U.S. Postal Revamp Set

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A House-Senate conference committee has approved a compromise bill that would remove the post office from the control of Congress and make it an independent agency. The first major action of the new postal managers would likely be a rate increase.

The bill, to be formally approved by the committee this afternoon, must also be approved by the House and the Senate and then by President Nixon. The administration is expected to endorse the bill.

The reform measure includes an 8 per cent pay increase for postal workers, retroactive to April 18. It would allow workers to reach the top pay scale in eight years instead of the present 21 years.

It would make the post office an independent government agency called the U.S. Postal Service, to be operated by an 11-member board of governors. A five-member commission would set rates, subject to a unanimous veto by the governors, but Congress would have no further say in the operations of the department.

Included in the compromise were two provisions directly affecting postal patrons who receive unwanted, unsolicited mail.

Unsolicited merchandise could be regarded as a gift and be retained by a citizen without further action.

A citizen could put his name on a postmaster's list as not wanting objectionable mail sent to him without his request. Present law provides a citizen can get on the "non-mailing" list only after he receives objectionable material.

Postal unions were guaranteed for the first time the rights of collective bargaining and compulsory arbitration, but were denied the right to bargain for a union shop.

Infant Drowns

CASTLEFORD — An irrigation ditch north of Castleford has claimed the life of a Castleford toddler Wednesday.

Greg Crowley, 16 months, drowned about 1 p.m. when he apparently fell or walked into an irrigation ditch on the Earl Heidal farm two miles north of here.

The child, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Crowley, 112 East Maple, was discovered missing by his baby sitter, Mrs. Gary Laughlin, sheriff's officers said. The child's mother was called to the scene immediately after he was discovered to be missing.

Mrs. Crowley found the baby in the ditch about 50 feet away from the field driveway near a county road. Mrs. Laughlin lives on the Heidal farm.

The child was rushed to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital by Mr. Heidal. At about 1:45 p.m. the child was pronounced dead by Coroner Cloyd Edwards.

His body was taken to Alpertson-Dickard Chapel in Butte.

NIXON signs Washington D.C. crime bill into law instituting controversial "no knock" and "preventative detention" provisions that are certain to face Supreme Court tests. After signing the bill he chided Congress for its inaction on his programs. (UPI)

Nixon Endorses 'No Knock' Act

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI) — President Nixon Wednesday signed controversial anticrime legislation, "a very strong measure which deals with an unprecedented problem," and criticized Congress for failure to act on a dozen other such measures "he has proposed.

Approved by the Senate last week on a 54-33 vote, the new law for the District of Columbia permits police officers with special search warrants to enter and search premises without first knocking or announcing themselves if they believe evidence—such as drugs—would be quickly destroyed otherwise.

The law also authorizes judges to order "preventative detention" of up to 60 days in jail without bail for defendants awaiting trial on charges of forcible robbery, burglary, arson, forcible rape or illegal drug sales.

Nixon said the bill was "evidence of the poorest battling average of the 91st Congress." He said he submitted 13 major proposals on law enforcement more than a year ago, "and only one has reached my desk."

The President said the new law would stem rising crime in the capital and make Washington an example of respect for law throughout the country.

Urging congressional action on his pornography, narcotics and other crime bills, Nixon said: "This is not partisan."

Attorney General John N. Mitchell denied it would remove civil liberties.

"It provides proper law enforcements," he said in an interview. "Civil liberties will be protected because the courts will make proper safeguards."

Mitchell spoke on NBC's Today Show.

The attorney general said he doubted innocent persons would be held in custody before a trial because of "the full evidentiary hearing that is provided." And he doubted there would be any threat to "innocent people in their homes" because of the "no-knock" provision.

The new law also permits policemen to tap telephones under restricted circumstances in investigations of certain major crimes, allows trial of 16- and 17-year-olds in adult courts for certain serious crimes, and authorizes a life sentence on conviction of a third felony.

FHA Approves 3% Hail Loans

BURLEY — Authorization for emergency low-interest loans to distressed farmers in five Magic Valley counties has been approved by the Farmers Home Administration. About 90 square miles of cropland was damaged by last week's disastrous hail storm.

The approval for area FHA offices to accept loan applications from farmers whose crops were heavily damaged by a disastrous hail storm last week, followed a request by Gov. Don Samuelson Wednesday that the FHA revolving emergency fund be made available in this area.

Don Winder, state FHA director, told the Governor Thursday, "It has been determined that the need of families affected is of sufficient magnitude to warrant Farmers Home Administration emergency loans immediately.

He said county offices serving Cassia, Jerome, Minidoka, Twin Falls and Power counties are authorized to accept the emergency loan applications.

Fred Johnson, director of the FHA office in Burley, said the emergency loans carry a 3 per cent interest rate, compared to the 7 1/2 per cent interest rate on regular FHA loans.

Basic purpose of the FHA loans is to aid farmers who cannot get assistance through regular local lending sources, Mr. Johnson said. He said he anticipated that a high percentage of the people in this area will be able to get needed aid from private, rather than government, sources.

Mr. Winder said Wednesday that should needs in this area exceed 3-4 million dollars, additional emergency loan assistance would have to be requested from the federal government.

He said he already has set in motion the machinery to request these added funds, and indications are that the request would be approved.

Money for the FHA emergency loans comes from a revolving fund set up to take care of disaster-stricken farmers throughout the nation. Only a portion of the fund can be used for any one area, since the fund must retain enough balance to take care of subsequent emergencies.

Mr. Winder's message to Gov. Samuelson cited the following possible crop damages from the storm: Barley and wheat, 75-100 per cent; sugar beets, 3-5 tons per acre; potatoes, 40 per cent; corn, 30 per cent; beans, 25-30 per cent.

He estimated that between 65,000 and 80,000 acres of cropland was affected, or about 17 per cent of Cassia County. About 75 farmers were affected, he said.

Mideast Aircraft Battle

By United Press International
Israeli jets shot down four Soviet-built Egyptian MIG21 jets in an air battle over the Suez Canal today, a military spokesman announced in Tel Aviv. Heavy artillery duels raged along the canal on a 40-mile front and Egypt reported heavy loss of Israeli life.

The spokesman said the air battle occurred when Egyptian interceptors streaked off to challenge Israeli jet fighters-bombers carrying out strikes in the Canal Zone's southern sector for the 70th consecutive day.

There was no indication whether any Soviet pilots were involved in the confrontation, but UPI correspondent Nicholas Daniloff, quoting "sources," said Soviet and Israeli planes clashed over the canal on Saturday fog the first time. No losses were reported.

The sources said the potentially dangerous clash occurred during a raid by Israeli aircraft against missile sites operated by Egyptian crews with Soviet advisers.

Political Issues Vary

By United Press International
The political campaign in the State of Idaho centered around tax exemptions, pollution, finances and education Wednesday.

Democratic candidate Cecil Andrus said he will seek to initiate a tax exemption for working mothers who must hire sitters. He said the working mother should receive the benefit as a business man does when applying for a tax deduction.

His campaign manager, Rep. Ed Williams, D-Lewiston, said Wednesday charges the candidate had a "polluters slush fund" in a Clarkston, Wash. bank, were false. He said all finances for the campaign had come from persons in the State of Idaho. He said the funds were placed in the Washington bank because of the Lewiston contributors' interest.

Democratic candidate Lloyd Walker challenged Andrus to a debate in Pocatello Wednesday to discuss issues and campaign questions openly. He said he telegraphed the Boise resident to attend a Bannock County picnic.

Fellow rival for the gubernatorial seat, Vern Ravenscroft, said Idaho must protest the State of Oregon's proposal to conserve Snake River water for future development of Malheur and Owyhee basins.

He said the proposal endangers Idaho's water supply, and the state has five million acres of undeveloped land that needs the water.

He also said the governor's office has consistently opposed adequate funding for education. He added if it were not for the leadership of legislators, educators and concerned parents, appropriate funding would not have been passed in the last four years.

He said the Idaho citizens are surprised the governor attempts to take credit for educational advances, when they were acquired with no help from his office.

Republican contender Dick Smith, Rexburg, said he is still opposed to mining in the White Clouds, and will enforce pollution regulations if he wins the election.

He told Burley residents Idaho's rules governing pollution and abatement are excellent, but that they need to be enforced to divert possible pollution crises.

He added a survey conducted by the Fish and Game Department showed that 38 per cent of 45 streams in the Gem State had been altered by construction, mining and flood control measures.

Smith said Idaho has been settled for one century, and if careful precautions are not taken, the next 100 years will see the destruction of the remaining legacy of undamaged streams.

ICC Aide Ousted

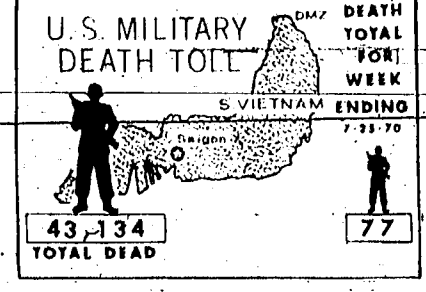

WASHINGTON (UPI) — ICC Chairman George M. Stafford suspended Garson from his job Wednesday, and named Assistant Secretary Joseph M. Harrington acting secretary. "Until such time as the matter is resolved."

The committee investigation of Garson is part of a wider ranging inquiry into the ICC, the government agency set up to regulate businesses engaged in interstate commerce such as railroads, truck and barge lines. House investigators said they have evidence that ICC staff members regularly commit the same violations of which Garson was accused.

Deaths 'Justified'

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — A biracial Mississippi grand jury said Wednesday law enforcement officers "were justified in discharging their weapons," it said.

The report stated that at least one of the dead youths was "probably" killed by gunfire from weapons used by Jackson city police and called statements made by Mayor Russell Bavis that city police did not fire their weapons "most unfortunate" and "reprehensible."

Governor Eyes 'Smear'

by O. A. GUS KELKER
Times-News Editor
Gov. Don Samuelson said today his administration's record has been "falsified by personal attacks." The attacks were instigated not by any "desire for good government or for progressive legislation or administration," but simply "ambition for office or personal antagonism."

In his hard-hitting address before members of the Twin Falls Kiwanis Club today at the Turl Club, the Governor declared his campaign for reelection is "founded on a record of administrative achievement."

"It has not been founded on misrepresentation or on promises which cannot be fulfilled." "Where there has been a need for someone to speak out forcefully for the State of Idaho and the interest of her people—I have done that," he said.

The Governor said he was speaking of the "real issues" that effect the daily lives of individuals—where state government comes into direct contact with the people, their work, their play and living conditions, their health and happiness.

He said he was "in Twin Falls today to set the record straight" and he touched on many of the campaign's most important issues and some which have brought criticism to his administration.

He said:

Total expenditures on the Idaho highway system during the four-year period from 1967 to 1970 will be in excess of $13.6 million. This "on-going" highway program will continue, and regardless of what opponents say, is ahead of the timetable.

He also said it is hoped that funds can be used for county roads and city streets.

The Fish and Game Department is now, at his request, being assessed by nationally known experts, he said. He said he will act on the results of their findings.

"All I've told them is that I want the truth," he said.

He defended the Administrative Services Department and said that for the first time in the history of the state "we are combining in one place, under one department head, all computer services, all printing services, uniform budget preparation for all departments; all communication, all building maintenance."

"We know the costs. Although some people resist change, he said this road was the only way to go. He said 33 states now have the same setup.

He said that the water program is important to Idaho and pledged "no Idaho water will be diverted out of this state during my administration."

He said that in Idaho, as nationally, farm income has dropped, but that this national problem is being worked on at governor's conferences and through Idaho's representatives in Washington.

In the meantime, he said some relief will accrue to the farmers by phasing out the inventory tax which will be completely eliminated in January, 1971. He claimed work is progressing on expanded farm markets.

He said Idaho now has one of the nation's best-funded and best-operated school systems. Appropriations for education now represent 68 per cent of the total general fund expenditures—over $153 million out of $226 million.

He said four years ago he promised "an honest administration and said he has now accomplished that. His record, he said, is "clear, simple, honest and understandable as government should be."

Lotion Boycott

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — A group called "Citizens for Decency" has vowed not to buy Sun & Ski suntan lotion unless the firm puts bigger kidneys on its billboard beauties.

Project Endorsed

Gov. Don Samuelson said in Twin Falls today he supports the Salmon Falls project to bring supplemental water to tract farmers.

The Governor read a statement which he said will be presented by Sen. Len Jordan before the Senate subcommittee on water and power on Monday.

"I am most pleased to see supplemental water planned for this area which has for so many years experienced a shortage of water."

"I wholeheartedly recommend," the statement said, "authorization of this project as a part of resource development and flood control in the State of Idaho."

"I ask for early authorization of this project."

Weather Synopsis

Drier air moved over the area Wednesday from the southwest markedly reducing thunderstorm activity, and confining it to isolated buildups over extreme Eastern Idaho. A weak cold front also pushed eastward as far as Central Idaho. This lowered afternoon temperatures over Southwestern Idaho and East Central Oregon about five degrees from Tuesday. Eastern Idaho, which was ahead of the front, warmed up two to five degrees. Little temperature change is expected this afternoon, with morning lows in the high 40s or 50s and maximums this afternoon in the mid 80s or low 90s.

Vote Confusion Cleared

Some confusion has arisen among voters in Twin Falls County because of the fact... Some confusion has arisen among voters in Twin Falls County because of the fact there are three commissioner districts, two of which will be filled this year.
Prosecutor Robert Galley and county clerk Harold Lancaster report some people have the erroneous opinion they can vote only for the commissioner who resides in their district.
The two county officials report this is not true. Any qualified voter in the county may cast a ballot for commissioners from the First District and from the Third District. Bill Chancy is now commissioner from the Second District, which is not up for election this year.
County commission candidates from the First District are Merrill E. Leonard and Marion J. Ambrose, both Republicans, and Edwin Lorman, Democrat. Running from the Third District are Republican incumbent Heber Loughmiller and Russel G. (Bud) Larsen, Democrat.

Vacation Ends In Interstate Crash

JEROME — A Kansas family of six narrowly escaped death when their car and camper trailer left the roadway and rolled over early Wednesday, two miles south of Jerome.
State Police Cpl. Bill Green said a 1964 sedan, towing a 10-foot, 1000 camper trailer, and driven by Elsie Kelley, 40, Wichita, Kan., went out of control on Interstate 80-N, at the junction with Highway 79, south of Jerome. The driver overcorrected officers said, pulling the two vehicles across the highway and causing both to roll over.
Both were demolished, he said, and while all six members of the family remained in the automobile they somehow escaped being crushed. He said it was necessary to collect parts of the trailer from along the roadside and haul them away by flatbed truck. Not enough of it remained intact to be towed away. Mr. Green estimated damage at $3,100.
In addition to the driver, the family included John W. Kelley, 49, and the couple's four children, Jackie, 16; Terri, 14; Mike, 14 and Larry, 12. They were enroute home from a vacation when the accident occurred, Mrs. Kelley and the two girls were treated for cuts and bruises at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital and released.

Twin Falls Station's Permit Lifted

Buhl — The Department of Law Enforcement has lifted the vehicle inspection certificate of a station in Buhl, according to Jack Dewald, Emmett, acting supervisor of the Vehicle Inspection Section.
Buckendorf Tire Service, 503 S. Broadway, has been suspended for 30 days from July 23 to Aug. 24, for allegedly issuing inspection stickers to two unsafe vehicles. The certificate was issued to Glen E. Buckendorf for the service station.

Do You Think?

There are pollsters and there are pollsters and the worst of them — the amateur who is convinced anyone can conduct a poll by asking a loaded question — serves no useful purpose.

pollster took a phrase from the Declaration of Independence, changed it so that its source could not be recognized and then asked his listeners whether they agreed with its contents.

The Interstate

America's interstate highway system "is the most substantial public works project ever undertaken in the history of civilization."

This slowdown in the commitment of road-building money has, inevitably, elicited adverse comment from the so-called highway lobby, which charges that the $400 million was withheld to help mask a deficit in the federal budget.

It is also one of the best things that ever happened to this or any other nation, the secretary went on. Americans will realize almost $12 billion in savings by the time the system is completed, he predicted — benefits stemming from lower operating costs, time costs and convenience.

Neither this sum, nor any part of the Highway Trust Fund, which comes chiefly from the federal tax on gasoline, can be used to reduce the national debt or finance job-training programs or low-cost housing.

"If there were no other reason to build the system," he said, "this would be reason enough!"

As of last December 31, with some 30 per cent or nearly 13,000 miles of the network remaining to be built, and with 4 per cent of that not even advanced beyond the preliminary stage, $38.83 billion had already been spent.

Volpe's inflation-conscious boss, however, appears in no hurry to complete the network, whose full name is the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways.

Inflation, which nobody engineered into the plans, gobbled up most of that $11 billion-plus difference.

But earlier it had been expected that DOT would release more than $1.7 billion in highway funds, including $460 million left over from last year.

Since much of the uncompleted mileage is in high-density urban areas, where right-of-way acquisition costs are the highest and getting higher, and since labor and materials costs are rising at something like 10 per cent a year, any unnecessary stretch-out of the project by holding Highway Trust Fund releases below what Congress has authorized and below what the fund is able to support may rightly be called a case of penny wise and pound foolish.

For the entire 1971 fiscal year, DOT reportedly plans to release only $4.6 billion in Highway Trust Funds, although Congress has authorized in excess of $5.4 billion.

And what about those lives that won't be saved because the roads that would have saved them won't be built this year?

The Last Word

The newest thing in underground bomb shelters is being promoted in California by a national moving and storage firm. It would be a shelter for 1,000 corporation executives and office personnel 40 feet underground for up to 30 days.

cities, apparently is in trouble in Europe as well. Even as here, one of the usual answers is to cut back on unprofitable runs. But the Germans have come up with a way to do it that doesn't cut back on service.

A jet landing strip on top, a computer center, a communications center, a large records storage room, offices, living quarters, a morgue and a cafeteria are included in plans. The shelter is scheduled for construction next year on 200 acres between Los Angeles and San Francisco. That is, if the moving and storage company can interest enough banks, oil companies, construction and manufacturing firms being solicited.

A study conducted in Munich, West Germany, revealed that in the course of a normal week, 110 buses traveled from one end of their routes to the other without picking up a single passenger. An initial cost estimate showed that in the isolated suburbs and during the late hours of the day, taxicabs would be less expensive to maintain than "ghost buses."

Cost of leasing space on a 10-year term: $100,000 a year.

The city of Hamburg, which has similar problems, is considering issuing to holders of season bus tickets tokens that could be used for part payment of taxi fares.

MORE TROUBLE Public transportation, which is having trouble competing with the automobile in most American Senate liberals apparently feel it is eminently right and proper to have a double standard in the administration of civil rights. To a man, they vigorously opposed a proposal to require the Civil Rights Commission to include in its published reports statements by individuals accused or criticized by the agency. Under existing law, the Commission doesn't have to do that.

Clellan's fair-play proposal went wholly unreported. This is the first published account of this shocking affair. Sen. Hart, Judiciary Subcommittee chairman in charge of the legislation, acted as principal liberal spokesman. Crux of his dissent was that the Civil Rights Commission gives full leeway to anyone to present his position and claims at public hearings, and in Hart's opinion that's enough. The individual's statements are on record with the commission, and Hart argued that is adequate.

BOOK OF THE MONTH

McClellan vehemently disagreed. "I am utterly unable to understand how a professed civil rights advocate can conscientiously oppose my amendment," he indignantly told Hart. "It embraces every principle of equity, justice, fairness, civil liberty and due process that all true civil rights advocates should support."

PAUL HARVEY

Doing Nothing

We're NOT doing NOTHING about pollution.

We're NOT...doing NOTHING.

And the cure promises to be as dramatic as the disease is rampant.

And maybe the smoke cloud has a silver lining.

Americans, just awakening to the long-time misuse of our planet's air, land and water, have to do more than just hold their noses and holler. And some are doing more.

researchers in Illinois Tech have developed a new high-temperature incinerator for raw garbage, glass, metal — most any solid waste — which converts pollution to usable construction materials!

There is an encouraging and, I hope, exemplary cleanup now under way by industries, officials and individuals.

The Institute for Scrap Iron and Steel sponsored research which has developed a similar incinerator for junked cars; eyeglasses are being re-carbonated.

We're NOT doing NOTHING about pollution.

WASHINGTON — The national significance of the New York race for the U.S. Senate was emphasized recently when word went out from President Nixon's political camp to assorted fat-cat campaign contributors that the White House considered James L. Buckley, the Conservative Party candidate, a good Republican.

Right now, today, for the first time in many years, it is possible in parts of Los Angeles harbor to see the bottom!

In political shorthand, this fell just short of a Nixon endorsement of Buckley, who is running against Republican Sen. Charles Goodell and Democrat Rep. Richard L. Ottinger. Nixon was telling the fat cats, in effect, that he would not frown on contributions to Buckley's campaign.

And there is evidence of fish life throughout that harbor which just a year ago was considered "dead."

Goodell and the wealthy, big-spending Ottinger are competing for the liberal vote in both parties, a circumstance that suggests neither will poll a majority.

Car makers say they are crash-researching ways and means of producing a "pollution-free automobile by 1980."

Moreover, Buckley has support no conservative candidate ever had. He had been endorsed by New York City's Patrons' Benevolent Association and Uniformed Firefighters Association — the first labor union endorsements in the Conservative Party's history. And it is significant that the PBA also endorsed Republican Rockefeller.

Los Angeles County's board of supervisors says that's not soon enough; the supervisors have asked state health authorities to ban the sale of any 1971 automobile in California unless it is equipped with an adequate smog-prevention device.

It is significant because the action suggests Buckley can score points with his theme that a Rockefeller-Buckley ticket is the only real Republican ticket — Rockefeller's endorsement of the liberal Goodell to the contrary notwithstanding.

"That," the supervisors say, "is the way to get the automobile manufacturers to come around."

But Buckley's big asset is Richard Nixon's friendliness. It means big money in the campaign till for the Conservative Party, and more than anything else, that is the name of the game these days.

With the world in general and our nation in particular threatening to buy itself alive under an annual accumulation of 180 million tons of trash, the Reynolds Metals Co. is opening 16 collection centers across the United States to reclaim and reuse aluminum scrap.

Richard Nixon's left-handed support of Buckley be considered hereby. Buckley, brother of Columnist Bill, is a registered Republican. His gubernatorial vote will be cast for Nelson Rockefeller against Democrat Arthur Goldberg, and he almost surely will join the GOP forces in the Senate. Put another way, Buckley is most unlikely to do business with the Democrats. In a close contest to organize the Senate, Buckley's vote could decide for the GOP.

Paying 10 cents a pound for used aluminum, the company will break even, the country will profit.

There is another, more pragmatic, reason for Nixon's move. Buckley, an oil executive

Similarly, the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute has begun a nationwide program to buy used bottles at half-a-cent a bottle.

There is another, more pragmatic, reason for Nixon's move. Buckley, an oil executive

Students and others demanding a cleanup now know how they can help — and get paid for it, about a penny a pound.

While these efforts are getting going, the city of Bowie, Md., has adopted an ordinance prohibiting the sale of soft drinks and beer in disposable containers.

Colombia Has Own 'Evita Peron'

Foreign News Commentary
By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
In Colombia she is called Maria Eugenia. But just that much is enough to establish the identity of Colombia's best known woman politician.

At the age of 20 she already was being compared to Evita Peron, credited by many with being the real brains and power behind one-time Argentine dictator Juan D. Peron.

Today at the age of 35 she strives with single-minded determination to restore to power her father, former dictator Gen. Gustavo Rojas Pinilla.

Rojas, forced to resign his job in 1957, has been ranked by his critics as one of the most ruthless dictators in modern Latin American history.

The job he lost under duress in 1957 he nearly won back again this year in free elections in which the candidate supported by Colombia's ruling Conservative-Liberal coalition, Misael Pastrana Borrero, defeated him by only a little more than 63,000 votes out of more than four million cast.

Rojas was receiving treatment in Miami for a chronic diabetes condition and heart trouble and has assigned leadership of his National Popular Alliance to his daughter in his absence.

Already credited with most of the organization, accounting for the amazing strength of his campaign, she has accepted the assignment with enthusiasm.

She charges that the election was stolen from her father and has promised that blood will flow until he is restored to power.

It promises an eventual four years for 46-year-old President-Elect Pastrana.

Maria Eugenia Rojas de Moreno Diaz, to use her full married name, is a senator in her own right and for the four years of his presidency will be sitting as opposition leader.

Washington Window

By LOUIS CASSELS
UPI Senior Editor

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Uncle Sam is providing far less generously for Vietnam veterans than he did for men who served in World War II.

The most conspicuous difference is in educational benefits. The original GI Bill — GI Rights, enacted in 1944, made it possible for any World War II veteran, however poor, to obtain a college education.

A World War II veteran had the right to enroll in any accredited institution, from an expensive private college to a low-tuition state university. The government paid his full tuition, whatever it might be, plus any extra laboratory, library or instructional fees.

In addition, he received a room-and-board allowance of $75 a month if single, $105 a month if married. That living allowance went a lot farther in the 1940s than it will go today.

The cost of living has approximately doubled in the meantime, so in terms of today's buying power, the allowance amounted to roughly $150 a month for single men, $210 for married men.

Under the currently effective GI bill, a Vietnam veteran who wants to go back to school is eligible for an educational allowance of $175 a month, if single, or $205 if married. But that's all he gets. Out of that allowance, he is expected to pay not only his living expenses, but also his tuition charges and incidental fees.

The maximum period in which the allowance can be paid is 36 months — or four school years of nine months each. Thus a single Vietnam veteran gets a total of $1,675 a year to finance his college education.

That sum won't begin to cover tuition — not to mention costs — at a leading private university. At Ivy League schools, for example, tuition and fees amount to about $2,400 a year.

So, unless he has private means, a Vietnam veteran must restrict his choice of schools to public institutions where tuition is kept low by state subsidies.

Poorer youths, who may have been drafted in the first place because they couldn't afford to go to college, return from the war to find they still can't afford to go to college.

Perhaps the moral is that the gratitude of a nation to its veterans is directly proportional to the popularity of the war they're called upon to fight.

Mudhole Stalls Troops

PHNOM PENH (UPI)—A civilian bus loaded with Cambodian soldiers bogged down today in a driving rain after a six-mile advance toward the Kirirom plateau, blocking the path of a 3,000-man government convoy and putting a government offensive aimed at retaking the plateau.

A Cambodian military spokesman, quoting villagers in the area, said allied air strikes had killed 600 Communist troops and wounded 200 others in attacks near the ruins of Angkor Wat.

The Communists scored a major success near the Kirirom plateau today, cutting Highway 4 leading from Phnom Penh to the port of Kompong Son (Sihanoukville) and leaving more than 100 trucks, mostly all-terrain, lining the road along a blown bridge 50 miles below Phnom Penh.

The Communists poured out of the countryside and overwhelmed the defenders of a reinforced concrete bridge in a five-hour firefight and then blew a six-foot hole on the northern approach to the bridge, next to a 20-foot hole blown in a similar attack four days ago. Light vehicles could still pass.

In Saigon, the U.S. command said B52s flying some of the heaviest raids of the year in South Vietnam unloaded 1,000 tons of bombs on Communist strongholds in the southern half of the country, concentrating on the U Minh forest. For the past week, the planes have concentrated on border areas.

UPI correspondent Kenneth J. Braddock, with the Cambodians trying to recapture the Kirirom plateau, said five battalions of government troops spearheaded by Khmer mercenaries, had hoped to reach the plateau in a two-day march.

Paris Negotiators Trade Accusations at Session

PARIS (UPI) — Allied and Communist negotiators today accused each other of blocking progress and then adjourned after only two-and-a-half hours, the shortest session since the Vietnam peace talks began in Paris 18 months ago.

Philip G. Habib, acting U.S. delegation chief, told newsmen as he left that "we agreed to meet again next week."

At the meeting—the 77th—Communist delegates charged that a U.S. "dream of military victory" was deadlocking the conference and demanded the Nixon administration agree to their request for a coalition government in Saigon.

The Allies reported that nothing could hide the "treacherous and antidemocratic character" of the proposed coalition demanded by the Communists stop making propaganda and get down to serious negotiations.

Habib was attending his last session as acting delegation chief. David K. E. Bruce, recently appointed by President Nixon to take over as chief, is scheduled to arrive in Paris on Monday.

Habib told the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong delegates: "Unfortunately, you have presented your demands as 'Guardmen'."

He reminded the Communist side that "renewed efforts for serious negotiations call for positive and responsive spirit on both sides."

North Vietnam's deputy chief negotiator, Guyen Minh Vy, said the United States should withdraw totally and unconditionally from South Vietnam and agree to the formation of a coalition government.

He said, "This, he said, was in accordance with the 14-month old, 10-point solution put forward by the Viet Cong. He said as long as the United States 'pursues the dream of military victory' in Vietnam, the Paris talks would remain deadlocked."

By denouncing alleged U.S. bombing raids by B52 planes July 23, 24 and 25 over an area of North Vietnam just north of the Demilitarized Zone, he accused the Nixon administration of pretending to hold a flexible and reasonable negotiating position while seeking to force the acceptance of "arrogant conditions."

U of I Asks New Programs

MC CALL, Idaho (UPI) — Idaho State University officials Wednesday asked for just under $300,000 for new programs in its fiscal 1971-72 budget request to the State Board of Education.

ISI President William E. Davis asked for a total state appropriation in general funds of $3.7 million for on-going academic programs. Other revenue sources boost the budget to $9.3 million, and vocational education funded separately called for $1.7 million in federal funds. The overall budget totals $11.1 million.

Dr. Davis listed as top priority the implementation of a doctor of arts program for $159,347, and the addition of staffed personnel for other departments. He asked the board to approve a state permanent building fund request for $2.5 million, the first phase of the new library to be constructed.

Budgets for Boise State College and Lewis-Clark Normal School will be discussed Thursday. The institution presidents will meet late Thursday afternoon, in a joint session.

In earlier action Thursday, the University of Idaho submitted a budget request for fiscal 1971-72 of $14,039,413 in state funds. President Ernest W. Hartung asked for $9.9 million from the permanent building fund for major building requirements, with $3.8 million to go for an addition to the physical science building. The building priority request included $1.5 million for a college of Law building, and $470,000 for agricultural science addition. All institutions are developing budgets by a formula devised by the Office of Higher Education.

Holley Runs for Auditor

BOISE (UPI) — State Budget Director Jack Holley disclosed Wednesday his intentions to seek the Republican nomination for state auditor as a write-in candidate.

A present, nobody else has filed or announced for the nomination. It was reported, however, that Holley has the backing of key Republican leaders in the state — including Gov. Don Samuelson.

Holley said he has had the idea of running under consideration for some time, but actually made his decision to seek the nomination only in the past two weeks.

He already has had leaflets printed announcing his candidacy by write-in for the Aug. 4 primary election. On this leaflet he states that "Jack will modernize and bring the state auditor's office into the 20th century."

A director of the State Bureau of Public Accounts prior to his appointment as budget director, Holley has not always agreed with incumbent Auditor Don R. Williams, a Democrat unopposed for nomination to a fourth, four-year term.

"We're going to get this new accounting system going," Holley said, referring to a program ordered by the legislature and being implemented in part by the Management Services Division of the Department of Administrative Services.

"That's going to be the crux of the whole thing," he said, in an interview. "The auditor is opposed to it and the state needs it."

WHEN YOU THINK OF SWENSEN'S MARKETS, THINK

SMALL POTATOES

OF COURSE, SWENSEN'S MARKETS NEVER HAVE BEEN KNOWN FOR BEING BIG OPERATORS, BUT THIS WEEKEND, things have reached a new low, POOR SWENSEN'S MARKETS ARE ACTUALLY PUSHING SMALL POTATOES!

Oh, Swensen's admit that large potatoes are nice, because they're about twice as large as small potatoes but on the other hand, Swensen's Small Potatoes cost less than half as much as large potatoes. THAT'S NICE TOO!!! WHAT IF ALL BOILS down to—is that you can use Small Potatoes for boiling or frying or just about anything you can use large potatoes for. AND YOU can use the money you have left over for ANYTHING AT ALL. . . .

WENDELL—There are no contests in Gooding county's primary election Tuesday, but county voters will be able to vote for a native son for governor for the first time since the early 1920's.

Vernon Havenscroft, who is completing his fourth consecutive term in the State Legislature, is a lifelong resident of the Gooding area and has served on the Revenue and Taxation, Resources and Conservation, Education and Transportation committees.

Seeking their party nomination for state senator in District 22, which includes Camas, Gooding and Jerome counties, are Don Fredericksen, Democrat incumbent, and Lee Barron, Fairfield, a political newcomer to the GOP ranks.

Mr. Fredericksen, a veteran legislator, has served on the Finance, Transportation, Defense, Fish and Game and Agricultural committees. Mr. Barron, a Coward rancher, is past president of the Fairfield Chamber of Commerce, a 32nd degree Mason, a state chairman of the Idaho Young Republican Federation, and a graduate of the University of Idaho with a degree in geological engineering.

Republican candidate for state representative in District 22-A which includes Camas and Gooding counties is Ken Bradshaw, 58, a newcomer to local politics. A native Idahoan, he has served on the board of directors of two organizations and was on the Wendell city council for four years.

Joe McCarter, Corral area rancher, is the Democratic candidate for the state representative post being vacated by Mr. Havenscroft. Mr. McCarter has served as Democratic district chairman, is 39 years old and a World War II veteran.

Ben Gläuner, Democrat incumbent, with 12 years' experience, seeks the nomination for first district county commissioner. A Gooding county resident for 35 years, he has served on the Fair and Rodeo board and currently is master of the Gooding Grange.

On the GOP ticket, Ralph Faulkner, a newcomer, seeks the nomination for first district county commissioner. A sheep and cattle rancher, he was named to the Livestock Hall of Fame five years ago, has served on the Highway and Cemetery boards and is on the American Falls water board. He belongs to the Masonic lodge and the Shriners.

Clyde Petersen, Republican incumbent, will have no competition in the November general election in his bid for reelection as commissioner in District 3, unless Democrats produce a write-in candidate. Sibyl Stevens, incumbent Democrat, is completing her third term as Gooding county clerk and recorder. A graduate of Hagerman High School, she attended business college in Salt Lake City. She is president of the Idaho Association of County Auditors.

Also seeking re-election are Andrew F. James, Democrat, for prosecuting attorney; Doris Robertson, Republican, for treasurer, and Wesley Trounson, Republican, assessor.

Richfield Couple Recites Promise

RICHFIELD — Alberta LaAnn Brown became the bride of Michael Nyle Swainston in a ceremony July 18 at the Richfield LDS Church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Brown, and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nyle Swainston, all Richfield.

Bishop Ken Dixon performed the double ring ceremony with the bridal pair standing before an archway formed of white pompon daisies and greenery tied with white bows and centered with wedding bells.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length empire-styled gown of white satin with lace overlay. The sleeves were styled of brocade lace with pleated lace ruffled wrists. Ruffled neckline and waist accents of a large satin bow in the back and self bows were fashion details.

Her imparted silk illusion double veil was held by a tangle of seed pearls. A golden heart necklace, a gift from the bridegroom, "enhanced" her wedding gown, and she carried a crescent bouquet of white carnations tipped with aqua, and tied with aqua satin ribbon streamers.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Colleen Brown, as maid of honor, and cousins, Brenda Johnson, and Mickey Holland, and Deborah Swainston, a high school classmate.

Terry Swainston, serving in the Navy, attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Kelly Swainston, brother of the bridegroom; Randy Jones, Green River, Wyo., cousin of the bridegroom, and Don Wayment, Burley, uncle of the bride.

Mrs. Kenneth Johnson was organist and was piano accompanist for the vocalists, Mrs. W. T. Flavel and Mrs. Lyle Deeds.

A reception was held in the LDS Cultural Hall. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake decorated with aqua roses and silver leaves and topped with miniature bridal figurines. The table was covered with white lace over aqua and decorated with aqua bows.

The cake was served by Mrs. LaAnn Brown, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Triss Swainston, aunt of the bridegroom. Mrs. Wendell Johnson, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Keith Swainston, the bridegroom's aunt, paired punch. Guests were registered by Mrs. Richard Gill, Burley, aunt of the bride, and gifts were arranged by Rhonda Swainston, cousin of the bridegroom, Becky Sorenson and Mrs. Gilbert Sudek.

Guest tables were covered with white linen and centered with salters containing aqua-colored water and pompon daisies.

Guests attended from Utah, Nevada, Wyoming, Idaho Falls, Twin Falls, Ketchum, Burley, Shoshone and Richfield.

After a honeymoon trip to Salmon, the couple reside in Ketchum, where the bridegroom is employed by the Union Pacific Railroad.

Two Valley Jay-C-Ettes Are Honored

RUPERT — "Jay-C-Ette of the Month" for June and July have been announced by members of the Rupert organization, which met at the home of Mrs. Kay Vaughn.

Vonnie Short was honored for June and Linda Rausch for July. The honor is paid to those who excel in organization activity.

Alma Caddy and Judy Johnson were each installed new members by Myra Lively, Buhl, District No. 8 vice president.

The Rupert group were awarded the traveling trophy recently during a district meeting at Gooding. The award was for having the most members present to the meeting.

Plans have been made for the annual family picnic for Jaycees and Jay-C-Ettes to be held Aug. 16 under the chairmanship of Linda Rausch. An orientation will be held Aug. 12 at the home of Jan Halstead to introduce the Jay-C-Ette program to any interested person who wants to attend.

Canisters for the fund-raising project to help cystic fibrosis, will be set out in September.

Besides Mrs. Lively, special guests included Pat Price, Shirley Wildo, Carol Fields and Donna Dillard, all Buhl; Georgia Dillon, Burley and

Testing Set

JEROME — When did you last have your pressure cooker tested? Dial gauges, old or new, should be checked each season.

Pressure gauges must be accurate to get the processing temperatures needed to make food keep.

Thomas Maberly from Rupert will test pressure cooker gauges in the office of the extension-home economics agent, Jerome County, on Aug. 4 from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. He has performed this service in several counties throughout the state. He asks a 50 cent service charge for each lid tested.

You can bring your pressure cooker lid to the county agent's office in the basement of the Jerome Courthouse, Tuesday morning between 9 a. m. and noon. Mr. Maberly will test the gauges, check pop-off valves and recommend corrections. Lids can be picked up that afternoon.

Sharon Burgot, Rupert. The next meeting is scheduled for Aug. 28 at the home of Edith Malora. Interested persons are welcome.

CHERRY CAKE
1/4 cup shortening
1 1/4 cups sugar
2 eggs
2 1/4 cups flour
1 teaspoon soda
1/4 cup water (or if there is juice from cherries, use it)
2 cups cherries and juice
1/2 cup nuts
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon almond extract
Cream sugar and shortening together. Add eggs and beat well. Then add flour, soda and water and mix well. Add the two cups of cherries and juice and then mix with spoon. Add nuts, lemon juice and almond extract and blend well with spoon. Bake for 35 to 40 minutes.

SAUCE FOR TOPPING
1/4 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup water
2 tablespoons flour
Cook over low heat until it thickens then remove from stove and add butter and one teaspoon vanilla. Pour on cake and then gently poke holes in cake so sauce will go in it or serve sauce over cake after it is cut.

Barbara Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woody L. Reed, and James L. Thiel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Thiel, Nampa, were united in marriage in rites July 18 at the Episcopal Church of the Ascension in Twin Falls.

Rev. John Riley performed the double ring ceremony before a background of baskets of blue daisy chrysanthemums and white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of silk crepe. The empire line bodice and bell sleeves were of organza backed lace. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a headpiece of petals outlined with seed pearls.

Mrs. Robert Chase, Boise, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Sally McAtee, Twin Falls, was maid-of-honor, with Beth Boren, Nampa, and Angela Abundis, Twin Falls, as bridesmaids.

Best man was Ron Neil, Boise. Curt Thiel, Nampa, brother of the bridegroom, Jay Ulrich, Boise, and Jess Kruse, Logan, Utah, served as ushers. Mrs. Mary Howell, organist, played the traditional wedding music.

Guests were registered at a reception immediately after the ceremony in the Bishop Rhea Auditorium by Liz Thiel, Nampa, niece of the bridegroom. The bride's table was covered with white organza over blue satin. The table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with blue bells and small roses and topped with the traditional miniature bride and bridegroom. Silver candelabra with blue candles flanked the cake. A silver coffee service and punch bowl completed the table appointments.

Assisting at the bride's table were Caroline Olmstead and Linda Davis, Twin Falls; Mrs. Curt Thiel, Nampa, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and both Corgatelli and Betty Joe Brower, both Pocatello.

The bride was feted at a miscellaneous shower hosted by Mrs. Edward Benoit, Mrs. Rudy Ashenbrenner, Mrs. Gus Pene and Mrs. Frank Carpenter; and at a lingerie shower given by Mrs. E.W. McRoberts and Mrs. Robert Goss.

Out-of-town guests attended from Washington, Montana, Logan, Boise, Idaho Falls, Nampa, Pocatello, Twin Falls and the surrounding area.

SHOSHONE - MFL George Young was the best loser and is the new queen of the Richfield Diet-Does-It Club. This was for a three-month period, and she lost 15 pounds.

Mrs. W.T. Flavel, unit leader, made the announcement at the home of Mrs. Loyd Lee. Crowning ceremonies will be held later this month.

Mrs. Young also won the Fire Cracker Award for the weight losing contest which ended July 4. Mrs. Carl Riley was weekly weight losing champion to receive a treasure chest gift.

LONDON (UPI)—A band of London stockbrokers declared guerrilla war today on lengthening hemlines and threatened to snip the skirts of any woman under 30 who donned a dress falling lower than eight inches above her knees.

"We, the gentlemen of the stock exchange, object most heartily, strongly, vehemently and without reservation to women's skirts coming down," a declaration by 224 brokers to the newspaper Evening Standard said.

"We hereby declared that we, all 224 of us, henceforth shall carry scissors to cut any woman's skirt that is below eight inches above the knee, providing that in our estimation, she is under 30 years of age," the declaration continued.

"We reserve the right here-with to assess the age of any woman whose skirt we cut."

ROME (UPI)—Ruffles came on strong for winter at the Italian high-fashion collections Saturday.

They showed up as tiny edging peeking out from a black skirt, as trim for shoulders where sleeves were set in, as neck ruffs and as deep hem flounces that swept the floor for evening.

Renato Balestra showed a gozo for the innocent sophisticate, a black wool prep number with tiny ruffles over the shoulders and in horizontal rows down the tight bodice. There was a single deep ruffle in place of a collar, standing up Elizabethan style.

Grey tweed suits were trimmed with heavy black-silk braid and fastened with frogged closings. He gave matching color suede jackets to blue wool coats and skirts, and made coats out of wide horizontal bands of suede and kid.

Shoes had slight platform soles and elegantly carved out Queen Anne heels. All were made to match dresses. For daytime many suits and coats were worn with matching suede high boots, very slim and zipped up the back.

The most abundant ruffles were at the Fontana Sisters, who put multiple rows of silk gauze ruffles around the crope veil of a bridal outfit. The bride's face, hiding the train-length opaque veil chin. A straight white bridal fastened with a hook and eye to gown had a deep hem flounce form a circle of ruffles around of rows of ruffling.

DEAR ABBY: I just broke off my engagement with a guy I went with for 4 years. (No tears. It was mutual.) We've been officially engaged (with a diamond) for nearly 2 years. What I need to know is this: What do I have to give back? He has given me quite a number of gifts since I've known him. First off, he gave me a hope chest and a complete set of cookware which is still in the original box. He also gave me some stuff that belonged to his mother, like a set of dishes and a crocheted tablecloth, that her mother had given to her. There are also some things I am using, like a portable TV, and a window-type air conditioner, and a sewing machine. I've heard that possession is nine tenths of the law, and I am wondering if maybe I should just keep everything except the diamond ring, which I already gave back?

ELSI IN ROCKFORD: Possession may be nine tenths of the law, but it's the other one tenth that could get you into trouble. ALL gifts that were in his family (the dishes and tablecloth) should be returned. And so should gifts your fiance intended to be used by the two of you after your marriage. The set of cookware, I keep the hope chest, however. A girl's gotta have hope!

DEAR ABBY: I am 17 years old and am like walking around in a fog. I just found out that my "mother" is really my aunt, and my "aunt" is my real mother. My mother wasn't married at the time, so she gave me to her married sister to raise. Later, my real mother got married and had children. That means my brothers and sisters are really my cousins, and the kids I always thought were my cousins are really my half-sisters and brothers. I feel terrible to think almost everybody in the family has known this all along and I had to find it out from a stranger. There is nothing I can do about it, because I feel toward the aunt who raised me just like any kid would feel toward his own mother. And I don't honestly feel anything extra special for my real mother who I thought was just another aunt.

I guess what I want to say is this: Please tell people if they have a secret like this in their family, it's best to tell the kids before they hear it from strangers.

HURT AND IN A FOG: Thank you for some excellent advice.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to know how an estate can be settled up without a lawyer getting a big cut. We have known people who have their affairs in order, and have had wills stating what to leave to whom, and still the lawyer gets part of the estate. It just doesn't seem right to me. Please answer right away.

DEAR NEEDS: I don't know what you mean by a "big cut." A lawyer is entitled to a legal fee for the work he does, but every lawyer does not come in for a "part of the estate" merely because he acts as the legal counsel for it.

DEAR ABBY: This is for CARL, your correspondent who thinks that when women can do a man's job, they deserve to be "upgraded."

I have a suggestion: How about "downgrading" the men to the status of women? For example, let them start by picking up their dirty socks and underwear. And let them make such executive decisions as which brand of detergent to use. Let them do six loads of laundry a week, fold and iron it, and have dinner on the table at six o'clock when the wife comes home from an air-conditioned office.

Instead of "growing ulcers" and suffering heart attacks, we might let them sink into the rut of boredom of housewifery that makes so many women alcoholics, nagging wives, possessive mothers and unhappy—middle-aged nobodys.

Also, let's put our scientific know how to work and go all the way with sex change and transplants. If HE will go through childbirth, I'll gladly play "tag with Charley." Who knows? Maybe things will improve.

Bag-Living Know-How Important

Planning for a vacation trip brings to mind not only the happy carefree days ahead but the best way of packing your bag so that living out of a suitcase will be easy.

"Packing a suitcase can be a simple matter. And, since the same principles apply for any size bag — weekend or fortnight — you can pack one suitcase properly, you can pack whatever type luggage is desired," observes Violet Hacklin, F.W. Woolworth's fashion coordinator, who does a lot of travelling herself.

Like most rules in life, you start at the bottom, placing heavy articles like shoes and purses at the back. This is done so that when the case is upright the heavy items will not beat down on crushables. Stuff the space inside the shoes and purses with stockings, brassieres, panties, small bolts. It's a good idea to put the shoes in plastic bags so that they won't snag and it also prevents your clothes from becoming soiled. Roll lingerie (it takes less room), and tuck into corners or spaces that need filling. This will prevent your clothes from shifting when the bag is tossed about.

When folding clothes, place a sheet of tissue over a dress and fold right over it, then the dress will not wrinkle. This will save hours of ironing.

Toiletries and cosmetics should be placed in a cosmetic case and put along the back or sides of your bag. Empty contents of glass bottles into plastic ones. Next stack blouses, nightgown and sweaters into little heaps. Try to even out the mounds to the same height. Fill the spaces in between with gloves and scarfs.

Alternate the collars of boxes of socks, one facing toward one end of the suitcase, the next to the other, otherwise the pile will be a couple of inches higher at one end.

Here is a clever tip: Cut a piece of corrugated cardboard to fit the length and width of your luggage. Place it on top of the layer of clothes already in there and use it as a shelf on which to pack your dresses, skirts, jackets and robe. Then you can simply lift these articles from the suitcase all at once, ready for hanging, when the shelf is removed. This will also help you to find things in the bottom of the bag without endless searching and rumpling.

"One last word of advice: Stocking up on toiletries and cosmetics in advance guarantees against missing necessities and avoids the higher prices usually charged at resorts," concludes Miss Hacklin. "And don't forget your bathing suit!"

Happy vacation.

Seating Arrangements Worked Out for New T.F. Grandstands

FILER — Inquiries and requests for reserved seats for the Twin Falls County Fair, Sept. 8-12 already are beginning to arrive at the fair office, according to Mrs. Tom Shouse, wife of the fair secretary-manager.

Many of the regulars always sat in the same seats, year after year, she explained, and habits are hard to break. Theatre managers and church ushers will agree that many people have pronounced likings for the same seats each time they attend.

Mrs. Shouse consults an architect's blue print of seating arrangements for the fair and rodeo performances. The new grandstands hold 3218 regular and reserved and 366 box seats.

Future plans include painting each section of the grandstand in different colors and subsequently to have the tickets correspond in color to the sections of the grandstand.

Painting of the seats, as well as roofing for the grandstand, will not be included in this year's plans, although possibly the aisles between the seats may be painted this year.

The new seats promise to be more comfortable with their backrests. They will be made of aluminum, and placed on the cement seats. The new seats will include a total of 38 inches room compared to the former 24-inch of the old ones, which will enable people to walk in front and back of the seats with ease.

BLUEPRINTS FOR SEATING arrangements in the new Twin Falls County fairgrounds grandstand are being studied by Mrs. Tom Shouse, wife of the secretary-manager of the fair. Requests for seats are already being received in Mrs. Shouse's office even though the seats aren't even completed as yet. The new seats, complete with back rests will be of aluminum on steel. Mrs. Shouse must work from the blueprints in making reservations for the 1970 fair.

Burley, Shoshone to Get Relief on Taxes

Officials of two Magic Valley towns today expressed satisfaction that the State Tax Commission has approved their requests for property tax increases.

The commission has given authority for Burley to raise an additional $70,000 and Shoshone, $3,709. Petitions from Cassia county and the city of Ketchum are being studied while the Twin Falls county petition is being processed.

The requests for tax relief, asking permission for the taxing units to levy additional taxes results from the passage of H.B. 304, limiting any tax increase to no more than four per cent.

White Clouds Study Available to Public

Copies of a study plan for the White Clouds area, Boulder and Pioneer Mountain, ranges are now available to the public and interested persons are being asked by U. S. Forest Service officials to obtain copies and submit their comments within the next two weeks.

Public comment is especially urged before the study is finalized and recommendations made.

In 1969, the Forest Service announced a comprehensive land use study to determine the best plan for management of the highly scenic and mineralized areas. This study area covers ranges in the Sawtooth and Challis National Forests.

In a joint statement Thursday, Supervisors A. E. Fournier, Sawtooth Forest, and Wes Carlson, Challis Forest, explained the outline for the study and asked for public opinions as to land use and management. Some phases of the study are now well underway but the study plan has not been finalized, the officials said.

"Objectives of the study are to determine long range management goals and the best land use mix in relation to land capabilities," the supervisors said.

"To meet these objectives, a complete ecological inventory and a socio-economic evaluation will be made. Once this study information has been summarized public meetings will be held. A determination of land uses mixes and development of management plans can then be completed," they added.

Persons wishing to review the study plan may obtain copies from the Sawtooth National Forest office, 1525 Addison Ave. E., Twin Falls, 83301 or the Challis National Forest, Forest Service Building, Challis, Idaho, 83226. Comments should be made to these offices by mid-August.

Cassia Slates Races for 3 Nominations Tuesday

BURLEY — Cassia county voters will have three contests in Tuesday's primary election, all on the GOP ticket. There are no Democratic candidates for any of the county offices, making the results of Tuesday's vote almost a cinch for election in November.

The contests are for state representative, with three candidates seeking the two posts for District 25, which comprises Cassia County; assessor and coroner, with two candidates for each nomination. J. Vard Chaburn, Albion, veteran legislator; James G. Martin, Burley, seeking his second term, and a newcomer, Ernest A. Hale, Burley, are vying for the two legislative seats.

Assessor Calvin G. Helner is poised in his bid for re-election by Jim Henson, while in the coroner race, C. Bruce Young is opposed for re-election by Dr. Leslie L. Fillmore.

Rep. Chaburn has served seven terms and is chairman of the Resources and Conservation committee, chairman of the Legislative Council's State Lands committee and in 1969 was chosen Legislator by the Idaho Wildlife Federation.

Rep. Martin served on the Appropriations, Transportation and Defense committees and is an active farmer and businessman. He is in partnership with his brother, Max, in diversified farming between Burley and Oakley. He is a director of the South Idaho Waterusers Association and he and his brother also Martin's Guys n' Dolls in the Overland Shopping Center.

Mr. Hale, a native of Oakley, received his education there. After serving four years during World War II, he went into the trucking business with his father. They operated this for 10 years, and in 1958 went into quarrying and supplying Oakley stone commercially to commercial outlets.

Magic Valley Break-ins Reported At T.F. Motel, Shop

More than $100 worth of money and merchandise is reported missing in break-ins at the Holiday Inn and adjacent golf pro shop.

The theft was discovered about 4:30 a.m. Thursday by employees at the motel.

Officers said about $20 from four soft drink vending machines in the motel was taken.

About $8 is missing from a vending machine in the pro shop. About $80 worth of merchandise and a portable television set also were taken in the pro shop break-in.

Officers said entry to the shop was gained by breaking a front door glass. A water hose also was put through the hole in the door and turned on, water flooding the premises.

Persons having gladioli to show are asked to come early Saturday as judging begins at 11 a.m.

Outdoor cooking has become a multi-million dollar business, says National Geographic.

Mayor of Fairfield Dies at Sun Valley

FAIRFIELD — Charles "Chick" Frederick Dickinson, 56, mayor of Fairfield, died Tuesday in the Sun Valley Hospital after a brief illness.

He was born Aug. 28, 1913, in Hagerman and spent his youth there, graduating from Hagerman High School in 1931. On April 9, 1934, in Seattle, Wash. he married Thelma McReynolds, also of Hagerman. In 1934 they moved to Fairfield, where he was game warden for six years. He owned and operated the Fairfield Motor Co., and was distributor for American Oil Co. from 1945 until his death. He was a member of the Fairfield Village board since 1951. He served as mayor of Fairfield the past 13 years and a member of the Masonic Blue Lodge 10 at Hailley and a member of Boise Valley Scottish Rite Bodies.

Four years ago he was named to the State Water Pollution Control Board by Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

Surviving are his widow, Thelma, Fairfield; two sons, Dr. George W. Dickinson, Ponca City, Okla.; Joe C. Dickinson, serving with the U. S. Navy; a foster son, Preston Mabe, Boise; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Bungar, San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Margaret Walrath, Orofino; a brother, William Dickinson, Buena Park, Calif., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 11 a. m. in the Fairfield Community Church. Masonic graveside rites will be conducted at 4 p. m. in the Cloverdale Memorial Park, Boise. The family suggests donations to the Idaho Youth Ranch, Rupert. Friends may call at Thompson Chapel Thursday evening and all day Friday and at the church in Fairfield from 9 a. m. Saturday until time of services.

Gooding Boy Gets Top Post

GOODING — Joe Sagors, Gooding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sagors, was elected president of the National High School Rodeo Association Finals at Fargo, N. Dak. Wednesday.

Some 600 young people from 24 states are competing at the national finals at Fargo this week. Joe is the first national officer from Idaho.

Mr. Moe Sagors, state officer, stated that Idaho will host the National High School Rodeo at Filer next summer.

130 Take Lessons At Filer

FILER — More than 130 young people have signed up for the swimming lessons at Harmon Park, according to Charles Gill, director for the Filer Summer Recreation program.

The lessons began this week and are the highlight of the summer program. Buses transport the swimmers to and from the High School to the park.

Other recreations offered this summer include baseball, softball, badminton, croquet and tennis. Tennis offered for the first time this year has proved very popular, according to Mr. Gill.

Croquet tournaments commence next week at the Filer City Park and will be followed by tournaments in tennis, badminton and possibly softball.

Solution Viewed on Old Cars

There may be a solution to the problem of hundreds of abandoned, useless and wrecked automobile bodies in the backyards, on vacant lots and other private property in Twin Falls.

City Manager Jean Millar said Thursday several new aspects have come to light recently which may provide a way of ridding the citizens of the burden of the old cars in an economical and easy manner.

Plans for an old car "round up" are being considered, Mr. Millar said, in which the city will provide the leadership and seek assistance from all available firms with facilities which can be of use.

He said a three man committee of city council members, headed by Winston Jones, surveyed the city finding several thousand cars, stripped, abandoned, wrecked and of no further use to anyone. These are in direct violation of the city ordinance which makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by a maximum of $100 fine or 30 days in jail, for keeping such vehicles on public property unless enclosed in a building.

Mr. Millar said a new firm with "smasher" equipment is planning to locate in Twin Falls and begin crushing car bodies for trucking to a shredder on the west coast. With this operation and the baler owned and operated by Jay Hudleston, Mr. Millar said, a round-up could be staged over a specific period of time to collect and remove these car bodies at a nominal fee. This would free the individual owner, now in violation of the city ordinance, of the problem of personally disposing of each individual car body.

Mr. Millar said details of the plan are still under consideration but his office hopes to call on wrecker operations, organizations and individuals with flat bed trucks and other equipment. A central point will be established where individuals may call in requesting removal of the abandoned car bodies and the round up crews will take over. It will then be possible to strictly enforce the city without working an unreasonable hardship on the individual owners, the city manager said.

T.F. Man Faces Trial Over Theft

Robert Luke Francis, 33, Twin Falls, was bound over Wednesday to stand trial in Fifth District Court on a charge of receiving stolen property.

County officers filed two complaints of receiving stolen property against Francis last February.

In a preliminary hearing Wednesday morning before Probate Judge Eugene McCoy, one of the charges was dismissed for lack of positive identification of one of the items reputed to be stolen, a left-handed power saw.

The charge on which he was bound over concerned Francis' possession of allegedly stolen hand tools.

He was remanded back to the custody of the sheriff, and bond on the charge was continued at $1,000. Francis has been in the Twin Falls County Jail since Jan. 30, 1970.

Picnic Set

BURLEY — Members of Local No. 218 of Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America union are reminded of the annual summer picnic at 6 p. m. Saturday at Salmon Park.

All members and their families are invited. Each member is asked to furnish a covered dish, his own table service and $1 cover charge.

Show Slated

The 10th annual show for the Idaho Gladioli Society will be held from 7:30 to 9 p. m. Saturday and from noon to 6 p. m. Sunday at Larry Barnes Chevrolet, 2800 Fairview Ave., Boise.

Persons having gladioli to show are asked to come early Saturday as judging begins at 11 a. m.

Outdoor cooking has become a multi-million dollar business, says National Geographic.

Absentee Vote

Offices of the Twin Falls County Clerk, on the second floor of the main courthouse building, will be open Saturday from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. for the convenience of county residents who must cast absentee ballots.

Harold Lancaster, clerk, said Thursday his office is normally closed Saturdays but as a convenience to working persons who will be away Tuesday, the additional day is being provided. Deadline for casting absentee ballots is not until 5 p. m. Monday and they will also be received throughout Monday at the clerk's office.

Social

HAGERMAN — The Methodist Youth Fellowship will sponsor an ice cream social from 7:30 to 10 p. m. Friday at the United Methodist Church.

A cake auction will be held at 9 p. m. Proceeds will be used to help furnish curtains for some of the club rooms.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS IN Twin Falls are being updated to conform with the loop traffic pattern recently implemented for the through traffic. Men from the Twin Falls maintenance office of the State Highway Department and the city are putting up a new loop to help control the roundabout at Second Avenue and Main Street.

Today's Market And Financial Report

NEW YORK (UPI)—Process on the New York Stock Exchange sagged past mid-session Thursday. Volume was relatively light. The Dow Jones industrial average was off almost one point at 734.67. The S&P 500 index measuring all stocks traded, eased 0.03 percent on 1,395 issues. Declines were ahead of advances, 561 to 505.

Investors apparently took to the sidelines to await President Nixon's news conference after night fall. Losers of a point or more included Walt Disney, by 4 1/2, Norfolk 3/4, National Starch 1/4, Norfolk & Western 1/4 and Fairchild Camera 3/4.

Q) Feel that pollution control is a rising field and my own research indicates that American Air Filter is one of the leaders in this field. What is your opinion? T.H.

A) American Air Filter obtains nearly all of its sales volume from equipment and systems to improve and control the quality of environmental air, a field where it's a leading producer. Company reported improved earnings in both the first and second quarters of fiscal 1970, with sales rising 25 per cent in the first half and net income gaining 21 per cent. These earnings support analysts' projection that full-year results should be up 10 per cent - 15 per cent from last year's net. Prospects for major product lines are favorable, although some areas will be vulnerable to cyclical influences. Stock has modest speculative appeal at current depressed levels.

Q) I have 800 shares of Bolt Beranek & Newman bought at $22. Now around 7, is there a good possibility that this stock will recover gradually or should I take a loss and switch to something else? B.R.

A) Engaged in consulting and research in the fields of science and technology; Bolt Beranek & Newman has in recent years expanded into the production and sale of industrial products. In 1969, company derived 59 per cent of its revenues from professional services and 41 per cent from industrial products - the more profitable area. Approximately 20 per cent of sales are in the field of noise control. BBN is well known for its research and consulting work in this area, and is one of the only publicly held firms which derives such a sizable portion of sales from this endeavor. While light money, the slowdown in the economy and continued Government R&D cutbacks will adversely affect earnings for 1970, sales are expected to approach $20 million versus $15 million in 1969 and per share profits should approximate 40 cents - up 25 per cent. Future results should be aided by the increasing emphasis on industrial products. With patience, you may see gradual share recovery.

SUN VALLEY — All rooms but one offer a double view of the Sun-Valley scenery near the Irvin Cahen home on Fairways in Sun Valley. The new home will be featured on the Aug. 8 Tour of Homes sponsored by the Ketchum-Sun Valley Community Library Board.

The Cahens moved to the valley on a seasonal basis in December, 1968, and contracted Neil Wright to design the high two story home which offers three bedrooms and three baths, a guest room, and a large storage room on the second floor, referred to as the attic.

L'Herrison's Twin Falls did the interior decorating and Bob Lee is responsible for the landscaping.

BHSTATE POSTOFFICE — TEXARKANA, Tex. (UPI) — Texas and Arkansas boast the only post office in the United States that straddles a state line. It serves both Texarkana, Tex., and Texarkana, Ark. The site was picked in 1841 when Texas was still a republic.

Ketchum Man Is Sentenced

KETCHUM — Robert Donald Manning, 43, Ketchum, has been sentenced to five years in the Boise Penitentiary after pleading guilty to a charge of possession of narcotics.

Fifth District Judge Charles Scoggin handed down the sentence this week after receiving a pre-sentence investigation report in the matter. The prison term was reduced to three years probation, and Manning was released. He had been free on $2000 bond.

He was arrested in June by Ketchum city police chief Dennis Haynes who testified that about two and a half pounds of marijuana had been discovered on the man and at his home.

News Of Record

BLAINE COUNTY Sheriff's Blotter

No citations were issued Monday morning when three vehicles collided two miles south of Bellevue on Highway 93. Fredrick C. Allen, 76, Halley, was driving a 1959 Oldsmobile which was struck in the rear by a 1969 Oldsmobile driven by Gerald Newcomb, 53, Sun Valley, when Allen stopped suddenly to avoid hitting a motorcycle which pulled into the southbound lane headed north. The motorcycle was part of an escort group piloting a group of condominiums to Sun Valley and reportedly pulled into the southbound lane to get the vehicles to give enough clearance for the wide loads.

Following the Newcomb-Allen collision, Newcomb's car was struck by a 1956 Ford driven by Roy Burkett, 52, Shoshone, who was also unable to stop in time to avoid a collision. Damages were estimated at $50 to the 1959 Oldsmobile, $300 to the 1969 Oldsmobile, and $600 to the Ford.

Solons Get First Win Of Year In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Home runs by Frank Howard and Mike Epstein powered the Washington Senators to a 4-2 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers Wednesday night.

It was the Senators' first victory in Milwaukee this year and clinched a victory in the season series with the Brewers. Howard's home run, his 20th, gave the Senators a 2-0 lead in the fifth inning and, after Milwaukee tied it, Epstein hit a solo blast to lead off the eighth and put Washington ahead for good. It was his 14th home run of the year.

Box score for Senators vs Milwaukee. Senators: 4 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors. Milwaukee: 2 runs, 2 hits, 1 error.

ISU Track Recruiting Successful

POCATELLO—Track can be said to be divided into four seasons. There are the cross country, indoor, and outdoor competitive seasons, and there is the recruiting season. Idaho State was highly successful in competition, placing second in conference cross country, placing high in indoor relays, and winning its seventh consecutive Big Sky Conference outdoor title.

The best season of all, however, may be the recruiting season, that time in the summer when the running shoe is worn until school starts. Coach Bob Beaton has lined up the best talent in the state of Idaho, some of it the best the state has ever produced. Then to go with it he has recruited outstanding high school, junior college and Jamaican talent.

SAFE AT HOME, Hobb Williams of OK Tire Wednesday night. Making the call is umpire Vern Smith. OK rallied in the seventh to win 10-9.

District Slowpitch Tourney To Be Tight

Although there will be five berths in the state tournament to salvage some feelings, the championship fight for the district slowpitch softball tournament next week should become a bitter thing.

The event, slated Aug. 6-9 at the two-Harmon-Park fields, will be double elimination but the luck of the draw appears to have put three of the strongest teams in a position to crimp each other badly in the first two nights.

Grizzly Transplant Plan Folds

BOISE—Tentative plans for transplanting grizzly bears in the upper Priest River drainage of the Idaho panhandle country as a cooperative project of the Idaho Fish and Game Department and the U. S. Forest Service have been dropped for the present, it was announced today in a joint statement.

John R. Woodworth, director of the Idaho Fish and Game Department, and Harold Anderson, supervisor of the Kaniksu National Forest, said that expressions of public concern, together with problems of handling, shipping and transplanting Ursus horribilis, the scientific name for grizzly bears, resulted in the decision to drop the project at this time.

Green Bay Vets Won't Answer Call

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—A sampling of Green Bay Packers Wednesday indicated most veterans would ignore the National Football League owners' invitation to veteran players to report for training camp Thursday night.

Linebacker Ray Nitschke, a star of five championship teams, said—word—that the owners would open their camps as a surprise to him, but "I believe most if not all of the Packers will support the (NFL Players') Association."

"I know I will not report until the Players Association says it's okay," Nitschke said. Defensive back Gordon Rulo said the association's "position is just," but that "it has not received a favorable press."

"If the owners said it in no way should be interpreted as a means to break the association, I'll have to go along with that. But any way you look at it, the move is a challenge to the strength of the association."

Saints To Ignore Lifting Of Ban

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Veteran Errol Linden said that of 17 New Orleans Saints who met Wednesday afternoon, "100 per cent" were against reporting to training camp Thursday.

The National Football League owners reversed themselves earlier Wednesday and announced they would open their training camps to veteran players.

Linden, who is the National Football League Players Association representative for the Saints, said, "There may be a few who will report, but basically we feel we have a strong issue and am hoping that no New Orleans Saints report."

Asked specifically if the veterans discussed the owners' opening of camp to them, Linden replied, "You might say the veterans are 100 per cent against reporting."

Sarazen and Hogan Rate In Nostalgia

HARRISON, N.Y. (UPI)—Ben Hogan and Gene Sarazen make a sentimental return to tournament golf Thursday, giving the $250,000 Westchester Classic a total of four stars who have won the world's four top championships.

Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player are others in the Westchester field whose records include triumphs in the British and U.S. Opens, the Masters and the PGA championship.

Nicklaus, who already has won the Classic once and again has his game in winning form, regained as the favorite to gain the $50,000 first-prize jackpot. However, Texan Bantam Ben and Sarazen, born in this hotbed of golf, were expected to pick up a large following over the 6,700-yard, par-72 West course at Westchester Country Club.

A field of 171 contestants, including the 60 leading money winners on this year's pro tour, began the first round of the four-day, 72-hole test. The only absentee from the leading money group was Britain's Tony Jacklin, winner of this year's U.S. Open, who is vacationing with his family in Portugal.

Twin Falls' behind the pitching of Darrell Groves, came out swinging against Burley. After scoring two in the first, Twin Falls began moving away in the third. Blackwood started it with a homer. Will Ward and Kevin Nelson got aboard on a walk and hit batsmen before Vic Wells tripped them in. Clark sent Wells home.

An inning later, Rick Semba opened with a triple and Steve McClain singled him home. Blackwood's double placed McClain and Ward singled to score Blackwood. An error led in the fourth run. Blackwood brought the 11 runs after five innings rule into effect when he lashed his second homer with two out in the fifth.

Stengel Spurns Birthdays, Just Wants Tomorrows

GLENDALE, Calif. (UPI)—"I don't want too many birthdays," Casey Stengel said Wednesday. "I just want to enjoy the next day."

The grand old man of baseball made that statement Tuesday evening at his 60th birthday party. Just arrived back from Cooperstown, N.Y., with his wife, Edna, where he watched the induction of four new members into the Hall of Fame, Stengel leading the attack with "I don't plan anything special. I'm gonna just take it easy. I've been getting a lot of telegrams and letters and phone calls. They're from a lot of nice people."

Although the former manager of the New York Yankees and Mets said he was "a little peeped out" from his trip to Cooperstown, he said he felt "good" and was in "good health."

On the night before his 80th birthday, Stengel was honored at a Little League dinner.

Shocked NFL Players Argue Through Night

CHICAGO (UPI)—National Football League players representatives, "shocked" by the opening of training camps for veterans by club owners, continued meeting into the early hours today.

The meeting began at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday. At about 2 a.m. today, a spokesman said the meeting might go for several more hours, but in any case nothing would be announced when it ended.

A news conference would be held later this morning, depending on when the meeting broke up, he said.

The meeting that began Wednesday evening came after NFL club owners reversed themselves and said that, in order to salvage "the entire 1970 season" they would open their training camps to veteran players. They said vets could return at 6 p.m. local time today, and any players not returning would be regarded as strikers.

The owners, who earlier had opened training camps to be in Chicago for a meeting today, the eve of the College All-Star Game.

Wednesday's action by the owners "shocked" the National Football League Players Association (NFLPA), spokesman Tom Vance said. Vance said the NFLPA had not been notified in advance of the move.

"It could mean the spilling of teams," Vance said. "And we are here now to try to prevent just such a thing from happening."

"We will do all within our power to resolve this dispute in accord with the wishes of all NFL players," Vance said. "All NFL players should be aware of the fact that they cannot be penalized or fined for not reporting to camp and that their right to strike and their standard player contract are protected by federal law."

More than 100 representatives and players showed up for the meeting and spokesmen said they were discussing "the entire matter of negotiations," giving their opinions and the other players' opinions.

The only team not officially represented was the Kansas City Chiefs, who play in Friday night's All-Star Game. Jim Tyrer, the Chiefs' representative, said the Chiefs would walk out after the All-Star Game if the dispute is not settled there.

Cowboys Rally Behind Childress To Overhaul Caldwell By 1-1-8

CALDWELL, (UPI) — Once more the Caldwell Cubs let an early lead slip through their fingers, this time to the tune of an 11-8 loss to the Magie Valley Cowboys Wednesday night.

Gaining momentum behind the relief pitching of Ed Childress, the Cowboys inflicted the eighth loss in nine games on the Cubs. Childress came in during the fourth inning and

Warriors Close to Reclaiming Barry

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A deal to return Rick Barry to the San Francisco Warriors of the National Basketball Association next season is nearing completion, the San Francisco Examiner said Wednesday.

Earl Foreman, owner of the Washington Caps of the rival American Basketball Association, was in San Francisco with a battery of lawyers to work out a deal, the newspaper reported.

Foreman, who bought the Oakland Oaks of the ABA and then moved them to Washington, will sell Barry's contract if he can settle on the right price, the report said.

The newspaper said "The deal is just about set and the Warriors... will make Barry's return to The City official this week."

Franklin Mielie, owner of the Warriors and who signed Barry to his first pro contract said he would stay out of the matter.

"This is between Earl and Rick," Mielie said. "It's certainly no secret we want Rick to come back, though, I'm just out in the hall waiting."

Barry, however, wasn't too optimistic. "I haven't heard from Mr. Foreman," the player said. "Yes, I've made an offer to buy up my contract, in effect, but he hasn't told me yes, no or maybe."

The Caps will move across the Potomac River and play in Virginia next season as the Squires. Barry has often said he would like to return to San Francisco where he has business interests.

Barry jumped to the ABA after two years with the Warriors. Last year he was prevented from returning to the NBA by a court order.

"I'm hopeful," he said. "And there are some good signs. But I've seen good signs before, only to be disappointed. There's no way I can say now that the deal's all set, because it just isn't. Who knows, maybe Mr. Foreman has changed his mind? He's a shrewd businessman."

Detroit Hosts 1971 All-Star Tilt

MONTREAL (UPI)—The 1971 Major League All-Star baseball game was awarded to Detroit Wednesday and Atlanta was selected to host the 1972 classic.

This was the only news of major interest to come from the annual league summer meetings as the 24 owners concluded a two-day series of sessions on a quiet note.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn described the get-together as "a housekeeping session. We received reports from various committees but it was basically a discussion meeting and not an action meeting."

All the important issues have been put aside until the December meetings which will take place in Los Angeles. One of the more important items on the agenda will be the setting up of a central scouting organization, and this will be discussed by all interested clubs.

Kuhn also announced that the National Association of Baseball officials, now located in Columbus, Ohio, will move to New York in 1971.

The owners further agreed to stage annual exhibition games at West Point, the Air Force Academy, and the Naval Academy. The West Point game will be an annual affair between the New York Yankees and the New York Mets, while the 22 other teams will alternate at the other two sites.

Keino Honored By President

NAIROBI (UPI)—Kip Keino, who won two medals in the recent British Commonwealth Games despite threats on his life, Wednesday was honored with the Order of the Burning Spear by Kenyan President Jomo Kenyatta.

The order of the Burning Spear is awarded for "outstanding services to the nation."

The 30-year-old police inspector won the 1,500 meters at Edinburgh's Meadowbank Stadium and finished third in the 5,000 meters last Saturday on the final day of competition.

The Kenyan team was given a lunch at State House by President Kenyatta, who congratulated the members on their fine performance in finishing fifth overall of the 42 competing teams.

President Kenyatta and the team "I am so overjoyed at your performance I am at a loss for words."

Giants Rally To Topple New York 4-3

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bobby Bonds sparked three-run seventh inning rally with his second homer and fourth hit of the game Wednesday to pace the San Francisco Giants to a 4-3 victory over the New York Mets in a game which was delayed by rain for an hour and 42 minutes in the fifth inning.

Bonds, who accounted for the Giants' first run with a solo homer in the fifth, put his team ahead, 3-2, in the seventh when he homered off reliever Rick Folker following a single by Frank Johnson. A walk, a wild pitch, an intentional walk and a double by Ken Henderson got the Giants an insurance run.

San Francisco (UPI)—The Chicago Cubs stole six bases, a National League high this season, and benefitted from home runs by Billy Williams, Johnny Callison and Randy Hundley to overpower the Houston Astros, 9-2, Wednesday.

Left-hander Ken Holtzman posted his 11th victory and had it easy after the Cubs staked him to six runs in the first inning when the three homers were hit.

Expos 4, Padres 3

MONTREAL (UPI)—Rusty Staub broke up a 3-1 tie with his 17th homer of the year and then saved the game with a spectacular catch as the Montreal Expos defeated the San Diego Padres 4-3, Wednesday night behind the four-hit pitching of rookie Carl Morton.

Cubs 9, Astros 2

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Cubs stole six bases, a National League high this season, and benefitted from home runs by Billy Williams, Johnny Callison and Randy Hundley to overpower the Houston Astros, 9-2, Wednesday.

Braves 9, Cards 7

ATLANTA (UPI)—Hank Aaron drove in five runs with his 27th and 28th homers of the season Wednesday night to give the Atlanta Braves a 9-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Aaron's second homer, the 562nd of his career, was a three-run wrong-field blast to right that highlighted a five-run seventh inning rally by the Braves and broke a 6-6 tie. Aaron's first home run climaxed a four-run uprising in the third.

The Cards came back with a four-run outburst own in the fifth as Lou Brock tripled.

Reds 4, Pirates 3

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Pete Rose drove in three runs with his pair of singles as the Cincinnati Reds eked out a 4-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday night to give Gary Noland his 14th victory.

Behavior Rule Scored By Players

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Professional football players would have to shave off their sideburns and hang up the mod clothing under a new behavior code the owners are trying to impose, according to a San Francisco sports writer.

The six-point code, laughed off as a joke by the players when it was first suggested several months ago, has become a key issue in current talks between the players and the National Football League owners, according to Wells Twombly of the San Francisco Examiner.

Among other things, the code would require players to "modify extreme fashions of hair and dress," according to Twombly. This would mean banning long hair and "natural" cuts. Sideburns would end at the mid-ear and there would be no whiskers.

"Extreme fashions" in clothing would be forbidden.

Players would be forbidden to criticize publicly their former teams or teammates when traded. They would be banned from making public appearances for a fee during the season but would be expected to speak to civic groups as part of their regular employment duties, without compensation.

Twombly said players would be asked to reduce outside activities and businesses during the season.

The code would also forbid pro gridders from writing articles, books or even keeping diaries on what their experiences during the season, on grounds all this information belongs to the team.

South had no trouble counting to eight tricks, but his partner had put him in game and, somehow or other, he had to find a way to get nine.

There was no chance for a fourth trick in spades. Whichever opponent held four spades wasn't going to throw one away. Hearts were even more hopeless. He didn't have time to cut up dummy's fourth heart.

A defunctist would have fun his top cards and settled for one down but South was a firm believer in giving the cards and his opponent his every chance to help him.

That meant he had to get East and West to play clubs for him. The Statue of Liberty play was indicated and South led a low heart to his 10 at trick two.

West was in with the queen and went into an executive session. What did South have for his bid? Nothing in spades. Surely the king of hearts and something in clubs. Perhaps the ace. Probably just four diamonds, all of which would wind up as tricks.

West decided that it was up to him to start the club suit, since otherwise South would have time to set up a heart trick.

By that time, West had thought himself into the losing line of play. He led the three of clubs. East rose with the ace and led the suit back. East knew that South didn't hold the king of hearts but was sure that he held the ace and jack.

West was in with the king and could have saved the day by playing hearts. But West was still acting under the wrong idea. He led an other-club-and-South-had-his-ninth-tricks.

OUT OUR WAY

FAMILY CIRCUS

GASOLINE ALLEY

NUMBER OF WIVES in Great Britain have taken to opening secret savings accounts. I'm told. They don't mention same to their husbands. This is because it's still the law there that a husband is entitled to any money his wife manages to save out of her housekeeping budget.

STRONGEST THING in nature for its size and weight is the feather of a bird. ONE MARRIAGE in five now is a remarriage, reports our Love and War man. IN ARIZONA you'll get a bounty if you shoot a cougar. If you shoot one in Florida, you'll get jailed. NO PRESIDENT before John F. Kennedy had served in the Navy, but every President since has done so. WERE YOU AWARE the least infectious disease among men is leprosy?

PERSONAL NOTE -- Got into a little discussion the other day about favorite foods, and I named mine: Corn on the cob, cracked crab, artichokes, steamed clams, raw celery, spare ribs and fried chicken. The ladyfriend promptly pointed out all of these are fingerfoods or mostly so. And it's her contention, that folks who prefer fingerfoods just never get the hang of knives and forks. That's not right. Still, it's odd these selected preferences turn out to have that thing in common.

CLIENT ASKS IF any human ever survived that ailment known as hydrophobia. Hardly any. Couple of years ago a 25-year-old girl in Rio de Janeiro recovered. But she is said to be the first in all of history to do so. IF YOU'RE GOING camping, be careful on the fifth day out. That's the most dangerous 24 hours of a vacation, the records show. Why? No reason, evidently. Just is.

CUSTOMER SERVICE -- Q. "How long does it take to cure a Smithfield ham?" A. "One year. Those hams come from hogs fattened on peanuts, did you know that?" Q. "How long does it take a fingernail to grow from cuticle to cutting length?" A. "Maybe four months. Illuminating! You could grow a fingernail three times as long as it ought to be while curing a Smithfield ham."

OPEN QUESTION -- How did it come about that blue is for boy babies and pink is for girls?

DON'T KNOW IF it's enforced anymore, but the law in the City of Boston says no citizen there can own a dog more than 10 inches high. LIE DETECTOR EXPERTS at the University of California say their studies prove conclusively that women prevaricate more than do men, much more. MEN WHO SMOKE cigars do so mostly because they know the odor is objectionable to women. Such is the claim of a prominent psychologist.

RAPID REPLY -- Sir, you say you'd like to own a baby elephant. All right, just come up with $700. That's for a female. A male only costs $560.

Your question and comments are welcomed and will be used in PASS IT ON wherever possible. Please address your letters to L.M. Boyd, P.O. Box 99068, Seattle, Wash. 98199
