Student Violence Continues

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UPI)—Heavily armed law officers made continuous sweeps in dump trucks through the troubled student community next to the University of California Monday night, routing small bands of young persons with tear gas and mass arrests.

Strictly enforcing a dusk to dawn curfew after two successive nights of violence, more than 200 officers employing 10 dump trucks broke up small groups of rock-throwing protesters and arrested anyone on the streets.

A sheriff's spokesman said deputies arrested 73 persons, bringing the total for three nights of violence to 140.

Authorities abandoned their dump truck sweeps early today and said the area was quiet.

Five cars, described by deputies as punks, were set afire, small trash fires were reported and the hard-hit branch of the Bank of America sustained a barrage of rocks Monday evening.

There were no reports of injuries.

Deputies, Santa Barbara police and highway patrolmen, apparently fearing violence, moved into the area before the curfew went into effect and began to rout the groups after broadcasting warnings from a flying helicopter to clear the area.

Minor incidents occurred Thursday and Friday after a grand jury indicted 17 persons in connection with the burning of a Bank of America branch in February.

A temporary branch, next to the original one, has become the focal point of violent protests. That was where disorders erupted Saturday and Sunday nights.

Sunday night, about 600 young persons defied the curfew to march to the bank following a fair in a large vacant lot about seven blocks away. Youths using a large pipe as a battering ram smashed the plate glass front doors and a firebomb was ignited on the roof.

Walkout Stops Dam Building

OROFINO, Idaho (UPI)—An unauthorized walkout by laborers Monday forced a shutdown of construction of Dworshak Dam on the north fork of the Clearwater River here.

A total of 800 workers at the dam were affected by the stoppage which was expected to continue at least until this weekend.

J.L. "Whitey" Wilcox, project manager, said the walkout came as the result of a reduction of three men per shift in the cement laying crews last Thursday. A total of nine men were laid off.

HEW Head Will Get Quick Test

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary-designate Elliot L. Richardson's reputation as a tough administrator is going to be tested quickly in what one official in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) says "three critical areas."

Deputy Undersecretary Frederic V. Makac listed these areas as providing the basis for Richardson's briefing during the next several days: Major legislation including the Nixon administration's welfare reform measure; HEW operations, including important vacancies in the office of education, and the HEW budget for the next fiscal year.

As the incoming HEW chief grapples with these problems, outgoing Secretary Robert H. Fitch will turn his attention to his first assignment as counselor to President Nixon. Coordination of U.S. efforts to aid Vietnamese victims in Paris, Nixon has authorized $10 million for the stricken nation.

Nixon May Be Able To Continue Raids

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Republican leader Hugh Scott predicted today that the Senate would vote Thursday to allow President Nixon to order new raids into Cambodia if he felt it was necessary to protect American forces in South Vietnam.

Following a two-hour meeting between Nixon and GOP congressional leaders, Scott told reporters that "it appears there are sufficient votes" in favor of the change in a pending amendment to cut off funds for Cambodian operations at the end of this month, when Nixon has said all GIs will be out of Cambodia.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield told reporters on Capitol Hill that the Byrd amendment "would negate the intent of the Cooper-Church amendment."

"It would be worse than the Gulf of Tonkin resolution because you would not have a resolution but you would have a law," Mansfield added.

The assistant Democratic leader, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said he would vote against the Cooper-Church amendment if the Byrd proviso were added.

Besides the present wording of the amendment as it pertains to U.S. operations in Cambodia, Nixon also is against any restrictions on American financing for a possible Thai expedition into Cambodia.

Scott said today the administration felt such a restriction would "inhibit Asians helping Asians," which Nixon stressed in the so-called Nixon doctrine issued last summer on Guam during a Pacific trip.

Body Of Girl Found In River

GRANOVILLE (UPI)—Underswear remaining on the badly decomposed body of Nadine Tuttle, 17, Edna, Idaho, was the source of identification for the young girl Monday.

The girl's mother identified her by the underswear she had been wearing. It had been found in a year ago when it was dumped in the Salmon River upstream from Salmon, Idaho.

successive nights of violence has caused police, all aimed to make continuous sweeps through the area. The bank was burned in February during similar disturbances and 17 were indicted to the Grand Jury at that time. (UPI telephoto)

The disintegrated wreckage of the red and white twin-engine Piper Aztec was spotted Saturday by Civil Air Patrol Maj. Louise Morrison of Salt Lake City.

The wreckage was at the 9,640-foot level of Patmos Mountain about five miles east of Draper, Utah.

Soldiers Battle In Amman

AMMAN, Jordan (UPI)—Jordanian army troops and Arab guerrillas exchanged gunfire for four hours in widely separated sectors of Amman today. Guerrilla spokesman said nine guerrillas were killed or injured in the initial fighting.

The fighting ended with a cease-fire agreement reached during an emergency meeting between representatives of the two sides. The truce was announced by Amman Radio.

Guerrilla sources said the fighting erupted when Jordanian troops attacked the headquarters of the Palestinian Armed Struggle Command (PASC), the Arab guerrilla coordinating body.

Cambodia Hit-Run Attacks

PHNOM PENH (UPI)—Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces launched the hit-and-run attacks near the tourist city of Siem Reap Monday night, as part of a series of harassment forays throughout Cambodia, a military spokesman said today.

A Cambodian military spokesman said Communist troops also attacked a school near Phnom Penh and opened fire on a school south of the capital. Damage and casualties were light.

Indians, Pollution Plaguing Governors

PARK CITY, Utah (UPI)—Problems of creeping pollution, frustrated Indians and recession-plagued western governors dominated the annual conference today at their annual conference high in the Wasatch Mountains, above the Great Salt Lake.

The governors were assured by a top Nixon-administration official that the federal government is striving to resolve all three dilemmas and will step up its attack even more as the Indo-China War is phased out.

Air Pollution normally is regarded as a curse of the northeast and of California, but governors of the Rocky Mountain and Plains states complained smog now is beginning to intrude into their sparsely populated regions.

Copper dust, for instance, frequently leaves a dark haze over the Salt Lake Valley, where Brigham Young lead 160 Mormon pioneers 123 years ago next month and pronounced, "This is the place."

"Western states have a great opportunity to stem pollution and avoid the serious effects being experienced by many eastern states," said Republican Gov. Stanley K. Hathaway of Wyoming, chairman of a symposium on water pollution.

Republican Gov. Jack Williams of Arizona organized a conference discussion on air pollution.

Missing was the governor of the West's most polluted state, California, Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan sent word to host Gov. Calvin L. Rampton, Democrat of Utah, that he had "problems at home."

The four-day conference began Monday with Williams leading an attack on the VISTA Program, the federal government's domestic equivalent of the Peace Corps. Williams complained some idealistic volunteers are stirring up trouble among the Indians.

"They have done nothing but create dissatisfaction and unhappiness where people can't have all the benefits of our society immediately," Williams said.

Don Rumsfeld, federal OEO director, defended VISTA and said the young, idealistic, energetic volunteers "tend to look at what is, and ask how can it be better."

But he assured Williams and other concerned western governors that volunteers are now being recruited from middle America, as well as the more liberal population centers.

In Oregon, Gov. Tom McCall's office said that state had no troubles with VISTA volunteers "creating dissatisfaction among improverished Indians."

"We have had no complaints about VISTA that we are aware of," said an office spokesman.

The press of business at home kept McCall away from the Utah governors' meeting.

Military Plans For Argentina Democracy

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—A triumvirate of military commanders who ousted President Juan Carlos Onganía promised today to return Argentina to "an authentic democracy."

They said they would name a new president within 10 days.

Three separate black limousines brought the commanders, army Lt. Gen. Alejandro Lanusse, navy Adm. Pedro Gnavi and air force Brig. Gen. Carlos Rey to the Pink House presidential palace early today.

Onganía's forced resignation near midnight Monday ended a 12-hour test of wills between him and the troika of officers. Onganía, 66, was deposed 20 days short of the fourth anniversary of the June 28, 1966, military coup that brought him to power and ousted Arturo U. Illia, the nation's last elected president. The commanders had announced Onganía's ouster Monday morning.

Onganía drove off early this morning to the suburban Olivos presidential residence to meet his wife, Maria Emilia. A guard at the official residence said Onganía and his wife were expected to leave today and move back into their personal luxury apartment in the city's Belgrano residential district.

Onganía left the presidential palace guarded by 200 grenadiers in battle dress at 11:35 p.m. (10:35 p.m. EDT) Monday and drove 150 yards across the Paseo Colon to the Defense Ministry to sign his official resignation.

"The circumstances facing the country in these final hours oblige me under pressure of arms to resign the post of president of the republic," Onganía said.

Blackmun Sworn In As New Justice

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Harry A. Blackmun was sworn in as an associate justice of the Supreme Court today, bringing the court to its full nine members for the first time in 55 weeks.

Blackmun succeeds former Justice Abe Fortas, who resigned May 15, 1969, because of public criticism of his off-the-bench financial activities.

Blackmun, 61, a Federal Circuit Court judge from Rochester, Minn., was President Nixon's third choice for the Fortas vacancy. The Senate rejected the first two U.S. Circuit Court judges Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. of South Carolina and G. Harrold Carswell of Florida.

Nixon was not expected to be present at the brief ceremony in the court's chambers, breaking a tradition of recent years in which a president came to the court to see his appointees sworn in.

It is important for the court to be at full strength, to head off split 4-4 decisions and to divide up the court's heavy case load among more justices.

The new justice, the 68th man to be seated in the tribunal's 168 year history, is a boyhood friend of Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, who will administer a combined judicial-constitutional oath.

Attorney General John N. Mitchell had the duty of presenting Blackmun's commission, which is read by Court Clerk John F. Davis. Justices swear to uphold the U.S. Constitution and to "do equal right to the poor and to the rich."

Hope Held For Soviet Agreement

VIENNA (UPI)—The United States still hopes to reach a comprehensive agreement with the Soviet Union at the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT) but may have to achieve it piece by piece, conference sources said today.

Negotiators for the two countries were meeting at 11 a.m. (8 a.m. EDT) in the Soviet Embassy for their 18th session.

The sources cautioned against reports that emphasize single areas of potential arms agreements, such as offensive missile launchers or antiballistic missile (ABM) defensive systems.

Despite the U.S. wishes for a comprehensive agreement, the sources said the fact that some areas, such as ABM, may be easier to negotiate than others may be lead to piecemeal pacts.

They noted the weapons systems are interlocking. For instance, the multibased missiles (MIRV) were developed to penetrate ABM, so a strict ABM curb could lead to an agreement on MIRV, they said.

Charges In Massacre Dropped

FT. MC PHERSON, Ga. (UPI)—Reliable military sources said the Army would announce today its dropping charges against one of four officers charged with murder in the alleged My Lai massacre.

A telephone source was set up between 3rd Army headquarters here and Ft. Meade, Md., where Capt. Thomas K. Williamson, 35, is staying.

Williamson's attorney, Robert A. McKinley of Newark, N.J., said he would try to get Williamson out of the barracks.

N.J. is charged with the murder of 28 Vietnamese who were killed in the My Lai massacre.

Job-Padding Claim Refuted

LEWISTON (UPI)—Gov. Don Samuelson Monday refuted a claim by former State Sen. Cecil Andrus that the Department of Administrative Services had added 1,000 employees to the state's payroll.

The claim was made here by Andrus, a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, in a speech to a group of his supporters.

"What my opponent hasn't said is that 830 of those people he's talking about are people who have gone to work in the Department of Education under the supervision of schools, an elected official, and not under my jurisdiction," Samuelson said.

The governor was here to address the two-day meeting of the state AFL-CIO.

Crops Not Damaged By Storm

Kimberly and Rupert received the brunt of Monday's rainstorm, but it caused little, if any damage, to farm crops in the area.

The storm dropped .73 of an inch at Kimberly and .81 of an inch at Rupert, while in other areas of Magic Valley the precipitation ranged from .13 to .55 of an inch.

The only damage the storm might have caused to farm crops would be to the alfalfa already cut and laying in the windrows. This storm will delay many in baling the hay.

The storm will cause most bean fields to crust when the weather warms up, but otherwise little damage to the crop itself.

The weather bureau reports in Twin Falls the amount of moisture from the storm was .43 of an inch.

Zoning Is Considered

Planning and Zoning Commission members have been asked by the city council to take a look at all of Shoshone Street in Twin Falls, particularly from the present commercial zone north to the Five Points Intersection.

City Council members have suggested the street be placed in a commercial zone which would require certain standards in esthetic design for commercial establishments. City Manager Jean Miller said it is realized by council members the property along Shoshone Street is more suitable to commercial use, but many fine homes also must be protected.

Because of this he said, the city is anxious to meet the needs of commercial interests, but to retain a design which will fit in with the downtown mall area and will assure an attractive street, with suitable plantings and an appealing appearance.

City officials said possibly a commercial-local classification, with esthetic development requirements, can be established. They turned the matter over to the planning and zoning commission for a solution.

Last week the city denied a commercial zone for a Kentucky Fried Chicken business near the Five Points, noting they were not necessarily opposed to commercial zoning on Shoshone Street, but not wishing to "spot zone" one piece of property while the entire street needs sound zoning plan.

Reds Report Gains In Italy

ROME (UPI)—The largest Communist party in the West, and its allies today won virtual control of three of Italy's 15 new regional governments in a "red belt" besiding the wealthy center of the nation.

Elsewhere, the Christian Democrats and their partners in the national government coalition showed well enough to control the rest of the regions.

The Communists and their Proletarian Socialist allies captured Emilia-Romagna outright, winning 29 of the 50 seats in the regional council. They won big pluralities in Tuscany and Umbria where the Socialist party—although part of the national coalition—was expected to join them in regional coalitions.

Hospital Funds Get Senate OK

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate passed compromise legislation Monday authorizing up to $2.70 billion during the next three years for hospitals and health facilities. It would be the biggest such expenditure since adoption of the Hill-Burton Act 24 years ago.

The bill is a compromise between the $1 billion, three-year measure approved earlier by the House, and a $3.2 billion, five-year measure adopted previously by the Senate. The House must give final approval.

—The House, with the key vote 223 to 101, established a 12-man study group to investigate "all aspects" of the Southeast Asia War and report back in 45 days.

—The House passed by voice vote bill sent to the Senate a bill extending for another year a $770 million program designed to spur growth in economically lagging rural areas.

—The Senate passed and sent to the White House a bill legalizing leasing of flu-cured tobacco acreage to farmers for terms of up to five years.

—The House Appropriations Committee voted $1.9 billion for construction of military installations, including $345.6 million for antiballistic missile sites.

Mandatory Jail Term Is Ignored

Probate Judge Eugene McCoy again Monday failed to follow a new Idaho ruling involving drunk driving and did not issue a 10-day jail sentence, now mandatory under Idaho law, to a man found guilty in his court of the offense.

Golden Bennett, attorney for Bill D. Schlund, said Tuesday the case will be appealed to District Court. Schlund was found guilty of a first offense drunk driving count Monday and Judge McCoy fined him $175 and $5 costs and issued a 30-day jail sentence, which was suspended.

This is the second instance recently where Judge McCoy has failed to follow a new Idaho ruling which requires all those convicted of drunk driving to serve a 10-day sentence. He said he will continue to ignore the ruling in cases involving first offenders.

Robert Galley, prosecuting attorney, said if the case is not appealed, he will file a writ of mandate with the District Court. The first case, involving James Dillon, was appealed, and Mr. Galley pointed out the appeal canceled out the effectiveness of any action which could be taken by his office in district court to require Judge McCoy to follow the letter of the new law.

Also Monday, Judge McCoy found George Edward Greene Jr., Burley, guilty of driving while his license was suspended and sentenced him to 90 days in the county jail and fined him $150 and $5 costs. Greene, who was involved in a traffic accident about two weeks ago, also was found guilty in Justice Court of drunk driving and fined $250 and $5 costs and sentenced to 90 days in the county jail.

The two justices of the peace in Twin Falls County have been following the new Idaho drunk driving code and issuing jail sentences in addition to fines.

equipment are the Garden Club; Floyd Gambrel, Buttrays Garden Center, Kimberly Nursery, Twin Falls Feed and Ice, Bingham Dairy, Oils Hall, Paul Reynolds and P. K. Kennedy, landscape architect from the U. S. Forest Service. The project was partially in the way of reclamation for damage done to the center by vandals recently. Young people were believed to have been responsible for several thousand dollars worth of damage to windows, which were shot-out-of-the-structure. Oils Hall, contractor, has offered a $100 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the damage.

Youth Who Tied Phone Is Charged

WALSENBURG, Colo. (UPI) — One of two persons who refused to give up a party line to a mother whose children were drowning was charged Monday as a juvenile delinquent. Huerfano County District Attorney Ernest Sandoyal said he filed juvenile delinquency charges against a 16-year-old girl and was considering misdemeanor charges against an adult woman. Neither was identified. The charges were brought after Mrs. Fred Pino of nearby Pictou, Colo., told Sandoyal she was denied use of a party line when she was trying to get help for her three sons. The boys—Freddie, Ruben and Richard, ages 13, 12, and 10—all drowned in a pond near their home last week when they tried to capture a duck they thought was their pet. A fourth brother who witnessed the accident ran home and told Mrs. Pino. The mother said she tried to use the phone, but two women on the line just laughed at her. A state law provides a maximum jail term of 90 days and a $1,000 fine for conviction of failure to yield a telephone party line during an emergency.

Called Off St. Anthony Center Has Problems

WHITEBIRD (UPI) — Another fruitless day of searching was put in Monday by Idaho County Sheriff's deputies in their attempts to find a car and its passengers in the Salmon River four miles south of here. The search for the car, missing since Thursday night, was resumed Sunday after being called off Friday following a more than three foot rise in the river since Thursday night.

Woman's Body Found In River

LOWELL, Idaho (UPI) — The body of Mrs. Walter G. LaFlesch, Bozeman, Mont., was retrieved along with the family car late Monday morning from the Lochsa River about 25 miles east of here where it had plunged from U. S. Highway 12 about dusk Sunday. Idaho County Sheriff Gene Fuzzell said the body of Mr. LaFlesch was still believed in the swift flowing river.

ISU Given Grant For Program

BOISE (UPI) — Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, praised Monday a Carnegie Corporation decision to award Idaho State University an $81,000 planning grant to develop a new doctoral program. Church said he was informed by the New York corporation that only 10 universities in the country had been selected for the planning grant. He said the funds would enable ISU to begin developing a doctor of arts program which would offer an alternative to the narrow specialization of the present Ph.D. degree offered in the United States. The new degree is designed to produce college and university professors with a broad academic training and a deeper understanding of education as well as specific training in teaching itself. Church said he was pleased ISU had been singled out to receive the grant, adding, "this program represents a new and creative approach in the field of education and will go a long way toward providing us with highly qualified college and university teachers."

Spanish War Vet Wants Horse Meat In Sausage

HELENA, Mont. (UPI) — The commander of the Montana Spanish - American War Veterans disbanded his chapter at a luncheon Monday, ordered a breakfast menu and complained because there was no horse meat in the sausage. Joe Montgomery, who will be 96 in August and is the only able-bodied member of the chapter left, said he would "blow caution to the winds" and treated more than 60 people to lunch. He then ordered a breakfast menu, saying he wanted a breakfast like he had back in 1898 and 99. Then, it consisted of fried eggs, potatoes and sausage. He looked at the meat portion and said gloomily, "they used to have horse meat in it." There are five or six other members of the Montana chapter, all in rest homes. Congratulatory messages

Cosmonauts Eye Mark For Time In Space

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soyuz 0 cosmonauts broke Russia's space endurance mark Monday amid predictions they would set a new record aloft to test man's ability to live in space. Cosmonauts Andrian Nikolayev and Vitaly Sevastianov completed 108 orbits around earth at 2:37 p.m. (7:37 a.m. EDT). They said they were "feeling well and eager to work." Soviet sources said they expected Soyuz 0 would remain in orbit for at least 15 days. American astronauts Frank Borman and James Lovell hold the world record of 13 days, 18 hours, set in 1965 aboard Gemini 7. The Soviet space endurance record was set by cosmonaut Valery F. Bykovsky in the 119-hour journey of Vostok 5 in 1963. Both Nikolayev and Sevastianov appeared to be cheerful and fit during their daily television show to earth. The Soviet news agency Tass said they carried out scientific and medical experiments to test man's physical ability to stay in space for long periods and to check out the improved version of the Soyuz craft.

Clean Earth

"Earth Day" has come and gone and the earth yet abides — a little dirtier, a little more shaporn, a little more crowded, a little closer to the environmental Armageddon...

But at least millions of Americans are becoming aware, as no generation before them needed to be aware, of how man has used and abused his natural world...

Ten years ago America set before itself another kind of goal, something that had never been done before in history...

To trot out that old but still serviceable cliché, if we can land men on the moon, if we can transport life across the void...

No answers but some interesting thoughts on that question were given on the eve of Earth Day by one who played a major role in the moon program...

A lot of work in science and technology had to be done to get men to the moon, said Werhner von Braun at the University of Akron...

The environmental challenge is not quite so straightforward. People in Los Angeles, for example, complain about the smog...

MR. SPECTATOR

Resort On Ice

A tourist resort in the empty vastness of Antarctica? Well, why not? A bit chilly much of the year, perhaps, inaccessible at times...

Plans now are underway for a swank hotel to be constructed on Ross Shelf, not far from the American research base at McMurdo Sound...

McMurdo Sound is no small outpost anymore. More than 1,000 residents have turned it into a thriving community. It could be they have found something much of the rest of the world is looking for...

IN RESEARCH

The research chief of the Defense Department in Washington naturally has an axe to grind when talking of funds allocated to research but discounting this bias...

Predicting the USSR is now about to seize technological leadership from the United States, Foster said, "we must expect more Russian firsts and fewer American firsts in the next five to 10 years because of the current Soviet momentum..."

Soviet expenditures for research and development — both for Angelos, says Von Braun. Make it a law that no one is permitted to drive his automobile and the smog would disappear overnight.

But the city of Los Angeles is structured in such a way that it depends on the automobile, as does a vital segment of the national economy.

Or take the dumping of refuse in rivers. If the laws were such that a stiff penalty were leveled on anybody dumping unprocessed refuse, we would have clean rivers very quickly.

The question, says Von Braun, is how do you go about implementing these laws without putting some companies out of business and their workers out of jobs?

In other words, we are dealing not just with technology and with things, but with people and the competing and conflicting interests between people.

The same is true in any industrialized country, whatever the arrangement of its economy. In Russia, where April 22 was not Earth Day but the 100th anniversary of Lenin's birth, everyone was urged to work all the harder that day to boost the nation's production...

It is easy to demonstrate in the streets for a clean environment, especially if one is a student and has the leisure provided by the very industrialized society that has created the crisis.

But now that Earth Day is over and the placards and the gas masks have been put away, what must come next is some very serious thinking, some concerted planning and the anticipation of some very real sacrifices and adjustments in life by all of us.

There were some faddish aspects about Earth Day, but the issue that gave rise to it is no fact that will go away if we ignore it. We are approaching the time when every day must be Earth Day.

military and civilian purposes — have grown from only half that of the United States 10 years ago to 20 percent less today, according to Foster.

"Clearly, the Soviets have correctly identified science and technology as the key to industrial strength and international power. They seem to be determined to overtake and surpass the United States in this, our traditional area of strength and leadership."

Although the U.S. is still training more scientists than the USSR, the Soviets are producing six times as many engineers each year. If this trend continues, it is difficult to escape Foster's conclusion about the eventual results.

LOT OF BANANAS

General Accounting Office investigators have turned up the intriguing fact that for about a dozen years beginning in the mid-1950s, the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare spent $64 million to finance research at seven schools on chimpanzees, gorillas, orangutans and other primates.

The overall project didn't upset the GAO as much as the discovery that a great part of the funds were ill spent. Such as the half million dollars that went to buy 300 acres of land, only 11 acres of which were used for the purpose intended.

It might be more to the point to question why HEW should spend $64 million just monkeying around. Whatever the purposes of the studies were supposed to be, the taxpayer can only conclude he has been made the biggest ape of all.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A South Vietnamese farmer tripped over a piece of wire sticking out of the sand, so the story goes, as he was walking in the dunes near the South China Sea east of the city of Hue. Thus he opened another grisly chapter in the Red massacre of thousands of civilians during the fabled Tet offensive of winter, 1968.

Angry, the farmer tugged on the wire. Out came a bony hand and arm and, ultimately, the whole body of a buried civilian whose hands had been wired behind his back before he was killed. At this and other similar sites, known now as the Sand Dune Finds, were uncovered the bodies of 808 other Hue civilians slaughtered by the Viet Cong.

Those discoveries — occurred between March and July in 1969. Two months later, another find — of 428 bodies — was made in the remote Da Mai Creek area 10 miles south of Hue. And last November, in another desolate sector east of Hue near the fishing village of Luong Vien, some 300 additional bodies were dug up in the Phu Tho salt flats.

It is estimated the latter find may finally come to 1,000, since some 1,948 Hue civilians are still unaccounted for.

The populace of Hue was not started to learn of these 1969 finds, Post-Tet estimates placed the number of missing near 5,800. Nearly 1,000 are presumed dead from accidents related to the bitter battle in which U.S. and South Vietnamese forces retook the city. Right after the fighting ceased, 1,200 massacred civilians were found at 10 sites in and near the city itself.

The newest and most graphic account of the Red Hue massacres is provided in a work called "The Viet Cong Strategy of Terror," by Douglas Pike, U.S. information service officer presently stationed in Tokyo but a long-time resident of Vietnam, a recognized authority on the VC and author of two penetrating books on the subject. What is the point of our dwelling on this grim business right now? Certainly not to deflect attention from un-forgivable violence being committed these days on the U.S. home front, or from the alleged atrocity deaths committed by U.S. soldiers last year at My Lai.

The real points are two: A good many Americans, some of them highly influential, are saying that if Hanoi's regulars and the VC were to triumph in South Vietnam, there would be no "bloodbath" visited upon the South Vietnamese.

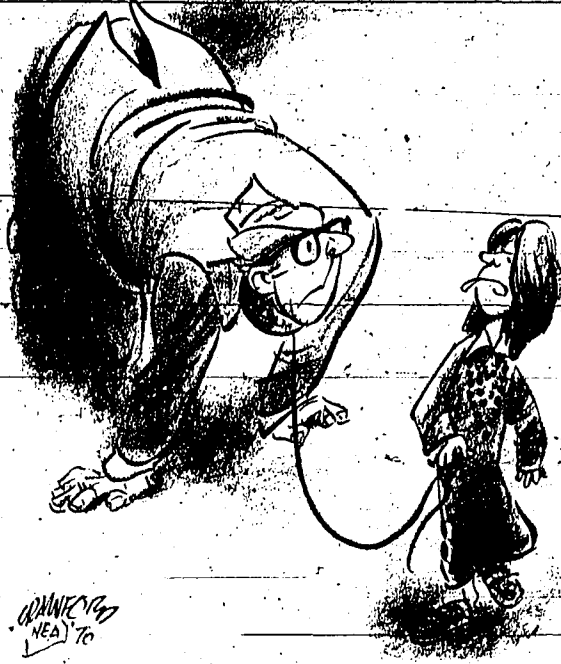

The slaughter was highly selective, beginning with an actual blacklist of administrative leaders, then embracing intellectuals (hated for their utter contempt of communism), a broad range of people called "social negatives," Hanoi's jargon for people tied to the old order, and, finally, witnesses who could identify the many secret VC who surfaced at the time of Tet. The second point, made by Pike but striking me with particular force, is how little the world — and self-styled humanitarian liberals in the country — have made of the horror at Hue. As Pike writes: "There was no agonized outcry. No demonstrations at North Vietnamese embassies around the world. (The late) Lord Russell did not send his 'war crimes tribunal' to Hue to take evidence and indict."

Unlike the famed assassinations by VC to intimidate villagers, these murderers meant to hide their killings. Helicopters had to destroy a canopy of tall trees to get access to the Da Mai Creek burial sites.

But now the "humanitarians" know. Yet where are their voices? Is their quotient of outrage exhausted in assault upon America's role in Vietnam? They say they care about the innocent Vietnamese. Really?

"Heel!"

ROBERT ALLEN AND JOHN GOLDSMITH Under Two Fronts

WASHINGTON — Leopards may not be able to change their spots, but the notorious Black Panthers are craftily trying to shed theirs.

To get away from its fear-some image and malodorous reputation for murderous crimes, sordid vice and violent revolution, the Black Panther Party (BPP) is now busily proselytizing and operating through two new fronts.

Their euphemistic cover names are — "National Committee to Combat Fascism" and "Black Community Information Centers."

Under the shelter of these innocuous-sounding fronts, BPP leaders are aggressively continuing organizing activities throughout the country despite claims that no new Black Panther chapters are being established. That disclaimer is a hoax and deliberate deception.

Late last year, the BPP national headquarters, Berkeley, Cal., authorized the formation of new Black Panther units under either of the two cover organizations.

It was also prescribed that the new groups, like existing Black Panther chapters, would be under complete BPP control and discipline; follow strictly all instructions from BPP national headquarters; advocate and support its programs and projects, such as "free breakfast for children" and distribute the BPP newspaper, "The Black Panther" and other BPP literature and propaganda — mostly of a virulent hate and violence-preaching, revolutionary character.

In effect, those national headquarters directives made it clear that members of the two cover organizations are actually Black Panthers and are to consider themselves as such. And they do: A check by this column confirmed that members of the two organizations openly refer to themselves as Black Panthers.

Also highly significant in the May 8, 1970, issue of "The Black Panther" is the "National Committee to Combat Fascism" was publicly identified as the "political organizational bureau of the BPP."

Strikingly indicative of the success of the wily BPP strategists is the number of groups that have been organized throughout the country under the guise of the two fronts.

Currently, "National Committee to Combat Fascism" units are operating in the following cities:

Washington, D.C.; Pittsburgh, Pa.; Detroit; Cleveland and Lima, Ohio; Milwaukee, Wis.; Tulsa, Okla.; Omaha, Neb.; Augusta, Ga.; Portland, Ore.; Bridgeport and Hartford, Conn.; Winston-Salem, N.C.; Newark, N.J.; East St. Louis, Ill.; Cambridge, Mass.; Atlantic City and Jersey City, N.J.

"Black Community Information Centers" are now functioning in Baltimore; New York City and Mount Vernon, N.Y. and Gary, Ind.

WASHINGTON — Hardly anyone has noticed it, but what was formerly known as the "Vietnamese" war is now being called the "Indochinese" war.

This is in absolute violation of Article XII of the Geneva Convention, which reads, "No one may change the name of a war without first submitting the name of the new war to the International Commission on War Names."

To find out how the United States managed to get away with changing the name of the war, without appealing to the commission, I sought out Claudium Nom de Plume, the Administration's legal adviser on war names.

"Mr. Nom de Plume, on April 30th of this year the United States changed the name of the war from Vietnamese to Indochinese. What legal grounds did we have for doing that?"

"Well, first of all I would like to say that technically it should not be called a war, but a police action. If it were legally a war then it would have to be declared as such by Congress. Since Congress has never declared that we're at war, we can call what we're doing out there any damn thing we want to."

"That technically is true," I said, "but everyone, including the President of the United States, has called it a war. Wouldn't it become a war just because of popular usage?"

"This seems to have happened, but we're not concerned with what people call it. From strictly a lawyer's point of view we have not been fighting a war, but Communist aggression. But even the spokesmen for the Pentagon refer to it as a war."

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

On Bleeding

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would an IUD (intra-uterine contraceptive device) cause excessive bleeding plus extensive menstrual flow? My periods are heavier, with large clots, which I never had before.

I saw my doctor. The Pap smear was normal but I was told I had a little infection and should return and have the device removed, as he felt that caused my problems.

Our family doctor does not approve of the device, but "the pill" did not agree with me. I like the device but feel that something should be done about the bleeding. I am 32 and have four children. — Mrs. O. K.

The IUDs (also called "coils" or "loops") work well for some women, not for others. They can cause a heavy menstrual flow and bleeding between periods. Such a heavy flow can produce anemia, which of course must be prevented. Further, the IUDs, in some women, cause enough irritation to encourage infection.

Thus I concur with your doctor that this may be the cause of your troubles. The Pap test is important to check for any malignant changes, but you passed that test.

If, after removal of the IUD excess bleeding persists, then you might need a D. & C. (dilation and curettage) to look for other possible causes. But if the bleeding ceases, then you've solved that much of the problem.

Since you don't tolerate the pill, your doctor can suggest other contraceptive methods, primarily the diaphragm.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 19, five-foot, one-inch, weight 137 pounds, and am steadily gaining. I've tried every low-calorie diet I've ever heard of, taken diet pills, even tried to skip a meal or two, but it still gains.

I am constantly tired, no matter how much I sleep, and my legs ache. My mother had thyroid trouble and was heavy. Could this be my trouble? What do you suggest I do? — Mrs. R. L. T.

Your remark about thyroid trouble should be followed up. Have your doctor (general practitioner or internist) check you up, with suitable tests. A "lazy thyroid" can rob a person of energy yet not reduce appetite — and the result is very likely to be overweight along with other problems.

So by all means have your metabolism checked — it is largely controlled by the thyroid. In addition, I suggest that you try the program mapped out in my booklet, "Lost Secrets of Reducing." Send 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for the booklet.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What about reusing plastic forks and spoons? Or should they be discarded? I have often washed them in soapy water, then rinsed with very hot water to use again.

I have been told this can be dangerous because germs cling to plastic and you could, for one, catch hepatitis. — Mrs. F. K.

Your technique sounds satisfactory to me. Food residue should be removed from any dish or utensil, metal or plastic, before a thorough washing.

I would discard plastic items if cracked or pitted. Thorough washing with very hot water will kill hepatitis virus.

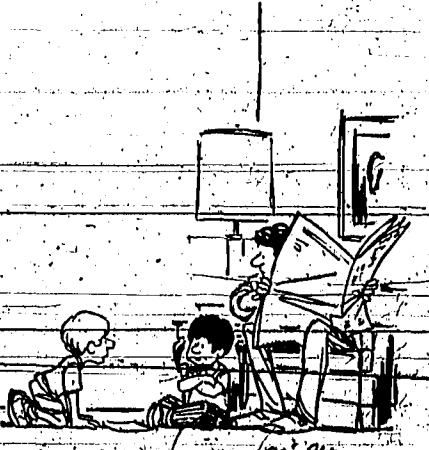

Note to E. M.: "Fibrosis" of the lungs means the presence of scar tissue, an indication that there has been inflammation or infection sometime in the past.

What about constipation? Many can be relieved of it, both mentally and physically, by reading the booklet, "The Way To Stop Constipation." For a copy write to Dr. Thosteson in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and 25 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

How to get rid of leg cramps and foot pains? The answer may be simple. Write to Dr. Thosteson in care of Times-News for a copy of the booklet, "How To Stop Leg Cramps and Foot Pains," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters.

Demos To Convene This Weekend In Twin Falls For State Assembly

As many as 800 Democratic party members and officials will be convening in Twin Falls Friday and Saturday for the biennial Democratic Party Assembly to select nominees for the party ballot in August and to approve a platform.

A total of 318 official delegates will be named from throughout the state to vote in the delegate assembly and many wives, speakers, candidates and their staffs also will be attending.

Vincent Smazal, Twin Falls County chairman, and convention host, said plans are being made to accommodate between 500 and 800 Democrats during the two-day session.

Highlighting the convention will be an address by Thomas J. Foley, U. S. Representative from Washington. He will speak Friday night following the anniversary banquet at the Elks Club. Congressman Foley will be introduced by U. S. Senator Frank Church (D Idaho).

Congressman Foley is now serving his third term from Washington State's fifth district. He is a member of the House Committee on Agriculture and chairman of the subcommittee on Domestic Marketing and Consumer Relations.

Mr. Foley is the seventh ranking Democrat on the Agriculture Committee and also serves on subcommittees on forests, livestock and feed grains. In addition, he is a member on the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, and is on three subcommittees: reclamation, mines and territorial and insular affairs.

His leadership was successful in a bipartisan effort to protect the Pacific Northwest's water resources against diversion to California and the southwest and he gained national recognition for his leadership in the enactment of consumer protection legislation.

Before going to Congress in 1964, he held a number of state positions in Washington and for more than three years served as special counsel to Senate Interior Committee Chairman Henry M. Jackson.

In addition to selecting nominees, Democratic delegates will elect state party officers. E. T. Waters, Boise, is unopposed for re-election as chairman, although he has announced plans to resign after Aug. 4, giving the winning Democratic nominee for Governor an opportunity to select a new chairman.

There are three announced candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial post and each must obtain a minimum of 20 per cent of the delegate vote to be placed on the Aug. 4 primary election ballot. Candidates are Lloyd Walker, Twin Falls attorney; Cecil Andrus, North Idaho, and Vernon Ravenscroft, Tuttle, currently a state legislator. Local party officials say in all probability all three will appear on the primary ballot.

Convention sessions will be held in the Fine Arts Building at the College of Southern Idaho and registration of delegates will be held each day in the Holiday Inn lobby.

Mr. Waters will call the convention to order Friday morning at CSI with initial business being the appointment of temporary convention secretaries, naming of a temporary convention chairman, reports of credentials, and resolutions committees and election of a permanent chairman. A report will be given by the platform committee during the afternoon session. The keynote address Friday morning will be by Paul S. Boyd, Boise, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor.

On the agenda for Saturday will be the nomination of a first district congressional candidate; second district congressional candidate, lieutenant governor, attorney general, state auditor, state treasurer, and superintendent of public instruction during the morning session.

Saturday afternoon, delegates will complete nominations for governor and select a state chairman and fill other state offices in the party. National committeemen and committeewomen are elected during presidential election years and are not on the 1970 ballot.

7 Soldiers Killed In Training Blast

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (UPI)—A dynamite explosion on a crowded demolition training range killed seven Green Beret soldiers and injured five others, three seriously, Monday at Ft. Bragg.

Cause of the blast was not immediately determined and officials said details of the incident would be withheld pending a military investigation.

A spokesman said, however, that a quantity of TNT used for instruction purposes exploded.

Police Are Warned On Controls

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Nixon administration told the nation's police Monday their objective should be to assure that a demonstration will not deteriorate to the point that the use of firearms is necessary to control the crowd.

The warning was contained in a 43-page report on political demonstrations here during President Nixon's 18 months in office.

Deletions from the report, however, was a much stronger warning that even sniper fire should not warrant careless police action.

In draft form, the report released by the Justice Department said: "Appropriate police action will never permit a demonstration to deteriorate to the point that the use of firearms is necessary to control the crowd."

"Even when the lives of law enforcement officers or citizens are endangered by sniper fire, great care must be used to assure that the individual causing the shooting is the only object of police action involving the use of firearms."

"It must be recognized that the use of firearms is inconsistent with the government objective of protecting the lives of its innocent citizens," the draft report stated.

All that language was omitted from the final report distributed by the Justice Department.

But the first of those sentences had been rewritten to read in the final report: "The objective of appropriate police action is to assure that a demonstration will not deteriorate to the point that the use of firearms is necessary to control the crowd."

A justice department spokesman said he could not explain the omission of the stronger language. He added that reporters were not meant to use the draft of the report.

The final report, in essence, emphasized that the Nixon administration has provided an atmosphere "in which each citizen shall at all times be free and unrestrained to pursue the peaceful and lawful exercise of first amendment rights to free speech."

sector of North Carolina. The injured were taken by ambulance to Womack Army Hospital, located on the base. Officials said names of the soldiers who were killed or injured would be withheld until relatives can be notified.

Candidate Gives List Of Issues

CALDWELL (UPI)—Republican gubernatorial candidate Dick Smith Monday cited education, environmental control, taxes, spending and development of Idaho's economy as main issues in the primary campaign.

In a statement prepared for delivery to the Canyon County Republican Luncheon Club, Smith said he believed his proposed programs could be implemented without a tax increase.

He said all that was necessary was to "re-examine existing programs, assign new spending priorities and cut back on wasteful administrative procedures."

Smith said the state could not afford to continue "wasteful administrative expenditures."

"It's a luxury Idaho cannot afford. I agree that we should look to business for help in running government, but I believe we must run the state as a state—not as a corporation.

The function of the state is to serve all the people. The function of business is to make a profit and serve a few people."

Pollution and environmental contamination problems, Smith said, were problems which were serious but which could be conquered, although he added, "there is no simple answer. The problem cannot be solved with a 'snap of a finger'."

Smith said the division of environmental improvement must go ahead with its programs of enforcing existing regulations and eliminating existing environmental problems.

But, he said, first priority should be assigned to setting up guidelines for industry moving into Idaho, adding it was "patently unfair"—to invite industries into the state "and then force them to comply with a series of patch and scratch programs for environmental control."

The state must make it clear that it has a definite program—designed to keep its air and water clean.

If elected, Smith said, he would expand the Department of Agriculture to allow it to better aid farmers hit by the cost-price squeeze.

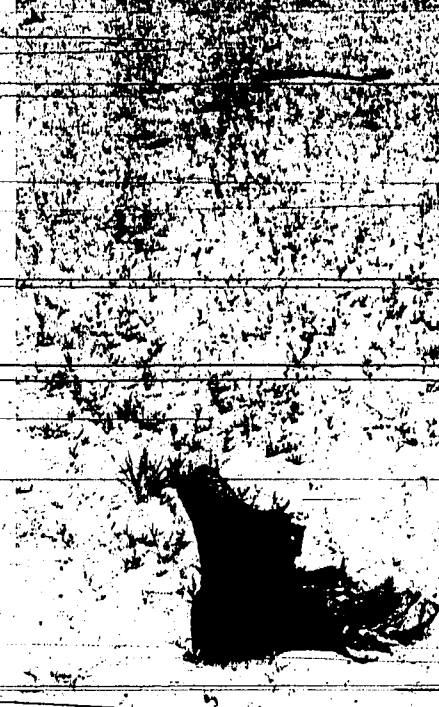

He also said he would work closely with Idaho's congressional delegation and the federal government to formulate programs to bolster Idaho's timber and mining industries.

Jordan Tells Of Indian Case

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Len Jordan, R-Idaho, said Monday President Nixon had requested a $1.1 million judgement to Idaho's Nez Perce Indian Tribe to be added to a pending supplemental appropriations bill.

Jordan said the request covered the judgement of $1,119,071 awarded by the Indian Claims Commission.

Jordan said the judgement was handed down too late to be included in the President's April 21 request for the payment of claims in the supplemental appropriations bill approved by the House.

They admitted that open pot burning contributes to air pollution but asked for a five-year phase-out from open pot heat-

"Seven" Ask For Black Freedom

CHICAGO (UPI)—U.S. marshals and police tussled with shouting supporters of Bobby Seale in the lobby of the federal building Monday after members of the "Chicago Seven" exhorted demonstrators to free the Black Panther national chairman "by any means necessary."

Thompson has week succeeded Thomas A. Foran, who resigned as U.S. attorney after prosecuting the "Chicago Seven." Seale was not present in court Monday.

One protester was arrested after attacking a police officer. At least one window was smashed in a door of the modernistic building. A false alarm brought six fire engines to the scene.

Hundreds of persons, most of them blacks, marched around the building and listened to speeches by David T. Dellinger, Rennie C. Davis, and Leo Weiner, who were co-defendants with Seale during early stages of the riot-conspiracy trial last fall.

Seale was severed from the trial by U.S. District Court Judge Julius J. Hoffman after he repeatedly disrupted the trial with courtroom outbursts.

Seale's trial on charges of conspiring to incite riots during the 1968 Democratic National Convention subsequently was set for Monday, but Hoffman continued it until Sept. 15 at the request of the acting U.S. attorney, James R. Thompson. Thompson told the court a murder-plot conspiracy trial involving Seale was still in the pretrial motion stage in Connecticut. He also said he needed time to familiarize himself with Seale's case here.

Miss Huston, Campa Say Nuptial Vows

FILER — A candlelight Nuptial Mass in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church, Scottsdale, Ariz., united in marriage Kathryn A. Huston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huston, Filer, and Richard V. Campa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ricardo Campa, Scottsdale.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father William Hoaly, St. Jerome's of Glendale Roman Catholic Church, before background decorations of candelabra flanked by sprays of blue roses, with white chrysanthemums and Easter lilies on the altar and rose nosegays on the altar railing. Each pew was marked with a white candle and blue ribbon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress which had been designed and made by Helen Kuykendall. The floor-length gown of candlelight crepe was fashioned with a high, Victorian collar and full silk organza sleeves with deep fitted cuffs. Lace appliques adorned the full sweeping train and the sleeves, and two floor-length lace panels were gathered to the empire back. Lace panels accented the front of the gown and a full row of pearl buttons buttoned the back. A scalloped lace bolero completed the ensemble.

A lace Juliet cap held the bride's floor-length veil of silk illusion which was adorned with leadroot pearls. She carried an orchid on top of a misal given her by her grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Harrington, which was entwined around a rosary, a gift from Jack Huston, her brother. She carried a hand-crocheted handkerchief from the mother of the bridegroom.

Miss Kuykendall, her roommate, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. George Hulbert, Twin Falls, Ann Campa and Diane Campa, twin sisters of the bridegroom. Gail Campa, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Ned Campa, Phoenix, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Ado Campa, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Huston, brother of the bride, and Patrick O'Brien, Patrick

MRS. RICHARD V. CAMPANA

Hedger and Dan Hedger were altar boys.

A dinner for 250 guests was held at Scottsdale House. After the cake-cutting ceremony, the guests danced to the Charles Lewis Trio. The four-tiered chocolate wedding cake was iced in white and topped with a Catholic Cane cross.

Mrs. Doris Robertson was in charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Ned Campa and Allyn Campa displayed the gifts.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Mexico. They reside at 7720 E. Heather Brae, Scottsdale.

Special out-of-town guests included Mrs. Alice Huston, Pico River, Calif., grandmother of the bride; Paul Huston, Reedsport, Ore., brother of the bride and Mrs. James Matkins and Patrice Matkins, aunt and cousin of the bride.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem I can't discuss with anyone I know. It's my husband. He's a wonderful person. The only thing wrong with him is that he can't get really excited about me unless I put on sheer lingerie and high heels, and he can tie me up with ropes.

Aside from that he is a faithful husband, and a good provider. I am 24 and he is 27 and we've been married for nearly 3 years and so far have no children. (We both work.)

My husband feels guilty that he should enjoy something so much that is find repulsive and frightening. He has pleaded with me to be more understanding. He is always after me to do this. It's the only thing we ever fight about. Do you think he could be dangerous? He isn't mean or cruel about anything else. He never suggested anything like this before we were married and we went steady for 2 years. Should I call it quits?

NO NAME IN MAINE

DEAR NO NAME: If your husband insists that you submit to a farouf fellsch which you find "frightening and repulsive" — that's cruel enough to call it quits. How "dangerous" he could be is anybody's guess, but from what you say about him, you are courageous—and perhaps foolish to stick around to find out.

DEAR ABBY: Recently you recommended GAMBLERS ANONYMOUS which I am sure was a big help to many compulsive gamblers. I have wished many times that there was an ADULTERERS ANONYMOUS for people like myself who are compulsive adulterers.

Don't laugh. It is a serious problem. I have a wonderful husband, and family, but I have been involved in so many adulterous affairs that I can no longer count them. I am not oversexed. In fact, I'm just the opposite. I can't for the life of me understand why I deliberately get myself into such miserable situations which offer no sexual fulfillment, and put me in danger of losing my wonderful husband, and everything that is dear to me, if discovered.

Can't something on the order of Alcoholics Anonymous be organized for us?

WEAK SISTER

DEAR WEAK: The only real help I can recommend for you is psychiatric help, for not until you understand what motivates you to behave as you do, will you be able to control your actions, which are clearly destructive. I can't imagine one compulsive adulterer telephoning another and hoping to be talked out of it.

DEAR ABBY: My piano teacher falls asleep during my lessons, and when she wakes up she makes me go thru the whole thing again. Can you give me some help?

TAKING LESSONS

DEAR TAKING: Your piano teacher is the one who needs the help. Tell your mother. You may be a "dream" of a pupil—but this is ridiculous!

DEAR ABBY: God bless "WALKING A TIGHTROPE," that wonderful woman who didn't want to continue to accept child support money from her "ex" because she had remarried and didn't need it, and her "ex" had remarried and needed it desperately to feed and clothe the children of his second wife, whom he had adopted. Tell her that here is one lawyer who says that even the her present "well to do" husband doesn't want to let her "ex" off the hook for child support. HE has nothing to say about it. She may waive the money if she wants to.

Hippies May Cause Food Stamp Program's End

HAILEY — Hippies may be the cause of the Food Stamp Program's termination in Blaine County.

County commissioners Monday afternoon decided to continue the program another week on "probation" before deciding whether or not to cancel the federally-sponsored program.

They note much controversy has arisen among county taxpayers because of the "hippy type" individuals being granted the assistance. Each

Thursday when applications for the stamps are taken at the county courthouse here, the building has been filled with applicants and it is felt many of them are not local residents deserving of the assistance.

According to Robert Shelake,

Public Assistance official, 19 DPA recipients and 18 households are receiving stamps in the county. These households represent 20 individuals who are not on public assistance.

"We've already had a lot more response than we had anticipated at first in the county," Mr. Shelake said. Because of the program is financed by the Department of Agriculture, it is not required that an individual work or be seeking employment to be eligible. And many county residents are opposed to the plan, because they believe it will only invite more undesirable to the county to live cheaply.

Commissioners said they believe requirements similar to the DPA should be enlisted for those getting food.

Most recent reason for the negative light in which the food stamp program is viewed was the vandalism at the courthouse lawn where grass was torn out by the roots and numerous obscene phrases were left in the lawn by unidentified individuals waiting to apply for food stamps.

If commissioners choose to eliminate the program, a 60-day waiting period must be observed before the plan actually is eliminated locally.

Bid Opening Set On Hailey's Long Delayed Sewage System

HAILEY — Bids for the first phase of Hailey's long awaited water and sewage system will be opened 8 p. m. June 29 at the City Hall.

The city limits. It has been proposed that the church trade the land to the city in exchange for engineering services to that surrounding property also owned by the church. No contract has been drawn up.

Engineer William Briggs, Boise, reported during the City Council meeting Monday night, that plans and specifications for the introductory phase will include installation of water transmission pipe to city limits.

The work will involve installation of 8 inch and 10 inch perforated underdrain pipe, 10 inch and 12 inch interceptor drain pipe, construction of a concrete inlet box, interceptor man holes, 12 inch transmission pipeline with release valves, construction of a pressure regulating station building, furnishing and installing flow measuring equipment, fluoridation equipment, and chlorination equipment.

Mr. Briggs noted that the contractor will be given 120 days to complete the project. He added that specifications for the second phase, which will include the sewage treatment facilities and trunk lines should also be ready soon.

Negotiations are presently under way between the LDS Church for 12 acres just south of

Chairmen Named For Buhl Fete

BUHL — Buhl Jaycees have named chairmen for Sagebrush days activities slated in Buhl on July 3 and 4. Serving as general co-chairmen of the event are Jerry Kaster and Willy Price, according to Bobb Fields, Jaycee president.

City officials leveled criticism at the local taxicab company in their Monday night meeting, after reports were received indicating the company has discontinued all Sunday cab service blaming city insurance coverage requirements.

City officials pointed out no ordinance has yet been adopted on insurance coverage requirements and figures have been requested from the company as to costs of increasing protection, but none have been received. Monday night council members asked City Attorney William Langley to prepare a new ordinance which taxicab companies would be required to carry a minimum of $10,000 property damage and $25,000 public liability for an accident involving one person, and up to $50,000 public liability on multiple person accidents. This is a reduction from the original proposal which had not been acted on despite two readings of the ordinance.

Board members met with Carl Berg of the Twin Falls Insurance Agents Association to discuss insurance coverage for the coming year. At the recommendation of the insurance representatives a reappraisal of all school buildings and properties in the district will be undertaken to establish insurance coverage at true property values.

Discussion was also held in zoning of trustee zones within the school district and an attempt will be made before next year's trustee election to revise some boundaries although no additional zones will be established.

Two new teachers were hired and both will teach at Morningside Elementary School. Mrs. Mary Nelson will teach fifth grade and Mrs. Shirley Dickerson, third grade.

T.F. Police Probing Incident

Police are continuing to investigate an incident early Monday in which a man was found tarred and injured, wandering near Twin Falls.

The man, identified as James W. Lucas, 26, lately of Reno, Nev. remains hospitalized at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital in fair condition.

City, county and state officers are cooperating in the investigation. Tim Qualls, captain of detectives, Twin Falls Police Department, said detectives are processing a scene in the 200 block of Shoshone Street South where the tarring may have taken place. He said they have found evidence that the tarring did take place in this area.

He also said a wrecked car which was found near the 25-30 junction in the area where Mr. Lucas wandered into a farm home, also is being processed. The car is reported to have been stolen from a used car lot on Shoshone Street.

THIS SO-CALLED "PEACE" symbol in the lawn of the Blaine County Courthouse at Hailey and other phrases left on the lawn by unidentified individuals waiting to apply for food stamps have caused Blaine county commissioners to consider terminating the federally-sponsored program. The intentions were left on the lawn by tearing the grass out by the roots, but officials say they believe the grass will eventually grow out to cover the obscenities.

Airport Bid Rejected At Hailey

HAILEY — Both bids submitted for a fixed based operation at the Friedman Memorial Airport were rejected Monday after a special meeting of the airport commissioners and Chat Moulton, director of the State Board of Aeronautics.

Valley Charter, operated by William Brandt, and Simplot Aviation Inc., operated by J. K. Simplot Co., submitted bids, but both were considered vague and incomplete, according to commission members.

The operator is being sought to occupy the vacant Johnson Flying Services facilities at the airport.

More detailed specifications will be prepared and it is anticipated that bids may again be opened in about a month.

During his address, Mr. Clarke reported that Congress is now considering a 1970 emergency housing bill which would provide $230 million in subsidy to the FHLB for distribution to the Savings and Loan institutions to be made available to the public at a reduced rate of interest.

During his annual report, President Kleebs noted that the FHLB of Seattle boasted total assets to date of nearly $500 million, and total liabilities of about $375 million. The advance in business in the first quarter on 1970 was more than three times the volume experienced in the same period in 1969, although business dropped considerably in April and May of this year.

The board agreed to begin closing the 14 foot runway extension at the airport on July 6. The closing will be financed by the county and the State Aeronautics Board, with each supplying crew members.

Delegates spent Monday afternoon in recreational activities, but continued business Tuesday morning with the first general session of the Pacific Northwest Conference. During the morning, Norman Strunk, executive vice president of the United States Savings and Loan League, Chicago, Ill., discussed a program for progress; and John Horne, president of the Investors Mortgage Insurance Co., Boston, Mass., discussed the savings and loan business — short range and long range.

Chamber At Hailey Sets Tour Plans

HAILEY — Hailey Chamber of Commerce members have agreed to participate with the cost of refreshments for a group of Canadian youngsters which may stop in Hailey later this summer.

Correspondence from the group in Saskatoon, Sask., Canada, revealed that a tour schedule is presently being drawn up for late July and early August, with a tentative stop in Hailey. The group would be equipped with films on their country and desire to be given similar information on this area. 765 Daughters of Bethel No. 30 have agreed to chaperone the group while here.

Also during this week's chamber meeting, President George Fritz reported on the Saturday meeting of the Northside Communities in Hailey. Some 38 members, including six from the Twin Falls Chamber, were in attendance for the special tour, which left Hailey for the Wood River watershed. That leg of the tour was conducted by the Ketchum Ranger Station.

From there the group traveled to the Salmon Drainage of the Sawtooth area, in Redfish Lake for a barbecue, and to Stanley for a ball.

Stressed during the demonstration was the forest service's desire to preserve the scenic beauty of the area, especially through zoning regulations.

Iowa Athletics Are Subject Of Inquiry By NCAA And Big Ten

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Big Ten Conference are conducting an inquiry into the operations of the University of Iowa Athletic department, Samuel Fahr, chairman of the Iowa athletic board, revealed Monday.

Fahr said the inquiry is specifically directed at the operations of the Iowa football program, plagued with disputes, resignations and embarrassing publicity following a power struggle between head football coach Ray Nagel and Athletic Director Forest

Evashevski. The controversy was highlighted by the resignation of Evashevski and the firing, then rehiring, of Nagel by the board. Depending on the seriousness of the charges, Iowa might get by with a reprimand or could possibly experience an extended period of probation. Football may be the only program affected, but all competitive sports could be involved.

Fahr said the university's notification had not been specific with regard to the source or basis for the inquiry. However, he noted that Big Ten Commissioner William R. Reed "had made it clear that the inquiry relates to rules governing recruitment and financial assistance of student athletes."

Reliable sources said the inquiry is apparently into a recent scandal over padded expense and travel vouchers submitted by assistant football coaches. A state investigation revealed six assistants of Nagel had submitted false copies of bills to cover a total of about $1,200 in lodging, food and bar expenses.

Iowa Attorney General Richard Turner, who personally investigated the situation, placed most of the blame for the discrepancies on Evashevski and said he would not recommend criminal prosecution of the assistant coaches involved.

Fahr said the university will "cooperate fully" with the NCAA and Big Ten in conducting the inquiry and directed all athletic department personnel to cooperate with conference officials.

"If the allegations involved in this inquiry prove baseless, the matter will end there," Fahr said. The board chairman said there would be no further comment on the inquiry from the university, the athletic board or athletic department personnel.

"The findings of the inquiry will be made public by the conference and the NCAA as they see fit," he said. In Chicago, Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed confirmed the conference is investigating the university's athletic program. But he said he could add "nothing" to the statement of Iowa officials about the allegations of wrong doing and that he would have "no further comment" until the Big Ten investigation has ended.

He said that when the investigation has been completed he would either inform Iowa that there is no reason to make charges of rules violations or, if violations are found, the case would be placed before the Big Ten Athletic Directors. Reed said he could not estimate how long it might take to complete the Big Ten investigation.

Krausse Halts White Sox For Brewers 5-2

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—The Milwaukee Brewers, sparked by a leadoff homer by Tommy Harper, broke in an early 5-0 lead Monday night and rode Lew Krausse's six-hit pitching to a 5-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Rules Board For NHL Cuts Stick Curve

MONTREAL (UPI)—National Hockey League players will have to use sticks with a shallower curve, the league's Rules Committee decided Monday.

The committee ordered the allowable curve—the scoop depth of hockey sticks—cut from an inch to a half inch on the first day of the four-day NHL meetings.

Highlight of the meetings comes Wednesday, when the two new teams, the Vancouver Canucks and Buffalo Sabres, get to stock their rosters with players from other league teams in an expansion draft.

Blair said "we are happy to have Gump back with us. He received a moderate increase plus a great incentive bonus in his contract. He helped us get into the playoffs last season and together with Cesare Maniago we have a great goalie combination. These are the two we are going to protect in Wednesday's expansion draft."

In other decisions by the rules committee, it was decided that the league president will be empowered to fine or suspend players involved in fights and disturbances, other than the players penalized by the referee.

The committee also ruled that when there are coincident minor penalties involving a goalkeeper, a player on the ice at the time of the incident must serve the goalie's sentence rather than a player from the bench.

Several other committee ideas need the stamp of the NHL Board of Governors before they become official.

There could be an increase in the amount of money involved for fines. Home teams may be required to wear white-based uniforms and the visiting clubs would wear colored sweaters to allow fans to see the various patterns that the teams display. This is a reversal to the form used now.

The idea of a free face off when a team intentionally delays the game could be used on an experimental basis during the fall training camp period.

North Stars Set To Name New Coach

MONTREAL (UPI)—The Minnesota North Stars of the National Hockey League have called a press conference to name a new coach here Tuesday morning.

The likely choice was thought to be 42-year-old Jack Gordon, who coached the Cleveland Barons of the American Hockey League last year. However, North Star general manager Wreh Blair refused to comment on the possible selection of Gordon.

Gordon was formerly assistant general manager with the New York Rangers. There was some speculation that former Boston Bruins coach Harry Sinden would take the Minnesota job. However, a Boston team spokesman, Herb Ralby, said Boston general manager Bill Schmidt had told him Sinden had no interest in the North Star post.

Minnesota's coach last year, Charlie Burns, was a player, coach, and the team has already announced he will be a player only in the coming season and another coach will be hired.

Mets Sell Koonce, Call Up Rookie From Tidewater

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Mets, seeking to strengthen their bullpen, announced Monday they have sold relief pitcher Cal Koonce to the Boston Red Sox in a straight cash deal.

Koonce was 0-2 in 13 appearances with the Mets this season. To fill in the vacancy left by Koonce's departure, the Mets called up from Tidewater of the International League 23-year-old Rick Fulkerson. He is 3-0 in relief appearances with Tidewater.

Fulkerson was called up to replace Koonce in the Mets' rotation Monday.

Shamsky Homer Lets N.Y. Snap 5-Game Skid, 2-0

HOUSTON (UPI)—Art Shamsky belted a two-run homer and Jim McAndrew hurled a five-hitter Monday night as the New York Mets snapped a five-game losing streak with a 2-0 victory over the Houston Astros.

Shamsky, the Mets' leading hitter with a .318 average, lined a shot into the rightfield pavilion after a single by Cleon Jones in the sixth. The blast ended Jack Billingham's scoreless inning string at 2 1/2 and tagged him with his first loss in four decisions. It was the first Met victory in the Astrodome since August of 1968. McAndrew, gaining his first career victory over the Astros, faced only 19 batters over the first six innings in boosting his record to 2-4.

Ken Venturi Fails In U.S. Open Qualifying

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (UPI)—Ken Venturi, winner of the 1964 U.S. Open Golf Championship, failed to qualify for the tournament this year when he fired a dismal 75-75-150 over the Charlotte Country Club Monday.

Venturi, seeking one of the 18 places available here, was eight strokes behind the cutoff tally of 142. Top scorer was Tony Evans of Fayetteville, N.C., who posted a 69-65-134, a stroke ahead of Lou Graham of Nashville, Tenn. and Bob Stanton of Algiers, La.

Getting in with 138 was Kel Nagle of Sydney, Australia, who had an even round of 69 for 136, a stroke ahead of Bert Green of Sun River, Ore. The two places available at Portland, Ore., went to Bob Johnson of Tacoma, Wash. with a 66-71-139 and Pat Fitzsimmons of Salem, Ore. with a 75-67-142.

WBC Supports Move Against Champ Laguna

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI)—The California Athletic Commission said Monday it has received the unanimous support of the World Boxing Council in pressuring lightweight champion Ismael Laguna of Panama to defend his title.

Bob Turley, executive director of the California commission, said he received the backing of the WBC at its meeting last week in Madrid, Spain. Turley said Laguna would be suspended in California if he fails to defend his title within an appropriate time.

The WBC guides professional boxing in Europe, most of the Orient and in Central America under its president, Justiano Montano of Manila.

Turley also said that Edward Dooley, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, has agreed with California's position and has pledged that his state would honor the suspension.

Ready This Month

ATLANTA (UPI)—Ron Reed, the Atlanta right-hander who broke his right collar bone in spring training, was sent to the Braves' Shreveport, La., farm club Monday to work himself back into shape.

The Braves said Reed probably would spend about two weeks with Shreveport. They hope to have him ready for major league play late this month.

Clay To Fire Attorney For Asking Judge

NEW YORK (UPI)—Former heavyweight champion Muhammad Ali said Monday he will fire his attorney for asking Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black for permission to fight present titleholder Joe Frazier in Toronto, Canada.

All is free on $5,000 bond while his conviction for draft evasion is before the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, and he cannot leave the country without court permission. Lower courts have turned down requests for him to go to Japan and Toronto to box.

"You can say that I'm going to fire my lawyer, Chauncey Eskridge," the deposed champion said. "He was using my name without my permission. I told him I'm not interested and that they're not going to let me leave the country anyway, but he went ahead."

"He told me he wants to get me a license to fight whether I use it or not," he added. "He said that way it'll be up to me to accept it or reject it. People everywhere are trying to get me a license, but I tell them all I'm not interested."

All's attorneys told Black that a fight has been arranged against Frazier in the Maple Leaf Gardens in August or September if permission is granted for Clay to leave the country. The attorneys said the money was needed for "extensive alimony payments," plus legal fees and the expense of keeping in top physical condition.

Since he refused to be inducted into the Army, Ali, also known as Cassius Clay, has been unable to get a boxing license to fight in this country. His petition said he would be out of the country only 18 hours and would be willing to have A.S. Marshals accompany him.

The victory moved the Mets into a third place tie with the Cardinals four and one-half games behind the Chicago Cubs in the Eastern Division.

At Dallas, Tom Kite, Jr. of Austin and Bob Dickson of Muskogee, Okla. topped six qualifiers with identical 70-69-139s. Corker DeLoach of Humble, Tex. had a 69-72-141 while Ben Crenshaw of Austin and River McBea had 142s.

Kite, DeLoach and Crenshaw are amateurs. Kite is a student at the University of Texas and DeLoach is the No. 1 man on the University of Houston's team, but Crenshaw has just graduated from Austin High and is headed for the U. of Texas.

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—The owners of the Los Angeles Stars basketball team indicated Monday they would shift the American Basketball Association club to Salt Lake City. They made the change all but official by announcing a luncheon Wednesday for Salt Lake newsmen and promising "the news will be exciting."

Owner Bill Daniels and club president Vince Boryla sent telegrams to the newsmen inviting them to a luncheon at the Salt Palace arena, which would be the new home floor of the ABA's number two team.

Salt Lake City has been bidding for the ABA franchise along with Anaheim, Calif., where the Stars spent their first year in the league; 1967-68, before switching to Los Angeles. Albuquerque, N.M., and Kansas City, Mo., also had been mentioned in the past as potential new homes for the Stars but apparently were never in serious consideration.

The Stars, whose roster includes Merv Jackson, former Utah ace, and Craig Raymond, a post man from Brigham Young University, reached the finals in the recent ABA playoffs. They bowed to the Indiana Pacers in six games.

At a news conference several weeks ago in Salt Lake City, Daniels, a Denver, Colo., cable television executive, said if the franchise was moved to Salt Lake, he hoped to play in other Utah cities as well.

He mentioned Ogden and Provo, Utah's second and third largest cities, as potential sites for some of the Stars' home games.

3/4 Million Chinook Salmon Smolts Ready

SALMON (UPI)—Paul Cuplin, state hatchery supervisor, Idaho Fish and Game Department, said more than three-fourths of a million chinook salmon smolts are ready to start their downstream migration from Idaho hatcheries to the Pacific Ocean.

He said about 500,000 fall chinook smolts propagated at the Oxbow Fish Hatchery will be trucked nearly 30 miles and released below Heils Canyon Dam directly into the Snake River system.

The Pahlsmeyer Salmon Hatchery has released about 307,000 spring chinook smolts.

Economist Defends Clause As Flood Trial Continues

NEW YORK (UPI) — Statistics, not the usual figures showing batting figures, home runs and earning run averages, were used in the courtroom Monday to show that salaries of baseball players have soared upward during the past five years.

Garrett Makes It Official, He'll Try To Make Majors

NEW YORK (UPI) — Almost immediately after Mike Garrett won the 1965 Helaman Trophy as the nation's outstanding college football player, he was asked if he thought he could play as a pro despite his 5-foot-8, 185-pound frame.

"There are a lot of small people who play pro ball," Garrett said, "and I think I can make it."

Monday, Garrett announced officially that he would leave his status as a two-time all pro running back with the world champion Kansas City Chiefs after the 1970 football season to begin a career in baseball.

"People said I was too small to do a lot of things," Garrett explained. "One of those things was pro football and another was professional baseball."

Garrett said he is not concerned that he will be losing money by switching sports, or that he will have to start at the bottom again.

"I'm not trying to be a star or anything," he said. "It's just a childhood dream to play in the major leagues. I just want to try baseball. When you're young you want to do all you can."

There are several factors which helped him make up his mind to jump to another sport. One is the Garrett, a native of Los Angeles, was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers (for their Bakersfield farm club in the 32nd round of the Class A draft last week).

the research firm of Arthur Little Inc. threw a barrage of statistics dealing with players' salaries, in the courtroom of federal district Judge Irving

Ben Cooper. Clark, of Cambridge, Mass., look the stand as one of the last defense witnesses in the "Flood Trial." The trial, in which the veteran outfielder now sitting out the 1970 season is trying to overturn baseball's reserve clause, entered its fourth week.

Clark maintained in his testimony that major league players never had it so good when it came to receiving pay checks. He said the salary for the roster player in the majors, excluding world series and playoff earnings, had jumped from $19,500 to $28,000 in the past five years.

Clark, who has done several studies for organized baseball, said the average salary figures didn't include bonuses some players get, nor the off-season earnings from endorsements of products.

The economist said pay hikes the past five years have averaged 44 per cent. By contrast, Clark said, players who had been in the majors five years ago and are still playing today, there are 209 of them — got salary increases up to 129 per cent.

Referring to salaries for superstars in the game, he said in 1965, nine of the so-called superstars were making more than $50,000 a year while this year there are 46 such players earning between $50,000 and $120,000.

Clark also testified that any modification of the reserve system would result in the rich teams obtaining the best talent. He contended the same would apply if baseball would adopt a free agent system.

Clark also said baseball was unique as it was the only industry that operates using 26 per cent of its operating revenue to train players. In the main he agreed that the club owners should have some control over their players, and this could only be done through the reserve clause.

Asked about arbitration of salary between player and a club, Clark said, "It would depend on the number of salary disputes and it would not be so serious in the case of a star player. In that case it would not be harmful."

Flood brought his $3-million anti-trust suit against baseball owners last December after being traded by St. Louis to Philadelphia. He refused to report to the Phils and has decided to sit out this season while the case is being tried in the courts.

The ball players' attorneys are expected to call several rebuttal witnesses when the defense completes presentation of its case.

Monday's court session was recessed in the afternoon following testimony from Clark and will resume at 10 a.m. Tuesday. Judge Cooper is hearing the case without a jury.

Casper Standout Bob Lackey Signs With Marquette

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — Robert Lackey, 6-foot-6 junior college All-American basketball player, said Monday he has signed a national letter of intent to accept an athletic scholarship to Marquette University.

Marquette Coach Al Mc Guire said that the addition of Lackey, a native of Evanston, Ill., to his team will make it, "a legitimate national contender next year."

Lackey is 210-pound forward who averaged 22.7 points and 18.2 rebounds per game last season in leading Casper Junior College of Wyoming to a 32-3 record and a fourth place finish in the National Junior College Tournament.

Koosman Out After Liner In Mouth

HOUSTON (UPI) — Southpaw Jerry Koosman of the New York Mets, who was struck in the mouth by a line drive off the bat of teammate Gary Gentry during batting practice Sunday, will be lost to his team indefinitely, the club reported Monday night.

The 26-year-old Koosman had his upper and lower teeth wired by a local dental surgeon, Dr. Charles Mayda, Monday and has been placed on a liquid diet. Dr. Mayda said the braces won't be removed from Koosman's lower teeth for "about a week to 10 days" and that the wires on the upper teeth would remain in place a while longer.

Koosman suffered a slight fracture of the upper jaw as a result of the mishap and a spokesman for the Mets said it was not known how long the injury would prevent the colored lefty from pitching.

The injury occurred while Koosman was running in the outfield prior to Sunday's game with the Reds at Cincinnati. Koosman, who won 17 last season, has been plagued with injuries this season and has compiled only a 2-3 record thus far.

Mesa's Mike Hall Tabbed By NJCAA As All-American

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (UPI) — The National Junior College Athletic Association Monday announced the All-American JUCO baseball team chosen by member coaches.

The first team included: Infielder: Roy Stalger, Bacone College, Bacone, Okla.; John Kyle, Columbia State Community College, Columbia, Tenn.; Vingo Caravale, Hudson Valley Community College, Troy, N.Y.; Ken Reed, Mesa Community College, Mesa, Ariz.

Outfielder: Doug Aull, Panola College, Carthage, Tex.; Ronnie Kirland, South Georgia College, Douglas, Ga.; Jim Burns, Glendale Community College, Glendale, Ariz.

Catcher: Dan McDonough, Centerville Community College, Centerville, Iowa.

Pitchers — Jim Otten, Mesa Community College, Mesa; Dennis Queen, St. Clair Community College, Port Huron, Mich.; Mike Hall, Mesa College, Grand Junction, Colo.

Crucial Tilts Set In World Soccer Play

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — The International Football Federation (FIFA) will take a more than interested look at the lineups for some of the World Cup games Wednesday and Thursday.

The June 10 and 11 games windup group play-offs, with the two sectional leaders from each zone going into the quarterfinal knockouts.

The future of some teams, like-world champion England, depends on maximum efforts by other squads.

If, for instance, Brazil was to field a weakened squad in its Group Three game at Guadalajara against Romania and the eastern Europeans won, England would have to beat Czechoslovakia convincingly the following day to qualify. The pressure on England would be enormous.

So the order has gone out to FIFA representatives at each of the four sites—every team, whether out of contention or not—is to field its strongest eleven.

At this stage of World Cup competition, teams are inclined to think of where they want to place in the group qualifications. First place in a group automatically puts the holder against the second place team in another group for the quarterfinals.

Expos' Labby In Injured In Exhibition Game

MONTREAL (UPI) — Jim Fairley and Rusty Staub each drove in two runs Monday night as the Montreal Expos defeated the Boston Red Sox, 6-6 in an exhibition game.

The game, played before a crowd of 18,271, was the first home exhibition game for the Expos since they joined the major leagues.

The Red Sox led 6-4 going into the last of the fourth inning, but Staub's bases-loaded single drove in two runs to tie the score, 6-6, and a run-scoring single by Mack Jones put the Expos ahead to stay.

Howie Reed, the second of four Montreal pitchers, got the win while Jim Lonborg was tagged with the loss. Lonborg, trying to work himself back into the regular starting rotation, was tagged 15-hits, six runs and eight runs in 3 2/3 innings.

The triumph proved costly to the Expos, however, as third baseman Coco Laboy had to be helped from the field in the first inning after hitting his ankle with a foul ball while at bat. In the second inning shortstop Ron Brand of the Expos was struck on the face by a line drive off the bat of Tony Conigliaro and also was forced to leave the game.

Pirates Will Decide On Stadium Move

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates will decide Wednesday whether to move into their new home at Three Rivers Stadium June 19 or wait until after the all-star game next month.

Dan Galbreath, the club's president, and John Galbreath, chairman of the board, toured the new facility Monday with representatives of the Pittsburgh Stadium Authority, but deferred a decision until after another visit Wednesday.

A Pirate spokesman said the stadium's lighting system was not operating properly.

Originally, the Pirates were scheduled to move from 61-year-old Forbes Field into the new park May 29, but a two-week strike by concrete truck drivers delayed completion of access ramps and forced postponement of the stadium opening.

The Pirates begin an eight-game road trip Tuesday night at San Francisco, returning home June 19 against Montreal to start a 12-game home stand. If they don't move into Three Rivers Stadium June 19, the next likely date would be July 16, the start of a home stand following the all-star break.

Worsley Renews Pact With Stars

MONTREAL (UPI) — Lorne "Gump" Worsley, 41, Monday signed a contract for the 1970-71 season with the National Hockey League's Minnesota North Stars.

The 41-year-old, former all-star goalie will enter his 10th active season in the NHL. Worsley broke into the NHL with the New York Rangers in 1952, and later played several years with the Montreal-Canadiens before being sold to the Stars in 1970.

Malone, Thomsen Tie For J. Dropping Lead

BOISE — Larry Malone and Jeff Thomsen, members of Twin Falls' state championship golf team, shared the lead in a four-way logjam Monday after the first round of the annual John Dropping Invitational Junior Golf Tournament.

Malone and Thomsen both shot 73 over Boise's Hillcrest course and are tied with Jeff Rodwell of Caldwell and Scott Small of Boise.

The field will be cut down to the low 12 after Tuesday's morning round for the finals. Players in the two-day affair hail from Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, and Utah.

Injury Could Keep Casper From Open

BONITA, Calif. (UPI) — Masters champion Billy Casper said Monday that he won't be able to defend his Western Open golf title because of a hand injury and there is a possibility he will miss the U.S. Open next week.

"The doctor is very encouraging though," Casper said. "My hand only hurts when I play my irons. My putting and woods are no problem."

Casper's injury was described as a bilateral dislocation of the first joint of the index finger of his left hand. He suffered the injury in an exhibition for charity at Tokyo May 9.

Although he has played in only nine of 24 tournaments this year, the Western is "only the third he has missed because of the injury." The others were the Memphis and Kemper.

In addition to the Masters, Casper won the Los Angeles Open this year. He has won $70,000 in 1970. His last competition was in the Tournament of Champions at La Costa, Calif., April 23-26.

The Western begins at Chicago Thursday, the U.S. Open is set at Chaska, Minn., June 18-21. Casper has won the U.S. Open twice.

Phillies Sign 17-Year-Old Pitching Ace

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Mike Martin, 17, lefthanded ace pitcher for Olympia High School, Columbia, S.E., has been signed by the Philadelphia Phillies, it was announced Monday.

Martin, the Phillis' first selection in last week's free agent draft, has notched 11 shutouts and five no-hitters, including a perfect game.

He chalked up a 13-1 record during the 1970 school year, during which he pitched 97 innings with 259 strike outs. In four years at Columbia, he pitched 224 innings and fanned 451 batters.

Grand Jury Lets Stewart Off Hook In Sawchuk Case

MINEOLA, LONG ISLAND (UPI) — A Nassau County Grand Jury exonerated New York Ranger wingman Ron Stewart of any responsibility in the death of teammate Terry Sawchuk.

Intrepid Captures Cup Trial

STAMFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Intrepid defeated Valiant twice Monday as the hopefuls to defend the America's Cup went through shakedown trials on Long Island Sound.

The boats rendezvoused at 11 a.m. but were unable to begin the first race until 2:30 because of the lack of wind.

Intrepid won the first three-legged race by two minutes, 15 seconds and took the second five-legged race by 46 seconds.

In the first race, Valiant blew her job and in the second she broke a guy.

Starting the first race in practically no wind, Valiant got the better of the start and continued to lead on the windward leg. But when the wind changed from southwest to southeast, Intrepid picked up the breeze first to slide past Valiant and moved a boat length in front at the windward mark.

Valiant swung inside Intrepid at the buoy and again took the lead, but her jib, made of very light cloth, was blown away when the breeze increased. Intrepid passed Valiant while she was changing jibs and won the shorter race easily.

As the breeze continued to increase, the boats crossed the starting line almost even for the second race, but Valiant quickly pushed into the lead after a tacking duel. After another series of tacks, Intrepid worked back into the lead at the first mark by 27 seconds and held it through the next two legs when Valiant broke a guy used to trim the spinnaker.

Valiant tried to split Intrepid but Intrepid covered and gained considerably to lead at the fourth mark by one minute, 10 seconds.

Sponsors Filing Suit Against Pro Lee Elder

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Two Clevelanders filed a $2 million suit against pro golfer Lee Elder Monday claiming Elder breached his contract with them as his sponsors on the golf tour.

Earl Miner and Leonard Haase, a lawyer, said they made a written 10-year contract with Elder Sept. 1, 1964.

Miner and Haase said they agreed to pay all of Elder's golfing fees and travel costs, in return for a 50-50 split of the golfer's earnings.

The two men claimed Elder has not shared any of his prize money, appearance fees, or other earnings with them.

Tigers Call Up Tom Timmerman

DETROIT (UPI) — Right-hander Tom Timmerman has been called up from the Toledo Mud Hens of the International League, the Detroit Tigers announced Monday.

Timmerman, who opened the season with the Tigers and was optioned to Toledo May 13, was scheduled to report in time for Tuesday night's game against Milwaukee.

Right-hander Norm McRae is being returned to the Toledo club to make room for Timmerman.

The 20-man grand jury heard testimony from eight witnesses including Stewart during a three-hour 15-minute session and then with virtually no deliberations declined to return an indictment.

"At a news conference, Dist. Atty. William Cahn said the death of the start goalie was "completely accidental."

Sawchuk died of a pulmonary embolism in New York Hospital on May 31, about a month after he and Stewart were in an argument, first in a Long Beach, L.I. bar and later outside the house the two men rented in East Atlantic Beach, L.I.

"Although some blows were attempted there was no testimony given that blows were struck by either party," Cahn said.

"The evidence showed that there was a visible argument with a lot of pushing and shoving."

"Both parties had been drinking, and both may have been slightly intoxicated," Cahn added.

Cahn, who handled the case himself, said there was testimony that Stewart fell over a barbecue grill in the back yard of the home and Sawchuk complained of being in pain after he and a friend, Benjamin Welner, of Long Beach, then toppled onto Stewart.

At the time, Welner was grasping Sawchuk in an attempt to separate him from Stewart.

Cahn said the testimony did not establish exactly what caused Sawchuk's death. The goalie's gall bladder was removed on April 39, the day after the fight and he subsequently underwent two more internal operations before he succumbed to a blood clot which affected both lungs.

In the hospital, Sawchuk told police he had fallen against Stewart's knee as the latter lay on the ground.

The district attorney said he regarded the case as closed.

"It was tragic and senseless," he said.

Stewart was the last to testify and was on the stand for about a half hour after signing a waiver of immunity.

Others questioned, included Rosemary Sasso, a friend of Stewart's who was at the house at the time of the argument, Welner, and Ranger coach Emile Francis.

The solemn appearing Stewart, the pretty Miss Sasso and her lawyer, Nicholas Castellano, left the court house before the panel returned its verdict. The attorney said Stewart was going to board a plane for his home in Barrie, Ont., Canada.

Injury Could Keep Casper From Open

BONITA, Calif. (UPI) — Masters champion Billy Casper said Monday that he won't be able to defend his Western Open golf title because of a hand injury and there is a possibility he will miss the U.S. Open next week.

"The doctor is very encouraging though," Casper said. "My hand only hurts when I play my irons. My putting and woods are no problem."

Casper's injury was described as a bilateral dislocation of the first joint of the index finger of his left hand. He suffered the injury in an exhibition for charity at Tokyo May 9.

Although he has played in only nine of 24 tournaments this year, the Western is "only the third he has missed because of the injury." The others were the Memphis and Kemper.

In addition to the Masters, Casper won the Los Angeles Open this year. He has won $70,000 in 1970. His last competition was in the Tournament of Champions at La Costa, Calif., April 23-26.

The Western begins at Chicago Thursday, the U.S. Open is set at Chaska, Minn., June 18-21. Casper has won the U.S. Open twice.

Virgin Islands Racial Confrontation Looms

CHARLOTTE AMALIE, St. Thomas, V.I. (UPI) — A retired white businessman who has lived in the Virgin Islands most of his adult life made a trip recently to neighboring Puerto Rico to look for a new home. For this man and many other whites living in the three-island U.S. territory, the question is not whether a racial confrontation is coming, but when.

"When the explosion comes, which nobody gonna ask me which side I on. Jus' gonna take one look at my face an' strike," says the retired businessman who has lived on St. Thomas so long he switches readily into and out of local dialect. For the first time in years, he says, he has begun to be conscious of his skin color.

This week Gov. Melvyn H. Evans, who like three-quarters of the 75,000 population is black, began setting up a citizen's advisory committee on racial tensions.

Evans, who admits he is deeply concerned with recent evidence of strong racial antagonisms, was the same man who as recently as last September, said, "I don't know any place in this country where basic racial relations are better."

Today, black power is growing rapidly at the College of the Virgin Islands on St. Thomas, and has emerged on St. Croix, traditionally a much more placid island, in the form of the Black Panther-like United Caribbean Association of Black People (UCA).

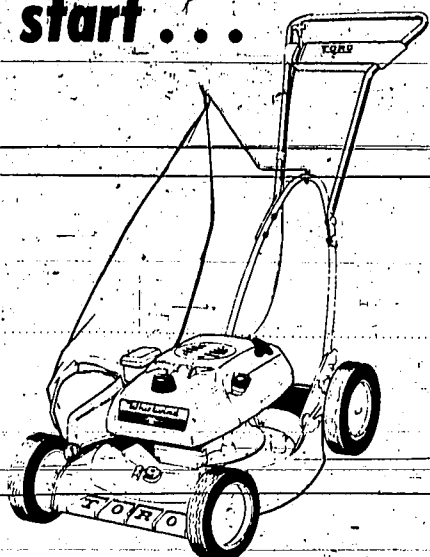

Open confrontations are still rare, although some observers attributed a rash of brush fires on St. Thomas during the last few months to black power advocates.

While most of the whites have no overt feelings on racial prejudice, many feel that the blacks are prejudiced against them.

The last thing the Virgin Islands, already suffering from a reduction of tourist income as a result of the national business slump, can afford is the kind of racial troubles that would scare away fun-seeking vacationers.

The three major political parties — Democrats, Republicans and Independent Citizens Movement — are all aware of this and are working avidly to keep racial questions out of this year's critical campaign, in

Women's "Liberation" Is Not New Move, Speaker Tells OES

The recent American movement toward the "liberation" of women is not a recent innovation; the first hint of feminine dissatisfaction was heard before the Declaration of Independence was signed, former Sen. Edward V. Long of Missouri told delegates to the Eastern Star convention in Twin Falls Monday night.

Sen. Long, most worthy grand patron, Grand National Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, spoke as a featured guest of the four-day "Small Trifinity Session," a statewide convention, of the OES.

Abigail Adams, wife of John Adams, wrote her husband "while he was sitting in the Continental Congress," Sen. Long told the delegates at the Twin Falls High School auditorium where the sessions are being held.

"I long to hear that you have declared an independency," Mrs. Adams wrote. "And, by the way, in the new code of laws which I suppose it will be necessary for you to make, I desire you would remember the ladies and be more generous and favorable to them than your ancestors. Do not put such unlimited power into the hands of husbands. Remember — all men would be tyrants if they could. If particular care and attention is not paid to the ladies, we are determined to form a rebellious and will not hold ourselves bound to obey any laws in which we have no voice or representation."

Today, Sen. Long said, "Women, just like men, have the right of voting, of thinking, of speaking — of taking a stand and expressing their beliefs. They can participate in forums and public discussions. They can organize or affiliate themselves with congenial groups that represent their views. They can help get out the vote. Women, most assuredly, can become leaders in a practical way in their home communities."

The Order of Eastern Star, the speaker told the delegates, is a result of the "ideal of Masonry which had a major role in shaping the ideals of the American Revolution — the ideals of the brotherhood of man, the equality of all humans."

The Order, he added, "stands for and must always stand for the right of all citizens to participate fully in the world about us."

The principles of the Order of Eastern Star "are those of democracy. They hold that every human being is of worth. We believe in the dignity of the individual. We believe that the structure of social and political life exists for the greatest good of all. We believe that both men and women must be given the opportunity to develop their full competence and become responsible individuals. Behind these principles are the eternal virtues of charity, good will, human concern, love of God and the brotherhood of man — all guiding the actions of Sisters and Brothers of the Order of Eastern Star."

Today's activities included the formal opening of the Grand Chapter of Idaho, and a partial report of the credential committee. Worthy matrons and worthy patrons were introduced this morning, with a welcome expressed by Roberta Showalter, Nampa, associate grand matron and William Grange, Twin Falls, associate grand patron, with responses by Marlys Whitman of Soda Springs and Jim Davidson of Payette.

Musical selections in today's program included "People" by Mary Jay Nelson of Orofino; "Our Best to You," a trio by Alice Reed, Donna Brown and Mary Ramseyer, all of Piler, a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross," by Harold Motin, Idaho Falls, grand sentinel, and a solo, "Just A Closer Walk With Thee," by Betty Jean Meyers, Lewiston.

Features of today's session included reporting on appointments-to-fill vacancies on standing committees and the annual reports from the worthy grand matron, worthy grand patron, grand secretary and grand treasurer.

Wednesday's program includes the formal opening of the chapter at 9:00 a.m., entrance of 1969-70 grand officers, and the closing of the ballot on officers for 1970-71 at 10 a.m. Presentation of reports and special projects will conclude the morning's activities.

The afternoon session will be called to order at 2 p.m. Wednesday, with an invocation by Mildred Schoper, Montpelier, past grand matron, the report of tellers and the reading of the minutes. The "ESTARL" Committee will announce awards and reports will be presented on the constitution and by-laws, and on fraternal correspondence.

Musical numbers in Wednesday's session will include "Sweet Hour of Prayer," by John Jordun of Nezperce; "I Heard A Forest Praying," by Eleanor Stoller of Paul; "Believe," by Betty Jean Meyers, and "Chimes of ESTARL," by Mary Jay Nelson of Orofino.

A special youth program is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the high school gymnasium.

Northwest Gets More Voice In Anti-Poverty

PARK CITY, Utah (UPI) — The Nixon Administration today announced a new plan to give the states of Oregon, Washington, Alaska and Idaho more say in how federal anti-poverty programs are operated.

An appropriation of $328,000 was provided to help make the plan work.

Don Rumsfeld, director of the federal Office of Economic Opportunity, (OEO) announced creation of the Northwest Technical Assistance Plan at the opening session of the annual Western Governors Conference.

Under the program, Rumsfeld said, "each state will assume responsibility for coordinating all OEO-funded technical assistance."

He called it "another example of our efforts to restructure the relationship between the OEO and state governments."
