President, aides hear Indo report

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon called in his top military, diplomatic and intelligence advisers today for consultations on the worsening situation in Cambodia. Continued U.S. bombing there has caused growing congressional objections.

The President made an early morning helicopter flight from Camp David, in the western Maryland mountains where an unseasonal spring freeze occurred during his overnight visit to the White House to see his personal emissary to Cambodia and meet with the National Security Council.

Gen. Alexander M. Haig, who made a four-day on-the-scene inspection for the President in Cambodia as well as visiting other key capitals in Southeast Asia, arrived back in Washington several hours before dawn and was on hand at the White House when Nixon returned.

Haig kept Nixon posted on his findings throughout his visit, via cabled messages, but the President wanted to hear quickly the newly elevated four-star general's personal evaluation of the situation.

The White House sought to indicate the meeting of the Security Council, composed of the highest Pentagon, State Department, Central Intelligence Agency officials as well as White House aides, was not a crisis meeting, saying it had been long-scheduled.

However, in Phnom Penh, a crisis atmosphere prevailed as more than 50 western diplomats or their families, including Americans, left the Cambodian capital in anticipation of an all-out attack on the city by Communist forces.

Despite more than five weeks of daily bombing of Communist concentrations by American B52s and other warplanes, the Pathet Lao, allegedly with support from North Vietnam, has blockaded the city.

On Capitol Hill, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Mrk., condemned the U.S. bombing as based on specious legal arguments and likened the administration's justification of it to continued U.S. intervention in Vietnam after the Gulf of Tonkin resolution was repealed.

Some members of Congress have expressed growing concern that the bombing could lead to a new and deeper U.S. involvement in Indochina, although it has pulled out of Vietnam.

First group of eight ships arrived at midweek after breaking Communist blockade. Fighting continued near the Cambodian capital, with an all-out assault by Communist forces expected. (UPI)

today in brief

Demos demand tax reform

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sens. Edward M. Kennedy and Edmund S. Muskie led a dozen Senate Democrats today in demanding that President Nixon submit a tax reform program to Congress.

But the prospects for Congress reforming taxes this year appeared slim at best. The administration has taken no formal position on tax reform so far.

Athens bomb kills man

ATHENS (UPI) — A bomb exploded in the room of an Athens hotel today, killing a Jordanian man and wounding a German woman tourist in a nearby room. Three Arab men were held for questioning.

Police said the dead man, Moussa Abu Zeid, 38, was blown to pieces and charred beyond recognition in the fire that followed the pre-dawn blast in his fifth floor room of the Aristidis hotel in downtown Athens.

Wagner declines to run

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former Mayor Robert F. Wagner, who served from 1954-1966 in that office, Wednesday declined the nomination of the Liberal Party.

Wagner had earlier declined to run either as a Democrat or with Republican endorsement. His announcement came only one day before the deadline for filing nominating petitions and left the Liberals without a candidate.

Thieu visits Taipei

TAIPEI (UPI) — South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu arrived in Taiwan tonight for a two-day visit on the last leg of a round-the-world tour.

Thieu, accompanied by his wife and a party of more than 80 persons, was met at the airport by the entire Nationalist Chinese cabinet, led by Premier Chiang Ching-kuo, Vice President C.K. you and the diplomatic corps.

US Indians talking

PINE RIDGE, S.D. (UPI) — Government negotiators and the Indians occupying Wounded Knee today sought to keep alive discussions aimed at disarming the insurgents and bringing the 44-day confrontation to a peaceful end.

The government said no formal talks were held Wednesday at Wounded Knee, but further negotiations could take place at any time.

Mitchell 'didn't know'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Attorney General John N. Mitchell said today that "if I had known about Watergate, I would have stopped it."

Mitchell authorized the statement through the Committee for the Re-election of the President as a federal grand jury investigating the Watergate bugging case met again under heavy security, with signs that it was expanding its inquiry to other alleged espionage against the Democrats in the 1972 political campaigns.

Rule effect not certain

TWIN FALLS — The executive director of the South Central Community Action Agency said today a federal court decision in Washington Wednesday would affect the future of the local agency.

But Bob Russell, chief executive of the SCCAA, said he was uncertain how the impact would be felt.

(Related story, p. 6)

A federal judge ruled Wednesday that the Nixon administration's dismantling of the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) was illegal, because Congress had created the agency and only Congress could terminate it. The Community Action Program is a major component of OEO.

Russell said in Twin Falls that the agency might now be able to plan another full year of programs. Initially it had been ordered to close its doors at the end of the current fiscal year, July 1, but had then received a close out grant to carry it through the end of December.

He said the decision about how long to remain open would influence the number of staff personnel kept on the payroll. He also said he might recommend the initiation of projects that the agency might reasonably expect some success on. The agency board meets next Tuesday in Burley.

Both regional and state OEO officials could not be reached for comment on the impact locally of the federal court ruling.

Wider jobless coverage asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon asked Congress today to set federal standards for states to pay unemployment compensation up to half of a worker's weekly pay check and to extend the coverage to about 635,000 hired farm hands.

Nixon, in a message to Congress, also urged lawmakers to amend the federal unemployment Tax Act to prohibit payment of unemployment insurance benefits to strikers and the practice of denying benefits to non-strikers.

Nixon had previously proposed increasing payments by states in a 1969 message to Congress. A year later, most of the proposals were enacted but the criteria were not extended to all states. He had asked the states voluntarily to accept the standards but only four did.

The President said therefore he now is asking for an amendment to the law to add a provision "that every eligible insured worker, when unemployed, must be paid a benefit equal to at least 50 per cent of his average weekly wage, up to a state maximum which shall be at least two thirds of the average weekly wage of covered workers in the state."

He said estimates indicated that the new requirement would result in an average increase of 15 per cent in costs to pooled state unemployment insurance funds. This in turn would affect the cost of employers whose taxes support the jobless payment program.

But Nixon said this was justified because such benefits were the least costly to employers.

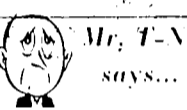

Protest extended

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Housewives instrumental in last week's meat boycott have decided to carry the protest into a second phase—a national day of protest May 5 and an indefinite halt to all meat buying and eating on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

That course of action was decided on by meat boycott forces that came together Wednesday in a new organization calling itself the "National Consumers Congress." It was formed by persons active in the boycott from all sections of the country who had been invited by Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., to come to Washington to plot future strategy.

During a five-hour session in a packed House Office Building hearing room, the boycotters voted to do without meat on Tuesdays and Thursdays until they decide prices have come down enough. They also decided on May 5 as a day of protest, with each local organization to devise its own demonstrations.

TF man accident victim

TWIN FALLS — The Twin Falls school administration has decided not to recommend a kindergarten program for next year.

According to Asst. Supt. Camden Meyer, the administration budget is now being drafted with no provision for a kindergarten program.

The administration budget must be approved later by the school trustees following a public hearing scheduled for May 1.

According to Meyer, the reason for the administration decision is lack of money for the program.

"I feel at the moment the way the budget is set up I don't believe we will have enough over our present budget," Meyer said.

He said expenses the district officials expect will use up what additional money the district will receive.

According to Meyer, an 11.32 per cent salary raise approved earlier by the trustees will use up about half of an expected $533,000 in additional income expected next year compared with the current year's spending levels.

Meyer also said his budget will show a reduction of "about $60,000" in federal funds expected by the district. He said maintenance of those programs affected would require that amount of money be taken from the district's additional general fund income.

The Twin Falls League of Women Voters asked the school trustees Tuesday to consider a $140,000-half-day voluntary public kindergarten program.

Meyer said that even if the district had enough money available for such a program, it would not be the role of the administration officials to propose it in the administration budget.

"That is up to the trustees," he said.

Meyer said that it would not be appropriate for the administration officials to present two budgets, "one providing for kindergartens and one without."

Burley man killed

BURLEY — Jerry Lawrence Tate, 29, Twin Falls, was killed instantly Wednesday afternoon when he was struck by a well casing while working south of Burley.

Mr. Tate was installing and repairing the well casing on the Mac Martin ranch 12 miles south of Burley when the incident occurred.

Lyle Cunningham, Twin Falls, who was working with Tate on project, said the casing was on a derrick suspended above the ground when a holding device apparently released, dropping the casing.

Mr. Tate was apparently hit in the back of the head by the casing and killed instantly.

Both Cassia County Coroner Roger Porter and Sheriff Ray Mitchell were called to the scene and declared the death accidental. There will be no investigation.

Mr. Tate was employed by Layne and Bowler Pump Co., Twin Falls, at the time of the accident.

Benoit appointed to Gem board seat

TWIN FALLS — Edward L. Benoit, a 52-year-old Twin Falls attorney, was named Thursday to a term on the Idaho Board of Education and Board of Regents.

Gov. Cecil D. Andrus, who made the announcement in Twin Falls, said Benoit would replace Twin Falls business executive Joe D. McCollum, who resigned, citing his business responsibilities.

Andrus praised McCollum for his service on the board through one full five year term and several months of a second. He said he accepted the resignation with regret, and especially praised him for his work as chairman of the board, a position he held for a year, ending in March, 1972.

Andrus said he was "confident" Benoit would make an outstanding contribution on the board. He also said that when McCollum's first term ended, about a year ago, he had indicated his desire to leave the board.

But Andrus said he had prevailed on McCollum to remain on the board in order to give some of the newer members time to become acclimated.

McCollum's letter of resignation, dated April 10, said, in part, "the past six and one-half years as a member of the state board of education and the opportunity of serving our state in that capacity have been an honor and privilege. Also working with your office and administration has been most enjoyable."

McCollum a district manager for Simplot Soil Builders, said he was leaving the board to "devote more time" to his responsibilities with the firm.

Benoit, a partner in the Twin Falls law firm of Benoit, Benoit and Alexander, is a Twin Falls native. He received a degree from the University of Idaho after attending high school in Twin Falls and received his law degree with honors from the University of Utah in 1961.

EDWARD L. BENOIT to state board

He is a past president of the Idaho State Bar and currently is a delegate to the American Bar Association House of Delegates.

Benoit and his wife, Norma Lou McMurray, an Okley native, have two grown daughters.

Benoit said he was "pleased" by the appointment, and said he hoped "to be able to serve as capably as Joe McCollum has."

Benoit will serve out the remaining four years of McCollum's term.

Andrus said he was appointing Benoit, a Republican, in part because he thought it important to keep a political balance on the board.

In his letter of resignation, McCollum said he "felt very good about the make-up of the state board of education and have great confidence in its ability to come to grips with the problems of education in our state."

No live POWs in Indochina

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Pentagon said today there are probably no more American prisoners alive anywhere in Indochina.

Dr. Roger Shields, head of the Pentagon's prisoner of war task force, added there is no evidence that any POWs had been executed in captivity, with three exceptions.

Those three were executed early in the war in retaliation for Saigon execution of captured Viet Cong guerrillas, according to a Viet Cong announcement at the time.

Mississippi has forced thousands to flee homes

By United Press International
The Mississippi River pushed through Mississippi's Delta plantation country on its highest level in 30 years Wednesday, washing away tenant shacks, inundating a housing subdivision and forcing thousands of residents to higher ground.
"It's going to do tremendous damage to homes and barns," said Joe Woodward, manager of the 9,800-acre Delhi plantation near Holly Bluff, Miss., which was completely under water.
"It's flooded all over," said Mrs. Elvatie Gilbert, among the 10 families fleeing the plantation. "It knocked one house right off the block and it went 50 feet from where it was sitting."
Some 3,000 families were forced from their homes in a five-county area around the historic Civil War city of Vicksburg, Miss., by the rising waters of the Mississippi River, which have caused at least $150 million damage in a rampage over 17 million acres from Illinois to Louisiana.
Vicksburg sits on a high bluff and escaped the flooding, but its lowlying areas were swamped. George Wigley, who operates a service station at Vicksburg, had to flee his suburban home with his wife and two children.

"The water was over my head in the living room, and the same with the other 50 homes in the subdivision," Wigley said.
The gradually-rising waters building toward a crest of 60.4 feet, seven feet above flood stage at Vicksburg, gave residents time to take their furniture and clothing with them in their flight. Many even constructed individual levees that didn't hold.
"I don't know when we'll be able to move back," said Mrs. Woodward. "It may be the last of May before all the water is off the land. Then they'll be so busy trying to plant they may not have time to work on the house."
Upriver, people began returning to their homes in Missouri and Illinois, although flooding in Eastern Missouri was expected to be prolonged about a week by melting snow draining from the Midwest.
And, downriver, work crews were sandbagging levees above Morgan City, La., to raise the protection level to 27 feet. Levees at New Orleans and Baton Rouge already have been bolstered and a spillway, channelling floodwaters around New Orleans, opened.

Grand jury expands Watergate inquiry

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A federal grand jury's interview of several key White House aides indicates it is expanding its investigation of the Watergate bugging case to other political espionage and sabotage during the 1972 presidential campaign.
Dwight Chapin, President Nixon's appointments secretary at the time of the June 17 bugging, testified Wednesday for 90 minutes, and Donald H. Segretti, the California lawyer he hired for alleged sabotage against Democratic candidates, testified for 45 minutes.
Chapin and Segretti have not been involved in the Watergate investigation directly but have been mentioned in reports of other alleged political undercover activity.

Following field trips to be announced at the business meeting, a "happy hour" is scheduled at St. Benedict's student center and priory. A buffet dinner will be served at the CSI cafeteria at 6:30 p.m. with Dr. Pancoe as speaker.

Plan for cleanup

PLANNING A JOHNNY HORIZON picnic for the Twin Falls County cleanup day May 5 are Charles Snape, Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. representative, left, Morris Roth, picnic chairman, and Ernest Burby, First Federal Savings and Loan.

Several counties will join in May 5 cleanup

TWIN FALLS — Three and possibly as many as five counties will be joining the fourth annual Johnny Horizon Day May 5.

Twin Falls County commissioners and the Bureau of Land Management offices in Burley launched the first county-wide event four years ago as a spring clean-up push for the entire county.

Two years ago Cassia County joined and Twin Falls County Commissioner William L. Chaney said today Jerome County has indicated it will hold a similar event, coordinated with the Twin Falls and Cassia County efforts. Mindoka and Lincoln counties are also considering such a campaign.

Chaney said this indicates there is no reason why the Johnny Horizon event will not soon be a Magic Valley wide program in the future.

A kick-off meeting for the May 5 campaign was held Tuesday night in Twin Falls with numerous organizations and individuals announcing their plans to participate.

A final planning meeting will be April 24 at 8 p.m. in the judicial building. All interested persons and groups are asked to attend.

Chaney said plans are also being completed for the picnic to be served at Murtaugh under the direction of Herb Thorne, and at the Twin Falls County Fair grounds under chairmanship of Tom Shouse. All volunteer workers will be served free lunch following the work program.

Chaney said many merchants have donated food items for the lunches and many new organizations are working up teams of litter and trash collectors for the county-wide clean-up.

Migrant council slates festival May 5 in TF

TWIN FALLS — The Idaho Migrant Council will hold a cultural festival May 5 in the Twin Falls City Park.

The fiesta, sponsored by the IMC in conjunction with the Voluntary Mexican Community of the city of Twin Falls, will feature food, music, dances and other entertainment.

One of three coordinated festivals under Operation Huitzilopochtli, a Chicano educational movement, the Twin Falls festival will feature Narciso Aleman, president of Jacinto Trevino College, Mercedes, Tex., as speaker. Other festivals will be held the same day in Nampa and Blackfoot.

The theme of the festivals is Homage to the Farmworker. The public is invited to attend. Those wishing to open a food stand or sales booth should contact the IMC at 734-3336 to make arrangements. There will be no charge to erect such facilities.

Girl, 7, hurt in mishap

TWIN FALLS — Jennifer L. Clark, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Clark, 1136 Primrose Drive, suffered minor injuries in a pedestrian and auto accident Wednesday.

City police said Mrs. Iola Maxine Peters, 41, Shoshone, was leaving the Blue Lakes Shopping Center parking lot and turned onto Blue Lakes Boulevard North. She was traveling north in the inside lane of traffic when her vehicle collided with the child, who was crossing Blue Lakes. The vehicle was nearly stopped when the accident occurred.

The child was taken to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital for treatment of minor injuries and released.

The accident occurred at 3:23 p.m. in the 800 block of Blue Lakes Blvd. N.

Church asks for vet help

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, Wednesday announced he has reintroduced legislation to provide more equitable treatment to veterans enrolled in vocational education courses.

Church said the bill is designed to correct a quirk in the present law which provides that vocational students may have 30 days of excused absences during a 12-month period.

The law does not take into consideration holidays designated by the individual schools. Students not attending the required number of class days, even if they are school holidays when he is absent, will lose some of his compensation.

Church said, "Most schools have vacation periods which do not consist solely of weekends, or legal holidays. Hence, a veteran at an institution where a two-week vacation period is allowed at Christmas time may be given unexcused absences for up to 10 days during such a vacation."

Legislation, introduced by Church in the last session of Congress was passed by the Senate.

Hanoi's objective unchanged

By STEWART HENSLEY
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Hanoi appears to have embarked on a political-military campaign designed ultimately to achieve all North Vietnam's major objectives in Southeast Asia without ever going so far or so fast at any given time as to risk major American involvement again.

That is the conclusion many diplomatic analysts here have drawn from events during the ten weeks since the Vietnam cease-fire and peace agreement were signed.

President Nixon and South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu last week proclaimed the achievement of "peace with honor." The Saigon leader said he would "never, never" ask for American troops to be sent back. And at one point he said that his forces could defend themselves without American air support.

So the United States is off the hook as far as its military obligations were concerned and both men agree the only remaining obligation the United States has is to supply large scale economic aid.

It would be difficult to envisage a situation that would cause Nixon to send bombers back over Hanoi and Haiphong and risk the inevitable capture of more downed American pilots.

Hanoi's major objective, of course, is the unification of

Analysis

North Vietnam to undertake any major offensive within the foreseeable future.

The view here is that the Hanoi-directed Communist forces in Cambodia are still hoping to topple the Lon Nol government and negotiate a peace agreement which will give the country a Communist government.

However, there is growing belief that North Vietnam has no desire to actually take over Laos and Cambodia but is simply interested in insuring that friendly Communist regimes are established in those countries.

With South Vietnam thus surrounded by Communist governments, Hanoi then could work patiently but steadily toward a political takeover in South Vietnam—one that would be entirely in keeping with the Jan. 27 cease-fire and peace agreement.

Hanoi has waited for 30 years to achieve this objective, and its leaders are believed to recognize that there is no profit in attempting to move too fast at a time when the United States might still decide to intervene with its air power in an effort to "save" one of the areas involved from going Communist.

Brennan discovers middle lonely place

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Someone once said it gets lonely at the top, but Peter Brennan may find it even lonelier caught in the middle—where he seems to be as President Nixon's new labor secretary.

Brennan, the "Mr. Hardhat" New York construction union leader who joined Nixon's cabinet this year, appears to be caught in the middle between organized labor and Nixon, who apparently selected Brennan to help woo union members into his "new Republican majority."

What many observers predicted would happen became evident Tuesday: Brennan is having difficulty reconciling his views, grounded in the trade union movement, with those of the White House. He will have to compromise while at the same time trying to get a better deal for labor from the administration.

The first signal of this was on minimum wage legislation.

In his Senate confirmation hearings in January, Brennan voiced strong opposition to a special lower minimum wage for teenagers proposed by the White House last year.

The reaction from his former union colleagues was quick and sharp. In short, they accused him of doublecrossing labor.

Analysis

In defense, Brennan said he had had to compromise on the minimum wage bill to keep from getting a measure even more unpalatable to labor. For instance, he said some White House officials wanted to apply the youth minimum all the way through age 20.

And Brennan said he had been able to limit the sub-minimum wage to a maximum of 20 weeks for any one teenage worker.

But Brennan, discussing the bill before a union audience Tuesday, was clearly on the defensive and in an apologetic mood, showing clearly that he was having to compromise his own labor views while fighting against harsher terms from the White House.

Caught in the middle, he already has alienated Meany and other colleagues in labor.

Minimum pay hike brings howls

By United Press International
The administration's proposal for a minimum wage of $2.30 an hour—which comes to $92 for a 40-hour week—has evoked cries of agony from some businessmen who survive on tiny markups from wholesale costs.

Although many entrepreneurs wondered out loud how anybody could live on less than that amount, other management personnel were unhappy about the news Tuesday from Washington.

In San Francisco Bill Al-baechen of the A-1 motel near Fisherman's Wharf said, "I've been paying $2.00 for a year. I don't know how anybody can live on $2.30."

A spokesman for Bell's dry cleaning laundry, also in San Francisco, said, "We have only one employe and we are paying union wages. It is $2.54 as a beginner."

But marginal businessmen took a dim view of the proposed minimum.

In Chicago, John Ledonne, manager of Ace Hardware, where seven persons, five of them part-time, are employed, said, "These part-time workers, they're here and they're gone. We don't get $2.30 worth of work out of them when they first start. They've still got a lot to learn. Once they know their stuff we'll beat the minimum. But in the beginning it hurts."

"I've been open eight months and right now I'm having a hard time paying a guy $1.60 an hour," said Richard Klosinski, manager of Richard's Arco gas station on Chicago's northwest side. "I'd like to pay a guy more, but to do that I'd have to raise my prices and people around here don't like to pay high prices."

In Montgomery, Ala., Charlie Davis, manager of the Capital City laundry-cleaning plant, said raising minimum wages from $1.80 to $2.30 over three years would raise prices for cleaning.

In Portland, Ore., the responses were the same with one small Portland restaurant manager saying "It would put me out."

Court orders halt to dismantling OEO

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Nixon administration is under a court order today to halt its dismantling of the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO), which the Democrats established as the central agency in their "War on Poverty."

U.S. District Judge William R. Jones ruled Wednesday that the President's dismantlement of the agency, which has been taking place for several months, is "unauthorized by law, illegal and in excess of statutory authority."

He said that, since Congress had created OEO and recently voted to extend it through mid-1975, only Congress could abolish it.

Acting OEO Director Howard J. Phillips, appointed by Nixon to phase out the agency, was ordered to stop such actions immediately, and all of Phillips' past steps in that direction were declared null and void by the judge.

Phillips had ordered this aid terminated next June 30. The ruling, which the administration can appeal, has implications beyond the poverty program itself, involving the basic relationship between a President and Congress. Jones in effect said a president is an administrator of laws passed by Congress.

"An administrator's responsibility to carry out the congressional objectives of a program does not give him the power to terminate that program, especially in the face of a congressional mandate that it shall go on," he ruled.

In Chicago, a similar ruling was issued Wednesday by Federal District Judge James B. Parsons. He ruled in a suit brought by a public employee union that only Congress could rescind or curtail OEO programs which it had authorized. But he refused to grant the union an injunction. Howard Himmelman of the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights, which had brought suit here against the dismantling, said Jones' ruling would seem also to have a bearing on the controversy over President Nixon's impoundment — or refusal to spend — some $14 billion in money voted by Congress for various domestic programs.

Nixon announced his intention to dismantle OEO in his budget presented to Congress last January. The agency was created under Lyndon Johnson. Some OEO activities, including the Head Start program for needy pre-school children, were transferred to other agencies. Phillips ordered OEO's 10 regional offices to close by April 28. He limited new OEO grants first to 30-day periods, then to six months ending Dec. 31.

Art donated

PARIS (UPI) — The heirs of Pablo Picasso have donated the painter's vast and priceless collection of art by other modern artists to the Louvre museum in Paris, Picasso's attorney announced today.

The gift of paintings by Modigliani, Braque, Matisse, Renoir, Cezanne and other major names of modern art is in accord with Picasso's wishes, attorney Roland Dumas said.

Dumas said the family has not yet decided what to do with works by Picasso himself, which the artist kept in his villa at Mougins in southern France, the attorney said.

Dumas said that Picasso's widow, Jacqueline, and his son Paulo decided April 10 "to realize a wish expressed by the recent painter."

Demonstrations asked against US

By United Press International Arab guerrillas called today for huge demonstrations against the United States and Israel to mark the funerals of three top guerrilla leaders slain in a bold Israeli commando raid in Beirut.

The funerals for Kamal Nasser, official spokesman of the Palestine Liberation Organization; Mohammed Yusef Najjar, a member of the organization's executive council; and Kamal Adwan, a leader of the Al Fatah movement, were scheduled in central Beirut at 3 p.m. (4 a.m. EST).

Symbolic funerals also were scheduled in other Arab capitals, including Cairo, Baghdad and Kuwait.

"The supreme political committee" for Palestinians in Lebanon, which was headed by Najjar, said the Tuesday raid was planned and carried out by CIA agents and called on mourners to use the funeral to show disapproval of U.S. and Israeli policies.

"Demonstrators, it said, should condemn U.S. imperialism and its holdings" and "the Zionist enemy."

The committee also called on mourners to show solidarity with Arab guerrillas and publicly press for a removal of all restrictions that would restrict Arab guerrilla attacks on Israel, its allies and "hirelings."

Shops in Beirut and other provincial cities closed today in mourning for the slain guerrillas.

More than 33 million persons visited Kyoto, Japan's ancient capital, in 1972, an increase of 3 million over 1971.

US industry chokes on federal form pollution

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A congressional report concludes that American industry is choking on "federal form pollution" at an annual cost of more than $18 billion.

In a report to be released soon, a Senate subcommittee on government regulation says that small businesses have been especially hard hit by the proliferation of government required forms.

"Individuals and business firms, by a conservative estimate, spend 130.5 million man-hours per year filling out all of the necessary federal forms," it said.

The report said this estimate does not even include the "millions of hours spent on such reporting tasks as the paperwork requirements for small businesses.

"An ever increasing amount of the small businessman's time must be expended on government paperwork and reporting requirement, unrelated to his business."

Agnew calms fears over information suppression

SEARCY, Ark. (UPI) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said today fears that the government will suppress the freedom of information are "mainly fantasies."

Agnew, a frequent critic of the news media, returned to the theme again in a speech prepared for an "April Freedom Forum" at Harding College.

He acknowledged fears had been expressed that government would use its powers to regulate or legislate news organizations "to impotence and ultimately to destruction."

But Agnew argued this was not logical because government power is diversified into a "conflict of interests" with a Republican president opposing a Democratic Congress, executive branch opposing the legislative or judicial branch, and liberal vs. conservative.

"These divisions are all safeguards against a monopoly of interest or power, cartel in government," Agnew said.

"Moreover, the incumbency of an elected leader in government is limited by law. Power is limited to a term in office. So I would have to say that such fears of unbridged power are mainly fantasies."

Agnew said the media are "protected by the Constitution and the American system."

"Their freedom to rage at us with accusations of censorship, repression and McCarthyism is adequate proof that the alleged 'chilling effect' or threat to their freedom is fictional," he said.

Agnew said cries of "repression" and "conspiracy" were being shouted against President Nixon's administration by the "opinion-making media."

Four killed on Chicago project

CHICAGO (UPI) — Four workmen were killed Wednesday when a flash fire shot through an elevator shaft between the 33rd and 42nd floors of the Sears Tower, which when completed in a month will be the world's tallest building.

"When I heard the men screaming, I knew they would be dead because it had happened that way before on other jobs," said Michael D. Michele, a carpenter working on the 30th floor of the tower. There apparently was no chance of escape for the victims because the marble-lined shaft was what construction men call a "blind hatch," meaning it had no exit at the bottom.

"We heard screaming from the elevator shaft and about 30 men broke through the wall with sledgehammers," Michele said. "It took us about 20 minutes."

"When we reached them, I saw two charred bodies and a man who was still alive, but by the time they got him to the ground, he was dead."

Israelis arrest Arab guerrillas

TEL AVIV (UPI)—Security forces have begun a widespread roundup of Arabs in Israel and Israeli-held territory whose names appear on Arab guerrilla lists captured in Tuesday's commando raid into Lebanon, a military source said today.

The source said "a few" men had been arrested, but the newspaper, Maariv said the number was above 35 and rising. It added that the seizures may have headed off guerrilla attacks planned for Israel's 25th anniversary celebrations next month.

"We have arrested a few people," the military source said, "and more arrests are expected."

Maariv said the suspects names appeared on lists taken from the home of Kamal Adwan, one of the three guerrilla leaders slain by Israeli raiders in Beirut Tuesday. The national radio said 10 of those arrested were Israeli Arabs.

According to Maariv, the paratroopers and naval commandos who carried out the Beirut operation handed the captured documents to the security services as soon as they returned from the raid.

Shortly thereafter, the source said, the guerrilla radio told its operatives in Israel and the occupied territories to disperse because the rosters had been captured. Communications codes were ordered changed.

"We hope and believe that we have done well to save lives," a foreign ministry spokesman said of the raid, the first into downtown Beirut. He added that not one note of diplomatic protest had been received.

The raid came hours after guerrillas had attacked the Israeli ambassador's residence and an Israeli airliner in Nicosia, Cyprus. The spokesman said it was a "fair guess" that Israel was urging the Cyprus government to prosecute fully the eight guerrillas captured there.

DANIEL ELLSBERG on stand

Nevada lowers adulthood

CAIRO, Nev. (UPI)—The State Senate unanimously approved a bill Wednesday lowering from 21 to 18 the age of adulthood in Nevada except for drinking and gambling.

The measure, AB66, passed without debate and now goes back to the assembly which voted earlier to lower the age in all categories.

Nevada gambling casinos and state officials opposed reducing the age limit for drinking and gambling on grounds it would bring unfavorable publicity for Nevada.

Ellsberg tells his story

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The groundwork was laid today for Daniel Ellsberg to tell the Pentagon Papers trial how as a defense consultant who once "wanted to win this war and beat the Communists" he came to leak classified documents.

Ellsberg said he hoped to make clear to the jury today "how the Pentagon Papers changed me, and how I hoped they would help the Congress."

Appearing tense and drawn on his second day on the witness stand, Ellsberg detailed Wednesday how he worked near the highest levels of the government during the early 1960s and participated in plans to send Marine combat troops into Vietnam in early 1965.

He said he spent the decade between 1959 and 1969 as a national security analyst because "he wanted" to protect and defend the United States of America.

He told newsmen later that the Pentagon Papers, which he helped to compile, "led me to question my whole previous career and made me feel I was wrong when I worked for the government."

Ellsberg, along with Anthony

Russo Jr., is charged with espionage, theft and conspiracy for their actions in the release of the papers.

Ellsberg testified he had written speeches and prepared reports for such top government officials in the Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon administrations as Robert McNamara, Henry Kissinger, Walter Rostow and Nicholas Katzenbach and had been called in as a consultant on defense matters.

In August, 1965, he said, he volunteered to go to Vietnam with a State Department team because "I wanted to see what we could do to win this war and to beat the Communists."

"I began to drive the roads of Vietnam around Saigon and the Mekong Delta and to visit the hamlets and villages. I would ask the farmers what the conditions were, to compare what I could see with my own eyes with the official reports."

"There was an increasing divergence between reality as one saw it with his own eyes and heard it with his own ears, and what was being reported higher up," Ellsberg testified.

Viet Cong claims U.S. interfered

PARIS (UPI)—The Viet Cong accused the United States today of meddling in Vietnam by escalating the Cambodian war and interfering in political questions.

Minister of State Nguyen Van Thieu made the charge before meeting for the sixth time with South Vietnamese Deputy Prime Minister Nguyen Lam Vien. The two sides are trying to set up machinery for free elections in South Vietnam.

"The Vietnamese problem is running into continuous U.S. interference, although the U.S. claim peace treaty of Jan. 27 stipulated that political questions must be resolved without any outside interference," Hieu said.

Hieu told newsmen at the galey of La-Celle-Saint-Cloud chateau in suburban Paris, where the talks are taking place: "The United States does not stop meddling in Vietnamese affairs. Witness—the recent trip to the United States made by (President) Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam and the San Clemente, Calif., communique ending his talks with Nixon."

Crashed jet pilot lacked experience

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The pilot of a Sabre Mark 5 jet that crashed into a Sacramento, Calif., ice cream parlor last September, killing 22 and injuring 28, had logged only 7 1/2 hours in that type of plane, a federal board reported Wednesday.

After investigating the accident, the National Transportation Safety Board recommended that the Federal Aviation Administration tighten its certification rules for pilots flying aircraft new to them.

The pilot, Richard I. Bingham, 37, who survived the accident, testified that the clutter around the Sacramento airport looked much different from the air than Oakland airport, where he had previously flown the Mark 5.

Bingham had 2,500 hours of flying time, including 600 hours in other kinds of jets.

Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Quite by accident I saw my husband's car parked in a strange place when he was supposed to be out of town on business. I hid and waited for him to return, and several hours later a young girl drove up with Bob in the car. He kissed her goodby hurriedly, got into his own car, and drove off. I followed the girl home, rang her doorbell and told her who I was. She was shocked because she didn't know Bob was married. (She's 22, Bob is 41.)

I then drove home, and Bob acted glad to see me. He lied about the "business trip" and after giving him enough rope to hang himself, I told him what I had done. He was furious with me for "spying" on him, then he stormed out of the house. I immediately called his mother and told her the whole story. She very nonchalantly said: "What do you want ME to do, spank a 41-year-old man?"

Wife spies on husband

Bob moved his clothes out of the house and refuses to have anything to do with me. We have three children who need a father. I've begged him to forgive me, but he's still angry. Abby, why should I beg HIM to forgive ME? He should be begging ME to forgive HIM. How can I get him back?
RED EYES

DEAR RED: You may not be able to. Moral: A woman will forgive an unfaithful husband faster than a man will forgive an emasculating wife.

DEAR ABBY: I am an 18-year-old girl, recently graduated from high school, and now I have a steady job that pays well.

I recently moved out of my parents' home to assume full responsibility for myself and my life.

My problem is this: I am constantly approached by adults who ask me why I left my parents' home. When I reply "because my parents have done so much for me that I decided it was time I did something for them," they look at me like I'm crazy.

Why, that's the way I feel. I think the best way for children to repay their parents for all they have done is to become self-supporting and self-sufficient as soon as possible, and relieve parents of the responsibility.

In this day and age people are so used to condemning the youth for doing something wrong, they condemn them even when they do something right. Or am I wrong?
INDEPENDENT IN OHIO

DEAR INDEPENDENT: Not every 18-year-old chick is able to leave the nest and become self-sufficient and self-supporting, but those who do deserve congratulations not rebuffs.

DEAR ABBY: I was taught that if you didn't have something, you did without it, but we have neighbors who borrow, borrow, borrow and never return anything, and I am sick of it.

When they moved in next door they asked if they could borrow our phone until they got theirs. Well, it has been five months and they still don't have their own phone, and I doubt if they even ordered one.

They started using our baby's stroller, and now they use it more than we do. It's a good one which I bought secondhand (for $7 thru an ad in the newspaper, and they could get one the same way if they tried).

I won't even mention the light bulbs, cigars, coffee, and other things they have borrowed and never returned.

What should we do? If we were as crude as they were we wouldn't have a problem. TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF

DEAR TAKEN: If you don't cut off the easy supply, they'll continue to take advantage of you indefinitely. Simply tell them you are not able to lend them anything anymore. You needn't be crude. Just be firm.

Accepts gifts

Soroptimist club gives articles

TWIN FALLS — Soroptimist Club members of Twin Falls Tuesday presented five sets of stainless table serving and a piano bench to the Senior Citizens Center.

Mrs. Donald Lauder, president of the club, presented the gifts to Lorna Bolton, administrative officer, and Ruth McDonald, secretary-treasurer of the center.

During the club meeting at the Rogerson Hotel the official call to the conference of Soroptimists at Scotts Bluff, Neb. May 4 through 6 was read. The club voted to send a contribution to the newly chartered club in Cody, Wyo.

The next meeting will be a salad dinner April 24 at the home of Mrs. Lauder.

Lions clubs to conduct drive

TWIN FALLS — The Snake River and Twin Falls Lions Clubs will jointly conduct their annual sight fund drive Saturday.

Sight conservation pins will be given away while donations to the clubs' sight funds are solicited.

Lions club members and the newly organized Snake River Leo Club will participate.

The sight fund is used to help persons who have vision impairments.

The drive coincides with "Sight Conservation Week."

Projects sponsored by the sight funds include school eye examinations, financial support for expensive eye and equipment for hospitals and individuals.

The three-year old sight foundation program has sponsored more than 40 successful cornea transplants in the Idaho-Oregon region. The clubs additionally have helped bring together eye donors and recipients.

CAA to recruit volunteers

TWIN FALLS — The South Central Community Action Agency announced Wednesday that it has signed an agreement with ACTION-VISTA that will allow recruiting of VISTA volunteers locally.

The agency formerly had relied exclusively on national recruiting for VISTA workers.

Dave Backman, volunteer supervisor, said the new agreement will allow recruiting of local people "who possess specific skills for specific jobs."

The agency is currently seeking applicants for a volunteer position that will be open in May. Backman said the position involves research and advocacy on behalf of welfare recipients. The applicant must be at least 18 years old, willing to commit himself to one year of service without pay, meet the job's qualifications and have his own transportation.

The volunteers are given a living allowance of $150 monthly, reimbursed for the use of their own car and provided health care for the year in which they serve. Some colleges and universities will allow credit for the VISTA experience.

Interested individuals should contact Backman at the SCCAA in Twin Falls.

"Why did you bid two diamonds?" asked the student.

"Isn't your partner's double almost sure to include good hearts?"

"I didn't want to get into trouble," replied the Professor.

"And I hoped a two-diamond bid would not get me too high."

The Professor did well as usual and his play at three diamonds was an example of perfect technique.

West cashed two top spades and the ace and king of clubs. Then he led the five of spades. The Professor ruffed with dummy's ace of trumps, while East shed a club, came to his hand with the queen of diamonds and led the 10 of hearts. This gave West a chance to make a

The Paris

City hall listens when neighbors band together

By LESSPANGENBERG

It was late evening. Two women were hurrying along a New York street and they saw a man slumped in a doorway. One woman said, "Drunk bum." And they continued on their way.

Then the other woman said, "Hold it. We're not supposed to feel that way anymore. Let's go back and see if that man is all right."

They went back. The man was ill, suffering from internal bleeding. He was the owner of the building in front of which he lay. He had been stricken suddenly on his way home from work. Had the two women not gone back to him and then called an ambulance, he would have died.

The amazing thing is that this happened in New York.

And it happened in a neighborhood where drunks in a doorway were not uncommon. But the real wonder is that there are now more and more people living on West 71st Street who would have gone back.

These days, I'm sure I would have stopped. Like a lot of people living on West 71st Street, I have learned that a neighbor is somebody besides the person who lives across the hall. A neighbor is everybody I see.

For me the discovery began on a cold October Saturday morning in 1969. Street noises drew me to the window. I saw a sanitation department truck growling away. But the people doing the street cleaning were not the usual uniformed men. They were men and women of all ages, some of whom I recognized from passing them often on the street.

I found out that these men and women were members of the West 71st Street Association, which I hadn't known existed. I found out they had decided to clean the street simply because they felt the street could use it.

When they learned I lived on the street, I was handed a broom. I found myself at the association's next meeting.

West 71st Street is, like most New York streets, a melting pot of nationalities, races, religions, politics and economics.

And we have our skid row over on Broadway - derelicts, winos, pushers, junkies, muggers, male and female prostitutes.

For a dozen years, I accepted all that because I thought it was the way New York was. It so happens that I like urban life.

Within a few days after my wife and I began living on 71st Street, tenants on our floor turned into neighbors and then into friends.

For example, at Broadway and 71st there used to be a sandwich shop which we all knew was a hangout for addicts and prostitutes, so we never went in there. The place changed ownership and the new owner, from New Jersey, didn't know what he was walking into.

When he found out, he became depressed and discouraged, and, a Catholic, he went to the pastor of the Catholic Church on our street for advice. The priest suggested that he get in touch with the association.

The man attended our next meeting, and told us the problem and asked for our help. Out of the group discussion came a plan for an opening night. The residents of 71st street packed the place.

And after we did this for a few evenings, the junkies and hustlers, unable to get a seat, wandered off somewhere else.

By community effort, we got rid of a community blight. Our neighbors have found that when we band together, city hall listens better to us. Actually this was how we got our own vest-pocket park on 71st Street.

For years, an abandoned brownstone just off West End Avenue had been a neighborhood eyesore. One day news shot down the street that the building was being dismantled by the city. We learned that somebody had goofed.

The workers were supposed to be tearing down a condemned building over in Brooklyn. Taking advantage of the goof, we quickly petitioned the city to award us the 71st Street property for a park, and we got it.

This wonderful community spirit has changed West 71st street from four blocks of strangers into a small town within a massive city.

These days, as I walk along the street, stopping frequently to chat with new friends, I get the feeling that I'm back home.

THERE ARE NO MEAT BOYCOTTS IN RUSSIA!!

Swensen's Markets would like to point out that in Russia and several other countries with controlled economies, where prices are regulated by the government, there are no boycotts of meat! There isn't enough meat to go around. People get up early in the morning and stand in line to buy it and usually there isn't any left by the time their turn comes. Or they can't get the kind they want. They also stand in line to buy less controversial things like cabbage, (imagine) potatoes and flour. Of course, the price of meat and cabbage can't go up unless the government gives its permission, but this is sort of a joke if there isn't any to buy. Government price control is not the answer. It doesn't work for Russia - It won't work for us!

BEEF PRICES STILL NOT TOO HIGH!!
High as they had already become through the end of Feb., 1973, beef prices were still NOT too high, because Americans consumed more pounds of beef per person in Feb., 1973 than they did in Feb., 1972. Per capita consumption of beef has increased every year, non-stop, since the depression. Housewives, cattlemen, government and economists will all be able to tell when the year when Americans consume less beef per person than they did the year before.

Hansen to speak at CSI

TWIN FALLS — Rep. Orval Hansen will speak on the importance of early childhood development programs at a dinner-meeting April 25 at the College of Southern Idaho.

The banquet is being sponsored by the Twin Falls Mental Health Association, the South Central Idaho Mental Health Center and the CSI Student Mental Health Association.

The dinner will be at 7 p.m. in the dining room of the multi-purpose building at CSI.

The $6 cost will include membership in the Idaho State Mental Health Association and special funds for educational materials for the South Central Idaho Mental Health Center.

Tickets may be obtained by calling the Center at 734-5442 or by writing Box 815 Twin Falls.

Rep. Hansen is the sponsor of several bills dealing with the development of children's services and has supported measures to encourage early diagnosis and treatment of children with social and learning problems.

During the last congressional session he introduced legislation to provide more funds for training of personnel of all educational levels to work with children.

He has been particularly concerned that the impact of federal welfare and child development programs and the continued entry of mothers of young children into full-time employment outside the home will place a strain on the already-limited number of qualified staff available in children's services.

Basque dancers at Rupert

Blaine pair arrested

RUPERT — About 30 Basque dancers will present a program of folk dances in traditional costumes Friday in the Minco High School gymnasium.

The Boise group was formed in 1962. They have performed throughout the West and in the Seattle, New York and Montreal World Fairs and festivals in Denver and Washington, D.C. John Larrinaga is the leader of the group, which is accompanied by Jim Jaysoro and Domingo Arisotegui.

The dancers will perform Friday at 8 p.m. in the Minco High School gymnasium. Proceeds will go to the Minco Micadettes drill team.

THERE'S JUST NO END TO THE THINGS you find in the Want Ads each day.

Youth to legislature

Last dietetic session set for Tuesday at CSI

TWIN FALLS — The final session in the dietetics series sponsored by the Mountain States Regional Medical Program and the Southeastern Idaho Center for Health Resources in Pocatello will be Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Room 118 of the Academic Building of the College of Southern Idaho.

According to Mrs. Delores Sims, R.N., community coordinator for the Mountain States Regional Medical Program, the series is open to dietitians and all other interested health professionals.

This week's session will feature a discussion of trace mineral nutrition in domestic animals and in humans by Henry F. Mayland, Ph.D., of the Snake River Conservation Research Center in Kimberly. The presentation will include the role of trace elements in animal metabolism, dietary requirements and dietary sources, toxicity and interactions affecting dietary requirements.

Where possible, information for mineral nutrition in humans will also be discussed.

Additional information is available from Mrs. Sims, 2164 Alta Vista Drive.

Jerome Farm Bureau presents candidates

JEROME — A special "meet the school board candidates" meeting will be held April 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the Jerome High School auditorium.

Pat Callen, member of the Jerome Community Farm Bureau, sponsors of the event, said the program is open to the public. Candidates in the April 24 trustee election in the Jerome School District will be present to explain their views on issues.

Mrs. Callen said candidates will have an opportunity to explain their interest in seeking "the offices" and to answer questions submitted earlier through a special committee of the Farm Bureau.

She said the audience will also be able to direct questions to any of the candidates. There are 11 Jerome residents seeking the five board positions. The entire board is to be elected as a result of recent rezoning of the district.

Two members of the present school board, Jim Keith and Dale Vining, are not seeking re-election. Board chairman Gordon Hollifield and trustees Leroy Weigle and William Kersey are seeking re-election from their zones.

Forschler says alarm over airport unneeded

BURLEY — Alarm over preliminary steps which have been taken concerning the proposed Southern Idaho Regional Airport project is unnecessary, George Forschler said Tuesday.

Forschler, chairman of the South Idaho Regional Airport Authority (SIRAA), said finalizing and describing the full impact of site 3 in the proposed project is a long way off. No one should get excited or alarmed over the preliminary steps taken so far, he said.

The public hearings in Twin Falls, Forschler said, were intended to bring out opposition where it exists so that proper adjustment can be made for Phase 11. This phase included detailed design concerning locations of runways, terminal buildings, access roads and industrial complexes.

The board, which represents five northside counties in the SIRAA, will review the record transcript of the hearing in about a month, when it is returned.

In the meantime, Forschler said, the board plans an information meeting in Jerome with farmers, ranchers, landowners and any interested parties to discuss the proposal.

Engineers from the Boise engineering firm of Barton, Stoddard, Millhollin, and Higgins, who prepared the study, will explain the tentative features of the proposed airport.

Forschler said it would not be difficult to move the proposed runway-projections as presently mapped.

Both the east-west and north-south runways, he said, could easily be moved eastward two to three miles and south toward Interstate 8 so that most of the farmland in question at present would not be involved at all.

"We are still gathering wind data for site 3 which will require another four months to complete. The FAA requires a study of wind conditions for a full year," Forschler said.

"Since the technical equipment for this study was not installed until last fall, the wind data which is vitally important to the total project will not be made available for several months. It easily could be that the north-south runway may not even be necessary when other features and factors of site 3 are considered," he said.

Forschler said the board has followed the law to the letter in proceeding with this project.

The location of the regional airport in Jerome County in the quadrangle east of US 93 and 180 and the Union Pacific Railroad tracks will be as important to the entire valley as the trunk line interstate highway is today in ground transportation to the traveler and the freight industry, Forschler said.

The study meeting in Jerome will include a field trip for an "on-the-site look," he said. Aerial maps will be provided for topography and actual location of landmarks and property.

There is a great deal of land in the area which can be considered, he said, and all factors will be measured and will be instrumental in selecting the final location.

Forschler said he hoped most of the present objections could be eliminated through understanding technical features of the present studies and the goals they represent.

There certainly is no inclination of the board, which was chosen by the people themselves, to force anything upon their constituents, he said.

Jack Anderson offers 'broken treaty papers'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Columnist Jack Anderson offered today to turn over to a congressional committee copies of documents taken by militant Indians during an occupation of the Bureau of Indian Affairs last November. He said the papers provided evidence of years of abuse of Indians by the government. The records, called the "Broken Treaties Papers," were the basis for several columns written by Anderson and his associate, Les Whitten. Whitten and Hank Adams, a leader of the "Trail of Broken Treaties Caravan" which participated in the BIA seizure, were arrested in December by the FBI on charges of possession of the documents. Charges against the two were eventually dropped when a grand jury concluded Adams was returning the papers to the government when he was arrested, and Whitten was simply covering a news event. In prepared testimony before a House subcommittee, Anderson said the documents related an ugly story of years of deprivation suffered by the nation's Indians as a result of government abuse. Said Anderson: "These documents tell of Indian murders that went uninvestigated; of white trading posts that swindled the Indians with impunity; of Indian land leased out by the government to corporations and left strewn with timber wastes, its earth torn up, its waters polluted with mining poisons; of how the government, instead of giving special protection to tribal lands, removed them from the ordinary safeguards of the National Environmental Protection Act; of treaties which had guaranteed millions of acres of land but which delivered only thousands."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee opened hearings on a bill to limit the President's war-making power Wednesday, with Chairman J. William Fulbright charging that continued U.S. intervention in Indochina is based on "specious" legal arguments. Both the Senate and House passed versions of the bill last year to require congressional approval of any deployment of troops in combat for more than 30 days except in defense of the physical boundaries of the United States. Former Attorney General

Nicholas deB. Katzenbach, one of the first witnesses to testify Wednesday, said he doubted the legislation would have any impact because he could not conceive of Congress forcing a President to withdraw troops within 30 days in a time of crisis. Arthur Berger, senior fellow in American legal history at Harvard, said the bill was "a great step toward resumption of (congressional) constitutional powers." Fulbright, an Arkansas Democrat, said in his opening statement that the administration had no constitutional authority to order U.S. planes to bomb in Cambodia.

Chilberg approves Florida firm's pact

BOISE (UPI) — State Budget Director D. E. "Skip" Chilberg said Wednesday he had approved a contract between the Department of Environmental and Community Services and a Florida firm for a media promotion against child abuse. Earlier this week, Chilberg has asked DECS Administrator James Bax to explain why he wanted Francheschi Advertising of Tallahassee as a consultant for the $22,500 contract.

The contract between the state and the advertising firm was signed March 16 by Dr. John Marks, then director of the Department of Social and Rehabilitative Services — one of the predecessors agencies to the combined one-Bax now heads. The merger did not take place until the end of March. Bax at one time was an administrator for the state of Florida.

Northwest stream flow subnormal

BOISE (UPI) — Streamflow prospects throughout the Pacific Northwest generally are less than normal although current reservoir storage is above normal in most areas, the Reclamation Bureau said today.

Regional Director E. F. Sullivan said the overall outlook for irrigation water for Bureau of Reclamation projects in the Pacific Northwest for this year is generally good, with the exception of the Umatilla project in Oregon which will like experience some irrigation shortage this season, he said.

The storage content of six reservoirs on the upper Snake River in Idaho and Wyoming — Jackson Lake, Palisades, Island Park, Grassy Lake, American Falls and Lake Walcott — was 2.89 million acre-feet on March 31.

At the same time last year the storage in these reservoirs was slightly over 3 million acre feet. The total usable capacity of these reservoirs is 3.41 million acre-feet.

Sullivan said all reservoirs are expected to be filled to normal irrigation water supplies will be available this season but carryover storage is expected to be limited.

Usable storage content in four reservoirs on the Boise River system in southwestern Idaho — Anderson Ranch, Arrowrock, Lucky Peak and Lake Lowell — was 446,000 acre-feet on March 31. The storage in these reservoirs a year ago was 676,000 acre-feet. Total usable capacity of the four is 1.15 million acre-feet.

Streamflow prospect are below normal but the reservoir system is expected to fill to capacity this spring. The total available storage supply in all reservoirs is expected to be adequate to permit near normal irrigation water deliveries this season.

The expected earlier than normal draft on irrigation reservoir storage, however, could adversely affect recreational use of the reservoirs.

Usable storage in Cascade and Deadwood reservoirs on the Payette River in southwestern Idaho March 31 was 470,000 acre-feet.

Wild dogs attack Hagerman flocks

HAGERMAN — Wild dogs have again attacked flocks of sheep in the Hagerman area, killing several sheep and injuring others.

The dogs, which had killed and injured sheep before, had not been active for about three months prior to the latest attack, according to Hagerman area residents.

Flocks of John Wilson, Norman Blaystock, Claude Van Epps and Debbie Jolley all suffered losses. In most cases, the sheep attacked were penned near the owner's homes.

Miss Jolley, a 4-H Club member, lost five of her 11 ewes. She had been building up her flock of purebred Suffolk sheep by saving her ewe lambs.

Breda Sayers, a granddaughter of Van Epps, lost two lambs and her 4-H ewe was injured.

Dr. Milton Beck, veterinarian, was called to assist the injured animals, but the owners say that the extent of recovery which can be expected is not yet certain.

Due to the present high cost of feed and high market value of the animals, the losses are even greater than usual, the owners said.

Deadline set

TWIN FALLS — Applications for federal crop insurance on sugar beets, wheat and barley are due no later than April 16.

Douglas H. Bertoch, district director of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, said applications for similar insurance on contract and commercial beets will be accepted through May 15.

The agency's office is at 1061 Blue Lakes Blvd. N. Applications may be filed there in person or by calling 733-8449.

Demand declines in bean market

DENVER, Colo. — Trade demand in bean markets fell off a little more during the week of April 4 according to Bean Market News, publication of the USDA Agricultural Marketing Service.

In Idaho, pintos were unchanged to 10 cents lower at 9.50-9.65 with sales on the slow side. Grower bids declined 50 cents. Idaho great northern markets were pegged at 16.25, based on a few sales. Trade demand was slow, and at the same time growers were reluctant sellers.

Idaho sales of reds were almost nil, reflecting lack of buyers. Demand for southern reds, dealers estimated values at 12.00-12.25. There were few sales of pinks at 12.00-12.25 with demand fair, but growers tight holders. Washington had light sales of reds at 12.25 and pinks at 12.00. There was a little export demand, but most of the light trading was domestic.

Bids to growers in Idaho for pintos were 50 cents lower. Other areas were unchanged.

Grower sales were adequate to cover demand.

Idaho bids for great northern were unchanged at 13.00 except one or more at 13.25 with growers tight.

Aides probe rail car lack

CHICAGO (UPI) — Agriculture representatives from 12 grain-growing states headed for Washington and their home states today to try to find more efficient ways to move grain to market.

They planned to return to Chicago next month for another meeting on grain shipment problems.

The farm officials spent most of this week's meeting defining the transportation problems farmers and elevator operators are facing. They concluded, unanimously, that the situation represents a national crisis.

In state after state, they said, elevators are finding it impossible to get enough rail cars to ship their grain to market. As a result, buyers are assessing millions of dollars in late-delivery penalties and banks are charging millions of dollars more in interest on money borrowed to purchase the grain from farmers.

But the delegates came up with few concrete suggestions for solving the problem. Instead, they voted for resolutions primarily aimed at further assessing the situation.

They asked, for instance, that the nation's railroads provide them with a listing of available cars, plus a list of requests for such cars.

WR snow, water outlook improves

HAILEY — Snow depths and water content on higher elevation snow courses have improved slightly over March, but still fall short of average.

This indication is contained in the April 1 snow survey report for the Little Wood, Big Wood River and Fish Creek drainage areas, which has been released by Harve Bickett, chairman of the Blaine Soil Conservation District.

According to Doug Bishop, Halley, Soil Conservation Service, snow depth and water content at higher elevations are about 25 per cent below the 15 year average and the lower elevations are supply above the average for this time of the year.

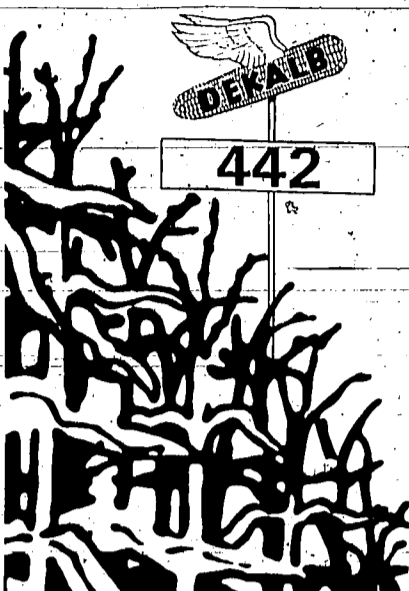

Bishop said snow courses on the Big Wood drainage range from 68 to 87 per cent of the 15 year average; Little Wood, 87 to 108 per cent of average; and Fish Creek, 101 to 123 per cent of average.

Percentages of the 15 year average for April on each course was as follows: Couch Summit, 83 per cent; Soldier, 79; Galena Summit, 72; Galena, 68; Graham Ranch, 87; Mt. Baldy, 77; Mascot Mine, 70; Swede Peak, 87; Garfield, 104; Muldoon, 108; Telfer Ranch, 123; Iron Mine, 101; and Dollarhide, 68 per cent of average.

Surveys were conducted this month by Reuben Bradshaw, Bishop and Tom Ganswever, S.C.S.; Clair Baldwin and Galen Hanselman, U.S. Forest Service; and Reed Newby, Big Wood River watermaster.

Celtics take 3-2 lead over Atlanta

BOSTON (UPI) — Jo Jo White sank a jumper from the left corner and Don Nelson added four free throws over the last 1:18 Wednesday night to give the Boston Celtics a 108-101 victory and a 3-2 lead over the Atlanta Hawks in their National Basketball Association playoff series.

The Celtics led 102-101 when White, who finished with 20 points for the night, popped his jumper to settle the issue.

Paul Silas grabbed a key rebound 14 seconds later and Nelson put away the first pair of his four free throws with 44 seconds left on the clock. Nelson closed out the scoring with two more free throws six seconds before the finish.

The Celtics held a 108-91 lead when Dave Cowens, the league's Most Valuable Player, fouled out with 4:03 remaining in the game, and Atlanta guard Pete Maravich poured in six points in the next three minutes to help the Hawks cut their deficit to 102-101. Maravich led all scorers with 34 points while John Havlicek paced the Celtics with 32. Lou Hudson added 23 for Atlanta.

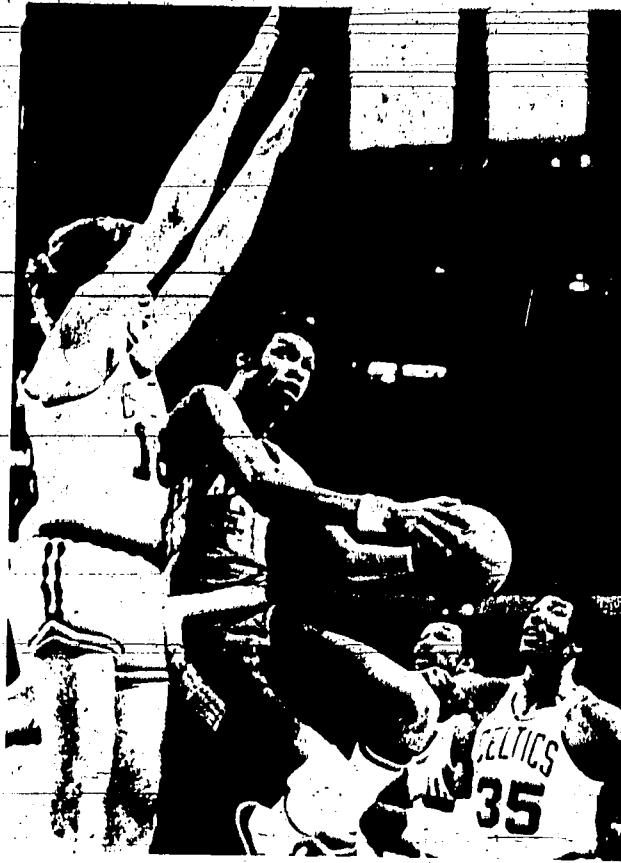

The Hawks ripped off 10 straight points to move from a 32-29 deficit one minute into the second quarter to a 39-32 lead with 8:33 left in the half as the lead changed hands several times over the first three quarters.

Lou Hudson started Atlanta's second quarter rally with a jumper from the corner and Steve Bracey followed with a 20-footer and a fast break layup. Maravich sank a jump shot from the left side, and George Trapp put away a pair of free throws.

Atlanta took its biggest lead, 51-44, with 1:21 left in the first half. But the Celtics roared back in the third quarter as White contributed 10 points to a 11-3 string.

Stottlemire's two-hitter lets Yanks snap loss skein

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mel Stottlemire pitched a two-hitter and designated hitter Johnny Callison hit a two-run single in the eighth inning Wednesday as the New York Yankees snapped their season-opening four-game losing streak with a 4-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

The Yankees' first win of the season came at the expense of Gaylord Perry, the American League's Cy Young Award winner in 1972 who suffered his first defeat this year.

Stottlemire swalked eight batters and struggled all the way, throwing a total of 95 pitches in the first six innings. The new starter after that, striking out five of the seven batters he faced in the seventh and eighth innings.

The Yankees sent Stottlemire to a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Bobby Murcer doubled and scored on a single by Graig Nettles.

Ryan and Angels drop Twins 4-1

ANAHEIM (UPI) — Veteran Vada Pinson drove in two runs with a homer and a single and Nolan Ryan fired a five-hitter to complete his second game in as many starts Wednesday while leading the California Angels to a 4-1 win over the Minnesota Twins.

The 34-year-old Pinson cracked the 230th homer of his 16-year career with two down and no one on in the first inning off loser Bill Hands. The Angel outfielder then singled in what proved to be the winning run with two outs in the third inning for his sixth RBI of the young season.

KC outscores Texas 9-6

KANSAS CITY (UPI) — John Mayberry tagged a three-run homer and Jerry Mays slapped a two-run triple Wednesday night, leading the Kansas City Royals to their fourth straight victory, a 9-6 triumph over the Texas Rangers.

The Royals now have scored 39 runs in their last four games after losing their opener.

DiGregorio given award

Providence College star Ernie DiGregorio was named winner Wednesday of the Lapchick award as the country's best college senior basketball player.

The All-America guard won by the largest margin in the three-year history of the award. The award is cosponsored by the Basketball Hall of Fame at Springfield and the Basketball News.

"He deserves it unequivocally," Providence coach Dave Gavitt said of his player. DiGregorio was the shooting star and back court ace of the PePars.

Israelis leave games

SARAJEVO, Yugoslavia (UPI) — The 32nd World Table Tennis Championships continued today but without the Israeli team.

Six players and a team manager flew home Wednesday after Yugoslav authorities told them.

"We cannot guarantee for your safety. Are you willing to go home ahead of schedule?" Roy Evans, president of the International Table Tennis Federation (ITTF) weighed in with a similar request and the team left aboard a plane for Belgrade.

At the same time police at Zagreb Airport arrested four Lebanese men on transit from Beirut but let them continue to Paris after a check.

A police spokesman said "They carried no weapons and we allowed them to leave on the first plane for Paris."

Tournament officials said security was doubled for today's matches, with world champion Stefan Bengtsson pitted against Germany's Manfred Leick.

Security forces rounded up more than 100 Arab students from Sarajevo University and took them on a compulsory "holiday" in the nearby mountains for the duration of the tournament, officials said.

Tournament officials said recent events in the Middle East was the reason for their request to the Israeli team.

"How can we stop fanatics?" They could mingle with the crowd and throw hand grenades into the playing area or start a shoot-out. The Israeli players had completed most of their matches and were only too happy to leave for home, an official said.

Blue hurls A's past Sox 12-2

CHICAGO (UPI) — Vida Blue, a 21-game winner in 1972 who was a comparative bust last year with only six wins, opened his 1973 season successfully Wednesday, scattering eight hits by the Chicago White Sox while his Oakland Athletics teammates pounded three pitchers for 13 hits and a 12-2 triumph.

It was the first win in four starts for the world champion A's and everybody in the lineup had a share in the victory. Every starter had at least one hit and all of them except Ray Fosse scored at least once.

Orioles defeat Tigers in 12th

DETROIT (UPI) — Designated hitter Tommy Davis drove in the tie-breaking run with a double which left fielder Jim Northrup misplayed in the top of the 12th inning Wednesday to enable the Baltimore Orioles to disappoint the Detroit Tigers and the 46,389 shivering fans who watched them lose their home opener, 3-1.

Merv Rettenmund singled home Davis with an extra run to help Baltimore win its third game without a loss this season. Detroit's first home game, postponed by snow and

Ali says religious lapse caused loss

TORONTO (UPI) — Muhammad Ali, jaws wired shut but still vocal, said Wednesday a lapse in his religious practices led to his recent defeat at the hands of Ken Norton.

"I didn't live by my religion like I should have during training," said Ali, whose jaw was severely broken in the split decision loss to Norton in San Diego, Calif. Mar. 31.

"This is what's kept me so superior over men—my belief in Allah, the Islamic Muslim faith, and living 100 per cent to the dietary and moral teachings of the religion."

Ali, 31, made his first public statement about the Norton fight at a packed news conference at Maple Leaf Gardens. Although his mouth is wired shut because of the jaw-break, Ali answered questions non-stop for 15 minutes, speaking by moving only his lips. His replies were nevertheless clear and easily understood.

Another purpose for the ex-heavyweight champion's visit here was to announce his signing a contract to be a broadcasting commentator for a series of fights to be held at the Gardens next fall. The 10-fight package will feature "major" fighters from around the world, according to Robert Arum, president of Top Rank Inc. of New York.

Clearing up confusion over the round in which he suffered the broken jaw against Norton, Ali said it was the second. "I got caught with my mouth slightly open at the time," he said, drawing chuckles from newsmen.

Ali said that were it not for the broken jaw he would have won easily. "It wouldn't have been a match...the fight was close right up to the eleventh round.

"I'm only surprised that I didn't look that bad. It's a funny feeling you get, jumping around and dancing, even without getting hit, when you have a bone moving around."

Colonels collect eastern opener

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (UPI) — The Kentucky Colonels beat off a last quarter spurt by the Carolina Cougars Wednesday night for a 110-103 victory in the opener of the two-teams playoff series for the American Basketball Association Eastern Division title.

Kentucky's Dick Mount topped all scorers with 31 points, while Dan Issel had 21 and reserve forward Wendell Ladner, a former Cougar, had 19 including 10 in the crucial final quarter.

Kentucky was ahead 85-80 at the outset of the fourth quarter before Carolina outscored the Colonels 15-4 for a 99-89 lead with 6:20 left.

But Ladner hit a two pointer and two three pointers while Carolina scored only two points to tie the game up at 97-97 with 4:09 remaining. The Cougars got the lead again on a free throw, but Kentucky's Walt Simon got a pair of free throws with 3:53 remaining to put Kentucky ahead for good.

Carolina cut the lead to 105-103 with 2:07 remaining, on free throws by Mack Calvin and Steve Jones — Calvin's shot coming as a result of a technical on mount—but Keptkey stopped the cougars cold after that and the home team didn't score another point.

The Cougars were led by Billy Cunningham with 25 points and six assists. Calvin added 17 points and Tom Owens was game-high rebounder with 16 to go with his 14 points.

The second game will be played Saturday afternoon at Greensboro, N.C.

Aaron hits 674th HR as Braves win

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Henry Aaron's first hit of the season, a three-run homer in the sixth inning, coupled with the six-hit pitching of Gary Gentry Wednesday night, led the Atlanta Braves to a 6-1 win over the San Diego Padres.

The roundtripper was No. 674 for Aaron and left him 40 shy of Babe Ruth's career record 714.

Aaron's now in his 19th season, but the homer off rookie Rich Froese, the third Padres pitcher of the night, followed two-out singles by Ralph Garr and Rod Gilbreath.

SE nips Astros on McCovey HR

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Powerful Willie McCovey hammered a two-run home run into the upper stands in right field with none out in the ninth inning Wednesday night to give the San Francisco Giants a 5-4 comeback victory over the Houston Astros.

McCovey's homer followed a walk to Chris Speier leading off the ninth inning. Houston Manager Leo Durocher called in rookie Mike Cosgrove to pitch to McCovey.

Revson assigned Indy car

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Peter Revson, who finished second in the 1971 Indianapolis 500, was assigned to one of six cars entered Wednesday for this year's race.

Revson and Johnny Rutherford were assigned to two of three cars entered by Bruce McLaren Racing, Ltd., of England. All three cars have Drake-Offenhauser engines.

Dick Simon of Salt Lake City entered two Eagles with V8 Foyt engines for his personal use, and Arnie Knepper, Belleville, Ill., was named to drive the car entered by Dale H. Holt of Champaign, Ill.

The six entries bring to 49 the total number of cars nominated for the May 28 race.

About 75 machines are expected to be entered before the filing deadline of midnight Sunday, with the fastest 33 cars in qualifications making the final lineup.

Walker-led Bruins drop Burley twice

DICK WALKER, Slapped grandstand homer and Charlie Browne and Gary Irish contributed a solo blow each Wednesday night as the Twin Falls Bruins swept past Burley 11-0 and 13-0.

Walker's four-run blow highlighted a nine-run third inning as Twin Falls broke open a tight 1-0 game and breezed home. In the second inning, the Bruins used five runs in the first and six in the fourth to build up a big lead which Burley dentied in the last inning but had too far to come.

Irish, who had a big hitting day, opened the Bruin big third with a solo homer. Browne followed with a single and Ross Deahl was hit by a pitch. Curtis Ward pitched a run with a single and winning pitcher Mike Anderson drilled a two-run double. Mack Hanchey walked to load the bases and Walker promptly unfaded them.

Browne got his homer leading off the fourth inning.

In the second game, Mike Gabica and Kevin Lee left off with walks and then came

WHA denies talks of merging

NEW YORK (UPI) — The World Hockey Association denied Wednesday it had ever officially entered into merger negotiations with the National Hockey League and intends to maintain its autonomy in the pro hockey field.

Gary Davidson, president of the WHA, said any merger reports published were erroneous and may have been taken out of context from several statements he made.

"I've been inaccurately quoted and I want to set the situation straight," Davidson said. "There never has been an official meeting between owners of the WHA and NHL, and we never reached any negotiation stage."

The youthful WHA press emphasized there could never be any merger discussion with the rival league without a revision of the NHL's reserve clause. The freshman circuit has a multi-million dollar anti-trust suit pending against the senior league for monopolizing the sport and big time players.

Redlegs spoil Dodger debut

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Tony Perez and Cesar Geronimo slammed back-to-back home runs in the fourth inning to spoil the Los Angeles Dodgers' home opening Wednesday night as the Cincinnati Reds posted a 4-1 victory.

Cincinnati's Bob Feller pitched a 7-0 victory over the Dodgers in the first game of the series.

Pardee given courage award

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon Wednesday presented the American Cancer Society's "Courage Award" to Redskins football star Jack Pardee and tried to urge him to remain on the team next year.

Exercising his presidential prerogative, Nixon took over the ceremony from his wife Pat and made the presentation himself in the Oval Office.

Hall denies bet charges

MONTREAL (UPI) — Former Chicago goalie Glenn Hall denied Wednesday charges that he bet on hockey games in 1961.

National Hockey League President Clarence Campbell also issued a statement in which he repudiated the reported statement and said Hall's conduct during his 16-year NHL career was "beyond reproach."

Theodore John Aboud, a former Montreal bookmaker now in jail for fraud, told a Quebec police commission inquiry into organized crime that he received a telephone call in 1961 from a man in New York that the Chicago goalie was betting on New York. He testified that two weeks later he was told the same thing when Chicago played Boston.

ABC to air playoff game

NEW YORK (UPI) — The NBA playoff game Friday night between the Los Angeles Lakers and the Chicago Bulls in Chicago will be televised nationally on ABC spokesman announced Wednesday night.

It's the sixth game of the Lakers-Bulls series and will be the first weeknight national telecast during this year's playoffs.

Unbeaten Mets edge Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Felix Millan and John Milner each had two hits, scored two runs and drove in a run Wednesday night to give the unbeaten New York Mets a 5-4 win over the St. Louis Cardinals in the Cards' chilly, drizzly home opener.

Milner, who singled during the two-run first inning, homered into the rightfield bleachers in the third inning for the Mets' third run. Millan scored the fifth run in the fifth on a passed ball after tripling to knock out St. Louis starter Reggie Cleveland (0-1). The triple drove in Duffy Dyer with the fourth run after Dyer singled and was sacrificed to second by winning pitcher Jerry Kosman.

Dennis improves performances in leading Wendell to win

WENDELL. — Kip Dennis came up with his best efforts in the high jump and the 100-yard dash Wednesday to lead the Wendell Trojans to a five-way track victory.

Dennis led off in the high jump and hit 10.2 in the century in addition to grabbing two other firsts. He had a fine 15.1 in the high hurdles and took the lows in 21.3.

It was good news for the Trojans who should be a contender for the state A-3 title again this year. However, they'd like to see senior Alan Stevenson get back on the long jump beam. He won that event but at a lullbuster (for him) 19-10. He'd cut his 220-yard dash time to 23.6.

Ray Hansen of Glenns Ferry picked up two victories, winning the 400-yard dash and the discus while Jagerman's Brown won the mile and two mile, the latter without any pressure at all.

Wendell, Glenns Ferry and Shoshone will join Valley and Kimberly in the Little Five Conference championships Friday afternoon at Glenns Ferry, Camas County and Jagerman will run in northside-southside meets Friday at Gooding State and Murtaugh, respectively.

Team sports included basketball, volleyball, tennis, swimming, and track. The Little Five Conference championships will be held at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho, on Friday, April 12, 1973.

Aaron can't refire desire for tourney

PENSACOLA, Fla. (UPI) — Tommy Aaron is the big drawing card for the Monsanto Open golf tournament, but the new Masters champion says he hopes the fans here won't be disappointed.

It's not that Aaron wouldn't like to win this $150,000 event which started today. After all, the $30,000 first prize is as much as he earned this past Monday at Augusta, Ga.

But winning as prestigious a tournament as the Masters, especially in his native Georgia, is a hard act to follow and Aaron isn't sure he can refire his desire so soon.

"I'm still finding it hard to realize I won the Masters," Aaron said when he flew into Pensacola Wednesday. "It was, as I said before, the dream of my lifetime and I'm still on Cloud Nine."

"I hope people don't expect too much of me here this week," Aaron said, expressing some doubts. "I don't know how well I'll play. It's going to be hard to get up after what I just went through."

As a matter of fact, Tommy Aaron didn't want to play in the Monsanto Open at all, after winning the Masters that is.

"It was a tough decision to make," he said of his agreeing to appear here after first trying to get the sponsors to release him from his earlier commitment.

"I wanted to stay home for a number of reasons," added Aaron, whose wife missed going to the Masters because of a recent operation. "But tournament officials said they needed me."

That they did. The Monsanto Open falls right between the Masters and the Tournament of Champions and Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer are not playing here.

But with Aaron, J. C. Snead and Jim Jamieson, this tournament has the 1-2-3 finishers at Augusta, and that's not bad.

It also has Bruce Crampton, the No. 3 money winner on this year's PGA tour, and a third-place finish here, worth $10,650, would vault the Australian past Nicklaus and Trevino into the No. 1 spot.

In fact, if you were forced to pick a favorite, Crampton would be a pretty good choice. He has won nearly $97,000 so far this year and his victories at Phoenix and Tucson came on courses that were somewhat similar to the 6,679-yard, par 71 Pensacola Country Club course where this week's PGA tour event is being held.

It is quite a contrast to Augusta where the premium was on high booming shots. Here, the key is accuracy. The fairways are narrow and tree-lined and the greens are comparatively small.

Wednesday's pre-am was played in crisp, clear weather with a wind whipping in from Pensacola Bay. Today's round started under a threat of rain with predictions of a 70 per cent chance of inclement weather moving in from the Gulf of Mexico.

McCalley Olympic fund needs help

GOODING — A fund raising drive, designed to provide Steve McCalley, Gooding State distance ace, with a ticket to the World games for the deaf has reached about the midpoint but is lagging badly.

Mrs. Marcia Blatt, Route 5, Castlewood Drive, Boise, reports she has received a 30-day extension, running to May 1, to raise the $2,000 required by her son to perform in the games.

John Hunter, McCalley's teammate who also qualified for the Olympics in Malmö, Sweden, already has his ticket in hand, thanks to a fund raising campaign in his home town, Idaho Falls.

"I was unable to raise even one-fourth of the amount by the first deadline of April 1," Mrs. Blatt says. "Mr. Art Kruger, chairman for the U.S. World Games for the deaf committee, granted me an extension to May 1. To date I have raised $900.50—the largest single donation outside the family coming from the Western Riding Club in a cake sale netting $53.50 and a donation of $50 from the club treasury."

McCalley qualified for the world games in the mile and three mile and along with Hunter is given a good chance of winning a medal. He already has lowered the Gooding State track mark in both events this spring but is considered a brighter prospect at the longer distance due to his excellent stamina.

McCalley, who has put in as many as 33 miles in a day of practice, already has accepted a track and cross country scholarship at College of Southern Idaho for next year. He will train as a draftsman.

Magie Valley fans interested in contributing to the fund should mail them to Mrs. Blatt immediately.

Utah-Pacer rivalry carries to playoff

SAIT LAKE CITY (UPI) — The Utah Stars-Indiana Pacers rivalry has developed into one of the hottest in professional basketball in just three years.

And when the two teams meet Thursday night in the opening game of the American Basketball Association playoff series for the Western Division championship, neither coach thinks the intensity of the clash will diminish any this year.

The Stars took the ABA crown away from Indiana in 1971—the team's first year in Utah—in a seven-game series. And last year, after switching divisions, the Pacers knocked off Utah in the seventh game to take the ABA West title.

strength to carry the winner of the series to the ABA championship.

At center, Utah's Zelno Benty goes against Mel Daniels of Indiana in a battle of two of the top post men in the league.

Forward George McGinnis is the top Indiana scorer (27.6), as is Willie Wise for the Stars (22.0). Gerald Govan joins Wise up front for Utah and Roger Brown, ABA playoff career-top scorer with 1,633 points, will be the Pacers' other forward.

At guards, Ron Boone, still subbing magnificently for jobbing Glen Cunniff for Utah, and James Jones match up against Eredde Lewis and Donnie Freeman of Indiana.

The Pacers have Darnell Hillman at forward and Billy Keller at guard; and if Daniels leaves the team, either Hillman or Gus Johnson move into the post.

Forward Cincy Powell, Bobby Warren at guard and center John Beasley are Utah's top subs. In the Stars' final 25 games of the season, the trio combined for a 36.9 point average to keep Utah ahead of the Pacers in the ABA West regular season race.

Broncos sign two gridders

BOISE — Two prep football players, Greg Duncan from Wenatchee, Wash., and Denny Brookings from Sacramento, Calif., have signed national letters of intent to attend Boise State next fall.

The announcement of the signing was made by Bronco head football coach Tony Knap.

Duncan, who was an offensive and defensive back for Eastmont High School in Wenatchee, stands six feet and weighs 175 lbs. He will be playing in the offensive backfield at Boise State next fall.

He earned all-league honors on both offense and defense.

The visiting Duncan also gained two letters in basketball.

Brookings was an all league wide receiver for Grant Union High in Sacramento. His North Metro league squad had a 6-3 season mark.

Brookings, who stands 5-10 and weighs 175 lbs., also competed in track where he ran a 9.8 100-yard dash and had a best leap of 23.2 in the long jump. He earned two letters in basketball playing the infield.

T.F. juniors win dual with Jerome

JEROME — The Twin Falls juniors nipped the Jerome juniors 75-71 Wednesday in a dual track meet.

The meet was held for youngsters who wouldn't be entered in Saturday's Boise Invitational, which should be one of the largest of the year.

Twin Falls dominated the sprints and Jerome took the three places in the longer distances. The Bruins won it with an edge in the field events as the teams split the relays.

Walters, Lyons and Tom Cochran were double-winners for Jerome. Walters won the mile and two mile, Cochran both weights and Lyons the quartermile and triple jump.

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1973

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This indeed can be a difficult day and evening, not because it is a Friday 13, but because the planetary vibrations bring the tendency for most of us to be touchy, exasperated and intolerant. But if you control these impulses and use kindness and courtesy with others, you can have a fine day.
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You have many duties ahead of you, so don't rush off on any tangents, but carry through conscientiously. Get away from some trap from persons who like to blame others for their misfortune. Sleep well tonight.
TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You are apt to look at yourself in a wrong light, so be kind to yourself instead. Don't spend too much money today. Make sure you do not lose your temper with anyone and get along better.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) If you get those duties handled at home early you can relieve the tensions there. The evening is not good for entertaining, so put it off until a better time. Avoid one who likes to argue.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Try not to make a mountain out of some molehill, to use the vernacular; think before you speak and avoid trouble. Particular care in driving and other activities saves some possible accident.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) If you improve your budget, you get rid of that feeling of lack of funds, and have security restored. Get your property in better condition, but stay within your budget. Use much ingenuity in so doing.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You have to take better care of your health if you want to get ahead faster, have more goodwill from others. Improve your appearance. Not a good day for the social side of life. Rest tonight.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) You have many small tasks to handle so get busy early on them in a conscientious and efficient manner. Not a good day for pleasure. Postpone fun until you have more leisure.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Try not to tease a good friend, or an unfortunate severance of connection could result. Have a serious, courteous manner. Put effort into gaining your finest aims, and they are yours.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) With fewer outside activities, you now handle home affairs and improve your appearance. Stop clear of a high-top who is looking for someone on whom to vent ire. It could be you otherwise.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have a new friend who needs careful handling if you are to deepen the friendship instead of suddenly breaking it off. You have real tact and can now use it wisely. Get good results with everyone.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) With all that work ahead of you, get at it early and clear it up quickly and efficiently. Don't run off on any tangents. Take better care of your wardrobe and make sure you do not ruin it by careless action.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) This is a good day to have a good talk with an associate and get right results therefrom. Plan how to get agreements worked out more efficiently. A little astuteness can be most wise now.
IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY he or she will be one of those inordinately clean young people who has to have order around him or her, but teach early not to insult others by pointing out their lack in such matters, otherwise your offspring can become a recluse and not popular at all. This can be a good chart for a nurse, whether male or female, the teacher, or the secretary, the office worker, etc. Do not force sports on this person early. Care in diet.
"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

What's What

Now about feet: From the day of birth to age 4, a baby's foot will double in length. But it takes eight years for that foot to double the length it was at 6 months. And among boys in particular, it's 18 years before the foot becomes twice as long as it was when the youngster was 1-year, 6 months old.

Two out of every five handwax marketed nationwide are bought by women. Cleanest big city in the country is said to be San Antonio. Fewer than one in every four married couples eat breakfast together, research reveals. Written Chinese calls for no punctuation marks, sir. And among mosquitoes, it's the voice of the female that's baritone, the voice of the male that's soprano.

Researchers contend the average married girl is capable of fixing no more than 12 basic meals, even though she may throw in an oddball experiment now and then. Could this be true?

QUERIES FROM CLIENTS

- Q "What's a 'Jones man'?"
A. That's Detroit slang for heroin pusher.
Q "Isn't the geranium the most popular flowering plant now?"
A. It's No. 2. No. 1 is the African violet. No. 3, the chrysanthum.
Q "Which was invented first, basketball or ice hockey?"
A. Ice hockey, by about a dozen years. Hockey's rules originated in 1879, basketball's in 1891.

Listen, please, to that waxy lady known as Lucille Ball. No matter how much you disagree with someone, be careful of your words. People forget what an argument was all about, but they remember the words.

ABOUT BEARDS

When most folk now middleaged were youngsters, the typical villain sported either a beard or a mustache or both. But a generation or so previously, the bearded character was usually the hero. Most of the fictional scoundrels in Charles Dickens' works, for example, were clean-shaven, while the fine fellows with warm hearts and great integrity generally wore some sort of facial foliage. There grows a belief now that bearded men soon again may be regarded as afflicted. The bearded lads will be considered naturally honest.

Contents a humorous banker with lengthy experience in the lending game. "I can tell you the credit rating of just about any family in town by looking at the magazines, the tin cans and the empty whiskey bottles in that household's garbage."

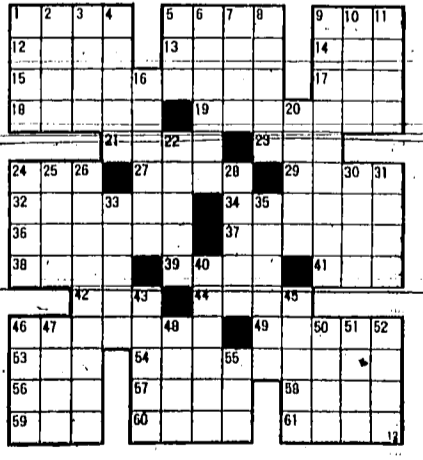

It's said that American woman who receives the most mail-form proposals every year is the fictional female known as Betty Crocker.
