Holstein group plans conclave

BURLEY — The annual State Holstein Association convention will open at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Ponderosa Inn, Burley.

The meeting is open to all Holstein breeders and interested persons.

General Association business will be conducted during the morning session. There will be a noon luncheon, at which awards will be given to the junior outstanding breeder, the senior outstanding breeder and outstanding cow production awards.

Cliff Bailey, president of the National Holstein-Friesian Association; Harry Papageorge, director of the National Association; and Bob Davis, Kuna, Idaho State Holstein Friesian association, will form a panel to answer and discuss questions asked by those attending.

In addition, association members will elect officers for the coming year.

Iris Society elects leaders

TWIN FALLS — Mrs. Glenn Thietten was re-elected president of the Magic Valley Iris Society at a luncheon meeting Saturday in the Idaho Room of the Alley Cafe.

Other officers and directors serving for the 1973-74 year include Mrs. Glenn Draper, Burley, vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. Paul Swatsenborg, recording secretary; Mrs. Merle Clayville, Burley corresponding secretary; and Mrs. E. D. Diercksen, Buhl, treasurer. Directors are Mrs. J. J. Stieckle, Wendell; Mrs. Alfred Kramer, Castleford; Mrs. Earl Edin, Burley; and Mrs. V. W. Nelson, Twin Falls. Mrs. M. J. McClain, Buhl, was chosen to serve as librarian. Mrs. S. W. Smith and Mrs. Estelle Ricketts, Jerome, were in charge of the installation ceremony.

In other business, the club voted to affiliate with the Idaho State Federation of Garden Clubs and to have the 1974 Iris Show in Twin Falls. Mrs. Ricketts was appointed chairman of the show. Mrs. Ricketts will order iris for meeting prizes. Mrs. Smith was appointed reporter.

The November prizes were won by Mrs. McClain and Mrs. Anne Leth, both Buhl, and Mrs. Floyd Bandy, Twin Falls.

As regional vice president of the American Iris Society, Mrs. Smith, announced Mrs. C. W. Vallette, Declo, had been recommended for honorary judgeship. Slides of the American Iris Society's 1971 Wichita convention were shown for the program.

The next meeting is March 2, in Burley.

CSI plans 'Bells Are Ringing'

TWIN FALLS — "Bells Are Ringing," a musical comedy, will be presented Nov. 15-18 by the College of Southern Idaho music and drama departments at the CSI Fine Arts Auditorium.

Performances will be given at 8 p.m. each evening.

The musical originally opened on Broadway Nov. 20, 1956, with book and lyrics written by Betty Comden and Adolph Green. The music is by Jule Styne.

The ringing bells are those of "Susan's answer phone," a telephone answering service in Manhattan operated by Sue with the help of Ella Peterson.

Ella is the kind of girl who puts on lipstick before answering the phone and who somehow manages to meddle and become enmeshed in the private affairs of her clients, whom she knows only by voice.

Three of the best songs in the score are ballads, "Long Before I Knew You," "Just in Time," and "The Party's Over."

Members of the cast and the characters they portray include Sue, Trish Ellged; Gwynne, Carla Homan, Kimberly; Ella Peterson, Laura Brandon; Carl, Scott Humphries; Inspector Barnes, Doug Maughan; Francis,

Truck burns

TWIN FALLS — A sheriff's deputy discovered a pickup truck on fire Sunday night on the Lincoln School grounds about 11:33 p.m.

The truck had been reported stolen from Buhl about an hour earlier.

City police and the city fire department responded to the fire, and the fire was put out within a few minutes.

The truck, belonging to John Peterson, Route 1, Flor, was towed to the city garage for further processing by police detectives.

According to police reports, the 1973 Datsun was a possible total loss.

Methodists to 'rap' with bishop

TWIN FALLS — United Methodists from the Magic Valley will have an opportunity for a "rap with the bishop" here Tuesday.

Bishop Jack Tuell of the Oregon-Idaho Conference will conduct one of a series of discussion meetings with church members from Idaho at the First United Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

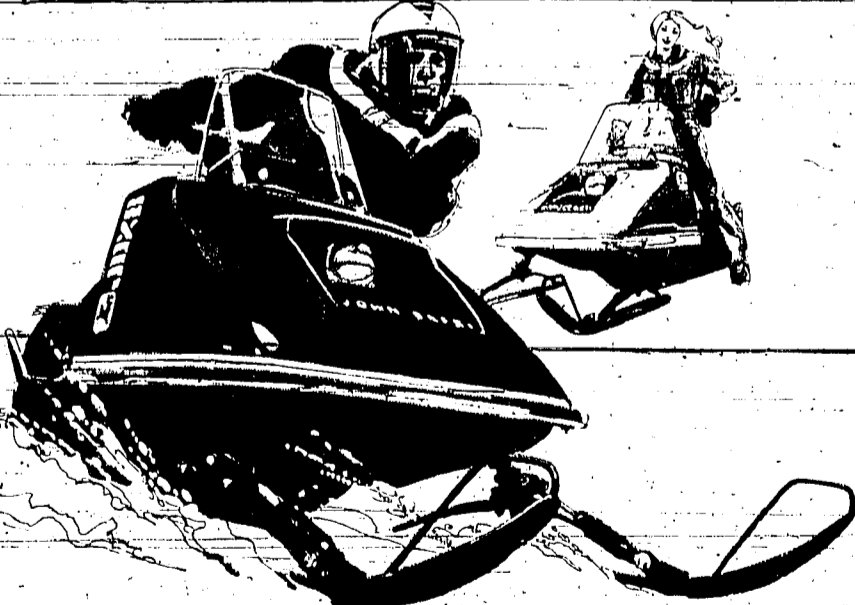

Representatives from area churches have been invited to meet with the bishop and discuss matters of interest to them. Rev. C. Keith Mills, district superintendent, said each church has been asked to send a specified number of laity representatives.

He said the event offers the laity the chance to have a "candid visit" with Bishop Tuell on matters of interest to them.

On Wednesday, Bishop Tuell will meet with clergy from the Magic Valley at the Jerome United Methodist Church. That meeting is set for 10 a.m. It will be followed by a luncheon session at the Wood Cafe.

Whatever the events in the developing crisis over President Nixon's Watergate tapes...

Meanwhile, it is incumbent on President Nixon and the courts to work out an arrangement that will make available to the proper authorities the relevant portions of the White House tapes...

There is evidence of such delay. One congressman, Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., went so far Monday...

The 25th Amendment, which provides for the appointment by the president of a vice president-designate in case of a vacancy in that office...

If the Ford nomination is pigeonholed and a vacancy should occur in the presidency by Mr. Nixon's resignation or impeachment or otherwise...

The circumstance would certainly introduce a dangerous new element in what is already an explosive situation. Partisan bitterness would be stirred by the possibility of replacing a president elected as a Republican in a nationwide election with a Democrat...

The first business of the Senate, therefore, should be to confirm Rep. Ford as vice president and thus eliminate one factor in the controversy.

(c) N. Y. Times Service
None of the ways being proposed for solving the country's President Nixon problem is going to work...

President pardon - At first glance this seems the surest solution. The President would very rapidly dispose of all his problems by pleading guilty and immediately granting himself a Presidential pardon...

Resignation - This would involve a deal in the Agnew case, under which the President would be permitted to retire to Baltimore...

New Nixons are something like new tires. No matter how well they are made, you are pushing your luck if you try to get 40,000 miles out of them...

This is the Nixon that people who are now the old folks used to call "tricky Dick." Fortunately, he was recaptured in the early 1950s...

JAMES RESTON

Question: What's Best For America?

(c) New York Times Service
WASHINGTON - In his confirmation hearings before the senate rules committee, Gerald Ford, the Vice Presidential nominee...

partisan liberals in the Congress, the Watergate prosecutor's office, the press and the networks. It is hard to square this, however, with the comments coming from conservative quarters at home and abroad...

concluded that "The President's misfortune is that his words are not widely believed any more. And everyone knows that he already has been compelled by events to retreat again and again...

Even Sen. Barry Goldwater, who stands to the right of the Journal, was quoted after the latest fiasco on the tapes as saying that Nixon's credibility "has reached an all-time low from which he may never be able to recover."

security of the Atlantic Alliance at the gravest possible risk... when we look Westward now the sky is black. We recall the words of Oliver Cromwell, dissolving the rump of the Long Parliament in April 1653...

Instead, he is mounting a counter-offensive to prove that he is indispensable to the conduct of the nation's foreign policy, that his "detente" with the Soviet Union has produced peace in Vietnam and a cease-fire in the Middle East and that he is being persecuted by...

Even assuming that the President carried only indirect responsibility for these crimes, his handling of the matter has been consistently horrible. His defenses have always been too stiff, his concessions too late...

Appealing to the American people to wait for Judge Sirica's judgement on the tape controversy, and urging the President to go before the Watergate committee personally and defend himself...

It is notable that The Economist, The Wall Street Journal, and the conservative National Review, while critical, are alarmed by the thought of a protracted crisis and want to see the issue brought to an early conclusion, but even periodicals like the conservative Spectator of London are savagely unyielding...

These are hard and even terrible words, but even when you listen to more sympathetic opinion from abroad, it certainly does not support the President's theme that he is being weakened merely by his liberal enemies and relied upon by his foreign friends...

Only Temporary

The United Nations peacekeeping force now seeking to keep the Israelis and Arabs apart in the Middle East is a useful, but fragile and temporary tool.

We can only hope the warring parties will show restraint in the wake of shooting incidents and threats along the truce line to exchange prisoners and begin real negotiations toward a lasting peace.

Deserving support is the senate resolution co-sponsored by Sen. Jim McClure of Idaho calling for recognition of Israel's sovereignty by Arab states, and return of Arab territory seized by Israel in 1967. The resolution also calls for creation of a neutral buffer zone between Israel and the Arab nations...

Western European nations are upset by the fact the United States acted arbitrarily with Russia almost to dictate terms of the cease fire. As partners in the NATO alliance, they felt they were entitled to more consultation.

Be that as it may, the present state affairs presages mounting pressure for a permanent solution. When the present U. S.-Israeli and U. S.-Arab talks end, American policy is likely to be more even-handed than pro-Israeli. That may force Tel Aviv to be more tractable in negotiating with Arabs. In the meantime, the peacekeeping force will play an important role in creating...

international tension, and not without problems.

It is virtually certain the new Middle East force will be financed through a special account, to which U. N. members will be expected to contribute in proportion to their ability to pay. The same approach was employed to support the U. N. peacekeeping forces sent to the Middle East in 1956 and the Congo in 1960. In both instances, a number of U. N. members refused to pay their assessments on political grounds.

THE PROBLEM OF unpaid peacekeeping assessments became so serious by the end of 1961 that the General Assembly voted to issue $200 million in bonds to finance U. N. operations in the Congo and the Middle East. After spirited debate, Congress authorized the President to match the bond purchase of other countries up to a limit of $100 million. It is doubtful if such authority would be granted a second time.

Soldiers of the U. S., Soviet Union, Britain, France and China are not among the peacekeeping forces, which leaves smaller nations to supply the manpower. They maintain separate identity and uniforms and have their own commanding officers. Inevitably this affects morale and effectiveness. Understandably, they don't want to stay forever.

For these reasons and more, then, it is urgent to begin laying the groundwork for a permanent peace agreement.

TIMELY QUOTES

I would urge him (President Nixon) to cooperate to the fullest extent in getting the Watergate thing wound up so he as President can get on with the job of leading the country and not have to bow down to the Ervin committee every time he literally wants to go in the man's room. - Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

I'd damn politicians have really done it. A guy can't even make a black anymore. "Nik," a ticket scalper in Cleveland, complaining that local television of the Browns-Dolphins football game, the first permitted under a new law passed by Congress, left him stuck with unsold tickets.

We've got to get away from the idea that this is cute or a way for someone to express himself in a mechanistic society. - Dr. William J. Ronan, chairman of the New York Metropolitan Transportation Authority, on the cost of removing graffiti from subway cars.

No Arab today has an identity that can be unconscious of the Jew, that can rule out the Jew as a psychic factor in Arab identity, conversely. I think no Jew can ignore the Arab in general... each is the other. - Edward W. Said, professor of English at Columbia University and a Palestinian Arab.

When trying to deal with anything involving prices, whether it's beef on the hoof or gasoline to get you to work, the council decrees by its inaction that we live in an economy half slave and half free. This economy can no longer tolerate the abuse of economic slavery for workers and the simultaneous unbonded license for profiteers. - Joseph A. Helne, president of the Communication Workers Union, calling for abolition of the Cost of Living Council.

By DALE STEWART Times-News Writer
TWIN FALLS Higher gasoline and heating oil prices posted in the Magic Valley by one major oil firm may be something Idahoans will have to accept.

The ultimate effect of these actions will be (1) shorter supplies of gasoline, motor fuels and heating oils; (2) higher prices for the available supply; (3) increased emphasis on more economical vehicles; (4) and curtailment of driving of personal vehicles to some degree with an attendant increase in use of public transportation.

As to the notion that the nation's adversaries and allies overseas are cooperating with the United States because of their faith in Nixon, there is not much evidence that the Soviets lived up to the Nixon-Brezhnev "principles" when they connived yet another war in the Middle East, or that the President's bold initiatives have improved this country's relations with Japan, Western Europe, India, Latin America or anywhere else with the exception of China. Even Golda Meir didn't come flying to Washington because she was happy with U. S. policies toward Israel.

Meanwhile, the reaction in Europe to the disarray of the Nixon administration is one of dismay. The economist of London, a consistent supporter of Nixon's foreign and economic policies, remarks in its current issue: "Mr. Nixon is already a much weaker President. For the first time since Roosevelt took over from Hoover 40 years ago, the United States is led by a man who can claim no solid following of personal affection and respect."

"If Judge Sirica decides that there is nothing to mitigate Mr. Nixon's behavior, it would be better for Mr. Nixon to go

For Gas And Oil—Higher Prices Here

America's principal producers. - A 20 per cent hike in crude prices in Indonesia. - The widely-publicized tightening of the oil tap in the Middle East by the Arab states. - The ultimate effect of these actions will be (1) shorter supplies of gasoline, motor fuels and heating oils; (2) higher prices for the available supply; (3) increased emphasis on more economical vehicles; (4) and curtailment of driving of personal vehicles to some degree with an attendant increase in use of public transportation.

Not out of the picture, either, is gasoline and fuel rationing in the United States. That's not a pleasant thought to contemplate, but it may well become reality if Americans do not voluntarily place some curbs on their use of petroleum products. The increased demand for oil in the U. S. may even make feasible expanded domestic wells to recover more oil from less productive rock strata has been available to the American oil industry. But its application has not been economically feasible in other words, it cost too much for the return. The same factor has discouraged oil producers from seeking oil or gas in either marginally productive areas or in regions where no petroleum production has existed. But as the demand for oil grows and the price oil commands on the market increases, such recovery becomes more feasible. It's not entirely unlikely the U. S. government will subsidize in some manner some methods of increasing the domestic oil production. But for most Magic Valley residents, it's a matter of consumption of gasoline and fuel oil, not production. Idahoans are the ones who will have to pay the bill - as posted on the service station pump or marked on the oil delivery ticket - and when those prices start rising the national and world oil situation becomes a matter of local concern. And the way it looks as 1973 moves toward a close, the coming year is likely to bring higher prices for motor and heating fuels, with rationing a distinct possibility. Bicycles, roller skates, coal grates and floorplates, anyone?

Confidence question produces calls for Nixon's resignation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., who campaigned with Richard M. Nixon in 1968, says he has "reluctantly" concluded the president should resign because he has "lost his effectiveness" to lead the country.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., while not calling for the president's resignation, says the issue is "whether or not there is enough confidence left for the President to govern this nation."

Brooke was the first Senate Republican to publicly call for the president's resignation. He is the only such call from a Republican in Congress since earlier from Rep. Paul N.

McCloskey Jr., R-Calif. "I don't think that the country can stand the trauma that it has been going through for the past months," Brooke said Sunday.

He was interviewed on ABC's "Issues and Answers." "He might not be guilty of any impeachable offense," Brooke said. "On the other hand, there is no question that President Nixon has lost his effectiveness as the leader of this country, primarily because he has lost the confidence of the people of the country, and I think, therefore, that in the interests of this nation that he should step down, and should tender his resignation."

Sen. Jackson appeared on NBC's "Meet the Press." He said the President should appear before the Senate Watergate committee to "lay his cards on the table."

"The real issue is whether or not there is enough confidence left for the President to govern this nation," Jackson said. "We just can't litigate for the next three years of his office all the issues that have been raised and are being raised daily." — Jackson said that if the President does not make such appearance to clear up Watergate questions, "He is going to

'75 spending lid sought

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Budget director Roy L. Ash met with aides Sunday to begin work on a fiscal 1975 budget aimed at holding down federal spending.

Ash, director of the Office of Management and Budget, met with his top staff at Camp David, Md., as hopes were rising among some administration and industry officials that economic controls can be eased by early next year at the latest.

"I wouldn't be surprised to see them lifted in the near future," said Charles H. Smith, treasurer of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz, who has opposed controls since their inception Aug. 15, 1971, said last week he hoped for the start of a phasing out in about 150 days.

President Nixon said late 1973 was the target for starting to "feel our way out of controls" when he imposed Phase IV in July, and one of the conditions for curbing inflation, Nixon said, was to hold down federal spending.

But there are indications that inflation is "running strong

Tapes not vital to prosecution

(c) Washington Star-News WASHINGTON — Although a tremendous amount of attention is being paid to the two Watergate tapes the White House now says are nonexistent, the prosecution should have little trouble proceeding without them, legal sources agree.

The tapes might have cleared up several questions still not completely resolved after months of intensive investigation, and for that reason, the Watergate special prosecution force still wants them, if they exist, and is demanding proof of the claim that they never existed.

But beyond that, the prosecutors are right where they would have been if they had never heard of the two tapes in the first place.

They will have to make do with the testimony and documentary evidence they will have obtained when the cases come to trial. Most criminal cases are tried and won on far less than the mountain of evidence the prosecutors reportedly have gathered so far.

In answer to questions about why they are taking so long to getting around to indictments, prosecution officials say they are investigating the Watergate cover-up far more thoroughly than they would in a normal case.

They give several reasons for this. First, they say, the gravity of the case, involving charges of corruption at the highest levels of government, demands an especially thorough investigation to make sure all wrongdoers are brought to justice.

Second, they feel that, given the atmosphere surrounding the Watergate scandal, extra caution is necessary to avoid indicting an innocent person.

Third, they want to do as thorough a job as time and circumstance allow to ensure that they will not be surprised by the defense at trial.

face an unchallengeable demand on impeachment or the possibility of a direct request for resignation, and I think the push will come from the Republican leadership, not just from Democrats.

The Gallup Poll reported 27 per cent of those questioned approved of the way the President has been doing his job, compared with 68 per cent in his favor less than a year ago.

The New York Times said in a Sunday editorial: "The one last great service that Mr. Nixon can now perform for his country is to resign."

Time magazine, in its first editorial in 50 years, said the President should resign because "he has irredeemably lost his moral authority, the confidence of most of the country and therefore his ability to govern."

The Detroit News, previously a staunch supporter of Nixon, said: "If he does not resign, serious consideration should be given to impeachment."

The Denver Post, which a year ago editorially supported Nixon for the presidency, said: "History would think well of a Nixon decision to step down, not as an admission of guilt but as a recognition that the needed trust essential to the conduct of his office has been lost."

Recovering
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Doctors say Gov. George Wallace, paralyzed from the waist down by an assassination attempt last year, is recovering "real, real well" from a minor operation Saturday to improve his bladder functions.

The surgery was a followup to prostate surgery the governor had in January, eight months after being shot and crippled while campaigning in Maryland for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Actress marries in prison rites

CANON CITY, Colo. (UPI) — Sue Lyon married convicted murderer Gary "Cotton" Adamson in a 15-minute "nice, quiet wedding" Sunday night. The bride spent her wedding night in a motel room. The bridegroom slept in his jail cell.

GARY ADAMSON, bridegroom

The double-ring ceremony was performed in a gold-carpeted conference room at the Colorado State Penitentiary in the presence of nine other inmates, Adamson's mother and five sisters, and penitentiary officials.

Reporters and photographers were kept out of the room after Warden Gordon Heggie told them Adamson, serving a 20-to-40-year term for second-degree murder and aggravated robbery, made a "serious threat to react" if newsmen were present.

"It was a very nice, quiet wedding," said Mrs. Lucille Adamson, the convict's mother, after the ceremony. "But it had a very sad ending."

The bride, wearing a full-length dress of beige Belgian lace and a white veil, and the bridegroom, dressed in dark blue suit, fed each other pieces of a four-tier wedding cake at a 45-minute reception. Guests were served soda pop.

A minor flareup occurred when UPI photographer Joe Marquette asked persons accompanying Miss Lyon to move away so he could take pictures. "I'm gonna get physical," Miss Lyon shouted, grabbing Marquette's sleeve. "This is a wedding, not a circus."

At a press conference earlier Sunday, the actress criticized the news media for sensationalizing her wedding.

Illness reported

CHICAGO (UPI) — A study released today indicated butchers and workers who wrap pre-cut, pre-packaged meats with plastic may be exposed to a new disease — "meat-wrappers asthma."

Medical Association. The study said the disease causes shortness of breath, coughing and wheezing and apparently disappears when the worker is not exposed to the fumes.

Three middle-aged women workers developed respiratory problems, the report said, when exposed to fumes of polyvinyl chloride cut with a hot wire. It was pointed out the three women were cigarette smokers and might have inhaled the fumes while smoking.

Search continues

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UPI) — National Guard pilots circling the mountainous wilderness of central New Mexico have found part of a National Airlines DC10 engine, but no trace of a man sucked through the window of the jetliner.

Searchers were ordered back to the northern fringe of the Gila Wilderness today to look for the body of G. F. Gardner of Beaumont, Tex., pulled from the plane following an explosion during a flight from Houston to Las Vegas, Nev., and San Francisco.

"I still think it's a very slim chance the body will be found," Sgt. Al Whitehouse of the New Mexico state police said. A jet engine on the plane, which carried 116 passengers and a crew of 12, disintegrated Saturday night and tossed chunks of metal into the fuselage. A window was smashed, the cabin was decompressed and, despite the efforts of passengers who vainly tried to hold onto Gardner, the machinist on his way to a job in Singapore, was pulled from the plane.

Arabs plan more supply cuts

(c) New York Times Service KUWAIT — The Arab oil embargo against supporters of Israel is more severe than was originally foreseen. And new supply cuts are impending, Arab oil ministers said here today.

Ahmed Zaki Al-Yamani, Saudi Arabia's minister of petroleum, disclosed in an interview that his country, the world's largest oil exporter, had reduced production 35 percent below the average daily output of September.

This cut includes a complete suspension of oil shipment to the United States, as well as carefully selected cuts in sales of oil to refineries in the Mediterranean and the Far East which supply fuel to the U.S. Navy's Sixth and Seventh Fleets.

"We are tracking down every last barrel of oil that reaches the United States," said Yamani, tapping his finger on a green folder which contained computer records on the destination of all Saudi Arabian oil shipments, including refineries in Trinidad, Puerto Rico and Canada that ship products to the U.S.

In addition to the United States, which has been boycotted by all Arab producers for supplying arms to Israel, the Netherlands has also been singled out as a target of the oil embargo. This is part of the Arab strategy designed to force Western European countries and Japan to exert pressure on Israel to withdraw from Arab lands occupied during the 1967 Middle East War and the new fighting which erupted last month.

Market Review

NEW YORK (UPI) - Stocks tumbled across a broad front Monday on the New York Stock Exchange amid calls for President Nixon's resignation.

Nixon's resignation, a threatened renouveau of the Middle East fighting, and an impending energy shortage.

Trading was active.

Shortly before noon, the Dow Jones Industrial average was at 13.24 following a loss of more than 51 points last week.

Declines for outstanding advances, 1,000 to 25, among the 1,054 issues traded.

Non volume totaled roughly 8,000,000 shares, against Friday 7,440,000 traded the same period.

The trading atmosphere has taken a distinct turn for the worse in the last week, according to observers. Investors are faced with a number of serious issues, they said. Among them are calls for President Nixon's resignation or impeachment, news from his friends in the press threats from the Arabs of renewed fighting in the Middle East, and the widespread ramifications of a worldwide fuel shortage in the offing.

Monsanto (ex-dividend) led the actives, off 2 1/2 to 79.000 shares. The chemical group has sold in recent sessions since chemical firms rely on petroleum for many of their products.

Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, Dow and Union Carbide each lost a point or more.

TWA was second active, off 1/4 to 20 1/2 on 60,700 shares. The company was forced to cancel domestic flights because of a strike of flight attendants.

General Motors was third, off a point to 60 1/2 on 48,900 shares.

Idaho Valley Weather Report

Rain, snow for MV election day

Twin Falls, Burley, Rupert, Northside Area - Periods of rain and snow mixed in the valley and heavy snow in the mountains today and tonight, decreasing Tuesday, high temperatures in the middle 40's this afternoon and Tuesday. Lows tonight in the 30s.

Hailey, Camas Prairie, Lower Wood River Valley: Periods of snow, occasionally heavy through tonight, decreasing to scattered flurries Tuesday. Highs today and Tuesday in the 30s. Lows tonight in the 20s.

Synopsis: Travelers' advisories are in effect for all of the mountain areas of Idaho. A strong storm system off the Pacific coast is spreading moisture over the northwest, causing rains in the valley, sometimes mixed with snow and heavy snow in all of the mountains from the Cascades to the Continental Divide.

This general pattern should continue for the next two days, at least with frequent surges of moisture moving across Idaho. Temperatures have warmed considerably and most of the precipitation in the Magic Valley area should fall in the form of rain or melting snow. Travelers in all directions should be prepared for wintertime driving, with chains, a shovel and warm clothing.

The extended outlook for Wednesday through Friday is for recurring periods of rain or snow. High temperatures 38 to 48. Lows 25 to 35.

First Security healthy

SALT LAKE CITY and 1974 are very encouraging.

Reflecting heavy credit demands of residents of the Intermountain region, Eccles said during the first nine-month period, First Security banks and subsidiaries made a total of 101,850 loans totaling $1.3 billion.

More than half of these loans, 53,662, were made to finance consumer purchases; 4,616 for $187.4 million were also made for the purpose of financing construction of purchase of residences and other real properties. Loans and discounts at the end of the third quarter were $50.75 million a 17.1 per cent increase over one year ago.

Eccles said in addition to real estate loans outstanding on Sept. 30 totaling $355.44 million, the corporation's banks and subsidiary Utah Mortgage Loan Corporation were servicing loans sold to investors totaling $353.2 million.

Directors declared semi-annual dividends on both First Security Corporation - common and preferred stock, a 50 cents per share common dividend will be paid Dec. 10, to common stockholders of record Nov. 30, which makes an annual dividend of $1.05 and is the maximum permissible under Phase Four guidelines.

The regular preferred dividend of $1.075 per share will be paid to holders of cumulative convertible preferred series "A" stock Jan. 10, 1974, to shareholders of record Jan. 2, 1974.

Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Twenty lashes with a forked tongue for allowing your readers to suggest that snakes make "nice pets" and require a minimum of care.

Any competent herpetologist can tell you that snakes are among the most difficult animals to keep in captivity, for the following reasons: They are susceptible to infections which often become fatal because amateurs cannot detect a sick snake until it is much too late. Also, a snake's cage must be kept absolutely immaculate, with controlled amounts of fresh air, light, and heat.

Snakes show no affection whatsoever. They can be taught to tolerate some handling, but a snake does not recognize its owner or keeper.

Most snakes require a diet of live (or freshly killed) mice, lizards and insects, which is a problem for most people.

Snakes bad pets

Abby, if you don't alert your readers to the above facts, many may rush out and purchase a snake only to have the poor creature perish thru its owner's ignorance.

— SNAKE-FAN-FREMONT, CAL.

DEAR FAN: That settles it! No snakes for this household. It's difficult enough to buy beef without shopping for lizards, mice, and insects. Thanks for writing.

DEAR ABBY: To bra or not to bra? That was a recent question. Large, medium, small, or nonexistent—what's all the fuss about? Any student of geometry knows that curves are nothing more than wrecked angles.

PLUNKED GEOMETRY

DEAR PLUNKED: And any student of anatomy knows that some curves have wrecked angles!

DEAR ABBY: That young mother who resented the way the grandparents "spilled" her children, reminded me of myself 25 years ago.

I, too, deeply resented the way my parents spoiled my youngsters. I almost dreaded letting my children spend a weekend with their grandparents. Then, one day my wise sister-in-law took me aside, and said: "Children need to get away from that strict parental discipline once in a while—to be 'spilled' and made to feel 'special,' and who better than grandparents should do it? Children need to learn how to cope with a different set of rules in a different situation.

She was right, of course. The occasional "spilling" my children enjoyed from their grandparents didn't hurt them one bit.

DEAR M.S.: Thank you for a letter which came just in time to help me justify spoiling my own grandchildren.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

In many cases Preparation H gives prompt, temporary relief from such pain and itching and actually helps shrink swelling of hemorrhoidal tissues caused by inflammation. When a married couple with only one car gets divorced, court records show the wife usually winds up with said car. Police in Sweden claim to call girls operate there, none. Stage magicians say women almost invariably are easier to please than are men. Book salesmen say that, too. The brain triples its size from birth to age 6. If mothers in the Far East stopped breast feeding, it's said, those Asians would need 114 million more cows.

Am asked if our Love and War man has any statistics to show the percentage of secretaries who take dictation while sitting on the boss's lap. Precise statistics, no. But he is of the opinion that the secretaries who so perform are even rarer than the bosses themselves who encourage this cartoon-type scene. That is only one of several outrageous notions promoted over the years by the comic strip boys. Another is that numerous housewives throw rolling pins at their husbands.

RADIOS

Q "What one man was responsible for the sale of the largest number of radios in history?"

A Can't catch me on that one, sir. It was that news commentator of great renown, H. V. Kaltenborn. September of 1938 was when Kaltenborn was the only news anchor around who could translate German, French and Italian in a rapid manner. So for those 18 days just before the Munich Pact, Kaltenborn remained on duty at the CBS studios in New York City, sleeping on a cot, eating sandwiches, and reporting immediately the shortwave broadcasts of Hitler, Deladier and Mussolini. Radio sales boomed, sir.

Can you distinguish the difference among as many as 10 million various colors? Neither can I. Still, the National Bureau of Standards insists the normal human eye can do that remarkable thing.

CHINESE PIGS

Do you know how a pig is shipped in China? In a net. It's not much bigger than the pig. The pig is fitted into it with its legs sticking out. If the net is cinched up, the pig can walk on its own power. If the net is loose, the pig stays put. A stevedore can hook a winch rope to the net to load the pig aboard ship. And there, said pig, along with a lot of other immobilized pigs in nets can be stacked like cordwood. That's all today about Chinese pigs. Maybe more later.

Thousands and thousands of men with flat feet were rejected over the years by the Army before the medical boys found out flat feet don't interfere at all with soldiering.

FORECAST FOR TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1973

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Good hunches give answers you seek, and you can get good results in cultural or colorful outlets, so be alert for opportunities. Improve appearance of surroundings.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Gad about quietly. Plan how to get your talents to the attention of bigwigs later on. Follow hunches and good judgment. Social matters good in p.m.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Get advice from good friend on intelligent handling of some problem. Attend group meeting and make big headway. Be charming.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Contact an influential person for needed data, support. Handle civic affairs efficiently. Show others you have real ability.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) A new contact now has the right answers to your problems. Study views different from yours carefully before deciding to reject or accept them. A time for expansion.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Discharge responsibilities efficiently, using more modern methods. Talk that matter over with the one you love and come to a better understanding.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Know what associates desire of you. State own aims as well and cement better relations. Get cooperation from a bigwig about that fine idea for success.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) Get everything clean and orderly around you. Show appreciation for good co-workers. Shop for attractive clothing. Avoid one who has a chip-on-the-shoulder attitude.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Relieve tensions with inexpensive amusements you enjoy. Some special thought for mate brings fine results. Avoid one who is a real troublemaker.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Make home more attractive and entertain people with cultural interests. Show you are proud of kin. Be sure that you are most careful in motion.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Talk over future relations with allies and come to a fine understanding. Make necessary corrections, such as repairs to property. Show you are skillful.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Handle practical matters, be sensible and clever. Use your good common-sense ideas and make big headway via them. Avoid extravagance.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Bring order out of chaos. Plan time for the social and you gain the backing of personal friends. Some bigwig can also open a new door for you.

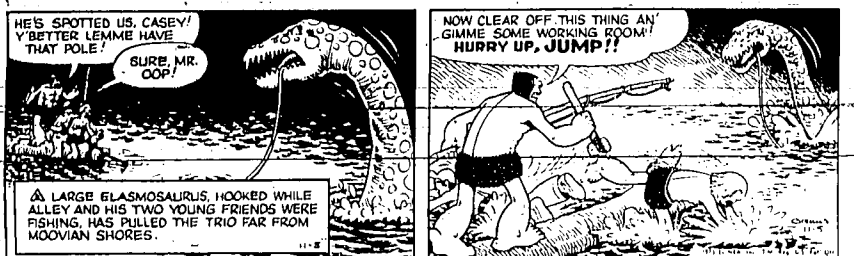

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will need good religious and ethical training early to provide a solid basis for a life most successful both personally and in business. Your youngsters will have an almost uncanny way of knowing what others want from the relationship, which is most helpful. Plan now for as fine an education as possible. Some musical talent here, too.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Field goals let Atlanta shock Los Angeles 15-13

ATLANTA (UPI)—Rookie Nick Mike-Mayer kicked five field goals Sunday, the fifth a 16-yarder, with 52 seconds left in the game, to give the Atlanta Falcons a 15-13 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

The Falcons, trailing 13-12 in their effort to pick up only their second victory in 15 games against the Rams, took over on their own 46-yard line with 5:05 left to play. They drove to the Rams 110-yard line before Mike-Mayer, who earlier had kicked field goals of 20, 30, 12, and 20 yards, came on for the 16-yarder that won the game.

The victory enabled the Falcons to close to within one game of the division-leading Rams in the National Football Conference West.

The Rams, now 6-2, opened the game as though they were going to run the Falcons out of the ballpark, scoring the first two touchdowns of the day.

David Ray kicked a 32-yard field goal at 4:38 after the game began and Tony Baker scored on a two-yard touchdown run seven minutes later to give the Rams a 10-0 lead.

Houston snaps losing streak

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Lynn Dickey hit Fred Willis with a 13-yard touchdown pass with 32 seconds left Sunday as the Houston Oilers broke an 18-game losing streak with a 31-27 victory over the Baltimore Colts.

Houston's final touchdown culminated a two-minute passing drive which began on their own 15. The Oilers, 1-7, capitalized on Baltimore blunders to build up a 21-4 halftime edge but the lead changed hands four times in the final quarter.

Raiders rout

OAKLAND (UPI)—Ken Stabler, the hottest quarterback in the National Football League, completed 16 of 21 passes for two touchdowns Sunday as the Oakland Raiders routed the New York Giants 42-0 and handed them one of their all-time worst beatings.

Stabler, with a 68.8 completion average before the game, completed scoring throws of 26 yards to Bob Moore and 18 to Charlie Smith as the Raiders maintained a one-game lead over Kansas City in the AFC West with their fifth victory compared to two losses and a tie.

Dallas topples Bengals 38-10

IRVING, Tex. (UPI)—Middle linebacker Lee Roy Jordan intercepted three passes in less than five minutes of the first period Sunday, returned one for a touchdown and helped anchor a goal-line stand in the second quarter that fired the Dallas Cowboys to a 38-10 triumph over the Cincinnati Bengals.

Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach also tossed for three touchdown passes and hit on 14-of-18 attempts for 209 yards in helping Dallas break out of a slump which threatened to wipe out their playoff hopes.

Cincinnati quarterback Ken Anderson had been intercepted only once a game this season but Jordan made Anderson pass his personal property in the initial period.

Saints shutout Buffalo 13-0

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Archie Manning threw a nine-yard touchdown pass and the New Orleans defense contained O.J. Simpson Sunday as the Saints recorded the first shutout in the history of the club, a 13-0 victory over the Buffalo Bills.

Vikings down Cleveland 26-3

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (UPI)—The unbeaten Minnesota Vikings, with an alert defense again refusing to allow a touchdown, parlayed a pair of their own touchdowns and four Fred Cox field goals Sunday to whip the Cleveland Browns 26-3 for their eighth straight NFL victory.

The Vikings, who have given up just six touchdowns this season, came up with key defensive plays to stop the Browns cold. Cleveland never got within the Minnesota 20-yard line. It's the fourth game in which Minnesota hasn't allowed a touchdown.

In the second period, Mike-Mayer capped two Atlanta drives with field goals to leave the Falcons behind by only one point, 10-9, at the half.

Eagles rally to win 24-23

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Tom Dempsey kicked a 12-yard field goal with 35 seconds left to play Sunday to give Philadelphia a 24-23 comeback victory over New England.

Roman Gabriel brought the Eagles' back from a 17-point third-quarter deficit with two touchdown passes of 20 and seven yards to tight end Charley Young and he directed five-minute drive of 75 yards to set up the winning kick.

Dolphins beat New York 24-14

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bob Griese threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to Paul Warfield in the third quarter to snap 14-14 deadlock Sunday and lead the World Champion Miami Dolphins to a hard fought 24-14 victory over the New York Jets.

The Dolphins, held to a surprising 14-14 tie in the first half, went ahead on their first possession of the second half when Griese took them 80 yards in six plays, capping it with the pass to Warfield.

Indiana tops Virginia squad

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Veteran Roger Brown scored 26 points, 12 in the final period, Sunday to lead the Indiana Pacers to a 128-122 victory over the Virginia Squires.

The Pacers broke the 13th and final tie with 90 seconds left to play on Brown's field goal. Losses in eight more points in a row for a 128-118 lead before a pair of free throws by Roland Taylor snapped the string.

Reserve leads K.C. to victory

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Mike Livingston, starting in place of the injured Len Dawson, fired a 39-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass and set up two field goals, and the Kansas City Chiefs backed him with a tough defense Sunday to smash the San Diego Chargers 19-0.

Jim Stenerud chipped in field goals of 31 and 36 yards and Ed Podolak ran five yards for a first quarter touchdown as the Chiefs took over second place in the AFC West with a 4-1 record. San Diego, now 1-4, came no closer than the Chiefs 39 yards until less than a minute remained in the game.

Detroit defeats S.F. 30-20

DETROIT (UPI)—Bill Munson, making his first start in exactly three years, threw touchdown passes of 19 and 49 yards to Larry Walton and the Detroit Lions cashed in on four interceptions of John Brodie passes Sunday for a 30-20 victory over the San Francisco Forty Niners.

With regular quarterback Greg Landry not starting for the first time in 42 games because of a knee injury, Munson directed Detroit to a 24-20 half-time lead and he completed 14 of 27 passes for 234 yards for the whole game.

Ben Crenshaw captures first tourney as pro

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Slurp rookie Ben Crenshaw refused to buckle under pressure from veteran Orville Moody Sunday and captured a two-stroke victory in the $125,000 Texas open, his first tournament as a golf tour regular.

The 23-year-old Crenshaw of Austin, Tex., finished the 72 holes at 14-under-par 270. George Archer of Amama, Iowa, one stroke back when the day began, took third place with a 273.

Crenshaw sank birdie putts of 15, 13, three-, 12, four and three feet en route to winning the $25,000 first prize.

Crenshaw, a three-time collegiate champion from the University of Texas, bogeyed two holes and had Moody by only one stroke entering the 583-yard, par-five 18th, but Crenshaw dropped in a three-foot birdie on the hole and Moody managed only a par.

Rod Funseth finished fourth with a 276 while Jack Sving shot the day's best round, a 66, and won a fifth place tie with Dave Eichelberger.

Mike Hill, the defending Texas open champion, finished at 280 in a tie with Charles Goady, Bruce Fleischer and Tom Kite. Crenshaw's former teammate at Texas.

Tournament officials said Crenshaw helped attract the biggest crowd in Texas open history, an estimated 60,000 over four days.

"I'm really fortunate to

"There have been a lot of new players and none of them has been accepted like Ben Moody said. 'Nobody said anything bad about Ben. I think he'll be a drawing card just like Palmer was. He's got the game for it. He even looks like Palmer, an all-American looking type kid.'"

"It means so much to have people behind you," he said. "I just can't thank them enough." Both Archer and Moody praised the youngster who they predicted would become a super star.
