Rotten Egg Cargo Is Scrambled

Two vehicles collided Wednesday morning at Shoshone Street and Fifth Avenue West, resulting in a real "crack-up". Officers said two barrels of rotten eggs landed in the front seat of a Ford van driven by David Lee Schwendeman, 21, Filer, who was completely covered with the gooey mess. A third barrel of eggs landed in the street.

Mr. Schwendeman had picked the eggs up at the Sunny Chick Hatchery in Filer and was taking them to the sanitary land fill near the Twin Falls Airport. The eggs were ones which apparently were not fertile and had not hatched.

The accident occurred when a vehicle driven by Henry J. Bonie, 75, Twin Falls, crossed Shoshone in front of the Ford van.

Office workers in Twin Falls commercial district brought Mr. Schwendeman a chair and worked for several minutes, wiping the rotten eggs from his clothing and face. He later was taken to the Twin Falls Clinic to be treated for minor cuts.

Mr. Bonie was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

MISS TWIN FALLS, Becky Sullivan, sang a medley of songs which she will present at the Miss Idaho pageant June 11-13 at Boise when she appeared Wednesday at the Twin Falls Lions Club meeting. Listening to Miss Sullivan are Dr. Gayland Erickson, chairman of the Miss Twin Falls pageant; and Mrs. Helen Henderson, special advisor for the pageant. Also appearing at the luncheon meeting were six of the 10 contestants who will compete in this year's Miss Twin Falls pageant, which will be a week after the state competition. The Lions Club sponsors the annual competition.

Moon Rock Excites Scientists

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—One of the Apollo 12 moon stones, formed 4.6 billion years ago and the most ancient lunar or earth rock man has ever seen, may help scientists prove all parts of our solar system formed about the same time. The space agency says the iron-size stone is "clearly the oldest rock yet found on the moon," dating back to the time scientists believe the sun and its planets were born. Space agency officials announced discovery of the rock Tuesday and said it was unlike anything else brought back to earth by U.S. moon explorers. They said its chemistry was "unique" and that it was 20 times more radioactive than other lunar samples.

Memorial Day To Be Observed At Traditional Ceremony Here

Twin Falls citizens will observe Memorial Day on Saturday with the annual Memorial Day ceremonies beginning at 11 a. m. in the Twin Falls Cemetery.

Meanwhile, a proclamation by Idaho Gov. Don Samuelson declaring Friday as an official holiday will give some government-office personnel the day off. City, county and state offices will close Friday, but the Twin Falls Post Office will be open for business as usual, including mail deliveries; but there will be no delivery Saturday.

Twin Falls merchants are observing a variety of closures; all stores will be open Friday, downtown department stores will close Saturday, and grocers will be open both Friday and Saturday, although some will observe their usual shorter Sunday hours.

The four Twin Falls banks — Bank of Idaho, Fidelity National Bank, First Security Bank and Twin Falls Bank and Trust — will observe their Friday hours today, staying open until 6 p. m., and closing on Friday.

Twin Falls schools will be open as usual Friday. Dr. Ernest H. Ragland, superintendent of schools, said that the state requirement of 180 days would force the schools to stay open an extra day if they were to close Friday.

The Twin Falls American Legion auxiliary, Steve Blaye, 1969 Idaho and National Boys' State member, will give a reading on Memorial Day, and the veterans' groups will place wreaths including the Spanish-American War Veterans, World War I Barracks 509; Disabled American Veterans, Kimberly-American Legion Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 2135, and Twin Falls Legion Post No. 7.

A band selection will follow, preceding the firing of a salute by a firing squad from the National Guard Headquarters and Headquarters Troop, 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, commanded by Capt. Richard M. Shotwell.

The playing of Taps by Doug Machamer, bugler and Life Scout of Troop 67, will conclude the ceremony.

The public address system to be used during the Memorial Day ceremonies has been donated by the owner, Archie Anderson Sound Co., of Route 3, Jerome.

Current Little Theatre Play Is Fun To Watch

The second production offered by the Magic Valley Little Theatre group is this week's presentation of "Sight Unseen."

The play, from the late '40s, is one from a rash of plays of that time whose spirit is light, funny and fluffy. Immediately after World War II, writers were more concerned with the fun in life than with its problems. And for Americans there was nothing like poking fun at the English! And "Sight Unseen" is just such a piece of work. This play opened Wednesday, and will run nightly at 8:15 through Saturday at the Twin Falls YMCA.

"Sight Unseen" restricts the usual type of theatrical criticism of its literary values and extended character developments. It is peopled with familiar character types whom we enjoy, and who enjoy themselves. Its story lacks complications, and proceeds along much like the very popular radio drama of the time. A situation is set up in the early minutes; in this case an attractive young English lady has to sell her castle to keep the wolf from the door, and what happens after that is only indirectly related to the basic idea. No great decisions are called for, someone is somewhat forcefully interjected, and a running gag takes over until it's time to wind it all up.

The running gag in this case is composed of a family of ghosts who become more real than anyone else. Their task, and scenes and other comic confusions, is to prevent their "home" from being taken over by an unfriendly alien from the real world. The ghostly family is headed by General Elliott, wittily played in buskins, sword and wig by Roger Harvey. He is a rather pipequack military man who should have been an 18th-century actor. Had he been an actor, he might more easily have been able to overcome the bombasts showered on him by an Elizabethan lady, Lady Hortense. Mary Baun carries this character with a high and haughty mien. Like a Scandinavian sage, when she speaks, she is tremble and the general fairly leaps.

The other very real ghosts are Penelope, a young girl who fell to her death at the turn of the 19th Century, and who keeps up a constant search for some fun in "life"; and Matt, who was stabby for the beleaguered general, and who was historically slain along with him during an ambush at the castle. Though not as credible in performance as their elders, Valeta Burke and Kirk Ramsey evoke humor and action in these roles. The others in the company are the real, living characters who have to cope with the comings-and-goings of the ghosts who vary between vision and invisibility. Rhonda Miracle plays the beset young English mistress of the house with the task of the heroine who must decide what is to become of her spiritual friends. Her role, of Judith is performed brightly, most attractively and with lots of bubbly vigor. The two men in her life (apart from the General and Matt) are Archie, a burbling, bothersome one, played with appropriate stuffiness by Phil Wenstrand, and Henry, a young American physicist, played by Dwight Harvey. These three form the core of the play and are a very handsome trio. Each offsets the others clearly in manner and speech patterns, though Mr. Harvey's occasional inaudibility brings his credibility into question.

Equal to the ghostly Lady Hortense is the role of Mr. Malone, a dominant American businessman who has a penchant for the occult, and longs for her own household of spectres and manifestations. And during the chaotic scene scene, it is Mirlam Breckenridge, as Mrs. Malone, who cannily spirits the "spirits." Mrs. Breckenridge moves gracefully about the playing arena, and deftly uses a variety of her role to maneuver the conflict from unsettled to confused to ultimately happy.

In a brief scene at the opening, Diane Pierce appears as a stuffy school matron, and Ardith Briggs breezes throughout the play as the temperamental and all-knowing housekeeper, while Jay Burke appears as the dishwatered "girl" of the "new West!" Helen Gee has given the production, through her direction, a sense of low-key action and freedom rather than arched theatrical discipline. It makes for an evening of easy humor and color. The positive efforts and energies of this newly formed theatre group in the community merit attention and attention.

In short — it's for fun!

Senior Citizens' Seminar Slated Friday

Idaho Congressman Orval Hansen will conduct the final senior citizens' seminar on Friday in Rooms 117-118 of the Shields Academic Building at the College of Southern Idaho, beginning at 2 p. m.

Representatives of federal and state agencies will be on hand to discuss their programs and services. All senior citizens and other interested persons of the Twin Falls area are invited, Rep. Hansen said.

Among those participating will be Glen Karn, Boise, with the state Council on Aging, Office of Economic Opportunity; Fred Garret, former director of the Idaho Department of Employment, and Jack Carlton, manager of the Twin Falls Social Security Administration office.

Rep. Hansen said that nearly 200 senior citizens attended successful seminars in Idaho Falls and Pocatello last week.

The Twin Falls seminar will be concerned principally with inflation, housing problems, transportation needs, and rising health and medical costs.

"Many of our senior citizens do not realize just how many programs are available to assist them," Rep. Hansen said in discussing the need for the seminars. "It is my hope that this forum will provide them with an opportunity to find out about these programs, have their questions answered and let me know if my office can assist them with a particular problem."

A bus will bring Twin Falls senior citizens needing transportation to the seminar, leaving the Pioneer Courts at 1:15 p. m., the Sunnyview Courts at 1:30 and the Duvall Courts immediately after leaving the Sunnyview Courts. All senior citizens are urged to attend the seminar.

FLAG OF HER CITY, Freiburg, Germany, is presented by Angolika Dausas, exchange student, to Twin Falls High School student body president, Steve Flay. Miss Dausas presented the flag during an awards assembly at the school in appreciation for the local school. She has attended classes here this year and will return to Germany shortly after graduation next week.

Change In Policy May Delay Delivery Of Mail From East

A change in mail-handling to transport "surface" mail. At procedures at the Boise Post Office may bring some delay in delivery of out-of-state mail to the Magic Valley, but should present little inconvenience to postal patrons, according to Fred Sanger, Twin Falls Postmaster.

The Boise Post Office serves as a "gateway" or principal distribution center for mail from the Eastern states headed for Southern Idaho, including Twin Falls. The new policy eliminates weekend sorting of out-of-state mail. Thus, there could be a day's delay in delivery of some mail the first part of the week, Mr. Sanger said.

Anyone desiring prompt delivery of out-of-state mail should use air mail for priority handling, Mr. Sanger said. Surface transport will be expedited, but it will always remain the slower service.

The Post Office then, a number of years ago, about contracted with truck lines. All first-class mail traveling more than 750 miles has since been transported by air on a space-available basis, speeding up delivery considerably, Mr. Sanger explained.

Mountain Bell Reaches 250,000-Phone Mark

Mountain Bell this week reached a milestone of serving 250,000 Idaho telephones.

"We've gained 90,000 telephones in just 10 years, which should verify the rapid economic and population growth in Idaho," according to Mountain Bell Manager, K. G. Mann.

The telephone firm serves Idaho, customers south, east, and west of the Salmon River.

Mountain Bell purchased Idaho telephone properties in 1910 and has enjoyed large scale growth, service expansion and significant communications improvements.

Historically the first Idaho telephone was connected at Halley in September, 1883, followed by instillations at Boise in December of the same year. By 1910 there were 10,000 telephones. There were 29,000 in 1920, 68,900 in 1940, 93,000 in 1950, 160,000 in 1960 and now there are 250,000.

Idaho subscribers now place one and one-half million local and 51,000 long distance calls per day. All Idaho telephones served by Mountain Bell are four-party or better, regardless of location. Most of the new city and rural cables are planted underground and most Idaho subscribers can dial their own station to station long distance calls.

Twin Falls telephone statistics also show growth with a present total of 15,828 telephones. In 1910 there were 692 city telephones. In 1930 there were 2,800, 4,700 in 1940, and 10,100 in 1960, Mann said.

Board To Take Tour Of Parks

Parks and Recreation Advisory Board members of Twin Falls have scheduled a tour to inspect all city park facilities on June 4, Howard Johnson, department superintendent, announced Thursday.

He said the committee, including several newly appointed board members, will inspect work that has been completed at Dierke's lake, Shoshone Falls Park, city playgrounds and parks and possibly the golf course.

Another tour of parks was scheduled for Thursday afternoon and evening by Twin Falls city council members with Harrison, Barry, Highland and other main city park areas and the city boundary lines on the agenda.

Post Office Savings Stamps Out

The Twin Falls Post Office will discontinue sale of U. S. Savings Stamps after June 30.

The Treasury Department announced in February that it was ending the sale of the stamps, which can be accumulated for conversion into Savings Bonds or redeemed for cash, at the end of the current fiscal year.

Twin Falls Postmaster Fred Sanger urged students, who have been principal purchasers of the stamps for a number of years, and others to complete their "unfilled stamp" albums before the June 30 deadline.

The stamps range in value from 10 cents to $5 and were part of the post savings program before they joined the war bond drive in 1942.

Clerks at the Twin Falls Post Office said sales of the stamps have been very slow in recent months.

COMPARING SCHOOL BOOKS for the last time in the Filer High School library are Ralph Brown, left, Mrs. Francis Decker, and Ralph Andree, three Filer teachers who have retired this year. Mr. Brown and Mr. Andree taught mathematics at the Elementary School and High School while Mrs. Decker was a social studies instructor.

Leisure Days Begin For 3 Retiring Teachers At Filer

FILER — Beginning their well-earned "leisure days" are three prominent Filer teachers who are retiring after spending many years in the teaching profession. They are Mrs. Francis Decker, social studies teacher at the high school; Ralph Andree, mathematics instructor at the high school, and Ralph Brown, mathematics teacher at the Filer Elementary School. They all agree that "teaching isn't what it used to be." With today's unrest and growing problems among young people and students, a teacher's life is not an easy one, they stated. Mrs. Decker has been an instructor for 24 years, and before that time, did some substitute teaching. The last 12 years she has been employed at the Filer-High-School-and-prior to that time, she taught at Buhl, Montpelier, and Evanston, Wyo. She was born in Emington, Ill., and with her family moved to Idaho in 1908. She attended schools here, then moved with her family to Wyoming where she met her future husband in Evanston. She was married in 1929 in Salt Lake City and several years later they moved to Idaho where Mr. Decker farmed near Filer for a number of years. He is now working as a weed supervisor for Twin Falls County.

There were 12 students in the high school with a 4.0 average, including Julie Hansen, senior; Kirk Dennis, Suzanne Francis, Vikki Pepper and Doug Schrenk, juniors; Terry Gunning, Ann Lorraine Smith, Jana Thompson, and Bonnie Trunson, sophomores; and Brent Holmes, Teri Cooper, and Nancy Smith, freshmen. Other freshmen of the honor roll are Kevin Andrews, Vicky Behrens, Chris Bennett, Kent Chandler, Tom Gohman, Kip Dennis, Steve Gilbert, Rose Gunning, Robert Hawks, Bill Klevorn, Janet Robb, Dominic McClood, Jim Orth, Pam Parr, Tony Post, Dawn Runney, Gwen Scott, and Jan Stockham. Sophomores are Pat Bennett, Brad Archibald, Randy Chandler, Vickie Cutler, Ann Hagerman, Linda Laudert, Sue McFarlin, Mary Ann Miller, Russell Ross, Kathryn Serr, Carolyn Simerly, Paul Smith, and Connie Winterholter.

Eighth Grade Tops Honor Roll

They include Herb Arnold, Kurt Benson, Craig Brown, Matt Dunn, Tom Gunning, Larry Hushman, Donna Hills, Nicki Holmes, Leslie Isaacs, Pam Klimes, Melvin Matkin, Dave Pihani, Carolyn Serr, Kent Slasson, Judy Smith, Lana Stockham, Betty Lou Trunson, Scott Althorst, Paul Hulet and Janice McCord. # Tower Charges Critics Of War Hide Success

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., charged Wednesday that Senate antiwar critics will refuse to acknowledge a military success in Cambodia even if the present U.S. operation there achieves one.

Scott said the vote could come around June 15, and he predicted that most U.S. troops would be out of Cambodia by that time.

Apollo 13 Blast Pinpointed

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The Apollo 13 oxygen tank fire and explosion apparently was caused by a chain of events stemming from a change in test procedures on the launch pad several days before blast-off.

"The word has gone out," Tower said in a Senate speech. "If President Nixon's much vilified Cambodian policy achieves a military success in reality, it is not to be so recognized by his critics in the Senate, in the press and in the public."

"I'd accept his bold action as a successful feat accomplish — if it is that at such time as American troops are withdrawn from Cambodia — would spell disaster for his critics," said Tower.

Thundering Silence

With reports of Allied victories in Cambodia, the seizure of huge caches of North Vietnamese arms, food stuffs and ammunition, he said, "There is notable and thundering silence on the part of those who only two weeks ago were predicting every calamity from ominous defeat to the end of western civilization because of our presence in Cambodia."

As Tower defended Nixon, Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield accused administration forces of stalling a showdown vote on whether to restrict the use of U.S. forces in Cambodia until after the operation ends.

Leaders Receive Report

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon has given some of the 42 business and financial leaders an encouraging report on both the nation's economy and the progress of the Cambodian War.

He apparently told them he will stick by his present policies in dealing with both issues.

Nixon met for more than an hour Wednesday night with the 42 business and financial leaders at the end of a day which saw the stock market slip into a dramatic reversal in its biggest one-day climb in history.

The meeting was set up in the days before Wednesday's upturn, when the market was spinning steadily downward under the weight of an inflation-weakened economy and fears about new U.S. military involvement in Indochina.

The White House session was held in secret, and the participants were asked not to discuss what went on. But one major corporation executive told reporters that the President talked for 30 to 45 minutes "in significant depth" and was "encouraging on both scores" — both the war and the economy.

He added that overall in Nixon's presentation "there wasn't much difference from what he has been saying."

Edgar M. Corright, chairman of the Apollo 13 investigating board, said Wednesday test results indicated that two switches were damaged during a pre-launch oxygen tank draining operation and they subsequently failed in flight.

The switches were designed to turn off heaters in the oxygen tank when they reached a temperature of about 80 degrees. Instead, Corright said, the heaters probably reached a temperature of 1,000 degrees.

This extreme overheating burned insulation off the heater wires, according to the theory, and the wires short circuited and sparked. The sparks ignited insulation and the resulting heat raised the oxygen temperature and pressure until the tank burst when James A. Lovell, John L. Swigert and Fred W. Haise were 205,000 miles from earth April 13.

"A special detanking procedure which was applied to the No. 2 oxygen tank of the Apollo 13 service module before launch probably resulted in major damage to the wiring insulation in the tank," Corright said in a statement issued in Houston late Wednesday. He then flew to Langley Field, Va., and was not available for comment.

For reasons still unknown, the launch crew was unable to drain the tank in the normal method of applying pressure and forcing the liquid oxygen out. So the workers turned on the tank heaters to turn the frigid oxygen into gas which then was vented over a period of six hours.

A spokesman at the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston said the procedure change put "fairly severe" loads on the heaters. This apparently weakened the heater switches until they failed.

Presbyterians Ask That Troops Be Out Of Indochina By June, 1971

CHICAGO (UPI) — The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church has urged the United States government to withdraw all American troops from Indochina by June 30, 1971.

The delegates, representing 3.2 million Presbyterians, had postponed a vote on the resolution to allow President Nixon to "state the case" for his policy.

Nixon sent George Romney, secretary of Housing and Urban Development, to address the assembly Tuesday. Romney's speech however, was given a cool reception and the final resolution was similar to the original report by the standing committee on church and society.

The resolution adopted Wednesday said a "general commitment to withdrawal will neither meet our national needs nor produce the necessary sense of urgency in the government of South Vietnam.

"We therefore ask our government to commit itself to withdrawal of all military personnel from Vietnam by June 30, 1971."

The resolution was passed by a voice vote.

In a separate report the assembly urged United Presbyterians to work for the

Approval Asked

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., said Wednesday President Nixon should review all proposed movements of hazardous materials such as nerve gas before giving approval.

Jackson, who successfully fought to have the gas now stored in Okinawa, not shipped to Oregon, said life was not in favor of doing away with the gas.

Jackson announced Saturday that Nixon had decided not to send the nerve gas to Umatilla Army Depot via Bangor, Wash., after the senator said he feared it would be sabotaged.

Burned

VENICE, Calif. (UPI) — During the 1930s, the Aragon Ballroom was the scene of marathon dancing. Later it was filled with the sounds of the Benny Goodman and Lawrence Welk bands.

Constructed as part of Pacific Ocean Park atop Lick Pier in 1897, it survived three fires in the early part of the century. A fourth fire, believed deliberately set, broke out under the pier about 25 miles from downtown Los Angeles Wednesday, destroying the famed ballroom.

Originally known as the Bon Ton, it was renamed Make-Believe Ballroom by Lawrence Welk, then it became the Aragon again.

Its most recent metamorphosis was The Cheetha, a discotheque which went bankrupt.

Coeur D'Alene Is Not Pleased With Figures

COEUR D'ALENE (UPI) — Local officials are not the least bit pleased with the unofficial nose count for the city released Wednesday by the census bureau.

Preliminary figures announced by J. Robert Halford, the census supervisor for Spokane, eastern Washington and northern Idaho showed the city gained 15,785 residents. That is an increase of 1,474 persons over the 1960 official census count of 14,291.

"I don't think the 1971 figures are accurate," Kyle Walker, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said Wednesday.

"We have been building about 70 new homes a year and if you use the national average of 3.5 persons per home, that's 2,800 persons right there," he said.

Walker said nearly all houses in the city were occupied and "this new figure doesn't make any sense to me." He said, "If the 1960 figure is accurate then I don't buy the 15,785 figure now."

Walker said he might agree to a count of 17,000-17,500. Mayor John McHugh said he

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Your approval of a "Mamma doll" who could have a "baby doll" horrified me, too.

I have young children and I know how they play, and it's not necessary for them to have such toys. A baby being born is beautiful and sacred, and not something for dirty-minded little boys to smicker at. And don't tell me young boys are not dirty-minded, because they are!

You may say, "If you don't want these toys, don't buy them," but how can you keep your children from seeing them if their playmates have them?

If sex is thrown at children too young they will be tempted to try it out the first chance they get. They will be doing what their toys will do and I think the toy makers owe it to our young folks to keep their toys clean. Even dolls with busts were a little too much for me.

ALSO HORRIFIED

DEAR ABBY: I have six grandchildren, and I am much more "horrified" to see them playing with toy tanks, machine guns, and pistols than I would be to see them playing with a doll who can wet her pants and give birth. Wetting the pants and giving birth are natural and normal, and we can "protect" our young from the essential facts of life and the wonders of mother nature.

After all, many small children know where eggs and kittens and puppies come from; so what's wrong with a Mamma doll?

NOT SO HORRIFIED IN HORTON, MASS.

DEAR ABBY: If the toy manufacturers are allowed to make Mamma dolls who have baby dolls, there is no end to what they will be dreaming up next. "Dolls" are getting too realistic for my tastes.

Originally, the "doll" was a baby doll, which the child could "mother" and cuddle and pretend was her own "baby." This was fine and served a healthy purpose. Then along came some smart toy manufacturer who made a pretty, fully developed young lady doll complete with fancy wardrobe right down to girdles and brassieres. They even made a handsome man doll for the lady doll to play with. Of course, hundreds of dollars can be spent on clothes for these "dolls."

Such dolls teach youngsters that they can never have too many clothes.

Everything today is "commercialized." Toy manufacturers are not concerned about how their products affect children. All they care about is making money.

DISGUSTED IN BRIDGEPORT

DEAR ABBY: You deserve 10 lashes with a wet diaper for condoning the "Mamma doll" who actually gives birth to a "baby doll." Good grief, is nothing sacred?

DISAPPOINTED IN S. C.

DEAR ABBY: Until now I have agreed with you 100 percent, but your answer to HORRIFIED who wrote about the Mamma doll who actually gives birth, left me horrified. You gave the impression that this kind of doll was all right because it was "educational." Well, how about making a Mamma doll and a Papa doll who can "mate"—that would be "educational," too. And why not go the whole route and have a Mamma doll who could have "contractions" and deliver? (They might even throw in a breech birth for one out of every 10 dolls.)

Also, they could have an "unwed" Mamma doll so she could have an abortion. Why not tell it like it is?

FULLERTON MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: I have seven children who have watched our cat deliver kittens, but to give them a doll who can have a baby! Never! The reader who wrote to say that she was horrified was absolutely correct. It's sick. And you were wrong!

SIGN ME "DOUBLE-HORRIFIED"

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69709, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

"More than 50 of our cultivated plants, many of which are grown for food, are dependent upon pollination by bees," she stated. "Some of them are berries, cotton, carrots, fruit trees, alfalfa, to name just a few. A hard working bee has been charted at from 45 to 50 loads of pollen-a-day by experimental laboratorers, and often goes four or five miles from the hive each trip to obtain a load of honey."

Mrs. Nuttle related the history of bees and their importance.

Mini-Cassia Students Learn About Environment Firsthand

HEYBURN — The "touch, smell and see" teaching techniques are being carried out successfully between several government agencies and the school districts in the Mini-Cassia area.

Approximately 1,000 Sixth Grade students from these two counties participated in a two-day event at Howell's Canyon to learn about conservation.

About 12 minutes was spent at each of seven stations, consisting of soil conservation, plant community, watershed, wildlife, forestry, recreation and fire control. Sponsoring agencies were the Bureau of Land Management, Bureau of Reclamation, U.S. Forest Service, Soil Conservation Service, Fish and Game Department and county agents from the two counties.

"Technical advisors" are school teachers and principals, who according to Lanny Wilson, coordinator, give the sponsoring agencies ideas of desired material. The agencies provide schools with teaching material to correlate with book learning.

Stations are instructed by experts in that field, and each year the coordinator receives tips from the school to make the next year more successful.

This was the third year for conservation learning and school officials report each year has been highly successful.

Next year plans will include an environmental station conducted by the Health Department, and will be held four days instead of the previous two.

School officials feel students aren't getting enough time at each station to really absorb what is presented. The counties will split the days with half of one county attending mornings and the other county afternoons.

Youngsters are taught from books the entire year and these conservation tours provide the opportunity to really see and feel conservation in action.

They are taught why small trees grow near the creek and why large deep rooted trees prefer mountains. They see what happens when a field is over-grazed by livestock and why grazing needs to be controlled. They witness what litter and poor tree-cutting do to recreation spots. Watersheds are more understood in the mountains when they see it controlled by grass, growth and ground indentations.

Age-rippers are observed on trees and youngsters are taught to tell the age of trees by counting rings, whirls and by using an increment bar. They are taught which animals live in the open and others like to be hidden by brush, and are shown why deer prefer living near a combination of both.

The tour is effective and students, who took the tour the past three years are still commenting on what was learned by being in the mountains and seeing nature in action. Officials say books teach to a certain extent, but their learning is more effective when correlated with students can touch, smell and see nature in action.

Instructors included Ron Walters, Merlin Stock, Keith Tweedie and Darrell Smith, of the U.S. Forest Service; Glen Logan, Darwin Jopson, Gary Post and Gale Roberts, all of Soil Conservation Service; Dr. James L. Taylor, CSI, Cole, of the county extension service; Frank Crawford and Terry Gully, of the Bureau of Reclamation; Dee Hibbard and Dick Bross, Idaho Fish and Game Department; Mrs. Ruthmary Sequist and Mrs. Mary Ethel Carlson, both public health nurses; and Charles Bate, Karl Kipping, Dell Wassoups and Lanny Wilson, all of the Bureau of Land Management.

FEELING THE DIFFERENCE between samples of clay, silt and sand are just one of the learning experiences that students from Minidoka and Cassia county schools had on the annual conservation tour in the South Hills. Some of the sixth

Explosion Probed At Ketchum

KETCHUM — Investigation is continuing into an explosion in the cab of a 1968 GMC pickup truck, owned by Magic Glass and Paint, Twin Falls, late last week.

The incident occurred about midnight Friday while the vehicle was parked on 2nd Street near Main Avenue in Ketchum. The truck had been parked there earlier in the day by Kenneth (Whitely) Flora, Twin Falls, who is employed by the "Twin Falls Firm. Officers said at present there is no indication as to the motive for the explosion and no suspects have been arrested.

It is believed dynamite was used, with the explosive set off inside the cab, demolishing the vehicle. Glass mounted on the side of the bed of the pickup truck, however, was not broken, although the rear window and two right side windows of the pickup were blown out. The car belongs to Leon Hoffman, Ketchum.

Flying glass was also reported to have been forced through a nearby building door, and through the door of a service station about 80 feet away. No one was injured.

Appreciation Day Stated In Burley

Flour Mill To Close At Burley

BURLEY — The Burley Flour mills will close June 30, J. Lawson Cook, president of the Colorado-Milling and Elevator Co., announced Wednesday.

The local mill, which was built in 1917, has been primarily a cake flour operation with milling capacity of 1,700 sacks per day and storage facilities of 562,000 bushels of grain.

"It has been obvious for several years that this mill's operation was uneconomical because of increased freight rates and eventually the mill would have to be closed," Mr. Cook noted.

Master of ceremonies for the banquet will be Wayne Cornish, KFPD of Nampa. He is connected with the Snake River Stampede and works that show along with other sports programs on the station.

Two special guests for the banquet will be Gov. Don Samuelson and Atty. Gen. Robert Tobson. Jackson said several other named guests had indicated they would attend if schedule permitted.

During the banquet Oliver will be honored by testimony as well as with mementos of the special day.

In conjunction with the special day, Oliver will play 18 holes of golf on the Ponderosa Golf Course and, then those attending the banquet will try and beat his score. A set of golf clubs will be presented to the winner of the golf event.

Tickets at $10 per plate are available throughout the southwest portion of the state, Idaho Falls, Pocatello, Burley and Magic Valley.

Repairs To Be Made On Bridge

SHOSHONE — Motorists have been advised some traffic delays may be encountered on U. S. 93 during the ensuing 30 day period because of minor repairs the Idaho Department of Highways will be making on the Perrine Bridge.

District Engineer Howard Johnson said there will be one-way traffic on the bridge during work hours as scaffolding and equipment will be necessary for making the repairs.

Work will begin Monday, June 1, and will possibly continue through the entire month. Work planned: Mr. Johnson said, consists of repair and reinforcement of the end constructions and some structural members. These defects were discovered by the maintenance inspection during 1969, but the repairs are not the final answer to the need for a new bridge in the area.

Completion of these repairs will not affect the existing load limit of 44,000 pounds and large loaded trucks will still be required to detour around the bridge.

CSI Given Grant For New Building

The College of Southern Idaho received a $210,209 grant Wednesday from the Office of Education for construction of a vocational-technical classroom building on campus.

The grant, which had been expected since the first of the year, will provide about half the funds for a 28,000-30,000 square foot building. CSI also has in reserve an allocation from the state's permanent building fund. The two appropriations will be coupled to construct the building, which is expected to cost $516,600.

Dr. James L. Taylor, CSI, president, said schematic drawings already are complete and architects from Cushing Terrill Associates, CIA, are now drafting working drawings. Bid should be opened by early fall, Dr. Taylor said, and the building should be ready for occupancy by the fall of 1972.

The building will cover about the same area as the present academic classroom building, but will be only one story. It will be built between the Shields Academic building and the maintenance building.

Shoshone To Host July 4 Celebration

SHOSHONE — A July 4 Lincoln county celebration will be held in Shoshone, Chamber of Commerce members announce.

Tentative plans call for a children's parade around noon with foot races for smaller children, two baseball games during the afternoon and a riding club jamboree at 8 p. m.

One of the ball games will feature men over 30 and the younger fellows, in two innings, reports Chamber President Dennis Everett.

Plans are underway for concessions and one of the biggest fireworks every given by the Chamber after dark that evening.

Committee heads include

Marvin Cole; riding club jamboree; Kenneth Blackburn, Ivan Hopkins, D. H. Hansen and Francis Bergin, with more than 20 other members of the Chamber assisting.

Everett said Shoshone decided to hold the celebration since other surrounding communities were not going to observe Independence Day. It is extended to all communities of the area to attend the activities here.

Burley To Treat Odor In Lagoon

BURLEY — The Burley City Council has agreed to test an odor-controlling chemical in the Green Acres sewage-treatment lagoon north of town in an effort to relieve a long-standing problem.

The test was set up through the office of Idaho Gov. Don Samuelson, who asked that the unique treatment be tested in some Idaho city, with the idea of extending it to other cities with an odor problem.

The treatment includes construction of a pre-aeration plant at the lagoon and addition of a complex organic chemical solution which increases the amount of dissolved oxygen in the water, cutting the odor-producing action before it starts, Councilmen were told.

Mutual Funds Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR
Q - I am retired, partially disabled and derive all my income from Social Security and 1,500 shares of Sears, Roebuck stock. I understand this is a high-grade investment but need more income. Could you advise what would be the best for my situation? -T.J.

With bonds yielding around a percent your present capital could produce over $700 in annual income as opposed to $400 from your Sears shares. I would, however, not favor selling all your Sears, which might entail a heavy capital gains tax. By switching 500 shares to a high-yield bond you could add approximately $1,000 to your annual return.

Two qualifying recent bond issues are AA-rated Pennsylvania Power 9 1/2 of 2000 and Union Electric 9 1/2 of 2000. Both are trading at a slight premium and protected against declining until 1975. Sales of second 500 shares is advised at higher levels. I would retain 500 shares of Sears for gradual growth.

Q - I have shares of Copper Range, bought at 73. The stock has declined recently despite good earnings. I would appreciate your comments on future growth prospects. -F.H.

As a result of the tremendous demand for copper and the boost in prices to 60 cents per pound initiated by Copper Range in January, copper companies were expected to report big earnings gains in 1970's first quarter. Copper Range led this with a hefty 37 percent increase in net income on a 22 percent rise in sales.

While CPX operates only one mine, White Pine, company plans to expand these already sizable facilities to substantially increase output. Additional benefits should be derived from improving manufacturing efficiency in its fabricating division. This operation accounts for approximately 30 percent of consolidated sales.

Copper stocks may be under some pressure as traders await the government's report on copper price structures. However, the outcome is not expected to adversely affect industry trends. With copper demand and prices expected to remain strong, CPX should continue its healthy growth strides. Shares with speculative appreciation appeal.

Mr. Spear welcomes questions for use in his column but cannot answer all mail personally.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—The recent market rise is nothing more than "a natural reaction" to the excesses of the 1965-1968 bull market, the opinion of Benjamin & Co. The economist adviser does not interpret the downturn as a sign of a "diseased or disintegrating" market or as a "harbinger" of a depression.

On the contrary, "liquidation of the speculative excesses" has reached a point where the company "regards the present as the beginning of a bottom-building phase."

The market seems to have arrived at a point not only for market analysts but even administration officials where "the less said about it the better," according to E.F. Hutton & Co. The company says it believes the market appears to have "moved out of the realm of reason or value," and adds that stock projections "can be offered only with 'alm conviction that they have any real validity.'"

The picture will be transmitted in black and white but color is a possibility engineers are considering, the spokesman said.

In time, Picturephone will be available in Chicago, New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Detroit and Newark.

Clause Brings Growth, Integrity, Equality To Baseball, Luhn Claims

NEW YORK (UPI)—Baseball Commissioner "Bowling" Kuhn argued in Federal Court Wednesday that the game's controversial reserve clause helps equalize team strength, promotes the growth of players and the game and protects the integrity of the game to the public.

He said modification of the clause "would destroy the game as it now exists." The reserve clause, which has withstood several previous court tests, is under attack by Curt Flood, $90,000-a-year outfielder traded last winter by the St. Louis Cardinals to the Philadelphia Phillies. Flood asked Kuhn for permission to negotiate with other clubs and the request was denied, whereupon Flood refused to report to the Phillies and filed suit in court.

Flood is arguing that the reserve clause denies his right to negotiate as a free citizen and makes him, in effect, a high-priced slave. Hall of Famers Hank Greenberg and Jackie Robinson argued in favor of a modification of the clause in the trial being heard by Federal District Judge Irving Ben Cooper.

Kuhn argued baseball's case as the leadoff witness for the defense in the anti-trust suit. "Modification of the reserve clause would destroy the game as it now exists," said Kuhn under questioning by his attorney, Victor Kramer. "The more wealthy clubs would get all the best players."

Kuhn said the Major League Players' Association's decision to support Flood's suit was "a serious mistake" and said the testimony by Greenberg, Robinson and others who supported Flood "was too general."

"Throughout our history baseball has striven for equal strength," said Kuhn. "It flourishes when you have it and tends to pine when you don't."

The trial is expected to continue today and then probably will be recessed until Monday.

Homers Power A's Past Angels 4-3

ANAHEIM (UPI)—Back-to-back homers in the sixth inning by Joe Rudi and Sal Bando brought the Oakland A's from behind Wednesday night for a 4-3 victory over the California Angels.

The Angels led twice during the game. They went out in front in the first inning when Jay Johnstone tripled and scored on Alex Johnson's single.

After Oakland catcher Frank Fernandez hit a solo homer in the second tie it up, the A's went ahead 2-1 in the third on singles by Rick Monday and Bando, plus an infield out.

The Angels took a 3-2 edge in the fourth when they scored a pair of unearned runs off Oakland starter Jim Hunter, who got credit for his seventh victory against four losses.

Drawings Of Idaho Field To Be Shown

MOSCOW (UPI)—The architects plan to have the preliminary drawings of the University of Idaho's new football stadium ready for presentation at the next board of regents meeting June 9 in Boise, Ed Knecht, athletic director, said Tuesday. Knecht said the plans for the new athletic complex, estimated at present to cost $4.4 million, are progressing right on schedule.

He said the architects have decided to locate the football stadium on the site of the present Neale Stadium, which was condemned two years ago and partially burned last year by vandals. The athletic director said the plans call for the new stadium to be increased in size by lowering the floor of the structure into the ground and by eliminating the track around the football field.

The new facility will have a minimum capacity of 16,800 and, if funds are available, a capacity of 21,000 will be provided, Knecht said.

Jets, Giants Meet Twice In 8 Years

Finn, Sweden Cop First In Auto Rally

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Hannu Mikkola of Finland and Gunnar Palm of Sweden finished an hour and 18 minutes ahead of their nearest rivals Wednesday to capture first place in the grueling 16,000-mile London to Mexico City World Cup auto rally.

The two Scandinavians, starting from London's Wembley Stadium on April 19, took their British Ford Escort through 22 countries and over some of the roughest roads in Europe and South and Central America to win the top prize of $24,000.

A field of 96 cars started the event sponsored by the London Daily Mirror and organizers said only 26 would be classified as official finishers. Mikkola and Palm finished ahead of Britons Brian Culceth and Johnston Syer after times for 17 specially designated sections—or primes, were totaled. The Britons drove a fuel-injected Triumph.

Wheelwright Tests NFL In Night Club

NEW YORK (UPI)—Another Bachelors III episode may be unfolding—this time in New Orleans.

An article in this week's edition of Sports Illustrated says that fullback Ernie Wheelwright of the New Orleans Saints has opened a night spot in New Orleans in a building reputedly owned by underworld chieftain Carlos Marcello.

The situation is similar to the Bachelors III situation involving quarterback Joe Namath of the New York Jets last summer. Namath was forced to sell his interest in the Manhattan nightclub when the National Football League learned that the place was frequented by underworld figures. Namath was given an ultimatum by pro football commissioner Pete Rozelle and decided to quit football rather than give up his interest, but he later relented.

We expressed our concern to Wheelwright a couple of weeks ago, and we are continuing to explore it," said Rozelle. "Our security people talked to him in the very early stages and they told him they thought it would be wise if he did not get involved. But he went ahead and opened it anyway. We must get as much information as we can then decide what course of action we can take. We'd like to have pretty strong information before we give him an ultimatum. You might say the Namath situation developed in similar fashion."

Wheelwright's connection with the underworld stems from the ownership of the building where his bar, Ernie Wheelwright's Central Park

South, is located, according to the article. The article says that law enforcement authorities feel that the landlord of the bar is really Marcello, the most powerful Mafia figure on the Gulf Coast. The Marcello family has a strong interest in the bar-and-liquor business in and around New Orleans, which has added to the NFL's alarm.

NFL Moguls Set Policies On Ownership

NEW YORK (UPI)—The National Football League's owners went over the guidelines for the sale of a club at their Wednesday meeting, and also set up a rotation of the Hall of Fame game at Canton, Ohio, through 1983.

The owners met to discuss the rules and regulations for owning an NFL club. Under the league rule, a sale must include a new owner with at least 51 per cent of the team's stock. The discussion was prompted by the recent negotiations involving the proposed sale of the New York Jets to a group which included former New York Giants coach Alie Sherman. The deal never came off, but commissioner Pete Rozelle said the league owners might have vetoed it anyway because none of the prospective Jets' owners would have had a 51 per cent interest.

Hagerman Valley, Reservoirs To Catch Opening-Day Crowds

High and roily waters once again are expected to concentrate pressure on the reservoirs and spring-fed streams Saturday morning when the regular fishing season begins.

An army of about 10,000 is expected to hit particularly hard in the Hagerman Valley area, Silver Creek and Magic Reservoir. Mackay Reservoir on the Big Lost River is expected to be pretty good. And, contrary to an earlier report, the major lakes in the Sawtooth Valley, Red Fish and others, are not frozen over and will have been planted by the Idaho Fish and Game Department by opening morning.

But stream fishermen generally don't appear to have much going for them. Bob Bell, regional fish biologist for the department, said, however, that he expected several areas to be good fishing.

On the east side of Magic Valley, Sublette Reservoir is clear and the fishing prospects are good. Roseworth Reservoir is nearly full and has received a good planting of estate-sized Rainbows.

Bell said Riley Creek and Billingsley Creek in the Hagerman Valley will be clear and should be good along with the Frank Oster Lakes and other Anderson ponds on the Hagerman refuge.

On the northern, Silver Creek and its tributaries should be doing business as usual. Richfield Canal, which has been producing good fishing this spring on its year-round opening basis, has been planted to offer more opportunity to anglers.

Magic Reservoir, which is always the biggest attraction for boat fishermen, is full and has been spilling for quite some time. Bell said the impoundment may be somewhat rocky on the upper end. Thorn Creek Reservoir north of Gooding is expected to be good and Mormon Reservoir, although open year-round, should be fair.

Bell said the department once again will conduct aerial censusing on the more popular spots. He said the department will have all available personnel out on patrol and conducting creel censusing.

Idaho Fishing Called $21 Million Industry

MOSCOW — "Fishing means millions of dollars to Idaho" is a statement made by Dr. Douglas Gordon, assistant to the director, Idaho Water Resources Research Institute, University of Idaho, in a study recently completed on the economic values of fishing to Idaho.

Gordon, along with Drs. Donald W. Chapman and Ted C. Bjorn of the Idaho Cooperative Fishery Unit, College of Forestry, Wildlife and Range Sciences, conducted this two-year investigation to determine the importance of sport fishing to Idaho's economy.

During the course of the study, which was also sponsored by the U.S. Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, and the Idaho Fish and Game Department, they mailed out an extensive questionnaire to more than 9,300 residents and non-residents over a 12-month period.

According to Gordon, "In 1968, Idaho anglers spent about $8.5 million for such durable equipment as boats, campers, tackle, etc. Resident and non-resident fishermen spent another $11 million on trip expenses and $1.5 million for licenses. Total expenditures thus reached about $21 million."

However, Gordon emphasizes that the total expenditure by anglers, while a useful statistic, does not express the true worth of Idaho's fishery resources. He estimates that the state, as owner of the resources, could realize in excess of $5 million annually if anglers were charged for daily fishing in the same way that a charge is made to use a ski area or attend a ball game. He does not necessarily recommend that increased fees be charged, but points out that the resulting $5 million figure does estimate the real benefits which anglers presently receive free.

He found that resident anglers bought 60 per cent of all licenses, fished 77 per cent of the total days, and spent 40 per cent of the trip expenses; whereas non-residents purchased 40 per cent of the licenses, fished only 23 per cent of the total angling days, but accounted for 60 per cent of the money spent in the state for fishing trips.

Gordon also discovered that the fishing effort by residents and non-residents of approximately three million days was relatively even distributed among the six fish management areas of the state. However, the study shows that quality fishing for trout and kokanee in the big lakes of Northern Idaho, for salmon and steelhead in Central Idaho and for trout in streams and lakes of Eastern Idaho attracted most non-residents.

In Northern Idaho lakes, nearly $2 million was spent to catch trout and kokanee. However, 70 per cent of the fishing was done by non-residents with those from Washington fishing about 40 per cent of the time and Californians about 20 per cent.

In the Salmon River Drainage, 30 per cent of the total fishing was done by Utah citizens and 35 per cent by Idahoans. But, 50 per cent of the steelhead fishing was done by Idaho residents.

Much of the stream and lake fishing in Eastern Idaho was done by California and Utah residents.

Jones And Gentry Combine To Lift Mets Past St. Louis 3-0

NEW YORK (UPI)—Slumping Cleon Jones, switched to the leadoff spot in the batting order, hit a two-run bases loaded single in the fourth inning, and Gary Gentry pitched a three-hitter Wednesday night as the New York Mets blanked the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-0.

Jones, who usually bats third, entered the game with a .167 batting average and was moved to the leadoff position by manager Gil Hodges. He responded by getting three singles in four trips, including the game-winning blow-off starter and loser Steve Carlton.

on the king of diamonds and get out with the loss of only two spades. So he took the finesse East won the trick and shifted to either the jack or ace of spades. In either case, the defense got three quick spade tricks.

How did one defender make his contract? Was he a great expert? No, he was lucky.

It seems that West was one of those fancy players who are always trying to work out some sensational play. This West led the eight of spades. South played low from dummy and now East went into conference with him self. That eight-spot lead looked like the top of a doubton. Maybe West held ace and one trump for that lead. East played the 10 of spades.

South looked startled for a moment. Then he gathered in the trick with his queen and proceeded to make his contract for a real top score.

Four hearts down one is a perfectly normal result. North certainly has a raise to two hearts and South is fully justified in jumping to game, but with normal defense South winds up losing three spades and a club.

In a recent, rather tough, duplicate, two South players went down two tricks and one made his contract.

It is rather easy to see how down-two came about. West opened one of clubs. East took his ace and returned the suit. South was in with the king and drew trumps with two leads. Then South, an expert, decided that the best play for his contract would be to lead a diamond toward dummy and finesse the jack.

Assuming that finesse to work, he would be able to shed one of dummy's spades

I DON'T RECALL WHETHER HIS WAS WITH MEDICAL OR THE SHIPYARD!

IN NEW YORK STATE, it was recently addressed a lady grounds not legally wear a see-through blouse. On the grounds an immobilized man couldn't effectively deal with a racing-widow woman in such juxtaposition. OUR LANGUAGE MAN points out that the word "hello" did not become popular until sometime after invention of the telephone. Incidentally, the first phone subscribers always answered, "Ahoy, ahoy."

SPRING! This is the time of year when 17 out of 100 families take their vacations. AM ASKED what kind of tree is most apt to be struck by lightning. Oak, elm, hick, poplar and pine. In that order. NOW HERE'S a scientist who contends the average man's sense of smell tends to be at its peak at approximately 11:45 a.m.

HISTORY—That suicidal game known as Russian roulette was invented by an Englishman, not a Russian. History records a Cambridge University student was the first such sual to snap a revolver at his head on the chance the thing was loaded. He was the roommate of Lord Byron, the poet. In 1803 just 31 years later, a Russian named Lermontov, having read about it in Byron's memoirs, put the miffy scene into a piece of his fiction. This comes up because a customer inquires how many citizens heretofore have died in the last 25 years, playing this game. About 15.

CUSTOMER SERVICE—Q—Do fish shed their scales the way birds shed their feathers? A. No, sir, they don't. Slarks shed their teeth in that manner, however. . . . Q. "What's the farthest anybody ever rode a surfboard without padding?" A. Am advised one Hobie Alter covered 26 miles in 90 minutes in the Catalina Channel off the California Coast six years ago. Some rip-roar! Q. "The Bible has been reprinted more than any other book in the world, right? What book ranks second?" A. Don Quixote.

FRIENDSHIP TEST—Young fellow, here is a technique by which you can select your real friends from among your casual acquaintances. Grow a mustache. Prince Bernhard of Holland dreamed up this. It was his claim the fluffers in your constituency will tell you your mustache is just dandy, but your genuine friends will say it looks terrible.

FAVORITE SPOTS—It's said every man comes to love one place on earth more than any other. Where's your favorite spot? I haven't decided on mine yet! However, candidate locations include the mouth of the Elwah River on Washington State's Olympic Peninsula, Butchart Gardens on Canada's Vancouver Island, Coeur d'Alene Lake in Idaho, the cobbled old town section of Stuttgart and Switzerland's Lake Lugano. Wait, the list gets endless. Anyhow, it isn't the place, I suppose. It's what happens there.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used in PASS IT ON whenever possible. Address your letters to L. M. Boyd, P.O. Box 3760, Santa Monica, Calif. 90403. (cc) 1970, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

OUT-OUR WAY

RAW-RAW, LOOKIT THIS QUOTY GUY! I HAD TO SHIP HIS MAIL FOR HIM AND IT KILLED ME! THE GUY GOT HIS OWN MAIL BOX BUT HE GOT TO SHIP IT TO QUALIZE HIMSELF.

GET HIM OUT OF THERE—THOSE GUY TAKES HIM AND BACK FROM THE CLEANER! AND IF HE'S AN OBEYED THEM UP WE'LL BE HANGING HIS HEAD FROM THE CEILING! AND IF HE'S AN OBEYED THEM UP WE'LL BE HANGING HIS HEAD FROM THE CEILING!

WELL, I DON'T CARE IF HE'S KING OF THE ISLAND... DOESN'T HOLD US UP!

MEANWHILE... ONLY A FEW MORE HOURS UNTIL PICK-UP.

...THEN I'VE GOT A SCORE TO SETTLE WITH ONE MR. KINGSTON!
