U.S. Asks For Peace In Mid-East

Crowd At Denver In Riot

DENVER (UPI)—A wedge of about 50 policemen charged into a crowd of demonstrators outside a hall where Vice President Spiro T. Agnew was speaking Wednesday after the protestors refused an order to disperse.

Police said they had arrested 30 persons during the demonstration. One policeman was hospitalized with a possible concussion and glass splinters in his eye.

Police, swinging and jabbing with their clubs, chased some of the demonstrators for about five minutes through downtown Denver. Some demonstrators took refuge in a nearby topless bar and lounge.

A police spokesman said Detective John Ballegeer was hit in the face with a soft drink bottle. The spokesman said it was believed the glass fragments in Ballegeer's eye would not cause serious damage.

At one point, after tension appeared to have relaxed, about a dozen bottles shattered on the pavement near where police were assembled, blocking off Currihan Exhibition Hall where Agnew was addressing a 1200-a-plate Republican dinner and campaign rally.

Police charged into the crowd when the bottles hit and about 30 demonstrators fled into a nearby topless go-go club.

The demonstrators were outside the hall for almost five hours before the final wedge of policemen apparently broke up the demonstration.

At least two of the demonstrators were splattered with blood. Persons in the crowd chanted "One, two, three, four. We don't want your—ing war." Several pieces of ice were reported thrown at the police by demonstrators.

A bystander who said he was a retired Denver salesman said he was "worried about what kind of young people our country has got. Some of them just aren't human. It's sickening."

POLICE DETECTIVE John Ballegeer is given first aid by fellow officers after he was hit in the head with a bottle during an anti-war demonstration at Currihan Hall in Denver. A total of 30 persons were arrested during the disturbance while Vice-

President Spiro Agnew spoke at a Republican fund raising dinner in the hall. Several people, other than the detective, were injured. (UPI telephoto)

Rogers Says Plan Calls For United Nations Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State William P. Rogers announced today the United States has submitted a new peace proposal in the Middle East to encourage the Arabs and Israelis "to stop shooting and start talking" under the auspices of the United Nations.

Rogers told a news conference that the objective of the American plan was "to encourage the parties to move towards a just and lasting peace which takes fully into account the legitimate aspirations and concerns of all governments and peoples of the area."

The secretary said he declined in a statement opening the news conference to disclose any details of the plan.

He also declined to "discuss publicly military assistance for Israel" on grounds that to do so might jeopardize the acceptance of the new U.S. peace plan.

Rogers' failure to announce the U.S. decision on Israel's request for 125 more warplanes was certain to disturb the Israelis. They have argued that an announcement that more planes would be supplied might have a psychological effect in preventing a further Soviet military buildup in Egypt.

Although Rogers declined to give details of the U.S. peace plan, it was understood that it calls for an Arab-Israeli ceasefire of at least three months and the start of negotiations on the basis of following pledges involving Israel, Egypt and Jordan.

Willingness to carry out all provisions of a 1967 U.N. Security Council resolution laying down guidelines for a settlement.

"A commitment by Egypt and Jordan to the principle of keeping the peace with Israel and acknowledging Israel's right to a secure existence within specified borders.

An Israeli commitment, in return, to the principle of withdrawal from Arab territories it occupied since the Six-Day War of June, 1967.

Those conditions constitute the first phase of the U.S. plan.

The second phase, Arab sources said, involves establishment of a 12-mile-wide demilitarized zone along the Suez Canal, and stationing there of U.N. forces to make certain the cease-fire was maintained.

The U.S. proposal was submitted directly to Israel and the Arab states, bypassing Big Four talks at the United Nations as well as Soviet-American discussions in Washington. However, the United States informed Russia, Britain and France in full detail of the proposal it submitted.

Details of the U.S. proposal began circulating in Mideast capitals well ahead of Rogers' formal announcement, with initial reaction generally fairly restrained.

Tornado, Violent Storms Hit Plains

By United Press International

A tornado devastated a trailer park and killed a 3-day-old boy near Bishop, Tex., Wednesday as violent storms swept across the Southern Plains to the Lower Great Lakes.

Ten persons were injured by the Bishop tornado and all trailers were "totally demolished," officials said. The youth at first feared to have been swept away by flash floods, was found in a pool of water a dozen yards from his trailer home.

A relative said he saw the infant sucked out of his crib and "into the darkness" by the twister.

Tornadoes also were reported near Conway and Russellville, both in Arkansas, and near Salsberry, Ind. No injuries were reported and damage was

Nixon Is Rebuffed By Vote

WASHINGTON (UPI)—With House Republicans divided, President Nixon appeared in for a rebuff today on a rare vote to override a presidential veto—in this case a rejected bill to expand hospital construction.

Democratic leaders said their troops were solidly lined up to vote for passage over Nixon's veto. Republicans, who failed to reach a consensus on the matter in a caucus Tuesday, appeared likely to give up enough votes to carry the bill.

Republicans were ready with a substitute bill free of spending directives Nixon found objectionable, but party solidarity was threatened by political overtones. Few members wanted to leave themselves open to the charge this election year that they voted against a health measure.

If the two-thirds majority required to override a presidential veto materializes in the House, the bill will be returned to the Senate for the same test and probably the same result.

As it clearly Congress unanimously in both houses—the bill provided for a three-year extension of the Hill-Burton Hospital Construction Program.

Nixon Is Rebuffed By Vote

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Jack R. Howard, president of the E. W. Scripps Co., Wednesday announced an agreement to sell Scripps' majority stock in the Cincinnati Enquirer to Francis L. Dale, president and publisher of the Enquirer.

The Scripps company has agreed to accept an offer from Enquirer Enterprises, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Cincinnati Enquirer, to acquire the 50 per cent equity Scripps holds for $35 per share.

The sale is subject to approval by shareholders of the Cincinnati Enquirer and by the U.S. Justice Department.

Accept

PARIS (UPI)—North Vietnam said today it would accept the return of 86 war prisoners whose freedom was offered by South Vietnam, but insisted they were merely "Vietnamese patriots."

The North Vietnamese delegation to the Paris peace talks issued a communique from the North Vietnamese Information Agency agreeing to the return, but imposing conditions on the release.

Hanoi has never admitted its troops are fighting in South Vietnam.

Tate Trial Drama Is Confusing

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Saying they want to deny the "establishment" the satisfaction of a "court drama," Charles Manson and his three female codefendants are trying to prevent their lawyers from quizzing prospective jurors at the trial for the murder of actress Sharon Tate.

Two of the defense attorneys Wednesday refused to go along with their clients' demands and questioned 12 prospective jurors as to whether they could bring in a fair verdict in the bizarre multiple killings.

Manson, leader of the hippie cult accused of seven murders, instructed his attorney, Irving Kanarek, not to raise any defense but to sit mute in the courtroom.

Days Shinn, lawyer for Susan Atkins, said the young woman also had instructed him to accept the 12 jurors without interrogation as the "Manson Family" attempted to put up a unified defense.

The other two girls, Patricia Kronwinkel and Leslie Van Houten, instructed their lawyers to cause questioning jurors but they refused.

Paul Fitzgerald, representing Miss Kronwinkel, said he felt it was his duty to try to get the fairest possible jury but he said he understood the opinion of his client who stood up in court Wednesday and tried unsuccessfully to fire him.

"It is something of a martyr complex," Fitzgerald told newsmen. "She feels she already has been tried and convicted and sentenced to death in the news media."

Railroad Troubles Are Aired

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe says the only alternative to a government takeover of the nation's railroads is government-backed loans.

"I can't remember discussing anything besides nationalization, outside the measure we have sent to Congress," Volpe testified Wednesday.

That measure would authorize $750 million in government-guaranteed loans to financially ailing railroads.

"The only other option for keeping up service that we have been able to think of is a takeover of the railroads by the federal government," Volpe told the House Commerce Committee.

President, Wife Jet To California "House"

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon and his wife, Pat, flew to the Western White House at San Clemente, Calif., today for a week of work and relaxation, with a speechmaking stopover in St. Louis.

Nixon was to address the Junior Chamber of Commerce in St. Louis Kiel Auditorium on the "U.S. Today and the U.S. in the Future."

The President also planned to meet with a group of editors and publishers after his arrival in San Clemente today.

White House Press Officer Gerald L. Warren said several aides would accompany the President to his ocean-side home. Presidential assistants H. R. Haldeman, Dwight L. Chapin and Patrick J. Buchanan; Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, national security adviser; Press Officer Ronald L. Ziegler and Rosamary Woods, Nixon's personal secretary.

The First Lady will leave San Clemente Sunday on a flying trip to Peru to personally deliver a plenipotentiary of supplies for earthquake victims.

The trip was arranged at the President's request to dramatize the nation's concern for the suffering survivors. Mrs. Nixon is expected to return to San Clemente in midweek.

Import Of Oil Topic Of Meet

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—The Interstate Oil Compact Commission urged the federal government Wednesday not to switch from a mandatory oil import program to a tariff system, which it claims would do "severe damage to the domestic economy."

The IOCC, in the closing session of a three-day mid-year meeting here, adopted a resolution in favor of the import program now in effect. The resolution said the quota system had "insured adequate petroleum supplies through several international crises."

The import program fixes the amount of foreign oil that can be brought into the United States. A cabinet task force recently recommended the program be dismantled and replaced with tariffs, Nixon took no action pending an investigation by an oil policy committee.

The IOCC resolution warned that tariffs would cause "the abandonment of vast reserves of oil and gas, sharp curtailment of the search for and development of new reserves, acceleration of the current gas shortage and increased dependence upon insecure sources of oil."

Victory Of U.S. Said Not True

PARIS (UPI)—North Vietnam said today that, despite President Nixon's public optimism, the United States has suffered major defeats during the past months in South Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos.

The charge by the North Vietnamese chief delegate to the stalemated Paris peace talks came at the 72nd session, dominated by charges about the Indochinese fighting and no discussion about peace terms for Vietnam.

The chief U.S. negotiator, Philip C. Habib, again pleaded for "serious negotiations."

"Once again," he said, "we reject your charge of aggression by the United States. We do not accept your demands that the United States simply agree to withdraw and abandon the government of South Vietnam as a precondition to negotiation of the issues in concrete and specific fashion. To repeat those demands is not conducive to genuine negotiation."

Mae West Is Still Sex Queen

NEW YORK (UPI)—Woman's Liberation probably never expected as an ally the one woman who made the uplifted bosom as familiar a part of American scenery as trees. But Mae West, at 77 still a reigning sex queen, is very definitely the liberated woman.

"Liberation was always in the back of my mind," Mae said in an interview Wednesday. "When I was 14 years I freed men having all the freedom of sex and from then on I thought women should have it too."

"I've never put a woman down," she said. "In all my pictures I've kept the woman up. That's why I have so many women fans."

HEW Head Witnesses Protest

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Elliot L. Richardson had been secretary of the troubled Department of Health, Education and Welfare for only a few hours when he experienced an employee demonstration.

The protest meeting of HEW employees, held Wednesday a short time after Richardson took the oath of office, was not directed at their new boss but at the Indochina conflict. "This war is cutting and dividing this nation to the heart," the group said in a statement.

Sponsors of the demonstration at the HEW auditorium said arrangements for it were made while Robert H. Finch, now a counselor to President Nixon, still headed the department.

Danger Seen In Dam Plan

NEW MEADOWS, Idaho (UPI)—Proposed doubling of water releases from the T.E. Roach Canyon complex would "endanger" upstream recreation benefits and cripple arid-land reclamation, according to the newly-formed Greater Snake River Land Use Congress.

Directors of the group, a chapter of Outdoors Unlimited as composed of Idaho and eastern Oregon residents, have adopted unanimously a policy opposing the suggestion water-release increase.

The increase, which would boost minimum flow below Hells Canyon Dam to 10,000 cubic feet per second, is under study by the Army engineers at the request of downstream recreation interests and the Lewis and Clark National Historical Park.

Paul John Bjornson, 19, who walked away from an outside trusty dormitory at the main prison near Boise on Monday, was apprehended by Twin Falls police Wednesday.

McGovern Sees Thought Change

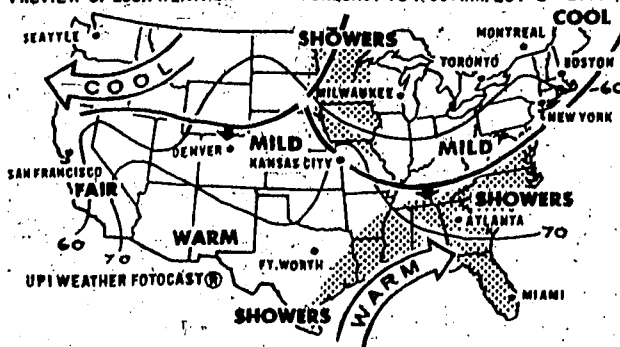

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., says he will move to table his own amendment to end the war "if Nixon administration supporters bring it up prematurely in an effort to defeat it."

The upside-down, inside-out, rear-end forward situation developed as the Senate lurched into

City Crew Paving Falls Avenue

PAVING OF FALLS Avenue between Blue Lake Boulevard North and Harrison Street will be completed Thursday, after being in various stages of construction for about a year. Blacktopping of the street began Wednesday and the street has been closed to traffic during the work.

Paving of Falls Avenue from Harrison to Blue Lake Boulevard North should finally be completed Thursday afternoon, according to George Michael, Twin Falls City Engineer.

Traffic will not be allowed on Falls Avenue until Friday morning, since the asphalt must have time to harden, Mr. Michael said.

"No real problems have been caused by the closing of the street," said Leo Soran, owner of the Turf Club.

The Turf Club has catered the Kiwanis and the Rotary Clubs at the American Legion Hall on the two days the avenue has been closed. The Bar Association and the International Harvesters ignored the closed avenue, parked their cars elsewhere and walked to the Turf Club for their meetings, Mr. Soran said.

The College of Southern Idaho has found no problems in the closing of the road, according to Herb Van Syke, business manager. A bulletin was sent to all of the summer students warning them of the street condition, and most students have taken the back way to CSI since Wednesday, he said.

Strike At School Is Short One

A one-day strike by union bricklayers working on the addition to Twin Falls High School ended Wednesday, according to Dr. Ernest H. Ragland, superintendent of schools.

The bricklayers were reportedly protesting the hiring of a non-union roofer, Dr. Ragland said. A picket was placed at the site Tuesday morning when the dispute erupted.

The dispute apparently was settled with the removal of the non-union employe from the job and work resumed Wednesday.

Man Pleads Innocent To Assault Charges

A man who was charged with four misdemeanors and one felony following altercations at Red's Trading Post and the Twin Falls Police station, pleaded not guilty to all five counts when he was arraigned late Wednesday afternoon in Polio Court.

Robert Kay Bruce Dockon, 30, who lists his address as general delivery, Twin Falls, is accused of assault and battery on three employees of Red's Trading Post and destruction of private property for breaking or damaging about $20 worth of items at the store. All are misdemeanors.

He also is charged with felony, resisting an officer by means of violence, for striking Frank Lara at the police station and knocking the young officer unconscious. Officer Lara was checked by a physician Wednesday after the incident and did not report to work Thursday, suffering from face and head wounds, received from the blow and from falling against a door jam.

Officer Lara was struck as he entered a small interrogation room about 10 a.m. as officer John Wellard was taking the handoffs from Dockon, who shoved officer Wellard aside and struck the other officer. After striking that blow, the prisoner turned on officer Wellard, who pulled his can of Mace and sprayed it in Dockon's face, bringing him under control until other officers arrived to assist.

Tim Qualls, captain of the Detective Division, commended officer Wellard Wednesday for his action. The officer is considerably smaller in stature than the prisoner and Capt. Qualls said he "used his head" by pulling the Mace rather than his gun.

Dockon was not arraigned on the assault on officer Lara; $200 for destruction of property, and $100 each for the assaults on the store employes. He has been transferred to the county jail.

It's Easy To Do Things If You Don't Know How Hard It Is

The Lighter Side
By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—When Godfrey Cambridge, the well-known actor-comedian, was getting started in show business, he lived in sort of a fool's paradise.
He simply would walk out on the stage and improvise funny monologues.
The audiences loved it, and pretty soon Cambridge was successful enough to need a manager.

After watching his act a couple of times, his manager called Cambridge aside and told him it was extremely difficult for a comedian simply to walk out on the stage improvise funny monologues.
Upon learning that what he had been doing was extremely difficult, Cambridge was unable to do it any more. Thereafter, he always wrote down, memorized and carefully rehearsed his material before he went on stage.

Cambridge told me about this the other day when he was in town for the local premiere of his new movie "Cotton Comes to Harlem."
I can now empathize with him to a degree because I have had a similar experience.
As it happened, I interviewed Cambridge with a couple of other columnists. At the time, I felt certain it would provide some column material. But after the interview was over, one of the other columnists and I fell into a conversation and he began to tell me how hard it was to find column material.

Frankly, it had never before occurred to me that finding material might be difficult. But after this other columnist pointed out the difficulty, I began to realize that he was right.
When I got back to my desk and started looking over my notes I could see that, contrary to expectations, Cambridge had not provided any material for a column.
This other columnist, by the way, banged out a real good column about Cambridge. But I, having become aware of the difficulty, couldn't do it.
That is why I am writing this column about Mike McGrady, another recent Washington visitor and the author of a new potential best-seller titled "How to Write Dirty Books for Fun and Profit."
I was fortunate enough to

Building Of Program Is Listed For Pond Ok'd Band Concert In Park For Firm

The "Klaxon March" by Henry Fillmore will open the weekly band concert by the Twin Falls Municipal Band at 8:15 p.m. Thursday in the city park.
The program includes, in addition to the opening march, "Post and Poastant Overture," by Suppe; "Lili Marlene," by Phil Park; "L'Estudiantina," a waltz by Waldteufel, and the "Gundalcanal March," from "Victory at Sea" by Richard Rodgers.
Following the intermission, the band will present "Burst of Flame," a concert march by Richard W. Bowles; "First Swedish Rhapsody," by Erik Swedisch; "Skyline Silhouette," by Bill Laas, featuring Allen DeVries in a trombone solo; selections from "The Student Prince" by Sigmund Romberg; and "Emblem of Unity," a march by J.J. Richards.
"The Star-Spangled Banner" will close the program.

Assistant Director Charles Radcliffe will direct the band.
An anti-pollution measure of the Amalgamated Sugar Co., designed to clean up Rock Creek, has been approved by the Twin Falls County Zoning Board.
The sugar processor petitioned the board to allow construction of a holding pond at their plant site, to allow topsoil from beet-cleaning procedures to settle before the water is dumped into Rock Creek. The zoning board said that construction of the pond is entirely within Amalgamated's jurisdiction — in effect giving the green light to the project.
In other business, the board recommended a public hearing on a request from the city of Twin Falls to locate a landfill site south of the city. The public hearing should be scheduled by the city at the "first available date," the board said.
A plot of a proposed trailer court to be located south of Twin Falls by Willis Corp. was approved, and a petition from Tony's Lounge in Filler to alter a nonconforming structure was vetoed.

Payette Lakes Pollution Problems Prove Conflicting

By RIGIARD CHARNOCK-MCCALL (UPI) — Summer home owners gave the State Land Board conflicting proposals Wednesday on how to solve pollution problem on Payette Lakes.

A majority seemed to favor outright sale of state-leased home sites to facilitate formation of a sewer district. But some urged the state to retain ownership of homesites and through the legislature, set up a program to finance sewers and pay for it out of home site rental fees.

Atty. Gen. Robert Robson presided at the hearing held in the McCaughy High School gymnasium and was attended by 80 persons, most of whom own summer homes along the lakes. Also present from the land board were D.F. Engolking, state superintendent of public instruction, and State Auditor Joe Williams.

Gov. In Samuelson and Secretary of State Pete Cenarusan, other members of the land board, were not present.

Porc-Shelton, McCall, president of the Payette Lakes Improvement, Inc., gave a progress report on efforts to get the sewer system planning and engineering started with private funds.

He said once the program is properly set up some of the private monies paid into it can be funded from state and federal funds that will be made available to the system.

Fit witness to testify was R.D. Mauld, Payette, who said he has seen homestead lease fees jump from $10 per year in 1931 to the present $125 annual charge for sites along the lake. He said he has tried in vain but could not purchase his homestead as did many of his neighbors.

"I've seen a lot of discrimination in the sale of lots along the lakeshore," he said. He said he felt the legislature should enact a law to permit the board to sell the lots to the present lessees without having to put them up for sale at public auction where wealthy buyers could outbid the poor.

Robson noted the lands involved are endowment lands and that it would take an act of congress and a change in the Idaho Admissions Act for the land to be sold to the board without a public auction. Robson made an appeal to the board for the loan of preliminary planning and engineering funds for the sewer system, warning that unless it is set, pollution may ruin Payette lakes as a summer home area.

The last thing I want to see is to have the lake like Lake Washington or Lake Tahoe where they have signs on it," Robson said.

One summer homestead leasee Jim Callahan, Nicholas Raino, urged the state to retain ownership.

Chiefs Killed

MANILA (UPI) — Communist fighters killed eight village chiefs Wednesday, who earlier in the day had agreed to begin a campaign against the "new people's army," the military wing of the Communist Huk. The chiefs were lined up beside a jeep in which they were riding in Tarlac province at night, police said.

ownership of the lands and somehow arrange to finance a sewer system — possibly through increased lease fees. He said he could not afford to bid competitively against rich persons to reclaim the homestead he now leases.

South Korea In Turmoil As 20th Anniversary Of Conflict Approaches

SEOUL (UPI) — South Korea prepared Wednesday for the 20th anniversary of the Korean War by turning aside a Communist-proffered nonaggression pact and ordering a massive manhunt for two saboteurs who apparently intended to assassinate top leaders with bombs in a national cemetery.

The South Korean government dismissed as "propaganda" a proposal from Pyongyang that called for a nonaggression pact, mutual military reductions of 100,000 men, and eventual confederation of the two Koreas if U.S. forces left this country.

Communist China, which provided the major enemy forces during the three-year conflict, marked the anniversary by calling on Asian nations to unite in driving "U.S. aggressors" from the Orient.

Korean officials said the apparent assassination attempt — uncovered when an antipersonnel mine which three saboteurs were trying to set at a gate of the national cemetery blew up and killed one of them — was a stern reminder that despite a 17-year truce, the war has never formally ended.

Lawrence Gossi, Boise, suggested the land board increase lease fees to an amount equal to taxes paid on private land in the area and use the increased revenue to help build the sewer system.

American Bombing Continues

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (UPI) — Daylong bombing and napalm attacks by American Phantom jets have broken the Communist siege of Kompong Thom, a Cambodian provincial capital and highway crossroads 80 miles north of Phnom Penh, military spokesmen said today.

Around the capital itself, they said, other air strikes and ground fighting have weakened the Communist position closest to Phnom Penh — Prek Tameak, 15 miles to the northeast. They said 10 Vietnamese Communists, including a North Vietnamese army colonel, had been killed by Cambodian troops while another 100 had been reported killed by air strikes.

A U.S. Air Force A37 Dragonfly jet fighter-bomber crashed Wednesday during a mission over Cambodia's northeastern Kratie Province, some 100 miles west of the South Vietnamese border. The U.S. Military Command in Saigon said the pilot of the plane was killed and reason for the crash was unknown.

Photographer Kent Potter of UPI, who flew into Kompong Thom with an airlift of Cambodian troops, reported American jets had been bombing Communist positions around the provincial capital for the past three days and that two Phantoms had been kept in the air throughout the day Wednesday in bombing, napalm and strafing raids.

The highway south from Kompong Thom to Phnom Penh remained closed, because Communists held several positions along it. Military spokesmen said the other five highways from Phnom Penh to other provincial capitals all were open today.

Communist forces attacked a U.S. air base in South Vietnam Wednesday night, wounding five Americans and causing some damage before being driven off by helicopter gunships from the base. The U.S. Command said Communist casualties were unknown in the attack on the 164th Combat Aviation Group's base 115 miles southwest of Saigon.

Surgery Patients Can Hasten Their Recovery

CHICAGO (UPI) — The sooner a surgery patient expects to go home the sooner he will recover, a doctor told a session of the American Medical Association convention Wednesday.

If, before the operation, the patient is told he will be back on his feet in a very short time, his recovery is hastened and the amount of pain killing drugs he receives is lessened, Dr. Paul T. Lahti, Royal Oak, Mich., said.

Early postoperative discharges after surgery will only work if the physician believes in the technique and the physician's confidence is transferred to the patient after the operation, Lahti said.

Southern Senators Defeated

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Using the same arguments and the same tactics, Southern senators finished in the same place they lost.

The Senate once again Wednesday killed legislation to outlaw mandatory busing of school children and revive the freedom of choice plans for school desegregation.

For the third time in seven months, the Senate struck down Southern-sponsored amendments in the House-passed education appropriations bill which contain the three perennial anti-civil rights riders.

But, knowing from past experience they were beaten before they started, Southern senators — and only a few of them — put up a spirited and token defense to keep the riders in the bill.

Working late into the night, the Senate disposed of the civil rights controversy and prepared for passage of the $4.5 billion aid to schools measure, possibly tonight.

The bill already provides $700 million more than the Nixon administration requested and Senate liberals are hoping to add another $200 million. But they were told by Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott that adding more funds would bring on a presidential veto.

Smith Says Governor In Error

SODA SPRINGS (UPI)—Republican candidate for governor Dick Smith, Rexburg, charged Tuesday that Gov. Don Samuelson made a mistake by saying that Idaho is free from debt.

Smith commented to a Soda Springs rally that the state has a bonded indebtedness of $1.89 million, he said the debt is not a foundation for development.

He also stated that Samuelson's foundation claim seems to be constructed on a bed of sand, for there are 14,000 unemployed persons in Idaho, the highest rate since May of 1963, Smith said. To add the governor should road the department of employment figures instead of press releases from his staff.

Price Of Dog Tags Going Up

The price of dog tags will go up $1 July 1, City Clerk Constance Lessor announced Wednesday.

The new price for dog tags will be $3 for a male or spayed female and $5 for a female.

To obtain a license for a dog, the owner first must have the dog vaccinated with anti-rabies vaccine by a licensed veterinarian. Vaccines are good for two years and a certificate of proof of vaccine is necessary to obtain the license.

If a female dog has been spayed, but has not been licensed previously, a certificate as proof of spaying is necessary to receive the $3 license.

Duplicate dog tags will be issued upon payment of 50 cents for each tag issued to replace the original tag that has been lost or destroyed.

Dog tags are not transferable from one dog to another.

The average seat capacity per passenger aircraft in 1937 was 12.7.

SIGHTS LIKE THIS will be common occurrences through out Idaho as hundreds of special education children prepare for Idaho's first Special Olympics. The new event is slated for the Idaho State University Min-Dome, July 26 and 27, in Pocatello. Some 35 children are expected to attend from Twin Falls. Jerry Sharp, Brian Olmstead and Mitch Williams, three high school students, and members of TORCH have provided physical training for the children. Transportation is being sponsored by the school district of Twin Falls. Buses will leave the Twin Falls High School parking lot at 9 a. m. Thursday morning.

Road Projects Under Construction

Three roads are under construction in Twin Falls County, Keith Anderson, Twin Falls District Highway Engineer, said Wednesday.

Seven or eight miles of new road are being built west of Hagerman to accommodate the harvesting of 6,000 acres of newly planted potatoes. Mr. Anderson said that he expected the road to be completed by the end of August.

The road between Hollister and Nat-Soo-Pah swimming resort is being widened and reconstructed. A new gravel, asphalt and an oil base will be put down and the road will be ready for traffic by the latter part of August.

Two miles of road north of Hansen, between State Highway 50 and Highway 30, are being reconstructed with base gravel and an oil mat. The road should be completed by fall.

There will be some traffic problems caused by construction and drivers are cautioned to be careful, Mr. Anderson said.

Hair that started the winter rich with body and glowing with summer health often ends the season limp and lank.

And it's really no secret why this happens. Just mix winter wind and dryness with steamheat and lack of humidity and the end result is dry, flyaway hair, totally unmanageable and lacking in depth and body.

However, proper care and a little extra loving attention can soon alter this situation — to return hair to soft, silky thickness, ready to take a summer onslaught of water, hot sun and perspiration.

The first step is to return to the 100 brush strokes a night routine in case you've gotten lazy or dropped the whole bit.

dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. All single persons between the ages of 30 and 60 are welcome to attend.

Next on the list comes regular shampooing, as often as necessary for your particular type of hair.

Third and most important is an after-shampoo creme rinse to help put body back into soulless hair. Tame with texturizer is simply squeezed on after shampooing. Work it through your hair with your fingers, then rinse out.

Your hair will suddenly feel like hair again — fuller, more luxurious in feel and look. Used regularly after each shampoo, a creme rinse will make your hair easier to comb and style, full of body for better handling, and above all healthier and shinier looking.

An after shampoo rinse, such as Tame, should always be used if you have bleached or tinted hair or if you regularly use such drying products as electric curlers.

Blahop DeLous Stoker from the View LDS Ward performed the ceremony before a background setting made up of bride's colors of blue, yellow and white, with a white arch trimmed with flowers and greenery and topped with large white wedding bells. Flanking the arch were tall pedestals baskets of yellow and white mums enchanted with blue satin bows.

The bride is the daughter of Melba Dean Bronson, Pocatello, and Robert M. Bronson, Burley. Mrs. Venna McCollum, Pocatello, is the mother of the bridegroom.

Brenda Luke played traditional wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length white dress of Victorian styling with a rounded neckline, leg simulation sleeves, accented with tiny pearl buttons and a full skirt. The waist was of empire styling.

She wore a full-length lace veil which was made by the bride. The dress was made by Mrs. Frank Davis, a friend of the family. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of pink roses and yellow split carnations tied with white streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Robert D. Bronson, sister-in-law of the bride. Laurel McCollum, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. John Johnson, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man, and Lynn McCollum, brother of the bridegroom, and Robert D. Bronson were ushers.

A three-tiered white wedding cake, trimmed with yellow rosebuds and topped with traditional bride and bridegroom, was arranged on a mirror which centered a lace covered table. Blue candles in crystal holders completed the decor.

A buffet dinner was served to the wedding party in the dining room at Price's Cafe, hosted by the bride's father.

Sally Smith, a ballroom dancing teacher of the bride, presented a Hawaiian wedding dance, and Debbie Pettengill was soloist, accompanied by Brenda Luke.

An open house reception was held at the country home of the bride's father that evening. Guests were served at quartet tables by Kathy Anderson, Salt Lake City, a school friend of the bride; and Laura McCollum, Pocatello, and two school friends from Pocatello.

After a short honeymoon, the newlyweds reside in Pocatello, where Mr. McCollum is associated with Idaho Metal Finishing Co.

DEAR ABBY: This is in response to FEB UP, the man with the wife who "has done her duty," and won't let him near her unless it's Christmas or his birthday. I had this pushed in my face last night, so I'm giving you my opinion as to why this husband and so many others get turned down so much.

I am tired of being told that making love to my husband is my "duty." Anyone knows that a woman is putty in the hands of a man who really loves her — no matter how long they've been married. If my husband would show me any recognizable form of love during the day time, I would respond with pleasure at night. But when all I hear from him during the day is criticism, all I feel for him is disgust at night.

His first "loves" are money, his business, and sports. He doesn't even show any love for our children, whom any father would be proud of. You hit the nail on the head, Abby, when you said, "A normal wife gives because she WANTS to," and she will not let it go until she feels needed and wanted and loved for herself — not just physically. My husband says he shows his "love" for us by supporting us.

They say God loves a cheerful giver. Well, so does a wife.

A WOMAN
DEAR WOMAN: I can tell you (from my mail) that many husbands need to be told what you've put in this letter. And I say, "Sock it to 'em!" Thanks for writing.

DEAR ABBY: It is the custom on Father's day for our church to present the oldest father and the youngest father with a prize. Also, the father who has the most children gets one.

It so happens that the boy I am going with is 20 years old and he has a child by an unmarried girl. This is a small town and there aren't any secrets here, but do you think it was nice of him to stand up in church and accept the prize for being the youngest father?

I was so embarrassed I wanted to die.

I still love him, but this really hurts me. Do you think I should tell him how I feel or should I let it go? HURT

DEAR HURT: Tell him how you feel. It may not penetrate, but it will probably make YOU feel better.

DEAR ABBY: I have had quite a bit of pain in my arm and shoulder due to either rheumatism or arthritis. I don't really know which. (One doctor says one thing, and another says something else.) Well, I have a friend who gave me a copper bracelet, and told me if I wore it faithfully for a few weeks, my aches and pains would go away. She swears up and down that she got rid of hers that way.

Well, after wearing it for 2 weeks I honestly believe I don't have as much pain as I did. I told my husband and he laughed at me. I'm afraid to mention this to my doctors because I know they will tell me I am crazy and am imagining things.

Will you please ask some of your medical consultants if this condition of mine, which is not MENTAL, can be improved by wearing a copper bracelet?

FEELING BETTER
DEAR FEELING: I have asked several medical consultants and they agree that there is no scientific basis for it, but they, too, have had patients "swear up and down" that the copper bracelet "helped." It may not "help," but it can't HURT!

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Under the U. S. Constitutional system, the legislative branch makes the laws, the judicial branch interprets the laws, and the executive branch carries out the laws.

At least, that's what the civic text books say. In actual practice, it doesn't always work out that way. Consider, for example, the recent Supreme Court ruling on conscientious objection to the draft, and the regulations issued by National Selective Service Headquarters to implement the court ruling. The law enacted by Congress plainly and explicitly states that draft-exemption on grounds of conscience may be granted only to those "who, by reason of religious training or belief, (are) conscientiously opposed to participation in war in any form."

Sales Of U.S. Savings Bonds Are Reported

May sales of U.S. Savings Bonds in the District totaled $73,044.00, Volunteer District Chairman James S. Kinney announced today.

"Total sales for Idaho in May were $659,956," he stated. "This brings the grand total for the first five months to $3,373,464 or 47.5 per cent of the assigned goal of $7,100,000 in the State. "Holdings of Savings Bonds-Freedom Shares, as of May 31, totaled $52,027,000,000 — an increase of $34 million," the chairman concluded.

The breakdown into 1970 sales goal, May sales, and total 1970 sales for District 3 is: Blaine, Everett B. Taylor, chairman, $45,000; $8,738; $21,520. Carnas, Charles Scoggins, chairman, $20,000; $1,937; $10,231. Casala, Gerald Y. Anderson, chairman, $85,000; $12,738; $65,699. Gooding, Adam Schubert, Jr., chairman, $40,000; $3,394; $17,052. Jerome, C.B. Harder, chairman, $65,000; $8,255; $29,356. Lincoln, D. Sid Smith, chairman, $20,000; $3,118; $9,248. Miradaka, Dean Hodges, chairman, $115,000; $6,884; $66,918. Twin Falls, Patrick H. Hamilton, chairman, $382,000; $27,880; $183,568. The total is $772,000; $73,044; $405,062.

The Supreme Court would have been entirely within its rights to declare that whole provision unconstitutional, for it clearly violates the First Amendment's ban on any governmental action that favors one religion over another, or the religious over the non-religious.

But the court chose—as three of its own members said in a sharp dissent—to rewrite the law rather than strike it down. It held that draft boards must grant conscientious objector status to persons who oppose war on purely moral and ethical grounds, as well as those whose stance is derived from religious beliefs.

This may be a fairer arrangement—but it is not what Congress enacted, and if the law needed rewriting to make it constitutional, the task properly belonged to the legislative branch.

The court did not have to wait long to find out how it feels to have another branch of government usurp your prerogatives.

On the day following the court ruling, Selective Service Director Curtis W. Tarr announced new guidelines for local draft boards to follow in deciding whether an applicant is eligible for CO status.

Tarr ostensibly was doing what the executive branch is constitutionally supposed to do—namely, carry out the law as interpreted by the courts. But in fact, he proceeded to revise the court's ruling, just as the court had rewritten the law passed by Congress.

Specifically, Tarr added a requirement that an applicant must be able to show that his opposition to war is the product of "some kind of rigorous training."

It is perfectly obvious that this requirement will discriminate against uneducated people who cannot show that their moral posture—however sincere—is the result of "rigorous training." What Tarr has done is to graft back into the law, by administrative action, the basic unfairness which the court tried to remove by judicial surgery.

It's one way to run a government—but not the way the founding fathers had in mind when they wrote the Constitution.

Caravan To Push Hailey Celebration

DEMONSTRATING HIS skills at various types of firearms for the Idaho Peace Officers Association convocation at Burley is Dan Combs, Oklahoma Highway Patrol. He was featured at the pistol shoot Wednesday at the Burley gun range near the airport. Here he shoots between his legs at the target.

HAILEY — Local merchants have donned Western attire this week in anticipation of the 1970 Days of the Old West celebration which officially begins Friday with a caravan through Magic Valley.

The tour, which will include Fairfield, Gooding, Wendell, Bliss, Hagerman, Jerome and Shoshone, will leave downtown Hailey at 8 a. m. Friday with participants asked to wear western outfits. Buttons for the July 4 barbecue will be sold.

A routine "ootin' oldtime shootin'" is scheduled for downtown Hailey at 5:30 p. m. Saturday by members of the Hailey Hrollers Riding Club.

A sidewalk sale will begin at 10 a. m. Friday, July 3, sponsored by the Days of the Old West Committee, in conjunction with a street fair with local merchants and service organizations participating. At 2 p. m. July 3, a "Kiddies' Parade" is scheduled to travel through Hailey under direction of Ann Dunn, assisted by Liz Bolton and Barbara Nyblad. The parade is open to children in the fifth grade and younger, who will compete in three divisions, of pets, bicycles and characters. All entries will receive a free gift and cash prizes will be awarded to first, second and third-place winners. Senior citizens of the area will lead the parade.

The parade will be followed at 3 p. m. by youngsters' street sports, for which $75 in prizes will be given. At 4 p. m., the Little League baseball game will get under way with the Ketchum Punks facing the Hailey Punks.

Also beginning at 4 p. m. and continuing until 6, the Wood River Jaycees will host a chicken dinner, followed by a second shootout at 6:30 p. m. at the rodeo arena in Hailey. The rodeo will begin at 7:30 p. m. with the P and P producers providing the stock.

Highlights of the rodeo will include a matador act, a bullfight, and the crowning of the Senior Citizen Royalty, a new event for which five local senior citizen couples are competing.

Miss Rodeo Idaho, Carolyn Harvey of Twin Falls, will be a featured guest during the July 3 events.

The annual Jaycees pancake breakfast will inaugurate the holiday events on July 4, beginning at 8 a. m. on the Courthouse lawn, followed by a shootout on Main Street at noon. The annual parade, with the theme "Days of the Golden West," will begin at 1 a. m., covering a mile in length.

Shab Wooley, known as Ben Colder, star of the TV show "Hawkeye," now appearing on "Hoe Haw," will head the parade as guest rider. The parade will feature the Wood River High School band, about 20 floats, a kids' section, three bands from the Musicians' Union, the Jerome Mounted Square Dancers, Ralph Sullivan's miniature Mediterranean donkeys and the Senior Citizen Royalty. Parade chairmen are Tommy Northcott and Paul Paoli.

The rodeo, beginning at 2 p. m., will feature Mr. Wooley, a matador act and the crowning of Miss Days of the Old West, for which six area girls are competing.

The day's events conclude at 5 p. m. with the annual button barbecue on the Courthouse lawn, with those wearing buttons admitted free. The Mavericks will provide music during the event.

Loe Mosler, Boise, will operate jewelry and balloon stands throughout the two-day celebration, and planning committee members will offer rides on a stagecoach for youngsters. A rock show will continue all day Saturday at the St. Charles Parish Hall.

In preparation for the barbecue, a meat-cutting party is scheduled at 7 p. m. Wednesday, July 1, with the public invited to participate at the Hailey National Guard Armory.

Oliver Adams will direct ticket sales for the rodeo, and will serve as treasurer for the Days of the Old West celebration. Jim Hogg is rodeo arena manager.

If Law Enforcement Fails, Society Doomed, Group Told

BURLEY — "If law enforcement fails, our society falls. We must plant our feet on the ground and fight for this nation; not sit back and let the hoodlums and the Communist party take over and replace Old Glory with another flag, which is where we're headed if we don't wake up and fight."

These were the challenging words of Patrolman Dan Combs of the Oklahoma Highway Patrol, speaking to members of the Idaho Peace Officers Association during their convention in Burley on Wednesday.

Patrolman Combs, a firearms expert with the Oklahoma Highway Patrol, demonstrated a wide variety of weapons, ranging from hand guns to a sub-machine gun, for the Idaho peace officers. He shot the hand guns singly both right-handed and left-handed, displayed the fast-draw technique and used two pistols simultaneously, one in each hand.

In a breath-taking display of accuracy, he tossed targets into the air and shattered them with his firearms — targets growing progressively smaller, from a grapefruit and orange down to a lemon, lime, pecans and grapes.

Weapons are vital to law-enforcement work, he told the Idaho officers. "Every patrol car — whether state, county or city — should be equipped with a hand gun, a rifle and a shotgun and every officer should know how to use those guns properly to save his own life and the lives of others," he explained.

Answering those who have said that officers should not carry weapons at riot scenes, he commented, "Guns are going to be taken into riots by officers and not left in an office locked up."

He challenged the officers to display their patriotism. "We need to stop and re-evaluate our American way; stop and study Old Glory and remember what it means and what it stands for; get behind law enforcement even if it means going to the state capitol for state legislation, or seeking federal legislation. If law enforcement fails, our society fails."

The Idaho Sheriffs Association gathered at the Ponderosa Inn Tuesday evening for a meeting in conjunction with the Peace Officers Association convention. The sheriff's association passed a resolution opposing the revised Idaho Constitution as it is now written.

State officials, Warner Mills and Jim Benham spoke to the sheriff's association, discussing delinquency, licensing problems and changes in the brand-inspection law.

Shoshone To Vote Aug. 11 On Sewer

SHOSHONE — The $500,000 sewer bond revenue election here will be held from noon until 8 p. m. at the City Hall Aug. 11.

Mrs. Claude Chess, city clerk, said everyone who is registered with the city clerk can vote at that time. If the voter cast a vote at the last municipal election, it will not be necessary to register again.

Persons may register on each day at any time during the office hours until and including the Saturday prior to the election. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday prior to the election, the city hall will be open from 7 p. m. until 9 p. m. also.

The $500,000 bonds would be paid for over a 30 year period at six percent interest, with a monthly fee charged users in the city limits.

Wendell Smith and J. William Jewell, consulting engineers from Preston and Montpelier, are in charge of the installation plans presented to the city for approval.

Judges will be Mary Johnson, Arlene Ballard, Hazel Haddo K., Eunice Hubbard, Roka Stoner and William Scherer.

Park Work Progresses In Elmore

GLENN'S FERRY — This week the new Three Island State Park is moving toward its September completion date with the three main buildings progressing nicely, according to Jerry Hoyer, manager.

The tourist center and park headquarters building is roofed now, and the internal plumbing, plastering, and redwood paneling interior is going up. The washroom facility is progressing and the storage building is close to completion.

There may be something a bit different from other state parks here at the Three Island one, for Hoyer's idea was carried out by Hoyer's letters written by some interested Girl Scouts, and now governors from the other 49 states are responding with three representative of their particular area. The trees are mostly to be planted in a special grove to represent all of our United States of America, starting out with a Sitka Spruce from Alaska.

Trees not adaptable to Idaho's climate, such as the donation from Hawaii, are to be potted in redwood planters and used to decorate the interior of the headquarters building.

Search Is Under Way In Elmore

HAMMETT — Elmore county Sheriff's deputies continued a search today for the body of Isamu Mayeda, believed drowned near the C. J. Strike Dam Sunday in a boating accident.

Two Hammett residents, Frank Marker and Arthur D. Irving, told officers that Mr. Mayeda told them Sunday he had borrowed a boat and asked them to go for a ride with him.

The trio was boating near the Black Sands Resort, below the dam, about 5 p. m. when the boat overturned, they related.

They scrambled back to the overturned boat, but Mr. Mayeda apparently went under. Another boater, Jerry Maag of Glenns Ferry, rescued the two men, but no sign was seen of their companion.

Mr. Mayeda was married and had four children at home, and is survived by another married daughter and a son in the service. He came to Hammett about two years ago and had been working at the Black Sands resort.

Win Honors

Gonzaga University officials of Spokane, Wash. announced that 346 undergraduates earned first honors (3.50 to 4.00 grade point average) for the spring semester among whom was Kelly Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Florence Jr., Twin Falls.

Paula Hawkins, also from Twin Falls, received second honors (3.00 to 3.49 grade point average).

Mandatory Sentence Is Not Imposed

Ernesto Medina pleaded guilty Wednesday in Twin Falls Probate Court to a drunk driving charge leveled against him on June 4.

Judge Eugene McCoy fined Medina $175 and $5 costs and sentenced him to 30 days in jail and then suspended the jail term and all but $50 of the fine.

This was the third time Judge McCoy has failed to impose the mandatory 10-day jail sentence on convicted drunk drivers since the new ruling was put into effect by the State Legislature. Judge McCoy has stated he will not follow the ruling (on first offenders) until the question is settled in the high courts.

Robert Galley, county prosecutor, was given until July 15 to issue a writ of mandate in District Court in an effort to force Judge McCoy to follow the penalty section of Idaho's drunk driving code.

Thursday Mr. Galley said he had not yet decided what to do. Medina, who also was placed on six-month probation by Judge McCoy, apparently has left the state, which might make the writ a moot point.

And "assuming District Court did not issue a mandate to Judge McCoy and that I had to follow normal appeal to the State Supreme Court, there might be a quicker way to get the question resolved."

The first case in which Judge McCoy did not follow the 10-day ruling, the State of Idaho versus James Dillon, has been appealed and has been set for trial in District Court in a matter of days.

Mr. Galley said he has not yet researched the question thoroughly, but there is a possibility he could go directly to the supreme court for a writ against district court in the event District Court also fails to impose a 10-day sentence if Dillon is found guilty in that court.

Insurance Chief Discusses Youth Problems At S.V. Meet

SUN VALLEY — "I have fought for you, paid taxes for you, and stand ready to protect your right to dissent from the majority — but I will not give in to your demands anymore than we gave in to the Nazi Germans." Fred M. Rosenbaum, president of the Standard Insurance Co. Leaders Club, East Portland, was featured speaker during the group's opening banquet attended by nearly 220 leaders and their wives. His topic was "They Are Our Children."

"We are living through a period of great unrest that sees not just ideas clashing, which is the essence of democracy, but people and weapons which results in destruction of values, property, and lives, and that is the essence of anarchy and revolution," he said.

He said the dissent affects all the nations people because "we live in America. We as in-

Fiddlers Fete Set On July 12

SHOSHONE — The annual Old Time Fiddlers' Jamboree and family picnic sponsored by the Shoshone Chamber of Commerce will be held at the Mary L. Gooding park here July 12.

A jam session will be held at 10 a. m. with regular program playing beginning at noon. The flag raising ceremony by Troop 58, Boy Scouts of America, will launch the program. Larry Keeney is scout leader.

The Lincolnettes will serve refreshments and the Chamber of Commerce will handle a snow cone booth.

Committee members from the Chamber include Howard Adkins, chairman; Reid Newby, M.J. Dille, T.V. Strunk and Kenneth Blackburn.

Fiddlers are expected from all over the state with about 65 participating in playing. Attendance in other years has run into hundreds of people, with around 1,000 last year, Blackburn said.

Final plans for this and the July 4 celebration by the Chamber were made at the Tuesday noon meeting. President Dennis Everett urges all to participate in both events, promising a full day of fun on July 4 at Shoshone, with a parade to begin the day's events, at 11 a. m.

Cassia To Vote On Road Plan

BURLEY — Cassia voters will decide in the Nov. 2 general election if the county should be divided into highway districts or if commissioners will retain administration of 92 miles of secondary roads.

The option, one of three alternatives listed in legislation passed by the 40th Legislature, was chosen to be put on the ballot by the local Highway Study commission, composed of representatives of all municipalities and highway districts within the county.

Cassia county now has five highway districts, including Albion, Burley, Murtaugh, Oakley and Raft River. In addition, the county administers 92 miles of secondary roads.

The other two alternatives, which are outlined in earlier legislation, are creation of a county-wide district operated by the county, or one consolidated county-wide district operated separately from the county. The third choice, which the local commission chose, is to have the county divided into highway units.

If voters approve the question, presumably commissioners would then change existing highway district boundaries to absorb the 92 miles of roads.

The legislation requires counties with more than four districts to form a study commission and choose one of the three alternatives to offer voters in November.

At the local meeting, attended by some 25 representatives at the courthouse, all but one person favored retention of the present highway districts as they now operate.

If the plan is defeated, nothing would be changed and another vote on the matter of the 92 miles of secondary roads be held within 10 years.

Attending were John Clark, county commission chairman; J. Weldon Beck and Orvil Beecher, county commissioners; Gordon Nielson, prosecuting attorney; Jim Charburn, Albion; Jones Leonard, Burley; Art Carrier, Murtaugh; Dallen Elquist, Oakley; Alvin Nedd, Raft River; Sylvan Burgi, Burley city councilman; Jim Bennett, Malba; and Nathan Tanner, Oakley mayor. State highway department personnel also attended.

Magic Valley Alarm Saves House In Fairfield Fire

FAIRFIELD — An unidentified motorist was credited today with turning in an alarm of a fire on the Wesley Fields ranch on Soldier Creek that may have saved a house where a family was sleeping.

The alarm was received by the Fairfield Volunteer Fire Department about 1:30 a. m. today, and two trucks were dispatched to the scene. The fire destroyed a large barn, a loading shed, a quantity of straw and hay and equipment in the barn, along with several corals which were burned over.

A rental house on the property, occupied by the Charles Gerbig family, was saved by the firemen.

Mr. Fields estimated the loss at approximately $10,000, but said that replacement could run as high as $20,000. He said he was insured for the loss.

Saturday's concluding session will include pep talks from Lawrence Berman, San Jose, Leaders Club First vice president; and Robert Brittain, vice president, Individual Insurance Sales. Raymond King, Jr., 1970 president, National Association of Life Underwriters, will give his remarks and the 1971 convention site will be announced.

Man Pleads Innocent Of Charge

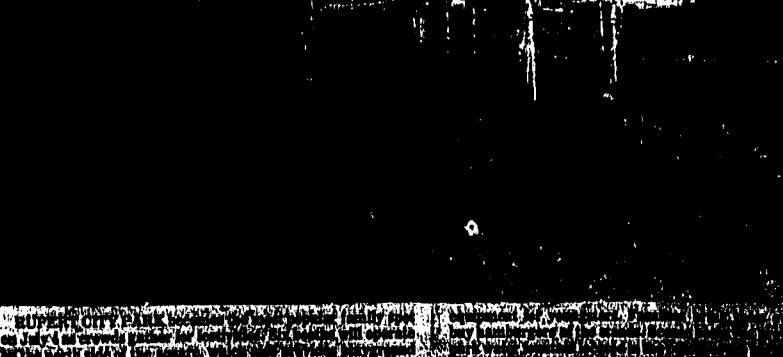

A 27-year-old Twin Falls man accused of robbery pleaded innocent Wednesday afternoon and requested a preliminary hearing when he was arraigned before Police Judge Harry Turner.

Merlin Eugene Sigall was taken into custody by city officers about 1 a. m. Wednesday and charged in connection with an incident about two and one-half hours earlier.

Officers said Mrs. Rosemary Goodman was accosted about 10:30 p. m. Tuesday as she left work at the Mountain Bell Telephone Co. The woman got into her car and was preparing to leave the parking area when a man reached through the window and began choking her. Mrs. Goodman told officers she began struggling and bit the man on the hand. The man then grabbed her purse and ran.

The purse contained about $100 in cash and credit cards, as well as personal items.

Sigall was released on his own recognizance about 6:30 p. m. Wednesday following this hearing.

Cowboys Host Cubs In Opener Tonight

Paul Devine Gets Starting Nod To Begin 3-Day Stand

Paul Devine, the second draft choice of the Atlanta Braves in the recent free agent draft, drew the starting assignment for the Magie Valley Cowboys Thursday night when they open the Pioneer League season against the Caldwell Cubs. Game time is 8 p. m. at Jaycee Park and will mark the first of a three-night stand.

Manager Paul Snyder also announced the starting lineup for the opener, going with Howard Duckworth at catcher, Jack Pierce at first base, Calvin Kelly at second, Nelson Cans at shortstop, Mark Mengo at third base, Luis Galandez in leftfield, Jim Nagelisen in center and Tom Cox in right.

Manager Snyder said the Braves' policy of three innings the first time out would be in effect, meaning the Cowboys will be using at least three pitchers per night during the first stand.

The pitching rotation already has been upset as Gary Hagen, figured to start Friday night, has developed strep throat and will be unable to pitch for at least three more days. Snyder said the coaching staff is now just hopeful that the contagion doesn't spread through the club. The Cowboys open the season with a 14-man pitching staff and 10 other players. One shift already has been made, Sigmund Gonczak being switched from a catcher to the mound. "We have been pleasantly surprised with the way Gonczak has been throwing the past couple of days," Snyder said. "He has a strong arm and a good live fast ball."

He added the Braves' No. 1 draft choice, Ron Broaddus, will not report to the club. The young Texan has undergone knee surgery and will be out for the summer season. He will taste his first pro action in the winter instructional league.

Snyder added the hitting has not been as strong as he'd like to see it, adding that Pierce shows the best power. "He's hit them out over all fences," he said.

Yankees Gain Split Against Cleveland

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bobby Murcer's fourth home run of the day tied the score in the eighth and a run-scoring single by Danny Cater later in the inning carried the New York Yankees to a 5-4 victory Wednesday after the Cleveland Indians won the opener of a doubleheader, 7-2, behind the five-hit pitching of Sam McDowell.

The Indians played the nightcap under protest because of the fifth-inning ejection of outfielder Vada Pinson, and the second game also was marred by a firecracker incident which nearly resulted in serious injury to Indians' catcher Ray Fosse.

Angels Sweep Doubleheader From Chicago

ANAHEIM (UPI)—Infrequent starter Mel Queen combined with Eddie Fisher on a two-hitter and Sandy Alomar extended his batting streak to 10 games Wednesday night as the California Angels edged the Chicago 2-1 in the nightcap of a doubleheader after beating the White Sox 3-1 on Tom Murphy's three-hitter in the opener.

The sweep by the Angels marked the seventh straight time this year that Chicago dropped both ends of a doubleheader.

Firecracker Toss At Ball Game May Mean Jail Term

NEW YORK (UPI)—A 24-year-old New York man was arrested and charged with two felony counts Wednesday for throwing a large firecracker at Yankee Stadium that exploded at the feet of Cleveland catcher Ray Fosse.

Fosse, who suffered powder burns on his right foot, went to a police station after the game to sign affidavits and file personal charges against Luis Espada, who was arrested.

Runners Can't See Heat As Game Factor

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI)—Two of the running backs for the East Squad in the Coaches All-America football game next Saturday discount the possibility of 100-degree heat and the early season start.

For John Isenbarger of Indiana University and Jim Otis of Ohio State, it is an opportunity to play football again after a six month layoff.

"I haven't hit anyone in six months, and I just want to get out Saturday night and prove I still can," said Otis, a UPI All-America who rushed for 1,027 yards and 15 touchdowns last season.

"I like to play ball. It doesn't matter when I play just as long as I do play," said Isenbarger, a Big 10 product like Otis who rushed for 1,217 yards and five touchdowns for Indiana University last season.

The game will be telecast in color nationally over ABC at 8:30 (EDT) Saturday.

Both the East and West squads planned drills to polish timing Thursday and Friday. Contact work ended Tuesday.

Coaches Dan Devine of Missouri for the West and Charles McClendon of Louisiana State University for the East have both thanked the game organizers for the eight days to practice.

Each said most teams in all-star games usually have only three or four days, not enough time to install any kind of offense or cooperating defense.

"I think I'll probably start at flanker," Isenbarger said. "But I will also play running back, throw the halfback option pass and do the punting."

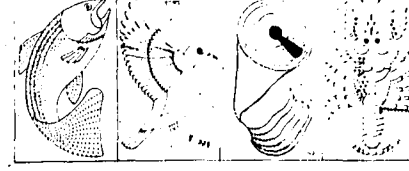

Bannister Leads In U.S. Decathlon Test

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (UPI)—Jeff Bannister, who barely missed the plane to the 1968 Olympics at Mexico City, grabbed a slim 28-point lead over favored Russ Hodge Wednesday after the first day of competition at the 62nd U.S. Decathlon championships.

At the end of the first five events, the recent graduate of the University of New Hampshire had 4323 points compared to 4295 for Hodge.

In women's pentathlon competition being held simultaneously, Pat Winslow Bank, a 25-year-old Los Angeles Housewife, was ahead of defending champion Jan Gletzer from Phoenix, 2801 to 2698, with three events concluded and two remaining.

While he didn't set the pace in a single one of the five decathlon events yesterday, Bannister forged his halfway lead by putting the shot 49-7. Hodge, the 30-year-old No. 1 ranking American since Olympic champion and world record-holder Bill Toomey's departure from the amateur ranks, slipped to the runnerup position when he high-jumped only 5-8, eight inches below what he had previously accomplished.

Dallas expert Bud Creed, formerly of Youngstown, doesn't look the least bit like a Greek. This may be one reason why West failed to fear him when he made him a nice present of three heart tricks.

Bud's ace of hearts won the first trick over East's king. In rubber-bridge Bud would have led a diamond and gone right up with dummy's ace to ward against the possibility of a singleton king. This was duplicate and since Bud saw that his three no-trump contract was a normal one, he finessed dummy's queen. East took his singleton king and returned a heart. Bud won with the queen and West dropped the deuce to show that he had led from a five-card suit.

Now Bud led a diamond to dummy's ace and paused for a realignment when East showed out. Most other declarers just gave up and settled for down one but Bud decided to play on for his contract.

He led a spade back to his king and threw West in with a heart. West was so happy with the nice windfall that he cashed his three good hearts and then led a diamond to Bud's jack.

At this point everyone was down to four cards. Dummy had two small spades and king-small of clubs. Bud held a small spade and his original three clubs. It didn't matter what West held while poor East held a forlorn expression. He needed to hold three clubs in order to stop that suit and two spades in order to stop spades. You can't hold three clubs and two spades among just four cards. Bud made the rest of the tricks and a very satisfactory score.

17 State Highway Projects Under Way In Area

SHOSHONE — Some 17 state highway-department projects are under way or scheduled for the Magic Valley area this summer, reports Howard L. Johnson, resident district engineer.

There are three in the Twin Falls area, four in the Burley-Rupert vicinity and 10 in the Shoshone-Jerome work district, which includes all the northern section of the district.

Work is progressing on 6.35 miles on the Rogerson-Three Creek road in Twin Falls county on a $380,024.50 contract. Drainage structures and paving are being installed by Stanley Quigley, Boise contractor.

Another Twin Falls area project is construction of roadway and installation of pipe on 6.48 miles on the Rock Creek road in Cassia and Twin Falls counties. No construction has started yet on bridges because of high water, reports Karl Woodall and Sons, Boise contractor.

The lower portion of the project to Three Fork Creek will remain closed to traffic until September, but the upper portion is open.

Work is beginning on the third Twin Falls project for 5.8 miles on Highway 30 between Filer and Twin Falls, with a contract price of $1,503,519.70 with the Twin Falls Construction Co. Work includes construction of a roadway, drainage structures, plantmix pavement, seal coat and striping.

In the Burley-Rupert area, 16.48 miles of Interstate 80N in the Cottrell-Sublett area in Cassia county are completed except for seal coating which is to start about July 6. Grant Construction Co. and Inland Asphalt Co., Hayden Lake, will receive $1,503,380 for the project and $2,432,925.60 for another 18.25 mile stretch from Sublett to Juniper in Cassia and Oneida counties, also completed except for seal coating.

The third Burley-Rupert area project is for 11.08 miles on the Interstate in Oneida county from Juniper to the Utah state line, for a contract price of $1,694,074.03 to LeGrand Johnson Construction Co. Logan, Utah. Seal coating is expected to be finished next week.

Seal coating is being done by Winn and Co., Buhl, on 14.5 miles of State Highway 24 in Minidoka county for $29,991.75. Maverick Construction Co. Co., sub-contractor, presently is crushing cover coat material for this project. The addition to the office building at the Highway Department headquarters in Shoshone is progressing by Reynolds Construction, Inc., Twin Falls. The project, for $173,300 includes a 36 by 125-foot brick block and concrete structure which will be used to store materials and as a Civil Defense emergency operating center. Completion is expected in early July.

Work is in progress 7.685 miles of State Highway 68 in Camas county on construction of roadway, installation of side drains. Contract price to Western Construction Co., Boise, is $651,563.50. Traffic through the site is controlled. Paving of plantmix and pipe is about 40 per cent complete on 7.50 miles of Interstate 80N east of King Hill where Grant Construction Co., and Inland Asphalt Co. are contractors. The firm also is constructing roadway, drainage structures and applying seal coating on 1.477 miles of U. S. 20-28-30 in Elmore and Gooding Counties for $1,291,869.95 for both projects.

Interstate 80N in Gooding County, work is about 75 per cent complete on a rest-area, illumination and landscaping each side of the route. Work is being done by Gary D. Jones, Burley, for $358,717.95. Bannock Paving Co., Inc.

Jamboree Is Slated At Carey

SHOSHONE — The next Wood River Riding Association jamboree is scheduled for July 11 at Carey.

Officers results of the third contest, held at Valley, reported today, include Shoshone team, first; Twin Falls Sheriff's Posse, second, and Valley and Carey teams tied for third.

On overall points for the three jamborees held this season, Shoshone and Valley have tied for first, with the Twin Falls Sheriff's Posse, second, and Richfield third.

All riding clubs are invited to an invitational meet at 8 p. m. July 4 at Shoshone. There will be a big clover leaf race for women in addition to the regular events. The July 4 meet will not count in the contest jamboree for the season.

Pocatello, is building a plantmix surface and seal coat on 21.10 miles of State Highway 68 from the Junction with Highway 93 west through Blaine, Camas and Elmore counties. Work is expected to begin after July 10, having been delayed because of high water.

Work will begin about the middle of July on seal coating 10.296 miles of temporary U. S. Highway 20 east of Gooding; 9.764 miles of Highway 93 north of the Ice Caves and replacing a leveling course and plantmix lift on 12.504 miles of Highway 93 through Blaine and Lincoln counties. Contract price to Homes Construction Co., Heyburn, is $427,680.

The latter part of July Holmes Construction Co. will begin work on Highway 93 for seven miles in Lincoln and Jerome counties for $106,188. Work also is progressing on stockpile projects in Custer Butte and Lincoln counties, while those in the Richfield-Arco area are complete. Total price is $48,150 to J. K. Merrill and sons, Pocatello.

Repair work by State Highway department crews on Perrine Bridge north of Twin Falls is expected to be complete by mid-July. There presently is one-way traffic during working hours.

Projects being advertised at this time include modifying sign structures on State Highway 50, at the Heyburn, Burley and Salt Lake interchanges, and modifying guardrail and signs and regrading slopes on ramps on the Interstate in Jerome, Minidoka and Cassia counties.

Another project being advertised is for an epoxy overlay on the Heyburn Bridge on U. S. Highway 30 N and the Overland bridge, on State Highway 27 in the Burley area.
