Shoshone Plane Crash Kills One

Husband-Pilot Injured As Craft Strikes Wire

ONE PERSON DIED and another was seriously injured Saturday afternoon in the crash of this light plane near Shoshone. Mrs. William Parnicky, 48, Grants Pass, Ore., died at the scene, and her husband, 49, is hospitalized in Twin Falls. The craft nosed into a pasture after striking a power line during a storm. SHOSHONE — The crash of a single-engine plane Saturday afternoon just east of here took the life of a Grants Pass, Ore., woman and seriously injured her husband.

Bill Anderson, Shoshone Chief of Police, identified the victim as Mrs. William Parnicky, 48. Her husband, 49, was taken by ambulance to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital for surgery. His condition is listed as serious.

The Burley flight service reported a team of investigators from Boise was expected to arrive at the crash site sometime Saturday.

The couple left Burley about 12:15 p.m. Saturday in their Cessna 182 four-place plane enroute to Boise and Caldwell, and the crash occurred about 2 p.m.

George DePew, a Shoshone area farmer, was an eyewitness to the crash. He told officers he heard the motor quit and saw the craft fall about a mile east of Shoshone on the south side of Highway 26.

The plane struck a power line, causing an outage in Corey and Richfield.

Mrs. Parnicky lived for a few minutes after the crash, but died at the scene. She remained in the plane. Her husband, who remained conscious after the crash, was out of the plane. Officers said they did not know if he was thrown from the demolished craft or if he crawled or was taken out of it.

The Shoshone area, like most of Magic Valley, was struck by thunderstorms Saturday and a heavy cloud covering was over the area at the time of the crash.

HAILEY — A Boise man was struck by lightning while loading cattle near Highway 68 during a widespread electrical storm.

Rain and lightning again covered most of the valley Saturday afternoon, resulting in downed tree limbs and power failures.

Sheldon Yanke was reported in fairly good condition at Blaine County hospital here Saturday. He has no burn marks, but reportedly injured his back when he fell onto rocks.

The trees were an apple, walnut and poplar.

Senate Override Expected

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For the first time in a decade, the Senate is expected this Tuesday to follow the House in overriding a presidential veto.

At issue is a $2.7 billion bill for hospital construction grants and loans.

On Thursday, the House voted 279-98 to override the veto of the politically popular measure, an extension of the Hill-Burton Hospital Construction Act. The margin met the constitutional requirement of a two-thirds vote.

The Senate must also muster a two-thirds vote if it is to override the veto.

Nixon vetoed the bill last Tuesday after denouncing as "fiscal irresponsibility" its mandatory requirement that he spend all health program money Congress might later appropriate.

Idaho First, Fidelity Banks Merge On July 1

BY O. A. (GUS) KELKER
Times-News Editor

Merger of Idaho's largest and oldest bank — the Idaho First National Bank — and the Fidelity National Bank of Twin Falls will become effective on July 1, the Times-News was informed Saturday by Wm. E. Irvin, chairman of the Idaho First board and M. Marshall Shells, Idaho First's vice-president.

The two bank officials said that on Wednesday morning the three Fidelity offices in Twin Falls, Hazelton and Filer, will open as offices of the Idaho First National.

Lyle A. Frazier, who has been president of Fidelity, has been named senior vice-president of the Twin Falls office and will be charged with overall supervision of the three branches. He began his banking career with Fidelity in 1936, was named cashier in 1952 and vice-president and cashier in 1958.

In 1959 he was made executive vice-president and became president in 1965. He has served as a director since 1967.

Active in community work, he is presently a director and treasurer of the Twin Falls Development Corp., and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis Club. He and his wife, Dorothy, live at 535 Alturas Drive N. in Twin Falls.

James S. Kinney, vice-president, joined the Fidelity in 1952 and will be elected to the Board of Directors of the Idaho First National Bank. He is a native of Twin Falls, graduating from high school here, and he attended the University of Idaho. He is a graduate of the Pacific Coast Banking School. He is now serving as council commissioner of the Snake River Area Council, Boy Scouts of America and is savings bond chairman of district three. He is also chairman of the Fine Arts Advisory Committee of the College of Southern Idaho. He and his wife, Mary Jane, and children, make their home at 1501 Eleventh Avenue East, Twin Falls.

Jack F. Ramsey, vice-president of Fidelity, has been named vice-president and manager of the Twin Falls office. He is a graduate of the Filer High School and the University of Idaho. He joined the Filer office of Fidelity in 1945 and was named assistant branch manager there in 1948.

Gooding Woman Robbed, Abducted

BURLEY — Two men arrested late Friday in Tremonton, Utah, are being returned to Burley to face charges in connection with the knife-point abduction and robbery of a Gooding woman.

Mrs. Helen Burgess, 50, said she was abducted about 7 p.m. Friday from the parking lot of JB's Big Boy restaurant in Twin Falls. She was forced to accompany the men in her car to near the Utah-Idaho line. About half a mile off the Interstate near the Idaho exit, Mrs. Burgess was forced from her car, robbed of $21 and tied up.

The men then left the scene, headed toward Utah in Mrs. Burgess' Corvair. At about 11 p.m. Friday Thomas Laird Twyford, 19, and a 16-year-old juvenile, both from Oklahoma, were taken into custody in Tremonton by the Utah Highway Patrol. They were driving the Corvair when taken into custody.

Mrs. Burgess was able to free herself from her bonds and caught a ride on a truck to the Cottler Port of Entry where she reported the incident. It was from an attempt to locate bulletins issued from the port that the suspects were apprehended.

Warrants charging the men with robbery, assault with a deadly weapon and grand larceny were issued from Cassia County. Gordon Nielson, Cassia prosecutor, and Robert Galley, Twin Falls prosecutor, conferred Saturday on a possible kidnapping warrant. Mr. Galley said if one is not issued out of Cassia County, he will file a kidnapping charge in Twin Falls County.

The suspects have waived extradition and Cassia County Deputy Glen Loveland and city policeman Floyd Hagens, Burley, left Saturday to return them to burley.

President Attends Wedding

NEWPORT BEACH — Calif. (UPI) — President Nixon kissed his brunette niece, Lawrence Nixon, Saturday when she became the beaming bride of Thomas E. Anfinson in a simple, candlelit Presbyterian ceremony.

"This has been one of the more memorable days since I took high office," the President told his niece as the hugging and kissing took place in the yard of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

"Now look happy," he advised the pretty schoolteacher as they posed for photographers.

"I am very happy, as a matter of fact," the 26-year-old bride replied.

"Uncle Dick" gave the new Mrs. Anfinson a buss on the cheek and gathered the Nixon clan around him, joking that the group was too large for one family picture.

Injured

KIMBERLY — Three Kimberly people are hospitalized at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital with serious injuries received in a two-vehicle collision Saturday at a rural intersection near here.

Mrs. Loreta Mason, 35, and Virgil Osborn, 57, were believed to be most seriously injured at press time. Mrs. Mason's son, Max, 10, also was injured.

The car driven by Mrs. Mason and a pickup truck driven by Mr. Osborn were demolished, sheriff's officers said.

No Peace Feelers Received

CAIRO (UPI) — Egypt said Saturday night it has received no new peace plan from the United States, only a proposal that U.N. special envoy Gunnar Jarring should resume his mediation mission.

Government spokesman Ahmed Anis was asked about reports that the United States had submitted a new plan aimed at a peaceful settlement of the Middle East crisis.

"The spokesman answered that the United Arab Republic has not received any new American plan," the semi-official Middle East News Agency said.

Earlier Saturday official Cairo radio said a peaceful Middle East settlement, if it is to be accepted by the Arabs, should include complete Israeli withdrawal from occupied Arab territory and the restoration of the Palestinian peoples rights.

Mansfield Says Nixon Did Not Shorten War

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Saturday that no matter what claims President Nixon may make in a report to the nation next week he doubts the American incursion into Cambodia has shortened the war.

Mansfield said he was not surprised that the administration has apparently decided to continue and even extend deep bombing raids in Cambodia after U.S. ground forces are withdrawn next Tuesday, the deadline Nixon set on the operation two months ago.

"Once you start in," Mansfield said in an interview, "you're going to find it extremely difficult to get out — as Vietnam should have proven to us over the years."

"With South Vietnamese in and Thais in or preparing to go in, with the North Vietnamese controlling half the country and having a greater geographical sanctuary than before, you have to face up to the situation that developed and should have been expected," the Democratic leader said.

He was asked to assess the Cambodian operation — which he opposed from the start — now that at least one phase is nearly over.

"Military it is a success," he said. "Politically it raises more questions than it answers. It means that war has been extended and broadened."

"I just can't see what we've done to shorten the war or increase the withdrawal rate. I hope I'm wrong and the President is right."

Mansfield said he expected

Salmon Victim Missing

SALMON, Idaho (UPI) — High winds and the prospect of extremely dangerous rapids in the Lower Middle Fork of the Salmon River have delayed search operations here for an Oregon man.

Bad weather hampered aircraft from making any search Saturday for the boatman — 58-year-old Gene Teague of Stayton, Ore., missing since Thursday.

Teague was swept away from a float party when two boats overturned in Redvale Rapids on the Middle Fork in an accident that also claimed the life of Ellis Harmon, 29, of Los Angeles.

Huge Jet Burns In New York

NEW YORK (UPI) — An engine of a Trans World Airlines 747 jet carrying 198 passengers erupted into flames Friday during a landing at Kennedy International Airport.

Twenty-five passengers were injured slightly when they tumbled out of the huge craft in hastily jettisoned emergency slide chutes.

The flight, Number 603 from Madrid, also carried a crew of 12. Most of the passengers and crew slid down the emergency chutes after the plane taxied to a stop.

As the Boeing craft was coming in for a landing, the slide jettisoned chutes. Crew members were right above the chutes as they slid down. The slide chutes were not attached to the plane. Crew members were right above the chutes as they slid down. The slide chutes were not attached to the plane.

LUNCHEON SET

BUHL — World War I veterans and ladies will hold a pollock luncheon July 7 at 1 p.m. in the Buhl city park. The luncheon will be followed by the pollock regatta.

THEN THE RAINS came, and with the paving gone in this particular section of the Twin Falls downtown improvement area, a lake was formed in only a few minutes. The torrential rain came down hard on Saturday afternoon. The project was supervised by Jack Palmer.

Businessmen Find Adventure In Boating Trip Down Middle Fork

BY LORAYNESMITH
Magie Valley Editor

"We signed on for great adventure and I believe we achieved it." This statement by one of the men in a boating party which narrowly escaped disaster this past week on the swollen middle fork of the Salmon river summarizes the feelings of the group.

Elwood Masoner, Twin Falls outfitter, and leader of the party, said here Saturday he felt his group was fortunate and praised the spirit of the men, who were officials of the Kellwood Corporation and Sears-Roebuck firm. The guests on the two pontoon boats also included Sir Edmund Hillary, New Zealand, famed mountain climber who was the first man to climb Mt. Everest.

Even though three of the passengers were thrown overboard, all managed to get to shore safely. In contrast to two other boating parties last week in which several persons were drowned in the same turbulent river.

Mr. Masoner said the Kellwood-Sears group originally was scheduled to go on the Selway river to field test new camping equipment, but in a trial-run June 14, he found that river too high for passenger safety. He then decided to use larger boats and run the middle fork of the Salmon.

Last Monday the group, whose trip was arranged by the Idaho Department of Commerce and Development under the direction of Al Minton and Rolla Briggs, Boise, met Mr. Masoner in Stanley and they put in at Dagger Falls.

The 11 guests and seven-man crew found the river extremely high and swift, making the two craft, a 33-foot and 21-foot, difficult to manage. The larger boat slammed into a rock ledge, damaging some of the framing Monday afternoon. But they were able to make repairs and continue after this first mishap which occurred near Sulphur Creek.

Soon afterward in the first of the bad rapids called Sulphur slide the same boat struck a log jam at the bottom of the rapids, ripping out the bottom.

Mr. Masoner said these pontoon boats are the best craft available for river runs and are the type used on the Colorado and main Salmon rivers. They can haul up to 20 passengers and are operated by sweeps, fore and aft.

The boat then limped down to a hot springs just below Velvet camp near Elk Horn creek where the party spent the night and repaired the boat. The smaller boat encountered no problems but the larger one was difficult to handle because of the repeated battering. Principal problem, Mr. Masoner noted, was that because of the swiftness of the river there was no quiet water in which to pull into shore.

Just above SheepEater Hot Springs on one of the longer and rougher rapids called Water Wheel, the larger boat was further damaged by a large rock in the middle of the river, and in attempting to pull the craft into shore, two of the guides, Kenneth Masoner and Paul Carlson, both Twin Falls, were left ashore.

In the next rapids, Sir Hillary, Carl Van Ponne, Sears official, and William Kelley, leader of the business group, all were thrown out of the boat and ended up on the opposite side of the river with no way to get them across: But because the men are experienced outdoorsmen, they were able to swim over safely in quieter water below the rapids.

The oarsmen managed to pull the down into quiet water at Black Hole to make repairs, the guides hiked down stream and the party was reunited. At this point other outfitters, Norm and Bill Guth, pulled into the same eddy and the group salvaged gear floating downstream from the ill-fated Palo Alto group in which a Stanford University professor was drowned. This tragedy occurred 20 miles upstream while the professor was attempting to go across the river by rope.

The Masoner group then decided to forego the rougher lower end of the river in the interests of safety and ended their trip at the Thomas creek airstrip.

Mr. Masoner said the guests spent the rest of the time fishing and enjoying the scenery, concluding their trip on schedule Thursday evening when they flew to Boise and dispersed by private planes to Chicago, Los Angeles and other points. The only injury of the trip occurred to Murray

Crowder. Immediately past president of the National Sportswriters Association, who received bruises on his knees while the boat was being tossed in the rapids.

The guests included Jim Porter and Bill Hunter of the Sears firm; Fred Wenzel, Kellwood; Carl Lind, Mr. Van Ponne, Mr. Crowder, W.H. Hunter, Sir Hillary, James Finley and Gene Anderson, camera men, and Mr. Kelley. In addition to the crew members, Lloyd Howe, of the Idaho Department of State, was aboard.

Mr. Masoner said he will schedule no further trips until July 10 when the river should again be in "boatable condition." He noted he has seen the river this high six years ago.

Body Of California Man Found

SALMON, Idaho (UPI)—The body of Ellis Harmon, 26, Los Angeles, Calif., was identified Friday after he drowned in the Salmon River.

Harmon and Gene Teague, 55, Stayton, Ore., were members of a 3-man river expedition that drowned when their wooden craft capsized in rapids in the Salmon River Thursday.

Teague's body is still missing. Survivors of the accident were Everett Spaulding, Lewiston, a veteran boatman and expedition leader; Dick Gold, Los Angeles; Harvey Karp, New York City; Roy Dounami, Los Angeles; Ken Smith, North Fork, Idaho; Bill Maxwell, Salmon, Idaho; and Thomas Brokaw, and Martin Stone, both of Los Angeles.

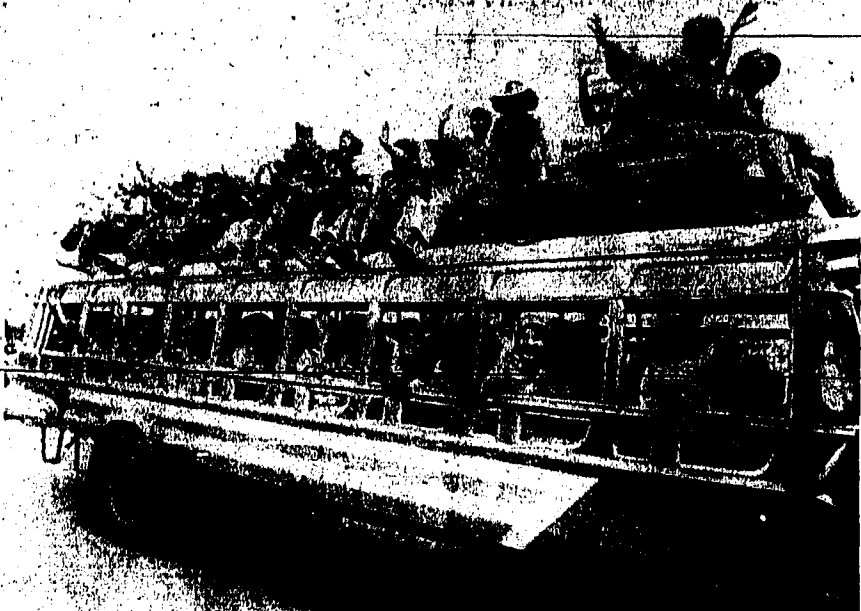

The two wooden boats and one rubber raft successfully negotiated one set of rapids but two of the boats capsized in the next rapids below.

Harmon and Teague floated downstream where Harmon's body was recovered by forest service officials Thursday in Corn Creek.

Gold, Karp, Dounami, Brokaw and Stone reached the bank where they were stranded until helicopters picked them up Friday morning.

Ken Smith and Bill Maxwell made it safely to shore and were rescued Friday.

The expedition began June 22 just below Digger Falls in the Salmon River.

Prague's Idol Is Torn Down

PRAGUE (UPI)—Alexander Dubcek, the fallen idol of the "Prague Spring," went home to his native Slovakia Saturday to await orders on what he is to do with the rest of his life.

The Czechoslovak Communist party, which the 48-year-old Dubcek had served since he was 18, stripped him of membership Friday and ordered him expelled from Parliament. Two days earlier, he had been formally recalled as ambassador to Turkey.

Dubcek was not even allowed to attend the two-day meeting of the Central Committee, which took action against him, because he was expelled from last January.

Instead, diplomatic sources said, he wrote out the verdict in Prague Friday then left for Slovakia—the eastern part of Czechoslovakia—where he was born.

What would happen next was not known—probably not even by the men who must make the decision. Extreme hardliners, who have had their way so far, were known to be anxious to put Dubcek on trial and humiliate him still further. Moderates, including Gustav Husak—Dubcek's successor as party first secretary—were believed to be considering giving him an obscure factory managership somewhere in the provinces.

Dubcek himself said earlier this year that all he really wanted to do was to go back to his old job as locksmith.

Still, Dubcek retained the affection of the people he led for 16 months during the 1968 reform era.

"Dubcek is the man we love and trust," a housewife lining up to buy carrots said.

A hippie on Wenceslas Square said simply: "Dubcek is our man."

Czechoslovak newspapers buried the announcement of his expulsion below long reports of the Central Committee session in Moscow, which provided the troops and the political impetus to overturn Dubcek and his reforms. Pravda, reported Dubcek's expulsion with one sentence in a brief page five article as part of a routine purge of "right opportunists."

Maddox Softens To Papers

ATLANTA (UPI)—Gov. Lester Maddox allowed Georgia's two largest newspapers, the Atlanta Constitution and the Atlanta Journal, to return their vending machines to the state capitol Friday.

The governor's action came almost a month after he had banned the sale of the papers on capitol grounds because of their "unfair" attacks on his administration.

"My purpose in focusing the attention of the public upon the problem met with success," Maddox said.

Maddox had praise for the newspapers, whose 25 vending machines were put back in the capitol Friday afternoon.

"The management... followed this controversy with the greatest display of fairness," Maddox said. He added that such coverage of his latest feud with the newspapers was done "without bias."

The governor also offered to reimburse personally the vendor responsible for selling papers at the capitol—if that man had taken financial losses because of the ban.

The governor had criticized the newspapers over the years for their editorial policies, which he considered far too liberal.

Although Maddox denied there was any specific incident which triggered his action to have the vending boxes taken out, their removal followed several editorials sharply critical of his proposed call for a special session of the legislature.

Nine Dead When Two Autos Hit

MIDDLEBOURNE, W. Va. (UPI)—Nine persons, including five members of one family, were killed Friday night when two vehicles collided on a straight stretch of Route 18 about two miles south of this north central West Virginia community.

State police said the accident happened when a car driven by Robert Fjor, 17, of Middlebourne crossed the center line and collided with a station wagon driven by Elwood D. Keenan, 36, of Collier, Brooke County, W. Va.

The accident happened about 8 p.m. but it took state police nearly six hours to complete identification of the victims.

Income Surtax Expires

WASHINGTON (UPI)—After 27 controversial months, the income surtax expires at midnight Tuesday, adding a dollar or so to the weekly take-home pay of the average worker.

Although the benefit to each taxpayer will be relatively small, the demise of the surtax will add about $2 billion to the nation's overall purchasing power, possibly adding fuel to the fires of inflation.

The surcharge was 10 per cent of regular income tax bills from April 1, 1968, until Dec. 31, 1969, when it dropped to 5 per cent for the first half of this year.

For a single person earning $7,500 annually, the end of the surtax will mean a 90-cent weekly reduction in the taxes withheld from his check—$22.20 instead of $23.10.

A single person earning $10,000 annually will get to keep an extra $1.10. The amount withheld from his check will decline from $34.50 to $33.40 a week.

Six Girls Seeking Queen Title At Hailey's Days Of Old West

HAILEY — Hailey's annual Days of the Old West Rodeo queen contest has attracted six county entrants, according to Jan Seal, queen chairman.

Vying for the title now held by Patty Jo Moran are Dale Hunt, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hunt, Carey; Winnie DeBoard, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie DeBoard, Hailey; Laurie Dale, 16, and her twin, Leslie, 16, and Lynda Dale, 15, all daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Dale, Ketchum, and Holly Roubicek, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Roubicek, Ketchum.

DALE HUNT

WINNIE DeBOARD

LAURIE DALE

The new queen and her two attendants will be named during the rodeo on the afternoon of July 4. Sheb Woolley will be appearing during the event.

Miss Hunt, a graduate of Carey High School, is not new to the queen contest crowd, having previously vied for the Wagon Days and the Days of the Old West title. She is sponsored by Hunt's Service and Grocery, Carey. The 5 foot 6 inch brunette will be riding a 7-year-old gray gelding, Rebel, who she has worked with since he was a yearling. She has also ridden in riding club events for two years.

LESLIE DALE

LYNDA DALE

HOLLY ROUBICEK

Sponsoring the only Hailey entrant is the Hailey Hatters Riding Club. Their candidate, Miss DeBoard, was named first runner-up in the same contest two years ago. She is 5 feet 4 inches tall and also a brunette. Her horse for the competition is a 9-year-old sorrel American Saddle and Arabian mare she trained. Miss DeBoard has been active in the Sawtooth Rangers Riding Club for several years, and works with the Junior riding club.

Ernest R. Cooper, 78, Route 1, Heyburn, was fined $10 by Burley Police Judge Roland E. Willis for failure to yield the right-of-way in making a left hand turn.

Kathleen Price, 16, Heyburn, was fined $10 by Judge Willis for stop sign violation. Ann C. Frederick, 21, Rupert, was fined $15 by Judge Willis for failure to yield the right of way.

Dennis Perkins, 17, 1216 Overland Ave., Burley, was fined $10 by Judge Willis for failure to wear a safety helmet while riding a motorcycle.

Valley Traffic Courts

Sponsored by the Wood River Catering Service, Miss Roubicek will compete on Nugget, a borrowed bay quarterhorse. The 5 foot 4 inch brunette contestant competed in last year's queen contest and has been active in the 4-H riding club for three years.

18-Year-Old Voters? — "It's Bad," "It's Good," "It Depends"

VI GOSSETT

O. H. HIGGINS

DENNIS AYRES

D. BATEMAN

ARTHUR PETERSON

JEANNE JACOBS

Whether you approve or disapprove of the law passed by Congress last week permitting 18-year-olds to vote probably depends a lot on what your age is, according to a survey conducted in the Lynwood Shopping Center. However, the answers don't show quite as much of a generation gap as you might expect.

VI Gossett of Twin Falls says, "It depends on the individual. Some are mature enough, some not. You know the saying, 'If you're old enough to fight, you're old enough to vote,' but that's not always true. They take them to fight whether they are mature or not."

"I think it's bad," replied O. H. Higgins. "I don't think the kiddies know just what the scoop is. They're not old enough to know what the cause is. They might put in a long-haired hippie as president. At age 20 or 21 they are more settled, know more what the scoop is."

"I think it's good," says Dennis Ayres, Twin Falls, "except that they should have one age for everything, a standard age for buying beer, married to Vietnam, getting married. If they are going to set the age at 18 for voting, they should also set age 18 for buying booze and beer."

Darlene Batema, Shelly, says, "I don't know. It depends. The way riots have been in schools and the way they are going about it in the colleges, it's a debatable question. The way they're going 'now against the President is terrible. They should stay behind him, should stick together, I just can't make up my mind."

Arthur Peterson of Long Beach, Calif., a former Twin Falls resident, says, "I thought a lot about it. I'm in favor of these kids getting everything they need. Things are not like they used to be. If the courts approve of it then it's a good idea. I think they should exercise responsibility with it and the parents need to give them a guideline."

"It's marvelous!" says 17-year-old Joanne Jacobs of Kimberly. "I just want to Girls State and we discussed this bill. If we're responsible enough to go and fight in a war, then we're responsible enough to vote."

Indians Study Indians At T.F. Museum

The Herrett Arts and Science Center continues to attract people from all over Idaho and Nevada with its ancient Indian artifacts. Thursday morning the Center greeted 32 Indian children from Death Valley Reservation, located near Owyhee, Nev.

In all, 9,000 children have visited the education center this year to learn about the Mayan culture, an ancient Indian culture with a genius for mathematics and astronomy. There will be no more tours this summer in the museum, as owner Norman Herrett's time will be spent training a new staff of lecturers and building a new display.

Displays are constructed by the students themselves under the guidance of Mr. Herrett. The next Indian Culture to be displayed is one of the Peruvian Indians. A display of religion already has been constructed in the museum. Peruvians were sun-god worshipers. The priests wore silver pieces around their necks, weighing about 1.75 ounces apiece. These priests know the secret powers of converging and concentrating the sun's rays on a small area. The priest is displayed starting a fire on an altar using the so-called "powers of the sun-god".

The display of the Mayan Indians reveals a culture of intelligent people. These people were located on the Yucatan Peninsula, in Middle America. The Mayan people viewed flat faces and crossed-eyes as a sign of beauty. At birth, boards were strapped on the heads of baby Indians and left there until the head was flattened. Wax balls were dangled in front of a child's face until both eyes focused in the center and the child was left cross-eyed.

The Mayan Indians based their mathematics on two systems. One system was the 20 base and the other was a 10 base system, one similar to Americans' 10 number base system of today. The 10 base consisted of 10 faces that would change structure whenever they were used in another digit place. For example, number one would have a jaw bone added to its face whenever it was used as a second digit number, as in 11.

Mayan books were written in pictographic language. A book of genealogy of a royal family is on display at the museum.

Artifacts found by Vernon Webster, Pocatello, are also on display at the museum. Before 1959, Mr. Webster owned a tea plantation near Cuban, Guatemala. Near his plantation is a hill, different from the surrounding view. One afternoon, Mr. Webster found offerings on the hilltop, left by recent ritual participants, following a pattern set by the parents and so on over 400 years. Upon digging he found a stone platform which appeared to be a roof. This roof is believed to be a roof from an advanced dwelling or temple built by the Mayan Indians.

The identified artifacts, the "Governor" and his attendants in three dimensional pottery are displayed. A copy of the great seal is also included. This seal depicts a man being born of God, coming from the mouth of the "Feathered Serpent". He is playing the flute announcing his arrival.

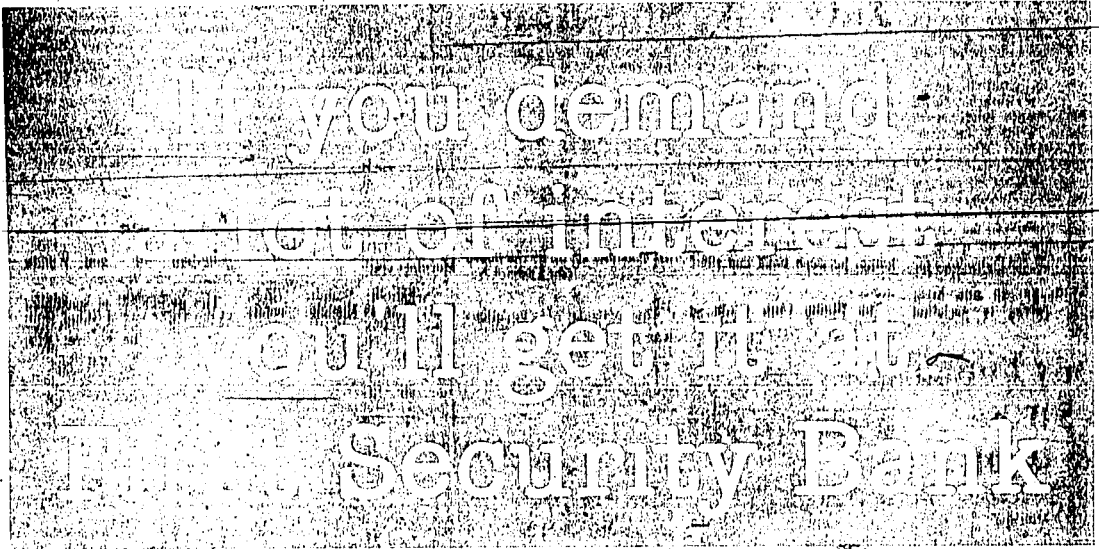

ANCIENT MAYAN MATHEMATICS keeps 32 Indian children from Death Valley Reservation fascinated with the culture of their ancestors. Dove Hamilton, lecturer for the Herrett Arts and Science Center, explains the Mayan culture by comparing it to present day culture.

the couple included, center row; from left, Mrs. Robert Miller and Linda Scott, bridesmaids; Mrs. Richard Jennings, matron of honor; Dan Wilson, best man, and Phil Wenstrand and Duane Wubker, ushers. Little Kammie Dryden was flower girl and Darren Dryden served as ringbearer. The double ring ceremony was performed at the Twin Falls First Methodist Church.

Local Miss Represents Valley June Brides

All Photos By Clarence Dudley

(Editors Note: This is the romantic month of the June bride. And, representing the many, many young Magic Valley couples exchanging nuptial vows in June is this local couple, married in an evening ceremony June 20.)

A candlelight ceremony in the First Methodist Church, Twin Falls, united in marriage Sheila Ann Dryden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Dryden, and Allen Lee Wubker, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wubker, all Twin Falls.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Gernhardt before an altar decorated with column arrangements and baskets of yellow gladioli, yellow and white carnations and white chrysanthemums, flanked by a background of brass candelabra entwined with emerald leaves and ivy.

The altar railing was draped with garlands of white daisies and the choir loft railing held arrangements of white gladioli and yellow carnations interspersed with long white tapers.

The church pews were marked with garlands of stephanotis, yellow Cushion chrysanthemums and Leather Leaf fern, and accented with golden yellow satin ribbons.

The rear of the church held white bird cages with arrangements of white carnations and white doves.

Guests were greeted in the foyer of the church by Joseph Sawyer before a background featuring an arrangement of Daisy pompon chrysanthemums and white gladioli. The mirror was encircled with a garland of white daisies and white doves.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported silk organza with a jeweled neckline. The gown front was fashioned with a sunburst spray of imported Venice lace, with matching lace edging the hemline. Her chapel-length veil of silk illusion edged with imported Venice lace in a daisy design, was held by a standing headpiece made of Venice lace interspersed with clusters of tiny seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white golden-throated orchids with a cascade of stephanotis, yellow Golden garnet roses and an accent of ivy leaves. Her only jewelry was pearl-drop earrings, a gift from her father.

She carried a handkerchief loomed and designed by her great-great-grandmother and a small white Bible which was the personal Bible of her great aunt.

Assisting the bride with arrangements before the ceremony was Mrs. John Bertie.

Mrs. Richard Jennings served as matron of honor, with Mrs. Robert Miller and Linda Scott as bridesmaids. Each was dressed in yellow organza and Chantilly lace, and carried a yellow satin-covered basketette with a cascade of yellow carnations and gypsophila, accented with variegated green ivy. Their headpieces were made of yellow Cymbidium orchids and yellow carnations, trimmed with yellow French tulle.

Dan Wilson served as best man, with Phil Wenstrand and Duane Wubker as ushers.

Kammie Dryden, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Her bouquet was a miniature of those carried by the bride's attendants.

Ringbearer was Darren Dryden, brother of the bride, and candlelighters were Brian and Barry Bradshaw.

Joyce Guyer was soloist and Mrs. Francis Rider played the traditional organ music.

The bride's mother wore a yellow lace and organza ensemble, accented with yellow accessories. Her corsage was white orchids with a yellow throat. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue summer A-line knit dress with a lace and silver jeweled trim. Her corsage was also of white orchids. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception honoring the newlyweds was held in the church reception hall.

The wedding party received guests before a lustrous tree of carnations and an orch covered with Boxwood, satin ribbon and doves.

The bride's table was covered with a floor-length full-skirted nylon organza cloth over yellow satin. Garlands of smilax encircled the table and draped over the cloth. Flanking the wedding cake were candelabra arrangements of white carnations, yellow Golden Garnet roses, gypsophila and ivy. The punch table was also draped with white nylon organza and held arrangements of similar flowers.

The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a nose gay of yellow Golden Garnet roses. Between tiers were love birds and bells, and around the entire lower layer of the cake were garlands of fresh flowers designed to blend with the nosegay.

Guests were served at tables holding candle-tiered arrangements of white carnations, yellow cushion chrysanthemums, gypsophila and white doves.

Mrs. L. A. Widrid was in charge of the reception. Assisting were Marilee Sackett, receiving the guests; Pam Warner at the guest book; Mrs. J. C. Williams and Mrs. David Fox cutting and serving the cake; Mrs. Larry Harper at the punch table; Mrs. Paul Tyroler, great-aunt of the bride, serving coffee; and Mrs. David Nelson and Mrs. Al Hankins presiding at the gift tables.

The bride's going-away ensemble was an eggshell coat-dress accented with copperstone accessories and a corsage of Baccarat roses.

Special out-of-town guests included Mrs. Paul Troler, Los Angeles, great-aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wubker and family, Fort Worth, Tex. and Mrs. and Mrs. John Tovey, Salt Lake City.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents June 19 at the Turf Club.

After a wedding trip to San Francisco, the couple will reside in Twin Falls. The bride is a graduate of the University of Idaho and the bridegroom attended the university and is presently employed by the Idaho State Department of Highways.

The bride was honored at pre-nuptial showers hosted by Mrs. John Bertie and her daughters, Cecilia and Susan, and by the personnel of Fox Floral.

Pink Ladies Have Done It Again! Geriatrics Residents Will Benefit

BY ARVETTA SAVAGE
Times-News Correspondent

RUPERT — The Minidoka Memorial Hospital Pink Ladies have done it again — and once more they came up with a winner.

The ladies, who always have one thought in mind, that of the welfare and personal feelings of patients have completely changed the atmosphere of the waiting room in the Geriatrics Ward. They took an empty wall and with ingenuity, borrowed talent and solicited funds, changed it into almost a dreamer's paradise.

To view the corner, one almost gets the impression he is away from the hospital and vacationing on an island in the Pacific. This the ladies felt was the achievement of just what the geriatrics residents needed.

The corner consists of a beautiful aquarium, a lighted palm tree, plants and greenery in a wall planter and a scene painted on the wall. Special non-chlorine water is provided by Ron Klebe, city engineer. The idea started by Mrs. Virginia Larimer, was happily accepted by the Pink Ladies and the project got under way, with Mrs. Lynn Manning as general chairman.

The entire community fell into the production and donations were sent by the Merry-Go-Round Club, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Felton, Trinity Episcopal Guild, Mrs. Harry Workman, Mrs. Norman Larimer, Lloyd's Floral, Morrill's Hatchery, Bert Waller and the Worthwhile Club.

Active donations were by Mayadas, Burley aquarium business, which donated greenery, sea shells and small fish; Chuck Dairy Electric Co., light for the palm tree, which was donated by Lloyds Floral; Forrest Badger constructed the planter, which was painted by Jack Badger; Kraft Cheese Co. loaned two water cans for non-chlorine water; Mrs. Clyde Bott and Mrs. Lynn Manning arranged planter; Mrs. D. R. Workman helped with purchasing of and care of fish.

Carpentry work was assisted by Ed Richardson, hospital administrator, Chris Raat, and Claude Norton. Scenery on the wall was by Mrs. Jake Baily, Mrs. Ron Hawkes, Mrs. Lynn Manning and Mrs. John Bell.

Professional supervision was donated by Olaf Moller.

Financing of the project isn't complete and the Pink Ladies are still accepting donations to cover the expense. The project took the ladies nearly six months to complete, as their hospital work is done on a volunteer basis, including their time.

The aquarium is only one of the many projects undertaken by the unselfish group. They continually are teaching geriatrics residents what to do with wrinkled and worn hands. They select the project for the individual patient and work around him.

"If a patient is blind," noted Mrs. Ray Smith, project chairman, "then we find a project he or she can accomplish by feeling."

The Pink Ladies go to businesses and get little "nothings" which they think the geriatric patients can make "something" out of. It's really amazing just how many somethings they have come up with.

The ladies take out of their own funds to provide gifts to make patients happier through their stay at the hospital. All time is donated by them and they recorded about 5,430 1/2 hours service at the hospital in 1968.

The group became a member of the State Hospital Auxiliary in 1968. They have been organized since Feb. 16, 1961, and currently function with 50 members.

They have arranged for a licensed beautician, Jerry Fulwylor, to come Tuesdays to give permanents. Wednesday morning is regular "beauty bar" day.

The Pink Ladies currently are searching for "Pink Men," who will join their organization to make things a little easier for the male patients. The ladies comment that the men are rather lonesome with just women around and are hungry for a man to come play checkers. Anyone interested in a few hours joy, is asked to contact Mrs. Larimer at the hospital.

The ladies comment that these patients need the public's concern and a little donated time means so very much to each one.

ONE OF THE PINK LADIES at Minidoka Memorial Hospital, Mrs. Clyde Bott, shows the newly installed Aquarium to one of the geriatrics residents, L. A. French. The aquarium, located in the waiting room of the hospital geriatrics ward, makes a very impressive sight, accented with a lighted palm tree, plants and greenery in a wall planter and a scene painted on the wall. This was a special project recently for the Minidoka Memorial Hospital Pink Ladies.

T.F. Canning Kitchen Opening Set

Official opening of the Twin Falls Canning Kitchen is set for July 10, according to Mrs. J.H. (Faye) Sharp, manager, who urges residents to make appointments for chili, ham and beans and pork and beans right away.

Appointments can be made by contacting Mrs. Sharp at 733-3497. A $1 registration fee is charged, as in the past, and because of the increasing price of cans, costs may have to be raised.

John Laib will be in charge of the pressure cookers and Mrs. Fawn Dilworth and Mrs. Monroe Durker, who is now this year, will be on hand to assist patrons in any way possible.

A report on the new 30-gallon kettle installed at the kitchen was made during the recent board meeting, along with a report concerning the possible purchase of an automatic sealer in the future. Cost of the sealer will be $2,500 and several donations have been made to date to assist with the purchase. Among those donating include Desert Gold CowBelles, $200; Bank and Trust Co., $100; Fidelity Bank, $100; First Federal, $100; Idaho Power Co., $50; Krongola Hardware, $25; First Security Bank, $25, and various individuals using the canning kitchen facilities. Further information concerning the sealer and donations can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Sharp.

Members of the kitchen board of directors include Dick Wise, president; Frank Walton, vice president; Mrs. Sharp, secretary-treasurer; Paul Neumann, Buhl, and Mrs. Don Hine.

Writers' League Members Report Publications

Members from Hansen, Kimberly, Jerome and Buhl were present at the June meeting of the Twin Falls Chapter of the Idaho Writers' League at the Idaho Power Auditorium.

Publications were reported by four members, May Burkhardt, Olive Kelley, Pearl Campbell and Ethlyn Warkington.

Responses to roll call were short poems on the subject "Steeples."

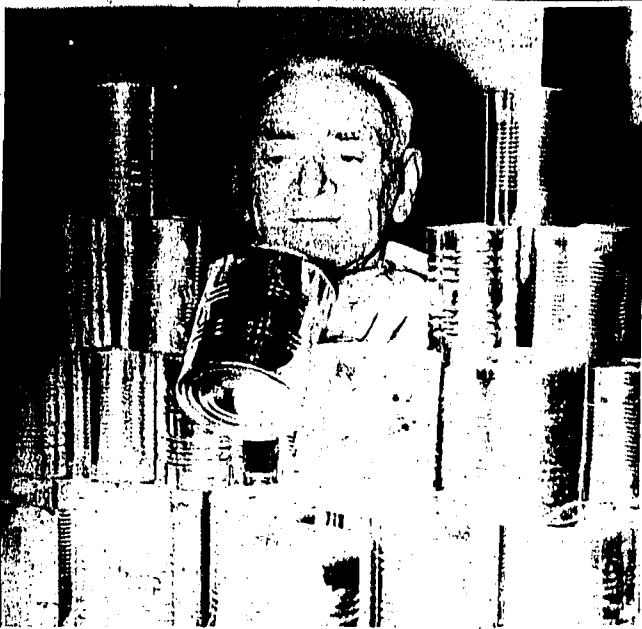

Mrs. Alice Woodley presented the lesson on biographical writing, based largely on an article by Elizabeth Yates, "Portraits on Pages," from "The Writer's Handbook." She gave as an example of good biography the "Life of William Judson Boone," written by his close friend, H.H. Hayden.

The president, Mrs. Laurence Campbell, reminded the members of the state convention of Idaho Writers' League to be held in Boise October 8, 9 and 10.

Reunion Held

WENDELL — The annual Arvis Dille family reunion was held recently at the Julia Davis Park, Boise. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dorman, Boise, were in charge of the event, with guests attending from California, Utah, Idaho and Washington.

A handmade quilt was used as a fund raising project, with the proceeds, $130, placed in the family genealogical fund.

PREPARING THE TWIN FALLS Canning Kitchen for opening is John Laib, with the opening date set for July 15. A new 30-gal kettle has been installed at the kitchen for use by the Magic Valley residents and chili, pork and beans and ham and beans appointments are being taken now.

"Disillusion" The Bride ... Just For Fun

WHEN showering attention on the bride-to-be, take special note of her attitude toward bridal showers. Some girls ease into a "receiving situation" comfortably; others would much rather be honored without gifts. A whimsical compromise is possible, and advisable if you plan to surprise the bride-elect. Merely restrict gifts to very inexpensive items which will be useful to the bride, yet will not tax her friends' pocketbooks. (Remember that her closest friends already plan to give a separate, more expensive remembrance.)

"Disillusionment Shower?" for example, can require gifts attesting to the little trials and tribulations of the housewife. Mops, scrub brushes, dishcloths, and other unglamorous cleaning supplies — each tagged with cleaning advice from the giver — are helpful to receive. They keep the mood of the shower light as the honoree reads each message aloud. Also consider a "Pantry Shower" for canned foods and spices only ... a "Medicine Cabinet Shower" for utilitarian items, from potato peelers to Teflon pie pans ... a "Cupboard Shower" where each guest brings her own unusual coffee mug, later donating it to the bride-elect (and the loser in one of your party games has to wash all the mugs!).

Josephine Hall Is Bride Of Michael Chafin

KING HILL — Josephine Marie Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hall, King Hill, became the bride of Michael Chafin, son of Thomas Chafin, King Hill, and Mrs. James Howell, Boise, June 19.

The evening ceremony was performed by Lynn Sherman, justice of the peace, on the lawn at the Sherman home before a rose garden.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length white lace over satin gown, with an empire waistline, a rounded neckline, long lace sleeves, and was trimmed with white velvet ribbon. The gown was made by Mrs. Ronald Ross, Mountain Home. Her nylon net veil was fashioned around a satin tulle, had a long train, and was borrowed from her sister. She carried a nosegay of pastel rosebuds.

Mrs. James Falconburg, Jerome, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Rex Chafin, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, with Arnold Hall, brother of the bride, as usher.

After the ceremony, a reception was held on the lawn at the Lester Hall home. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with white roses and silver leaves, and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. It centered the bride's table, which was covered with a beige lace cloth.

Mrs. Daniel Chafin presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Hall and Linda Ross, Mountain Home, cut and served the cake. Mrs. William Owens was in charge of the gift table.

After a honeymoon trip, the couple will reside on the Thomas Chafin farm.

The bride has been employed at the Les Silhouette's Beauty and Wig Salon, Mountain Home, and the bridegroom at the Mule Shoe Ranch, Hammett.

DARLENA KENDRICK

Miss Kendrick Ohlensehlen Set August Date

FILER — Mr. and Mrs. James Kendrick announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Darlena Rae, to Robert Ohlensehlen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ohlensehlen, Jerome.

Miss Kendrick is a 1968 graduate of Filer High School and attends the University of Idaho, where she will be a junior, majoring in elementary education.

Mr. Ohlensehlen was graduated from Jerome High School in 1967 and attends the University of Idaho. He will be a senior, majoring in agricultural education.

An Aug. 15 wedding is planned at the United Methodist Church, Filer.

HOUSEWARMING HELD — SHOSHONE — The family of Gilbert Kerners, North Shoshone, honored them with a housewarming for their new home. A 24-piece crystal set was presented to the couple. The evening was spent in games and refreshments were served. Family members attended from Gooding, Twin Falls, Shoshone and North Shoshone.

Rebekah Units Consolidate

RICHFIELD — Consolidation meeting for the Richfield Alta Rebekah Lodge with the Opal Rebekah Lodge, Shoshone, was held at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Riley, Richfield noble grand. Mrs. Del Gehrig, Mrs. Floyd Silva, and Mrs. T.V. Strunk were representatives of the Shoshone lodge taking part. Mrs. O.M. Capps, Richfield lodge deputy, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Mrs. Helga Powell and Mrs. Agnes Powell were on the consolidation committee with Mrs. Riley from the Richfield lodge.

Richfield Alta Rebekah Lodge was organized in October, 1916. Three charter members still belonging to the lodge at consolidation are Mrs. Georgia Brush Jaker, Buhl; Mrs. Cora Youngkin, Boise, and Mrs.

Arlene Frahm, Strango Say Wedding Vows In Nevada

An early evening ceremony, May 29, at the Little Chapel of the Flowers in Las Vegas, Nev., united in marriage Arlene Frahm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ehrael Frahm, Twin Falls, and Daniel Strango, Riverside, Calif.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a knee-length yellow chiffon dress, fashioned with an empire-waistline, a pleated skirt and long pleated sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was of yellow nylon. She wore a pearl bracelet, a gift from the bridegroom.

Ann Frahm, Boise, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, with Ken Budrow, Oxnard, Calif., nephew of the bridegroom, serving as best man.

After the ceremony, members of the wedding party and friends were entertained at a dinner at the Hacienda Hotel by the bridegroom's parents.

Among the wedding guests were relatives and friends from California, Idaho and Montana. A reception was held June 7 at the Recreation Hall in Riverside. The hall was decorated in green and yellow, with Mrs. Andrea Parkam and Mrs. Billie

Club Hobbies Are Displayed For Guest Day

Various hobbies were displayed, among them some of the lap robes for the real home in Twin Falls, when members of the Emanon Club met recently at Knoll Community Center to observe Guest Day.

It was reported 82 lap robes have been made by the club members and taken to the rest home.

Hostesses were Ms. Elmer Dossett, Mrs. Beulah Sweet, Mrs. Glenn Dossett and Mrs. Harry Sharp.

A talk and film on "Crisis in Education" were given by Mrs. Paul Victor. Two solos were presented by Debrah Sharp.

The July 19 meeting will be a family and community picnic at the home of Mrs. Glenn Dossett.

Velma Guyer, Dean Shoff Exchange Nuptial Promise

Velma Kay Guyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Guyer, Twin Falls, became the bride of Dean Calvin Shoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Lynwood Shoff, Groveton, N.H., in a double ring ceremony performed in a candlelight setting June 14 at the United Methodist Church.

Rev. Leslie Brown of Valley Christian Church performed the ceremony in the sanctuary setting of floral arrangements and candelabra. There were baskets of pink and white peonies and greenery, decorated with large pink satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of daron challis over peau de sole, featuring an empire waistline accented with lace at the bodice, on the cuffs of the long sleeves and the hemline of the gown. Tiny pearl buttons complemented the gown down the back and on the cuffs of the sleeves. The gown was designed by the bride and made by her mother.

Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was secured by a headpiece of lace daisy petals centered with tiny seed pearls. She carried a nosegay arrangement of white daisies and baby's breath, centered with white ribbons.

Joyce Guyer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Cinda Coulson, Sierra Madre, Calif., and Carolyn Johnson, Boise, College of Idaho friends of the bride.

Westminster Choir College friends of the bridegroom were Steven Wood, Watkins, Glen, N.Y., who served as best man, and Phillip Rader, Bellevue, Wash., who was usher, candlelighter and groomsmen; Alan Wubker, Twin Falls, also served as usher, candlelighter, and groomsmen.

Susie Skyrn, Caldwell, college friend and accompanist for the bride during her college days, was organist and accompanied Mrs. David Mead, soloist.

The couple deviated from the traditional wedding music, using "Psalm 19" by Marcello as the processional and "Toccata" by Dupre for the recessional. A reception was held after the ceremony in the reception hall of the church. Guests were registered by Sheila Dryden. Jeannette Higgins Miller was in charge of the gift table.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth over an organdy and lace skirt. The wedding cake centered the table. Decorations for the fluted cake were in tiny pink and blue flowers, topped by the bronze Christian symbol. Ferns and pink tiny snapdragons decorated the bottom of the cake, which was baked by Mrs. Uba Allen. Pink tapers in decorative silver candelabra accented the bride's table.

A silver coffee service and punch bowl decorated the serving table, which was also covered with a white cloth and decorative skirt. Coffee and punch were served by Mrs. Bill Hoops and Mrs. Robert Halting. The cake was cut by Mrs. John Koontz and served by Mrs. Kenneth Henderson.

Guests were served at tables covered with white cloths. White peonies and pink snapdragons, floating in brandy snifters, adorned the tables.

The bride was graduated from the College of Idaho, Caldwell, and Mr. Shoff from Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N.J., this spring. Both were members of the Central City Opera Co. in Central City, Colo., last summer.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts at a rehearsal dinner at the Colonial House for the immediate families and the wedding party.

After a wedding trip to Sun Valley, Denver and Santa Fe, N.M., the couple will reside at 336 Glen Ave., Trenton, N.J., for the summer, where they will be members of a professional choir at Westminster Choir College, under the direction of Roger Wagner.

Mr. Shoff will be teaching music in a New Jersey school. Both will continue their graduate studies in music and will be soloists in area church choirs.

Guests attended from Groveton, N.H.; Sierra Madre,

Beauty Hint

During this period of changing temperatures, many women fall victim to the common head cold and its unsightly watery eyes, red and shiny nose, and dragged out, pale-looking countenance.

Beauty authority Max Factor suggests a make-up pick-up to help you feel — and look — better almost overnight.

Camouflage the dark circles under your eyes by applying Erace or Erace White to the under eye area. Blending until there is no line of demarcation. To subdue an inflamed and runny-looking nose, apply a soothing moisturizer, such as Active Moisturizer, and follow with a veil of compact powder to allay the redness.

Eyes that tear and become dull may be made up to look quite normal. Apply a soft once-over of a pale, pastel shade of Shimmer Shadow to the eyelids. It will make the whites of the eyes look whiter. Then brush on a thin line of eye-liner close to the base of the upper eyelashes.

Mascara the lashes, top and bottom, and make-up your brows to look as attractively natural as possible. Add a fresh, bright pastel shade of Ultra-Lucant Whipped Creme Lipstick and a touch of blusher to the cheeks.

Fathers Feted At Hagerman OES Meeting

HAGERMAN — A special program honoring fathers was presented at a recent meeting of the Hagerman Valley Chapter No. 78, Order of Eastern Star.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. R. E. Neyman and Virgil Norwood. A special welcome was extended to Mrs. Claude Allen, grand representative, R. E. Neyman, grand committee member, and Mrs. Margaret Williams, a guest from the American Falls chapter.

The men presented a humorous skit, "Making a Salad."

This was the last meeting for the month until the regular meetings begin in September, but a picnic is planned. The date will be announced.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Lanter and Mr. and Mrs. Newt Crawford.

Janis Victor, Hal Bailey Set September Date

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Victor announce the engagement of their daughter, Janis, to Hal Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey, all Twin Falls. Miss Victor is a 1967 graduate of Twin Falls High School. She is a senior majoring in business education at Brigham Young University, Provo.

Mr. Bailey was graduated from Twin Falls High School in 1966. He completed an LDS mission in Brazil and is presently a junior, majoring in economics, at Brigham Young University.

A September wedding is planned at the Salt Lake City LDS Temple.

Husbands Feted At Dinner Meet

DECLO — Members of the Thrifty Thrivers Home Extension Club hosted their husbands at their annual Father's Day dinner at Price's Cafe, Burley.

Mrs. Lawrence Thompson, president, presided at the meeting and the invocation was given by Earl Darrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Zohner entertained with slides that they narrated of their two-year stay in New Zealand when Mr. Zohner taught in the LDS Church College. They told of the Socialistic type of government, the exchange rate of U.S. money and how their twenty-dollar bill was devaluated to $17.

A number of interesting articles, including weapons, were displayed by the couple who stated that they were very glad to be back in this country.

Cliff Sutton won the Father's Day cake and white elephant prizes were won by Frank Gillett and Everett Pardew.

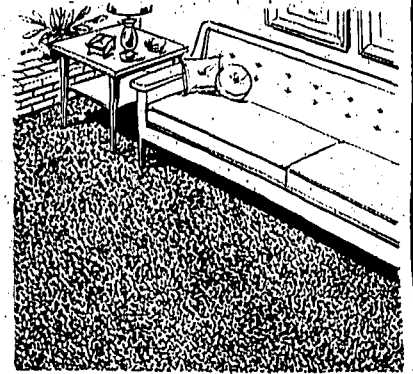

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Manuel Arguello were in charge of the table decorations and the cake.

DEMONSTRATION GIVEN MILNER — Mrs. Edwin Brune demonstrated making a parasol for decorative purposes at a meeting of the Friendship Circle Club recently at the home of Mrs. Farnum Warr. Members answered roll call with an item of interest to each person and a discussion was held on each topic.

Bridge Played In Richfield

RICHFIELD — Mrs. Udell Bergin, Mrs. Dale Chatterton, Robinson was hostess to the Merriettes Bridge Club at the home of her mother, Mrs. O'Neil, Mrs. Porter, Shoshone and Mrs. Harold Peimore, Richfield. Guests were Mrs. Francis

IDAHO'S WINNER in the 1970 National Chicken Cooking contest is Mrs. James B. Tucker, Jerome. Her winning recipe is "Baked Chicken Roquefort."

Jerome Woman Is Idaho's Finalist In Cooking Event

JEROME — Mrs. James B. Tucker, Jerome, has been named the 1970 National Chicken Cooking contest finalist from Idaho while participating in the cook-off finals at the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore, in Princess Anne, Md., this month.

The recipe winning Mrs. Tucker this honor is "Baked Chicken Roquefort."

- BAKED CHICKEN ROQUEFORT
- 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in serving pieces
- 1/4 cup Mazola margarine, melted
- 1 tablespoon bottled steak sauce
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 ounce (1/4 cup) Roquefort cheese, crumbled
- 1 tablespoon milk
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- Mix margarine and steak sauce. Brush chicken pieces with mixture. Place in ungreased medium shallow baking pan, (about 13 x 9 x 2-inches). Mix sour cream, cheese, milk, salt and paprika;

spoon over chicken. Bake, uncovered, in 375 degree (moderate) oven one and one-fourth hours or until brown and tender. Makes four servings.

Freezers Can Save

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Homemakers should save room in their freezers and plan to purchase frozen fruit and vegetables which will be offered at attractive prices in the coming months, an extension foods and nutrition specialist at Pennsylvania State University says.

Ruth J. Buck notes that before selecting frozen foods, freezer cabinet should be cleaned. Packages should not be stacked above the "fill" line.

Mrs. Buck says the temperature of the cabinet should be checked. Hardness of a frozen package is not a reliable guide, as packages may be hard at 20 to 25 degrees, she says.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Event Slated

FAIRFIELD — Mr. and Mrs. Ivan M. Davis will be honored at a reception, hosted by their children, in observance of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. The event will be from 1 to 3 p. m. July 3 in the American Legion Hall, Fairfield.

All friends of the couple are invited to attend. They request no gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married July 7, 1920, in St. John's Cathedral, Boise. They are former residents of Twin Falls and have resided for many years on Camas Prairie. Prior to his retirement, Mr. Davis was manager of the Bunting Tractor Co., Fairfield, and also was an instructor at the Western Heavy Equipment School, Weiser, Idn. Before her marriage, Mrs. Davis taught at several of the schools on Camas Prairie. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are members of the Fairfield Catholic Church.

Their children are James Davis, Richland, Wash.; Mrs. Herbert (Dorothy) Humphrey, Pocatello; Mrs. William (Lalla) Grogmet, Sacramento, Calif.; Richard Davis, Carmichael, Calif., and Mrs. Kent (Mary Lou) Wokersien, Twin Falls. A son, John Davis, died a year ago. They have 20 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A thought for the day: Irish poet James Stephens said, "Women are wiser than men because they know less and understand more."

Apple leather is an old-fashioned confection made with new-fangled ease. Mix together 1 cup of canned applesauce, 1/2 cup of sugar, 1/2 teaspoon of grated lemon rind, 1/4 teaspoon each of ground cinnamon and ground nutmeg and 1/4 teaspoon of ground cloves. Spread in greased shallow baking pan, 10 by 15 by 1-inch, lined with two layers of waxed paper. Bake 5 to 5 1/2 hours in a preheated 250-degree oven. Remove from oven. Let stand 10 minutes. Turn out onto towel dusted liberally with confectioners sugar. Peel off waxed paper and sprinkle, if desired, with confectioners' sugar. Roll up like jelly roll. Makes 20 slices of 1/2-inch width each.

Recipes Exchanged

FILER — Favorite outdoor cooking recipes were exchanged among members of the Hillside Helpers Club at the home of Mrs. Laura Miller.

Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. Herbert Fender and Mrs. Miller received gifts. Game prizes were awarded Mrs. Dan Kauffman, Mrs. George Erhardt, Mrs. Marie Greenwood, Mrs. Smith, Karen Fender and Libby Miller.

Literary-Historic Value Recognized By Library

Woman's View By HELEN THOMAS WASHINGTON (UPI)—Some of the Kennedy clan may be down on Mary Gallagher for writing the best selling "My Life with Jacqueline Kennedy." But it's literary and historic value has been recognized by the Kennedy Library.

The presidential library at Cambridge, Mass., requested two copies of the book and the author "very happily" donated the books.

"I was proud they asked me," she said in an interview.

The JFK Library thanked her and told her they felt it "would make an interesting addition to works on the Kennedy family."

Mary and her family are about to embark on a trip to Europe, partly a vacation and partly for promotion of the book which is a best seller in England. It has been translated into several foreign languages. In French, it's called "Ma Vie avec Jackie." Since the book was published some nine months ago, Mary has had no contact with Jacqueline Kennedy-Onassis, her former boss. But she says: "I feel she has read the book."

"Having read it, she will realize I wrote it with history in mind," she explained.

Mary's experiences in promoting the book have been up and down. She found the people were for her. She gets letters in the ratio of 200 to 1 praising her work.

But she says that on the sales circuit, the television commentators who had her on their shows, tried to give her the hardest time. Herriposse on camera to them has usually been "have you read my book." When they admit their critiques have been based on news clippings (they didn't have time to read the book), Mary—just lets the case rest and wins applause.

TUNA TREAT

Dice one green pepper and one onion. Sauté both in one tablespoon butter until tender. Add one can sliced mushrooms, dash of pepper and one cup chicken broth. Heat this to a boil and add one package frozen peas. Cook for 10 minutes.

Dissolve four teaspoons cornstarch and a pinch of salt in a very small amount of water and add to mixture. Cook about five minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and stir in two cans chunk tuna and one-half cup diced pimiento. Serve with Chinese fried noodles.

50th Year Observed At Meet

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Arraga were host to the American War Mothers at the American Legion Hall. They were celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mrs. Arraga is past president of the Twin Falls chapter and state recording secretary of the American War Mothers. Members from the Raft River chapter were Mrs. Vivian Hawkins, past state president; Mrs. Margaret Otley, past state corresponding secretary; Mrs. Viola Wright, president of the Raft River chapter; Mrs. Katie Schmidt, Burley first state vice president, and Mrs. Rose Sinclair, past state president of Twin Falls. Gold candles and gold flowers decorated the tables and wedding cake and ice cream were served as refreshments. A short business meeting was held, followed by music by Mrs. Blanche Gordon, pianist.

Beauty Hint

This is the year of the pale brow look, according to make-up authority Max Factor. It is the look that adds dramatic emphasis to made-up eyes and the youthful all-over appearance of today's fashionable woman.

To achieve it, first make sure that all stray hairs have been plucked so that the eyebrow arch is perfect. The more delicate the brow, the more perfect it must be. Brush the eyebrow hairs down.

Using the exciting new Brow Light, the first creamy eyebrow lightener that really works, delicately brush on the subtly-paled brow look. With Brow Light, all brows can be lightened, toned, or color-blended, in accordance with the particular shade and the amount used.

The resulting effect depends upon a woman's own natural brow coloring and the look she wishes to achieve. Along with the lightener, there is even a unique mint-comb that blends the cream into the brow for an over-all, even, and natural look.

SAVE! IT'S OUR SALE OF THE YEAR! SAVE!

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a girl friend and everybody knows it because he moved out of the house and has gone to live with her. My problem is that my husband has the nerve to bring his girl friend to all the Little League baseball games to watch our son play.

I quit going to the games because I don't enjoy them when he is there laughing it up with her. Furthermore, it upsets our son when he sees his father there with the woman who broke up our home.

I called my husband and told him that if he brings that girl to the game again I will take our son off the league. Do you think I would be wrong to do this? THE MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Yes, you should ask your husband to please quit bringing the woman, not because it upsets YOU, but because it upsets the boy. If he insists upon bringing her, shame on HIM. But it's not fair to your son to take him off the league because his father is a boob.

DEAR ABBY: In one of your recent columns you attempted to quote the seventh verse of chapter eight in John's Gospel, and this is what you wrote: "He who is without sin, let him cast the first stone."

I think you owe the Lord Jesus an apology because you have given the public the idea that Jesus sanctioned this woman's punishment, and this He did not do, for the verse reads correctly: "He that is without sin among you, LET HIM FIRST CAST A STONE at her."

This changes the entire meaning. And since the Book of Revelation tells us in Chapter 22, verses 18 and 19, we have no right to "take away from" or "add to" His holy word. I cannot understand why I repeatedly hear people misquote John 8:7. For your public's sake, and for Christ's sake, please make the correction. "CAUGHT YOU"

DEAR CAUGHT: Indeed, you "caught me." I stand corrected.

DEAR ABBY: You had a letter in your column from a mother who said, "Mother's day is for the birds. Mothers break their necks to make their children happy, and when they grow up, they break their mothers' hearts with word and deed."

Your answer hit me right between the eyes. You said, "So many mothers make the same mistake. They think the most important thing in raising children is to make them 'happy.' It's not. If you raise your children to be dependable, industrious, honest, and considerate of others, they will make themselves happy."

No truer words were ever written. I knocked myself out trying to make my son happy; I gave him everything he wanted, but he is very unhappy. He's never satisfied with anything very long. He's lazy, selfish, and inconsiderate. He does have some good traits, but they don't show themselves very often. He is past 17, and I hope and pray it's not too late for him to straighten himself out.

I was moatly to blame. I tried too hard to make him happy. I should have tried to make him more self-sufficient, considerate, and dependable.

Thanks for pointing this out, Abby. Maybe some younger mothers will see it and take it to heart while their children are young enough to benefit from it. MEADVILLE, PA.

Laura Vincent Installed Rainbow Worthy Adviser

FILER — Laura Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vincent, was installed worthy adviser of Filer Assembly No. 3, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, at an open meeting at the Masonic Temple here.

LAURA VINCENT

Miss Vincent's theme, "I Shall Only Pass This Way But Once," and motto, "The Lord Is My Light; Of Whom Shall I Be Afraid?" were used in the service.

Elected officers installed were Kris Annis, worthy associate adviser; Jo Ann Vincent, charity; Barbara Schnoer, hope; Janice Shepherd, faith; Pat Miller, recorder; and Helen Fleener, treasurer.

Appointive officers are Donna Bean, chaplain; Cindy Hadley, drill leader; Sally Fleener, love; Cindy Williamson, religion; Pam Henry, nature; Vicki Smith, immortality; Debbie Ransom, fidelity; Donna Rae Reichert, patriotism; Christy Elliot, service; Kaye Pottingill, confidential observer; Carol Mills, outer observer; Janie Vincent, musician; Lauren Reed, choir director; Vicki Sharp, associate choir director; and Kathy Williams, orator.

Cathy Bean was installing officer. Miss Vincent was installed by her mother. Other installing officers were Kathy McCandless, marshal; Lynn Ramseyer, chaplain; Mrs. Edward Brown, recorder; Mrs. E. A. Beem, musician, and Mrs. David Mead and Roger Vincent, soloists.

West End DeMolay members were escorts for the event. Adult advisers are Mrs. Glenna Blass, mother adviser; Mrs. Donna Brown, assistant mother adviser, Mr. Vincent, Rainbow dad.

Miss Vincent spoke briefly and introduced guests and the advisory board of Rainbow, of which Mrs. Emma Annis is chairman. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Reed, worthy patron and patron of Filer Chapter No. 40, OES, and Job's Daughters state officers, Mrs. Erma Scott and A.F. Wylie.

Miss Vincent was presented a gavel from her father which was made in 1934 and used by her grandparents and parents in lodge work.

Fall Jewelry Will Match Midi Mood

NEW YORK (UPI)—The little jewelry box goes with the mini for fall and winter. For the upcoming midi skirt era, jewelry makers are advancing massive, bulky adornments for females. A jewelry wardrobe to match the midi mood probably would fit best in a foot locker.

Take love cuffs. These hand-and-her bracelets are the size of handcuffs, gold for her and silver for him. They're separated but have locks which open with inter-changeable keys.

Designer Stanley Hagler, showing the love cuffs at the accessories held in conjunction with the New York Couture Business Council's 55th national "press week," showed other things that call for large storage space.

A knight's hood, for example. This stainless steel helmet, possibly insurance against a mugging, costs $50.

Speaking of hair, one wig development calls for moving in larger wig boxes. Walter Fontaine, designer of a shoulder-wide curly wig, offered it in fantasy colors such as paintbox orange, blue, and green. Into the washer they go when soiled.

Fontaine feels such wigs give a woman a chance to express a colorful mood in these times when society is tense and pensive.

Girl Learns To Visualize By Listening

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI)—Pretty Cynthia Phillips is planning a summer wedding. She also plans to complete a home economics major at Texas Tech University and become a rehabilitation counselor.

It's nothing strange for a Tech coed to plan her marriage after her sophomore year or to major in home economics. Miss Phillips, 20, is special, however. She is blind.

Miss Phillips has been blind since a brain tumor operation four years ago. Today, active and happy like the other 16,367 students, Miss Phillips is one of 16 blind attending Texas Tech.

"There is a time you go through after you lose your sight when you wonder why," said Miss Phillips, of Muleshoe, Tex. "But at 16, which I was at the time, you realize you have a whole life ahead of you. I decided to live it as best I could."

This semester Cynthia is taking 18 hours. In addition to home economics, she is taking other courses which will help her as a rehabilitation counselor.

"Learning the maze of the sidewalks, paths and buildings is one of the problems a blind student has," she says. She doesn't mind talking about her lack of sight.

"If you understand it and accept it, then you don't mind talking about it with others. Most people have some kind of hang-up—mine just happens to be sight. I'm glad I was able to see while I was younger."

Miss Phillips is planning to marry her high school sweetheart, who is attending another Texas university at Canyon.

"We dated back in high school before I had my operation, so I know what my future husband looks like," she said. "I'm glad I got to see him. We have both dated other people since—but our love was true and we plan to get married soon."

Miss Phillips said she selected Texas Tech because of the course of study she planned to follow, and because of the several aids for the blind at the school. She said other students had helped her tremendously, and were always willing to help in any way.

"It's surprising how much you can visualize—not by looking, but by listening," she said. "I enjoy sports, love music and get a lot from talking books. I swim, sing and play the piano. And, sometimes I enjoy television and the movies — just listening to them."

 The Five Points North Project may force construction of another school in Twin Falls, maybe.

It may ease traffic at one of the busiest intersections in the state... probably.
 The merchants in the area might be able to survive a major change in traffic flow... possibly.

But whatever happens, the proposal to rebuild the five-sided intersection at the north edge of the business district is nearly one of the most controversial ever considered in Twin Falls.

The problem is traffic — cutting it and controlling it profitably and with little delay. Five Points North handles more than 23,000 vehicles per day in directions, according to a 68 survey. Within 20 years, more than 40,000 cars and trucks will funnel through the bottleneck going every which way, the State Highway Department says.

The state, and the city, agree that changes in the "five-legged" intersection linking Blue Lakes Boulevard with Shoshone Street are essential. The state proposed a reconstruction that would eliminate through traffic on Blue Lakes Boulevard North and South, blocking it off south of the intersection, and forcing northbound Blue Lakes traffic to detour around the area.

Not so, say some Twin Falls businessmen — at least many of those in the immediate area; this would ruin our business. No soap, say many Twin Falls residents who resent change for the sake of change, "as they have said."

And so loud and vociferous were the protests at a public hearing on April 16, sponsored by the Highway Department, that the state agency said they would pick up their marbles and go where they were wanted.

A subsequent meeting, on May 19, of the Twin Falls Highway and Traffic Safety Commission, discussed the matter with Highway Department representatives. K. Longenecker of the traffic division pointed out that according to state standards, the intersection is operating "beyond rated capacity" at the present time, and the situation will only get worse in the future.

Most of this traffic is local in nature, rather than merely passing through the area, he said.
 In considering the design of the intersection, he pointed out that a "four-leg" intersection, with traffic going only four ways, will reduce lane conflicts to only one-third the level found in a "five-leg" design; the four-leg intersection has a considerably lower accident potential, and fewer traffic-signal phases are required for a four-way intersection.

 Jean Milar, Twin Falls city manager, explained subsequently that "You can actually get more traffic through a four-way intersection in a given time than you can through a five-way intersection. The traffic lights can stay on longer for each lane, moving more traffic per hour."

At the hearing, Mr. Longenecker stressed that alternate improvements, including a grade separation, or overpass; construction of a Ninth Avenue connection, or a north-south one-way couplet parallel to Blue Lakes are all much less feasible.

In addition to the reconstruction of the intersection, the Highway Department has suggested "raised channelization," or raised-lane dividers, to channel the traffic, thereby raising more protest from Twin Falls motorists.

A re-hearing by the Highway Department has been sought by the City Council, this time with the expressed approval of many agencies, including the Twin Falls School District, the Chamber of Commerce, Twin Falls Futures Unlimited, Urban Renewal program officials, the hotel-keepers association, and others, according to Mr. Milar.

He said this week that he expects the Highway Department to grant the request, and reconsider the project.
 "It's a cinch the city of Twin Falls can't carry out the project by itself; we've got to have state money," the city manager said. The project will cost an estimated $400,000.

And there the matter rests, at least in the eyes of the City Council. The Highway Department may or may not consider a re-hearing; Twin Falls citizens may or may not disapprove so volubly that the project is dropped once and for all.

But in the minds of many merchants, the project is still very much alive, and very much a thorn in the flesh.
 Jerry Gasser, operator of a service station with entrances on both Blue Lakes and Shoshone, is perhaps the most vocal, and the most opposed. The whole project, at least as envisioned by the Highway Department, is "ridiculous," he declares.

"They've got to make some changes," Mr. Gasser will admit; "but they don't have to tear up the whole intersection and destroy the school!" He said the proposed widening of the intersection would destroy two wings of Washington School

NORTH FIVE POINTS intersection, shown in an unusual aerial view, is the focal point of a controversy over a proposed reconstruction from five-way to four-way traffic. Under the proposal, six lanes of traffic would be developed through the intersection, and Blue Lakes Boulevard South, in foreground, would be closed off. The view, by Times-News staff photographer Dan Johnson, looks due north along Blue Lakes North.

Lakes South, doubted if the project would ever be carried out.
 "They're not going to do it," he declared. "Anyway, if they want to do it, they'll do it, regardless of our opinions," he added fatalistically.
 John L. Van Ausdalen, 201 7th Ave. N., speaking for Fred Hendricksen of Gooding, owner of a car-wash station north of Addison Avenue on Blue Lakes, said that the business would be virtually destroyed by the modifications proposed for the intersection.

"All he wants is to be repaid for the investment he would lose," Mr. Van Ausdalen said. Mr. Fredericksen hopes that the state would reimburse him if he loses the business he has built up.
 The school district also is resigned to the contemplated changes, according to Dr. Ernest H. Ragland, superintendent of schools. Rather than try to rebuild Washington School, if the project takes as much of the building as state engineers said it would, the district would probably build a new school elsewhere.

 The district has options on 20-acre land parcels north of the high school and near Robert Stuart Junior High School on which a new elementary school could be built, Dr. Ragland said.

The Washington School building could be remodeled, in a smaller size, and used for a kindergarten or similar use, Dr. Ragland said.
 At any rate, the trustees "do not feel strongly enough about the project to oppose it." The corner (at Five Points North) has become less attractive as a school site over the years," he said, indicating that it may be time for a change anyway.

 "What else can you do with an entrance to town? You just can't change all the traffic," the superintendent added.

Mr. Gasser echoed the last sentiment, saying that the city built the three, five-sided intersections in the early days, and it's far too late to change the major traffic flow through the city now.
 And so it goes; arguments rage on both sides. The next step is up to the state Highway Department. And after that? With more than 40,000 cars expected to flow through Five Points North within 20 years, something must be done; and undoubtedly something will be done.

Seminars Held By Insurance Group

SUN VALLEY — Sales seminars consumed business sessions both Thursday and Friday in conjunction with the 1970 Leaders Club Meeting of the Standard Insurance Company in Sun Valley.

Friday's speakers and topics included "What's Right in America", by Garnett Cannon, president of the company; "So What's Now?", Louis Perry, executive vice president; "It's Priceless!", B. Dennis Schmidt, training assistant; "A New Agent Prospect", James Oldenburg, Long Beach; "Age is No Barrier", Wayne Kollas, Columbia; "Service is Our Most Important Product," Marcel Tanner, Los Angeles; "The Name of the Game," Sun Valley Athletic Department; and "What Price Freedom?," Dr. William Banowski, chancellor, Pepperdine College, Malibu, Calif.

During Thursday's discussions, Arthur S. Potwin, M.D.R.T. Honor Roll, Attorney, Pension Consultant, who was featured speaker, carried out the topic, "A Corporation Speaks Out." He described the various insurance plans that are available to help the corporation to save taxes, including fringe benefits, and key man insurance.

T.F. Science Student Attends Special Project

Charles R. Hempleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hempleman, Twin Falls, is among 60 high school students from throughout the nation participating in a science training project this summer on the Louisiana State University campus, Baton Rouge, La.

The project, which emphasizes research activities in the physical sciences and mathematics, has been made possible by a $34,000 grant from the National Science Foundation.

The participants, who have all completed their junior year in high school, were selected on the basis of high intellectual ability and interest in scientific or mathematical careers. Only one out of seven applicants were selected for the project.

The students spend each class day studying chemistry, physics, astronomy and mathematics. The courses, which are non-credit, stress thinking, reasoning and the use of information in a logical manner.

Banks To Merge July 1

L.W. Wright will be manager of the Hazelton office with Bernice H. Simmons and Don E. Andrews as assistants.

First National. We are now very happy that our bank is an important part of Idaho First which is owned and operated by Idaho people.

All of the personnel of Fidelity's three banks will remain employees of the Idaho First National and will become eligible to participate in the bank's insurance and pension plans, the two officials told the Times-News.

Guy H. Shearer, former chairman at Fidelity, and S.H. (Sid) Graves, formerly vice-president, will assist for a reasonable time during the changeover and then plan to retire.

In commenting on the change, Mr. Shearer said: "We are sure all of our friends and customers who have allowed us to serve their banking needs over the years will be well pleased with the services offered by the Idaho First National."

The merger had been contested by the Department of Justice but U.S. District Judge George H. Bolt of Racoma ruled against the government and ordered the action dismissed. He said there was no basis for the objection to the merger, which had been approved by Comptroller of Currency William Camp.

by Mr. Irwin and Mr. Stoll and they included:
Garry P. Standley, a former Twin Falls resident, who will become assistant manager of the Twin Falls office. Prior to this time he had been assistant manager of Idaho First at Payette. He graduated from the Twin Falls High School in 1956 and attended Idaho State University where he received a BA in business administration. He joined the Weiser office of First National in 1963 as an officer trainee and in 1965 was made an assistant cashier and transferred to the Lewiston main office. He became a loan officer in 1967 and that same went to Payette as assistant manager. His wife and two small children will join him in Twin Falls.

David R. Mend, who has been assistant vice-president, will become a loan officer with the Twin Falls office. He is a graduate of Purdue University and also attended Utah State and Northwestern University. He is very active in civic affairs and Boy Scout work. He is a member of the Navy Reserve, is on the Eagle Boy Scout board of review, is a director of the Snake River Area Council and is treasurer of the Civic Auditorium Association. He and his wife and children make their home at 730 Grant Ave. in Twin Falls.

William E. Babcock, formerly assistant cashier, has been made a loan officer. He is a native of Twin Falls and is a graduate of the local high school. He also attended the University of Idaho and Utah State. He joined Fidelity in 1965. He is an officer in the Red Cross and a member of the Blue Lakes Country Club, the Elks Lodge and the Kiwanis Club. He makes his home with his wife and daughter at 1434 11th Ave. East.

Jack Pierce, who has been farm manager with Fidelity since joining the organization in 1968, will continue in this position. He is now secretary-treasurer of the Magic Valley Cattlemen's Association and is active in 4-H and FFA programs. He is also a member of the American Legion and the Twin Falls Elks. He and Mrs. Pierce and children reside in Piler.

Continuing at the Piler office as manager will be Lewis E. Hack and Clyde N. Carlson who will continue as assistant manager.

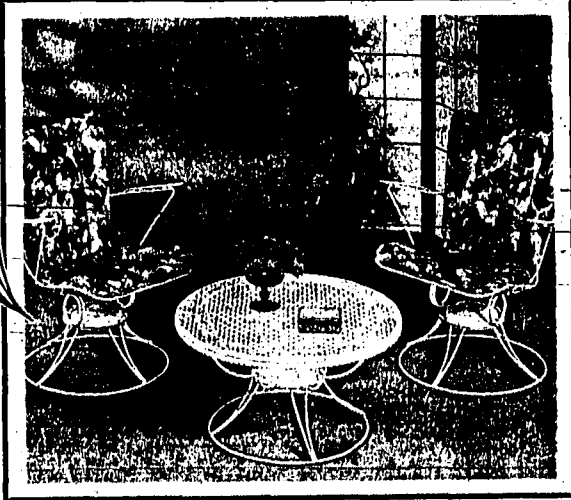

William H. Miller, formerly assistant vice-president, has been made a loan officer. He joined Fidelity in 1949 as bookkeeper and has also worked in all of the bank's departments. He is a Chamber of Commerce member, a member of the Exchange Club and the Knights of Columbus. He and Mrs. Miller reside at 1402 Maple St. in Twin Falls.

William C. Flannery has been auditor for Fidelity and will now be operations officer for the Twin Falls office. He is serving his third year on the board of the Junior Achievement organization and is a board member of the South Central Chapter of the American Institute of Banking. He makes his home with his wife and children at 678 Alturas Drive, Twin Falls.

State, was second in 45.7 and Collett, who said before the race there wasn't a man in the field who worried him, was third in 45.8. Mills, of Texas A&M, who took the world 400 record to 44.7 at the NCAA championships a year ago, finished fourth in 46.1. Ralph Mann, who holds the world record in the 440 hurdles, was expected in the meet record time of 29.8. Ron Whitney, the veteran Olympian, turned in his best time of the year in finishing second in 50.2 while Bob Steele was third in 51.2. Ben Vaughan, former Georgia Tech star now competing for the Army, made up his heartbreaking loss to Ivory Crockett in the 100 by nipping Willie Turner of Oregon State to win the 220. Crockett, Vaughan, Charlie Greene, Eddie Hart and Bob Taylor all were caught in 9.3 in the 100 and it took officials an hour Friday night and two more Saturday morning to study pictures of the race before settling on Crockett as the winner. Vaughan was bitter at the decision and he showed it as he put on the power in the final 50 yards to win the 220. Both he and Turner, the NCAA champ, were caught in 20.8 while Fred Newhouse and Taylor were timed in 20.9 for third and fourth place, respectively. "I respect the opinion of the men making the decisions," said Vaughan, referring to the 100, "but at the worst they should have called it a dead heat." "I didn't really think I could win," said the 20-year-old Smith, who surprised by winning the Pacific 8 Conference championship earlier this spring. "I felt the pressure was on everyone in this field but the least on me, and maybe that made a difference."

3-Base Error Helps Dodgers Edge Padres

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A three-base error by right fielder Willie Brown on Tom Haller's long fly with two outs in the seventh inning proved to be the difference as two runs scored to provide the Los Angeles Dodgers with a 7-5 win over the San Diego Padres Saturday night.

caught by a fan reaching over the wall. Umpire Tony Venzon ruled it a home run. The blow down Hoerner his third loss of the season against five wins. Byron Browne tied the game for Philadelphia in the seventh at 8-8 with a single that scored Deron Johnson and Rick Joseph who had both previously singled.

The Cardinals had jumped out front with a pair of four innings in the fourth and fifth. In the fourth, Chuck Taylor doubled home Lou Brock and Julian Javier and scored himself when Joe Torre also doubled. Beauchamp's single brought home Torre.

Ogden Uses Error, Tips I.F. By 2-1

OGDEN (UPI)—The Ogden Dodgers took advantage of an Idaho Falls error in the bottom of the 10th inning Saturday night to pull out a 2-1 Pioneer League victory. The victory gave the Dodgers a 2-1 record for the young season, and dropped the Angels to 1-2. The Angels scored their lone run in the top of the second inning when Laron Mallock came home from second on a Dodger error. The Dodgers evened the score in the bottom of the seventh when Tom Cordier singled to bring Joe Daniels from third. The Dodgers had the bases loaded with two out in the bottom of the 10th when Angel second baseman Darrell Darrow booted a ground ball hit to him by Mike Kimbrell to allow Elmer Mixon to score the winning run.

"Angel pitcher Bob Johnson pitched the entire game for the visiting team—only to lose it on the error in the final inning. The winner was relief pitcher Ron Clark. He came on in the 10th inning to pick up the victory for the Dodgers. Line score: Idaho Falls 010 000 000 1-4 5 Ogden 000 000 100 1-2 5 1 Johnson and Markosis; Rautzhan, Raible (9), Clark (10) and Haren.

Foster Knocks Out Tessman In 10th To Retain Championship

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Bob Foster, frustrated by a master dancer, knocked out Mark Tossman with a left hook at two minutes of the 10th round Saturday night to retain his world light-heavyweight title. However, the champion, a 4-1 favorite with a five-inch height advantage, hardly looked like the next suitable contender for heavy-weight champion Joe Frazier. A dangerous cut was opened over Foster's left eyelid in the eighth round and Tossman, seeming to gain courage, perhaps unwisely, moved in to go to work on the eye.

Tossman's running tactics left the 31-year-old Foster panting by the ninth round and it became a question of whether he would win the fight at all. However, when he hit the 170-pound Tossman with a left hook in the 10th, Foster knew it was over. He didn't even look back as he walked toward his own corner and a paper crown was placed on the 173 1/2-pound champion's head. The sparse crowd had booed Foster throughout most of the bout, especially in the fourth round when he was warned-off and skipping lightly to his right to make Foster sprawl awkwardly against the ropes several times and scowl in disgusted frustration.

"But that won't be until September," Foster said, "and I would like to fight a few more times first. I'd like Jerry Quarry or Mac Foster because I think they'd be easiest."

Pridewood Is Trot Champ

WESTBURY, N.Y. (UPI)—Pridewood, part of a Billy Haughton Stable entry, scored a startling upset in the $94,335 Realization Trot at Roosevelt Raceway Saturday night when the heavily favored Dayan broke stride before the start and never recovered. Dayan, the 1-5 choice, was never in contention as Pridewood battled stablemate Nardin's Gayblade in the 1-16 mile race to win in 2:12 3/5. Nardin's Gayblade was second and Armbo Jet third. Dayan finished well up the track. The entry paid $11.40, $8.20 and $5.20. Billy Myer, who was driving Dayan, said that the slowness of the gate in getting away had caused Dayan to break. However, the starter, Gene Hembach, disputed Myer's statement, claiming that it was a normal start.

Women's National Golf Crown

EL CAJON, Calif. (UPI)—Cathy Gaughan, a 20-year-old Arizona State sophomore from Eugene, Ore., used a consistent putter Saturday to beat schoolmate and defending champion Jane Basthanchury 2 up for the National Women's Intercollegiate Golf title. Miss Gaughan, 1969 Oregon women's champion, ended the match on the 34th hole of the scheduled 36-hole competition at the 6,100-yard Singing Hills Country Club.

Mrs. Undhjem Outduels Miss Davis For Ninth Magic Valley Golf Win

BURLEY — Mrs. Virginia Undhjem, breaking away from long-legged Susan Davis of Twin Falls on the 13th hole, won her ninth Magic Valley Women's golf championship Friday at the Burley Municipal course.

Mrs. Undhjem, who holds a one-shot lead going into the second round, posted a six-over par 81 in nailing down the title while Miss Davis, a member of the Twin Falls High School golf team, finished with an 82 and two strokes behind the 183 total of the champion.

Indians' Rookie Has 5-Hitter, Tips Tigers

DETROIT (UPI) — Rookie Rick Austin, in only his second major league start, threw a five-hit shutout Saturday and Roy Foster went 4-5 and collected his sixth straight hit as the Cleveland Indians defeated the Detroit Tigers, 3-0.

Table with columns for player names and statistics such as AB, R, H, E, and BA. Lists players from various teams including California, Kansas City, and Detroit.

The Indians picked up their other two runs off loser Mickey Lolich, who sank to 6-9 and failed to win a game in June, in the third inning. Eddie Leon walked and Foster singled before Posse drove in the first run of the inning with a single.

John Horton struck out and Foster was cut down trying to advance to third before Chuck Hinton delivered a run-producing single to center.

Twins 9, Sox 1

CHICAGO (UPI) — Bert Blayven, a 19-year old rookie who has been in the majors less than a month, pitched a two-hitter and hit Olvera and Cesar Tovar hit homers Saturday leading the Minnesota Twins to a 9-1 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Table with columns for player names and statistics such as AB, R, H, E, and BA. Lists players from Minnesota and Chicago.

Blayven gave up a single to left fielder Tom McCraw, retired the next 11 batters in order, walked Bill Melton, and the retired the next 11 men before Bob Spence homered with one out in the eighth for the Sox.

Table with columns for player names and statistics such as AB, R, H, E, and BA. Lists players from Oakland and Milwaukee.

K.C. 2, Angels 0

KANSAS CITY (UPI) — The Kansas City Royals took advantage of Lou Piniella's running single and four walks to score two runs in the sixth inning Saturday for a 2-0 victory over the California Angels.

Table with columns for player names and statistics such as AB, R, H, E, and BA. Lists players from Kansas City and California.

Boston 4, N.Y. 0

NEW YORK (UPI) — George Scott and Billy Conigliaro drove in two runs each and Gary Peters allowed five hits Saturday leading the Boston Red Sox to a 4-0 victory over the New York Yankees.

Committee Won't Shift Race Finish

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (UPI) — The National AAU Track and Field Games Committee Saturday turned down a protest involving the 100-yard dash at Friday's opening program of the two-day championships.

Ralph Higgins, coach of a U.S. Army team, protested the order of finish 1, the 100 in which Ivory Crockett of Southern Illinois University was declared the winner. Crockett, Ben Vaughan of the Army, Charlie Greene, NCAA champion Ed Hart of California and Bob Taylor of Texas Southern were timed in 0.3 seconds.

Laver, Ashe Are Victims Of Upset Rash At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) — Defending champion Rod Laver of Australia and third-seeded Arthur Ashe of Gum Springs, Va., were ousted from the $100,000 Wimbledon Open tennis championships Saturday in shock upsets.

Roger Taylor of England, who said later "I guess I was the only man who believed I could win," became an instantaneous national hero near the level of recent U.S. Open golf winner, Tony Jacklin when he destroyed four-time champion Laver, 4-0, 6-4, 6-1, to reach the men's singles quarter-finals.

Ashe, a losing semi-finalist the last three years and America's top hope this time, failed to even reach the quarters as he dropped a 7-5, 7-5, 6-2 verdict to Spanish veteran Andres Gimeno, the No. 14 seed.

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Fifth-rated light heavyweight Andy Kendall may be forced to bypass his scheduled fight in July with Roger Rouse because the Portland boxer has been suspended by the Texas Boxing Commission.

Shoshone Women's Team Wins First In State Tourney

SHOSHONE — Members of the Pepsi Cola team of women bowlers from Shoshone took first place in the state tournament, local officers report. The state meet was held in Salmon.

Slade opened the night's scoring on a five-yard run in the first quarter and threw touchdowns of four and 21 yards to Michigan State's tight end Frank Foreman.

Slade's other scoring came on a 23-yard pass from halfback John Isenberger of Indiana to flanker Charlie Waters of Clemson and a 42-yard pass interception return by Bruce Taylor of Boston.

Richard Campbell of Texas Tech blocked an East punt and fell on the ball in the end zone for a second touchdown. Ron Gardin of Arizona received a three-yard pass from quarterback Dennis Shaw of San Diego State and Missouri quarterback Terry McMillan ran one yard for the final West touchdown.

But it was the running attack of Ohio State tailback Jim Ots who set an individual rushing record for the game that helped push the East ahead.

Ots finished with 145 yards on 27 carries to better the old record of 133 yards set by North Dakota's Ken Willard of the East in 1965.

Ots was named the most valuable player of the game by sportswriters covering the event.

A new attendance record of 42,150 was set bettering the old record of 38,326 set in Atlanta in 1968. The total points scored, 61, was the highest ever and bettered the old mark of 54 set in 1968 when the West won 34-20.

Shaw completed 25 of 44 passes setting records in both categories for 384 and one touchdown. Slade hit on nine of 16 for 101 yards.

Running back Duane Thomas of West Texas State led the West running attack with 57 yards on 5 carries.

Isenberger received four passes for 52 yards, threw for one touchdown and rushed four times for three yards.

Lombardi Has Tumor Removed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A team of surgeons removed a two-foot section of colon from Washington Redskins coach Vince Lombardi Saturday after discovering a small tumor during an exploratory operation.

A spokesman at Georgetown University Hospital where the two-hour and 15-minute operation took place said the tumor "appeared benign" or non-malignant but that microscopic tests would be made of the tumor with the results expected in four or five days.

Dr. Robert J. Coffey, who performed the surgery, said a majority of tumors found in Lombardi's case turn out to be benign.

Cowboys Begin First Road Trip Today

With two opening victories and a rainout behind them, the Magic Valley Cowboys travel to Caldwell, Sunday to begin their first road series. But they will return to Jayco Park Thursday to begin a three-day stand with Billings that will culminate with the annual Fourth of July fireworks display Saturday night.

Manager Paul Snyder has nominated Mike Knox as the starter for Sunday's game and will follow with Sigmund Gonzalez Monday night.

The Cowboys won their second game from Caldwell Friday when Nelson Cann drew a walk with the bases loaded in the seventh inning to net a 0-8 win.

Caldwell, after trailing 2-0 in the first inning, twice posted leads on two-run homers by Don Schuldt in the fourth and Nick McKenzie in the sixth.

Tom Cox' three-run homer, the Cowboys first of the year, opened it at 8-1 in the sixth. The Cowboys won it when walk to Luis Galendez and winning pitcher Glen Landesberg and a single by Cal Kelly preceded the walk to Cann.

Managor Paul Snyder has nominated Mike Knox as the starter for Sunday's game and will follow with Sigmund Gonzalez Monday night.

TWIN FALLS

Lawsuit Demands $60,000 Damages

A lawsuit asking more than $60,000 in damages for injuries reportedly suffered in a traffic accident in Twin Falls has been filed in Fifth District Court.

Rupert Man Completes Training

RUPERT — Clyde M. Annis of Rupert has successfully completed the five-day Maintenance Seminar of Multi-Amp Institute at Cranford, N.J. Instruction consisted of lecture and workshop periods in the testing of electrical protective devices (motor overload relays, protective relays, molded case circuit breakers, low voltage power circuit breakers, and oil circuit reclosers.)

Mr. Annis is employed by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, Burley.

Plaintiffs in the action are Willard G. Rathbun and Nettie Rathbun, allegedly rendered incompetent persons by the accident, through their legal guardian, Joyce Marlow. Anita Jean Lee was named as defendant.

The plaintiffs charge that the accident occurred May 4 at the intersection of Third Street North and Eighth Avenue North, involving cars driven by Nettie Rathbun and the defendant, Anita Lee. The lawsuit charges that the defendant entered the intersection without stopping or yielding the right of way to the other vehicle.

The plaintiffs allege that they sustained extensive injuries, and that Mrs. Rathbun suffered severe head injuries which required surgery. They state that the injuries subsequently rendered her legally incompetent.

The lawsuit seeks damages for physical and mental pain in the amount of $60,000, damages to their car of $800, and medical expenses of $3,070.

Report Given By Delegates

SHOSHONE — Girls State delegates, Stacie Churchman and Patricia Saras, reported on their activities at Girls State at the Rotary club meeting Wednesday.

Supt. Kenneth Crothers introduced the two. He acted in the absence of president Burton Thorne.

Mrs. Fred Trenkle was pianist of the day.

Valley Traffic Courts

LeRoy Pena, 20, Rupert, was fined $10 by Burley Police Judge Roland E. Willis for an expired driver's license.

Kathy Wodskow, 17, Heyburn, was fined $10 by Judge Willis for expired vehicle inspection sticker. Connie S. Smith, 16, Route 2, Burley, was fined $15 by Judge Willis for a stop sign violation.

Kenneth L. Kirkpatrick, 29, Rupert, was fined $15 by Judge Willis for following too closely. Pauline M. Arrago, 41, Burley, was fined $10 by Judge Willis for failure to yield the right of way.

Raymond E. Baxter, 30, Twin Falls, was fined $20 by Judge Willis for following too closely.

Brenda Peterson, 27, Burley, was fined $15 by Judge Willis for improper backing.

ATTEND CAMP RICHFIELD — Blaine Sorensen and Blaine Sorensen attended National Guard Camp at Boise the past two weeks. The men are members of the Jerome Unit.

Elmore Man Will Work In Lima

MOUNTAIN HOME — David Claude of the Mountain Home Air Force Base has been stationed in Lima, Peru, to work with the Peruvian Red Cross during the cleanup after the recent earthquake.

Also assigned to Peru is a team of six American Red Cross disaster specialists, who will administer the massive relief program pledged by the Red Cross.

Funds are urgently needed by Red Cross personnel to meet the many needs of the Peruvians left homeless by the disaster. Four tractor-trailers loaded with supplies left Lima recently for Huaras, one of the cities high in the Andes Mountains which was shattered by the earthquake on May 31.

Transferred

SHOSHONE — Airman 1.C. Charles Neher, son of Dr. and Mrs. R.G. Neher, is being transferred to Germany.

Capt. Richard Tanaka is spending a month's leave from his duties with the armed forces in Viet Nam with his wife and family, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tanaka, Shoshone.

hearts would bite the dust. Furthermore, we wonder what North would have done if his partner had done two hearts. At this point we know that North claimed he would have jumped to four hearts (we have our correspondent's word for that), but would he have done so at the table or would he have thought to himself "Damn the torpedoes, full steam ahead and jumped to three no-trump.

He would probably have done very well at that contract. He would probably run off five hearts and three diamonds as a starter and then would lead the jack of spades with no intention of finessing and rubber, but it is just possible that East would have discarded a spade somewhere along the way and that West would cover that jack. If that happened, the queen of spades would drop the 10 and North would make all his spades.

All conjecture but unimportant. We believe that almost any expert would have made the same no-trump rebid that South did make. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

The argument about today's hand undoubtedly was full of sound and fury. For all we know it may still be raging down in Fort Lauderdale where our correspondent wants to know just how the bidding should have gone.

As far as we can gather, North objected strenuously to his partner's rebid of one no-trump with a good five-card suit and no stopper in clubs.

North pointed out correctly that nothing could beat four hearts while as anyone can see the defense ran off five clubs against three no-trump.

We consider this whole thing a real tempest in a teapot. To start with, if clubs divided 4-3 or 6-1, barring all three honors with the six three no-trump would be unbeatable and if East held the king of spades instead of West the odds are that four clubs against three no-trump.

CHIRD Sense

Q—This bidding has been: West North East South

You, South, hold:

♠ 2 K 4 5 4 ♠ Q 8 4 2 ♠ K J 9 7

What do you do now?

A—Double. This is almost the book hand with 4-4-4-1 distribution and 13 high-card points.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner responds two clubs to your double. What do you do now?

Answer Monday

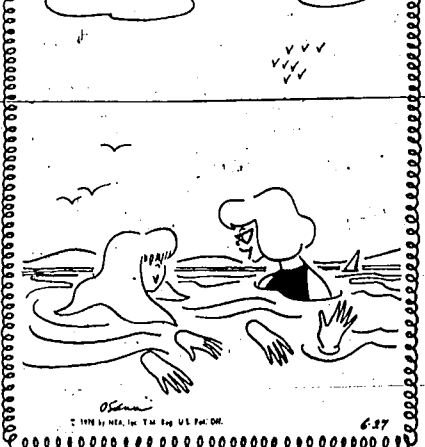

WIZARD OF ID

I'VE GOT TO HAVE MORE MONEY TO OPERATE MY LAB!

YOU'RE ALREADY GETTING 30% OF THE TOTAL BUDGET!

WHAT DID YOU DO WITH YOUR LAST ALLOTMENT?

I BLEW IT ON A LIZARD EGG.

GASOLINE ALLEY

PASS IT ON
by L.M. Boyd

THE PERFECT WOMAN—Her body would be exactly six and a half times the length of her head. That's what the artist says about the perfectly proportioned woman. By length of her head, they mean the distance from the top to the point of her chin. If that is 10 inches, for example, then to be just right she should stand 5-feet-5-inches tall.

WHY DO SOME WOMEN get a skin rash from finger rings? Salt causes that, says an Indiana dermatologist. Just plain old salt. In reaction to the metal... IF YOU ACTUALLY sit down with a pencil to figure it, you'll find the average American worker gets one day off for every two days he works... A FACULTY MEMBER of the University of Minnesota Medical School insists nobody has ever proved a clean old man is healthier than a dirty old man.

CUSTOMER SERVICE—Q: "Have baseball fans ever really tried to kill an umpire?" A: Only one such comes to mind. Billy Evans, St. Louis fan, beat him with a bottle and he prisoner didn't pull through... Q: "Why was Toledo, O., named after the city in Spain?" A: Am told that came about merely because the name had a dandy ring to it, that's all... Q: "Do homing pigeons ever get lost?" A: Certainly do. Take a homing pigeon that lands on a ship at sea. Chances are it will have to get to a port it recognizes before it can start out for home again.

SHIPWRECKS—Am asked to name the most dangerous spot in the seven seas. That is, the one place where the most ships have been wrecked. I thought it would be Cape Horn, but that's wrong. Research reveals it's Sable Island about 180 miles east of Nova Scotia.

DON'T KNOW its name, but one kind of whale is only four and a half feet long when fully grown... IT'S AGAINST THE LAW in Austin, Texas, to shoot Indians from a streetcar along that city's Congress Avenue... U.S. NAVY REGULATIONS prohibit the cheering of a naval officer... THE DECAPITATED HEADS of capital criminals in old China were sewn onto the bodies again, but backwards, before burial, and I tell you in all seriousness that this was the origin of the term "loss of face"... THE CALCULATOR CREW figures it would take about 20,000 houseflies to weigh one pound.

LITERATURE—Among Mark Twain's books was one little-known money-maker that didn't have any writing in it. A scrapbook. He designed it. Blank pages. But Twain was an ingenious bird. He sold more than 25,000 copies of the thing.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used in PASS IT ON wherever possible. Address your letters to L.M. Boyd, P.O. Box 3760, Santa Monica, Calif. 90403.

New Committee

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Foy D. Kohler, former U.S. ambassador to Moscow, has announced formation of a committee to back construction of a U.S. antiballistic missile system.

Citing Soviet deployment of such a system, Kohler said the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks in Vienna will be handicapped if the United States should not affirm its intentions to go ahead with a comparable protective system.

POLLY'S POINTERS

DEAR POLLY—Grocery bags can be held upright in the car by slipping a long loop of heavy elastic over the back of the front seat.—CINDY

AN EXTRA LOOP WILL KEEP JUNIOR OUT OF THE GROCERIES

DEAR POLLY—When my fingertip terry towels start to wear thin I put two together and, using the zig-zag stitch, sew all around the edges.—ANN

DEAR POLLY—Use your ice cream dipper to form uniform servings of salad for those lettuce cups. This is helpful particularly when serving a large crowd at a church or club dinner.—MRS. E. D.

DEAR POLLY—Did you ever hear of a round washcloth? They're great. They fit the hand, and there are no corners to drip. They're easy to make in any size and color. Bind the circle of terry cloth with a bias strip of fabric or tape. I am 80, and if you like this idea it will be my first time to win anything. Am including a sample in my letter. (Polly's note—Thank you. I find this unusual washcloth very pretty and practical, too.)—MRS. J. M.

DEAR POLLY—My son had quite a few textbooks that he wanted to keep. I picked up three apple crates at a market, bought six yards of a pretty adhesive-backed paper, covered each crate separately, and stacked them to make a bookcase. Should we ever move, the books are already packed.—MRS. L. A. L.

DEAR POLLY—When you read a Polly's Pointer that satisfies a need—cut it right out and tape it where it will be a reminder at the right time.—MRS. E. J. N.

IT'S A REMINDER FOR JUNIOR TO WASH HIS FACE

© 1970 by NEA, Inc. 6-28

DEAR POLLY—My sister and I put a number on the door of each of the rooms we are supposed to clean, place duplicate slips in a jar, and draw for the rooms we will each clean.—P. L. S.

HEY, MOM—THEY'RE WORKING A NUMBERS RACKET

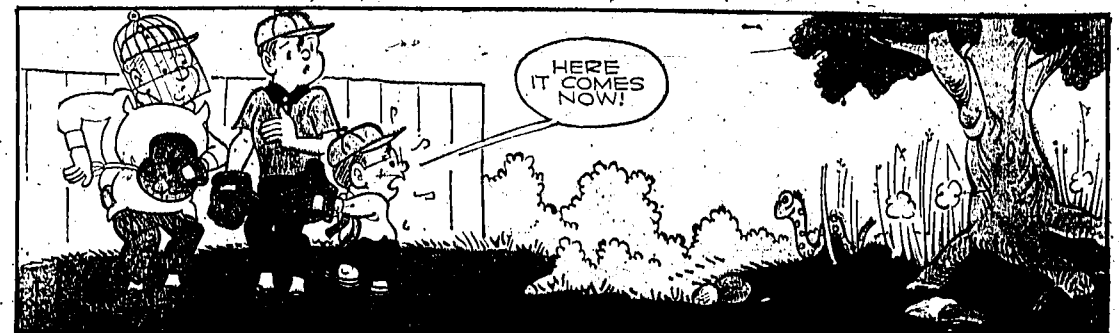

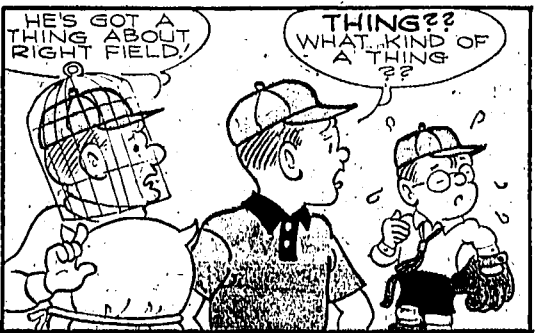

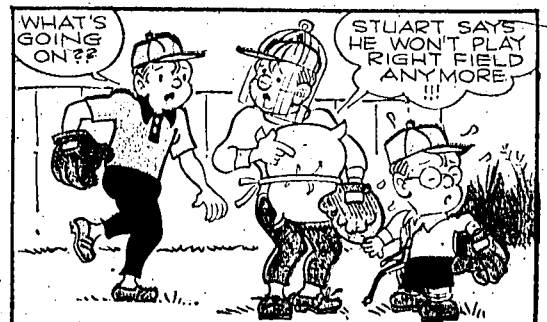

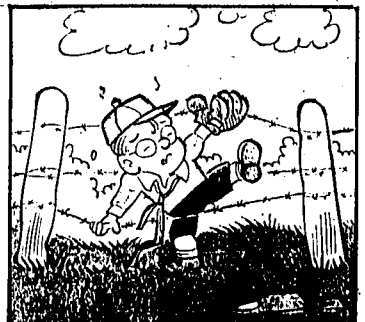

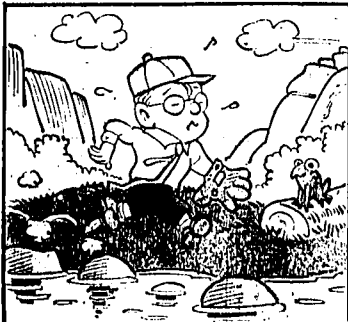

DEAR POLLY—When cutting out a large number of quilt pieces, it's a great help to put about 10 blocks on a long florists' pin (with a head), then add a piece of paper that sticks out at one side, then another 10 blocks, and so on, until the pin is full. The blocks are easy to count just by counting the papers.—M. M. R.

DEAR POLLY—When practicing a number of musical selections, one tends to grow stale or careless because of the monotonous repetition. Reversing the order in which the pieces are practiced now and then helps to give all your efforts equal polish.—SALLY

DEAR POLLY—To make an ice pack for small children when they fall and get a bump, wet a washcloth, put it in the freezer and freeze and then put it in a plastic bag and apply to the bump.—EDNA

Ask Them Yourself

FOR RONALD ZIEGLER,

Presidential Press Secretary
Did President Nixon ever serve in the armed services? If so, when and where?—Jim Valder, Hoven, S.D.

● The President volunteered for service in the United States Navy during World War II and served in the South Pacific Theater, earning two Battle Stars and two commendations. He was discharged in 1946 with the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

FOR JUNE JOHNS,

"King of the Witches"
What is the difference between white witchcraft and black witchcraft?—A. B., Atlantic City, N.J.

● White witchcraft is used only for benevolent purposes, and must not harm even the witch's enemies. Black witchcraft is "evil" and involves harm being done to another person.

FOR HOWARD PYLE,

President,
National Safety Council
According to your records, what is the most "faulty" part of automobiles?—Del Laitceps, Burien, Wash.

● According to the 1969 National Vehicle Safety Check, headlights were most frequently faulty. They were found defective on 21.6 per cent of all vehicles checked, with rear lights second (13.3 per cent), and windshield washers third (9.7 per cent). Nearly one-fifth of the 850,000 vehicles checked in this program had one or more items in unsafe driving condition.

FOR CASPER WEINBERGER,

Federal Trade Commission
Is the Government doing anything about gasoline-station acceptance?—J. T. Blackburn, Key West, Fla.

● The Commission is investigating promotional methods involving games of chance and recently issued trade-regulation rules for the food-retailing and gasoline industries. These industries were selected for initial attention because of their importance to the consumer and to the national economy.

FOR LIBERACE

Did you use different pianos for some of your songs on the Liberace Show, or did they dress up the same piano?—Daniel R. Leo, Columbia, Mo.

● I used a total of seven different pianos during the series to suit the different moods of the numbers.

FOR JOHNNY CASH

Please tell me why your wife, June Carter, wasn't on any of your shows during the early part of this year?—Mrs. Ronnie Lathcoe, Colton, Calif.

● She was happily pregnant.

FOR ANN CORIO, ex-burlesque Queen

What do you think of the new nude plays now so much in fashion?—K. H., W. Medway, Mass.

● My manager wanted me to see the nude production, "Oh! Calcutta!" currently playing in New York, but I will not go. I have no interest in seeing it. I don't see any culture or entertainment value in it—it's strictly for shock effect. People who go and see it must be sick. Who needs that in our society? The permissiveness is bad for our youngsters, and there is enough trouble going on.

FOR TOM SEAYER, New York Mets pitcher

How is a pitcher's E.R.A. computed?—Jan Wheeler, Point Pleasant, N.J.

● An earned-run average is based on the number of earned runs a pitcher allows for every 9 innings that he pitches. To compute this, multiply the number of earned runs times 9 and divide that total by the number of innings pitched. As an example, if a pitcher allows 2 earned runs in 6 innings, multiply 2 times 9 and divide the total of 18 by 6—meaning that the E.R.A. is 3.00.

Look Greater Longer FAMILY WEEKLY asked top beauty authority "Kenneth" (Battelle) for some tips on how the older woman can look her best.

Beauty authority Kenneth Battelle gives tips for older women.

Among Kenneth's suggestions: 1) "Not more make-up, but less." Also: "No powder—after the first half hour it brings out wrinkles instead of hiding them. Instead, use an oil-base foundation matching skin color exactly. For color, a gel or cream form. In lipsticks, avoid true red—it's old-fashioned and hard-looking. 2) Eyes fade with age; mascara in brown—never black—will pick them up. Avoid 'parrot' colors on crepey lids. Instead, use a skin-tone color like beige, soft grey. Little or no eyeliner. I think eyeliner is going out, and for young people, too. 3) For gray hair—my perfect answer is 'grow it and do it up. It's more flattering than short, frizzy, blue hair,' Kenneth feels. "White streaks will give a softer look. 4) As for clothes, the romantic look—dog collars, ruffles, long full sleeves, which leave aging arms veiled."

Baby Specs: One child in four will need glasses by the first grade, maybe even bi-focals. But usually it isn't discovered, according to the American Optical Corp. The child is used to the poor sight—and it doesn't hurt. How, then, is it discovered? If parents have exceptionally poor vision, the pediatrician may be looking for it. Or the retina may not respond to light. There are instruments which determine the necessary correction.

And glasses can be made to fit. This nine-month-old from Southbridge, Mass., for instance, is wearing a hand-sculptured bridge section, the nose piece thickening from the top so that it will be secure over the immature nasal area. Early detection and correction are important and will eliminate some future vision problems.

Gift of Blue Love: Ballerina Merilee Magnuson, 18, who dances Alice in Wonderland in the traveling company of "Diagne on Parade," has acquired many fans and admirers during her career. But the one she'll never forget was a "Backstage Johnny" who appeared with gifts after her opening in Chicago. The young swain also appeared with his mommy and daddy. He was four years old. "He had come to see an earlier performance and announced to his folks that he had fallen deeply in love with me and wanted to buy me a blue automobile to match my blue eyes," Merilee remembers. Was that the gift? A car? "No," smiled the pretty

The 'Other Couple' in

Connie Stuart, 31, is Staff Director and Press Secretary to Mrs. Richard Nixon, while husband, Chuck, 32, is multi-dutied Staff Assistant to President Nixon.

At 8:00 o'clock every weekday morning, an official chauffeured limousine delivers a slim, red-headed young woman with a bulging black briefcase to the East Wing of the White House in Washington.

With three doughnuts and a cup of coffee at her desk, Connie Stuart scans the newspapers to launch a hectic 12-hour day. An hour earlier, her husband had arrived, breakfasted in the mess, and promptly started work in another office.

Seldom seen or heard of by the public, Chuck and Connie Stuart hold important "His" and "Her" posts within the White House inner circle. They are so physically attractive that Central Casting might have sent them; in fact, they once modeled as an "All-American" couple for a slick magazine ad.

Unflappable Constance ("Connie") Stuart, 31, smartly groomed, her titian hair hanging on her shoulders, is the $30,000-a-year Staff Director and Press Secretary to Mrs. Richard Nixon. Charles ("Chuck") Stuart, 32, a muscular 6' 4", who habitually wears a conservative button-down white shirt and gray suit, is a Staff Assistant to the President. Aside from the Nixons, they are the only married couple with official duties at the White House.

In her multi-faceted job, Connie Stuart is aided by the First Lady's social secretary and others on her staff. The range of her responsibilities is astonishing. She supervises arrangements for social events, such as state dinners. She stagos two press briefings a week. Keeps close liaison with the President's staff. Handles luncheons and teas for Mrs. Nixon, including receiving lines, which may extend to more than 500 women. Plans the entertainment for major functions such as the one for the Duke and Duchess of Windsor last April. Makes sure Tricia Nixon will be greeting a group of visiting blind children. And much more.

"During an average day," Connie says, "I am given memos and letters that mount at least three inches high. Much of it goes into my briefcase. I work on the papers in the car, at home in the evenings, and weekends, and again in the car coming back in the morning."

Chuck's $20,000-a-year job is varied in different ways. His immediate boss is H. R. Haldeman, a top assistant to the President for operational management. "He is a General Factotum," says Chuck, "and I am a general factotum under the General Factotum: Since I keep getting different assignments, I've been called a utility outfielder. I'm about the only one I can think of at the White House who tackles such a diversity of projects. I never know what to expect tomorrow." (To which Connie comments, "That's what keeps Charles happy.")

Among these projects, Chuck played a big role in arrangements for the inauguration and for the Cabinet's introduction on television; helped recruit key personnel for the Administration; set up the logistics for the President's trip to Asia last year, and, more recently, for his visits to the Midwest; and served as advance man for two of Mrs. Nixon's major trips to the West Coast and other sections of the country.

A few weeks ago, the President asked Stuart to plan the itinerary for a trip by Julie and David Eisenhower to Japan's Expo '70, and Chuck had to deal with the State Department, U.S. Information Agency, the Japanese Government, and, of course, Mr. Nixon, Julie, and David.

The other afternoon, I sat chattering with both Stuarts (a rare occasion when they were together during the day) in Connie's spacious East Wing office. Beside the yellow walls, there were yellow wall-to-wall carpeting and a lemon-yellow damask settee, a Hunt table used as a desk, and a comfortable chair to relax in. Photographs of the Stuarts covered most of the wall beside the table. Connie sipped from a can of cola, and Chuck puffed at his pipe. Here's how the talk ran:

What, I wanted to know, did they find really exciting about their jobs?

Connie: "It's the contacts with Mrs. Nixon and the President. At first I tried to see Mrs. Nixon at least an hour a day. Now I manage to catch her about five hours a week. Sometimes, though, we're on the phone for half an hour."

Chuck: "That's the single compelling factor, the contact, although I see the President infrequently. It's exciting to know you are making a contribution to the man you believe in. Everyone at the White House reveres the Office of the President. But we are here because we have the utmost respect for Mr. Nixon as a person."

Connie: "With the day-to-day mayhem going on around here, at times it's hard to see our contribution. Our largest reward is that we feel involved, that we are participating."

Chuck: "It's like being an offensive guard on a football team. You don't pass the ball, you don't kick or make a touchdown. But you are part of the team."

What qualities do the Stuarts see in the Nixons that the general public is unaware of?

Connie: "Contrary to what many people believe, Mrs. Nixon is not shy. It's just that she is reserved, the natural reserve of a woman. She does not seek the limelight."

Chuck: "In the public mind this is contrasted with the image of one or two past First Ladies who were strongly publicity-oriented."

Connie: "What impresses me is Mrs. Nixon's honest interest in people, both young and old, and she responds to them warmly in her natural manner."

Chuck: "We've noticed that Mrs. Nixon always takes a back seat to the President, staying behind him whenever he makes a speech. She feels he should have stage center."

Connie: "I'm amazed at her personal strength. In March, I was with her on that grueling five-state, 4,000-mile tour of college volunteer projects. She met with students, moved through crowds shaking hands and accepting gifts, hold four press conferences, and was more active than anyone else. The press corps was exhausted. Yet in private sessions with me, Mrs. Nixon never once complained of being tired.

"On three occasions—at a hotel, an airport, and a school—we were faced with hecklers and picket signs. Mrs. Nixon just ignored them.

Chuck: "I was with the President and Mrs. Nixon on their trip to Asia last year. In Lower Pakistan and in Indian villages, Mrs. Nixon went out in the 120-degree heat. Heavy reporters wondered how she stayed so fresh, with not a hair out of place. Mrs. Nixon said she never felt the heat or cold. 'When you have to do these things,' I heard her say, 'you make up your mind not to let them bother you.'"

Connie: "She keeps her cool under any circumstances. I guess it's her remarkable thermostat."

Chuck: "The President, too, has an enormous amount of energy. I saw that in Asia. He also has a fantastic ability to maintain his composure and take command of any situation. For instance, in Thailand, he did not expect to be given a lengthy, seven-minute welcoming toast. The President responded off-the-cuff with an equally long toast. We all listened in awe."

And what did the Stuarts find most annoying about their jobs? In unison, they replied: "Not enough time!"

Chuck: "It's the great demands on our total personal time. We need a 35-hour day."

Connie: "I work from 8:00 to 8:00, plus two or three evenings a week. At a White House state dinner, I stay on to help with arrangements for the guests. I don't get any dinner myself; I couldn't keep it down, anyway. At those functions, I usually wear one of my three red wigs. I don't have two hours in any day to have my hair done. But I have to look right, so I send out a wig to the hairdresser."

Chuck: "I also put in 12 hours a day when I'm in Washington, but my kind of work involves a lot of weekend travel."

Connie: "Some problems on this job can be very annoying. At my press briefings, certain women reporters tend to be nasty—or, I should say, aggressive questioners. They badger me for the answer they want, and will not take a referral. That's when I recognize another reporter for a different question. I understand that a few reporters have grumbled that I talk to them like a schoolteacher and call them 'ladias.' Well, I think it is nice to be called a lady."

With their long, demanding hours on duty, the Stuarts do not have much leisure time together. "I love my husband very much," says Connie, ruefully, "and I wish I could spend more time with him."

About once a month, they meet for lunch and occasionally have supper together in the White House mess. Three nights a week, Chuck stays late so that he can drive home with her. On arrival, Connie "falls apart," heads for a couch, and sleeps awhile. Chuck, if he hasn't picked up take-away hamburgers or fried chicken on the drive, fixes soup and sandwiches, or whips up a simple dinner. They have no social life.

Home to the Stuarts is a four-bedroom brick colonial house on an acre in Great Falls, Va., 45 minutes from the White House. Almost every room boasts a phone, including one that is Signal Corps-operated for White House calls. The place is full of what Connie calls "Early Auction" massive furniture and Chippendale—some genuine antiques, others "just old." And there's the Stuart cat, "Moustache," who gets fed in the morning. No children.

"I used to make all my own dresses, slipcovers, and curtains," says Connie. "I still do some sewing on weekends. Since I don't have time to find help, we do our own cleaning."

When Connie is tied up with her White House papers—often until after midnight or Sundays—Chuck keeps happy with do-it-yourself house tasks. He paints, builds shelves, recently turned a family room into a paneled library, and installed a 150-year-old carved oak mantel he found through a classified ad.

Connie cooks only on weekends, if at home. In a locker, they have stored 200 pounds of moose meat (from their hunting in Newfoundland last fall), lots of venison and goose from Texas. Connie's favorite dish: moose teriyaki.

Hunting is a Stuart passion. They've already engaged a guide for this fall to hunt for bear and mountain goat in British Columbia. For a wedding anniversary, Chuck presented his wife with a custom-made gun for deer-size game. Their hunting vehicle is a converted 1952 military ambulance, once the property, successively, of the Army, Navy, and Air Force. Chuck cut windows in the sides, then painted and installed upholstery.

An avid collector, he has acquired 42 antique mugs and scores of bayonets, swords, and other edged weapons. Connie had to collect something, too, so she chose the smallest item she could think of: thimbles. They're of gold, wood, bone, silver, enamel, brass, and china. "I'm learning," she says, "that thimbles are a form of art work."

Whether the Stuarts are regarded as All-American or as an "odd couple," their route to the White House was less odd than traditionally American.

Starting out to be an actress, Connie majored in speech and dramatics at the University of Maryland and performed in several radio dramas. Her first full-time jobs, however, were with New York public-relations firms, then with A.T.&T., producing films. In New York, she met Charles Stuart at a "singlas club," one of five moonlighting enterprises he operated while employed by a financier. A year after they were married, both plunged into the Nixon campaign, Chuck as an advance man across the country. "We're born Republicans," they'll tell you.

The day after election, Nixon asked Chuck to join the Administration as Staff Assistant to the President. It took Chuck half an hour to decide. When the Stuarts moved to Washington, Connie was hired by the local telephone company, then setting up a TV station. Last October, Connie was tendered her present post. Chuck insists that no one asked his permission to approach Connie. "I felt," he says, "that she might as well do something she gets paid for, rather than mow the lawn."

Connie had known Pat Nixon during the campaign, though "not well." Shortly after the appointment, the First Lady was asked if her choice of a Staff Director oriented to television and publicity meant she was seeking a new image. "No one," Mrs. Nixon replied, "can change my image. I could never change."

A change may become visible in the Stuarts. "There's a tremendous amount of personal growth in our jobs," Chuck remarks. "We are both highly motivated."

As for raising a family, they maintain there is no time to think about it. Married only three years, the Stuarts had agreed to postpone personal plans when they joined the Nixons.

Eventually, after they leave the White House? "We'll need," sighs Connie, smiling, "plenty of rest and recuperation." •

Chuck Stuart works on 1952 military ambulance converted to serve as hunting vehicle. Coiffed wigs come in handy for busy Connie Stuart.

A Fourth of July Quiz

By JERRY KLEIN

With the Fourth of July anniversary of our nation's Declaration of Independence just a few days off, it's a good time to test your knowledge of significant developments during the earliest days of the United States.

See how many of the following multiple-choice questions you are able to answer correctly. If you get all 10 right, you're a real "firecracker" when it comes to American history.

1. While this man signed the Declaration of Independence, his son was a traitor to the American cause and was jailed, then deported: (A) John Hancock (B) Benjamin Franklin (C)

- Edward Rutledge
2. How many states were there in the Union when George Washington first became President? (A) thirteen (B) eleven (C) none
 3. A Yankee Doodle was: (A) a group of soldiers in the Revolutionary Army (B) a variety of New England poultry (C) a musical instrument
 4. Which state was a kingdom? (A) Hawaii (B) Louisiana (C) Florida
 5. A signer of the Declaration of Independence, George Wythe, died when: (A) poisoned by a relative (B) hung by the British (C) shot by his wife
 6. The 50th anniversary of the original 4th of July brought: (A) final ratification of the peace treaty with Great Britain (B) death of two former Presidents (C) start of the Civil War

7. Which state lies furthest west? (A) California (B) Hawaii (C) Alaska
8. The first President born in the United States was: (A) Martin Van Buren (B) George Washington (C) Andrew Jackson
9. "Uncle Sam" is a nickname that: (A) is completely imaginary (B) was given to Samuel Adams (C) was given to a real businessman
10. In the war against the French and Indians, a British Redcoat leader was: (A) Alexander Hamilton (B) George Washington (C) Nathan Hale

Answers

1. (B) Young William Franklin's opposition to American Independence alienated him from his father, who disinherited him.
2. (B) Not until after Washington's Inauguration as Chief Executive did North Carolina and Rhode Island join the rest of the thirteen original United States.
3. (A) Captain Thomas Fitch of Norwalk, Conn., led a group of militiamen, who, for decoration, wore chicken feathers in their hats, making them look foolish. In the language of the day, "doodle" was a derisive term.

4. (A) Hawaii was a kingdom for many years before becoming a U. S. territory and then a state.
5. (A) The Virginia jurist and teacher is believed to have been done in by an unprincipled nephew who wanted his money.
6. (B) Both John Adams and Thomas Jefferson died on July 4, 1826.
7. (C) The Aleutian island chain of Alaska extends considerably farther west than California or Hawaii.
8. (A) The United States came into existence in 1776 and Van Buren was born in 1782.
9. (C) A Troy, New York, meat-packer named Sam Wilson sold provisions to the Government during the War of 1812 that were put in barrels stamped U. S. The legend grew that these initials stood not for United States but for Uncle Sam.
10. (B) As a young British officer, Washington learned much that he put to good purpose in defeating the Redcoats in the Revolution. ★

End the Problem of Dry Skin

Unless you take particular care, low humidity, both indoors and out can easily rob your complexion of the precious moist oils quicker than the oil ducts of the skin can replace it, thus resulting in dry skin and the formation of wrinkles.

A little extra attention should be taken at this time of year by smoothing Oil of Olay over the face and neck daily before applying make-up. Oil of Olay is recommended because of its special properties that help nature to maintain the natural oil and moisture balance of the skin.

Beauty, the glow of a healthy complexion and protection of your skin from dryness are yours all year 'round when you use this unique tropical oil regularly. Skin beauty specialists are also recommending that Oil of Olay should be smoothed over the face last thing at night before retiring to give your skin the added benefit of night-time care.

Pickle Delights

MELANIE DE PROFT Food Editor

■ That familiar jar of favorite pickles may be a part of your July-4th festive fare—but for something different, also put pickles into meat loaf, quick bread, salad, or other dishes.

Dill Surprise Meat Loaf

- 1 egg
 - 1 cup milk
 - 1 tablespoon Worcestershire
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - ½ teaspoon Accent
 - ½ teaspoon seasoned pepper
 - ½ teaspoon ground marjoram
 - 3 slices white bread, torn in pieces
 - 1½ lbs. round steak, ground twice
 - ¾ cup chopped onion (1 medium-sized onion)
 - 3 dill pickles
 - ¾ cup bottled hamburger relish
- Canned pork and beans

1. Beat egg slightly in a bowl. Add milk, Worcestershire, and a blend of salt, Accent, pepper, and marjoram. Mix in the bread.
 2. Put meat and onion into a large bowl. Cut through meat using a wooden spoon. Add liquid mixture and mix lightly and thoroughly.
 3. Remove one half to a shallow baking pan and lightly shape into a rectangle, about 10x4½ in. Put dill pickles end to end along center of meat. Shape remaining meat over pickles, rounding the top.
 4. Bake in a 350°F. oven 45 min.
 5. Meanwhile, turn contents of 2 or 3 cans pork and beans into a casserole and heat in oven along with meat loaf during the final 25 min. of cooking.
 6. Remove meat loaf after 45 min. and spread hamburger relish evenly over entire top surface. Return meat loaf to oven for 15 min.
 7. If desired, transfer meat loaf to a cutting board and slice. Serve with the pork-and-bean casserole, dill pickles, and cool crisp radishes.
- About 6 servings*

Molded Lime-Pickle Salad

- 1 pkg. (3 oz.) lime-flavored gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- ½ cup cold water
- ½ cup sweet pickle liquid
- ¼ cup mayonnaise
- ¼ cup sliced sweet gherkins
- ¼ cup shredded cabbage
- ¼ cup shredded carrot
- ¼ cup chopped green pepper
- ¼ cup chopped pimiento

1. Pour the boiling water over gelatin in a bowl; stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add cold water and pickle liquid and mix well.
 2. Chill gelatin until slightly thickened, stirring occasionally. Add mayonnaise and beat with a hand rotary or electric beater until mixture is fluffy. Stir in the remaining ingredients and turn into a 1-qt. fancy mold. Chill until firm.
 3. To serve, unmold onto a chilled serving platter; garnish with sprigs of parsley or watercress, and, if desired, surround mold with assorted ready-to-serve sausage or luncheon meat slices.
- 6 to 8 servings*

Pickle-Baked Bean Sandwich Filling

- 1 can (14 to 17 oz.) pork and beans with tomato sauce
- ¼ cup chili sauce
- ¼ cup chopped sweet pickles
- 2 tablespoons chopped onion
- ¼ cup prepared bacon-like pieces (a soy protein product)

1. Mix all ingredients.
 2. Serve hot or cold over toasted buttered buns. Or sandwich between slices of white, rye, or whole wheat bread.
- About 3 cups filling*

This meat loaf with its dill pickle center and topping of hamburger relish is equally delicious whether it is served hot or cold.

Peach 'n' Pickle Skillet Supper.

- ¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
- ¼ cup sweet pickle liquid
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 to 2 tablespoons prepared horseradish
- ½ teaspoon Worcestershire
- 1 can (12 oz.) luncheon meat
- 1 can (16 oz.) sliced peaches, drained
- ½ cup thin sweet pickle slices

1. Mix brown sugar, mustard, and salt together in a large skillet. Add tomato sauce, pickle liquid, lemon juice, horseradish, and Worcestershire; blend well. Bring to boiling. Cover and simmer 5 min.
 2. Cut luncheon meat into ¼-in. slices and put into the sauce. Turn the sliced peaches and pickles over meat. Spoon sauce over all. Cover and simmer until thoroughly heated.
- About 4 servings*

Pickled Biscuit Roll

- 4 cups all-purpose buttermilk biscuit mix
- 1 cup cold water
- 1 cup drained sweet pickle relish

1. Using the biscuit mix and water, prepare biscuit dough, following directions on package. Divide dough in half. Roll one half into a rectangle, about 14x11 in. Spread dough evenly with ½ cup of the relish. Roll up lengthwise beginning at one end, press long edge to seal, and put, sealed edge down, to one side of a large ungreased baking sheet. Repeat procedure with remaining dough and relish.

2. Bake at 450°F. 15 min., or until lightly browned.

3. Remove from oven to wire rack and cool bread on baking sheet about 10 min. Immediately transfer to a cutting board, cut diagonally into ¾-in. slices, and serve warm. If desired, accompany with a bowl of Creamy Vegetable-Cheese Spread.

2 biscuit rolls

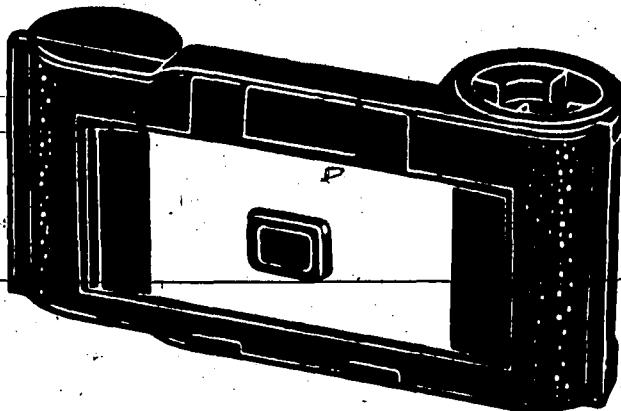

Creamy Vegetable-Cheese Spread

Put 8 oz. (1 pkg.) cream cheese, softened, into a bowl. Mix in ½ teaspoon grated lemon peel, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon seasoned pepper, and 2 tablespoons milk. When mixture is smooth, stir in ½ cup finely shredded carrot, ½ cup chopped green pepper, and ¼ cup thinly sliced green onion with tops.

About 1½ cups spread

How lovely the garden on our right.
The lawn is velvet, the flowers are bright.
And to our left the verdure spreads
Pristine around the annual beds.

So why is our garden so sad, alas,
Bereft of blossoms, with trampled grass?
The reason is simple and all too clear:
The neighbors' children are playing here.
—George Starbuck Galbraith

A suburbanite, disgusted at the high cost of vegetables, decided to do something about it. He told his grocer, "I'm going to start a garden this year. Pretty soon I won't be complaining about your high prices any more."

"That's right," said the experienced grocer. "And pretty soon you'll be wondering how I can afford to sell vegetables so cheap."

—Eudora T. Sabo

QUIPS AND QUOTES

Hiring relatives is called nepotism.
What the relatives do is called nepotism.
—Frank Tiger

Going over last month's canceled checks, a husband suddenly demanded of his wife, "What did you pay the doctor $10 for?"

"He painted my throat," she replied.

"Well," grumbled the husband, "I guess it's a good thing he didn't wallpaper it."
—Lane Olinghouse

One thing we know about the speed of light—it gets here early in the morning.
—Lucille J. Goodyear

The house for sale at the seashore was advertised with these words:

"Where the turf meets the surf."

A passer-by remarked, "The debris meets the sea."
—Dorothea Kent

Cookout Lookout

Because we hit the charcoal late,
We served our chicken semi-fried,
And placed beside it on each plate,
Potatoes black, but raw inside.
And now that all the food is gone,
And guests are long-departed souls,
My hostess eye alights upon
A glowing bed of perfect coals.
—Betty Billipp

The handwriting on the wall usually means you're in the men's room.

"You Can't Be Serious," said my husband

MINK OIL? A BEAUTY AID?

—He didn't know the complexion secret that I discovered.

You'd never guess my age if you met me in person. That's because my skin never "tells on me." I discovered an anti-aging secret in my own back yard. I think most women will be excited to know how it happened.

This is my story:

My husband owns and manages a mink farm where we live. Yet I taught him something that he, one of America's leading mink experts, had never realized.

And that is this: locked within the oil glands of this costly small creature is a complexion beauty secret more precious than even the beautiful coats that come from it.

Almost without exception, men who handle raw mink pelts have hands that are "young". Some of our employees have been with us 25 years and more. A great many are approaching retirement. Yet there is hardly one of them whose hands are not soft, smooth, un wrinkled.

None of them had those signs of aging—the thin, watery, tissue-y skin that is the usual sign of growing old.

I came to the conclusion that some substance in the body or skin of mink was being transferred to their hands during the processing procedures. Nothing else could account for their skin staying young while they grew old otherwise.

So I decided to try it if it was so good for hands. I must equally good on face and throat—areas where most women first note the resentful signs of the years.

So I managed to extract a small quantity of the mink skin oil and enlisted a friend with a friend. He compounded it into a balm base and I used it on my face, throat and hands for a couple of weeks.

Imagine my delight and amazement when my skin responded as I simply wouldn't have dreamed possible. Yes, my complexion became smooth, clear and vital. I felt like a young girl again—I really think I actually felt better all over to have recaptured this one important element of youth.

In just a few short weeks I knew I had really recovered a seeming miracle. The skin on my face had disappeared. My complexion was clean, vibrant, glowing-looking and with that freshness every woman wants.

So, I am surprised to find myself in the beauty business—directing the production of my precious complexion aid and offering it to women for the first time... so that every woman can have the first-hand excitement of skin that stays young at any age... Thanks to Mink Oil.

Yes, the secret I discovered from the mink workers is now yours. The precious skin oil that I used in my own skin is the basic wonder-worker in my ultimate beauty-aid—EM-LIN's Essential Creme.

You can find out for yourself how amazingly effective it is. Like enjoying an expensive beauty treatment in a posh saloon, let me send you a sample of your own home, without muss or fuss. And you don't risk a single penny to make the discovery that took me years to uncover.

For... the fantastic results that my friends and I have enjoyed must be duplicated for you. The price of your purchase is my guarantee. I am so positive EM-LIN's will work for you as it is doing for thousands of other grateful women, young and old, that if you are not totally delighted, you have an option to return my sample and I'll send you the purchase price for your purchase price. I'll even add to that the cost of the postage you've spent in ordering and writing me.

Order your first supply of EM-LIN's today. Send $5 cash, check or M.O. for 40 days supply. In no time, be on your way back to youthful-looking attractiveness. Billie Ann Bender, Room 6W60, 180 N. Michigan Blvd., Chicago, Illinois 60601

Now...Plastic Cream Revolutionizes Denture Wearing

Fixodent

For the first time, science now offers a unique plastic cream that holds false teeth in "uppers" and "lowers"—as they've never been held before. It forms an elastic membrane that actually holds dentures in place and gums away!

It's FIXODENT... a revolutionary discovery for daily home use. So different it's protected by U.S. Patent #3,008,988.

FIXODENT not only holds dentures firmer, it holds them more comfortably, too. It's so elastic you may bite harder, chew better, eat more with joy. You may even eat and enjoy apples, steak and corn-on-the-cob again.

The special pencil-point dispenser lets you put FIXODENT exactly where you need it. Resists coating over and gagging.

Just one application may last round-the-clock. Dentures that fit are essential to health. See your dentist regularly. Get Fixo-De-Use. FIXODENT Denture Adhesive Cream at all drug counters.
