Victim's Perch . . .

IMPACT OF a car-motorcycle collision Saturday afternoon on Addison Avenue West threw the driver of the cycle, Terry Mallery, 22, of Monterey, Calif., onto the top of the car. He and his passenger, Tim Joseph Colner, 19, of Twin Falls, were admitted to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. Colner suffered

Expansion Nets 100 New Jobs

TWIN FALLS — A $1.5 million processing plant expansion here providing an additional 100 jobs was announced Saturday by Idaho Frozen Foods, Inc.

Company president Vern Routh said the potato processing plant's frozen food expansion program will be completed—shortly, nearly doubling the firm's production.

Routh said the firm's annual check to area potato growers will increase from about $2.5 million to $4 million.

The production expansion is being accomplished with little building enlargement, he said. Most of the new investment is in equipment.

French fried potato production will be doubled in the expansion, with lesser expansion in other product lines.

New fryers and an electrical heat exchanger are being installed. Routh described the new heat exchange system of heating fryer oil as a new concept. He said most plants use a steam heat exchange system.

Keeping an eye on pollution control, he said, the firm is upgrading its waste disposal system to eliminate dumping in Rock Creek.

Idaho Frozen Foods has been discharging treated waste products into the canyon since 1961 when it first moved its plant to Twin Falls from Kimberly.

The primary treatment plant is being enlarged and designed for hook-up to the city sewer system, he said.

He said 100 new employees will be hired to handle increased production. They will be given on-the-job training.

The firm now employs 350 people, mostly women, during its peak processing season in the spring. The firm's payroll is now about $1.25 million a year.

The firm, owned by Consolidated Foods of Chicago, began its operations in 1956 in Kimberly.

Idaho Power officials said increased commercial development along Rock Creek—particularly that of the Idaho Frozen Foods, necessitating construction of a new substation, in advance of schedule.

The station was to have been built in 1972.

The substation will serve the area south of Rock Creek to the airport, and from Blue Lakes Boulevard on the east halfway to Filer on the west, according to District Manager Earl Haroldsen.

"We were running out of capacity in that section," he said. The Kellwood Co. and Longview Fibre Co. are among major power users which have located in the area in the past year.

Idaho Frozen Foods now uses power at a rate of 2,500 kilowatts per hour. With expansion, usage will double, Haroldsen said.

The substation cost $154,000. A heavy feeder line to handle the increased power loads was installed at a cost of $50,000.

John Lohren, manager of the Twin Falls office of the Idaho Department of Employment, said he does not anticipate any difficulty in meeting demands for employes for the firm.

Corral Man Heads Demos

BOJSE (UPI) — The Democratic state central committee elected Joe McCarter, Corral, state party chairman Saturday amidst promises of unity from the three men who sought the gubernatorial nomination.

McCarter, who was campaign manager for Vernon Ravnescroft, Tuttle, was suggested by Democratic gubernatorial nominee Cecil Andrus. He succeeds E. T. Waters, who submitted his resignation to the central committee as he said he would when elected to his fourth term as chairman at the state assembly in June.

Andrus also suggested, and committee members approved, an amendment to the by-laws to include the "immediate past state chairman" on the Democratic executive committee.

The delegates also chose four Congressional district members of the executive committee: Jean Taylor, Canyon County, and Howard Humphreys, Ada County, from the first district; and Phil Bare, Mindoka County and Gloria Cartan; Bonneville County, from the second district.

The General Accounting Office (GAO) says Chrysler Corporation may have sold U.S. government data on the M60 tank to Italian firms for $2.5 million. Chrysler denied it.

The GAO, a congressional watchdog agency on spending, said in a report to Defense Secretary Melvin B. Laird it could not be certain whether Chrysler was entitled to sell the data because Chrysler refused to allow GAO auditors to examine their books on the grounds their contract did not provide for GAO review.

The agency asked Laird to check further into the "propriety" of the firm's dealings with three Italian firms.

At question was not whether the information should have gone to the Italians, but whether Chrysler should have profited from it.

TWIN FALLS — A Twin Falls youth, Mario Hernandez, 17, survived a stab wound near his heart. He was in fair condition at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital Saturday night following the Saturday morning incident.

Police said they have been unable to determine circumstances of the stabbing because the victim's condition prohibits questioning.

Police said the stabbing apparently occurred at the Twin Falls Labor Center where Hernandez lives with his wife.

Hernandez was stabbed directly below his heart, Police said.

Hearing Scheduled

TWIN FALLS — Members of the House subcommittee on parks and recreation will spend two full days in Idaho while considering the fate of the Sawtooth and White Cloud mountain ranges.

The Times News learned Saturday the nine members of the hearing party will arrive in Boise at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday for an overnight of the Sawtooth area in fixed-wing aircraft.

They will depart for breakfast at Smiley Creek airstrip, and then fly by helicopter into the White Clouds where they will spend the night at a forest service camp.

Early Wednesday the choppers will take the party directly to Sun Valley for the 10 a.m. hearings at the Opera House.

Panel Asks U.S. Sex Ed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Along with other controversial proposals, a Presidential commission on pornography is considering recommending federally financed sex education for all Americans—adults as well as children.

Such a "mass reeducation" program, a draft report of the commission says, could go a long way toward diminishing interest in pornography and the "potential undesirable effects of exposure" to it.

The commission is not due to release its recommendations until early September, but portions of the draft report—expected to be adopted—have been leaked in recent weeks.

The report's unexpected liberality, including advocacy of unrestricted access to pornography for adults who desire it, has provoked an outcry—in Congress and quick disavowal by the Nixon administration.

In prepared remarks for the National District Attorneys

Association, Attorney General John N. Mitchell emphasized Saturday that "the commission is not connected with the Nixon administration."

He noted that only one of its 18 members, a replacement, had been appointed by President Nixon, the remainder having received their appointments from President Lyndon B. Johnson. The commission was established by Congress.

The commission has tentatively concluded in its draft report that despite assumptions to the contrary, evidence indicates that exposure to pornographic material does not induce criminal acts or deviant behavior.

The commission thus is expected to call for the repeal of all federal, state and local laws that prohibit adults from viewing or reading "sexually explicit materials"—the commission staff's term for pornography.

'Open That Safe Or We'll Shoot'

TWIN FALLS — Two shotgun-wielding bandits robbed the Lynwood Safeway Store here Friday night, threatening to kill employees if the safe was not opened.

They eluded police roadblocks, escaping with an undetermined amount of money.

Fred McKenzie was kicked in the face and side as he lay on the floor with other store employees after he was forced to open the safe. His injuries were minor. He was the only person injured by the two men.

The gunman struck at 10:16 as the store was being closed for the evening. One man, a woman's nylon stocking pulled over his face, stopped from behind a stack of canned goods brandishing a sawed-off shotgun.

He ordered employee Edward Lynch to open the safe. Lynch refused, claiming he did not know its combination.

The gunman then threatened to begin shooting the other employees.

McKenzie then stepped in, opening the safe.

The second gunman entered the store from the butcher shop where he had bound two employees with tape. He carried a semi-automatic pistol.

He stood guard over the store employees while the first man sacked the money—estimated by police to be several hundred dollars.

One of the men then left the store to drive up a car in which the two fled.

Two customers who walked into the store just as the gunman drove off said the getaway car was a 1958 Ford of dark color.

The two men were described as about 30 years old. One reportedly had a deformed ear.

McKenzie told police "I was looking right into (one of the gunmen's) eyes and they were dark."

TWIN FALLS — A Twin Falls County deputy sheriff was injured Friday when struck by a car as he manned a roadblock southwest of Twin Falls.

Harold Jensen was checking cars about 11 p.m. on U.S. 93 and Idaho 74, searching for two armed men who earlier robbed the Lynwood Safeway store.

He said he was standing on the center line, checking occupants of a car which he had stopped.

Another car, driven by Allan Wayne Popowski, 18, East Grand Forks, Minn., drove north through the roadblock and struck the deputy.

Jensen's legs were injured slightly but he was at work Saturday.

Reds Reject Unity Plan In Korea

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist North Korea Saturday rejected South Korea's latest proposal for reunification of the nation and called South Korean President Park Chung Hee "a faithful running dog of U.S. imperialist aggressors."

The sharp attack on Park's proposal — which called for North Korea to renounce its aggressive designs — came two days before Vice President Agnew is scheduled to arrive in Seoul to meet with Park at the beginning of an Asia tour.

Park promised in an Aug. 15 speech commemorating the 25th anniversary of Korean independence from Japanese colonial rule that he would propose realistic preparatory measures for national reunification if North Korea would publicly announce its intentions to halt hostile action against the South.

But the Communist rejection, contained in a long editorial in the Rodong Sinmun, official organ of the Korean Worker's (Communist) party, emphasized that all 64,000 U.S. troops must first be withdrawn from South Korea before any negotiations for reunification can begin.

Washington has proposed withdrawing 20,000 American soldiers but there is no plan for a full U.S. withdrawal.

Bound Over

RUPERT — George Leo Matherly, 33, Heyburn, has been bound over to district court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.

Matherly was bound over when he appeared recently before Probate Judge LaRoy Blacker.

The charge is in connection with a June 12 incident in a Heyburn bar. He is in the Minidoka County Jail in lieu of bond.

Firemen Quell Blaze In Car, Check Smoke

TWIN FALLS — Twin Falls firemen answered three alarms Saturday, but reported only minor damage in one of the calls.

Nixon, Solons Feted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon and the Democratic-controlled Congress are engaged in a primarily political effort to blame one another for the high cost of living that is almost certain to keep on going up between now and the November elections.

The President, in a series of actions including widely publicized vetoes of appropriation bills, is trying to convince voters that big spending by Democrats on Capitol Hill is responsible for the erosion of the value of the dollar.

On the other side, Congress has authorized Nixon to impose mandatory wage, price and credit controls. The President did not request the authority and made it plain in advance he would not use it.

But the new law, passed as a rider to a bill the President felt obliged to sign, gives Democrats a chance to argue that Nixon has the tools to hold down the cost of living if he would just use them.

The action on both sides has little real economic significance although it may have a symbolic importance. But the political stakes are high, especially with the economy sure to be a key election issue.

Earlier this month, Nixon vetoed appropriation bills for education, housing and space. The $4.4 billion education measure was $543 million over his original request while the $18.1 billion housing-space bill exceeded the presidential budget by $541 million.

"By the action I am taking today, I am saying 'no' to bigger spending and 'no' to higher prices in the interests of all the American people," the President said in his veto statement.

The education veto was promptly overridden by Congress, as Nixon almost surely knew it would be. The veto was upheld on the housing-space bill, and a new measure will have to be drafted.

Although every half billion counts, the impact of such a saving on a $1 trillion economy is small. The President clearly overrated his case when he said the veto would say "no" to higher prices.

Although the rate of inflation appears to be slowing a little, prices are still going up and, even by the administration's most optimistic estimates, will continue to do so for the rest of this year at least — and probably much longer.

Marine Denies Guilt In Deaths

DA NANG, Vietnam (UPI) — A young Oklahoma Marine calmly pleaded innocent Saturday to charges he ordered the killing of five Vietnamese women and 11 children in a village last February.

Pvt. Raudell D. Herrod, 30, rose to his feet and entered his plea in a loud voice. He is charged with ordering his five-man "killer team" to line up the victims into three groups and then helping kill them with automatic weapons, fire and hand grenades.

Herrod's five-man defense team, led by Oklahoma state Sen. Gene Stipe, D-McAlester, Saturday began lengthy questioning of the eight designated Marine jurors.

Cndr. Keith D. Lawrence, the military judge, denied defense motions for an all-battalion jury and for an expanded number of challenges or vetoes of prospective jurors.

Herrod, a five-eighty-five Choctaw-Chickasaw-Creek American Indian from Calvin, Okla., is the last of four Marines to be tried in the case.

Two leathernecks — Pvt. Michael A. Schwartz, 21, of Weirton, W. Va., and Pvt. Samuel G. Green, 18, of Cleveland — were convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment and to five years in jail respectively. PFC Thomas H. Boyd Jr., 20, Evansville, Ind., was acquitted, and the last member of the team, Lance Cpl. Michael S. Krichten, 19, Hanover, Pa., was given immunity to testify in the four trials.

On Friday, Lawrence refused to admit as evidence pictures of the 16 victims from Hamlet 4, Son Thang Village, 27 miles south of here. He ruled out the evidences as "inflammatory."

Merchant Robbed in Salt Lake

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — A food store manager who felled robbers Friday by oversteering was forced early this morning to take three men to an Albertson's Food Store and watch them loot the safe.

Ron Sanford, manager of the center at 370 E. 2nd South did it while his family was being held hostage by one of the three.

The bandits, who took an undetermined amount of cash and checks but left change behind, also used a car belonging to Sanford, a Volkswagen, which has been recovered.

But police are still looking for Sanford's white Chevrolet, a 1956 or 1957 model apparently used as a get-away car.

Sanford told police that he was watching television early this morning when he received a telephone call. The caller directed him to go to his back door.

Fairgrounds

Grandstand

Nearly Ready

TWIN FALLS — Fair board members met Friday in special session to receive a progress report on grandstand construction at the Twin Falls County Fairgrounds at Filer.

Harold Hove, president, said all work but one side wall and installation of aluminum seat bases is completed and about all that remains to be done is just "cleaning up."

The new arena is complete, Hove said, and crews under direction of Tom Shouse, fair secretary-manager, are building fences around it.

All work will be done by the time the fair opens September 9 for a four-day run. September 9 will be judging day.

A few box seats are still available and can be obtained by contacting fair board members or the fair office at Filer.

The annual publicity banquet for members of the news media will be at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. The banquet this year will be dedicated to news media in the county.

Hove said 16 contestants have signed for the MISS TRAGEDY Idaho contest which will be in conjunction with the fair and rodeo. He said there may be as many as 20 in the contest this year, the highest number ever.

Pocatellan

Convicted

BOISE (UPI) — La Mar Herman Larson, Pocatello, was found guilty by a district court jury Friday of one count of using the mail to defraud in connection with credit card applications.

Judge Ray McNichols continued the case for sentencing to Sept. 1 and ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

Larsen, 37, was released from Idaho State Prison during the course of the trial. He was serving the first year of a five-year sentence on a charge of issuing a check without funds.

The six counts on the original against Larsen were narrowed to one before the end of the trial.

Warfare Hampers Farming

PHNOM PENH (UPI)—After five months of warfare, Cambodia's agricultural base is suffering.

Though the fields around Phnom Penh remain green and lush difficulties developed. First among these is the problem of getting agricultural products to market.

The Viet Cong have kept the country's railroads closed and openly harass major Cambodian highways.

Trucks once used only to transfer agricultural commodities are now being used by the army to move troops.

It is also becoming increasingly difficult for the farmers to work in their fields. Recently, Agriculture Minister Un Trammuch, published an appeal in Cambodian newspapers urging farmers to get back to work.

Plant Rice at Night
However, in many areas the farmers are afraid. One Cambodian whose family farms land in the South said his brothers and sisters were planting rice at night.

"The farmers are scared of the airplanes," he said.

Ngon Sam Ok, director general of agriculture, said unless the situation improves Cambodia's rice production will drop by 40 per cent this year. A 40 per cent drop in rice production would "destroy any ideas of export and probably would force Cambodia to import rice."

Experts are Helping

Already Japanese and Israeli experts are helping Cambodians to improve their agriculture at farm level and "if the U.S. government would like to help us also we still need their help," Sam Ok said.

The director general said he did not believe there was a need to establish food ration programs in Cambodia at this time because "the situation is not so drastic yet."

ALTHOUGH THE DEADLINE is past, the high school additions are still in the ground stages of building. The new cement floors are bare and many ceilings have no tile. The classrooms have no lights and the annex has no window glass or knobs for the doors, and in other places, no doors. Superintendent Ernest

England said the delay is "no great tragedy," but teachers will have to double up on classrooms until the additional classrooms are completed. The library and offices are "near completion." He said and may be used soon after school opens, but there will be "no telling when the classrooms will be ready for use."

JFK 'Memoirs' Hinted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Backstairs at the White House: Andrew T. Hatcher is another new front-runner who has a book in him about the days of the Kennedy White House.

Hatcher, the first Negro to hold the post of deputy press secretary to the President, had held off writing a book while colleagues of that era put down their reminiscences and recollections of the late John F. Kennedy.

Hatcher was the second man on Press Secretary Pierre Salinger's team. Coming full circle, he now has a top executive job with Hill and Knowlton, of New York, the public relations firm which is handling Republican Sen. George Murphy's re-election campaign in California.

Serves LBJ Briefly
The slimmed-down Hatcher also served briefly as a press aide for Lyndon B. Johnson in the early days following the Kennedy assassination.

LBJ left it to Hatcher to announce at the outset of his administration that no members of the Johnson White House were to be seen on the Georgetown cocktail circuit. After that members of the Great Society kept going to parties but with some trepidation. They feared Johnson would see their names or photographs in the society sections of the local newspapers.

Hatcher came to town recently to attend a party launching a book by Johnson's former Press Secretary George Christian titled "The President Steps Down." Christian's book describes the agony of Johnson's decision not to seek reelection and his last days in the White House.

The Department of Foreign Affairs was established by an Act of Congress in 1789—it is now the State Department.

Court Vetoes Decision On Right of Way

BOISE (UPI) — A lower court decision to hold invalid a Chubbuck, Idaho, municipal ordinance annexing a railroad right of way was reversed Friday by the Idaho Supreme Court. Sixth District Court held the ordinance was void. The high court held no evidence was presented to prove that the railroad property was not necessary for the city's orderly development.

The right of way included one mile of railroad right of way owned by the Oregon Shortline Railroad.

Summer Rerun

The public hearing at Sun Valley next Wednesday relative to proposed legislation for protection of the Sawtooth Valley and the Sawtooth, White Clouds and Boulder Mountain ranges, could well be classed as a summer rerun.

Clouds issue is paramount, we see no reason to change our stand. We still favor a recreation plan for the area.

We believe mining controls can be incorporated in a recreation setup which would give the forest service the control it needs, and most people want. At the same time it would not lock up the area for one purpose only.

Several years ago extensive hearings were held on proposals which favored establishment of a National Recreation Area, administered by the Forest Service, or a National Park.

Our Congressional delegation backed this feeling but bills to set up the area never made it into the final stage.

The hearing at Sun Valley will give those interested the opportunity to once more express their views.

The delay to date has been tragic. More delay will bring more tragedy.

No matter which way the action goes — for a National Park, for a Recreation Area or for a combination of the two — it had better get going or there will be no reason for any action.

There will be nothing left to protect.

From The Grave

Kenneth O'Donnell, onetime aide to Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, has written a book, quoting General Douglas MacArthur as having warned Kennedy against fighting a war in Asia.

Fate decreed that Kennedy would not live to act upon his planned withdrawal. Then President Johnson decided to build up American forces in Vietnam to force a quick decision.

If the people pressing for immediate withdrawal from Vietnam want even more distinguished advice from the grave, they have only to recall that George Washington counseled against foreign entanglements.

Washington counseled against foreign entanglements. However, it is plain that the rush of history has made such counsel obsolete.

The road to hell is paved with good intentions and perhaps much of the hell Americans have endured in Vietnam might have been avoided if Kennedy had acted in the spring of 1963 instead of postponing the move until after the 1964 election he did not live to see.

In any event, President Nixon has had to deal with the reality of the situation he inherited from President Johnson and he has had to take a great deal of criticism earned by his predecessors.

The verdict of history is not in but today's indications are that President Nixon is making good on his promises to get us out of Vietnam with honor.

MR. SPECTATOR

There It Is!

People go places to see things. You drive down the Oregon coast after reading literature on how lovely the ocean, the beach and the rocks really are.

You come around a bend in the road and there they are — the rocks, the beaches and the waters. You read about them, you went to see and they were there!

You drive down another highway to see the famed Redwood trees. The promotion says if you drive down this highway a certain number of miles they are there. You do just that and they are there!

You're a tourist from another state. You read about the great Shoshone Falls on the Snake River outside the community of Twin Falls. You travel miles from home to see what you are told you will see if you go there.

You drive down into the canyon, you take a look and the falls are not there! Certain seasons of the year you can see them but the day you come to take a look the brink is dry. Shoshone Falls just ain't.

somewhere in this area with the authority to do so makes sure that people who come to see the Falls will realize they just might not see them at all. Disappointing a tourist is a cardinal sin. It's the worst kind of publicity you can have circulated.

When a tourist drives down into the canyon because he expects to see Shoshone Falls then he'd better see Shoshone Falls!

Like we said — when you look for an Oregon beach (like in the picture along with this column) and find it and when you look for the Redwoods and find them, it's a good feeling.

When you look for a Shoshone Falls that isn't — well, draw your own conclusions as to your feelings.

NOTE TO CORKY JONES

Please run down to the Buhl postoffice and pick up your mail. Tell the postmaster that Mr. Spectator sent you. Don't forget — and get the job done soon as possible so you can start writing those letters you wanted to write!

DRUCE BROSNA

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Though the roster of Democratic Senate seats rated as possible 1970 election losses has shifted materially in the past two months, the party leadership sees its chances of keeping majority control considerably improved.

With the present Democratic margin 57 to 43, Republicans need a net gain of seven for a 50-50 split which would allow Vice-President Agnew to break the tie and let the GOP organize the Senate.

In May, key Democratic analysts could easily see that happening. A then-current rundown indicated a possible loss of 11 seats. With claims of just four offsetting victories in presently Republican seats, the net change was right on the magic figure of seven.

A completely fresh compilation of field reports persuades top Democrats today, however, that their net losses may run no more than five — two short of what the GOP needs for control.

In the matter of picking up Republican seats, not much has changed. Democratic leaders still lay claim only to four — but there has been one alteration in the lineup.

As before, they think State Treasurer Allard Stovenson III is a breeze-in-breez incumbent Sen. Ralph Smith, named to the seat after the death last year of Sen. Everett Dirksen. They see Rep.

John Tunney of California getting progressively stronger over incumbent Sen. George Murphy. In Vermont, Philip Hoff, former governor, still is claimed for a winner over the veteran GOP Sen. Winston Prouty.

No longer claimed is the Alaska seat held by Sen. Ted Stevens, an appointed incumbent Republican. Though Democrats have a strong registration edge there, serious factional rifts have dimmed their outlook.

In place of Alaska the Democrats now happily claim powerful New York. Two months ago, GOP Sen. Charles Goodell seemed to have come up off the floor after a terrible start in the days after he was named to the late Sen. Robert Kennedy's seat.

Today Goodell is on a downslide again and the Democrats are mightily pleased at the primary victory of Rep. Richard Ottinger, whose own wealth can help him to outspend Goodell heavily and who is made to look like a contrast on the issues by the presence of Conservative party candidate James Buckley. The latter got 1.1 million votes in 1968 against Sen. Jacob Javits, and could do a good deal better this fall if he can rustle enough money.

On the other side of the ledger, several Democrats seen on the "grave danger" list in May have been removed. They include Sens. Frank Moss of Utah, Joseph Montoya of New Mexico and possibly Gale McGee of Wyoming (though an extra, a peace candidate, muddles that picture). Sen. Quentin Burdick of North Dakota also looks in healthier shape.

As a partial offset, however, the red alert is on for three seats not seen in peril earlier — those of Sen. Howard Cannon of Nevada, threatened by William Raggio, a district attorney; Sen. Stuart Symington, who watches steady gains by attractive Attorney General John Danforth in Missouri; and Sen. Joseph Tydings, menaced by the gun lobby; by charges of "too much time spent on D.C. affairs," and an attractive opponent, Glenn Beall Jr., son of a former Maryland senator.

Sen. Thomas Dodd's declaration of independent candidacy has thrown Connecticut into greater chaos than before. Even with just a three-way Democratic primary fight, leaders had begun to put the state on the loss list. Republicans also have a primary battle but seem likely to emerge from it with less internal damage.

RAY CROMLEY

The Peace Block

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The final barrier to a settlement in the Middle East may turn out to be neither Egypt nor Israel, but a boy of terrorist groups aided and abetted by Communist China.

Over the past several months, contacts in Hong Kong with sources on the mainland have repeatedly informed this reporter Mao Tse-tung and his advisers are now regularly supplying arms, supplies and guerrilla instructors to Middle East commando and subversive groups.

In messages sent through his Middle East agents, Mao has made no secret of the fact that his aim is to prevent a peaceful settlement and to promote a protracted people's war aimed at overthrowing virtually all established governments in the Middle East, both Arab and Israeli, whatever their complexion.

Most groups Mao is aiding are violent, antigovernment and unco-operative. The Red Chinese are not even working with mainstream Communist parties, which are mostly loyal to Moscow in the Mideast. Where Peking deals with Communists, it is with terrorist splinters.

In their instructions, Mao's officials make it clear that Peking's interests will best be served at present by keeping the Middle East in turmoil through long-term, slow-paced, widespread guerrilla war.

The data indicates these major Red Chinese activities: Funds and advisers to extremist students in Egypt and other Arab lands.

Arms, supplies, and instructors for the terrorist Popular Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine. The leader of this group, Nalf Hawatmeh, has declared his allegiance to Maoist precepts. Some of his guerrillas carry Mao's little Red Book.

Funds, supplies, arms and guerrilla instructors for the Dhoifari guerrillas in Dhoifari and South Aden on the southern tip of the Arabian peninsula. Dhoifaris are also being sent to China for training. The Communist Chinese supplies are known to arrive by way of Aden and Mukalla. This is the old Dhoifari Liberation Front which now is called the Popular Front for the Liberation of the Occupied Arab Gulf.

Arms, funds and supplies for AI Fatah, the Palestine Liberation Organization. The PLO has had an office in Peking since 1965, but that office has been inactive only since last year.

Some sort of working relationship with the Revolutionary Organization of the Tudeh Party in Iran, a violent offshoot of the Iranian Communist party; the Revolutionary Leadership Faction of the Sudan Communist party and a new splinter group in the Syrian Communist party.

PAUL HARVEY

Public Poles

The June 18 general election in Britain was called an upset. It sure was. And nobody was more upset than the pollsters who, unanimously, had predicted that Labor would win.

The smoke has cleared now. The reprimand has subsided. The injured egos have been assuaged.

But the credibility of public opinion surveys remains much damaged, maybe irreparably. The Times of London called the recent Tory victory in Britain "the biggest political upset since Truman beat Dewey."

George Gale of the London Evening Standard said "No political journalist will ever again allow himself to be bamboozled by the pollsters."

Pollsters, themselves so wrong in their prediction of what would happen, now are trying to explain what they think did happen.

But nobody's listening. You know, a large part of the fascination of an upset derives from seeing the smugness of some so-called experts turned inside-out overnight.

Few human qualities are more generally detested than supercilious smugness. Labor Prime Minister Harold Wilson was so certain of reelection that he'd recently sold his family home in northern London, fully expecting to go on living at Number 10 Downing Street.

Part of the public reaction could have reflected resentment of the superconfidence of the incumbent. That means the same polls which contributed to their cockiness also mobilized the opposition.

To be told day-after-day that we are going to vote this or thataway may engender resistance.

Historically it was thought that the average voter liked to ride with a winner. And the more important newspapers endorsed a candidacy, the more voters would be inclined to climb on the winning bandwagon.

Maybe it works the other way, too.

Maybe there are an equal or greater number of voters who rally to an underdog when the experts have tried to buy him prematurely; sort of a voter's rebellion at having his secret ballot counted in advance.

And now I am going to sound smug, but old Homer McKee always said "The hen that lays a good egg has a perfect right to cackle."

Paul Harvey News has always picked the outcome of national elections five days in advance — and correctly — for seven elections, including even the so-called Truman surprise of 1948.

Five days in advance of each election I forward my regular newspaper column to publishers in more than 300 cities with instructions to print it the day after the election — no matter what.

One time wrong and you go the way of the Literary Digest, of course. But the risk is minimized because of almost constant travel in the hinterlands of America.

ANDREW TULLY

Equal Women

WASHINGTON — On the theory that this country will always be at war with somebody (Watch your cotton-pickin' stop, Bermuda!) I demand that the Senate forthwith okay the House-passed constitutional amendment to give women equal rights with men.

I command this because I believe these United States deserve and require the best fighting forces in the world, and the pending amendment would fix things just fine by making women subject to the military draft. Given a choice, I am sure Uncle Sam would pick the American female, especially of the married variety, over the American male.

The reason for such an eventuality is obvious. Women are in better physical shape than men, and take better care of themselves. They seldom sit up all night playing poker at the club or consider if their civic duty to close up Joe's Place at 3 a. m. With some notable exceptions, they don't smoke as much or drink as much. They eat lettuce.

Most men figure they've had their daily exercise after strolling two blocks to the friendly neighborhood hashish emporium for a dollop against the vapors. Women work and play at keeping in shape. I am intimately acquainted with one doll who plays tennis three or four times a week, jumps horses over fences, swims like Johnny Weissmuller used to, does 100 yards in 10 seconds flat, and enjoys 10-mile excursions into the country on a bicycle. To Molly, basic training would be a rest cure.

I do not believe Molly is exceptional in the sound body department. For some reason, possibly glandular, women have always been the brisk sex, and tough. They get 24 hours without sleep nursing Junior's ear ache and turn up at the Belles Arts ball looking like Marlene Dietrich, circa 1935. They make their daily shopping rounds without working up a sweat. They transport carloads of screaming kids across town or hundreds of miles to the beach and then sneer at the proffer of a nice, cozy straight jacket.

Although I like to think of myself as comely in a manly way, it is a fact that dames are prettier than men, with better figures, and they would look real sweet in the regalia of a private first class. I say private first class, but for most women that rank would be of fleeting brevity. As any husband can confirm, all females are of leadership material, and within a few months we males would be addressing food packages to generals.

Dolls also are braver than guys. They not only enjoy a good fight, but are very good at the sport. I could name the names of a dozen females who would be champions today had they elected to make a career of the prize ring. Cassius Clay would never have laid a glove on my sister Lucy or that redheaded Eggnog girl down the street. I would not today pick a fight with Alice Roosevelt Longworth, Golda Meir, Martha Mitchell or any member of the Women's Liberation Movement's politburo.

It is true that most women dislike getting up in the morning, but I expect they could manage with the help of the typical top sergeant. One of the prime qualifications for the top sergeant's job is pragmatism, and I do not believe sarge would split hairs over a late-rising female soldier whose specialty was wiping out machine gun nests single-handed.

So kindly pass that constitutional amendment, Senate, and appropriate the necessary funds in the Pentagon's budget for hair-curling sets, cold cream and panty hose. It will be a sacrifice to kiss the girls good-bye; but they will be ever in my thoughts as I loll on my silken couch, wolfing bonbons, sipping champagne and watching the Redskins drop another one.

U.S. May Recall Thai GIs

BANGKOK (UPI)—The United States is expected to announce a cut in its 42,000 military personnel in Thailand soon, government sources said Saturday. The announcement may come next month.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said a statement will be issued on the proposed withdrawal "when a review of the reduction is completed." U.S. Ambassador Leonard Unger and Foreign Minister Thabat Khoman met to discuss the matter last Tuesday.

An American Embassy spokesman said talks between the two governments prior to the 6,000-man reduction completed by the United States last June "required 'about a month.'"

Spokesmen for both governments said the "phased reductions" under consideration "fully take into account the progress of Vietnamization, the mutual concern of the two governments to avoid any impairment of essential security requirements in the area and their ability to meet them in keeping with the Nixon doctrine and other commitments between the two countries."

The joint announcement came just prior to the Asian tour of Vice President Spiro Agnew.

WOMEN'S LIBERATION advocate Betty Friedan will launch national Women's Strike week activities in Boston on Monday. Their strike is Wednesday, the anniversary of the day men gave women the vote. (UPI)

Women Set Strike

NEW YORK (UPI)—In her husky, staccato voice, Betty Friedan will launch National Women's Strike Week activities in a Boston church Sunday night.

Seven other women will take over pulpits in Massachusetts the same day, with permission from the churches, to preach about Women's Liberation.

Mrs. Friedan's liberation proclamation for women will be delivered in historic Arlington Street Church. It contains directions for women wishing to join the strike. Mrs. Friedan called for Wednesday, the 50th anniversary of the day men gave women the vote, by amending the Constitution.

The national strike coordinator and founder of the National Organization for Women (NOW) proposes in her sermon, prepared for delivery Sunday night:

"That the women who are doing menial chores in offices cover their typewriters and close their notebooks and that telephone operators unplug their switchboards, waitresses stop waiting, cleaning women stop cleaning, and everyone who is doing a job for which a man would be paid more—stop."

"That every woman pegged forever as assistant to, doing jobs for which men get the credit—stop."

"In every office, every laboratory, every school, all the women will spend the day discussing and analyzing the conditions which keep us from being all we might be."

"If the condition that keeps us down is the lack of a child care center we will bring our babies to the office that day and all them on the bosses' laps."

Mrs. Friedan predicts millions will join the strike. "The mood of this strike is serious, determined, confident," she said. "There is no fronting rage."

"When it begins to get dark, instead of cooking dinner or making love, we will assemble, and we will carry candles symbolic of the flame of the passionate journey down through history—relit anew in every city—to converge the visible power of women at all - where the larger options of our fall - at the political arena life are decided.

'Golden Greek' Denes Assault

PARIS (UPI)—The French lawyer of Greek millionaire shipowner Stava Niarchos said Saturday he bruises on the body of Niarchos' wife, Eugenia, were caused by frantic efforts by her husband and servants to rve her from a massive over of sleeping pills.

The attorney asked a Greek prosecutor of try to "hound" Niarchos with accusations that he may have end his wife's death.

A "veritable Gik tragedy," said attorney Ri de Chambrun of the dead Eugenia Niarchos in N and the accusations by Pous prosecutor Constantinos Afoutis Friday that the silver-haired shipping magnate may have caused fatal beries in her death.

Greek chemist ruled in July that the der of Mrs. Niarchos, 44, othe couple's island of Spotson was caused by an overdose Deeping pills. But Afoutis reated that her husband be indle in the case. "I don't undand this new action of the pccutor who, since the beginning of the affair, seems to want to hound Mr. Niarchos," said De Chambrun, who was in constant touch with Niarchos aboard his yacht La Creole off the French Mediterranean coast.

If formally charged and convicted, Niarchos, 61, could be jailed for 10 years and if a court decided he planned to inflict injuries upon his wife, the sentence could be 25 years, judicial experts said in Greece.

Niarchos was released on $16,000 bond July 25 and allowed by the courts to leave Greece.

In Greece, the government ban on publication of news about the case kept the story out of local papers even though it made front pages around the world. Judicial experts said the board, roughly equivalent to a U.S. grand jury, would have to decide whether to accept a coroner's report which said Mrs. Niarchos died from the overdose of barbiturates or whether injuries the prosecutor contends were inflicted on her by Niarchos led to her death.

Interstate Construction Shifts East

BOISE (UPI) — District engineer William Sacht said Friday interstate construction emphasis in southwest Idaho will shift to projects east of Mountain Home following completion of the Broadway Avenue Interchange in Boise.

Highway District Three, which takes in most of southwest Idaho from the Oregon border to near Bliss, now has 34.9 miles of interstate to be completed. Sacht said a total of 33 of these miles are east of Mountain Home.

Two projects currently under construction are the 5.7 mile section from Sebree to state highway 68, bypassing Mountain Home and the 7.8 mile section from east of King Hill to west of Bliss.

Sacht said the King Hill section should be completed next month. The Sebree work is just beginning, and probably will be done in about a year.

Sacht said the Sebree work will be formally connected with the interstate when the next priority project, a 19-mile road from Mountain Home to Hammett, is completed. That project is slated to go under contract in 1971 with completion in late 1972 to early 1973.

Aides Ask Gem Penal Unification

LEWISTON (UPI) — The necessity for greater unification of services in the correction field under the new Idaho Court Reform Act was discussed by two correctional leaders Friday at the Idaho Probation and Juvenile Officers Association meeting here.

Ray Wooton, director of Youth Rehabilitation for the state Department of Health, and Raymond May, state Board of Corrections chairman, addressed attendees at the second day session of the meeting.

Wooton said service would be consistent and statewide if a unified correctional service were established pursuant to court reform. The Idaho Court Reform Act will place all judgeships — municipal, probate and local — on one level under state jurisdiction.

Wooton also stressed the necessity of group homes to serve youths on the level between industrial schools and homes. He promised the social workers to "try my best to get every field worker into any new state agency performing the same function."

May, touching many of the same points, said "there should be a continuity throughout the whole gammit of correctional activity."

May, who directs the State Penitentiary at Boise, said of 400 inmates in the institution, 90 per cent do not have marketable skills.

Sony's color TV is sharper because the system is better.

To make a better color TV picture, Sony developed a better system. Trinitron is Sony's System. It's color with a 12" diagonal screen. Far brighter. The picture's sharper. The color's better. There's an amazing new picture tube using one color gun instead of three to shoot all the colors. There's a bigger lens too. Twice as large as other TV's. So you get a sharper, brighter picture. And vivid colors aren't washed out in bright room lighting. This sensitive color set has many unique features too: Automatic color control; integrated contrast-color control; pictures stay crisp and brilliant at all points on the screen; all solid state circuitry for greater reliability and contemporary wood cabinet styling. Turn it on and watch the Trinitron System bring greater color fidelity into view. But talking about it is only half the story.

Who wants a bright, fuzzy picture?

GROWTH! History of Osco Drug . . .

In 1937, the first Osco Drug Store opened in downtown Rochester, Minnesota, under the name of Self-Service and quality merchandise at low prices. By 1942, five stores were in operation, and the company became a partnership known as Owners Service Company. From these words the name "OSCO" was coined. The partnership was succeeded by the present corporation, Osco Drug, Inc., in 1946 and this provided the beginning of a series of new Osco Drug Stores.

Osco Drug joined forces with Jewel Companies, Inc., as a wholly-owned subsidiary in 1961. Jewel Companies Inc. a leading retail organization, operates a chain of self-service supermarkets in Chicago, New England, Montana and Idaho, and a chain of Drug Stores in the Chicago Metropolitan area; and Home Service Routes servicing customers in 43 states. While there have been changes in the legal framework of the organization, the corporate identity and separate management continues. Osco Drug Stores provide the community with products and services for better daily living, a business whose personality can be described only in terms of many small parts—appealingly warm store designs, a wide variety of quality merchandise and attractive displays, modern pharmacies, cosmetic centers and friendly local advertising.

OPPORTUNITY!

Osco Drug Offers Opportunity for the College Man With Potential! Osco is the fastest growing division of the Jewel Companies. At least ten stores a year will be added to the division, almost doubling Osco's size in the next three years.

Men with talent and desire will be needed to manage departments . . . stores . . . groups of stores, as Osco expands. This is the opportunity Osco offers you. The opportunity to grow with a growing company.

Other compensations for all Osco employees includes one of the most generous profit sharing plans in the retailing industry, a stock purchase plan and a group insurance plan. Osco follows a flexible salary scale. We will always be more than competitive with other retailers in our salary offers to men with ability and eagerness to work.

INTERNSHIPS!

Internship Plan offered by Osco Drug: The Osco Drug Store system offers an unusual program to give the pharmacy intern "a comprehensive knowledge of store operating methods and policies," Jim Beal, manager of the Twin Falls drug and merchandising center, states, "In recognizing the three-fold role of pharmacy—as a profession, a science and a business—this program provides intern-participation in all aspects of retail pharmacy. Emphasis lies in the commercial areas of store operations and merchandising as well." The intern examines inventory control, merchandising procedures, store operations and all phases of pharmacy.

Keep Up With The Times!

The College of Southern Idaho is THE growing institution of Magic Valley offering students the choice of almost two hundred liberal art courses that give students the opportunity to advance their talents in the field of their choice.

The student can choose fully accredited courses from business, English & Humanities, Fine Arts, Mathematics, Science, Social Science, Education and Library Science.

For those students who wish to continue their studies the money saved by attending C.S. I. will almost be enough to cover the cost of two more years of college.

For those who are not academic minded the Technical & Vocational branch enables students to prepare themselves in many fields of the business world.

Buttreys is proud to suggest C.S.I. to all students in Magic Valley.

LOOKING NORTHWEST ACROSS the College of Southern Idaho from about 600 feet, Times-News photographer Dan Johnson caught this view. Buildings by number are, No. 1, the health-PE building, scheduled for completion the end of the month; No. 2, the Fine Arts Center; No. 3, the "commons," which will contain student union, library and administration facilities, scheduled for completion later this year; No. 4, a co-educational dormitory, also scheduled for completion this fall; No. 5, the academic classroom building, and No. 6 is the site of a co-educational classroom building on which bids will be let later this year. The building is being financed by funds from the state permanent building fund and a federal grant. Farmland lies to the upper right corner. This also is part of the college campus and will be the site of development, with the CSI Tower, right of center, being the eventual center of campus. The other CSI building now on campus, the maintenance building, is not visible in this shot, but lies to the lower right of the future vocational building.

Kidnapings Anticipated

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department has told Congress it expects more assassinations and kidnapings of American diplomats abroad and wants money and manpower to counteract the terrorism.

Specifically, the department wants to organize emergency action teams, including a Navy Seabee armor expert, that could be deployed quickly to trouble spots.

It also has asked for a fleet of heavily armored vehicles, more Marine guards at embassies and money to hire more local guard forces.

"The steady increase in terrorist activities directed against U.S. government personnel and operations abroad, including assassinations and kidnapings, shows no signs of abatement. In fact, all indications point to an amplification of the problem for some time to come," the department said.

The request came to light when the Senate Appropriations Committee released testimony taken last June. The department asked for $1,250,000 to launch three of the emergency action teams, buy the special armored cars and other vehicles and pay the salaries of the extra Marines and local security guards.

Since then, Daniel Mitrlone, a U.S. official, was murdered by terrorists in Uruguay. Another official, Claude Fry, is still a hostage there.

These victims were the latest in a series of slayings and kidnapings of U.S. diplomats in recent years. In 1968 Guatemalan guerrillas shot two U.S. military attaches and Ambassador Gordon Mein to death. In 1969, C. Burke Elbrick, U.S. ambassador to Brazil, was kidnapped and held hostage until 15 political prisoners were freed. This year, again in Guatemala, a labor attaché and a military attaché were kidnapped and then ransomed for political prisoners.

"At present it is beyond the Department of State's capability to provide maximum security to our ambassadors and other high-ranking U.S. officials. The threat of personal attack is particularly acute in certain areas of the world," the department said.

Summer Safety Warnings Noted

Summer shouldn't be so relaxed that people forget safety precautions, according to the Idaho Department of Health. Power lawn mowers, for example, can cause tragedy if the blades come loose. They can throw rocks, wire or other objects with deadly force, as well as danger of cutting feet.

Summer has numerous other dangers, too. The Idaho Department of Health recently cautioned backyard chefs against the dangers of moving outdoor grills and hibachi pots indoors because of rain. Burning charcoal, used with such cooking devices, gives off carbon monoxide and could poison persons cooking in an enclosed area. At a summer barbecue, when rain threatens, it is best to move to the most sheltered outdoor place. Burning charcoal should also be kept out of cars, campers, trailers or enclosed porches. Adequate ventilation is an absolute must to keep charcoal cooking safe.

Other summer mishaps run the gamut from water accidents to diseases which occur more frequently in the picnic season. In general, accidental deaths from most outdoor activities rise during the summer months. Drownings are always highest from May until August. In 1965, for example, when the 10-year state high of 62 drowning deaths was recorded, 40 persons drowned during the four-month summer period, including 13 each in July and August. The next year, 15 swimmers drowned during July and 37 of 51 aquatic deaths occurred during the warm third of the year. The total of 18 drowning deaths for June, 1970 was the highest for any single month in years, according to the Idaho Department of Health.

In addition to all types of accidents (airplane crashes increase during summer months when more flying time is logged) chances of contracting certain diseases increase because of the outdoor urge. Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever and sylvatic typhus plague can be transmitted by ticks and lice. Additionally, exposure to the possibility of bites from bats, skunks and squirrels—animals which have been known to carry rabies—is more frequent, and gastrointestinal diseases such as salmonella are caught more often in the summer.

Summer is a time of concern for the Idaho Department of Health... and should be a time of sensible precautions for Idaho citizens. One last note of caution was issued to housewives when they are cleaning. Never mix chlorine bleach with other cleaners of any kind. In fact, it is a good idea not to mix any two cleaning compounds together, because certain chemical products mixed with bleach produces highly fatal chlorine gas. The summer message of the Idaho Department of Health for summer is—"Enjoy... but use reasonable caution!"

For additional safety information, booklets are available by writing to Health Education, Statehouse, Boise, Idaho.

Vagrant Youths Apprehended

In T.F. Cemetery
TWIN FALLS — Four runaways from Utah were found hiding in the Twin Falls Cemetery early Friday morning and were taken into custody by local officers.

City and county officers said the youths, ages 14, 15, 16 and 17, were apprehended about 4 a. m. One of the 15-year-olds, who had an injured leg when he was taken into custody, was released to his parents later Friday.

Youth March in Band

KIMBERLY — Bruce Whitehead, Kimberly, has been accepted by the Arizona State University marching band. Starting Sept. 3, he will spend six hours a day indoors and outdoors, marching, playing and wondering why he wanted to be part of the band.

When the evenings cool, and uniforms arrive, the bright lights come on and everyone is happy again, because the show will go on. The frustration of hot, long practices are forgotten then as the ASU band and its directors appear before the thousands of football fans gathered in Sun Devil stadium. This is the goal of the bandmen arriving in Tempe for pre-school practice from Sept. 3 through the first home game on Sept. 19 as ASU meets Colorado State.

As an optimistic note in the desert heat, director Dr. Kenneth Snapp told his musicians "We will try to get the most out of the minimum amount of rehearsal time."

The pre-season practice will include 60 hours of drill and music practice before the regular semester even begins.

The band will perform at all six ASU home games, plus at least one away game. In addition to their practicing, the students have to audition for rank within their instrument sections. Hundreds of student musicians from at least 18 states will be involved in auditions either for marching band or the two campus bands, Snapp said.

In between, the directors will meet with squad leaders, check out equipment and uniforms, interview drum-major applicants, hold drill rehearsals and music rehearsal — and shower a lot.

Area Youth Trained as Scout Aide

TWIN FALLS — Steve Houston, son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Houston of Twin Falls, is receiving specialized training in Boy Scout Leadership at Phillmont Scout Ranch and Explorer Base in the Rocky Mountains of northeastern New Mexico.

He is one of more than 600 Scout selected from across the nation to participate in the 12-day summer course at the Junior Leader Instructor Training Camp, located on the 214-square mile ranch. The purpose of the course is to prepare these Scouts to assist their council in training other junior leaders.

A member of Troop 67, Steve is receiving intensive instruction in the skills of leadership and Scoutcraft, including patrol and troop activity planning, campfire planning and conducting training programs. The Scouts participating in each session live in tents and are organized into patrols.

'Explosive' Rally Spurs Stock Prices

By PATRICK W. SULLIVAN
UPI Business Writer
NEW YORK (UPI)—An explosive rally Friday enabled stocks to finish sharply higher on the New York Stock Exchange this week.

After starting off on the wrong foot Monday, the market picked up steadily, impelled by favorable economic news that cut at the problems constricting Wall Street for more than a year.

For the week, the Dow Jones industrial average of 30 selected blue chips spurted 34.57 to 745.41. Standard & Poor's index of 500 stocks rose 4.06 to 79.24, while the New York Stock Exchange common stock index was up 2.68 to 42.85.

Of the 1,704 issues traded, advances topped losses 1,228 to 384. There were 37 new highs set, against 113 new lows.

Turnover for the five sessions totaled 49,055,343 shares, up from 39,873,840 shares last week, but slightly below the 50,302,737 shares during the year ago period.

Friday the market responded to a late announcement that New York's two largest banks—First National City and Chase Manhattan—were cutting some of their rates on large denomination certificates of deposit.

Many investors apparently interpreted this as an indication the interest rate structure in general was easing. High interest rates have weighed heavily on the market for more than a year.

Also sustaining Friday's rally were reports from the Labor Department and the Department of Commerce.

The Labor Department reported that the consumer price index, a key economic indicator, rose in July at the same rate as May and June. A spokesman said the price slowdown, begun around the first of the year, had become "more pronounced in June and July."

The Commerce Department Friday announced that factory durable goods orders showed a sharp rise in July. The department also predicted Wednesday in its mid-year review inflation will ease soon as a delayed result of the winter and spring business downturn. The department added that it believed the economy was ripe for an upturn.

Wall Street in mid-week, also was buoyed by hope that Washington was leaning towards a more expansive monetary policy. The Federal Reserve Board (Fed) cut bank reserve requirements on certain types of deposits. It was the Fed's first change in reserve requirements since April 17, 1969 after more than a year of tight credit.

Indicative of the week, 16 of the 20 most active issues were gainers. However, a loser, American Smelting & Refining topped the list, finishing off 1 1/2 at 25 1/2 on 645,400 shares.

Gulf Oil was second. It gained 2 1/4 to 29 1/4 on 516,500 shares. Texaco followed, climbing 2 1/4 to 31 1/2 on 502,200 shares.

Other active issues that registered gains of 2 or more points included Jersey Standard 4 1/4, Continental Oil 2 1/4, Xerox 5 1/4, International Telephone 3 1/4, National Cash Register 2 1/4, Standard Oil of California 3 1/4 and General Motors also 3 1/4.

Corning Glass jumped 20 1/4, and IBM, 19 1/4.

Other strong performers were Du Pont up 9 1/4 and Getty Oil, Mission, Polaroid, and Texas Instruments more than 8 points each. Minnesota Mining, Schlumberger, Walt Disney, Memorex, American Research and Development and Burroughs rose 6 or more.

Steels were firm, with U. S. Steel and Bethlehem up more than a point.

Airlines, aircrafts and electronics generally registered slight gains.

Writer Backs Hunting Fans On Park Plan

Editor, Times-News:
I am pleased with the stand taken by the Southern Idaho Fish and Game Association concerning the development of a Sawtooth National Park in the White Clouds area of the Sawtooth Mountains.

At a recent meeting of the Idaho Outdoor Association, a similar stand was taken. I have talked with both individuals and groups concerning this subject, including grange members and businessmen of our community and everywhere I have found strong opposition to the park or even the idea of a combination of a recreation area and a national park.

Thanks also to our city Chamber of Commerce for their open opposition. I am somewhat disappointed, however, at the reported stand of our Idaho Legislators in the Capitol who seem to favor the combination. But I believe they may be reconciled to the wishes of the people if we will but speak up. I do think that Idaho has a very fine representation in Congress, but how can they represent us if we don't inform them of our views on such matters of local interest.

So please pass our opinions to them on this matter. I am sure we all love our beautiful mountains and wish to preserve them in their natural state as long as possible.

Legislators Termed 'Enemies' Of America

Editor, Times-News:
It has repeatedly been stated that our soldiers in Vietnam cannot tell who their enemies are. Most of the time this refers to the Viet Cong infiltrators but there is a much more dangerous enemy that these men cannot face with guns and tanks.

This enemy is our own Senate and Congress. These men in public office are constantly using their positions to downgrade and discredit the office of the President of the United States and stand by and allow attempts to discredit the armed forces of the United States. One such incident is the crucifixion of the soldiers in the Mai Lai situation.

Another Marine has been made a sacrificial goat to the gods of politics. He was sentenced to five years at hard labor and dishonorably discharged from the Marine Corps. All of this for killing people who may very well have been Viet Cong, the enemy. The hidden enemy is crawling out of hiding in the persons of Senator Frank Church and Senator Cooper and their amendment. Now we have Senators Hatfield and McGovern with their amendment. The Church-Cooper amendment, which has already been soundly defeated, provides for the protection of Viet Cong takers in Cambodia by withholding funds necessary for the destruction of these bases. This bill gave the North Vietnamese a great propaganda boost and created more unrest in this country by supplying ammunition for the professional dissenters.

The Hatfield-McGovern amendment, misnamed "The Amendment To End The War," is in fact a surrender without honor.

Hatfield and McGovern are using members of their staff (government employees) at full salary (taxpayer money) to work for the lobbying committee and have approved the use of their names in paid newspaper ads throughout the country soliciting funds to finance the committee's propaganda activities.

Our soldiers cannot tell who the enemy is either in Vietnam or in our country.

Now I ask, should we, the American public, stand by and allow the enemy at home to hack away at our fighting men's backs?

I charge that it is time we all got together and supported the soldiers in the field by getting behind the office of the President of the United States and by stopping these men who would undermine our nation.

I charge that these proposals and the misleading advertising used by these Senators inflames the professional dissenters, unsuspecting dupes and causes civil unrest and increased violence. I further charge that these Senators are using Vietnam as a personal political battlefield.

Let your Senators and Congressmen know how you feel about these issues. The governing of our nation is the duty of a select few. It is the duty and responsibility of each and every citizen.

Forum Rules

Forum letters must be concerned with topics of general interest and must be of a reasonable length.

The editors of the Times-News reserve the right to refuse publication if, in their opinion, the subject matter is of a libelous nature, is not in good taste or is repetitious and has previously been thoroughly covered in the forum.

All letters must bear the signature and address of the writer. The name of the writer will appear when published unless there is a personal request that it be withheld and the reason for such a request stated. This request will then be considered by the editors and it will either be granted or the letter will be returned to the writer.

Columnist Paul Harvey Draws Strong Objection

Editor, Times-News:
This is an open letter to Paul Harvey, whose column appears on your editorial page.

Dear Mr. Harvey:
You open your column headed "Fluoridate" in the Twin Falls, Idaho, Times-News, July 28, by saying: "I should know better than to do what I am about to do..." You should, but not for the reasons you state. For you, of all people, to advocate "enforced medication" of objectors is disillusioning to say the least. Your unceremonious parroting of intellectual garbage is even worse.

You say: "In this business of news analysis we cannot be expected to be expert on all the subjects we are called upon to analyze..." but you don't have to be an expert to recognize garbage.

You say: "Opponents of

Objectives of Constitution Delineated

Editor, Times-News:
Our Idaho constitution must conform with our U. S. Constitution. The preamble or preface states the reasons or objectives we, the people, are striving to achieve. It reads: "We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

These objectives are as true today as when the Constitution was first written.

The main purpose of government is to protect the public, not the criminal. It makes anyone sick to think of the money and time the public is forced to pay out just to give a murderer a so-called fair trial.

A rattlesnake doesn't get any sympathy and it generally gives a warning.

Motorists Cautioned On Youths

"Motorists, remember that the safety of thousands of youngsters depends on you as this new school year begins," a spokesman of the Idaho State Automobile Association said Saturday.

About 11,000 children are involved in traffic accidents each year as they travel to and from school. "Primary grade children are especially vulnerable," he said, "because they may be unfamiliar with safe pedestrian practices. Consequently, children, ages five through eight, are involved in two out of every three school-age pedestrian accidents, the spokesman said.

In reminding motorists that a child and a 3,000 pound car do not make an even match, the association asks that drivers give school children an extra margin of safety by yielding right-of-way to young pedestrians, slowing down in school zones, being extra alert for children in areas around schools during opening and closing times, and following all safety rules.

Swimming Competition Discussed By Doctor

Editor, Times-News:
I read the comments in the Times-News concerning the conditions at Harmon Park during the state swimming championships.

While I had intended to write prior to these letters I waited to see if there were any other letters on the subject.

I am sure that the Twin Falls Recreation Department has always been most cooperative in handling these problems when they:

A. Know they exist.
B. Have funds to correct them.

"My original intent, however, was to thank the many people in Twin Falls who helped with sponsoring the Twin Falls AAU meet and the state meet. This includes Mr. Johnson and Mr. Browning of the Recreation Department and all parents of swimmers and especially the residents around the park. It may help them to know there were 525 and 560 children in each of the meets and this year we had no complaints from the many campers who took care of these children.

We also received more compliments than ever before regarding the fact that they were even allowed the use of facilities and that the park facilities in general were so pleasant. Especially, they expressed repeatedly that this is a town which is warm, friendly and accommodating.

Knowing the many problems which face any community, it makes me proud to have people visit and be so impressed with the hospitality of our town. I do want the Johnsons and all the people around the park to know that in spite of the inconveniences they suffered, they also shared in giving a fine family vacation experience to over 1,000 children and their parents.

As an additional note of interest, only one-third of the children and parents attending stay in the park. The rest are in our motels. They also eat in our restaurants. (One restaurant reported sales of over $2,500 in two days), so that this thing called friendliness is really a total community atmosphere. (Did you ever try to serve 60 kids—15 different menus in 30 minutes and keep smiling?)

I am sure that the problems we have can be solved as long as we know they exist and keep working to improve ourselves.

Police Action Criticized As Excessive

Editor, Times-News:
The article appearing in the Times-News dated August 11 on page two, column six under the heading "Court Receipts Totaled" was especially interesting to me as my son contributed to that fund.

My wife and myself were passengers in our car, driven by our son (age 22), on June 1 of this year. While traveling on Addison Avenue East in Twin Falls we were overtaken and stopped by a state patrolman who gave Ron a ticket for speeding eight miles per hour in excess of what he was actually doing. So, in my opinion, the increase in fines doesn't necessarily mean more violation. In many instances it could reflect such a condition as I have mentioned.

Ron is employed in California and inasmuch as it would cost in excess of $100 to come to court he decided to forfeit bond, taking the least harmful way out.

I am wondering just how many situations of a similar nature have occurred where motorists have been charged with speeds greater than they were actually doing and then, because of distance, loss of time from their job and court costs involved, the motorist fails to appear and forfeits the bond and thus the county is richer by a good many dollars.

If an officer had to pay for his defense in case of a trial, the same as a motorist did, I'm sure there would be more special speedchecks before citations were issued.

Billings Handcuffs Cowboys In 5-1 Win

Sport

FROM ALL ANGLES

Campbell And Ortenzio Spark Decision; M.V. Moves To I.F. Sunday

BY LARRY HOVEY
Times-News Sports Editor

Mix most of the starters returning from the eighth-best national junior college team plus a first-string all America performer and put it in a brand new gymnasium, the ingredients should be there for a big crowd at College of Southern Idaho's basketball opening night.

Lefty Don Campbell pitched tough ball with men on base and Frank Ortenzio ignited a three-run outburst with a solo homer in the fourth as the Billings Mustangs dropped the Magic Valley Cowboys 5-1 Saturday.

However, the Cowboys remained in the three-way dogfight for the Pioneer League lead as the other two contenders, Idaho Falls and Ogden, also were beaten. The Cowboys now leave for Idaho Falls where they open another "crucial" series Sunday, returned Thursday for a four-day stand against Great Falls and wind up the season at Ogden.

Campbell, touched for the first run of the game in the third inning, kept the Cowboys from getting any critical hits and the home team left 10 men stranded. Meanwhile, Billings was the picture of efficiency against Paul Devine and Perry Chapple as it left only two men on base.

Lewis-Clark Nips T.F. 3-0 To Win Crown

LEWISTON — Righthander Tim Kampa fired a four-hitter to turn back Twin Falls 3-0 Saturday night and give Lewis-Clark its 10th consecutive Idaho State American Legion Championship.

The Lewiston team advances to the regionals in Roseburg, Ore. Thursday against Corvallis.

Earlier Twin Falls ousted the Boise Gems 3-2. Friday night Lewiston jumped on Twin Falls starter Kevin Nelson early to win easily, 14-5.

Wayne Graham was touched for two runs in the first inning in the final game. Jeff Hill walked, stole second, and scored on two passed balls. Larry Clark walked and eventually scored on catcher Bill Herron's double.

Graham, limited to pitching just five innings because of his six innings' work in Saturday's first game with Boise, only gave up four hits. Kampa, winning his second game of the tournament and running his record to 15-2, fanned 22 Twin Falls batters.

World Marks Fall In AAU Nationals

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Gary Hall of Garden Grove, Calif., set a new world record in the 200-meter men's butterfly and Alice Jones of Cincinnati set a new world mark in the women's 200-meter butterfly Saturday night in the National AAU Swimming Championships.

It was the second world records they had set since the competition began three days ago. Earlier in the day Mark Spitz of Santa Clara, Calif., and Brian Job, 18-year-old Stanford University sophomore, had both set world marks in preliminaries.

New York Leading Regatta

CAMDEN, N.J. (UPI)—New Zealand's national team won the main event by just under four seconds, but the New York Athletic Club remained ahead Saturday in the 95th annual National Association of Amateur Oarsmen regatta.

Hall, 19, who attends Indiana University and was competing for Phillips 66 of Long Beach, Calif., was timed in 2:05.01 after Spitz, competing for the Gatorade Club of Bloomington, Ind., had set a new world mark of 2:05.43 in a heat. In the finals, Spitz finished fourth in 2:05.70.

New York Athletic Club rowers, led by Jim Dietz, 21, have won four championship events in three days at Cooper River in nearby Collingswood.

Miss Jones won her 200-meter butterfly race in 2:19.32. The old mark was 2:21.0 held by Ada Kok of the Netherlands. Karen Moe of the Aquabears had a pending world and American record of 2:20.7 set earlier this year.

Coach Hale has been around the recruiting system a long while and he won't count Victor safely in hand until he arrives in Twin Falls — which should be Friday or Saturday. But he admits that Kelly has never mentioned any school other than CSI, too.

The next three finishers also bettered the world and American records. They were Lynn Colella of the Cascade, Wash., Swim Club, 2:19.51; Micoe Moe, 2:19.81, and Ellie Daniel, Vesper Boat Club, Philadelphia, 2:20.10.

CSI, too. There were a lot of NCAA coaches watching that all-star game and several of them decided afterward that they could use a 5-6 guard. They waited for Kelly to come out of the dressing room. "A friend of mine was there and he told me when Victor came out they (the coaches) started closing around him. Kelly said something like 'I have a statement to make. I am enrolling at College of Southern Idaho in Twin Falls and will be there for two years. Any mail or contact addressed to me there should be sent in care of Coach Jerry Hale.'"

Hall Friday shattered his own world record in the 400-meter individual medley with a time of 4:31.03 while Miss Jones Thursday set a new world record in the 100-meter butterfly of 1:04.11.

Kelly is also a very confident young man, Coach Hale says he isn't a hotdog, just confident. Kelly is on record as saying with CSI's returning power and now him, he expects CSI to "win it all."

Hypes, who went the distance in picking up the win, struck out 14. He doubled in the fifth and later scored on Mike Haynes' triple to give the Giants the lead for good.

White's double cleared the bases in the first inning after three walks, and another run scored that frame on another walk and an error.

Clampitt hit a two-run double in the third after a walk and a single by Mike Pink to give the Cubs a 6-2 lead.

The Angels, who started the night only one-half game behind league co-leaders Magic Valley and Ogden, picked up a run in the fourth. Then in the seventh, a single by Leron Matlock was followed by Gary Granville's ninth homer of the season to cut the Cubs' lead to 6-5.

Hypes Has 5-Hitter, G.F. Wins

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (UPI) — Great Falls pitcher Kyle Hypes hurled a five-hitter and scored the winning run in the fifth inning as the Giants downed Ogden, 2-1, Saturday night in Pioneer League action.

Hypes, who went the distance in picking up the win, struck out 14. He doubled in the fifth and later scored on Mike Haynes' triple to give the Giants the lead for good.

Great Falls opened scoring in the second when Glen Milani singled, took second on an error and scored on a double play.

However, Ogden tied it in the fourth when Paul Barnes' pop fly fell for a double and Dennis Haren followed with a single.

Rick Nitz was charged with the loss. Dan Ballard came on in the seventh for Ogden to finish up.

The victory was the Giants' only win in the four-game series. The linescore: Ogden 000 100 000-1 5 2 Great Falls 010 010 00x-2 0 2 Nitz, Ballard (7) and Partin; Hypes and Lombardo. WP — Hypes; LP — Nitz.

Bonanza Motor Stays Alive In State Meet

IDAHO FALLS — Fourth district champion Ponderosa Texaco was eliminated and Bonanza Motor absorbed its first loss Saturday in the second day of the state softball tournament.

Ponderosa Texaco of Burley dropped a 6-5 decision to Light's Conoco of Pocatello and went to the sidelines in two straight games. Clint Nelson and Bob Widmer pitched for the losers.

Bonanza Motor, which came up with two big wins on the pitching of Ron Brown Friday, was no-hit by John Nord of Galley Construction of Boise as the Capital crew romped off with an 11-0 decision.

Bonanza had a lot easier against Nudahl as Brown was never in trouble in posting the 4-0 decision.

Bonanza Texaco of Burley, the district champions, dropped its first game to Blackfoot and Ross Rything 6-0 Friday.

Harold Winebarger pitched the last three innings of the no-hitter. In other action, Bingham Mechanical of Idaho Falls fell to Galley Construct 6-2 and Roberts Automotive fell to Grayson Realty of Idaho Falls 4-2.

Friday night, Ron Brown and Charlie Skaggs stole the spotlight as Bonanza Motor dropped No. 1 seeded American Boise of Boise 4-3 and came back to beat Nudahl Manufacturing of Idaho Falls 4-0.

The opener was a tight test with Donnie Critchfield getting a two-RBI single as Bonanza opened a 3-0 lead. But Boise came back to tie it with two in the second inning and a solo homer in the third.

Terry Jones turned in a couple of great defensive plays at shortstop as the game

Bell said claims that the fish taken from the canal and replanted in various other waters in the Wood River area are never recovered aren't true.

"The department ran a survey on that situation about 1957 or 1958 and learned that about 33 per cent of the Richfield canal fish were taking from the other waters. This is a very successful return-to-creel ratio."

Juniors Hold Key Roles In 1970 Bruin Football

With only 16 seniors and 10 lettered returning, the Twin Falls Bruins will be relying heavily on steady and rapid improvement of juniors for the 1970 football season.

Coach Norm Thomas ran his 44 charges through their first scrimmage Saturday afternoon with the usual mixed emotions. "I was pleased with the way (Junior quarterback Jerry) Barbour handled the team and I thought the senior backfield looked pretty good although the timing naturally was off and we had a couple-three real mixups. We found we have a lot of work to do in the line and with the defense. But we had some individual performances that were encouraging."

Thomas said the only thing he really knew about the team is that overall speed is up over last season "but in a couple of spots it still isn't real good."

Alworth Changes Mind, Will Play For Cowboys

IRVINE, Calif. (UPI)—All-Pro receiver Lance Alworth reported to the training camp of the San Diego Chargers Saturday after having announced his retirement at the start of the preseason practice.

"I just want to play and I'm happy to be back," said Alworth. "Truthfully, I think our team has a good shot at the Super Bowl and I want to be part of it."

Alworth said he is in good physical condition and had been working out regularly while at home in San Diego.

Howard Slams Pair As Solons Win 5-4

ST. PAUL-MINNESOTA (UPI)—Frank Howard, who tied the game with his 34th homer in the fifth inning, hit his 35th leading off the 10th inning Saturday to lift the Washington Senators to a 5-4 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

Howard led off the 10th with his home run off Minnesota reliever Tom Hall, who had allowed only one hit and struck out four in four innings.

Washington took a 3-0 lead in the first off starter Jim Kant on two walks, a fielder's choice, Aurelio Rodriguez' double and Tom Griev's two-run homer.

Red Jetson Takes Pari-Mutuel Feature

BURLEY — Red Jetson took the featured Tuff Mathews Memorial Derby and two races were decided by the camera Saturday afternoon in the final Saturday of Burley Pari-Mutuel racing held in conjunction with the Cassia County Fair.

A crowd of 2,200 pushed $17,900 through the windows, compared with $600 Friday night and about $15,000. Red Jetson, with John Ward up, bent off Faye's Venture in taking the featured Memorial race — the eighth.

Dave Schiewe rode Player Plano to a victory over Kent Storey's Agust in the longest event of the session, the mile and one-sixteenth race. Bar Prince Shook, winning the fourth race with Mills up, had the biggest payoff at $46 for the day.

Casper Leads AVCO Meet By 1 Stroke

Hill, Sikés, Colbert And Weiskopf Near Top As Leader Shoots 73

SUTTON, Mass. (UPI)—Pressure-tested Billy Casper lost his concentration briefly and failed to hit one-over par 73 Saturday but managed to withstand charges by five challengers to forge a one-stroke lead through three rounds of the $100,000 Avco Golf Classic.

The 39-year-old Casper, who had started the round with a three-stroke lead, successfully repelled attacks by Chuck Courtney, Dave Hill, Dan Sikés, Tom Weiskopf, and Jim Colbert while lengthening his bid for his fourth tournament victory of the season and the 47th of his 15-year career.

Hen Pheasants To Be Late Legal Targets

Hen pheasants will be legal targets for the final nine days of the season and the Magic Valley counties will have one of their longest duck hunting seasons this year.

The Idaho Fish and Game Commission set up the pheasant season for Oct. 24 to Dec. 6 with four roosters as the daily bag limit. But from Nov. 9 through the end of the season, hunters will be allowed to pick up a hen legally.

Minidoka and Twin Falls will be Sept. 19-27 with a bag and possession limit of three birds. Department trend counts indicate Sage Grouse have enjoyed another good reproduction year and expect results to be at least as good as the past two seasons — perhaps better.

Call Made For Runners

JEROME — Boys interested in running on the Jerome High School cross country team should report to the high school gymnasium at 8 p.m. Monday, announces new head coach Jim Dunne.

Wilkinson Has Meet, USGA Title

DARLEN, Conn. (UPI)—Martha Wilkinson of Whittier, Calif., charged from behind Saturday to down Curtis Cup teammate Cynthia Hill of St. Petersburg, Fla., 3 and 2 and capture the U.S. Golf Association's women's amateur championship.

Miss Wilkinson, the medalist in the week-long match play tournament over the 6,240-yard, par 74 Wee Burn Country Club course, trailed Miss Curtis by one hole as they made the turn on the 18th hole of the scheduled 36-hole playoff.

The match came to an end on the 18th hole—a hole which proved to be the downfall of Miss Hill, a University of Miami graduate as she double bogeyed the hole twice Saturday.

Miss Wilkinson was on in two on the par four 16th while Miss Hill drove into a brook near the green. Miss Wilkinson, figuring she could wrap it up with two putts, won without putting as her opponent took four shots to get on.

The water obstacle also cost the Florida golfer a double bogey in the morning round but she managed to hold the edge as they made the turn at 18 on the strength of successive birdies at 17 and 18.

Miss Wilkinson took charge in the afternoon round. She tied the match with a birdie four at 19 and went one up on the 20th with a par four while her opponent, who had hit into a trap, took a bogey.

The California golfer built her biggest advantage—four holes—with a birdie four at the 28th hole after dropping a 20 foot putt.

Miss Hill said after the match she played the best she could. "It was a great thrill just to be in the finals," said the Florida golfer.

At conclusion of the week-long tournament, the USGA announced that Miss Wilkinson, Miss Hill and Jane Bastanchury of Whittier, Calif., a semi-final loser to Miss Hill, would represent the U.S. in the world women's amateur team championships to be held in Spain, Sept. 30 through Oct. 3.

Courtney, in second place going into the third round at Pleasant Valley Country Club, was the first to mount his attack and briefly drew even with Casper in the early going before falling back on a two-over-par 74 to drop four strokes off the pace.

Hill, with an impressive five-under 67, turned on the pressure with an early finish while opening-round leader Sikés and Colbert both made their unsuccessful move in the late stages before Casper sank a 12-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole to regain the top spot in the race for the $32,000 first prize.

With one round remaining, Casper's 54-hole total stood at 208, eight strokes under par, while Hill, Sikés, Colbert and Weiskopf were tied for second, all with 54-hole totals of 209, seven under par. Hill shot a five-under 67, Sikés a 69, and both Weiskopf and Colbert checked in with 70s.

Lou Graham shot a 71 for sixth place tie with Larry Ziegler, who had 70, at a 210 total, two strokes off the pace, while six others including Courtney, R. H. Sikés, Bobby Mitchell, Herb Hooper, Dave Eichelberger and Tom Aycock tied at 212, four strokes back.

Casper said he ran into difficulty with photographers and spectators on four different holes and noted, "in all my years of tournament golf I never experienced a day like today."

He said he putted poorly and hit "a lot of bad shots" and cited such problems as "slumping outhouse doors" as bothering him and other players. "There was always something going on that wasn't connected with golf," he said. "Whenever things happen a certain number of times, you actually are waiting for them to happen."

He said the noise and people in the way helped break his concentration.

Host pro Paul Hanratty, who came belatedly to life with a five-under 67 Saturday, tied with six others including Larry Hinson, Jim Jamieson, Howie Johnson, Lee Trevino, John Miller and Chi Chi Rodriguez at 213, five-strokes back.

Several other golfers commented in contrast to Casper that they had no difficulty with the gallery that was announced at 30,370.

Colbert said he experienced no problems though insisting the gallery was the "largest I've seen in five years on the tour."

Brown Claims National Rifle Match

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (UPI)—Army Sgt. Myles G. Brown, Honolulu, Hawaii, tallied a 491 out of a possible 500 points Saturday to win the coveted National Trophy Individual Rifle match.

The 50-shot event is fired with the service rifle and with service ammunition.

Close on Brown's heels was Middleton Tompkins, a civilian competitor from Long Beach, Calif., who came through with a 490. Bert A. Rollins, Fairfax, Va., was third at 786.

Posting 485s were Navy PO1 Michael Nolte, Annapolis, Md., Army Sgt. Marvin Warren, and Army Sgt. William Lee, both of Columbus, Ga.

Bama 200 Taken By Bill Ward

TALLADEGA, Ala. (UPI)—Bill Ward, an Anniston Ala., insurance man who ran his first stock car race in the abortive Talladega 500 a year ago, charged to a surprise victory in the Bama 200 Grand American challenge race Saturday.

Ward, who held his 1970 Cougar back in the early stages of the race over the 2.66-mile, high-bank trioval Alabama International Motor Speedway, moved into contention in the final 50 miles and took the lead with 25 miles to go.

Taking the lead under a caution flag at the 10-lap mark, Ward sprinted away from the field and was never seriously challenged.

He won the pole by better than two miles per hour but, because of his inexperience, was not expected to be a serious contender because of heavy raceway traffic. In his final dash, the field bunched behind Ward and he did not have to worry about the other cars — they were behind him.

Ward's average speed, slowed by two caution flags for 10 laps, was 147.382 mph. The win netted $5,476.

Jim Paschal, High Point, N. C., outdueled Harry Gailey, Clermont, Ga., for second place. Bob Burcham of Rossville, Ga. was fourth.

Paschal, in a Javelin, and Davie Pearson, Spartanburg, S. C., in a Mustang, battled for

Mengo Leads Loop In Homers, RBIs, Bases

Third baseman Marc Mengo of the Magic Valley Cowboys continues to lead the Pioneer league in home runs and runs-batted-in and shares the total base lead with Gary Granville of Idaho Falls, according to statistics released today by William J. Weiss, official league statistician.

Mengo has 11 homers and 51 RBIs while he and Granville had 109 total bases in action based on games through Monday. Tom Cox of the Cowboys was the only other offensive leader, topping the circuit in walks with 49.

Only one pitcher shows up in the lead and it is a rather dubious distinction. Dave Bogacki is tied with Dick Lange and Charles Hockenbery, both Idaho Falls, with 10 wild pitches.

Chico Ruiz continues to top the club in hitting with a .323 average with Mengo second at .317. Cox is at .313, which indicates the youngster loves hitting on the road. He is six for 17 in Jaycoe Park since July 14. Ernie Podorsin is at .307, followed by Jack Pierce and Tom Heleste at .279. Rod Gilbreth .271, Howie Duckworth .257, Louis Galindez .245 Babe Hartline .211 and Joe Brookins .207.

Although pitching of late has been the lead in the early stages of the race, exchanging places nine times in the first 46 laps. But then Pearson dropped a valve and had to leave the race.

2 TDs By Hanratty Pace Win

JEANNETTE, Pa. (UPI)—Two late touchdown passes by Terry Hanratty enabled the offense to beat the defense 30-15 Saturday in the Pittsburgh Steelers' annual intrasquad game.

Hanratty, who did not play last week when the Steelers beat the Minnesota Vikings for their only preseason victory, teamed with Ron Shanklin for a 25-yard scoring pass and hit Huddle Bryant with a 52-yarder. He completed 5 of 7 passes for 116 yards.

Rookie Terry Bradshaw, pro football's top draft choice and Pittsburgh's No. 1 quarterback, completed only 3 of 10 passes for 52 yards including a 45-yard completion to John Fuqua while Kent Nix completed 3 of 5 for 24 yards.

The defense scored its points by stopping the offense on downs seven times, each time worth two points, and recovering a fumble for another point. Warren Bankston led the rushers with 34 yards in five carries but running back Don McCall dislocated his right elbow and will be sidelined.

Stinebring Has Doubles In Trapshoot

VANDALIA, Ohio (UPI)—Morris Stinebring of Thioville, Ill., shattered 99 out of 100 clay targets in a heavy rain Saturday to win the doubles championship on the second preliminary day to the 71st annual Grand American Trapshoot Tournament here.

"Pumpkin" Flock of Miami, Fla., won the women's doubles title by cracking 92 while Harry Koogler of Minneapolis took the professional crown with a 98.

James Tippin of Toledo, Ohio, won the handicap championship with a 88 score from the 20-yard line, plus 25 straight in a knockout with Harold Miller of Cincinnati and Ray L. Stafford of Thornton, Colo.

Carol McClure took the ladies handicap title with a 95 from the 20-yard line, while Steven Kirk of Grove City, Ohio, won the junior laurels with a 97 from the 20.

Since 19 shooters blasted 100 straight in the 16-yard event, the title will be decided in Sunday's final preliminary shooting.

Unbeaten Dolphins Win 17-7

MIAMI (UPI)—Quarterback Bob Griese called a 50-yard touchdown pass to speedy Paul Warfield in the fourth quarter Saturday night to power the Miami Dolphins to a 17-7 preseason game victory over the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

The win was Miami's third in a four-game record for the five-year-old club that is so far undefeated under new Coach Don Shula.

The Dolphins also scored on a one-yard plunge by rookie running back Dave Buddington with only 40 seconds remaining in the first half to culminate a 70-yard drive directed by backup quarterback John Stofa.

Jimmy Thomas, a fleet second-year running back from Texas-Arlington, scored San Francisco's only touchdown on a 51-yard draw play with 5:11 remaining in the second quarter.

Dolphins' kicker Karl Krenser booted a 30-yard field goal with 3:52 left in the first period after a Griese-led drive bogged down.

102-Yard Run Paces 31-17 Win

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Bobby Williams returned a kickoff 102 yards to lead the Detroit Lions to a 31-17 preseason victory over the New Orleans Saints Saturday night.

Williams, who led the National Football League in kickoff returns last season, put the Lions on front permanently late in the third quarter when he scampered down the left sideline almost untouched for a touchdown.

Detroit scored its other touchdowns on a three-yard pass from Bill Munson to Craig Cotton in the second quarter, on a one-yard plunge by rookie Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens in the third quarter, and on a 20-yard pass from Greg Landry to Mel Farr in the last quarter.

Errol Mann kicked a 50-yard field goal to wrap up the Detroit scoring.

Justin Canale put the Saints out front in the first quarter with a 46-yard field goal. All Dold scored the first New Orleans touchdown on a 26-yard pass from Bill Kilmer in the second quarter, and Tom Barrington added the other on a three-yard pass from Edd Hargett in the third quarter.

Both teams are 2-1.

Cuozzo, Vikings Cop First

HOUSTON (UPI)—Gary Cuozzo, quarterbacking Minnesota in the absence of Joe Kapp, fired a pair of touchdown passes in the first half Saturday. Then survived four interceptions to defeat the Houston Oilers 14-7.

On the first play after Houston's second-quarter touchdown, Cuozzo found end Gene Washington behind corner back Leroy Mitchell and hit him with a 75-yard touchdown pass.

Cuozzo put his only drive together late in the second quarter, moving the Vikings 72 yards and capping it with a three-yard toss to tight end Kent Kramer. Fred Rox kicked both extra points.

Houston quarterback Charley Johnson, who hit 12 of 17 while playing only the first half because of a sprained arm, moved the Oilers 79 yards and Hoyle Granger dived over from the one on the third play of the second quarter.

Oiler free safety Ken Houston picked off three of Cuozzo's errant tosses and the Houston line shut down the Minnesota ground game.

Los Angeles Rallies To Drop Oakland 34-23

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Roman Gabriel returned to the Los Angeles lineup and threw three touchdown passes, two of them in the third quarter to lead the Rams to a come-from-behind 34-23 exhibition win over the Oakland Raiders Saturday night.

Stidolned last weekend against Dallas because of a sore knee, the National Football League's most valuable player in 1969 passed 13 yards to Wendell Tucker and eight to Lester Josephson in the third period to overcome a 16-12 Raider lead.

The win before a Coliseum turnout of 67,497 gave the Rams a 3-0 preseason record while the Raiders took their second loss in three decisions. Gabriel, who threw one yard to Billy Tux for the Rams' first score, hit 10 of 19 passes for 184 yards.

In the first Ram-Raider game in history, Oakland scored twice in the second quarter, the second touchdown on a 44-yard pass from Daryl Lamonica to Fred Biletnikoff, to go ahead 13-12 at half time.

St. Louis Coasts By Bengals

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—Running back Johnny Roland, relegated to second-string duties, plunged over for two touchdowns after entering the game in the second half and quarterback Jim Hart passed for two others as the St. Louis Cardinals easily handled the Cincinnati Bengals 41-20 Saturday night in the Cardinals' pre-season home opener.

Roland dove over left tackle from the one-yard line with 6:41 left in the third period for his first touchdown, giving the Cardinals a 27-17 lead following Jim Bakken's extra-point kick.

Roland's second score came only two minutes 20 seconds later during the Cardinals' next series. The 6-2, 215-pound Missouri product went in from the two, again over left tackle, and Bakken's kick put the game away at 34-17.

The Cardinals took a 20-17 lead at the half on the two touchdown passes by Hart.

Packers Tip Dallas By 35-34

DALLAS (UPI)—Donny Anderson's second quarter running kept the Packers alive and Don Horn's second half passing carried Green Bay to a 35-34 preseason victory over the Dallas Cowboys Saturday night.

Anderson was a workhorse in the second period after the Packers had been able to run only five plays in the first quarter. He gained 63 yards on 11 carries, and including touchdown runs of three and two yards, and caught an eight yard scoring pass from Bart Starr to give the Packers a 21-20 halftime lead.

Horn came on in the second half and threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to John Spill. Horn then set up a four-yard touchdown run by Dave Hampton on a series of passes to Carroll Dale.

The Cowboys ran up a 13-0 lead with 40 and 17-yard field goals by Mike Clarke and Tom Rogers and a one-yard smash by Walt Garrison, then went ahead 20-7 when defensive end George Andrie plucked a Starr fumble out of the air and ran 27-yards to the end zone.

The Dallas defense got the Cowboys back in front again early in the fourth period when Cornell Green sole a pass from Dale and scampered 45-yards to score. A 37-yard punt return by rookie Margene Adkins set up an 8-yard scoring pass from Rraig Morton to Bob Hayes.

Stenerud, K.C. Nips Cleveland

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Soccer-style kicker Jan Stenerud booted two 40-yard field goals in the final five minutes Saturday night to lift the World Champion Kansas City Chiefs to a 16-13 come-from-behind victory over the Cleveland Browns in a pre-season National Football League game.

After trailing through most of the last half, only 4:37 remained on the clock when Stenerud, a 6-2, 187-pound veteran from Montana State, came on with his first 40-yarder to tie the score at 13-13. Fifty-two seconds remained when he kicked his game-winning three-pointer.

Earlier, in the second period, a 27-yard field goal by Stenerud brought the score to 3-3. Speedster Warren McVoe scored the Chiefs' only touchdown from two yards out with a little more than 10 minutes left in the first half.

Kicker Don Cockcroft was the first Brown to score with four minutes remaining in the first period when he booted a field goal from the 26-yard line. Cockcroft added a 32-yarder early in the final period. Quarterback Bill Nelsen hit Bo Scott with a 45-yard scoring pass in the second period to gain the Browns a 10-10, halftime tie.

Cougar II Cops Cabrillo 'Cap

DEL MAR, Calif. (UPI)—Stretch-running Cougar II from Chile responded to the urging of jockey Fernando Toro in the stretch Saturday to race to a nose victory over Quicken Tree in the $21,800 Cabrillo Handicap at Del Mar Race Course.

The favored Quicken Tree made his usual belated bid despite carrying top weight of 124 pounds and just missed at the finish. Over the Counter was third.

Holtzman, Cubs Rip San Francisco 15-0

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Ken Holtzman pitched a one-hit shutout Saturday, giving up a single to Hal Lanier with one out in the eighth inning, and coasted to his 14th victory behind an 18-hit attack as the Chicago Cubs routed the San Francisco Giants 15-0.

Scoreboard for San Francisco vs Chicago. Chicago won 15-0. Key stats: Holtzman 1 IP, 1 R, 0 ER, 15 H, 0 R, 0 ER, 15 H, 0 R, 0 ER.

American League Endurance Mark Comes To End

KANSAS CITY (UPI)—The American League's current longest playing streak came to an end Saturday night when Carl Yastrzemski of the Boston Red Sox sat out the game with the Kansas City Royals.

Yastrzemski had played 350 consecutive games, all but two as a starter, dating back to July 27, 1968.

Yastrzemski, the league's leading hitter with a .324 average, celebrated his 31st birthday Saturday and was presented with a cake by the Royals' player representative, Dave Morehead.

Yastrzemski said that he had needed a rest because he's been "swinging the bat terrible." He has only one hit in his last 16 at bats. The Red Sox plan to rest him Sunday, too.

Expos 4, Braves 1

MONTREAL (UPI)—John Bateman scored a run in the third inning and drove home another run in the seventh inning with a double Saturday night as the Montreal Expos extended their winning streak to five games with a 4-1 victory over the Atlanta Braves.

Scoreboard for Montreal vs Atlanta. Montreal won 4-1. Key stats: Bateman 1 IP, 1 R, 0 ER, 4 H, 1 R, 0 ER.

Reds 3, Mets 2

NEW YORK (UPI)—Johnny Bench's two-run double with two out in the ninth inning Saturday lifted the Cincinnati Reds to a 3-2 victory over the New York Mets and made Jim Morritt the National League's first 19-game winner this season.

Bench doubled off the right field wall to score Ty Cline and Bobby Tolson with the tying and go-ahead runs.

Cline opened the ninth with a pinch-hit single off starter Jim McAndrew and Pete Rose was safe at first on Joe Foy's error.

Tame vs. Wild

An elephant enjoying an easy life in a zoo may need less than 100 pounds of high-quality food a day; in the wild, it may gobble up daily some 800 pounds of grass, leaves and bark.

Loud Is Stakes Champion

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (UPI)—Loud, closing with a rush in the stretch, wore down pacesetter Judgable to score a major upset in the 101st running of the $112,000 Travers Stakes Saturday at Saratoga.

Loud, ridden for the first time by Jacinto Vasquez, outgamed Judgable in the closing strides to win by a neck in the 1-1/4 mile test for 3-year-olds. Plymouth finished third in the field of nine starters. The entry of Preakness winner Personality and Belmont Stakes victor High Echelon finished fourth and fifth, respectively.

Twice Worthy, previously undefeated in four races this season, tired badly and finished next to last as the 9-10 favorite.

Loud, a Kentucky-bred son of HerbagR-Hasty Dancer, was unraced as a 2-year-old and had won only three of nine starts this season against lesser competition, although he was second to Personality when he won the Jim Dandy recently.

3 Schools To Drill On Monday

By United Press International. Brigham Young, Colorado State University and Texas-El Paso get the jump on their Western Athletic Conference buddies Monday by starting fall practice.

The three schools all have opening dates Sept. 12. The other five WAC schools, which will begin practice Aug. 28, do not play until Sept. 19.

Defensive ends locked up the pre-season predictions for Linebacker-of-the-Year honors during sportswriter and sportscaster balloting at Snowmass - Aspen, WAC commissioner Wiles Hallock said Saturday.

The two were Junior Ah You of Arizona State and Gene Mack of Texas-El Paso.

Ah You became an all-conference performer for Arizona State last year as a sophomore although he didn't start the first three games of the season.

Ah You threw ball carriers for losses 17 times last season. One of his best days was against Brigham Young when he was credited with 18 tackles.

Mack—called Mack the Truck by his teammates—averaged almost 10 tackles per game in 1969 and recovered three fumbles for the Minors.

Beautiful Sawtooth Valley Welcomes Idaho's Ninety Nines at "Fly-In"

It was not "those magnificent men in their flying machines," it was women.

They came from various parts in Idaho, along with their husbands and families, to attend an all-day outing of the Ninety Nines, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Waite, and family, Jerome, at their Pettit Lake cabin.

The aviatrixes landed their planes at Smiley Creek Airstrip in the Sawtooth Valley (7,100 feet) and were transported to the beautiful cabin site by car. The Waites' cabin itself was a marvelous conversation piece for the guests as they "checked out" the unusual collection of antiques, relics and souvenirs used to decorate the interior. As one guest noted, "you could look at these things for days — and still miss something."

Dinner, swimming, boating, water skiing and fishing were features of the day and guests not listed among the water enthusiasts soaked up the sun and mountain air and told "tall tales." It's usually the fishermen noted for their "stories," but several of the pilots, male and female, could run them good competition.

Several of the non-flyers present were very intrigued with the organization's name, Ninety Nines. According to Mrs. L. R. (Bob) Jesson, Boise, state chairman, the Idaho group was organized 15 years ago, with the international women flyers organizing 40 years ago. "That's how the organization got its name," she noted. "It was founded by Amelia Earhart, with 99 charter members, and at present boasts a membership of more than 4,000."

One of the larger interests of the women-flyers throughout the country is a Ninety Nines Museum presently being constructed in Oklahoma City. Items relating to the women pilots have been displayed at several public museums, but never altogether as one large unit.

"Many women decide to become pilots strictly for pleasure — some as a means of making a living," one aviatrix noted. "Why, we have three Ninety Nines members in England who are employed for the airlines, two of them flying commercial jets."

Officers serving the Gem State group are all from Boise and include Eula Logsdon, vice chairman; Eloise Stover, secretary, and Fran Brown, treasurer.

THIS IMPRESSIVE GROUP of people were among those attending a Sunday outing recently hosted for the Idaho Ninety Nines members by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Waite, Jerome. The day-long event featured something for everyone, dinner, swimming, boating, water skiing and fishing.

WATER-SKIING was one of the features of the Sunday outing for Idaho woman pilots and their families.

TWO FISHERMEN in the group, Bob Jesson, left, and Charles Campbell, both Boise, compare fishing gear as they wait for transportation to the lake.

THREE AMBITIOUS people walked off onto the airstrip to wave goodbye to the last group of guests as they take off from Smiley Creek Airstrip.

AMONG THE GUESTS attending the recent gathering were Don Watkins, owner and operator of Boise Aviation, right, and Chel Moulton, director of the Department of Aeronautics, both Boise.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY SPARKS

Area Couple Repeats Vows in July Rites

TWIN FALLS — Kathleen Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Thompson, Twin Falls, and Larry Sparks, son of Mrs. Mable Sparks, Castelford, were united in marriage July 17 at the First United Brethren Church of Twin Falls.

Rev. Del Storey performed the evening ceremony before an arch of blue and white carnations. Cathedral baskets of white gladioli, blue delphiniums and yellow pom-poms flanked the arch. Blue topiary trees led to the arch and blue satin bows decorated each pew.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white alencon lace gown which she designed and which was made by Mrs. Norman Olson.

The gown featured a scalloped neckline and fitted bodice underlaid with white satin. The full skirt had an overlay of lace that opened in the front, with tiers of lace in the back ending in a train.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held by a mantilla headpiece of lace petals and pearls. She carried a formal cascade bouquet of white gladioli centered on a white Bible.

Janine Smith, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Marcella Sliagar, cousin of the bride, Debbie Ulrich and Chandee Bjorn were bridesmaids. Keith Rosencrantz, Castelford, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. John Thompson and Richard Thompson, brothers of the bride, were ushers. Billy Sparks, brother of the bridegroom, and Mike Thompson, brother of the bride, were candlelighters.

Tina Bauers, cousin of the bride, and Nancy Olson were flower girls. Rusty Thompson, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Wedding music was played by Novella Lazaros, who also accompanied Marsha Lambert and Dianne Wilkes.

Karin Barnasa registered guests. A reception was held following the ceremony. The bride's colors of blue, white and yellow, were carried out in refreshments and the decor of the hall.

The bride's table was skirted with white organza and draped with blue chiffon. A three-tiered cake was trimmed with blue star flowers and yellow bells and topped with a miniature bridal couple. Quartet tables were covered with white nylon lace over blue and centered with snifters in which blue carnations floated.

Mrs. Bonnie Barnes cut and served the cake and Pam Jensen and Suzan Winterpholler served punch and coffee.

Others taking part were Tisa Sliagar and Terri Sliagar, cousins of the bride, gift bearers; Marcia Drown, cousin of the bride, and Angie Harding, who pinned on corsages; Mrs. Jackie Anderson, Mrs. Marie Harding, Vonnie Homan, Marcia Drown and Shannon Briggs, who were in charge of gifts.

Don Lambert played accordian music, assisted by Del Storey, who played the bass guitar.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Sliagar, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Tim Drown, Sr., great-grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rosencrantz, grandparents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Arley Williams and Mrs. Otto McChristian.

Guests attended from Castelford, Buhl, Downey, Boise, Thornton, Kimberly, Filer, Wendell, Nampa, Oregon and California. The couple honeymooned in Salt Lake City before returning to Twin Falls where the bridegroom is employed and the bride will return to school.

Twin Falls Retired Educator Receives International Award

TWIN FALLS — International recognition has come to a Twin Falls retired educator for outstanding contributions in her own field and in the interest of youth in general.

Elsie M. Lindgren, Twin Falls, was presented the annual Delta Kappa Gamma Society's 1970 International Achievement Award while attending the international convention of the society in Portland earlier this month.

She is a member of the XI Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, Twin Falls, and was one of three members to attend the Portland convention. Others were Marie Hargrove, Kimborly, and Helen Dietz, Buhl.

Approximately 1,800 women educators from all 50 states, District of Columbia, one Scandinavian country and six provinces of Canada participated in the convention.

The International Achievement Award is presented each year as the highest honor bestowed by the International honor society for women teachers.

Another award, that of outstanding author of the year went to Lisa A. Rickette, a Philadelphia attorney for her book, "The Throw Away Children".

Miss Lindgren who retired in 1964 had taught English in the Twin Falls Senior High School for 32 years. Prior to that she also served as an elementary school principal in Wendell and an elementary teacher in Hansen. She began her teaching at the age of 18 in 1928 shortly after graduating from high school. Her first school was in North Dakota. She completed her education at the University of North Dakota, University of Washington where she received her degree, and at the University of California and Boston University where she did graduate work.

Throughout her career she accepted the role of school teaching as a serious challenge in shaping the future of all children. Since her retirement Miss Lindgren has traveled around the country and throughout Idaho speaking on behalf of education, usually for local and district Delta Kappa Gamma conventions.

Miss Lindgren not always praises the educators and often challenges them to meet their responsibilities.

"Too many teachers in the modern world of rapid changes and pressures are teaching for the salary only and simply put in their time. Others are doing much to help today's confused young people face their problems and this is the responsibility of the teacher because of her close association with the young people," Miss Lindgren says.

The citation to the Twin Falls woman states, "To be selected by your colleagues and associates is of itself a heart-warming experience. To be presented the beautiful gold medalion is an act of loving recognition — a tribute from 110,000 members."

THE ANNUAL DELTA KAPPA Gamma Society's 1970 International Achievement Award was presented recently to Elsie M. Lindgren, Twin Falls. The award presentation was made during the international convention of the society in Portland earlier this month.

Miss Lindgren has served as state president of the honor society when she received the first honor award ever granted by the state for distinguished service. In addition she served on numerous state and national committees and was elected to international office as parliamentarian and later as second vice president.

Gemstones Displayed

FAIRFIELD — Pat and Veva Patrick, Boulder City, Nev., and Halley, provided the program for the Solder Mountain Rock Wranglers. Patrick had a lighted display case of a variety of gemstones in various type mountings that he had cut, polished and mounted.

He gave the names of them and where they had been obtained. He illustrated the process of marking and cutting a stone for making a cabochon. Members brought some interesting specimens to display.

The group decided to invite the Eureka Gem and Mineral Club of Mountain Home to the Sept. 15 meeting. Thanks were to be sent to members of the Northside Gem and Hobby Club, Wendell, for the donation of four display cases and a gavel.

Reunion Held

FILER — The annual Parrott family reunion was held recently in Harmon Park, Twin Falls. Those attending included Mrs. George Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parrott and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lammers and family, Merle Parrott, Mrs. Ogile Lammers, and Grant Zitting, all Twin Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Parrott and family, Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schnell and family, Rogerson; Mr. and Mrs. Alva Parrott and family Buhl, and Mr. and Mrs. Eddis Lammers and family, Filer.

Homemakers Club Conducts Home Tour

FAIRFIELD — The remodeled home and the landscaped yard and flowers of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Simon were the feature of the August meeting of the Prairie Homemakers Extension Club. An Early American theme is carried out in the house with uses of antiques. Many types of plants and flowers were used in the yard. A roofed over patio had semi-tropical plants growing in it. One of the garden arrangements featured a waterfall. Native rocks and plants were used in much of the landscaping.

Reports were given on the club's 4-H booth that won a blue ribbon. It was planned to have the B-Line Fashions, Boise, present a style show for the October meeting. A home tour is being planned for November. Mrs. Richard Dalling, Mrs. Earl Wilson and Mrs. Harold Brooks were named as a committee for the home tour.

The next meeting will be hosted by Mrs. Robert Frostenson and Mrs. Jack Frostenson. Mrs. Hershel Lange was co-hostess.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

JEROME — Esther Louise Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. West Stone, and Glen Dwight Ferrel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ferrel, all Jerome, were married July 20 in rites at the Grace Baptist Church, Twin Falls.

Rev. Robert Seaman performed the evening ceremony before a background of white gladioli tied with blue ribbons and white tapers in wrought iron candelabra.

Frank McMullin, Twin Falls, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Tom McGinnis, soloist and sister of the bridegroom. The bride, escorted by her father, wore a floor length gown of white bridal satin and Chantilly lace, fashioned with an empire waist highlighted by a satin bow, round neckline, lace bodice and sleeves scalloped at the wrists. A detachable lace chapel train fell from her shoulders. The gown was made by the bride's mother.

The bride's veil of silk illusion was gathered to a delicate crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gladiolus and daisies surrounding an orchid.

Genny Stone, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Ralph Omero, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Stone, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Kristi Elliott and Gale Ferrel, brother of the bridegroom, were candlelighters. Peggy Elliott was flower girl and Timmy Elliott was ringbearer.

Dan Baughman served as best man and Dan Stone and Clay Stone, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Cheryl Hine, Twin Falls, presided at the guest book and Joymae Robbins and Bonnie Hine, both Twin Falls, arranged gifts at the reception following the ceremony.

A white cloth covered the bride's table which was centered with a three-tiered heart shaped cake decorated with aqua roses and swans. Topping the cake was a miniature bridal couple used on the 50th wedding anniversary cake of the bride's great-grandparents 30 years ago. Heart-shaped cakes flanked the larger cake.

Serving were Ann Gring, Patti Hall, Mrs. McGinnis and Mrs. Don Elliott served.

After a wedding trip to Sawtooth Valley, the couple will reside in Jerome and the bridegroom will attend the College of Southern Idaho this fall.

Special guests were Rev. and Mrs. Robert Gring and children, Republic of Congo, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stone, Palo Cedro, Calif., grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Colliver, San Jose, Calif., aunt and uncle of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Elliott, Redding, Calif.

Social Events

Twin Falls Hobbycrafters Club will meet at 11 a. m. Monday for a potluck luncheon at the home of Goldie Leonard, 747 Locust St. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

The Women of the Moose will hold their regular meeting at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Moose Home.

Tour of Homes Slated Sept. 13

TWIN FALLS — Now officers of the Junior Club of Twin Falls were present to greet new and returning members at a morning coffee hour held recently at the home of Mrs. William Kuhn.

The 1970-71 officers are Mrs. Jerry Meyerhoeffer, president; Mrs. William Reese, vice-president; Mrs. William Kuhn, secretary; Mrs. Larry Hennon, treasurer; Mrs. Elbert Davis, projects chairman, and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick, publicity chairman.

The Junior Club will present its annual Tour of Homes on Sunday, Sept. 13, from 1 to 5 p.m. Proceeds from the tour will be given to the Twin Falls Public Library.

Homes that will be viewed this year are those of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Voy Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Tom White and the town house of Mrs. Audrey Walton.

Tickets are available from Junior Club members or you can contact Mrs. William Kuhn, 733-5447, or Mrs. Steve Lund, 733-6493; Sallie's Gift and Books and the Mayfair Shop.

T.F. Miss Recites Promise

TWIN FALLS — Donna Stapleman and Howard Koch were united in marriage Aug. 4 at ceremonies at the Missionary Baptist Church, Hansen.

The bride is the daughter of Wilson Biggers, Twin Falls, and the late Mrs. June Biggers. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Blanche Koch, Twin Falls, and the late Mr. Howard Koch.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Elder Arlo Salice before an altar flanked by large bouquets of white and blue feather flowers with large white-ribbon bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue sheath street-length dress with blue lace over-dress, accented with a corsage of white feather flowers.

Mrs. Gale Cameron, Twin Falls, was matron of honor. The bride and matron of honor dresses were made by Mrs. Mildred Biggers, stepmother of the bride. James Hoshaw served as best man for his brother-in-law.

Carolyn Cameron, Hansen, played the wedding march.

A reception was held in the church after the ceremony. The reception table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake decorated in blue and silver and topped with three bells. The cake was flanked by blue candles in white holders.

Barbara Cameron, assisted by Nancy Buss, stepsister of the bride, cut and served the cake. Teresa Biggers sister of the bride, served punch. Alan Biggers, brother of the bride, served coffee.

Gifts were opened and displayed by Susan Goyer, Twin Falls, and Kenneth Biggers, brother of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Yellowstone National Park, the couple reside south of Twin Falls.

A paper bag fastened to the sewing machine with tape makes a good disposable container for sewing scraps.

Open House Set Aug. 30

TWIN FALLS — Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Albee invite all their friends and relatives to an open house from 2 to 6 p.m. Aug. 30 at the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall in observance of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Albee have two daughters: Mrs. Elmer (Mildred) Thies, Caledonia, Minn., and Mrs. Dean (Marjorie) Bush, Kenilworth, Wash. Mrs. Thies has two daughters, Mrs. Steves (Linda) Hadley, who was graduated from the University of Minnesota in June, and Marlene, who is a student nurse at the University of Minnesota. Mrs. Bush has three sons, David, a high school senior, Larry, 13, and Randall, 8.

Mrs. Albee is the former Alotta Blinn and was married to Mr. Albee Sept. 1, 1920, at the home of Louis Blinn, Caledonia.

They farmed in Minnesota, then later moved to Ventura, Calif., and Santa Barbara, Calif. In 1931 they moved to Buhl, and in 1936 they bought the Taupin farm southeast of Twin Falls, where they reside at present.

The couple requests no gifts.

Bridge Played in Richfield

RICHFIELD — The S. J. Pizer and Mrs. C. P. Merriettes Bridge Club met at Chatfield as prize winners. Mrs. the home of Mrs. Charles Oola Porter, Shoshona, and Mneats, with Mrs. Ralph Riller, Mrs. Bruce Sorenson were guests.

Selection Corsage Workshop Highlights Garden Club Picnic Meeting

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department's consumer and marketing service says food shoppers will find a greater selection of fruits and vegetables than meats at their nearby markets this weekend.

The selection of meats however will include ground beef, beef roasts and steaks, and in poultry, broiler-fryers and turkeys.

Vegetables in good supply include cabbage, celery, corn, cucumbers, lettuce, green peppers, potatoes and tomatoes.

Among the fruits will be bananas, cantaloupes, peaches, and watermelons. Frozen concentrated orange juice is abundant, too.

The Interior Department reports best buys in fish are filets, canned tuna, and fresh and frozen salmon.

A corsage workshop and installation of officers highlighted the Twin Falls Garden Club's annual picnic meeting held recently at Shoshona Falls Park.

Officers for the 1970-1971 term are Mrs. J.C. Reynolds, president; Mrs. Russell Miller, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Dale E. Patterson, recording secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Hodder, treasurer. Mrs. S.W. Smith, installing officer, presented a rose to each officer. Roses were from the garden of Mrs. Victor Nelson.

Mrs. Kenneth Hodder conducted a corsage workshop and showed ways to use corsages.

She demonstrated construction of the "Glamella" type corsage and noted that narrow ribbon flowers to use are chrysanthemums, orchids and carnations, Mrs. Hodder noted.

Mrs. Victor Nelson presided at a brief business meeting. The collect was read by Mrs. Patterson and officers' reports were given by Clara Walton, secretary, and Mrs. C.W. Daigh, treasurer. Mrs. Patterson reported on culture of hostess. The club plans to enter a booth at the fair, it was announced.

Planned to a pillow, a corsage gives pleasure to a bed patient, not allergic to fresh flowers. Used as a table centerpiece, corsages may later be given as favors to the guests.

Foliage in corsage should have stiffness as salal, camellia or leather fern. Snips of net, ribbon or other material add interest. The most durable flowers to use are chrysanthemums, orchids and carnations, Mrs. Hodder noted.

Mrs. Al-Hankins became a member. Mrs. Adn Powell, Mrs. O.A. Schwartz and Mrs. Reynolds were picnic hostesses. The next meeting is set for Oct. 7 at the YM-YWCA building.

BETTY CANARY

'Ahoy There, You Landlubbers'

By BETTY CANARY

I cannot say I've made a complete study of the subject, but, now that I live in Great Lakes country, I seem to have accumulated quite a bit of material about boats and boaters.

A boat, as a sage—possibly a marina-owning sage—once said, is a hole, surrounded by water, into which a man continually pours money.

There are sailboats and power boats. Boaters therefore can generally be divided into two types—sail people and power people. I have more data on powerboats than sailboats and this is not because I am partial or nonobjective. I simply find that taking notes is easier while riding in a power boat, possibly because its lack of a sail keeps me from being constantly smacked in the side of the head.

A sail man can be recognized by his lithe, lean, graceful appearance. Bronze as a smoked salmon (they keep a smoked salmon nailed above the yacht club door for comparison purposes), the sail man lists slightly while walking. He does not whistle "Red Sails in the Sunset" any more often than the average citizen.

A power man can be easily identified. He often wears a billed cap. He is usually surrounded by his family. His wife occupies herself mostly with pushing an enormous food cooler above the deck. His children whine, "Why do I have to wear a lifejacket? I wouldn't fall overboard in a million years!" (He insists they wear the lifejackets, possibly because he foresees the day when they will not fall but be pushed overboard.)

Your average power man never sings "Anchors Aweigh!" while leaving the slip. He is too busy bawling, "Lookit that guy's wake!" and moaning, "Did you forget the beer AGAIN, Maxine?"

He also says, "Check the bilge," a lot.

Learning the various parts of the boat is an easy task. The two most important parts are the prow and the prop. The prop is the front of the boat. It is usually the first thing to hit a submerged log. The prop, or propeller, is situated at the rear under the boat. Its blades whirl gaily as they push the boat through the water. Unless, of course, you run over a rock with them.

According to pictures accompanying boat advertisements, riding in a boat is a healthful, youthful, beautiful thing to do. I haven't noticed any change in myself yet, but I am convinced that someday I'll step aboard and immediately be 10 years younger, blonde, lose 15 pounds, and be surrounded by a group of men, all of whom are wearing swim trunks by Brooks.

Those who don't care for boating usually spend their summers indoors rereading Katherine Ann Porter's "Ship of Fools."

Miniskirted Princess Anne Goes Midi

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's miniskirted Princess Anne is going midi this fall.

Princess Anne, who celebrated her 20th birthday Aug. 15, will be wearing midlengths when she comes back from vacation in October and resumes her royal duties.

The blonde daughter of Queen Elizabeth II says she thinks the midlength length will be practical for coats.

"It can't be jolly chilly standing about on those wide open spaces like parade grounds in winter," Anne says. But the midlengths will be worn over much shorter dresses. So far she has not been able to bring herself to try the new midlength skirts.

The princess, who buys most of her clothes off the rack, has had a close look at the skirts—many of them slit up one side or up the front to well above the knee—in her favorite Chelsea boutique. But she left for the family vacation retreat in Scotland without buying any.

Anne is one of the few women in the royal family to have the height to carry the midi styles. Her fashion-conscious aunt, Princess Margaret, gives her height as 5 feet 2, but that is not in stocking feet. Anne as a statuesque 5 foot 7 can wear such dramatic fashions easily.

The midlengths will also look good with the broad-brimmed hats which have become Anne's trademark.

The princess will need a large wardrobe to get her through a heavy program of official and public engagements this fall and winter. By tradition, royalty is never seen or photographed in the same outfit twice and the blue-backed engagement diary on the desk in her sitting room is full of fall dates.

The princess is in such popular demand that she has taken on a second lady-in-waiting to help with her heavy schedule of appearances.

MR. AND MRS. LELAND BRIZEE

All friends and relatives of the honored couple are invited to attend. They request no gifts. (Dudley photo)

Worthy Grand Patron Feted At OES Sponsored Picnic

Approximately 200 persons attended from throughout Idaho. Among those in the receiving line were the honoree; Roberta Showalter, worthy grand matron; Laura Callender, associate grand matron; Harold Holmes, associate grand patron; Georgia Stelsel, grand secretary; Glendene Keister, grand conductress; Ina Wilson, associate grand conductress; Wilma Ellensohn, grand chaplain; Penny Grango, grand marshal; Katherine Hoffman, grand organist; Virginia Peters, grand Ruth; Mary Ramsey, grand Esther; Lurline Bragg, grand warden, and Ralph Kromer, grand sentinel.

Also present were past worthy grand matrons and patrons; appointees and other officers.

Large sized fresh fruits are not necessarily the best quality, nor are they always economical. They may appear to be bargains, but may be entirely unsuited to the purpose you have in mind.

Federal Officials Stress Job Opportunities For Women

SEATTLE — With increasing Northern job opportunities for women apprentices in the kind trades, as well as in technician and service occupations were stressed recently by Roscoe H. Burt, Seattle, regional director of the Labor Department's Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training, and Ms. Madolno Mixer, San Francisco, regional director of the Women's Bureau.

The two federal officials noted that women are in more than 60 occupations out of 370 offering apprenticeship training toward a career as a skilled worker.

These occupations, they said, include: pharmaceutical laboratory technician, gyro repairer, dent laboratory technician, electronic computer repairer, compositor, baker, barber, tailor, upholsterer, drycleaner and chef, as well as others.

Burt and Mrs. Mixer said the Labor Department is working to interest employers and labor organizations as well as prospective trainees in opportunities which traditionally have been reserved for men.

They said there was a 72 percent increase nationally in the number of women in apprenticeship programs registered with the Labor Department's Manpower Administration in 1969.

Apprentices receive a combination of on-the-job training and related classroom instruction, and at the end of the training period — generally 2 to 4 years — are skilled workers, or journeymen. While trainees learn and work they also earn; the starting salary is about half the wage paid the skilled worker in the particular industry, and a pay raise is guaranteed every six months. During the last half year of training, an apprentice receives at least 90 per cent of the journeyman's basic wage.

Copies of a new Labor Department leaflet entitled, "Why Not Be an Apprentice?" are available at 10 cents each, with a 25 per cent discount on orders of 100 or more, from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Magic Valley Favorites

Week's Recipe Winner
MRS. RITA JOHNSTON
246 4th Ave. E., Twin Falls

PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH-STYLE GREEN BEANS

3 strips bacon
1 small onion, sliced
2 teaspoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
1 No. 303 can green beans
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 hard cooked egg, sliced

Fry bacon in skillet until crisp. Remove from skillet and crumble. Drain off all but one tablespoon drippings. Add onion and brown lightly. Stir in cornstarch, salt and dry mustard. Drain beans. Reserve one-half cup liquid and stir into skillet. Cook until mixture boils and blend in brown sugar and vinegar. Add green beans and heat thoroughly.

Pour into a serving dish and garnish with egg and crumbled bacon. Makes four servings.

Betty Martin, Blamires Wed

TWIN FALLS — Betty Jane Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Martin, Twin Falls, and James Allan Blamires, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blamires, Jerome, were united in marriage July 25 at the First Presbyterian Church, Twin Falls.

Rev. Robert C. Harvey performed the double ring ceremony before a cathedral basket of coral gladioli, leather-leaf and yellow and coral pompons and carnations, flanked by brass candelabra holding white candles and decorated with coral and yellow pompons and carnations. The pews were marked with coral and yellow satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line gown of imported lace over peau de soie, re-embroidered with lace medallions centered with tiny pearls. The gown featured a Sabrina neckline and lily point sleeves. The cathedral train was enhanced with rows of lace medallions and mother-of-pearl iridescents. Her veil of silk illusion was held in place with lace flowers and fresh white baby carnations. She carried a formal cascade of coral carnations and yellow daisies and ivy.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. James Douglass, Salt Lake City, sister of the bride, as matron of honor; Chris Emerick and Shanda Lenzler, Twin Falls, bridesmaids; and Julie Douglass, niece of the bride, flower girl.

Jon Blamires, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Rueben Fletcher and Alfred Shewmaker served as ushers. Dirk Douglas, nephew of the bride, was candlelighter, and Jerry Douglass, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Robert C. Harvey, organist, played the traditional wedding music, and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Martha Mead.

Guests were registered at a reception immediately after the ceremony in the Fireside Lounge of the church by Mrs. Nancy Darling. Gifts were received by Linda Driesel, Jerri Quigley, Coleen Sullivan and Connie Brown.

The bride's table was covered with lace over yellow and decorated with yellow and coral bows and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake decorated with coral star flowers and yellow lacework and topped with a white satin heart surrounded with two white doves.

Mrs. William Emerick cut and served the cake. Mrs. Virginia Heitler poured coffee and Mrs. Kathy Shewmaker served the punch. A silver coffee service and punch bowl complemented the table service.

Guests attended from Ogden, Salt Lake City and Centerville, Utah; Jerome, Eden, Gooding, Wendell, Boise and Twin Falls. After a honeymoon trip to Jackson Hole and Yellowstone National Park, the couple reside in Jerome.

A rehearsal party was hosted by the bridegroom's parents at their home in Jerome, July 21.

The bride was feasted at a miscellaneous shower hosted by Mrs. Nancy Darling.

Poems Discussed

MILNER — Members of the Friendship Circle Club answered roll call with my favorite poem and a general discussion was held on each of them at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. J. E. Neumann.

Reception Honors Couple

TWIN FALLS — Claudia Coulam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reed Coulam, and Bryan McKinnon, son of Mrs. Ann McKinnon, all Twin Falls, were married in rites July 21 at the Idaho Falls LDS Temple.

A reception was held in the LDS Tabernacle on Maurice Street July 25. The bride and bridegroom greeted guests between large bouquets of gladioli.

The bride wore a silk cord floor-length gown with long sleeves, trimmed with white daisies. Her chapel-length veil, enhanced with matching daisies, featured aurora borealis sets. She carried a white fluted daisy bouquet with blue and green streamers.

Sharla Hicks was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Georgina Coulam and Geraldine Mahoney, sisters of the bride, and Cherry McKinnon and Verle McKinnon, sisters of the bridegroom, all Twin Falls.

David Allman, Idaho Falls, was best man. Serving as ushers were Ernest Hicks, Boise, and Dan Mahoney, Twin Falls.

The five-tiered wedding cake, encircled with blue and green roses and bells, was centered on a mirror. Silver candelabra flanked the fruit cake baked by the bride's mother and decorated by the bride's brother-in-law, Dan Mahoney.

Mrs. Ruth Hamilton served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Marcella Heider, Mrs. Louise Johns, Mrs. Alverda Morgan, Sherie Manskay, Margie Mahoney, Azusa Calif., and Rae Anna Hamilton. Guests were seated at tables decorated with white table cloths and blue flowers floating in crystal bowls.

Gift bearers were Polly Hess and Kim Hamilton, and arranging the gifts were Maurine Rasmussen, Sheri Hine, Karylan Rhoads, Lynn Havener and Lydia Arrington. Mrs. Mary Corbett, aunt of the bride, registered the guests.

MR. AND MRS. BRYAN MCKINNON

Music was provided by the Kenneth Jason Orchestra which included Kenneth Johnson, Eld White, Relna Devries, Shwn Gould and Warren Saunders.

The reception was preceded by a patio dinner for the wedding party hosted by the bridegroom's mother.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Christal Lovell and Mrs. Lillian McInnon, grandmothers of the bridegroom, and Roger McKinn, uncle of the bridegroom, Price, Utah; Mary Corbett Provo, Utah, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Pitt, Bountiful, Utah, uncle and aunt of the bride.

The bride was honored with a shower hosted by Sharla Hicks and Georgina Coulam.

After a honeymoon trip to Sun Valley, the couple are residing at 320 E. 500 N., Provo, Utah.

Reunion Held

HAGERMAN — A family reunion was held recently at Lake Harrison by the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ottley. Family members attended from Hagerman, Burley, Boise, Twin Falls, Heyburn, Rupert and Pocatello.

Absentee Shower Held

RICHFIELD — Mrs. Gaylen Swainston and baby son, Keith Russell, were guests of honor at an absentee shower given for them at the home of Mrs. Morris Swainston. Mrs. Gary Klusler, Shoshone, was co-hostess. Janae Swainston and Deborah Swainston opened and displayed gifts to be presented to the honorees.

Prayer Ceremony Held in Buhl

BUHL.—An evening wedding prayer ceremony and reception were held August 5 in honor of Sgt. and Mrs. Jerry David Palat, who were married March 26 in a civil ceremony in Bangkok, Thailand.

The ceremony at Buhl was performed by Rev. Harrie S. Young at the First Christian Church, in Buhl, before a background of candleabra and a floral decorated arch. Red roses blended with the background setting.

Sgt. Palat is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Palat, Buhl. The bride is the former Pletn (Jeanie) Panpracha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Panpracha, Klondan, Thailand, a suburb of Bangkok.

The bride wore a floor length princess styled gown of pink tulle and lace, featuring an empire waistline and decorated lace bodice. Petite pink flowers outlined the square neckline and short sleeves. The soft colored beads, sequins and flowers were sewn onto the gown by the bride. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis and wore a matching crescent shaped floral piece.

Mrs. Edward Novacek was in charge of the guest book. Thomas Novacek and Joe Palat, uncles of the bridegroom, served as ushers.

Tapers were lighted prior to the ceremony by Regal Jo Harmon and Jeff Harmon, Twin Falls, cousins of the bridegroom.

Mary Christine Ficker and Mitz Diano Ficker, Springfield, Ill., nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

Sgt. Palat escorted his bride to the altar while Mrs. Fewel Chisham sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Blanche Smith.

At a reception following the prayer ceremony the bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake. Pink candles in crystal holders flanked the cake which was accented with pink and decorated with doves and wedding rings beneath an arch. Ivy and pink rosebuds circled the base of the cake. The cake was created by Mrs. Leonard Walcott.

Small crystal bowls, floral arrangements and ribbon streamers enhanced the table setting.

Mrs. Thomas Novacek and Mrs. Joe Kucera, aunts of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Joe Palat, aunt of the bridegroom, served punch. Women of the church were in charge of the reception and decorations were arranged by Mrs. Joe Kucera, Mrs. Ray Quigley and Mrs. Ellsworth School.

Mrs. Elmer Harmon, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Don Fladwood, Idaho Falls, cousins of the bridegroom, arranged the gifts. Sgt. and Mrs. Palat will live in Austin, Tex., where the bridegroom will be stationed at Bergstrom Air Force Base after August 27.

The bridegroom's parents and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ficker, Springfield, Ill., also celebrated their wedding anniversaries during the day. It also was Mrs. Jerry Palat's birthday.

Special guests at the ceremony were Mrs. Mary Vosika, Kimberly, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Flecker. Other guests attended from Buhl, Kimberly, Twin Falls, Gooding, Idaho Falls and Boise.

Dona Sackett, Williams' Name Date

WMA
Your Bank Cards Welcome

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who complains constantly to me because she lives in a clannish neighborhood. She says that her neighbors come over for coffee every morning even before she has her last one off to school. And a few of them stay until it's time for lunch and she can't get her housework done.

They don't wait to be offered coffee—they help themselves. (She uses five pounds of coffee a week and she is the only adult in her family who drinks it.)

I told her to put a sign outside her door, "SORRY, NO TIME FOR COFFEE TODAY," but she says she hasn't got the nerve.

Her husband travels, and when he's home the neighbors are there having coffee right with him. How can I help my friend get rid of these pests? I'm afraid she'll have a nervous breakdown.

WEST SIDER

DEAR WEST: Many people complain that they are constantly being "imposed upon" by unwelcome guests, but for some strange reason they never do anything about it. This leads me to suspect that the "victim" not only secretly enjoys these drop-in pests, but enjoys complaining about them. It's her coffee, her time and her problem. When she complains to me, I'll recommend a foolproof pest exterminator.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a great person—except for one thing: HIS TEMPER. He has never hit me, but I'm starting to get scared. He gets mad over the least little thing. He broke the leg off the TV because he couldn't get a clear picture, and if somebody happens to get a wrong number and rings our place by mistake, he yells at them like they committed some kind of crime.

He has always had a hot temper but he used to cool down fast. Now he gets mad at the least little thing and he stays mad for hours—and sometimes days. Could something be wrong with him?

SCARED

DEAR SCARED: Yes, but I am no doctor which is what your husband needs in order to determine if his fits of anger are symptoms of a serious illness or if he is just overreacting in a childish way.

DEAR ABBY: "X" and I are getting married soon at a formal wedding in a church. Three out of the four ushers have long hair. This will look terrible with tuxes. I think those three should either cut their hair or wear one of those short stretch wigs they have for men now.

"X" says we have no right to ask them to do either. My mother is having a fit.

If these boys show up in the wedding party with their long hair, I know there will be a lot of criticism from my relatives. What is your opinion?

DEAR "B": You have no right to ask the ushers to pose as short-haired types. (I doubt if they would agree to do it, anyway.) It seems to me that everyone should be accustomed to seeing long hair on men by now. If it's clean and well cared for, what is there to criticize?

DEAR ABBY: Is it considered good manners to comment on a lady's jewelry? I mean, if the comment is meant as a compliment?

SYRACUSE

DEAR SYRACUSE! Certainly. It's a fairly safe bet that the lady who adorns herself with jewelry does so in the hope that it will be noticed.

For 1970 It's Texture in Ties!

NEW YORK (UPI)—There is so much texture in the fall neckties they are practically three dimensional—deep ribbed repps, jacquard weaves, woven tapestry designs. They generally remain at the four-inch width. Colors are more subdued but patterns are not.

Solid ties are in great demand, usually in 3D effects, because of the popularity of brightly striped shirts. Synthetics make up 30 per cent of the output.

Bert Paltzer, whose ties run 4 1/2 inches, said he thinks only a timid man will wear a solid tie with a striped shirt, and he pointed out a jacquard figure on a repp ground, woven in 3D stripes, as "bold but good with stripes."

He goes into the shirt business this fall and he maintained this viewpoint in shirts and ties he had coordinated—printed shirts with ancient madder ties, light plaids with flower prints, a jacquard weave shirt and a tapestry tie.

Ralph Lauren of Polo, who started the textured look, does 14 solid colors in a wool shetland with a ribbed weave that retains his look of elegant richness. There were deep repps patchwork ties, glen plaids.

Charles Draitl of Damon Creations, called the striped tie an historically favorite design but he did them in many new ways. There was a nubby-linen look with jacquard diagonal stripes, a deep-twill weave with muted jacquard stripes and prints.

Bill Miller for M. & D. Simon was heavy on tapestries—some muted swirls between diagonal stripes, sculptured swirls against subdued stripes, tapestries that looked like paisley in soft elegant colors like rose and blue.

Bronzini had ties up to 4 1/2 inches in soft prints and foulards that roll slightly. Solids were in nubby silks with a repp weave. Patterns in geometrics and prints were larger and there was much Art Deco.

Hut, which makes Lanvin ties, showed repps with a brushed, almost velvety finish. The Lanvin prints included bold square random polka dots in such combinations as white on navy.

Lester Klaus, a designer at Burnin Bibas, showed lots of art nouveau flowers in designs that reminded one of a Tiffany lamp. The Oleg Cassini line had many tapestry stripes in combination with solid stripes and printed hexagonal patterns. Colors were unusual—such as copper, pale blue and olive.

The Prince Igor line emphasized multicolor stripes in four different colors that managed to look like a dozen. John Weitz showed bold, boxy prints, boxes on boxes and boxes on boxes, on boys. There was a bold print of squares and ovals in various colors splashed on a solid background.

Hil Bloss went for soft homespins and wool tweeds which rolled gently instead of being flat. There were tweeds in a modern nontweedy look with sprightly colors, and white wools in solid and textured.

Lucien Picard used a silk end-to-end weave (like denim) in black against blue, gray, red, beige and brown grounds. Italian silk twills were printed with trigometrics—and a bolt of lightning. Most unusual was an Italian velvet in a large geometric pattern.

Countess Mara started things off with a $250 tie—real rubies, real sapphires mounted on 14K gold settings against silk, satin and velvet for the man who doesn't worry about the Dow Jones averages. Considerably cheaper were challis, silks, damask and twill weaves in big bar stripes, geometrics and abstract patterns.

Christian Dior said it still got calls for 3 1/2 inch ties but went up to five, coordinated with their shirts. Paisleys were big and bold. There was a big line of handblocked foulards, polka dots and club figures.

Trigere showed dazzling five-inch jacquard woven stripes including one in thin pink, blue, gold and white lines. Another was ruffled white satin stripes on a multicolored silk background.

Stroganoff

Beef stroganoff, in addition to flavor, has another appeal. It may be prepared ahead and heated again when the guests have arrived. Sour cream folds in quickly right before service. Served over rice or noodles with green beans, Parmesan, citrus salad, rolls, garnished with mustard and coffee, beef stroganoff for a party dinner is a delicious success.

ON THE MEN'S fashion scene this fall will be ultra-textured ties such as this one which is so heavily textured it is almost three dimensional. The boldly printed tie has cross stripes of deep repp and is designed to be worn with striped or printed shirts. (UPI)

Keep Neck In Shape

If aging neck skin makes you want to bury your head in the sand, then perhaps you should be doing something about it! Necks just won't stay smooth and fair unless they are given a daily schedule of good, old-fashioned cleansing, toning and moisturizing.

No need to be old-fashioned about your cleansing preparations, however. There's nothing to beat a very up-to-the-minute lemon cleansing milk when it comes to fast, gentle dissolving action. The rich, natural lemon emollients in Lemon Jelvyn Cleansing Milk remove even the cloggiest make-up and skin impurities in one swoop.

After cleansing, tone your neck with refreshing Lemon Jelvyn Skin Freshener. Soak a pad of cotton in the freshener and briskly pat along the chin and up and down the neck until you can actually see the healthy pink color emerging on the skin.

Since the skin of the neck is one of the driest complexion areas, smooth a generous layer of vitalizing cream into the neck with upward and outward movements every night. During the day, use moist tropical Oil of Olay to thoroughly saturate and sink into the skin as a nourishing sub-foundation for make-up.

A fact not generally appreciated is that the skin of the neck, simply because it is dry, tends to attract the sun and tends to burn more easily than most other areas of the body.

Candle Wax on Carpeting Creates Problem for Her

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY—We have new green outdoor carpeting on our patio. A large candle was knocked off the coffee table while it was still warm after being lighted. This left an ugly tallow spot on the carpet. A blotter was put over it and then pressed with a warm iron but this only made it worse. Ice cubes do no good. Does anyone know a safe solution to this without injury to the carpet and its color?—LENA

DEAR POLLY—My letter is for Marilyn and all others who are driven to distraction by unsolicited items and junk mail that come through the mail. I solved the problem by marking "Refused, Return to Sender." Sometimes a company does not admit to having received the item from you, and they send bills and threatening letters, even from attorneys and collection agents. Ignore them. If you answer as much as one, they know you are worried and will keep sending more.

I handled junk mail in an even simpler way. I had a rubber stamp made that says "Not Interested, Stop Sending Me Junk Mail." Most companies took the hint at once and removed my name from their mailing lists. A few hard-heads were treated in the following manner: I took every bit of advertising they sent and stamped it with the above stamp. I then stuffed it into that postage-paid envelope they often send and mailed it back. For those that did not have such an envelope, I put all the advertising into a regular envelope without a stamp or my return address on it and just addressed it to them. When they have to pay postage on my clever little letter, they take me off the mailing list. Only one company refused to give up. I offered to let the president of that company that my rubber stamp would hold out longer than his patience, so he gave up. It has been two years since I have received any junk mail other than that addressed to "Occupant" or "Resident." Try it. It works.—JACK

DEAR POLLY and Marilyn—I solved the problem of unsolicited items coming through the mail by marking them "Decensored. Remove from mailing list." I may be crazy but it worked.—MARY C.

DEAR MARY C.—Mrs. W. C. S. wrote that she did just this and soon began to receive booklets on cemetery lots and caskets. Glad you had better luck.—POLLY

Coiffures this fall will be simple and flowing, giving a softly defined silhouette. Hair trends are taking on a new appreciation for the lady-like look that has been missing too long, says Marnie Scott, styles director for the 60,000-member National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

Draft Women?

Don't look now, but that could be a woman in a soldier's uniform!

The 47-year-old Constitutional amendment guaranteeing equal rights to women was approved by the House Aug. 10. It may result in women being drafted. On this subject, local residents show divided opinions according to a recent survey conducted in the Lynwood Shopping Center.

Twin Falls resident Linda Condie said, "I don't think it's very realistic. Women are too emotional to be in the service. There is nothing feminine about a woman in the military."

Lloyd Plant, also of Twin Falls, holds a similar opinion. He said, "There has got to be a difference of sexes; otherwise God would have made us all bisexual."

Clifton Bean, Twin Falls, points out an interesting possible outcome. "It might create an awkward situation," he said. "If the wife gets drafted, I think it would be awkward for her husband to travel from base to base with her. The roles would be reversed."

Faren Faler, Twin Falls, views the question differently. "If women want complete equal rights, they should be drafted," he stated. "I like to look at the woman as the fair sex who enjoys special privileges, but if we are going to be modern in our views, we have to go all the way."

Seeing the practical end of the question, Mrs. James Monroe from Kimberly is in favor of women being subject to the draft. "If men can be drafted, then women should be drafted, too," she commented. "Women can relieve the men from their desk jobs for active duty."

Drug Pusher Filmed

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lucy Jarvis set up her camera on the 15th floor of a tenement in the South Bronx ghetto of New York City and within 15 minutes filmed a pusher selling drugs to a young addict.

As the camera continued scanning the shabby street police came by and arrested a peddler. His fellow merchants of misery simply melted into the crowd of blacks and Puerto Ricans, watched as he was cuffed off and then, when the law was safely gone, emerged to resume business as usual.

"These incidents and a narrative that points up that the Harlem Tenant's Association fund at least 80 per cent of the young people in a 44-block area in drugs open an NBC-TV documentary, "Trip to Nowhere," scheduled for broadcast (8-9 p.m. EDT) Aug. 24.

Slum kids sitting stoned in streets in which they should be playing childhood games is part of the sickness of the times and the fact that drug peddlers flourish in ghetto conditions must be known to everyone by now. But Mrs. Jarvis has a few shocks for those as yet unaware that the situation in the white upper middle class and even some of the elite-white private schools is not much better.

"Trip to Nowhere" sprang from another of the programs Mrs. Jarvis has produced for NBC, winning a number of awards along the way. That one was devoted to mentally disturbed youth under the title "Cry Help!" and so many of the cases of mental disturbance it examined turned out to be caused by drugs that Mrs. Jarvis felt compelled to go into the problem in a separate documentary.

"The United States," she said in an interview summarizing her research, "is in danger of becoming one large detoxification center unless we rehabilitate the ghetto, block the source of drugs and make youngsters feel they have a stake in their own future."

There is a quick switch in "Trip to Nowhere" from the slums of New York to the clean air and mountains of Phoenix, Ariz.

"Who would have thought they'd have a drug epidemic, too," Mrs. Jarvis said. "But they do. The theory that life has no meaning has seeped down from the colleges to the grade school. Doctors are wondering whether they bear some responsibility for giving out drugs indiscriminately—tranquilizers, pep pills, slimming pills. Someone estimated there are 30 mind altering drugs in the average medical cabinet."

North Koreans Demand 'Unity'

By PHIL NEWSPOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
In November, 1969, United States analysts believed they detected a shift of emphasis in North Korean tactics toward the South. The shift, they believed, was toward political action to unify Korea, under Communist control, and away from the military.

They based their conclusions on a marked decrease in North Korean guerrilla raids into South Korea and an intensified effort to stir up political support among South Koreans. Makes it Official
On June 9, just short of 20 years after the North Korean attack on the South across the 38th Parallel, the North made it official with a five-point proposal for "independent, peaceful reunification" of Korea.

Since the Korean armistice of 1953, North Korean policy has been dominated by the determination of its stocky leader, Kim Il-Sung, to dominate the whole of the Korean peninsula. He had declared his intention to spend his 60th birthday in 1971 in Seoul, capital of the South.

There were thousands, politicians and many students of just plain Koreans who also wished for their country's unification. But, since Kim's proposal represented little more than a change of tactics, it probably would have been forgotten had it not been for another event.

Cheap Car

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI)—The Ford Motor Co. has plans to build what a company official calls a "modern Model T Ford for the masses" to sell for $800.
William O. Bourke, chief executive officer of Ford in Australia, said the car would be marketed only in Australia, Asia and the Pacific at first. "It will be a very basic car—it could even have a plywood body and canvas seats," he said.

Liberals Blamed For Lag

By LOUIS CASSELS
UPI Religion Writer

Dr. Cynthia Wedel, president of the National Council of Churches, suggested this week that "self-righteous" liberals may be even more to blame than foot-dragging conservatives for the split over social action that is sapping the strength of America's churches.

This is news of the man-bites-dog type, because Dr. Wedel is a leading liberal and the National Council of Churches has been a mainstay of the social action movement.

Writing in the Christian Century magazine—itsself a noted voice of liberalism—Dr. Wedel said leaders who favor active involvement of the church in social and political affairs have undermined their own cause by neglecting "the hard, time-consuming task of communication" necessary to acquaint rank and file church members with the Christian motivations for such involvement.

Conservative church members, she said, are "neither bad nor stupid people; they are decent, intelligent, God-fearing men and women." But they have grown up with a concept of Christianity as individual piety—a concept taught them by the church in times past—and they simply do not comprehend the view, now widely held by church leaders, that Christian obedience in our time must be primarily concerned with fighting for peace and social justice.

Instead of trying to bring them along, she said, liberal church leaders too often have treated them with "cavalier disdain."

Liberals Arrogant

When conservative laymen raise questions about the activities and pronouncements of national church bodies dominated by liberal clergymen, she said, they too often get "arrogant and self-righteous" answers.

"No sensible politician in government would antagonize his constituency as we do," she said.

It is small wonder, she said, that this "contemptuous" treatment has left many church members "bewildered and angry."

"Some liberals, she noted, 'take pride in being rejected by the multitude who choose not to follow us.' But this attitude puts self-satisfaction above the accomplishment of genuine social progress.

"The social witness of the church is far less effective than it should and could be today because it is constantly being opposed by the vast majority of church members," she said.

Politicians do not take seriously the pronouncements of church leaders who have been repudiated by their own constituency.

"I do not for a moment think that the churches of this country should stop being the conscience of the nation," Dr. Wedel concluded. "But I am increasingly convinced that we cannot carry out this task if we spend so much of our energy in intra-family feuds.

"In order to promote social action, church leadership must undertake the hard, time-consuming task of communication—must find a way to reach out to, communicate with, educate the great body of church people" even while continuing to press forward on the social justice front.

"Leaders of denominations and of the National Council of Churches need to get out into the field, to meet with—and listen to the people. Only then will we learn how to communicate to them the Biblical and theological bases of church involvement with the world today."

Amen, sister.

PLANTS OF ALL types, even some most people have never heard of, grow in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Olan Genn, and "Ole" will be spending much of his time here as his health permits. Retiring from the Extension Service program, Genn plans to devote some time to developing a cure for Chlorosis in plants and to develop some new types of ornamental and food producing plants for this area. Here he and his wife, Fern, check some of the tomatoes, Christmas melons and other plants.

'Ole' Turns To Gardening

By BONNIE JONES
Times-News Staff Writer

TWIN FALLS — Olan Genn will be spending a lot of time in the next few weeks rearing, but he has two important goals he intends to complete in the not too distant future.

Genn submitted his resignation as Twin Falls County Extension Agent Thursday because of ill health. He says he plans to retire from this type of work permanently but as his recuperation from a serious heart attack progresses, he may be back at work in the not too distant future utilizing his training in plant science.

After nine years as head of the 4-H program in Twin Falls County, it isn't easy to retire, but his doctors have given him no choice, so retire he will.

Already, however, he is taking over some of the responsibility of the family garden and hopes to go ahead with one of his two goals immediately. This involves perfecting a cure for chlorosis in plants. The disease which turns plants yellow and eventually kills them is a prominent one in this area, the plant specialist says. He has been experimenting for some time with considerable success but has not yet worked out an exact and completely satisfactory formula.

The other goal "Ole," as his many friends call him, has is the completion of the District 4 H camp in the north mountains. Started about 1966 after several years of planning and hoping, the camp now lacks only the completion of cabins, typical of what can be done by people with a common goal, the camp is one of the few area projects, says Genn, where all nine Magic Valley counties have worked together for one accomplishment.

Other plans for his future include growing of rare and unusual plants and producing seed.

"This climate is one of the best I have seen for seed production of just about any kind," Genn says.

He has started some Pharaoh wheat, raised lilacs from seed, produced tulips from seed and worked on other experiment projects.

Genn, a native of Oklahoma, started his college career with $30 and a quilt he had made himself, graduated from college in that state and went on to work with the Soil Conservation Service, work on the famed W. F. Waggoner ranch in Texas, where he met Lyndon B. Johnson who was then a Senator, and later joined Union Oil.

As an agricultural technician service specialist and sales representative for that firm he and his family first visited Twin Falls. They liked it and in 1960 decided to adopt it as their home.

"We both like to work with young people," Ole said of he and his wife, Fern, "and decided we just wanted to take life easy in Twin Falls and enjoy working with the many fine people of this area."

As a result he took over the 4-H program in the county as extension agent, and says he had no ambitions to go any further.

"During the past nine years," he says, "I have worked with some of the greatest people there are. It's nice to be missed, but nobody is indispensable and I'm sure the county 4-H program will be just as good next year as ever."

Genn has a theory which seems to have worked well in the Twin Falls County 4-H program. This is never do it for a 4-H youngster or any other young people you are working with. Assist them, but have them do it.

"When a leader or adult does something for the 4-H club member, he deprives the youngster of an opportunity," Ole Genn feels.

His home telephone is still ringing as 4-H leaders call for pointers and advice as fair time nears, and Ole is obviously glad to be of help; but he says the frequency with which the telephone rings is getting less and less, all of which proves his theory that nobody is indispensable.

Genn will not only be busy in his plant program when his health permits, but will be spending lots of time with his seven grandchildren, all but two of whom live in Twin Falls, and with his wife, Fern, whom he gives full credit for whatever degree of success he and other members of their family may have achieved.

Genn says he will miss the outstanding extension service staff with whom he has worked. He said he looks on them as something like his family and has established strong friendship and great admiration for Don Youtz, extension agent; Alice Reed, home economist and his own secretary, Jewell O'Dell.

Blankets should be soaked and agitated as little as possible when washed, to preserve fluffiness.

Water Meters Checked

JEROME — Jerome city crews have been busy checking water meters this week for possible leaks, after the unusual large water bills most residents received for the month of July.

Mel Morris, city works director, said of the 50 individual meters checked so far, only two had very small insignificant leakage.

Morris said crews will continue to check those meters which had large readings for July. He said, as previously concluded, residents used an extremely large amount of water during the hot spell in July.

He added he has been getting many phone calls from residents with large water bills. He estimated that over 50 per cent of those who normally mail their remittance will come in person to pay the bill.

Morris adds as far as the city's equipment — distribution system — is concerned, it is in perfect working order.

Aslett and Ricketts Head Units

JEROME — Leon Aslett was elected chairman of Jerome County Democratic Central Committee and Clair Ricketts was re-elected chairman of the Jerome County Republican Central Committee.

Aslett replaces Leon Baldwin who took the post of vice chairman.

Mrs. Frank (Alta) Davis was re-elected democratic secretary-treasurer and Mrs. J. Emmett Smith was named state committeewoman.

The new state committeeman is Merrill Summer, for the Democratic Central Committee.

Other officers for the Republican committees are Mrs. Jerry Callen, first vice chairman; Mrs. C. E. Harder, second vice chairman; Mrs. Clark Heiss, state committeewoman; LeRoy Craig, state committeeman; Mrs. Don Jacobson, secretary, and Guy Simons, treasurer.

DRUNK DRIVING is one thing, but this is absurd. Ruth Miller, Times-News staff writer, came across this situation while out on an assignment recently. She was reportedly out on a possible fire when she spotted the fire chief's car. On closer inspection, however, it turned out to be a kindly car and the beer can beside it probably was thrown there later.

Dinner Set For Senior Citizens Bloodmobile Visits Jerome on Monday

JEROME — Senior citizens of Lincoln County, 70 years and over, are to be entertained by the Shoshone Rotary Club with a dinner at the city park at 6 p. m. Sept. 3.

A movie will follow at the Rex Theater.

Ferry Hadlock is chairman of the event and states any person 70 or over may be accompanied by wife or husband, regardless of the latter's age.

Those wishing to attend are to contact Hadlock.

JEROME — The Red Cross bloodmobile will be in Jerome Monday from 2 to 6 p. m. at the Moose Hall.

There is an urgent need for blood donors in the Jerome area and the local chapter of the American Red Cross asks that all those who are able to donate, make a special effort to do so, according to Edith Nancolis, publicity chairman.

The Western Ruralettes Extension Club is sponsoring the blood driving this month and will be calling possible donors. They also will furnish cookies.

The Jerome Key Club will help assist with loading and unloading of equipment and supplies. Club members have been busy the past two weeks making posters and having them displayed.

Mrs. Pearl Overfield will be in charge of the juice table, Mrs. J. B. Thomason in charge of the receptionists, Mrs. S. P. Richter, canteen chairman, and Mrs. Dick Watson, in charge of nurses aides.

Jerome Dress Code Outlined

JEROME — Supt. John B. Campbell has announced a dress and appearance code for Jerome School district students.

Boys hair can't be worn over the ears or over the normal dress shirt collar, he said. Straight sideburns may be worn to the bottom of ears and no mustaches or beards are allowed.

Girls' hair styles — the bangs must not be over the eyebrows. Dress codes for boys and girls are shirt tails must be tucked in unless designed to be worn otherwise. Boys must wear socks with shoes or sandals. Campbell said bare feet are not acceptable.

Girls are not permitted to wear shorts, pant dresses or pant skirts may be worn if no shorter than reasonable length for dresses and only if they have a pleat so they look like a pantskirt and not like girl's shorts.

Skirts should be no shorter than the end of fingertips with arms extended at sides.

Damage in Eden Barn Fire Set at $20,000 Tool Shed Destroyed By Blaze

EDEN — Damage to a loafing shed, grade A dairy barn and farm equipment that was destroyed by fire last week on the Verl Hinton farm, southeast of Eden, has been estimated at $20,000.

Mrs. Hinton said the fire started in the loafing shed, which had at one time been used as a barn and prior to that it was the old livery stable in Eden. The building was moved to the farm 45 years ago.

The fire destroyed the loafing shed, then spread to the grade A milking barn and surrounding farm equipment.

The Eden Rural Fire Department was called and with the help of neighbors, most of the milking equipment was saved, and the shell of the barn also was saved.

The blaze also destroyed 100 tons of hay. Firemen had neighbors also were able to save a 22,000-bushel grain bin and potato cellar.

Insurance agents are still investigating the mishap. Cause of the fire is believed to be by faulty wiring.

Because of no power, caused by the fire, neighbors pitched in and helped with the milking of Hinton's dairy cows.

CHAMBER TO MEET

SHOSHONE — The chamber of commerce will meet at noon Tuesday at the Manhattan cafe.

Cassia Fair Ends

BURLEY — Cassia County's annual fair and rodeo concluded Saturday evening with throngs of Burley and Cassia County residents turning out to the fairgrounds for the final day of fair activities.

Saturday was Burley Day at the fair and the final day's activities included the 4-H and FFA Fat Stock Sale, 4-H Awards Assembly, pari-mutuel horse racing, rodeo and crowning of the rodeo queen.

Two sisters from Onkley sold the top beef animals at the stock sale, held at the fairgrounds under the direction of Burley Livestock Commission Co.

Susan Payton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. (Chuck) Payton, sold her 1,111-pound grand champion steer at the sale for 88 cents per pound, $977.68, to Shelby's Market. Her sister, Sally, had the reserve champion steer. This 1,174-pound steer was sold for 54 cents per pound, $633.96, to KBAR Radio Station.

The grand champion lamb, at 97 pounds and owned by Lann Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nulon Taylor, Declo, was sold for 55 cents per pound to Skiggs Furniture. This hog weighed 228 pounds.

There were 86 steers, 42 lambs and 18 hogs sold during the sale. Auctioneers were Don Manning and Kay Wall, and in the ring was Bill Wiseman, Burley Livestock Commission Co. Also helping with the sale was the commission company's office staff.

Friday afternoon, Tanya Jolly, Alhjon, was named Round Robin grand champion. She won the event, which pits the top 4-H fitting and showing champions in each division against each other. Tanya has a horse project.

Other participants in the Round Robin competition include Kenny Tracy, Malta, beef champion; Eddy Kelsey, Declo, sheep champion; Randy Kidd, Declo, hog champion, and Anita Monson, Burley, dairy champion.

Schools at Bliss Start On Monday

BLISS — Bliss schools will start at 8:30 a. m. Monday, according to Supt. John Grove.

A full day's session will be held with hot lunch served at noon. Lunch has been raised to 30 cents for high school students and 25 cents for grade school students until further notice.

Two new teachers complete the school faculty. They are Louise Rutherford, first and second grade, and Amy Lagos, art, home economics, and journalism. Both received their degrees from the University of Idaho.

Others on the teaching staff are Fern Cenarrusa, third and fourth; Robert E. Lee, II, fifth and sixth; James Mecham, American Government, sociology, psychology, and U. S. history; Eileen Shaffer, English I, II and III, creative writing, drama and girls' P. E.; Greg Hafen, math, biology, and chemistry; June Mecham, junior high English, history and French; Gordon Hall, junior high science, earth science, industrial arts and P. E.; and Sidney Lansing, junior high math, commercial, consumers' economics and business law.

Richfield Cemetery Work Eyed

RICHFIELD — Future maintenance of the Richfield cemetery was considered at the quarterly meeting of the board at the home of board member Jack Hubsmit.

Francis Bergin, Bergin Mortuary, Shoshone, told of the various kinds of outer coverings for burials and the board chose the types they preferred to use in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Peterson, sextons, attended the meeting and the board approved purchase of a power trim mower. Plans also were made to plant the west side of the cemetery grounds to alfalfa.

The tax levy for 1970 was set to remain the same as in previous years. It was calculated to bring in $1,350, or 9 1/2 cents for each $100 assessed valuation in the district.

The clerk, Mrs. Jack Hubsmit, was asked to contact the weed control department for a soil sterilant to be applied to the cemetery driveway.

Trustees present were chairman Scott Erwin, Donald Riley and Jack Hubsmit.

2 Drivers Cited After Accidents Opposition to Park Plan Reaffirmed

RUPERT — Citations were issued to two drivers in separate vehicle accidents by State Policeman Dean Holloway.

Roger Inman, 17, West, Tex., apparently fell asleep about 7:40 a. m. Friday while driving his 1962 Ford truck and towing a 1968 trailer. The vehicle went into the median strip, a half-mile west of Heyburn on Interstate 80. N. The driver escaped injury. He was cited.

Mary Alice Jones, 55, Freeland, Wash., was charged by the patrolman for failure to yield the right of way following an accident at 1:50 p. m. Friday, a mile north of Heyburn on Highway 24.

Mrs. Jones apparently did not see a 1970 International Travelall, driven by Gregory Taylor, 14, Portland, which was traveling south on Highway 24. Mrs. Jones pulled from a service station and made a left hand turn into the path of the International, which swerved to avoid a collision.

STANLEY — Opposition to a national park proposal for the Stanley Basin area was reaffirmed by all members of the Stanley Basin Homeowners Association at the second meeting of the group Saturday morning in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Westing.

The association supports the National Recreation Bills HR5999 and SB853. It also supports the five-year moratorium on all mining development and favors continued multiple use of the land.

The Stanley group will be represented at Wednesday's hearing on the proposal in Sun Valley by Jerry Funderberg, vice president of the group, homeowner and operator of the general store in Stanley.

Mrs. Boyd Ellis, Ketchum, association secretary, read the resolution that will be given at the hearing. The group moved to join the National Forest Recreation Association, both as a unit and individually.

The new group has more than 60 members with several more joining at the association meeting Saturday.

WENDELL — Legislative District 22 Democrats elected two officers during a recent meeting in the Wendell Legion Hall.

Merrill Summers, Jerome, was named vice chairman, and Di Howler, Bliss, secretary, treasurer. Chairman is Les Ruby, Fairfield.

Officers Named Boy Home

WENDELL — Tracy Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ish Scott, Wendell, is reported home and in good condition after breaking his ankle at the last game of the Wendell Pony League game.

Mrs. Scott said Tracy will be able to attend school on Monday with the assistance of crutches.

Flowers Freshest on Opening Day of T.F. Fair

BY MARJORIE LIERMAN Times-News Correspondent

FILER — Many persons make a special effort to attend the Twin Falls County Fair each year of the opening day in order that they may view the flower exhibits while they are at their freshest and best.

Although every effort is made to keep them looking colorful and unspoiled through the entire run of the four-day fair, they do appear at their very loveliest the first day.

This department even extends its closing of entries until 9 a. m. opening day, which will be Sept. 9 this year, just an hour before judging begins. Anton Horn, Boise, will judge the flower exhibits, and Mrs. George Kimmet, Filer, and Mrs. Joe Wisecover, Castletford, are superintendents.

All entries, excepting artistic arrangements, must be grown by the exhibitor and must remain in place until close of the fair. Containers will be furnished by the fair but own containers may be used if desired.

Dahlia's should not be exhibited in flat containers with no stem or foliage as these are important in cultural classes. Exhibitors should remember that judges consider the stems, foliage and freshness of the flowers in judging.

Exhibits must be fresh cut, dried or treated plant material and no artificial flowers or foliage will be permitted. All clubs entering community exhibits should notify the fair secretary as soon as possible and those desiring to use picture boxes furnished by the fair should make reservations.

First, second and third premiums will be given several classes of flowers, a very large class of dahlias, gladiolus, tuberous begonias, roses, chrysanthemums, miscellaneous perennials and biennials and annuals.

The large class of artistic arrangements, favorite of most flower growers, includes arrangement of flowers and fruited branches in a low basket; arrangement using fresh flowers and foliage, using weathered wood with flowers or fruited branches, designer's choice of plant material, and arrangement using natural dried or treated plant material.

Arrangement depicting the hunting or vacation season with fresh cut plant material and accessories permitted, one for a patio picnic table, one using flowers with fruit or vegetables, vertical arrangement in a tall container, arrangement in a pitcher, arrangement of fresh cut plant material in a mass design for a church.

Arrangement in an old or antique container, one using fresh plant material in abstract design, arrangement of fresh cut plant material by one who has never won a blue ribbon in a fair or flower shot, miniature arrangement not over five inches in any dimension, and corsages.

Young gardeners are invited to compete in a special class which lists premiums for arrangement of flowers, fruit or vegetables by junior 12 years and under, miniature arrangement not over five inches in any dimension, and arrangement of flowers, fruit or vegetables by junior high or high school gardener.

There are two classes for house plants, foliage plant colored or green and blooming house plant. The two picture box classes list premiums to five places in each and these may either be in boxes furnished by the fair or by the exhibitor.

Granges may compete in their exhibits for artistic arrangement and best quality exhibit and there will be a commercial flower or plant class. Community exhibits list three classes which include best quality exhibit of at least 12 kinds of flowers, best artistic exhibit, and best quality exhibit of one kind of flower with at least 12 varieties.

Flower clubs also will compete for best quality exhibit of at least 12 kinds of flower, best artistic exhibit, and best quality exhibit of one genus of flowers.

Each worthy community exhibit will receive ten dollars for their exhibit, regardless of prizes. These are open to women's clubs, societies, Granges and various women's organizations.

East took a high diamond and led his singleton trump. Now South was ready to play spades. East took dummy's queen with his ace and, after a moment's thought, turned to South, remarked, "Your play deserved a better fate," and set the hand by playing the ace of clubs.

How did East know that South held another club?

It was all a matter of having confidence in his partner. West had played the five of clubs, which was the lowest club he could have. This play announced that he held an odd number of clubs. With an even number, he would have started an echo by playing a high one.

Of course, the masters don't always use this defensive echo. They only use it when it is important to give their partner a count. This time it was important and East knew that he had been given a count.

DENMARK, AS you may know, goes pretty easy on the pornographers. It is the weltering of dirty dialogue, the fountainhead of low and lascivious film. Yet the courts in Denmark, maybe quite rightly, think a driver who has put away three bottles of beer has drunk one too many, and they'll jail him for no objection. It's merely peculiar, this liberal yet conservative regard.

FISHERWOMEN outnumber, hunterwomen six to one. A MOUSE'S HEART beats 175 times a minute, except in emergencies. DID I TELL YOU "and" turns up in the Bible 46,399 times. MOST CONSISTENT daytime TV soap opera watcher is the female lowan. GREAT SCOTT! SOME New Caledonia grasshoppers have a 10-inch wingspan!

NO MAN CAN OPEN an alligator's mouth once it snaps closed. And no alligator can open said mouth if a man holds it shut. Learned the foregoing yesterday from a fellow who once wrestled alligators for curious reasons of his own. Down in Florida. It isn't the mouth that such sportsmen fear, he said. It's the tail. Which whips, jackknives and bucks. Like a great chain breaking.

OPEN QUESTION -- Who wrote this? It goes: "Keep yourself from the anger of great men, from the tumult of mobs, from fellows of ill fame, from thrice-married widows, from reconciled enemies, and from the winds that come in at the hole."

HAVE YOU EVER seen a woman who was totally bald? Neither have I. Maybe Dr. Herbert Goldschmidt of the University of Pennsylvania is right. He says a woman can lose four-fifths of her hair, but never all of it. Believe he was talking about hereditary baldness, however.

CUSTOMER SERVICE - Q "Where'd we get the word 'Yankee'?" A From the name of a Dutchman called Jan Kees. He was a soldier, none too well thought of in the Low Countries. So when the Dutch settled New York, their detractors thereabouts labeled them Jan-Kees, pronounced Yankour, and it stuck. Or so I'm finally informed. Source in this matter is a scholar named Leland Williams, also known as the Sage of Sycamore Junction. In response to my frequent inquiry, he has furnished this department with numerous fancy facts, verses, puzzles, songs and occasional flashes of drawing-room humor, bright but not blinding. Here's to Mr. Williams and old Jan Kees - clink!

CONSIDER THIS -- If a woman wears glove size 6 or 6 1/2, she can categorize herself as small. If 7 to 7 1/2, she can consider herself average. If 8 to 8 1/2, she had better regard herself as large. Or so reports the clothing makers.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used in PASS IT ON wherever possible. Please address your letters to L.M. Boyd, P.O. Box 99068, Seattle, Wash 98199. (c) 1970, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

Vatican Reforms Liturgy

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—The Vatican Friday announced liturgical reforms barring any country from having more than one patron saint, a ruling which could affect at least 19 nations.

Instructions published by the Congregation for Divine Worship also said countries could retain other national saints—giving them lower status—only under special circumstances.

However, the ruling concerns only national, regional, city, diocese, titular church or religious organization established in the future. It is not binding on existing geographic or religious entities.

But the Vatican made clear it would like to see countries and other geographic and religious entities conform with the one-patron ban.

The ruling affects such countries as Canada, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, Ireland, Scotland, Spain, Poland, Brazil, France, Italy, Portugal, Russia, Denmark, Germany, Hungary, Greece, Chile, Columbia and the Dominican Republic.

All have at least two patron saints and Portugal has five.

The ruling is intended to keep saints in their proper place—secondary to Jesus Christ as the central figure in Christianity.

Gem Committee Backs Staffer

COEUR D'ALENE (UPI)—A legislative interim committee reaffirmed its confidence today in members of its professional staff but skirted again a politically controversial audit of the state auditor's office.

In question was an audit performed in the office of Joe R. Williams by the former Bureau of Public Accounts, an agency transferred to control of the legislative auditor from the executive branch July 1.

This audit, highly critical of Williams' operation, was conducted last winter but not released until this month.

Committee members at their meeting in Island Park decided not to discuss the audit on grounds it was an executive document rather than a legislative one.

However, Williams attacked James A. Defenbach, legislative auditor, because he had signed a preliminary copy of it.

At the committee's direction the audit was finally issued under the signature of Milford Keeney, who was director of the bureau of public accounts and now is an employee of the legislative auditor.

Williams accused Defenbach and former bureau director Jack Holley of collusion with Keeney in putting out a document that made him look bad in an election year.

Sen. Richard Hugh, R-Twin Falls, co-chairman of the Interim Fiscal Budget Committee, asked the committee to express its confidence in Defenbach and members of his staff.

He had nothing to do with the audit in question and had signed an earlier copy merely because the audit was issued until after the bureau was transferred to his control.

"I would like to reaffirm we have the greatest confidence in our staff and the audits they perform," Hugh said.

Rep. Jenkins Palmer, R-Malden, also co-chairman of the committee, suggested the committee also affirm its confidence in Keeney, whose professional reputation he said Williams attacked.

Fire Crews Mustered

By United Press International
The forest service was mustering strength today to do battle with a 700-acre fire in dense timber along Bear Creek in the Kaniksu National Forest 10 miles northwest of Bonner's Ferry, Idaho.

Fire dispatcher Ralph Hadley said 400 men were on the firelines today with another 100 en route to the scene and 200 more men on order for the night crew.

He also said 13 bulldozers were in use against the fire that blossomed Wednesday night after wind blew the fire across the lines of a slash burn.

Hadley said the fire was out of control but had expanded only slightly over night from its size late Thursday.

Elsewhere around the 16 national forests stretching along the Canadian border from eastern Washington to the Dakotas, only 58 men were fighting small fires.

Air Car Race Set

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI)—Two young girls who don't know anything about cars and a 38-year-old mother who set a speed record in a drag boat racing pit their driving skills against about 100 males in the second transcontinental clean air car race which begins Monday.

"No, we don't know anything about cars except to drive them," said Cheryl Williams, 20, who with Lydia Summers, 21, make up the only all-girl driving team in the 3,000-mile race from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge to California Institute of Technology in Pasadena, Calif.

About 40 automobiles, all equipped with power systems designed to drastically reduce air pollution from motor vehicles, are expected Monday to begin the first leg of the six-day race, involving about 350 students from colleges and universities in the United States and Canada.

Freak Wind Blasts Ontario

SUDBURY, Ont. (UPI)—A "freak wind development," possibly a tornado, blasted through the northern Ontario mining country with 90 mile an hour winds Thursday—causing buildings, tossing railroad cars through the air and hurling people along the streets.

Sudbury police said 10 persons had died in the storm. Sudbury hospitals reported more than 100 injured; 44 of them in serious or critical condition.

Damage in Sudbury was estimated at $5 million by Mayor Joe Fabro, who declared a state of emergency.

Nampa Hauls Garbage

NAMPA (UPI)—The city of Nampa will assume responsibility today for garbage hauling service following an order from the federal bankruptcy referee for Nampa Sanitary Service to cease operation.

Thursday Judge Merlin S. Young, federal bankruptcy referee, approved the order requested by Loren Wetzel, Boise, court-appointed receiver for the sanitary service.

Nampa Mayor Ernest Starr said beginning Monday the city will provide "adequate service for the whole community" and said emergency pickups would be made today and Saturday.

He said the city will not use equipment belonging to Enterprise, Inc., the corporation which has done business as Nampa Sanitary Service, but said he could not discuss the source or arrangements for the equipment to be used.

Starr said there were no "definite" arrangements made to continue operation of garbage hauling service in Nampa.

He said the city has had "some applications for the thing but right now we're interested in providing the services as quickly as it can be done."

Court records show Enterprise, Inc., filed an application Aug. 6 to be placed in receivership. Young named Wetzel to manage the business and preserve assets for creditors and Wetzel asked for the order to cease operations.

RETIRED RESIDENTS of Twin Falls who believe in keeping active and interested in social affairs of the community are members of the Golden Age Club, sponsored by the Twin Falls Soroptimists. New officers of the Golden Age group include Emma Stone, treasurer; Louise Harral, secretary, Lela Griffin, vice-president and John Henderson, president, all from left. With the exception of Mrs. Griffin who is starting her first term of office, the club officers are all staying their fourth terms. Standing at rear is Ruth Guyer, president of the sponsoring Soroptimist Club.

Libyans Flee French 'Legion'

TRIPOLI, Libya (UPI) — Thousands of tribesmen have fled north from the Tibesti Mountains of Chad to Libya in the past year because they feared attack by French foreign legionnaires. In recent months alone an influx of refugees from the villages of Ounianga and Gourou has swelled the refugee population of one Libyan oasis to over 400. Similar numbers of refugees from the Chad are living on the outskirts of almost all the oases in Southern Libya. The most recent arrivals fled their homes at the end of March when French troops supporting the government of President Francois Tombalbaye launched a campaign through the Moslem tribal villages in the Bourkai-Ennedi-Tibesti region in North Chad. The action was reportedly the biggest waged by French troops since they were sent in to help the government in the former French colony. The 2,500 French foreign legionnaires in Chad figured prominently in the fighting. French sources say the legion and two regiments of parachute infantry marines were helping Chad forces mop up "bandits" alleged by Tombalbaye to have plagued the country since he came to power in 1962. But the tribes people claim their villages have been destroyed in an attempt to wipe out popular resistance to the regime. I visited the oases of Southern Libya and talked with some of the refugees. They are a tall people, black and handsome. They are strict Muslims and most of them pray five times a day, pressing their foreheads to the sands in the direction of Mecca. One girl, about 19 and distinguished by parallel scars on each cheek, gave this version of an alleged attack on her village, Gourou. She said a small group of French troops, accompanied by a number of women, attacked one night but were driven off by 30 members of the National Liberation Front of Chad who were in the village. The National Liberation Front of Erolina has been organizing armed resistance since 1967 and until the French troops intervened had been routing the government forces. The girl believes the French radioed for air support because shortly afterwards she said, planes bombed the village and the date palm groves nearby. During the night, she went on, trucks arrived and in the morning some 300 French troops, again accompanied, by women, made a dawn attack following a mortar bombardment. Eighteen rebels and four civilians died in the attacks, she said, after which the French looted the houses, burned those containing rebel equipment and destroyed the date groves. The story was much the same as that told by refugees from Ounianga-Kebir — a short, sharp probing attack, an evening air bombardment, reinforcements arriving in the night and a dawn attack on the encircled settlement.

POLY POINTERS

DEAR POLLY—When having a children's party, use your cookie cutters to cut the sandwiches in animal shapes. —J. F.

DEAR POLLY—Attention, coin collectors! Save used pill bottles of all sizes for inexpensive coin tubes. You can see through them and label each bottle as to the type of coin. —BELINDA

DEAR POLLY—When cleaning silver try using a soft sponge. It penetrates hard-to-reach crevices, and rinses out quickly to be used for the removal of excess polish. —MRS. C. R.

Polly pays a dollar for every idea used. Send them to her, care of this newspaper.

DEAR POLLY—We keep a small (6-inch) squeegee, without a handle, in the soap compartment of our shower stall. It only takes seconds to run it down the glass door after taking a shower. Even the men will do this self-help bit. I also use it on the shower and tub tile walls. Great! —TRUDI

DEAR POLLY—I have found that a quick and easy place to strike a match and not mar the wall is to thumbtack an emery board near the kitchen range. —MRS. D. W.

DEAR POLLY—If a paint brush is to be used soon again, store it in a metal container that holds the cleaning solvent. Drill a small hole in the brush handle, put a small wood or metal rod through it and rest each end of the rod on the rim of the container. Let the brush hang into the solvent just deep enough to cover the bristles, and they stay straight and in good shape. —MRS. J. A.

YOU'RE MORE INTERESTED IN LONG LIFE FOR PAINT BRUSHES THAN FOR ME!

DEAR POLLY—When I boil weiners or frankfurters, I save the cooking water to pour over my dogs' dry food. It gives the dry food a nice, meaty smell and flavor. —JAN.

DEAR POLLY—To blot up any oil on our garage floor we first cover the spots with several thicknesses of newspaper, then saturate the paper with water and press it down against the floor. Remove the newspaper when it is thoroughly dry. —MRS. C. R.

DEAR POLLY—To keep my slip from climbing up on my panty hose I put a silky pair of underpants on over the panty hose. This works great. —BARBARA

DEAR POLLY—I have found that if an empty coffee can with both ends removed (be sure ends are smooth) is put into a gerbil or hamster cage, it makes a nice resting place and fun toy for the animals. —TERRIE

FOR PRESIDENT RICHARD M. NIXON.

Were you stationed at a base near Ottumwa, Iowa, during World War II, and did Mrs. Nixon work in a bank there?—Mrs. Irene Grant, Topeka, Kan.

● Yes, it is true.

FOR BILLY GRAHAM, evangelist

What can a single individual do to better the moral and racial situation in our land?—Mrs. W. L. Allen, High Point, N.C.

● We believe that the Christian has a wonderful ministry in communicating the Gospel of Christ, which we believe to be the only truly effective means of transforming the hearts of people.

FOR JIM NABORS

Is the little girl who comes on at the end of your show any kin to you?—Dolla Brown, Bedford, Ind.

● Andrea Sacino is not related to me.

FOR ANN LANDERS, columnist

For all the advice you give, I wonder whether you have children?—E. Hohrein, Boise, Idaho

● We have one daughter who is now the mother of three lovely children: Adra, seven; Adam, four; and Andrea, two and one half.

FOR GRAHAM KERR,

It's Galloping Gourmet. I understand you always eat the dishes you cook. How do you manage to stay so slim?—Mrs. Martin Doyle, Chicago, Ill.

● I gallop a lot. We do 10 programs a week.

FOR ROBERT M. BALL,

Commissioner, Social Security Administration. Are Social Security numbers assigned to individuals in any specific way?—Mrs. H. A. Winters, Gainesville, Ga.

● Social Security offices issue prenum-bered cards in consecutive order as people apply for them. The first three digits of the Social Security number are called "area" numbers and indicate the state or region where a person gets his card. The other digits are simply sequential combinations.

FOR LOIS ZIEGLER,

fashion coordinator, J. C. Penney Co.

What's your guess about future fashions?—Mrs. Marian Perius, Blinnock, N. D.

● Soft, pretty, feminine fashion will return in this new decade, and both men and women will welcome the change. Waistlines will be defined, skirts will be in pliable, lightweight, colorful fabrics. This will call for a ladylike, slightly longer skirt, the final length to be determined by the individual. Just above the knee will be most popular, with coats at mid-calf. More significant than the hemline news, however, is the all-encompassing return to femininity.

FOR CLEON JONES, N.Y. Mets

I have heard that in your book, "Clean," you talk about your troubles with Wes Westrum, former Mets manager. Could you describe the difficulty?—R.L., Vaco, Texas

● Was seemed to take it as a personal insult when I played a bad game. He'd bad-mouth me to the press or smile when one of the reporters mentioned me by name and point to his head, as if to say that I didn't have it upstairs. He wanted everyone to think I was stupid, just a dumb kid from Alabama, who could not remember the signs or make decisions.

FOR JACKIE GLEASON

Did you ever play Chester Riley on the old to program, "The Life of Riley"?—Barbara LaScala, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

● I was the first Chester Riley on tv.

What in the World!

Jawing The reason some people prefer their steak well done and chewy while others like it rare and tender is partly psychological, according to Dr. Alina S. Szczesniak, a pioneer in the 13-year-old field of food texture. "The well-done preference wants to use energy, to fight the food, to win an aggressive encounter. The others like the peace and quiet of a life without resistance." She also pointed out to 3,000 food scientists at a recent Washington food congress some insights into breakfast habits. "People want something bland, soft, crisp, and juicy to take away the morning dry mouth, ready to disintegrate without requiring much energy—and nonexperimental. But at party time, people are ready for something new, preferred crunchy 'tooth-oriented' foods." Just as dieters benefit from salads because the texture creates enough work for the jaw to give the impression of having eaten more, similarly, at parties, texture-rich foods definitely supply something for the jaw to do when conversation lags.

What Are These Girls Doing? The beach at Littlehampton, England, gets such marvelously strong sea breezes that the sun worshipers there sometimes can scarcely stick around long enough to get a tan. Now the local council has decided to rent (for $1.35 a day) to vacationers some plastic "tents" (bought somewhere in France for $65), which let in the tanning ultraviolet rays but afford protection from the wind. Before this brainstorm, bathers used to wish to pitch tents for the same reason, but that was a strict no-no to the city fathers of the resort town. Why? "We had a by law banning tents from the beach," says Cyril Upton the beach manager, "because, people might be misbehaving in them. But with these plastic ones, we can see what's going on inside—and I guess pretty girls at the beach don't insist on privacy."

The Great Hay-Fever Escape The best timing for a vacation, according to hay-fever sufferers, is when their area of the country is most in bloom with ragweed. Some good refuges from pollen are San Francisco and San Diego, Key West and Miami Beach, Seattle, the Keene Valley in New York's Adirondack Mountains, and Alaska's Nome. Fairbanks, and Juneau. In addition, the American Virgin Island of St. Johns is rated "excellent" and Puerto Rico can boast "no ragweed after careful field examinations." In the States, hay fever is usually at its worst between Aug. 15 and Sept. 15—with the Gulf Coast still active in October. And any ragweed area where the first frost is slow in coming will suffer a longer season.

CLINT EASTWOOD:

Last of a Hollywood Breed?

The Gables and Coopers are gone, but this old-school star survives in a new film era

By PEER J. OPPENHEIMER

Today's most acclaimed Hollywood actors are a new breed. Typified by Dustin Hoffman, Richard Benjamin, and Elliott Gould, they're not really handsome, may have long hair, favor roles with heavy psychological overtones. They're far removed from the old romantic-lead superstars of classic profile like Clark Gable, Gary Cooper, and Errol Flynn.

The most striking, and possibly the only exception, is Clint Eastwood, who's 6 feet 4, ruggedly good-looking, out of the old mold in his portrayal of the strong, straight-forward, uncomplicated man-of-action.

Whether Eastwood is the last of his type or the first of a new crop is difficult to say. Either way, he must be doing something right, for Eastwood is one of filmdom's most successful stars.

Clint himself is not sure of the reasons for his success. Or so he said when I had lunch with him recently.

Possibly Clint is too modest to speculate. Probably he simply doesn't know. But he did admit that he was within a stone's throw of tossing away his whole acting career a few years ago because he couldn't get a job. "I was a contract player, right here at Universal until they kicked me out," he recalled. "I started doing some tv shows and did pretty good for six months or so. Then a slow period started.

"I got a job with the United Pool Company digging swimming pools, and when there wasn't enough work, I lined up at the unemployment office for two years in a row. Finally I got a part in a 'B' movie. It was really terrible! So I said to Mag (Mag is short for Maggie, his wife), 'I've got to quit this business! I'll do anything rather than make another flick like that.' But just about the time I made up my mind, I was offered the part of Rowdy Yates in the 'Rawhide' tv series." The series lasted eight years and firmly established Clint as a Western star.

It was purely accidental that Clint was visiting a friend at CBS Television City when Robert Sparks, then a network executive producer, happened to come out of an inner office where he'd been discussing "Rawhide" casting problems. He spotted Eastwood standing in the hallway. A few minutes later, the surprised Clint had an appointment to read for the new series. The rest is television history.

Clint Eastwood, Jr., was born in San Francisco. He hates the tag, junior ("I am a junior, and all my younger life I was called Sonny or Junior, and I think a kid deserves his own name"). That's why he refused to name his own son after himself, and called him Kyle.

Eastwood's father, recently retired from an executive position with the Georgia Pacific Company, had a lot of different jobs in the Depression days. Like many of their contemporaries, the Eastwoods moved from place to place and Clint from school to school.

"I really didn't know what I wanted to do when I got out of school," Clint recalls. "I became a drifter until I was drafted." Always a good swimmer, he became a pool guard and swimming instructor at the Ft. Ord swimming pool. It was at Ft. Ord that he was introduced to film-making. "A couple of friends of mine from the service who were working at Universal—one as a cameraman and the other as a director—came to Ft. Ord to shoot some location stuff. They thought 'I would photograph well so they made a film test.' As a result, Clint got a studio contract when he was released from the Army. He was cast in a lot of bit parts in second-rate movies but knew the experience was invaluable.

It was one of those so-called "spaghetti Westerns" that launched Eastwood as a movie star. "My agent called me one day and asked me if I wanted to do a picture on the plains of Spain with an Italian director who spoke no English," recalls Clint. "I laughed for 20 minutes. When I picked myself up off the floor, I said, 'I'm doing 'Rawhide.' Why would I want to do a Western in Spain, particularly if I only get $15,000 for the whole film?" On his agent's urgings, he finally accepted.

"A Fist Full of Dollars" grossed more than $4 million in Italy alone. Overnight, Eastwood became the hottest American male star in Europe. His success continued in almost 100 films, ground out in Italy and Spain.

Clint's salary for his role in "For a Few Dollars More" was $30,000. "The Good, The Bad, The Ugly," netted him $250,000, and as box-office returns piled up higher, so did the remuneration for Clint. "Hang 'em High" earned back its negative cost within four months. Then came "Coogan's Bluff," "Paint Your Wagon," "Two Mules for Sister Sarah," and more recently, "Kelly's Heroes," for which he received $1 million plus a percentage, and "The Beguiled." The 2,000-member United Theatre Owners of America started the 1970s by naming Eastwood "Male Star of the Year in the United States."

Clint still lives in the same modest home he bought years ago high in the hills overlooking Sherman Oaks, with his wife Maggie, a former model to whom he's been married 16 years, his son Kyle, now two years old, and a nurse-housekeeper. Asked why he hasn't moved to Bel Air or Beverly Hills, Eastwood insists, "I'd go crazy in a pretentious house. So would Mag."

Clint's private life continues to be far removed from the so-called glamour of Hollywood. He and Maggie don't care for fancy parties, don't go to premieres, hardly ever mix with anyone in the business except for people they knew before Clint made the grade.

Eastwood likes what he is doing, but like most actors, looks beyond his current activities. "Someday," he says, "I'd like to direct." He may get his wish soon if current discussions with the studio materialize. Universal executives offered to let him not only direct but also produce a picture for them, providing he will also star in it, to do it without salary and only on a profit participation. It looks like Clint will have to prove himself all over again. ♦

They Fight to Save in Vietnam

Wives, mothers return

By GEORGE FIELDING ELIC

Mrs. Dean St. Pierre, of San Antonio, Tex., writes to husband, an Air Force captain missing in action for two years, not knowing if he's alive.

"If these gentlemen in Congress and the Government are hoping that we women are going to get tired and go away and let them alone, they are sadly mistaken. We are staying right with them till they find a way to get our husbands and sons back home!"

With this direct and determined statement, Mrs. James B. Stockdale of Bradford, Conn., probably best summed up the aims and spirit of the National League of Families of American Prisoners in Southeast Asia. And no one could say it better because Mrs. Stockdale is founder of the league and chairman of its board of directors. She's also the wife of a Navy captain who was shot down over Vietnam in September, 1967, and has been a prisoner of war ever since.

Until recently there was relatively little factual information about American servicemen who were thought to have been taken prisoners in Vietnam. But on Dec. 30, 1969, the U.S. Government released to the press for the first time a complete list of American service personnel who are classified as prisoners of war (POW) in the hands of the enemy or as missing in action (MIA) in Southeast Asia. This list, with minor adjustment to update it to June 11, 1970, contains 1,556 names.

The official State Department commentary attached to the list concluded with this warning: "We are holding the Communist authorities in Southeast Asia responsible for the accounting for every individual on this list."

The Communists in Southeast Asia are not the only authorities who will have to account for these missing American servicemen. Right here in the United States, some 3,000 determined women—wives, mothers, sisters, and other relatives of the men on that list—have organized and are operating from a Washington headquarters.

The primary objective of the National League of Families of American Prisoners in Southeast Asia is to hold our own Government responsible for bringing their men safely home and in the meantime to do all they can to keep the issue alive and in the public eye.

They have done quite a lot on the latter score already. Representatives of the group have addressed hearings of the Armed Services Committee and the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives. Their leaders are in constant touch with the State and Defense Departments, with the relevant committees of the Senate and House, and with individual Senators and Congressmen. The women of the League of Families are haunted by two fears: that more and more of their men may die under the frightful conditions of their captivity and that for reasons of high policy or domestic politics, the fate of the remaining prisoners and missing may be lost sight of in whatever settlement of the war proves possible.

So the members of the League of Families want action now. They refuse to accept any longer the plea that it is to the best interests of the POW/MIA to play down the desperate condition of these men: that too much noise on that subject serves only to disturb "delicate negotiations," as they have been repeatedly told.

Said Mrs. F. Hafold Kushner of Danville, Va., wife of an Army medical officer shot down in 1967, to members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee:

"I am tired of being told that this great country, which can send men to the moon, cannot so much as get a letter to my husband in Vietnam. For years, families have waited patiently and vainly for the Government to act, while men died in those prison camps from execution, torture, starvation, festering and untreated wounds. Words no longer suffice. Now is the time for concrete, sustained action, which only Congress can accomplish."

The women of the League remain convinced that their Government has the strength and the know-how to devise and implement a course of action that will get their men back home. They will be satisfied with nothing less. They are also convinced that the way to get such action is to continue to keep public opinion aroused about the problem. They believe that Hanoi does pay attention to American public opinion. Hanoi's official attitude of prisoner-of-war questions has been one of icy refusal to discuss the issues at all.

Originally, only a few prisoners were even allowed to write to their families; six months ago, when the League was just getting under way on a national basis, only 90 men of the 341 then known to be POWs had been able to write home. In July, 1970, however, letters have been received from 312 POWs out of 456 now so listed, which encourages the women of the League to hope for still further improvement "if we keep the heat on."

It should be realized that these League members are knowledgeable service wives and mothers. The men on the POW/MIA list are not young draftees but volunteers. Some 70 percent of them are commissioned or warrant officers; another 20 percent or so are career enlisted men of Grade E-5 (sergeant) or higher; among the remaining 10 percent there are very few privates. The majority are flying personnel of all four services—Air Force, Army, Navy, Marine Corps.

Their womenfolk, naturally, are used to service life and its uncertainties and complications. They are used to separation from their men for extended periods of time. And they are familiar with the unwritten law of the armed services: "The service (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps) takes care of its own." For families whose men are classified as POW/MIA in Southeast Asia, this care has been especially considerate: The news that a man is in that status is and sisters are demanding action to make Hanoi account for American prisoners of war brought to the family by a senior officer who explains the circumstances as far as he knows them.

An officer is assigned to the family to be its Casualty Assistance Adviser. He is available around the clock to provide assistance and advice on legal questions, securing maximum available help from state and local authorities, and even to help with such household problems as repairing the family car or coaching Johnny to qualify for the Little League. If the CAA can't handle a particular problem himself, he finds someone who can.

But the Casualty Assistance Adviser cannot take away the terrible uncertainty as to when, if ever, a family will see its missing member again. If their man is classified as a POW, this means at least that service officials are responsibly sure he is alive and in the hands of the enemy. But if he is classified as MIA, it means he is not known to be dead—or alive.

What makes the POW situation so disheartening, so much less bearable, is the fact that the enemy stonily ignores the provisions of the Geneva Convention on the treatment of prisoners. North Vietnam is a signatory to that agreement, which requires the immediate release of sick and wounded prisoners, impartial inspection of prisoners of war facilities by a protecting power or an agency such as the International Red Cross Committee, prompt and complete identification of prisoners of war, and the right of such prisoners to correspond freely with their families. All of this is refused to prisoners of North Vietnam, which adds greatly to the anxiety and gnawing uncertainty.

The day-to-day needs of these families are cared for by their respective services, watched over by the Defense Department, given attention by Congress. At the Defense Department level, an energetic and capable official, Richard G. Capen, Jr., Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs, gives full-time attention to POW/MIA matters, supported by Frank G. Siéverts of the State Department and by Colonel Milton K. Kegley, USAF, as military assistant.

Wives can draw up to the full amount of the pay and allowances due their husbands, regardless of the allotment he established when he went overseas, which was meant only to care for his family during a temporary absence of fixed duration. Many POWs have been promoted in absentia to provide their families with extra income. Wives can deposit savings in a special account established by Congress that pays 10-percent interest and are excepted from the $10,000 upper limit which the law prescribes for such deposits.

A law introduced by Rep. Bob Wilson of California and which appears assured of passage, relieves POW/MIA families from payment of Federal income tax while in that status. They are entitled to free transportation in Government aircraft to obtain medical attention (free at service hospitals) or to visit relatives or other wives and mothers of POW/MIA personnel.

All well and good. The women appreciate these benefits. They and their chilchildren are protected from privation. But their men have no protection. Those with husbands or sons who are POWs know full well the merciless character of the enemy who holds them. Those whose husbands are MIA cannot be sure whether they are wives or widows. The legal difficulties which arise (if they want, for example, to dispose of property) are the least of their anxieties.

That is why these women are not satisfied just to sit at home and look after their families. As individuals and in small groups, hundreds of them have traveled all over the world to tell their story and to seek information. Many have tried to interview Hanoi or Viet Cong representatives in Paris, with little tangible result; others have tried to go directly to Hanoi. None has been allowed to go there, but some have been able to talk with Communist diplomats in Laos or Cambodia—again without tangible results.

Many of them have told their stories elsewhere—to officials of countries which are represented at Hanoi and those of other friendly governments. Their visits have received considerable notice in foreign news media, much of which has been highly uncomplimentary to Hanoi. For one example, Mrs. Roosevelt Hestle, Jr., wife of an Air Force lieutenant-colonel who is listed as MIA, told the House Armed Services Committee what she and her three companions discovered during a visit to Cairo: "Our principal interest in going to Cairo was to learn first-hand about their methods of handling the POW issue. No one could deny the deep hostility between the Israeli and the Arab nations, yet we were informed by the International Red Cross that there is no such thing as a missing man in that war. Within 24 hours, either side is informed if a man is wounded, if he is in good health, or if he is dead; and soon afterward the prisoners are exchanged. They are even humane enough to exchange the dead.

These facts, which are confirmed by Red Cross sources, have done Hanoi's international image no good at all.

Some of these trips have been paid for from personal funds, some have been aided by service organizations such as the Air Force Association, others have been assisted by individuals conscious of the urgent need of our POW/MIA servicemen. Special mention should be made of H. Ross Perot of Dallas, Texas, who has spent some $2 million to help expose the plight of his missing fellow countrymen and to arouse public opinion.

The thing to do now is to build up the pressure. Every American voter has an opportunity to help do just that. The opportunity is provided by the approach of the mid-term elections. The League of Families urges voters to insist that every candidate for election to either House of Congress pledge to work to obtain a full accounting of our missing men and an exchange of prisoners of war. After all, say these determined wives and mothers, Hanoi watches the election returns and Hanoi will get the message.

Hi, Math Fans!

A self-operated elevator in a 10-story building had 13 passengers when it left the first floor. At the second floor two passengers got off and one got on; at the fourth floor six got off and four got on; at the seventh floor these four got off; at the 10th floor all that were left got off. How many stops did the elevator make?

Does Telepathy Really Work?

While research goes on in this mysterious field, many are "talking" mind-to-mind

By HANS HOLZER

Author of "ESP and You" and "The Truth About Witchcraft"

Is there such a thing as telepathy? Can people talk mind-to-mind at great distances without using telephones, radio, or other intermediaries? It seems that way, according to overwhelming evidence that direct links between minds occur frequently.

Take the arctic explorer, Sir Hubert Wilkins, for instance. Some years ago he and psychic Harold Sherman had made a pact that they would communicate with each other over the miles. Sherman would keep a record of what he "saw" clairvoyantly, while the explorer would enter all his activities into his log. On returning to America, the two men compared notes. More than 80 percent of the entries matched. In one instance, Sherman had reported seeing the explorer dressed in white tie and tails, dancing in some kind of large ballroom. It made absolutely no sense to him at the time he received this telepathic image.

On checking Sir Hubert's whereabouts on that day, however, it was found that the explorer had made an unscheduled landing in one of Canada's western provinces. There the governor of the province had invited the famed explorer to his inauguration, and after the ceremony, to the ball being given in honor of the occasion. But Sir Hubert had not brought suitable clothes. So the governor lent him one of his dress suits. Harold Sherman, of course, would have no way of knowing this.

Telepathy works best spontaneously and especially when ordinary communication is impossible for one reason or another. In times of danger, many a distraught mother has heard her little one crying from far away, only to rush home and find that the child had fallen or was ill and in need of immediate attention.

An Illinois woman was busy in her kitchen when she felt a sudden urge to run out and look for one of her children. The boy was supposed to be playing in the garden. A thought flashed through her mind then that he was near a water's edge and was about to fall in. When she reached the nearby river, she found the boy clinging to the shore. Had she not obeyed her impulse, he might have drowned.

Not all telepathic communications involve danger or disaster. Some very ordinary things can be the subject of such mind-to-mind contacts. I was once at a play rehearsal where there was no telephone and no way to get to one without leaving an important session. Shortly before 5 P.M., I suddenly remembered an engagement I had made to meet the late John LaTouche, the lyricist, at his home. I knew I could never be there on time and wondered how I could tell him of the delay. One of the actresses at the studio had strong gifts of ESP (Extra Sensory Perception). I discussed my predicament with her. The girl's name was Future Fulton, and she was from Lubbock, Texas.

"Is that all?" she said, and closed her eyes. Then she said, "Your message has been delivered."

I smiled, but when I reached a telephone about two hours later and called LaTouche, I was in for a big surprise. I could scarcely apologize for not having let him know of my delayed arrival when the author interrupted me to say, "But I got your message. My answering service said someone called at five minutes to five to say you'd be delayed."

One of the reasons such communications require a real urgency, a genuine need to get through may be found in the concentrated effort this requires on the part of the person trying to make a contact. Without that need, the emotional cause is absent, and apparently it makes a difference. Despite exhaustive tests in clinical laboratories, telepathy was never successfully explored in this manner. In fact, some of the strongest psychics, who have shown themselves capable of spontaneous ESP on many occasions, stop dismally when subjected to the confining conditions of the lab.

Telepathy can be developed, however, by simply allowing it to come into use whenever conditions call for it. A desire and open-minded approach for it to work are helpful, plus the ability to relax oneself emotionally and physically so that no secondary thought interferes with the primary ideas one is trying to "send out."

Frequent experiments with the same two persons tend to improve the channel of communication, and if there exists personal or emotional ties between the two telepaths, so much the better. My wife and I have often had identical thoughts, or one would say aloud what the other was just formulating in his thoughts at that very moment.

If there is such a thing as a "world mind," then some psychic people can certainly take part in it, and perhaps some of the creative genius in existence is due to the drawing upon of that vast reservoir of knowledge. ♦

TRAVEL

How to Avoid Awkward Moments
Abroad

By GENEVIEVE ANTOINE DARIAUX

Author of "Accent on Elegance"

Do you have all the information you need to make your vacation trip to Europe a happy success?

A simple error in hotel tipping alone can do a lot to sabotage an otherwise beautiful travel experience.

Preparations for a European holiday can begin long before you land. Use those hours aloft to study both the language of the country or countries to be visited and, most important, the currency conversion. Tip to remember: American dollars are welcome almost everywhere but have some ready foreign cash available for tipping porters and paying taxi fares before you ever reach your first hotel stop.

Another reminder: porters live on tips, so don't be afraid to ask how much they charge for a piece of luggage. In Paris, one dollar (five francs) is generally enough for two or three medium-size pieces of luggage.

The Hotel is a topic about which one could fill a book. If you do nothing else in a European hotel, get to know the concierge, or translated, the "superintendent of service." Whatever you call him, he knows everything about protocol—shopping, restaurants, reservations, tours, medical care, and any other pertinent subject. Tipping a concierge is based upon how much you require of him.

What hour to have dinner in a foreign country confuses a lot of travelers. Naturally, it is best to eat when you are hungry—or are accustomed to dining. But if you arrive dressed for the evening meal and find an empty dining room, don't insist on being served at once. You may have to take a short walk or go to the bar for refreshments until the dining room opens. Smart travelers check with the hotel clerk or the concierge to find out what time meals are served.

Cocktail invitations in France, for example, are usually extended for 7 p.m., but nobody is expected before 7:30. In London, Paris, and Rome, lunch is served around 1 p.m., and the evening meal between 8 and 8:30. But in Madrid, lunch is served in most cafés and hotels approximately at 2:30 p.m., and the dinner hour is about 10:30.

Choice of foods is a matter of personal taste. But a guidebook is advisable since restaurants are rated, and a brief description of the selections and prices is given.

There are a lot of American-style cafeterias and quick-serve sandwich shops popping up these days in Europe. But a lot of fun can be had by sampling the local dishes and wines. Also, try ordering in the native language. It can be a memorable experience. It's generally considered an insult to most Europeans if you expect them to speak English.

Unless you are being introduced to members of Britain's royal family or having an audience with the Pope, act as naturally as possible when meeting new people abroad. There probably are some very different customs in different countries governing social etiquette, but foreigners are not expected to know all the little social pleasantries. And nothing goes over as well as a sincere and polite person—regardless of nationality.

Wearing the proper attire is a concern for most people when traveling. In the large cities, generally more formal than the provincial areas, one should be prepared to dress more formally. Certainly, jackets and ties are requested for men in most dining rooms, and ladies will feel comfortable in stoles or evening sweaters and gloves.

Slacks, for ladies, are usually frowned upon, unless they are of the very stylish "pants-suit" variety. It is always best to check with the maitre d'hôtel before wearing anything "sporty" to dinner.

The secret of being welcome in any part of the world and making a favorable impression is to take a sincere interest in the country and the people you are visiting. Even the few mishaps which are bound to happen on any trip, can be borne with a smile. Sometimes these turn out to be your favorite stories to tell friends when you return home. With just a little planning for a trip to Europe, you can have a "hon voyage" and memories to last a lifetime. +

We wouldn't dare make a guarantee this strong if we weren't absolutely certain the amazing MELT BELT really works for most anybody. Its principle has already been tried, proven and enthusiastically endorsed by men and women of all ages. They report spectacular results: 1 inch off often after the very first 20-minute session! Waist size comes down 2, even 3 inches after only one week! Waist and hip measurements can come down an astounding 5 inches the first month!

All you need is an idle 15 or 20 minutes morning or night—when you're watching TV, reading, or waiting for the tub to fill. There are no strenuous exercises, boxing diets, or lugging around heavy weights. There are no weird-looking electrical hook-ups with their painful muscle contractions.

How In The World Does It Work?

Just strap the clear plastic, hollow belt around your waist next to your body. Initiate it with the tube provided. You'll instantly feel a snug, light warmth pressing against the muscles of your waist, abdomen and back. Then, as you perform the few simple body movements in the chart we send with it, you'll feel your muscles working against the belt. Body-building experts know that just a few daily minutes of such isometric-like contractions is all your muscles really need. Any more is wasted.

It Keeps Working While You Relax!

After a few minutes, simply relax, sit in a chair, read or watch TV for about 15 minutes while the amazing MELT BELT keeps right on working. By the end of the first week, 1, 2, or 3 flabby inches will have peeled off your waist. The muscles of your body's "natural girdle" will have tightened up to make you feel slimmer and trimmer—plus! Then you would have ever thought possible.

After the end of the first week, slip into a pair of slacks or a skirt that was uncomfortably tight before. You'll stand taller, look years younger. And you must be amazed at the startling difference. Once you return the BELT within 7 days for an instant, no-questions-asked refund of your entire purchase price.

Barbers talk a lot— except when they find an electric shaver that outshaves a hand-honed straight razor. Then they keep it to themselves. Until now!

A barber gets $1.50 plus tip for a shave with his electric razor. For years he's kept the brand name hidden with adhesive tape.

Can you rightly blame him? For this professional instrument outshaves his hand-honed straight razor! You won't find it in stores. It's been a secret weapon of master barbers for years. It delivers a barber-close shave that lasts all day long. It does it faster and with less chance of irritation than a straight razor. That's why barbers use it on the toughest beards and the most sensitive skin.

Now the secret is out. A blabber-mouthed barber talked. We have it. The Oster Professional Electric Shaver.

Contoured Head— Like a Barber's Fingers

The design is a barber's dream. Technically, the shaving head design is called a "double arch contour," because it sets up whiskers just like a barber does with his fingers. It means you get every whisker at one pass — as clean as if you had drawn a hand-honed, surgically sharp, straight razor over your face.

4,000 Comb Traps— 152 Surgical Steel Edges

Four thousand comb-like perforations trap each whisker right at the skin line. Powerful 120-volt, 60-cycle motor drives the 152 surgical-sharp-cutting edges to make the toughest beard disappear magically—without the slightest irritation to even the most sensitive skin.

So Powerful, Whiskers Turn to Dust!

Open an ordinary electric shaver and you'll find bits and pieces of whisker. That's because these run-of-the-mill shavers hack and chop your beard. But the Oster Professional Electric Shaver operates at nearly twice the speed — on ordinary household AC current — and actually pulverizes whiskers into fine microscopic dust.

Separate Trimmer— Other Great Features

No expense was spared to make the Oster Professional Shaver to rigid, master-barber specifications. Motor-driven trimmer operates independently to trim moustaches and sideburns straight and neat for today's new "styled" look. The high-impact plastic housing is sculpted to fit your hand effortlessly. Removable stainless steel head rinses clean under running water. On-off switch, plus separate switch to operate trimmer. The specially counterbalanced drive gives you a smooth, vibration-free shave, and won't cause radio or TV interference.

It all adds up to an amazing shaving experience. An electric shave that makes your face come cleaner than a hand-honed surgical steel barber's straight razor—and in a lot less time.

Expecting a hefty price tag? Forget it! The Oster Professional Shaver was designed for barbers who don't go for expensive, unneeded frills. The price is only $22.98, complete with carrying case—containing separate cord storage, cleaning brush and head cover.

10 DAY FREE TRIAL!

Treat your face to the Oster Professional Shaver for 10 days—10 days of the strength, fastest, closest, most irritation-free shaving you've ever enjoyed...either blade or electric! Then, if not completely satisfied, return it for a full refund.

Fresh Fruit Pies and Tarts

MELANIE DE PROFT

Food Editor

■ The luscious fruits of summer, blended with ingredients to point up their characteristic flavors, are encased in rich pastry or crumb crust for these pies of distinction.

Cherry 'n' Peach Ginger Pie

- 2 cups ginger snap crumbs, (about 34 cookies)
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
- 1 jar (8 oz.) red maraschino cherries, drained and halved
- Maraschino cherry syrup from an 8-oz. jar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 3 tablespoons light brown sugar, sieved
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 3 lbs. ripe peaches, pared and sliced (about 6 cups)

1. Blend the crumbs and butter or margarine thoroughly in a bowl. Turn mixture into a 9-in. pie pan (or six 5-in. tart pans) and press crumbs firmly into an even layer over bottom and up sides of pan, building rim up slightly. Bake at 375°F. about 8 min. Set on a wire rack to cool. Chill thoroughly.

2. Add enough water to the cherry syrup to make 1/2 cup. Blend cornstarch and brown sugar in a saucepan; adding gradually stir in the cherry syrup until smooth. Bring to boiling, stirring constantly; cook 2 min. Remove from heat and turn into a large bowl. Stir in lemon juice, then cherries. Add peaches gradually, mixing well. Turn into the crumb crust and chill.

3. Using a pastry bag with a star decorating tube, pipe whipped dessert topping or thawed frozen whipped dessert topping around edge of pie or tarts (see photo). One 9-in. pie

Nectarine Cheese Pie

- 1 unbaked 9-in. pastry shell, with high edge (prepared from a pie crust mix)
- 3 cups sliced nectarines
- 2 teaspoons finely shredded lime peel
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 pkgs. (3 oz. each) cream cheese
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons lime juice
- 3 egg yolks, fork beaten
- 1/2 cup light cream
- 3 egg whites

1. Combine in a saucepan the sliced nectarines, 1 teaspoon of the finely

Sliced, juicy, ripe peaches glazed in a maraschino cherry sauce are chilled in a crumb crust of ginger snaps for a peach pie, which is sure to please your family or guests.

shredded lime peel, and a blend of the 1/2 cup sugar and 1 tablespoon of the flour. Bring to boiling; reduce heat and simmer 10 min., stirring frequently. Remove from heat; set aside.

2. Meanwhile, beat cream cheese with a blend of the remaining 1 tablespoon flour, the 1/2 cup sugar, and salt. Mix in the remaining 1 teaspoon lime peel and juice, then a blend of egg yolks and cream. Beat egg whites until stiff, not dry, peaks are formed, and gently fold into cheese mixture.

3. Turn the nectarine mixture into bottom of the pastry shell; pour the cheese mixture over. Set on bottom oven rack and bake at 375°F. about 40 min., or until top is evenly browned. Remove to a wire rack and cool completely.

One 9-in. pie

Mango Tarts

- 6 unbaked tart shells (prepared from a pie-crust mix)
- 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
- 3 tablespoons firmly packed dark brown sugar
- Few grains salt
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 2 cups sliced pared ripe mangos
- 1 teaspoon finely shredded lime peel
- 2 tablespoons lime juice
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 5 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca

1. Blend flour, brown sugar, and salt together in a bowl; cut in butter or margarine with a pastry blender until the particles formed are the size of small peas. Chill.

2. Sprinkle mango slices with lime peel and juice. Gently toss with a blend of the remaining ingredients.

3. Set tart shells on a cookie sheet, and bake 5 min. at 450°F. Remove from oven and turn mango mixture into pastry, heaping slightly at center. Sprinkle chilled crumb mixture evenly over the top of fruit.

4. Bake at 450°F. 10 min.; reduce heat to 350°F. and bake 10 min. longer, or until crumb topping is golden brown and fruit is tender. Remove from cookie sheet and set on a wire rack to cool. Serve warm. Six 3 1/2-in. tarts

Note: For one 8-in. pie, double ingredients for the filling, and increase final baking time an additional 5 to 10 min.

Fresh Blueberry Pie

Pastry for a 2-crust 8-in. pie (prepared from a pie crust mix)

- 4 cups fresh blueberries
- 2 teaspoons finely shredded lemon peel
- 4 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

1. Line an 8-in. pie pan with one half of the pastry; set aside with remainder of pastry.

2. Gently toss berries in a bowl with lemon peel and juice, then with a blend of sugar, flour, spices, and salt.

3. Turn into the unbaked pastry shell, heaping slightly at center; dot with butter or margarine. Complete as for a 2-crust pie, following package directions.

4. Bake at 450°F. 10 min.; turn oven control to 350°F. and bake 30 to 35 min., or until crust is lightly browned. Set on a wire rack to cool.

... that's why more than two million women of all ages have tried the exciting World of Beauty Club and enjoyed the outstanding cosmetics they received with their very first Beauty Kit.

Now...you too can try the finest cosmetics from the world's leading cosmetic companies...

get a $10 Beauty Kit for only $1

MAKE-UP IS MAGIC. It can beautify, transform and create the illusion of perfect feminine loveliness that every woman longs for. In the world of beauty, age means nothing, because beauty is not a matter of birthdays. What counts is knowing how to make the most of the natural beauty that is individually yours. Now World of Beauty Club brings you outstanding cosmetics from the world's leading cosmetic companies — a $10 assortment for just $1 — and shows you how, step by step, to look more beautiful, to feel more appealing, more confident. Come join us and learn how.

WHY WE OFFER $10.00 WORTH OF FAMOUS COSMETICS MAILED TO YOUR HOME FOR LESS THAN THE PRICE OF A LIPSTICK

The world's great cosmetic and toiletry manufacturers want you to discover their exciting, new products. And to help you discover them easily and inexpensively, these leading companies are making them available to you, on an unprecedented basis, through this World of Beauty Club invitation.

After this "Get Acquainted" Beauty Kit, you'll have the opportunity to go on getting similar kits of prestige cosmetics and beauty products, automatically, about once every two months, for as long as you want — for about half what you'd expect to pay.

New lipsticks... eye make-ups... moisture lotions... bath oils... hair conditioners... complexion soaps... blushers... night creams... at a fraction of their true value — from the outstanding cosmetic people in the world. At the very least, the value of each Beauty Kit you receive will be $10.00, most times, it will be even more.

Yet you pay only $4.98 per kit plus shipping and handling for those you choose to keep.

WHAT'S MORE, THE WORLD OF BEAUTY CLUB ASSURES YOUR SATISFACTION

You risk nothing... because you are under no obligation to keep any Beauty Kit unless you decide — after carefully examining it — that it's a cosmetic value you simply can't resist. It's entirely up to you. There's no obligation on your part ever. And your $10.00 "Get Acquainted" Kit for $1.00 is yours to keep regardless.

FREE BEAUTY GUIDE MAGAZINE with each beauty kit

Internationally renowned experts show you how to make the most of the loveliness that is yours alone. You'll get valuable advice on your figure, complexion, hair... discover new ways to make yourself more attractive, more exciting... more confident. Send for your Beauty Kit today.

And here are just a few typical notes from the thousands of enthusiastic comments we've received from happy members!

"The kits alone are fantastic, but the special bonus offers given to Members are unbelievable."

Mrs. Ronald A. Lane, Paducah, Ky.

"I guess all people have their doubts when they send in for memberships to different clubs especially at your introductory rate, but those doubts were soon erased."

Miss Linda Fulwider, Lubbock, Tex.

"I'm so delighted with all those beauty aids that I'm beside myself with joy... I just never knew how sweet and feminine I could feel."

Miss Bertha Johnson, N. Miami Beach, Fla.

"I can honestly say this last kit made me feel I was getting more than my money's worth... a feat not easily accomplished, I assure you."

Mrs. Michelle R. Scause, Culver City, Cal.

A Meaty Question
When I fry eight chops for the family,
Two each for sister and brother,
They leave them cooling on the plate
With "I'm not hungry, Mother."

But when I plan on one piece
To cut the cost of meat,
Their shrieks and wails are pitiful—
"Is that all there is to eat?"

QUIPS AND QUOTES

Polso is the ability to keep smiling after your boss beats you out of the last parking space, then docks you for being late.

—Sheila Day

On a jet flight recently, a middle-aged passenger was about to light a cigar, when the stewardess rushed over and cautioned that cigar smoking was not allowed on the company's planes. However, she explained, an exception can be made—provided permission is given by his fellow passengers. Turning to the lady next to the man, the stewardess asked: "Do you object, ma'am?"

"I absolutely abhor cigars," came the curt reply.

The stewardess then suggested: "Maybe those young fellas up front don't mind cigars." As the older man got up to leave, the lady turned to the stewardess and said: "I've been married to that man for 30 years... and I still can't get used to his awful cigars."

Two elderly women were chatting on a bench in the park. Said one, "Are you doing any baby-sitting these days?"

"Yes, and I like my position very much."

"What do you get?"

"A dollar an hour, lunch, bus fare, and spanking privileges."

—Dorothea Kent

Every day for a week my seven-year-old son came home from school sporting minor cuts and bruises. Despite my persistent questioning, he refused to tell me with whom he had been fighting. One day he arrived home with a beautiful shiner.

"Look, son," I said. "Did you fit this bully back?"

"No, sir," he sobbed, "you told me never to get into fights."

"Well, enough is enough. The next time this kid hits you, you have my permission to help him."

Next day, my son came home without a single new mark. "I did what you told me, Dad," he said, "and her parents are coming over to see you."

—Robert Miller

You Needn't Thank Me

I rhaps I shouldn't mention it,
But surely you won't mind;
That dress is not your style, my dear;
I mean but to be kind.

It's snug across your shoulder blades
And lumpy in the back;
I noticed when you sat awhile,
It seemed inclined to sack.

It makes you look a trifle plump;
It must be the design.
And, dear, it's not original;
In fact, it's just like mine.

—Peggy McGittigan

"Now, Harry, I don't want you to worry about me. Do you understand, Harry? Harry?"

when I planned to retire before fifty

a true story by John B. Haikey

Starting with borrowed money, in just eight years I gained financial security, sold out at a profit and retired.

"Not until I was forty did I make up my mind that I was going to retire before ten years had passed. I knew I couldn't do it on a salary, no matter how good. I knew I couldn't do it working for others. It was perfectly obvious to me that I had to start a business of my own. But that posed a problem. What kind of business? Most of my money was tied up. Temporarily I was broke. But, when I found the business I wanted I was able to start it on a little over a thousand dollars of borrowed money.

"To pyramid this investment into retirement in less than ten years seems like magic, but in my opinion any man in good health who has the same ambition and drive that motivated me, could achieve such a goal. Let me give you a little history.

"I finished high school at the age of 18 and got a job as a shipping clerk. My next job was butchering at a plant that processed boneless beef. Couldn't see much future there. Next, I got a job as a Greyhound Bus Driver. The money was good. The work was pleasant, but I couldn't see it as leading to retirement. Finally I took the plunge and went into business for myself.

"I managed to raise enough money with my savings to invest in a combination motel, restaurant, grocery, and service station. It didn't take long to get my eyes opened. In order to keep that business going my wife and I worked from dawn to dusk, 20 hours a day, seven days a week. Putting in all those hours didn't match my idea of independence and it gave me no time for my favorite sport—golf! Finally we both agreed that I should look for something else.

"I found it. Not right away. I investigated a lot of businesses offered as franchises. I felt that I wanted the guidance of an experienced company—wanted to have the benefit of the plans that had brought success to others, plus the benefit of running my own business under an established name that had national recognition.

"Most of the franchises offered were too costly for me. Temporarily all my capital was frozen in the motel. But I found that the Duraclean franchise offered me exactly what I had been looking for.

"I could start for a small amount—a little over a thousand dollars—and that amount I could borrow. I could work it as a one-man business while getting a start. No salaries to pay. I could operate from my home. No office or shop rent or other overhead. For transportation I could use the trunk of my family car. (I bought the truck later, out of profits.) But, best of all, there was no ceiling on my earnings. I could build a business as big as my ambition and energy dictated. I could put on as many men as I needed to cover any volume. I could make a profit on every man working for me. And, I could build this little by little, or as fast as I wished.

"So, I started. I took the wonderful training furnished by the company. When I was ready I followed the simple plan outlined in the training. During the first period I did all the service work myself. By doing it myself, I could make much more per hour than I had ever made on a salary. Later, I would hire men, train them, pay them well, and still make an hourly profit on their time that made my idea of retirement possible—I had joined the country club and now I could play golf whenever I wished.

"What is this wonderful business? It's Duraclean. And, what is Duraclean? It's an improved, space-age process for cleaning upholstered furniture, rugs, and tacked down carpets. It not only cleans but it onlivens and sparkles up the colors. It does not wear down the fiber or drive part of the dirt into the base of the rug as machine scrubbing of carpeting does. Instead it lifts out the dirt by means of an absorbent dry foam.

"Furniture dealers and department stores refer their customers to the Duraclean Specialist. Insurance men say Duraclean can save them money on fire claims. Hotels, motels, specialty shops and big stores make annual contracts for keeping their carpets and furniture fresh and clean. One Duraclean Specialist recently signed a contract for over $40,000 a year for just one hotel.

"Well, that's the business I was able to start for a little over a thousand dollars. That's the business I built up over a period of eight years. And, that's the business I sold out at a substantial profit before I was fifty."

QUIZ

Pets and Your Child

By JOHN E. GIBSON

Watching children and animals playing together is a charming sight. Most youngsters want a pet sometime during childhood, and the relationship between animal and child can be the most idyllic imaginable.

But there's more involved than just the obvious fun and affection. This true-or-false quiz, based on psychological studies, will test your knowledge of some often-overlooked facts about pets.

1. A child's pet can sometimes do more than a human being to fulfill the child's emotional needs.
2. A child should be at least two years old before he is given a pet.
3. Every child should have a pet.
4. In choosing an animal for a child, you don't need to worry about picking one the child will be afraid of because few children have fears about animals.
5. There are some pets that don't like to be near children.
6. You shouldn't give a dog to a disturbed child.
7. Special care should be taken in choosing a pet for a child who has a tendency to allergies.
8. A child's pet dog tends to develop personality traits similar to those of its master.
9. Pets can become so attached to a child that they become physically ill when their owner does.
10. Some common pets are dangerous for children.

ANSWERS

1. True. According to clinical psychologist Dr. Boris Levinson, for example: In many ways the relationship between a child and a dog can be more salutary than one between two human beings. A faithful dog can satisfy a child's deep psychological needs, including the need for a feeling of complete trust, loyalty, love, and affection.
2. False. A child can be given a pet when he's two months old—if the pet is a suitable one, such as a goldfish or turtle in a protected bowl, or a bright-colored bird in an attractive cage.

3. False. Some children have aggressive instincts that find expression in mistreatment of pets. Or they may be insensitive to the pet's feelings and innocently injure or hurt the animal without realizing it. In such cases, a toy animal of the child's choice may be substituted.

4. False. A child's possible fear of certain animals should be taken into account before choosing a pet for him. In a psychological study evaluating the fears of more than 100 children, 80 percent were found to be afraid of some sort of animal.

5. True. If you acquire a pet which has previously suffered mistreatment by other children, it may have come to associate children with abuse, and regard youngsters as potential enemies.

6. False. Dr. Levinson finds that a dog can be of inestimable therapeutic value in the case of a disturbed child—unless an acute fear of dogs is present. The dog may be able to "reach" a withdrawn child in many ways impossible for another human.

7. True. Such a child may be allergic to the hair of certain animals. If this is so, there are many other creatures that make excellent pets such as fish, turtles, or parakeets.

8. True. Psychiatric studies of child-pet relationships sponsored by the National Institute of Mental Health show this to be very definitely the case. The dog seems to sense its master's various moods and feelings, and gradually forms similar attitude patterns.

9. True. Dr. Ross V. Speck, who has made a study of the role of the pet in family life, finds that it is "not at all uncommon for a pet to become ill when a significant member of the family becomes ill."

10. True. The disposition of dogs, cats, and other animals varies greatly as in the case of human beings, running the gamut from high-strung to placid; from high-spirited to unpredictable. Since a child may often be alone with his pet, it is important that a new pet's behavior be observed for the first few days.

The start of more action than you may be able to take.

Are you ready to take on the Western stories of Zane Grey?

These famous novels are written for tough-minded readers about some of the roughest characters who ever roamed the frontier: broken-nosed, bullet-scarred men who had to ride hard and shoot fast in order to survive.

Not everyone can take this sort of story.

But if you can, we'll be glad to send you—for the token price of $1—three of the greatest books Zane Grey ever wrote.

The Call of the Canyon. What happens to a soft-living Easterner who walks out on the good life to face an outlaw's vengeance along Arizona's desolate frontier.

the smallest chip in the pot.

The Hash-Knife Outfit. Three men in the gang and the softest among them lived only to kill. What chance for the hot-tempered cow punchers facing them . . . and beautiful Molly Dunn, the hostage of the butchering outlaws?

These rugged books are hard bound in sunset red, desert tan, and cavalry blue. And they're stamped in real gold. Normally they cost $10.17. But while our introductory offer lasts, you can have all three for only a dollar.

Why are we staking you to three handsome books like these?

We think you'll like the books we send you. And that you'll want to own other books in the Zane Grey Library as they come from the presses.

They will include Riders of the Purple Sage, The Dude Ranger, Wild Horse Mesa, Arizona Ames, Thunder Mountain, The Vanishing American, Maverick Queen, and many more.

Because we print in quantity and cut out the middleman, we can still offer our subscribers these distinctive, cloth-bound books for only $3.39 each plus shipping.

You get advance descriptions of all future selections. You can reject any book before or after you receive it. And you can cancel your subscription at any time.

Send no money. Just mail coupon to get The Call of the Canyon, Wildfire, and The Hash-Knife Outfit by Zane Grey. All three for the introductory price of only $1.

Walter J. Black, Inc., Flower Hill, Roslyn, N.Y. 11576

Please send me The Call of the Canyon, Wildfire, and The Hash-Knife Outfit.

If I don't want to keep these introductory volumes, I'll return them within a week and owe nothing. Otherwise, I'll pay just $1 for all three, plus shipping.

Also reserve for me additional beautifully-bound volumes in the Zane Grey Library, which I will be entitled to receive as they come from the presses.

I'll get advance descriptions of all future volumes. I may reject any books before or after I receive them. For those I do keep, I pay just $3.39 each plus shipping. And I may cancel my reservation any time. (Books shipped in U.S.A. only.)
