crossed into south Lebanon in search of Palestine guerrillas and clashed with regular Lebanese army troops.

The third such raid in 24 hours in retaliation for Egyptian artillery barrages that killed seven Israeli soldiers.

Viet Force Of 13,000 Battles Cambodia Foe

SAIGON (UPI)—South Vietnam said several thousand of its troops withdrew from Cambodia today, with about 15,000 others reported battling their way up the Mekong River to link up with Cambodian soldiers who captured the town of Tontle Bet.

American troops there past the June 30 withdrawal deadline and "until the end of the war." South Vietnamese headquarters said the troops withdrew from the cross-border offensive this morning from a thrust along Cambodia's coast that got to within 15 miles of Kompong Som, formerly Sihanoukville, and then stopped.

Government spokesmen would not specify how many were brought out, saying only they left slightly fewer than 40,000 South Vietnamese troops in Cambodia along with about 10,000 Americans.

The focus of the war remained in Cambodia, where the foreign minister, Yem Sambour, said he is going to ask President Nixon to keep American troops there.

Reports from Phnom Penh said Cambodian troops captured Tontle Bet, 50 miles northeast of Saigon, Sunday after virtually destroying it with artillery. About 200 Communist troops who had held it for a week. Casualties were not reported.

Rogers Joins NATO Nations In Seeking Troop Accord

ROME (UPI)—Secretary of State William P. Rogers and other foreign ministers from North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) nations today explored ways of getting the Soviets to agree to a mutual reduction of forces in Europe.

Wednesday. Adding urgency to the discussions are European fears of a major American troop pullout from Europe in mid-1971 and reports the Soviets are moving toward a showdown in the Middle East.

The NATO nations are seeking "mutual and balanced" troop cutbacks in Europe that would require the Communist bloc nations to withdraw more troops than the NATO allies since they have more ground forces in Europe.

Mayor Says Negro Riot Was Minor

JACKSON, Ga. (UPI)—Mayor C. B. Brown Jr. figured today that a destructive rampage by 300 blacks was more of a temper tantrum than the "revolution" seen by Gov. Lester Maddox.

"It's just a minor, little ol' thing," Brown said of the rock-throwing, window-smashing, fire-setting melee that brought 40 riot-equipped state troopers into this middle Georgia town Sunday night.

The rioters were slightly hurt by rocks and three persons were arrested. The troopers, dispatched by Maddox to the town of 5,000 about 50 miles south of Atlanta, fired their shotguns only twice both times into the air when they were pelted with rocks and bottles.

Nixon Plans Probe Of Violence

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The White House said today President Nixon will set up a special commission to investigate campus unrest generally and stayings at Kent State University and Jackson State College in particular.

The commission is expected to be composed of several prominent Americans possibly including Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower as chairman. The makeup is expected to be announced some time this week.

Although the announcement was the first positive move since contracts at the four major city rallies expired March 30, the printers said they expect negotiations with the other newspapers—the Daily News, the Post and the Long Island Press—would be more difficult. Nine other unions have been negotiating with the publishers, but the Times printers settlement was expected to set a basic pattern for the 15,000 workers involved.

Rainstorms, Wind Spread Woe In U.S.

By United Press International

Thunderstorms and shower deluges scattered in scattered areas from the Central and Southern Rockies across the Great Plains to the Midwest, and eastward to the Atlantic Coast today. Some of the rains were accompanied by winds and hail.

At Raymondville, in the Rio Grande Valley of Texas, all power and telephone lines were knocked out Sunday evening after winds estimated at 90 miles an hour hit the town. A trailer with all persons inside was blown over and a 6-year-old boy was injured, but not seriously. The cotton crop there was ruined.

Huge Jet Hit By Explosion

ATLANTA (UPI)—A giant CSA transport plane, the electrical power shorted out by an onboard explosion, made an emergency landing at Dobbins Air Force Base Sunday night.

The world's largest airplane landed without incident despite its lack of landing lights. The CSA, carrying a crew of seven, had taken off for Altus Air Force Base in Oklahoma and had been in the air about 55 minutes when crewmembers heard an "onboard explosion" that caused an electrical failure.

Air Force officials and engineers from Lockheed-Georgia, builders of the plane, began an immediate investigation to determine the damage and the cause of the malfunction.

Agnew Asks Cure Of Cancer

HOUSTON (UPI)—Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said Sunday any country that can send men to the moon can afford to improve its rate of curing patients of cancer.

But he also said socialized medicine was not the answer. Agnew keyed the opening session of the 10th International Cancer Congress. He then flew back to Washington, ending his two-day visit to the South's largest city.

There was no announcement of the attack from Israel, but it appeared to be the Israel retaliation for the guerrilla ambush of an Israeli school bus on Friday that killed 12 persons, eight of them children, and wounded 20.

Reports from Beirut said residents of southern Lebanon were fleeing the area even before the latest attack in fear of more fighting.

The Egyptian spokesman in Cairo said an Egyptian patrol crossed the canal late Sunday and caught an Israeli armored patrol in ambush early today south of the Bitter Lakes area.

'Times' Has Signed Pact With Union

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Times and its printers agreed Sunday on a tentative contract with wage increases of 41.69 per cent over a three-year period, plus a cost-of-living clause, and a unique clause providing for termination of the agreement if federal wage-price controls are imposed.

By early Monday when the pair failed to return, a search from the air was launched by family members and friends and Twin Falls County Sheriff's officers were notified.

ISU Prexy Denies Pay Hike Story

POCATELLO (UPI)—Idaho State University President William E. Davis has denied that 37 professors are in line for 33 per cent pay increases.

Gov. Don Samuelson and Director of Administrative Services Edward W. Sawyer reportedly directed the Legislative Budget and Fiscal Committee to meet with the Idaho Board of Education to discuss the pay hikes. At the same time confirmation was allegedly given that the pay hikes had been approved.

Davis said the raises would come as a surprise to those mysterious faculty members. I wish someone would let me know whose salaries are in question so we can discuss them at our next board meeting.

The university president said when the salary hikes were approved that the university administration "made special pains to make sure the board of education's attention was drawn to raises that were out of the ordinary."

Davis said the American Association of University Professors has rated the Idaho pay so low that it almost fails off the scale.

The committee, under the direction of Samuelson and Sawyer, will meet with the board of education to discuss the allegations made in Sawyer's letter to the governor and committee.

Question . . .

I attended a funeral recently at your Mortuary and thought the music was quite appropriate. Were the musicians on your staff?

Answer . . .

Like flowers—music at a funeral service is intended to soften the harsh reality of occasion. We are gratified to know this purpose was accomplished when you were here. Music at a funeral and the choice of hymns is optional with the family. It is their choice whether we have organ music only or whether we have organ, choir and soloists, or perhaps no music at all.

At the White Mortuary we have our own staff organist and soloist. Without any additional cost these very capable people are available for funerals conducted in our service rooms. Frequently friends of family or musicians from one of the local churches volunteer their services as an act of kindness to the church. Whenever a funeral is held in a church the clergyman arranges the proper music according to the policy of his religious denomination.

Comment Health Crisis

San Francisco Chronicle When the well-to-do find personal health services unavailable...

Members of the study group reported that this country can make sense of its chaotic medical system only if health care is considered a basic right for everyone

Also, they said, it will mean universal health insurance; and the incorporation of physicians into health-care teams...

Wasted Fuel

Idaho Falls Post-Register In a highly interesting demonstration the other day, the Continental Oil Company used two cars to drive home one very important point to U.S. motorists.

A hose was hooked up from the tailpipe of one car to the carburetor of the other car...

Forget any ideas about rigging up an exhaust collector for use in traffic. The first experimental car was purposely adjusted for maximum gasoline wastage...

Cars with broken distributor caps; cars with completely inoperative spark plugs; cars with extremely dirty engines; and one man who complained about his engine burning oil yet had never had his car serviced in three years.

Could it be, the students ask, that some of the same people who have been blaming Detroit's engineers for environmental pollution have allowed their automobiles to degenerate by neglect?

How many people, they ask, would have attended the clinic had labor costs been added? How many of those turned away had their cars tuned elsewhere?

In short, conclude the students, "It should be emphasized that it is the owner's responsibility to maintain an automobile, not only for his own interests but also for the well-being of the community."

And if the well-being of the community doesn't grab you, just remember the Conoco experiment and think about all that lovely, unburned — paid-for — gasoline that might be escaping from your tailpipe.

WASHINGTON — The special House Judiciary subcommittee to investigate Justice William O. Douglas is studying a comprehensive letter spelling out in detail how this potentially explosive probe should be conducted.

Author of this significant exposition is Rep. Louis Wyman, R-N.H., who was largely responsible for setting the investigation in motion. Former attorney general of his home state and one-time general counsel of the Senate Committee on Campaign Expenditures, Wyman has had extensive investigative experience.

In his seven-page letter, Wyman vigorously urges attention to the following: — The subcommittee obtain and carefully examine Justice Douglas' financial records, including income tax returns.

— Similar records be obtained from Albert Parvin and the Parvin Foundation, which Douglas headed for seven years at $12,765 per annum. Most of the foundation's income derived from Las Vegas gambling operations.

Douglas to be "invited" to appear before the subcommittee for interrogation regarding these records and accounts and various published and other charges against him. — All witnesses to testify under oath. This should apply to members of Congress, a number of whom have significant intention to testify.

Nixon's Beard

WASHINGTON — The widening breach between President Nixon and the Senate over the use of U.S. troops in Cambodia was quietly revealed one day last week when a Republican senator abruptly cancelled an appointment in his office with a White House aide.

The Senator, a political moderate from the Midwest, gave a "scheduled conflict" as the reason, but the real reason was more fundamental. He did not want to waste time explaining to the Presidential aide, that nothing could change his mind about supporting the amendment to compel Mr. Nixon to withdraw all U.S. troops from Cambodia by June 30.

Another Republican moderate, also from the party's Middle West heartland, told us that he had no qualms at all about voting to impose the June 30 deadline in the amendment of the Republican Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and Democratic Sen. Frank Church of Idaho to the Military Sales Act.

"Sure! I'll hurt the President," he told us, "but damn it, he brought it on himself!" Even such conservative pillars of the Republican establishment as Sen. Norris Totten of New Hampshire are now leaning toward the Cooper-Church amendment, partly to protect the Committee's intervention, partly to assert Senatorial prerogatives.

Furthermore, all but overlooked in the bitter political struggle over the Cooper-Church amendment is the fact that the increasingly hostile Foreign Relations Committee has made other, far-reaching changes in the Military Sales Act, drastically cutting the power of the executive branch. These were slipped into the House-passed bill last week.

he ordered a counterpart fund to be set up in foreign countries receiving excess U.S. military equipment, for the first time treating surplus arms sales in the same way that surplus food sales have been handled for years.

All these amendments were passed by the Foreign Relations Committee after the Cambodian intervention, and all passed without any opposition vote.

The Privy Sages

WASHINGTON — Here and there, assorted self-appointed sages and ex-officio privy councillors have reviled the notion that legislation be enacted establishing a democratic nobility based on achievement in various fields, not — presumably — including the used car dodge.

The complaint is that the Medal of Freedom is the only civilian decoration bestowed on civilians by a grateful government, and that it would be fitting and proper to set up a knighthood-of-distinguished citizens. One of the arguments is that it would encourage selfless initiative to the benefit of the commonweal, and might even persuade the more aimless young to seek steady employment.

Edward was living it up at a party one night, dancing with a girl named the Countess of Salisbury, when the countess's garter dropped off. Naturally, this caused the countess considerable embarrassment; in those days females were much more mysterious about their inner limbs. But before she was half way through her first blush, Ed stooped down, picked up the garter and put it on a royal leg, pretending it was his own.

At the same time, gallant old King Baby quoted a French proverb, "Honi soit qui mal y pense," which can be roughly translated into Americanness as "Any bunn who makes something of this is a bun."

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Growing Taller

Dear Dr. Thosteson: One of my high school teachers said that eating meat will make people grow taller as it increases growth and strength of bones because of its protein content.

Your teacher is essentially correct, but you may be jumping to conclusions that he didn't mean to imply. Meat is a high-protein food, and protein provides the amino acids, or "biological building blocks," which are necessary for growth and later on for replacement of the cells of which the body is made up.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am usually bothered by summer temperature about 80 degrees, experience the same, and I languor than those around me. I have heard that salt tablets may help relieve this. Is this true? If so, in what amount and how often? — B. M.

Salt tablets may relieve some of this, especially if you perspire excessively. Usually one tablet a day is all one needs.

Note to R. I. I definitely do not approve of using thyroid or similar substances for reducing, unless tests in advance show that the individual's thyroid is underactive and the system needs such medication.

What are ulcers? How should they be treated? What can you do to help rid yourself of ulcers and stay rid of them? For answers, read Dr. Thosteson's helpful booklet, "How To Heal Peptic Ulcers and Keep Them Healed." For your copy write to Dr. Thosteson in care of Times-News, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters.

Free Cooking School Stated In Sun Valley

SUN VALLEY — "Americans are still not the connoisseurs of good food and cooking that the Europeans are," says Peter Schott, Sun Valley's young Austrian chef. "But they are starting to appreciate gourmet cooking and we are doing our best to help educate them," adds Philippe Held, Swiss chef, who has leased the Christiana Restaurant in Ketchum.

These two chefs, with Blaine County's veteran Polish chef, Walt Kapella, and Felix Gonzales, from Spain, now chef at the Ram at Sun Valley, will demonstrate their specialties at the free cooking show on the terrace of the lodge on May 26 at 2 p.m.

The show is under the direction of Fran Hopper, special representative of the Intermountain Gas Co. and Ed Pilkerton, director of food and beverages, Sun Valley. According to Pilkerton, each of the chefs will prepare two recipes as they might be adapted for outdoor cooking on a gas barbecue grill. Gas barbecues, he pointed out, were growing in popularity in fact are optional equipment for the 46 new Esplan Meadow condominiums under construction at the present time at Sun Valley.

Although Blaine County women have long been famous for their cooking a large number of the members of the women's clubs are expected to turn out to see how the experts do it and collect their recipes. A generous money prize is offered to the club having the best attendance.

Peter Schott will demonstrate the preparation of Filet of Beef Wellington, a masterpiece with filet of beef with sauce Duxelles, cooked in puff paste; and Omelette Lorraine, a cheese omelette with bacon and onions as well as Salzburger Nockerl, the ultimate in light Austrian desserts. Walt Kapella will show the proper way to cook escargot Bourgulgionne and the grilled rack of lamb that has long been his specialty.

Philippe Held will show how he grills a veal cutlet and serves it with watermelon butter and the secret of his Vichyssoise, a delightful chilled soup, when properly made of potatoes, chicken broth and leeks.

Felix Gonzales has also chosen a cold soup Gaspacho Andaluz, and your culinary art is not up to date this season unless you can mix a proper blender in your electric blender. Held will also prepare Paella Valenciana, chicken with saffron rice, which will make the main dish of a company barbecue.

PREPARING FOR THE forthcoming free cooking school on the terrace of the Sun Valley Lodge are committee members, from left, Mrs. Bud Purdy, Mrs. Charles Hedemack and Mrs. W. D. Martindale. The show is under the direction of Fran Hopper, special representative of the Intermountain Gas Co., and Ed Pilkerton, director of food and beverages, Sun Valley, and is set for May 26.

When working with interior or exterior latex paints, it's a good idea to wash the brush in clean water occasionally. This will prevent quick-drying latex paint from building up and hardening at the base of the brushes. When you have finished work for the day, thoroughly wash all brushes so they will be clean and ready for the next day's use.

SCLC Plans Drive

ATLANTA (UPI)—The Southern Christian Leadership Conference announced Sunday that it would launch a summer community organization and political education program aimed at defeating some of its "ten most unwanted politicians in America."

"We are in the process of recruiting students who want to work against repression and against the war in Vietnam," said Hosea Williams, a SCLC lieutenant who led a five-day, 110-mile march through Georgia climaxed with a rally here Saturday.

President Nixon and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew are included on the list read off Saturday by SCLC President Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy at the rally that drew a crowd estimated at 8,000 persons in 90-degree plus temperatures.

Besides President Nixon and Vice President Agnew, the list included Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox, Rep. Mendel Rivers, D.S.C., Sen. Strom Thurmond, D.S.C., Sen. John Stennis, D.Miss., Rep. John McMillan, D.S.C., Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., California Gov. Ronald Reagan and Newark Mayor Hugh Addonizio.

High Winds Rip Northern Utah

BOUNTIFUL, Utah (UPI)—Blustery winds in northern Utah battered by 100 mile an hour winds Sunday began cleaning up ripped off roofs, toppled trailers and trees, and shattered windows from a storm which injured 27 persons.

A four-year-old boy suffering a concussion remained hospitalized.

Black dust-swollen winds coming off the Great Salt Lake and gusting to 100 miles an hour Saturday were followed by a hail storm so violent sea gulls were knocked out of the sky.

The storm, which the weather bureau said may have accompanied a tornado although no funnel was sighted, caused tens of thousands of dollars of damage in Centerville, Farmington, Woods Cross, North Salt Lake and Bountiful. Estimates were still being tabulated Sunday.

Hospitals in Bountiful and Salt Lake City, 10 miles to the south, treated 27 persons, most of them sprayed with glass and splinters when the wind blasted out windows.

Jeff Nolle, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Nolle of Salt Lake City, was most seriously hurt. He suffered a severe concussion when a piece of plywood hit his head after the wind tore it off a Scout exhibit at an amusement park.

The wind partially lifted the roof of the Bountiful post office, then rolled it back like a blanket. A soft drink stand was demolished, the roofs of some homes were blown to the ground still intact while shingles were ripped from other rooftops, five house trailers were blown over—trees were snapped and knocked over, and power lines were severed, leaving some areas without power for up to three hours.

One hundred persons turned out to nail plywood over holes

Small Problems

PORTLAND, Maine (UPI)—Small problems were the topic this weekend at the annual convention of the "Little People of America" midgets and dwarfs no taller than 4-foot-10. The 50 delegates gathered to socialize and commiserate on common gripes, including too-high telephones in public booths and cars built for long-legged people. They also said they are severely discriminated against in the job market.

However, one member said when he was 18, his 20-year-old brother would take him to movies on a child's half-price ticket. "Of course," he explained, "my brother always made sure I'd shaved first."

Spacesickness

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—A NASA official reports "all our astronauts have suffered in one way or another from space flight." Glen Godwin, director of aeronautics at Ames Research Center, Mountain View, Calif., listed some of the effects as loss of calcium, seasickness from the middle ear, and cooling of the blood. "We still don't know enough about the effects of weightlessness," he told a weekend luncheon at the Apollo-11 command module went on display here.

Group Urges Continued Tax Levy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress should extend indefinitely the 3 per cent income surtax to pay for a comprehensive effort to end poverty, the private National Planning Association said Sunday.

In a statement signed by 83 businessmen, educators, union officials and civic leaders, the association called for a $45 billion increase in spending on anti-poverty programs in the next four years. The report supported the objectives of President Nixon's welfare reform program but said the minimum annual income guarantee of $1,600 for a family of four was inadequate. The President's bill was passed by the House but has run into trouble in the Senate Finance Committee. Cash welfare payments should be increased enough to bring the income of every American above the government's official poverty line "over the next several years," the report said.

Voters Will Decide Fate Of Big Cross

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Voters will decide Tuesday whether to turn a religious symbol into a war memorial. At issue is a 51-foot, modernistic cross standing on Skinner Butte overlooking Eugene. The cross has become a symbol both of Christianity and of a fierce legal struggle over the separation of church and state. Oregon Supreme Court has ordered it removed on grounds the cross is located on public park land and thus is unconstitutional. The city's residents will vote on a measure which would designate the cross a war memorial. The American Legion, which put the item on the ballot with a petition campaign, hopes the change in name will make the cross legally acceptable. Opponents call the change a stain which will be rejected by the court. The cross was erected in 1904 by John Allulucke owner of a sand and gravel company. Lighting of the cross during Christmas and Easter seasons has become a local tradition.

St. Louis Mayor Is Accused Of Links With 'Gangsters'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Life magazine accused St. Louis Mayor Alfonso J. Cervantes Sunday of "business and personal ties with gangsters" operating in his city. Cervantes charged the magazine with "reckless sensationalism" and irresponsible disregard for the truth.

The Life article, written by Denny Walsh, said a year-long investigation showed that "any real drive against organized crime in St. Louis could start with a number of the mayor's own associates."

The magazine named Morris Shenker, an attorney and influential Democrat chosen by Cervantes in January to head his new "commission on crime and law enforcement," and Tony Sansone, a real estate and insurance man.

Shenker said in St. Louis he would issue a reply to the charges for himself and Sansone later Sunday.

Life said Shenker was "the foremost lawyer for the mob in the U.S." It said his clients had included "St. Louis Mafia leaders like Anthony Giardano and John Vitale and union bosses like James Hoffa of the Teamsters and convicted labor racketeer Lawrence Callahan of the St. Louis Steamfitters."

Sansone, described by Life as "the mayor's liaison with the two mobs that run the St. Louis underworld," is the son-in-law of alleged gang leader Jimmy Michaels.

Michaels runs the Syrian mob, an ethnic gang that coexists these days as an ally by treaty with the Sicilian Mafia family in St. Louis headed by Louis Giardano, the magazine said. Through Sansone, Cervantes has sought and received the counsel of this powerful gang leader.

French Deplore Spread Of Indochinese War

(EDITORS NOTE: French Prime Minister Jacques Chaban-Delmas spoke last week with UPI President A. Mims Thomason and chief European correspondent Joseph W. Grig in his first interview with foreign newsmen since taking office nearly a year ago. Their dispatch follows.)

By JOSEPH W. GRIG PARIS (UPI)—Prime Minister Jacques Chaban-Delmas has said France deplores any extension of the Indochina conflict but that U.S. operations in Cambodia have not affected Franco-American relations.

Chaban-Delmas, an slim, tennis-playing 55-year-old, has been responsible for the day-to-day running of France since he took office nearly a year ago. He spoke in an interview last week with a team of UPI correspondents, including UPI President A. Mims Thomason.

"We have made known our position and said that (France) deplores anything that intensifies, prolongs or extends the (Indochina) conflict," he said. "I believe Washington listens to us with interest and likes to swap ideas with us. What has happened in Cambodia has not affected Franco-American relations."

Subject Of Story May File Suit

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—Attorney Morris Shenker said Sunday that he was never interviewed by Life or given a chance to answer allegations made against him in the magazine.

Shenker said he plans to file a suit in federal court against Life "in order to hold them accountable for this irresponsible, selfish journalism."

"But in the reverse direction we would like to see our industrialists develop their expansion in the United States." He said relations between France and China, which France recognized under De Gaulle, lost ground during the cultural revolution.

Chaban-Delmas also made these points: France is glad talks will open soon with Britain on her bid to join the European Common Market. Britain has made a "courageous choice" he said, and he dismissed as "unjustified" American business charges that the Common Market adopts anti-American trade policies.

"We believe an effective attack on poverty cannot be founded with the prospective federal tax resources," the association said. It recommended "continuing for the foreseeable future the surtax at 3 per cent."

Technicians Commended In Rites

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Emmy Awards were presented Saturday night to the men behind the scenes of the television industry by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

The National Broadcasting Co. received the most emmys, 12, with the Columbia Broadcasting System following with eight, and the American Broadcasting Co. receiving 5. National Educational Television received one.

NBC's Kraft Hall's presentation of "The Sound of Burt Bacharach" garnered three awards. It was cited for outstanding achievements in music direction of a variety musical or dramatic program.

The Huntley-Brinkley report won two for outstanding achievements in cinematography and film editing for news and documentary programming.

Aaron Snaps 10-Year Jinx, Wins Atlanta Classic By 1 Stroke

ATLANTA (UPI) — Tough luck Tommy Aaron finally broke a 10-year jinx Sunday when he overcame a two-stroke penalty and won the $125,000 Atlanta Golf Classic by one stroke.

It looked like he might fall again Sunday when he called a two-stroke penalty on himself five holes from the end of his round when he had a "mental lapse" and touched his ball while it was lying in a bunker.

That left Aaron, who finished with a 69 for the round and a 13 under par 275 for the tournament tied at that point with third round leader Tom Weiskopf. But Weiskopf returned the favor on the final hole when he

Packard Gets Ace As Bruins Nip Silvertips

A close-out eagle putt due to his nearsightedness, preceded by a hole-in-one and a chip-in birdie by Jimmy Packard didn't see it. "I saw it hit the green and then I lost it," he admitted. How did he know where to shoot? "I could see the green and the flag but I couldn't tell where the ball was," he reports. "I asked Jeff (Thomsen) where it was and he said on the back of the green. I hit it for there." The ball homered on the flag, bounced off and then rolled gracefully into the cup.

It wound up with the Bruins sitting on a two-shot lead over the Silvertips, who weren't that bad and, in fact, gave the youngsters their best test over two years.

McElreath Gains Only Spot As Trials For '500' End

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Jumbo Jim McElreath, a veteran from Texas, became the only Speedway driver to nail down a starting assignment Sunday as qualifications ended for the Memorial Day "500" auto race.

Half dozen unsuccessful attempts were made to crash into the fastest lineup in Speedway history for Saturday's classic, but the combination of hot weather and a lack of experienced drivers failed to "bump" other previously qualified cars.

McElreath drove a car racing by an Indianapolis race combination—a car reared for him by three-time race winner A.J. Foyt, a "Red" Texan.

Angels Top Twins 6-5, Near Division Lead

MINNEAPOLIS, PAUL (UPI) — Sandy Alomar's ninth-inning single scored pinch-runner Jarvis Tatum and gave the California Angels a 6-5 victory over Minnesota Sunday moving them within one-half game of the first place Twins in the American League West.

The fun came for the Twins shipped away at the Angel 5-1 lead and tied it up in the eighth on a triple by George Mitterwald, who also doubled and homered.

Orioles Split BALTIMORE (UPI) — Dick Scott's sacrifice fly scored Tony Conigliato with the winning run in the ninth inning as the Boston Red Sox scored a 4-3 victory Sunday after the Baltimore Orioles won the first game of the doubleheader, 2-1, on Brooks Robinson's 10th-inning homer.

Packard, who started four straight state meets for the last of an unit, past the challenging "silvertips" of the Twin Falls Municipal golf course by two strokes Sunday.

Packard wound up with the medalist pin, shooting a four-under-par 68 while Phil McRoberts, of the eagle fame, wound up at 69. Professional Clyde Hansen, hitting back the putting yips with good birdie putts on the 13th and 14th, came in with 70. Duane Wubker had 73 and Hugh Jefferies carded a 75.

Ryan Spins 2-Hitter, N.Y. Splits With Cubs

NEW YORK (UPI) — Nolan Ryan, making his first appearance in two weeks, allowed only two hits in the nightcap Sunday in pitching the New York Mets to a 3-1 victory after the Chicago Cubs won the opener of the doubleheader, 3-1, behind the combined five-hit pitching of Bill Hands and Phil Regan.

L.A. 8, Braves 1 LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Alan Foster singled in the game's first run and snapped his streak of four straight losses Sunday as he pitched the Los Angeles Dodgers to an 8-1 victory over the Atlanta Braves aided by a four-run rally in the seventh.

Unsuccessful attempts to make the race were made by veterans Arnie Knepper, Dickson, Ill., and Larry Bellington, Marietta, Ohio, and by newcomers Leon (Jigger) Siros, Hammond, Ind.; Sam Posey, Sharon, Conn.; Denny Zimmerman, Glastonbury, Conn., and John Cannon of Montreal.

Solons 6, Tigers 4

Detroit (UPI) — Rick Reichardt's grand slam home run finished off a six-run second inning Sunday and gave Joe Coleman his seventh lifetime victory without a loss as Detroit as the Washington Senators defeated the Tigers 6-4.

Chicago (UPI) — The Oakland Athletics swept a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox Sunday, winning the first game, 5-1, on Chuck Dobson's one-hit pitching and taking the second game, 5-2, with the help of Don Mincher's two-run tape measure homer which sailed completely out of White Sox Park.

It was the second ace in two weeks for Packard, who had complained a day earlier about the only member on the high school team without a hole-in-one. He got the first with three zeroes on the tough par three 10th green. But this one came with a lot of witnesses, many seeing their first ace. But McElreath's only spot as he pitched the Los Angeles Dodgers to an 8-1 victory over the Atlanta Braves aided by a four-run rally in the seventh.

Jim: "The ethics of deceptive play at bridge are most unusual. You may play an unusual card in an effort to create a false impression..."

Oswald: "On the other hand a player who takes advantage of an opponent's mannerism is supposed to do so at his own risk."

Jim: "That is within reason. If you lead a suit and an opponent studies carefully and then plays a card which turns out later to be a singleton, you may get redress in a tournament..."

Oswald: "Here is one that did appear before a protest committee at a national championship. West was a top ranking player and naturally enough did not lead his ace of hearts against the spade slam..."

Oswald: "No, he didn't. West found a way out of his difficulty. He continued to hesitate. Then he pulled out a card, put it back, hesitated some more and finally played the nine. South started to do some thinking of his own. Finally he called for dummy's jack and lost his slam. South protested on the grounds that when West hesitated unduly he had done so with the intent of deceiving him."

Jim: "I don't suppose the committee gave South any redress."

Oswald: "No. They laughed him out of court."

LOVE AND WAR - Among the pirates on the sea of matrimony, women outnumber the men considerably. Or so says our Love and War Man. By pirates, he refers to those citizens who break up other people's marriages. Most men tend to keep a hands-off policy towards seemingly happy marriages. But most women, if they pirate at all, are inclined to regard a seemingly happy marriage as a challenge.
