

U.S. Jets Told To Chase Reds Into Cambodia

By WALTER WHITEHEAD SAIGON (UPI)—The U.S. military command said tonight American war planes will be used to attack new Communist supply lines deep in Cambodia "as required."

Trio Of Hijacks Related

By United Press International A 30-year-old Albanian armed with a cap pistol hijacked a Pan American World Airways 707 jet today and forced it to fly to Calro with 134 passengers and 10 crewmen. Three youths hijacked an Iranian airlines plane Sunday, and Moscow dispatches disclosed an attempted hijack last week.

The Pan American jet was flying from Beirut to New York with stops in Rome and Paris when the pilot, Capt. Jay Burns, radioed the airport control tower at Nicosia, Cyprus, he was diverting to Calro. The hijacker was arrested immediately when the plane landed there.

Tehran dispatches said two students at Tehran University and a 12-year-old boy hijacked an Iranian Airlines Boeing 727 jet on Sunday and forced it to fly to Baghdad where they requested political asylum in Iraq. The plane was released shortly and its other 88 passengers and seven crewmen were allowed to return to Tehran.

One of the passengers was Prince Shahriar Shafiq, son of the twin sister of the Shah of Iran.

Court OKs State Rule On Juries

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court ruled today that the Constitution permits a state to try criminal cases with a jury of less than 12 members.

The decision came in the case of Johnny Williams, sentenced to life imprisonment after a robbery conviction in Miami, Fla., by a jury of six. Justice Byron R. White, speaking for the majority, said "Legislatures may well have their own views about the relative value of the larger and smaller jury."

He pointed out that in capital cases—those involving the death penalty—no state provides for less than 12. In the same case the court rejected Williams' claim that a criminal defendant should not be required to give names of his alibi witnesses to the prosecution before his trial.

White said Florida's notice of alibi rule is "carefully hedged with reciprocal duties requiring state disclosure to the defendant." This rule was adopted by Florida in 1927.

Addonizio Trial Marred By Death

TRENTON, N.J. (UPI)—The extortion and conspiracy trial of outgoing Newark Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio resumed today while state authorities investigate the death of a government witness.

There is a strong possibility the prosecution may call its chief witness, Paul Rigo, head of an engineering firm which did business with the city, by midweek.

Paul N. Anderson, 64, vice president of the First Jersey National Bank, had been scheduled to testify Friday about an account set up at his bank by a man who claimed it was used to handle kickback money.

Anderson was killed in an auto crash shortly to Trenton from his home in Livingston. The accident happened two miles from the spot where used to attack new Communist supply lines deep in Cambodia "as required." The statement was issued by a spokesman for Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, the American commander in Indochina.

President Nixon had set a 21.7 mile limit on the distance inside Cambodia American ground forces would operate before their scheduled withdrawal by June 30.

"As a result of successful attacks made by U.S. and government of Vietnam forces against the 'base' sanctuaries along the border between Cambodia and South Vietnam, the enemy's lines of supply and communications have been disrupted and he is now attempting to expand them into areas farther west in Cambodia," the statement said.

"As has been previously stated, air interdiction will be pursued as appropriate against enemy troops or materiel which could threaten American and other free world lives in South Vietnam. We will not, of course, discuss specific rules of engagement except to state that their interdiction will continue as required in order to protect the lives of military personnel in South Vietnam."

Allied intelligence reports have said North Vietnamese commanders have established new supply lines on a system of waterways deeper in Cambodia. The line connects with the so-called Ho Chi Minh Trail in Laos.

French Set Atom Blast Wednesday

PAPEETE, Tahiti (UPI)—Radio Tahiti said Sunday the third blast in the current series of French nuclear tests will "take place" in the South Pacific Wednesday.

The blast, like previous French tests, was expected to be set off in the air. The radio said the explosion would take place during the 24 hours beginning at 12:01 a.m. Wednesday Greenwich Mean Time (8 p.m. EDT Tuesday), depending on weather, and warned ships and planes away from the area.

The first two explosions May 15 and May 22 were triggered over the Mururoa Lagoon near Tahiti. The broadcast warnings said the danger zone for the third was the same as for the previous blasts.

On May 22, the day of the second test, the government of the Philippines protested the experiments and asked that they be stopped.

"The Philippines government views with grave concern such nuclear tests in the Pacific region because of the threat to peace and hazards to health and safety caused by nuclear explosions," the Philippines said. As planned, the series will consist of eight explosions over a three-month period.

another government witness was killed in a similar one car crash in February.

An initial autopsy report released Saturday by the Essex county medical examiner dimmed chances that Anderson had suffered any seizure at the wheel.

"He was alive when he hit the tree," Dr. Edward F. Murray, medical examiner said. And death was due "to compression injuries of the chest with lacerations of the heart."

Essex county prosecutor Joseph P. Lord announced he is launching an investigation of the accident in conjunction with the state attorney general.

Paul Rigo is a flamboyant millionaire who had a reputation for high living until the government spirited him away to a hiding place six months ago.

Attorney

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court ruled today that states must provide lawyers for impoverished defendants at preliminary hearings in criminal cases. Trial counsel already was a guaranteed right.

"Plainly the guiding hand of counsel at the preliminary hearing is essential to protect the indigent accused against an erroneous or improper prosecution," the court said in an opinion by Justice William J. Brennan Jr.

Senate Adopts War Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate approved overwhelmingly today an administration-backed change in the Cooper-Church amendment.

The Cooper-Church amendment, under debate for six weeks, would cut off funds for sustained U.S. combat operations inside Cambodia after June 30.

The Senate voted to write into it a change sponsored by Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., declaring that the amendment does not limit "the exercise of that constitutional power (by President Nixon) which may be necessary to protect the lives of United States armed forces wherever deployed."

Administration supporters said approval of the change was a major concession by antiwar senators and would give Nixon wide discretion to strike again in Cambodia if the enemy returns to border sanctuaries.

Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Frank Church, D-Idaho, the amendment sponsors, said they had conceded nothing and the change in wording was meaningless.

One of the President's strongest defenders, Sen. J. G. Tower, R-Tex., agreed meanwhile that the Senate furor over Cambodia already has kept Nixon from getting the United States more deeply involved there.

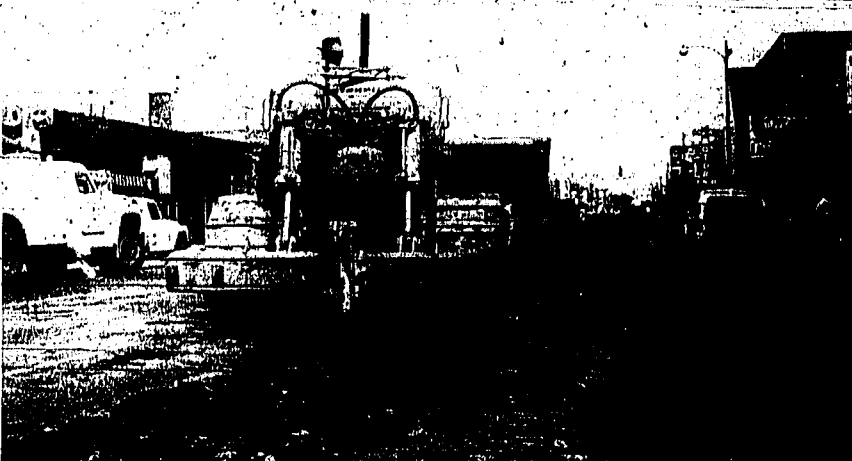

Two Drown In Idaho Tragedies

By United Press International Two and possibly three persons drowned in Idaho over the weekend.

Searches were under way today in C. J. Strike Reservoir 60 miles southeast of Boise for a person feared to have drowned there Sunday while boating and in the Salmon River near the mouth of the middle fork for another boater.

Miss Devlin, re-elected to the British Parliament in last Thursday's general election, immediately sought permission to appeal to the House of Lords, the final appeal court under British law.

Drug Ring Smashed

HEAVY EQUIPMENT of the Clawson Construction Co. began ripping up the pavement along Main Avenue East and South today in the first phase of the mall construction project. Pavement and sidewalks will be torn up and restored block by block throughout the downtown area, with both vehicular and pedestrian traffic interrupted for a time. Businesses fronting on Main Avenue must be entered via rear doors during the construction. Many merchants and pedestrians gathered to watch the equipment begin the destruction which must precede the eventual reconstruction. The project is scheduled for completion this fall.

Agents Arrest 127 Men

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Coordinating raids in 10 cities from coast to coast, federal agents have smashed what they called the nation's biggest narcotics operation.

A search was pressed today for 63 persons who eluded the weekend dragnet. Federal agents said they had arrested 127 persons Saturday night and early Sunday, critically wounding two, including alleged kingpin Allen Eric Rudd-Marrero, 29, in his home in Coral Gables, Fla.

Federal authorities said 350 agents involved in the raids seized narcotics worth about 2.6 million on the retail market, along with $19,875 in cash, 23 cars and 14 weapons. In a six-month investigation leading up to the arrests, another $5.1 million in drugs was confiscated. They termed the total seizure the largest on record.

"This is the biggest operation of its kind in history," Mitchell said.

Other investigation still are under way, he said, and further raids "undoubtedly" will be made.

"These arrests will diminish the flow of hard narcotics into and within the United States," Mitchell said. "By concentrating on the wholesale dealers, we believe we can intercept supplies sufficiently to curb addiction, particularly among the young people."

John E. Ingersoll, director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, told news men most of those arrested, including five men he described as "principal subjects" of the narcotics network, were Cuban exiles.

"It will take a long, long time, if ever, to restructure this operation," Mitchell said.

Selection Of Jurors Continues

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The slow and tedious process of jury selection enters its second week today in the murder trial of hippie chieftain Charles Manson and three of his women followers.

In the four days of jury selection last week, 14 prospective jurors were excused on a variety of reasons: Both the prosecution and defense contend they do not want jurors who think they will be inconvenienced by the trial which may last six months.

Manson, Susan Atkins, Patricia Krenwinkel and Leslie Van Housen are the defendants in the trial for the slayings of actress Sharon Tate and six other persons.

Holocaust Shatters Community

CRESCENT CITY, Ill. (UPI)—Crescent city's 800 residents lived quietly 89 miles south of Chicago's Loop. Even their three-block business district had a low profile, as they say.

Today, the town was empty, its people fled from a holocaust of flame and exploding gas. And the business district had an even lower profile: It was gone.

A 108-car Toledo, Peoria & Western Railroad train rumbled through town Sunday morning. It derailed at about 6:15 a.m. Tank cars carrying liquid propane bumped along and began burning. About 7:30 a.m. an explosion involving three tank cars sent a fireball 1,000 feet above Crescent City.

In all, 12 tank cars exploded, destroying downtown and some 15 homes. At least 70 persons were injured and nine hospitalized. Damage was estimated at $2 million.

Red China Shuns Loan From Russia

LONDON (UPI)—The Soviet Union has offered Communist China a loan in the billion-dollar range in an apparent attempt to repair the Sino-Soviet rift, authoritative diplomatic sources said today. But Peking has rejected the offer.

The sources said the loan was offered as a basis for resumption of major Soviet economic assistance and trade with China. Such trade once dominated Peking's foreign economic relations, but it has shrunk to little more than a trickle since the Sino-Soviet split.

Despite the fact the Soviet Union and China are continuing talks in Peking on their border dispute, the diplomatic sources said relations between Moscow and Peking are worsening steadily. The Soviet loan offer was viewed as virtually a last resort to lure Peking into improving relations.

Authoritative Communist diplomatic sources described the border talks, which began last year, as simply a "dialogue of the deaf" that have produced neither progress toward settling the dispute nor closer ties between the world's principal Communist governments.

only to have to truck water in because the explosions demolished water and power lines. Many of the injured were firemen.

"It was a miracle nobody was killed," said Mayor Herbert Sterenberg, who estimated damage at least $2 million. "I just hope the railroad has lots of insurance."

Japan Reaffirms U.S. Arms Treaty

TOKYO (UPI)—Japan's conservative government renewed its military security treaty with the United States today, disregarding week-long demonstrations against it and Communist, Socialist and Buddhist political opposition.

The 10-year-old treaty, which expires at midnight, will continue on a year-by-year basis with either country able to cancel on one year's notice under terms of the renewal.

The treaty was negotiated in 1960 during the administration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. It provides for maintenance of U.S. air and naval strike forces in Japan for the defense of Asia. It was binding on both nations for the first 10 years, the one-year cancellation notice to be effective in the event of renewal.

A series of demonstrations organized by leftist political groups, students, Buddhists and others a week ago began protesting the anticipated renewal of the pact. National police headquarters said there were 256 demonstrations involving 145,600 persons on Sunday. More demonstrations were scheduled for Tuesday.

Most of the demonstrations have been peaceful, but occasional incidents of violence have been reported. Police said 164 persons were arrested in demonstrations Sunday, 51 of them in Tokyo.

By United Press International Severe thunderstorms with high winds and hail battered parts of the Southeast today.

A tornado was sighted near Jackson, Miss., and another funnel cloud reported 21 miles west of Jackson today. No injuries were reported.

Hail, from one-half to two inches in diameter, pelted several cities.

Baseball-size hail was reported at Brookneal, Va.; golf-ball size hail hit Jackson, Miss., and smaller pellets hit Danville, Va., and Atlanta, Ga.

Indonesians Bid Farewell To Chief

JAKARTA (UPI)—Thousands of Indonesians stood shoulder to shoulder today for a last glimpse of the coffin of former President Sukarno as it was borne in a scarred army van from the home of his third wife to Halim Airport five miles away.

The body of Sukarno, who died Sunday at 69, was sealed in the teak coffin at midnight Sunday and flown today to the family cemetery at Blitar in East Java.

The burial site was decided by President Suharto and his cabinet, which rejected a tearful appeal from two of Sukarno's wives, Japanese-born Madame Ratna Sari Dewi and Madame Hartini. They had asked Sukarno be buried beneath a shade tree of his home in Batu Tulis, 40 miles south of Jakarta.

Madame Dewi now lives from her home with her daughter by Sukarno, Kartika Sari, 3. Madame Dewi said Sukarno, the architect of Indonesia's independence, had expressed the wish to be buried at Batu Tulis.

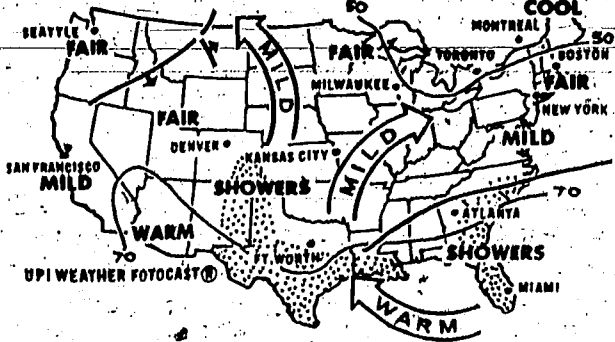

All-eight-of-Sukarno's children sat beside the coffin while thousands filed by the body lying in state in Madame Dewi's suburban home. Officials estimated 70,000 viewed the body of the man who ruled Indonesia from 1945 to 1967 when he was ousted by a military coup. A week of official mourning for Sukarno was proclaimed by Suharto. Jakarta bid farewell to Sukarno on a clear, hot morning, the 43rd anniversary of the founding of this capital city of 4.5 million. The city had been deluged with rain for the anniversary celebration, but the haze was broken by half past noon.

REMNANTS OF A WAR-BLIND, part of the town of Crescent City, Ill., lies in smoking ruins today after several railroad tank cars loaded with liquid propane exploded, injuring 70 persons.

There is a chance of a few thundershowers again today over Idaho, but mainly over the mountains.

High temperatures generally were in the 60s yesterday, with lows this morning between 55 and 65. Similar temperatures will result today, with possibly a slight cooling trend. A few stations in Eastern Oregon reported measurable rainfall during the last 24 hours.

Mrs. Mary McMonigle

HAILLEY—Mrs. Mary McMonigle, 97, a long time area resident, died Sunday afternoon at St. Charles Hospital of a lingering illness.

She was born April 28, 1873, at Concord, New Hampshire. Mary McLaughlin moved to the Big Wood River Valley in January 1890 from Liverpool, England, to keep house for her father, who had preceded his family to America. Her father's homestead was at the mouth of Deer Creek near Halley.

Priorities Are Set By Methodists

NAMPA (UPI) — The United Methodist Conference in Nampa Saturday decided to put aside usual business at the 1971 conference and instead clarify goals and set priorities.

More than 400 delegates from Oregon and Southern Idaho approved the action recommended by the conference education board, because of internal trouble in the organization. Budget failure, membership loss and structural changes instigated the action.

In an unprecedented move, the conference seated 23 youths as conference members, 13 from the Senior Youth Ministry Council and two from each of the five districts.

The 1971 conference will be held in Salem, Ore., and planned by a professional consultant to aid church agencies in the collection of data for "realistic goal-setting."

Employment Is At Record High

BOISE (UPI) — The Department of Employment announced Friday a new record high was set during the month of May for employment. An estimated 400 more persons found work than the corresponding period a year ago.

Unemployment dropped ten per cent below the figure for April but still remained the highest figure since May, 1963.

One reason for the increase is Idaho's lumber mills, with persons going back to work after a wet logging season. There is a decrease in federal employment because of the end of the census work for 1970, according to the agency.

Oil was discovered in the Persian Gulf in 1951.

STUDENT PRACTICAL NURSE of the Year at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital is Mrs. Tom (Sharon) Fischer, 24. She was chosen from a class of 13 by her classmates, clinical supervisors and the Practical Nursing Advisory Committee, based on scholastic and clinical capabilities, good nursing care, personality and attitude toward patients. The LPN program is part of the College of Southern Idaho's Vocational-Technical school and is affiliated with Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Fischer, who lives with her husband and two daughters in Buhl, represented her school at the state LPN convention in Pocatello recently.

Rotary Club To Hear Talk On Idaho Indians

An address on Idaho's Indians will be presented at the Twin Falls Rotary Club meeting, noon Wednesday at the Turi Club, by Arthur A. Hart, director of the Idaho State Historical Museum.

Mr. Hart's talk will include a survey of Idaho Indian tribes, their ways of life, intertribal conflicts and struggles against the increasing surge of white migration after 1880, culminating in the Nez Perce and Bannock Wars.

Mr. Hart assumed his position as director of the state museum a year ago, having served earlier as chairman of the Division of Fine Arts at the College of Idaho for five years. He is a graduate of the University of Washington with B.A. and Master of Fine Arts degrees, and also has studied in Paris and Biarritz, France and at the University of California, Berkeley.

He has lectured for 20 years on art and architectural history in colleges across the United States and has traveled widely in Europe and America. As an artist, he has exhibited paintings across the country, and lists among awards received, a first prize for landscape in the Idaho Artists Annual.

ARTHUR A. HART, director of the Idaho State Historical Museum, will address the Twin Falls Rotary Club at noon Wednesday at the Turi Club.

Yellow Cars Gain New Popularity

HOLLAND, Mich. (UPI) — It's been years since yellow cars were popular, but they are back now—in a big way.

Yellow's return, says Rene Willis, Chemetron color expert, reflects the impact of the youth market which sets the trends for auto colors by demanding bright, even shocking, colors.

About 700 babies are born with birth defects in the United States each day, says the March of Dimes.

Hearings Set

DILLON, Mont. (UPI) — Hearings on a proposal by the Union Pacific Railroad to discontinue passenger service between Butte and Salt Lake City, Utah, will begin today in Dillon.

A second hearing will be held Tuesday in Butte. An Interstate Commerce Commission examiner will be on hand for both sessions.

Issue Noted

SANDPOINT, Idaho (UPI) — Cecil Andrus, Democratic candidate for Governor, told Sandpoint supporters Saturday that House Bill 304 will be a controversial issue in the primary campaign.

He said the bill makes local government "slaves of the tax commission, whose control has been placed hundreds of miles away from the local unit."

The Democratic candidate will begin a campaign swing through southeastern Idaho Monday.

Candidate Cites

Errors In Asia

BOISE (UPI) — Democratic congressional candidate, Bill Brauner, told a Boise television station Saturday there is no pollution to the war in Vietnam. Brauner emphasized the fact that too many errors have been made in Southeast Asia by U.S. administrations and other countries. If elected, he said he would advocate action to see that remaining forces in Vietnam are protected and he would support an orderly withdrawal.

COMMENT A Chuckle

Christian Science Monitor Even in these grim times there is no lack of things to chuckle over...

political and ideological orientation? Is it rightwing? Not a bit of it. Its officer and sponsor listing is filled with names which could not get inside the door of a right-wing meeting...

Not that zeal to save that most precious of American concepts, whenever it is in danger, is worthy of laughter or smiles. Far from it. More than once these columns have joined in warnings against tendencies which would erode respect for the United States Constitution...

Worth a chuckle? We think so. For we are back to the old, old truism that one's outlook on almost anything hinges upon whose ox is gored. Folks who once excoriated rightwingers for entertaining allegedly exaggerated fears of attacks on the Constitution and who accused such rightwingers of wishing to use that document's sanctity for political purposes may now find both of these accusations thrown back into their teeth...

As any newspaperman can tell you, the last 20 years have seen a flood of organizations, movements, rallies, books and pamphlets with the holy avowed objective of saving, preserving or guarding the Constitution. And the overwhelming majority of such activity has come from what is customarily described as right-wing organizations. Indeed, alarm over what they felt was being done the Constitution became a hallmark of such groups.

We do not for a moment gainsay that these are questions worthy of constitutional consideration. They are. But it is fascinating to see so distinguished a group of liberals adopt the very words and the very thinking which, not so long ago, they scoffed at others for using with equal sincerity, equal concern, and probably in most Americans' eyes, with equal justification.

But what do we now find? What about this latest Committee to Save Our Constitution? What is its

Tyranny Of The Minority

WASHINGTON — In his campaign for reelection, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., is warning that our political system is threatened by what he calls "the tyranny of a small minority that is systematically disrupting our society."

He begins by telling his audiences that minority rights have long been protected in an Anglo-Saxon tradition which dates back to the Magna Carta. Our own Bill of Rights affords protection against unrestrained domination by a majority, the senator says.

Then Jackson suggests that majority rights need protection, now, from a militant minority bent on anarchy. Would-be revolutionaries — are using violence and fear, he says, to intimidate the majority on campus, in urban centers and in other phases of American life.

That is an interesting campaign line for Jackson, who was himself a target of the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wis., in the early 1950s. By coincidence, Jackson began denouncing the "tyranny of the minority" at about the time another McCarthy target, Harvard President Nathan Pusey, denounced "McCarthyism" in the New Left in a Boston backchannel address.

Jackson faces a New Left challenge in the Washington state Democratic primary on Sept. 15. He is being opposed by Carl Maxey, a black attorney from Spokane who represents the "Seattle Eight" conspiracy defendants and has called for the release of Black Panther leaders Huey Newton and Bobby Seale.

In three Senate terms, preceded by six terms in the House, Jackson has compiled a solid liberal record. As Chairman of the Senate Interior Committee, for example, he has probably achieved more by way of really improving the environment than any of the widely publicized champions of conservation and foes of pollution.

Until he questioned the move of U. S. troops into Cambodia, however, Jackson supported the defense policies and the Vietnam war initiatives of the Johnson and Nixon administrations.

By a close 508 to 485 vote, the King County (Seattle) Democratic Committee endorsed Maxey. The committee acted in a session which also embraced much of Maxey's campaign platform. The same meeting approved a resolution calling for the impeachment of President Nixon.

In an aggressive "peace" campaign against Jackson, Maxey has also attacked the administration, alleging that it wars on youth and political minorities including the Black Panther Party. He supports repeal of the military draft, popular election of the President and even the removal of penalties for use of marijuana.

Echelon complaints long voiced by New Left Democrats in the state, Maxey has charged that Jackson, who was President Nixon's first choice for secretary of defense) is a prisoner of the military-industrial complex, which has preempted the federal funds needed here at home for education and welfare programs.

"Jackson symbolizes a problem," Maxey said in an early Seattle campaign speech. "He negates his votes for labor, welfare and conservation by involving us in an insecure arms race. He is showing more concern for industry than concern for our country," Maxey declares.

More important, however, are the other circumstances which seem likely at present to determine the Jackson-Maxey outcome. Foremost among them is the state of the economy, which has had its effects in the state.

Unemployment is the big political factor in any economic slump. Jackson, over the years, has fought (in such controversies as the battle over the TFX contract) for such job-making local enterprises as Boeing, which is now feeling an employment pinch.

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D. Complaint

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My friend and I have a rather embarrassing problem. Every time we laugh hard we wet our pants. Is this serious and can it be cured? We are 16. — W. P. and C. B.

Yes, embarrassing, but usually not very serious. It happens in about 10 per cent of all adolescent girls, and anything that happens to that many people is important enough to answer.

It can happen to males, but not often. But in the female half of the population of high school and college age, it seems to be one of the vicissitudes of growing up. The girls get together for the female equivalent of a "bull session," and something gives them the giggles, "and we laughed till we wet our pants."

This is physiologically explainable. The urethra (urinary outlet) in females is quite short. The shut-off muscle (the sphincter) is not as well developed as in the male. So there you are — you get relaxed and giggling, and...

This seems to be an embarrassment that the female of the species outgrows in a short time. Maybe they outgrow giggling. Maybe it's too bad that all of us have to outgrow the carefree, happy state, and progress to the "serious" stage of demonstrations, riots and such — or to the age when we decide to grow up and assume the responsibilities of being grown up.

Anyway, the great majority of the female population in a few short happy years outgrows the "giggle wets." Sometimes a low-functioning thyroid has a bearing on the trouble and thyroid medication can be helpful. Sometimes some degree of infection in the urinary tract (common in women) may be a factor. Only rarely is it some structural defect in the urethra.

To the 16-to-20-year-olds, the best I can say is that if you have this trouble, the chances are that you will develop better sphincter control as you grow older, and that'll be that. In the interim, keep the bladder empty by going to the bathroom a little oftener, and practice controlling the shut-off muscles.

I suspect that it is a waste of time to suggest that, in the midst of a talk-session, you take an occasional trip to the powder room. You might miss something while you're gone. But being a dreary old adult, all I can do is offer you the facts. If you can't tear yourself away from the giggle meeting, about all you can do is suffer through your happy adolescence and keep some soap flakes handy to do the laundry.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What is a coli bacteria infection? Where do the bacteria come from? Is there a cure? Can a virus flu germ cause it? Or typhoid, or mumps? Or worms? — D. T.

A germ called E. coli is one which flourishes in the lower intestinal tract, is useful there, and belongs there. But when it gets somewhere it doesn't belong, then it can cause infection.

Asking where it comes from in the first place is a question beyond answering. Where did any form of life come from? It exists and that's all we can say about it.

Like other forms of life, bacteria reproduce new generations, so that life goes on. Thus all you can say is that the E. coli germs came from previous generations of the same germ. They are not a result of flu virus, typhoid germs, mumps, or worms.

When the E. coli get in the wrong place and set up infection, treatment is with antibiotics.

Note to Mrs. A. J. R.: Removal of the gall bladder would not be the cause of your gain in weight. I'm sure you would have gained anyway.

Are you having a gall bladder problem? To find out how the gall bladder works and what types of trouble to look for send for Dr. Thosteson's booklet, "You and Your Gall Bladder." Write to Dr. Thosteson in care of this newspaper for a copy of the booklet, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover the cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Thosteson is interested in all his readers' questions, and whenever possible uses them in his column, but because of the great number received daily, he regrets that he cannot answer individual letters.

ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK Wage And Price

WASHINGTON — The Nixon administration, stung by failure to halt the inflation spiral, is inching its way toward a watershed income policy that marks a radical shift in its economic strategy.

No final decision has yet been made by President Nixon, and bitter debate continues. But the odds are now much better than even that he soon will endorse a policy not greatly different from a proposal by Sen. Jacob Javits, the liberal Rep.

No final decision has yet been made by President Nixon, and bitter debate continues. But the odds are now much better than even that he soon will endorse a policy not greatly different from a proposal by Sen. Jacob Javits, the liberal Republican from New York. Javits wants the President's Council of Economic Advisors to make monthly reports to the public on wage and price increases, analyzing their inflationary impact. The hope is that pitiless publicity will help hold them down.

This is nothing less than the despised jawboning of Kennedy-Johnson days, target of an 18-month attack from Nixon economic policymakers. Thus, Mr. Nixon's endorsement of anything resembling the Javits resolution is tacit admission of failure either to control inflation or prevent rising unemployment before the 1970 campaign and confirms the already obvious trend toward easier fiscal and monetary policies.

It also represents a signal victory for Dr. Arthur Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, who first broke the solid front by Nixon men against jawboning. But it has provoked passionate struggles inside the Nixon administration, with Secretary of Labor George Shultz leading the bitter and loss of jawboning.

Actually, none of the policymakers — Burns included — are swallowing their doctrinal abhorrence of jawboning. There is no chance Mr. Nixon will advocate outright wage-price controls or even return to voluntary guidelines. In truth, Nixon men privately doubt that a Javits-type plan will do much good. Some — including Shultz — think Burns' appeal was in itself inflationary, inviting price rises to offset imminent government action. But proponents of moderate jawboning see it as one protection for Mr. Nixon from Democratic campaign charges that he is indifferent to inflation. They see it as a useful propaganda gimmick until increases in productivity really slow down inflation.

WASHINGTON — You don't see as many fathers and sons dining out as you used to. The problem seems to be that not many restaurants are set to handle some of the clothes their clients' sons are wearing.

The other night my friend McGroery suggested to his son, Marshall, that they go to a first-class restaurant to celebrate his graduation from high school. "Great," said Marshall, "let's go."

"I think you'd better put on a shirt," McGroery suggested. "I have a sweat shirt on. What's wrong with it?" "I thought you might put on a shirt and a tie," McGroery said. "What are we going to, a wedding?" Marshall demanded.

"Most good restaurants prefer you to wear a tie," McGroery said. "What for?" Marshall demanded. "So you can get soup on it!" McGroery shouted. "Now put on a shirt and tie and don't give me any lip."

McGroery's wife came rushing in. "What's all the shouting about?" McGroery said, "I'm taking him to Paul Young's restaurant for graduation and he won't even put on a tie!" "I don't want to go if I have to wear a tie!" Marshall yelled. "Put on a tie," Mrs. McGroery said. "And a coat, too. Your father wants to be proud of you."

"What does putting on a shirt and tie have to do with him being proud of me?" McGroery shouted, "It isn't that I want to be proud of you. It's just that I don't want to be ashamed of you!" Marshall came down in a few minutes with a wrinkled shirt and a torn tie on. His face was red. McGroery was just about to leave the house when he looked down. "You have no shoes on," McGroery said. "You didn't say anything about shoes," Marshall said. "Why do I have to put on shoes?" "It's a health regulation!" McGroery screamed. "Nobody's going to see my feet," Marshall protested. "They'll be under the table."

"Great," said Marshall, "let's go." "Someone will see your feet as you're escorted to the table. People get very upset when they see a customer without shoes walking in a good restaurant."

"But it's summer. No one wears shoes in the summer," Mrs. McGroery said. "Marshall, go upstairs and put on some sneakers. Your father asks so little of you."

Marshall stomped upstairs. "I didn't want to go to a restaurant in the first place." He came down a few minutes later and got into the car and didn't say anything.

"Marshall," McGroery said, "would you take the red band off your head before we go into the restaurant?" "What kind of place are we going to where they won't let a guy wear a band on his head?" "It's a very good place, Marshall. They have fine food. You're growing up now, and you should be interested in other things besides milk shakes and French fries."

"You mean they don't have milk shakes and French fries at this place? I thought you said it was a good restaurant."

"Marshall," McGroery said quietly, "you see that McDonald's hamburger stand? Well, here's two bucks. You go over there and have anything you want for your graduation."

"You coming?" Marshall said. McGroery shook his head sadly. "No, you'd only be ashamed of me."

Going Up

The Oregonian About this same time last year, the fashion-makers were predicting that the miniskirt had outlived its welcome even for girlwatchers and that hems would drop. But one doesn't need binoculars to tell that the forecast was a false one.

Observation indicates that this year's fashionable skirts are even minier than last year's. In fact, one event of the Rose Festival week appears to prove as much. The princesses of last year's Rose Festival Court sat together in a row at Monday night's coronation ceremony in the Memorial Coliseum, looking trim in dresses from their 1969 princess wardrobes.

They were up-to-date, too. As one member of the 1969 court confided, the members of the court had put their heads together a short time before this year's coronation appearance to decide what to wear. They decided to wear identical 1969 dresses, but with a difference: By mutual consent, they raised the hems more than three inches, just to keep up with the times.

route from the south. Shoppers who leave their cars in the F Street parking lot usually use business house backdoors to reach the heart of the shopping district. This can be an inconvenience to the merchants and the public.

A mall-type corridor connecting the two streets could be a useful and attractive addition to the community. And, in at least a small way, the entrance would help solve the "parking problem" which has distressed merchants for years.

What's behind the mothers' fears is that their youngsters will pick up Eton accents. Where they get this idea is not explained in news dispatches. However, it serves to show superstition is not dead. One would imagine that not many speech therapists would come out

Where would speech therapists pick up their trade in England? It could be important, in view of the class consciousness of the mothers who don't want their kids to pick up "toff" talk.

"Would you mind not singing 'Raindrops Keep Falling on my Head' until after the monsoon season?"

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Some time ago you ran some letters pertaining to breast-feeding which interested me because I have long held a theory on that subject.

I am convinced that female homosexuality (lesbianism) is caused by breast-feeding. It is a known fact that infants derive an erotic pleasure from breast-feeding. For a boy baby this is natural and good, but for a girl baby to develop an erotic interest in the breast of another female is unnatural and I think leads to lesbianism.

Therefore, it stands to reason that if all girl babies were put on bottles and nipples, and only boy babies were breast-fed, lesbianism could be eliminated.

I am not a doctor, but I have done extensive reading and research on this subject. I am a 39-year-old bachelor and I am not crazy.

DEAR THEORIST: You may not be "crazy," but your theory sounds crazy to me. For thousands of years before the invention of bottles and nipples, all babies were breast-fed. If this caused lesbianism in women, how could the human race have survived with only female males and lesbians?

Also, how do you account for breast-fed boy babies who turn out to be rip-roaring homosexuals? Sorry, your "theory" doesn't hold water. [OR MILK!]

DEAR ABBY: My mother who lives in another state is a regular churchgoer. She recently sent me a letter she had written anonymously to her pastor. It was placed in an unsealed envelope, addressed and stamped. She gave me permission to read it and requested that I seal it and mail it from MY town, so it wouldn't have HER hometown postmark on it.

Abby, I read the letter and was astounded at my mother's pettiness. In it she tells the pastor that he should please quit using the word "IRREGARDLESS" in his sermons as there is no such word. And she also points out that he has used it in his church bulletins. I would rather not mail this letter for her, and would appreciate your views on the matter.

DEAR DAUGHTER: Write to your mother and inform her that she is in error because altho "IRREGARDLESS" is not considered "good usage," there IS indeed such a word, and it can be found in Webster's dictionary.

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for defending "dieters" who try to stick to their diets when they are guests at the table of a friend.

That problem is only too familiar to me because I am allergic to many foods.

I find it terribly embarrassing when my hostess remarks loudly, "Is something the matter with the strawberry shortcake? You haven't even touched it!" (Strawberries give me hives.)

The same hostess would never scold a guest she knew was an alcoholic for turning down her wine. ALLERGIC.

DEAR ALLERGIC: You make a good point.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "FOR A MORE SEVERE CENSORSHIP" IN YONKERS: I agree, there is an excess of garbage passing for "literature" these days, but this is what one great American champion of human rights had to say about "censorship" 183 years ago:

"I am mortified to be told that, in the United States of America, a question about the sale of a book can be carried before the civil magistrate. And we to have a censor whose imprimatur shall say what books may be sold and what we may buy? Shall a layman, simple as ourselves, set up his reason as the rule for what we are to read? It is an insult to our citizens to question whether they are rational beings or not."

"Cheyenne Social Club" Is Spoof Of Old West

"The Cheyenne Social Club," a comedy western starring James Stewart and Henry Fonda, will begin its local engagement on Wednesday at the Orpheum Theater as part of its World Premier Engagement.

Also starring is Shirley Jones, and co-starring is Sue Langdon, a former Twin Falls girl.

This is an entertaining story of a Texas cowboy, portrayed by Stewart, who inherits a Cheyenne bordello during the post-Civil War West. Fonda is seen as Stewart's long-time cowboy companion, and Miss Jones appears as the bordello's head "hostess."

The Cheyenne Social Club was probably one of the most popular places in the West in the 1880's, with visitors constantly arriving for the fun and games. When cowboy James Stewart inherits this monument-of-northern-virtue, he and his range partner, Henry Fonda, have their hands full with action, adventure and beautiful girls.

Henry Fonda hates false beards; and, as a consequence, he had to grow four separate sets of chin whiskers to fit the filming schedule of his role in the western.

James Stewart's favorite horse "Pie," is a mutton picture star in his own right, having shared the screen with the veteran actor for the past 22 years. In all, Pie has appeared in 18 motion pictures with Stewart. Exactly one-quarter of the films that Jimmy Stewart has made has been westerns.

Henry Fonda, who has an intense aversion to eating nuts, had to consume over 17 pounds of pecans as part of a running gag in the comedy western.

"I guess," said Fonda, "that if you're a good actor in films, it doesn't matter what type of film it is. So if people identify Jimmy and me as western heroes, it means they have enjoyed our performances in those films."

The "Gunfighters," which sounds like a rock group, is a group of stuntmen doing western exhibitions of shoot-outs, stunts and falls at state fairs and rodeos throughout the country. These men are an outlaw gang which hounds Stewart and Fonda.

Jaycees Display 'New' Legion Hall

The result of more than 600 man-hours of work, and the expenditure of more than $3,000, was displayed at the Twin Falls American Legion Hall Friday by the Jaycees, at a public open house.

The Jaycees took over management of the American Legion Hall this spring, and have since refurbished many of the rooms, Doug Vollmer, manager, told an invitational luncheon and private open house preceding the public affair.

Since taking it over, the Jaycees have spent more than $3,000 in borrowed money and have used approximately 587 man-hours of work to modernize the facilities of the hall.

The money borrowed for the purpose will be repaid through rental of the various rooms in the hall, and from percentages of dinners catered by Leo Soran, owner of the Turf Club and the Depot Grill, to groups holding banquets at the hall.

New lighting has been installed in the main hall and many other improvements have been completed, Mr. Vollmer said. Basement rooms, including a dance hall complete with "juke box," still require work which will be done as time and money allow, he added.

Rental of the various-sized rooms in the hall ranges from $40 per day for the main hall

Largest Railroad Files Bankruptcy

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Rebuffed when it sought a $200 million federal loan to shore its deteriorating finances, the nation's largest railroad, the Penn Central, has filed for reorganization under the Bankruptcy Act.

The railroad, which carries 100,000 commuters daily, lost $2.7 million in the first three months of 1970 and $193 million in 1969. Company spokesmen said bankruptcy would not affect passenger or freight service. All 94,000 of the firm's employees were ordered to continue work.

The action Sunday will prevent the company's creditors from moving for immediate collection of debts pending appointment by a federal judge of trustees to run the firm's affairs.

The petition was the opposite of a normal bankruptcy proceeding. Usually all properties and assets of a bankrupt firm are turned into cash and distributed among the creditors.

'Hostility' Of Solons Curbs Nixon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "A hostile Congress" has kept President Nixon from involving the United States even more deeply in Cambodia, according to Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex.

Tower said it was "possible that Cambodia could fall" despite U.S. arms aid and the incursions against Communist sanctuaries along the south Vietnamese border.

Asked in a UPI Washington Window interview Sunday why the administration was not willing to provide the same military help to Cambodia it has to Saigon, Tower said:

"Well, I think the President is thinking in terms of the inhibitions imposed on him by a hostile Congress."

Tower spoke on the eve of another preliminary Senate vote today on a proposal to withhold funds for Cambodian operations beyond the June 30 withdrawal date set by the President.

"A majority of senators don't want any additional involvement in Cambodia and don't want us to come to the aid of this country. The disposition in the Senate is to wash our hands of Cambodia altogether."

USE FOR VESSEL RAIL

Relief For Quake Area Stalemated

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Relief supplies for earthquake-stricken Peru are piling up and there seems no immediate prospect of transporting them to South America, several donor groups reported Sunday.

The total of food, medicine and clothing on hand neared 300,000 pounds.

About 220,000 pounds were stockpiled at Los Angeles International Airport. Another 60,000 pounds awaited shipment from San Fernando Valley State College in nearby Northridge.

"We have to either get transportation or stop the operation," said Genaro Sornosa of Monterey Park, Calif., a former Peace Corps worker who is trying to coordinate handling of relief supplies for Peru.

A May 31 earthquake left an estimated 800,000 persons injured or homeless in Peru and an estimated 50,000 were killed.

Draft Action Delayed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — White House indifference and congressional apathy have virtually assured college freshmen of student draft deferments this fall. But the Selective Service System says the delays could turn out to be shortlived.

With the start of the new academic year only three months away, Congress has not taken even the smallest step toward ending college deferments that President Nixon asked for April 23.

The Senate, where the proposal stands the best chance of passage, was thrown far behind in disposing of its regular work by protracted debates over Supreme Court nominations and the U.S. venture into Cambodia. Plenty of legislation with a higher priority than student deferments lies ahead.

The House has the time but apparently not the inclination.

Angela Davis Attacks

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Angela Davis, black Communist teacher fired by the University of California Regents, drew support in her reinstatement campaign Sunday and struck back at the establishment with the help of the Black Panthers.

The regents, governing board of the nine-campus university, decreed Friday, Miss Davis, 26, will not be rehired as an assistant philosophy professor at UCLA because of her "inflammatory" speeches at other troubled campuses.

Her admitted membership in the Communist party was not the reason for their action, the regents said.

Miss Davis, who is also a member of the Black Panthers, took part in a mock tribunal which tried the regents at a south Los Angeles church. The Black Panther party sponsored the proceedings and the regents and other prominent figures in the establishment such as President Nixon, Vice President Spiro Agnew and Ronald Reagan, governor of California, were convicted as "enemies of the people."

Through Attorney John T. McTernan, Miss Davis announced she would sue for reinstatement in federal court on grounds her constitutional rights to freedom of speech and due process were violated by the regents.

McTernan, noting the Communist party is a political entity and membership in any political party is, by court decision, not grounds for firing a University of California teacher, said:

"This woman was fired because she is a member of the Communist party, and the Reagan-dominated board doesn't want left wing dissidents to occupy a place on the university faculty."

Montgomery Furth, chairman-elect of the UCLA philosophy department, took a similar view and declared:

"It is hard to see how anyone can be deceived. The allegations that she has used her teaching position to indoctrinate students, or that her work as a faculty member is in any way impaired by her political activities, have been conclusively disproved, as the board admits.

"The true reason for their action is that she is a Communist, and the board's disclaimer on this point is hypocritical and dishonest."

A clear balloon was attached to the exhaust pipe of this car with its dirty engine running. The balloon began to fill with dirty exhaust until it looked like this — showing how exhaust emissions from dirty engines go into the air — and waste mileage.

AFTER F-310

The same car after running on just six tanksful of Chevron with Formula F-310. Dirty exhaust emissions reduced sharply. The balloon remains clear. No dirty smoke. F-310 turns dirty smoke into good clean mileage.

New F-310 in Chevron gasolines turns dirty exhaust into good clean mileage.

Now, scientists at Chevron Research Company have developed a remarkable new gasoline additive — Formula F-310* — that sharply reduces dirty exhaust from dirty engines. And helps toward cleaner air.

Tests conducted by Scott Research Laboratories, an independent research group, showed that Chevron gasolines with F-310 reduced unburned hydrocarbon and carbon monoxide emissions dramatically. Clearly, this is an important step towards solving one of today's major problems.

F-310 also improves mileage, because dirty exhaust is really wasted gasoline. So F-310 literally keeps good mileage from going up in smoke.

What causes an engine to produce dirty exhaust in the first place? Over a period of time, deposits make engines "run rich." They actually consume more gasoline than they can burn efficiently. Result: wasted gasoline goes out the exhaust pipe as unburned hydrocarbons, along with increased carbon monoxide emissions. You can even see the emissions as dirty smoke. And you can feel — and hear — the rough idling. It all adds up to a car that is unnecessarily emitting dirty exhaust and wasting gasoline. Just six tanksful with F-310 can correct the condition.

Formula F-310, a patented gasoline additive, is now available in Chevron gasolines wherever you see the F-310 sign.

Car Flips, Hits Auto; Six Hurt

HAGERMAN — Six persons were treated and released from Gooding Memorial Hospital for minor injuries after a two-car accident about 4 p.m. Saturday five miles south of Hagerman on Highway 30.

State Police said a 1968 Plymouth, driven by Mrs. Pauline Ross, The Dalles, Ore., was traveling south and went off the highway onto the shoulder and rolled over 1 1/2 times.

The auto then skidded down the highway several hundred feet on its top before sideswiping a stationwagon driven by Trino Campos, Hagerman.

Mrs. Campos and two small children were thrown from the stationwagon after the impact. Mr. Campos stayed in the auto as did Mrs. Ross and her daughter in the Oregon vehicle.

All were taken to the Gooding hospital for treatment of minor injuries and released, except Mrs. Campos who stayed in the hospital overnight.

Pollution Fight Is Planned

BURLEY — The chairman of the J.R. Simplot Co. Environmental Control committee, Paul Hansen, also vice president of operations of the food division, says the firm will spend three million dollars during the next three years on air and water pollution programs.

The recently-formed corporate 10-man committee on environmental control has studied future environmental control requirements and taken inventory of present program.

Mr. Hansen said after looking at expenditures already committed for 1971, it appears that we'll spend more than three million.

He said the committee has screened applications for the Corporate Environmental Control office and they have interviewed several applicants for the position which should be filled soon.

The firm has 18 persons working exclusively in the environmental control program and 22 people who divide their time between this and other duties.

The new committee is charged with the responsibility to implement, control and coordinate a company-wide effort to stop pollution.

Environmental classes for employees are being conducted at Heyburn, Caldwell and Pocatello, he added.

Hospital Gets Respirator For Extensive Care Unit

BY ARVETTA SAVAGE
Times-News Correspondent
RUPERT — The long-awaited Mark 14 Bird respirator has arrived at Minidoka Memorial Hospital.

The valuable piece of equipment was ordered some time ago to complete equipment in the newly developed Coronary and Intensive Care Unit at the hospital. A special session was held this week between hospital personnel and the equipment representative, Seth Jenkins, Idaho Falls.

The respirator isn't entirely new to personnel, as many staff nurses have trained this past year to work with the coronary and lung equipment. The respirator consists of an electronic spirometer and a model M.M. 105 respirator volumetric controller. The equipment can breath for a patient, when his natural breathing has temporarily stopped, and has controls to adjust for any emergency.

Mr. Jenkins told hospital personnel, they now have equipment which they can "feel confident in patient care through most any emergency."

The respirator is just one piece of equipment which the hospital has acquired for its coronary and intensive unit, which recently was remodeled next to the nurses station. Windows have been lowered in the two-room unit for visual supervising, and also two monitors with two automatic write-outs and remote heart-rate alarms are keeping nurses aware of patients' conditions.

The three-bed unit is fixed so that two beds can be monitored continually. Other equipment purchased for the unit includes two monitors with scopes, heart-rate module with automatic alarm system, defibrillator with built-in synchronizer on a crash cart, six tracks and three overhead I.V. holders, three examination examination and patients lights, three wall mounted blood pressure machines, three royal-metal high-low beds, three bedside tables, a Bower Pulsator, an elder valve-ventilator, a supply cart, three patient reading lamps plus remodeling and redecorating of rooms.

The total cost for this improvement is $10,384.97, with $1,620 coming from individual and group donations ranging between $5 and $500. The project also is being financed through hospital operation funds. Ed Richardson, hospital administrator, said this project hasn't been completely paid for yet and the hospital is still accepting donations and memorials to cover it. Names of contributors will be engraved on a plaque to be placed in the hospital.

He noted that additional equipment for the unit will be added as needed. The project, which has taken nearly a year to complete, will be viewed by the public July 11, during open house. Mr. Richardson said, "It is my hope that this unit will be utilized to the fullest for the purpose intended, and that is to offer our community the latest in life saving techniques."

Equalization Board To Review Tax Valuation

JEROME — The Jerome County Commissioners are sitting as the board of equalization through July 3. Mrs. Ella McVey, county auditor, said the commissioners as the board of equalization will review and consider all tax exemptions allowed by law on property taxes.

She said although the final figures are still being tabulated, some data on the county's real property valuation picture has been determined.

The total real property valuation for farm property in the county, before equalization, is $10,469,968 as compared to $9,720,158 last year.

As far as the cities in Jerome County are concerned, Mrs. McVey said, valuation for 1970 amounts to $2,726,101 as compared to $2,629,187 a year ago.

The City of Jerome valuation, prior to equalization, is $2,365,535, compared to $2,376,343 last year.

Mrs. McVey emphasized the figures represent data before equalization has been determined. Anyone interested in talking with the board should contact her office for an appointment.

Twin Falls Legion A team ended a short two-game losing streak Sunday afternoon, taking both ends of a doubleheader with the Borah Senators 5-1 and 6-3.

Twin Falls, now 13-3, seized immediate control in the opener with a three-run first inning. Mike Erickson began things with a single; Paul Clark was hit by a pitch, and Ron Blackwood drew a walk.

Graham, hovering from the flu, labored through four innings and was in trouble much of the time as he walked five men. A Samba to Blackwood to Wells double play in the third snuffed one Senator rally and in the fourth, with two on and just one out, Graham retired opposing pitcher Toledo and Brassy.

Jacklin Is First Briton To Win U.S. Open In 50 Years

CHASKA, Minn. (UPI)—British Open champion Tony Jacklin, tearing a page from Ben Hogan's book of greatness, shot his fourth consecutive sub-par round Sunday, a 70, to win the U.S. Open golf championship by seven strokes over Dave Hill with a 72-hole total of 281, seven under par. Jacklin's similarity to the great Hogan was obvious: His margin was the second largest ever in the Open, better than the six strokes by which Hogan captured his fourth Open crown in 1953, and he is the first Open champion since Hogan to lead every round.

Now Jacklin has a chance to duplicate Hogan's feat of

Jacklin Enjoyed Last Nine

CHASKA, Minn. (UPI)—Tony Jacklin, runaway winner of the U.S. Open Golf championship, had to admit it—he actually enjoyed playing the last half of his final round Sunday.

"I was tremendously tense through number nine, and I feel tired after yesterday's round," he said. "Nine was the turning point."

"On six I missed the easiest birdie putt I had all week and let it get to me a bit," Jacklin said, and he bogeyed seven and eight as runner-up Dave Hill cut his lead to three strokes.

On the ninth-hole he drove into the rough, hit into the green with a brilliant 4 iron, and faced a 25-foot putt.

"I wanted to give it a smooth stroke...it hit the back and seemed to come out, then dropped back in. My confidence came back."

"I really enjoyed playing the last nine holes but I never felt I couldn't be caught. I kept thinking of (Arnold) Palmer when (Billy) Casper caught him in the last nine."

Trying not to think about winning the U.S. Open was the toughest job, putting a mental block on it.

Jacklin's birdie at nine increased his lead over Hill to four strokes and on the "enjoyable" back nine, he elected to play it safe on a few holes but none-the-less sliced two more strokes off par with superb putts on the 10th and 18th holes.

On Wednesday, the day before the tournament, he said, Jim Yancy—brother of U.S. professional Bert Yancy—got him to look at the hole—not the ball, while putting and it helped his confidence immeasurably.

"This is beyond my wildest dreams," he said. "It hasn't registered yet. It's a wonderful feeling. I feel very proud for England now. Over the past few years England hasn't had great success in more ways than one."

"We were booked out on a flight at 5:15 this evening. Thank the Lord we had to cancel it."

A's Sweep Twin Bill From Chicago

OAKLAND (UPI)—Sal Bando drove in three runs with a pair of long homers Sunday to give Oakland a 5-4 victory and a doubleheader sweep of the Chicago White Sox after Jim Hunter pitched the A's to a 6-3 triumph in the opener.

The sweep left the A's 5-1-2 games behind pace-setting Minnesota in the American League West and it sent the White Sox down to their sixth straight doubleheader loss this season.

A bases empty homer by Bert Campaneris, a double by Steve Hovley and Bando's 12th homer of the season jumped the A's to a 3-0 lead in the first inning of the nightcap.

Cincinnati, Dodgers Split 9-3 Decisions

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Johnny Bench pounded out four hits including his 24th homer of the season and drove in four runs to back Wayne Simpson's seven-hit pitching Sunday as the Cincinnati Reds beat Los Angeles 9-3 after the Dodgers won the first game by the same score.

Bench's homer, which tied for the major league lead with teammate Tony Perez, was one of three hit by the Reds as they battered four Dodger pitchers for 15 hits, including three each by Pat Corrales and Dave Concepcion. It was Simpson's 10th win.

Braves 6, Astros 4

ATLANTA (UPI)—Frank Aaron hit a pair of two-run homers Sunday to lead the Atlanta Braves to a 6-4 victory over the Houston Astros.

Aaron's first homer, his 21st of the season, came in the first inning with Sonny Jackson, who had singled with one out, aboard. Number 22 of the year came in the fourth again with Jackson, who had singled in a run, on base.

Aaron, who has four homers in the last three days, now has a career total of 57.

was worth taking so he promptly played dummy's ace of diamonds. When East dropped the king, South played his 10. Then he drew trumps, led his six of diamonds, finished six of diamonds, West's nine and made the rest of the tricks.

Jim: "South had really taken a slim chance since his play could only succeed if East held the singleton king of diamonds. On the other hand the rather normal play of taking a diamond finesse represented no chance at all. South knew that East held the king of diamonds just as surely as if he had waved it in his face."

Oswald: "The dog hadn't barked or, putting it in bridge terms, West hadn't responded to the opening heart bid. West had shown up with the ace of hearts. He just couldn't hold the king of diamonds also."

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Oswald: "Remember the Sherlock Holmes story about the dog that didn't bark in the night?"

Jim: "Holmes deduced that the dog must have known the person who came by; didn't he?"

Oswald: "Yes. In the same way you can deduce a lot by bids that aren't made."

Jim: "Here's a hand to illustrate. West opened the ace of hearts. East produced the deuce and West shifted to a club. Dummy's queen lost to East's ace and the jack of clubs was returned to dummy's king."

Oswald: "At this point South had two chances for his contract. Slim and none. He decided the slim chance

CUSTOMER SERVICE - "Most popular man's name in the United States is John; correct?" Not anymore: Michael now is No. 1. Next eight in order are John, Robert, David, Steven, Anthony, William, Joseph and Christopher. Names that used to be in the top 10 but aren't anymore are Charles, George, Edward, James, Lewis, Francis and Samuel.

NO-WONDER - Do teachers look so peculiar. Their noses are on their legs. YORTE DINNER - Entree in Ethiopia is raw beef. NOTE A SAN FRANCISCO - service station that sells nylon stockings offers free installation. AM TOLD THERE'S - no record any real pirate ever wore a ring in his ear. WHAT DO - the home gardeners spend the most money on? Grass seed.

PROGRESS - Say you're a good man who joins a company at the bottom with ambition to go to the top. How long does it take you to get there? On the average, research reveals such a man works 26.1 years before he runs the place. Now that is a man with no special connections. Research further reveals that such a man, who marries the boss's daughter, finally takes charge 73 days sooner than the ordinary fellow. Only 73 days sooner? It's not worth it.

NOT COUNTING CARS, what sort of transportation travels farthest each year? So inquires a client. How about elevators? Altogether they go far enough annually to equal about 300 round trips to the moon. NOW THIS ONE is a little hard to swallow, but the legal researchers say it's an absolute fact. In Pasadena, Calif., it's against the law for a business man to remain in a room alone with his lady secretary.

PET NOTE - A veterinarian tells me that best thing you can do for your cat, if any, is add a little chopped celery to its food about once a week.

EDITORS AND WRITERS - That large literary light named Thomas Wolfe always wanted to write a play. He didn't make it, though. It wasn't until 20 years after his death that a swift citizen named Ketti Frings turned his novel "Look Homeward, Angel" into a dandy drama. This illustrates the little-understood fact that a talent for writing and a talent for editing are two different things. Writers who can edit occasionally crop up. But mostly writers and editors are separated professionals, natural enemies, like mongooses and cobras, who need one another to maintain the balance of things.

RAPID REPLY - Yes, Mrs. H., we're spending about $250 million a year on tranquilizers, and getting nervous and nervous.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used in PASS IT ON wherever possible. Address your letters to L.M. Boyd, P.O. Box 3760, Santa Monica, Calif. 90403.

ALVIN HAS ADVANCE NEWS

EXCELLENT FAIR POOR

High Mountain Hoedown (Aco SD 33 329)

The most notable thing about this album is the slaughter of three fine tunes not written by the group...

Huddle Ledbetter would riot if he could hear what this group has done to "Good Night Irene..."

And The Band should sue for slander over the treatment of "The Weight" by this group...

Their own tunes are handled with much more loving care, to be sure, and even have an occasional nice tick or two...

Lord Sutch and Heavy Friends (Columbia SD 9015) This shrieking idiot screams his lungs out with Jimmy Page, Noel Redding, Jeff Beck, and Nicky Hopkins in a marathon "heavy" session...

You can hear Jimmy Page imitating Bo Diddley, and Jeff Beck wailing his guitar, and Noel Redding's pounding bass...

Unless you're a fan of this type of "music," it's repulsive. One star.

Vehicle: The Ides of March (Warner Bros. 1883) Work in this album of jazz-rock ranges from very good to mediocre...

The group, two guitars, keyboards, drums, bass, sax and two trumpets, sounds impressive on one hand, and rather sloppy on occasion...

They do have talent, however, and prove it in several very good tunes on this album...

They're outstanding on "The Sky Is Falling" (even though the lyrics are inane) and "Home" and "Wooden Ships" and "Dharma for One" but they tend to fall apart on things like "Factory Band" and don't rise above mediocrity on the title tune and "Bald Medusa" and "Ain't of Good Feeling"...

Killing Floor (Sire SES 97019) The resurgence of the blues, which started in England and moved back to the U.S., has prompted the creation of many new blues bands...

This British blues band is one of those created during this resurgence. They are unique in that the blues they are performing is almost all original, and it's good...

The group makes up for its musical inconsistencies in playing with unbounded enthusiasm...

Every tune but one on the album was written by members of the group, which takes its name from a blues tune...

The group (guitar, harmonica, bass, drums and piano) plays with a solid but oftentimes sloppy authority...

But with the memory that Muddy Waters and Memphis Slim and other noted American bluesmen were often authentically sloppy in their work and it was accepted as authenticity, the work of Killing Floor must also be judged...

Three stars.

Entrance: Edgar Winter (Epic BN 28563) If you disliked blues singer Johnny Winter, you'll hate his brother, Edgar...

Edgar has much less talent than his brother, who has an authentic sense of the traditional blues...

Public Outcry Hinderes Hunt For DDT Substitute

By JOHN LEIGHTY
BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—The outcry over lingering pesticides is hampering the search for an acceptable alternative to DDT, U.S. Forest Service researchers complain.

Researchers have lab-tested a dozen new "ecologically sane" compounds for controlling forest insects. But public "fear and overreaction" is so intense they can't get them into the field, they say.

Even if they could be field-tested, a chemical industry spokesman said, the Agriculture Department has imposed a moratorium on new compounds.

Until these new, highly selective compounds can be tested in the field, the Forest Service will have to continue to use the old methods—including limited amounts of DDT—on the nation's forests.

One chemical which researchers say has been thoroughly lab-tested for every imaginable effect under every condition is called Zectran. An expensive compound it probably will never be produced commercially without government subsidy.

Researchers developed Zectran for use against one particularly destructive pest, the spruce budworm, but they believe it might be useful against others.

"There's so much public fear and overreaction to the use of new compounds that they don't even want you to do the testing," said Carl Crisp, a plant physiologist for the Forest Service.

"If there are going to be alternatives to DDT, somewhere along the line the experimental work has to be done and it has to be done in the environment."

Crisp said small-scale field experiments were necessary, with researchers publicizing what they were doing and immediately dropping any project the public didn't approve of.

IT'S SUMMER AT last, and after the long, cold spring that old summer sun feels mighty good to most folks who love to soak in the sun and bask in the few balmy breezes that blow by. But summer for the young'uns means playin' in the pool, and these folks some few are making the most of the pool at the city park. Ah, to be young again...
