Anti-War Measure Defeated

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate refused today to set a deadline for President Nixon to bring home all American troops from Vietnam and elsewhere in Indochina.

Turned down was a proposal by Sens. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., and George S. McGovern, D-S.D., to cut off all financing of the operations in the Vietnam area by the end of next year — or Feb. 29, 1972, if the President exercise an additional 60-day option.

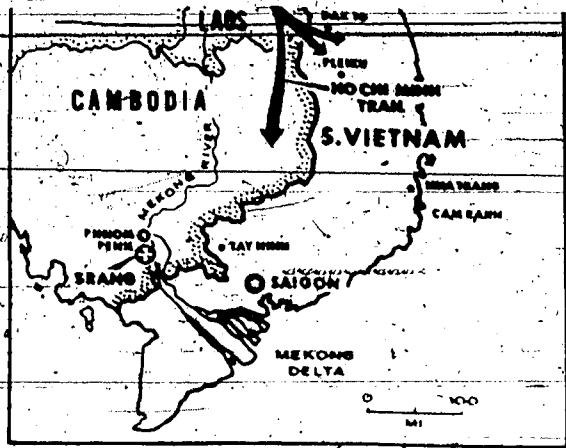

approval of the Gulf of Tonkin Amendment.

What little hope (and it was small) that supporters had for approval of the proposal collapsed in the hour's debate preceding the vote when Sens. John Sherman-Cooper, R-Ky., and Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., both said they would vote against it.

In an impassioned final plea for approval while anticipating defeat, McGovern told senators, "This chamber reeks of blood. He said 'every senator here is partly responsible for human wreckage' among Vietnam veterans. 'There aren't many of these blasted and broken boys who think this war is a glorious venture,' McGovern said.

Opponents argued that Nixon already was in the process of orderly withdrawal of troops and that it would be both unwise and risky to set any kind of deadline. The U.S. troop commitment grew rapidly from about 17,500 at the time of approval of the Tonkin Amendment — by an 88-2 Senate vote and unanimous House approval to more than half a million.

Supporters of the amendment to an over-all military procurement bill pictured it as an opportunity for members of Congress to vote to end the war, as they in effect voted for White House authority to wage the war in August, 1964, with

Cambodia Troops Advance

PHNOM PENH (UPI) — Cambodian infantrymen supported by air strikes today fought their way to within a mile and a half of Sraang, held by Viet Cong troops who bombarded the government troops from a mountainside Buddhist pagoda overlooking the town.

The Viet Cong seized Sraang, 26 miles southwest of Phnom Penh, Sunday after a three-day battle. The Communists were reported holding a number of civilians hostage in the town.

The Cambodian command said other Viet Cong units had cut high voltage power lines supplying Phnom Penh from the Kirirom Dam 4 miles southwest of the capital. Power in Phnom Penh was not visibly affected but a Cambodian command spokesman said "It is very clear the Viet Cong are trying to sabotage our economy."

The first train to leave Phnom Penh in more than two months pulled out of the capital today for Baden, 20 miles west of the city. Railroad officials said the line beyond Baden to the vital rice growing province of Battambang was cut by the Viet Cong who blew up two bridges. Battambang is 180 miles northwest of the capital.

Communiques from Saigon said Communist troops bombarded Da Nang Air Base early today with eight six-foot-long 122mm rockets. One airman was wounded by shrapnel and a parked C130 cargo plane was damaged.

One rocket exploded near the passenger terminal and sprayed asphalt fragments on a Pan American World Airways 707 jetliner. It was the first rocket attack on the big base since June 21.

One rocket hit 30 yards from a bachelor enlisted men's quarters and another outside a barracks to have been occupied within a few hours.

The U.S. Command said American troops lost two killed and 12 wounded in two clashes Monday 45 miles northeast of Saigon.

COMEDIAN BOB HOPE, shown beginning his 1969 Vietnam tour at the 1st Cavalry base at Lai Khe, seems to have the 15,000 soldiers in attendance in a good mood. However, times have changed, according to Kenneth D. Smith, chief of the U.S. Special Service Agency for entertainment in Europe. Smith said entertainers like Hope are now "unacceptable" to most overseas troops. He voiced his belief that "sentimental, patriotic material does not now appeal to today's young soldiers. (UPI)

Killer Bolts Hit Valley

BURLEY — Lightning storms whipped through Magic Valley late Monday, killing a Burley farm worker, cutting electrical service and igniting forest and range fires.

Jesus (Jessie) Garcia, 29, Burley, was killed when he was struck by lightning at about 2:30 p.m. Monday while irrigating southwest of here.

Ron Hepworth, owner of the farm, said Garcia was one of three persons in the field when the lightning struck. The others were unhurt. Cassia County Coroner Bruce Young said the victim died instantly. The body was taken to McCulloch Funeral Home where services are pending.

Wallace Fixsen, fire control officer at Shoshone, said 12 fires were touched off by lightning. Several were put out by rain and others were small and easily controlled — except for a 60-acre fire in the Laidlaw Park area where a hay stack was ignited and spread to the surrounding area.

Another fire was reported near the Craters of the Moon, another between Sand Butte and Notch Butte and two in the Gooding and Wendell areas.

Monday afternoon, one fire broke out east of Kimama Butte on the edge of federal land but was extinguished.

Sawtooth National Forest fire control officers said two small fires occurred Monday afternoon in the north part of the forest, but were held to small areas.

James Johnstone, maintenance superintendent for Idaho Power Co., said damage was slight and scattered with only minor problems from lightning. Outages were brief, he said.

He said customers suffered interruptions in service in the Jerome, Twin Falls, Buhl and Castleford areas. At the Bell Rapids pumping station repairs were necessary to keep the

Whites Quit Classes

By United Press International
A rural Alabama school district with a black majority complied today with a federal court order requiring total desegregation. As predicted by a federal judge it immediately became nearly all-black.

Fewer than 100 whites showed up for classes with 4,100 Negroes when the district — Sumter County, Ala. — implemented the order calling for a unitary school system.

Sumter School Superintendent Sam W. Jones said nearly all of the district's other 850 white children have enrolled in newly formed private schools. The three-judge federal court that ordered the unitary system this summer predicted that nearly all whites would flee to private schools, but the judges said higher courts kept them from considering this.

When classes opened this morning only five white students stood on the steps of Livingston High School, a carpeted, air conditioned facility that once was attended by nearly all of the county's white teenagers.

Six miles away, at the end of a gravel road, more than 400 white children entered an unfinished aluminum building known as Sumter Academy. Most of them went to school last year at Livingston High.

Many whites fled public schools in scores of other heavily black districts across the South but few defections occurred in predominantly white areas.

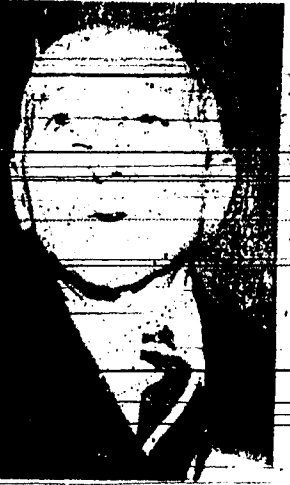

Southern school officials, beginning their first full year of total desegregation under a top-toe-podge of federal orders, are welcoming the Supreme Court's decision to take a new look at the issue.

New Highways Set

BOISE (UPI) — Nearly $2 billion worth of highway construction projects are being let to contract or planned for construction in Idaho this year, the Federal-aid projects valued at more than $6.5 million have been let to contract in southeastern Idaho, the department said, and state-financed projects worth another $500,000 are either under way or planned for construction at an early date in the area.

In other administrative districts, the department said that, as of Aug. 1, these federal-aid construction contracts were under way:

- Shoshone, $7 million; Boise, $8 million; Lewiston, $3.5 million; Coeur d'Alene, $12.5 million, and Rigby, $1.2 million.

FRANCOIS MAURIC

Nobelist Mauriac Dies, 85

PARIS (UPI) — Francois Mauriac, one of France's most eminent modern writers, died Tuesday, hospital sources said. Mauriac, a Nobel Prize winner, was 85.

Mauriac fractured a shoulder in April. Despite intensive care he never recovered. Physicians at the Pasteur Institute Hospital tried their best to save him, but Mauriac continued to weaken.

The hospital sources said Mauriac's condition worsened Monday night and death came soon after.

Mauriac was once eulogized by Charles de Gaulle as "the greatest French writer" in our time. When the then French President realized that one of his listeners was the equally prominent Andre Malraux, the usually unflappable De Gaulle became embarrassed and said: "Well, one of the greatest."

Throughout his literary career, which spanned six decades during which Mauriac produced some 75 volumes of poems, plays and novels, the famous French author professed scorn for the monetary rewards of his genius, but was proud of his literary awards, and his reputation.

'Reciprocity' Hit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) announced today it would crack down on future cases of business reciprocity — the age-old practice of "you buy from me and I'll buy from you."

The FTC never has issued a formal antitrust complaint on grounds of reciprocity. Since 1967, the agency has informally challenged six firms for allegedly buying and selling on a reciprocal basis, but dropped the investigations when the firms agreed to comply with the FTC's antireciprocity policy.

Today's announcement said the FTC no longer would accept assurances of voluntary compliance except "in unusual and special circumstances."

Lettuce Workers Defect to Chavez

SALINAS, Calif. (UPI) — Angry Teamsters Union members Monday closed down the processing plant of the only Salinas Valley lettuce growers to defect to Cesar Chavez's Farm Workers Union.

The pickets, who were not sanctioned by their union and who carried signs reading "Citizens Against United," marched during the afternoon outside Inter Harvest, Inc., packing and cooling sheds, a subsidiary of United Fruit.

The firm's 800 field workers had returned to their jobs only a few hours earlier under a

Nixon Plan Hurt

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon's embattled welfare reform plan ran into more trouble Monday when the ranking Republican on the Senate Finance Committee came out against any new law this year.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., rejected a compromise put forth by the Nixon Administration that Congress approve the program this year, but delay putting it into effect until January, 1972, to allow a year-long test of the sweeping proposal.

In a six-paragraph statement, Williams said "In my opinion, it would make better sense to authorize the $50 million pilot project and then await the results of the experiment before deciding on what type of law we want to enact."

Nixon, hoping to salvage what he called the most important piece of domestic legislation in 35 years, agreed Friday to delay implementation of the $4.1 billion family assistance program for the trial period.

During the intervening year, three trial projects would be undertaken to test the program, designed to provide a family of four with a $1,600 basic income, plus food stamps.

Williams said postponing the effective date of the program "and then running a pilot project during the interim does not alter the situation, nor does it answer the question of whether this is or is not a bad bill."

He said it was unrealistic to expect final Congressional action before the November elections. "... that raises the further question, should a new $4 billion to $6 billion welfare program of this magnitude ... be acted upon by a lame duck Congress," the Senator commented.

Earlier, Whitney M. Young Jr., head of the National Urban League, accused White House adviser Patrick J. Moynihan of a "malicious political attempt to blame Democrats for delay in action on the welfare measure that is now locked up in the Senate Finance Committee."

He suggested Moynihan's actions were a smoke screen to shield the "real opponents" — Republicans.

Israel Takes Tough Stance

By United Press International
Israel's representative to the Middle East peace talks will return to New York shortly with instructions to take a new, hard line in the discussions, diplomatic sources in Jerusalem said today.

Today's Israeli cabinet meeting simply will spell out the tough line they already have decided to take, the sources said. The representative, U.N. Ambassador Yosef Tekoah, will be told to insist the Arabs must give firm guarantees they are prepared to reach a peace settlement before any terms of such a settlement are reached.

In addition, Israel will insist the Arabs and Syria must claim Egypt moved into the Suez Canal cease-fire zone be removed before the talks begin.

Tekoah is expected to leave for New York today or Wednesday.

In New York, U.N. mediator Gunnar V. Jarring met Monday with the Egyptian negotiator, Mohammed Hassan el-Zayyat. Following the meeting El-

Zayyat told newsmen "I am afraid what we are seeing now is the sight of some people (Israel) who are faced with the great danger of peace and they want to get away."

U.N. sources said Jarring was unhappy about the prolonged absence of Tekoah, who left for Israel after the first round of meetings a week ago.

In Amman, talks between Jordanian government officials and representatives of the Palestinian guerrillas went into their second day with life slowly returning to normal. Guerrilla forces and government troops clashed four times last week. Casualty estimates from the final battle on Sunday were as high as 8 dead and 10 wounded.

The two sides held five hours of discussions Monday in an effort to work out a way to stop the clashes. Jordan has accepted the American-proposed cease-fire that started Aug. 7 but the guerrillas have refused it and are continuing fighting.

Official Urges Probation Aides

By BONNIE BAIRD JONES
Times-News Staff Writer
TWIN FALLS — A plan to form a group of volunteer counselors to work with probationers from the local district courts was proposed in Twin Falls Monday afternoon.

Don E. Rogers, Boise, chief of Idaho State Probation and Parole, met with about 50 citizens, and local probation and parole officer, Robert E. Kroush, to explain the proposed program.

He said such counseling services have been established and are functioning in north Idaho.

Under the court reform program which becomes effective Jan. 11, Rogers said, the probation officers will also be assigned persons convicted of misdemeanors which would compound the case load beyond the present overworked amount.

This is one of the major factors prompting Idaho to look to volunteer counseling, Rogers said. Another is the high degree of success volunteers are having in other states with similar programs. Parole and probation officers in Idaho work only with persons convicted of felonies.

The program would deal only with adult probationers, but if successful, could be expanded to include juveniles.

Kroush said he has 100 persons under his jurisdiction, too large a group for one official to handle satisfactorily. Through volunteer counseling, he said, citizens would be carrying most of the personal contact with the probationers who could be assigned this type of counseling.

Harry Clark, former Twin Falls area parole and probation officer, was asked to serve as coordinator of the volunteer corps. CSI's Dr. Bruce Harrison, said all library material at the college is available to the volunteer counselors at no charge for their use and study.

Regional Obituaries

Funeral Services Janice P. Huber Shirley C. Wall
GOODING — Janice P. Huber, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huber of Gooding, died Saturday in a Boise hospital after a lingering illness. She was born Jan. 17, 1956, in Jerome, and lived with her family in Jerome and Dietrich before moving to Gooding in 1958. She graduated from Frahm Junior High School in Gooding earlier this year. Miss Huber was a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, and the 4-H Club. Survivors include her parents, and six brothers, Tom, Kenneth, Martin, Joe, Mark, and Douglas Huber, all Gooding; and six sisters, Margaret, Donna, Beverly, Joani and Lisa Huber, all Gooding, and Mrs. Jim (Judith) Collins, Omaha, Neb. The Rosary will be recited at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at Thompson Chapel in Gooding. Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church by Rev. Fr. James Shinnick, Gooding, and Fr. Dennis Falk, Boise. Final rites will follow at Elmwood Cemetery, Gooding. Friends may call at Thompson Chapel this evening and all day Wednesday, and until 9:30 a.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Rex Miller
GOODING — Mrs. Rex (Winnie) Miller, 67, died Sunday afternoon after a brief illness in the Gooding Hospital. She was born Sept. 27, 1902, in Jones County, Iowa, and moved to Washington state in 1904 with her family, and to Camas Prairie in 1906. She attended schools at the county line school and King Hill, finishing her schooling in Clear Lakes. She later moved to Wendell and married Rex Miller on April 17, 1921, at Shoshone. The couple came to Gooding the next year and had farmed northwest of Gooding since 1928. Mrs. Miller attended the Gooding First Christian Church, was a member of the Gooding Grange for 28 years, and a long-time member of the Rebekah Lodge. Survivors include her husband, Gooding; one son, Eugene Miller, Gooding; one daughter, Mrs. Frank (Alma) Graves, Gooding; two brothers, J. Fred Bodenhofer, Victor, Ida, and J. Wilmar Bodenhofer, Gooding; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at Thompson Chapel by Rev. Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. J. L. (Mattie Belle) Tyce, Boise, and Mrs. Bea Higbee, Twin Falls; several nieces and nephews. Three brothers and one sister preceded him in death. White Mortuary will announce funeral services.

Conservatism Shows Strength

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The liberal Americans for Democratic Action, releasing its 24th annual ADA voting record, reported Monday conservatism is gaining in both Houses of Congress. "The voting record again reports an overall decline in Congressional liberalism and shows another season of net losses in the House and deteriorating stability in the Senate," the organization said in its monthly publication, ADA World. "The only two '100 percenters' in the senate this year, said the ADA, are Sens. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., and Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis. Those with 100 per cent ratings in the house, all Democrats, are Thomas Ashley, Ohio; Jonathan Bingham, N.Y.; Jeffrey Cohelan, Calif.; William Green, Pa.; Edward Koch, N.Y.; Allard K. Lowenstein, N.Y.; Abner Mikva, Ill.; Edward Roybal, Calif.; William F. Ryan, N.Y.; and Jerome Waldie, Calif. Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield had a 65 per cent rating. His GOP counterpart, Hugh Scott, was given a 25 per cent mark.

Hot Cinders Spark Fire In Truck

A truck carrying a load of cinders from the Twin Falls High School incinerator caught fire this morning enroute to the dump and singed the truckbed, Supt. Ernest Ragland said. The fire was immediately extinguished, leaving only minor damage to the truckbed and a slightly smoke-blackened cab.

Vandals Smash 'Booth' Windows

TWIN FALLS — Twin Falls police were investigating three broken windows of the Mountain Bell telephone booths this morning. The money boxes of the phone were not tampered with. Replacement of the windows will cost $69.45, police said.

Census Data May Reveal Fewer Folks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Government will announce its preliminary figures Tuesday for how many Americans it found in the 1970 census. Indications were that the overall figure would be smaller than first expected. The Census Bureau stressed that the figures to be made public by Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans at a news conference at 2 p.m. EDT would be both preliminary and "rounded off." In addition to disclosing the preliminary figure for overall population, Stans was expected to give initial tallies for all the states and the major cities in the country. The final figures from the every-10-years count must be sent to President Nixon by Dec. 1.

Wreck Victim Listed 'Poor'

TWIN FALLS — Paul Libby, 6-year-old California boy injured in a traffic accident near the Nevada-Idaho state line last Wednesday, remains in poor condition at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. The child suffered chest, head and back injuries when the vehicle in which he was riding went out of control and rolled over on U.S. 93. His uncle, Larry Wayne Campbell, 29, California, was killed in the accident.

Angry Carpenter 'Rebuilds' Big Jet

MIAMI (UPI) — Miami's International Airport is so big and busy no one notices a man carrying an ax until he begins chopping holes in a $5 million jet.

Thomas William Brown, blaming Eastern Airlines for the death of his champion Irish wolfhound, in May, made himself more than a little conspicuous at the airport Monday. He hacked 18 holes in the fuselage of an Eastern jet just landed from New York.

Brown, 38, a carpenter, was scheduled for arraignment before U.S. Commissioner Edward Shaw today on a federal charge of destruction of a vehicle used in interstate commerce.

He told police he had bought a can of black paint and the ax intending to paint his front porch and chop down a rubber tree.

"Then I decided to cut up $200,000 worth of airplane instead."

was charged with dumping the paint and hacking at the jet with an axe because his dog, a champion wolfhound, died last May from heat prostration after a flight on an Eastern plane. (UPI)

Former JP Sues Accountant

TWIN FALLS — A public accountant, Elmer W. Wilson, has been named as defendant in a $25,000 damage suit filed in Fifth District Court by Karl R. (Jack) Lewis, former justice of the peace in Buhl.

In the suit, Lewis seeks $25,000 general damages and $2,500 special damages on charges that the auditor maliciously and falsely acted to defame the character and community standing of the plaintiff.

In his complaint, Lewis charges that Wilson was employed by the City of Buhl to perform an audit of city books and without the permission of the county commissioners took the liberty of looking through the justice court records. He thought he discovered $4,000 in what he took to be "cash" bonds to be missing, while in fact the bonds were surety and not cash bonds, Lewis alleges, and there was in fact no shortage.

The complaint also states that the auditor declared, in the presence of Ruth K. Jones and Mike Felton, county officials, that there was a $4,000 shortage in the books, which Lewis declares was not true.

Earlier, Lewis filed a $100,000 damage suit against county officials in connection with their complaint against him which charges misuse of public funds.

Racing Proves Costly

TWIN FALLS — New legislation calling for a mandatory 30-day driver's license suspension on all drag racing or vehicle racing convictions should be noted by all drivers, Twin Falls County Prosecutor Robert Galley said Monday.

He said if young drivers were aware of the new regulation, and the fact that additional costly insurance coverage is necessary for reinstating of the suspended licenses, there would probably be no drag racing.

"Most of the persons brought into court for racing on public streets and roads find they cannot afford this type of driving," Galley said.

Under present law, there is the usual court fine and costs and judges are required to order the 30-day driver's license suspension which puts this type of violation in the same class with reckless and drunken driving.

He said four to five cases have come to court recently in which the drivers plead guilty and then realized they would lose the privilege of driving for at least 30 days and must also purchase additional insurance before being able to drive their vehicles at the end of the 30 days in order to prove financial responsibility.

Smokejumpers Hit New Fires

By United Press International
Twenty-seven smoke jumpers were dispatched Monday morning to ten new forest fires in the St. Joe National Forest and the Clearwater National Forest in Northern Idaho.

The Lolo National Forest also reported 29 new lightning-caused fires Monday morning. Chuck Kern, Northern Region fire coordinator, reported 19 smokejumpers were sent to eight fires in the Clearwater National Forest and eight were sent to two fires in the St. Joe National Forest.

The lightning-caused fires resulted from a Monday morning thunderstorm.

The East Little Fork fire, 18 miles southwest of Eureka, Mont., in the Kootenai National Forest continued to burn out of control Monday. That lightning-caused fire has now burned 2,000 acres, Kern said.

He reported approximately 557 men are on the fire line at present and control is expected by noon Tuesday. Seventeen bulldozers, two ground tankers and one helicopter are on that fire which started last Thursday.

Six major fires are now under control, according to Kern. He said mop-up work is now proceeding on the Weather Wax fire in Lewis-Clark National Forest, along with the Cross Creek fire. Work is also continuing on the Bates Creek fire in the Clearwater National Forest, the Big Creek fire in the Coeur d'Alene National Forest, the La Sota fire in the Colville National Forest and the Sullivan Cutoff fire in the Kootenai National Forest.

Monday morning, there were 2,304 men fighting fires in the Northern Region which stretches from the northern border of eastern Washington to the Dakotas.

Since August 18, 9,500 acres have been burned, including the six new fires Sunday, bringing to 1,047 the number of fires this summer.

Publication Of Law Change Advocated

BOISE (UPI) — Philip E. Peterson, University of Idaho law professor, suggested Monday any changes made in Idaho's probate code be published for examination by members of local bar associations.

Peterson and J. Charles Blanton, Boise attorney, appeared before the legislative council's subcommittee on the uniform probate code. Both men were hired by the committee to draft legislation to adapt Idaho's probate code to the uniform probate code and Monday they presented the committee with changes necessary in the existing code.

Explosions Damage 3 Buildings

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — Three explosions within 45 minutes damaged three dissimilar buildings today. First reports indicated at least two persons were injured.

There were unconfirmed reports that a bomb had been defused at a fourth site—the office of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. Police, however, discounted this.

The explosions were reported at the Gulf Oil building, the Burlington Northern Rail Lines building and at a warehouse near the St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press building.

A newsman asked a police officer if there was any chance the three explosions were unrelated. "Three within 45 minutes?" He answered. "Negative!"

Last month there were three explosions in this area, one of which injured a woman. There have been many bomb threats in the Twin Cities recently.

A Better Way?

If the Congressional hearing at Sun Valley last week was any indication of what it takes to try and get an idea across, then there just has to be a better way. More than 350 individuals were scheduled to testify before members of the House Interior Subcommittee on Parks and Recreation...

all transcripts received. We are also quite sure that by not having time to ask questions, many reasons for certain testimony will never really be known to the committee members. So what is the answer? We believe that before the committee gets into session, various people wishing to testify should, by prior meeting, form groups thinking along the same lines...

WASHINGTON — Justice William O. Douglas is resorting to a new strategy in fighting the House drive to impeach him. The ultra-left jurist is brushing aside as inapplicable those charges of improper conduct made against him by House members...

Douglas' challenge of the House's right to impeach him for alleged misconduct is made in a lengthy "legal memorandum" by Simon Rifkind, N. Y., former federal judge who is acting as Douglas' attorney. This document is being circulated among members of the House Judiciary committee...

following: Whether Rifkind is being paid, and if so, how much and by whom? Also, whether Rifkind's law firm has cases pending before the Supreme Court; whether he is personally representing clients there; and who they are. Rifkind's large firm has an extensive corporate practice, much of it before federal judges. He appears frequently in such courts. In Rifkind's memorandum, he completely ignores the numerous charges of improper conduct against Douglas...

On The Grow

Australia is not supposed to ask you to move to Australia. It's part of an international agreement not to solicit immigrants. Yet every month 12,000 Americans investigate the possibility and thousands are going that way permanently. What's the big attraction? Australia is what the United States was 40 years ago; a country on the grow. Here is a land as large as the United States with a population about equal to that of New York City.

Australia is the only country in the world which occupies an entire continent. I asked "Is there no anxiety about the menace of Red China which on the Mercator globe appears so near?" Apparently there is none. And no one to whom I talked can understand the United States' acute anxiety about a Southeast Asia which is so much farther from us than from them. As I say, Australia is what the United States was 40 years ago.

And no one to whom I talked can understand the United States' acute anxiety about a Southeast Asia which is so much farther from us than from them. As I say, Australia is what the United States was 40 years ago.

ART BUCHWALD

Containers

(Editor's Note: Art is on vacation. He left this column for us, calling it one of his memorable ones.) LOS ANGELES — Many communities are concerned about the separation of church and state, but Los Angeles has a much more serious problem; and that is the separation of tin cans and garbage. When the city council passed a law that said Angelenos have to classify their refuse, and garbage was to be put out on one day and bottles and tin cans on another, everyone squawked from the mayor on down. And when the council passed a law that anyone who didn't segregate his garbage would be liable to a $500 fine and six months in jail, the cries of anguish echoed from the hills of Hollywood to the streets of San Pedro. I didn't realize how serious the issue was until I started talking to friends in Hollywood who were against separate-but-equal containers for garbage. Allan Sherman, the folk singer, was disturbed by the logic of it all and told me, "Once you classify garbage, it's no longer garbage. The reason you call it garbage is that it is unclassified. Otherwise it becomes lettuce leaves, watermelon rinds, eggshells, clamshells and orange peels. We need filling cabinets instead of garbage pails to do the job properly." Bill Dana, the comedian-writer, was even more disturbed. "I've never been good about separating garbage, even as a kid and I was sure I would wind up in jail when the council passed the law. I could just see myself in a cell and a guy saying to me 'What are you in for?' To which I'd have to reply, 'They found a broken Pepsi bottle in my rutabaga leaves. Or, I was framed. My neighbor's kid tossed a Crackerjack box in with my TV dinner.' "How did the council plan on penalizing the people?" I asked. "No one is quite sure because the council rescinded the law the next day," Mr. Sherman said, "but I have a friend in city hall and he said it would have worked something like this: If you threw an anchovy can into your garbage it would be considered a misdemeanor, a Campbell's tomato soup can would have meant a felony, and for a Dole's pineapple juice large-economy-size can they would have sent you to the gas chamber." Mr. Dana told me the thing about garbage in Los Angeles is that it attracts flies and Los Angeles citizens have been urged to spray their garbage before putting it out. "We have a saying in Los Angeles," he told me, "a family that sprays together stays together." Mr. Sherman contributed this: One of the reasons people here have been less vociferous about the city council's doings in regard to garbage is that everyone is afraid to complain because the council might put into effect an alternate plan, known as Plan B. The implementation of Plan B would mean that you could only dispose of garbage which began with the letter of the day. For example, on Monday the sanitation department would only collect things starting with "M," such as muskmelon, mint leaves, macaroni, myrrh and melba toast. On Tuesday, you could only throw out tea bags, tomatoes, trout, trips and turps. Mr. Dana said, "Plan B is unfair because only German-born people can throw out zwieback on Saturdays." "What happens to the segregated garbage and tin cans?" I asked my friends. "They take them to Arizona on freight trains," Mr. Sherman said, "and mix them up together again." I wanted to talk longer, but my friends had to go home and classify their next day's garbage.

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Not So Sure

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you give details of "serinella" as a result of eating fish? Cause, effects, etc.? — Mrs. C.C.P. I think you are referring to salmonella, which sounds a good deal like the word you wrote. Salmonella poisoning, also called food poisoning, or even ptomaine, is caused by getting too much of the salmonella germ, a very common one. Stomach upset, diarrhea, cramps, and general malaise are the symptoms. You may have gotten it from eating fish, but don't be too quick to blame the fish. It is more common with other foods. Why? Because egg, chicken, mayonnaise, and such foods are better breeding places for the salmonella germ. Such foods are popular at picnics or at suppers of large groups, and if the food is prepared in advance and then allowed to sit and get warm, conditions are ideal for the germs to multiply. These cases are more frequent in warm weather, and that's why we keep urging people to keep food hot, or keep it cold, until it is ready to eat. Not all such poisonings are in summer, though. Obviously food that sits, unrefrigerated, in a warm or hot kitchen provides an excellent place for the germs to breed. It doesn't take many hours, perhaps only two or three when conditions are right, for enough germs to accumulate to make people sick. Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would like to know what would cause a sound in an ear such as a buzz or hissing sound. It comes and goes. No ache or pain. — Mrs. E.M. Different things. Sometimes high blood pressure, sometimes the use of certain medications, sometimes infection or some defect in the ear. A plugged eustachian tube may be the cause. Sometimes no reason can be ascertained. As a rule it is not a serious situation, and it is very common. Often more annoying than anything else. Such methods as can help stop the buzzes and hisses, or make them less bothersome, are described in my booklet, "Ear Noises, Their Causes and Cures." Send 15 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for a copy. Dear Dr. Thosteson: Does swelling of the whole body go with Parkinson's disease? Also pain in the stomach? If these do not go along with Parkinson's, can you tell me what causes them? What symptoms do go with Parkinson's? — Mrs. E.D. No, the swelling and stomach pains aren't part of the Parkinson picture. There are so many conditions that might be involved there is no point in trying to guess. I suggest that you have an internist examine you. The main characteristic of Parkinson's disease (also known as paralysis agitans, or shaking palsy) is a combination of difficulty in voluntary movements; plus involuntary tremors. One of the early signs is involuntary movement of the thumb and finger, so the patient seems to be making a "pill-rolling movement."

Historical Footnote

Can it really be Christopher Columbus' flagship, the Santa Maria, which marine archeologists have found in 15 feet of water off the northern coast of Haiti? Pieces taken from the coral-encrusted wreck and dated by scientific means apparently are from the Columbus period. The site of the discovery is in the approximate area chronicled by Columbus in his log after the ship went aground and sank at Christmas 1492. Florida archeologists are looking for additional artifacts to provide more positive evidence, but as one of the discoverers put it, "we are now 95 percent sure we have found the Santa Maria." If the wreck is that of the Santa Maria, what little the ocean may release after 478 years will be of immense interest to historians of the Columbus era. Although the Genoese navigator did achieve some fame during his lifetime, a skeptical world has preserved few mementos of the historic voyage. Each pound of original material recovered from such a find would be worth more in historical interest than a similar quantity of any treasure the Santa Maria might have been carrying when she was abandoned during one of the expedition's major crises. ABOUT THE GRASS A grass that can thrive in deserts on salty underground water, that can substitute for wood pulp in the manufacture of high-quality paper, that can combat water pollution while providing desert-rich Mideast nations with a new source of income — it sounds too good to be true, but just such a "wonder grass" has been developed by Israeli scientists. According to Environment Action Bulletin, tests of the grass — called juncus-esparto — in paper mills in England and Scotland yielded such excellent results that one of the mills has placed a bid for the entire harvest of the grass once it reaches the economically profitable level of 10,000 tons annually. Meanwhile, the reedlike grass has found other uses. It is employed in pharmaceutical laboratories, as dairy cattle fodder, in the manufacture of woven mats and other wicker items, in the production of plastic sheets and as an insulating material. And as an added bonus, the wonder grass can be used to purify urban and industrial waste water by breaking down noxious compounds and destroying harmful micro-organisms. Waste water filtered through juncus-esparto is said to be clean enough to drink. GIVEAWAY DEPT. Have four male and one female, housebroken and weaned kittens to give away. # Agnew Sets Trip Report

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew briefs President Nixon today on the Asian mission in which he reassured nervous allies of continued strong U.S. support.

Agnew was expected to deliver an optimistic personal assessment of his five-nation, 11-day Asian swing when he met with Nixon at 2 p.m. EDT.

Agnew cut short his stay in Honolulu by one day to fly to the Western White House where Nixon already has put out the word he views the trip as "extremely successful."

Secretary of State William P. Rogers and national security affairs adviser Henry A. Kissinger will be on hand to hear Agnew's views on talks with leaders in Cambodia, Vietnam, Taiwan, South Korea, and Thailand.

Nixon particularly was anxious to learn more of Agnew's private conversations with Cambodian Premier Lon Nol and his judgment of survival chances of the shaky country under Communist attack.

Agnew had some tough talking to do with leaders who fear U.S. planned troop withdrawals from Asia portend a softening of American intentions to stand by its commitments.

In another foreign policy area, Agnew also will be sitting in on Nixon's top secret session on the Middle East at 1 p.m. EDT. The President summoned chief diplomatic and military members of the National Security Council to the meeting.

Among those attending were Rogers, Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard; Kissinger, Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Joseph P. Sisco, assistant secretary of state for Middle East affairs; and Richard C. Helms, director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Israel repeatedly has alleged Egypt violated the cease-fire in its early hours by moving SAM missile bases closer to the Suez Canal.

The United States has said it could not conclusively verify the charges before it set up elaborate electronic surveillance in the area.

New Haven Militant Convicted for Murder

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI) — A jury which deliberated six days convicted Black Panther Lonnie McClucas Monday of one of four charges in the torture slaying of alleged police informer Alex Rackley — a verdict hailed by the defense as "a victory for the jury system."

McClucas, 24, found guilty of conspiracy to commit murder, could be sentenced to up to 15 years in prison. But he was acquitted of the capital charge of kidnaping resulting in death and two lesser counts and he left the courtroom smiling.

McClucas was the first of eight panthers, including National Chairman Bobby G. Seale, to be tried in the case which has aroused strong public sentiment and provoked Yale President Kingman Brewster Jr. to state last spring that he doubted any black could receive a fair trial in America at this time.

But Chief Defense Attorney Theodore I. Koskoff told 200 black or not, can get a fair trial in Connecticut. It's a victory for the jury system."

Youths Ignore Legion

PORTLAND — An American Legion parade rolled through Portland Monday. There was no trouble from the young longhairs of the "People's Army Jamboree," apparently on their way home after a weekend musical bash.

An estimated 50,000 Legionnaires from all 50 states and six foreign countries took part in the parade that ended in the heart of town at the Hilton Hotel, where Gov. Tom McCall watched from a 20th floor command center window.

Fewer spectators than expected turned out to watch the parade, possibly because of tension created by the extraordinary security measures enacted in recent days.

Near the close of the parade a group of about 15 bearded longhairs fell in behind a California marching unit and paraded for one block in front of the reviewing stand at the Hilton. One of them carried a Viet Cong flag.

There was one tense moment earlier when a group of 50 antiwar protesters stood on the parade lines and shouted at the marchers. But City and County police moved in and there was no violence.

National Guardsmen, called up in advance of the convention by McCall, were stationed at strategic points along the parade route.

Lightning Sets Fires

By United Press International Lightning has set 33 new fires in the Payette National Forest and 16 in the Boise National Forest during electrical storms which swept through southwest Idaho.

At the same time, a man-caused blaze has burned across 70 acres near Blacks Creek south of Boise in the Boise district of the Bureau of Land Management.

Worst of the new fires on the Payette National Forest were one at Hancock Rapids on the main Salmon River northwest of Arctic Point Lookout and at Three Mile near Matkay Bar on the river.

A dispatcher said the new fires cover the forest from Hells Canyon on the west to the middle fork of the Salmon on the east.

Tate Trial Delayed

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Tate-LaBianca murder trial was halted Monday by the apparent illness of one of the female defendants, and her lawyer said he might ask for a two-week continuance.

Susan Atkins, pale and holding on to chairs as she walked from the courtroom, told Superior Court Judge Charles H. Older that she was suffering severe abdominal pains and did not feel she could sit through the day's session.

Older directed that she be taken to the Los Angeles County-USC Medical Center for a thorough examination. Miss Atkins said she had been treated for an ovarian cyst in 1967 and believed it was a recurrence of that ailment.

Daye Shinn, her attorney, said that Dr. Charles Ballard had confirmed that she had a cyst. He said Ballard had estimated it would require two weeks for an operation and convalescence.

In that case, Shinn said, he intended to ask for a two-week postponement of the trial.

Shinn said he did not intend to ask for a severance of the trial of Miss Atkins from that of the other defendants—Charles Manson, Patricia Krenwinkel and Leslie Van Houten.

The trial, which began June 15, cannot proceed unless all defendants are present. A two-week postponement would mean a fortnight of complete idleness for the jury which is locked up nightly in rooms in the Ambassador Hotel.

Manson, the 35-year-old leader of the hippie cult accused of the seven killings at the home of actress Sharon Tate and Grocer Leno LaBianca, did not appear concerned about the illness of Miss Atkins.

While she sat with her head in her arms at the counsel table, Manson chatted in an animated fashion with the other two young women who appeared equally untroubled.

Miss Atkins had complained of pain Friday and the court session was adjourned at noon. She underwent an examination during the weekend and doctors apparently found no major illness so she was brought to court Monday.

A spokesman at the women's jail said "she's a healthy young lady and nothing was found wrong with her."

Court Eyes Segregation

By United Press International Southern school officials beginning their first full year of total desegregation under a hodge-podge of federal guidelines, today welcomed the Supreme Court's decision to take a new look at the issue.

"I'm delighted," said Clark County, Ga., Superintendent Charles P. McDaniel, whose district is one of six controversial cases consolidated into one for the Oct. 12 hearing in Washington.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger gave no indication when the court would make its ruling on whether the Constitution requires public schools to achieve a racial balance. Such issues as busing, pairing of white and black schools and rezoning of school districts would be argued at the hearing.

School officials in the south have contended that because there is no standard guideline for desegregation, a confusing variety of programs have been ordered by federal agencies and federal courts.

The South, meanwhile, integrated more of its schools Monday without incident. More than 250,000 Negro children attended classes with whites in nearly 200 districts.

There were scattered protests.

About 200 white parents at Stockbridge, Ga., demonstrated against a pairing plan that put their children in a formerly all-black elementary school. They didn't want to send their children into "an unsafe neighborhood."

At Red Springs, N.C., a group of Lumbie Indians refused to send their children to integrated schools, preferring instead to enroll them in the traditional Indian schools.

About 75 to 100 whites were expected today in Sumter County, Ala., schools, where 4,200 blacks are registered. Superintendent W. Jones said about 850 whites were in private academies. He said he expected no trouble.

"Who would demonstrate? All the whites are gone and the blacks don't care."

Showdown Near On Auto Talks

DETROIT (UPI) — Negotiations between the United Auto Workers and the big three automakers reached the showdown stage today with the companies making their first wage and fringe benefits proposals on a new three-year contract.

General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. were scheduled to lay almost identical contract offers on their respective negotiating tables (at 11 a.m. EDT).

UAW President Leonard Woodcock was to appear at the General Motors Building to receive the GM proposals as director of the UAW's GM Department. Ken Bannon, vice president and head of the UAW's Ford Department, was to receive the Ford offer, and Douglas Fraser, head of the Chrysler Department, was to receive the proposal from the smallest of the big three.

Presentation of the company offers sets off a hectic two weeks of last-ditch maneuvers and bargaining both sides hope will lead to final settlement without a strike.

Present contracts expire at midnight, Sept. 14.

Prospects of reaching a settlement before the deadline were considered by most observers to be a 50-50 proposition.

First action following the contract proposals by the companies was consideration by the separate UAW councils, followed by a report and recommendations from each of them to the union's 25-man international executive board (IEB).

The next move, barring acceptance of the initial proposals which was virtually out of the question, was the IEB's selection of one of the three companies as a strike target. This was expected to be made by Friday.

Then Woodcock and his top aides will go to that company's bargaining table and conduct intensive negotiations in the hope of hammering out a final national contract before the Sept. 14 deadline.

Schools Accept Couples

BOISE (UPI) — Trustees of the Boise Independent School District have decided to allow married student couples attend the same school.

During a meeting Monday night, the trustees deleted from school policy a clause which before prohibited married student couples from attending the same school.

They also instructed the school administration to review and work the policy.

Several trustees said they felt the married student policy was discriminatory because it prevented married students from participating in extra-curricular activity and prevented a married woman from attending school while pregnant.

John Cardinal McCloskey was the first American to be appointed a cardinal of the Roman-Catholic Church, in 1875.

With all due respect to the state of Minnesota, Idaho glorifies the legendary giant Paul Bunyan with a "rootin' tootin'" celebration in his honor at St. Maries' next Saturday through Monday.

Events included are a parade, barbeque, dancing, contests, logging events and water show. It may not be the driest festival in the world, but it's great family fun. Running almost in conjunction with Paul Bunyan Days is the Benewah County Fair at the fairgrounds in St. Maries.

Friday in Boise, the I. O. M. Youth Appaloosa Horse Show is scheduled at the Western Idaho State Fairgrounds to complement the large Western Idaho State Fair and Horse Racing starting Monday and running for seven days. The Youth Horse Show has two classes, 14 and under, 15 to 17, judging for showmanship and performance.

Saturday will see three city-wide barbeques in Idaho, according to the Idaho Department of Commerce and Development's calendar. Riggins will hold their annual feed in the City Park while Kamiah gives a large meal to all who pass by in thanks for a bountiful harvest. And if the barbeque isn't enough entertainment is also on the agenda along with gymnastics and street dancing.

Garden Valley will play host to the seventeenth annual Payette River Cattlemen's Association barbeque accompanied by an amateur rodeo. Menu includes such goodies as beef cooked in a pit for 24 hours, corn-on-the-cob, baked beans, tomatoes and all the trimmings.

Sunday finds Meadows Valley Jaycees having their big barbeque and old time horseless carriage activities. Action will start at 12:30 p. m. in New Meadows City Park. This is one place where you can loot your horn and stuff your whistle at the same time.

Speaking of cars, the Ketchum-Sun Valley Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a four-wheel drive rodeo this weekend through Monday. Categories are hill climbing, obstacle race, cross country and drag race.

If golf is your game, don't miss the annual Labor Day men's golf tournament at Purple Sage Golf Course in Caldwell, sharing their calendar dates with the Ketchum-Sun Valley event.

McCall opens their doors three days beginning Friday for the Horseless Carriage Club Tour with antique cars participating from throughout southwest Idaho.

For a chance to relive yesterday, stop by Orofino next Sunday for Joe Richardson's exhibition of steam engines and threshing bee. This well-attended event draws people from the entire northwest and is enjoyed by all.

In grateful thanks for a job well done, Governor Don Samuelson, on behalf of the State of Idaho, is honoring all Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts who served this summer as tourguides in the Capitol and Supreme Court buildings with a lawn reception on September 5th at the Governor's mansion. Ceremonies start promptly at 1:00 p. m. with Senior Girl Scouts presenting colors, invocation by Father David

Satellite Breaks Up

BEAVER, Okla. (UPI) - Chunks of white-hot metal weighing hundreds of pounds that slammed to earth in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas last week probably were part of a Russian satellite that broke up in the atmosphere, the Air Force said Monday.

The objects fell screaming "like a tornado" on rural areas near Beaver, Adrian, Tex., and Pratt, Kan. No one was injured and they did little harm, outside of stampeding a herd of Texas cattle.

The North American Air Defense Command NORAD at Colorado Springs, Colo., said Monday the metal pieces probably were from the Russian satellite, Cosmos 316, launched Dec. 23, 1969.

"The metal objects reportedly found in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas are very likely from a Soviet satellite launched last year," NORAD said in a statement. It said the Air Force had "predicted the decay of the Soviet satellite along a path where the metal pieces were found."

A 300-pound chunk of charred metal that fell near Beaver was being transported by truck Monday to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton, Ohio, for study. The metal that fell in Kansas also was sent there.

John Ivy, Oldham County sheriff in Texas, said another piece of metal fell on a ranch near Adrian.

"The fellow who worked the farm was out there. This thing landed within 300 yards of him," the sheriff said. "It stampeded the cattle. They ran away from it."

Ivy said the metal was four feet long and nine inches wide. It had numbers on it and "was charred."

"The only trouble it's caused is too many sightseers and they are ruining the crops by tramping through the fields," the sheriff said.

A group of Kansas oil field workers said one piece seven inches long and five inches thick fell north of Tuka, Kan., and about five miles north of Pratt, Friday afternoon.

"They said it had holes in it, apparently where bolts had been fitted. It was white-hot when it hit and buried itself 1 1/2 feet into the ground."

The workers said it sounded "like a tornado" when it fell. Using chains, they removed it from the ground and took it to the local sheriff's office.

NORAD said most satellites and other objects in space usually burn up upon reaching the earth's atmosphere.

Yugoslav Hijackers Didn't Care For Socialist Regime

DUBROVNIK, Yugoslavia (UPI) - Three "very nervous" men armed with pistols, hand grenades and a long knife hijacked an Algerian airliner on a domestic flight Monday in hopes of reaching Albania. They settled for Yugoslavia when Albanian officials refused to let them land.

"We did it because we don't agree with our socialist regime," one of the hijackers, all of whom were Algerian, told an airport official in Dubrovnik where they asked for political asylum. "We wanted to come to live in a real socialist country, Albania."

But Albania, Communist China's lone ideological ally in Europe, wouldn't have them. It refused permission for the plane to land either at Vlore on the Adriatic coast, or at the capital city of Tirana.

The three men, holding a dagger with a curved 6-inch blade at the plane pilot's throat, then instructed him to fly up the coast to Dubrovnik and asked for political asylum in Yugoslavia.

The plane, an Air Algerie twin-engine turboprop Convair 640, had just taken off from Annaba, Algeria, with 44 persons aboard on a flight to Algiers when the hijackers made their move. It stopped in Cagliari, Sardinia, to refuel and pick up maps showing the approaches to the airports at Tirana and Vlore, and again at Brindisi, Italy, 50 miles across the Adriatic from Albania. At Cagliari, 10 passengers - all but two of them women - and a stewardess were allowed to disembark.

During the stop in Brindisi, the pilot, Capt. Dagubert Dacosta-Rios said of the hijackers, "These boys are very nervous."

Four Killed As Plane Crashes

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) - Four Utahns, all of them members of one family were killed early Saturday when their light airplane crashed and burned after striking a 44,000-volt line near Salt Lake International Airport.

Killed were Robert Jack Westcott, 27; his wife, Sharon Leeann Stone Westcott, 25; a son, Lane, 8; and a daughter, Shauna, 6.

Two other Westcott children, Gordon Randal, 5, and Cylie, 10 months, survived the crash. The family lived in Granger, Utah.

Record Reviews

The Best of Hank Crawford (Atlantic SD 1557)

The fluid sax work of Hank Crawford fills a niche in jazz that few of his contemporaries can reach, for Crawford's playing style is almost unique in nature.

He plays one of the smoothest of all saxes of contemporary jazz in a style so beguiling simple that it is almost impossible to copy.

It flows/silken in seemingly endless waves of notes knitted together with such dexterity and skill the precise difficulty of producing them is not at all apparent.

Crawford is also one of the consummate blues saxmen, a vanishing breed who flourished in the late 40s and early 50s, but who have faded to perpetuate themselves.

This album will be delightful to all around jazz fans who may not be well acquainted with Crawford's work, or will serve as a choice indicator of Crawford's talent for his fans.

Five stars.

As shore or afloat, they're rocking the boat!

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: My husband is 56, and thank God he's in pretty good health, but every time he hears that someone he knows under 75 dropped dead, he announces that he is going to "start living." Abby, Harry has been "living" all his life, and if he has ever missed anything, I don't know what it could be.

Well, Harry started "living" again last week after he buried a 57-year-old friend. He is eating all the things he shouldn't (he is supposed to watch his diet because he's inclined to be heavy) and he also drinks more than what is good for him. He quit smoking a year ago, but now he's started again, saying he is not going to deny himself anything because who knows, tomorrow his number may come up.

So what is a wife supposed to do with a husband like that? I love him.

HARRY'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Hit him over the head with his life insurance policy. If he doesn't get the message, nag him.

DEAR ABBY: Your support on behalf of that long-haired son who is unable to find a job because of his hair, and wants to bring his bride home for mom and dad to support, makes me cringe.

It is this kind of stupid thinking that makes parents support kids on college campuses who spend the academic year causing trouble instead of attending classes.

I say the boy is entitled to wear his hair to his knees if he so wishes, but if he's old enough to make this decision, and old enough to take a wife, he must suffer the consequences. Mom and dad should tell him to support his own wife and establish his own home.

What is a married man doing at home living off his daddy, anyway? Even the mother bird shoves her babies out of the nest to try their wings. She knows the only way to strengthen these wings is to use them. We are raising a generation of weak, crybabies, thanks to people like you. Abby, you blew it again, and I will be most surprised if you print this.

DISGUSTED IN WISCONSIN

DEAR DISGUSTED: The parents of "Long Hair" asked me if they should let their college son (newly married and jobless) come home with his bride to hunt a job on the condition that he cut his hair. I said, "If you let him come home, don't offer him bread with a hook in it." And, that's what I meant.

DEAR ABBY: There are 10 of us girls who recently formed a club. We call ourselves "The Triple T's" for "Ten Terrific Teens." We have a question to ask you.

How can a girl keep a boy interested in her without letting him get out of hand — if you know what I mean?

Linda says a girl simply has to let a boy advance little by little in order to keep him coming back for more, but if he really gets out of line, she should slug him.

Barbs says a girl should advertise the fact that she is pure, and intends to stay that way. Well, that sounds groovy, but Barbs stays home nearly every weekend. What is your advice?

"THE TRIPLE T'S"

DEAR TRIPLE: It's up to the girl to set the limits and make it crystal clear what those limits are. If she lets a boy "advance" little by little in order to keep him coming back for more, she'll soon have nothing left for him to come back for. Also, I don't recommend leading a fellow on, and then "slugging" him.

I think Barbs has the right idea if she doesn't overdo the goody-goody bit. And staying home weekends beats hand-to-hand combat with an octopus.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ASHAMED IN NASHVILLE: George Bernard Shaw put it this way, "The more things a man is ashamed of the more respectable he is." Think about it.

JOINING THE STAFF at the College of Southern Idaho to teach home economics and consumer education classes is Zan Marie Payne. Short courses are being designed to serve the needs and interests of the community.

Home Economics, Education Classes Scheduled at CSI

TWIN FALLS — Responding to the feminine aspiration to enhance and increment knowledge, the College of Southern Idaho will offer home economics and consumer education classes under the direction of Zan Marie Payne.

Short courses are being designed to serve the needs and interests of the community. In the offering are classes for upholstery, food service and commercial cake decorating.

Mrs. Neida Ronk will assist with the clothing construction instruction, scheduled to begin in mid-September. Tentatively, fundamental sewing skills will be taught Saturday mornings, intermediate sewing will meet on Wednesday afternoons or evenings; tailoring techniques will be offered on Monday afternoons and Thursday evenings.

The College of Southern Idaho invites interested persons to phone 733-9554 extensions 33 or 73 at the Area Vocational School with suggestions for new classes or for additional information concerning tuition, class schedules and course content.

ELECTRIC LIVING FOR A NEATER, CLEANER WORLD

Tapestries Produced by Blaine Summer Resident

BY LIZ BOLTON
Times-News Correspondent
KETCHUM — The Ketchum area in the summer is replete with talented individuals who visit from other areas of the nation, and Mrs.

Ben (Elaína) Winters, Los Angeles, is one of the most outstanding. Mrs. Winters, who has had no formal training or background in any art field, is skilled at turning out valuable unique tapestries made of Persian yarns and Belgian linen. One such masterpiece is hanging above the fireplace in the Winters' summer home in Warm Springs and has been appraised at over $4000, although, Mrs. Winters notes, the piece is not for sale. Mrs. Winters has been turning out delightful tapestries for about ten years, becoming interested in the art while redecorating her daughter's room in Los Angeles.

It was then she learned of a teacher of crewel embroidery in the San Fernando Valley and purchased her first design. After completing the initial tapestry which still hangs on her daughter's wall, she began to prepare her own designs. Presently, she sketches her ideas and turns them over to artist Eric Small, Los Angeles, who sketches them on the linen. Mrs. Winters has been working with Mr. Small for about six years.

Although the talented artist did work on commissions for Sloane's Beverly Hills, for about three years, she has never really sold any of her works except those she did especially for others. Most she makes for friends and family members and is most proud of the huge work hanging in Ketchum. The abstract is four by six feet and weighs 15 pounds unframed. It is the second abstract attempted by the artist and represents either one, two or three trees. The piece, as well as others she has done, reflects her love of working with colors.

This particular piece took one year to transfer the pattern onto the linen, and another year and a half to do the sewing. Some 765 hours of sewing were counted altogether. It also represents about $150 in yarns and was hung in 1964.

The textured areas of the tapestry represent punch work which is done on the back side, while the recessed areas are embroidery, done on the right side, making it a difficult task to keep the pattern straight while sewing. The various stitches add depth with the texture.

With the piece, as with all she has done, Mrs. Winters keeps left over yarns of the same dye lots in case of needed repairs. To date, however, none of her work has needed repair. The yarns at Ketchum are stored in an antique French hotel letter box of glass to get the same light exposure as those on the tapestry.

Because of her recognized unique talent, Mrs. Winters has been asked to give lessons locally but finds the process frustrating as so often problems develop with the student while she is home in Los Angeles.

The Winters have spent most vacations in the Ketchum area since the summer of 1960. They have a daughter, Sherry, 22, and a son, John M, who also enjoys the area. Mr. Winters is a financial consultant for major corporations.

Times-News Correspondent
FILER — Winning a prize at the Twin Falls County Fair for 4-H cooking and sewing projects does not always end there as many prize winners are also eligible for the special awards which are given in nearly every class of 4-H club work.

Awards of cash scholarships, gift certificates and trophies are made available by many merchants as well as individuals and organizations who are glad to show their interest in the young generation and its work.

Members who have cooking projects may compete for three place scholarships in "Snacks and More" presented by the Idaho First National Bank, Buhl, with fourth and fifth place scholarships to be awarded by the Twin Falls Bank and Trust, Twin Falls.

Scholarships in five places will be awarded "Beginning Meal Planning" from the Twin Falls Bank and Trust. Two scholarships for "Accent on Vegetables" will be awarded by Van's Department Store, and a third place scholarship, Twin Falls Bank and Trust.

Seminars To End Conclave

SUN VALLEY — A series of business seminars will conclude the three day conclave of the Rocky Mountain Regional Sales Conference of the Investors Diversified Services Wednesday morning here, with several speakers scheduled.

The conference got under way with business sessions Monday. On the agenda for Wednesday's seminars are Dick Ingram, Billings, Montana, who will discuss balanced selling; Carmen Ferullo, Lubbock, Texas, fund services; Jim Navone, Seattle North, IAP; Dan Groshong, Denver, Investors Syndicate of America; Roger Meyer, Casper, Wyo., Investors Syndicate Life Insurance; Doug Stubbes, regional group specialist; ISL group insurance; Frank Brown, Seattle South, qualified plan selling; Greg Sherman, Yakima, Wash., prospecting; and William Lundquist, Spokane, variable annuities.

Tuesday, welcoming remarks were given to the 400 delegates and wives attending by John Kelly, Rocky Mountain Regional vice president, sales; Stuart Silloway, president and chief executive officer, Minneapolis; Bill Doyle, vice president, public relations; Tom Reeves, senior vice president, investment operations; and William Boscow, senior vice president, marketing.

Red Cross Helpers Needed

RUPERT — Volunteers to help in a fund drive to reactivate the Minidoka County Red Cross chapter are needed, Bill Whitton, chapter chairman announced Tuesday.

He said the fund drive, now being organized, will continue through Sept. 30. No goal has been announced as yet, but he urged all persons willing to help with solicitations to call 436-6197 or to contact his home, 710 South D. St., Rupert.

It is hoped, the chairman said, the drive will make it possible to build up a chapter organization which can continue regular Red Cross services in the local area. He said the chapter is deeply in debt at this time to the national headquarters for continuing many essential programs at national expense while the local chapter has been inactive during the past three years.

The local chapter is responsible for keeping such programs as first aid, home nursing, water safety and disaster relief available to the residents of the county. Most important of all, he said, the blood program has been carried on to supply the local hospital and area residents but must have the support of a local chapter.

Jones claimed as many as 600 to 800 families were on strike last week prior to the moratorium, approved Thursday night when some 400 workers voted to seek a collective bargaining election to determine whether crew leaders or the UPFWU would represent them in future dealings with the growers.

Caldwell labor camp officials said Monday that at least some of the workers who had been on strike returned to the fields as early as Friday. The Canyon County sheriff's office received no reports of picketing.

Mrs. Oscar Guerrero, wife of one of the strike leaders, said Jones had gone to Portland to talk to government officials about farm workers' strikes in Oregon.

Mrs. Guerrero also said an "influential person in the community" had contacted Jones to arrange negotiations. She said the person — whom she declined to identify — allegedly told Jones five growers in Idaho and two in Oregon "are seeking to get other growers organized to start talks."

Meets Tuesday

RICHFIELD — The Richfield City board will meet Tuesday evening Sept. 8, instead of Monday, Sept. 7 which is Labor Day.

Heroin Use High In Report

COEUR D'ALENE (UPI) — The use of heroin among Idaho students was highest among boys in grades 9-11 and in girls in grades 7-9 a state board of education survey taken last spring showed, according to a state education official Monday.

Dr. Roy Truby, administrative assistant to the State Department of Education, told Coeur d'Alene School District teachers this was one of the findings of a survey of some 6,400 students questioned on the same hour of the same day on use of alcohol, tobacco, marijuana, methadone, heroin and other drugs.

Formal results of the survey are expected to be announced later by Gov. Don Samuelson's office, but Truby said Monday the questionnaires answered showed "alcohol was the number one drug used by students, followed by tobacco, marijuana, glue, barbituates and heroin."

"That surprised me a bit," Truby said. "I would have expected tobacco to head the list."

The survey, he said, showed a 3-2 ratio, with males using more drugs than females, with the exception of barbituates. "Here we found almost a one to one ratio," Truby said.

He told the teachers who were meeting prior to the start of classes Tuesday, "We do have a problem," but emphasized that the problem was neither as great, nor as minor as various groups had made it out to be.

10 Classes Scheduled At Burley

Ketchum Sets Zoning Meet

BY LIZ BOLTON
Times-News Correspondent
KETCHUM — A heated discussion at the Ketchum city council meeting here Monday night resulted in the denial of a request for a zoning variance, but another public hearing has been set for 7 p.m. today.

Lloyd Walker, Twin Falls attorney representing the Resort Development Corp., asked the council to allow the firm to build 10 more units than originally approved in the Willowood Minidoka Development on Cottonwood Street in Ketchum.

The added floor space would not comply with the required percentage of land area, as prescribed by the tourist zoning ordinance.

Mr. Walker explained that because of the zoning ordinance wording, if the developers would place the hallways and stairwells on the outside of the building the floor space would comply with the law, but the buildings would not be pleasing architecturally.

Three written protests were read and two oral protests given from local taxpayers, most contending that the increased traffic load on the area during peak tourist-season would create a major problem.

Councilman Vern McClellan noted that since the zoning ordinance had been enacted, it should not be changed every time someone wanted to violate it. The council denied the variance, by a vote of three to one, with Royce Asher approving the proposal, and Mr. McClellan, Ben Jewell and Jerry Sidwell voting against.

Mr. Walker then petitioned the council to reopen the hearing during a special meeting set for 7 p.m. tonight, contending the council at its last meeting had granted a zoning variance to L'Herisson's Furniture and claimed it was "done on whim."

At tonight's meeting, councilmen will take action on a public hearing to change the zoning classification of the Sprenger Land Investment property north of the Ketchum Grade school from agricultural-forest to general residential. The hearing was conducted Monday night with no protests registered.

The city planning and zoning commission recommended the change to protect the school. In other action Monday night, councilmen:

— Agreed to rescind a show cause order issued to Mary Pichon for 25 days regarding reconstruction of a burned out trailer home on her property. — Changed the speed limit on Warm Springs Road from 35 to 25 miles per hour.

— Denied payment to the Tony Russell Construction Co. and J.U.B. Engineers, until the two firms meet to determine when road repair will be done through-out the city following the sewer line installation.

— Requested all Ketchum property owners to file a written notice of damage from sewer line installation with the city office.

Official Fired

BY LINDY HIGH
BOISE (UPI) — Commission of Agriculture Stanley I. Trenhale formally dismissed Dr. C.H. Kennedy as chief of mobile unit inspection Monday and Kennedy said he would file for a hearing before the State Personnel Commission.

It was the second time Trenhale had fired Kennedy from the department. In April, 1967, Trenhale relieved Kennedy of his duties as chief state meat inspector, but Kennedy won reinstatement through the courts and the personnel commission.

In July of 1969, Kennedy was suspended for seven days for absence from the office without permission after he attended the State Veterinarians Convention at Coeur d'Alene and in July, 1970, Kennedy was again suspended for five days after he was absent from his office.

The dismissal, effective at 3 p.m. Monday, came about after Dr. W.S. Horne, federal director of state meat inspection, notified Kennedy he was "engaging in conduct that is detrimental to the good of the Department of Agriculture and the State of Idaho."

Kennedy was given until 12 noon Monday to reply to the charges to Trenhale's satisfaction, but Trenhale told Kennedy late Monday afternoon the answers "in general are unclear. Your explanation of your absence without leave for the dates of Aug. 4, Aug. 17 and Aug. 20, 1970, is completely unsatisfactory."

Kennedy said he was sick on Aug. 4, but had telephoned the Department of Agriculture to explain his absence. On Aug. 17, Kennedy said, both he and Trenhale were in Fourth District Court from 2:55 p.m. to 5 p.m. for the hearing on the contempt of court suit filed by Kennedy against Trenhale.

Kennedy said he had an appointment with a doctor in Caldwell on Aug. 20, but said he had a letter "from the commissioner saying we do not have to take time off for doctors appointments so long as the privilege is not abused."

Kennedy said his dismissal was "trumped up, just like the first deal was. Of course he (Trenhale) had his tape recorder running while I was in there and he had Dr. Horne there."

RUPERT — Country and western music fans will have an opportunity to enjoy local area talent in a special program Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in conjunction with the Minidoka County fair program. There will be an admission charge but family rates are offered.

Cowboys Stay In Pennant Fight, Top Ogden By 9-5

OGDEN (UPI) — The Magic Valley Cowboys put a crimp in Ogden's Pioneer League pennant plans here Monday night by turning back the Dodgers 9-5. With the score deadlocked at four runs apiece going into the sixth inning, Magic Valley scored three runs in the sixth and added two more in the seventh to claim the crucial victory.

Cowboy left-hander Glen Landesberg went all the way scattering nine hits while striking out seven and walking five. Dodger ace Bruce Ralble suffered the defeat.

Ogden opened the scoring with three runs in the first inning on a double by Tom Jenkins, a single by Elmer Mixon, a double by Jim Rich and a run-scoring ground out by

Ashe, Americans Finish 5-0 Davis Cup Sweep Of Germans

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Arthur Ashe rallied from a two-set deficit to defeat Christian Kuhnke, 6-8, 10-12, 9-7, 6-4 in a record three hours and 19 minutes Monday to clinax defending champion United States' 5-0 sweep of West Germany in the Davis Cup Challenge round.

Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Texas, won his second match of the championship round earlier Monday when he defeated Wilhelm Bungert 6-4, 6-4, 7-5 to cap a brilliant initial appearance in Davis Cup play.

Ashe, of Gum Springs, Va., serviced match point in the 18th game of the four set by meeting Kuhnke's lob with an overhead slam. America's second-ranked player seemed to get stronger as the match progressed, finishing the 88 games against the 31-year-old Cologne attorney without a trace of fatigue. The marathon match was the longest singles encounter in Davis Cup history.

Kuhnke was the only German to post a winning set in the challenge round. He had 13 service aces against nine double faults, while Ashe showed his superiority with 18 aces against eight double faults.

The U.S. grabbed a 2-0 lead Saturday as Ashe led off the challenge round with a straight set 6-2, 10-8, 6-2 victory over Bungert and Richey followed with a 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 decision over Kuhnke.

Stan Smith and Bob Lutz, a pair of Californians, clinched the title Sunday with a 6-3, 7-5, 6-4 doubles victory over Bungert and Kuhnke as the U.S. took an unbeatable 3-0 lead.

"I felt they were going to try harder after they lost the cup," Richey said. The young Texan added that he beat Bungert Monday with consistent serving and aggressive play at the net.

Wynn Wants Out, Club Has No Intentions Of Trading

HOUSTON (UPI) — General Manager H.B. "Spec" Richardson said Monday he had no intention of trading Houston Astro outfielder Jim Wynn despite the "Toy Cannon's" declaration that he "wants out of here."

Richardson also expressed surprise at the seven-year veteran's claims that all he had ever gotten from Richardson and manager Harry Walker was "a bunch of static." He said he had had very little contact with Wynn since contract time.

Wynn was reported by United Press International two weeks ago as highly desirous of being

Mets Coast Past St. Louis 11-5

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Two-run singles by Donn Clendenon and Art Shamsky helped build a 6-0 lead and Cleon Jones then singled in two insurance runs in the seventh inning Monday night as the New York Mets went on to an 11-5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The third place Mets, who lost six of their last seven games, moved to within 1 1/2 games of idle Pittsburgh in the National League East with the victory that snapped St. Louis' four-game winning streak. Idle Chicago is one game behind Pittsburgh.

The Mets, who've been blowing leads lately, almost saw their 6-0 lead evaporate in the sixth when Joe Torre rocked starter Jerry Koosman for a three-run homer and Ted Simmons added a two-run homer to narrow the deficit to 6-5.

But Tug McGraw, who went 2-3 in innings, and Ron Taylor, who got the final out, blanked the Cards over the final three innings while the Mets were scoring five runs to make it a rout. McGraw doubled in the 10th run in the ninth and scored himself on a balk.

The Mets collected 12 hits with Tommie Agee getting three and Jones and Clendenon adding two each.

Skipper To Lodge Complaints

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sir Frank Packer, head of the Australian syndicate which owns Gretel II, the Australian challenger in the America's Cup Yacht race, took issue Monday with the statements of his counterpart Baron Marcel Bich, president of the French America's Cup Association.

In regard to Bich's statements that the International Committee "dishonored" him and the French yacht "by allowing the race between the French entry and Gretel II to continue in a fog too thick to allow the yachts to find the marks normally," Packer defended the committee's decision.

"The International Committee, which was appointed by the Royal Sydney Yacht Club to conduct the elimination trials, ran everything perfectly," Packer said. "They are to be congratulated."

Packer said that he will issue two protests of his own to the International Yacht Racing Union in regard to the measurement and construction requirements of the American defender, Intrepid.

"We feel we have a pretty good case to say that if you link the end of the boat to the rudder by means of strips which are not measured you get a longer water line which isn't measured," Packer said.

"Also, you must have a lavatory section totally enclosed with the cabin construction covering 9 of a meter. A mere curtain such as the Intrepid had does not constitute cabin construction," Packer added.

traded to the Chicago Cubs. After getting four-for-four, including a pair of two-run homers, a brace of singles and a walk that drove in five runs in Sunday's 9-5 victory over the New York Mets, Wynn reiterated his unhappiness.

"Nothing has changed for me," he said. "I still want to be traded. That's it in a nutshell. I want out of here."

Although Wynn still would like to go to the Cubs because he likes to hit at Wrigley Field, he said he also had heard that the New York Mets, "if they don't win the pennant this year, want me...that they'll make a lot of changes if they don't win it."

Wynn also said he had heard that other teams were interested in him and that it might be "that I would go to the American League so I couldn't come back and hurt the Astros."

This seemed to be all news to Richardson.

"I haven't talked to him about trading him," Richardson said. "I have no intention of trading him."

There were some other Wynn quotes which left Richardson puzzled.

"Look," said Wynn, "all I've ever gotten from Spec and Harry (Walker) is a bunch of static. They try to push you under their thumb every time you turn around. Some guys take it, I don't."

"I don't like it...not one bit. If they want to impress someone with their authority, they can do it to someone else, not me."

Richardson said the only trouble he had had with Wynn was "at contract time last spring."

Lakers Get Fred Hetzel

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The Milwaukee Bucks were told Monday they did not pick up Fred Hetzel on waivers after all.

The Bucks had announced Saturday that Hetzel had been claimed on waivers from the Portland Trail Blazers, who had obtained the much-traveled forward in the expansion draft from the Philadelphia 76ers.

But the National Basketball Association office in New York told Bucks' President Ray Patterson Monday that the Milwaukee claim has been superseded by a claim by the Los Angeles Lakers.

The deadline for waivers was 4 p.m. last Friday and the NBA office said it received a telegram claiming Hetzel Monday. The telegram, the office said, was sent at 2:33 p.m. last Friday.

Decision Not Made On Cannon

OAKLAND (UPI) — The Oakland Raiders said Monday night no final decision has been made on the status of tight end Billy Cannon, one of the original American Football League superstars who was dropped from the club during the weekend.

Cannon's brother said the onetime Louisiana State All-American had been asked to resign from the club last week and had refused.

The Raiders issued a terse statement and declined to answer any questions about the move.

"Billy Cannon, as announced earlier, is no longer with the Oakland Raiders," a spokesman said. "No final determination has been made on his status. Once that has been done, it will be announced by the Raiders."

Raider coach John Madden and general manager Al Davis had said Sunday they would reveal the full story Monday.

In Baton Rouge, La., Harvey Cannon said the Raiders asked his brother to resign Thursday, but Billy Cannon told the club he would prefer that it declare him a free agent.

Casper Holds Money Lead

NEW YORK (UPI) — Billy Casper, winner of $4,722 in the Dow Jones Open and $50 in its pro-arn prelude, boosted his earnings this year to $144,468 to continue as golf's leading money winner. It was announced Monday by the PGA Tournament Players Division.

Bruce Crampton, who tied for 10th in the Dow Jones, pro golfer's richest tournament, maintained his lead in the weekly point race with 1,275.6.

Lee Trevino is second with 1,208.6. Points are awarded on the basis of tournament finishes, and will help determine playing privileges in 1971.

Aging Stars Get Top Seeding In U.S. Open Meet

NEW YORK (UPI)—It may be the last stand for the over-30 tennis stars, but the Rod Lavers, Ken Rosewall, Roy Emersons and the others on the side of the generation gap will be hard to shove out of the U.S. Open Championships starting tomorrow at Forest Hills.

Laver, the defending champion, has read many times this year that his days are numbered. He lost a pair of matches to the incredible Pancho Gonzalez, and he fell to the erratic Roger Taylor in the fourth round of Wimbledon.

beating Rod at Boston in the pro tournament, Tony grinned about his victory in Dublin. "Rod let me win the little ones," he said, for he had never notched a truly major win over Laver before the Chestnut Hill final.

Vandals Drill For Air Force

MOSCOW (UPI)—Preparations began here Monday for the University of Idaho's season opener Sept. 12 against the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., with the Vandals studying various formations used by the Falcons.

While reading the premature reports of his tennis demise, the 32-year-old red-head glanced down every now and then to count the money. At the moment, it amounts to more than $140,000 this year. In 1969 it took a Grand Slam of Australia, France, Wimbledon and Forest Hills for him to scrounge up $123,000 for the entire year.

Red Sox Rally By Tigers 4-2

BOSTON (UPI)—Winning pitcher Ray Culp singled in the deciding run in the sixth inning to snap a 2-2 deadlock and start a two-run rally Monday night as the Boston Red Sox beat the Detroit Tigers, 4-2.

As for Emerson, let's face it. At 33, the greatest Australian player ever, according to his amateur record, is just not going to make it as a pro. He can't win anything, only money, just about $80,000 this year.

Landry Has 2 TD Passes, Lions Top Eagles By 31-7

DETROIT (UPI)—Quarterback Greg Landry threw touchdown passes of 29 and 62 yards Monday night and surprised himself with a 33-yard scoring run in leading the Detroit Lions to a 31-7 National Football League exhibition romp over the Philadelphia Eagles.

EAGLES' RUNNING BACK Lee Bougress (48) tries a hole in the Detroit line but was stopped for no gain during the first half of the Lions-Philadelphia exhibition game Monday night. Eagle back Cyril Pinder (right) tries to make a hole for the rookie. The surprising Lions, behind the quarterbacking of Greg Landry, hurled the Eagles 31-7 to stay among the leaders in pro exhibition games. (UPI)

Chuck Hughes, just obtained by Detroit from Philadelphia, snatched a 62-yard scoring pass from Landry as the Lions led 17-0 at halftime. Landry, with a fine block from Sanders, turned a broken pass play into his 33-yard touchdown run midway through the third period.

Reggie Smith, who had two of Boston's eight hits off Tiger loser Mickey Lolich, singled in an insurance run to give Culp his 14th win against 12 losses.

These three old timers are seeded first, third and fifth for the American event. The second and fourth slots go to the Young Turks, if there are Turks in Australia.

The Americans, sparked by Jim McDaniel's 23 points and Ken Davis' 22, outclassed Brazil in the first half then kept the Brazilians at bay for an 85-85 victory. The Soviets, playing in a separate semifinal group, beat Yugoslavia 89-62.

Buccaneers Of ABA Set Memphis Move

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The general manager of the New Orleans Buccaneers announced Monday an agreement had been reached to sell the American Basketball Association team to P.L. Blake of Greenwood, Miss., and to move the franchise to Memphis, Tenn.

Blake is a 34-year-old real estate man, a former Mississippi State football player and a former Canadian League professional football player.

Team coach Babe McCarthy will move to Memphis with the team, Stern said. "We have turned over the complete ownership to the new owners," he added.

The Buccaneers have been losing money since their establishment in New Orleans three years ago and seldom drew crowds of more than 3,000, even when they were leading their division.

The general manager declined to give financial details of the sale, but said "We didn't get our entire investment back. The present owners are taking a loss."

But Stern said he understood that all such games are being cancelled, and all games will be played in Memphis this season. "They want to break clean of the old ownership and location," he said.

Stern said the New Orleans owners could not have continued the operation of the franchise without additional financing. He said tentative plans had called for operating the team on a Louisiana-wide basis with 10 games to be played in Alexandria.

No Way to Bid NT Grand Slam

or hearts a diamond lead makes everything easy. The king of diamonds will drop under the ace if East doesn't play it at trick one and you don't have any problem in the club suit. Not only is the queen where you want it to be but it falls on the second lead.

Some time ago we asked our readers to send us hands for the column if they found one that seemed suitable. Floyd Miller of London, Ontario, has taken us at our word.

He writes in part: "I opened with a two no-trump in a recent duplicate game. My partner raised me to game and I proceeded to take all 13 tricks with 23 points opposite five points and only one live-card suit to help me along. Most players got to four hearts and also made seven but as no one got to any slam my score was a tie for top. I wonder if many experts would have reached a slam with these cards?"

The hand is interesting indeed and does show how the luck of finding the enemy cards just where you want them can bring home a lot of tricks.

Playing at either no-trump

There is a slight trap with this hand. Suppose you play out three rounds of clubs before you release your second diamond. You will have made it impossible to get to dummy to cash the diamond jack if you have retained the seven or eight of clubs in your own hand.

As for experts getting to six. Some might. Experts do strange things on occasion but if they are going to get to six someone will have overbid along the way. The no-trump and heart slams depend on a lot of luck. Even the club slam which has a slightly better chance of making is nothing to write home to mother about.

STATISTICS SHOW a wife cooks 40 meals on the average for her husband for each restaurant meal he treats her to. Is that trickier? ... AM-NOW ADVISED a baseball will fly farther and faster through dry air than through humid air. Definitely. ... A MATRIMONIAL COUNSELOR of lengthy experience contends these three men most apt to divorce their wives are the prizefighter, the actor and the bartender.

THE PERFECT GIRL - Now some old boy has averaged out the vital statistics of all the Miss-America winners. To come up with a picture of the perfect girl. Quite a beauty, no doubt. She is a blue-eyed, brown-haired young lady, aged 19 years 2 months. She comes either from Philadelphia or Los Angeles. And she stands 5-foot-6, weighs 123 pounds, and tapes measures 34-24-35 1/2. How do you stack up against such an imaginary female, young lady? Satisfactorily, I trust.

OPEN QUESTION - Among dogs, why is it the male is harder to housebreak than the female?

IF A GIRL chooses brave bright colors in her clothing, she's apt to be insecure. Such is the contention of a Penn-State researcher named Beverly S. Cave. She says her tests among coeds there indicate the flashier the clothing, the less confident the girl. ... IT WAS CALIFORNIA, as all the world knows, where the gold-rushers went with such abandon. But in each of the last 20 years, South Dakota has turned out more gold than any other state. And who is rushing there? Nobody. I don't get it.

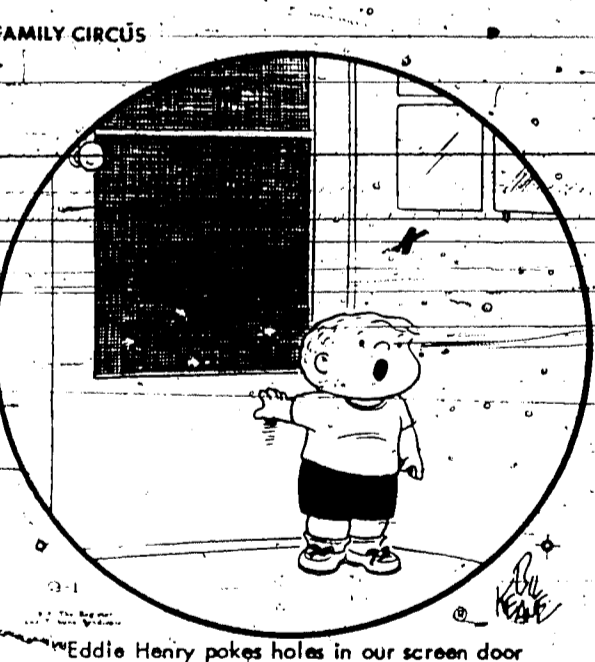

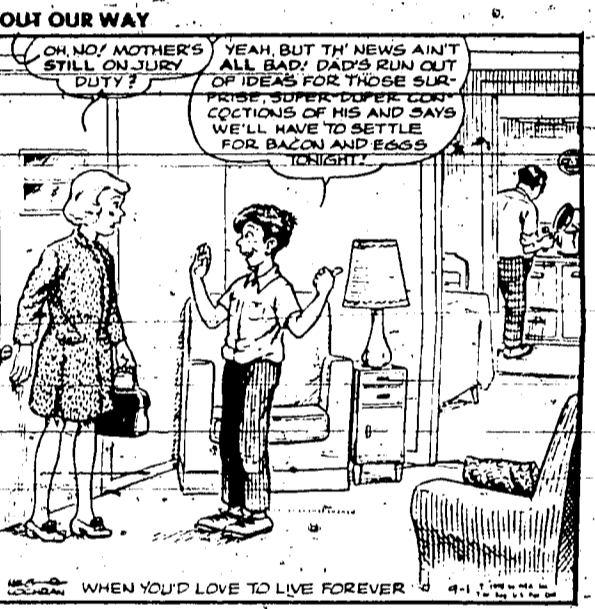

CUSTOMER SERVICE - Q. "Which has the better sense of humor, men or women?" A. Men, certainly. That's generally accepted. Women, however, have the better sense of sentiment. Which is almost as important. But not quite.

CONSIDER THIS - Understand the science boys have found out air pollution throws a significant batch of ammonia and nitrogen onto the soil. These fertilize. They boost crop yields. Remember that, sir. If you ever decide to become a gentleman farmer, better get yourself a little place downwind of town.

NOTE IT CLAIMED the most widespread use of silver is in coins. That's wrong. It's in photographic film. ... AS TO THAT CITIZEN who has personally viewed the most U.S. Presidents, must be Seattle's M.R. Morley who has seen 11. ... OUR LOVE AND WAR MAN reports the chances now are only 1 in 19 that a bride ever will run home to her mother.

SOFT DRINK SALES go up as the tapwater gets pollutier and pollutier. Did you realize the bottlers now are turning out twice as much pop as they produced 10 years ago? ... NOW I KNOW WHY you don't hear much about that tactful, soft-spoken Mr. Marlon Brando anymore. He's the observer who said, "Emphasizing a woman's hips is like putting falsies on a cow."

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used in PASS IT ON wherever possible. Please address your letters to L.M. Boyd, P.O. Box 90068, Seattle, Wash. 98199.

Amazing appliance puts a week's worth of trash in neat little bag

Whirlpool TRASH MASHER* COMPACTOR

Fights pollution on the home front. Takes little space and so easy to use. Everytime you toss cans, bones, bottles or paper into the drawer just close it, push a button and the trash is compacted to 1/4 it's size. Takes the equivalent of three 20-gallon cans full of trash. (That's as much junk as the average family tosses away each week). A key lock keeps kids from tinkering with it. The tough bag can be taped so litter won't blow. No lid for dogs to pry off. And, plastic-lined bag is weatherproof. MODEL SVC-80

$239<sup>95</sup>

Swing-out panel on drawer makes bag removal more convenient. Lets you slide bag out instead of lifting straight up. Entire drawer removes for easy cleaning.

Chemical deodorizer automatically sprays a measured amount on each load of trash and garbage when drawer is closed to help control odor. Spray can is replaceable.

Can be built in cabinets later if you wish. Plugs into ordinary household current. Choice of edged avocado, edged copper or white. Measures 15" wide.
