Reds announce Sunday release for 142 POWs

Grief still: Viet soldier mourns dead wife.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — North Vietnam will release about 115 American prisoners of war in Hanoi and the Viet Cong will free 27 other POWs in South Vietnam Sunday night, the Defense Department said today.

Some of them could be back in the United States by the middle of next week.

A Pentagon spokesman said work of the impending release of the estimated 142 prisoners, which apparently would represent about one-fourth of all those listed as American POWs in Indochina, was relayed to U.S. officials today at a meeting of the four-party Joint Military Commission in Saigon.

The spokesman, Jerry W. Friedheim, said some of those to be freed in North Vietnam would be sick or wounded. Once the POWs are released, they will be flown aboard Air Force ambulance planes to Clark Air Base in the Philippines, he said.

"Highly the minimum time in which a person can transit the (POW) reception center at Clark and be back in the United States is about three or four days," Friedheim said, meaning some men could be on home soil by about Thursday.

The release will include 27 captives held in South Vietnam, Friedheim said, and one-fourth of those held in North Vietnam. He said this would mean approximately 115 should be released in the North.

Friedheim said Viet Cong officials at the four-party commission had cleared a U.S. survey team to go to Qui Nhon, a village about 65 miles north of Saigon near the Cambodian border, to survey the South Vietnam release site.

He said the North Vietnamese would allow an 18-man reception team to land in Hanoi three hours in advance of the release there to prepare for the handover of the POWs in North Vietnam.

The top U.S. representative on the four-party commission, Maj. Gen. Gilbert H. Woodward, advised Washington he expected to work out precise details of the release times at a Saturday meeting of the commission, Friedheim said.

But the release could come by midnight Sunday, Washington time, which would be mid-day Monday in Vietnam.

Asked if any civilians would be among the 27 freed in South Vietnam, Friedheim replied: "I think it is probable there will be some civilians in that group. But we do not know specific names yet."

If the Communists follow provisions of the cease-fire agreement, which require women to be among those freed first, the group set free in South Vietnam should also include Monika Schwinn, 30, a West German captured April 27, 1969. She is the only woman listed by the Communists as a surviving POW.

Hurried law ends RR strike

By United Press International
Penn Central trains rumbled at just about normal level today following a strike by trainmen that Congress halted after one day.

"Everything that's supposed to be running is running," said a Penn Central spokesman at the railroad's headquarters in Philadelphia.

The strike, which began at 10:01 p.m. MST Wednesday after extended negotiations failed to resolve a long-standing work rules dispute, forced about 200,000 commuters to seek other means of transportation Thursday and brought freight shipment to a standstill.

Legislation barring a strike for 90 more days was rammed through the House and Senate in about six hours Thursday. The legislation was then flown to the Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., and President Nixon signed it into law at 4 a.m. MST.

'No admittance' at Florida Pen

LAKE HOPKIN, Fla. (UPI) — Florida, for the second time in a little over a year, has closed its prison to any new male inmates because of "dangerously overcrowded" conditions.

The order was issued Thursday by State Corrections Director Louie Wainwright, who advised lawmakers that for the time being, only women prisoners would be accepted into the state system.

Dollar weakens in rush

By United Press International
The U.S. dollar was dumped on world money markets in record numbers today amid fears that the value of the weakened American currency would drop with forced revaluation upward of such strong currencies as the German mark and the Japanese yen.

In West Germany, the Central Bank intervened to buy $1.7 billion in the first 2 1/2 hours of trading, equalling the record set Thursday in a full day of frantic selling.

The Bank of Japan also stepped into the market and bought $240 million to preserve the official exchange rate.

Germany, which has purchased $6 billion in just over a week, and Japan, are buying dollars in order to keep the official exchange rate in tact. If they do not buy, their own currencies, the mark and the yen, will rise in relative value, making their exports more expensive to buy and thus hurting their overseas markets. Currency dealers in Frankfurt said the dollar was pinned to the floor from opening hour, forcing the Central Bank to buy all that were offered at a price of 3.15 marks each.

"It appears everyone assumes something might happen over the weekend which would justify selling dollars on a large scale now," a market source in Brussels said.

The dollar opened in Brussels at 43.40 francs, its lowest rate in six months, and weakened still further during the morning.

N. Viet aid will require US cutbacks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Budget Director Roy L. Ash says any aid this country gives North Vietnam will come out of existing U.S. programs in order to keep the total budget under $268.7 billion next fiscal year.

"The Congress will be very interested to hear that," replied Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., during a joint Economic Committee hearing Thursday. Ash, director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), gave no precise plans to aid North Vietnam but said there have to be negotiations amounts yet to be determined.

White House advisor Henry Kissinger said at the time the Vietnam cease-fire was announced that the United States was willing to discuss the economic reconstruction of all Indochina including North Vietnam.

Humphrey asked if such aid would come out of programs already in the budget. Ash replied, "that is our intention."

Meanwhile, President Nixon's chief domestic adviser, John D. Ehrlichman, warned Thursday that unless it was curbed, Congress would spend the nation into another period of inflation similar to 1969-1970.

The White House has refused to spend some $6.7 billion appropriated by Congress in order to keep this year's budget under $250 million.

Ehrlichman said there has been a lot of "senatorial grandstanding" about this in recent days.

"There may be a few (in Congress) who are big spenders with tiny memories," he said.

Backpay to greet US POWs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The back pay that has accumulated for America's prisoners of war, in some cases amounting to more than $100,000, will be tax exempt.

The Defense Department said Thursday, however, that the men will have to pay taxes on the interest from savings accounts into which part of their pay was automatically deposited.

At least 10 per cent of each man's pay and often more than that has been placed in a uniformed services savings deposit program which earns 10 per cent interest. A Pentagon spokesman said this interest would be the only amount subject to taxes.

Allies recognize German Communists

BERLIN (UPI) — Britain and France granted diplomatic recognition to East Germany today, leaving the United States the only one of the four occupation powers with no relations with the German Democratic Republic.

The United States, however, has said it is ready to hold talks on recognition. Preliminary contacts already have been made by East German and American delegations at the United Nations.

The East German news service ADN announced British recognition in the morning and French recognition in the afternoon.

Britain became the 70th nation to recognize East Germany. Only 33 nations recognized East Germany until December, when West Germany paved the way for international acceptance of East Germany by concluding a basic treaty with it.

The basic treaty governed the relations between the two rival German states and in effect ended the cold war between them that raged since they were established in 1949.

The treaty also will pave the way for membership of the two German states in the United Nations.

The United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union in a declaration drawn up last year said the U.N. membership would not affect the rights and responsibilities of the four powers in Germany.

Another 1,200 GIs leave Viet

SAIGON (UPI) — Another 1,200 American servicemen left South Vietnam last week, dropping U.S. strength in the country to 18,600 men—the lowest total since July, 1964, military spokesmen said today.

The departures, which occurred in the three days ending Wednesday, left 10,900 soldiers, 1,200 sailors, 400 marines and 6,100 airmen in the country. Among those who left were 700 soldiers, 100 sailors and 400 airmen.

State finds CSI sex bias 'probable'

BOISE — The Idaho Human Rights Commission has found "probable cause" that sexual discrimination exists at the College of Southern Idaho.

The finding, following a secret hearing of a complaint filed against the college by former assistant professor Terrell Casteneda, drew immediate denial by the college's president.

Following the Human Rights Commission's finding, the commission scheduled a public hearing Feb. 23 into Ms. Casteneda's case.

The announcement of the commission's finding was made by commission director Fred Grant Thursday. Grant would not elaborate on the specific charges raised in the case other than saying sexual discrimination was charged. Grant said the public hearing to be held in Boise, will permit Ms. Casteneda and the college to present evidence in public. At the earlier secret hearing, sources close to the investigation said, the college had not appeared at the probable cause hearing.

Grant said it was possible that an agreement involving the college, the former teacher and the commission could be reached before the hearing. He said he would contact the parties involved to determine whether negotiated settlement were possible.

Grant said each of the parties could be represented by an attorney at the public hearing.

Ms. Casteneda said she has had no negotiations with CSI concerning her grievances.

CSI president James L. Taylor said this morning he had not received a copy of the Human Rights Commission decision, nor findings of fact. "I don't know anything about it right now," he said.

Commenting on Ms. Casteneda's allegations, Taylor said "I would imagine when we receive the material and have an opportunity to review the interrogatory, we will do whatever is necessary to refute the charges."

"I certainly don't feel this institution has ever discriminated against faculty members because of sex," Taylor said.

Taylor said he did not know at this time if he would attend the HRC hearing scheduled for Feb. 23 in Boise. "I'm at loose ends to tell you anything that's going to happen until I have a chance to study whatever it is we're talking about," he said.

Ms. Casteneda said today she was employed by CSI beginning in 1970 as an assistant professor of French and English. She said she was informed by academic dean Paul T. Smith on March 10, 1972, that her contract with CSI would not be renewed. She said this was beyond the March 1 deadline recommended in the Idaho Code for the latest date for notice of termination.

Ms. Casteneda said she appealed to CSI president Taylor for a hearing in her case before a faculty grievance committee or other appropriate faculty body following her notice of termination, but that no such committee exists at CSI.

She said she was granted a hearing before the Board of Trustees on April 17. She said the trustees voted in a closed session to accept the administration's decision of non-reappointment. No reasons were given, she said.

Ms. Casteneda said findings of fact by the Human Rights Commission in finding probable cause for her complaint included the following: Female employees at CSI are paid an average of $1,647 less than their male counterparts. "That the attrition rate in her classes was given as reason for nonreappointment."

"That there were academic courses taught by male teachers with a low number of students enrolled."

"That the complainant and another female instructor were given later notice of termination than male counterparts."

Other details of the Human Rights Commission findings were not revealed.

Ms. Casteneda declined to discuss personal demands included in her grievances against CSI but she did say some of her demands were aimed at securing concessions from the college pertinent to rights for the faculty as a whole. She listed such points as a faculty grievance committee, a faculty rank and tenure committee and a faculty senate. She said she felt matters of faculty status should be primarily a faculty responsibility. She also said the existing CSI salary scale should be re-evaluated with an eye to bringing women's salaries in line with male salaries.

CSI attorney J. Robert Alexander said this morning he had "no comment, period" on the matter. He said the letter from the HRC had just arrived and he hadn't had a chance to look at it. While he confirmed the fact that the college had been presented with an interrogatory, he said he did not know if the college would answer it. He said the HRC was strictly an investigative body and did not have the authority to require the interrogatory to be answered.

Alexander said he had not been informed of the previous hearing on Jan. 13. He said he didn't know if board of trustee members or members of the administration had been informed or not.

radio failed

ALAMEDA, Calif. (UPI) — A Navy jet fighter experienced radio trouble before it swooped into its deadly dive into a three-story apartment house, a Navy investigating officer said today.

The A7 Corsair smashed into the building Wednesday night and turned it into a pile of blazing rubble.

Disaster crews Thursday recovered the bodies of eight persons, including those of three children and apparently that of the pilot, Lt. Robert L. Ward, Lemoore Naval Air Station, Calif. Authorities said that 14 other residents of the apartment were unaccounted for. The search continued today.

The Navy investigator said that the last transmission from Ward came just 10 minutes before the crash, showing that he was experiencing radio trouble.

The officer said that the plane was at 28,000 feet and traveling over 400 miles per hour when it made a slow turn to return to Lemoore near Fresno.

The attack bomber, he said, suddenly went into a dive and "might have broken the sound barrier just before impact." He explained that many area residents reported hearing explosions and these might have been sonic booms.

Ward and another pilot were on a training flight to Sacramento. Navy officials said the two planes were in formation when Ward's craft began losing altitude.

Stennis better

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John C. Stennis continued Friday to show gradual improvement from gunshot wounds and has been moved back into a private room from the intensive care unit of Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

The 71-year-old Mississippian still was listed in very serious condition — which the Army facility says is equivalent to critical at civilian hospitals.

However, the senator's improvement was indicated by his transfer to a private room and a switch in the prognosis from grave to guarded.

By the term guarded, his doctors are said to mean they are uncertain about his chances of recovery. The term grave, the hospital had explained, meant what it said.

Since exploratory surgery earlier in the week for a possible vein blockage in the small intestine (none was found), Stennis experienced increased fever. But the hospital said this had dropped.

Stennis was shot Jan. 30 in a holdup which he said was pulled off by two youths outside his northwest Washington home. Police said they have no substantive clues yet. They are searching for three youths — two who handled the holdup and a third believed to have driven a car in which they fled.

Gandhi not critic

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI) — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi said today her observations on the war and cease-fire in Vietnam at the One Asia Assembly earlier this week in New Delhi were not a criticism against any country.

Mrs. Gandhi, here on a four-day state visit, told a session of the Nepal Council of World Affairs, "I understand my remarks have attracted some adverse reaction. My remarks have an assessment of what the future would be.

"These remarks were in no sense meant to be a criticism of anybody or any country."

The Prime Minister was referring to U.S. State Department spokesman Charles Bray's statement Wednesday that he heard remarks at the Asia Assembly were "difficult to comprehend and understand."

Mrs. Gandhi's remarks at the Asia Assembly Tuesday that attracted Washington's adverse comment were:

"I abhor chauvinistic nationalism or racialism of any color and type."

Hearings end on Gem budget

BLUE LAKES SHOPPING CENTER

HOURS: 9-9 Mon. thru Sat. 12-5 Sunday

BOISE (UPI) — The powerful Joint Finance and Appropriations Committee finished its 104 hearings on state agencies Thursday and will begin setting general fund budgets next week.

Sen. Richard High, R-Twin Falls, co-chairman of the joint committee, said he can't see any major problems when it begins setting budgets for the 66 general fund agencies.

High said he could not tell how long it would take to set the budgets, but he added in the past it has taken as long as four weeks.

He did say that in the past legislative session the committee went through the agencies and set tentative budgets. He said after the tentative budgets were set, the committee would then review them and make adjustments according to revenue projections and the possibility of raising taxes for additional revenue.

But he said this session the committee may set the budget of an agency. Then, it would call for the appropriation bill because there is general agreement that there will not be a tax increase and revenue projections between the executive and legislative branches.

High said it usually takes about two days from the time the committee sets a budget until the bill can be introduced on the floor.

He said the 66 appropriations bills will be introduced equally into the House and Senate.

John Anderson, director of the Legislative Council, said the committee kept tight on schedule during the hearings this session.

The committee conducts hearings on state agencies and then from the information it collects, along with executive recommendations, sets budgets for all agencies using state general funds.

Anderson said he is confident that next year with greater cooperation from the agencies and with compatible formats between the council and the state budget bureau, that time for hearings can be cut by 25 per cent.

He also added that the time for preparing appropriations bills can be cut.

In other legislative news: — House Republicans voted in caucus Thursday to support committee tabling of a personal bill to cut the gasoline tax by one half cent a gallon.

Water loans changed

BOISE (UPI) — The Idaho Water Resource Board has amended its policies for the revolving development fund and will not accept loan applications from individuals until the fund is substantially augmented.

Board Chairman John Streiff said that this action was caused by a feeling among board members that the loan fund could be used to better advantage if loans were made only to public groups.

The board policy continues to permit and encourage applications for loans from irrigation districts, canal companies, water users associations and municipal corporations, he said.

Spud bill held

BOISE (UPI) — The House Agricultural Affairs Committee held up legislation designed to let the potato commission hire its own field men when it was discovered Thursday the measure went further than that.

Gordon Randall, director of the commission, said because state per diem allowances are so small the commission's three field men are hired by and report to the commission's advertising agency.

He said field men cannot live in places like New York on the amount per day allowed state employees for meals eaten outside the state. He said they are on the road constantly and must have more money than that each day for expenses while promoting Idaho spuds.

Committee members agreed he has a problem and were on the verge of introducing Randall's bill when Rep. Walter Little, R-New Plymouth, discovered the bill went a lot further than intended.

He said it repealed an entire section of law that also set out guidelines for the potato commission.

The bill was held for further study and Randall looked for a lawyer to re-draft his bill.

Mileage bill held

BOISE (UPI) — The House Transportation Committee sent back to its sponsor for re-drafting Thursday a bill designed to prevent unscrupulous car dealers from turning back odometer mileage.

Rep. William Roberts, R-Idaho, questioned the need for such legislation in view of the fact that federal legislation in this field went into effect Jan. 20.

"I don't think we are going to gain anything passing a state law," Roberts said. "We're more or less spinning our wheels on this thing."

A spokesman for the Department of Law Enforcement added that as yet there is no federal enforcement of the law in Idaho and that the federal government lacks the manpower for such enforcement in this region at this time.

Stream report due

BOISE — A special subcommittee studying amendments to the stream channel protection act will report back to its parent committees in the next week.

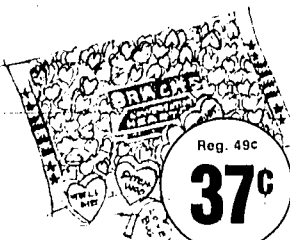

Subcommittee co-chairman Sen. J. Wilson Steen, R-Glenns Ferry, said Thursday he thought the special ten man joint subcommittee would be able to reach agreement on their proposed amendments with two more meetings.

He also said there was little sentiment among the ten members to repeal the controversial 1971 law, but general agreement that definitions had to be clarified in the law to make it applicable only in the proper areas.

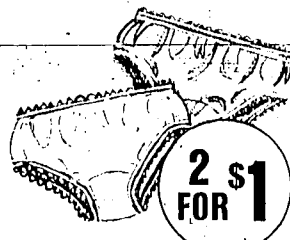

The subcommittee was formed of members of the House Resource and Conservation Committee and the Senate Resource and Environment Committee.

WASHINGTON — The uniquely lanky role designed for George Bush as the new Republican national chairman was intentionally signalled by No. 1 Republican Richard M. Nixon during his recent closed-door meeting on the budget with the Republican congressional leadership.

with the usual assortment of White House flunkies symbolic of the national chairmanship's decline under President Nixon. Scott whispered to Mr. Nixon. Turning in his seat, the President summoned Bush and placed him at the cabinet table.

the following facts: Bush would have an office in the Executive Office Building near Mr. Nixon's own highway there; now that Harry Dent, resident White House patronage and political aide had gone home to Columbia, S. C., to practice law, Bush would be in charge of all strictly political patronage matters, speaking for the White House; finally, "I want you to know that everything of a political nature I am asking him to handle, as well as the national committee."

Son—Hugh Scott—of Pennsylvania, the Senate Republican leader, noticed Bush sitting against the wall with the usual assortment of White House flunkies symbolic of the national chairmanship's decline under President Nixon.

A Wrothy Blast

WASHINGTON — If you're looking for guidance on how to handle hoity-toity bureaucrats, the method used by Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, may be useful.

Person's rejoinder was to pooh-pooh the protests. He blandly informed Gross that the CCC had no intention of cancelling loading orders because "we believe there is a tendency to overestimate the magnitude of the demand for rail cars."

In reply, Gross let him have it with both barrels: "You are apparently unaware that local markets are already swamped and available trucking facilities are wholly inadequate to meet transportation of this commodity for any distance."

new definitions (and not always accurate) of what freedom is, the headlong sweep of the scientific revolution and its applications to material living. For clarity in many things, we must wait for history's long-range lens. But not in this instance. We can laugh right now at the absurdity of the notion that so much of our trouble comes from the Vietnam war.

Iron Pills

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please name all the foods that contain iron. I am supposed to take iron pills but am unable to do so. At the present time I am eating raisins. — H.S.

Your doctor, of course, is right when he says that when hemorrhoids reach a certain stage, surgical removal is the only recourse. Best protection against having them recur is to guard against constipation.

You don't explain why you are "unable" to take iron in pill form, but it is well known that some iron salts (as used in iron medications) can be irritating. Doctors are familiar with this one type of medication.

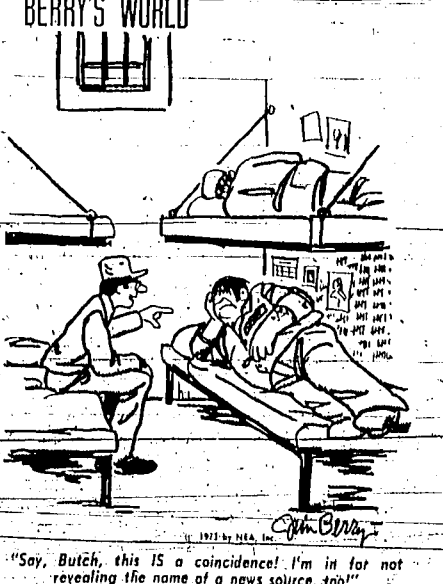

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have an abdominal hernia in the groin and would like to know how necessary corrective surgery is. It causes me no discomfort and I am in excellent health in other ways, so I hesitate to have surgery for fear of upsetting the apple-cart. — L.M.F.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Are hemorrhoids (external) cancerous? My doctor says I have to go for surgery, that there is no other way to cure them. If I have this done, will they gradually grow back? — V.R.

I have noted this problem that sometimes arises. A hernia doesn't bother some folks, so they keep putting off surgery. The years slip by — and if the hernia does finally become acute, and needs immediate surgery, the patient may no longer be in as vigorous health as he used to be. That is, the delayed surgery is harder on him than he'd had the repair work done earlier.

Asking whether hemorrhoids are cancerous is about like asking whether varicose veins are cancerous because hemorrhoids are a form of varicose veins, but in a specific location. In other words, no; they are NOT cancerous. They are just swollen, distended veins.

Therefore I lean strongly toward having the operation while you are strong and healthy. And I don't know what "apple-cart" could be upset, anyway.

"Say, Butch, this IS a coincidence! I'm in for not revealing the name of a news source, too!"

Bank insurance bill disputed

BOISE (UPI) — Bankers and insurance agents presented conflicting testimony to a legislative committee Thursday night on the value of a bill to prevent lending institutions from selling general lines of insurance.

A short bill, the measure introduced by the House Business Committee simply would restrict the money lenders to credit life and credit disability. It also would impose a fiduciary duty on them.

Former State Rep. Clyde Keithly, R-Nampa, said six other states have passed similar legislation—the aim of which is to prevent coercion in the market place.

But Rod Bucher, Chicago, a representative of Old Republic Life Insurance Company of Chicago and its affiliated companies, said no state has passed a bill imposing a fiduciary duty on a lender selling insurance.

"Gentlemen," Bucher said, "Idaho is a guinea pig on this bill."

Lawrence F. Harr, Chicago, general counsel for the Consumer Credit Insurance Association, said Idaho already has adequate legislation on the books to prevent lenders from coercing borrowers into buying insurance.

He said the purpose of this bill is "to enhance a competitive advantage and deprive the consumer of a source of reasonably priced insurance."

Harr said there also are constitutional problems in the bill because it imposes conditions on lenders not imposed on others and thus deprives them of equal protection under the law.

Edward M. Dunagin, Miami, Fla., vice president of the American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, called the measure "a cotton-picking, buggy-whip piece of legislation."

"Let's keep competition active," Dunagin said. "This is merely self-serving piece of legislation."

Clark Theurer, Nampa, an independent agent and director of the Idaho Association of Mutual Agents, said insurance agents have a more dedicated interest to their insureds than bankers do. He said bankers are more to assert a stifling influence on borrowers.

Pat Hamilton, Buhl, President of the Farmers National Bank, said a banker often is better able to advise a person about insurance needs because of his knowledge of the person's financial condition.

Rep. Jack Kennecick, R-Boise, an insurance agent, asked Hamilton if his bank employed any person who is a chartered life underwriter—specially trained to assist persons in their life insurance programs.

"No," Hamilton said, "we don't push insurance that heavy."

Spokesmen for Production Credit Association, the Idaho Bankers Association and the Idaho Credit Union League also spoke against the bill.

Andrus eyes lumber crisis

BOISE (UPI) — The office of the governor has received reports of an impending crisis in Idaho's timber industry.

Gov. Cecil D. Andrus said Thursday he has written to the Idaho congressional delegation saying the reports are that a lumber shortage in Idaho already exists, and layoffs within the timber business are eminent due to large reduction in allowable cuts on U.S. forest land.

Timber industry informed spokesmen, the governor said, maintained that "massive buying by Japan appears to be behind the Idaho lumber shortage."

"This shortage has, of course, increased the cost of lumber and plywood, which in turn means higher housing costs across the board.

"If the alleged purchasing by the Japanese should continue, shortages in Idaho will become serious," he said.

Andrus is urging Sens. Frank Church and James McClure, and Reps. Orval Hansen and Steve Symms to study a suggestion made by industry spokesmen. They suggest that Congress impose an immediate and total embargo on log exports from the West Coast and the United States at large.

Andrus said another possible option might be a wise expansion of the allowable cuts for U.S. forests, where roadless areas with potential wilderness value do not exist.

Blows bubbles

ROYAL OAK, Mich. (UPI) — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is exploiting a system for blowing bubbles through holes in a submerged pipe to percolate warmer water to a cold surface. This method may be the simplest to keep the narrow Great Lakes and St. Lawrence shipping lanes open during the winter.

ing to make two club tricks and his contract.

Therefore, South can make the contract if he adopts this line of play. Reasonably simple. Or is it?

Suppose East's fourth and last club discard is the ace? How can South ever score a second club trick?

The answer is, he can't. Even though South runs off three diamonds before playing clubs, West will get in with the queen and score the setting trick with a spade.

Would this whole play come off at the table? Possibly, but not at all probable.

Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This is a terribly upsetting problem. My husband and I were divorced a few years ago, and he has since remarried. It was an ugly, bitter-filled divorce.

Our 23-year-old daughter is being married, and she wants her Dad at the wedding. My utter contempt for him is so overwhelming that I cannot bear to be anywhere near where he is, and I do not wish to be a part of the ceremony if he is in it. I fear that my hatred for him will throw a pall over an occasion that should be happy and hate-free.

I wish I could control this feeling, but I can't. My daughter is unhappy as she wants us both there, but Abby, there is just no way I can look at that man with anything but contempt. And yet, I feel I MUST make myself go for my daughter's sake. Please, what should I do?

HATING MYSELF

Upsetting problem

DEAR HATING: That's your problem. You "hate" yourself for being unable to handle your feelings about him. Get yourself together as strikingly beautiful as you can, and yes, line yourself up an attractive escort, put a smile on your face, and go, lady. You might just surprise the daylights out of yourself and have a wonderful time.

DEAR ABBY: We have just moved to Twin Falls, Idaho, and I am eight months pregnant, but I am unable to find a doctor who will see me unless I have my bill paid IN FULL in advance.

My husband filed bankruptcy last year, and we can't get a loan to take care of this, so what am I supposed to do? We aren't deadbeats, we are honest people who ran into a lot of hard luck. My husband is working now, and I know we could get this paid on time, but not all at once in advance.

I called the mayor but couldn't get past his secretary. By coincidence, the only neighbor I know is also pregnant and is due about the same time I am. Yesterday she told me she had just seen her doctor who had been taking care of her from the beginning, and HE told her he wanted HIS bill paid in full in advance or he wouldn't deliver her baby!

My husband and I even considered having our baby born at home to save hospital expenses, but if something went wrong, we'd never forgive ourselves. Abby, right now we don't know which way to turn. Can you save us with a miracle?

DESPERATE IN TWIN FALLS

DEAR DESPERATE: Call your County Welfare Department and tell them DEAR ABBY told you to call. Then tell them what you've told me. I cannot believe that ALL the doctors in that city demand cash in advance or no delivery. [And if you have twins in Twin Falls, are you charged double?]

DEAR ABBY: With all the letters in your column lately about dental care, I have something to ask you related to that subject.

What do you think about a woman who always carries a toothbrush and toothpaste in her purse so she can brush her teeth right after she eats, no matter where she is? This can be in a restaurant or in somebody's house.

When she's thru eating, out comes the toothbrush and paste, even if some of us are still eating, and she makes a big thing out of excusing herself to go brush her teeth.

NAUSEATED

DEAR NAUSEATED: It's good for her teeth, but not for your stomach. I hope this fastidious lady also carries a good strong disinfectant with which to clean the sink afterward.

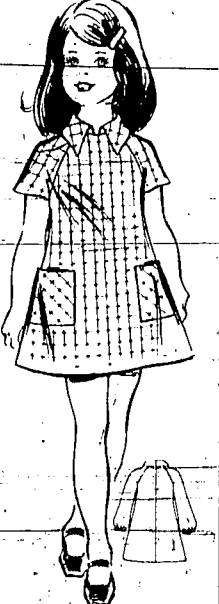

DEAR ABBY: Tell that poor woman who claims that she felt like a "castrated animal" after her hysterectomy to get help fast. I am 64 and had a hysterectomy for cancer five months ago, and I can tell you it didn't "castrate" me by any means. I have never felt better, nor more like a woman. Tell that lady to get back with the program before her husband begins to program someone else's computer.

Feed grain, wheat crop boom looms

Farm

Sale Saturday

By BERNARD BRENNER
UPI Farm Editor
WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. feed grain and wheat production could boom to a combined total of nearly 287 million tons worth $15.2 billion if the United States and other nations agree on a policy of free trade in grains livestock, a secret government trade policy study predicts.

The study said that under current restrictive trade conditions, U.S. production in 1970 amounted to 157.8 million tons of feed grains and 41.5 million tons of wheat, a total of 199.3 million tons.

If present conditions continue, including European barriers against American grains, the study predicted that wheat production would drop in 1980 to 37.2 million tons while feed-grains would rise to 189 million, for a total output of 226 million tons worth $0.7 billion, about $1 billion above 1970.

The study said that under current restrictive trade conditions, U.S. production in 1970 amounted to 157.8 million tons of feed grains and 41.5 million tons of wheat, a total of 199.3 million tons.

But with free trade, experts said output could zoom to 54.5 million tons of wheat and 232.1 million tons of feed grains worth $3.4 billion more than the 1980 value of production under restrictive trade conditions.

The trade policy study, still classified as confidential, was prepared by the Agriculture Department last year for White House officials currently preparing U.S. policy for a late-1973 round of international trade negotiations.

Potato shipments above '72 levels

BLACKFOOT — Movement of 1972 crop Idaho potatoes is well ahead of shipments at this time a year ago. Max Huntsman, executive secretary of the Potato Growers of Idaho, said 7.66 million hundredweight have been shipped through Feb. 6, compared with 7.42 million cwt. at the same time a year ago. That is an increase of 238,297 cwt.

Idaho farm calf crop up for '72

BOISE (UPI) — Three per cent more calves were born on Idaho ranches and farms during 1972 than in the previous year, according to the Idaho Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. A recent survey by the service estimated the 1972 calf crop at 760,000 head, exceeding the record high in the previous year by 20,000 head. Cows and heifers that had calved by Jan. 1, 1972, totaled 785,000, or four per cent more than in 1971. Nationally, the 1972 calf crop is estimated to have totaled 47,889,000 head or two per cent more than the 46,739,000 head in 1971.

Subnormal snow, water in region

SALMON — The Soil Conservation Service reports snow surveys conducted Jan. 31 show snow and water content well below normal for this time of year in Central Idaho. The survey shows Redfish Lake snow depth at 18 inches and water content 3.3 inches. These figures indicate snow depth to be 60 per cent and water content to be 50 per cent of normal for this time of year. Mill Creek Summit had snow depth of 45 inches and water content of 11.2 inches making snow depth 69 per cent and water 62 per cent of normal for the past 10 years. At the same time a year ago the snow depth was 65 inches and water content 21 inches. Snow depth on Morgan Creek Summit was 32 inches with 6.9 inches water content. The readings show snow depth to be 70 per cent and water content 64 per cent of normal. Glen Hunt of the SCS at Challis said that soil meter readings on Mill Creek Summit. This means it will take 4 before any runoff can occur. At show soil profile to be only 35 inches of the 11.2 inches that is the present time the top foot is per cent of water holding in this year's snow pack to fill frozen but it is expected to thaw the first four feet of soil profile out before runoff time.

Salmon tract funds doubtful, Demo says

By DAVID ESPO
Times-News writer
BOISE — Sen. Frank Church said Thursday he "couldn't be too optimistic" getting Congressional funding this year for the Salmon Falls tract reclamation project in southern Twin Falls County.

Church made his remarks in a television interview taped by KTVB in Boise for broadcast Saturday.

The Salmon Falls reclamation project, which was the subject of House subcommittee hearings in Twin Falls, was passed by both houses of the Congress last session.

Rep. Gvalt Hansen, R-Idaho, had been publicly optimistic last fall about the possibility of obtaining funds for the now-authorized project.

But Church said in response to a question that "I think it's going to be very difficult to get money for new starts on water projects, and the most I can say is that this is a good project that I have worked for and I think it is a good, meritorious project."

He said that even if the Congress were to appropriate the funds, the "indications" are that President Nixon would not allow the release of the money.

He was referring to Nixon's impounding of Congressionally approved money in recent months.

Church also said in the interview that non-governmental sources of funding should be investigated to replace the American Falls dam. He said the "best we could hope for" with federal funds, would be an eight to ten year period before a new dam could be built.

"If there's a faster and better way to get the dam replaced through other sources certainly would want to give that a close look, and perhaps we can find a better alternative to government construction," he said.

Church also criticized President Nixon for his recent budget proposals, condemning a rise in the defense budget in the year in which the American involvement in the Vietnam war is ending, while criticizing the proposal to eliminate the disaster loan program for farmers.

Church also said he would "like to see us write into law in the Congress a ban against a return of American forces to the fighting (in Vietnam) without the prior and specific authorization of Congress."

Newsman conducting the interview included KTVB news director Sal Ceskeski, Idaho Statesman political editor John Corlett and Times-News reporter David Espo.

Construction completion set in June

Jerome firm on schedule

JEROME — Construction at Moore Business Forms is proceeding at a good rate and it is hoped construction will be complete by June 1, as scheduled.

Workmen this week are insulating and sheet rocking the office area. Water and sewer lines are installed and will be turned on next week.

The construction has experienced several delays during the winter and present delays are due to machinery getting stuck in the mud at the site. According to Len Piekens, Pocatello, supervisor for Mitchell Construction Co., the work is progressing on schedule.

When the plant is completed, it will employ between 200 and 250 employees with 70 per cent of them to be young men. Employees for the facility will be recruited locally and will be trained in business forms printing.

Richard F. Wasson has been appointed manager of the Jerome plant by R.F. Poole, general production manager of the company's Pacific Division.

Wasson, a native of California, has been associated with the firm since 1952, when he joined the manufacture of business forms as a press helper. He has served in production capacities in Emeryville, Calif., and Logan, Utah. He has been plant manager at the Logan, Utah, plant since 1970.

Jerome budget hearing slated

JEROME — A public hearing will be held Monday by the Jerome County Commissioners on the proposed 1973 budget.

The hearing is scheduled for 2 p.m. at the Jerome County Courthouse. The proposed budget of $926,200 shows an increase of six per cent from last year's budget of $874,850.

Mrs. Virginia Ricketts, Jerome County clerk, said the budget figure and percentage increase do not include the revenue sharing funds which total $120,000 for Jerome County.

Mrs. Ricketts said the increase in this year's budget is due to several factors including a $6,500 increase in the sheriff's budget to be used for an additional deputy.

Current expenses for 1973 are set at $294,167, compared to $265,004 for last year for an increase of $29,163.

The 1973 budget proposal also reflects a blanket salary increase of five per cent for county employees.

TF school gets top rating

TWIN FALLS — Twin Falls High School is fully accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, Principal Frank Charlton announced today.

The association's annual report for the 1972-73 school year commended the high school for providing quality career education curriculum as well as a broad academic program for meeting college entrance requirements, Charlton said.

Accreditation by the Northwest Association is recognition of a high quality and well-balanced educational program. Standards for accreditation are based on a school's philosophy and objectives pertaining to a program of studies, pupil personnel services, school plant and equipment, instructional media, library, student activities, and preparation of administrative, and instructional personnel, he said.

Wendell sets budget cut

WENDELL — City councilman in Wendell faced a problem Thursday night of attempting to trim $40,143 in needed expenditures out of a somewhat smaller amount of anticipated revenue for 1973.

Mayor Eugene Soares told the council the rough estimates on city needs at this time amount to $40,143, but he said it does not appear the city will have this much revenue with which to work. He said the council will have to do some trimming and try to make ends meet before setting a tentative budget Feb. 22.

"The $40,143 reflects what we would like to do and need to do," said Gooding, City Clerk. Given Callet.

Mayor Soares said he expects the rough estimate will be lowered during the next city council meeting as it is probably higher than the year's income.

Last year's budget was $310,790. However, the city clerk said, only $144,709 was spent because the sewer construction and new water tank were not completed.

In other council action the city raised irrigation rates from $5 to $6 per 50-foot lot and from $9 to $10 per acre. The increase is due to the higher cost of maintaining ditches, Spares said.

He said the city is trying to discourage acreages and the number of acreages is decreasing.

Don Beach, Wendell, met with the council to request a contract for garbage collection within the city. He said the cost would be $2 per month per pickup. The city now has 400 pickup points at $1 which is collected by the city.

Councilman Harold Simerly told Beach the councilmen have been considering raising the city charge for garbage collection to $2 or more and using the extra money to fence the city dump and pay a salary for a full-time employee at the dump. Beach's request was tabled for the present.

Fire Chief George Wahler presented his department's budget to city councilmen. He said new hoses must be purchased and a new radio is needed for one of the trucks. He presented a budget request of $9,565 and $4,051 in the special fire department fund.

He said he has included painting the old fire department building in the 1973 budget.

The addition to the present fire station is to be completed sometime in March, he said. The Southern Idaho Firemen's convention will be held in Wendell in May, he said.

He also announced 20 Wendell firemen are attending a training course consisting of 10 weeks at three hours per week and sponsored by the Idaho Vocational Education department at Boise State College.

The city raised the rent on city farm property from $18 to $35 per acre.

Bellevue works toward budget

By TERRY CAMPBELL
Times-News writer
BELLEVUE — The Bellevue City Council took one step towards setting up an annual city budget Thursday night.

To provide information for formulating a budget, the council moved to request city employees — Mitchell Lete, watermaster and street superintendent, and Duane Dudley, city marshal — to complete daily time cards stating mileage and hours spent on specific jobs.

The lack of a city budget had been discussed by the council about one year ago. Presently, revenue is placed in a general fund and expenses are drawn on that account.

During Thursday's meeting, Mayor James Pigg said, "We are getting bigger than when we had just water (revenue) and taxes coming in. The only way is to set up a budget and maintain it."

In other action, the council moved to request Bellevue gasoline dealers to submit bids for furnishing gas and oil to the city.

Pigg said, in checking with Blaine County Sheriff Orville Drexler, operational costs were about the same for the marshal's car, except for the price paid for gasoline.

Presented for the second reading, the planning and zoning ordinance and an ordinance regulating accumulation of junk, debris and wrecked cars on city streets and alleyways.

Discussed the city's dog problem. Alderman John Pasco recommended that every time a dog complaint is received the council "really pursue it." He reiterated that any resident who has a specific complaint about a dog should submit the complaint in writing to the council.

Discussed Highway Department plans for US Highway 93 through Bellevue. Alderman George McKay said if the railroad right of way were used as an alternate one-way couplet, residents of the older homes constructed close to the right of way "won't be able to get on their property."

Sailors seize Montevideo port

MONTEVIDEO (UPI) — Armed sailors seized and isolated the port of Montevideo early today as soldiers occupied radio and television stations amid a growing power struggle between military chiefs and President Juan Maria Bordaberry.

It was the most serious clash between the armed forces and Bordaberry since his election in November, 1971.

Uruguay is the smallest country in South America—its area is slightly larger than Missouri—and it is located between Argentina and Brazil. Its population is 2.8 million and cattle is its main industry.

The crisis stemmed from Bordaberry's refusal to fire Gen. Antonio Fracese, a former defense minister appointed to the post again Wednesday. The appointment came after some politicians charged military chiefs with planning a coup.

Armed sailors commandeered automobiles and buses and barricaded themselves inside the port area. A navy statement said its commanders backed Bordaberry but there were reports some high-ranking officers disagreed.

Earlier, combat-dressed troops occupied radio and television stations and seized tape recordings of a speech by Bordaberry that publicly defied demands he dismiss Fracese.

A military communique said the appointment of Fracese would turn the armed forces into a "tool of political and economic interests." Military commanders said that when Fracese held the post before, subversion—apparently carried out by Tupamaros guerrillas—was organized and consolidated.

Fair queen meet slated

GLENN'S FERRY — The first meeting of the Elmore County Fair Queen Committee will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Elmore County Home Extension office.

This committee has charge of the fair queen contest, according to Mrs. Marilyn Jordan, Elmore County Home Extension agent.

MV officials meet in TF

TWIN FALLS — Fiscal matters involving city government are being discussed today in Twin Falls by city officials from nearly all Magic Valley towns.

The Fourth District of the Association of Idaho Cities is meeting in a full day's session in Room 144 of the College of Southern Idaho academic building.

Ed Simmerman, executive director of the Association of Idaho Cities, Boise, will direct the session and will give a report on revenue sharing this afternoon.

Jean Milar, Twin Falls City manager, was scheduled to address other area city representatives on budget planning this morning.

Other speakers during the day include Edythe Widmer, Kimberly city treasurer, who was scheduled to discuss the uniform accounting system now adopted by Idaho cities. Charles Shaddock, Burley city clerk, was to discuss projection of revenue and LaMar Anderson, Burley CPA, city accounting.

Milar said the meeting is one of several held each year by the district and includes representation from nearly every city in the south, central part of the state.

He said the sessions keep city government representatives posted on new regulations and prepare them for a uniform procedure in such matters as budgeting, accounting and planning.

Arco man heads Gem Angus unit

FILER — Ned Wilde, Arco, was elected president of the Idaho Angus Association at a dinner Thursday evening in the Rogerson Hotel, Twin Falls.

Ben Goslin, Horseshoe Bend, was elected vice president and Clyde McVee, Arco, and Dick Howard, Buhl, were elected new directors.

Grading of the 146 bulls consigned to the Idaho Angus Association Bull Sale began this morning at the Twin Falls County Fairgrounds.

The registered Angus bulls must meet all weight requirements and standards during the grading which will be climax by selection of the grand and reserve champion bulls. Ray Nyswonger, Reno, Nev., is grader for the sale.

Ken Troutt, Emmett, will serve as auctioneer for the sale which gets underway at noon Saturday. This is the largest Angus bull sale west of the Rockies, according to sale officials, and will feature top quality animals consigned both by local stockmen as well as out of state breeders.

A get-together banquet for consignors and buyers will be at 7 p.m. tonight in the Rogerson Hotel and the Idaho Angus Auxiliary will meet at the Rogerson Hotel for a breakfast meeting preceding the sale Saturday morning.

Adoption of equal rights amendment looks dim

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Prospects for adoption of the equal rights amendment to the Constitution appeared poor today, despite its ratification by two more states, a survey of sentiment in state capitols across the nation showed.

Oregon and Minnesota Thursday became the 25th and 26th states to approve the amendment that would outlaw all forms of sex discrimination that are based on law or governmental action. The approval of 38 states is required to add the amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

But the survey by UPI state capitol reporters indicated it will be very difficult to persuade 12 more states to take the step.

Only 13 states need to reject the amendment.

approved by Congress last year, to block its adoption. Eight states already have done so. The survey showed prospects for passage are bad in at least five states and uncertain in at least eight others. In addition, the legislatures of Idaho and Nebraska, which approved the amendment in 1972, plan to reconsider their actions this year.

Twenty-two states ratified the amendment last year in the first flush of its presentation. But strong opposition has been mounted this year by those who have argued with considerable effect that the amendment would subject women to the draft and relieve men of the legal obligation to support their families.

Legislative hearing rooms in the statehouses have been picked by those for and against the amendment. The argument has inspired some of the most gaudy rhetoric heard on the floors of legislatures in years.

In Little Rock last week, the Arkansas legislature voted down the amendment, heeding the pleas of Sen. Guy H. "Mutt" Jones, who often wears red cowboy boots and matching carnation, and who chews tobacco and carries a small can to spit in.

"You don't want to see these sweet and tender little bodies with heads torn off by shrapnel!" Jones thundered in referring to the women and the draft issue. "Women were put on this earth to minister to the needs of miserable men."

In a quieter tone, Judith Rogers, legislative chairman of the Arkansas chapter of the American Association of University Women, commented that "the anti-intellectual forces have again succeeded in reinforcing our image as that of a conservative and nonprogressive state."

Supporters of the amendment have argued that the draft argument is irrelevant because the draft is about to end anyway. They dismiss as simply untrue the assertion that the amendment would encourage men to stop supporting their families. Even so, spokesmen for groups working for the amendment's passage concede their momentum has slowed.

The states that have rejected the amendment are Arkansas, Connecticut, Louisiana, Montana, Oklahoma, Illinois, Virginia and Utah. On Thursday, a Missouri legislative committee voted to indefinitely postpone action on the measure.

The UPI survey showed the amendment was unlikely to reach the floor in Missouri's legislature this year and was doubtful of passage in Maine, Vermont and Georgia. Passage was uncertain in Ohio, North Carolina, Florida, South Carolina, Arizona, Indiana, Washington and North Dakota. Chances were rated "good" only in Alabama and New Mexico.

States that have passed the amendment in addition to Oregon and Minnesota include Hawaii, New Hampshire, Nebraska, Delaware, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Texas, Maryland, Tennessee, Alaska, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Colorado, California, West Virginia, New York, Michigan, Massachusetts, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Wyoming, and South Dakota.

Browne-led Bruins defeat Highland

Senior Charlie Browne dazzled everywhere Thursday night as he and the Twin Falls Bruins put together their best game yet and overpowered the Highland Rams 73-58.

The Bruins, ending Highland's outside hopes for a tie of the Southern Idaho Conference, remains in action Saturday night entertaining the Borah Lions, one of three SIC co-leaders. Twin Falls then hosts Minico Tuesday night in a flu-caused makeup game.

Browne, in a slump during the first half of the season but strong in the last six games, pumped through 20 points. But his scoring was nearly overshadowed by tremendous rebounding and defenses. He again joined with Bob Durham and Erick Hovey in a solid three-prong scoring attack. Durham hitting 19 and Hovey 18. Still, no-Bruin played badly. Landy Haynes played well defensively and paced the shattering of Highland zone press and Jim Shew came off the bench again to get two key rebound shots in the third period when Twin Falls was icing it.

Byron In-The-Woods, with great quickness and range showed Twin Falls fans how a man can win the SIC scoring title twice. The 5-9 senior blazed in the first and fourth quarters for 23 points and wound up with 29. The Rams also were missing a key man in Mike Falash, out with mononucleosis, but expected back for spot action next week.

It was rather an omen when Browne, Hovey and Durham opened with Bruin points and an 8-2 lead but then Coach Ron Kress stood up and told In-The-Woods to shoot. He immediately responded with 11 points worth of howitzers as Highland took a 17-15 first quarter edge.

The teams were tied four times in the first five minutes of the second period, Twin Falls once going out 25-21. But after In-The-Woods tied it at 27-up, Hovey twice broke inside for shot buckets and Twin Falls had the lead for good.

Aware of its third-quarter blues, Twin Falls marked time at a five-point lead then started away on buckets by Hovey and Browne. Highland reduced the deficit to seven but in the last two minutes, Durham, Browne and Shew scored to let Twin Falls enter the last period ahead by 13.

Haynes and Shew pushed that to 17 to open the period and it was comfortable the rest of the way and allowed Twin Falls fans to enjoy a brilliant shooting display by In-The-Woods who hit six of seven shots. Twin Falls won the preliminary 51-40.

Training camps postponed by loop chiefs

NEW YORK (UPI) — A offer proves to be the history-making proposal, which would enable major league players to bring their salary disputes to arbitration, was offered by the owners Thursday in an effort to reach a settlement, open spring training on time and bring about a general "peace" for the next three years.

The owners' offer came on the heels of a directive by the two league presidents, the American League's Joe Cronin and the National's Chub Feeney, instructing all major league clubs not to open spring training camps prior to March 1 until an agreement is reached with the Major League Baseball Players Association.

The directive by Cronin and Feeney, however, was considered merely a case of logistics. Also, the directive said no policy has been adopted concerning the official openings on March 1 so this action couldn't be considered a "lockout."

Although several clubs implemented the directive by notifying their players invited before March 1 not to report to spring training until a settlement is reached, prospects for an early agreement, perhaps as early as the next few days, are considered good.

Feeney said in a statement, "I can report to you we had a meeting at which we put on the table a comprehensive offer which involves arbitration and that is something the players have been seeking."

Marvin Miller, the executive director of the Players' Association, said, "we will give it consideration."

John Gaherin, the representative of the owners, said, "we sincerely hope this

Lyle's strong punching will test Quarry's battered chin

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ron Lyle, a knockout artist who hits like a sledgehammer, and Jerry Quarry, whose chin has tested the punching power of the best heavyweights over the past eight years, meet in a 12-rounder tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Lyle, who has been a sensation out west in winning 17 of 19 fights by knockout, makes his Garden debut and if he can make Quarry his 20th victim, a title match with George Foreman could be coming his way in the near future.

Foreman's manager, Dick Sadler, has been on the phone to Garden matchmaker, Teddy Brenner, this week to discuss the new champion's future plans. Sadler is expected to fly in from California to talk with Brenner and he might arrive in time to watch the Lyle-Quarry brawl.

Joe Frazier, the man Foreman knocked out in the second round last month to win the title, is coming in to see the fight along with his manager Yank Durham.

There has been a lot of interest in this fight and a crowd of better than 15,000 is expected. Since Foreman's upset over Frazier, the heavy-weight division has been given new life and Lyle is the one fighter who can benefit most.

Ranked fourth in the world, and named Fighter of the Year in 1972 by the World Boxing Association, Lyle has moved quickly into the title picture. His last fight, two months ago against fifth-ranked Larry Middleton, ended in three rounds. Other men were counted out sooner. Buster Mathis fell in two, so did Vicente Rondon, former light-heavyweight champion. Lyle has demolished every man in front of him. The last guy to go 10 rounds with Lyle was Manuel Ramos, back in October of 1971.

The 30-year-old Lyle is in a big hurry to get a shot at Foreman and the championship. He is a man anxious to make up for lost time—time he spent in the Colorado State Penitentiary for killing a man in a gang fight 11 years ago. The sentence was 15-25 years but he was out in 7 1/2 thanks to his friend and backer Bill Daniels, the millionaire-owner of the Utah Stars of the American Basketball Association, who spends his free time working with inmates with the hope that he can give them hope.

Daniels' association with Lyle has been a smashing success. It's a story of a bad guy turned good. The only time Ron Lyle has had these days is in the ring.

Quarry hasn't been known as such a nice guy either. He's a street fighter who has fought and lost to the best—Muhammad Ali (twice), Frazier, Jimmy Ellis, George Chuvalo, Eddie Machen.

He showed great courage in his bout with Frazier in 1969 before the fight was stopped in the seventh round, with Quarry's face badly carved up. Against Ali, Quarry was cut again and lost in three.

Sprint field eyes 70-yard dash mark

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — A world record in the 70-yard dash will be the goal of a classy field of sprinters, headed by Herb Washington and Ivory Crockett, in the Mason-Dixon Games Saturday night.

Washington, undefeated on the indoor circuit this season, and Crockett, the world record-holder in the 60-yard dash, plan to fly here from Los Angeles, where they are scheduled to run against Russian Olympic champion Valery Borzov Friday night.

The 70-yard dash field here also includes colorful Dr. Delano Meriwether, former University of Kentucky speedster Jim Green, Willie McGee of Alcorn A & M, Ben Vaughan and Robert Ware. The record for the 70 is 8.8 seconds, jointly held by Green, Mel Pender and Larry Highbaugh.

The Mason-Dixon Games is one of the few indoor track meets that offers a 70-yard dash. Most indoor meets have a 60-yard dash.

Other events highlighting the Mason-Dixon Games will be the 800-yard run, the mile, the high jump, the triple jump, and the mile and two-mile relays.

In addition, four women's events are scheduled and they have attracted a top-notch field including eight members of the U. S. Olympic Team last year and a Polish lass who finished third in the 100-meter dash at the Munich Olympics.

Mark Winzenried of Club West, who set a world record in the 1,600-yard run at the Mason-Dixon Games last year, will go after a half-mile record this time. He'll be challenged by Andrzej Kupczyk of Poland and Byron Dyce of Jamaica.

Henry Szordykowski, another member of the Polish Olympic Team, will face opposition from Howell Michael and Joe Savage in his bid to lower the meet record in the mile from 4:01.9.

World record-holder Pat Matzford heads the high-jump competition here in a field that includes John Ratelich, Dennis Adama, and Tony Wilson, all of whom have cleared seven feet on several occasions.

NEW MEXICO switched from a man-to-man defense to a zone midway through the second half Thursday night to break open a close game and roll over Arizona 53-39.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UPI) — New Mexico switched from a man-to-man defense to a zone midway through the second half Thursday night to break open a close game and roll over Arizona 53-39.

The win gives New Mexico a 5-3 league record and a 17-3 overall mark. The 18th-ranked Lobos are now tied with Arizona in league play.

Junior Bernard Hardin and guard Gabe Nava led the second-half assault which saw New Mexico outscore the Wildcats 34-9 in the last half of the final period.

Hardin led the Lobos with 22 points. Mark Sators added 16 and Nava 14.

League-leading scorer Coniel Norman of Arizona led all scorers with 27 points.

Gonzaga belts North Arizona

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (UPI) — Gonzaga University took a first half lead that was never threatened as the Bulldogs defeated Northern Arizona, 70-56, in a Big Sky Conference game Thursday night.

The score was tied five times and with 11:20 to go, Gonzaga pulled ahead 12-10 on a field goal by Willie Daigle.

The Bulldogs led 31-24 at halftime and by as much as 13 points, 48-35, in the second half. Clayton led Gonzaga with 16 points, including 14 in the second half. Dalgle and Stewart Morrill had 15 each and Greg Sten added 11.

Lester Madison and Nate Payne led the lumberjacks with 14 points each, but 12 of Madison's points came in the last nine minutes and 10 of Payne's were scored in the final 10 minutes.

NBA will maintain 'hardship' draft

NEW YORK (UPI) — The National Basketball Association announced Thursday that once again undergraduates will be eligible for the draft under the league's "hardship" rules.

The draft will be held April 16th and the deadline for players applying for hardship status is March 30th.

For the first time hardship cases were eligible for the draft last year, along with seniors.

Vanderbilt hires Stapleton

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Clay Stapleton, described as "a winner in everything," was named athletic director at Vanderbilt University Thursday and said he hoped to hire a head football coach within a week.

Stapleton is giving up a similar position at Florida State University for a five-year contract at this Southeastern Conference school which has had only one winning football season in the past six years.

"He's been a winner in everything he has been associated with," Vanderbilt Vice-Chancellor R. B. Purdy said of Stapleton. "I am delighted that things worked out as they have, because Stapleton had the strongest kind of committee support from the start."

Minico stuns A mat field; Buhl tops Bs

GOODING — The Minico Spartans, feasting in the second-third place wrestle-offs, pulled off the major surprise in fourth district wrestling history Thursday night by winning the Class A championship. Buhl, without any real doubt after Wednesday night, stormed to the class B title while Filer outlasted Declo for runner-up spot.

Minico Coach Red Halverson, who spent the week telling everyone that "my freshmen are coming through," wound up with the title on the strength of five second places.

The Spartans had 140½ points while second-seeded Burley, thanks to a tournament-closing decision by Jones in the heavyweight division, topped the Jerome Tigers 137 to 135. Jerome had been rated the favorite but due to a gunshot wound and some illness, wasn't at full strength. Twin Falls, with defending state champion Mark McKain its only champion, was well back at 41.

In the B division, Buhl took the title with 93 points while Filer had 67 and Declo 64. They were followed by Valley and Wood River at 57, Raft River 56, Kimberly 51, Shoshone 25, Glens Ferry 23½, Onkley 23 and Gooding 17.

Buhl had three champions and qualified six men for the state finals in Rexburg next week. Wood River tied the Indians with three champions but had no other placements in the top three. Filer and Declo had two champions and four qualify; Kimberly and Raft River had no champions but three men in; Shoshone one champion and two men in state; Glens Ferry two men in and Gooding and Onkley one man to state each.

In the A division, Jerome and Burley had four champions apiece while Minico had three and Twin Falls one. With only two men going in each weight class to state, Jerome had four and four; Burley four and three, Minico three and five and Twin Falls one and zero.

Minico took the top two places at 108 pounds and Burley doubled up at 115 pounds.

Weber holds lead by topping Idaho

ODGEN, Utah (UPI) — Big Sky leader Weber State kept hold of first place in the conference race by outlasting a scrappy Idaho five, 68-57, here Thursday night.

Weber jumped off to an early 14-6 lead with six minutes gone in the first half, only to see the Vandals charge back to tie the contest, 23-23, eight minutes before intermission.

The Wildcats held the midway advantage, 39-30.

The Cats shot poorly from the field in the second half, and this allowed Idaho to come within three points, 50-47, with 8:30 remaining.

Weber then got some clutch shooting down the stretch to pull the game out — 4-4 — Weber players finished in double figures with Dan Dion and Steve Fleming leading the way with 15 each.

Steve Weist led Idaho with 19 points, while Steve Ton and Tyrone Fitzpatrick chipped in 13 and 12 respectively.

Two players reinstated

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A lawyer for the National Collegiate Athletic Association said Thursday that two New Mexico State University basketball players will be able to compete pending a contempt hearing.

The hearing was brought after the players, John Williamson, 20, New Haven, Conn., and Hobald "Tree" Grant, 20, Philadelphia, filed a $2.5 million suit against the NCAA.

Jones won't go with team

DALLAS (UPI) — Rich Jones, who has played center, forward and guard for the Dallas Chaparrals and who was the only player in the team to be voted to the ABA West all-star team, said Thursday he would not go with the Chaps when they move to New Jersey.

The Dallas franchise was sold this week to a group which will move the team to New Jersey next season.

"I'm not going," Jones said. "You can spread the word Rich Jones is available. I can't help what the Dallas owners feel they had to do."

"Selling the club was their business, and not going to New Jersey is Rich Jones' business."

Jones leads the Chaparrals in scoring and rebounding and the chances for a win in any game usually depends on how well Jones is playing on that particular night.

Jones said his decision was reached mainly because he did not want to take his family to an area where they might wind up in a ghetto.

Nicklaus maintains two-shot lead at mid-point of tourney

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. — Jack Nicklaus didn't play as well Thursday as he did in the opening round but he managed a two-under-par 70 quipway for a two-stroke lead over veterans Billy Casper, Doug Sanders and Gay Brewer in the second round of the Bob Hope Desert Classic.

All the best scores in the opening round were shot at Indian Wells, considered the easiest of the four layouts they use in the Hope Classic, but on Thursday the pros tore up Tamarisk instead.

Nicklaus went out in even par 36 and came back in 34 for his 70 and had a 36-hole score of 102 under-par 134. That kept him two shots ahead of Brewer, Casper and Sanders and three shots in front of charging Arnold Palmer and young Allen Miller with three rounds to go in the 90-hole event.

Sanders and Palmer shot six-under 66s at Tamarisk to get into the chase Casper had a 68 and Brewer a 70, also at Tamarisk, for their eight-under-par scores of 136.

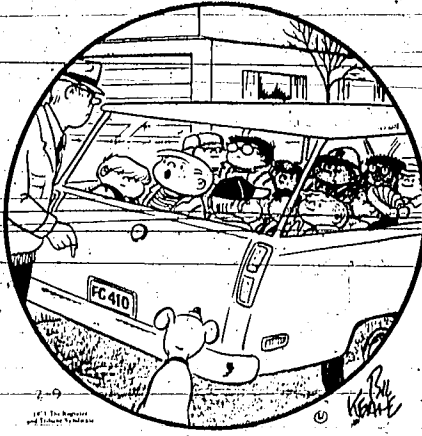

Miller shot a 67 at Tamarisk to join Palmer at 137, seven-under-par and three behind Nicklaus.

All alone at 138 after shooting a 68 at La Quinta was John Schlee, who last Sunday snapped an eight-year losing streak by taking the Hawaiian Open.

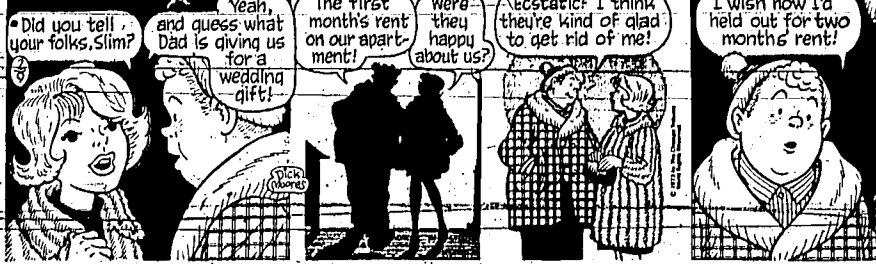

Another shot back at 139 were Orville Moody and Jim Wiechers.

One wife in every four votes as her husband advises. One husband in 20 votes as his wife advises. Or so researchers at the University of Michigan report.

THE PRONUNCIATION and definition of every word you know is recorded within a little chunk of your gray matter about the size of a small grape.

ABOUT 14 PER CENT of the men in this country are said to be golden blond. That's natural. But less than 11 per cent of the women can be so described. Curious.

WHAT'S YOUR opinion of lawyers? About a dozen years ago, the pollsters put this query to numerous citizens nationwide. Most rated lawyers below bankers, clergymen, doctors, dentists and teachers in reputation. Curiously, those who had never employed attorneys expressed considerable admiration for them, but those who had hired same generally said, "ugh, or some exclamation to that effect. Approximately 35 per cent of those surveyed said they believed lawyers were honest and dedicated.

QUERIES FROM CLIENTS

Q "Lous, what do you think of Sandy Duncan?"
A. Pine young lady. Would be more enthusiastic, of course, if I were a little younger and not already committed to Dinah Shore. Incidentally, Miss Duncan is probably the only performer in the world who at will can steal a scene from Flip Wilson. That's noteworthy.

Q "I KNOW CHINESE is the most spoken language of all. But isn't English the second most spoken?"

A. It's third. There are 13 major languages each spoken by at least 60 million people. In order, with their numbers of millions, they are: Chinese, 700; Hindi and Urdu, 280; English, 250; Spanish, 150; Russian, 130; German, 100; Japanese, 80; French, 80; Portuguese, 80; Indonesian, 80; Arabic, 70; Bengali, 60; Italian, 60.

CHOSEN COLORS

A curious study turns up the fact that political liberals tend to prefer the colors orange, yellow and red, while those citizens with right-of-center opinions seem to like blue, green and brown.

LEONARD LEVENSON reports the sighting of these signs at Chicago Marriage License Bureau. "Out to lunch." "Sit down and think it over." "On a Movie Marquee." "Suggestive for immature audiences only." "On a Pediatrician's Door." "Out to watch Wall return at two o'clock."

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You have an off-and-on day now. At one moment you are delays and obstacles, the next benefits and favors are channelled your way by the planetary positions. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You know exactly how to get the right results with a bigwig who has the answers for your greater success in the future. Steer clear of friends who are not up to par now and could do more harm than good.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Good friends can be instrumental in gaining business or personal favors that you need at this time. Show your gratitude. Use the gregarious side of your nature and get right results. Be cheerful.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Today you can see clearly how to handle your obligations and get bills paid. You now have increased confidence. Use wisdom where new investments are concerned. Take steps to improve your health.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Look to associates and friends for the right advice that can help make your coveted dreams come true. Accept an invitation that will help you to make a charming, new acquaintance.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Make plans to do your work in such an efficient manner that higher-ups will notice and reward you as you deserve. Engage in amusements with good friends tonight. Eat and drink moderately.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You enjoy playing the martyr and this is a good day to get out of that habit and be with congenials for a good time. You have fine creative ideas. Discuss them with experts and become more affluent.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Study conditions at home well and then handle matters in a most efficient and diplomatic way so that there is increased harmony. Invite guests in for the evening and make an excellent impression.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Arrange a meeting with successful people you know and talk over how you can add to your own success. Then get busy on the telephone and take care of correspondence. Enjoy the evening with friends.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Making better plans for the future that will bring you more happiness and financial success is wise. Show sincere appreciation for the help of experts in your field of endeavor.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You can gain your personal aims with ease now and should persevere along such lines. Show that you have tact and determination. Attending a party tonight can bring happiness into your life.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) The planets are favorable to kin today so go along with them instead of striving to force your own views on them. Make future plans, but don't involve yourself in anything too strenuous.

PISCES (Feb. 20 Mar. 20) You can make the purchases now that will bring comfort, efficiency and pleasure for a long time to come. State your aims to associates and come to a true understanding. Take care of correspondence.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those stubborn young people who will require a certain amount of psychological understanding before this quality can be used in a constructive way. Direct education along business, banking and real estate lines. Teach ethics early so that the fine promise here will be easily realized.

"The Star impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

New snow at ski resorts

TWIN FALLS — All ski resorts report new snow during the week with excellent skiing forecast for the weekend.

Magic Mountain has four inches of new snow on a packed base ranging from 60 inches at the lodge to 60 inches at the top of the chair lift. The road has been plowed and widened and major runs will be packed. The area is open Friday through Sunday each week with bus service at 9 a.m. Saturday and Sunday from Newton's.

Pomerelle lists 10 inches of new snow with total depths now 65 inches at the top of the chair lift and 30 inches packed base at the lodge. The chairlift and ropeways are in operation. Roads are good but snow tires or chains are required.

Sawtooth Forest officials say four inches of new, light dry powder has fallen in Stanley Basin and the Sawtooth region and avalanche hazards are continuing to build in steep canyons.

"Snowmobiling - there is difficult because of a lack of a base and some breakable crust from sunshine hampers cross country skiers. Best snowmobiling and cross country skiing is in the foot hills and low areas and snowmobilers are warned to stay out of steep canyon terrain."

Agnew ends Asian tour

MANILA (UPI) — Vice President Spiro Agnew ended an eight-day Southeast Asian tour today, voicing guarded optimism that there will be no more Vietnam wars and carrying to President Nixon "secret information" on Southeast Asian security.

Manila was the last stop for Agnew, dispatched by Nixon to brief governments on the U.S. role in postwar Southeast Asia. He spent 4½ hours in Manila, then left aboard his blue and white Air Force jet at 4:05 p.m. (1:05 a.m. MST) for a brief refueling stop at Guam before flying back to the United States.

"After completing my tour of eight nations," Agnew said at a Malacanang Palace luncheon with President Ferdinand E. Marcos and key cabinet members, "I am quite optimistic that we will not resume those unproductive hostilities that have erupted and dissipated so much in the way of blood and assets of all of us."

Agnew warned, however, that the cease-fire in Vietnam is a "tenuous" one and said it can either "blossom into a legitimate realization of the aspirations of a people who have been at war for almost 20 years" or "suddenly erode." In misunderstanding that would again erupt the world into a resumption of the turmoil and sufferings it has experienced.

Then he added: "I think we finally learned that people can live together in peace if they have real motivation to understand and compromise with one another."

Guardsmen called in Custer protest

CUSTER, S.D. (UPI) — Gov. Richard Kneip Thursday ordered 200 National Guardsmen on standby near Custer, where police battled protesting Indians two days before.

Kneip emphasized he was "not committing" the guardsmen into the town, built near where Gen. George Armstrong Custer camped years ago.

Custer County Sheriff Ernest Popin requested all available officers in South Dakota to come to Custer. The city of Sioux Falls sent 20 police officers—all volunteers—to the southwestern South Dakota town of 1,600 in the Black Hills. Sioux Falls City officials said reserve officers would be employed there until the regulars return.

In Washington, the National Congress of American Indians, more moderate than the militant American Indian Movement (AIM) which has been leading the nearly week-long protests, called for President Nixon to send an "ambassador of concern" to Custer.

Nixon's ambassador, the Indian congress said, should investigate the stabbing death of Wesley Bad Heart Bull, 20, Hot Springs, which triggered the violence. AIM members contend the white man charged with manslaughter in Bull's death should face a murder charge.

Gunmen battle in Ireland violence

BELFAST (UPI) — Gunmen and security forces battled again late Thursday in new Northern Ireland violence that left one policeman dead and brought a government warning of a "ruthless" crackdown against bombers and snipers.

A policeman was shot dead at Donaghmore, 40 miles from Belfast, in one battle and in another, troops fought snipers for two hours across the border dividing north and south.

The policeman's death was the 40th this year and the 78th since mid-1969 when political and religious violence broke out among Protestants, Roman Catholics, the Irish Republican Army and security forces.

The chief British official in the province, Northern Ireland Secretary William Whitelaw, said security forces would act harshly in dealing with Protestant and Catholic extremists.

"They will have to expect the most determined and ruthless action from us," he said in London after defending troop and police handling of rioting Wednesday that killed five persons.

Whitelaw called the riots, which grew out of a strike ordered by Protestants, a disaster. "Those who decided to have their strike on the very flimsiest of pretexts," he said, "must accept the consequences."

The shooting Thursday continued a chain of violence and vengeance that some security sources said earlier was bringing Northern Ireland to the brink of a civil war.

In the Donaghmore shooting, police said four gunmen on the roof of a Catholic school opened fire on policemen investigating a traffic accident that injured a woman.

Needs bath

MIAMI SHORES, Fla. (UPI) — A pretty blonde walked into the North Side Car Wash on busy Biscayne Boulevard Thursday, stripped off her clothes and began washing herself under the sudsy spray.

When police arrived, there was a massive traffic jam around the car wash and over 100 people were milling around — some taking pictures — as the woman stood in the sudsy spray washing herself.

The woman, identified as JoAnn Almont of Flint, Mich., was arrested on charges of disorderly conduct and indecent exposure. Police said Miss Almont's explanation was: "I needed a bath."

Tired of blame

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Postal Service says it is tired of being blamed when airlines are slow in delivering mail and will try to negotiate guaranteed, scheduled space on planes.

"We cannot continue to take the blame for the failure and deficiencies of the airlines in the transportation of mail," Postmaster General E.T. Klassen said in a statement Thursday.

"We can no longer stand by and let the airlines decide whether they're going to carry our mail or not. We're going to insist upon having committed space," he said.

Safety belts for pupils

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Faced with growing pressure from Congress, the federal government will issue safety standards shortly which could put seat belts on 20 million children who travel to school by bus.

The standards, to be issued within the next three weeks, will require that new school buses be equipped with restraint systems.

The National Highway Transportation Safety Agency will recommend the seat-belt as one way to meet the standards, government sources said.

Safety belts have been required on cars since 1967, but less than 20 per cent of the nation's motorists use the devices.

The safety agency however, has proposed a rule to make wearing a seat-belt mandatory under the threat of a fine. Safety experts estimate that seat belts, if worn by all drivers, could cut the highway death toll by up to 20,000 lives a year.

Under the bus standards, the manufacturers also will be required to provide padded seat backs and strong seat anchorages in school buses.

In March, another set of standards will be issued designed to prevent the bus compartment from splitting open under severe impacts.

There are more than 250,000 school buses in the United States, and the Department of Transportation to propose eight school bus standards, ranging from a seat belt requirement to the use of safety glass in bus windows. The government would also be forced to build a prototype school safety bus.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, is expected to introduce a similar bill. A spokesman for Moss' office predicted the House would hold hearings on its bill shortly.

Two congressmen—Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., and Les Aspin, D-Wis.—introduced bills Thursday to force the Transportation Department to propose eight school bus standards, ranging from a seat belt requirement to the use of safety glass in bus windows. The government would also be forced to build a prototype school safety bus.
