

Nixon Gets PO Act

ASSISTED BY AIDES, Russian Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and German Foreign Minister Walter Scheel sign their initials to a non-aggression pact. The first move of Russian-German diplomacy in the last 15 years, the pact leaves open the possibility of future German reunification.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House passed and sent to President Nixon Thursday a bill to turn the 161-year-old Post Office Department over to an independent government agency.

Aimed at ridding the post office of politics and poor service, the reform measure provides for an 11-member board of governors including the postmaster general, who would no longer be a cabinet member, to run the 750,000-employee postal system.

The 339 to 29 roll call vote sent the measure to the White House where Nixon was expected to sign it although he had urged that the post office be turned over to a nonprofit government corporation similar to the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA).

The bill also provides an 8 percent pay raise for postal workers in the wake of the scattered mail strike in March. That raise will cost $673 million a year.

Postal unions won collective bargaining and compulsory arbitration rights and reduction of the 21 years it now takes to reach top pay scales to eight years under the new bill but lost their fight for the right to seek a union shop contract.

The new agency will be called the U.S. Postal Service and one of its first acts is expected to be a postal rate increase that would boost the six-cent letter stamp to eight cents.

A five-member rate commission would fix permanent postal rate schedules subject only to a unanimous veto of the governors who could order temporary rates if the commission failed to act on a rate proposal within 90 days.

Congress would no longer have a say in rate setting, postal worker pay or appointment of postmasters when the new agency is operating, which it must be within a year.

Spanish Bases Okayed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States signed a disputed five-year agreement Thursday renewing its right to use four military bases in Spain at a cost of nearly $200 million in military aid and a loan to Spain of 16 American warships.

The agreement was signed by Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Spanish Foreign Minister Gregorio Lopez Bravo, who issued a joint statement hailing the pact as a "positive contribution to world peace."

The action widened the breach between the administration and Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who had demanded that the agreement be submitted in the form of a treaty for public debate and a Senate ratification vote.

After a week of charges and counter charges between Fulbright and the State Department about alleged "leaks" of confidential information by the senator and bad faith on the part of the administration, the committee decided Thursday to hold public hearings on the agreement anyway.

Egypt Rejects Canal Policing

By United Press International Cairo — Egypt today has rejected an American proposal whereby Egypt and Israel would be responsible themselves for policing a Suez Canal cease-fire under the U.S. plan for bringing peace to the Middle East.

The semi-official Cairo newspaper Al-Ahram, edited by the Egyptian Information Minister, Mohammed Hassanein Helkal, neither gave details of the rejection nor disclosed what President Gamal Abdel Nasser had in mind as an alternative.

It quoted Nasser that he holds only one chance in 200 for peace through the American settlement plan, but "Even this one-half of one per cent I cannot afford to ignore... We cannot afford to miss any opportunity for achieving Israel withdrawal from occupied Arab territories."

The United States was reported to have proposed that Israel and Egypt could watch each other for any violation of the cease-fire, with American and Soviet spy ships in the Mediterranean helping out in monitoring each side's movements.

Diplomatic sources in Jerusalem said Israel was under pressure from the United States to approve this "self-enforcement" plan despite its fears that the Egyptians will use the truce to build up its Suez line.

storm drains on Shoshone Street. Merchants said they are experiencing a major cut in business with the street closures.

But Miller said today the merchants agreed after their discussion that the work is continuing as fast as possible.

Original plans for the downtown project called for completion of the original two-block area, including paving, before beginning on the third and fourth blocks.

However, the contractor, Mr. Nielsen, said this poses problems with installation of electrical and water lines which extend throughout the project.

With the entire area closed at one time, Nielsen said, the work can continue without interruption. He said it might be completed somewhat sooner than under the original plans.

'A-Blast' Rips Valley in Test

TWIN FALLS — A nuclear bomb exploded at 9 a. m. today 25 miles southeast of Mountain Home. Radioactive fallout spread rapidly eastward on prevailing winds.

A food riot exploded among refugees at 10:03 in the Magic Valley.

Other crises followed rapidly, testing the reflexes of police and civil defense officials. Panic among the citizens threatened chaos for awhile.

But no one was hurt, and most Magic Valley residents were unaware of the crises. The problems were developed to test the reaction time of civil defense experts — to see if an ANNISTON, Ala. (UPI) — Vaults containing World War II nerve gas are being loaded aboard a freight train for their controversial shipment through Georgia and the Carolinas.

The Pentagon announced Thursday that similar vaults would be loaded aboard a train today at the Blue Grass Arsenal in Lexington, Ky.

A total of 418 of the vaults will be shipped by train from the two arsenals to Sunny Point, N.C., where they will be loaded aboard an old ship hull, towed 282 miles off the coast of Cape Kennedy and sunk in 16,000 feet of water.

The civil defense exercise was sponsored by the state CD office, under the guidance of Charles Rountree, state civil defense director, with the help of the University of Idaho, which conducted the test in the basement of the Twin Falls Courthouse.

Bonn, Russia Lower Curtain

MOSCOW (UPI) — Foreign Ministers Andrei A. Gromyko of the Soviet Union and Walter Scheel of West Germany today initiated a non-aggression treaty which is a foundation for relaxing tensions and building a lasting peace in Europe.

It was the climax to the most significant diplomacy between the old World War II foes in 15 years. Diplomatic sources said the Soviets agreed to a West German disclaimer the treaty document constituted a surrender of the right to eventual German reunification. Scheel and Gromyko initialed the four-page document beneath the crystal chandeliers of a marble hall in Spiridonov Palace, a room built by czars and used by World War II allies in planning strategy against Hitler.

The goal we set before ourselves has a great political importance," Scheel said. "The treaty will help relax tensions and provide the prerequisites for building a lasting peace in Europe."

Gromyko praised the treaty and said bargaining over a 10-day period had been tough. He said the Soviets were as glad as the Germans that it was over.

In a statement released as he prepared to board a plane for Bonn at Moscow airport, Scheel added, "With this treaty a new page will be turned in relations between the Soviet Union and the Federal Republic of West Germany."

He said he was convinced the two states were now moving toward changing "mistrust into trust, confrontation into cooperation."

The Bonn government's political opposition already has branded the treaty a surrender of the right to eventual German reunification.

Kellwood Taps New Manager

TWIN FALLS — Bill P. Satterfield was appointed manager of the Twin Falls hosiery plant today.

The Kellwood Corporation's Glendale Group, which operates the Twin Falls hosiery plant, announced here that Satterfield will succeed Robert Matthews.

Matthews, who was the founder manager of the Twin Falls unit, was promoted to group director of research and development and will be stationed at corporate headquarters in Siler City, N.C.

Satterfield is a native of Tennessee, graduating from the University of Tennessee in 1960 with a B.S. in Economics. He has been affiliated with Burlington Industries for the past 10 years, holding a number of line management and staff positions.

Mr. and Mrs. Satterfield have two children, Jan, 11, and Greg, 10. They hope to move to Twin Falls in time for the opening of school.

Matthews said today that Twin Falls is "the finest place in the world to live." He said he regretted leaving the Twin Falls area and its friendly people.

Satterfield said his main hobby has been golfing, and he anticipates golfing in Twin Falls with pleasure. In addition, he said, after seeing the sporting goods displays in many Twin Falls stores, "I'm going to take up fishing right away."

Matthews plans to leave Twin Falls by mid-September, after acquainting his successor with the plant and taking care of personal business.

APPOINTED MANAGER OF Kellwood's Twin Falls Hosiery plant Friday was Bill P. Satterfield. He succeeds Robert Matthews, who has been promoted to group director of Kellwood Corp.'s Glendale Group.

Speed Limit Cut Asked

By BONNIE BAIRD JONES Times-News Staff Writer TWIN FALLS — A group of 60 businessmen petitioned the Twin Falls Highway and Traffic Safety Commission Thursday to reduce speed limits on Blue Lakes Boulevard North.

James Newton, owner of Newton's Sporting Goods Center, said increased traffic from commercial development and expanded residential projects at the northern city limits makes the lower limits necessary.

Speed limits are now 50 miles per hour from the northern city limits to Falls Avenue North, and 35 miles per hour south.

Newton and other petitioners are asking the 35 miles per hour limit be extended to the Perrine Bridge, or at least to the Pole Line Road.

Carl Berg, commission chairman, said the matter will be given further consideration. State highway department urban engineer from the Shoshone District office, Ron Qehlin, said traffic counts taken recently would indicate the speed limit is about as it should be. He said the state's traffic checks determine the speed at which traffic moves in a normal flow, and average speeds on the boulevard in the area in question are 40 miles per hour.

Mr. Newton said many motorists report difficulty getting off and on the street from residential side streets and business driveways. He said rear-end accidents are caused when vehicles slow to turn into business parking lots and driveways. He said more commercial development is underway which will aggravate the problem even more.

Another request for reduced vehicle speeds was presented by Robert Selbel, 963 Del Mar Drive. He told the committee vehicles travel at excessive speeds on his street, using the S-shaped two-block area as a drag strip.

Many young children reside on the street, he said, and are not safe in their own yards. Two vehicles parked in front of homes have been demolished, and his own yard was driven across by a vehicle that failed to negotiate the curve.

Police Chief Frank Barnett said traffic checks made by his department showed from 67 to 80 vehicles using the street in a two-hour period in the evening. He said only six cars exceeded the 25 miles-per-hour speed limit. The fastest vehicle checked was traveling 20 miles per hour, he said.

Selbel was advised to work with other residents of the street to determine the identity of the violators.

Barnett was asked by the committee to make frequent checks of the street.

Committee members voted to recommend the appointment of John Rosholt to the highway committee to succeed Russell Hall who is leaving Twin Falls and resigning from the position as city zoning commission representative.

Italian Government Formed

ROME (UPI) — Emilio Colombo formed Italy's 32nd government since the fall of Fascism Thursday, after patching up the four-party center-left coalition whose collapse brought down former Premier Mariano Rumor one month ago.

Colombo, a 50-year-old bachelor who had served eight times in previous governments as minister of the Treasury, became the 12th man to hold the job of Italian prime minister since dictator Benito Mussolini fell in 1943.

Italian President Giuseppe Saragat swore in Colombo and 26 other Cabinet ministers — all but two of them holdovers from the Rumor government that fell July 6 — at ceremonies in the Quirinale presidential palace.

Colombo and 15 other ministers are Christian Democrats. There also are six Socialists, four Unitarian Socialists and a single Republican.

The coalition will seek formal approval of parliament early next week.

Judge Scolds Young Kennedy

BARNSTABLE, Mass. (UPI) — Robert F. Kennedy Jr. and Robert Sargent Shriver III, charged with possession of marijuana, got a scolding Thursday from a judge who said they stayed out of trouble for one year he would drop the charges.

"The experience has not been a pleasant one for them," said Shriver's father, the former U.S. ambassador to France. He and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, the boys' uncle, were at their side, along with the youths' mothers, during the closed-door hearing.

Judge Henry L. Murphy, who presided over the juvenile session of District Court, gave the two youths a "strong talking-to," a source close to the family said, before continuing the cases for a year without finding. The suntanned but solemn-faced youths, both 16, appeared before the judge for about 45 minutes on charges of illegal possession of marijuana and conspiracy to violate the state's drug laws.

"All juvenile cases that were involved in the proceedings this morning were continued after hearing for one year for finding and disposition on all those who had no record," Judge Murphy said in a statement released more than five hours after the late-morning appearances.

Court sources said the judge's decision was "pretty routine" for first offenders in such cases. The proceedings were private, as required by Massachusetts law in juvenile cases. Disposition of the cases was not known, and they never be known.

Mothers Show Strain...

Solution?

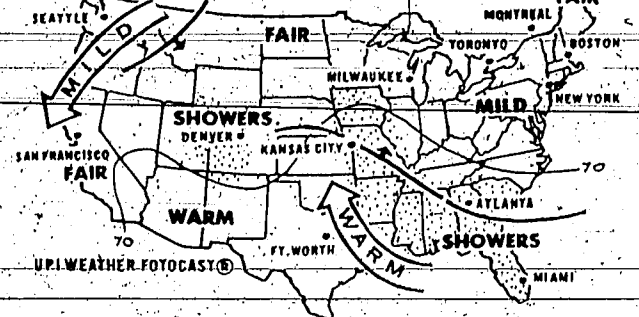

PHNOM PENH (UPI) — Premier Lon Nol said Thursday U.S. military intervention in the war against Communist Vietnam invaders would help solve all of Cambodia's problems with a minimum of expense and effort.

But he said he will not ask Washington for American ground forces unless the situation worsens.

U.S. Air Force fighters and bombers are flying direct air support missions for Cambodian troops while B52 bombers have been attacking Communist supply and communications lines in the Southeast Asian kingdom.

Traffic Control Urged to Seen . . . Protect School Children

TWIN FALLS - Approximately two hours of discussion Thursday failed to resolve the problem of traffic control on U. S. Highway 30 in the vicinity of two elementary schools, but Twin Falls Highway Safety Committee members promised recommendations before Aug. 17.

Meeting in the Holiday Inn for a luncheon, school district, state department of highways representatives and city officials offered suggestions.

Representatives of School District 411 informed city and state officials attending the meeting they have just as much responsibility toward the safety of school children in the city as does the board of education. The problem results from relocation of U. S. Highway 30 from Main Avenue to Second Avenue East and North and past the Bickel and Lincoln grade schools.

All traffic past the schools will be westbound, and while the present posted speed limit is 25 miles per hour the State Department of Highways, however, has recommended it be set at 35 miles per hour on a basis of normal traffic movements under highway designation and from specific speed checks made on the route.

Recommendations listed verbally Thursday afternoon by school officials included reduced speed limits, overhead traffic control lights and proper crosswalk signing and striping, and the possibility of police officers at the busiest crossing points.

Carl Berg, chairman of the traffic committee, asked the district to make the recommendations in writing, for further consideration by the committee and said a special meeting will be called shortly to firm up a recommendation to the city council and state highway officials.

George Staudner, assistant superintendent of the school district, informed the committee and city and state officials that school will start at the end of this month and the school is desirous of having traffic controls functioning by that time.

Airport Checked

TWIN FALLS—Inspection of the Twin Falls City-County Airport, with an eye to meeting expanding needs of jet-air transportation, was made Thursday by Tom Bradshaw, Salt Lake City, program officer, airport branch, Federal Aviation Administration.

Mr. Bradshaw said the local area must look to future needs, which include an overlay on the old runway and raising the level of the west end of the runway which is now lower than the remainder. This will be necessary in the near future for continued and increased jet traffic, he said.

Mr. Bradshaw explained the federal funding which is available for this and other airport improvements. City Manager Jean Milar and other city officials also met with the FAA representative.

Canvass Nearly Complete

TWIN FALLS — Official canvass of the Twin Falls County primary election vote was expected to be complete by Friday night for certification to the office of the secretary of state.

Campus Disorders

TWIN FALLS — Neil Cross, assistant director of Vocational Education at College of Southern Idaho, represented CSI this week in Boise at a conference on handling campus riots.

He suggested that planning should be done in advance between the college and the police to prepare for handling any such disorders.

County Clerk Harold Lancaster said the county commissioners began the canvass Thursday afternoon and expected to complete it by Friday afternoon.

Atty. Gen. Robert M. Robson, who conducted the meeting, advised college officials to try and anticipate possible disorders and alert local law enforcement groups in advance.

Cross said all Idaho colleges and universities were represented at the conference.

SHE WISHED THAT election right out of her hair: Mary Walker, wife of Democratic candidate for governor Lloyd Walker, who was defeated in Tuesday's primary voting, gets back to normal after a hard campaign, with a session at her hairdresser's. Mrs. Walker, formerly an actress in Broadway musical shows, is also known in this area as star of several musical comedies presented by the Dilettante Group of Magic Valley, particularly their production of "South Pacific."

T.F. Girl Picked By CAP

TWIN FALLS — Cadet Sgt. Sandra Hammond of the Twin Falls Civil Air Patrol Squadron has been selected to attend a five-day stewardess orientation course in Denver, Colo.

The course, conducted by Frontier Airlines and sponsored by the Civil Air Patrol, will allow Miss Hammond and selected CAP cadets from four other Northwest states to sit in on regulation training courses for airline stewardesses. The course is designed to give the cadets a taste of a potential career field.

Miss Hammond will, in effect, represent the entire state of Idaho, as she is the only CAP cadet selected from the state to attend.

She will leave Twin Falls Sunday afternoon by a military plane, which will bring another Magic Valley CAP cadet Glenn Kober of Burley, back from a jet-orientation course at Luke Air Force Base, Arizona. Young Kober is the son of the commander of the Joe Engel CAP Squadron in Burley.

Miss Hammond and the other CAP cadets will be housed in ladies' quarters at Lowry Air Force Base, near Denver, and will be taken into town for the classwork each day for five days.

The CAP sponsors a number of courses for CAP cadets in a variety of career fields.

School Bells Near

TWIN FALLS — Ready or not, here they come... those four days of school!

The Twin Falls school district will open its doors at the regular time Monday, Aug. 31, for the start of the 1970-71 school year, according to Dr. Ernest H. Ragland, superintendent of schools, and George Staudaher, assistant superintendent.

Many calls are being received by writing in the names of their friends, film stars or made up names. All of these have to be tallied so the count on the machines will balance.

American Party Plans Meet in T.F.

TWIN FALLS — Plans to hold a state central committee meeting of the American Party Saturday in Twin Falls were announced Friday by Paul Whaley, party information officer.

Mr. Whaley said the meeting will begin at 1 p.m. in the Idaho Power Co. Auditorium and probably will run about two to three hours. Its purpose is to complete an American Party ballot for the November general election.

He said many comments have been made about the party's poor showing in the primary election and added it was not the intention of the American Party members to come out strong in the primary, as it was not necessary.

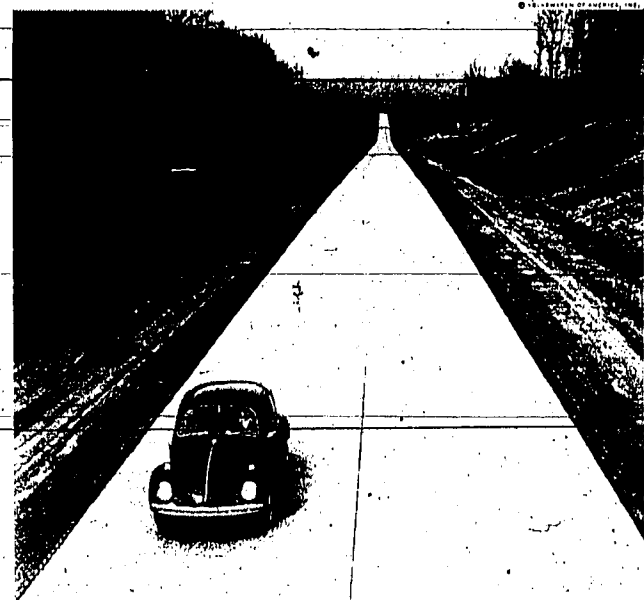

He said the two candidates who appeared on the primary ballot — Joel A. Anderson, running for state representative in the Second Congressional District, and A. Lane Blanchard, for State Superintendent of Public Instruction — will both attend the meeting.

Mr. Lancaster said another situation which slowed down counting of the returns was the handling of absentee votes. On recommendations from the office of Secretary of State, the absentee ballots were counted at the precinct by election boards, giving each precinct two totals to be tabulated.

In the next election, the clerk said, the absentee votes will be run up on the machines for easier and faster handling.

Andrus Pledges Race on Issues

BOISE (UPI) — Democratic gubernatorial nominee Cecil Andrus began a two-day vacation Thursday before swinging back to his campaign, but promised to hit the same issues he raised before Aug. 4.

Gov. Don Samuelson, who handily won the Republican nomination, said he had received congratulatory telegrams from Republican members of Idaho's congressional delegation and another from President Nixon.

The Nixon message noted Samuelson's "impressive primary victory" and added, "I am confident Idaho Republicans will work together as a team and if we all pull together — and if we all pull hard — we will assure victory for you and all Idaho Republican candidates in November."

Andrus said the two men he defeated in the primary, Lloyd Walker and Vernon Ravenscroft, had agreed to become part of his executive committee and would make appearances for him during the general election campaign.

He said he saw no reason to change from his primary campaign format, adding that issues of education, sales tax and the environment "are the very issues which brought us victory in the primary with a substantial margin, and the interest in our campaign has been gaining right up to the end of the primary."

He said he had had "literally hundreds of volunteers who desire to work between now and the general election in November, and I attribute this basically to our stand on these various issues."

Deputy Secretary of State Dryden Hiller said county auditors will begin to certify election returns Friday, and said the State Board of Canvassers will meet Aug. 15 to certify the results.

Under Idaho's election law, the governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor and attorney general.

"At that time, Hiller said, complete results would be known both for the candidates on the ballot and for those waiting write-in campaigns.

Secretary of State Pete Conarr said he estimated some 16,500 Democrats abandoned their party ticket to vote for governor on the Republican side.

Conarr said Samuelson and his opponent for the nomination, Dick Shiltz, Rexburg, received a combined total of 80,687 votes. He said the next highest Republican — himself — who was unopposed on the ballot received only 64,170 votes.

Duplicate Gem Tax Refunds Reportedly Sent to Elderly

By RONALD H. SCOTT BOISE (UPI) — Duplicate, and in some cases triple, tax refunds to Idaho senior citizens has fired a controversy to the boiling point between the Idaho auditor and the Division of Management Services.

The problem arose Monday when senior citizens across the state notified the Tax Commission they had received duplicate tax-refund checks. The mistake affected some 200 persons — all of whom are being contacted — and involves about $4,000.

In an apparently misdirected letter, Idaho State Auditor Joe

R. Williams chided Administrator of Management Services Ray A. Clovis for the "unacceptable level of systems design, computer programming and data processing control on the part of your department."

Williams charged the error "again points up my concern over the ability of a third party operation in the handling of fiscal matters of the state of Idaho."

Clovis said the letter "is just another in a series of diggs at the Department of Administrative Services and his division to keep his (Williams') name in the news media.

"He's running for office, I'm not," Clovis said. "The fight is getting to be rather ridiculous. All we do is process the material sent to us."

Firebombing Hits Ohio City Again

LIMA, Ohio (UPI) — Sniper fire and firebombing hit this northwestern Ohio city of 55,000 again Thursday for the second night in a row. Nobody was reported injured.

A Molotov cocktail destroyed a linoleum and furniture store and 20 arrests for curfew violations were made.

Police said the gunfire, from rifles and small arms, was aimed at store windows.

National Guardsmen called into Lima after a Negro woman's killing touched off racial disorders Wednesday will stay for the weekend to patrol the Southside.

The 500 guardsmen, all 80 city policemen and sheriff's deputies from 12 other counties kept all persons off the streets as an 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew was extended indefinitely.

Col. J. E. P. McCann, administrative assistant to Ohio National Guard Adjutant General S. T. Del Corso, said the troops would stay to ensure against a flareup of trouble.

"We expect to be here at least until Sunday night," McCann said.

Police said the sniper fire, which they first encountered Wednesday night after dispersing a gun-carrying mob that started downtown, came mostly from darkened windows or rooftops.

The violence followed the killing of Mrs. Christine Ricks, 40, who tried to stop two white patrolmen from arresting a black youth blocking a street with his bicycle.

Police said the woman grabbed patrolman Glen Pierce's revolver and began firing at him. She was shot dead by his partner, Ted Boop.

During that first night of violence, five persons were wounded, including three policemen. Seven others were arrested. Eight fires were set and six police cars hit by snipers.

Photos Unnerve Murder Witness

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The horror of the Sharon Tate murders struck home Thursday when the state's key witness was shown a picture of the actress' mutilated body on the floor in front of a couch draped with the American flag.

Linda Kasabian, 21, a tiny blonde, gasped and almost became hysterical when a defense lawyer thrust in her hand a color photograph of one of the five victims of the bloody fony she said Charles Manson ordered last August.

Manson's attorney, Irving Kanarek, had just asked her whether she looked through a window of the house that night and she replied she had. Without another word, Kanarek gave her the picture.

It showed Miss Tate clad only in panties, lying on her right side with her hand extended above her head. She was covered with blood and there were clearly visible knife wounds in her obviously pregnant body.

Mrs. Kasabian had testified previously she saw three slayings at the estate outside the house last Aug. 9 but that she did not witness the killing of Miss Tate and hair stylist Jay Sebring in the living room.

Mrs. Kasabian's gasp was audible throughout the courtroom. She burst into tears and could not speak. She was led to an anteroom while the lawyers conferred in the judge's chambers. Then the trial was recessed overnight.

Kanarek declined to tell news men why he suddenly handed the girl the picture.

Naval Threat Eyed

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — Adm. Ephraim D. Holmes, supreme Allied commander for NATO's Atlantic forces, warned Thursday that the security of member nations is being threatened by Soviet sea power "far more potent than that of our enemies in either world war."

"It is my firm conviction that Soviet sea power has been developed to support objectives which are not all like the objectives of the United States or any other freedom-loving nation," said Holmes, a U.S. Navy admiral who will retire Oct. 1 after more than three years as head of NATO's Atlantic command.

"Soviet sea power, far more potent than that of our enemies in either world war, sits astride our vital sea lines of transport and communications, and lurks on our doorstep," he told a civvie club.

"The Soviet navy — big, modern and capable with the demonstrated 'blue water' ability to operate anywhere in the world — and with a composition well-suited to the furtherance of the political objectives of the Russians; the Soviet merchant marine which is now on its way to becoming the largest and most modern in the world; and the Soviet fishing fleet, already probably the largest in the world with excellent intelligence-gathering capabilities, are a threat to NATO's transport and communications across the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean," Holmes said.

Watch Car Repairs Away From Home

BY PETER WEAVER
Q — In getting ready for a vacation trip, we are thinking of air-conditioning our 1966 car. How good are the units advertised in the lower price range of $150-$170? Will installation have any bad effects on the car? — J. D. C., Pontiac, Mich.

A — Air-conditioners in the lower price range are good. Pick a reliable brand and a reliable dealer for installation. Local taxi companies might give you a tip on where to find the good installation shops.

Your car won't suffer much from a new air-conditioner but you should switch the four-blade car engine fan for one with six blades. Lesser-priced air-conditioners draw about four horsepower and won't tax your engine. However, at idling speeds, your engine may operate sluggishly. It's not a major problem.

Q — I made a trip to California and while stopping at a Shell station in Arizona, I was told I needed a new battery and regulator when my car wouldn't start. I had the man replace the battery and regulator. It still wouldn't start. He said I needed a new alternator. I told him to take care of that, too. It still wouldn't start. He had to use a cable to get me going and the total bill was $118.02.

A Shell station man in California told me all I ever needed was a new starter switch ($12). Can you help me get my money back? — M. C., Dubuque, Iowa.

A — It's back. When you wrote to me, you must have also registered a complaint with Shell's computer (billing) center in Tulsa. Your account was traced, the Arizona service station was questioned and you have been credited with the full $118.02.

On long auto trips, an occasional gas station attendant gets carried away selling "repairs" to out-of-state cars. His company is none the wiser unless you make a complaint. (Including copies of bills and your account number makes things go faster.) All oil companies have this problem.

Next time make the attendant give you the old part or battery that is removed. Get his name and watch him make the repairs. This "hawkeye" approach usually discourages "overzealous" repair work when you're away from home.

Q — I had to have a repairman check out my sewing machine and he informed me that the trouble was caused by using silicone-treated threads. The entire sewing mechanism will have to be replaced. Is it true that silicone threads can damage my machine? — Mrs. W. S. Waltham, Mass.

A — Silicone-coated threads are sold to handle the newer fabrics — stretch and bonded knits and synthetics. They may work well in factory sewing machines but, I'm told, they can be a real problem in home machines.

The silicone flakes off and fouls up the moving parts of your machine. Nylon threads tend to move jerkily through the needle and most synthetic threads have a tendency to knot. One sewing machine technician says: "Plain old cotton thread is still the best."

Q — When we lived in Buffalo, N. Y., I bought a $5 13-foot extension cord for our phone. I was told I could use it anywhere because it was mine. But when we moved to Florida, I ended up paying $7.50 for another cord. I was told that "Southern Bell" didn't accept "Northern Bell" cords.

Does this mean if we move again, I have to buy another cord from, say, "Western Bell"? — Mrs. E. D., Homestead, Fla.

Q — With the phone company, you have to check out these details before buying new equipment. Within each Bell system (Northern, Southern and others) you can transfer extension cords. Move-out of one system into another and you have to pay extra. Some items such as color and Princess phones can be transferred from one Bell System to another. If you move into a system, operated by a company other than Bell, you can't transfer anything.

Beauty of Peace Plan—not Plan at All

BY PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
The beauty of Secretary of State William P. Rogers' peace plan for the Middle East was that actually it was no plan at all.

It did not require that the Arabs sit down for direct negotiations with the Israelis, something they have said they will never do. And it did not require immediate Israeli surrender of lands seized during the June 1967 Israeli-Arab War.

Therefore, asking nothing from either side, it became the more difficult to refuse.

Seeks Cease-fire Only
All it asked was a three-month cease-fire, with the unstated understanding that neither side would use it to attain military advantage, and indirect negotiations to be carried on through United Nations representative Gunnar V. Jarring.

It was in October, 1969, that the United States for the first time publicly enunciated its proposed terms for a Mideast peace, terms far more specific than the generalized initiative undertaken by the U.S. secretary of state last June. Presumably, the terms stated then remain the U.S. objective.

At that time the secretary called for Israeli withdrawal from territories occupied in the 1967

War. "Insubstantial" border changes to be negotiated by both sides.

— Arab agreement to a binding peace. These negotiations could be carried out under procedures employed in 1949 under the United States Formula of indirect talks through Jarring. — Jerusalem to become a unified city open to all faiths and nationalities. Presumably this would mean some kind of international control.

— Special safeguards for the area of Sharm El Sheikh — which controls access to the Gulf of Aqaba and which was the trigger of the 1967 War; and demilitarized zones in the Sinai Desert.

Proposal Rejected
Presumably because it was unacceptable to President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic, the Soviets in December turned it down.

Both the United States and Russia profess to base their various proposals on the United Nations Resolution of November, 1967.

That resolution called for Israeli withdrawal from all territory taken in the 1967 Six-Day War, recognized the right of all Middle East countries to secure the recognized boundaries, freedom of navigation through international waterways in the area, a just settlement of the refugee problem and a guarantee of territorial inviolability through measures including establishment of demilitarized zones.

But there is another side to the problem, which, ignored for

Deputy Clears Way for Rush To Hospital

TWIN FALLS — Twin Falls Deputy Sheriff Jim Campbell was called on to do one of many "unexpected duties" early Thursday morning.

At 3:25 a. m., a Buhl policeman radioed Campbell and asked him to block traffic in front of the Magic Valley Memorial Hospital.

"I'm bringing in an expectant mother who can't wait," the officer told Campbell.

At the hospital, Campbell stopped westbound traffic on Addison West, and within a few minutes, the Buhl policeman arrived and cutting across traffic sped up the hospital drive.

Both officers helped the expectant mother into a wheel chair while the nervous father looked on.

Soon afterwards, Mrs. Leonardo Puente, gave birth to a baby boy.

Women's Section

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Altho this is terribly involved, I'll try to make it brief. I am married and have a child a year old. At the time I became pregnant I had four promiscuous affairs going at the same time. I told Vic (not his real name) we had to get married because he was the one I knew would make the best provider. (None of the men knew about the others.)

Abby, Vic has been a wonderful husband and father and I've grown to love him very much. Now, my problem: I've always had the feeling that he wasn't the father. This was confirmed recently when I found out Vic's blood type and also my child's.

I could never hurt my husband by telling him the truth, but this guilt is destroying me. It is becoming harder and harder to live with this on my conscience. I am the luckiest woman in the world, and should be the happiest, but I am miserable. What do you suggest? MISERABLE

DEAR MISERABLE: Professional counseling. You'll probably learn that you are "miserable" because you feel you aren't entitled to so much happiness, and deserve to be punished instead. But since "fate" has not punished you, you are determined to punish yourself by not permitting yourself to enjoy your good fortune.

If your counseling is successful, you will then learn that regret is the cancer of life, and there is nothing you can do about your past.

You have wisely rejected the idea of confessing all to your husband. Such a confession would only punish HIM and increase your feeling of worthlessness.

I suggest that you do everything within your power to build your self-esteem. Try hard to be a first class wife and mother so that you can feel deserving of your good fortune. I think you can do it. Please try. God bless.

DEAR ABBY: My mother, age 57, lives alone and leads a very active social life. She has a good job with 30 days vacation each year, which she spends on trips to various places with an extremely likable man she has known for a long time.

My children are growing up, and Mom doesn't pull any punches about where she goes, with whom and so forth. How do you teach children right from wrong "when Granny" is so open about this relationship? WORRIED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Your children are exposed to a grandmother who obviously lives her own life in her own way and isn't ashamed of it. If this is "wrong" her "sin" is indiscretion, and your children will noodle it out soon enough. There is nothing you can do about it. If they think less of Granny because she vacations with a man who isn't her husband, Granny will have to take the mark-down, which will be Granny's problem.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, attempting to run an eight-cabin motel, pay off the mortgage, taxes, insurance, and food and living costs from it's income. I have no hired help and must do most of the repairs myself, even crawling on the roof with tar sealer searching for those elusive leaks. I must keep my rates low to compete with the luxury credit card trade.

My problem is that so many "guests" decide to carry away my property that I am being driven out of business. Will you help me, Abby, and print the following for travelers: "I don't mind your using my towels to wipe off your windshield—but please leave the towel—don't toss it in your car. Or if you use my wash cloths to wipe off your kids' hands and faces en route, please leave a quarter to replace the cloth because that's what it costs me. And when you accidentally carry off a key, drop it into any mailbox. I'll gladly pay for its return. It's a lot cheaper than having new keys made."

"And as for you gals who take coffee pots, dishes, silver and pillows—have a heart! I'm sure you have much better at home."

"I don't want to start charging deposits against the return of such items, neither do I want to turn your license number into the motel black list."

"After you've gone and I go to clean your cabin and check my pilferage loss it makes me sick to realize that I've actually lost money on you. I work so hard. Think about it next time, will you?" SPLINA IN LEESBURG, FLA.

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN MEYER

Shoshone Couple Repeats Nuptials

SHOSHONE — Echo Gerard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Gerard, and Allen Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meyer, all Shoshone, were united in marriage rites performed at the First Christian Church, Gooding, by Rev. Harold Hake.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor-length gown of pique de sole, styled with a round neckline, empire waist, lily point sleeves and white lace bodice. Her chapel train was fastened at the shoulders and was trimmed with a white lace panel. Her shoulder-tip veil of English silk illusion was held by a pearl crown of lace and seed pearls.

The altar was decorated with banks of yellow roses and white gladioli flanked by candelabra. Wrought iron candelabra holding white candles decorated with daisies and yellow ribbon streamers decorated the pews.

Mrs. Rick Connell, Shoshone, was matron of honor and Marlene Lowry, Shoshone, and Toni Meyer, Salt Lake City, were bridesmaids.

Vivian Meyer and Tammy Carraway, both Shoshone, were candlelighters. Jana Carraway, Shoshone, was flower girl and Duffy Meyer, Shoshone, was ringbearer.

Brenda Spencer and Mrs. Vernon Miller, both Gooding, were soloists, accompanied by Donna Hawks, Gooding, who also played traditional wedding music.

Tom Race, Shoshone, was best man and Steve Gerard and Rick Connell, both Shoshone, were ushers.

A reception at the church social hall followed the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a beige lace cloth over green. The four-tiered white wedding cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple. The cake was decorated with yellow roses and daisies and flanked by arrangements of cake wedding bells around a green candle tied with a yellow ribbon.

Mrs. Fred Webster, Mrs. John Webster, Mrs. Warren Kays and Mrs. Robert Bruce, all Jerome, were assisted in serving by the ladies of the Fidelity Aid of the church. Mrs. Bel Carraway, Shoshone, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple honeymooned in Sun Valley before returning to Twin Falls to live.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Elsie Gerard, Gooding, and Mrs. Jack Webster, Jerome, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. John Meyer, Jerome.

Reunion Held

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Filmore held a family reunion recently at the home of their daughter and her husband, La Vonda and Fred Thompson, Burley.

Following a dinner and picture-taking by the family members, two granddaughters, Lucille Moldenhauer, Bull, and Anne Snow, Burley, showed slides of their recent trip to Europe.

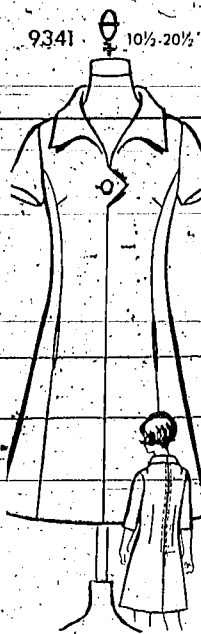

Two sons, Lee and Merrill Filmore, were unable to attend the reunion. Lee is in Alaska and Merrill is in Long Beach, Calif.

Government sources say there are currently 61 million households in the United States. The average number of persons per family is 3.06.

Queen Mum Celebrates 70th

LONDON (UPI) — Queen Mother Elizabeth, Britain's favorite royal family member, turned 70 Tuesday, and the weather was as warm as the Queen mum's smile. Temperatures hovered near 80 degrees when a 62-gun birthday salute was fired from the Tower of London.

Britain's wartime queen, mother of Queen Elizabeth II and Princess Margaret, still has the peaches and cream complexion that graced her handsome face the day in 1923 when she married a shy prince who never expected to become king. He was the future King George VI.

Her personal baggage marched to her door at St. James' Palace and played a special selection of her favorite Scottish airs. She watched from an upstairs window and waved.

Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip honored her at a formal dinner in Buckingham Palace Tuesday night. Prince Charles, her favorite grandchild, and Princess Anne interrupted a yachting holiday in the English Channel to be with "Granny."

Flags flew in birthday tribute from all government and public buildings. All national newspapers published birthday portraits of the queen mum, many of them in color.

In the pubs, they toasted her continued good health. The queen mother is the least criticized member of the royal family and one of its most endearing personalities.

Floral arrangements jammed a room set aside at her residence just for flowers. She received several gifts of rare china to add to her famous collection. Queen Elizabeth sent her a large bouquet of red roses, one of her favorite flowers.

At 70 the queen mum has lost none of the warm manner Britons first came to appreciate during the years of World War II and have delighted in since. Her sense of humor remains keen.

She is mantrily plump and refuses to deny herself the demands of the sweet tooth that is almost as renowned as her smile. Cocoa with plenty of cream are a special favorite and were in good supply at the Buckingham Palace party.

The New York Convention and Visitors Bureau says that the Big Town has 16.5 million visitors annually. Number one tourist attraction still is the Empire State building, the world's tallest structure at 1,472 feet.

Church Picnic Stated

PAUL — An all-church picnic is planned for 1 p.m. Sunday at Neptune Park, Rupert, for members of the Paul United Methodist Church and their families.

Held at Shelter No. 4, those attending are asked to bring their own table service and a suitable picnic lunch. Drinks will be furnished. Regular Sunday school and church service will be conducted that day.

Mrs. Frank McCall will substitute this month and part of September for the Sunday school class usually taught by Mrs. Lynn Coon. Mr. and Mrs. Coon will travel the Northwestern states assisting in arranging and showing gladroll.

About 100 persons enjoyed the recent homemade ice cream and cake supper sponsored by the WSCS of the Paul Methodist Church. Mrs. Roy Francisco was general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Frank McCall; Mrs. John Klamm, Mrs. Ronald Matheson and Mrs. Martin Muecke. Guests included persons from Methodist Church memberships in both the Rupert and Burley area.

SHOWN BEHIND the permanent cross on the United Methodist Church memorial screen is the twin flame insignia which was constructed by Rev. Elam Anderson and hung for the Pentecost season. The 12-foot insignia will be kept and used each year during the season. John Olson and Alan Pierce assisted the pastor in constructing the symbol.

4 Receive Church Stipends

Four Twin Falls girls are recipients of scholarships from the Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Carole Mink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mink; Debbie Chaplin, daughter of Mrs. Helen Chaplin; Barbara Duensing, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Duensing; and Claudia James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. James, are recipients of scholarships given as aid to men or women entering fulltime church work as pastors, teachers or deaconesses in the Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Mink is studying to be a teacher and social worker at Concordia Teachers College in Portland, Ore. After completion of her work at Concordia, Mrs. Mink plans to finish her studies at Val Purgiso College in Indiana. She is planning to work in orphanages, placing unwanted children in homes.

Mrs. Chaplin will begin studies at Concordia Teachers

College in Portland, Ore., this fall. Her first year of education was spent studying at the Southern College of Idaho. At Concordia, she hopes to go into church work as a youth director.

This coming school term, Miss Duensing will complete her studies in mathematics at Concordia Teachers College in Seward, Neb. After graduation, she will teach for Lutheran elementary schools.

Also studying to be a primary teacher for Lutheran schools is Miss James. She is studying at Concordia Teacher's College in Chicago, Ill., and is working in Chicago this summer.

Drive-in Services

TWIN FALLS — Rev. James Keefe, Kimberly Christian Church, will be guest speaker during the Drive-In Church services at 8 a.m. Sunday at the Motor-Vu Theater.

Rev. Keefe will speak on "Jesus." Soloist will be Mrs. Carolyn Keefe and Mrs. Joyce Gee will be organist.

Church Has New Insignia

FILER — When two church denominations, the Methodist and the Evangelical United Brethren, were united recently, a new insignia was commissioned to symbolize the new church.

Chosen as the official emblem was a red and black twin flame and cross.

The black cross stands in the center with the total flame suggesting the presence of God's spirit, as representing the two churches, born of the spirit and now one denomination, says Rev. Elam Anderson, pastor of the Filer United Methodist Church.

In observance of Pentecost this year, Rev. Anderson, assisted by John Olson and Alan Pierce, assembled a 12-foot, red-flame background and placed it behind the life-sized cross in the church's sanctuary memorial altar.

The twin flames were made from lath, railroad car liners and red signal cloth and will remain in the church sanctuary.

Other dates and colors of the church year season are: Advent, Nov. 29 - Dec. 24, purple; Christmas, Dec. 25-Jan. 5, white; Epiphany, Jan. 6-Feb. 10, green; Lent, Feb. 11-March 28, purple; Easter, March 29-May 17, white; Pentecost, May 17-Aug. 29, red, and Kingdon, Aug. 20-Nov. 28, green.

The color red, for Pentecost season, in addition to its association with the flame and fire of the Holy Spirit, suggests the virtues of zeal and work associated with the growth of the church, whose birthday is set at Pentecost according to the account in the Book of Acts, noted Rev. Anderson.

Other dates and colors of the church year season are: Advent, Nov. 29 - Dec. 24, purple; Christmas, Dec. 25-Jan. 5, white; Epiphany, Jan. 6-Feb. 10, green; Lent, Feb. 11-March 28, purple; Easter, March 29-May 17, white; Pentecost, May 17-Aug. 29, red, and Kingdon, Aug. 20-Nov. 28, green.

Memories

Theme of LDS Fete

SPRINGDALE — "Lihoma Memories" was the theme of the recent Lihoma Holiday program by the Springdale Ward's primary.

Bible Thoughts

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. — John 14:12.

Inspired by Christ, both great and small men have done glorious things for God.

And ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. — John 16:22.

As mountains seem higher from deep valleys, so our joys are treasured all the more when seen from the vantage point of deep sorrow.

ATTENDING AN INTENSIVE two-week orientation session on the Bethel Series, an International Bible study program at Madison, Wis., are Rev. and Mrs. Harold Iben, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Twin Falls. Here Rev. and Mrs. Iben pose with the dramatic poster from the first lesson of the Bethel Series, "Creation." It is one of 40 aids used to acquaint them with major themes of the Bible. The Ibens will return home next week.

Mrs. Mary Hemingway commissioned Jonathan Kenworthy, noted English sculptor, to do a bronze statue of an impala at the waterhole "for the grave site of Ernest Hemingway following his death. When the sculpture arrived, however, she decided that a more sheltered location would be advisable and decided the sculpture should be placed in the main entryway of the school. It has been placed on a rock wall with a waterfall leading to a pool of water at which the impala is drinking.

Mrs. Hemingway has also contributed funds to complete the gymnasium and has set up a Hemingway Educational fund to provide educational facilities that would otherwise be unavailable to the students.

Third in a series of successful art exhibits is scheduled in the Mall, with works of local as well as regional artists on display. Many artists will be present and working during the show, and the exhibits will include paintings, sculpture, jewelry, weaving, Batik and photography. SUN VALLEY — Several events of interest are planned for visitors to Sun Valley this weekend, including a student film festival, an art show, team roping contests, tennis championship matches, a music concert, ice show, and the grand opening of a new business.

At 9:30 p. m. Friday through Sunday, some 47 films prepared by college students across the nation will be reviewed at the Challenger Inn. The films will cover a variety of subjects and range from 30 seconds to 18 minutes in length each. The event is open to the public.

At 9 a. m. Friday, the grand opening of the LaCrepere will be held. The business is located in the Challenger Inn and will feature jam, chicken and seafood crepes, tea and coffee each day from 9 a. m. until midnight. The business operated last winter on Baldy Mountain, and is operated by Michael Derouin and Jean-Pierre Renaud.

Saturday and Sunday afternoon lovers are welcome to view the mall medium art show, with the public eligible to enter work. A ten per cent charge on all sales will be donated to the Ketchum-Sun Valley Community Library, according to Mary Rolland and Claudia Hill, coordinators of the event.

At 1 p. m. Saturday, a jacket team roping contest will be held at the Sun Valley stables, followed at 3 p. m. by the Champaign tennis mixed doubles match at the Sun Valley tennis courts. A $5 entry fee will be charged.

Inmont acquired the Snake River Trout Co., Buhl, the Papoose Springs Trout Ranch, Pocatello, and the Two Bees Feed Co., Wendell. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erkins of Buhl were controlling stockholders of the companies.

Those holdings have been merged with the Idaho Springs Trout Co. with operations, at Buhl, and Hagerman, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Erkins. Robert Erkins has been elected president and Mrs. Robert (Bernardine) Erkins, vice president of Thousand Springs Trout Farms, Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. Erkins are well known for their success in developing the Snake River Trout Farm into the largest trout-farming operation in the world. The couple have introduced many technical innovations and new concepts in marketing to the seafood business.

Faculty Blamed For Mess

SUN VALLEY (UPI) — Some 150 Salt Lake City school administrators meeting here were informed Thursday that much of the upheaval caused on California's big campuses were due to an influx of new faculty members.

Dr. Alex C. Sherriffs told the school administrators that the large numbers of new faculty without standards and loyalty to the University of California at Berkeley since 1958 has been one of the chief causes of the disorders there.

In order to change he warned the Utah administrators, "we must relate more to the average normal majority of students and must have more accurate information about the many myths circulated by a mass media about what students want."

More objective administrators, he said, could be hired by going outside the "tight little world of intellectuals" and hiring the real person with varied interests who "knows what is going on."

The new trend is California is that a school administrator does not necessarily have to have teaching credentials, he said.

Thursday was the opening round of a two-day conference here for the Salt Lake City school administrators.

Citation Given at Burley

BURLEY — Clyde R. Hardinger, 18, 1628 Normal Ave. Burley, was cited for failure to yield the right of way and for expired driver's license following a car and pickup accident at 3:59 p. m. Wednesday at the intersection of Miller Avenue and 17th Street.

Hardinger was driving a 1965 Pontiac east on 17th Street and Javier Cazusa, 30, Hagerman, was driving a 1968 Ford pickup owned by Jones and Sandy Livestock, Hagerman, north on Miller Avenue. The two vehicles collided in the center of the intersection.

Damage was $500 to the Pontiac and $200 to the pickup. Jose L. Asin, 37, Hagerman, was a passenger in the pickup, Burley police report.

T.F. Girl Assists Theatre

TWIN FALLS — When the Antique Festival Theatre plays Chekov Choice at the College of Southern Idaho's Fine Arts Center at 8:30 p. m. Saturday, Marilyn Porey will have contributed more to the repertory than can be seen on stage.

This 1970 Twin Falls High School graduate will be seen in "The Wedding" one of the two Chekov farces, and although her giggles may be heard she doesn't have a single line to speak.

According to Di Bowler, associate director, Miss Porey has proved herself capable of handling comedy as well as the more serious roles she has been given in the past.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Porey, Twin Falls, have encouraged their daughter's interest in the arts and cooperated so that she can spend the summer with the Buhl-based repertory theatre, although no financial remuneration through scholarships is available for high school students this year.

Last summer Miss Porey was at Brigham Young University on a special scholarship from the Duffin Trust. She plans to enter Gonzales University this "To duck or not to duck, that is the question," mused Hamlet. The melancholy Dane had arrived at a very normal three no-trump contract. West had opened the jack of clubs and poor Yorick, sitting East, had played the queen on his partner's jack.

Hamlet whispered to Horatio, who was kibitzing, "Poor Yorick. I know him well. He would not play the queen from three. I must duck."

He played low and Yorick shifted to the queen of hearts. Once more the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune were being flung Hamlet. He had another problem about ducking. Could Yorick have just four hearts? In that case, Hamlet would have no way to make his nine tricks unless Polonius, sitting West, held both diamonds and honors. In that case, however, Yorick would probably have bid back a club. Yorick just had to hold a diamond honor.

In that case, it was up to Hamlet to duck the heart and hope for a 5-2 break in that suit also.

Hamlet did duck. Yorick continued hearts. Hamlet won in dummy and went after diamonds. It did not matter which opponent was the first diamond trick or what they did from then on. There was no way for the defense to collect any further club or heart tricks and Hamlet had made game with three spades and two tricks each in the other suits.

Pretty good play for a local duplicate at Castle Blinnore or for a world's championship.

Record Reviews

***** EXCELLENT ***** VERY GOOD
 **** GOOD **** FAIR **** POOR

A Beard of Stars: Tyrannosaurus Rex (Blue Thumb RTS 18)
 This two man English group is as eclectic and unusual as any around.

You might even call them weird. Very weird. But there's some indefinable thing in their music which is somehow attractive.

The group is Marc Bolan, vocalist, guitars, organ and bass, and author of every song in the album, and Micky Finn, drums, tabla, bass and finger cymbals.

Their music is a curious blend of Indian and Afro and Caribbean melodies, delivered in a haunting, mystical fashion.

It is not good. It is not bad. It is different.

The singing at times sounds like another language, a strange dialect of American Indian, maybe. But if you listen closely, it's all English, delivered in a strange intonation.

Strange. Very strange. Three stars for strange lovers.

Gunsight: Gun (Epic BN 2651)

There is so much bad and so little good on this album that it almost shouldn't have been released.

But what is good is excellent, making the album worthwhile investigating.

Gun is a four man group which leans heavily toward a gut wrenching godawful brand of heavy rock, which is repulsive. Occasionally they slow down for a breather, and when they do, their music is beautiful.

There are 10 tunes in this album. Eight really, for two of them are minuscule instrumental bits only a half minute long each.

Those two small numbers, and two of the remaining eight are the only things which make this album worthy of consideration.

The two small numbers are "Lady Link" parts one and two. The two good slow tunes in the album are "Oh Lady You" and "Angeline," which are both musical classics.

They should have been put out as singles, and the rest of the album canned.

Both "Oh Lady You" and "Angeline" are exquisitely beautiful slow tunes which are certain to become modern standards because of their beauty, melodic richness, and enchanting qualities.

They are similar in texture to "Michele" by Paul McCartney. Of the remaining six tunes in the album, only one is worthy of comment. That is "Long Hair Wild Man" which does have its moments, but dies of redundancy.

Five stars for "Angeline" and "Oh Lady You."

Fireworks: Jose Feliciano (RCA LSP 4370)

This new album by blind guitarist Jose Feliciano certainly will rank among his very finest works. It is a perpetual delight to hear the continual beauty in this album.

It runs the gamut of music, showing the multifacets of Senor Feliciano are deeper than apparent. The lead song in the album, and the title tune, is "Fireworks," a guitar transcription of a portion of George Frideric Handel's "Fireworks Suite," a lovely-baroque composition.

That is a startling beginning for any pop album, but this one is even more startling in that it grooves right into a beautiful tune, "Destiny," which should make an attack on the charts, and then into "Satisfaction" with hardly a break for breath.

The Stones' "Satisfaction" is very sensual at the hands of Feliciano, who puts deep and, times into this already earthy tune.

Another classical tune in the album is Feliciano's own "Pegao," which is of modern Spanish styling, and will be compared to Mason Williams' "Classical Gas," even though it has different roots.

Other highlights of the album include a fine version of "Norwegian Wood," a lovely rendering of "Once There Was A Love," and tough versions of "Blackbird," and "Yesterday" and "Let It Be."

The only song in the album which seems out of context with supposed to be the best, doing their thing together.

But somehow, creeping into the back of your mind, you get the impression that maybe although this is supposed to be so great, that it might not really be so great after all. You might even admit this to yourself in a moment of weakness.

This was recorded live at the cavernous Albert Hall, which probably accounts for the quality of the recording. That is one of the great faults of this album; the recording lets you hear only about half the music at one time.

The recording was undermiked and consequently, few of the instruments can be heard clearly. Much of it comes on like a dull roar most of the time.

Better audition this one before buying, if possible. Two stars.

quality.

Unlike their last album, the very fine "Unhallowed," this album is dominated by traditional folk tunes, although members of the group contribute several tunes of their own in this new offering.

What makes Fairport Convention head and shoulders above their competition is that each member of the group is a consummate artist, and they do not intrude on one another's work. There is no grandstanding in the group's work.

Singer Sandy Denny has a haunting, evocative voice perfectly suited to this style of music.

Taylor, Twin Falls farmer, combining Siberian wheatgrass on the Twin Falls City-County Airport property as the Hughes Air West jetliner lands on the runway nearby.

TONS OF TOP soil around Albion were lost in last week's flash flood. Howard Smith, Boise, left, SCS geologist measures top soil losses in the Albion Valley. The photo on the right shows a gully of mud through a grainfield, caused by the flood. It has been estimated up to 58 tons per acre of top soil was lost in the flood.

Tons of Top Soil Lost In Albion Flash Flood

BURLEY — Flood reports being filed this week show some farmers north of Albion lost up to 58 tons of top soil per acre in last week's flash flood. Five tons per acre per year is considered normal.

Gale Roberts, soil conservationist with the East and West Cassia Soil Conservation Districts said his office made measurements show some farm lands around Albion are now eroding and 300 to 400 acres were seriously eroded in the recent flood.

He pointed out at the current rate of erosion, there are other parts of Cassia County where the subsoil is about exposed.

The loss in Albion represented an average of half an inch depth. "This doesn't seem like very much, but when you consider the average farmer has had only 18 inches of topsoil which the ground was first broken for farming, some of them may be close to farming subsoil."

Parts of Oakley, Heglar, and Sublett have already shown erosion of up to 100 tons per acre so for this year in all of the storms this season, Roberts said.

The danger of the current wave of erosion is from a layer of calcium-carbonate under the topsoil which is hostile to plants. There are already some fields in the county where you can see this showing through, he noted.

SCS technicians measured the depth and width of small new gulleys in a given area to compute average soil loss.

There were about 50 to 100 acres of wheat flattened by run-off water and other wheat was damaged when heads were knocked off by wind and rain during the storm.

This is the second flood this year. There was probably more water in this earlier flood, but soil loss was as bad if not worse last week. The reason for this was the condition of the soil. The ground was still partly frozen and unplowed in the earlier flood.

The SCD officials are working with farmers in all parts of Cassia County now to encourage them to start a program of minimum tillage and a process of chiseling to increase the amount of water getting into the soil rather than run-off.

Under this program farmers are urged to keep stubble on the surface of the land as much as possible.

By using the stubble mulching, farmers can not only save money by having to work less, but yield can be increased somewhat.

Horse Show Winners Listed

Horse exhibitors from several states left Twin Falls recently with some additional "hardware" but many of the high point trophies remained in the local area.

Five shows were actually combined into one including open and registered Quarter Horses, Youth Show, Appaloosa, and Paint Horse events, all held at Frontier Field.

In the paint show, top mare was M and M, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Leo Sterling, Twin Falls; top gelding was Sunny Two Tone, owned by Walter Shouse, Paul, and high point stallion was Gil's Q Ton, owned by Dr. C.D. Bloomquist, Castle Rock, Colo.

Appaloosa awards included the one over-all high point horse trophy shared by two exhibitors. Karen James Jerome, riding Apache Gold, and Pam Harney, Twin Falls, on Princess Eagle Hank, tied for top honors.

In the Youth Show, registered Quarter Horses, John Gillette on Juann Boy won first place and Tink Jones, Kimberly, open high point honors.

Young Tink Jones also captured the open events in the non-registered show for all age exhibitors.

HIGH POINT STALLION in the American Quarter Horse Association division of the Frontier Horse Show recently went to Snipper Supreme, owned and shown by Karen Jones, Filer. The first such show in Twin Falls, the two-day event featured five horse shows in one with Appaloosa, Paint and youth classes held as well as registered and non-registered quarter horse competition.

Deadline Set for Petitions

HAILEY — Blaine County farmers will have until Aug. 17 to nominate by petition candidates for Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Community Committee posts.

Verl Simpson, chairman of the Blaine county ASCS committee, said it is anticipated this year the local farmers and ranchers will fill the complete slate of nominees by petition for all three communities. A full slate is a minimum of six candidates from which to choose in electing a community committee of three members and two alternates.

The committees are elected annually, with the newly elected committee meeting shortly after the September election to elect one new ASCS county committee member and two alternates. County committee members serve three-year terms, with one new member elected each year.

All that is required to nominate a candidate by petition is a sheet of paper with the candidate's name and signed by six eligible voters. Only one candidate is allowed per petition, but voters may sign as many petitions as desired.

Mr. Simpson explained an eligible voter is any owner, tenant, or sharecropper, or the spouse of one. A voter can nominate and vote in only one community, even though he has interests in more than one. Blaine county's three communities are A Community, consisting of Ketchum, Hailey, Bellevue south to Baseline Road; B Community of Baseline Road south to the county line, and west to the county line, and east to the Carey Hill, and C Community of Carey and Muldoon east to the county line.

A list of all eligible voters is currently on file at the county ASCS office in Hailey.

THIS BLACK ANGUS steer is the latest fund raising project of the Cassia County 4-H Council. Funds from this project at county fair next month, will go toward the county's share of the 4-H camp building fund.

Cassia 4-H Council Has Steer Project

BURLEY — A black Angus steer project has been selected by the Cassia County 4-H Council as a fund raising project to pay off the $2,000 still owed by Cassia County on the 4-H camp which was jointly financed by Jerome, Twin Falls, Minidoka and Cassia County.

The 4-H camp assessment for Cassia County goes back to 1965. The steer is expected to weigh about 1,100 pounds by Cassia County Fair time. It is planned that the steer will be awarded Aug. 21 during the afternoon parimutual racing at the fairgrounds.

Donations toward the 4-H camp may be made to any 4-H member in the county or any of the 4-H leaders or the county agents office.

Jim Chaburn, Albion, has donated one-half the purchase price of the steer and the 4-H Council has paid for the remaining half of the cost. The steer is being fed by Jim Rodgers, Declo.

The 4-H Council also has purchased insurance on the steer.

Shows Steer

Cutworms 4-H'ers Camp Out

Western bean cutworm adult moths are still emerging in relatively large numbers. In general, the peak of emergence occurred about Aug. 1. This was about a week later than in 1969. Consequently, the majority of the larvae, or worms, of this insect are smaller than they were this time in 1969. As of Aug. 5, the populations of adult moths was 94 per cent as large as in 1969.

All beans should be combined as soon as possible to prevent worm damage in the windrow, says Walter E. Peay, Twin Falls Entomology Research Division, ARS, USDA.

Members of the Sew-In 4-H Club held a campout recently near Bear Gulch.

After breaking camp, the members headed for the Nat-Soo-Pah where they swam for awhile. Accompanying the members were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dossott and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pouts.

At a recent meeting of the club, plans for the fair booth were discussed as well as achievement day and judging contests.

WINNERS in the Gooding County 4-H agricultural and miscellaneous demonstrations were these six youngsters. From left, front row, are Ricky and Jimmy Tubbs, junior miscellaneous division, and center, Patty Thomas, junior agricultural division. Back row, Connie Robertson, senior agricultural division; Kelly Hoskovec, intermediate agricultural division, and Toni Lierman, senior miscellaneous division. These six will compete in the district 4-H Fair to be held next month.

Demonstration Winners Listed

GOODING — The Gooding County Fairgrounds was the scene recently for the 1970 4-H agriculture and miscellaneous demonstrations. Officials said this was the largest turn-out in the history of Gooding County, as far as Agriculture demonstrations go.

The junior division was the largest group with the 12 members participating. The winner of the junior division was Patty Thomas, Gooding, with Debbie Jolley, Hagerman, second, and Leola Lierman, Gooding third. All of these girls will take part in the District Fair Demonstration Contest in September.

Other participants were George Freeman and Dale Hawks, both Wendell; Valerie Hall, Bliss; Debbie Morris, Tuttle; Rusty Hafen and Lyn Talbot, both Hagerman, and Jerry Giles, Ronnie Gill and Gary Miller, all Gooding.

In the intermediate division, Kelly Hoskovec was the winner with Kevin Henley, second. Both boys are from Hagerman and will get to try their luck at the District Fair. The only other participant was Bobby Giles, Gooding.

The senior division was won by Connie Robertson from Gooding with Eddy Bilbao and Marilyn Bickford, both Gooding, also being eligible to go to District Fair. Other participants were Kon Taylor, Hagerman; Penny Bird, Wendell, and Jackie Parko, Gooding.

In the miscellaneous division Ricky and Jimmy Tubbs in the junior division, and Toni Lierman, in the senior division, will go to District. Doug Ramsey was the only other participant in the intermediate division.

The judges for the event were Ivan Hopkins, Lincoln County agent, and Bill Hazen, Camas County agent.
