Quake toll climbing

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Rescue workers pulled more bodies from the twisted wreckage of a veterans hospital today and carefully lifted huge pieces of concrete in hopes of finding others alive as the toll of dead in Tuesday's earthquake rose to 43.

Aftershocks still rumbled across the Los Angeles area intermittently more than 24 hours after the major quake and armed police kept 120,000 persons from their homes in a section below a cracked dam lest another heavy tremor unleash more than 3 billion gallons of water.

Twenty six of the victims were crushed in "three floors of compressed concrete" at the San Fernando Veterans Hospital. Fifteen patients and workers were still missing. The body of a nurse at her station could be seen deep in the debris.

One man was brought out alive just before dawn, one of 36 who lived through the catastrophe at the hospital.

The number injured was placed at nearly 1,000.

Los Angeles County Engineer John A. Lambie estimated damage "in the billions of dollars."

"This was an unusual earthquake in that there was tremendous damage to small homes near the epicenter," Lambie said. "Since these people have left their homes, we didn't consider it an emergency to go and check the SMALL BUILDING, erected to provide additional living space for the Langdon family, was the only part of the old L.L. Langdon warehouse salvaged prior to a fire Tuesday, which was set to clear the site of the landmark. In the background, rubble from the warehouse building burns.

TWIN FALLS — A landmark in Twin Falls and the headquarters of a long-time community business establishment has been erased from the town's industrial area.

The old L.L. Langdon warehouse, which in its 36 years of operation by the late Mr. Langdon and his widow, Marian Langdon, handled thousands of pelts and hides and several million pounds of wool, was burned under direction of the city fire and building inspection departments Tuesday.

Mrs. Langdon said while she realized the warehouse and Junk yard she operated on the site had outgrown the community's ecological standards, she had mixed emotions about seeing the old building torn down and burned.

The Langdons purchased the building during the depression years and moved it to the corner of Second Street and Fourth Avenue West. It had been owned by George Carrico and was originally located on Shoshone Street and Fourth Avenue West. When purchased, the wooden structure with store front design carried the lettering of a transfer company on the side.

Mrs. Langdon said the building was one of the oldest

Albion site use slated

ALBION — The old college campus at Albion, which has stood empty for nearly two years, will soon take on new life.

A writing workshop is scheduled to be held there this summer by a Salt Lake City-based festival arts group which has signed a 99-year lease with the city of Albion for use of the campus facilities.

Albion Mayor Odeen Redman said the city council has negotiated for the past year with the Oregon Trail Festival of Arts group and the lease has recently been finalized.

The city purchased the campus, which had housed three different colleges throughout the years, after Magic Valley Christian College moved to Baker, Ore., in September, 1969. That church-related junior college is now defunct.

Redman said he has been told by Lynn Teeples, Salt Lake City, that the arts group plans to conduct a writing course on campus this summer and expects to have a full year's curriculum of drama, writing and music beginning in 1972.

Clinton F. Larson, Salt Lake City, will be a permanent resident instructor. He is the author of some 15 books, according to Teeples, who indicated there will be four visiting faculty members who are writers and 12 guest consultant writers available on call.

Gooding facilities viewed

BOISE (Special to the Times-News) — The Joint Finance Appropriations Committee traveled to Gooding today to try to decide what to do about the vacant tuberculosis hospital building at Gooding and investigate the need for a new building at the state school for the deaf and blind.

Sen. Don Fredericksen, D-Gooding, a member of the Senate Finance Committee, said the Idaho Land Department has requested about $40,000 a year to maintain the vacant TB hospital buildings.

"It's too good a building to just let go to pieces," Sen. Fredericksen said. "But we don't seem to be able to sell it."

Sen. Fredericksen said one possible use is as a state office building. "We're renting a lot of space here in Boise," he said. "Some state offices could well move into the Gooding building," he added.

Quake victims

The Albion mayor said the city of Albion has no control over the library at the former college. The books are property of the state and under jurisdiction of the Idaho State Land Board.

Teeples reportedly is negotiating with the land board to lease the library, but D.F. Engelking, state superintendent of public instruction, told the land board several rare books are included in the collection at the library and might better serve the state if they were located in the state library at Boise.

Senator sees judicial transfer bill passing

BOISE (Special to the Times-News) — Sen. Don Fredericksen, D-Gooding, told the Times-News today there is a good chance he can succeed in removing one of the two district judges from Twin Falls to Jerome County.

Sen. Fredericksen has successfully steered a bill through the Senate Judiciary and Rules Committee which would place a Fifth District Judge in Jerome, and give Twin Falls County one instead of two, as now provided by state law.

The Judiciary and Rules Committee forwarded the bill with a "do pass" recommendation.

"Jerome County feels it was left out," Fredericksen said. "It isn't very far apart in miles," he said; "but the people of Jerome County want it."

He said the main complaint voiced by Jerome residents is that it is often difficult to obtain information on court proceedings "just because they're not there." He said additional costs of housing the

Water bill seen court test base

BOISE (UPI) — A bill to permit the state to appropriate spring water in the Hagerman Valley may serve as the vehicle for a constitutional test of the state's right to appropriate water for the ill-defined area of "public use."

R. Keith Higginson, director of the Idaho Department of Water Administration, told the House Resources and Conservation Committee Tuesday night the bill could serve as a "very good" choice for a test case on three constitutional issues.

Issues to be defined, he said, include the state's right to appropriate water, whether a state agency can make the appropriation, and whether the appropriation can be for public use.

Rep. Vernon Ravenscroft, B-Tuttle, a sponsor of the measure, House Bill 69, said after the meeting the bill apparently is gaining strength because of strong constitutional challenges made to it by opponents.

He said the "unusual" situation may see both the bill's supporters and persons desiring only the clear-cut constitutional test backing the legislation.

Tremors continue

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dozens of aftershocks, some of them powerful enough to sway Los Angeles' tall buildings and shake up already jittery homeowners, followed Tuesday's major earthquake.

Scientists said they would go on for several months.

The major tremor of the quake occurred at 5:59 a.m. PST Tuesday, followed by additional detectable tremors until 6:16 a.m.

Coroner's jury rules road death accidental

TWIN FALLS — A six-member coroner's jury returned a verdict late Tuesday that 18-year-old Marie Adamson, who died in a car-pedestrian accident Jan. 30, died by accidental means.

Coroner Cloyce Edwards, who presided at the closed inquest, said the death definitely was not a suicide, but that the jury ruled the girl died by her own doing. He said Miss Adamson was dead in one ear and partially dead in the other ear, and she likely did not hear the car approaching her on Highway 74 south of Twin Falls.

The jury also ruled there was no excessive speed involved on the part of the driver of the car, which struck Miss Adamson. Harold Henry Daniels, Ogden, Utah, driver of the car, was one of those who testified Tuesday.

Edwards said other young people who were at a party from which Miss Adamson disappeared just prior to the accident, also testified. He said Miss Adamson had often been known to leave gatherings because the noise bothered her.

Jurors were Ruth Moore, Rose Meier, Elsa Vaughn, Dorothy Howe, Gilbert Smith and Greg Carlson.

The inquest began at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday and the jury returned with the verdict at 11:15 p.m.

Some to close, some to stay open Monday

By LEE TREMAINE
Times-News Staff Writer
TWIN FALLS — Monday, Feb. 15, is Washington's Birthday. So says Uncle Sam and Gov. Cecil Andrus.

"No!" says the city of Buhl. "Not so!" say Filler and Hollister school districts.

"Tis too!" says the post office and the Twin Falls School District, and most city and county officials.

"Not for us!" decides D.F. Engelking, Idaho Superintendent of Public Instruction. Engelking told Twin Falls School Superintendent Dr. Ernest H. Ragland on Monday that the proclamation by Gov. Andrus "was not intended to apply to the schools."

Dr. Ragland said Washington's Birthday has always been an optional holiday with school districts, who could observe it "if they have the day to spare," but need not if they would have trouble observing the state regulation ordering 180 days of school.

"We have enough trouble now meeting the 180-day requirement without adding another holiday," Dr. Ragland said.

The Filler and Hollister school districts disagree. Both plan — at least at present — to give their students Monday off.

However, no other Magic Valley school districts will shut down, according to a survey by Times-News correspondents. All districts checked plan to operate as usual, in line with the state-level decision.

The College of Southern Idaho, on the other hand, will give students and faculty a day off. All classes will be dismissed on Monday and all offices will be closed, according to Dr. James L. Taylor's office.

Post offices will close throughout the state. There will be no mail deliveries or window service, according to Lloyd Libert, officer in charge at the Twin Falls Post Office.

Most city and county offices — with at least one exception — will close, along with all banks. Buhl City Hall, however, will keep regular hours. Bernard Starr, Buhl city clerk, said "We've never closed on Washington's Birthday; and besides, Feb. 15 isn't Washington's Birthday!"

It's all part of a federal law passed back in '68 that sets up Monday holidays, to give Uncle Sam's hard-working crews a three-day weekend or two. Says the law: Washington's Birthday will come the third Monday of each February, no matter when George was born.

So this year, even though George's birthday anniversary comes on a Monday — Feb. 22 — Uncle Sam says he was born a week earlier.

Consumer protection act draws 4 changes

BOISE (UPI)—A joint legislative committee approved four changes in the proposed Idaho Consumer Protection Act late Tuesday after hearing testimony from interested parties.

The House Judiciary, Rules and Administration and Senate Judiciary and Rules Committees met to discuss the proposal but heard testimony from only three persons.

In the section outlining unfair methods of competition, the committee struck the lead sentence, which read "unfair methods of competition and unfair, false, misleading or deceptive acts or practices on the conduct of any trade or commerce are hereby declared unlawful."

J. Tim Brennan, executive director, Idaho Retailers Association, pointed out there are 11 enumerated unlawful acts in the proposal and a "catch-all" phrase at the end.

Inclusion of the sentence, he said, was "really vague, pretty general, and all-encompassing."

Brennan, who said the retailers approved of the act, added he felt consumer-merchant relationships in Idaho were excellent.

"If a retailer abuses a customer in Blackfoot or Boise the consumer just doesn't go back and tell his friends."

However, the committee decided to keep the "catch-all" phrase, which outlaws "engaging in any act or practice which is unfair or deceptive to the consumer."

Rep. Patricia McDermott, D-

Pocatello, said to eliminate the phrase would be to "take the heart out of the act."

She said the bill was not directed against the legitimate merchant, but against the "unscrupulous merchant and he's going to figure out what he can do. (Under the enumerated offenses) before the ink is dried on the bill."

The committee agreed to insert a phrase at the request of Dick Weston, representing the Life Insurance Association of America, which would place under the supervision of the commissioner of insurance the determination of unfair methods of competition or deceptive practices in the business of insurance.

Weston said the exemption would not only eliminate "unnecessary duplicative regulation" over the insurance business, but would also avoid "inevitable confusing and conflicting adjudications between the insurance commissioner and the attorney general."

Richard Greener, assistant attorney general, recommended inclusion of language which allow the plaintiff $200 in damages or actual damages, whichever was greater, as a means of providing incentive to the consumer.

"However, while the committee agreed to the change, it also decided to allow the merchant attorneys fees if the court finds any action is spurious, a harassment and without grounds."

Water bill may bring test

The bill, introduced by Rep. Ravenscroft and Rep. Earl Greenawald, R-Jerome, provides for state appropriation of unappropriated water from Malad Canyon, Thousand Springs, Niagara Springs, Big Springs and Box Canyon.

In addition, the bill would authorize the Idaho Parks Board to appropriate water now used for electrical generation if at any time in the future the generation capacity is not utilized.

Norman Standal, part owner of Aquaculture Industries, which operates trout hatchery operations in the Thousand Springs area, told the committee that his firm favors state appropriation of the water. He said the appropriation would not only preserve the water for beneficial uses upstream but would also insure a constant flow of water at the outlet of the proposed state park development.

Jerry Gehrke, owner of Sand Springs Ranch in the Hagerman Valley, said that "The springs have been defiled; structures have been built and the natural environment has been wrecked. At least let's protect what we have left."

John Lemoyne, speaking for the Magic Valley Recreation Council, urged passage of the bill. He presented slides of the startlingly clear spring water cascading through the area.

A photograph showing the entrance of the crystal clear waters into the murky, polluted Snake River drew murmurs of awe from the legislators and audience of about 50.

Aldrich Bowler, director of the Antique Festival Theatre of Buhl, called the "monumental quality" of the Hagerman Valley area. He said the area should be preserved because of the great volcanic formations, unique geological springs, fossil beds and deep silted area which he said was one of the deepest in the world. He said the area should be set aside as a national monument.

Edward Shokal of Hagerman also favored the measure. He said "My right hand here can earn so many dollars. I wouldn't pay that many dollars to have it cut off. It's hard to place a value on natural things." Shokal said in explanation that economic development plans should not be permitted to destroy the scenic qualities of the area.

"You can generate dollars for the Idaho economy," he said; "but you cannot generate scenic and natural things."

Egypt condemns rejection

By United Press International

Egypt has condemned Israel for what it considers a "clear rejection" of an Egyptian proposal to reopen the Suez Canal if Israeli troops are withdrawn.

Israeli newspapers interpreted Israel's stand as a counter offer that left the next move up to Egypt.

Prime Minister Golda Meir told the Knesset (parliament) Tuesday that Israel would not pull its troops back from the canal without a peace treaty but would be willing to discuss reopening of the canal and mutual de-escalation of the military confrontation.

An Egyptian government spokesman in Cairo said "We consider the statement made by Mrs. Meir to the Knesset today as constituting a clear rejection of the Egyptian peace initiative."

An Israeli military spokesman in Jerusalem said Israeli troops killed six Arab guerrillas Tuesday night in a battle in the occupied Golan Heights near the cease-fire line with Syria. The military command also said Israeli security forces arrested 45 members of a guerrilla network on the occupied Jordanian west bank who carried out a rocket shelling of Jerusalem and at least 10 other attacks.

Israel and Egypt accused each other Tuesday of hindering the search for peace in the Middle East.

Mrs. Meir told the Knesset that Egypt's limitation of 30 days on the present cease-fire

"is equivalent to a threat to renew the war on March 7, 1971."

She said this meant continuing the peace talks under U.N. mediator Gunnar V. Jarring "in an eve-of-war atmosphere, in the shadow of an ultimatum and on the basis of the unrealistic claim that agreement can be reached on such a complex subject in such a brief period."

An Egyptian government spokesman charged "Mrs. Meir has talked out of peace and her desire for peace at a time when all Israel's acts are aimed against peace."

"Attempts at camouflage will never conceal the truth that Israel does not want to implement the Security Council resolution and does not want to give up occupied Arab territory."

The U.N. Security Council resolution was passed at the end of the 1967 Middle East War and calls for Israeli withdrawal from Arab territories occupied during the war.

Lanting offers solution to Andrus' tilted budget

BOISE (UPI)—House Speaker William J. Lanting, R-Hollister, said Tuesday that defeat of a key revenue proposal of the governor can be offset by eliminating his kindergarten proposal.

Thirty-seven Republicans and three Democrats Monday killed Gov. Cecil D. Andrus' proposal to divert $2.3 million in inventory tax phase-out monies to the general fund to balance his budget.

Andrus countered that they threw his budget out of balance and it now will be up to them to present an alternative.

"We just kind of relate this one to the kindergarten program," said Lanting, one of four Republicans who voted with 28 Democrats in favor of the diversion.

He noted that the governor's kindergarten proposal would cost $2.8 million within a half-million of what would have been gained for the general fund by the diversion.

"You just take kindergartens out of his program and you're right where he is," Lanting said. "I don't see where we've done great violence to his program."

"This is neither party nor caucus but that's my view—the way I interpret it," he said, adding he knows of no proposals to replace that part of Andrus' revenue program.

In the Senate Majority Leader Wayne Kidwell, R-Boise, indicated he found nothing odd about Andrus' challenge to the legislators to come up with a budget by the 45th day," Kidwell said. "I know of no budget situation in the past where the legislature has rubber-stamped the budget."

"This is what the separation of government is for," Kidwell added.

Sen. David Bivens, R-Boise, assistant majority leader, said he felt the legislature would be "remiss in our duties" not to examine all of Andrus' proposals.

Sen. James Ellsworth, R-

leadore, Senate president pro tem, said he felt it was "going to be up to the Finance-Appropriations Committee to fit a budget into the revenues we make available to them."

He said Andrus' revenue suggestions would be acted on "this week or hopefully by next week."

He said Andrus plan to take some $2.1 million from the permanent building fund and place it in the general fund would be acted on "just as soon as we can get to it."

Meantime, the House Resources and Conservation Committee voted to introduce measures to:

- Make mountain lions game instead of predatory animals and later amend the bill to put wolves in the same category.
- Permit sale of certain fish and game publications with the money to be deposited in the fish and game fund.
- Put 45 per cent of the fish and game fines and forfeitures in county school funds, distributing the money to counties having fish and game lands on a share proportional to the acreage.
- Monday, a House revenue and taxation subcommittee unveiled a plan for funding of public education, one which called for 75 per cent state support for basic instruction and 25 per cent local support for buildings, transportation and enrichment programs.

BILLIE THOMPSON

T.F. 'handy man' well paid

BOISE (Special to the Times-News) — One of the best-paid maintenance men in the state apparently works for the Twin Falls Child Development Center.

He will earn about $10,255 this year and is scheduled to receive $10,789 next year.

At least that is what the Idaho Health Department request forwarded to the legislature by the governor says.

The maintenance man is the only one listed at anywhere that salary in any of the six child development centers in the state. When asked about the salary, the head of the Idaho Department of Mental Retardation and Child Development, Dr. John Marks, told the Times-News "It must be a mistake."

After conferring with the director of the Twin Falls center, Paul Burnett, Dr. Marks quoted Burnett as saying that the maintenance man is not really so well paid. Burnett felt also it must be a mistake.

"I take no responsibility for that budget," Marks said. "It was sent in by the front office."

Marks said the maintenance man classification is the lowest of all maintenance workers. The next step up the ladder is a "maintenance craftsman," of which the Twin Falls center has one, whose salary is only $8,636 per year in the proposed budget.

Marks said the discrepancy might be explained if whoever calculated the budget had doubled the salary, assuming that two people would be employed.

However, the number of employees listed in the proposed salary schedule provides for only one of the fortunate maintenance men.

Sales manager named

KETCHUM — Mrs. Billie Thompson, who has been active in Sun Valley real estate operations since 1969, has been named sales manager for Sawtooth Realtors.

She came to the area from Hermosa Beach, Calif., and attended Pepperdine College and University of California at Los Angeles. She handled community relations for Orthopedic hospital in Los Angeles prior to moving to Idaho.

She has been affiliated with the Lorraine Curtis real estate office here. Currently secretary of the area Sawtooth Board of Realtors, Mrs. Thompson also is county chairman for the Easter Seal program.

Status of bills noted at meet

BURLEY — Bills in which Burley residents are interested are either in committee or being printed, Cassia County legislators told chamber of commerce members Monday.

They spoke with chamber members at the first telephone meeting of the legislative session held by the chamber, State Sen. Robert Saxvik, and Rep. J. Vard Churnburn and Rep. Ernest Hale reported on progress of various bills.

The bill submitted by the Cassia County school district to permit a school district to form sub-districts for the purpose of bonding for new buildings is still in committee.

Cable television week observed

TWIN FALLS—From reading-readiness classes to university instruction, cable television has proven its worth to all mankind, according to Kenneth Walker, general manager of Magic Valley Cable Vision, Inc.

Walker, noting that this week is "National Cable Television Week" throughout the land, reviewed the growth of cable TV and the multitude of benefits offered subscribers.

Cable TV offers the best means for expanding the capability of local educational systems and extending instructional services to the viewing public, Walker said. Many cable TV systems now carry educational programs on one or more channels, and some work with local school districts and educational institutions by establishing outlets in classrooms to increase teaching services.

Educational uses of cable TV have included beaming of lecture material to classrooms and off-campus meeting halls at Oregon State University, Corvallis; broadcasting reading-readiness material for pre-schools in Willingboro, N.J.; and production of an educational series at Carleton, Calif., by the local high school.

The cable television concept originated in a small Pennsylvania community where surrounding mountains barred TV signals. The idea was developed of channeling the signals into the area via cable, and the concept spread rapidly.

Today, "CATV," as cable TV is known to its adherents, encompasses a $300 million network serving more than 2,500 communities and reaching 14 million viewers.

New office

A LIGHT, AIRY office, with floor-to-ceiling windows as a background, lightens the task of Lloyd LeClair, assistant business manager at the College of Southern Idaho. His new quarters in the recently completed Commons building on the CSI campus feature a roomy, uncrowded design that places LeClair in a corner of the business office.

Contest selection planned

TWIN FALLS — Members of the I.B. Perrine Toastmasters Club will select contestants for the area Serious Speech Contest to be held here March 27 during their Feb. 15 through March 22 meetings.

The area contest will be sponsored by the Twin Falls Toastmasters Club. In a meeting Monday night in Kay's Supper Club, I.B. Perrine Club members heard a report by Ed Barker on officer training sessions held earlier this month.

Al Greenway won the blue pencil award and Martin Foss was table topics chairman with Barker as general evaluator. Speakers were Lelroy Baker, DeVert Douglas, Elmer Little and Al Greenway.

Error discovery aids T.F. center

BOISE — (Special to the Times-News) — The discovery of an error of a third of a million dollars may permit the Twin Falls Child Development Center to continue operations at about its current level next year.

Dr. John Marks, director of the Idaho Mental Retardation and Child Development Division, told the Times-News Monday that the executive budget submitted to the legislature was short $325,000 in its calculation of the amount of money necessary to continue existing programs.

According to Marks, Skip Chilbert, assistant budget director for the governor, acknowledged that the original estimate of the money needed to continue the state's six child development centers, $536,784, failed to include expenses of two of the four programs at the center. As a result, Marks said, Chilbert said the executive department will try to find enough extra money to bring the total up to the current level of expenditures at the centers, about $882,000 a year.

The original gubernatorial request was for only about five-eighths of the previous year's appropriation. Had that figure been approved, severe cutbacks would have been required at the centers, Marks said.

The revised gubernatorial request has not yet been forwarded to the legislature by the governor, Marks said. If the higher figure is approved, the centers will be able to spend only slightly below the current levels. The state agency had asked for $1.25 million for the regional centers, but under the agency's request the Twin Falls center would have had a budget of $180,000, an increase from $132,542 during the current year.

DOUGLAS MACHAMER

Machamer gets rank of Eagle

TWIN FALLS — Douglas Machamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Machamer, received his Eagle Scout rank Monday night during the annual Scout Week dinner and court of honor held by Troop 67 of the Twin Falls First United Methodist Church.

Larry Plott, assistant director of the Idaho State Police Training Academy at Idaho State University, Pocatello, gave a quick draw and safety demonstration. Plott, former Idaho state policeman stationed at Halley, has taken training in the art of quick draw. He combined an entertaining program with safety demonstrations of guns. He also stressed automobile safety and demonstrated dangerous situations in which police officers find themselves.

According to scoutmaster Frank Mogensen, 20 boys received second class ratings and Tom Snow and Barry Hawkins received their first class rank.

It was announced that the Rattlesnake Patrol of Troop 67 won two yearly contests conducted by the troop. The patrol won in advancement and a point contest conducted for a snowmobile contest, Mogensen said. Patrol leader is Gary Champlyn.

Mrs. Irene Basom was presented a corsage for making decorations for 12 years for the annual polluck dinner.

Special guests were Capt. Dean Bennett, Lt. Calvin Bernard and Sgt. Ralph Sifford of Idaho State Police district headquarters in Twin Falls.

Personnel at bank promoted

TWIN FALLS — Several operational changes at the Twin Falls Bank and Trust Co.'s downtown office were announced today by Harry Eaton, bank president and chairman of the board of directors.

Eaton said Fred Ott has been named assistant cashier and personnel manager and Viola Murphy has been promoted to auditor, a position formerly held by Ott.

Mrs. Lou Oyen was transferred to general books, a department headed by Leona Cox. Bobette Costes is head teller, Norma Prestidge heads the proof department and Mabel Loughmiller is head of the bookkeeping division, Eaton said.

State Jaycee aide to visit here

TWIN FALLS—Jaycees of Twin Falls today announced plans for a visit from Idaho State Jaycee president, Jim Heath, Meridian, on Monday and revealed a local member will be seeking election as district Jaycee president.

Heath and national Jaycee director, Ross York, Nampa, will be in Twin Falls in connection with plans of the local group to extend a new Jaycee chapter in Murtaugh. A meeting will be held Monday night in Murtaugh with prospective members there.

In a meeting in the American Legion Hall here Monday night, Larry Utley, local Jaycee president, announced his candidacy for the office of District 8 president and was extended support of local club members. Bud Phillips will be his campaign manager.

Nine new members were sworn into the local organization Monday night and Dr. Dale Miles who headed the January

Jaycee Radio Month program was named Jaycee of the Month of January.

Program for Monday night consisted of a talk by Mrs. La Vern Strong, member of the national Parliamentarians organization and a report by a CSI college student from Czechoslovakia.

A group of five members from the newly organized Jerome Jaycees attended the Monday meeting as guests.

Pilots sailing home

ABOARD USS NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — The triumphant pilots of Apollo 14 headed home today from a 1.2 million mile odyssey to the moon that won them an "absolutely perfect score" rating. Alan B. Shepard, Stuart A. Roosa and Edgar D. Mitchell carried back with them on this proud ship a cache of rocks that may date back to the birth of the moon, and the knowledge of their nine days in space erased the stigma of Apollo 13.

The three spacemen were pronounced "in good health" Tuesday night after a quick medical examination. They relaxed with their first solid meal in nine days—a steak dinner complete with buttered asparagus, apple cobbler, coffee, tea and milk.

"This success certainly sets us solidly on the course for the remaining three flights in the program," said Dale M. Myers, associate space agency administrator in charge of manned spaceflight. "Apollo 15, 16 and 17 are now a solid part of the American space program and we're looking forward to tremendous increases in scientific results."

President Nixon telephoned the astronauts shortly after their splashdown and thanked them for all Americans. He told Shepard, 47, the veteran of America's first manned spaceflight, "You give all of us older fellows some hope."

Apollo 14 will go down in the books as the most scientifically productive flight man has made in space.

Shepard, Roosa and Mitchell made a bullseye splashdown Tuesday and were picked up by the helicopter carrier in one of the smoothest astronaut recoveries ever made.

They will remain in quarantine until Feb. 26, in case they are carrying alien germs from the moon.

Quarantine restrictions, however, have been relaxed somewhat to permit the three astronauts to leave their isolation trailer briefly Thursday to fly by helicopter to Pago Pago, Samoa. There they will switch to another quarantine van in an Air Force jet transport and fly directly to the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston, arriving there at 1:30 a.m. EST Friday.

Hughes to speak in Boise

BOISE (UPI) — The State Democratic Party announced Tuesday Sen. Harold Hughes, D-Iowa, will address the Idaho Democratic Jefferson-Jackson Day Banquet March 5 at the Rodeway Inn in Boise.

Hughes, considered by some to be a potential presidential candidate, will join Sen. Frank Church and Gov. Cecil Andrus at the banquet.

The party, according to State Chairman Joe McCarter, will hold its business sessions March 6 at the motel.

At the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago, Hughes led a successful fight for reforms to give the voters more choice in nominating the presidential candidates.

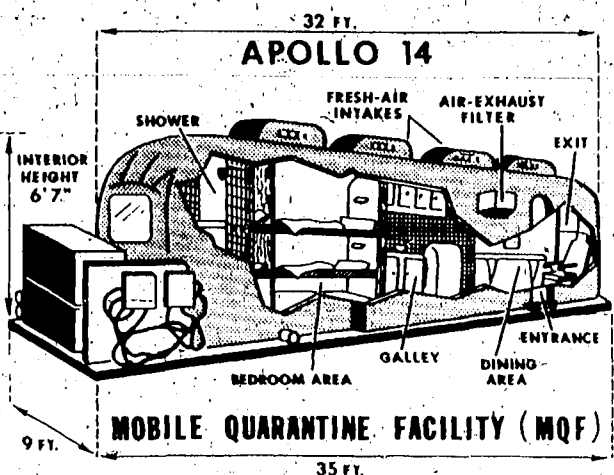

Hughes is currently serving as vice chairman of a committee to give more open participation in delegate selection and better representation of minority views.

Deduction end OK'd

BOISE (UPI) — The House Revenue and Taxation Committee gave its blessing Tuesday to the governor's proposal to eliminate the 50 per cent capital gains deduction on corporate income taxes.

In approving the bill and referring it to the floor, it moved it one more step toward final consideration in the House. Under normal procedures, that would be Friday.

Meantime, the committee agreed to introduce for printing Gov. Cecil D. Andrus' proposal to transfer $1 million in idle monies from the Social Security Trust Fund to the General Fund. "This was done primarily to have such a measure on standby. Rep. Harold Reid, D-Craigmont, made the motion to print the measure, but told the committee it may not be necessary to "emerge" such legislation.

"It seems the Board of Examiners has the power to put it in the General Fund," Reid said.

After approving the Capital Gains Bill, the committee agreed to hold two alternate proposals which contain additional material. One of them includes technical changes in the federal code to which Idaho's income tax statutes are tied.

The other includes these changes plus one eliminating a $10 sales tax refund to elderly income tax payers. Unless that refund, which works as a "negative income tax," is eliminated, the General Fund stands to lose more than $500,000 a year.

It was decided, however, to hold up both bills until the fate of the one simply proposing eliminating of the capital gains deduction is known.

The committee refused to act on a bill that would provide for

Call set

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department Tuesday asked that the draft call for March be the same as for the two previous months—17,000 men, all for the Army.

The Selective Service calls for the first three months of the year will total about the same as for the first quarter of 1970, and about half the total for the corresponding quarter of 1969.

Sen. Richard High, R-Twin Falls, a committee co-chairman, said the audits were requested by former directors of both divisions who were fired in January.

Robert Lenaghan, appointed acting director of Administrative Services, dismissed Ray Clovis, director of Management Services, and D.E. "Bert" Colwell, director of Communications.

The letter from Colwell to the committee asked for the audit to Jan. 10 — the date he was "dismissed" — and said the accounting for his division was done by reporting services, a part of Management Services, since auditing personnel was unavailable to Communications.

In his letter, Clovis requested a complete fiscal audit, and said his division had not been audited since it was created in 1967.

Defenoch said if he placed 10 of his auditors on the job he would have a "pretty good overview of the expenditures and the legality of the expenditures in possibly two weeks."

High told the committee, "The whole situation to me has been very confusing, difficult to know where we are."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott Tuesday named Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, to the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy. Scott also named Sen. Peter H. Dominich of Colorado to the same committee. The two senators fill Republican vacancies on the committee.

Many hearings slated

BOISE (UPI) — With the first session of the 41st Legislature through its half-way mark, committees in both houses have announced a rash of public hearings on pending legislation.

On Feb. 11, the House Judiciary, Rules and Administration Committee will host a public hearing at 7:00 p.m. in room 420 of the Statehouse on a proposal to waive the defense of sovereign immunity from lawsuits against the state and its political subdivisions.

At 7:30 p.m. the same night, the House and Senate Agricultural Affairs Committee will hold a hearing at the Capital High School Auditorium on proposed farm labor legislation.

Backers of the Idaho Agricultural Labor Act have indicated they feel some modification of the measure may be needed before passage.

Former State Sen. Phil Batt, R-Willard, president of the Idaho Food Producers Association, said the group is willing to meet with farm labor groups to make sure responsible legislation is enacted.

The legislation would give farm workers the right to organize and bargain collectively.

During the afternoon of Feb. 11, the Senate State Affairs Committee will hold a hearing on a bill which would increase the Idaho State Horse Racing Commission from three to five members.

The Idaho horse racing sponsors, meeting in Boise, have asked the legislature not to make the change, and they indicated the proposal to increase the size of the commission would add considerable expense to the groups operation.

The sponsors — who operate horse racing facilities within the state — noted New York, which has the largest operation, has only a three-member commission.

On Feb. 16 at 2 p.m. the House Business Committee will meet to discuss HB 18, which would authorize the Public Utilities Commission to regulate community antenna television systems.

On Feb. 18, the Senate Health, Education and Welfare Committee will hold a public hearing on SB 1077, which authorizes public school kindergartens on a voluntary basis.

The measure, which chairman John Barker, R-Boise, said was an administration proposal, would establish a special fund for kindergarten monies; and if not all the funds are used, the remainder would be returned to the Public School Income Fund.

On Feb. 18, the Senate Resources and Environment and House Resources and Conservation committees will travel to the proposed site of the Guffey Dam on the Snake River, then return to the State Highway Department Auditorium at 7 p.m. to discuss the Southwest Idaho Joint Venture Project.

Panel orders audits

BOISE (UPI) — The Joint Finance Appropriations Committee ordered Legislative Auditor James Defenoch Tuesday to conduct an immediate post audit on books of the Division of Management Services and Division of Communications.

Sen. Richard High, R-Twin Falls, a committee co-chairman, said the audits were requested by former directors of both divisions who were fired in January.

Robert Lenaghan, appointed acting director of Administrative Services, dismissed Ray Clovis, director of Management Services, and D.E. "Bert" Colwell, director of Communications.

Zone change study ordered

TWIN FALLS—The Twin Falls school district's trustee zones will have to be realigned. T. M. Robertson, attorney for the school board, said Monday night that the 1970 census data will be tabulated in the near future, and will allow the redrawing of the trustee zones along population lines.

Robertson said the zones were established in 1949, and since then there has been a major shift in the population pattern throughout the Twin Falls area.

The new zones, as required by state law, must be drawn within 30 days of a trustee election, Elmer Sommer, board chairman, said. Since the state law requires the trustee election to be held between the first Tuesday in April and the last Tuesday in May, there may not be enough time to analyze the population and draw the new zones before this year's election, Supt. Dr. Ernest H. Ragland said.

"We may have to have some areas counted separately to determine the exact population lineup, and that takes a lot of time," Dr. Ragland said.

Robertson said the new zoning requires election of a new board of trustees, or appointment of the present board to the new zones. In addition,

Robertson said, the new board has to have staggered terms. Board chairman Elmer Sommer authorized Robertson and three years. In this way, a rezoning problem in light of the continuation of the board is assured during trustee elections.

ATTENTION

The Twin Falls Urban Renewal Agency has received a proposal from Wm. Hoops, Inc. to purchase the following property in the Urban Renewal Area:

A parcel of land located in Block 88, TWIN FALLS TOWNSITE, Twin Falls County, Idaho, being generally described as Lots 29, 30, 31, and 32, except the northwesterly two (2) feet of Lot 29, Block 88, TWIN FALLS TOWNSITE.

Wm. Hoops, Inc. as the redeveloper, will enter into a Disposal Contract for the purchase of said land.

The Redeveloper's Statement for Public Disclosure is on file at the Twin Falls Urban Renewal Agency and is available for public examination at said office during its regular office hours. The hours are from 8:00 to 5:00, Monday through Friday.

Property ownership requirement removed

BOISE (UPI) — After eight minutes of debate, the House approved 50-16 and sent to the Senate Tuesday a bill removing property ownership as a qualification for voting on general obligation bonds.

Floor sponsor H. Ford Koch, R-Boise, said the legislation was made necessary by a U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing such qualifications. He said the high court's ruling, plus Idaho laws requiring property ownership on the part of those who vote in such election, was making Idaho bonds difficult to sell.

Koch said the story of the decision was that renters and lessees actually pay taxes through their rental payments and therefore should have a voice in spending.

Rep. John Reardon, R-Boise, was the only lawmaker to speak out against the bill on the floor. He said the house was witnessing whether the concept of the intrinsic right of property would prevail or whether that of "each according to his means and each according to his needs" would prevail.

Rep. William J. Murphy, D-Wallace, urged passage of the bill, asking the House to "Remove the last clouds on the bond elections of this state." He recommended the legislature not act "like feigning nephews of Uncle Sam."

Meantime, the House also passed legislation to lower the minimum age for political precinct committeemen to 18 from 21 and to merge five city police retirement systems with the public employees retirement system operated by the state.

House exemption bill voted down

BOISE (UPI) — The Senate killed 5-20 Tuesday a bill which would have exempted one-quarter of the market value for assessment purposes of single family dwellings from ad valorem taxes.

Opposition to the proposal appeared to come from those who feared the reduction in tax revenues would force counties to seek other means of maintaining revenue — including higher taxes of other properties.

Sen. Bill Crookham, R-Caldwell, floor sponsor of the proposal, said the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho estimated a total return of $102 million each year on ad valorem property taxes, and said his proposal would have an impact of between $5.4 million and $5.6 million.

Crookham said many persons living in single family dwellings "are really getting zonked on the property tax."

"This is not irresponsible legislation. It will create a crisis, no doubt about it. But I don't think the legislature will ever begin to reform the tax structure until it boxes itself into a canyon," he said.

Hearing requested

TWIN FALLS — William Richard Thomas, 27, Yakima, Wash., requested preliminary hearing Monday when he was arraigned on two charges in Magistrate Court before Judge Reed P. Maughan.

Thomas is charged by Twin Falls Police with grand larceny in connection with the theft Saturday night of a car from Theisen Motors, Inc., and with first degree burglary in connection with a break-in Saturday night at Robertson-Oberchain Insurance in Twin Falls.

He remains in custody at the county jail in lieu of posting $2,000 bond on each charge.

Convicted

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Robin L. Crown, 26, a Marine veteran who served in Vietnam, was convicted Thursday of desecrating the U.S. flag by using it as a tablecloth at a flea market.

Meet slated

DISPLAYING A miniature model of the proposed Gertrude McGinnis city park at Wendell are, from left, Mrs. Dean Sisson, Vernon Mason and Mrs. Phyllis Bunn. Plans for the project, for which federal matching funds have been approved, will be outlined at a public meeting at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Wendell Elementary school.

Funds approved on Wendell park

By MYRTLE SCHRENK Times-News Correspondent
WENDELL.—Federal funds have been granted for the development of the Gertrude McGinnis City Park at Wendell, Vernon Mason, chairman of the Wendell Recreation Commission, announced Tuesday.

Mason said he has been informed by Wilhelm M. Becker, Idaho Department of Parks official, that $30,000 in matching funds was authorized from the Land and Water Conservation fund to develop the seven and one-half acres east of the city donated by Neil Ambrose, local businessman.

The funds will be used for improvement on the two full-sized baseball fields, and construction of picnic area complete with picnic tables, fireplaces and a parking area. Becker said Kent Ellis, Boise, also of the state parks department, will meet with Wendell Recreation Commission members Thursday to finalize plans for the project. These will be sent to the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, Seattle, for approval.

A public meeting is scheduled for 2 p.m. Sunday at the Wendell Elementary school to present plans to all civic organizations, church groups and interested individuals. A miniature model of the park will be displayed.

Bill Grout will head Legion

WENDELL.—Bill Grout will be installed commander of American Legion Post 41 by Kyle Hupfer, Fairfield, district vice commander, at the March 3 meeting at 8 p.m. at the hall. Other officers to be installed are Bill Hignebatham, vice commander; Ted Taylor, adjutant; Dee Collins, Sergeant-at-arms; Clyde Petersen, publicity; and Kirby Hill, post correspondent.

Vandalism to stop signs poses danger

WENDELL.—Les Wallace, supervisor of the Wendell Highway District, replaced a stop sign which was uprooted on the Bob Barton-Rex Leland Highway in the Orchard Valley area of Wendell over the weekend. Wallace reports that removing and defacing of stop signs has become a regular occurrence in the Orchard Valley area. Over a two-week period he has replaced seven stop signs. He says signs indicate the removal is vandalism as some look as if they have been hit and broken off with force, while others have disappeared completely. Some signs have been painted with spray paint and have a year of a graduating class while others are full of Teachers offered contracts

WENDELL.—Contracts will be offered to all Wendell teachers who wish to return next year, it was decided at the school trustee meeting Monday night.

Will Spalding, high school principal, and Arlin Dennis, elementary principal, made recommendations to trustees of the retiring.

Dennis also reported the school district's migrant classes will be held again this summer.

In other action, trustees: —Reviewed procedures for selection of valedictorian and salutatorian.

—Took no action on formation of an advisory council for the commercial department in the high school. —Approved the participation of Joyce Cargill, foreign exchange student from Chill, in graduation exercises. —Approved school bus transportation for rally squad members to the district basketball tournament to be held in Shoshone.

—Heard a report from Spalding on his attendance at the National Association of Secondary School Principals at Houston, Tex.

—Discussed with Supt. Lawrence LaRue and Spalding the possibility of an in-service program for teachers next year.

Tournament scheduled for boys

WENDELL.—Wendell's Little League basketball players are practicing for the Little League tournament, scheduled for Feb. 22 and March 1.

More than 65 elementary students are participating in the weekly games, with four major league teams organized from fifth and sixth grade students, and four minor league teams composed of third, fourth and fifth graders.

The teams are coached by varsity basketball players, according to Vojl Bohrons, athletic director. Major league coaches are Brad Sisson, Fred Backburn, Dave Dudley, Lyle Adams, Mike Strickling, Bill Emery and Doug Schrenk. Minor league coaches include Randy Chandler, Rod Adams, Pat Bennett, Russel Rost, Don Hunt, Kip Dennis, Paul Prestwich and Kirk Webb.

Build facility

THE NEWLY ORGANIZED Thousand Springs post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, No. 2,974 at Wendell, has built a public bulletin board to advertise community events. It is located on East Main Street and anyone wishing to use the board is asked to contact Doug Huff. Vernon Mason and Debbie Thaele, right, are among the first to use the facility, while Huff and Bub Thomason, VFW members, look on.

State FHA convention scheduled at Burley

WENDELL.—The state Future Homemakers of America convention will be held April 1-3 at the Ponderosa Inn River, Wendell and Glenns Ferry units serving as hostesses. Minico and Deolo are in charge of tours and Hagerman will handle the theme presentation.

Buhl members will conduct the emblem service, with the Jerome chapter acting as recorders; Shoshone members, backstage; and Gooding in charge of decorations for old and new officers luncheon. Gooding and Valley chapters are in charge of entertainment. District officers besides Miss Miller include Donna Hawks, Gooding, vice president; Vickie Inchausti, Buhl, secretary; Nancy Matthews, Gooding, treasurer; Joan Pauls, Gooding, historian; Gall Prudek, Buhl, dogress; Larnn Butlers, Hagerman, projects; Cynthia Pool, Hazelton, recreation; Anita Woodruff, Buhl, public relations; Gloria Campes, Hagerman, parliamentarian; and Dorothy Bort, Wendell district adviser.

Youth will donate to new park

WENDELL.—The United Methodist youth at Wendell will donate $50 to the Gertrude McGinnis city park, Leslie Sullivan, newly elected president, reports. Members of the youth group also have voted to donate $200 toward the underground automatic sprinkling system to be installed on the United Methodist church grounds soon. Other new officers are Jeri Eaton, vice president; Mike Eaton, secretary; and Jolene Vaughn, treasurer.

Church dinner slated

WENDELL.—The annual turkey dinner, sponsored by the Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Christ Lutheran Church, is scheduled for 5 to 9 p.m. Saturday, reports Mrs. Vern Robinson, publicity chairman.

The public is invited and a freewill offering will be taken. Committees for the event, named by Mrs. Melvin Thaele, president, are: Mrs. Oscar Thaele, Mrs. Lawrence Adams, Mrs. Roy Murray, Mrs. Barbara Eklund, Mrs. Paul Jerke and Mrs. Caroline Kober; general arrangements, and Mrs. Vernell Boobe, and Mrs. Bob Adolph, both Hagerman; Mrs. Henry Winterholler, Mrs. Vern Robinson and Mrs. Everett Laudert, decorations.

Wendell

Cheryl Zollinger named homemaker

WENDELL.—Cheryl Zollinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Zollinger, has been named the Wendell High School Betty Crocker of Tomorrow winner. A senior, Miss Zollinger belongs to Future Homemakers of America, Pep Club, chorus and is track manager. Her hobbies include cooking, sewing, clipping poodles and swimming. She also served on the Ravenscroft Youth for Governor campaign. She was selected from other competing senior girls in a written test given last Dec. 1. Miss Zollinger will receive an award from General Mills, sponsors of the annual education program, and is now eligible for state and national competition. Dorothy Bort, FHA advisor at the Wendell school, said all judging and selection of winners is done by Science Research Associates, Chicago, which also grades the written examination. The Betty Crocker search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow is the only national scholarship program exclusively for high school senior girls. It was begun by General Mills in 1954 and with the 1971 grants, more than $1.75 million has been granted in scholarships the past 17 years.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: A very dear man I knew had a stroke in the lobby of his place of business. He lay on the floor in that lobby for about an hour and a half. It was nearly rush hour. I suppose people thought he was drunk so they passed him by. He died the following day.

That fine man had a young people's group in church. I am one of the young people.

The message I want to convey through your widely-read column, Abby, is this: Please, if you see someone in need, drunk, sick, no matter what, tell a guard at the door or a policeman. Don't ignore him. Do what you can to help him. You may save his life.

"Mr. L." had a stroke and a cerebral hemorrhage. He may have died even if he had been taken to a hospital immediately. But at least he wouldn't have died all alone on the cold floor of a lobby. J. C., STATEN ISLAND, N.Y.

DEAR J. C.: If your letter changes the thinking of only one person who would deny help to a stranger because he doesn't want to "get involved," it's well worth the space in any newspaper. Thank you for writing.

DEAR ABBY: I am a grown woman with a good husband, three nice sons and a full busy life. But "Wrong Way Corrigan" has nothing on me. I do a lot of traveling, to and from dog shows, and I always allow myself at least one hour in which to get lost. I don't mean a chance wrong turn, I mean really lost!

Even if I have been there before, I always get hopelessly turned around and have to stop and ask directions. Sometimes I have to stop and ask directions two and three times. I am a careful driver and I am considered fairly intelligent, but I have absolutely no sense of direction.

My husband says I get lost because I have no self-confidence and I set out "expecting" to get lost. Can that be? Are there others like me? Have you any suggestions? "LOST" IN VA.

DEAR LOST: Don't be ashamed. Some of our bravest people get lost a lot. Recommended solution: Don't start out unless you have written instructions on how to get where you're going. If you should get lost, stop at once and ask for help. [And be sure to listen carefully so that you understand the directions.] Also always take a telephone number of the place you're headed for in case you want to call them and ask how to get there. If that fails, carry a compass, a bible and a survival kit.

DEAR ABBY: I am tired of hearing about what big slob women are. My friends and neighbors probably consider me a slob because of the way my house looks most of the time, but let me tell you my side of it.

The minute my husband gets in the house he takes off his coat and shirt and drapes them across the back of the chair. Then he takes off his tie and hangs it on the doorknob. He goes to the fridge, gets a couple of cans of beer and a snack, takes them into the living room and settles down to read the paper and watch TV. But first he takes off his shoes and socks. Pretty soon I have crumbs all over the floor and beer cans standing around and half-eaten food left here and there.

After he washes up to go out, there's toothpaste splattered on the mirror, wash rags in the sink, wet towels on the floor, shaving cream on the bathroom wall, deodorant and after shave, razor and hairbrush standing on the sink or tank top.

And I hate to tell you what kind of disaster area is left behind when my man finally gets around to changing a washer on a leaky faucet. SLOB'S WIFE: MILWAUKEE

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 67704, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Signs ruined

STOP SIGN IS replaced on the Bob Barton-Rex Leland Highway intersection in the Orchard Valley area near Wendell by Les Wallace, supervisor of the Wendell Highway District. Highway district commissioners are considering filing charges against offenders as the vandalism has been a regular occurrence.

Military wives stress membership

TWIN FALLS—Members of the Magic Valley Military Wives are making a concentrated effort to publicize their activities in order to attract newcomers in the area.

The membership list includes 25 names and it is the consensus that this represents only half of the actual number of wives living in this area while their husbands serve their country in various parts of the world.

Discussion was held on membership during the February potluck supper at the home of Carol Joa, Jerome.

This group is formed solely for the purpose of providing an entertainment outlet for military wives whose social life is limited.

The next meeting will be a dinner Feb. 20 at the Colonial House. Reservations must be made by Feb. 16. Those interested are asked to contact the chamber of commerce or Red Cross in their areas.

Tentative plans for March include attending the production, "Oliver," at CSI March 6 and going bowling March 20.

Annual Ball

DISPLAYING A poster announcing the 20th Anniversary Sweetheart Ball for the Twin Falls Ladies of Elks are Mrs. E. M. McCurdy, president, left, and Mrs. David McKinstor. The ball is slated at 9 p.m. Saturday at the Elks Lodge Hall, with music provided by Joe Slagg's Band from Boise. All proceeds from the dance will be donated to the Elks Rehabilitation Center in Boise. A midnight buffet will be served and all Elk members and their guests are invited to attend.

BSC names honor roll

BOISE — A number of Magic Valley students attending Boise State College have earned honors for high grades, according to Dr. W. W. Hendry, BSC dean of student personnel services.

Students earning 4.00 grade point average (GPA), for straight "A" grades during the fall semester, include Arlo Decker, Paul; David Kohtz, Filer; Robert Jacobs, Twin Falls, and Janet Walker, Glenns Ferry.

Magic Valley students on the high honors list, for students achieving GPAs of 3.75 to 3.99, include Sue Anderson, Halley; Alene Cowger and Bonnie Ullman, Twin Falls; Gail Johnson, Minidoka and Dennis Wheeler, Buhl.

Area students on the high honors list, with GPAs of 3.50 to 3.74 are Lynda Berrey, Halley; Gayle Bosserman and Eric Daniels, both Gooding; Timothy Mink, Wendell; Gwen Hahn, Grace Ruhter and Richard Young, all of Buhl; Mike Koto, Marsha Lambert, Lynette Myers and William Pratt, all of Twin Falls; Karen Hull and Vivian Rendla, Burley, and Stella Werry, Ketchum.

Men's night

Former resident speaks

TWIN FALLS — Robert Pence, Pocigello, former Buhl resident, was featured speaker at the Magic Valley Christian Women's Club 6th annual Men's Night program Monday at the Turf Club.

Mrs. Floyd Kaufman, Buhl, mistress of ceremonies and chairman of the event, noted in her opening remarks there are three things the women do not discuss, denominational religion, politics and weights.

Rev. Donald Kunkle, Bellevue, gave the prayer and special musical numbers were presented by a barbershop quartet.

Jim Lattimer presented a program on the art of karate. More than 150 persons attended the social.

When buying fruit be on the lookout for deterioration. Even with the most modern handling methods, some products decline rapidly in quality while on display. Frequently such off-quality fruit can be bought at reduced prices, but the waste in preparation may offset the price reduction.

Burley exchange student speaks for War Mothers

BURLEY — Wendy Fernandez, exchange student from Chile attending Burley High School, was the guest speaker during the Cassia Chapter, American War Mothers' meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Halie Boyd.

Slides were narrated by Miss Fernandez which told of her homeland, customs and general history of her native land.

Musical entertainment was presented by Janine Wood, playing guitar and singing two selections.

Mrs. Don McClafflin, president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. LuVon Holland was introduced. She is transferring her membership from Pocigello to the Burley chapter.

Mrs. Katie Schmidt, state first vice president, was in charge of the program arrangements. Mrs. Jean King, was a guest. Miss Fernandez is making her home in Burley with the King family.

Mrs. Boyd was honored for her 60th birthday with a special decorated birthday cake. Refreshments were served.

Six new members initiated by local Alpha Delta Kappa

TWIN FALLS — New members, Mrs. Anna Davin, Mrs. Carleen Dillingir, Mrs. Dorothy Guest, Mrs. Fern Manning, Mrs. Carolyn Morgan and Mrs. Charlene Gortler were installed during the Alpha Delta Kappa luncheon meeting Monday at the home of Marge Oldham.

Hostesses assisting with the dessert luncheon were Mrs. Maude Shotwell, Mrs. Wilma Eaton, Mrs. Lucy Dunn, Mrs. Milcent Sears, Mrs. Ellen Swisher and Mrs. Mildred Jacobs.

Ruth Gates was in charge of the business session. Mrs. Gem Howard read an original poem in a memorial service held for Mrs. Edna Chambers.

Alpha Delta Kappas were asked to bring items such as toiletries, games, books, bedding or towels to the March meeting for distribution to the Idaho Youth Ranch.

Cattlemen, CowBelles have public relations project

TWIN FALLS — The Idaho Industry Information Council has been formed as a joint public relations project of the Idaho Cattlemen and the Idaho CowBelles in connection with the national organizations, the national local members. The object of the program is to gain public understanding of the cattle industry.

The Industry Information Council will try to convey the economic importance of the industry, its role as a producer of a desirable, useful and frequently purchased item, and the elements of the business (the processes required, profit margin, dependence on borrowing the "romance" of the cattle business, and our distinctive role as a free enterprise business man.)

Lawrence Bradbury, Challis, past president of Idaho Cattlemen's Association, and Mrs. Noy Brackett, past president of Idaho CowBelles, Hagerman, will be co-chairman for this committee.

Northern Idaho committee members are Shorty Arzen, Cottonwood, and Mrs. George Hays, Copeland.

The Central Area is represented by Jim Little, Emmett, and Mrs. Wilson Steen, Glenns Ferry.

Magic Valley and South Western Idaho have Tom Prescott, Jerome, and Mrs. Tom Olmstead, Twin Falls.

Representing Eastern Idaho is Bob Swanson, Pocigello, and Mrs. Tex Schmidt, Lendore.

Further information on this or anyone wanting programs or films on the beef industry can contact Mrs. Olmstead, 733-4658.

Music Club honors past presidents Fifth district meet held in Twin Falls

Annual box socials slated

TWIN FALLS — The annual White Breakfast honoring past presidents of the Twin Falls Music Club was held Monday at the Turf Club.

State and District officers present included Mrs. J. Grant Bickmore, state president, and Mrs. Richard Howard, second district president; both Focastello, and Mrs. Clifford Mullikin, state ways and means chairman; and Mrs. Trafford, fifth district president, both Burley.

The collect was read by Mrs. William Box and the hymn of the month, "Still, Still With Thee" was sung by Mrs. David Mead, accompanied by Mrs. James Inney. Mrs. Eldon Evans paid tribute to each of the presidents with a brief synopsis of her year as president.

Mrs. Kenneth Shew, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Joe Hackney who presented a history of "Dance in America." Several solo dances were presented demonstrating types of dancing. A group of CSI girls presented a number from "West Side Story" to be presented by the college Feb. 11, 12 and 13 at the Fine Arts Center.

The Twin Falls Music Club is an affiliate of the national Federation of Music Clubs.

TWIN FALLS—Maggie Valley Barracks No. 509 and Auxiliary were hosts for the Fifth District meeting Monday at the Odd Fellows Temple, with 82 persons attending the potluck dinner.

Those introduced were Joe Robinson, department commander, Boise; Fred Backus, department inspector; Harold Chelline, past department commander and present department chief of staff, Gooding; Charles Shaddock, department senior commander, Burley; Mac McCullough, Spanish American veteran, Twin Falls; Ann Robinson, department color guard, Boise; Ellis Backus, department color guard, Boise; Edna Chelline, past department president, Gooding; Fay Williams, department chaplain, Twin Falls, and Lilly Melsner, fifth district president, Buhl.

Robinson gave a talk on veterans' affairs. The groups held their separate meetings, with Mrs. Melsner in charge of the women's meeting. The flags were presented and Chaplain Mahala Rowbottom, Jerome, gave the prayer. Reports were given by each auxiliary.

Mrs. Edna McCarthy, Gooding, gave a report on legislative affairs. It was voted to send $5 to the Boise Veterans Home for books. The next district meeting will be announced.

The local auxiliary held a short business meeting. Sick members noted included Mrs. Vance Pulsipher and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Kunkle, Kimberly. A work meeting was planned for Feb. 26 at the home of Mary Stearns. The next regular meeting is set for March 8.

Peggy Ralls wins award

RICHFIELD — Peggy Ralls, Richfield High School senior, is the winner of the Betty Crocker Homemaking award for Richfield. It is announced by Mrs. L.T. Sanders, home economics instructor.

Miss Ralls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ralls, was one of four senior girls taking the test. She has taken three years of home economics instruction and seven years of 4-H projects. She was presented a charm medalion which she wears as a necklace on a chain. She is also eligible for a scholarship, based on her test paper answers and grade.

TWIN FALLS — The annual Blue Bird and Camp Fire Girls Father-Daughter box socials are close at hand. They are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday at the Twin Falls High School Cafeteria at 8:30 p.m. Each girl is accompanied by her father or, in some instances, brother, uncle or grandfather. The girls make their own invitations and decorate beautiful and imaginative boxes for their dads. An admission fee will be charged and the proceeds will go for the roller skating parties which take place in March. A program is planned for both events and special prizes will be given.

TOPS loser named

HANSEN—Mrs. Roy Dodson was best loser at the Slim and Trim TOPS Club meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Thomas Steelsmith.

Mrs. James Wright was honored as the monthly queen for January. Mrs. Wright, the leader, announced new officers will be elected the first meeting in March and they will take office the first week in April.

The Valentine contest will end Monday evening. It was announced. New secret pal names were drawn. It was stressed, clippings, cards or other means of communication may be used, but no gifts are to be sent or given. This will end the first Monday in May.

It was decided the hostesses will bring a low calorie recipe each week to be given to all members. Mrs. George Golny, hostess, brought a salad dressing recipe. Lena Bohm expressed thanks for cards sent to her. Because Mrs. Golny was ill, her mother, Mrs. Dopson, presented the program. She demonstrated how to make wooden-look candleholders, displaying two finished ones. They are stained and spray painted, then allowed to dry. Then a plastic finish is added.

Valentine queen social set Thursday

BURLEY—Xi Omega Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will honor their Valentine Queen, Mrs. Lloyd Ramsey, at 8 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ralph Fink.

Plans were announced during a meeting at the home of Mrs. LePage Layton. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Merrill Atkinson, president.

The social committee, with Mrs. S. L. Walker as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Joe Adams, Mrs. Fink and Mrs. Glenn Bailey, will direct the valentine social.

Mrs. Ramsey reported on the recent Tri-Chapter party which was attended by Beta Eta, Xi Omega and Alpha Zeta Chapters and members of Beta Iho Chapter were guests. Beta Iho is a newly formed chapter in the Mini-Casita area.

A report on the recent Burley-Rupert City Council meeting was given by Mrs. Atkinson and a report on the state convention progress was given by Mrs. Hanson Brown.

The lesson, "High Moments with Nature and of Art," was given by Mrs. Atkinson.

Shower held

KING HILL — Mrs. Ben Tyler, Glenns Ferry, was honored at a bridal shower Monday at the home of Mrs. Gary Gill. Cindy Gluch and Debbie Garcia were in charge of the games.

Mrs. J.D. Stephens, Mrs. Clyde Cox, Mrs. Sam Meyer and Mrs. John Harris, Boise, were game prize winners. Mrs. Allen Stewart, Fairfield, sister of the honoree, assisted Mrs. Tyler in opening the gifts. Mrs. Stephens was co-hostess.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM Buttrey

Because many people are concerned about our environment, we are listing the phosphate content of detergents. Phosphate helps provide the cleaning power for your needs and is one of the leading contributors to pollution of streams and lakes. The lower the phosphate content, the less the product will contribute to this problem.
