War Costs Halved

By EUGENE V. RISHER
SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI)—Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird emerged from a meeting with President Nixon Monday and told newsmen that costs for conducting the Vietnam War had been reduced by approximately one half from a peak of $29 billion per year.

Although the defense secretary did not deal in precise figures, he said full funding for the Vietnam War which had amounted to about $29 billion in 1968 would be half that in fiscal 1971.

In addition, he pointed out that both American casualties and troop levels now were at the lowest level in Vietnam since the last of 1966. Under the schedule of withdrawals announced earlier by Nixon, U.S. troop levels, which peaked at 550,000 two years ago, will be at 384,000 by the end of the spring of 1971.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler announced following the meeting that Nixon will hold a nationally televised news conference Thursday in Los Angeles at 11 p.m. EDT.

Ziegler said the President wanted to hold a formal news conference during his 10-day working visit to the western White House in order to give regional reporters an opportunity to question him.

Nixon met with Laird and Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard for an hour and a half to discuss implementation of new defense management techniques. Laird claimed will save millions of dollars.

From now on weapons systems will be bought on a "buy before you buy basis," Laird said in a news conference following the meeting.

Liberal Dress Guide Adopted

Updated dress guidelines permitting mustaches and collar-length hair for boys, and slacks and pants suits for girls were approved for Twin Falls high school and junior high school students Monday night.

The District No. 411 school board, after listening to ideas of about 15 to 20 students and parents, approved guidelines for dress and appearance recommended by Assistant Superintendent George Staudacher.

Shortly before school opened last spring, the school administration suspended its dress code on a trial basis, substituting one recommended by the student government which specified only that dress be sanitary and not disruptive of the educational process.

Some of the students who spoke Monday night felt that code should be given further trial, claiming that its use (just before commencement) caused problems.

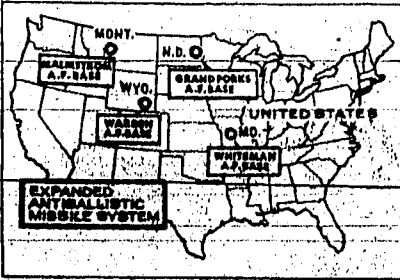

John Lawrence, Twin Falls High School principal, told the board, "We had more problems during this period than ever before," and added that "apparently dress and behavior go hand in hand."

He told the students present, however, that they had accomplished something, pointing to the liberal nature of the new guidelines, and said changes in styles, both of dress and appearance, had been taken into consideration.

According to one of the students, students last spring were just trying to see how much they could get away with, and would have fallen into line if brought up short. He said one student came to school wearing a pajama top, and another came wearing a wig.

The guidelines should help students determine for themselves just what would be considered disruptive, it was pointed out.

Mideast Hassel Goes On

By United Press International
The Israeli cabinet suddenly called off a special meeting scheduled for today to discuss drafting what was expected to be an affirmative, if qualified, reply to the U.S. plan for Middle East peace talks.

Government officials made the announcement shortly before the meeting was to have begun in Jerusalem at 11 a.m. (4 a.m. EDT). It was rescheduled for Wednesday. The officials said an explanatory statement would be issued later in the day.

Political sources reported the Israelis willing to accept the U.S. plan provided there are no preconditions and that there is a guarantee both Arab guerrillas and regular Arab forces will observe the standstill, with Egypt promising to freeze any buildup along the Suez Canal.

Israel's ambassador to the United States, Yitzhak Rabin, met Monday in Washington with U.S. Assistant Secretary of State Joseph J. Sisco to clarify these points and emerged saying the United Nations was not competent to police an effective truce.

Arab guerrilla leaders, having already said they will not honor any standstill, sent their aides to Arab world capitals overnight to explain their pledge to keep fighting regardless of what happens in the political arena or around the conference table.

Only Egypt and Jordan were invited among the front-line Arab nations, for they were the only two to accept the U.N. Security Council resolution of November, 1967.

House Rejects Secrecy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House agreed Monday to give up its secret voter-favored device since the first congress met in New York City in 1789—any time 20 members want the vote to be public.

The action was by voice vote with only a few audible objections as the House finally made its decision on the anti-secrecy issue that has been boiling for weeks.

The decision was so clear—and it promoted applause from both sides of the aisle—that the issue did not even go to one of the non-record teller votes against which the anti-secrecy move has been directed.

The teller vote is one in which members are recorded for or against as they pass the center aisle of the House. Under the provision adopted Monday, any 20 House members could demand that those taking part be recorded permanently as either for or against, and that a record of the vote be made public.

The change was sponsored by Rep. Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., a nine-term member, who said Congressional secrecy, along with the Vietnam War, must share the blame for current disaffection of youth.

"We say whether they go to war. We regulate taxes. We legislate against crime. But we don't tell the people how we vote," O'Neill said. "The thing I don't understand is how the Congress has got away with it all of these years."

Court 'Pin-Up'

A Twin Falls youth victoriously stripped pieces of tape from his hair Monday afternoon and left the Twin Falls County Judicial Building, his long curls flying.

The boy, accused last October of illegal sale of LSD, had just been excused from further court action in the case against him. Judge Theron Ward ruled after a day-long hearing there was "reasonable-doubt" about the youth's guilt in the case and ruled he should not be brought under the purview of the youth rehabilitation act.

During the hearing the boy sat quietly with his attorney — his hair tightly confined in a mod — but only mid-neck-length — hairdo.

When the judge announced his decision, the boy went to meet his friends, stripping the tape out and finger-combing his longer-than-shoulder-length hair.

Rock Concert Erupts

CHICAGO (UPI)—A free rock concert "to bridge the generation gap" deteriorated into gunfire, fights with police and burning autos Monday when the featured rock-music group didn't appear. Bands of youths roamed the Loop, breaking windows and looting.

At least three persons were shot—it was not clear by whom—and 148 arrested and more than 60 injured; many of them policemen.

The rock concert, sponsored by the Chicago Park District, was to have begun in Grant Park at 4 p.m. Monday—the beginning of the afternoon rush hour. While others were making their way home to family, dinner and television, young people, it was thought, would be grooving to the amplified rock of Sly and the Family Stone. And more than 50,000 turned out.

Four o'clock came and Sly and the Family Stone were still out of sight. Other rock groups played, marijuana cigarettes were lit and some girls shed their blouses and bras. A man danced in his underwear. The crowd, demanding Sly — one of the groups that played at the Woodstock Festival — pressed forward toward the bandshell. Police set up a line in front of the bandshell then began to move the crowd back.

Roofs and bottles began landing among policemen in front of the bandshell. "They're murdering us here with bricks and bottles," a policeman told central communications shortly after 5 p.m.

High Ceilings Urged

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin, trying to head off efforts to set a lower ceiling, urged House members Monday to approve a $35,000 per acre per crop limit on federal payments to farmers.

Ceilings any lower than that, the Secretary wrote every House member's office, could force some cotton growers out of business.

Hardin said the House Agriculture Committee approved bill extending current price support and crop control programs for three years had his endorsement "without reservation." The measure, which contains the $35,000 per acre ceiling, is scheduled for House action later this week.

Earlier Monday an aide to Rep. Silvio O. Conte, R-Mass., said he would try to push through a $20,000 limit on payments to farmers on the same three major crops — cotton, wheat and feed grains.

Hardin asserted "this would be detrimental to the U.S. consumer, the textile industry and producers of many other agricultural commodities" as well as American exports.

Idaho Political Battles Warm

By United Press International
With the primary election one week away, the five gubernatorial candidates are picking up the campaign tempo — one with a little assist from the airlines.

Spokesmen for Air West and Transmag credited the interest of Gov. Don Samuelson for expanded air traffic facilities tying northern and southern Idaho together. The airlines announced cooperative scheduling between Lewiston and Coeur d'Alene Monday, a move Samuelson said would "offer better air traffic service for the people of Idaho."

Rep. Vernon Ravenscroft, D-Tuttle, one of the three Democratic gubernatorial candidates, urged the State Land Board to "follow through" with a proposed crackdown on dredge mining in northern Idaho.

Ravenscroft said two mining operators from Montana had moved into unpatented claims on Sherlock Creek, a tributary of the St. Joe River, as well as areas below St. Joe Lake.

Priority to Ravenscroft's announcement, Land Commissioner Gordon Trombley asked the attorney general's office for an opinion on whether the state can control the dredge mining if it is done on federal land, as in this case.

In Boise Republican gubernatorial candidate Dick Smith urged creation of graduate programs in education and business at Boise State College. Smith

Red Gunboat Sunk

SEOUL (UPI) — South Korean navy gunners and air force jets sank a 60-ton North Korean gunboat early today with the apparent loss of all men aboard, the Defense Ministry said.

The engagement off the eastern coast began late Monday on the 17th anniversary of the signing of the armistice that ended the Korean War of 1950-53.

The North Korean vessel was sighted and fired upon by shore batteries. It returned the fire before fleeing north from Yongjuk, 155 miles southeast of Seoul.

The ministry said the boat was apparently trying to land Communist agents.

About six hours later the boat was sighted off Sokcho, 95 miles east of here, by South Korean sailors who summoned the air force.

Air force jets pursued the ship as it fled on a zig-zag course, and sank it with rockets about seven miles south of the demarcation line, ministry sources said. The ministry said a South Korean civilian was injured by a stray bullet from the boat.

Jerome Theater Manager Charged

JEROME — The manager of the Frontier Theater here, free on bond after his arrest for "harmful" promotional pictures "used in front of the theater, charged Tuesday he is being harassed because of "adult-only" films the theater shows.

DeWayne Foust, 205 East Ave. E. was arrested on a complaint signed by Mrs. J. B. Thomason, Jerome, charging him with exhibiting or disseminating material harmful to minors.

S. A. Kolman, Jerome County prosecutor, said Mrs. Thomason filed the complaint last Thursday after she and her daughters noticed what they considered an offensive picture in the theater display window.

Mr. Foust was arrested by the sheriff's officers and posted $305 bond. Jerome County Probate Judge Russell C. Shuler held a preliminary hearing which, he said, probably sometime next month.

Tuesday, Mr. Foust said the picture in question had been "stolen" from his display window and said authorities had refused to return it to him.

Mr. Kolman said the picture had been removed by officers "to protect the health of the community," and that it is being held as evidence in the case.

"I will be glad to return it to Mr. Foust when the case has been resolved," Mr. Kolman said.

Another incident of harassment, according to Mr. Foust, concerns officers who have asked to be admitted to the theater — to check on ages of customers, Mr. Foust says.

"I check ID cards on anybody at all questioners," the theater manager said. "And I told them they were perfectly welcome to have somebody stand with me here at the door any time, but I didn't want 'them' inside bothering my customers."

Mr. Kolman said the complaint on which Mr. Foust was arrested has nothing to do with ages of customers, but only deals with promotional material he used.

T.F. Postmaster Resigns

Fred Sanger, a 34-year veteran of the United States Postal Service and Twin Falls Postmaster for the past seven years, retires from that position Friday.

Mr. Sanger was informed Tuesday morning by senior postal officials that Lloyd Libert, assistant postmaster, will be named officer in charge of the Twin Falls Post Office.

Mr. Sanger said a new postmaster probably will not be named until the Postal Reform Bill clears Congress.

Mr. Sanger plans to do "a lot of things that making a living has always interfered with." He plans to hunt and fish and study the history of the Magic Valley area. He will study area plants and flowers.

He and his wife plan to tour surrounding states with a camper and trailer.

Mr. Sanger has lived in Twin Falls since 1911. He attended Twin Falls schools and studied three years at the University of Idaho pre-law before working for the Twin Falls Post Office.

Mr. Sanger began his career as a substitute clerk-carrier. He was superintendent of mails before accepting his present position.

He says changes in mail transportation are the most significant improvement he saw during his 34 years with the department. Most important was reducing railroad shipment to increase air traffic.

Sectionalized Zip Code system also had helped. Locally, the addition of a station in the Lynwood Shopping Center was one of the greatest improvements, he said.

During the past two years, mail volume in Twin Falls more than doubled primarily because of mail handled for associated offices in the sectional center.

Mr. Sanger is a member of the Twin Falls County Historical Society, the Idaho Outdoor Association, the Elks, Vandal Boosters and the Twin Falls County Draft Board.

He said his association with the Post Office and the people in Twin Falls has been pleasant. "I've enjoyed working with people of the area."

Politics

To insure each political candidate's right to reply, the Times-Idaho again will not print last-minute charges or issues raised the day before Tuesday's primary election.

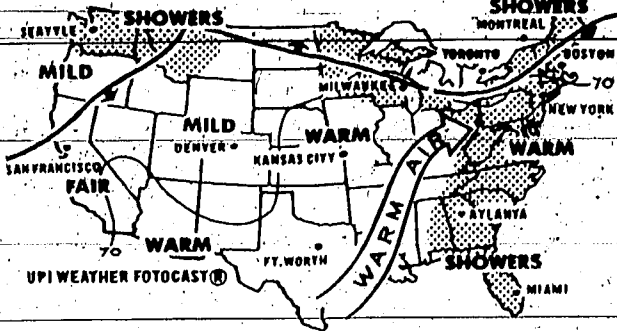

The deadline for political advertising will be 4 p.m. Thursday, in keeping with this policy.

School Paving Bid Let

Bids for paving of drive-ways at Harrison and Morningside Schools were opened and a contract awarded to the Boymer Paving Co. at a special meeting of the Twin Falls School Board of Trustees Monday evening.

Engineering problems involving the paving of the drive-ways were discussed and the board members decided to refer the problems to an engineer before the contractor begins his work.

Needed roofing repairs at Morningside and Twin Falls High Schools was brought to the board's attention by Supt. Ernest Ragland. The members decided to seek advice from an architect before calling for bids for partial repairs or complete re-roofing of the buildings.

Teaching positions were awarded to Larry D. Nelson and Lorraine B. Haskell. Mrs. Haskell will teach sixth grade at Lincoln School and Mr. Nelson will teach industrial arts at O'Leary Junior High.

Four teaching vacancies, one in orchestra, two in special education, and one in algebra at O'Leary Junior High, are still open.

Several items on the agenda were approved by the members and these include the building of a chain link fence along Second Avenue North by Lincoln School and along Second Avenue East at Bickel School.

Guidelines for student dress and personal appearance at Twin Falls junior high and high schools were approved Monday night by the school board. They are:

Mall Work Progresses

Electrical and irrigation underground lines in the downtown redevelopment project in Twin Falls will be completed next week, according to Ed Peterson, architect with CTA Architects.

All storm sewer sub-drains, manholes, etc. in the First Security Bank block, have been completed, and although progress on the project has been slow to this point, Mr. Peterson said, the next few weeks will begin reconstruction on Main Avenue.

New parking areas have been metered to the extent possible. The city did not have enough meters in stock to complete the job and stalls not metered are being leased on a monthly basis.

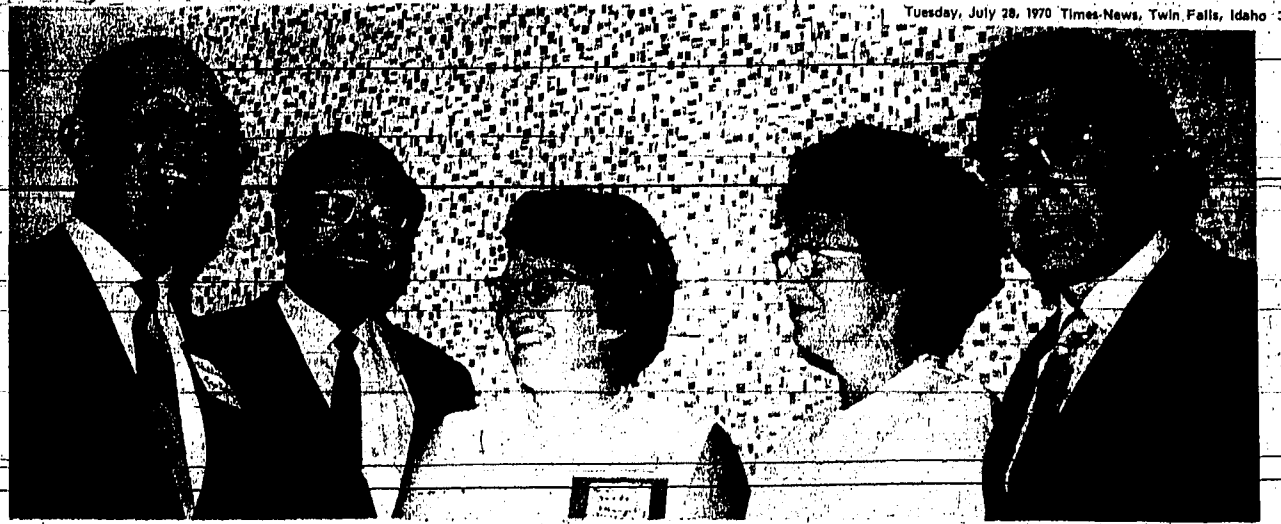

The Retail Merchants Association reports the promotion committee met last week with 10 members present. Members of the Automobile Dealers Association drew to select the firm which will provide the car which will be given away during the downtown development project. Abbie Urquigon Buick Oldsmobile was drawn and an Opel Kadet was selected. The car is on display now at the Bank of Idaho and will be moved to other areas as locations become available.

Downtown merchants are continuing to register people for the "Millionaire for a Day" drawing to be held Saturday. The next promotion will be "Queen for a Day" Aug. 2 through Aug. 15.

Members of the Downtown Coordinating Committee report they have met with Police Chief Frank Barnett, who has provided motorcycle patrolling of alleys in the redevelopment area. A follow-up meeting with Joan Milar, city manager, will be held to discuss adequate signing of alleyways and parking places.

Beginning this Thursday, meetings will be held every Thursday at 4:30 p. m. at the Rogerson Hotel Roundup Room with city representatives, Nelson and Miller Construction Co., and CTA architects to discuss project progress. Everyone is welcome to attend the informal meetings set up by the coordinating committee.

REPUBLICAN OUTLOOK for the primary and general elections came under discussion following a "Meet the candidates" tea Monday afternoon in Twin Falls. Among those participating in the meeting were William Lanting, Twin Falls County representative and Speaker of the House, who acted as master of ceremonies; John Barker, state senator; Buhl; Mrs. Jack Murphy, wife of the Idaho lieutenant governor, who represented her husband during the tea; Mrs. Lanting and Bill McRoberts, Buhl, representative from District 24, all from left. Candidates from the state and county level attended the meeting sponsored by the Twin Falls County Republican Women.

Rodeo Plans Studied

Four members of the 1971 National High School Rodeo Board of Directors will spend Saturday and Sunday in Fargo, N. D., observing operations of the 1970 rodeo program.

Chairman Armour Anderson said Monday. The board of directors for the 1971 National High School Rodeo, which will be held at the Filer Fairgrounds, recently was selected from the Twin Falls area.

The members are Mr. Anderson, chairman; Gene Hull, co-chairman; Bob Harvey, Gordon G. L. S. M. A. N. N., Jim Rosenbaum, Jim Olson, Warren Barry, Harold Hove and Ray Rostrom, Twin Falls; and Tom Shouse, Filer.

Mr. Barry will fly Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Shouse and Mr. Rostrom to North Dakota for the 1970 rodeo. Jim Sutton, a stock contractor from South Dakota, has invited the group to be his guests Saturday while they are observing rodeo facilities and operations.

Mr. Shouse will study rodeo corrals, bucking shoots, stock animals and their feed. Mr. Rostrom will study publicity, parade and reception procedures, and selection and showing of the queen candidates. Mr. Anderson will review the overall budget, expenditures, and gate receipts and concession stand procedures. Mr. Barry will survey problems in housing and reservations the 1970 rodeo officials have experienced.

Nearly 600 young people from 24 states are competing in the 1970 rodeo. Mr. Anderson said he feels that this number will increase for the 1971 rodeo.

Twin Falls Pioneer Drug Store Closing

A long-time Twin Falls business will be closing its doors within the next 30 days, Ralph Tullock, owner of Wiley Drug Co. announced Monday. He announced the sale of the prescription portion of the business to Crowley Drug Co. and said the remainder of the store, including all merchandise and building fixtures, will be sold within the next three to four weeks.

Volunteers Training At Center

Volunteer workers for the Child Development Center are participating in a two-week training session. Dr. Fred McCabe, psychologist, said Monday. Volunteers will spend three hours each day learning general background and purpose of the agency. Also, they learn basic training techniques for child development, intellectual development and learning theory, and teaching children self-help skills and social development.

These volunteer workers will aid professional and para-professional staff members. The center still is looking for volunteer personnel. Those interested should contact the center for an interview.

Mr. Tullock blamed the Urban Renewal project, which calls for the demolishing of his present building at 125 Shoshone St. N., for forcing his closure and said, "There just isn't any place for us to move."

Although relocation assistance is provided by the Urban Renewal agency, Mr. Tullock said in his case nothing could be found and he is forced to close up. As for his own future plans, he said he has not made any, but will probably work as a pharmacist for some other firm. Presently, Wiley Drug Co. employs two women in addition to Mr. Tullock and his wife.

Mr. Tullock has been associated with Wiley Drug Co. the past 41 years, having begun work there in 1929 as manager under the ownership of the late George Wiley, pioneer Twin Falls druggist. In 1945 Mr. Tullock purchased half interest and, on the death of Mr. Wiley, in 1947, purchased the remainder and has owned and operated the concern for 23 years.

Mr. Wiley operated a drug store in Twin Falls in 1908, with his store located in the old Perrine Hotel moving to the present location in 1928.

Insects have the largest number of species of any creature, with more than 1 million identified.

GOP Women 'Meet The Candidates' at T.F. Tea

All four candidates in the two Twin Falls county primary election races and one of those in the state race for Superintendent of Public Instruction addressed Twin Falls Republican Women in a Monday afternoon "meet the candidates" tea.

Other Republican candidates, running unopposed, were introduced for brief comments, including Secretary of State Pete Cenarrusa and three legislators seeking re-election. William Lanting, state representative from District 24, was master of ceremonies for the 2 p. m. meeting in the Rogerson Roundup Room.

Robert Galley, incumbent prosecutor, and his opponent Leon Smith appealed for party support. Mr. Galley invited members to examine his record and stressing his office has had good cooperation from all law enforcement officials in the county.

Mr. Smith noted both men seem to be seeking the same goal, but the differences rest in the method of achieving it. Merle Leonard, Filer, and Marion Ambrose, Buhl, both seeking the county commissioner post being vacated by Morris W. Carlson, first district, outlined their qualifications for office. Both are seeking county office for the first time.

Boy Sentenced

Gaylen Lee Carson, 18, Twin Falls, began serving a 30-day sentence Monday for disorderly conduct.

He was found guilty of the charge Monday in Twin Falls Police Court. Steve Whitehead, 23, Twin Falls, who was arrested in company with Carson about 2:45 a. m. Monday, forfeited a $50 bond in police court.

Welfare Costs May Double

Cost of welfare in this area can be expected to double under President Nixon's proposed welfare program, David Humphrey, local director of the Department of Public Assistance office in Twin Falls, said Tuesday.

He said about eight per cent of Idaho's population will be eligible for assistance under the new program, just about doubling the number of people who can qualify in Twin Falls County. At present, 430 families are receiving assistance in this county at a total cost of $78,436 per month.

Mr. Humphrey said he feels the proposed bill is a good one, however.

"The welfare program has needed an overhaul for many years," he said. "The present system was set up for the 1930's and it is long overdue for revamping." Nixon's family assistance plan would broaden the base of public assistance, giving a basic income to the family even if the father is in the home, according to Mr. Humphrey. Under the present system, the father often deserts his family to enable it to be eligible for public assistance in order to live. The new program, however, will encourage the family to stay together.

Mr. Humphrey pointed out that the "people of Twin Falls County are generally motivated to improve themselves." The average person receives public assistance for only 18 months. This is due mainly to the work of the DPA, which is trying to provide opportunities for training to the welfare recipients.

In addition to the training program, the DPA has several other programs in which it provides child care, foster home care, adoption, food stamps, and homemakers.

Youngsters Compete in City Playground Meet

Approximately 50 children competed in a Twin Falls City Park Track Meet Friday afternoon at Sunrise Park. Bob Donnelley, City Parks Director said today.

Each of six city parks brought participants who frequented their park facilities daily and who had previously competed in individual park track meets.

The Question

This philosophical question, to which there is no answer, reveals at least part of the difficulty in trying to pay off descendants of individuals wronged in the past...

However, some people seem to believe price tags can be placed on everything. The United States Senate, for example, by a vote of 78 to 8, has approved a payoff to the aboriginal citizens of Alaska...

In 1867, the United States paid the Tsar of Russia $7 million for Alaska, and in 1884, Congress declared that the natives "shall not be disturbed in the possession of any land actually in their use or occupation or now claimed by them."

The endless ramifications of the difficulties of doling out belated justice to descendants of peoples robbed, murdered, duped, enslaved and segregated a hundred years or so after the crime would challenge all the wisdom of Solomon and in truth may be insoluble.

To give the 55,000 Alaskan "natives" such whopping monetary grants would contrast sharply with the treatment being given small groups of Indians now laying claim to Alcatraz island and some portions of Northern California.

The course of wisdom might well be to forget the past and concentrate all the energies and generosity of the present population on justice for all from now on.

Caution's Touch

The California Assembly has voted 59 to 13 to give 18-year-olds the vote, along with all the other responsibilities and joys of adulthood...

Proponents said the proposed constitutional amendment was a statement of faith in young people. Opponents held that eighteen is not sufficiently mature to handle legal contracts, to incur debt, marry, or run for elective office.

Federal law now awaiting a decision of the Supreme Court would give 18-year-olds the vote but would defer legal adulthood in other areas.

If approved by the California senate and by the voters in the November election, the measure would take effect Jan. 1, 1972, and the new voters would be able to cast their ballots in the 1972 presidential election.

Governor Reagan indicated he probably would not veto the proposal if it reaches his desk.

although he did say he had been leaning against reducing the minimum voting age. He also commented that if the voting age is reduced "full citizenship" should go along with it.

Reagan did not comment specifically on the alcohol exception but some lawmakers said anyone mature enough to handle other adult responsibilities should be entitled to drink.

Logic supports full and complete adult responsibility accompany the right to vote whereas there is no logical basis for the oft-heard argument that anyone old enough to fight is old enough to vote.

Very few citizens believe that all youngsters at eighteen are mature enough to shoulder all the burdens of adult life. Few at that age today have completed their education and are able to support themselves.

As for the claim that granting the vote to 18-year-old undergraduates will remove one cause of campus friction, it can only be observed that in no case has the lack of voting power been listed as a cause of confrontation.

MR. SPECTATOR

He Has A Thought

An interesting note was received the other day from D. L. Shaw. He addressed it to the Forum. We really don't think it was forum material but it is just too good to put in Basket 13 so Mr. Spectator will pass it on to you in today's column.

"I intend to run for commissioner on the Twin Falls Highway District Board when a vacancy exists and I would like to make the following campaign promises:

"If elected, I promise that Road E-2800 south from the Airport will not be graded once every two years, not once every year, not once every six months but will be graded immediately and paved soon thereafter.

"I furthermore promise I will be willing to promise anything to get your vote."

Story came out of Boise which is hard to believe. In fact it's hard to believe it is really necessary in Idaho.

A Law Enforcement Commission meeting in Boise authorized the go-ahead to hire a riot control planner for Idaho.

The position, which is under the merit system, will be financed by state and federal funds. The planner will work with college administrators, faculties and students.

So, Mr. Spectator points out, if you have any real ideas on how to start a riot or two in Idaho, here's the job you have been waiting for!

Our face is red! On Sunday we ran a request from Corky Jones asking for addresses of servicemen so she could write to them. Well, everything was fine on the page proof but when the item came off the press it said: "My name is Corky Jones and my address is..." and that's where it ended! Her address was a Postoffice Box in Buhl. Sorry about that but we are sure that if you want to write her after re-reading the Sunday article—The Postoffice Box address will reach her.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Much is made of the weakness of the Lon Nol government in Cambodia. And many of the comments may be true.

There is a deep-seated loyalty to kings and princes that my Asian friends say we Westerners will never understand. Let us therefore measure Sihanouk's strength today as best we can.

What is immediately clear is that Sihanouk has not been able to organize a united front. All of the key cabinet members whose backgrounds are known to this reporter have been in the North Vietnamese-Viet Cong Communist underground, associated with Communist Chinese networks or with the Communist Khmers Rouges guerrilla movement.

Sihanouk's government, was accused by Sihanouk a few years back of being behind an organization whose aim was to obtain power in a Maoist Cambodia.

Sihanouk once described Hu Nim, his new minister of information, as the "most dissolute and dishonest of the small handful of persons who aid China."

PAUL HARVEY

Timber? The man with the saw is cutting a tree labeled 'SCHOOL SEGREGATION'. A sign nearby says 'LEGAL TECHNICALITIES'. The man is shouting 'Timber!'.

Chiu Seng has been given the post of minister charged with special missions in the Sihanouk cabinet. Three years ago Sihanouk dismissed him as minister of national economy and accused him of complicity in subversive activities with Chinese Communist elements.

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Miscarriage

Dear Dr. Thosteson: How long should one wait to become pregnant again after having a miscarriage (at 10 weeks)? I subsequently had a D. and C. My obstetrician told me he advises all his patients to wait until after having three normal monthly periods.

Avoid candy, starch foods (spaghetti, macaroni, pastry), fat, fried foods of any kind. A couple of slices of bread a day belong in your diet, but don't spread them too thick. Skip desserts, or eat fruit or gelatine. Avoid cream sauces. Some potato is okay, but never fried, never creamed, and with very little butter.

Fluoridate

I should know better than to do what I am about to do because there are more jealousies among some medical scientists than among most Hollywood starlets.

nonfluoridated areas reveal no such hazard. Now, I am always happy to hear from you but before you forward the contrary opinion of some "expert" let me suggest an evaluation of his expertise—compared to the consensus of the American Dental Assn. and the U.S. Public Health Service.

ANDREW TULLY

The Hearings

WASHINGTON — Now is the best time to say something about the public hearings of the President's Campus Unrest Commission because the jazz they're producing threatens to become tiresome.

finding that 40 lives were lost and $21 million in damage caused by nearly 6000 bombings across the country between Jan. 1, 1969 and mid-April of this year.

But of course those who died in the bombings were ordinary people, not college students. The implication seems to be that those 40 people are not quite as dead as the six students shot at Kent State and Jackson State.

As for the war issue, I must agree with the testimony of Sen. Hugh Scott, Senate Republican leader, even while acknowledging that he did not arrive at the hearings to attack his own administration.

As for the war issue, I must agree with the testimony of Sen. Hugh Scott, Senate Republican leader, even while acknowledging that he did not arrive at the hearings to attack his own administration.

Well, Nixon can take care of himself, but I wish those eggheads who run our colleges would hire a clutch of psychiatrists to shrink some student heads. They could look into the suggestion of President Sirhan Agnew of San Francisco State College that the biggest cause of campus unrest is utter boredom.

As I said, the tedious hogwash is really pouring out of those hearings. For example, how about this from Teddy Kennedy: "The most destructive campus violence has not been student violence, it has been official violence."

There are, as Hayakawa noted, too many students who stay in college merely to escape the draft. Some of those are there, whom they should be in vocational schools, because of what Sirhan Agnew has described as the "strange madness" of college officials in admitting "students" on the basis of racial, ethnic and socio-economic criteria.

"We MUST get you two together with our daughter and son-in-law—you have the same DEMOGRAPHIC PROFILE!"

Who else wants to beat the high cost of being in the hospital?

Board Chairman H. H. Davis, M.D., and the Board of Directors of Physicians Mutual Insurance Company—"the doctors company" of Omaha, Nebraska since 1902, now invite you to enjoy the low-cost extra-cash benefits of their Doctors Hospital Plan.

An important message from the Board of Directors of "the doctors company"
...Physicians Mutual Insurance Company of Omaha, Nebraska

"Let our policyholders tell you in their own words about The Doctors Hospital Plan...the plan that pays cash direct to you, on top of any benefits from ordinary hospital insurance or even Medicare..."

"Thanks for the benefit check for $228.56... When I bought this policy, I was in hopes that I would never need to use it. But it turned out to be one of the best investments that I ever made."
—Samuel E. Dunlap (Oregon)

"Thank you very much for my check in the amount of $414.28. It was very welcome as I have been away from work for some time."
—Violet Neumann (Illinois)

"This is to acknowledge your check in the amount of $600.00 for my husband's four weeks stay in the hospital with a heart attack. I want you to know how much we appreciate your fast service."
—Mrs. Hubert L. Newberry (Kentucky)

"I would like to thank you for my stay in the hospital... I am a nurse and I have recommended your hospital insurance to many of my patients."
—Martha Louise Baird (Texas)

"I received the insurance check for $302.00. I was real pleased and I sure could use it."
—Ethel C. Fosse (Iowa)

"I received your check in the amount of $492.84... You will like to know that as a result of your favorable attention, you will receive at least three applications from her friends for the same policy that my mother has."
—Milton J. Rappoport (Ohio)

Now for only $1, you and your family can enroll right from this page for all this extra cash protection...

$100 a week if you are hospitalized

$75 a week if your wife is hospitalized

$50 a week if a covered child is hospitalized

$350 a week if you and your wife are injured and hospitalized

PLUS 50% increased extra cash for cancer, heart attack, or stroke

Act now—this Special Limited Enrollment expires August 2, 1970

If you, too, would like to collect extra cash when hospital emergency strikes, here is your golden opportunity to enroll now in The Doctors Hospital Plan... and for only $1!

All you do is choose the plan at right that suits you best, then mail your completed Enrollment before this Special Limited Enrollment expires. There's no red tape... no age limit... you don't even see a company representative!

You Get All This "Extra Cash" Coverage

On all plans, you are eligible for "extra cash" benefits from the very first day of hospitalization for a covered accident or sickness—and these benefits are paid for as long and for as many times as hospitalization occurs, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you choose.

New accidents are covered immediately, the same day your policy is issued. After your policy is 30 days old, new sicknesses that begin thereafter are covered. There are only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the All-Family Plan or Husband-Wife Plan, in which case maternity is covered after your policy is in force for 10 months), war, military service, mental disorder, intoxication, use of narcotics, or conditions covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers' Liability Laws.

You are free to go to any lawfully operated hospital of your own choice, except only nursing homes; convalescent, extended-care, or self-care units of hospitals; or Federal hospitals.

Plus 50% Increased Benefits

On all plans, you get in addition a 50% increase in your "extra cash" benefits if you or a covered member of your family is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis, and coronary occlusion) or stroke (apoplexy).

Double "Extra Cash" Benefits

If you choose the All-Family Plan or Husband-Wife Plan, you also get double "extra cash" benefits—$350.00 a week—when you and your wife are both injured and hospitalized at the same time.

Important: Here is a real "plus" if you have been told that anyone in your family is "uninsurable" because of chronic ailments in the past that are likely to recur. On all plans, these pre-existing conditions will be covered after your policy has been in force for only one year.

Your Maximum Cash Benefits Actually Grow Each Month

Here's a wonderful "plus" benefit you enjoy, no matter which plan you choose: When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000, depending upon the plan you select. This is known as the "Aggregate of Benefits" in insurance language—what we call your maximum cash benefits.

Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first monthly premium) is actually added to your maximum—your maximum grows each month! Similarly, when you have claims, your benefits are subtracted from the maximum.

You Also Enjoy The Security Of Life-Long Protection

In addition to all these valuable benefits, The Doctors Hospital Plan also offers you this important additional benefit: For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify, or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal or modify all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid.

Even If You're Over 65, You Can Enjoy "Extra Cash" Benefits

Even though you're eligible for Medicare, it will not pay all expenses when you're hospitalized. You may want "extra cash" to help out. And now you can enroll in the "extra cash" plan of your choice without any qualifications simply by completing the Enrollment Form below. And if you're over 65 now, or when you become 65, the following modest monthly additional rate applies: female on All-Family or Husband-Wife Plan, only $2.50; female on One-Parent Family or Individual Plan, only $3.50; male on all plans, only $3.50.

Backed By "The Doctors Company"

As important as all these valuable benefits, the ease of enrollment, and the low cost is this vital fact: Your policy is backed by the resources, integrity, and reputation of Physicians Mutual Insurance Company—"the doctors company" since 1902. For years, it specialized in health insurance for physicians, surgeons, and dentists exclusively, and its Board of Directors is still composed entirely of respected members of the medical, dental, and insurance professions. Headquartered in Omaha, Nebraska, where it is incorporated and licensed, Physicians Mutual today serves over half a million Americans in all walks of life throughout the United States direct by mail. You may judge the high caliber of the company from the fact that Dunn's Insurance Reports, one of the leading insurance industry authorities in the nation, gives Physicians Mutual its highest policyholders' rating of "A Plus (Excellent)."

Answers to 15 Important Questions About The Doctors Hospital Plan

- 1. What is The Doctors Hospital Plan? It is a low-cost insurance plan that pays "extra cash" direct to you when a covered accident or illness hospitalizes you or a similarly insured member of your family.
- 2. By "extra cash," do you mean I can collect even if I have other insurance? Yes. The Plan pays you tax-free cash over and above any benefits from other insurers, even Medicare. Understandably, you can have only one like policy with our company.
- 3. Why do I need The Doctors Hospital Plan in addition to my regular insurance or Medicare? Check out your ordinary hospital insurance won't cover everything. Neither does Medicare, fine as it is, and it doesn't pay a cent toward your expenses at home.
- 4. If I or a covered member of my family goes into the hospital, when do benefits begin? You're eligible for cash benefits from the very first day of hospital confinement for a covered accident or illness—for as long and for as many times as hospitalization occurs, up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) for the plan you choose.
- 5. How much in cash benefits can I receive? Under the Individual Plan, the maximum benefit is $5,000 a week ($14.28 daily) when you are hospitalized. Under the Husband-Wife Plan, the maximum benefit is $7,500 a week ($14.28 daily) when you are hospitalized; $5 weekly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized.
- 6. Why is The Doctors Hospital Plan almost like having an extra "bank account"? When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is known as your "Aggregate of Benefits." Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first monthly premium) is actually added to your maximum. When you have claims, benefits are subtracted from your "account."
- 7. Does this plan cover any hospital? You are covered in any lawfully operated hospital of your choice, except only nursing homes; convalescent, extended-care, or self-care units of hospitals; or Federal hospitals.
- 8. How do I report a claim? With your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. When you wish to report a claim, simply send the Claim Form directly to the company.
- 9. Are there any conditions that aren't covered? Only these exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the All-Family Plan or Husband-Wife Plan), war, military service, mental disorder, intoxication, use of narcotics, or any condition covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers' Liability Laws.
- 10. What if somebody in my family has had a health problem that may recur again? Pre-existing conditions are covered after your policy has been in force only one year.
- 11. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify? No. The only qualification is that you complete and mail the Enrollment Form by the deadline date.
- 12. When does my policy go into force? It becomes effective immediately, the same day you receive your Enrollment Form. Now accidents are covered on that date. After your policy is 30 days old, new sicknesses that begin thereafter are covered. And under the All-Family Plan and Husband-Wife Plan, childbirth or pregnancy or any consequence thereof is covered after your policy is in force for 10 months.
- 13. Can I drop out any time I wish? Can you drop me? You are free to drop your policy, if you choose, on any renewal date. However, for as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify, or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal or modify all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid.
- 14. How much does my first month cost? How much do I pay after that? Regardless of your age or the size of your family, your first month costs only $1.00. Thereafter, if you're under 65, you pay only $3.95 a month for the Individual Plan; only $6.45 for the Husband-Wife Plan; only $7.95 for the All-Family Plan; only $5.95 for the One-Parent Family Plan. If you're 65 or older, there is a modest increase in premiums—see the special note above.
- 15. Should I enroll right now or wait till the deadline date? Frankly, you have nothing to gain by waiting. You could actually "lose" because an unexpected accident or illness could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Your best bet is to "enroll" right now.

Idaho State University. On the same date Davis went to $28,300.

Dr. John Barnes, president of Boise State College, does not receive any housing and did not receive a salary boost. He remains at $28,500. On Sept. 1, 1969, Barnes was given a car allowance of $180, raising his salary to $28,680, but it was dropped back this July.

Dr. Jerry Duggert, president of Lewis-Clark Normal School, went from $17,500 to $19,500 in July. Winston Taylor, superintendent of St. Anthony's Training School, was raised from $16,000 to $18,000, while Edward W. Rony, superintendent of the School for the Deaf and Blind at Gooding, was also boosted from $15,500 to $17,000.

Whoever is elected governor this November, however, will be the highest paid official under a measure passed by the last session of the legislature. The governor will receive $30,000, the lieutenant governor $7,000, the attorney general and superintendent of public instruction $18,000 and the secretary of state, auditor and treasurer $17,000.

State officials who were given raises this year and who received more than $10,000 are: Gov. Don Samuelson, $10,500; Don Schlechte, director of the Legislative Council, who went to $17,724 from $16,878; Eugene Rutledge, executive director, Nuclear Energy Commission, $20,000 from $18,900; R. Keith Higginson, director, Department of Water Administration, $18,000 from $17,204; Thomas Terrill, director, Public Employees Retirement System, $19,548 from $17,724; and Dr. Robert R. Lee, director, Water Resource Board, $20,160 from $19,200.

Officials who have not received salary boosts so far this year but who already passed the $17,500 mark are Dr. Terrell Carver, State Health Administrator, $20,760; George Murphy, director, State Personnel Commission, who was hired in January at $17,724; State Finance Commissioner John D. Silva, $19,500; and Director of Corrections Raymond May, hired in April, 1969, at $18,500.

Bar Will Check Court Nominees

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The judgment of a candidate's fellow lawyers. The Nixon Administration, which lost two appointees in Senate fights, agreed Monday to give leaders of the organized bar a voice in selecting Supreme Court nominees.

Attorney General John N. Mitchell disclosed that he will seek the opinion of the American Bar Association's Committee on the Federal Judiciary before recommending any nominee to the President.

Bonn, Moscow Seek Nonaggression Pact

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union and West Germany, a genial beginning behind them, got down to difficult details today in their second negotiating session on a nonaggression pact.

Foreign Ministers Walter Scheel of West Germany and Andrei A. Gromyko of the Soviet Union met in the revolutionary splendor of Spiridonov Palace, a Foreign Ministry reception house a few blocks from the Kremlin, to begin detailed discussion of treaty drafts.

Controversial political issues such as whether the two Germans can ever be reunited, added to the difficulty of the negotiations.

As evidence of what a West German spokesman termed "good personal atmosphere" at the initial session Monday, Gromyko showed his guests through the palace Monday night.

The Soviet Foreign Minister pointed out priceless tapestries and statuary adorning the rooms and recounted for Scheel the history of the palace, once owned by a wealthy Moscow merchant.

Trans Magic Sets North Idaho Link

BOISE (UPI) — Expanded air traffic facilities tying northern and southern Idaho became a reality Monday when Trans Magic Airways and Air West announced cooperative scheduling between Lewiston and Coeur d'Alene.

Trans Magic flight 807 will connect Lewiston with Air West's jet mainliner to Boise, Twin Falls, Salt Lake City and Los Angeles.

New York Voltage Reduced

NEW YORK (UPI) — Consolidated Edison Co. reduced electrical voltage in the city by 3 per cent Monday to protect its crippled system's reserves on a torrid day of peak demand for power.

A spokesman for the giant utility said the reduction was so slight it would not be noticed by users.

The metropolises had a nervous day as temperatures soared into the nineties and the use of air conditioners hit a new peak for the summer.

The voltage was restored to normal strength at 5 p.m., after the peak demand had passed. A company spokesman said it had not been determined if power would have to be reduced again Tuesday.

The company's 260,000 kilowatt nuclear generator at Indian Point broke down last month and a giant one million kilowatt generator known as "Big Alis" built by Allis Chalmers Corp. was declared out of service for the summer last week due to a shortcircuit.

Anticipating a power shortage on a full work day when temperatures and humidity were high, the company contracted for the purchase of 1.7 million kilowatts of power from other sources as far away as Canada and the Tennessee Valley.

By these means, power was maintained throughout the city.

'Cannibals' Arraigned

LIVINGSTON, Mont. (UPI) — Two men, one who claimed to have eaten the heart of his alleged victim, were arraigned Monday on murder charges.

The pair, Stanley Dean Baker, 32, and Harry Allan Stroup, 22, both of Sheridan, Wyo., are charged in connection with the death earlier this month of welfare worker James Schlosser, 22, of Roundup, Mont.

Schlosser's torso was found in the Yellowstone River July 11 by a fisherman. It was missing its head, arms, legs and heart.

Baker and Stroup were later picked up in California following a traffic accident. They were driving Schlosser's car. Baker said he had eaten Schlosser's heart and both he and Stroup ate flesh from the victim's fingers.

Officers said Baker told them, "I have a problem. I am a cannibal."

Baker appeared in court without counsel. Trial Judge Jack Shanstrom advised Baker of his legal rights. Baker told the court he did not have funds with which to hire counsel and requested the court appoint an attorney for him.

Stroup was represented in court by M.J. Whalen, a Billings, Mont., attorney.

Trawler Cancelled Poseidon

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A Russian trawler cruised east of the missile center Monday, informed sources reported, while the nuclear submarine James Madison prepared for the first undersea firing of the Navy's new multiple warhead Poseidon missile.

The James Madison originally was scheduled to fire the missile from beneath the ocean's surface for the first time Monday, but the shot was postponed Sunday. Instead, the James Madison rehearsed launching procedures 30 miles offshore.

The Navy said more tests were needed before the launch could be attempted. Informed sources said technical difficulties not unusual for the primary factor for the delay although they said the trawler's presence also was considered.

Official reports from Phnom Penh said Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops captured the cement factory at Chanh Ky Ting, about 75 miles southwest of Phnom Penh, in a nine-hour battle Monday.

The factory, Cambodia's only cement plant, was built by Communist China when the Phnom Penh government was curtailing aid from Peking during the reign of deposed Prince Norodom Sihanouk.

No casualty reports were available from the battle. Field reports said South Vietnamese warplanes supported the Cambodian defenders.

Fighting slackened off Monday at Kirrom, the hilltop village under siege 50 miles west-southwest of the Cambodian capital.

Asian Action Mounts

SAIGON (UPI) — Guerrilla troops ambushed a U.S. patrol in Vietnam, killing four GIs and wounding eight, and captured a Communist Chinese-built cement factory in Cambodia in fighting reported today.

The U.S. Command said an estimated 100 ambushers jumped the 196th Light Infantry Brigade patrol 70 miles southwest of Da Nang in the northern war zone late Monday and escaped without leaving behind any bodies.

It was the sharpest clash involving American troops in Vietnam. U.S. Marines patrolling 30 miles below Da Nang spring an ambush of their own, killing five Communist troops. No American casualties were reported.

Two flights of B52 bombers came in after the two clashes and dumped up to 300 tons of explosives onto Communist infiltration trails from Laos, continuing the bombardment of guerrilla supply lines in an attempt to head off an expected offensive.

Official reports from Phnom Penh said Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops captured the cement factory at Chanh Ky Ting, about 75 miles southwest of Phnom Penh, in a nine-hour battle Monday.

The factory, Cambodia's only cement plant, was built by Communist China when the Phnom Penh government was curtailing aid from Peking during the reign of deposed Prince Norodom Sihanouk.

Stocks

NEW YORK (UPI)—The market continued to drift on light trading past the halfway mark Tuesday.

Declines narrowly edged advances, 540 to 531, with 1,405 issues traded. The UPI index, measuring all stocks traded, was up 0.04 per cent.

The Dow Jones Industrial average was off more than 1 1/2 points.

Analysts suggested the light volume reflected normal summer sluggishness. Others, however, said that felt investors were awaiting either a clearer trend to second quarter earnings results or more substantial peace news from the Middle East or Indochina.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—A failure to progress toward peace in Vietnam and the Middle East at this time could prove unsettling, but by and large the stock market is well buttressed against any profit-taking that may now develop.

The economy is still in a weakened condition and inflation is far from being under control, according to Alexander Hamilton Institute.

Mack, Bushnell & Edelman, Inc., urges caution in participating in the current market. High-risk equities are likely to continue to drop, the firm says.

Successful Investing

Q) I have shares of Marine Midland Banks. It has dropped to allow as '35 from '45. Is this still a good prospect for future growth? W.M.

A) Yes, definitely. Shares are currently quite undervalued in view of the company's past earnings record and favorable prospects for future growth.

Q) We have shares of Dentsply International. They have depreciated substantially from our original purchase price. Should we continue to hold? B.C.

A) Dentsply International may be the target of renewed investor interest. Company recently announced the development of a plastic sealant which will be used to protect teeth from decay.

Business Today

By ROBERT STRAND SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Maybe it's just a matter of time before the New York Stock Exchange becomes one big computer.

Maybe you can buy the best factory site in all of Northern California by computer. Soon you may be able to use a computer to buy U.S. orange juice futures from Tokyo.

Do you need an office in San Francisco? Coldwell, Banker & Co., a major firm, will find it for you.

Coldwell, Banker's data bank contains information gathered by its operatives in innocent conversations and tramping hallways.

Pin Down Dates "In six months we have been able to pin down the lease expiration dates of two-thirds of the town," a company official says.

Coldwell, Banker can send a salesman to a competitor's tenant when the lease is about up. It knows an attractive new site for the tenant which just might be available because its occupant probably wants to move.

Last month the Pacific Coast Real Estate Exchange went into business with a computer listing large farms and commercial tracts.

You tell the computer your needs, and it feeds back the five best sites in Northern California—plus tax depreciation and other technical data projected over 30 years.

Pacific Coast joined the National Real Estate Exchange, also based in San Francisco, which offers similar services.

Has Financial Trouble? For several years Realtron Corp. has been servicing persons looking for residences in numerous U.S. cities, although Realtron has had financial troubles because of high costs. Also, brokers in smaller markets find their old-fashioned card files adequate.

Now in planning stages is a computerized Capital Commodities Exchange which would replace the traditional pit, ring or trading floor.

Coconut oil, foreign currencies, California wines, raisins, pearls, tuna fish and crabmeat all are seen as possibilities for a 24-hour exchange. It would put traders in the Orient as close to the operation as those in San Francisco.

Joann Goode, Heath Marry In July Rites

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a husband who gets loaded and invites everyone at the party to come to his house for Bloody Marys the next morning? When I hear him do this, I very (and) add, "Oh, yes, no come, we'd love to have you"—when I would love to have conked him over the head.

DEAR WOODSIDE: You can't stop your husband from issuing invitations (drunk or sober) but you can refrain from assuring unwelcome guests that you'd "love" to have them.

DEAR ABBY: I am nearly 18, and I don't like to brag but I guess you could call me a "popular" girl. I have a good reputation and don't want to spoil it, but here is my problem: After a fellow has taken me to a movie or a dance, and somewhere afterwards to eat, I hate to turn him down when he suggests a little light necking.

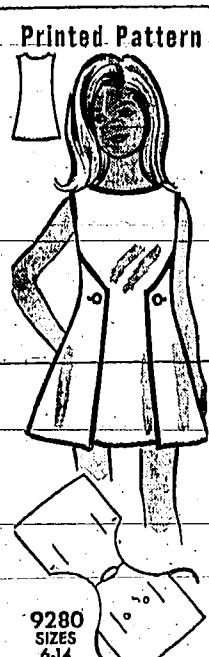

DEAR ALLENTOWN: It's easy. All a "guy" is entitled to when he asks you for a date, is the pleasure of your company.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from that woman who submitted that her high school days were far from her happiest, certainly rang a bell with me.

DEAR ABBY: If you ever need an assistant to help you write your column, I could do it. You gave a lot of reasons AGAINST premarital sex, but here is one you didn't mention: "No man will run after a bus he has already caught."

DEAR HUMORIST: Don't bank on it. Lots of men don't mind catching the same bus over again.

Boudreau, Frick, Combs and Haines Placed In Hall Of Fame

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (UPI)—Lou Boudreau, a keen student of baseball who crammed a lot of exciting action into a comparatively short playing career, enjoyed his greatest achievement ever Monday when formally inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame.

Boudreau, who became a five-time all-star infielder and managed four clubs despite an awkward batting stance and lack of speed, joined former baseball commissioner Ford D. Frick, ex-New York Yankee outfielder Earle Combs and one-time St. Louis Cardinals pitching star Jesse Haines as newest inductees into the sport's Hall of Fame.

The Hall of Fame induction served to bridge a "veneration gap" as little boys, their dads and grand pops combined their hero worship for the four new inductees.

"I've had more than my share of thrills in baseball," said the 52-year-old Boudreau, but "this has to be the greatest." Boudreau, who gained fame as a shortstop and manager for the Cleveland Indians, made the biggest hit of the day when he said on accepting his plaque: "If the world would take a page from baseball's book, we would all get along a little better. This game has a great impact on the world today."

Several thousand visitors crowded this community-housed Baseball Hall of Fame, Library and Museum for the program honoring the four men for their contributions to the game. Commissioner Bowie Kuhn conducted the induction ceremonies in which plaques bearing faces of the four with brief descriptions of their major accomplishments were unveiled.

As a manager Boudreau was known as an innovator. He is credited with originating the famed "Ted Williams shift"—a maneuver that moved three infielders to the right side of the diamond, where Williams hit most of his balls.

In introducing Frick, Commissioner Kuhn said: "More than any man in the United States he deserves the title as the Father of the Baseball Hall of Fame," Kuhn continued. "His genius for insight and determination brought into existence this magnificent shrine."

Frick, who served as a New York sportswriter and as an early day sports broadcaster, served as president of the National League from 1934 to 1951 and was commissioner from that year until 1965.

In accepting the plaque Frick said "Today I'm an honored man but also a very humble one."

Combs was famed as a leadoff hitter for one of baseball's greatest teams—the Yankees of the 20's and 30's. He brought a lifetime average of .325 as his chief qualification for induction.

"I have solved one problem by being here today," Combs said. "Always before when I was asked what was my biggest thrill, I never could define it because everytime I got a base hit was life's biggest moment. At least for that moment. But now this experience today has to be the greatest."

Lombardi Undergoes Operation

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Vince Lombardi's chances of coaching this year became a huge question mark today after the Washington Redskins head coach underwent his second operation in a month.

Lombardi, 57, suddenly reentered Georgetown University Hospital without advance notice Monday. He was operated on at 4:30 p.m. EDT. The nature of the new surgery was not disclosed but doctors reported he was "resting comfortably."

A team of surgeons on June 27 removed two feet of Lombardi's colon after discovery of what they described as a seemingly benign tumor in the abdominal area.

There was no indication from either the hospital or Redskins officials of the nature of the new surgery.

Lombardi, a builder of championship dynasties at Green Bay before coming to the Redskins last season, had been recuperating at home from the earlier operation.

Lombardi attended a scrimmage between the rookies of the Redskins and the Baltimore Colts in Baltimore Sunday, but has done no coaching since his surgery.

As executive vice president of the Redskins, he also attended a meeting of the National Football League owners in New York last week to discuss the docked labor dispute with the NFL players' association.

While incapacitated, he named assistant Bill Austin as "interim coach" of the Redskins after the team's rookies reported to training camp at Carlisle, Pa., earlier this month.

However, he declared his intention of being on hand at Carlisle whenever the contract dispute with the players was settled and the veterans reported.

Club president Edward Bennett Williams notified team officials in Carlisle Monday that Lombardi had reentered the hospital but according to a club spokesman gave no other details of possible complications or treatment.

Besides his pitcher-son, survivors included his widow, another son, Robert L. Ryan of Tuscaloosa, Ala.; four daughters, Mrs. Linda Klansok of Victoria, Tex., Mrs. Mary Lou Williams of Granada, Calif., Mrs. Judith Ann Thomas and Mrs. Patricia Huffman, both of Alvin; his mother and three sisters.

Angels' Messersmith Optioned To Minors

ANAHEIM (UPI)—Andy Messersmith, hailed at the start of the season as the California Angels' best pitcher, was optioned to Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League Monday night because of a sore shoulder.

The right-hander was sent down a few hours after Dr. Robert Jorlan, an orthopedic specialist, examined Messersmith and said his shoulder would not respond to treatment unless he gave it a complete rest.

The Angels are scheduled to release a player to make room for pitcher Rudy May who was returning from two weeks of military service and decided to option Messersmith to Hawaii.

The left-hander immediately left the team in Salt Lake City. Messersmith had an 8-0 record and a 3.22 earned run average. Last Friday he hurled 5-1-3 innings but was knocked out of the box in the sixth.

Following the game, Messersmith admitted he had been suffering from a sore shoulder since April 19 when he all headfirst into second base running out a double.

Manager Lefty Phillips said the club intended recalling Messersmith after 10 days but felt he might have a better chance recovering from the injury if he was not with the Angels. Last year Messersmith led the Angels with a 16-11 record.

Appeals Court Rejects Ex-NFL Players' Charge

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals overturned a lower court in a 2-1 ruling Monday and said the San Diego Chargers do not have to pay Charles T. Hennigan for the 1967-68 football season.

Hennigan, who played with the Houston Oilers from 1960-64, sued the San Diego team when it terminated him without paying during the Chargers' 1967 training camp.

Hennigan was obtained by San Diego at the end of the 1966-67 season when it exercised an option on his three-year, $25,000-a-year contract with the Oilers.

The decision said San Diego dismissed the receiver after an examination of his right knee showed it would not withstand "the stress and strain of professional football."

He had been injured during both the 1965 and 1966 seasons with the Oilers and had undergone knee surgery in February 1967, two months before the Chargers sent him a letter renewing his contract.

Stalemated NFL Talks Drone On With No Solutions Seen

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The stalemated contract talks between the National Football League owners and players droned through another fruitless bargaining session for the fourth straight day Monday.

Dispute May Cancel Some Exhibitions

HIRAM, Ohio (UPI)—Cleveland Browns coach Cleveland Collier Monday expressed concern the dispute between owners and veteran players of the National Football League could knock out the first game of the exhibition season.

Cleveland was scheduled to play the Los Angeles Rams Aug. 7 at Los Angeles. "Normally I like three weeks of practice before a game," Collier said.

Since the training camp opened, Collier and the other coaches have had to be content with handling only the rookies. The veterans are practicing on their own at John Carroll University, 35 miles northwest of here.

"We still could get in a major portion of what we intended to if we started right now," Collier said. "But even now it would be difficult getting the men ready physically."

The coaches do not believe the John Carroll workouts are providing the veterans with enough conditioning. The makeshift practices generally last about an hour.

"They (the veterans) could jeopardize their future and the team's future by playing without being in condition," Collier said.

Browns owner Art Modell Monday reiterated the cancellation of the first game of the season would mean "all bets are off and we start from scratch on negotiations."

Alatna Falcons joined the afternoon session. Schramm said he spent Sunday night in Philadelphia on the phone because twenty-three owners in the league want to know what's going on.

It was indicated that the players discussed matters proposed by the players owners subcommittee named Sunday afternoon to dig into various facets of the $8 million difference in the four-year pension plan which has the two groups split so widely.

The difference threatens pro football for the coming year in the eyes of some observers. None of the participants budged from the adamant "no comment" which is the standard comment at the end of each session.

However, Schramm said any agreement reached here must necessarily be approved by the league owners. Mackey was asked whether the players must approve any theoretical agreement which might be reached but declined to comment on the advice of the players legal counsel.

Richey Paces Tennis Grand Prix List

Richey picked up six points in the Grand Prix for reaching the finals of the Western championships last weekend and moved to the top with a total of 21 points. Australia's Ken Rosewall, victor over Richey in the final, added eight points for a total of 18. Georges Goven of France and Jan Kodeš of Czechoslovakia are tied for second with 10.

Other leaders: Zeljko Franulovic, Yugoslavia, 17; Dick Crealy of Australia and Ilio Nastase of Romania, 10 each; John Newcombe, Australia, 15; Arthur Ashe, Gum Springs, Va., 14; and Bob Hewitt of South Africa, 13.

The leader at the end of the Grand Prix circuit wins $25,000 of the $150,000 to be disbursed among the top 20 finishers.

The Deuce Proves To Be Big Card

that. He wanted to make his contract if he could and the only way to make his contract would be to duck the heart and get West to continue the suit.

South didn't spend all the time that we have been explaining his thoughts. He saw all this in an instant and dropped his six of hearts.

We will give West some credit. He thought carefully before playing a second heart lower than the seven heart he couldn't account for. That was the deuce. He thought that his partner might have been able to spare a higher card than the seven but he couldn't. Anyway, West finally led a second heart, where-upon South drew trumps, discarded a club on his jack of hearts and scored the rubber.

If only East had held the deuce, he could have played it and West would have shifted and beaten the contract.

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

West opened the queen of hearts in response to his partner's bid and East played his lowest heart which happened to be the seven-spot.

South could see no hope for his contract should he win that first heart. East would get on lead and the defense would cash one heart, two aces and the king of clubs.

He could also see a two-trick penalty if that queen of hearts were a singleton, but South didn't worry about

If Shakespeare had played bridge, we can imagine Richard III saying, "A deuce, a deuce, my kingdom for a deuce." Of course, if he were an ethical bridge player and held the East cards, he would not say it aloud but, according to Shakespeare and history, this particular king was not noted for ethics.

ANY WOMAN WHO does fewer than five loads of laundry a week might find this remarkable. It's cheaper to hand wash in one of those coin laundries than to do the dirty clothes in an automatic washer and dryer at home. Or, so reports the Department of Agriculture.

OPEN QUESTION - Where in the Bible does it state man can or will go to heaven?

WOMEN - It's a peculiarity of history that women become famous for their sins; mostly, Take Jezebel. Or Cleopatra. Or Lucrezia Borgia. None of those old girls were really as bad as the historians made them out to be. But the historians, who are mostly men, evidently find something fascinating about girls gone wrong. Marie Antoinette. Calamity Jane. Even Marilyn Monroe, for crying out loud.

ARE YOU OLD enough to remember Fascist Italy's invasion of Ethiopia in the 1930s? A pitiful war, that. And aren't they all? At any rate, it comes to mind because I hear a radio downstairs playing "The St. Louis Blues." That was the official battle hymn of those Ethiopians. Bombs fell all over the place, and the shells thudded here and there, and guns rattled. And those black men in their scattered skirmish lines hummed the music, and some amidst the butchery even sang the curious lyrics, "St. Louis woman with all her diamond rings."

CUSTOMER SERVICE - Q "What uses the most juice - a window air conditioner or an electric range?" A. THAT air conditioner. In fact, it uses more electricity in the hot months than the stove uses all year. Q "What's the longest anybody has ever gone without sleep on purpose?" A. Just 11 days, 18 hours, 55 minutes. A 52-year-old lady named Mrs. Bertha Van Der Merwe of Capetown, South Africa, did it a couple of years ago.

A SCHOLAR WHO has made a study of sleep contends men who are faithful to their wives tend to dream about infidelities, but men who chase don't.
