TEN CENTS

A UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS student is grabbed from behind by a student anti-war demonstrator, as he tries to keep the demonstrators from lowering the flag in front of the ROTC building. After a brief scuffle involving about a dozen students, the demonstrators won and the flag was lowered to half-staff. About 500 took part in a march in memory of the four students killed at Kent State. (UPI telephoto)

Protesting Students Plan National Strike

By United Press International
National Guard troops were used in demonstrations at the University of Wisconsin and the University of Ohio Tuesday and the governors of Maryland, Oklahoma and New Mexico ordered the guard to alert or standby status.

Alabama voters will have to go to the polls again next month to pass on George C. Wallace's political future. Ohio's voters gave a slim lead to U.S. Rep. Robert Taft Jr. and chose a Cleveland millionaire over former astronaut John Glenn in picking the lineup for November's Senate race.

Wallace To Face June Election; Glenn Loses

The President and Mrs. Nixon canceled travel plans for the week in an atmosphere of White House concern about domestic problems and demonstrations.

House Looks Over Message To Nixon

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House squared off today over an amendment that would both authorize and curb the use of U.S. troops in Cambodia. Its critics called it a "Cambodian Tonkin Gulf resolution."

Two Percentage Points Cause Airport Problems

By O. A. (GUS) KELKER
Times-News Editor
Two percentage points which, under some circumstances would mean next to nothing, are causing a problem at the Twin Falls City-County Airport.

surface 1,200 feet long and 15 feet wide torn up because of the compaction trouble. By late yesterday it was possible that another stretch 1,200 by 45 feet might have to come out. But construction officials said this couldn't be done because of the cost issue and they said that the matter might just end up in court if this step was taken.

So today all officials involved are cooperating in a "fine tooth comb" effort to find why the compaction just isn't there as the government says it should be. But all agreed that when the trouble is determined, and the changes are made and the runway extension of more than 2,000 feet is done, the end product will be one built to last and do most all jet safety specifications.

Bills

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Idaho congressional delegation will introduce identical bills in Congress this week to authorize construction and operation of a proposed $47.2 million reclamation project.

Israel May Get More Jets

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congressional sources indicate they believe President Nixon will decide to resume the sale of Phantom jets to Israel "fairly soon."

Lewiston Student Is Held For Arson

LEWISTON, Idaho (UPI)—Joseph Edwin Schock, about 23, Lewiston, Idaho, was arraigned on charges of third degree arson in connection with a $225,000 fire early Tuesday which destroyed 26 Army National Guard transport vehicles.

The suspect was identified as Joseph E. Schock, about 23, Lewiston, an ex-Marine with reported affiliations with the Students for a Democratic Society. He is being held on $50,000 bond.

Schock, an ex-Marine and a freshman at the University of Idaho, was charged before U.S. District Commissioner Dan Quinlan, who set bond at $50,000.

Aid Offered For County Clean-Up

National Guard and Army Reserve members in Twin Falls county have offered a helping hand in the coming county-wide cleanup campaign.

William Chancy, co-chairman of the campaign, announced.

He said since most of the guard and reserve members will be away at camp June 13, clean-up day, they will hold their own clean-up campaign on May 16.

About 50 men, in addition to heavy trucks and equipment, will be at work on that day, Mr. Chancy said. They will clear the old dumpgrounds south of the airport, even to hauling away old car bodies that have been abandoned there. These will be taken on low-boy trucks to the National Guard to the county dumping site south of Filer where baling equipment will be operating by that time.

Mr. Chancy said this is typical of the cooperation the county's clean-up day is receiving. Another meeting will be held Thursday night to further plans for the one-day cleanup June 13. The meeting will be held in the county judicial building at 8 p.m. and all interested persons are invited to attend.

Local CAP Moves To New Site

The Twin Falls Squadron of the Idaho Wing of the Civil Air Patrol has moved its headquarters to the Search and Rescue Civil Air Patrol (SARCAP) headquarters building at the Twin Falls Airport.

The location of the building is just north of headquarters area of the CAP, an auxiliary of the United States Air Force, besides assisting in the search and rescue of downed pilots, also conducts an extensive educational program for young people, ages 13 to 18. Training consists of aerospace education, rescue procedures, marching and drill and personal discipline. The advanced program includes the Ranger Program with many forms of survival training.

"We look upon our cadets with a great deal of pride, especially after their outstanding performance in the recent search and rescue drill at SARCAP headquarters. These young people are to be most highly commended for their contribution to the great success of the operation," Ray Crandall, 1st Lt., CAP, said today.

A new class of cadets will be selected in the near future, he said, to fill vacancies left by promotions of the present class.

"Adults wishing to recommend young people between 13 and 18, or young people themselves can obtain more information by contacting CAP officers at 733-1661, 733-3827, or 733-6500.

Friday Holiday Planned For Memorial Day

Most Twin Falls residents will likely have an extra day off this month.

Twin Falls county commissioners and city officials announced Thursday they will close city and county offices May 29 for the Memorial Day holiday. Since May 30 falls on Saturday the previous Friday will be observed to give working people a brief vacation.

County Commission Chairman Heber Loughmiller said May 29 has been declared a holiday by President Richard Nixon and Gov. Don Hanson. Banning officials in Twin Falls said they have not yet been notified the day is officially a holiday in Idaho, but if it is declared so by the governor, banks will be closed.

BURLEY — R. Dean Hartwell, 74, Burley, died Tuesday at Cassia Memorial Hospital of a lengthy illness.

He was born March 3, 1896, at Salt Lake City, Utah; attended Salt Lake schools, and graduated from West High School. He came to Idaho with his parents in 1918, settling at Albion. Later, they moved to Burley, where he lived most of his life, except for a few years following his retirement, when he lived in California.

Mr. Hartwell worked for many years in the Burley Post Office. He was married to Mrs. Nina Sanders at Burley. Their marriage was later solemnized at the Salt Lake City LDS Temple.

He was a veteran of World War I, and a member of the Burley Elks Lodge No. 1284, and the LDS Church.

Survivors include his wife, Burley; one son, Elmo S. Hartwell, Gardena, Calif.; one daughter, Mrs. W. Benny (Dena) Sprague, Burley; four brothers, Jody Hartwell, Compton, Calif.; Dean Hartwell, Oakland, Calif.; Calvin Hartwell, Meridian; and Betty Hartwell, Ogden, Utah; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. One daughter preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Burley LDS Stake Tabernacle by Bishop Almo Clark. Burial will follow at Gem Memorial Gardens, Burley.

Friends may call at the Payne Mortuary this afternoon and evening and Thursday prior to services.

The family suggests memorials be given to the Primary Children's Hospital, Salt Lake City.

Nixon Says Troops Are Restricted

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon countered severe criticism Tuesday with assurances to key members of Congress that U.S. troops would leave Cambodia within a matter of weeks and that withdrawals from South Vietnam would continue on schedule.

In other statements here and at the United Nations, the administration sought to ease fears that the Cambodian operation was a widening of the Southeast Asian conflict by saying it was "restricted in extent, purpose and time."

A two-hour White House breakfast meeting with members of the Senate and House Armed Services Committees left Nixon's hawkish supporters more convinced than ever that his Cambodian decision was militarily correct. But not all doubt was dispelled.

"Hard To Swallow," said Rep. Lucien Nedzi, D-Mich. "It was pretty hard to equate such statements as we will not get bogged down in a war in Cambodia with the invasion of Cambodia."

The session was followed by a late afternoon Presidential meeting with members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the critical Senate Foreign Relations Committee, whose chairman, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., regards the Cambodian operation as unconstitutional and a presidential usurpation of Congress' war-making powers.

Fulbright reluctantly agreed to join the House committee for what he regards as a "briefing" rather than the private consultations with Nixon that his own small committee had requested on the controversy. Several participants in the morning session said Nixon gave what one described as a "firm commitment" that he would abide by his promise last week that the Cambodian operation would end after six to eight weeks.

Protest War

MALMO, Sweden (UPI)—Anti-American demonstrators shouting "U. S. out of Cambodia" swarmed around the automobile of U. S. Ambassador Jerome H. Holland on his visit Tuesday to Southern Sweden.

Police arrested four protesters outside Holland's hotel in Malmoe late in the evening. More than 1,000 youths marched through Stockholm to protest U.S. intervention in Cambodia.

Most Volcanos Indonesia has the greatest concentration of active volcanos in the world, where more than 75 have erupted within historic time, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Reps. Edward F. Hebert, D-La., and Richard H. Ichord, D-Mo., quoted Nixon as saying he was pleased with the initial success of the effort to wipe out Communist supplies and communications facilities in headquarters areas across the Cambodian border with South Vietnam.

He added that this success means the U.S. troop withdrawal can proceed on its present timetable of an additional 150,000 men during the next 12 months, they said.

Israeli Planes In New Push

By United Press International
Israeli warplanes struck across eastern and western fronts Tuesday, attacking Arab guerrilla bases in Jordan and Egyptian military targets on the Suez Canal, a military spokesman in Tel Aviv said.

Cairo reported an Egyptian commando raid on Israeli positions on the Sinai's Mediterranean coast which caused heavy damages during the early morning hours. The Arab guerrilla high command in Amman claimed Israeli troops suffered "very high" loss of life in a two-day battle in the northern Jordan Valley. The guerrillas admitted losing 22 men killed or wounded.

The highest toll in any single operation. The Arab guerrilla high command in Amman claimed Israeli planes raided Egyptian military positions on the southern and central sectors of the Suez Canal for two hours during the morning and returned to the southern sector this evening for another 75-minute attack. He said all the planes returned safely.

Israeli planes have not struck inside mainland Egypt since mid-April when Soviet pilots began flying operational missions, according to Tel Aviv. But Premier Golda Meir warned in a radio broadcast Tuesday night that Israel will fight the Russians, as well as the Egyptians, if necessary to hold the Suez front.

Meet

BOISE (UPI)—The meeting of the Mountain Pacific Region, State and Provincial Section of the International Association of Chiefs of Police this year will feature a discussion of federal funding of law enforcement programs.

W. H. Franey, Washington D. C., representative of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, will lead the discussion during the meeting at the Rodeway Inn, Boise, May 17-20.

Headquarters Of United Nations Sealed Off, Mob Moves Into Area

NEW YORK (UPI)—United Nations security forces sealed off the headquarters of the world organization Tuesday when more than 1,000 anti-war protesters, mostly high school and college students on strike, converged on Dag Hammarskjold Plaza for a massive demonstration.

Hundreds of tourists found themselves trapped inside the U.N. grounds when the gates were hastily locked. The windows of the glass secretariat skyscraper were lined on every floor by U.N. workers, who generally pay no attention to the run-of-the-mill picketing in the Plaza.

The gathering began with a group of law students from Columbia and New York Universities who met in the Plaza to march two blocks to the U.S. mission to the United Nations to protest the invasion of Cambodia. About the same time, hundreds of students dismissed from Central Commercial High because of disorders funneled into the Plaza led by Black Panthers and the Youth against War and Fascism movement.

The school students, mostly blacks and Puerto Ricans, kicked in the window of the Daily News information bureau on the way to the United Nations. The joint groups tried several times to storm the United Nations gates but were held back by at least 100 helmeted police, some of them on horseback and U.N. guards.

Frustrated, the demonstrators then staged a sit-down across First Avenue at 45th Street. They waved signs calling for the freeing of Black Panther leader Bobby Seale, who faces murder charges in Connecticut, and for an end to war in Southeast Asia. East midtown Manhattan traffic was snarled by the disorders during the evening rush hour.

No-Panic Noted In Guard Unit

KENT, Ohio (UPI)—The head of the Ohio National Guard said flatly Tuesday his troops "did not panic" when they fired into an unruly crowd of students on the Kent State University campus, killing four and wounding 10.

However, State Adjutant General S. T. del Corso admitted, "There was no order to open fire."

In Critical Condition
Three of the students wounded in the incident Monday remained in critical condition in a hospital. Two of those killed were coeds.

In seeking to explain why about 20 guardsmen fired a three-second volley with M1 semi-automatic rifles while retreating under a barrage of rocks thrown by students in a crowd of several hundred, Del Corso said at his headquarters in Columbus, Ohio: "These troops have been in many violent situations. They did not panic. I'm sure they felt their lives were in danger. They fired instinctively."

"There was no order to open fire. The firing by the troops was spontaneous and defensive. As soon as it began, the order was given to cease fire."

The Justice Department in Washington said its personnel were on the scene "making a preliminary investigation to determine whether there were any violations of federal law."

Few Students Remain
The campus was quiet Tuesday. Only a handful of foreign exchange students remained behind after University President Robert K. White closed the school Monday afternoon and ordered students to return to their homes.

The four students slain were Allison Krause, 19, Pittsburgh; Sandra Lee Scheuer, 20, Youngstown, Ohio; Jeffrey MILLER, 19, Plainview, N. Y., and William K. Schroeder, 19, Lorain, Ohio.

Guardsmen still on campus were bitter.

Air Reservists See Firepower Demonstration

Two officers of the 9430th Air Force Reserve Squadron in Twin Falls, Col. Harry DeLoyn and Col. Paul P. Carl were guests of the U.S. Air Force in observing the Joint Armed Forces Firepower demonstrations at Fort Bragg, N.C., last week.

Committee Appointments For Toastmistress Club Reported

New officers of the Twin Falls Toastmistress Club reported names of those appointed as committee heads when the club met recently at the Colonial House.

Membership: Mrs. Ben Eldredge, publicly; Mrs. John Pastor, grammarian; Mrs. Les Jones, parliamentarian; Mrs. DeVern Fuller, club hostess; Mrs. Carl Grabert, council representative; Mrs. Le Roy Arrington, regional representative; and Mrs. Bill Jamison and Mrs. Ellis Fuller, club representatives. Mrs. Fuller received a Blue Pencil for her speech on "No Change." Mrs. Arrington was the other speaker. Evaluators were Mrs. Jamison and Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Cannedy.

Officers will be installed at the next meeting, May 15. Information and time tables on the regional conference were given to members. Mrs. Arrington reported on the chartering for the newly organized Rupert Toastmistress Club. Mrs. Arrington reported on the chartering for the newly organized Rupert Toastmistress Club. No Injury Reported As Truck Rolls

BURLEY - There were no injuries in a one vehicle roll-over at 5 p. m. Sunday one of three-quarters-mile west of Kenyon Farms on county road, Adolpho Gerhardt, 27, Burley, was driving a 1960 Ford pickup truck owned by Kenyon Farms north and was in the process of making a right turn into a field. The road was rough and driver lost control of the vehicle, which went into the borrowpit and overturned. The pickup was demolished, according to Sheriff's Officers: Juan Mazana, 24, Oakley, was a passenger.

Third Man Files For Prosecuting Attorney

Leon Smith, local attorney, Tuesday became the third man to seek the office of Twin Falls County prosecuting attorney. He filed a nominating petition Tuesday on the Republican ticket where he will oppose incumbent Robert Galley in the August primary election. In addition to Mr. Galley, Golden Bennett, Democrat, has filed. Mr. Smith said he feels there is a great need for improvement in the operation and efficiency of the county prosecutor's office.

He said law violators in the county laugh at the county's system of justice. They appear to feel even if caught they can "beat the rap" somewhere between arrest and verdict with nothing more than a slap on the wrist.

"This is where the prosecutor's office is falling and I certainly hope I can have the opportunity to do something about it. It is the hardened and repeating offenders I am after and I hope our county might eventually measure up to the standard set by Judge Sherman Bellmora's recent decision in Blaindoka County," he added.

Mr. Smith is a partner in the law firm of Kramer, Plankey and Meehl, Twin Falls and recently announced his candidacy at a meeting of the Republican Central Committee.

You have the most important and demanding job in the world! In your hands rests the hope of the future: your children. You meet the demands of your task with the basic tool mothers have used down through the ages: a mother's love! You mend torn trousers; you press a dress at the last moment; you cool a hot forehead from midnight to dawn; you listen with interest to accounts of the baseball game on the vacant lot, or what the new girl in the neighborhood wore to school. You're genuinely pleased with a bouquet of dandelions. And you discipline because you understand that discipline, too, is love. Yes, Mother, your job is essential and your hours are long. Yet you love your job, because that's what a mother is: loyal. Buttreys Food Stores want to help you with another important part of your job as a mother: feeding your family wholesome, well-balanced meals, and saving money. At Buttreys Food Stores we offer you a full selection of quality foods... at low Budget Food Prices every day! We salute you, Mother! At Buttreys, every day is Mother's Day! Come See!

Tap-China Relations Strained

It's Official Now— Samuelson To Run

BOISE (UPI)—Gov. Don Samuelson formally announced his candidacy for re-election today, pledging the same sort of government he has given Idahoans for the last three years and four months.

At the same time he gave out a news statement that he has called for a detailed management review or investigation of the state Fish and Game Department.

He said the primary complaint he has heard from sportsmen involved big game management but that the study will go into all aspects of the departmental operation.

"I feel this is something that will help settle this problem once and for all," Samuelson told a news conference.

Samuelson also said: "State authorities are looking into the possibility of a son in connection with a fire in the motor pool of the National Guard Armory in Lewiston."

He anticipates at least 1,000 persons will attend his $100 per plate "White House" governor dinner in Boise Friday night at which Vice President Spiro T. Agnew will be the featured speaker.

The State board of Education was correct in declaring a moratorium on the scheduling of new graduate programs in higher education until "they can set a policy."

It is too early to say whether a proposed $24 million increase for the public schools the next biennium is a "realistic" figure.

The governor said he will file his formal declaration of candidacy with the secretary of state Wednesday afternoon.

"I will do so buoyed and gratified by the voluntary response to my petitions which were sent out about mid-April," he said. "The response was tremendous over the state and to the thousands who signed my petitions I am deeply grateful at such generous and widespread evidence of support."

He said that right from the start in January of 1967, he pledged an honest, hard-working and effective administration with improved services and efficiency and sound economic growth for the state. He also recalled a pledge to remain in close and friendly contact with the people.

"With the tireless work and assistance of many dedicated men and women those promises have been fulfilled," he said today. "I renew those pledges because of the steady flow of visible results these past 3 1/2 years."

BOISE (UPI)—President Nixon's policy of "partnership" for Japan in Asia has put Japan's relations with Communist China under their worst strain in almost a decade.

"That joint communique last autumn is what set the fire," says Yoshihiko Furui, a conservative member of Parliament. He has just negotiated an extension of Japan's eight-year trade pact with the Peking Chinese.

Sato-Nixon Statement: Furui meant the statement issued last Nov. 21 by Nixon and Japanese Premier Eisaku Satoh during Sato's visit to Washington.

In it, Nixon approved the return of Okinawa and the Ryukyu Islands to Japan in 1972. In return, Sato said that he would guarantee the safety of both Taiwan and South Korea were essential to Japan.

He strongly hinted that the United States would have full cooperation from the Japanese in keeping both out of Red China's sphere of influence.

The part about Formosa was especially galling to the Chinese communists. "The island is the base of President Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Chinese government which they drove from the mainland in 1949."

The Sato-Nixon statement was the outward symbol of Japan's shift from mere passive alliance with the United States to active support for American goals in Asia.

Aids Korea: Sato has been fostering this since he took office late in 1964. With Washington's blessing, he normalized Japan's relations with her former colony, South Korea. He also injected $500 million worth of Japanese aid and loans into Korea's stumbling economy.

The Japanese premier ordered his country's merchant ships to stay away from North Vietnam after President Lyndon B. Johnson's decision to commit the U.S. to the Vietnam War in strength. He paid an official visit to the U.S.-backed government of Nguyen Van Thieu in Saigon.

The Japanese Foreign Office works hand-and-glove with the State Department to keep Communist China out of the United Nations.

All this has not gone unnoticed in Peking. When Furui's trade mission went there in March, the Chinese demanded signatures on an anti-Sato communique as the price of keeping trade alive.

Furui performed the contraction of denouncing his own government's policies, signed, and got the trade agreement ramped up. What the Chinese accomplished, aside from venting their anger, is hard to see.

years, Idaho is poised for continued increased progress continued solutions to state problems, continued increased economic growth—with no increase in taxes."

He stressed he was running for re-election on his record and said it was a record of which he was proud.

Samuelson is the third person to announce he will seek the Republican nomination for governor of Idaho this year. Earlier, Eldon W. (Dick) Smith of Rexburg and Howard Whittaker of Marsing said they also would seek the nomination.

Three persons have announced for the Democratic nomination: Cecil Andrus of Boise, Lloyd Walker of Twin Falls and Vernon Ravenscroft of Tuttle.

Samuelson said the management review of fish and game would be carried out by the Division of Management Services in the Department of Administrative Services.

"The administrative study will be conducted by senior management analysis from the Division of Management Service," Samuelson said.

"The technical area of wild life management will also be handled by management services with the help of outside consultants experienced in the field."

The study is scheduled to begin about May 15, he said.

Casey Jones' Railroad: John Luther Jones was the real name of the hero of the song "Casey Jones." He was employed in the 1890s on the Mississippi division of the Illinois Central Railroad.

This man can insure your life,

But not your prices.

Even though the Chicago Mercantile Exchange isn't an insurance company, we can help you insure the most vital aspect of your business—your selling price. That's something no insurance company can do. Our kind of insurance is called hedging.

If you're a potato grower, you probably know in advance the approximate number of potatoes you can grow and how much they're going to cost you. Now suppose someone offered you a protected price for those potatoes when they were ready—say—six months in the future. If the price assured you of a nice profit, wouldn't you take it? You could then go about your business with more working capital, more financing available and a greater opportunity to expand at a sensible rate.

We supply the "someone." He's a man with money to risk, who's willing to speculate on price fluctuations—just the thing you're seeking to avoid.

Every year, more people in the potato business are avoiding the risk of selling on the cash market. If you haven't looked into futures trading carefully, there's no better time than now. Drop us a note today. We'll send you a lot of valuable information.

Reedless Knicks Shoot For First NBA Crown Against Los Angeles

INGELWOOD, CALIF. (UPI)—The New York Knicks, who may be without the services of Willis Reed, go after their first National Basketball Association title tonight in the sixth game of the playoff finals against the Los Angeles Lakers.

Iba To Coach U.S. Olympic Cage Squad

NEW YORK (UPI)—Henry P. Iba, often called the best friend basketball ever had, is remaining in the game to which he's devoted nearly a half century, as coach of the 1972 U.S. Olympic basketball squad. Iba, who had to step out of collegiate coaching last March because of Oklahoma State University's mandatory 65-year retirement requirement, was named Tuesday to guide the U.S. basketball forces in the Olympics two years from now in Munich, Germany.

Iba, whose life spans the history of major developments in basketball, will be handling an Olympic squad for the first time and is the only coach ever to be named more than once for the Olympic Games post. "Iba, who spent 36 years at Oklahoma State and a total of 41 years in college coaching, did one of his best coaching jobs in 1968 when he led a U.S. team weakened by a player boycott to the Olympic gold medal at Mexico City.

Belmont And Sharman Win ABA Honors

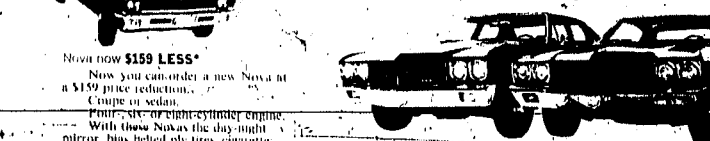

NEW YORK (UPI)—Joe Belmont, who took over a last place team at Denver, and guided it to the Western Division title, and Bill Sharman of the Los Angeles Stars Tuesday were named coaches of the year in the American Basketball Association.

Belmont was named head coach of the Rockets on Dec. 8, when they were in last place, and proceeded to run up a 42-14 record the rest of the season. The Stars also got off to a poor start, showing a 25-34 mark on Feb. 22, but fought back to win 17 of their next 21 games to gain fourth place in the west and a playoff berth.

Oliva's 6 RBIs Lift Twins Past Tigers

DETROIT (UPI)—Tony Oliva drove in six runs with a home run, single and triple Tuesday night to power the Minnesota Twins past the Detroit Tigers, 8-5.

Luis Tiant gave up a club record of nine walks, as he picked up his fifth win without a loss with relief help from three pitchers.

Oliva slammed his fourth homer in the first inning, two outs after a walk to Cesar Tovar and singled home Leo Cardenas, who had doubled, in the third inning.

The Twins' right fielder assured his team of its third straight win in the fifth inning with a bases-loaded triple to right center. The tag batted starter Mickey Lolich with his third loss in seven decisions.

Homedale Favored Over Millan, Aaron Lead Braves

Glenns Ferry, Wendell To 8th Straight Win, 12-6

Field Events are expected to be the effort of the tournament in this Saturday's Class A-3 regional at Nampa. Glenns Ferry figure to be no worse than two-three in the team standings and the area athletes should come back with a lot of firsts.

The class A-3 regional is slated for Bulldog Bowl in Nampa Saturday afternoon with the top two in each event coming to the state meet in Twin Falls May 15-16.

Glenns Ferry nipped Wendell by a third in the district honors last week. Both were ranked sufficiently in strength that they don't appear to have a shot at Homedale. Homedale is very strong in the field events with Pearson the favorite in the shot and discus and Haylett a favorite in the javelin.

Zalica went 9-2 in the high jump last week, setting up a good duel with Warren's Clayton Guter and Kirk Dennis of Wendell, both of whom have been over six feet.

Homedale's quality on the track diminishes rapidly but the field events could give it a first place point and any under-storying on the track should put them out of reach.

Wendell figures to get a lot of points in the hurdles with Rupp King having the best times in the highs and Dennis by far the best in the lows. Shoshone's Lowe could easily be second in both.

The 100 and 200-yard dashes appear a rerun of this area's district running with Zane Briggs of Carey the favorite in both and Kirk Dennis running in the top three. Rod Rudolph of Kimberly will meet Nampa's Christian's Purdy in the quarter with Rudolph holding the edge in both.

Valley's Johnson could have company in the half-mile, meeting Owen of Salmon River. Johnson has a 2:02 against Owen's 2:04. The mile appears headed for Fruitland's Terry Shuke, a two-time winner of the regional event. Theron Nebeker of Murtaugh posted a 15:20 second edge over his closest competitor last week.

In the relays, Glenns Ferry, Boston strongest in the 400 and 800-yard events, holding the biggest three-edge in the district event. The medley will be tight with Oakley, the champ from here, going against Parma, which has slightly the best in time last week.

T.F. Golfers Score Record Low Of 276

The undefeated Twin Falls golf team carved out an all-time low score of 276 Tuesday to win a four-way match at the Municipal course.

Senior Curt Thomsen led all scorers with an even par 68 while teammates Jim Packard and Larry Mamone had 69s and Jeff Thomsen had a 70. Junior Jim Blandford, SIC medalist, hit a 72, but the score wasn't used.

Ray Baker of Jerome posted a 70 to lead the Tigers into second place at 308 while Buhl at 335 and Flier 365.

Twin Falls will host the district tournament at the municipal course at 9 a.m. Friday.

Two Rookies Have Mishaps In Indy Tests

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — A pair of rookies provided rail birds at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Tuesday with first real excitement in the five-lap test runs for the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race.

Benley, Warren, 29, West Chouseter, Mass., suffered first-degree burns on his back scalded by hot water when the radiator cap flew off during a skid and spin in the southwest turn.

He was treated at the infield track hospital and released. Dr. Thomas Hanna, Speedway physician, said Warren would be able to return to practice Wednesday.

Donnie Allison, 30, Hueytown, Ala., a prominent speedster on the NASCAR stock car circuit, escaped unhurt when he lost control in the southwest turn. His car spun around completely and Allison drove around the track and into the pits.

Twenty-five cars got out on the track during a windy but mostly sunny day.

Dierker Stops Chicago On 4 Hits For Astros 3-1 Houston (UPI) — Houston right-hander Larry Dierker, aided by Jim Wynn's three hits, pitched a four-hitter at the Chicago Cubs Tuesday night and posted his fifth victory, 3-1.

Dierker, who has lost two games, allowed no more than one hit in any inning, but lost his shutout to Ron Santo's homer in the sixth. It was Santo's third of the season. Wynn doubled in the first inning of Ferguson-Jenkins and scored when Joe Pepton followed with a two-bagger.

In the seventh, Wynn singled in Joe Morgan, who had tripled. In between, Norm Miller hit a solo home run for the Astros' other score.

Except for Santo's homer, the Cubs threatened only in the third when Boots Day opened with a single, J.C. Martin walked and Jenkins sacrificed them again.

Mrs. Vaughn Gets First Hole-In-One

May Lose All-Star Tilt

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — National League President Charles S. (Chub) Feeney said Tuesday he was "disturbed" by rumors that Cincinnati's new riverfront stadium won't be ready on schedule June 30.

"If these reports are correct, it would be obviously impossible to play the All Star Game, scheduled for July 14, in Cincinnati this year," said Feeney.

"The commissioner's office and the National League office must have definite assurance that the Cincinnati club will be playing all its remaining league games in the riverfront stadium no later than June 30."

Boston Overpowers St. Louis By 6-2

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Eddie Westfall and Derek Sanderson scored two goals each Tuesday night to lead the Boston Bruins to a 6-2 win over the St. Louis Blues in the second game of the Stanley Cup Finals.

The Bruins won two victories on St. Louis ice, now have the opportunity to win the next two games in Boston for their first Stanley Cup in 30 years.

The Blues have been in the finals all three years they have been in the National Hockey League but have yet to win a game in 10 starts.

Fred Stanfield and Johnny Bucyk also scored for Boston. Terry Gray and Frank St. Marselle scored for St. Louis on power plays.

Crime Turns Big Cities Into Jungles

By FREDERICK H. TRESH
United Press International

Doors in city apartments are double and triple-locked. Women are reluctant to open them, even when a knock from a peep-hole shows a policeman.

Streetkeepers pull garbage-type accordion doors or iron gates across their show windows when they close for the night. They keep guns under their counters.

Inner city churches are giving up evening services because their members won't venture into the streets. Once thriving shopping districts are deserted after dark.

Sales of burglar alarms are soaring. Pet shops that once featured poodles now have German shepherds in their windows.

The cities of this nation are gripped by fear of crime. "Crime is now a major fear for the past few years—the No. 1 problem in urban areas, particularly the core cities," says Roman Gibbs, mayor of Detroit, a city particularly plagued by crime.

FBI statistics, which are misleading but still constitute the most reliable indication of what is happening, show an alarming increase in crime in the United States. It is at its worst in the cities.

The FBI's preliminary reports for 1969 show an 11 per cent increase over the previous year when 4.4 million serious crimes were reported. The crime rate in cities and their suburbs was up in 1969, although the rate of increase was the lowest in four years.

Still, statistics for individual cities boggle the mind. In one month this year, in a single one-mile by one-mile police precinct in New York, there were more than 1,000 major crimes reported—homicides, rapes, assaults, robberies, burglaries, larcenies over $50 and auto thefts.

There is far more crime than is ever reported. A study of 10,000 representative households conducted for the Federal Crime Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice (the national crime commission) indicated burglaries occur about three times more often than they are reported to police.

"Aggravated assaults and larcenies over $50 occur twice as often as they are reported. There are 50 per cent more robberies than are reported," the study said.

It concluded: "The existence of crime, the talk about crime, the reports of crime and the fear of crime have eroded the basic quality of life of many Americans."

Unless the trend to more and more crime can be reversed, the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence suggests that black ghettos of American cities may become places of terror "perhaps out of police control during the nighttime hours."

It pictures tomorrow's middle and upper-income areas as "fortified cells" protected by guards and security devices. It speaks of universal ownership of guns in the suburbs and high-speed "sanitized corridors" over which private and commercial vehicles—all armored—would travel between safe areas.

young," says Howard R. Leary, New York City's police commissioner. This doesn't register, really, until you visit a Bronx, N.Y., police precinct on a Saturday night and see an angel-faced 11-year-old boy booked on it narcotics charge.

Why don't the police do something about all this crime? In the main, they are trying—within the restraints of limited manpower. Their role is only one cog in a grossly inadequate system of criminal justice, their relationship strained with the areas of the cities that need police services the most.

Even New York, with 31,700 policemen, has patrol cars operating in high-crime areas with 10 to 15 nonemergency calls backed up—calls that won't be responded to for two to three hours. Emergency calls for assistance or reports of crimes progress, of course, get prompt attention.

Financially, most cities are barely able to maintain existing police services, let alone hire the many more policemen they need, give them better training and reward them with adequate pay.

On the plus side, major police departments are adopting more imaginative patrolling methods. They are using greater mobility, better communications and computer technology to cut response time. (This probably is the key to catching more criminals), assigning more foot patrolmen to reassure citizens in high crime areas and, in recent years, placing major emphasis on community relations.

More civilians are being hired by the police departments to handle traffic control and clerical duties, freeing more policemen for patrol duty on the streets.

Even though police departments still are far from models of efficient use of manpower, by and large, the city policeman is probably the most hardworking, effective and unappreciated man in the whole system of criminal justice.

Minorities sometimes charge "police brutality" but over-heavy-handedness is now relatively rare in most cities. "I think it is now a more subtle kind of double standard of law enforcement where you approach a person differently in one kind of community than you would in another. The tone of speech, the kind of language you use—whether courteous and respectful or derogatory—makes the difference," says Los Angeles City Councilman Thomas Bradley, a Negro. "The question of whether or not you respect a man's dignity is probably basic in this whole situation. You can deny or destroy a man's basic dignity by the way you expose him to ridicule on the street—by the way you question him, by the way you search him in front of his friends."

Waldobe Stewart, a black New York state senator who represents the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, said he was stopped by a policeman while driving his car on a recent Saturday. After showing his identification, he said, he was released with an apology.

Stewart, driving a car with a brass plate denoting "New York Senate," asked why he was stopped. "You didn't look like a senator," the policeman admitted candidly.

But in the same district of Brooklyn, twice in the last year police responding to calls for assistance have been shot from ambush. Police in city ghettos are menaced repeatedly, and fear for their own safety sometimes obscures the niceties their counterparts in suburbia observe.

Police-community relations is a two-sided problem. In most cities are moving to improve their relationship with the minority communities where the crime rate is the most desperate and where citizen cooperation is essential to its reversal.

St. Louis has reinstated foot patrolmen as much as a community relations gesture as to reduce crime. The police department there also operates storefront centers where police counsel community residents on a variety of problems.

Rochester, N.Y., police employ more than 100 youths in a summer "Teens on Patrol" program and all year the department operates a teen center in a ghetto neighborhood.

Police in numerous cities take children on weekend outings and to ballgames and museums.

"When a kid has been out like that with an officer, he doesn't want to run into him again when he is in trouble," says Sgt. Jerry Conners, a black officer assigned to Los Angeles' 7th Division which includes Watts.

Dignity Suffers

If police have an Achilles heel it probably is in dealing with groups of people who reject their traditional middle-class values and respect for authority. Minority lower classes and political radicals such as campus protesters fall into that category. Politically, police have tended to polarize to the right as their critics and those who express hate for them have polarized to the left.

Rochester Puts Teens To Work

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI)—At the start of summer, the Rochester Police Bureau rounds up about 100 teen-agers from the innercity. Call it preventive employment.

The police give the young people blue jackets, white T-shirts and a $1.75-an-hour job assisting officers at playgrounds, parks, swimming areas and social events where the young crowd gathers.

The youths employed by the police are called "Teens on Patrol" (TOPS). Day to day, their job is to make the recreational areas safer and a bit more orderly.

But after three seasons of experience with the TOPS program, the police bureau believes its greatest value is in bringing police one in which the officer is not just "walking up on the porch enforcing the law."

Most of the TOPS are Negro. There are some Puerto Ricans and whites. A few are girls.

Dorothy Williams, one of TOPS girls last summer, said she used to "despise" policemen. "I couldn't stand cops."

Now her attitude has changed. "I didn't know them. Now I see a policeman as a man who is doing his job—what's right. They're out there to help," she said.

Patrolman Joseph Callea, who drives a patrol car in a high crime area, says "It is 100 per cent easier to work on the street now."

"These kids have friends and they're telling them that cops aren't so bad."

Capl. Thomas P. Hasting, who heads the police Community Relations Service, emphasizes to other officers they are not recruited as "stooges and junior cops."

The TOPS program is one aspect of the Rochester Police Department's overall community relations program in which policemen participate in community councils, speak at schools and neighborhood organizations, develop informational programs for broadcast media.

Funds for the TOPS program are not drawn from the regular police budget. The teens are paid by Rochester Jobs Incorporated through a financial grant from the Eastman Kodak Co.

deploy his limited manpower. As a result of our computer analysis, we can predict to about 95 per cent accuracy just where our service needs will be. That is, we know just about how many calls can be expected from a given geographic area and what the nature of those calls will be," Kelley said.

Kansas City also was the first city to use helicopter air watch for criminal activity in high-crime areas. Thirteen pilots from the department's air force around the clock. The choppers answered 3,762 calls last year, ranging from bank robberies to lost children.

Minorities sometimes charge "police brutality" but over-heavy-handedness is now relatively rare in most cities. "I think it is now a more subtle kind of double standard of law enforcement where you approach a person differently in one kind of community than you would in another. The tone of speech, the kind of language you use—whether courteous and respectful or derogatory—makes the difference," says Los Angeles City Councilman Thomas Bradley, a Negro. "The question of whether or not you respect a man's dignity is probably basic in this whole situation. You can deny or destroy a man's basic dignity by the way you expose him to ridicule on the street—by the way you question him, by the way you search him in front of his friends."

Waldobe Stewart, a black New York state senator who represents the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, said he was stopped by a policeman while driving his car on a recent Saturday. After showing his identification, he said, he was released with an apology.

Stewart, driving a car with a brass plate denoting "New York Senate," asked why he was stopped. "You didn't look like a senator," the policeman admitted candidly.

But in the same district of Brooklyn, twice in the last year police responding to calls for assistance have been shot from ambush. Police in city ghettos are menaced repeatedly, and fear for their own safety sometimes obscures the niceties their counterparts in suburbia observe.

Police-community relations is a two-sided problem. In most cities are moving to improve their relationship with the minority communities where the crime rate is the most desperate and where citizen cooperation is essential to its reversal.

St. Louis has reinstated foot patrolmen as much as a community relations gesture as to reduce crime. The police department there also operates storefront centers where police counsel community residents on a variety of problems.

Rochester, N.Y., police employ more than 100 youths in a summer "Teens on Patrol" program and all year the department operates a teen center in a ghetto neighborhood.

Police in numerous cities take children on weekend outings and to ballgames and museums.

"When a kid has been out like that with an officer, he doesn't want to run into him again when he is in trouble," says Sgt. Jerry Conners, a black officer assigned to Los Angeles' 7th Division which includes Watts.

Citizens Can Help

"Police community relations are very important—not as a frill, not as something that's nice to do—but as a basis for crime control. The police need citizens in order to control crime," says Commissioner Murphy in Detroit.

The Nixon administration advocates—and Congress appears ready to legislate—pretrial "preventive detention" of criminal suspects when they are deemed to be dangerous to the community. It points up the problem of inadequacies of the present criminal justice system.

Across the nation, thousands of crimes are committed each year by persons free on bail awaiting trial for a previous offense. Preventive detention may loom large as a constitutional issue but it is mischievous as a solution to the problem.

In most cities, the courts are so backlogged that it is not uncommon for a person charged with a felony to wait as long as a year for trial. At the same time, the jails are bulging. In many cities jails are filled far beyond their intended capacity, their inmates contained in subhuman conditions.

Once tried and convicted, an offender goes to a prison in which little rehabilitation is attempted. Many police, prosecutors and criminologists regard the jails as being little more than "schools for crime."

Probation and parole similarly fall far short of their rehabilitative goal. "Close supervision" of the parolee typically consists of a 15-minute interview once a month. He gets little or no help.

The National Crime Commission urged doubling to $5 billion a year the amount the nation spends on crime control and administering justice. Much would go for facilities and trained manpower to unclog the courts and make the correctional system truly a correctional—not just punitive.

Beyond that, nothing is going to improve much until the nation addresses itself on adequate access to the underlying causes of crime.

"I could develop the perfect policeman in every sense of the word," says New York's Commissioner Leary. "But how would that change the ghetto? Would poverty be less? Would housing and schools be better? Would prejudice leave?"

Youth Takes Toll

What has caused the crime epidemic? The growth in the U.S. population alone would account for some additional crime even if there were no increase in the crime rate. But the crime rate has turned upward.

The National Crime Commission said in its 1967 report that "crime is evidently associated with two powerful social trends: The increasing urbanization of America and the increasing numerousness, restlessness and restiveness of American youth."

The crime commission, studying statistics for the year 1965, said three-fourths of the crimes counted in FBI statistics were committed by persons under 25. More 16-year-olds were arrested for those crimes than any other age group; 16-year-olds were a close second.

"For as long as crime statistics of any kind have been compiled, they have shown that males between the ages of 15 and 24 are the most crime-prone group in the population," the commission said. "For the last 5 years, as the result of the baby boom, that took place after the second world war, the 15-24 age group has been the fastest growing group in the population."

This group will continue to grow disproportionately for at least 15 years more, the commission said. "And so it is probable that crime will continue to increase during this period, unless there are drastic changes in general social and economic conditions and in the effectiveness of the criminal justice system."

Above crime in the cities, the report said: "A man who lives in the country or in a small town is likely to be conspicuous, under surveillance by his community so to speak, and therefore under its control. A city man is often almost invisible, socially isolated from his neighborhood and therefore incapable of being controlled by it. He has more opportunities for crime. At the same time, in a city, much more than in a small community, he rubs constantly, abrasively and impersonally against other people; he is likely to live his life unnoticed and unrespected, his hopes unfulfilled. He can fall easily into a feeling that he is in a jungle where force and cunning are the only means for survival."

Within the cities, a high percentage of crime is committed by and is perpetrated against residents of black ghetto areas. Historically, racism and violence have been most prevalent among the lowest social and economic strata. In recent years in this country that has been the blacks.

"Crime is related to poverty and unemployment," Detroit Police Commissioner Patrick V. Murphy says. "Some would like to make the point that crime has been increasing during a period when unemployment has been decreasing in this country. In the past 10 years or so, however, if we look at where crime is occurring, and who is committing it, we see that it is occurring among people and being committed by people in areas of very high unemployment."

Angel-Face Addict

The young ghetto dweller also is the most splintered about the social and economic inequities of the nation and the most cynical about the motives of government, especially the criminal justice system.

Also every major city has an uncertain number—hundreds or thousands—of persons addicted to that narcotic like heroin. It costs them $25 to $100 a day to support their habit. There is no way to obtain that kind of money except by crime.

Burglary, robbery and purse-snatching are the crimes usually associated with narcotic addicts. The amount of property an addict must steal is astounding because stolen property usually can be sold only for about 20 per cent of its actual value.

"Narcotics is pulling this country apart—degrading its

Kansas City's Up To Date—Crime Rampant

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Everything's up to date in Kansas City. Like every other urban area in the nation, Kansas City faces a crisis with crime.

A major crime is committed every five minutes. Homicides outnumber traffic fatalities nearly three to one, occurring at the rate of one every 10 hours since Jan. 1. A woman is raped every 24 hours.

Unholy criminal activity might even be worse in this city of 692,000 if Kansas City did not have one of the nation's most advanced police departments in terms of employing crime-fighting technology.

A computer answers a query about some 100,000 criminal investigations every 17 seconds. It cuts the time it takes a policeman to find out whether a man or a vehicle is "wanted" from 30 minutes to 30 seconds.

In addition, Police Chief Clarence M. Kelley credits the computer with helping him

Finalists Announced For Frontier Girl Contest In Cassia Centennial

BURLEY — The four high school girls have been selected as finalists in the Frontier Girl Contest by officers of the Declo Lions Club, sponsor of the event.

The Frontier Girl will be selected during the Pioneer Banquet at 7:15 p.m. Friday at the Ponderosa Inn by the pioneers of Cassia County.

Finalists are Sally Payton, Oakley High School; Teresa Booth, Raft River High School; Carolyn Zollinger, Declo High School and Karen Allen, Burley High School. They were chosen from a field of 19 candidates.

Miss Payton is a junior at Oakley and will attend Girls State this summer, and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Payton. Miss Booth is a senior at Raft River High School, Malia, has served as class secretary and class treasurer and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd R. Booth.

Miss Zollinger is a senior at Declo High School is captain of the Stingerettes Drill Team, a cheerleader and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayne Zollinger. Miss Allen, a senior at Burley High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen. She has been a cheerleader since she was in junior high, served as secretary of Stingerettes and is on the student council.

About 185 pioneers of Cassia County will be honored during the banquet and each will be given a special certificate if they are able to attend or not. The banquet is also open to the public and tickets are on sale on a first-come-first-served basis from the Burley Jay-C-Ettes.

Cong. Orval Hansen will be the guest speaker. Max Bruce will make a presentation on the Historic Trails which cross Cassia County and the Old Time Fiddlers will furnish entertainment.

Plans for summer long events are under way by the "100 Years of Progress" committee headed by Ted Kelsey, general chairman. Grant Fillmore is directing the Pioneer Banquet.

Two Newcomers Ask Offices In Blaine

HAILEY — Two incumbents and two newcomers are seeking election for Blaine county positions in the August Primary election, having filed petitions since opening day May 1.

Those having filed include Mrs. Dorothy Povey, Democrat incumbent, treasurer; W. D. Martindale, Democrat incumbent, assessor; E. V. McHan, Republican, representative for District 21-A; and E. Lee Schlender, Democrat, prosecuting attorney.

Mr. McHan and Mr. Schlender earlier announced they would seek election, with Mr. McHan seeking the post recently vacated by John George Shoshone, and Mr. Schlender seeking to replace V. K. Jesspen.

Mrs. Povey has served Blaine county since 1943 when she was appointed to fill the unexpired term of A. W. Ensign Jr.

She graduated from Polytechnic Business College in Oakland, California, and served as private secretary to a California legislator and as superior court reporter for several years in Sacramento Valley, prior to moving to Hailey where she married.

"There were 3000 tax notices for this county when I took office," Mrs. Povey noted, "and for 1970 there will be more than 4,500." Although Blaine county has the same amount of land, now more people from other areas are building homes here too.

Mr. Martindale is concluding his second term as assessor, having been appointed to the position in 1965. Prior to the appointment, he had served as deputy assessor for two years. He was born in Oakley and attended the Albion State Normal School prior to becoming a teacher in the Oakley and Hailey areas for seven years. He taught math, science, and coached football and basketball. Mr. Martindale then served as Blaine county deputy sheriff for nine years before joining the assessor's staff.

Blaine county residents will be voting for prosecuting attorney, treasurer, assessor, county clerk, and district representative. Deadline for filing is May 7.

Candidates Unopposed At Jerome

JEROME — Two candidates are running unopposed in the Jerome school trustee election set for May 11.

Mr. Dale Vining will seek reelection from Zone 2 and Jim Keith is a candidate from Zone 3 seeking the position IM by Levi Gifford, who is not running for reelection.

To be eligible to vote in the election one must be a parent or guardian of a child under 21 years of age as well as a taxpayer, reside in either zone 2 or 3.

Zone 2 comprises an area which extends two miles east of the center of town, two miles north and two miles south.

Mr. Vining is currently chairman of the board. He is a member of the Idaho State School Trustees Association. He was postmaster at Jerome for the past 20 years and is currently an area vice president of the National Association of Postmasters.

Mr. Keith has been manager of Jerome Sawley store for the past three years and has been with the firm for 20 years. He is a Chamber of Commerce director, belongs to Rotary club and the Elks Lodge.

Report On Water Is Given

HAILEY — Three of four water measurements taken during the May survey conducted by the Blaine County Soil Conservation District show measurements above the 15-year average, according to Reuben Bradshaw.

Runs on the Big Wood Snow Course surveyed include Galena Summit, Galena, Graham Ranch and Mt. Baldy, with each measuring above the average except Mt. Baldy. Measurements include Galena Summit, 77.5 inches of snow with 28.1 inches of water, or 121 per cent of the average of 25.3 inches of water; Galena, 82.0 inches of snow with 21.6 inches of water; or 165 per cent of the average of 13.1 inches; Graham Ranch, 23.1 inches of snow with 8.4 inches of water, or 106 per cent of the average of 8 inches; and Mt. Baldy, 64.3 inches of snow with 20.1 inches of water, or 96 per cent of the average of 21.2 inches of water.

All water measurements compare with those in May 1969; but SCS officials note that there is a much greater danger of damage from flooding this year as last. Because of precautions taken after last year's flood, should flooding occur on the runs this year, little damage should result.

No Bomb Unopposed At Jerome

O'Leary Junior High School in Twin Falls was the target of a bomb threat, but a search by officers failed to reveal an explosive.

Chief of Police Frank Barnett said a young boy called the police station at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday and reported there was a bomb at the school. He said the search was complete within about half an hour.

Clean-up Set Saturday In Blaine

HAILEY — Volunteer clean-up crews will sweep through Hailey Saturday in conjunction with the county-wide campaign which began two weeks ago in Carey.

Chairman of the project, John Barnes, said "Operation 'Big Broom' will be completed May 18, when the workers moved to Ketchum. Workers this Saturday will concentrate efforts from the Gage Ranch through the city of Hailey, and from the northern Hailey city limits through Sun Valley next Saturday.

He said old abandoned cars are being hauled to a special dump for them near the sanitary land fill, and other rubbish cleaned up and burned or otherwise disposed of.

Blaine county sheriff Orville Drexler promised to patrol the highway 83 while it is being cleaned up.

Last week's crews cleaned up from Bellevue Southern city limits to the Gage ranch, and worked in the Carey-Placibogannett area the week before that.

Deadline Is Thursday

HAILEY — A special musical program will be presented at the Lincoln school at 8 p.m. Thursday, featuring students of the school.

Mrs. Fern Manning, music teacher, and other teachers at the school are in charge of the presentation.

The public is invited. According to High school principal Carl Kinney, a choir from Capitol High School, Boise, will be featured at 9 p.m. Friday, at the high school building.

Shoshone Sets Event Thursday

SHOSHONE — A special musical program will be presented at the Lincoln school at 8 p.m. Thursday, featuring students of the school.

Mrs. Fern Manning, music teacher, and other teachers at the school are in charge of the presentation.

The public is invited. According to High school principal Carl Kinney, a choir from Capitol High School, Boise, will be featured at 9 p.m. Friday, at the high school building.

10 Register For Music Week

RICHFIELD — Only 10 children were brought to the Richfield elementary school for pre-school enrollment. The group was made up of five girls and five boys.

Mrs. Helen Taylor, first grade teacher, met with the children and their mothers. Mrs. Dorothy Alexander, county nurse, told of the necessity of pre-school examination and inoculations.

Filer Club Sets Program To Honor National Music Week

FILER — The Filer Junior Music Club will present a program dedicated to the National Music Week, sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs, at 8:45 p.m. Thursday at the Filer Elementary School.

Parents and friends are invited to attend.

Joe Vincent is program chairman. Chris Blalock, president, will give a report on the state Junior Music Club convention held in Twin Falls at the Old Ore arts building. The program will feature some of the music club festival participants.

The club also sponsored a choir which presented a recent concert at the Elementary School with dedication made to the National Music Week.

Winners of the Junior Music Club poster contest are announced at the Filer Elementary School by Mrs. Henry Westendorp, club counselor.

J. T. Steelsmith received first prize for a colorful poster which depicted a music club and a replica of the National Federation of Music Clubs emblem surrounded by a psychedelic border of many colors.

Pat Mahoney received second prize and Dorothy Galt received honorable mention.

Prizes were donated by Mrs. Robert Blalock Jr., piano tuner.

Baling Of Autos Will Start Soon

Baling of discarded automobile bodies will begin next week on county dumps with the first baling operation scheduled on the area south of Burley.

County Commissioner William Chancey said Tuesday Jay Huddleston will move his equipment to the Filer area county dump and bale car bodies stored there. He said persons wishing to get rid of wrecked or discarded automobiles should make arrangements to take them to that site.

He said the county will subsidize the operation by $1 per ton of baled bodies. Metal prices are up somewhat, he said, and Mr. Chancey said he has been being just for what he could make from selling the bales, believes with the limited county subsidy he will be able to come out on the operation.

An offer from an out of state concern to move a portable baler has been turned down, Mr. Chancey said, in support of the local baler.

He said when the equipment completes baling on one county dump it will move to another. Commissioner Morris W. Carlson said the dump south of Hansen on the foothill road will probably be the next stop for baling equipment.

Here, he said, as soon as the metal is baled, the county will send bulk containers to cover all remaining debris and the site will then be vacated and a new one located for the Hansen area.

Jerome To Inaugurate 7 Periods

JEROME — The Jerome Junior and senior high school will start the fall school year with a seven-period day, it was reported by John Campbell, Supt. of schools.

Campbell said that the new plan would provide greater educational flexibility and that the district "will be getting better mileage for personal dollars spent."

The new plan will give many youngsters living in the country a chance to take part in activities that will now be part of the regular school day. These activities traditionally have been held after school hours, and many students riding the bus were unable to take advantage of most outside school activities, Supt. Campbell noted.

"Under the new plan, all of the junior and senior high students, regardless of where they live and still get a bus home," Campbell said.

When the plan goes into effect this fall, classes will start at 8:55 a.m. and school will end at 3:35 p.m. There will be 25 minutes for lunch and classes will be 49 minutes in length.

Malta Woman Describes Kansas Training Class

BURLEY — Mrs. Evelyn Barnes, Malta, told of her experiences at the Leadership Development Course at Lawrence, Kan., during the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday noon.

Mrs. Barnes describes the course as being "anti-American and anti-establishment oriented."

After the first week Mrs. Barnes quit the seven-week course which was conducted by the University of Kansas through a grant from the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The training session urged the people to return to their areas and organize; get head start out of the hands of the schools; and into the hands of parents who will do the hiring and firing of teachers or instructors, she asserted.

Mrs. Traford Bray, president of the Burley Music Club, introduced Vicki Barkdoll, who played a flute solo and Dave Adams who played a baritone solo. The high school students entertained in honor of National Music Week.

Norval Wildman, Cassia County School trustee, presented printed material on the proposed mill levy for 12.5 mills for plant facilities which will be voted upon May 11 polls will be open from 1 to 8 p.m.

Under the proposed plan the mill levy will run for three years and will raise about $200,000 and will go for five different projects. The Springdale area would be $700,000 building replacing the old building at Declo and Springdale; some $70,000 will be used for renovation of the Burley Junior High School. The Oakley High School would have some $35,000 to help correct accreditation deficiencies; Raft River High School needs $38,000 to help eliminate some of the accreditation deficiencies and about $15,000 will go for roof repair at Burley High School and other renovations.

In District 3 of the school district there will also be the school trustee election with one question asking for election. He is being opposed by Paul Bandy, manager of Orinda Foods, Inc., plant at Burley.

Anti-Smoking Crusades Supplement Campaigns

NEW YORK (UPI)—June will be no month of roses for cigarette smokers.

Regular anti-smoking crusades will be supplemented by a month-long "Kick the Habit" campaign engineered by units of the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association (NT-RDA).

Some associations are toying with such ideas as setting up plastic coffins and urging people to chuck their cigarettes into them.

There will be "Kick the Habit" buttons and even bumper stickers — "Smoke, choke, croak."

Another plan: convincing a whole town to kick the habit for a day, a week, or maybe a month. The idea has been pretested. It works reasonably well.

One slogan goes like this: "Your family and friends want you alive and well. Cigarettes won't keep you that way."

From Seattle, crusaders will draw on a blueprint for seven no-smoke lunches. People trying to kick the habit in that city paid $10 to register.

They got $2 back if they swore they had not smoked since the last luncheon.

There were no gory films and no frightening speeches, reports the NT-RDA Bulletin. "Just supportive luncheons for people who wanted to be together with others trying to kick the habit. And money-back bonuses."

Helpful Hints
Among helpful techniques, aimed at helping smokers to shrink the habit step by step: —Tape a piece of paper to your cigarette pack.

—Record each cigarette you smoke, the time of day, your activity at the time.

—Check the pattern that emerges after two or three days.

—Decide to eliminate the cigarettes that will be easiest to eliminate — perhaps those at the end of the day.

—Then try to eliminate the most difficult (the ones you want most) — after breakfast or dinner, perhaps.

The "smoke, choke, croak" battle-cry came out of an anti-smoking campaign run by teen-agers in Kern County, Calif. — during a project financed by a $47,000 grant for the U.S. Public Health Service. That campaign, aimed at teen-agers, told the kids what they didn't want to hear: insults about those who puff cigarettes.

Radio commercials included: —"Don't smoke in bed. You might burn a hole in your lungs."

—"I don't smoke. The cigarette smokes. I'm just the sucker at the other end."

A US-AGE produced television commercial showed a shot of an elegantly dressed woman. "She smokes," said the announcer. Next was a shot of burning trash. The voice said: —"So does the city dump."

In another campaign, other teen-agers last year produced a radio commercial that made this point: —"The cigarette is only a crutch for your problems. Smoking is an advanced stage of thumb-sucking."

—"The cigarette is only a crutch for your problems. Smoking is an advanced stage of thumb-sucking."

—"The cigarette is only a crutch for your problems. Smoking is an advanced stage of thumb-sucking."

Western Theme Used By Area Job's Daughters

WENDELL — The Wendell Masonic Temple was decorated in the style of an early western saloon recently for a Job's Daughters card party.

Approximately 50 persons were present to play bridge, pinocle and other games.

Old fashioned wooden barrels and red-checkered card tables were placed around the room with gold-swinging doors highlighting the entrance way.

The Job's Daughters were dressed in old-fashioned clothing including flappers from the 1920's, saloon girls, cowboys and other. Diane Glick was awarded a prize for best costume for an original flapper outfit.

Mary Bird provided entertainment with a guitar solo.

A cake walk was held under the direction of Nancy Bunn, honored queen, and John Wert, auctioneer. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pratt, auctioneers and guardians and chaperones for the event.

Proceeds went to the Job's money-making project.

MORE THAN 150 women were turned away because of lack of seating space recently when the Intermountain Gas Co. and the Times-News sponsored cooking demonstrations at the Turf Club. Picnic foods and barbecue items were demonstrated, with Mrs.

Fran Hopper of Intermountain Gas Co. heading the event. Mrs. Janie Newman, who is with Holiday Crisp Co., and Chef Peter Schotts from the Sun Valley Lodge were guest demonstrators at the show. Special prizes were given during the event including picnic baskets, barbecue tools, blue flame-glasses and tiles, silver bowls and the food items prepared. Mrs. Hopper was introduced by Al Westergren, publisher of the Times-News.

NEVER FAIL MERINGUE
Combine two tablespoons sugar and one tablespoon cornstarch in a small pan. Add one-half cup water. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture is thick and clear. Cool. Beat three egg whites with one-eighth teaspoon salt and one-half teaspoon vanilla extract until soft mounds form.

Add six tablespoons sugar gradually, beating well after each addition. Add cornstarch mixture. Continue beating until meringue stands in stiff peaks. Pile lightly on pie, sealing in edges to crust, and bake at 350 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes until golden brown.

The Times-News will pay $5 each week for Magic Valley Favorites. If you have a favorite recipe, just mail it to the Recipe Department, Women's Page Editor. The recipe becomes the property of the Times-News and cannot be returned.

Bali

Bali already had the Sno-Flake bra. All they had to do was add the slip.

THE BRA:
Bali spent years perfecting this bra. It never gaps at the cleavage. The support always comes from under the cups so the straps are secure, but comfortable. And the back never rides up.
Spends 5 minutes in the fitting room and see what we mean when we say the Bali Sno-Flake is one of the best fitting bras you can buy. Sizes 32 thru 42, B, C, D, DD cups. In White beige, pink, blue, yellow, black. 4.50 and 7.50

THE BRA SLIP:
This bra slip isn't just a slip with a bra. It's the Bali Sno-Flake bra with a lovely tulle slip, trimmed at the bottom with Sno-Flake lace. The same work and detail that went into perfecting the Sno-Flake bra went into perfecting the Sno-Flake bra slip. And, because it's Bali, it's one of the best fitting bra slips you can buy. Sizes 32 thru 38, B, C, D cups. In short and average lengths. Colors white and beige.

Sorority Council Hosts Mother's Day Breakfast

BURLEY — The annual Mother's Day Breakfast, sponsored by Burley-Rupert Iota Sigma Phi City Council, was held recently at Price's Cafe.

The tables were covered with right red cloths and the only decorations were milkglass bud vases holding carnations. The bud vases were given to the mothers or guests of the members at the close of the breakfast and program.

Mrs. Roger Ling gave the invocation. Mrs. Moon Mullins gave the welcome address and served as mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Ralph Butters gave the "Tribute to Mothers" and Mrs. Rolland Jones the Mother's Response.

Original humorous styles of the modern mother were presented in a review, "What Did You Do Today, Dear?" Mrs. Roger Jones was the narrator and models were Mrs. Robert Saxvik, Mrs. Larry Garro, Mrs. Frank Sanders, Mrs. Larry Wright, Mrs. Gary Newton and Mrs. Pat O'Donnell.

Special awards were presented by Mrs. LePage Layton to Mrs. Anna Walker, Seattle, Wash., for traveling the farthest; Mrs. Fred Rogers, Rupert, most grandchildren; and Mrs. Bertha Cain, Salt Lake City, for most children.

In charge of the general arrangements were Mrs. Robert Hilliard, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Larry Duff and Mrs. Layton.

Approximately 125 attended the annual event. Chapter members were from Beta Eta, Alpha Zeta, and Xi Omega and Alpha Zeta, both Burley.

Entertainment was directed by Beta Eta Chapter and printed programs were prepared by Xi Omega Chapter.

Small onions are best for boiling, whole, stewing or creaming—medium ones for serving stuffed, and large ones for thick slices to top off hamburgers and for fried onion rings.

RECEIVING SPECIAL AWARDS during the annual Mother's Day Breakfast, sponsored by the Burley-Rupert Beta Sigma Phi City Council, were, from left, Mrs. Anna Walker, Seattle, Wash., mother that traveled the farthest; Mrs. Rogers, Rupert, most grandchildren, and Mrs. Bertha Cain, Salt Lake City, most children. The event was held at Price's Cafe, with approximately 125 persons attending.

New Members Initiated For Burley DOES Chapter

BURLEY — Three new members were initiated into the Burley DOES Lodge No. 206 at the Elks Lodge Hall.

New members are Mrs. Virginia Lewis, Mrs. Darlene Fenstermaker and Mrs. Dora Elquist. Each received a long-stemmed red rose, flower of the organization.

Mrs. Wayne Rogers, president, conducted the ceremony and was assisted by Mrs. Pat Miller, Mrs. Darrell Butcher, Mrs. William Morrison, Mrs. Wilber Roberts, Mrs. Joan Kreigh, Mrs. Leon Doman, Mrs. George Korb, Mrs. Irene Bellefueille, Mrs. Haven Glorich, Mrs. James Fox, Mrs. LePage Layton, Mrs. Everett Johnson, Mrs. Grant Benton, Mrs. Victoria Hubbard, Mrs. Jim Easton and Mrs. Sam Hamilton. All wore floor-length white formal.

A short business meeting was conducted and it was announced a rummage sale will be held May 16 at the old Burley Motor Building.

After the meeting, refreshments were served from the table covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow daffodils. The sheet cake was decorated in roses. In charge of the refreshments were Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Bellefueille.

Social Events

Swinging Sixties will hold a meeting and elect officers at 8 p.m. Friday at the Old Idaho State Fair. Dancing will be held after the meeting. Those attending are asked to bring a sack lunch and own table service.

Amigo Star Club will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Senior Citizens Recreation Hall. There will be a Mother's Day program.

Area Burmah Club Convenes

SHOSHONE — Mrs. Sadie Magiffin was hostess to Burmah Club, with Mrs. Mahala Kias, co-hostess.

The program, "Dangers of Mixing Bleaches," was given by Mrs. Jay Fowles, tri-county home demonstration agent.

Instructions were also given on sewing knit materials with use of special needles.

The Easter Seal quilt made by the women will be presented May 28. Funds go to the Crippled Children's Society.

Mrs. Marian Capps received the hostess prize.

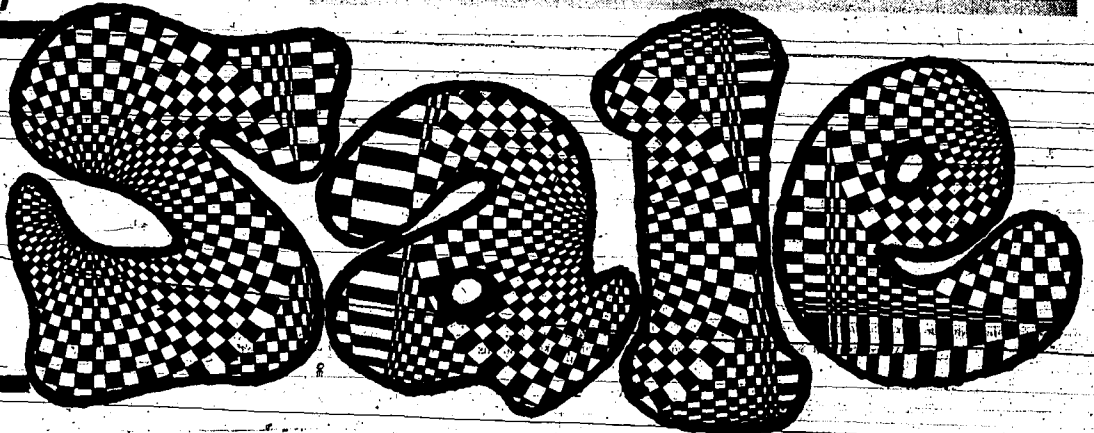

Next meeting is May 14 at the Eva Sorensen home at Richfield.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: To the numbskull who insisted that quiet men are the greatest-lovers. She should meet my husband. He is a quiet man.

I went with him for 5 years before I was able to convince him that marriage was normal. Now I'm having a harder time trying to convince him that sex is also normal.

He came on like a lamb, turned into a lion for one glorious year, then turned back into a lamb, and he's been one ever since.

I have tried to break him down by inventing a little game I call "candor." I bought a packet of gold stars and whenever he breaks down, I paste a gold star on the calendar. There are 50 stars in a pack, and at this rate I will have enough gold stars to last me a lifetime.

When we are with friends he laughs and says, "I think I'll trade my wife in for two twenties." Should I remind him that he can't even take care of one? I am 44, attractive, clean, and normal.

If I had it to do over again, I'd choose a lion to begin with. At least that way I'd know what I was getting.

MARIE IN SUNNYMEAD

DEAR MARIE: You're in a rather special "lamb" who can turn into a "lion" even for one glorious year. But knowing it is possible, doesn't that give you a clue?

DEAR ABBY: I am a physician, but please omit my name and city. This "problem" is one that every doctor has encountered, and even tho I have my own way of handling it, I am writing to get your opinion.

The number of women patients who lie to their husbands about their age is shocking. They do not lie to their doctors, however. When I have a woman patient in the hospital, often her husband will corner me and ask me straight out how old his wife is.

Tell me Dear Abby, if you were the doctor, how would you handle it? DOC

DEAR DOC: I would ask the man to ask his wife. How do YOU handle it?

DEAR ABBY: For 12 years my husband was bald. This last Christmas my daughter and I talked him into buying one of those new hairpieces for men. Thank goodness men are finally waking up to the fact that they too can improve their appearance.

I never knew a head of hair could do so much for anyone. He looks like he did 15 years ago, and he feels 20 years younger. He went on a diet and lost 20 excess pounds, bought a new wardrobe, and most of all, he has new pride in himself, and a new lease on life.

It really has made a big difference in our marriage. Now he takes me out for dinner and dancing when before it was a tug of war.

I just can't say enough for HAIR! HAPPY IN L'VILLE

DEAR HAPPY: The only thing that can top it is a HAT!

DEAR ABBY: In your answer regarding how one addresses women in the professions, I wish you had gone on to explain titles for women, generally. Many people are often confused as to the use and meaning of the English-language "MRS." which is a corruption of "mistress of," designating a wife. Perhaps you could print the following, for clipping and reference by secretaries, editors, etc.

Mary Jones is "Mary Jones" or "Miss Mary Jones."

When she marries, she is "Mrs. John Brown," "Mary Brown," "Mary Jones Brown."

When widowed, she is EXACTLY the same!

When divorced, she is "Mary Jones-Brown" or "Mrs. Jones Brown."

There is no such entity as "MRS. MARY BROWN." ROSEMARY IN N. Y.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69766, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Rites solemnized April 3 at St. Edward's Catholic Church united-in-marriage Dianna Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cooper, and Richard Schuler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schuler.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edmund Cody performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with two white baskets filled with flowers.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a floor-length bouffant gown of acetate and nylon lace with a tiered front. The gown was enhanced with a redingote effect and a court train.

She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Mrs. Carol Clough, Boise, was matron of honor with Shirley Dotson, Twin Falls, as maid of honor. Teena Johnson, TWIN Falls, was bridesmaid.

Greg Clough, Boise, served as best man with Gary Cooper, brother of the bride, and Don Goodwin, Twin Falls, as ushers.

Mrs. Jack Obit was organist. A reception was held after the ceremony at the Parish Hall decorated in the bride's colors of yellow and white. Guests were registered by Mrs. Ron Cooper, Boise. Gifts were carried by Ron Cooper and Ike Snopcey.

The bride's table was covered with a two-tiered organza cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Yellow rosebuds and tiny icing white leaves decorated the cake edges. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The cake was flanked by two candelabra containing white candles a silver punch-bowl and a silver coffee service.

Serving the cake was Mrs. Robert Schuler, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Twin Falls-Coffee and punch were served by Mrs. Joy Craig, Betty Snopcey and Mrs. Ike Snopcey, relatives of the bride, all Twin Falls. Roseann Schuler, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Carol Black, Nadine Koepnick and Peggy Whittleklend, Pocatello, were in charge of registering the gifts.

The couple will reside in Boise.

The bride was honored at a lingerie shower by her mother and a miscellaneous shower hosted by Teena Johnson.

TAKING SECOND PLACE to the state queen of Idaho in Division No. 5 at the recent TOPS State Recognition Days in Idaho Falls was Mrs. Gladys Cullip, leader of the Twin Falls Trimmer TOPS Club. Mrs. Cullip received the honor by losing 32 1/2 pounds from Jan. 1 to Dec. 3. She has lost a total of 46 pounds going from a size 18 dress to a size seven.

T. F. Woman Places-Second

Leader of the Twin Falls Trimmer TOPS Club, Mrs. Gladys Cullip, was honored at TOPS State Recognition Days in Idaho Falls recently.

Mrs. Cullip was named second place winner to the state queen of Idaho in Division No. 5. She attained this by losing 32 1/2 pounds from Jan. 1 to Dec. 3. She lost the total of 46 pounds going from a size-18 dress to a size 7.

In Idaho Falls she was presented a trophy by Mrs. Jeanne Wynveen, a representative from the National Office in Wisconsin. She was also congratulated by Mrs. Deloris Sims, the state representative.

During the crowning of the state queen it was announced that TOPS members in Idaho have lost the total of 24,700 pounds in 1969.

More than 500 TOPS club members attended the two-day convention and participated in workshops and programs.

This is the second year for the Twin Falls Trimmer TOPS Club to have a winner at SRD. Last year, Mrs. Marjorie Kramer was runner up in Division No. 4.

Next year's SRD will be held in Moscow, Idaho.

Twin Falls Trimmer TOPS Club met recently in room No. 4 at the YWCA. Group members who attended SRD days in Idaho Falls gave reports.

The weekly queen was Elaine Schmidt with a loss of 6 pounds. Anyone wanting to join the club may contact Mrs. Cullip at 733-6111.

Beta Sigma Phi Has Auction Meet

RUPERT — Beta Sigma Phi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held an auction recently at home of Mrs. Nancy Jones. All items were made and donated by the chapter members including baby clothing, wall plaques, paper and feather flowers, candles, knitted house slippers, childrens blouses, cookies and pies.

Proceeds from the auction will be used by the chapter to assist Barbara Burks in attending Girls' State and for learning books for the Opportunity School in Rupert.

Mrs. Larry Wright was the auctioneer, assisted by Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Larry Duff served as general chairman of the auction.

Special guests were: Mrs. Jeanne Pauls and Mrs. Barbara Pauls, both, Pocatello; Mrs. Hilda Parker, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Bernice Nelsen, Monticello, Utah; Mrs. LeMont Herbold, a member of Alpha Zeta Chapter, and Mrs. LaPage Layton and Mrs. Clarence Bishop, both Burley, and members of Xi Omega Chapter.

Special prizes were awarded to Mrs. Gary Asson, Burley; Mrs. Gary Newton, Rupert, and Mrs. Jeanne Pauls, Pocatello.

Spring Piano

Recital Slated

FILER — Mrs. Emil Bernard will present a spring piano recital at 8 p.m. May 12 in the Filer LDS Ward Chapel.

The piano forte will be dedicated to National Music Week, sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs, and parents and friends are invited to attend.

Pupils taking part include Gloria Davis, Judy Davis, Leona Wright, Tawni Blades, Becky Brennan, Janeane Hahn, Janet Luker, Roy Moisee, Theresa Andrews, Billie Jo Pickett and Edward Pickett.

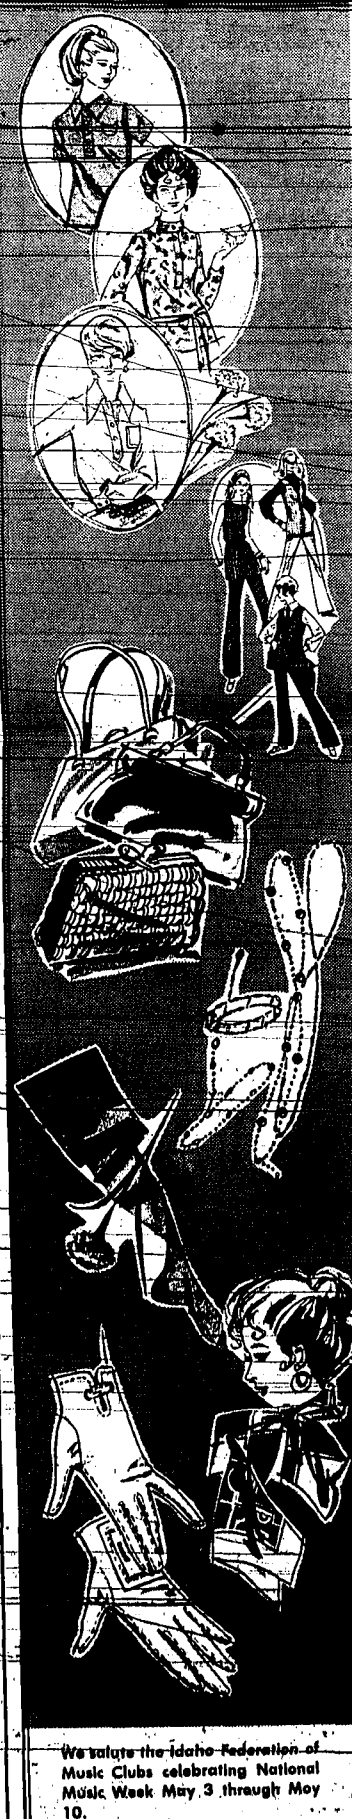

TRY RUTABAGAS

Cutting corners on round vegetables can make them seem menu-new. Rutabagas, for one. Cut them into square-end 1/4-inch strips, and cook only until tender-crisp; 6 to 8 minutes. To renew their flavor, add sugar to the cooking water. In the same amount as salt, serve with a bit of butter or margarine and for contrast a good sprinkle of cracked black pepper.

A JEROME COED at Idaho State University, Lann Brackebury, left, won the title of Miss Rodeo ISU during the Idaho State University Intercollegiate Rodeo last weekend at the Bannock County Fairgrounds. A freshman physical education major at ISU, Miss Brackebury is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brackebury, Jerome. Absorbed in the contest, Miss Brackebury, right, are Leslie Anderson, Blackfoot, and Sheri Nanninga, Pocatello, runners-up in the contest. Miss Brackebury also placed fourth in barrel racing and third in breakaway roping. Tom Hutchinson, Buhl, was rodeo chairman. The Boise State Men's team placed first in overall points and the Weber State Women's team placed first among the cowgirls.

Growers Rap Potato Processor

BURLEY Potato processors are "gull refusing to recognize growers' rightful request for a cost of production increase on pre-season contracts for 1970," says Tom Parr, vice president in charge of bargaining for Potato Growers of Idaho, Inc. "We have been informed by a representative of the J. B. Simplot Co., Mr. Parr said, "that they intend to take their contract to the growers as they did last year. This contract was refused by the growers because of substandard contract terms. "If we submit to this processor pressure, we stand to lose the basic gains made last year which were so helpful to the growers and beneficial to the economy of the state. "If our request was unreasonable, processors rejection of our proposal would be understandable, but processors attitude over such a small increase indicates that factors other than monetary are motivating their moves at this time."

"Happy Holly" Discharged

Holly Houfburg, Kimberly, well-known Magic Valley radio and television personality, said today he is no longer associated with KLIX Radio in Twin Falls. Mr. Houfburg said he was discharged from his position as station manager because of a conflict over programming changes.

THOSE SMALL IMPORTANT DETAILS

Each White service is the result of infinite care and consideration for even the smallest details. Whatever the request, we want the family to feel free to bring it to our attention so that we can include it in the arrangements.

News Of Servicemen

PO Patrick V. Dickard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Dickard, Kimberly, has been promoted to the rank of petty officer third class while serving as a boiler tender aboard the U. S. S. Gray, stationed at Bremerton, Wash. PO Dickard is also serving in the capacity of logroom yeoman aboard the vessel, which will return to the home port at San Diego, Calif., in the near future. He has recently returned to duty after a visit with his parents, at which time he brought his wife, the former Dixie Smith, and their son Tod, to live in Twin Falls.

U. S. Air Force Maj. Melvin R. Jaramillo, son of Mr. Jaramillo, Wendell, has arrived for duty at Chuan Kang Air Base, Taiwan. He is a C-130 navigator, assigned to the 24th Tactical Airlift Squadron.

FIELDS

Ellen G. Green, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Green, Shoshone, has received a promotion to specialist Fourth Class in the Women's Army Corps. She received her eagle stripes from Maj. Ted W. Kelly, assistant chief of administrative services division in the office of the Adjutant General at Presidio of San Francisco, Calif. Miss Green was graduated from Carey High School in 1968 and entered the Army in April, 1969. She is assigned as a clerk typist to the Adjutant General's Office.

Second Lt. James R. Fields, U.S. Army, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Price Holloway, Filer, is presently receiving airborne training at Ft. Benning, Ga., prior to leaving for Vietnam July 1, where he will serve as a Vietnamese military advisor. In the special training program he will be introduced to jungle survival at Ft. Sherman in Panama. He was commissioned at Ft. Benning Aug. 1, 1969, and since then has served at Ft. Riley, Kans., as a mechanized infantry platoon leader and as the primary trial counsel for the 24th Division's Second Brigade. He graduated in 1961 from the Filer High School and from the University of Idaho in 1965.

Sgt. Michael N. Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Schroeder, Buhl, has received the U. S. Air Force Commendation Medal for meritorious service at Phu Cat Air Base, Vietnam.

Sgt. Schroeder, an aircraft maintenance specialist, was presented the award at McChord Air Force Base, Wash., where he is now assigned to the 62nd Organizational Maintenance Squadron. He was graduated from Buhl High School in 1965.

John H. Rue, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Rue, Buhl, has been promoted to staff sergeant in the U. S. Air Force.

Sgt. Rue, a security policeman, is assigned to Fairchild Air Force Base, Wash., and is in the 92nd Strategic Aerospace Wing, a unit of the "Strategic Air Command." He was graduated from Buhl High School in 1967.

Awards Given At Murtaugh's Annual PTA Sponsored Event

STUDENTS AT SHOSHONE High School cleaned streets and alleys during a Cleanup day last week. A thorough canvass was taken of the community with trucks, and then the youthful workers used shovels and rakes to clean out debris. They were especially thanked by the older people in the community whose yards they visited and cleaned during the day's work. The cleanup effort is part of a continuing program throughout Magic Valley in connection with recent emphasis on pollution and environmental quality being given nationwide attention with the observances of Earth day.

MURTAUGH — Citizenship awards at the Murtaugh High School have been presented to Gordon Graff, valedictorian, and Terri Hulse, salutatorian. Awards for academic and athletic achievement and attendance and cheerleading recognition were presented at the annual PTA-sponsored awards banquet attended by a capacity crowd.

Super First Prize presented Carla Christensen and Cathy Perkins awards for 11 years of perfect attendance. Mrs. Gerald Wignall, home economics instructor, presented the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award to Miss Christensen. The Chicago award for the outstanding home economics student went to Sheila Bessire. Miss Perkins received a five-piece place setting of sterling silver as the outstanding senior girl. Mrs. Lavere Bennett, drill team advisor, presented pins to girls participating in drill team, Pep club and cheerleader. Girls track awards were presented by Mrs. Harold Savage. Lavere Lambert, a member of the Mercury's women's service club, was recognized for giving the most service to the school. Outstanding athlete awards went to Greg Stanger and Theron Nebeker, with football and basketball letters presented by Coach Percy Christensen. Kenneth Renshaw, music and Spanish teacher, presented awards in band and chorus and awarded honors to Gordon Graff, Miss Perkins and Dana Silvers in Spanish.

A special student director award was given Martin Wright who presented pins to Pop hand members. Clyde Hunter, vocational agriculture instructor presented Jim Cooper the senior agriculture award and Dana Silvers the FFA chapter leadership award. Gary Goodman, who received membership award in the Morrison and Lucky Boursin for their sugar beet projects and Stuart Tolman for his bean project. DeVon Andersen presented the Outstanding Teen-ager Danforth Foundation I Dare You award to Terry Hulse and Larry High. Lavere Bennett, junior high principal, presented awards to his students including Bill Graff, Melvin Meyer and Kelly Biggers who, with Martin Wright, Keyson Gunnell, Jennifer Buel and Marlene Lattimer, made 93 per cent on national tests.

MRS. MARY LOWEN is crowned Grandmother of the Year by Mrs. Barbara Roberts, last year's grandmother, at the annual Grandmothers' tea sponsored by the Gooding Civic Club. The event was held at the Lincoln Inn and Mrs. Lowen was chosen from a field of 10 candidates, nominated by various church and civic groups.

Viola Smith, Burley, Named LPN Of Year

BURLEY — Mrs. Viola Smith, Burley, has been selected as the Licensed Practical Nurse for District No. 13 and will represent the district at the state meeting in June at Pocatello.

Utah Man Cited For Accident

BURLEY — Eddie William Ernst, 53 Salt Lake City, was cited for failure to yield the right of way following a pickup and motorcycle accident at 12:10 p. m. Monday on Overland Ave.

Mr. Ernst, driving a 1969 Datsun pickup truck was parked on the west side of street on Overland Avenue, and made a turn across four lanes of traffic into Wes Welding Shop, police said. The truck collided with a 1968 Kawasaki motorcycle driven by Bruce James, 15, 500 E. 5th St., Burley. Damage was $500 to the pickup and $500 to the motorcycle. Burley City Police investigated.

Mrs. Lawton Is Honored At Wendell

WENDELL — Mrs. Hazel Lawton was guest of honor at the April meeting of the Hub City PTA. Mrs. Lawton is retiring this spring after 25 years of teaching in the Wendell school system, most of which was spent as home economics teacher at the high school.

Robert Smith, president, introduced Mrs. M. V. Klinger, Gooding district first vice president, who served as installing officer. Mrs. William Graub was installed as president; Richard Thomas, vice president; Mrs. Donald Beach, secretary, and Mrs. Lloyd Little, treasurer.

The Nominating committee was Ed Otton, Mrs. Campbell, and Leland Hanson.

The program was presented by the Elementary school band under the direction of Tom Haggerty. The band is made up of fifth and sixth grade students. Mr. Haggerty demonstrated the learning process used from beginning band to the present stage of development. Mrs. Russell Hawks was program chairman.

Wendell Man To Get Doctorate

WENDELL — A. Leon Hanson, son of Robert C. Hanson and Mrs. Lettie Magericks, Murray, Utah, will receive a Doctor of Dental Surgery degree from Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., June 13.

A graduate of the Wendell High School in 1956, he served in the navy as a radioman and received his bachelor's degree from San Jose University, Calif. He and his wife live in West Chicago. He will practice part time and be an assistant professor at Northwestern.

Sneeze Could Disrupt Communication

BURL — "Don't sneeze or you could lose a flock of communications circuits or a tone generator!"

These words of advice are given to telephone people who are working with today's miniaturized systems and parts so small that they look like a small dot on a fingernail, according to Buhl, Mountain Bell manager, Warren C. Saunders.

recently designed a tone generator that is 1/8 inch by 1/8 inch by 1/16 inch weighing a fraction of an ounce. There are thousands of a square inch each contains four complete diodes, Saunders said. Benefits of the more-new integrated circuits for Bell Telephone researchers have shown on such things as small gain of power. Even though they are only five-computers, radars, television

2 Elmore Youths Get Jail Terms

GLENN'S FERRY — Two Glenn's Ferry youths found guilty of furnishing and selling narcotics have been sentenced to 30 days in jail in separate hearings in the Elmore County Probate Court.

Mike Jones, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Jones, and Larry Firebaugh, also 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Firebaugh, appeared before Judge Justice Proshold.

Upon imposing sentence upon the two, Judge Proshold suspended two weeks of the jail term and ordered that the boys serve the balance of the 30-day sentence in jail. She also ordered them to write and submit to her a 1,500 word theme on the harmful effects of narcotics; observe a 9 p. m. curfew and report to the Probation officer every other week.

Jones is currently serving his sentence, but Firebaugh's attorney is appealing his case to district court. The attorney is Alan Wilson of Mountain Home.

Valley Traffic Courts

Irl C. Duffy, Bellevue, was fined $12 by Lincoln County Probate Judge C. M. Wilson, for speeding.

Jeff Farguharson, Hatley, paid $10 of his fine on charge of passing over a double line after having served three days of the fine in the county jail.

VOLCANO ERUPTS REYKJAVIK, Iceland (UPI) — A major volcanic eruption late Tuesday for the first time since 1948, sending clouds of smoke and cinders into the skies 70 miles southeast of this Icelandic capital. Hundreds of persons from Reykjavik drove near the mountain to watch.

In the Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "The Mikado," the land-high executioner has a list of people who would never be missed if he executed them.

We have our own list of bridge players who never will be missed. First and foremost is the dealer who looks over dummy and makes some remark about its strength or lack of strength. Not that we object to a polite "thank you, partner" when he puts down the dummy.

South was one of those talkers. He looked at dummy for a microsecond and remarked, "It looks as if we haven't bid enough."

turned to his hand by ruffing either a club or diamond at trick eight and played out his trump in the last try. He could not have made the grand slam against a trump lead because he would not be able to ruff-out his last heart.

There were dozens of ways to make the small slam, but South was able to work out a way to go down. Of course, a really bad player could have gone down by drawing trumps b o f o r getting ahead to ruff hearts, but South wasn't that bad.

His losing line of play was to cash his ace and king of clubs and ace of hearts before doing anything else. Then he led a heart with dummy's eight and at this point, South had a guaranteed way to make six. He could cross-ruff with high trumps but South was still thinking about seven. He ruffed a diamond with a low trump, ruffed another heart and ruffed another diamond. Low West overruffed and led a diamond and South had lost the slam away.

MORE MURDERS are committed by men who are 34 years old than by men of any other age.

STEWARDESSES - Airline stewardesses are apt to get blue. Very blue. In fact, a French medical fellow named Dr. Claude J. Blanc claims few girls in their 20s suffer depression as often as do the stewardesses.

NOW IT'S REPORTED - that major metropolitan area wherein lives the greatest concentration of single men in Boston. Statisticians say 20 per cent of the population thereabouts is comprised of bachelors. Most are students, I believe.

RESEARCHERS are trying to trace some significance in the fact that Americans now are buying 10 times as many snowshoes as they bought 10 years ago.

CUSTOMER SERVICE - Q. Who writes Spiro Agnew's speeches? A. Am told that's a 32-year-old Baltimore blonde named Cynthia Rosenwald.

A GERMAN SCIENTIST insists his studies prove that roosters can talk. He has distinguished seven rooster words, he claims - interesting. What do you suppose these seven words are? This merits further research.

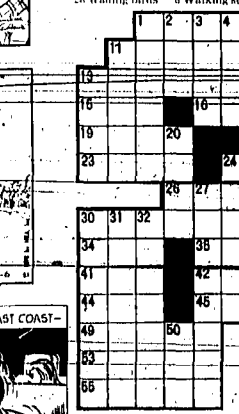

AN ODDITY - Of the approximately 25 different kinds of balls used in playing games, which is the most difficult to manufacture? That's right, the golf ball.
