enter under rules of the Western Snowmobile Association, has a very powder puff events in the same races as her husband.

Always traveling together, the Schroeders often take sons Jeff, 15, and Val, 13, to events where novice races are scheduled.

Myrl has been racing snowmobiles for five years now. His wife started racing shortly after he did.

The King's Castle Grand Prix will be televised nationally in order for fans to see the thrills, spills, snowmobile stunts.

Houston Avenges St. Mary's Loss

HOUSTON (UPI)—Ollie Taylor and Poo Welch scored 25 and 22 points respectively to lead Houston in a 118-77 revenge victory over St. Mary's Thursday night.

The triumph avenged a 76-66 defeat Houston suffered in San Antonio Jan. 24—a win which helped move St. Mary's to eighth place in the small college rankings and dropped Houston from 10th to 20th in the major college rankings.

St. Mary's led only once, 2-0. The Cougars took the lead permanently 5-3 on a layup by Taylor after three minutes elapsed. They stretched it to 50-42 at the half and were ahead 20-30 points most of the second half.

WHEN BOTH PLAY TRUMPS — OUCH!

South looked at the dummy and the trump lead. The dummy was all right but he didn't approve of the trump lead. Then he remarked, "If I want trumps led, I'll lead them myself," and proceeded to play two more rounds of trumps.

South blamed North for not bidding three no-trump which would have been a byword. Then he blamed West for opening a trump. East for opening on all his diamonds and the gods of chance for never giving him a break.

Then he cashed his king of clubs, led another trump and continued with a low diamond to dummy's nine. East won and led a spade. South took the ace, led a second diamond to dummy's ace, discarded a spade on the ace of clubs and played dummy's last diamond.

South should have realized that when both sides play trumps one is sure to be wrong. He should have taken his king of clubs at trick two, led a diamond to dummy's ace at trick three, discarded a spade on the ace of clubs at trick four and led a second diamond at-trick-five.

Either opponent could win and play a second trump, whereupon South would play a third diamond. East would win that and be unable to lead a third trump so South would get to ruff his fourth diamond for the 10th trick.

This line of play gave the extra chance that the same player would not hold both the long diamonds and the long trumps.

Lent: Spring Training Season In Religion

By REV. JOHN RILEY
Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Twin Falls

"Lent almost always comes at a time when baseball players go south or west for spring training. When the warm weather comes, players start exercising in order to loosen their muscles. They practice throwing, fielding, batting and, after about a month, they are in good shape for the beginning of the baseball season."

So begins a book entitled, "More than Words," published by Seabury Press as a resource guide for junior high youth.

Lent has been thought of by Churches as the spring training season in religion.

The origins of such a season go back at least as early as the second century, and may be traced in the development of fasts and other ascetical exercises and of catechetical instructions undertaken by candidates for Baptism at Easter.

It is interesting to note that the first observance of a Lenten Season lasted no longer than two or three days. It was only due to piety, with its way of extending rigorous disciplines, that by the 4th century Christians were indoned with a forty-day period of fasting.

Associating the 40 days Jesus spent in the wilderness was but an afterthought; it had nothing to do with the development of the Lenten Season.

As the custom of administering Baptism on Easter even passed out of use, Lent became emphasized as a penitential season of "mourning for sin," and the spirit of its ascetical exercises was diffused more and more with the recollections of our Lord's trials and tribulations and less with the anticipations of His triumphant Resurrection.

To make things much more simple in understanding the season, the word "Lent" itself is derived from an old Anglo-Saxon word meaning nothing more than "spring."

Today there are two schools of thought on such a pre-Easter season.

One holds to the use of it as a time for discipline, "giving up" things, developing rigorous prayer habits, and attending services of worship as often as they are held.

The "heaviness" of such a time wears thin to the average church-goer. And this has caused the second view on keeping Lent to rear its head.

This view is that Christians would do well to tackle the Season with a more positive manner, not "giving up" things as much as "taking them on." If, in the process, "something has to go," all the better.

Those who adhere to this view also would like to shorten the Season to just one week, that preceding Easter, and really concentrate on more meaningful and lasting things.

One comment heard from this "school" is that they cannot imagine God being interested in whether or not one of his faithful servants gives up lemon pie for 40 days.

The custom, then, of keeping Lent varies as to which school of thought one feels comfortable with.

Some ways of observing the Season will always be with us as they probably should be: A time for some good, long awaited reading, for getting closer to the needs of humanity with special reference to the "neighbor," for those extra times at Communion when the entire family can worship together, for the asking of deeper questions about life which ask "who am I?" and "why am I here?"

This is the kind of spring training people need in order to cope with life and live. Having one particular season provides the time.

That's Lent, which starts next week.

Shoshone's Relief Society Lessons Given

SHOSHONE — The LDS Relief Society lessons for February have been announced.

The first meeting of the month will feature the Spiritual Living lesson entitled, "One of Joseph Smith's Contributions—The Translation of the Book of Mormon." Emphasis is placed on teachings within the Book of Mormon which will increase the faith of the Latter-day Saint women.

John A. Widstoe is quoted as saying "The degree of faith possessed by any man depends not upon the extent of his knowledge, but upon the certainty of his knowledge, which leads to the proper use of his knowledge."

The visiting teacher's message is called "Weak Things May Become Strong," which will point to individual gifts of each person and promises of growth through struggle.

The Homemaking lesson is entitled, "Work as Willing With Her Hands," directed to alert the LDS woman to the wisdom of preparing for her family security through home storage of food.

Among things to be discussed will be determining our food needs, meeting the cost of food storage, a well-balanced food supply and note made that success in food storage will depend in large measure, upon attitude toward it.

The Social Relations lesson will follow the topic of "Be of Good Cheer," to remind the women of the church that the gospel of Christ brings a message of gladness to her home.

For the Cultural Refinement lesson, the literature study prepared by Dr. Bruce B. Clark from Volume five, "Out of the Best Books," will center around the topic of "The Place of Entertainment."

Objective is to show that there is a valid place for entertainment and pleasure in life but that these should always be in good taste and in accordance with Church standards.

The music cutting is a "mini-opera," by Gian Carlo Menotti, entitled "The Telephone," and a musical selection by Clawson Cannon, assistant dean of college of fine arts, Brigham Young University.

Speakers Listed

William Thomas Beach Grove, Ind., will be guest speaker during the 10:50 a.m. worship service in the Twin Falls First Christian Church, on Feb. 15. Rex Lawson, Pugh Sound College of the Bible, will speak. Both are candidates for the ministry here.

PAUL SKILES will be directing the annual indoor camp next week at the Twin Falls First Church of the Nazarene, Mr. Skiles, Kansas City, will be in charge of the music, and Rev. Scott will be the featured speaker at all services Tuesday through Feb. 15.

REV. ROBERT SCOTT will be directing the annual indoor camp next week at the Twin Falls First Church of the Nazarene, Mr. Skiles, Kansas City, will be in charge of the music, and Rev. Scott will be the featured speaker at all services Tuesday through Feb. 15.

Area Nazarene Churches Set Indoor Camp In T.F.

The Nazarene Churches of Magic Valley will be sponsoring the third annual indoor camp Tuesday through Feb. 15 in the Twin Falls Church, 401 6th Ave. N.

Services are scheduled for 10 a.m. daily Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The evening services begin at 7:45. According to Howard Olson, pastor of the Twin Falls church, there will be nursery attendant on duty for all services.

Paul Skiles, Kansas City, Mo., executive secretary of the Nazarene department of youth, will be in charge of the music for these services, and guest speaker will be Rev. Robert Scott, pastor of the Santa Ana, Calif., First Church of the Nazarene.

Mr. Skiles previously had served eight years as secretary of the general Nazarene Young People's Society prior to the youth department being formed in 1968. As secretary, he was the first layman in the denomination to be named secretary of the youth work.

Mr. Skiles also has been music and youth director at three Nazarene churches in California. In Kansas City he has served on the general music commission and has been active at six church-wide music institutes.

Rev. Scott, a graduate of Pasadena College, has pastored churches in Sacramento, Wasco and Fresno before moving to Santa Ana. For many years he has been actively engaged in youth work in the Northern California District.

The public is welcome to all the services.

Rev. Harris Is Guest At Youth Meet

WENDELL — Rev. Woodrow Harris was a special guest at the recent meeting of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship.

During the business meeting, Bill Eaton, vice president, conducted discussion involving the choice of new counselors, a skill party, and an invitation received from the Presbyterian Youth to attend Sunday's meeting.

Rev. Harris led a discussion group relating to Methodist doctrine and Bible teachings. Mike Strickling conducted the Worship Service.

The social hour was under the direction of Mike and Doug Strickling.

Dinner Held

PIER — The young people of the Piner Missionary Church held a progressive dinner with various courses served at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Schiffler, Mr. and Mrs. Elden Rynals and Rev. and Mrs. Joseph John in Filer, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rynals, Twin Falls.

Wendell Boy To Take Part In Services

WENDELL—The Youth Group of the Wendell United Presbyterian Church finalized plans for the worship service at the regular Sunday Service Feb. 15.

Pat Scheel, vice moderator, said all juniors and seniors who belong to the youth group will be involved in the service. Marilyn Mink, Linda Harris, Mary Carpenter, Carolyn Tronson and Steve Bennett will present a playlet in place of the regular sermon.

Other members participating are Janet Callon, Pat Scheel and Chris Hagerman, prayers; Jim Henschler, Tom Harris, Bonnie Mink, Valonne Peterson and Vickie Peterson, ushers; Anne Hagerman, special music and Dick Bennett and Helen Maltz, general assistants.

Other business included plans to sponsor a concert by the Lewis and Clark Choir early in March.

The meeting was concluded after Chris and Anne Hagerman led a song practice involving the songs which will be performed at the Folk Mass in Twin Falls on Feb. 8 at the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Scheel said the participating youth, which comprises youth from both the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches of Magic Valley will perform at any church in the Valley on request. She said the Folk Mass is a new trend in worship.

REV. EDWIN WADE of Gardon Grove, Calif., will be the evangelist conducting revival services at the Freewill Baptist Church, located about 1 1/2 miles south of Twin Falls on the Airport Road. The revivals will be held at 8 p.m. daily Sunday through Feb. 13. The public is invited.

Egypt Is Discussed At King Hill

KING HILL — Egypt was the theme for the Prayer Circle study meeting of the United Presbyterian Women in the home of Mrs. Dwight Wilshor recently.

The sewing quota for the group for 1970 will include six baby gowns, six baby kimonas, six baby saques, also 10 one-year-old baby gowns-of-sheer material, with long sleeves and five flannellette gowns with long sleeves, one-year size. Mrs. Martin Woodward asked anyone willing to make or supply any of these articles to contact her.

Reading certificates for 1969 were presented to Mrs. Wilshor and Mrs. Miller by Mrs. Arthur Greer, literature secretary.

Mrs. Wilshor gave a report of Christian work in Phoenix and Tempe, Ariz.

The group discussed the budget for 1970.

Fellowship Held

HANSEN — A fellowship for youth was held recently by several churches at the Hansen's Grange Hall.

Larry Mallory, a young minister from Pocatello, delivered the message with approximately 80 attendance.

Ferry DeFord, Hansen, made the arrangements for the participating were the Inter-Denominational church, Hansen; Deliverance Tabernacle, Pocatello; Pioneer Revival Center, Declo, and Highland Chapel, Twin Falls.

Most Churches Celebrate Conversion Of Apostle Paul

By LOUIS CASSELS
UPI Religion Writer

One of the most significant events in this history of Christianity—the conversion of the Apostle Paul—was celebrated in many churches this week.

Paul was the principal missionary of the early church and the man primarily responsible for its rapid spread through the Roman Empire.

He was the first Christian theologian, and his writings (which include 13 of the 27 books of the New Testament) have left such a deep imprint on Christian thought that most scholars rank him second only to Jesus Christ as a creative force in Christianity.

He was born in the early years of the first century A.D. in the city of Tarsus, a cosmopolitan trading center on the Mediterranean coast north of Syria. His parents were Diaspora Jews—that is, Jews living "in dispersion" beyond the boundaries of Palestine. They named their son Saul in honor of Israel's first king.

At an early age, Saul was sent to Jerusalem to study Jewish law under the great Rabbi Gamaliel. Like all students of his time, he learned a trade to support himself. His trade was tentmaking. In a rabbinical school, he became a fiercely Orthodox Jew and a member of the strictest sect of the Pharisees.

Saul believed in dealing ruthlessly with all heresies, and became one of the first persecutors of the infant Christian sect. He was personally involved in the stoning of the first Christian martyr, Stephen.

His conversion is vividly described in the 9th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles.

"Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any Christians there he might bring them bound to Jerusalem."

But a strange thing happened to Saul on the way to Damascus. The risen Christ appeared to him and spoke to him. He became a Christian—possibly the most contagiously convinced Christian who ever lived. As a token of his spiritual rebirth, he changed his name to Paul.

For the next 30 years, until he died a martyr's death in Rome, Paul was a mainstay of the early church. He made three long missionary journeys through Asia Minor and Greece, founding Christian congregations wherever he went. He called himself "the apostle to the Gentiles."

Paul was a man of enormous courage. Rather than renounce his faith, he endured at least six floggings, one stoning, numerous imprisonments and finally was beheaded by order of the emperor Nero.

Mrs. Quigley Hosts Area WSCS Meet

CASTLEFORD — Mrs. Earl Hetherington presided at the recent meeting of the Castleford Women's Society of Christian Service at the home of Mrs. Ed Quigley.

A letter from the district president, Mrs. Steve Parsons, was read and a notice of the Christian vocations workshop for high school youth to be held in February in Portland was reported.

The World Day of Prayer was announced by the chairman of spiritual growth, Mrs. George Blicke. It will be held on the first Friday of March.

Mrs. Loren Herzinger, vice president, read the conference goals and noted that each officer would be responsible for promoting the goals in her area of Christian work. The group voted to invite women of other denominations to meet with them in March as a way to meet their objectives.

It was announced that there would be a series of four sessions of study on "Dare to Reconcile" at the home of Mrs. Rae Miller, Buhl.

The chairman of missionary education, Mrs. Dallas Cox, read a letter from the Methodist home in Salem, Oregon. She also announced that good used clothing may be left at the Wesley house in Buhl for distribution at Fort Hall.

A copy of the new reading list was presented by Mrs. Clinton Quigley. She also announced several books that are available in the public library.

Topics Discussed At Meet Listed

RICHFIELD — The individual, the prison and the community were program topics for the Richfield WSCS recently at the home of Mrs. James Thomas.

Mrs. Myrtle Riley, unit president, was in charge and assisted by Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. C. M. Fildmore, Mrs. Albert Felley and Mrs. Joe Seward. Monday's meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Riley.

GREETING HIS SUCCESSOR, Archbishop Timothy J. Manning, right, is James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, archbishop of Los Angeles. McIntyre, 83, who served as head of the nation's fourth largest Archdiocese for 22 years, said he was stepping down because of age. (UPI telephoto)

Church At Shoshone Has Annual Meet

SHOSHONE — Annual meeting of the Christ Church Episcopal, Shoshone, was held recently after a family potluck dinner.

Re-elected members to the Vestry were Mrs. Claude A. Chess, treasurer, and Keith Anderson, both three-year terms;

Fellowship

HAZELTON — The Hazelton Assembly of God Church will host the monthly sectional fellowship service next week.

Rev. Russell King announces the all day services will be held Thursday with approximately 15 churches in attendance. The Hazelton Church will serve the noon meal at the Grange Hall.

Three services are scheduled with Rev. Virgie Todd, Glenns Ferry, to speak at 10:30 a.m.; Rev. Phillip Hilliard, Buhl, speaking at 2:30 p.m., and Rev. Clay Stephens, Twin Falls, conducting the 7:30 p.m. service.

youths appointed to one year terms were Ed Chess and Charles Hansoh, and Kenneth Crothers was elected to office of junior warden.

Holdover members of the Vestry are Hal Ross Sr., warden; Max Coffman, Ivan C. Hopkins, Frank Dallas, Mrs. Raymond S. Freeman, clerk of the Vestry, and Mrs. R. G. Neher, president of the Episcopal Church Women's Organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Ross and Kenneth Crothers were elected delegates to the Diocesan convention to be held April 10-12 at St. Davis Church in Caldwell.

Rev. Norman L. Foote, Bishop of Idaho, will be at the local church on March 8.

Hazelton Group Has Annual Fete

HAZELTON—Snow frolic was the theme of the annual daddy-daughter date of the Lihoma (Little Homemakers) group of the Hazelton LDS Church.

Twenty girls from 9 to 11 years of age entertained their fathers with a program and games.

The girls made and served hamburgers, snow ball ice cream and punch at the close of the evening activities. They were assisted by the Primary teachers.

Boy Scouts Give Program At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — A special program by Boy Scouts sponsored by the LDS Church, was presented at a service recently at the Church.

Kenneth Blackburn conducted and gave the welcome. Prayers were by Brian Kinghorn and David Garrett.

Frank Garrett Sr. spoke on Scouting, explaining the different phases of scout work, and Karen Scott, Primary president, spoke of work with the Cub Scout program.

Alan Garrett, from the Guldo Patrol, and Austin Webb, from the Scout troop, spoke, with Frank Garrett Jr., giving information on scouting and the priesthood, and F. N. Stowell spoke on scouting in the ward. Clair Thorne played a piano solo. Mrs. Jay Fowles was organist of the evening.

Mrs. Frank Garrett is the Cub Scout leader for the Primary, assisted by Mrs. James Scott and Mrs. Dunes Jacobsen. Frank Garrett, Sr. is the cub master for the group.

At the Cub Scout Pack meeting, several awards were presented by Mr. Garrett to the boys who had earned them.

Those included Robert King to Brad Scott, Jerry Jacobson and Warren Strunk; Jason Webb received a Webelos color, athlete and assistant dinner and two-year pin; David Garrett received a Dornier hat; Mike Sant, one-year service star, and Edwir Meyer received a three-year service star.

The boys presented a skit, "St. George, the Dragon". They are currently working on their ears for the Pinewood Derby, to be held at the annual Blue and Gold Banquet on Feb. 26.

Layman's Sunday Planned At Paul

PAUL — The executive board of the Paul United Methodist Church has set Sunday, Feb. 15, as Laymen's Sunday. Lay leader Roy Francisco is in charge of planning the 11 a.m. service and will be assisted by other lay leaders of the church membership.

The Bible instruction class, preparatory to application for membership in the Paul United Methodist Church, will begin this Sunday with booklets and literature available for enrollees.

Those from the fifth grade to adults are eligible and anyone interested in attending may contact Alice May Wooley, pastor, at the parsonage in Paul.

SPECIAL-BOUND copies of "Good News for Modern Man," the American Bible Society's best-seller translation of the New Testament, have been presented to the Apollo 12 astronauts. From left are Astronauts Charles Conrad, Richard F. Gordon and Alan L. Bean and Rev. Rival Hawkins and Dr. Dean S. Collins of the Bible society. The paperback book is approaching the 10 million mark in distribution.

'African Safari' Theme Of LDS Fete

HAGERMAN — An "African Safari" was the theme for the annual "Daddy-Daughters" party for the Lihoma classes of the LDS Primary.

The cultural hall of the Hagerman-Ward Church was decorated with stuffed toy jungle animals and pictures. Name tags and invitations using animals also carried out the safari theme.

Each Daddy-Daughter team presented a talent. Mrs. Arwyn Thornton, Primary president, spoke briefly on the Lihoma program. Lihoma, meaning "little homemaker," is the combined girls' classes in the Primary.

Lihoma leaders are Mrs. Jerry Loveland, Firelight class; Mrs. LeRoy Jolley, Gaynote class and Mrs. Rhonda Wood, Merrihand class.

CONTEST PLANNED

FILER — The Filer Ministerial Association is sponsoring a community Sunday School contest between the churches in Filer. This attendance contest begins Feb. 15 and will conclude Easter Sunday, March 29.

Breakfast

The Knights of Columbus will honor the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts sponsored by the St. Edward's Parish with a pancake breakfast Sunday.

Lloyd LeClair, scoutmaster, will present awards after the 8 a.m. mass. Breakfast will be served after the 6-8 and 10 a.m. masses. The public is invited.

Tickets for the Knights of Columbus Valentine Dinner-Dance on Feb. 14 will be sold after each mass. The dinner will be catered by Leo Soran.

Eden Pair Play In Tournament

EDEN — Jeff Fitzpatrick and Sheila Simpson represented the Eden Church of Christ in the Bible Bowl Tournament at Pocatello.

The program, conducted by Joe Coppinger, Pocatello, was recently initiated by the Church to familiarize the young people with Bible reading.

Teams are composed of five members and the Eden pair joined three Blackfoot youths to form a team. They were taken by Mr. and Mrs. Truman Simpson, Murtaugh.

The next tournament is scheduled at Albion.

Folk Mass Worship Service Planned In T.F. On Sunday

A Magic Valley Folk Mass worship service has been planned for Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Twin Falls First Presbyterian Church.

Participating in this Folk Mass group will be senior high school students from Presbyterian, Methodist and Episcopalian Churches in Magic Valley. Sustaining leadership will be Marva Broyles, Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Twin Falls; Rev. Glenn Waltmann, Ruhl's

United Methodist Church, and Rev. Robert H. Williams, Twin Falls First Presbyterian Church.

The Folk Mass Group was formed four months ago in order to enhance fellowship among senior high students around some creative workshop ideas.

After the worship service in Twin Falls, other towns in the valley will be visited by the group.

The order of worship is modeled after the suggested plan for worship by the Consultation on Church Union and includes modern folk tunes, accompanied by guitars and drums.

Communion is part of the service as presentation of the Word in action, with the emphasis placed on the unity in Christ of all sincere disciples through celebration and participation.

Blaine Stake Has Festival

HAILEY — The Blaine Stake MIA recently held its Choral Festival with Mary Foles, state chorister, and Lorraine Fowles, state organist, as directors.

Taking part in the festival were the combined MIA chorus, the Hailey, Sun Valley, Dietrich, Richfield, Shoshone and Carra Wards. Soloist was Jay Fowles, Huley.

Organist was Lorraine Fowles and pianist was Jolene Northcott, Hailey Ward. Trumpeters were Shayne Thatcher, Kay Adanson, Bart Murdock and Bill Hunt, all from the Carey LDS Ward.

Today With All Faiths—In Tribute A PORTRAIT OF SERVICE

Rev. Roy W. Watson Has Been Pastor Of Filer's First Baptist Church One Year

FILER — The Rev. Roy W. Watson has recently completed his first year as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Filer. Prior to coming to Filer, Rev. Watson served as pastor in the San Fernando Valley in California for the past five years.

Rev. Watson is a native of Riverdale, Neb. His father was employed by the Union Pacific Railroad which took the family to Iowa and Nebraska.

After graduating from Columbus, Neb., High School, he moved to California where he entered the Los Angeles City College with the intent of becoming a math professor. After two years of college, he entered the U.S. Air Force and served in the 139th Radio Intelligence Squadron as a German Radio Operator from 1942 to 1945.

Upon leaving the service, he entered Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, Pa., where he received his A.B. degree. He completed his theology graduate study at Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1946. He also did graduate work at Temple Divinity School in Philadelphia, Pa. and at California Baptist Theological Seminary in Covina, Calif.

While attending seminary, Rev. Watson served as pastor of the Laurel Springs First Baptist Church of Laurel Springs, N.J. From there he was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Downingtown, Pa.; Southwestern Baptist Church in Los Angeles, and the First Baptist Church of Montrose, Calif.

He has also served as pastor-at-large for the Southern California Baptist Convention and a year's interim as minister of education for the First Baptist Church of Van Nuys, which had a Sunday School of 2,200 average per Sunday.

Rev. Watson is vitally interested in the religious education program of the church and feels on a sound biblical teaching with an evangelistic fervor will build a strong church. This is his goal at the First Baptist Church of Filer.

Rev. Watson married Winona Coats on Aug. 30, 1941, and they have three children. Roger, is married and lives in Los Angeles; Mrs. Wayne E. Jensen, lives in Twin Falls, and Hayden is a student in the Filer Elementary School. The family finds Idaho a wonderful place to live and feel God has been very gracious in bringing them to this wonderful place.

Besides a strong preaching ministry and work in the religious education field of the church, Rev. Watson has two hobbies as well as conducts a craft class every Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the basement of the church which is open to all the community.

His hobbies are stamp collecting and in keeping with his early childhood love of the Union Pacific Railroad background, he runs the Union Pacific Jr., a model railroad he has been constructing since 1932.

Not much time is found for these hobbies, but when the opportunity does come, it is a wonderful diversion.

ROY W. WATSON

CONCLUDES SERIES

Rev. Robert Harvey, pastor of the Twin Falls First Presbyterian Church, will conclude his three-part series on "The Future of the Church," at the 6:30 a.m. service Sunday.

Kindness Enriches Our, Others' Lives, Says Writer

BY DAVID POLING
NEA Religious Writer

The most rapidly growing youth organization in the United States is the Kindness Club. Created by Mrs. Hugh John Fleming of Canada, its membership must be reaching children in every one of our 50 states. After its first decade, some 50,000 youngsters had signed up for material and information on how to care for animals and wildlife. Suddenly, public school teachers, teaching nuns, religious educators and parents are writing for its study guides and pamphlets. One of the best publications is entitled "You and the Birds," prepared by Charlotte Baker Montgomery and illustrated by Edmund J. Sawyer. Some excerpts from this booklet:

"Harming birds is cruel. . . Over long years of evolution, birds have developed complex instincts and ways of life. When their needs are not met they feel the joy of well-being. When things go wrong they feel pain, frustration, hunger and distress. Many birds mate for life, so the loss of a mate is tragic for the individual as well as for the species. . . . When we kill or injure a bird, we spoil our best method of insect and weed control. Even birds often called "undesirable" are really helpful to man; for instance, warblers eat Japanese beetle larvae on our lawns and crows devour the tent caterpillars in our trees. . . . The swallow family accounts for tons of mosquitoes. . . . "Harming birds is illegal. . . . Mad towns have local laws against shooting birds. Outside of town, most birds are protected by state laws."

"Copies of this may be secured, along with other suggestions for animal care at the Kindness Club, National Humane Center, Waterford, Va., 22180. Mrs. Fleming, president of the club, points to Albert Schweitzer as the inspiration for her own activity in humane affairs, saying:

"I am profoundly grateful for the life and work of this great man. He has put into words for me—and I am sure for thousands of others—the vague thoughts and troubled feelings having to do with the suffering of animals about which I have tried over the years to avoid thinking.

"As we have grown up, most of us have been gradually conditioned by the adults in homes and schools to accept the cruelties and suffering imposed on helpless creatures all around us. The still—small—voice—in—us—readily attuned to the simplest dictionary defines an animal as "any creature that can feel and move."

"It is a relief to turn to that wonderful attitude for cruelty—kindness. We suddenly feel better about ourselves and our fellow men. . . . It is our task to discover and to pass on to children experiences in kindness and in loving and in mercy and compassion that will finally become for them habitual ways of thought and conduct. We can show them by precept and even more by example that "the weak have rights and the strong have duties." . . . In this decade man and his environment will become the dominant theme in city and on campus. It will become a part of the regular courses of study in church and seminary. Conferences and Sunday school will devote large blocks of time to its teaching. Let us pray that we are not too late, for there is so much to do.

PANCAKE SUPPER SET
The annual Junior High Pancake Supper will be held from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Twin Falls First United Methodist Church.

Scout Sunday

Sunday is Scout Sunday and several Twin Falls Churches will be honoring Scout members in their respective churches.

Churches to observe Scout Sunday include the First Christian Church, First United Methodist Church and the First Presbyterian Church. Some awards will be presented to the Scouts, and in some churches the Scouts will be in charge of the worship services.

Wendell Church Organizes Choir

WENDELL — Mrs. Woodrow Harris, United Methodist Church, announces the organization of a choir, comprised of adults and high school students.

Mrs. Harris will be assisted by Mrs. Walter Kelley, assistant director, and Mrs. Faith Eaton as accompanist.

The group will assist with the musical part of the worship twice a month. The Wesley choir is comprised of students ranging from the third through eighth grade levels.

The junior choir meets after school every Thursday and is under the direction of Mrs. Harris. She said both choirs would participate in the services on Easter Sunday.
