

Ho-hum election

Where, oh where, have the candidates gone? Where, oh where, can they be?

By RICHARD G. HIGH
Times-News managing editor

TWIN FALLS — Magic Valley primary elections for the Idaho Legislature may be a ho-hum affair this year.

There are 18 legislative seats at stake in Magic Valley's six legislative districts. But there is only one primary race.

And after the primaries are over, judging from candidacy filings, fewer than half the legislative posts will see general election battles.

The filings suggest continued Republican strength in Magic Valley.

Four Republican House candidates and one Republican Senate candidate have no Democratic opponents.

No Democrat escaped Republican opposition. The Democrats failed to fill the ticket for Senate and eight House posts.

Republicans failed to fill their ticket for only one House race.

The only primary election battle is between two Elmore County Democrats, one of whom will challenge incumbent Sen. J. Wilson Steen, R-Glenns Ferry. The race will be for senator representing newly-drawn district 22 which this year includes Camas County.

No Camas County resident filed for the race. General election races have developed for only eight of the 18 legislative posts. The other 10 legislative posts will see no general election opposition unless party organizations choose to appoint last-minute candidates to fill the ticket.

Contests in the general election are:

Senate, district 21 (Blaine and part of Mindoka counties) pitting incumbent Sen. John Peavey, R-Rupert, against newcomer Democrat W. F. Whitton, Rupert.

Senate, district 22 (Elmore, Camas), pitting the winner of the Fleming-Kieffer race against incumbent Republican Steen.

House, district 22, will pit incumbent Republican Virgil L. Kraus against two Democrats, incumbent Karl E. Koch, Hammett, and Alvin W. Joslyn, Glenns Ferry.

Two seats will be filled from the three.

Senate, district 23 (Gooding, Jerome and part of Lincoln), will pit incumbent Sen. Don Frederickson, D-Gooding, against Republican James Vost, Wendell.

House, district 23, Republican incumbent Earl C. Greenawald, Jerome, and Rep. Vernon Ravenscroft, Tuttle, who has announced he will run as a Republican instead of a Democrat this year, will face Democrat Anna Louise Robinson, Jerome, for two House seats.

Senate, district 24 (western Twin Falls County), incumbent Republican John Barker Buhl, will face newcomer Democrat Raymond Eugene Stricklan Sr., Buhl.

Senate, district 26 (Cassia and part of Mindoka) incumbent Democrat Robert Saxvik, Burley, will face Democrat Dr. Charles A. Terhune, Burley.

House, district 26, Republican incumbents Ernest A. Hale, Burley, and J. Vard Chubburn, Albion, will face Democrat Clarence A. Parr, Burley. Two of the three will be elected.

General election races where no opposition has surfaced to date are:

House, district 21: Incumbent Republican representatives E. V. McLean, Ketchum, and Steve Antonio, Rupert, will run unopposed.

District 24, House: Incumbent representatives William Lanting, R-Hollister, and William Roberts, R-Buhl, will run unopposed.

Senate, district 24—eastern Twin Falls County: Incumbent Sen. Richard S. High, R-Fin Falls, is unopposed.

House, district 25: Incumbent Rep. Ray Lincoln, R-Twin Falls, and newcomer Republican Ralph Olmsstead, Twin Falls, are unopposed.

Reds see new Viet peace bid

BELGRADE (UPI) — East European Communists who are in direct contact with Hanoi predicted today that North Vietnam will move toward serious peace negotiations later this year.

"They are running out of steam, politically and militarily," the sources said.

The expected move toward a more flexible attitude in peace negotiations has been brought about by a number of factors, the sources said. These included:

President Nixon's meetings with Chinese and Soviet leaders in Peking and Moscow. It is now clear that East-West accords no longer will be linked with the Vietnam issue.

The current Communist offensive, which began March 30, has failed to meet its hoped-for objective, the collapse of the South Vietnamese government.

U.S. retaliation to the offensive has been much stronger than Hanoi expected, particularly the blockade of North Vietnamese ports and the air strikes at key rail and road links inside the country.

Although the North Vietnamese still have the assurances of both China and the Soviet Union of continued support, the sources said, Hanoi's leaders feel the situation has changed drastically. Although they feel the situation must be further examined, indications are their decision might be to move toward peace.

The sources said this would not be a dramatic sudden move.

Federal office declarations filed earlier included those from Steven D. Synnys, a Republican candidate for the first district congressional nomination, and two second district candidates, Democrat Willis Ludlow and Republican incumbent Congressman Orval Hansen.

Earlier U.S. Senate candidates filing included Democrats Rose Bowman, William E. (Bud) Davis, and Byron Johnson, and Republicans Glen Wegner and James A. McClure.

Africans given up in mine

WANKIE, Rhodesia (UPI) — The chairman of the Wankie mine said today all hope has been abandoned that the 424 miners still missing deep in the devastated colliery are alive.

Sir Keith Acutt, speaking to newsmen after rescue teams using special breathing apparatus found the bodies of four more men, said reports from the rescuers indicated that the severe damage caused by the violence of the explosion and other reports received of the poisonous atmosphere that existed after it leaves no cause for hope.

Acutt spoke after receiving reports from white-suited rescue workers who broke through a wall of rock bafes down and inched their way 3,000 feet along the mine's crumbled tunnel.

"Indications are that the men died instantaneously and were not aware of what happened," Acutt said.

With no hope remaining, the toll in the Wankie disaster stands at 431.

SARIGON (UPI) — The United States sent B-52s and fighter-bombers back into North Vietnam Wednesday in the heaviest raids in 47 days to cripple further the Communist war potential, Pentagon sources said. Communist diplomats said that potential had been severely jolted.

The ground war picked up momentum in South Vietnam, and a force of 2,500 South Vietnamese Marines pushed a mile into captured Quang Tri Province on a 14-mile wide front to find out what the heaviest raids since 1,000 strikes during a 72-hour period May 20-22.

The Communists bombarded the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh, seized more territory in coastal Binh Dinh Province in a threat to two major towns there, and seized the market place in Trang Bang, 26 miles northwest of Saigon, where heavy fighting continued today.

The fight in Trang Bang produced another one of those tragedies that have been a mark of the Vietnam War—a Vietnam bombing. A South Vietnamese A-1 Skyraider accidentally dropped flaming napalm on civilian refugees fleeing the fighting, incinerating at least four children and a woman. Several South Vietnamese soldiers also were killed.

A U.S. spokesman said 300 American jets carried the war to North Vietnam Wednesday to bomb military targets supporting the Communist invasion of South Vietnam—the heaviest raids since 1,000 strikes during a 72-hour period May 20-22.

They were among the most spectacular yet through the use of bombs guided by laser beams or by television apparatus. That landbased F4 Phantom used these "smart bombs" to guide bombs inside the 200-yard long Lung Truong railroad tunnel 75 miles north of Hanoi and just 20 miles from the Chinese border.

The bombs exploded inside the tunnel, collapsing the southern end. The tunnel was only one of a series of railroad bridges, highways and other targets hit by land and carrier-based aircraft. In addition, B-52s bombed supply depots 8 and 15 miles north of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) in their first penetration of North Vietnam since April 24.

Pentagon spokesman Jerry W. Friedhelm said Wednesday the U.S. bombing operations and the mining of seven North Vietnamese harbors had slowed North Vietnamese supplies to a trickle for their offensive in South Vietnam. However, he warned that the North Vietnamese still had enough supplies on hand to mount a "sizeable attack" on the old royal capital of Hue.

Hanoi Radio has indicated in recent days that the aerial offensive against the North was hurting. Further evidence came today from UPI diplomatic correspondent K. C. Thaler in Belgrade where Communist sources told him the North Vietnamese "are running out of steam, politically and militarily," and will move toward serious peace negotiations later this year.

Phantoms from the same unit which collapsed the tunnel—the 8th Tactical Fighter Wing—also streaked to the southwestern edge of Hanoi and dropped guided blockbuster bombs on the Ha Dong truck repair yard and the nearby Van La truck park.

Gold price hits another record

LONDON (UPI) — The price of gold hit a record high for the fourth consecutive day today as speculators kept their buying orders flowing, driving the free market price of the metal ever higher.

Dealers said gold was changing hands at $67 an ounce late in the session after the price soared to $66.75 earlier in the day, up $1.75 from Wednesday's final price and the previous peak. Dealers expected the price to take a similar course in continental European markets.

In Paris, the price rocketed nearly $5 higher to $66.75 an ounce, up from $61.91 Wednesday.

(And in Hong Kong, the gold price hit a peak of $77.10 per troy ounce, the highest in Hong Kong's post-war history. It closed at $75.60.)

Gold today in London was about 70 per cent above the $38-an-ounce price for U.S. official gold set after the dollar's devaluation.

Demand for the metal continued to outstrip market supplies because sellers held off. Shipments of newly mined gold to the market from South Africa have also been declining.

Statements from Washington Wednesday about the U.S. stance on gold made no visible impact on a market.

Bruneau Canyon yields bones

By HUGH DAVIS
Times-News writer

GLENN'S FERRY — A hiker reports finding a skeleton of a miner deep in the Bruneau Desert 16 miles from the nearest road.

Gary Copeland, Twin Falls, an Idaho Fish and Game Department employee, said today he found the bones of a man in a cave in an unnamed canyon.

He said efforts to identify the man have been fruitless so far.

Also in the cave, Copeland found a complete set of mining tools. Outside the cave there was evidence the miner had been digging in the area, said Copeland.

Copeland and a companion, Rick Post, examined the man's personal effects in an effort to identify the skeleton. They found remnants of a 1921 newspaper and partial pages of a Bible thought to be written in Dutch.

At first, Copeland assumed the man was bilingual because of the newspaper and the Bible. The paper had been used to line a crate holding provisions. Among the provisions found almost perfectly intact, were tin cans of tea and paprika.

"The labels had not been exposed to the sun," said Copeland, "and looked like they had just come off the shelf of a mercantile."

Copeland said it appeared the man died with his clothes on. The skeleton was found strewn around the cave, according to Post and Copeland.

The two hikers said the man apparently lived in the cave where an old bed spring was found. The Dutch Bible was badly damaged by rodents nesting in it.

Copeland brought out one page of the book containing a set of names. The page is apparently the record of christenings in the man's family.

He has turned the page over to the Owyhee County Historical Society.

Copeland and Post plan to return to the cave to pack out the miner's tools.

Copeland said the mining equipment included hammers, shovels and chipping instruments. There was also a set of drilling bits and a saw among the tools.

Among the provisions found were old glass containers and Mason jars with glass lids. Before leaving the mining site, Copeland and Post buried the bones of the man they believe must have died sometime during the year of 1921.

Copeland said as far as he could see there was no evidence of foul play involved in the man's death.

Copeland said the site is in an unnamed canyon near the West Fork of the Bruneau River about 16 statute miles from the nearest road.

"This find is not really all that uncommon," said Copeland, "I can take you to a cave on the East Fork of the Bruneau River and show you a similar situation."

Copeland said the second find, on the east side of the river, is probably the remains of an old shepherd.

Senate battle to end

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Opposition to Richard G. Kleindienst's nomination to be attorney general apparently was dwindling in advance of two votes today that should end the Senate's longest battle over a presidential appointment.

Immediately following the Kleindienst action, the Senate was scheduled to take up the nomination of George P. Shultz to succeed John B. Connally as treasury secretary. Shultz had no known opponents.

Kleindienst was named by President Nixon Feb. 29, but his nomination became embroiled in allegations that the Justice Department settled an antitrust suit in favor of International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. (ITT) in exchange for $200,000 to $400,000 contribution to help defray expenses of the Republican National Convention.

Roll calls were scheduled at 4 p.m., the first on a motion to send the nomination back to the Judiciary Committee in effect killing it and the second on confirmation.

Sen. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., one of the opposition leaders, predicted a maximum of 35 votes to recommit the nomination.

Republicans agreed with Tunney's estimate, but added that on the vote to confirm there would be at most 25 votes against Kleindienst.

Kissinger off to Japan

THURMONT, Md. (UPI) — White House adviser Henry A. Kissinger leaves on his two-week postponed trip to Japan today after receiving last-minute instructions from President Nixon.

Nixon and Kissinger discussed the fence-mending policy as well as other foreign policy matters Wednesday while dining at Camp David, the president's mountaintop retreat in the Catoctin Mountains. Nixon is expected to stay at Camp David through the weekend.

Kissinger has twice postponed the Japan trip because of the North Vietnamese offensive.

Humphrey to file challenge

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UPI) — An aide to Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said today he is helping to prepare a challenge to Sen. George S. McGovern's claim to 271 Democratic convention delegates from the winner-take-all California primary.

The aide, who refused to be identified, said the challenge would be filed Friday with the credentials committee of the Democratic National Committee by Humphrey supporters in California.

"The complaint will charge that the assignment of all 271 delegates to McGovern is a violation of the prohibition on imposition of the unit rule on delegates," the aide said.

"By denying any delegates to the majority of California Democrats who did not vote for McGovern, it also involves an obvious violation of court-mandated one-man, one-vote requirements."

There is also a strong possibility that the challenge will include what may be an excessive use of McGovern campaign funds in the state. We have reports that from $1.5 million to $2 million were spent in the McGovern campaign, well in excess of federal restrictions.

The Humphrey aide said the challenge was not of McGovern's winning the popular vote in California but of Humphrey's not receiving any delegates though he got 40 per cent of the vote.

Mexican "Summit"

President Nixon's summit conference with the heads of the Soviet government in Moscow is to be followed hard upon by a mini-meeting with the president of Mexico in Washington.

President Luis Echeverria Alvarez will come to the United States on a seven-day visit starting June 15. His itinerary includes stopovers in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Antonio, as well as the Washington meeting with President Nixon.

In the nature of things, his visit is likely to be overshadowed by continuing analyses of the dramatic and historic accords reached in Moscow and speculations about their ramifications for world peace.

Mexico and the United States do not fortunately have the problems of mutual arms limitations, but there are other sore points. Chief among these is the problem of the salinity of Colorado River water received by Mexico from the state of Arizona.

U.S. agricultural and water practices have not only been souring the land for farmers in the Mexican Valley for a decade but have been souring U.S. Mexican relations for as long.

Other key issues of concern to both countries include technology exchanges, the situation of migratory workers and trade. Sources close to President Echeverria indicate, however, that a major topic of discussion will be his belief that the rich, industrialized nations of the world should play a larger role in the development and progress of poor nations, without interfering in those nations' internal affairs.

President Echeverria put forth his philosophy in an address before the United Nations-sponsored conference on trade and development (UNCTAD) in Chile in April.

He noted that while there had been an unprecedented expansion in world trade in recent years, it has primarily favored the more prosperous nations and has resulted in only minimal benefits for countries in the process of development.

Recent protectionist measures and the monetary crisis confirm this trend, said Echeverria. Economic inequalities are reflected in the voting power held by the large nations within international financing organizations.

He called on the International Monetary Fund to adopt a more democratic method of reaching its decisions through greater participation of the developing nations, warning that no peaceful world balance can be established that is based on the discontent of the greater number of its inhabitants.

"The progress of human society is from now on indivisible," he said. "Whatever happens in one country affects all the others and conditions its own evolution."

"It is not only by arms that peace can be destroyed. We shall make ready for the 21st century only insofar as we comprehend that we all share a common destiny."

MR. SPECTATOR

Truth Will Out

Tourists who have visited the new Kennedy Center in Washington have been unjustly blamed for wholesale vandalism, claims Iowa congressman William J. Scherle. It is not the tourists who have been taking everything from pieces of the carpet to lids from the commodes.

It is the VIP's who stole so many mementos from the luxurious accommodations that restrictions had to be placed on sightseers. Rep. Scherle said that "contrary to popular belief, ushers and volunteer guides at the center maintain that these thefts are not primarily the work of tourists."

The congressman quoted one guide as saying, "It's the more elite groups, the theater-goers and VIP's and even the actors." As evidence, the Waterford Room is pointed to. Open only to dignitaries on special occasions, the room boasts an expensive crystal chandelier. That fixture has been the repeated target of vandals, who removed six pieces of crystal on a recent evening.

Perhaps the VIP's ought to be restricted to main corridors where alert attendants can watch their every move. The Waterford Room sounds like a delightful place for weary, and honest tourists to rest their feet.

LINCOLN ANNIVERSARY: Abraham Lincoln's sightless eyes stared but at the crowds from his Memorial in Washington the other day, as the building turned 50.

There was no ceremony. None was needed, since thousands of visitors pay homage every day. The Lincoln Memorial is the most popular tourist attraction in the capital, with 2.3 million visitors last year.

If "Silent Abe" were gifted with sight he would also gaze upon the Capitol and the Washington Monument which are in near-perfect alignment with The Memorial, forming a picture-postcard view that is especially striking at night. What he might think about The World, 1972, is unfathomable.

When Congress established the Lincoln Memorial Commission in 1911, a site near the Capitol was desired, but the commission had to settle for the then swampy West Potomac Park despite the warning of House Speaker Joseph G. Cannon that "the building would shake itself down with loneliness and gloom."

The only problems requiring attention after a half century are roof leakage and mortarless joints, though one alarmed authority says the marble structure is decomposing due to air pollution and wear and tear. Lincoln is not suffering, however, from loneliness.

President Harding and Chief Justice Taft headed a delegation of dignitaries from the then 48 states 12 more than when Lincoln was alive - as the Memorial was dedicated on May 30, 1922. The speeches stressed harmony, unity and peace.

On a clear day or a calm night it is possible to sit on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial and believe it all happened.

TODAY'S CHUCKLE

Once there was a woman who went on a diet of coconuts and bananas. She didn't lose weight but she sure could climb trees.

WASHINGTON A sociologist friend who studies dirty movies and naked girlie shows says his research has convinced him the next five years will produce a backlash in show business whereby nudily and boy-girl naughtiness will be proclaimed old-fashioned and thus not to be tolerated by the mod and chic.

What would you do, he asks, lapsing into an affection of French-type English. "Both in the flicks and on the stage we've gone as far as we can go. Any time now, the with-it crowd will lose interest in a form of entertainment even the unwashed are permitted to enjoy."

The result, he says, is that boxoffice profits will fall off and show biz will be forced to come up with something different to pay its caviar bills. After all, pornography is not so-called because its producer has a sower for a mind but because it pays for Porsche sports cars and villas on the Riviera.

Thus, this scholar of the monks at meditation. Critics who today go into ecstasy about seventh-rate newspaper amusement pages will be crammed with ads announcing that this and that saloon features a floor show starring "Fully Clothed Lovelies." Cheek and jowl with these come-ons will be movie bradsides urging those seekers who desire to be counted among the "Ins" to flock to the old Ritto for a four-hour showing of Himalayan

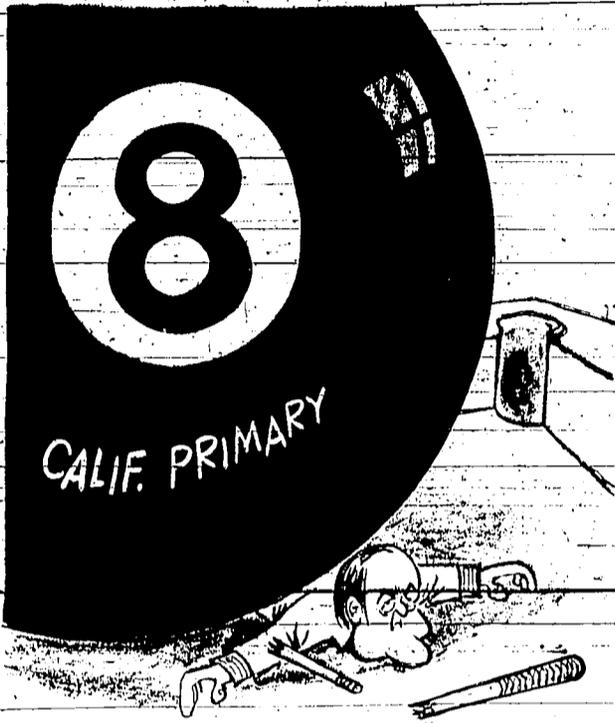

I know pupus who have driven from Washington to little villages in Vermont to treat their kids to a flick whose female performers are unclothed only from the navel up and in which there are only two rape scenes.

"Filth," says my sociological friend, "has been over-produced. It's a glut on the market, and the mod-chic crowd is becoming concerned. After all, if everybody's eating pheasant under glass with truffles, that takes the fun out of it, and the sophisticates are constrained to look elsewhere for their amusements."

It is true that dirty movies and shows have nowhere to go. When the first 10 minutes of a movie show six seductions, eight rapes and a full-blown sexual torture scene, the customer is left with nothing to look forward to. Floor shows that open with everybody in droppings from their clubs, many of them secretly wish Junior and Missy occasionally could spend an afternoon with "The Bobsey Twins," armed, of course, with Tommy guns to leave the wholesomeness of the outing.

Perhaps what is needed is a return to burlesque of a day when the girls fidgeted about the stage for what seemed weeks before revealing a more-or-less shapely upper thigh or a speck of basen. At least the interested and crying for more. Also, the girls seldom suffered from head colds.

MINNESOTA FLATS

ART BUCHWALD

No Dividend

WASHINGTON The day after President Nixon gave his report to Congress on his trip to the Soviet Union, I went over to see my friend Hannibal Stone, president of the Association for a Permanent Military-Industrial Complex.

Because the President had announced agreement on the freeze of nuclear weapons with the Soviets, I expected Hannibal to be depressed. Instead, I found him euphoric.

"Hannibal," I said, "How can you be smiling when President Nixon and the Russians are talking about disarmament? Surely this is a blow to the Military-Industrial Complex and all it stands for?"

"Wrong," Hannibal said, handing me a cigar. "This is the best thing that could happen to us."

"I don't understand," I said, as he lit my cigar with a Miniteman missile cigarette lighter.

"Russia and the United States have agreed to limit antiballistic missiles. They have also agreed to freeze land-based and submarine-based intercontinental missiles at the level, now in operation. If it works, they may come to new agreements to limit arms production on other weapons now being made. This means we will have to work twice as hard to develop new weapons that aren't covered by the arms agreements."

"You mean we're not going to save any money by the signing of the arms treaty?"

"An contrary," Hannibal said. "We will have to spend more money now for defense than ever before."

"Hannibal," I said, "I was hoping for a peace dividend."

"Forget the peace dividend," Hannibal said. "In order for the Joint Chiefs of Staff to assure us that we have adequate protection in spite of the arms accord, we're going to have to spend at least another $20 billion in new weaponry - stuff that hasn't even been dreamed of yet."

"I knew the President's speech was too good to be true," Hannibal said, "The Military-Industrial Complex makes very little money once it is in full production on a weapon. By then everyone knows exactly what the weapon is going to cost, and we can't monkey around with the figures.

"But when we're asked to develop a new weapon, no one can put a price tag on it, and the longer it doesn't work the more money we can ask for to develop it."

"Give me a contract for a weapon no one understands, and I'll give you twice the profits that I would on a weapon that has proved itself in the field."

"Gosh, darn, Hannibal," I said. "I thought one of the reasons the President went to Moscow was to cut down on the spiraling inflation and wasteful money both countries were spending on weapons."

"Maybe he did," Hannibal said. "But the fact is that at this very moment members of the Soviet military-industrial complex are at their drafting boards working on new weapons which are not part of the accord. We can't let the Russians get ahead of us on these weapons."

"Now we can come up with any wild idea and Congress will have to buy it. We can say that if we don't have this weapon, the Russians may have one that is much more devastating. The Soviet military-industrial complex is probably going to use the same ploy with their people."

I said, "President Eisenhower warned me about people like you."

Hannibal chuckled and slapped me on the shoulder. "Don't let it get you down. It's only money. Here, take the Miniteman missile cigarette lighter with you. Consider it a peace dividend from me."

ROBERT ALLEN

Benefits Bill

WASHINGTON There is given, nor any indication when they are likely to take place. Stennis's letter to Goldwater is virtually the same as one he sent last month to Reps. Otis Pike, D-N.Y., and Charles Gubser, R-Calif., co-authors of the same veterans benefits measure.

They had discreetly prodded him about the protracted failure of his committee to act on the legislation, and after more than a month's delay Stennis finally replied.

As reported by this column, he promised to conduct hearings after the big procurement authorization bill had been disposed of. But as in his letter to Goldwater, Stennis gave no clue as to when that might be.

It certainly is not going to be in the immediate future. At best, it won't be before July, and more likely September.

The procurement legislation is still pending in the Armed Services Committee. Next inside word there is that the measure won't be reported to the Senate until the middle of this month - or later.

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Arm Aches

Dear Dr. Thosteson I suffered a heart attack a year and a half ago, was in the hospital under oxygen for a week and on complete bed rest at home for six weeks.

Recently my left arm has been aching a lot and the arm and hand appear swollen. Now my doctor says I had a myocardial infarction, and that the swelling is the same syndrome which very often accompanies this.

Will you explain just what a myocardial infarction is, and what is this syndrome he is talking about? Mrs. T. L.

A myocardial infarction is a heart attack, just a different term for the same thing. A branch of the artery serving the heart muscle became plugged - usually due to hardening of the arteries - and a portion of the heart muscle was deprived of its blood supply.

"Myocardial" refers to the heart muscle. "Infarction" means that part of the muscle was damaged.

"A syndrome" is a pattern of symptoms - in this case the aching of your arm. You doubtless have what is commonly referred to as the "shoulder-arm syndrome," which is not unusual following a heart attack, although it isn't something that necessarily happens.

It apparently is a nerve reflex problem. The damage to the heart muscle is reflected as discomfort in the left shoulder, arm, and arm.

Often, simple aspirin helps. That, of course, has nothing to do with such other medication as the doctor prescribes for your heart.

"Dear Dr. Thosteson, I am being treated for high blood pressure, but have been planning a trip which would be by air, and wonder if I should cancel it." Mr. J. R.

Your blood pressure would not be a reason for avoiding travel in commercial planes. The cabins are pressurized, so you are as comfortable as you would be on the ground.

If you are nervous about flying - and nervous tension can affect your blood pressure - your doctor can give you a mild tranquilizer or sedative before the flight to keep you calm.

You may well be interested in my newest booklet, "Controlling Your Blood Pressure Hypertension." If so, send 25 cents in coin and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of Times-News.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My granddaughter, 3, has fungus under her toenails, and in between her toes she has dry skin. We have been putting different foot powders on, changing her socks every day, bathing her every day, and she goes barefoot around the house. Would you please answer this?

Mrs. L. B.

How do you know it's fungus? Maybe it's some other skin disorder and if it is fungus, using different foot powders won't always be the answer.

The sooner you get the youngster to a doctor, perhaps to a skin specialist, the better the chances of clearing up whatever it is.

Closing deal

BARGAIN PRICE of $1.25 an acre for 17.5 acres of land along Snake River north of Filer was paid Wednesday by Twin Falls County commissioners. Discussing acquisition are, from left, Max Bruce, BLM district manager, Burley; Bob Brock, BLM; Heber Loughmiller, county commissioner and Dall Waddoups, BLM.

New court hearing at Burley

BURLEY — The Idaho State Judicial Council will sponsor a meeting here June 20 to obtain information on operation of the Idaho Magistrate Court system. Chief Justice Henry McQuade said the meeting will consist of two sessions at the Ponderosa Inn. The morning session from 9 a.m. to noon, which is open to the public, will concentrate on interviewing public officials who deal with the court system. The afternoon session, beginning at 1:30 p.m., will be for receiving information from the public in Cassia and Minidoka counties.

The Burley meeting is the first of a series of hearings in various parts of the state. The information gathered will be reported to the legislature and may form the basis of recommended changes in legislation.

County buys canyon land

TWIN FALLS — Purchase of 17.5 acres of Snake River frontage in the Crystal Springs area at $1.25 an acre was completed by Twin Falls County Wednesday. The land was acquired by the county from the Bureau of Land Management after four years of negotiation. It will be held for future development for public enjoyment. It is suitable for fishing, swimming, water skiing, boating, and development of picnic and park facilities. County Commissioner William Chancey said the site will also provide access to the Snake River for search and rescue efforts as it will eventually be the only point of access between Rock Creek and Crystal Springs. Now, however, there is no access to the land as roads into the area are on land owned by the Crystal Springs Orchard and other landowners in the canyon. County officials will negotiate for access right of way when funds are available for development. Max Bruce, BLM district manager, Burley, said the presentation of the patent Wednesday to the commissioners culminates about four years of effort between his office and Twin Falls County officials. Bruce said the county is to be commended for taking steps to obtain the land while it is still available. Many such sites have been lost to public use and enjoyment through private and commercial development, he said.

Tax deadline looms June 20

TWIN FALLS — Ruth K. Jones today reminded taxpayers of the June 20 deadline for final payment of 1971 real property taxes. The Twin Falls County treasurer and tax collector said payments have been coming in slowly thus far but the staff in her office anticipates heavy payments through the next two weeks. Mrs. Jones said there is approximately $1.5 million in 1971 real property taxes to be collected by the final deadline of June 20, set by Idaho law. Public utilities will pay more than $500,000 of the total remaining, Mrs. Jones said. Idaho law provides one tax notice only be mailed to property owners in November each year. The first half payment is due by Dec. 20 and the second half by June 20. Persons who did not make the entire payment before the first half deadline must pay the final half at this time. In addition to the outstanding 1971 tax, the county tax collector's office is accepting delinquent payments for previous years. Outstanding taxes for 1970 in Twin Falls County amount to $33,034.08 while the 1969 outstanding tax bill is still $11,497.38. After three years of delinquency, the county treasurer is required by law to take tax deeds in the name of the county on taxes still due, Mrs. Jones said. She asked taxpayers to mail their payments in order to avoid waiting in lines.

Club in canyon operating anew

TWIN FALLS — The Canyon Club in the Snake River Canyon across from the Shoshone Falls Park is back in operation again, but as a public club instead of private. Gary Bogle and Chuck Fallon have opened the club for business and are attempting to attract a family clientele. Bogle said there is something available for all age groups at the club. There is a heated swimming pool which holds about 100,000 gallons of water, a golf course, picnic area, bar and short order food. The club is open from noon until midnight. A lifeguard begins duty at 2 p.m. The two men are leasing the facilities from Intermountain Recreational Development Corp., Ogden, Utah, this summer. They do, however, have an option for lease next year and Bogle said if he and Fallon continue operation the club probably will resume membership status by next summer. A boat to ferry customers between Shoshone Falls and the club will be in operation soon.

Bogle said the Shoshone Falls route is much closer to the club from Twin Falls than the road. For those who wish to drive down, however, the club can be reached by turning right at the first turn north of the Perrine Memorial Bridge and following directional signs. Bogle said plans for the near future include live music. He said facilities and grounds also are available on a group basis and the club operator can make arrangements for catering food for large groups.

McGovern plans meet with Muskie

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. George S. McGovern said today he planned to meet today or Friday with Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, amid speculation that Muskie was considering getting on the South Dakota's Democratic presidential bandwagon.

McGovern said he talked by telephone Wednesday with Muskie and did not ask and did not receive any commitment from the Maine senator, once considered the frontrunner for the nomination.

"I called him and said I thought it would be useful for us to get together," McGovern said. "Needless to say, I would welcome Sen. Muskie's support. I think he has the confidence and respect of millions of people all across the country. His support would be of enormous value."

But McGovern, fresh off victories Tuesday in California (with 271 national convention delegates) and three other primaries, said, "I'm not going to press him on that (support)."

Muskie picked up 168 delegates to the Miami Beach convention before dropping his active campaign following poor finishes in several primaries, while McGovern now has accumulated 912.75 delegates in becoming the leader.

There were published and broadcast reports today that Muskie might announce during a scheduled Washington speech Friday that he would support McGovern. Muskie's campaign manager, Berl Bernhard, insisted, "there has been absolutely no decisions on that." Muskie was in Pittsburgh today.

McGovern said he also talked by phone Wednesday with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, his only serious remaining rival. He said Humphrey congratulated him on his four Tuesday primary wins, and that he expected to be talking further with Sen. Humphrey as well as Muskie.

McGovern was interviewed on the NBC Today Show. McGovern said that during a busy day after his California victory, he also conferred by phone with several governors, state Democratic chairmen and others in planning further strategy. One of those, he said, was Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Davis raps 'go along' policy

By ROBERT F. BUCKHORN WASHINGTON (UPI) — Potential hijackers were on notice today the government wants the airline industry and pilots not to immediately give in to a hijacker's demands, but to thwart him in every way possible.

Benjamin O. Davis, assistant transportation secretary for safety and consumer affairs, urged the airlines to end their "go-along" policy toward hijackers. Davis said in some cases hijackers have been given better treatment than first class passengers.

Davis said the possibility of arming the pilots was discussed. Sources said the Air Line Pilots' Association (ALPA), which represents 31,000 commercial airline pilots, was investigating the use of a "dart gun" that could immobilize a hijacker immediately.

ALPA said its members will boycott any nation offering sanctuary to a hijacker. To support its boycott, the union urged AFO-CIO President George Meany today to lead a worldwide campaign to recruit union members who serve airplanes to join the boycott.

ALPA also called for economic pressure to force the return of hijackers who ordered a Western Air Lines jetliner Friday to fly to Algeria. In a telegram to Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., ALPA urged him to help block a proposal to import Algerian natural gas to the United States until the hijackers are returned for prosecution.

Humphrey flew from California to Houston Wednesday to try to woo support from Democratic governors who are cool about a possible McGovern nomination, politics 6-B. During that visit, and later on his return to Washington prior to McGovern's return to the capital, Humphrey left the door ajar for a possible Humphrey-Wallace ticket, if he won the nomination, although Humphrey said it was unlikely.

Debt boost refusal aired

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Ways and Means Committee probably will refuse President Nixon's request for a $15 billion boost in the national debt limit, and also delay tax reform for the time being.

The committee, meeting today in closed session for a second day, tentatively has agreed to continue the present $150 billion debt limit through Oct. 31. Nixon asked that it be raised to $165 billion through February.

The government now is $129.2 billion in debt. Unless Congress acts to extend the limit by June 30, it will revert back to its permanent $100 billion limit.

Expected to exceed $25 billion, tax reformers have urged that Congress tack on to the debt limit bill provisions that would plug "loopholes" in the tax laws.

McGovern was asked today about his attitude toward George C. Wallace as a running mate. "I think it would be very difficult," he said. "I've felt when it came time to put together a ticket, the two people should be compatible, and I don't think Gov. Wallace would be comfortable with me, or vice versa."

Did that mean he was continuing to rule out Wallace as a possible vice-presidential candidate? "I can't see it happening," McGovern also reiterated a statement Wednesday that he felt he could end the Vietnam war in 90 days after becoming SACRAMENTO Calif. (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan has indicated he may end his career in politics after he completes his present term as governor.

Reagan also has said he would like to have a strong voice and influence in the national direction of the Republican party after he steps down as governor.

When asked if he was over 50 and looking for a ranch, he answered, "I am also over 50 and I would like to have a strong voice and influence in the national direction of the Republican party after he steps down as governor."

Fair practice code set for Idaho

Thursday, June 8, 1977 Times-News, Twin Falls, Idaho 7

EDEN HAZELTON — Supt. Dr. Tom Utterback said Wednesday the Idaho State Department of Education notified him that Valley High School has been fully accredited.

Utterback said earlier this year, the school had received word of approval from the National Association of Secondary and Higher Schools. Utterback said the purposes of the Northwest Association are to advance the cause of education in the colleges and secondary schools of the northwest; develop educational policy and activities which will extend and improve educational opportunities and services; develop criteria of evaluation, which will continuously stimulate, evaluate and accredit vital educational effort.

The summer program in the Valley School District, said Utterback, started May 23 and the enrollment for this summer session is 64 students. The superintendent explained the district is offering programs in reading, math, science, writing and language.

A special education in physical education, arts and crafts, band and chorus is also offered the summer students. Students are served breakfast at 8:30 a.m. and start classes at 9 a.m. and break for lunch at 2 p.m.

Dr. Utterback said the school library is now open on Wednesdays for use by migrant children. He said a story hour is being held for the children and they are allowed to check out books to take home.

The kindergarten, Annie Roemer, second, third grades and older migrant children; Tammi Metcalf, physical education, and Dave Follingstad, band and chorus. The arts and crafts class duties are shared by all instructors. Utterback said children will be taken on a field trip or swimming on each Friday during the program. Children will also have the opportunity to learn basic pottery when representatives of Snake River Pottery visit the school.

During the fourth week, a potluck dinner for migrant families will be held. At the end of the summer program an operetta and graduation program will be staged.

Music classes are also being offered in beginning band instruments, guitar, and improvising any instrument. All students interested were pre-registered during the last week of regular school with final scheduling left open until summer activities started.

These students will be contacted for time scheduling this week, said Utterback. He noted schedules will be arranged according to individual needs.

Anyone interested in participating and who missed pre-registration should leave name, telephone number and class in which they are interested at the Valley High School office.

Mrs. Nancy Taylor, vocational homemaking instructor, will offer two classes of tailoring Monday through Friday. The evening class will run from 7-10 p.m. and Monday afternoon class from 2-4:30 p.m. will also be offered. Those interested are asked to contact the high school.

SPOKANE (UPI) — A total of $1,600 was raised for the families of victims of the May 2 Sunshine mine fire through the sale of some 3,460 pasties in a roped off section of downtown Spokane Wednesday.

The pasty is a traditional miner's lunch, essentially a meat pie, which was brought to America by the corish, Welsh and Irish.

The pasty contains beef, potato and onion enclosed in a pie crust and is eaten as a finger food. Paul F. Ewing, Spokane, one of the coordinators of the luncheon said.

Ninety-one men lived in the Sunshine fire, the worst disaster in Idaho history. Since that time fund raising projects have been held throughout eastern Washington and northern Idaho.

BOISE (UPI) — Gov. Cecil D. Andrus proclaimed Wednesday a code of fair practice to be the governing policy throughout every department of the executive branch of government in Idaho.

In an executive order, Andrus said the legislature by Chapter 59, Title 87 of the Idaho Code has declared a policy to secure to all individuals within the state from discrimination in general and by chapter 16, title 43, "fair discrimination" in employment because of age.

The code of fair practices as outlined in the executive order covers employment policies of state agencies, state services and facilities, state employment services, state education, counseling and training programs, state licensing and regulatory agencies, housing accommodations, state financial assistance, law enforcement and annual reports.

Under the law enforcement section, the code said in accordance with Chapter 51, Section 10, the state shall encourage local law enforcement agencies to develop special training programs.

Gem committee to begin work

BOISE (UPI) — The State Board of Education committee on public school financing and organization will begin work June 23-24 on "an ideal plan as a point of departure from the existing operation of the school system."

Mrs. Janet Hay, Nampa, a new member of the state board and a spokesman for the committee, said all committee members will be meeting in Boise to examine the possibility of establishing administrative units through which funds could be distributed to several districts in one area.

She said the board wants to present a bill at the next legislative session which would bring equal educational opportunity to every Idaho child, along with an equitable form of taxation of property owners.

She said, "By encompassing several districts into one administrative unit we could arrive at a combined assessment which would be closer to the state average. It would be much easier to write a formula for state-appropriated funds if we did not have the wide disparity of assessment that we now have in the individual districts."

Caldwell School Superintendent and committee chairman, Jerry Evans, said he believed the reason any kind of a school reorganization has been opposed in the past is the fear of some schools being closed.

by United Press International Traffic accidents have claimed the lives of two persons in Idaho, including a 13-year-old Coeur d'Alene boy who was crushed by an earth moving scraper that lost its brakes on a hill.

Dead are Ronald Mills, 13, Coeur d'Alene, and Tico Lusk, Pinehurst. Mills was killed instantly when the earth-mover struck him as he was riding his bicycle with his family two miles west of Coeur d'Alene on U.S. Highway 10 Wednesday afternoon.

Gymkhana Sunday

GLENN'S FERRY — The Three Island Riding Club met Tuesday evening at the arena to make plans for a gymkhana Sunday.

The drill team, composed of young people, practiced for two hours in preparation for the Little Buckaroo at Mountain Home June 23 and 24.

The gymkhana at 7:30 on Sunday in the club arena will feature western pleasure and trail classes. There will be clover leaf, miscellaneous, seven barrel and keyhole races. Ribbons will be given for the first three place winners in each race.

Prizes are now on display at the Idaho Power office. These will be awarded at the end of the season to the four riders who have earned the most points.

The drill team will be riding in the 4th of July Parade in Glenn's Ferry. They also will be working at the Three Island Riding Club gymkhana on that day.

Candidate speaks

by United Press International Democratic candidate for the First District congressional nomination, Ed Williams, asked Wednesday why the Nixon Administration called $250 million for education "inflationary" and then allowed a $2 billion cost overrun of the CSEA transport.

Linda Talley, Wegner wed

MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL J. WEGNER

TWIN FALLS — Linda Louise Talley and Samuel Joseph Wegner were united in marriage in rites May 27 at the First United Methodist Church, Twin Falls.

Rev. Herbert Morris performed the double ring ceremony before three candleholders with white candles, yellow chrysanthemums and white gladioli with yellow ribbons.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Talley, Twin Falls. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wegner, American Falls.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown, fashioned with a bodice of Penn D'Ange lace with a scallop-square neckline and long lace sleeves. The waistline was shaped and scalloped with a full lace panel that accented the skirt. Her headpiece of seed pearls and whisper veil with cathedral mantilla train was scalloped with matching lace. Her only jewelry was a cultured pearl necklace given to her by the bridegroom.

She carried a bouquet of white miniature elegans, yellow rosebuds and lilies of the Valley placed on a white Bible belonging to Terry Rhimes. She carried a white linen and lace handkerchief belonging to her grandmother Bell.

Mr. Stanley Rowlands, American Falls, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were June Shaw, American Falls; Terry Rhimes, Wendell; Mrs. Von Smith, and Donna Talley, sister of the bride, both Twin Falls. Adrian Wegner, American Falls, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Michael Talley, Challis, brother of the bride; Frank Wegner, Pocatello, brother of the bridegroom; Dan Westler, American Falls, brother of the bridegroom; and Steve Wegner, Rockland, cousin of the bridegroom.

Tiffany Rowlands, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Barry Messner, nephew of the bridegroom, served as ringbearer.

Terry and Tammie Messner, cousins of the bridegroom, were candlelighters. Mrs. Dorothy Gibson, organist, accompanied Becky Stahley, soloist. Mrs. Gibson played the traditional wedding music and selections from musicians.

The closing prayer was given by the bridegroom's father. The couple was honored at a reception at the Fellowship Hall after the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered with lace over white satin enhanced with rainbow-colored bows.

The three-tiered Lady Widemire cake was surrounded by four round-shaped cakes which were decorated with blue and yellow roses, silver leaves and angels with harps, and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom standing under an archway with silver bells.

The cake was flanked by silver candleabra with yellow candles.

The bridegroom's table, decorated like the bride's, was centered with a white basket filled with rainbow-colored carnations, baby's breath and ivy.

It was arranged with two heart-shaped cakes on either side of the basket of flowers. The silver coffee service and silver punch bowl completed the table decor.

The cakes were made and decorated by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Stanley Rowlands. The guest tables were centered with white baskets of rainbow-colored flowers and candleholders decorated with colored net, lilies of the Valley and white candles. The table decorations were made by the bride and her family.

The cake was served by Mrs. Betty Sharp and Linda McHenry. Punch was served by Mrs. Adrian Wegner, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Dan Wegner, sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Mrs. LeRoy Luper was in charge of the guest book.

In charge of the gifts were Mrs. Michael Talley, Challis; Mrs. Dorothy Linsey and Ann Lansey, both Rupert; Mrs. Frank Wegner, Pocatello; Mrs. LeRoy Messner, Kimberly; Sherry Wegner, American Falls; and Robin Funk, Portland.

Special guests were Mrs. Sarah Bell, Twin Falls, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Talley, Portland; grandparents of the bride; and Mrs. Emma Wegner, Twin Falls, grandmother of the bridegroom.

Other guests attended from Portland and Eugene, Ore.; Ogden, Utah; American Falls, Pocatello, Blackfoot, Rockland, Burley, Rupert, Paul, Challis, Pothole, Kimberly and Twin Falls.

After a wedding trip to the Grand Canyon and other points of interest, the couple will reside in Tucson, Ariz. They will both be juniors at the University of Arizona. The bride is majoring in music education and the bridegroom in museology.

The bride was teted at a luncheon given at the mutual shower by Terry Rhimes.

Valley Living

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a young, single career girl who lives alone. I use "Ms." before my name as a form of protection. With the present high crime rate, I am not about to advertise the fact that I am unmarried and therefore am alone during the night. There are just too many looks running around.

I realize that using "Ms." isn't foolproof, but every little bit helps. I don't want to be equal. I only want to be SAFE! Ms. J. J.

DEAR MS. J. J.: I'll say it's not foolproof. Some married women spend more time alone at night than the unmarried ones.

DEAR ABBY: Four of us married women are planning to drive to Florida for a week's vacation. We will share the gas and motel expenses.

One of the girls has her husband's permission to use their new car for the trip. He said that a three girls should pay 20 per cent each for the gas and his wife will pay 10 per cent, and if the car should have trouble on the trip, his wife will pay for all the repairs.

I think we should all pay equally for the gas, no matter who owns the car, and the owner still should pay for any repairs.

Who do you think is right? Thank you!

ONE OF THE GIRLS

DEAR ONE: I see nothing wrong with the husband's proposition. But if you do, I advise you to speak up and settle it before you leave. A disgruntled passenger makes a very poor traveling companion.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have three daughters, ages 15, 13 and 10. We live down the street from my folks and when the girls have stopped to see their grandparents they have been greeted with such remarks as "Gee, you sure have a lot of pimples," and "My, but you're getting fat!"

Last time the 13-year-old was there my mother said "Bright in front of some other relatives," "Gracious, but you're developing quite a bust!"

Now the girls don't want to go there any more and I can't say as I blame them.

I told my mother the reason the girls stopped visiting her, and she said, "It's a darned shame they are so overly sensitive. They had better outgrow that."

Are my daughters, in your opinion, "overly sensitive" or is there something wrong with my mother?

TICKET OFF IN FACOMA

DEAR TICKET: It's your mother. She sounds hopeless, but try to educate her.

DEAR ABBY: Since I am 78 years old, my experience may be valuable to the 74-year-old college-educated gentleman who found himself "ON THE FENCE" concerning a lady friend who had only a sixth grade education.

Like "ON THE FENCE," I had a good academic education. [I am also conversant with eight languages, but found none of them necessary in my love life.]

Literature is very nice, but chemistry is more important. Consider the case of Benjamin Franklin who, while still a bachelor, saw a pretty girl on the street, obtained an introduction to her, married her, and discovered electricity!

When Z called for the lack of diamonds, East immediately produced the King and Z let it hold. The 10 was returned and Z had to play his ace.

He remarked, "When I played this hand for Sidney Lenz in a rubber bridge game in 1924 I made sure of three no-trump by playing three rounds of hearts and then leading dummy's last diamond. I discarded two clubs from dummy and two clubs and a heart from my hand. West could lead anything he wished but it didn't matter. The lead was sure to give me my ninth trick."

ets will have used Stamat to cut to four hearts. Five hearts is unbeatable and six hearts will make at least 11 bids the club king. I must be after something that isn't nailed down.

Who the queen of Z proceeded to enter dummy for a successful club finesse. Then he cashed the hearts and clubs to come down to a final problem of beating the queen of spades.

By this time Z had a good enough count to know that he had a chance with his spades. This made the odds that he would hold the queen a substantial five to two and Z picked it up to make six no-trump and a top score instead of a safe three no-trump for a bottom score.

Library treasure hunt outlined

KETCHUM — Area youngsters will search for buried treasure this summer through a reading program currently in progress at the Ketchum-Sun Valley Community Library.

With the theme, "Dig for Captain Cook's Gold," the 10-week program which began June 1, will be open to all first through eighth grade students.

According to assistant librarian Diana Driscoll, youngsters will begin the treasure hunt by first securing a map at the library. As ships pass five dangerous points to reach the treasure, their courses are plotted on a pirate's map, she said.

Treasure hunters must read five books at each of the five hazardous areas, which include

Cyclops Den, Siren's Rock and, finally, the sea monster guarding the treasure. Books will be tabulated in a ship's log designed by Rod Tatsuji. Gordon Williams has designed the ancient pirate's map and Mrs. Wynnefred Harmon has donated the use of a treasure chest.

Miss Driscoll reported 747 adult and 398 juvenile books, in addition to 145 records, were circulated this past month.

Added to the shelves were 59 new books. A new magazine rack is currently in use in the periodical section, she said. Mrs. Donald Atkinson, chairman of this year's Tour of Homes, said preliminary plans are well in progress for the fund raising event, which will be conducted Aug. 5.

A Lovelier You

FOR NEEDY THIGHLINES

By Mary Sue Miller

As bathing suits seem to get shorter, legs seem to get longer. But a longer legline is not always wanted. Legline trouble starts at the thigh.

The size needs trimming on the flesh wants firming. Whatever these routines work quickly toward prettier contours.

1. Lie on right side, with legs straight out and together. By bending knees, try to touch sole of foot to buttocks. Try hard, and then quickly straighten legs. Repeat 10 times, turn on left side and continue "massage" outer side of thighs with a trimming action.
2. Standing erect, come up on tiptoes, lower body so that buttocks rest on heels. Then, leg balance, slide hands between knees and anchor them flat on floor. Now thrust right leg diagonally to right with inner side of leg toward floor, in thrust aim for straight knee and heel that just clears floor. Quickly return leg to squat position and immediately thrust left leg to left.

Alternating sides, work up from 4 to 20 repeats. You perform with maximum effect when you feel inner thigh muscles stretch and tighten.

LEGLINE TRIMMERS

If your individual problem is heavy legs, send for my new booklet, LEGLINE TRIMMERS, which contains spot reducing exercises that will meet your individual needs, whether for thighs, knees, calves or ankles, or for contouring your entire legline. Write Mary Sue Miller in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and ten cents in coin.

Rupert can't get trucks

RUPERT — The City of Rupert ran afoul of a situation Tuesday night experienced by many citizens — orders for two pickup trucks were rejected.

Elwood Hedrick, sales manager for Hazel Chevrolet, told the council that the two pickup trucks which the firm was to supply as low bidder in a recent bid call are not only "out of stock" but will not be supplied by the manufacturer.

Hedrick said Chevrolet dealers throughout the country had had 45,000 orders for trucks of all sizes refused because of a lack of manufacturing capacity.

He said the factories are changing over for the new 1973 lines.

Hedrick offered to sell the city two similar trucks now in stock, but cautioned that they would cost $380 more than the price bid of $5,572. Each truck has more equipment than was specified in the bid call.

After lengthy discussion, the council voted to reinspect the original bids, checking the second lowest bid against Hedrick's offer. No formal vote was taken by the council.

Bids for a sewer-cleaning truck opened during Tuesday's meeting, also brought lengthy discussion, but no contract was awarded. Five bidders quoted prices for the sewer cleaner, but several bids failed to meet specifications of the city.

The Penetryn Corp. of Salt Lake City, whose "Cobra" machine has been used in extensive trials in Rupert, said it could not meet specifications and did not enter a bid.

The council asked for further investigation of the equipment offered by the various bidders before taking action to acquire the equipment.

Williamson Idaho Equipment Co., Pocatello, was successful bidder for a hoist and a dump bed to be installed on two Rupert City trucks. There was some confusion concerning whether installation of the equipment was to be done by the supplier or the city.

Jerome hires patrolman

JEROME — The Jerome City Council Tuesday hired Grant Willard, 22, Pocatello, as a new patrolman for the Jerome Police Department.

Willard was placed on a six month probationary period.

The council also hired Keith Stein, Jerome, as city dog catcher. Stein replaces Ray Adley who resigned, he said, because another job took up too many hours.

Don Jacobsen told the council that most of the paper work required to purchase a patrol truck from the Idaho National Guard, Boise, has been completed.

Jacobsen told the council he did not know the cost of the truck but it would not have to be accepted.

In other business the council approved a request from the Northside Football League for $150 to help pay for lighting the LDB Baseball Diamond.

D. F. Allen, president of the baseball league, told the council the league now has 19 teams and possibly will add more. Allen said the league has supported itself by raising money, but that it has done a great deal of repair work to the baseball field and does not have the money for the lighting bill.

The council also approved a $350 request from the Jerome Baseball Commission to help it with its summer baseball program.

Mayor Jack Russell said a team from the government research department of the Idaho State University will be in Jerome Monday to meet with councilmen and zoning commissioners.

The team will discuss a study that was conducted in Jerome as part of 9 county government study done this year by the university.

The council approved a final plat for the Har Graves subdivision on East G and Davis and gave tentative approval to Ray Mann for a preliminary plat on the fourth Mann subdivision. Mann told the council he plans to extend East 11th Street through to North Davis. Mann said he will place five lots on the north side of 11th Street and two lots on the south side.

The council approved permits for the sale of safe and sane fireworks at Morley Drug, M. H. King, Featherstone Clover Farm and Hamilton Drug.

A damage claim for $5,084 from Ed Heitzman was referred to the insurance company by the council for investigation. In the claim Heitzman said the city ran too much water through an irrigation ditch, causing it to overflow and flood his potato cellar at 217 East C with 14 inches of water.

Councilman S. N. Weeks received approval from the council on his request to check into the purchase of a 150-horsepower water pump to replace the 20 year old 75-horsepower pump now in operation at the city water tower. Weeks said last year when he checked the cost of such a pump it was between $12,000 and $13,000. The council passed an emergency resolution for the purchase of the pump and will advertise for bids after checking with the city engineer.

Grant OK'd for Declo

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Farmers Home Administration has approved a $76,000 loan and $42,700 grant to Declo for construction of a new sewage system, according to Representative Tim Wirth.

Hansen said additional grants of $27,700 from the state of Idaho, and $55,400 from the Environmental Protection Agency are anticipated for the project which will service 73 rural families and businesses in the Declo area.

Humphrey seeks support of nation's governors

HOUSTON (UPI) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, only hours after losing presidential primaries in three states, met with the nation's Democratic governors Wednesday in an attempt to win the support of uncommitted governors of key state delegations.

Humphrey, vowing to remain in the contest for the Democratic nomination all the way to the national convention in Miami Beach July 10, flew to the scene of the National Governors' Conference and immediately met with governors individually and later in a group at a breakfast caucus.

Humphrey chatted with 19 Democratic governors at the breakfast session about his campaign. The group also included Mrs. Cornelia Wallace, wife of the stricken Alabama governor, who has been attending the conference in his behalf.

"I wasn't trying to be for Hubert Humphrey but trying to share with the governors some of the results of my campaign thus far," he said after the meeting.

But Gov. Patrick J. Lucey of Wisconsin, chief supporter here of Sen. George McGovern, said Humphrey made it clear to us that he was sure he could beat Nixon in November.

Gov. Dale Bumpers of Arkansas, who is supporting Wilbur Mills, said he was "pretty impressed" by Humphrey's showing in the California primary since polls had shown the Minnesota Democrat would lose by a far larger margin than he did.

"I think it's some kind of moral victory for Humphrey," Bumpers said. He said Humphrey told the governors that "the delegates in Miami Beach ought to have a choice in July."

Bumpers said he believed "the vast majority" of governors remained uncommitted.

Gov. William Waller of Mississippi said he believed Humphrey's stand on the issues was "more appealing to the average American" than that of McGovern.

Meanwhile, Lucey said he saw "no evidence" of a "Stop McGovern" movement among the Democratic governors despite widespread dissatisfaction expressed against a McGovern candidacy in Houston.

Giant new dam said tax benefit in long haul

BY MICHAEL UPTAGRAFFT

Part Two: Impact

OHOWTNO, IDAHO (UPI) — Any time a major project is constructed the surrounding area is affected one way or another. So it is with Dworshak Dam.

The giant dam on the North Fork of the Clearwater River, towering 717 feet from bedrock to its crest, is slated for completion next year and already its effects are being felt.

At its peak, about 3,000 men were employed on the project, bringing much of their income into Clearwater County, which traditionally has depended on logging for the bulk of its income. Now they are leaving but the effects of their work will linger for years to come.

Robert Werner, former assistant Idaho Senator Henry Dworshak for whom the dam is named, said over the years the construction of the dam has cost the tax payer about $10 million.

Werner said the dam is a major project in the area should be made up for the loss of the property.

Yet years ago you could buy any of the stump ranches around here for $50 an acre, he said. Now they are going for from $1,000 an acre on up depending on whether you have a view of the pool or not.

Environmentalists had decried the loss of the 10,900 acres of land, claiming it was valuable elk winter grazing ground.

Ben Mollie, resident engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers, "discounted this saying the land along the pool was lost sleep for good elk grazing territory."

He said there was actually very little land lost considering the size of the project.

Mollie said the pool, 53 miles long with 185 miles of shoreline, consists mainly of narrow bands of the river running up steep canyons and does not use up much acreage.

He also said the corps has purchased grazing land to make up for the land lost, and then some.

The engineer said the corps had actually increased the elk grazing land by 9,000 acres by purchasing the land from private land owners and making it into public domain.

"While the land was in private ownership," he said, "the owner could either allow the elk to browse on his land or he could chase them off or get a permit to exterminate them. It was all up to the whim of the owner."

Mollie said now the land is in public domain the Idaho Department of Fish and Wildlife is managing it as elk grazing ground, something it could not do before.

He also said the filling of the pool will provide for additional recreational value for the area, especially in the realm of fishing and camping.

Mollie said the corps is planning several camping areas along the pool, most of which will be accessible only by boat.

He also said the fishing is expected to be superb in the next few years.

The engineer said the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife has already planted 200,000 foot-long rainbow trout in the pool and plans to plant an additional one million kokanee fry in the near future as well as cutthroat trout next year. Kokanee are landlocked sockeye salmon which if everything goes well, could reach 16-18 inches in length in the next four years.

Mollie said the fishing already was good at the limited access points in the pool.

"I was out last Saturday," he said, "and took my limit in a very short time in my first experience with spinning gear."

Another financial aspect of the $267 million dam construction project has been the clearing of the dam pool.

Mollie said the clearing was accomplished in three different contracts — the first two on a cut and burn basis and the third on a cut and let the logs float system.

He said the third contractor — Alpine Construction Co., a Canadian subsidiary of Boise Cascade, had the option of cutting the timber and just hauling it off and burning it or logging it for sale.

"After the price of logs went up recently," Mollie said, "the contractor decided to log it commercially."

He said the firm figures to take 20-30 million board feet of timber from the pool by the time its clearing contract expires in October of 1973.

Mollie said, "This contract is proving a good thing for the contractor but a headache for use because we would like to have the space for boating and fishing."

"We've bought up all the land surrounding the pool at least 300 feet back from the high water mark to keep it from being wall-to-wall docks all the way around," he said, adding any docks built on the pool would be on a permit basis.

He said Dworshak Dam is one project in which the corps has tried to keep everything as unaffected as possible by the construction.

Art gallery on TF Main Avenue

TWIN FALLS — Main Avenue in Twin Falls will become an open air art gallery June 15 through 17.

Edd Bossard, Downtown Merchants Association chairman at the three-day event, said today about 150 artists will be exhibiting some 5,000 art items including paintings, pottery, weaving, metal sculpture and other specialty items.

Sponsored by the merchants association and the Magic Valley Art Guild, the show is the first of its kind ever held here. Bossard said Main Avenue will be closed during the show in the two-block area between the Rogerson Hotel and Idaho Department Store and the school administration building corner.

Bossard said the art will be coming from throughout Idaho as well as Utah, Montana, Oregon and Nevada.

Paintings will be exhibited from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and until 9:30 p.m. on Friday.

Demonstrations will be given at various times during the show on weaving and pottery making. Possibly a metal working demonstration will be featured.

Plans are also being made for a children's art school to be held in the play area between the Idaho Department store and J. C. Penney Co. store. An instructor will work with the children at various times to show them new art techniques and encourage their individual ideas.

Bossard said in the event of rain, "Heaven help us."

He said there are no downtown area buildings which could house the many paintings and it would be necessary to move them indoors, probably utilizing all the stores.

Mishap knocks power

TWIN FALLS — Idaho power customers in the Curry Crossing area west of Twin Falls were without power Tuesday night after an automobile accident.

Involved in the mishap was George Shropshire, 27, Buhl, whose vehicle reportedly sheared off a power pole, causing the outage.

Idaho State Police said the accident occurred about 10:15 p.m. and power was restored about 7 a.m.

Shropshire was taken by ambulance to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital and is reported in good condition.

Ruling on air affects Gem State

BOISE, UPI — Spokesmen for the Health Department and Air Pollution Control Commission said Wednesday a recent U.S. Supreme Court ruling on air pollution control could affect some common Idaho practices.

Robert Olson, chief of the Solid Waste Management Section of the Idaho Department of Health, and Al Figueroa, director of the Idaho Air Pollution Control Commission, said open burning dumps go directly against the court ruling.

The court said areas of the United States that have air quality better than the federal standards set by the Environmental Protection Agency will not be permitted to pollute the air up to the minimum standards.

Figueroa and Olson said most urban areas of the United States do not meet the minimum standards, but said a few areas including many portions of Idaho — have air quality better than the federal standards require.

Open burning of solid wastes in dumps, modified landfills and sanitary landfills is not permitted under the Idaho Solid Waste Control regulations and standards. Other types of open burning are restricted by the regulations of the Idaho Air Pollution Control Commission.

7 seek bid for Jerome sheriff

BY CHARLOTTE BELL
Times-News writer

JEROME—A whole posse of Republicans want to be sheriff in Jerome County.

At the filing deadline at 5 p.m. Wednesday, seven candidates had filed for the sheriff post, among them, six GOP party members.

Jerome County voters will have to pick one from a list of hopefuls that includes Irving Altman, former policeman and justice of the peace; Eliza Hall, a former Jerome and High oleman; James R. Jansell, a World War II marine; Jack Parrott, special deputy for Twin Falls and Jerome counties; Boyd Bydalek, a Jerome deputy sheriff for eight years, and Dennis Robinette, a Hazelton man with police experience.

The seventh candidate is Paul Whaley, a 12-year police veteran, running as an independent. Whaley does not have to file a nominating petition, but will conduct a write-in campaign. His name will not appear on the already-crowded ballot listing for sheriff.

The only Democrat to file yesterday was Keith Johansen, who seeks the district No. 2 county commissioner seat. District No. 2 Republican incumbent John Van Orman also filed a nominating petition.

One Republican from district No. 1, either incumbent county commissioner Cleo Ambrose or challenger Milford Jones, will have to step down after the August primary.

Other county officers running unopposed in the primary are auditor-recorder-clerk Virginia Rickett and county prosecutor Eugene Fredericksen. Both are Republicans and have petitions on file.

A dozen Republican precinct committeemen are running unopposed.

They are Gordon Hatfield, southeast; Joyce Craig, Bishop; W. W. Pressley, Hazelton; Donald E. Rehwal, Greenwood; Gerald R. Doughty, Fall City; Ray Assendrup, northeast; Verdis Larsen, courthouse; Don McFarland, Eden; Gordon R. Hagler, Grandview; Hollis Neal, southwest; Ferguson Camp, northwest; and Dan Subr, Canyonside.

New Holiday Inn at Ketchum

Ketchum's Holiday Inn groundbreaking held

By TERRY CAMPBELL
Times-News writer

KETCHUM—Enhancement of Idaho through orderly development was praised Wednesday by Atty. Gen. Anthony Park.

Park spoke briefly after participating in a groundbreaking ceremony for a new 116-unit Holiday Inn, developed in conjunction with Sprenger Land Investment Co.'s Bigwood project, north of Ketchum.

The attorney general said he was pleased with the rise of tourism as one of the outstanding industries of the state because the nature of tourism requires no additional governmental services.

But Park stressed planned community development to attract tourism. Keeping in mind "the scenic environment."

The $2 million Holiday Inn project is owned by Fraser Mortgage Co., Cleveland, Ohio, which also owns the 200-room Holiday Inn at Twin Falls. The new facility is expected to be complete for the 1972-73 ski season.

The owners hope the growth of the Sun Valley area will enable them to build an additional 120 units within the next two years.

"Planned as a modern resort facility, the inn will contain a pool, health club, office space, gift shop, restaurants, and cocktail lounges."

Ralph Thomas, vice president and general manager of Sprenger company, said earlier, working arrangements will be established with the hotel for Bigwood's use of the facility's swimming pool and the inn's use of the development's golf course.

The inn will also include convention and banquet facilities designed to handle groups up to 400 persons. Year-round entertainment is planned for the dining and cocktail areas.

Building architect Robert F. Finstreet, Denver, Colo., said the design of the building was "contemporary Rustic." The building will be constructed of pre-cast concrete and stone with red cedar balconies and trim, which will be set off from white stucco facade. Linstedt said, "the site sits on a knoll overlooking the Bigwood golf course with visibility extending from Galena Summit on the north, south to Baldy Mountain, making the vista unique."

Contractor supervisor for the project, Bill Rogers, Houshuan and Johnson Co., Cleveland, said construction will begin immediately with rapid progress expected because of the utilization of pre-cast concrete.

The project will be served by the Ketchum sewer system. Attention, the groundbreaking rite, were Mayor Kenneth Bichey, Ketchum; members of the Ketchum City Council; Blaine County Commissioner Jack Bennett, and county planning and zoning board chairman, Robert Vernon.

Bigwood encompasses 700 acres and extends to about one and a half miles north of Ketchum. Now in the third year of a ten-year building program, the $30 million project includes a ski area, condominiums, home sites and a nine-hole golf course.

Minidoka may have Demo unit

RUPERT—The Minidoka County Commission may go so far as to create next year with new members seated.

Incumbent commissioners Alex Rogers, a Democrat, and Elmer Ketching, a Republican, failed to file nominating petitions by the deadline Wednesday afternoon.

Their successors on the commission could be Harold Ingram, a Rupert Democrat, who filed a petition in Ketching's district, and Lloyd Knudsen, who will serve district 2 in western Minidoka County as a Democrat.

There were no challenging petitions filed for the county commission.

There will be no contests in any county office in the August primary elections according to petitions filed in the county clerk's office at the 5 p.m. deadline Wednesday.

The only change in the five elective county offices to be chosen this year is that of prosecuting attorney. Rupert attorney Robert M. Nielsen will seek the office unopposed, succeeding incumbent Don Chisholm, who chose not to run again.

Incumbents filed petitions for re-election included Sheriff Theo Johnson, and Coroner Robert C. Walk, who, like Nielsen, are Republicans.

Cassia Primary has 2 contests

BURLEY—Cassia County voters have only two primary contests in which they must pick a candidate for the November general elections.

In the August primaries, only the Cassia County coronor post and the Burley district No. 2 precinct committeeman seat are being challenged.

Wednesday, Roger B. Porter filed a nominating petition pitting himself against fellow Republican Dr. Leslie J. Fjellmoer. Fjellmoer is the incumbent.

Bath C. Bruce Young and Orland Bateman are seeking the Republican committeeman post from Burley district No. 2. Bateman filed a petition June 1. Young filed Wednesday.

Other Republican committeeman filings Wednesday included Joe Preston, DeLo, Joy G. Caffie, Albion; Johnnie R. Cline, Starr's Ferry; Alvin Neddo, Malta, and D. Rex Bingham, Pella.

Petitions for Democratic committeeman have been received from Betty Lou Morton, Burley No. 4; Herman E. Bedke, Starr's Ferry; Nellie Bedke, Oakley No. 1; Mary Elliott, Burley No. 2; Gus Engstrom, DeLo; Gertrude C. Hatch, Burley No. 5; Irene Neilson, Jackson and Wilford Sagers, Oakley No. 2.

Running unopposed are Republican incumbent county officers Sheriff Ray G. Mitchell, Pros. Atty. Gordon S. Nielson; second district County Commissioner J. Weldon Beck, and Oakley first district County Commissioner John A. Clark.

GOLDEN BENNETT files

Sheriff only TF contest

TWIN FALLS—Candidate filing deadline passed Wednesday at 5 p.m., with only one primary election race in Twin Falls County.

Republican Sheriff Paul Corder will be opposed for his party's nomination Aug. 8 by a former deputy, Ron Goodman, Hansen.

The only candidate to file here, in addition to precinct committeemen, on Wednesday was Golden Bennett, Twin Falls attorney who filed for the office of prosecuting attorney on the Democratic ticket.

Bennett will run unopposed in the primary but will oppose Robert Galley, assistant prosecutor, in the general election. Two years ago Bennett ran for the same office but was defeated by Republican Leon Smith. Smith is not seeking re-election.

County Clerk Harold Lancaster said within five days each party will receive a list of candidates who filed for office including precinct committeemen who are elected in the primary election. All vacancies on the ballot for either ticket may be filled within 20 days after the primary election if the party will certify the candidate.

Democrats will have plenty of vacancies to fill with only Bennett filing for office on that party for county offices.

Republicans who have filed and are running unopposed in the primary election include Ron Taylor, assessor, an incumbent now serving under appointment; county commissioners Merl E. Leonard, William, for the first district, and William Chancey for the second district. Both are incumbents and Chancey is currently chairman of the three-man board.

A third commissioner, Heber Joughniller, was re-elected two years ago with two more years of his term to go. Because of a heart attack he suffered recently, some politicians have speculated he might resign but such a resignation after the election would assure the county another Republican office holder as the appointee would be from the same party as the resigning office holder.

The other Republican running unopposed is Cloyce Edwards, coroner, while John Cox, constable, also presented a nominating petition to the county recorder although this office no longer appears on the ballot.

Blaine to have two contests

BY TERRY CAMPBELL
Times-News writer

HAILEY—Only two out of six major Blaine County offices will be contested in the August primary.

A three-man race has developed for the four-year term of sheriff, Dennis I. Haynes will square off against Ivan Swaner, Hailey, in the primary for the Republican nomination.

Incumbent Orville Presler has filed for the Democratic nomination.

Two Republicans have filed for the district 2 county commissioner seat formerly held by the late John Fox.

They are Robert W. Hatto, an East Fork hauler, and Russ L. Horne, Hailey, real-estate and insurance agent.

Gary Hubbard, rancher north of Hailey, has filed for the Democratic nomination for the two-year term commissioner position.

Incumbents for three other positions will be uncontested. Positions, terms of office and candidates include the following:

Prosecuting attorney, two years, Stephen W. Rollier, district 1 county commissioner, four years, Ray Sweet, Carey, county clerk, two years, Marie Iyie, Hailey, who is currently serving under an interim appointment.

No filings were made for the two-year term office of coroner, currently held by Dr. Robert Gwimer.

Other filings Wednesday include the following: Democrats for precinct committeemen: Betty C. Lavery, east Ketchum, and Jean Terra, northwest Ketchum.

Republican committeemen filing were John Barton, Hailey, number 1; Ric Schmidt, Bellevue, and Glenn Brannen, southwest Ketchum.

Two seek county job in Jerome

JEROME—Milford Jones has announced he will seek the Republican nomination for district 1, Jerome County Commissioner, creating a two-man contest for the nomination.

Cleo Ambrose is seeking re-election to district 1, also on the Republican ticket.

Jones has served as a member of the Jerome County Fair Board for 12 years. He also served on two school boards in the east end of the county before the Valley School District was formed.

He lived in the Eden area from 1914 to 1966 when he moved to a ranch north of Jerome. Last June he moved south of Jerome where he presently resides.

Jones is semi-retired from farming and emphasizes that he has sufficient time to devote to the position of county commissioner.

Keith Johansen, Democrat, has filed for the Jerome County Commission, district 2, and will run against incumbent John Van Orman, Republican, who is seeking re-election.

Won't run

JEROME—John Hosman told the Times-News he will not be seeking election to the Jerome County Commission.

He said he has been requested to run for the position, but in light of his defeat in the Jerome City Council election, he does not think this is the time to seek a position on the county commission.

Rainfall lessens danger from fire

Moderate rainfall over the Magic Valley area Wednesday night and this morning brought relief to farmers and ranchers and lowered the fire danger on rangelands.

Heaviest reported rainfall was at Tuttle with 5.6 of an inch of precipitation. King Hill had the lowest reported precipitation with .03.

The Weather Bureau Agricultural Service office at Kimberly received inofficial reports of more than an inch of rain at various locations in the valley. The North Side Canal Co. said about an inch of rain fell between Hazelton and Rupert on the A and B Irrigation District.

The Bureau of Land Management in Shoshone estimated rainfall there Wednesday night at .35. Michael T. Green, BLM public information officer, said the rangeland was extremely dangerous from a fire standpoint prior to Wednesday night's rain.

Leon Reed reported lightning struck near his farm one and one-fourth miles south and one-half east of Hansen, knocking out telephone service.

Four lightning fires were reported in the BLM District 5 since Monday, Green said. Wednesday a fire was reported about 10 miles southwest of American Falls.

Hailey man accepts Blaine appointment

HAILEY (J. W. Andy) Gardner said today he would accept the interim appointment as district 2, Blaine County commissioner.

The appointment was necessitated by the death last month of John Fox, Hailey Republican.

Gardner has been in Wyoming on business and was unavailable for comment upon Gov. Cecil Andrus' request last week that Gardner serve as commissioner.

"The Hailey Democrat said he appreciated the thought in both the county Democratic Central Committee's recommendation to the post and the governor's

No takers on coroner in Jerome

JEROME—There will be no candidate names for Jerome County coroner on the August primary ballot.

Incumbent Dr. Lauren Neher filed nominating petitions for the post but failed to include the proper registration fee, said county clerk Virginia Ricketts. Mrs. Ricketts said the only recourse left to the doctor is for him to conduct a write-in campaign.

Dr. Neher is a Republican and was first elected to the coroner position in 1964.

Lincoln has 1 race

SHOSHONE—Lincoln County appears to have only one contest for the primary election at the close of filing Wednesday.

This will be between incumbent R. G. Neher, M. D., and William A. Turska, naturopath, for the office of coroner on the Republican ticket.

Others filing on the Republican ticket include Ward A. Mills, county commissioner, zone 1; Darwin D. Mills, precinct committeeman, precinct 3; Bill Anderson, sheriff, and C. F. Chatfield, incumbent county commissioner for zone 3.

On the Democratic ticket, filings include William Kerner, commissioner for zone 1; Herb Love, precinct 1 committeeman; Mrs. Floyd Kisting, precinct 4 committeeman; Wanda Jones, precinct 3 committeeman; and Howard E. Adkins, incumbent, prosecuting attorney.

Vernon confirms change

TUTTLE—State Rep. Vernon Ravenscroft of Tuttle Wednesday confirmed Times-News reports that he will switch political parties.

He will run for re-election to the Idaho House as a Republican, he said.

Ravenscroft, an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the 1970 primary, said he felt it would "more honestly represent my fundamental political philosophy and positions on major current issues if I submit my candidacy to the electorate as a Republican."

In a letter sent to supporters, Ravenscroft said his decision to change party alliance was "driven home to me" during the study of the potential second congressional district election.

Earlier he was considered as a possible candidate for both the U. S. Senate and the second district congressional seat on the Democratic ticket.

"The more I studied party positions and national issues, the more I felt that I'd be a maverick in a Democratic Congress," the letter said. "My first decision was to stay out of politics for at least one term. "However, friends convinced me that if I wanted to remain in public service I should honestly tell the voters how I felt and seek election as a Republican."

Ravenscroft's possible switch in party alliance was first voiced Monday by Leon Aslett, chairman of the Jerome County Democratic Central Committee, who quoted Ravenscroft as saying he would seek the state legislative post on the Republican ticket.

Gov. Cecil D. Andrus was asked at a news conference Wednesday about Ravenscroft's decision and said he was "keenly disappointed."

Andrus said, however, that under reappointment Ravenscroft would be seeking re-election in a district which was "now admittedly a Republican district."

Andrus said, however, he had conferred with Ravenscroft earlier in the year when the state legislator sought support for a possible race as a Democrat against Rep. Orval Hansen, R-Idaho, for the second district congressional seat.

Market Review

NEW YORK (UPI) Prices moved slightly higher Thursday in moderate trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Dow Jones Industrial average was up 3.60 at 947.77 shortly before 1:15 p.m. Standard & Poor's 500-stock index advanced 0.20 to 107.83.

Advances led declines, 795 to 517, among the 1,332 issues crossing the tape. The three-hour turnover amounted to 8,170,000 shares, down from the 10,010,000 traded during corresponding period Wednesday.

Royal Dutch Petroleum was the most active issue, off 1/4 at 36 on 145,000 shares. Curtiss Wright, which holds the Wankel rotary engine, was second, up 1/2 at 43 1/2 on 138,000 shares. Federal National Mortgage was third, off 1/4 at 20 1/2.

One of the biggest gains was Upjohn, up 1/2. The issue has attracted attention this week since Fortune Magazine's "Airlines" rebounded from three days of losses. TWA and Delta gained 2 apiece, American Airlines added 1.

IBM, Burroughs, Honeywell, Motorola and Texas Instruments rose around 1 each. Steels, motors, oils and rails were mixed. Chemicals and aircrafts were higher. Gold mining issues, which had risen sharply in the early part of the week, were victims of profit taking.

Mutual Funds Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

If I am not mistaken in Phase II guidelines regarding dividends, there have been more than the usual number of rate increases and stock splits. Do you agree? G. W.

Yes, your observation is entirely correct. According to Standard and Poor's in the first four months of this year the number of dividend declarations had increased 5 per cent over the like 1971 period. Of these, 760 were increased, resumed or extra dividends, 31 per cent more than in the previous year interim.

By comparison the 79 payments, which were decreased or omitted, were half that of the 1971 period. Furthermore, many dividend rates have continued at the previous month's strong pace. Months have also been running at a record pace and are expected to overtake the high level of splits recorded in 1968. Through mid-May, some 70 Big Board stock splits of 25 per cent or greater had been declared or promulgated for an annual rate of about 190. In 1968, a record of 136 Big Board companies split their shares.

The trend is not surprising, however, in that with the amount of increase restricted by Phase II guidelines, companies may declare small increments without appearing parsimonious to shareholders. Stock splits help to sweeten the pot for investors, taking some of the sting out of the dividend rate restrictions. Of course, the strong 1972 profit performance has been the most cogent stimulus to corporate generosity.

And, taking this one step further, underscores the generally accepted expectation that 1972 will be a profitable year for business.

My investment goal is a good return. Should I sell Wayne-Gossard? - V.N.

A Wayne Gossard (NYSE) widened profit margins in the 1971 final half despite lower operations. In the 1972 first quarter, operations were appreciably improved; the dividend appears secure.

However, at least two-to-five per cent of sales - heavy and undergarments - are highly competitive, fraught with price cutting and expected to remain weak. Sell shares on upticks. (Roger Spear's 52-page Guide

Gem firm tries new schedule

LEWISTON, Idaho (UPI) - Onark UCI, Inc. has entered into a three month elevation of a new work schedule consisting of a four-day week.

The firm, a division of Onark industries, which manufactures ammunition and components, converted to the four-day week Monday a move that affected 250 of the firm's 300 employees.

Hourly employees at the plant had voted May 12 to accept the new work schedule, which has been under consideration by the company's management for about a year.

Allan J. Arnold, general manager, said the new schedule will be under analysis for the next three months to see how it works.

Wall Street Chatter

New York (UPI) - "The stock market may need some further time to digest its earlier gains, but we look for the advance to resume in due course under the stimulus of strength in the economy and in corporate profits," Standard & Poor's Corp. says. "While some areas of overvaluation are beginning to appear, selective buying remains justified," it adds.

The Holt Investment Advisory observes that "notwithstanding their bullish pronouncements for the public, it appears that Wall Street insiders actually have a rather dim view of the industry's prospect. Implication: Much of the bullish talk is designed to unload stocks on an unheeded public as well as guide institutions." The firm adds: "Against all background, it behooves all investors to proceed with great care."

Sewage hearing planned

LEWISTON, Idaho (UPI) - The Army Corps of Engineers has scheduled a public hearing June 19 on an application by Peltach Forests Inc. to relocate a portion of its effluent line and to place a diffuser on the downstream end.

The effluent line is to be relocated in the Clearwater River to avoid alignment conflicts with the levees being constructed to protect the city from the backwater behind Lower Granite dam.

The new line, according to the application, will be 48 inches in diameter compared with the present 36 inch pipe and will extend another quarter mile downstream into the Snake River.

The application says PFI plans to build a 400-foot long diffuser at the end of the line to help mix the effluent with the waters.

Peltach recently announced plans to begin shortly on the construction of its secondary treatment plant.

Cards pin ninth loss on Marichal

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Righthander Reggie Cleveland pitched a five-hit shutout Wednesday to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 6-0 victory over the slumping San Francisco Giants. Cleveland, who improved his record to 5-4, struck out nine batters and walked three. The closest the Giants came to scoring was in the second inning when Dave Rader doubled but was thrown out at the plate trying to score on a single by losing pitcher Juan Marichal.

The Cardinals peppered Marichal for 13 hits before he left the game with two outs in the ninth inning. Joe Torre's seventh homer of the season gave St. Louis a 1-0 lead in the second inning.

Pirates bury San Diego 12-5

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—The Pittsburgh Pirates exploded for 20 hits, including a pair of homers by Willie Stargell, Wednesday night to score a 12-5 victory over the San Diego Padres in the first game of a doubleheader.

The victory went to Bob Johnson, 1-3, in relief of starter Nelson Briles. Fred Norman was the chief victim of the Pirates' attack and suffered his fifth loss in nine decisions.

In addition to Stargell's two homers, Dave Cash hit a solo homer in the fourth and pitcher Johnson stroked a bases-loaded single in the fifth to drive in two runs.

Phillies snap losing streak

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Greg Luzinski's two-run double sparked a three-run sixth inning Wednesday night that carried Philadelphia to a 3-1 victory over the Houston Astros and ended the Phillies' nine-game losing streak.

The victory was only the Phillies' second in their last 21 games.

Reuss got into trouble in the sixth when he walked Larry Bowa to open the inning, then walked Don Money with one out.

Luzinski followed with his double to right-center, scoring both runners. After Roger Freed popped out Deron Johnson singled to center to make it 3-0.

The Astros scored in the seventh when Doug Rader singled, moved up on a walk to Larry Howard and scored on Jim Stewart's single to left

Urtain and Blin eye title bout

MADRID (UPI)—European heavyweight boxing champion Jose Manuel Urtain of Spain will defend his title against Germany's Jürgen Blin Friday night in a fight that will give the winner a shot at Joe Frazier's world crown.

Frazier was expected to attend the fight and may give an exhibition performance for Spanish fans, the newspaper Marca said Wednesday.

Blin, who arrived in Spain last week, said he thought he could beat Urtain. Urtain punches harder than I but with less precision. I've fought better boxers than he and won. I think Friday night will be no exception. Blin said.

Asked what he thought his chances would be against Frazier, Blin said: "Frazier is very good but not invincible. Urtain and I are the two best European boxers and very soon we'll know who is better."

Urtain, a burly, black-haired Basque and former weight-lifter who turned to boxing at the age of 25, has won 32 of his 43 professional fights, 32 of them by knockouts. Blin, 28, has a record of 27 wins and eight knockouts from a total of 11 professional bouts.

Legion sets four games

TWIN FALLS, Idaho—The Twin Falls American Legion team will play four games this weekend at Jaxcoe Park.

New 2-1, Twin Falls will entertain Mountain Home in a double game at 8 p.m. Friday. Saturday they host the Boise Senators in a doubleheader starting at 6 p.m. and host two more games Sunday in a double game at 1 p.m.

Helms leaves Houston club

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Tommy Helms, Houston Astros' second baseman, has "left the club for personal reasons," it was announced Wednesday night.

Helms, currently sidelined with a groin injury, checked out of Philadelphia early Wednesday and apparently is heading for his home in Charlotte, N.C.

"All we know right now," said assistant general manager John Mullen, "is that he had plans reservations for Charlotte."

"Spec Richardson (Houston's general manager), is trying to contact Tommy right now," said Mullen.

Johnson unharmed in accident at Le Mans

LE MANS, France (UPI)—American Bob Johnson escaped unharmed Wednesday when his Chevrolet Corvette crashed at Le Mans, France, during a 24-hour sports car race.

Johnson, a little shaken but otherwise unharmed, was lying on the track, said more than 100 mph during the opening trials for Saturday's Le Mans 24-hour sports car classic.

Lionel Noghes of Monaco received minor face burns when he crashed minutes later in the identical spot, just past the end of the pit straight, race officials said.

Noghes' French-made Graef MT6 was completely destroyed after it bounced off barriers on either side of the track before bursting into flames.

"I thought he was going to come straight into me," said Johnson, of Marquette, Ohio, who was looking at his damaged seven-liter Chevy when Noghes crashed into him.

Johnson was traveling at just over 100 mph when he lost control of the seven-liter Chevrolet and slammed into the left-hand guard rail.

None of those publicity posters along the guard rail had come off and was lying in the middle of the track. There was nothing I could do, said Johnson, who suffered only slight shock from the accident.

Johnson was given a checkup by a trackside physician but did not need to go to a hospital.

His Corvette was damaged at the front, but mechanics said they hoped to have it running again before the race.

Alfa Romeos show speed

LE MANS, France (UPI)—The Italian three-liter Alfa Romeo Wednesday night showed the French Matras that they will be serious opposition in Saturday's 40th Le Mans 24-hour sports car classic.

Holtz Stommelen of West Germany took his Alfa Romeo 33T3 model round the 4.1 (33.6 km) track in the first practice session in three minutes 50.8 seconds.

The V12 Matras of Frenchman Henri Pescarolo could only manage third fastest time, in 3:59.9 in a session which was marred by two accidents.

Cubs' homers beat Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Billy Williams cracked a two-run homer in the first inning and Jim Lonnie added a three-run blast in the sixth Wednesday night to power the Chicago Cubs to a 5-1 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The beneficiary of the homers was 22-year-old righthander Bert Hooton, who struggled through 14 Dodger hits to complete his fifth game.

Los Angeles stranded 11 base runners against the rookie hurler, whose record is now 3-4.

Perez-led Reds drop Mets 6-3

NEW YORK (UPI)—Tony Perez drove in four runs with a three-run double in the first inning and a run-scoring grand slam in the seventh Wednesday night as the Cincinnati Reds defeated the New York Mets, 6-3.

In both the first and seventh innings, Bobby Tolson doubled a runner to third base and Johnny Bench was intentionally walked to load the bases. In the first inning, Perez cleared the bases with his double off starter and loser Gary Gentry.

Jury set for trial of eagers

EDINBURG, Tex. (UPI)—A jury of seven women and five men was selected in District Court late Wednesday to hear charges of rape and assault against two former Pan American University basketball stars.

Judge Darrell Hester recessed the panel at 11 a.m. Thursday and said he would conduct a hearing Thursday morning on a motion by defense attorney Craig Washington of Houston for a change of venue.

District attorney Oscar Melms took less than four hours to qualify 36 prospective jurors, then Washington spent two full days questioning the same panel. The two attorneys struck 12 persons each to get the jury which Melms estimated would take four days hearing the 15 witnesses subpoenaed.

Soviet soccer

NEW YORK (UPI)—New York Cosmos general manager Dave Taya returned from Vienna Wednesday after his meeting with Russian soccer officials and announced that a final appeal had been made to the sports committee of the Soviet Union to allow the Moscow Dynamos to tour the U.S. and Canada this month.

The tour had been called off by the Russians because the Dynamos hoped to win a protest against the results of the European Cup winners cup game with the Glasgow Rangers on May 24 which the Rangers won 3-2 after Rangers' fans had invaded the field.

Trevino, Weiskopf seek momentum for U.S. open

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Two of the big stars in the IVB Philadelphia Golf Classic, which opens Thursday, claim they may play in one of a time, but that doesn't stop them from looking ahead to next week's U.S. Open.

The 72-hole tourney at the suburban Whitemarsh Valley Country Club sponsored by the Industrial Valley Bank here means a lot of help in next week's big one at Pebble Beach, Calif.

There was some initial doubt whether Trevino, who will defend the Open title, would play in this week's stop on the pro tour.

But Trevino, who jokingly remarked that the only thing you have to do to get ready for the Open is "not drink the week before," began this tournament as proving a "big, big boost" for the major event next week.

Jackpot puts new course into action with tourney Saturday

JACKPOT—Professionals and amateurs from most of the intermountain states are expected to participate in the "dedication" tournament of the new Jackpot golf course Saturday.

Host professional George Guy reports the field seems pretty well set for the one-day event which will feature Nevada Governor Michael O'Callaghan as the dedication speaker.

The competition begins with a driving contest at 8 p.m. Friday evening. The 14 and over handicap amateurs will start Saturday's tournament play in a shotgun start at 8 a.m. The dedication ceremony and ribbon cutting are slated for 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. with the low handicap amateurs and professionals going at 1:30 p.m. in another shotgun start.

"This is a driving course," he said of the 6,700-yard layout, "and the greens are small." The talkative Trevino added "you can't find a better golf course to get ready for the Open," noting that hitting to small greens here will help when he hits to go for the bigger ones at Pebble Beach.

Weiskopf, who is the defending champion at this 10th annual classic, says "whoever wins here will mentally be in good shape for next week."

"If I didn't play here and went out there, practiced a lot and tried hard and didn't win I'd really be disappointed," said the tall Ohioan who won by one stroke over Dave Hill here last year.

Jack Nicklaus, the tour's number one money winner so far this year and the current Master's champion who did play here last year, has passed it up to get ready for the Open and his quest for the second leg of a Grand Slam.

Brundage okays Munich progress

MUNICH, Germany (UPI)—Avery Brundage, the president of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) Wednesday flew over the facilities of the Munich summer games in a helicopter.

German Olympic Organizing Committee said Brundage made "very positive remarks" on the installations.

Brundage described the shooting range "as the best place in the world."

Hayes sues Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Football player Edward Hayes filed a $250,000 damage suit against the Philadelphia Eagles in federal court here Wednesday stemming from an injury he received during the 1971 training season.

After the helicopter tour, the 35-year-old Brundage said he would like to participate in the Munich Olympics as an athlete if he were younger.

"Until today, we did never have such facilities," Brundage described the Olympic village as "excellent." Led by the mayor of the village, Walther Troeger, Brundage inspected accommodations for the 12,000 athletes.

Six men named to hockey hall of fame

MONTREAL (UPI) — The admittance of six new members to the Hockey Hall of Fame and a new fee schedule for the amateur players draft highlighted the third day of the annual National Hockey League meetings Wednesday.

Former greats Jean Beliveau, Gordie Howe, Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion, Harry "Hap" Holmes and Reginald "Hooley" Smith were elected to the Hall's NHL section; West W. Adams Sr., chairman of the Boston Bruins, was admitted to the builder's section.

Sixteen NHL teams are to participate in Thursday's amateur draft. The New York Islanders have the No. 1 choice with the Atlanta Flames picking second. Both clubs are to ice teams for the 1972-73 NHL season.

In previous years, the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association (CAHA) and its member ship teams received $3,000 when one of their players was drafted. When the player signed a pro contract, his club received an additional $3,000 through the CAHA.

The board of governors, in agreement with the amateur teams, said the draft funds were not equitable, since all players received the same fee regardless of what round they were drafted in.

The new fee schedule, which will apply also to the 1973 amateur draft, sets the player prices on a sliding scale.

The 32 players chosen in the first two rounds will be claimed for the present $3,000 fee but the signing price will be raised to $7,000 for a $10,000 total.

The 32 players picked in the third and fourth rounds will also be $3,000, with an additional $4,000 when they sign.

All other drafted players will carry a $2,000 price tag and a signing price of $4,000.

The board of governors also dropped an additional bonus which was awarded to former teams by all drafted amateurs who played in at least 25 NHL games.

Beliveau, Howe and Geoffrion will be inducted formally into the Hall of Fame at a Royal Lounge 11-5 ceremony in Toronto Aug. 24.

Gallatin topped Cam's 14-10. Holmes and Smith were admitted posthumously.

Beliveau, who played 18 seasons with the Montreal Canadiens, scored a lifetime total of 507 goals, a record for a center. Goals scored during playoff games were not counted in the total.

Howe, who played with the Detroit Red Wings for a quarter-century, scored 786 regular season goals and set more NHL records than any other player in league history.

J. Blalock tries to forget troubles, win golf tourney

SPYTON, Mass. (UPI) — A "cool and collected" Jane Blalock tried to put her troubles behind her today as she entered the 82nd annual Eve LPGA tournament.

Blalock, who finished third in the Eve LPGA last year, lives on a record field of 82 entries led off at Pleasant Valley Country Club in the $50,000 Eve LPGA tournament.

Blalock, buoyed by a warm reception accorded her from the spectator galleries during Wednesday's Pro-Am event here, remained an early favorite along with defending champion Kathy Whitworth, despite a week of turmoil that saw her suspended by the Ladies Professional Golf Association and temporarily reinstated by a U.S. District judge.

Cocktail Girl Averages $200

High-speed recordings indicate no tap dancer ever spins out more than 840 taps per minute. IF YOU'RE 33 years old, young lady, odds run 94.4 in 100 you'll be 52 years old someday. IT HAS LONG been maintained the best female golfers are blue-eyed brunettes. They're said to be more physical than most. THE LAS VEGAS cocktail waitress is known to average about $200 a week now. TWO OUT of five potatoes wind up chipped, dicy, drated or frozen, but the rest are there for honorably.

WHAT'S YOUR definition of a glumax? John Evans' said, "She's one whose clothes fit her as if they appreciated the opportunity." Ray Fine said, "She's one who's able to get more out of a dress than she puts in." Club House Quotes said, "She's one who hasn't much upstairs, but had what a snail."

ANY GOOD waitress will tell you the way to keep from spilling full coffee cups while carrying them to the table is just don't look at them," writes a Modesto friend. PREDICTABLY, it's the businessman who's most apt to apply for a passport. After that, the student. Third, the housewife. She even ranks ahead of the school teacher, surprisingly.

ARE LEFT-HANDED parents more apt to have twins that right handed parents? Are stutters more apt to have twins than non-stutters? Such are the contents of a University of California medical study. Address mail to L.M. Boyd P.O. Box 1026, Twin Falls, Idaho 83420. Copyright 1972 L.M. Boyd

Passage of school bill expected

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House leaders believed the aid to higher education bill would pass Congress today despite containing antibusing language that is opposed both by foes and advocates of busing to desegregate schools.

The bill is in the form of a conference report, a compromise between House and Senate measures. The Senate passed it 63 to 15 on May 24.

House Speaker Carl Albert said he was "confident" that the report would be sent to President Nixon for signature before federal funds for universities and other institutions of higher learning expire June 30.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan emerged from the meeting saying he still did not know how he would vote. Ford and Republicans were told they were on their own.

Candystriper fete set in TF

TWIN FALLS — A social hour for young women interested in becoming candystrippers will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in the Magic Valley Memorial Hospital Auditorium.

All sophomores, juniors and seniors in the Magic Valley area are eligible for membership in the candystriper organization. The program is under the sponsorship of the Pink Ladies and supervised by Mrs. Helen Smith and Mrs. Cleo Shaddy.

Candystrippers are required to work one shift each week which pumps from three to four miles. Most of the young women work more than the required hours.

Candystrippers are given various awards when they reach 250, 100 and 200 hours of volunteer effort.

A delegation of local candystrippers will attend an all-day conference for the junior auxiliary at the Banrock Hotel in Honolulu, Hawaii. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Shaddy.

Louisiana kills segregation law

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — Louisiana House members voted nearly unanimously Wednesday to repeal the state's segregation laws which prohibited Negroes and whites from dining together, marrying or using the same rest rooms.

After all 11 of the "Jim Crow" laws had been repealed, Rep. Billy Caruzin of Thibodaux said the author, Rep. Dorothy Mae Taylor, was a Negro black in the House, ought to keep a promise she made.

Mrs. Taylor promised she would say "right on" when these bills passed. I haven't heard her say it yet.

Rep. Taylor smiled and said the words "right on" into the microphone. The house burst into applause.

It was a far cry from the legislature of two years ago, which fell into bitter debate when the first Negro legislator since Reconstruction tried to repeal a law requiring blood tests to label blood according to race.

In last fall's elections more than half of the House members were replaced by a younger group.

NY commuter train derails, 18 hurt

NEW YORK (UPI) — A Penn Central commuter train packed with up to 400 persons derailed this morning in the Park Avenue Tunnel of Grand Central Terminal.

About 10 passengers were injured, police said. They were treated at a mobile disaster vehicle unit at City's Health and Hospital Corp.

Authorities said only one of the five cars in the train went off the track.

A hospital dispatcher said it appeared none of the injured was seriously hurt. Most appeared to be only shaken, he added.

The train was en route from suburban New Rochelle and the into Grand Central at 8:57 a.m. John Gama, of 110 Second Ave., Pelham, N.Y., a passenger aboard the first car, the one that went off the tracks, said he thought the train was coming about 1/2 mile an hour when the accident occurred.

The whole train jumped up and down. People were screaming, Gama said. He said some of the train windows were knocked out.

Catholic shops burned in Targan

BELFAST (UPI) — Rioting Protestant mobs smashed and burned Roman Catholic shops in Targan today in celebration for two bombing attacks by Catholics in the town, 20 miles southwest of Belfast.

British troops fired volleys of rubber bullets and charged with flailing truncheons to drive back hundreds of Protestant youths who tried to force their way into Targan's Catholic housing areas. The rioting raged for several hours before troops drove the mobs from the streets.

The rioting followed a midnight bomb blast that ripped through a shopping area on a main street, the second such explosion in 24 hours. Both

Decision of board upheld

BOISE — Idaho's Supreme Court has upheld a decision of the Idaho Industrial Accident Board to disallow additional benefits to a Twin Falls woman. Mrs. Ruth Madron appealed a decision of the accident board, now known as Industrial Commission, after three hearings before the board. She asked the Supreme Court to reverse the ruling of the commission to allow her additional benefits beyond initial accident and work compensation.

She was injured in September, 1963 while employed by the Green Glant canning plant in Buhl. She was compensated for medical expenses resulting from the accident and was compensated for about seven months of missed work. At the conclusion of the hearings, the board acknowledged prior payments and further awarded her partial permanent disability payments for a nine-week period.

She appealed this award, alleging the accident triggered an arthritic condition in a hip and rendered her largely immobile, and asking for permanent disability compensation.

In announcing their decision, the supreme court said it is bound to affirm all findings of the Industrial Accident Board if they are based on substantial competent evidence.

Water pollution action sought

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — The United Nations Conference on the Environment called on governments Wednesday to take immediate action to reduce pollution of the air and water.

It also demanded the establishment of an early warning system to monitor the contamination of the water man drinks, the air he breathes and the food he eats and it asked governments to formulate and carry out programs to prevent their pollutants from crossing international borders.

The three recommendations made by conference committees will go to the U.N. General Assembly in the fall for final approval.

The conference demands action by governments to minimize the release to the environment of toxic or dangerous substances, including heavy metals such as mercury and organochloride compounds which are found in some insecticides such as DDT, the first resolution said.

Norway told the 112-nation conference the resolution should ask governments to try to ban such pollution outright. A majority however, accepted it. British and German arguments that some discharge of harmful substances is inevitable.

The World Health Organization (WHO) was charged with setting up the early warning system. It was asked to draw up and provide governments with limits for air and water contamination and keep them under continual watch.

This would be done by means of 10 baseline stations in remote areas to monitor global atmospheric changes.

Angela Davis sets thank-you tour

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) — Angela Davis will make a three-week national tour to thank her supporters, winding up with a June 29 gala in New York's Madison Square Garden, a spokesman said Wednesday.

She plans to leave San Jose Friday for Los Angeles. Other scheduled stops so far are June 15 in San Antonio, Tex., June 17 in Chicago and June 18 in Detroit.

Stephanie Allan, a spokesman for Miss Davis, said the Madison Square Garden event would be called an "Evening With Angela" and would include entertainment by Carmen McRae, the Persuasions and other stars.

Proceeds will go to pay the estimated $200,000 cost of Miss Davis' successful defense against charges growing out of the 1970 Marin County court house shootings in which four persons died.

Other cities may be added to the schedule, including her home town of Birmingham, Ala., and Memphis, Tenn., Miss Allan said.

The tour will fulfill the responsibility of thanking those people who have worked for her freedom for the past two years, she said.

After the cross-country tour, Miss Davis is scheduled to spend six weeks vacationing in Europe, and may visit the Soviet Union, Miss Allan said.
