Power pinch worse costly

LONDON (UPI)—The steady worsening power crisis pushed unemployment to the 3 million mark today and Prime Minister Edward Heath said his Conservative government could topple in a dispute over Britain's entry into the European Common Market.

Electricity cuts were ordered in up to 20 per cent of the country at one time to try to save power. The crisis developed when Britain's coal miners went on strike and cut off fuel supplies to most of the country's power producing plants.

Heath, already fighting off attacks because of the power crisis, faced a crucial vote in parliament tonight on Britain's entry into the Common Market. Parliament has been asked to ratify a treaty Heath signed Jan. 22 to bring Britain into the economic community.

If ratification is refused, Heath said, he will resign and his ruling Conservative government will fall. That would mean Britain would be thrown into a national election—a move political experts said could be the end of rule for the Conservatives and a major

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Carrying their warmest gear, typewriters, cameras and tape recorders, the White House press corps began a journey halfway around the world today.

The 65 reporters, cameramen, television commentators and technicians were aboard two special chartered Boeing 707 jetliners which preceded President Nixon to Hawaii on the first leg of his trip to Peking.

Coverage of the historic trip won't be cheap. Calls from China will cost $14 for the first three minutes and $4.50 a minute after that.

President departs for China

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Repeating the words on a plaque left on the moon by Apollo astronauts—"We came in peace for all mankind"—President Nixon left today on his historic mission to China to mark the end of 20 years of cold war between the two nations.

Standing on the South Lawn of the White House on a grey, cold day, Nixon said in farewell remarks that if he had to add a postscript about what already has been said about the journey, it would be the words on the plaque that the first man to walk on the moon left on the lunar surface.

With several thousand persons cheering, the President and Mrs. Nixon, in a yellow coat, shook hands along a line of dignitaries, including the bipartisan leadership of Congress, cabinet members, Vice President and Mrs. Spiro T. Agnew, and then reached their daughters, Tricia Cox and Julie Eisenhower.

Each parent hugged the daughter, and then Nixon stepped into the helicopter that carried them to Andrews Air Force Base in nearby Maryland for the takeoff on the first leg of what he called a "journey for peace" when he first announced his China visit last July.

The Nixons will spend tonight and Friday night in Hawaii, starting to get acclimated to the time change. They go on Saturday to Guam, and arrive in China Sunday night, U.S. time.

Nixon met in the last hour before his departure with the congressional leadership in the Cabinet Room of the White House. Then, shortly after 10 o'clock, the Nixons walked through the diplomatic door of the White House.

A blast of snow was in the air as Nixon stepped to a microphone to address a nationwide television audience.

He again used the "journey for peace" phrase but said that he was under "no illusions that 20 years of hostilities can be swept away in one week of talks" with Chinese Chairman Mao Tse-tung and Premier Chou En-lai.

Cyclist assails rockfest

TWIN FALLS—Evel Knievel said today neither he nor his backers have anything to do with proposed rock festivals at the time of his Snake River Canyon jump in 1973.

He said if some promoter does plan to organize a rockfest near the jump site or in connection with the motorcycle jump, Knievel will bring legal action to get a court injunction against any such activity.

Knievel said he has already turned down one offer of a band wanting to play during the jump activities.

He said he doesn't want such activities because of the undesirable and narcotics it would bring into the area.

The canyon jump is expected to draw a giant crowd. Knievel said he guarantees a quarter of a million people. He said there will be no admission charge for the jump.

Viet talks called off

PARIS (UPI)—The Vietnam peace talks, usually held on Thursdays, were adjourned today without any date set for their resumption.

The U.S. and South Vietnamese delegations decided to boycott today's meeting to protest a left-wing world peace rally over the weekend in Versailles.

The Communist delegations demanded in press statements that the session be held normally today, but they were ignored by the allies. The U.S. and South Vietnamese liaison officers told the Hanoi and Viet Cong delegations on Monday there will be no session this week because the allies were still assessing the results of the Versailles rally.

Minico schools close

RUPERT—Minidoka County schools were closed Thursday due to muddy conditions on many rural bus routes.

Bus drivers reported some rural roads, especially north of the railroad tracks in Rupert, have been washed out by excessive moisture while others are simply too muddy for school buses to negotiate. Some flooding is also reported from melting snow on the northside.

School officials said the closure is countywide and unless temperatures drop to freeze mud and flood waters, the schools will not open Friday.

Yank jets blast Reds

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. jet fighter-bombers struck artillery batteries and other targets in North Vietnam Wednesday and today. Radio Hanoi said seven planes were shot down and several pilots killed and captured.

The raids into the north followed a week of record bombing of Communist targets in Indochina aimed at disrupting what U.S. officials have predicted would be a major Communist offensive timed to coincide with the Tet holidays and President Nixon's visit to Peking.

Airwest moves to buy airline

TWIN FALLS—Hughes Airwest has taken the initial step which could lead to acquisition by purchase of Texas International Airlines.

Airwest several weeks ago made an offer to purchase the Texas airline, a regional carrier such as Airwest, but the offer was apparently refused and instead control by the Jet Capital Corp., of New York City became a possibility.

As a result, Airwest filed a petition to intervene before the Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington, D.C., in the matter of the acquisition of control by the Jet Capital group.

A pre-hearing on this petition was held before Hyman Goldberg, a CAB-examiner, on Tuesday. A favorable ruling on the Airwest petition would mean that airline could become involved in the hearing set for Capital.

From Washington, Goldberg told the Times-News this morning the hearing on the matter had been set for March 2 but that it might be postponed until March 7 if everything "cannot be tied together." He also said action in this instance would be expedited and that every effort will be made to announce a ruling on the Airwest-Texas International Jet Capital matter as soon as possible after pre-hearing testimony can be reviewed.

It is known that the Texas based airline has been in financial difficulty and this, among other things, prompted Airwest to make the offer to acquire. Essentially, the petition now offered by Airwest makes the offer official.

Hughes Airwest did confirm to the Times-News that a petition to intervene had been filed but would make no further comment.

The regional Texas International serves such key communities as Salt Lake City, Denver, Houston, Dallas, Corpus Christi, New Orleans, Little Rock and Memphis. In the case of passengers boarding in Twin Falls, it would mean direct or indirect connection flights to these communities.

Texas International's fleet of DC-9's is composed mostly of DC-9's, the same type jet used by Airwest.

A C-46 chartered cargo plane, which appeared to be the one that left Nassau with furniture and equipment belonging to Hughes, arrived at Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport at 8:11 a.m. EST.

for Managua, Nicaragua, and the pilot listed an alternate destination of San Jose, Costa Rica.

A spokesman for the Britannia Beach Hotel on Paradise Island said Hughes left suddenly Tuesday afternoon and his staff left a short time later.

A spokesman for Hughes in Los Angeles confirmed Hughes had left the hotel but did not say when or where he was going. The spokesman, Dick Hahn, denied reports that Hughes and his staff had been ordered off the island because his aides were working without proper permits.

"When he gets ready to announce where he is, we'll say so," Hahn said.

A hotel official said that as far as he knew, Hughes was not planning to return and the hotel would prepare the ninth floor for "regular guests." Hughes' departure was reported to have come as a shock to the hotel management.

Bard set for TF run

TWIN FALLS—Shakespeare will be coming to the Twin Falls City Park this summer.

City Manager Jean Miller said today the city has authorized the Antique Festival Theatre to perform in the city park bandshell with a summer Shakespeare series.

No charge can be made for performances given in the city park, he said, but Antique Festival Theatre crews will be able to "pass the hat" if they wish.

Blaine, Cassia nab 8 for drugs

Officers have been busy in two Magic Valley cities in a new series of narcotics-related arrests.

Three additional drug arrests were announced this morning by Cassia County Prosecutor Norman Nielson.

Five Blaine County adults were arrested and about $3,000 worth of narcotics and drug paraphernalia were confiscated. Seven juveniles were reported involved, but had not been arrested.

The Mini-Cassia arrests involved Roy Munoz, 20; Burley, charged with delivery of a controlled substance, Marijuana; Jeff Jolley, 18, Heyburn, delivery of a controlled substance, LSD, and a male juvenile, delivery of a controlled substance, LSD. Nielson said Munoz was arrested in Burley by city officers and special agents of the Bureau of Narcotics. Jolley was taken into custody by special agents and Heyburn police while the juvenile was apprehended by Minidoka County sheriff's officers.

Nielson said the three were scheduled to appear in magistrate court later in the day and bonds would be set at that time.

This brings total arrests this week to 12 adults and two juveniles. Three warrants are still on the books for another two adults and one juvenile.

The Blaine raids and arrests were a cooperative effort between the office of the county prosecutor, Stephen W. Boller, and the Ketchum, Sun Valley and Halley police departments.

Three of the five arrested were charged with possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver—a felony charge.

The three include Kevin G. Walker, 22, Bruce R. Fulton, 26, both Ketchum, and Lynn B. Ezell, 26, Bellevue. Karen McConville, 24, Ketchum, was originally charged with the same offense as the first three, but the charge was reduced to possession of a controlled substance, a misdemeanor.

Charged with possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver and sale of a controlled substance to a minor were Hugh M. Youdall, 18, Ketchum.

All five were arraigned Wednesday in Blaine County Magistrate Court. With the exception of Miss McConville, who was released on her own cognizance, they are being held in the county jail. Bond for Walker, Fulton and Ezell was set at $3,500. Youdall's bond was established at $5,000.

The department spokesmen said that investigations indicate more persons are involved and that more arrests may follow.

Viet war toll adds 2 names

SAIGON (UPI)—Two American soldiers were killed in action last week, bringing to 21 the number of U.S. combat deaths in Indochina this year, the U.S. command reported today.

The command said the death toll was the same as the previous week. It brought to 45,648 the number of Americans killed since the war in Indochina began.

Albertson's adopts new code dating procedure

BOISE — Albertson's Food Centers have adopted "open code dating," a procedure that tells supermarket customers how long an item has been on the shelf.

J. L. Scott, president of the grocery chain, said today that his company is instituting this system of revealing date codes on hundreds of different perishable items in each store. The new service is called Albertson's Freshness Code.

The freshness code provides date information on packaged meats, dairy products, eggs, potato chips, baked goods prepared in Albertson's in-store bakeries, and on hundreds of other standard items.

"We will have signs in each department to explain the codes," Scott said. "In addition, each store will have a book of code systems for most appropriate products."

"This is primarily a way to reveal how well we perform in offering our customers a high standard of product quality," Scott said. "The freshness code will help us fulfill our pledge to provide our customers with the services they want and are entitled to."

Soviet skippers pay heavy fines

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — Three Soviet skippers were fined a record $250,000 in federal court Wednesday when they changed their plea from innocent to no contest on charges of illegal fishing activity off the Alaskan coast. The Soviet captains were fined $80,000 on criminal charges for trying to escape on their ships with a U.S. Coast Guard party aboard off St. Matthews Island in the Aleutian chain July 17.

U.S. District Court Judge James A. Von Der Heydt also levied a fine of $170,000 on civil charges.

The judge ordered the three Soviet officers to remain in Anchorage until their fines were paid and their attorney said they would be returned to their ships being held 1,200 miles away at Adak, later this week.

Vladimir Artemov, commander of the Soviet 88-vessel Bering Sea fleet, Igor Bovtun and Nikolai Pavluk appeared in court in full dress uniforms. They refused comment on the case.

They were arrested aboard the stern trawler Kolyvan and the factory ship Lamut when the ships were seized by the Coast Guard cutter Storvick 9.1 miles off Cape Upright on St. Matthews Island. The United States claims exclusive fishing rights 12 miles offshore.

"This record assessment against the Soviet fishermen and their vessels may be taken as further evidence of our stern attitude toward illegal foreign intrusion into the contiguous zone off Alaska," said U.S. Attorney G. Kent Edwards.

Jacqueline claims harassment in suit

NEW YORK (UPI) — The trial of countercharges between Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and freelance photographer Ronald E. Galella opened Wednesday with Galella's attorney claiming his client had the constitutional right to photograph the former First Lady.

The cross suits were heard concurrently by U.S. District Judge Irving Ben Cooper, sitting with a jury.

Mrs. Onassis, who claims Galella has followed her constantly for several years and frightened her and her children, is seeking to make permanent a temporary injunction preventing the photographer from approaching within 50 yards of her or 100 yards of her apartment house. She has dropped a monetary harassment suit against him, a $6 million suit, which was later scaled down to $1.8 million.

Galella is seeking $1.5 million in damages, charging he was falsely arrested and maliciously prosecuted at Mrs. Onassis' instigation.

Attorney Alfred Julien said Galella was merely pursuing a "legitimate, recognized occupation that is part of freedom of the press." He said he had never hurt Mrs. Onassis and always had photographed her in public places.

TF changes accounting system

TWIN FALLS — City Clerk Edythe Kootz and her staff will be starting a new accounting system for Twin Falls City books with the adoption of the 1972 budget.

City Manager Jean Miller said the city, along with most other major cities in Idaho, will go to uniform accounting when the 1973 budget becomes effective.

He said it will involve considerable work to make the conversion since each account will be operating under a new number. When completed, it will place city accounts on a system similar to that of other cities and will make accounting to the state on such matters as gasoline tax funds much easier.

The system adopted a number of years ago in Twin Falls is similar to that now approved on a state-wide basis, Miller said, except for the heading and figures of some accounts.

TF employees' pay hiked

By BONNIE JONES
Times-News writer

TWIN FALLS — Although a 1972 budget for Twin Falls City is not yet complete, it appears it will include about a 5.5 per cent salary increase for all city employees.

Jean Millar, city manager, said he has been instructed by the City Council to prepare the budget with salaries showing an increase of this amount, taking into consideration some special fringe benefits as part of the 5.5 per cent increase.

This is a major factor in the current budget preparation, Millar said, and covers all city employees. This amount has been offered the city fire fighters although negotiations are still underway with that organization.

Millar said he plans to have the salary schedule complete for adoption by resolution in the Tuesday night meeting of the council.

At that time, he said he will recommend dates to the council for advertising of the city budget and public hearing on the budget. The city manager said he plans to recommend March 20 as the date for public hearing.

Explaining comparison figures on actual expenditures and contemplated expenditures are difficult to show, Millar said he believes, if considering the 1972 budget in terms of the old mill levy system, it will show about an 11 per cent increase in actual cost to taxpayers over the 1971 figure.

Purpose of the budget, he said, is to provide funds not only to keep pace but to improve services and facilities in the city. He said council members have been meeting in work sessions during the past several weeks and have attempted to provide for services needed and requested by citizens of Twin Falls and meet the regular increase in operation costs.

He said citizens are finding other costs higher each year and considering salary increases for city employees as called for under the Phase 2 of the President's economic program, taxpayers must anticipate higher costs in all government agencies.

Millar said some personnel shifts have been made to better carry out duties and yet hold down salary costs. He said two persons will be added to the city forces this year in the way of fulltime work which means eliminating some parttime jobs and combining others to hold down the increase.

As for maintenance and operation the city plans to hold to last year's costs as closely as possible. Capital improvements, Millar said, include no major items except for the expanded street program for 1972 and some airport improvements in the way of new surface on parking and taxiways.

Some minor strengthening of the main floor of the fire station will also be required this year because of the heavy equipment and vibration from running fire engines in and out of the building.

Attorney speaks

TWIN FALLS — Robert Campbell, local attorney, spoke to the Twin Falls Education Association Tuesday afternoon at Lincoln School.

He discussed problems connected with estate planning, probate, court, inheritance taxes, guardianship of children and trust funds. A question and answer period followed.

Mrs. Joan Carr gave a report on concepts of teacher accountability. Mrs. Doris Ransom reported on proposed changes in elementary certification.

Heather Square

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING shows completed version of small shopping center at West Five Points in Twin Falls. Construction on the 160 by 42 foot building behind Lindbloom's to house three businesses is expected to be underway by March 15, Jack Radtke, builder, reports. The center will be known as Heather Square.

New TF 'mini' center slated

TWIN FALLS — Plans for a "mini shopping center" at West Five Points in Twin Falls were announced today by Jack Radtke, building contractor.

To be known as Heather Square, the area will include the present Lindbloom's department and wall cover business with a new building to be constructed at the rear. The new building, 160 by 42 feet will house three additional businesses.

Heather Jones, Boise, owner of the Lindbloom building and property, said the new structure will house firms appealing to the women's market. Plans tentatively call for a ready-to-wear women's shop in the center portion with two smaller shops on either side.

The new building will be of building block, glass and shingled end walls, with shingled mansard roof to match the existing Lindbloom building which Radtke constructed over a year ago. Radtke said the building will cover a total of 6,972 square feet with 21,198 square feet of parking. Redesign of the intersection has been taken into consideration in the building program, he said.

Demolition of a cinder block garage and another vacant structure at the rear and west of the property will begin this week, Radtke said, with construction to follow immediately. He said it is hoped the new building will be ready for occupancy this spring with construction underway by March 15.

The small shopping center will be directly across the street from Albertson's Food Store. Lindbloom's is owned by Richard Lindbloom, Boise, and provides interior decorating service, paints, and other wall covering and interior design services.

Trustees hear CSI food plan

TWIN FALLS — The College of Southern Idaho might go into the food business.

Dr. James L. Taylor, college president, told the board of trustees at its monthly meeting Wednesday he is "investigating" the possibility of having the college take over its food catering service.

The service is currently contracted out to Saga, a professional catering service.

Taylor said other schools in the area are operating their own services, and he would seek information while on a trip to Dallas, Tex., for a professional conference.

He cited several possible benefits to the college if the plan were to succeed. They include new vocational technical training programs for waitresses, cooks and other personnel with federal funding for the programs possible; greater "flexibility" for college functions requiring meal service and lower overall costs to the college.

Taylor said the plan would probably necessitate hiring a full-time food manager for administrative purposes.

The trustees, who seemed surprised by the president's announcement, generally reacted favorably to it.

Taylor said he had until March 30 to let Saga know of the school's plans for next year.

CSI building 82% complete

TWIN FALLS — The College of Southern Idaho will be able to move into its new vocational technical building this summer, according to President Dr. James L. Taylor.

Taylor told the college trustees Wednesday the building was 82 per cent complete in 79 per cent of the allotted time, and said "There'll be no trouble at all in occupying the building this summer."

Taylor also reported progress in the college's effort to establish an educational television station at the school. He said he was currently re-submitting an application to the Federal Communication Commission for the rights to channel 15 in Twin Falls.

He had said two weeks ago he expected a ruling from the FCC early in March and at that time had expressed hope the request would be approved. Taylor said he had permission from Twin Falls television station KMYT to make use of its antenna site near Jerome where the station established. He also said after the meeting he had promises of equipment from both the Twin Falls station and Boise station KBOI.

Malta co-op puts lines underground

Editor's Note: The following is a reprint of an article printed in our Public Lands, a Bureau of Land Management national magazine.

By LEWIS O. MARTINDALE
Raft River Resource Area Manager

ROBERT J. BROCK
BLM District Office, Burley
The view of the Snake River and the rugged Sawtooth Mountains beyond is beautiful from the public lands on the top of Cotton Mountain. Cotton Mountain is a small mountain range about 20 miles south-east of Burley.

For the first time in more than 10 years, no power poles or powerlines obstruct this view. The only evidence of the powerline that remains is the trace of a 6-inch-wide trench running down the mountain. In about two years, even the scar will be erased and no longer noticeable.

This improvement was made possible when Raft River Electric Co-op Inc., of Malta, decided to alter traditional overhead lines by going underground on an experimental basis. Now, after five projects and more than 17 miles of underground line, the latest of which is the nearly five miles across the top of rugged Cotton Mountain, Raft River Electric feels buried powerlines have a definite future.

As Boyd Booth, line foreman for Raft River Electric, says, "Although still experimental, the public likes the idea of hidden lines and there are places where we find it difficult to keep overhead lines in service."

Raft River Electric had to take into account several considerations before a decision was made whether to transport power by overhead lines or underground cable.

Amount of power to be wheeled.

Installation cost. Future maintenance costs. Aesthetics and watershed damages.

The utility has buried both single-phase and three-phase lines. The single-phase lines carry 7,200 volts and the three-phase up to 24,900 volts. Neither line has lost any significant amount of voltage by going underground. Material costs for overhead single-phase lines are about $840 per mile. To carry three-phase power, only additional wire is needed with no additional poles or hardware.

Material costs for underground cable are $1,343 per mile for single-phase power. For three-phase power this figure is tripled because three lines are required.

While material costs can be predetermined, installation costs for overhead line vary greatly, however, depending upon terrain.

An installed single-phase line, including material, will run from $1,800 per mile on flat ground with little rock to more than $2,200 per mile on steep, inaccessible terrain that is rocky.

One of the first underground projects undertaken by Raft River Electric was across flat, rocky ground. Due to rental equipment, lack of experience, breakdowns, and weather conditions, the project cost more than $3,000 per mile, including materials. However, in the most recent projects on Cotton Mountain, using company equipment and with three other projects under their belt for experience, the cost was $2,200 per mile, including materials.

Raft River Electric feels that due to the extremely rocky conditions and steep terrain, this was actually less expensive than an overhead line would have been.

The trench on all projects in rocky soils are pre-ripped with a D-8 size tractor using a large ripper tooth before any line is laid. The next pass with the ripper opens the trench and the line is laid at least 30 inches deep. In rock free soils, no pre-ripping is needed.

Engineer Golden Gardner feels that now that Raft River Electric has gained experience and owns its equipment, a single-phase underground line will be no more expensive than overhead line.

Future maintenance costs for underground power lines appear to be the big selling factor as far as Raft River Electric is concerned. Although the underground lines have not been in use long enough for a real test, the utility feels that the maintenance will be nil if the lines are properly installed.

The only problems so far have been some minor vandalism and a burnout due to improper installation.

This is not the case with overhead lines. Poles and crossarms require routine checking and continual maintenance. Summer lightning storms and winter icing create a constant maintenance problem in higher elevations.

These two factors alone convinced Raft River Electric to convert its overhead line on Cotton Mountain to an underground installation.

Of great importance was the consideration of aesthetics and watershed damages. Both of these factors affect not only the image portrayed by the power company but the goals set by the Environmental Policy Act as well. Raft River Electric believes underground lines maintain the aesthetic value of an area with no powerlines to obstruct the picturesque view of the otherwise open space areas. There are no steep maintenance roads scarring the landscape, which is subject to erosion.

The utility has invested more than $20,000 in specialized equipment and is proud of its work. At this point utility officials feel single-phase lines are good investments to go underground.

Bud Tracey, work order accountant for Raft River Electric, says, "We haven't solved all the problems of burying three-phase power yet but, with improving technology and equipment, I'm sure it will only be a matter of time."

Raft River Electric, a small company servicing only 1,700 customers in south central Idaho and corners of Utah and Nevada, has pioneered underground powerlines and feels they are here to stay.

Raft River Electric eliminated overhead by going underground

Connally repudiates his own department study

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Treasury Secretary John B. Connally Wednesday repudiated a confidential study by his own department which dismissed as "infeasible" the administration's goal of reducing unemployment to 4 per cent without reigniting inflation.

Caught by surprise when Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., made the document public at a hearing of the House-Senate Joint Economic Committee, Connally said the Treasury study was "a working paper" which did not represent administration thinking.

"I would strongly recommend that we try to find out who gave you that document," Connally told Proxmire. "I'd like him to come up here and defend it."

Connally said the paper "does not have the stamp of approval of the Treasury department."

In another development, Agriculture Secretary Earl W. Butz assailed what he said were demands for price controls on food.

Butz said that when beef cattle prices reached their peak last month, "agitation for price controls on food" increased. But the secretary said in a speech for Tennessee stockmen in Nashville:

"There can't be price controls on food without you getting hurt."

Contending that controls would be harmful, Butz said they would "merely put a ceiling on farm prices that are still too low—and just at a time when they are getting nearer to what they ought to be."

Calls for controls on food prices were made by some consumer spokesmen in Congress and elsewhere after the all-time high in beef cattle prices was hit at mid-January, followed last week by an Agriculture Department forecast that food prices would rise this year by up to 4 per cent. The increase last year was 2.4 per cent.

Butz was critical of "self-styled consumer champions" such as Ralph Nader who he said had misled the public in criticizing farm policies.

As in other recent speeches attacking proposals to control food prices, Butz insisted that although retail food prices have increased, food remains one of the most reasonable buys available.

"It's about time farmers got better and fairer prices for their food," Butz said.

Connally, meanwhile urged congressional economic experts not to judge the effects of the administration's wage-price controls on a few decisions that exceeded the program's own guidelines.

Connally told the House-Senate Joint Economic Committee that the first 41 wage settlements approved by the Pay Board averaged 5.9 per cent, just slightly more than the board's 5.8 per cent yardstick for wage increases during 1972.

Within this group, the board approved a coalminers' contract averaging a 12.6 per cent increase in the first year and indicated it would okay an 8.4 per cent pay hike for 100,000 aerospace workers.

Connally said such high settlements were predictable, but added that "many people" migration would meet its goal of reducing the rate of inflation to less than 3 per cent by the end of the year.

On the price front, Connally told the committee there was a "good chance" that the administration would meet its goal of reducing the rate of inflation to less than 3 per cent by the end of the year.

China ranks 3rd

65 and over

Rahman renews peace

WASHINGTON (UPI)—China now ranks as the third most important nuclear power in the world, and the United States must be prepared to fight simultaneous atomic wars with both China and the Soviet Union, America's top military officer said Wednesday.

Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said the United States still leads the world in nuclear might. But he said the Soviet Union is catching up fast and could, without a vigorous new U.S. weapons program, gain "over-all strategic superiority within this decade."

Regardless of how the relationship among these three nations may develop in the future, U.S. strategic forces must always be sufficient to cope with both the Soviet Union and China, simultaneously, Moorer said in his annual report on U.S. military preparedness.

"Even if we were involved in a nuclear war with only one of these nations, we would still need sufficient strategic resources to deter—simultaneously—a nuclear attack from the other," he said. Russia must take similar measures to deal with China's growing stature.

Appearing before the Senate Armed Services Committee on the eve of President Nixon's historic trip to China, Moorer said the Chinese have mounted "a most impressive research and development program" to produce missiles and nuclear warheads.

"The Peoples Republic of China is now emerging as a still minor, but nonetheless significant, nuclear power... perhaps the third most important nuclear power in the world," he said.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, moved Wednesday to establish a new and upgraded federal picture to serve 20 million Americans now age 65 and over, and many millions more to come.

He introduced a bill to serve as a "cornerstone" in a broad legislative effort to make the most of the momentum generated by a White House Conference on Aging held several weeks ago.

Church is the chairman of the Senate Special Committee on Aging. His action on aging bill prepared for introduction Wednesday, calls for establishment of an independent office on aging at the White House level to be directed by an assistant on aging to the President.

DACCA (UPI)—Armed former guerrillas, who had been occupying a part of the camp since the end of the Indo-Pakistani war Dec. 16, The troops had spent the war in their barracks because the West Pakistan occupation army did not trust their allegiance since most were Bengalis.

Bengali sources said at least one person was killed in the gun battle early in the day in the camp about one mile from the center of Dacca.

The sources said the fighting erupted after an exchange of insults and taunts by former guerrillas applying for enlistment into the militia and the Bangladesh government, which apparently had decided what to do with them had kept the ERP confined to the camp.

Soloists named for TF concert

TWIN FALLS — Soloists for the second concert by the Magic Valley Symphony Orchestra will be Lawrence M. Curtis, clarinetist, and Cathy Dudley, violinist.

Curtis is assistant professor of music and director of bands at the College of Southern Idaho and Miss Dudley is a senior at Twin Falls High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Dudley, Twin Falls.

The orchestra, Del Slaughter conducting, will perform Tuesday, Feb. 22 at 8 p.m. in the CSI Fine Arts Center Auditorium.

Curtis is a native of Pasadena, Calif., married, and the father of three children. During four years as a navy musician, he was principal clarinet with the U. S. Navy School of Music Band in Washington, D. C., the Sixth Fleet Band in Europe and the Naval Training Center Band in San Diego.

While in Europe, he performed for the king and queen of Greece, the president of Italy, Gen. Eisenhower and Winston Churchill. After the service, he was principal clarinet with the bands and orchestras of Pasadena City College, San Diego State College and the University of Redlands.

Curtis' private clarinet teachers were Vincent Donatelli, the principal clarinet with the RKO Studio Orchestra, and Kalman Bloch, the principal clarinet with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

He received his B.A. degree from San Diego State College and his M.M. degree from the University of Redlands. After college he performed with the Redlands Symphony and the La Jolla Symphony. He has appeared as featured clarinet soloist with the Los Angeles County Band, the band and orchestra of Pasadena City College, the San Diego Youth Symphony and the University of Redlands Band.

He taught for several years in the San Diego area and twice had the area's outstanding band representing the county in the Rose Parade in Pasadena. In 1967, he was selected band director of the year by the San Diego Jaycees. Currently he often serves as adjudicator and clinician at music festivals and clinics, and is the principal clarinet with the Twin Falls Municipal Band and the Magic Valley Symphony.

Last year, Curtis served as musical director for the Dilettante production of "Oliver" and will appear again in that capacity when "Guys and Dolls" is presented in March.

Miss Dudley, a senior at Twin Falls High School, began playing viola as a sixth grader, first studying with Mrs. Larry Christopherson. For the past four years, she has been a student of Mrs. Del Slaughter, and at the present time is studying with Sally Peck, principal violinist with the Utah Symphony Orchestra.

She has participated in the 1970 All-State Orchestra, the 1971 All-Northwest Orchestra, and will be in the All-State group again this year. Last year she soloed with the Idaho State University Symphony Orchestra in Pocatello. For the past several years she has attended several summer music camps, Ricks, University of Idaho and Sun Valley. As a hobby, Cathy writes poetry.

Selections by the orchestra will include "First Symphony" by S. Kalinnikow (allegro, allegro non troppo, moderato assai and allegro moderato) and "Man of La Mancha," arranged by Philip J. Lang, with music by Mitch Leigh.

Families will be admitted on patron tickets and members of the Junior Music Clubs may present their membership cards for admission. There will be no tickets available at the door, but general admission tickets may be obtained prior to the concert at the Warner Music Co. and Garth's Music Center in downtown Twin Falls, and at Sullivan's Music in the Lynwood Shopping Center.

A Lovelier You

CAN YOU LIFT A TON?

By Mary Sue Miller

The idea that any female could lift a 2000-pound weight is not credible. Nonetheless, many of us do it. Here's how:

Let us suppose that you are 10 pounds overweight. With each step you take you lift an extra 10 pounds.

Take 200 steps (a very short walk) and you lift an extra ton of weight!

Right there you have a prime example of why overweight is a drag on your energy and health, as well as your appearance. Does it not make reducing seem more than ever desirable?

Reducing need not or should not be the struggle so many overweights put forth. The workable method combines an approved diet and mild exercise. One without the other lessens effectiveness. Diet disposes of weight, exercise proportionally tones the slimming figure.

Once you put your mind to it, exercise becomes a stimulating performance. Diet, although you may not believe it until you try, loses all terrors. The first few days may take a bit of doing. The reduction in your food intake may cause both real and fancied hunger pangs.

But there's many a way that those discomforts can be curbed. You can save your skim milk allotment to sate between-meal hunger pangs. You can sip a cool non-cal beverage or plain aqua pura. To take the edge off your mealtime appetite, drink a half-cup of citrus juice thirty minutes beforehand or make your first course a generous green salad. That way you get to diet and like it.

Inspect files

VOLUMINOUS FILES in the medical records department at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital are inspected by Mrs. Mary Lou England, on left, director of the department, and Evelyn Tremaine, on right, the hospital's first intern. Miss Tremaine worked in the department for two weeks in a cooperative arrangement with Whitworth College, Spokane, Wash.

Hospital's first 'intern' program rated successful

TWIN FALLS — Magic Valley Memorial Hospital's first internship program, though only two weeks in length, showed marked success, according to hospital authorities.

The internship brought a Jerome student at Whitworth College, Evelyn Tremaine, 20, granddaughter of Mrs. Gladys Albertson, Jerome and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tremaine, Twin Falls, to the hospital during January, where she worked in the medical records department.

Miss Tremaine is studying the relatively little-known field of medical records administration — a field which offers a promising career for young women who seek a field which is not overcrowded and has little chance of being "computerized" out of existence.

Medical records are the lifeblood of every hospital, Miss Tremaine explained. Voluminous and detailed records must be kept on every medical procedure involving every patient, for later reference by physicians and for reference in the event of a dispute over treatment.

Each physician treating a patient at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital dictates his medication orders, diagnosis and all relevant data into the hospital's built-in dictation system. The medical records department, including five full-time women and one part-time worker under the direction of Mrs. Mary Lou England, transcribes the physicians' notes into permanent records which must be kept for 28 years, under state law.

All newborns are also recorded in depth — any medical problems, all physical data, everything, pertaining to each newcomer's new life is kept on file for future reference.

Whitworth College, Spokane, Wash., is one of the few northwest colleges teaching medical records technology. Two years ago, Whitworth initiated a unique month-long between semesters "short term" during January. Whitworth students are allowed to take intensive four-week courses for college credit during "Jan term," as the students call it.

This year, for the first time, Whitworth initiated the hospital "internships" with Magic Valley and St. Luke's Hospital in Boise, specifically for Miss Tremaine. She worked for two weeks in Twin Falls, then moved to Boise to get the feel of a large metropolitan hospital.

At the Twin Falls facility, working under Mrs. England, the young intern filed records, transcribed medical data, worked with birth certificates and death records and became acquainted with newborn data.

Transcribing oral material from the physicians who have learned often difficult pronunciations for various words can present problems according to Miss Tremaine. One word that gave the whole department a bit of a puzzle was the familiar "umbilicus," usually pronounced something like "um-bil-i-cus," with the accent on the second syllable.

When the word came up "um-bil-like-us," with the accent on "like," transcription work came to a sudden halt, she recalled. "None of the other girls had heard such a word, and we spent a bit of time looking in dictionaries before we untangled the mystery," she said.

After studying a wide variety of medical-related fields, including biology, medical terminology and zoology, Miss Tremaine will move into a full-time hospital position next year at Providence Hospital in Seattle.

In a cooperative arrangement with Seattle University, she will enroll in the university's internship program, working throughout the school year at Providence Hospital in the medical records department.

Following her internship, she will receive her diploma from Whitworth College, much as if she had attended there full time.

Miss Tremaine also attended the College of Southern Idaho for her freshman and sophomore college years, taking an assortment of pre-medical-type subjects in preparation for her career.

The position of medical records administrator — termed records librarian until confusion developed over the "librarian" aspect — offers a continuing challenge to young women seeking a worthwhile career. The field is not likely to become overcrowded, as hospitals are expanding their services constantly to keep up with skyrocketing use, hospital spokesmen say.

The position offers good pay directly from college. In addition, Miss Tremaine received a great deal of encouragement from Miss England and from her supervisors at St. Luke's Hospital, who promised to help her find a position after graduation if she needs any help.

"We certainly enjoyed this first-ever internship," Mrs. England said, "and hope to have another Whitworth student return next January."

If South takes the trouble to think the whole play out he notes that he has no play in his contract unless West leads at least three hearts. Then South starts on hearts, and lifts.

East shows out on the third heart so South can cash out his fourth heart. Then he works out clubs and gets rid of his last diamond loser on the third club.

Slamming clubs were not then South would offer clubs and hope for the best while reserving his fourth heart play for the end.

Pretty patients present problem

teeth, but I don't know how. Would you please help me?

NO PHONY

DEAR NO PHONY: Say, "I have a confession to make. Part of me is false. I have four false teeth. Do you still want to marry me?" (I think he'll be relieved. Twenty-eight REAL teeth out of 32 [isn't bad].)

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a psychiatrist who is a wonderful husband and father. We have two preschool children. I suppose I shouldn't have any problems, but I find that I become very anxious and jealous when I hear of his women patients who are attractive, talented, and lead such glamorous lives. I do a little volunteer work but really enjoy being a housewife and mother.

How do I keep from feeling insecure and jealous, Abby? Should I seek the counsel of my husband's partner? Or should I confess my feelings straight to my husband who seems to help everyone else?

NEEDS ADVICE

DEAR NEEDS: You say, "I suppose I shouldn't have any problems." EVERYBODY has problems. And that includes psychiatrists and their wives. Why should you be immune? I don't recommend talking to your husband's partner. It may create the appearance of impropriety where none exists, which would be embarrassing to your husband. Instead, tell your husband exactly how you feel and if he loves you (and I think he does), he will give you the assurance you need.

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this guy for over a year and we have become quite serious. In fact he wants to marry me.

The problem is, before I knew him I was in an accident, and four of my front teeth were knocked out and I had to have false ones put in.

I think my false teeth look natural, and several people have commented on my beautiful smile. I really think I should tell my boy friend about my false

DEAR ABBY: In our office your column is often a subject of our lunch hour discussions. One in particular from the lady who spent Thanksgiving alone because she had six sons but no daughters. We all wondered what kind of relationships she must have had with her daughters in law. We all have a mother-in-law, and will probably be one some day ourselves, and thus we have come up with a suggested Mother in Law's prayer:

"Lord, help me to be glad when my son (or daughter) picks a mate. If he brings home a girl with two heads, help me to love both of them equally. And when my son says, 'Mom, I want to get married,' forbid that I should blurt out, 'How far along is she?'"

"And please, Lord, help me to get thru the wedding preparations without a squabble with the 'other side.' And drive from my mind the belief that had my child waited a while, she could have done better."

"Dear Lord, remind me daily that when I become a grandmother, that my children don't want any advice on how to raise their children any more than I did when I was raising mine."

If you will help me to do these things, perhaps my children will find me a joy to be around, and maybe I won't have to write to Dear Abby about my children neglecting me."

Measure detergent carefully. Most people use way too much.

Fashionette

Tennis fashions really have changed, according to fashion historians at Russ Courtswear. Says they: "In 16th-century England, boned and corseted men played doubles with boned and corseted ladies. Neither was really able to make a fast rush to the net." (Maybe they weren't playing tennis? Without a fast rush to the net, could it be tennis?).

Ketchum closes railroad station

KETCHUM — The last railroad depot in the Wood River Valley was closed today following a brief ceremony.

Union Pacific employees had boarded up the depot and removed the records to Shoshone Tuesday night, from where the road's branch line to Hailey and Ketchum will be served.

Closing of the station, which served Hailey and Ketchum, was approved by the Idaho Public Utilities Commission in January on the road's request.

C. L. Schfield has been serving as agent for the railroad here.

Bids for the sale of the depot have been sought by the line for the past four months. The depot has served Ketchum for most of the years since the Union Pacific line arrived here in 1885.

The railroad cited operating expenses matching or exceeding revenue in its petition to close the station.

Jerome principal takes Filer post

JEROME — The Jerome school board of trustees Wednesday accepted without prejudice the resignation of Ray Baker, Jerome Junior High School principal.

Supt. John B. Campbell read a letter from Baker which stated he was leaving the district effective the end of this school year to accept a position as superintendent of schools at Filer. Baker will replace Tom Turner, present Filer superintendent, who is retiring.

Baker said in the letter he regrets leaving the district, but felt it was time he got back into the superintendent field.

Baker has been junior high principal in Jerome for the past 2 1/2 years. Before coming to Jerome, he was a teacher at Robert Stuart Junior High School, Twin Falls.

He is currently president of the Jerome Lions Club and is active in the Toastmasters Club.

Baker served 14 years as superintendent of various Montana school systems, including Dayton, Townsend and Box Elder. He was also elementary superintendent at Glendive, Mont.

He holds a B. S. degree from the University of North Dakota and a master's degree from the University of Montana.

Baker had been rehired earlier this week by the trustees in a 3-2 decision.

Burley swine carcass winner

FILER — A barrow owned by Gale Wrigley, Burley, was chosen first place winner at the carcass show Wednesday evening at the Independent Meat Co., Twin Falls.

The show was in conjunction with the swine show and sale at the Twin Falls County Fairgrounds in Filer.

Wrigley received a trophy from the Independent Meat Co. and 400 pounds of starter pellets from Union Seed Co., Burley.

Mel Frankie, Kuna, entered the second place carcass. Leon Melne, Burley, placed third, and Wrigley was fourth. Each received a cash award from the Idaho Swine Breeders Association, sponsor of the show and sale.

Dr. John Miller, University of Idaho Extension Service, and Otto Florence, of the meat company, were in charge of the carcass show. They were assisted by Wade Wells of the University of Idaho and Joe Wilhelm, Kuna.

Jerome gets ruling for regional airport role

JEROME — Jerome County Prosecuting Attorney Eugene Frederickson said today he has received a copy of a ruling on the authority of the Interim Regional Airport Board.

The opinion, issued from the Idaho attorney general's office by assistant attorney General John Cronet, states that the Interim Regional Airport Board has the same authority as the permanently elected board.

The board has the authority to levy a half mill against Jerome County and other counties which passed the authority at the last election, according to the ruling.

The opinion also says the board is to certify annually to the county commissioners in the region the amount of tax to be levied for airport purposes not to exceed one mill. County commissioners shall levy and collect the tax.

Frederickson said "in light of the opinion from the attorney general's office, it is not up to the county commissioners to go against the law; therefore, we will act according to the opinion in adopting the county budget."

At Monday's county budget hearing, opposition was raised by several farmers to the county levying of a half mill for the Regional Airport Board. They stated they felt it was unconstitutional and that the two men serving on the board, Twin Falls County, where the authority was voted down, had no authority to tell the counties voting for it what they should now do.

Harold Bulcher, asked the county commissioners not to include the money in this year's budget so the Regional Airport Authority would be forced to raise the county for the money, thereby giving the citizens a chance to let the constitutionality of the board and its authority in a court of law.

Canvass vote

JEROME — Jerome school trustees held a special meeting Wednesday night to canvass the vote of Tuesday's $1.9 million bond election.

The official vote, duly certified by clerk, Warren Kays, was 1,023 yes and 1,325 no.

The board made no decision on what the district will do now that the bond election failed.

Dale Vining, chairman of the board, said following the meeting, "The voters have made their decision and the district will do the best it can with the facilities now available and try to give the best possible education to the students."

Jerome school needs repairs

JEROME — An insurance investigator told Jerome school officials that extensive repairs are needed at the Lincoln School before it can be insured.

Kenneth Conameier, insurance investigator for the Insurance Company of North America, inspected the school Wednesday.

He told Supt. John Campbell that new stairwells, new floors, new electrical wiring, new toilet facilities and roof repairs are needed.

District maintenance supervisor William Hopkins estimated the cost of the repairs would be $90,000.

Campbell said there is no money in the school's budget for such repairs. Funds could only come from the instructional portion of the budget, he said.

"In order to do this, certain programs and some of the teaching staff will have to be cut," Campbell said.

District plans had called for the school to be torn down. The district plans to use the building following bond Tuesday of a school bond election for school construction.

Campbell said the investigator's visit was a coincidence, rather than arranged to fail shortly after the election.

Accreditation given despite problems

JEROME — Jerome school trustees learned Wednesday night that the Jerome High School had again received accreditation, despite shortcomings.

Board chairman Dale Vining read a letter from the Northwest Association of Secondary and High Schools and the Idaho State Committee which reported that Jerome High School has been accredited for the 1971-72 school year.

The letter commented on several deviations from minimum standards for accreditation and recommended that attempts be made to correct them.

Inadequacies in science, vocational-technical, and physical education, student rest rooms, safety, faculty work room, student sick room facilities, lack of art courses, lack of recordings, study prints and carrels for individual study in the media room. Also pointed out was the fact that one teacher conducts daily classes for 208 students with no preparation period. Other deviations from minimum standards were mentioned in the letter.

Blaine short funds but awards jail contracts

BY TERRY CAMPBELL
Times-News writer

HAILEY — Blaine County Commissioners said today they are about $20,000 short of funds for new jail construction in contracts awarded Wednesday.

Commission Chairman John Fox said the commissioners are investigating additional means of funding the construction of the new jail after awarding contracts for $270,350.

The project was divided into two bids — construction and jail equipment. Mitchell Construction Co., Pocatello, was awarded the contract for construction on a bid of $182,650.

The commissioners discarded alternate bids which included air conditioning for the sheriff's office and heating pipes beneath the garage driveway because of the cost overrun.

The $87,500 bid of Stewart-Decatur Security Systems, Covington, Ky., was accepted for furnishing and installation of jail equipment.

Cost for the jail had been estimated at $248,000 by Sundberg and Associates, Idaho Falls, architects for the project.

Seven other companies bid on the project. Two bid under $184,000 and three others exceeded $185,000. Only one other jail equipment firm submitted a bid of $128,000 on that portion of the project.

Officials at the bid opening included the three county commissioners; County Clerk George McCoy; Keith Sundberg and Merlin Alderson, representing the architects, and Frank Finlayson, Law Enforcement Planning Commission, Region 3.

The jail, to be constructed south of the present courthouse, will house the sheriff's department, driver's license registration, and the Hailey chief of police office. Construction will begin as soon as snow melts. Mitchell Construction Co. will have 100 working days in which to complete the project.

The $248,000 was to be provided by federal grants totaling 50 per cent and state grants of 25 per cent.

In other action Wednesday, commissioners rejected two bids for an electronic accounting computer for the treasurer's office. Commissioner Ray Sweet said the bids by National Cash Register and Burroughs were rejected "because of cost." Commissioners decided to delay a decision until they try out mechanical equipment available at lower cost.

Thieves hit two TF motels

TWIN FALLS — Two motels in Twin Falls were hit by thieves who completely stripped two rooms Tuesday night, police reports indicate.

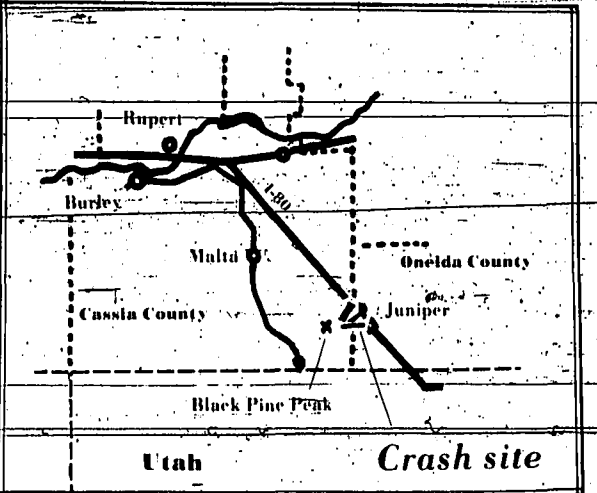

Norman Bergner, manager of the Holiday Inn, told police two men checked into the motel Tuesday evening, giving an out of state address. When the housekeeping staff prepared to make up the room the following morning they found the room stripped of about $400 in bedding, towels, a color television set and other items.

A short time later police were notified by Morris Cobb, owner of the Imperial 400 Motel, with a similar report. Cobb told police a man with an Arizona address arrived and rented a room, saying he would pick up a friend at the airport later and would be sleeping in the next morning.

A maid discovered the guests had gone and taken most of the room appointments with them.

Capt. Tim Qualls, chief of detectives, said items taken included ash trays, waste paper baskets, shower curtains and larger items such as pillows, bedding and television sets.

He warned motel owners and managers to check identification carefully to prevent similar losses.

Crash victim found by his brothers in Oneida

STREVELL — Two brothers of a missing Colorado pilot discovered the wreckage of his plane near Interstate 80 northeast of here Wednesday.

Later in the day, the body of Bernard Burkholder, 48, Sterling, Colo., was removed from the wreckage of his aerobatic plane and taken to Malad.

Burkholder had been missing since Sunday when his plane vanished in clouds near Strevel Pass. The wreckage was three quarters of a mile west of the Juniper Interchange on I-80, a quarter of a mile east of the Cassia-Oneida County line.

Sheriff Kenneth Wharton of Oneida County said the plane, apparently headed west, crashed in a dry field and wheat field owned by David Clegg, Soda Springs. The wreckage was scattered and the tail section appeared to be the only part of the plane intact.

Burkholder's body was still inside the cockpit, with the seat belt intact although his seat was torn loose by the impact of the crash.

"The wreckage was spotted about 11 a.m. by Burkholder's brothers, flying a twin-engine plane. Flying from a Utah airport, they were grounded Tuesday by clouds but were on their second pass over the crash site when they saw the wreckage."

Civil Air Patrol sources said the wreckage was found in the area where the search was concentrated. Utah and Idaho CAP pilots took part in the search.

Cassia County sheriff's officers led the first party of volunteers to the crash site, arriving about 2 p.m. on snowmobiles. They called Oneida County officers when they found the wreckage was in that county.

Burkholder's body was taken to a Malad funeral home. An autopsy was ordered and will be conducted at Malad, Wharton said. Federal Aviation Administration officials are continuing their investigation into the crash.

Burkholder was flying from LaGrande, Ore., to Sterling, Colo., when his plane crashed Sunday.

Richard Kennett, Paul, a pilot who flew over the site of the crash, said the wrecked aircraft had not burned.

Kennett said the wreckage was in an open area west of the Juniper Interchange. The engine was about 15 or 20 feet from the rest of the plane, and the wings were folded along the sides of the fuselage of the high wing monoplane.

He speculated that the pilot of the wrecked plane had been following the interstate and apparently crashed while trying to turn off losing sight of the highway in clouds or snow.

"He was heading west when he crashed," Kennett said. "The area is open and if the pilot had been able to see the ground he could have landed safely." Kennett said since the land in the vicinity of the crash slopes upward toward Black Pine Mountain, a ridge may have prevented the wreckage from being seen from the highway.

The ground at the crash site was covered by a foot of snow Wednesday.

Kennett was leaving the Burley airport when word came that the crash site had been found. He later flew over the site with an observer from the Idaho Department of Aeronautics.

Mrs. Rindfy has been an area resident for 15 years, coming to this area from California. She has been employed at the J. R. Simplot Co. and Oneida Foods, Inc.

TF school chief charged with rebuffing offers

BY DAVID ESPO
Times-News writer

TWIN FALLS — A representative of the Community Improvement Association Wednesday night charged school superintendent George Staudacher with rebuffing an offer of volunteer assistance in the classrooms.

"He slapped it in the face," Mrs. Donna Krefl told about 50 persons at the CIA meeting prior to a panel discussion of kindergarten.

Mrs. Krefl, chairman of the CIA's meeting, told a meeting Staudacher also told her the kids are in school to learn English when asked about hiring Mexican-American counselors for the district.

Staudacher said today the superintendent also said "just isn't true. He also said the superintendent also said problems with letting anyone, the charges about the counselor weren't true. "We already have one Mexican-American counselor," he said, "and we'd hire more if we had the money. They're very beneficial."

Present on the kindergarten panel were Robert Mavily, Burley, a representative of Voters For 3-Year-Olds; Mrs. Ruth Day, school trustee; Mrs. Marilyn Meacham, adult education instructor at the College of Southern Idaho; Paul Swatzenberg of the Child Development Center, and Barbara Jessen, Head Start teacher in Twin Falls.

Mrs. Day said today she "felt to begin with the atmosphere at the meeting was biased."

She said she thought they were out to get me.

"I don't know whether anything was accomplished at the meeting," she said, "but I thought they had the superintendent relayed information to the program in Twin Falls."

group about how the school board works.

The panel discussion, originally intended to discuss kindergartens, quickly centered around Mrs. Day, who strongly defended the job the district is doing in education.

"I think our schools are doing everything they can," she said, "Twin Falls is a healthy community and our children are not afraid to go to school."

Under persistent questioning from members of the audience, she said no one in the administration is opposed to kindergartens, but the district lacked funds to establish a district-wide program.

She also blamed a "lack of communication" with the Times-News for a public controversy over the fall cover-up of the kindergarten program.

Simplot, PGI set potato contract

BLACKFOOT — Potato growers of Idaho and the J. R. Simplot Co. have reached agreement on 1972 pre-season potato contracts. According to Melvin West, PGI bargaining committee chairman, grower members can now seek acreage commitments and contracts from the J. R. Simplot Co. In the contract announcement, the PGI and the J. R. Simplot Co. officials said the new contract contains some relaxation and tightening of specific quality clauses. Base prices are the same as the 1971 contract. The base price for U.S. grade number ones is $2.35. For U.S. No. 2 processing grade potatoes, the base price is $1.95. West said the contract puts a greater emphasis on dirt loads. He said they are trying to keep the dirt out of the processors' storage. The company can reject the potatoes or penalize the grower if the amount of dirt is beyond certain levels. In the contract is an incentive for a high percent of 10 ounce potatoes. The farmer will receive one cent per hundredweight for each percent over 23 per cent 10 ounce potatoes, up to 40 per cent. A clause lists a one-cent penalty per hundredweight for each per cent under 20 per cent of 10 oz. potatoes. The rejection level on specific gravity has been lowered from 1.076 to 1.074. However, the processor has the option of delaying harvest until the potatoes reach the specific gravity of 1.076.

Set talks

SPEAKER at the Boise Farm Forum Feb. 23 will be Rep. Jack Calhoun, R-Twin Falls. He will review pending bills affecting farmers. Sen. Neil Solberg, D-Grangeville, also will speak.

Short of it

CHICAGO (UPI) — Military technology 500 years ago brought a shift against long hair for men. Through history the amount of hair that was stylish for a man to have on his head has varied, according to Encyclopedia Britannica. In 14th century Europe locks were long. However, development of armor in the 15th century stimulated a switch to short haircuts because the buildup of heat under the helmet was uncomfortable.

Produce Prices

CHICAGO (UPI) — Live cattle and hogs prices for Feb. 17, 1972. Live cattle: 100 lb. live weight, 100 lb. live weight, 100 lb. live weight. Hogs: 100 lb. live weight, 100 lb. live weight, 100 lb. live weight.

SEATTLE (UPI) — Grain prices for Feb. 17, 1972. Soft white 1.57. White club 1.58. Hard winter 1.63. Corn 55.50-56.00. Barley 53.00.

Butter & Eggs

Emergency corn purchases end

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz announced suspension Tuesday of the emergency government corn purchase program, which he ordered immediately after taking office in December to raise prices depressed by a surplus corn supply. Butz said the purchases were no longer needed because farmers have pulled a record 817 million bushels of 1971 corn off the "free" commercial market by using it as collateral for government price support loans.

CSI drops North Idaho; ends season on weekend

College of Southern Idaho outscored North Idaho's Cardinals 21-7 midway through the second half to explode away from a 44-41 deadlock and coast into an 82-68 victory.

The decision, lifting CSI to 22-3 for the year, leaves the Eagles with two more games prior to the regional tournament. The Eagles will entertain Dixie College at 8 p.m. Friday night and wind up against the Weber State frosh here at 8 p.m. Saturday. From then on the Eagles will take a needed break until the regional begins March 6 in the CSI gym.

CSI turned loose a balanced attack to stay just ahead of North Idaho through the first 25 minutes of action. Then came the patented breakout that saw the Eagles turn several steals and turnovers into fast break buckets. Through the first half, when CSI could never manage more than eight points — and usually less than that — Vic Kelly's quickness kept CSI in the game as he picked up about every loose ball on court and North Idaho learned the hard way that you can't try an overthrow fast break pass when Kelly is back.

Dan Dressen and Kelly carried most of the scoring burden in the first half but in the second, were joined by Willie Williams and Rick Sobers. North Idaho, which fell behind by 25 points with four minutes left, got generally good outside shooting for most of the game — except during the decisive few minutes — and especially hot shooting from Gordon Smith who wound up with 22 points, 17 of them in the last half.

CSI managed a couple of six-point leads early with North Idaho coming back to within one at 18-17. Dressen's three-point play opened it again but with 2:59 left McCall hit for the Cardinals to narrow the count to 29-27. Kelly hit twice and Sobers and Steve Swanson once each to lead CSI into a 37-29 intermission advantage.

Early in the second half North Idaho threatened to take it away. Williams hit a field goal and Smith hit five points in the first 2:44 to pull North Idaho into a 40-40 tie. The teams traded two field goals before CSI starting moving out. Sobers hit on a drive and Dressen got two quick buckets. After a Taylor free throw for the Cardinals, Kelly was fouled again to shove CSI ahead 55-45. Over the next three minutes all the Eagle starters got at least one field goal as the lead blew to 70-51. It crested at 80-55 before North Idaho came back by hitting 13 of the last 15 points scored.

Only some excellent outside shooting by Bobby Jones, John Byrne and Danny Thorn kept Southern Mississippi from falling even further behind. The Southerners outrebounded Idaho 63-58, however, Tons led all players with 17 takeaways. Idaho, which led 58-40 at the half, now has a 5-15 season mark.

Two-handed scoop shot heads for the basket off the fingertips of College of Southern Idaho's Rick Sobers during action against North Idaho JC Wednesday night. Sobers took a rebound and used the play to beat the defense of Cardinal Williams. Looking on is Cardinal Bob Jacobs (53). CSI won 82-68 and winds up its season by hosting Dixie and Weber frosh this weekend.

Idaho overpowers winless Mississippi Southern 105-90

MOSCOW (UPI) — The University of Idaho Vandals won only their fifth game of the season Wednesday night, a 105-90 thumping of Southern Mississippi, to close out the Southerners' winless year with a perfect, 9-24 record. Steve Tons, a 6-foot-7 sophomore, led the Vandals with 26 points while senior Don Beane added 19 for his career best.

The Vandals hit 53 per cent from the field to build up a 20-point second half lead at 79-59 before Idaho began shuffling in substitutes.

Ryun to return to old coach

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UPI) — World mile record holder Jim Ryun said Wednesday he will return to Lawrence, Kan., with his family in order to train under his former University of Kansas coach, Bob Timmons, to get ready for the Munich Olympics.

He moved here last August from Eugene, Ore., where he was bothered by a pollen allergy.

"Physically, I feel fine," said Ryun, who finished a disappointing sixth in the mile at the Los Angeles "Nikes" Indoor Games last Friday.

"That's the frightening thing. For the first time in I don't know how long, I don't have physical problems. But I don't seem to have any rhythm in my running. I've been tight."

"So I'm going back to work with the man who has coached me since 1963. I've been following his workouts by correspondence but it isn't the same."

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Kevin Joyce's three foul shots in the final seconds gave fourth-ranked South Carolina an 81-81 basketball victory over University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Wednesday night.

Kimberly seeks title, Burley revenge against Shelley in final cage action

Magic Valley high school basketball season comes to an end Saturday night with only Kimberly having a chance to grab onto a championship trophy. The season will conclude with 14 games Friday and seven Saturday, but the tournament season isn't far behind, the sixth district A-4 going at Burley Tuesday night. Kimberly will travel to Wendell Saturday where the Bulldogs must win to get a share of the Little Five conference title. Glenn Perry already is home with an 8-2 record and would take the title outright if Kimberly should fail to the Trojans.

Twin Falls will travel to the minidome Friday night to play Pocatello at 7 p.m. in a preliminary to the Idaho-Idaho State battle. Twin Falls defeated the Indians earlier but will be hardpressed to repeat the performance. In the minidome, Pocatello has one of the quickest teams around, headed by Dave Comstock who is only seven points behind the SIC scoring leader going into the final two games.

In Saturday's abbreviated tilt, Skylins, one of the top teams in the state, will bring its zone defense to Twin Falls where the Bruins will have to have some outside scoring ready. So far the Bruins have shown much punch from over 12-15 feet.

Marolf has three wins in races

FAIRFIELD — Fred Marolf of Fairfield won the 300 modified and the B main 340 modified and 300 stock to pace winners in the High Country Snowmobile Races over the weekend.

The winners include powerpuff, Kayla Drake, Mountain Home; Shirley Nelson, Twin Falls; and Phyllis Elsing, Twin Falls; 300 stock, Rocky Sherbine, Bellevue; Keith Speirs, Boise; and James Herman, Boise; 340 stock A main, Marolf, Mack Stewart, Fairfield; and B main, Larry Fischer, Mountain Home, and Keith Meyer, Bellevue.

400 stock A man, Gary Nelson, Twin Falls; Virgil Wood, Mountain Home, and John Sammenidin, Twin Falls; 400 A main, George Neider, Fairfield; Leonard Palling, Featherville, and Keith Meyer, Bellevue; 400 stock, B main, Virgil Wood, Mountain Home, and Joe Howard, Mountain Home.

300 modified, Fred Marolf and Buzz Helman, Boise; 340 modified A main, Bert Marsh, Mountain Home; Gary Nelson, Twin Falls, and Richard Reynolds, Boise; B main, Marolf and Larry Meridith, Caldwell.

400 modified, Alan Hess, Eagle; Fred Mackay, Fairfield, and Bert Marsh; 400 modified, Ron Clear, Burley; G. A. Krivor, Sun Valley, and D. W. Jackson, Filer.

Champion Minico winds up its SIC season on the road, traveling to Idaho Falls, a team that doesn't figure to beat the Spartans but strange things happen on the road.

In the South Central Idaho Conference, Buhl will be at Wood River where the Indians will have a big height advantage but will be facing a zone defense. The zone has given Buhl some problems heretofore. Jerome will be at Filer. Champion Gooding seeks completion of an undefeated year by going to Wendell.

Burley will entertain Eastern Idaho Conference foe Rigby Friday night and then jack up for a little revenge on Saturday when Shelley comes visiting. Shelley knocked Burley out of the No. 1 spot in the state in December.

Valley travels to Shoshone Friday night while Hansen goes to Murtaugh for a traditional closing. Magic Valley Conference champion Hagerman will host Grace and it should be a fine ball game with Grace having one of the stronger clubs in the eastern side of the state this year. A key game in the Magic Valley will send Oakley to Castleford and one of them will have to give up plans for finishing second in the league. Deco entertains Raft River in the other loop contest.

On the Northside, Gooding

Minico tops Skyline to clinch SIC cage crown

RUBERT — The Minico Spartans, exploding for 15 points in the first two and one-half minutes, all but wrapped up the Southern Idaho Conference basketball championship by overhauling the Skyline Grizzlies 47-41.

For over three and one-half quarters the Spartans couldn't get anything going and Skyline was only a little better. But trailing by six points with 2:38 left, Minico went on a ball-stealing, free-throwing scoring, cripple getting campaign that blew the game wide open.

The victory sent Minico one ahead of Skyline in the conference standings, meaning the Spartans can nail it down Friday night at Idaho Falls. If so, it will only be the second time the SIC championship has wound up in Magic Valley with Twin Falls last managing it in 1954.

Actually the story of the game started with Minico trailing 38-32. Deelynn Seamons stole the ball and Val Christensen, who hit all seven of his points in the breakout, hit from the foul circle. Seconds later Toby Harding turned a fast break into a cripple. Immediately after Minico regained the ball with Randy Ketterling, who played an outstanding game, being fouled at the end of the rush downcourt. Ketterling was knocked out of the game by re-spraining an ankle first injured at Caldwell. So Tony Saras, who was available only for spot action due to the flu and sitting on the bench at the time, came in to shoot Ketterling's free throws plus another for a technical foul.

Saras, who is hitting .754 for the year from the line, dropped in two of them to give Minico the lead. From that point on Minico dominated the game, making steals and getting buckets. Christensen hit five of six free throw attempts while Skyline could reply only with a free throw by Palmer.

The 20-point fourth quarter almost equaled what the Spartans managed over the first three periods. Skyline led 9-8 in the first quarter and 18-14 at halftime. Both hit 13 points in the third quarter. The Minico throw shooting team with an overall .663 mark, hit only eight of 21 over the first three quarters. The game was decided at the foul line where the Spartans finally wound up with 15 against nine for Skyline.

Minico, which entered the

Portland State rallies in final minutes to nip Boise

BOISE (UPI) — The Portland State brother act of Willie and Charlie Stoudamire combined for 50 points to power the Vikings past the stubborn Boise State Broncos 94-91 Wednesday night in a non-conference basketball tilt.

The Vikings, erased an 85-84 Broncos lead with six straight points to put the game away in the final three minutes. Willie Stoudamire hit 27 and brother Charlie tallied 23 to lead Portland State, which is now 15-7 on the year.

The loss, Boise State's sixth straight, dropped the Broncos' record to 10-11. Bill Cottrell was high for BSC with 22, followed by Steve Wallace with 19.

Boise State, which only led once in the early going at 11-10, finally overtook the Vikings at 85-84 when Bob McCollum sank two foul shots, but Charlie Stoudamire countered with a jump shot to regain the lead for the visitors, and then brother Willie and Leo Franz each connected on two charity tosses to give Portland its winning cushion.

Portland State shot 49 per cent from the floor on 36-74 while BSC was 44 per cent on 31-70.

The Broncos enjoyed a 42-38 advantage but it was offset by the Vikings' high-scoring fastbreak attack.

Cougars sue lawyer over Jim McDaniels

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Carolina Cougars of the American Basketball Association have filed a suit asking a federal judge to stop Los Angeles attorney Al Ross from interfering with their star rookie, Jim McDaniels. It was disclosed Wednesday.

The Cougars requested an injunction against Ross and All-Pro Management, Inc., in the suit filed Tuesday. The action also asked $1 million in damages for the ABA team, which is headquartered in Greensboro, N.C.

U.S. District Court Judge William P. Gray issued a temporary restraining order and scheduled a hearing Feb. 25 to show cause why a permanent injunction should not be issued.

The 7-foot McDaniels, from Western Kentucky, was suspended by the Cougars Friday night for missing a game with Denver at Winston-Salem, N.C. There is speculation that McDaniels will jump to the Seattle SuperSonics, who have the National Basketball Association draft rights to him.

Seaver has $120,000 contract

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tom Seaver, the real-life hero of his own "Tom Terrific" saga, Wednesday became the highest paid player in the history of New York baseball when he signed his 1972 contract with the Mets for an estimated $120,000.

Seaver, 27, also became the youngest man in all baseball history to receive that much money for a single season.

Proclaiming himself "the best pitcher in baseball" last season, Seaver tallied a 20-10 record with a 1.76 earned-run average and 289 strike-outs, a National League record for righthanders.

Seaver had been seeking a multi-year contract worth $500,000 but agreed to the one-year pact after meeting with general manager Bob Scheffing for the fifth time since negotiations began.

With the new contract, the Fresno, Calif. righthander will receive more for a season's play than Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Willie Mays or Mickey Mantle before him.

Seaver was signed off the University of Southern California campus for a $50,000 bonus in 1966 and assigned to Jacksonville of the International League where he posted a 12-12 record in 34 games.

Goal tending helps Witt, hurts Lakers

PHOENIX (UPI) — Witt Chamberlain was involved in two big goaltending calls Wednesday night — one which gave him his 30,000th career point and another which gave the Phoenix Suns a 110-109 win over the Los Angeles Lakers.

Chamberlain, already the National Basketball Association's all-time scorer, needed 18 points to reach the 30,000 mark entering the contest. The plateau came with 2:09 remaining in the third quarter when Neal Walk was called for goaltending on Chamberlain's layup attempt.

The Los Angeles center returned the favor with three seconds left in the game and the Lakers holding their only lead of the night, 109-108. Suns forward Connie Hawkins swooped in from the left side on an underhand layup and Chamberlain was whistled for goaltending.

A last second shot by Jerry West fell short of the rim to give the Suns their second win in five attempts against the Lakers before a sellout crowd of 12,534.

Maryland rips N.C. 79-77

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (UPI) — After missing five of six free throw attempts in the final three minutes of regulation, Maryland's Howard White sank two free throws with seven seconds left in overtime to pull the Terps over No. 3-ranked North Carolina 79-77 Wednesday night.

The 14th-ranked Terps were led by 6-foot-11 sophomore Tom McMillen, who had 27 points including three in overtime. A record Atlantic Coast Conference crowd of 15,287 saw five technicals called — three on Maryland and two on North Carolina.

Starting tourney trail

AMATEUR BOXER Earl Shields, talking here with trainer-coach Bill Moran, will be shooting for his fourth regional AAU title Saturday night at Pocatello in the 165-pound class. Shields will meet Ted Browning of Idaho Falls for the state title and if successful will advance to the regional tournament in Great Falls, Mont., next month. That will be the last step before nationals.

SIC point title up for grabs

Although the Minico Spartans may have ended the Southern Idaho Conference basketball season Wednesday night, the league still has a hot battle on its hands for the individual scoring championship.

Byron In-The-Woods, Highland Junior, has watched his conference average dwindle from 22.9 in early January to 16.7 going into the final two games and Junior Mark Lawson of Caldwell and Pocatello senior Dave Comstock have come up to challenge. In-The-Woods has 231 league points while Comstock had 229 and Lawson 227.

Three men are shooting for the field goal accuracy title with Dave Maffey of Capital leading with .512 while teammate Ken Wesche had .504 and Chuck Howell, Meridian, .501.

It's about as close for the free-throw accuracy title with In-The-Woods leading at .781, followed by Wesche at .775, Tony Saras, Minico, at .763 and Kelly Palmer, Highland, .756.

Hal Snyder of Idaho Falls and Howell are tied for hatching man honors with 68 fouls each. Twin Falls junior Bob Durham is in the running for rebounding honors with 191 and should finish well up although Boise's Mike Warren evidently has the title tucked away with 250.

Miss Idaho visits Burley

BURLEY — Miss Karen Herd, reigning Miss Idaho, will visit with local residents during the grand opening of First Security Bank Feb. 26 in Burley.

The grand opening will be held from 1 to 5 p.m. in the new bank location at the corner of East Main Street and Albion Avenue, according to Dale A. Dammarrell, manager.

Miss Herd, who was first runner-up in the Miss Idaho beauty pageant and would become Miss America should the winner not be able for any reason to serve, will play the organ during the open house.

Other highlights of the opening include a money estimating contest with valuable prizes, souvenir gifts for all, refreshments served by the Burley Heart Fund ladies and a variety of interesting displays and exhibits.

Another feature of the bank opening will be the giving away of 50 pairs of tickets to the District A-1 basketball game that will pit the Burley Bobcats against either Twin Falls or Minico. The game is scheduled Saturday night in Burley following the bank opening.

Opening ceremony, to be broadcast live over KBAR radio, will kick off the event. Expected to be on hand for the ceremony are many civic and banking dignitaries, including Ralph J. Comstock, Jr., president of the statewide banking organization.

Dammarrell and his entire staff will greet customers and friends. First Security has operated in Burley since 1965.

New industry to open in GF

GLENN'S FERRY — A new industry for Glenn's Ferry is expected to be open for business by the end of this week.

The firm, known as Glascomb Industries, manufactures plastic and fiberglass products and will employ eight persons at the start, increasing to 15 or 20 later with three full shifts.

Delmar Boylan, former resident and owner of the firm, met this week with the Glenn's Ferry Chamber of Commerce to show slides and samples of the products to be manufactured.

Boylan said items will range from bee feeders to lawn equipment and building construction material.

The plant is located in a former barn warehouse near the railroad at the east end of Glenn's Ferry. Chamber members approved March 18 as the date for a Farmers Night program. Mrs. Ray Whitt, Mrs. Zoe Hull and Glenn Hall were named to the committee for the annual event.

Chamber members voted to request assistance from Idaho Power Co. in efforts to purchase land needed for location of a new trout farm in the Glenn's Ferry area. James Carpenter, chamber president, said the project is progressing well and engineering will soon begin.

Members also heard a report from Jack Palmer, Idaho Department of Health, Mountain Home, on building codes and safe housing construction. Lloyd Waters, Mountain Home news publisher, discussed coverage of news and advertising in the Glenn's Ferry area.

Burley lists delivery plan

BURLEY — Joe Lambert, Burley postmaster, announces a 60-day initial test of a system to speed up special delivery letters and packages.

"The need for the program, which will visibly separate special delivery mail from other mail as it moves between post offices, has been indicated by special test mailings," Lambert said.

Special delivery letters and parcels in the entire U. S. Postal Service's western region will now be enclosed in transparent plastic bags imprinted with the word "Speedy" in large green letters. This new identification will prevent special delivery pieces from being overlooked or intermixed with regular first-class mail at receiving stations, he said.

The new operation will be evaluated on a daily basis by test mailings during the next 60 days.

"The 'Speedy' program will be executed at 4,499 post offices in the western region which encompasses the 13 western states including Alaska and Hawaii.

Postmaster Lambert said that studies have shown special delivery mail to be liable to delay within post offices when it gets intermixed with standard first-class mail.

GF school to purchase buses

GLENN'S FERRY — Bids for purchase of two school buses have been accepted by the Glenn's Ferry School Board.

The chassis of a 36-passenger bus and a 56-passenger unit will be purchased from Shrum Motors, Glenn's Ferry. Their bid was $9,990.

Kirkman Bus Co., Boise, was awarded the contract for two bus bodies to go with the chassis bids. The buses with Blue Bird bodies will be purchased for $5,991.

"In final action" the board rehired principals Gordon Brown for the high school; Len Penjer, junior high school and Cecil Watson, King Hill, elementary school.

Teacher salary increases were discussed with no action taken. Plans were also discussed for attending the National School Trustees Association meeting in San Francisco April 18 through 18.

Trustees announced school will begin Aug. 28 this fall and close May 23 to 25.

An auction of surplus school equipment including ten typewriters and other items is scheduled March 16 at 8 p.m. in the high school lunch room.

Hollister signup set

HOLLISTER — Registration for the kindergarten program at the Hollister Grade School will be March 6 from 8:45 to 11:15 a.m. at the school.

Mrs. David Kramer, teacher of the class, said it would begin March 8 and run through April 28 weekdays mornings from 8:45 to 11:15. She said all classes would be held at the school.

Mrs. Kramer said children who will be eligible for the first grade in September are eligible for the kindergarten program.

asked parents to bring a child's birth certificate and $5 to cover supply costs when registering. The Booster Club of Hollister is sponsoring the kindergarten program. Parents, however, are asked to provide transportation home for their children, every day, after the class. The children will ride the regular school bus in the morning.

Contracts extended at Filer

FILER — Filer school trustees Monday night extended contracts to all teachers in the system.

Supr. Thomas Turner, who is retiring at the end of this school year, said trustees interviewed several applicants for the position but no action was taken.

The teacher contracts were extended to all teachers except those who plan to move or resign after recommendation of Principals Howard Kinsfather, William Heaps and Edwin Marshall.

Mrs. Lura Lee Farmer, who has served as clerk of the district for the past 12 years, announced she does not plan to be a candidate for the position after July 1973 as she plans to retire.

She said she has enjoyed working with the school personnel and trustees during those years.

Hansen said the $10,000 federal grant to CSI will provide 80 percent of student payrolls, with a matching college or off-campus agency providing the remaining 20 percent.

CSI gets grant

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Rep. Orval Hansen, R-Idaho, said today that fifty additional College of Southern Idaho students will be able to participate in the college work study program following approval of a supplemental grant awarded by the U.S. office of Education.

Hansen said the $10,000 federal grant to CSI will provide 80 percent of student payrolls, with a matching college or off-campus agency providing the remaining 20 percent.

Idaho Junior Miss talks at Gooding chamber meet

GOODING — Ann Hagerman, Idaho Junior Miss, told Gooding Chamber of Commerce members Tuesday they need not worry about all of her generation.

"All of the young women I have met in the Idaho Junior Miss contest care deeply about the future," she told chamber officials.

Miss Hagerman reported on the Idaho pageant describing her position as not necessarily the best, but representative of all junior misses of Idaho. She thanked the Gooding chamber for its support and explained plans for the National Junior Miss Pageant in Mobile, Ala., April 28 through May 9.

G. J. Price, project coordinator for the Wood River Resource Association, another guest speaker for the Tuesday meeting in the Lincoln Inn, explained work and goals of the resource group. He said members are now attempting to implement the four-county area study completed recently.

Price said the resource group is working toward betterment of communities in the four-county Wood River area and hopes to help provide better environment, good economic and social conditions for overall better living in the Wood River region.

Price said 33 programs have been undertaken by the resource group since 1967 when it was organized and assistance is being offered on other specific projects and programs.

Earl Kelly, new Gooding airport manager, announced plans for expanding service at the field to include flying instruction and a contract flying service.

Hansen, Kimberly set joint classes

HANSEN — A Hansen drivers' training program in conjunction with Kimberly was approved by school trustees, Supr. Percy Christensen said today.

The classes will be taught by Gary Ayers and Richard Rees of the Kimberly school, and will involve about 14 students from Hansen as well as Kimberly.

Supr. Clint Bugig, Kimberly schools, and Christensen have discussed the possibility of conducting other joint classes next year.

They say this could bring savings and give added curriculum advantages to students.

Early graduation was discussed and this can be done with permission for each student granted from the State Board of Education.

A summer vocational program for graduate seniors in conjunction with CSI was discussed.

Although there was discussion on bus bids, and a lease plan for buses, no decision has been made as there are bids still out.

Priorities for summer repair work at the school were discussed.

Mr. Christensen announced that a play, "Please, No Flowers," a speech class presentation, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Neiwirth, had won an Excellent rating in the Boise State College Theater of Arts Festival.

Several ways to save taxes

EDITOR'S NOTE: Deductions are a perfectly legal way to reduce your tax bill but there's more than one way of claiming them. You should use the method that saves you the most money. This is the fourth article in a series on filling out your federal income tax return.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Don't feel nervous about claiming all the deductions that are legally yours.

Congress wrote them into the tax laws to compensate you for certain expenses it thought deserved special treatment. One of the secrets of trimming the amount of income tax is taking full advantage of this generosity.

There are two ways of doing it: The standard deduction—a flat figure geared to your income bracket—or itemized deductions. Take some extra time to compute your return both ways and see which method saves you the most money.

The standard deduction is figured two ways—by percentage and by low income allowance.

The formula for figuring the low income allowance is complex but those making less than $10,000 can forget the mathematics. The income tax tables accompanying the tax forms automatically give you the benefit of either the standard deduction or the low income allowance, whichever is most helpful to you.

You may still use the standard deduction of your adjusted gross income—that's wages, tips, dividends, interest and other forms of income—was more than $10,000. However, you can't use the tax tables.

Instead, the deduction will equal 13 per cent of your gross income up to a maximum deduction of $1,500. The ceiling for married persons filing separate returns is $750 each.

If you decide to itemize your deductions, there is no limit to the amount you can claim. But the rules covering what is a legal deduction are strict. If you have a question, your local Internal Revenue Service office can often supply the answer by telephone.

Moreover, there are a few people who are required to itemize their deductions. Included are nonresident aliens and married persons filing separate returns whose spouses itemized on their returns.

Medical expenses: You can deduct one-half of what you paid in medical and hospital insurance premiums up to $150. When you determine this figure, add up all your other medical and dental expenses including the remainder of medical insurance costs. If the total comes to more than 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income, you can claim a deduction for the amount that exceeds 3 per cent.

Money spent on medicine and drugs that exceeded 1 per cent of your income may also be figured into your medical expense calculations.

Payments for dental work, eyeglasses, hearing aids, X-ray treatments, registered nurses, chiropractors and Christian Science practitioners are all considered deductible medical expenses. But deductions may not be claimed for such medically-related expenses as vitamins, vacations or swimming lessons (even if recommended by your doctor), funeral and burial fees and maternity clothes.

Contributions: You can deduct up to 50 per cent of your income for contributions to most charitable causes, including churches, schools and medical research campaigns. Deductions for contributions to fraternal and veterans organizations and certain private foundations are limited to 20 per cent of your income.

Interest: You may deduct interest paid on your home mortgage and bank loan. Finance charges on installment purchases are also deductible subject to certain limitations.

Taxes: A wide variety of state and local taxes are deductible including real estate taxes, personal property taxes, local income taxes and gasoline and sales taxes. The tax return instructions contain tables showing the amount of sales tax and gasoline tax you may deduct, so you do not have to have detailed records of them.

Casualty and theft loss: If you lost property in a storm, fire, flood, burglary or accident, you may deduct the loss to the extent that it was not covered by insurance. However, you must absorb the first $100 of each such casualty and be prepared to come up with proof of the loss.

Retirement income credit: An elderly taxpayer may claim credit on retirement income up to $1,524. For a couple, it's $3,048. But you must have earned more than $600 in each of the 10 years prior to 1971. Those applying for this credit must use a special form, called Schedule R.

Moving expenses: You may deduct moving expenses if you moved to a new residence in connection with your work. In addition to the amount you paid the moving company, the deductions include the cost of looking for a new house, selling your old house, traveling to your new residence and money you may have spent on temporary quarters. There are limitations in all these categories. (Tomorrow: Special circumstances ease tax bite.)

Chinese, U.S. leaders differ

WASHINGTON (UPI)—When President Nixon and Chinese leaders meet next week, they will have reached the summit by vastly different routes, each side motivated by its own particular interests.

The vision of the "promised land" Nixon hopes to see undoubtedly differs considerably from the vision of Chairman Mao Tse-tung and Premier Chou En-lai.

However, the fact that Peking and Washington have finally agreed to try to liquidate their bitter 20-year-old cold war is more important to a war-weary and apprehensive world than the geopolitical considerations, which led them to this point.

Nixon views his success in arranging the meeting—as a triumph for his policy—put into effect almost the day he took office—to make a beginning in buying the peace with Peking and opening up the possibility of stabilizing Asia. The President's strategy was well executed, part of it being carried out through secret emissaries and part of it advanced by public announcements and actions.

Chou En-lai, for his part, has made it clear that he considers that fact that Nixon took the initiative and asked to be invited to Peking as evidence of the wisdom and effectiveness of the policies China has been pursuing since Chiang Kai-shek's nationalists were driven off the mainland in 1949.

Nixon is well aware that it was not any particular affection for Americans that led Chou and Mao to agree to the meeting. Chou has made it clear his willingness to entertain the idea of "normalizing" relations with the United States stems in large part from Peking's fear of the Russians. Chou also has spoken of his concern over the possibility of resurgent Japanese militarism.

Chou is equally aware that Nixon, one of the most militant of the anti-Peking crusaders during the Eisenhower administration, has not altered his view on communism, although Nixon may have become less convinced that Peking has "aggressive" intentions toward all Asia.

However, Chou knows Nixon's desire for friendship with China is based in large part on a feeling that Sino-American understanding may provide diplomatic framework and political atmosphere to eventually settle not only the Vietnam War but eliminate some of the other peril points in Asia.

Spurn fruit

LAKELAND, Fla. (UPI)—Florida citrus growers used to record large losses to fruit thefts but in recent years the thieves have turned away from the fruit and increasingly to grove equipment, says Florida Citrus Mutual, a growers' cooperative.

Larry Thompson, director of Mutual's fruit protection division, says figures for the 1969-70 citrus season showed growers lost more than $116,590 in stolen equipment, an increase of 155 per cent over the previous year. But fruit thefts for the season were down to less than $2,000.
