Panel narrowly OKs junior college fund boost

By BILL LAZARUS
Tribune Staff Writer

BOISE — A junior college academic budget of $2.02 million was approved by the Joint Finance Appropriations Committee Monday. The budget is $1.8 million over current levels. The 1973 fiscal year budget approved by the committee is $219,000 greater than the $1.8 million recommended by Gov. Cecil D. Andrus for Idaho's two junior colleges.

But it falls $133,000 short of the junior colleges' request for the fiscal year 1974 and North Idaho College at the $1.3 million level of a $1.9 million. A proposal to fund the colleges with $2.2 million failed 1983, and a motion by Rep. Elmer C. Hesland, D-Spokane, to support the institutions with $2.2 million for lack of a second.

Magie Valley legislators Sen. Richard S. Craig, D-Twin Falls, and Rep. William R. Buhl, co-chairman of the Finance Appropriations Committee, opposed the Governor's $1.8 million recommendation while supporting both the $2.2 million and the $2.2 million proposals in committee votes.

Rep. Elmer C. Hesland, D-Spokane, supported the Governor's recommendation and opposed the two higher bids. He also opposed the $2.2 million recommendation. The $2.2 million appropriation will be used to fund the two junior colleges.

will not be sent to the legislature for consideration. The Finance Appropriations Committee approved the amount recommended by the governor, $1.8 million, but the $2.2 million recommendation was still disappointed, but he said he felt that the legislature delegation from the junior college district did enough to get an increase over the amount recommended by the governor. The $1.8 million budget for all academic programs and extra would be nearly $3 million, representing a 9.7 per cent increase over the 1973 budget.

With this increase, salaries of faculty and professional personnel would rise 4.8 per cent.

while pay for classified and noncertified personnel would rise 2.1 per cent according to information submitted to the legislature by the Legislature's Fiscal Office and the Budget Director.

The joint salary rise for noncertified personnel stems from the replacement with faculty employees of the college of certified staff members, especially in laboratories, according to the office.

Taylor said private number one within the limits of the budget is the salary increase for all personnel. There is a tremendous concern about that because of the 1973 consumer price increase in the past year.

Solons facing D-Day

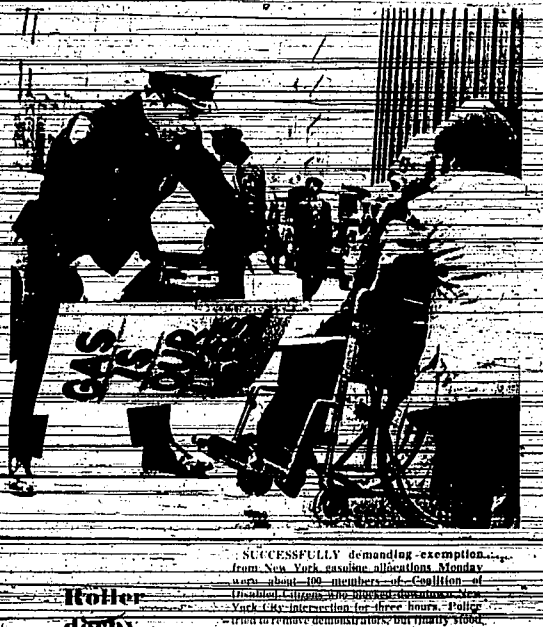

BOISE (UPI)—D-Day has arrived in the second regular session of the Idaho Legislature. Legislators must decide whether they want tax relief or more money for public schools. The House and Senate have two committees which face them to decide between those two goals — unless they want to spend non-recurring surplus money on recurring programs.

A decision like that could create real problems in the next session. Legislators in the Joint Finance Appropriations Committee proposed an $11 million in extra state spending for the school next year. $7.5 million more general fund money than the state can afford.

The $11 million extra would mean a $1.5 million budget request this means something must be cut to balance the budget. The $1.5 million extra would mean a $1.5 million budget request this means something must be cut to balance the budget.

Sirica mulls report

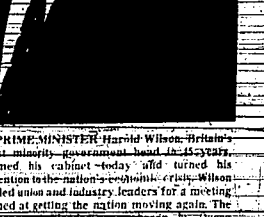

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A hearing has been set for Wednesday by Chief Judge John J. Sirica to hear arguments by all interested counsel on what is to be done with a sealed grand jury report believed to hear on President Nixon's possible role in the Watergate coverage.

Sirica acted after a meeting Monday in his chambers at United States District Court. A lawyer representing the President, the special prosecutor and one of the defendants in the cover-up indictment returned last Friday by the same grand jury, were present at the meeting.

Deloid Charles Brown, the judge's law clerk, said that the meeting in chambers was requested by James D. Baker, Nixon's lawyer.

Monday the judge's office issued the following statement: "After long and serious study, Sirica has set Wednesday, March 14, for an open court hearing of all interested counsel. It is noted that views regarding the disposition of the report are recommended by the grand jury by the June 1973 grand jury."

Attorneys for the President and the House committee were the first confirmation of the report from unidentified sources, that the sealed report bore directly on Nixon's possible role in the Watergate.

Gas. The economical replacement.

When your present water heater needs replacing, we want you to consider changing to gas water heating. It's still heating water, and gas water heating is also an efficient use of energy for that.

Gas is tops. A 30-gallon model will heat 34 gallons an hour compared to only 18 gallons an hour for its electrical counterpart.

In Idaho we have gas to burn but we want to burn it wisely. Gas water heating is highly efficient in terms of cost and conservation of energy.

Activities planned

ATLY (Gen. Anthony) Park, chairman of Idaho Bi-Centennial Commission, discusses plans for nation's 200 birthday celebration with Lois Mathewey, organizer of Monday meeting.

Bi-Centennial outlined

TWIN FALLS — It's time for Twin Falls to get aboard the bi-centennial bandwagon, Idaho Atty. Gen. Anthony Park told club leaders Monday.

"We think it's time for Twin Falls to be heard from — we think it's time for the large community to decide how to celebrate the nation's 200th birthday," Park said.

Plans there are to develop a national program, which would be very much like the "steering" committee generated out of this meeting, Park said. He recommended club leaders select a steering committee to select a nominating body for a commission to be appointed by the mayor. Local people familiar with and interested in the area's history, art and literature might be sought by the steering committee, Park said.

Planning for bi-centennial activities amounts to about $200,000 in federal funds, Park said. Matching funds from each of three other areas — state, private contributions and local — are hoped for, Park said.

Activity on the state level includes development of regional park facilities which when completed will be designated as bi-centennial sites. In north Idaho, the commission is working to restore the Catalina Mission, the oldest standing structure in the state.

Director of the commission, Dr. J. Meredith Neil, will be traveling to other bi-centennial commission meetings throughout the week. Neil is free to speak to any interested group about the possibilities. For celebrating the nation's 200th birthday, Park said.

Park compared the projects in progress in other Idaho cities with the non-activity of Twin Falls. In Lewiston, the old railroad depot will be refurbished and made into a community center. Moscow is creating an arts and culture center from the old post office.

Archaeological site has been authorized by the commission, Park said. The Veterans' State Park in Boise is being developed, and the Malad Gorge State Park is scheduled to be developed by 1976.

Construction of an atomic energy interpretation center, officially called the Energy Environment and Education center, Park said.

In addition, the commission has "granted" funds to the Antique Festival, Boise, and is supporting making City of Rocks a national monument, Park said.

The commission has announced a festival over Idaho including the Richard High from the Magic Valley and an action — it meets every 5 to 6 weeks to consider projects and plans for the bi-centennial celebration in Idaho, Park said.

The Monday meeting was organized by Lois Mathewey, chairman of the American Legion auxiliary.

Construction of an outdoor shelter at the Idaho State Fairgrounds is being used as a model for a cultural meeting house. Paecilus restoring an old family mansion, according to Park.

Idaho Falls has earned the designation of a bi-centennial community by the American Revolution Bi-Centennial Administration, the first city in the Pacific Northwest.

4-plex request studied

By BONNIE BARR, JONES
TWIN FALLS — A public comment was offered Monday night during a hearing before the Twin Falls City Council on a request for four-plex construction in an east Twin Falls residential area.

David Armstrong requested on behalf of Design-Marketing Association, a conditional use which would allow construction of three four-plex apartment units in the Rayat Court Subdivision.

An ordinance allowing the variance was adopted under suspension of the rules. The project is generally east of Snow's Trucking and west of Herie's Dogtry. City Manager Jean Miller said.

A resolution vacating the alley on Block 139 and authorizing Mayor Winston Jones to accept a drainage easement from Wakefield Street to the Perrine Center.

An agreement with the county for operation of the former city landfill was also approved. An inspection of the site indicates the county has met all obligations to restore it.

Editor, Times-News:
This is in answer to Bruce A. Buck, M. D. who wrote wanting to hear from a "No" voter. Well, I'm one, among many.
It seems to me that the ones who were so interested in getting a "Yes" vote on the hospital bond issue, had one thing in mind for us the tax payers. And that was to get the 18 year old, people on welfare and those who have been in the past six months, out to vote and hopefully vote "Yes." These people have nothing to lose, so why not?
I heard when the bond passes, then the little ole property owner steps in and pays up. I believe all the property owners realize there is a real need for a larger and more efficient Emergency room and more specialized equipment. Yes, even more beds. Even if, at first, it was said 30 beds, then 25-30 and who knows it could end up 15-20.
I understand they intend to expand the administration offices. The intention is to feel the $80,000 cost for this is just a drop in the bucket. As the old saying goes: "Too many drops can make the bucket overflow."
Today, with prices going up and up, I'm sure we will all have to tighten our belts and make do, as we have through this economic crunch, even if it interferes with a so-called plan.
You speak of the taxes, small to the average taxpayer. I'd like to remind you that Magic Valley is and has been a farming community and I'm sure the $12 per year (no property value) at $16,000 wouldn't begin to cover what most would owe.

We certainly can't turn people from outside the county away or charge them more when they need the facilities here but don't you think there should be some way worked out to include them and others to share in the cost of expansion? There was approximately a 17 per cent occupancy of out of county patients, as of Feb. 28.

It's my understanding that to get a similar majority revenue bond passed there would have to be a change in the State laws. As long as we have laws that make it impossible to consider a county sales tax, to be used not only for improvements and future expansion but for annual hospital operations, which was the second highest tax levy within the county in 1971.

The revenue from a sales tax, if not needed from year to year, could be reinvested and used as needed. This sales tax would not solve the immediate crisis but the projected revenue from it, locked in in a "Hospital Only" fund, might be a base for the "now" needed improvements. A "locked-in" sales tax would not only provide a continuing fund for the hospital but would also distribute the tax load and eliminate the objections of the property owners of always picking up the tab for the non-property owners.

Believe it or not, sales tax is feasible. It should not apply to groceries, medicine or medical supplies. Yes, the sales tax method is one of the State's weak points.
Let's face it, no one denies the fact that the hospital needs to expand and get needed equipment but no one knows if a 14-15 million ten year bond is what will get the next few years' worth of equipment. Let's pass another bond to keep up with the accelerated expansion and hospital improvements.

YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Cosmetics may chap lips

By GEORGE F. THOMPSON, M.D.
Dear Dr. Thompson: For several years now I have been bothered with chapped lips, not only in the winter but all year long. Our family doctor recommended drinking more water but that has not cured the problem. Could you make any recommendations? Mrs. W. M.

There could be a variety of conditions and should be seen to be evaluated. However, during the winter and striking the year round suggests there may be an irritant that is continually present.

Cosmetics sometimes are the offenders. Lip stick is an obvious possibility. Nail polish or other preparations that touch the lips only occasionally can be the cause of the problem.

So think back. Have you made any change in your cosmetics during or about the time the trouble started?
Stopping all cosmetics for a time may be useful. It may not, right off the bat, show which cosmetic is guilty, but if the trouble stops it narrows things down to a good deal.
Irritation from nail polish or dental material sometimes proves to be the cause of the trouble. Sensitivity to the benzocaine of the sun can be involved.
You also might try one of the lip balms available in the drug store. These are colorless but serve as protection against "external" irritants.

Magazine story draws comment

Editor, Times-News:
I called you on the telephone on Feb. 25 about an article "Fresher talks freely about the abortion" which appeared in the magazine. I am sure you remember your report on Feb. 24. It apparently was from the Chicago Sun-Times and was written by Peggy Constantine.
When you edited this paper and magazine, I firmly believe you should have deleted this article and urged your readers to delete the impression that you approve promiscuity.
This article is a source of encouragement for the youth of our city to commit murder abortion is "nothing" less than murdering the unborn. Doctors say and know that life exists at the moment of conception. Do you believe that we should consider abortion, but punish those who stand up for the human life in our country?

What's our editorial policy on this subject? I will be very interested to hear it.
HELEN BUCKLEY
Twin Falls

Editor's note: The Times-News policy is to air both sides of important social issues. Abortion is a complex issue.

Poor take food

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Volunteers manned 14 distribution centers today to give food to poor people in a third attempt to appease the kidnappers of Patricia Hearst and her release.

The terrorist-Symbionese Liberation Army, which abducted the 28-year-old University of California art history student Feb. 4, has not been heard from since Feb. 21, 14 days ago.

Since then, the People in Need group, funded by the Hearst family, has given some $300,000 worth of groceries to nearly 50,000 people.

Randolph A. Hearst, president and editor of the San Francisco Examiner, has pledged to give out 10 million in free food in his attempt to secure the release of his daughter. A total of $2 million was to come from his personal assets, but the rest from the Hearst Corp.

Hearst and his wife, Catherine, issued a public appeal during the weekend for the S-LA to let them know their daughter's condition and the group's reaction to the food program.

They went before newsmen Sunday in front of their mansion in Hillsborough, a fashionable San Francisco suburb, for the first time in several days to discuss their daughter.

Mrs. Hearst said: "You've never harmed anyone, and I know that pretty soon God will touch their hearts and they'll send your home again."

Patty was kidnapped from her Berkeley, Calif., apartment at 4 p.m.

Magistrate refuses to lower bond

ATLANTA (UPI) — A U.S. magistrate today refused to lower the $1 million bond of accused kidnaper William H. Williams Monday, saying it was just as reasonable as the $370,000 ransom demanded of Atlanta Constitution editor Reg Murphy.

Just could not in good conscience set a bond lower than he set for an innocent man, he has said in court. "I have found probable cause to believe that he is a kidnaper," the magistrate, J. Roger Thompson, however, did reduce the bond for Williams wife, Betty, 26, from $500,000 to $100,000.

Makes way to court

FORMER Attorney General John N. Mitchell pushed past UPI photographer Jerry Soloway en route to court in New York Monday, Mitchell, 60, and former Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans, 66, were seen leaving the court building after Mitchell's arraignment.

Mitchell is accused of obstructing justice and perjury in an alleged attempt to obstruct a federal investigation of fugitive (murderer) Robert F. Vesco in exchange for $200,000 donation to be used in the 1972 Nixon campaign. (UPI)

22 Americans identified

PARIS (UPI) — Investigators say it appears likely an explosion resulting from a bomb buried in the wreckage of a Turkish Airlines DC10 jetliner Sunday with the loss of all 343 persons aboard.

The U.S. embassy here said today that at least 22 Americans were among the dead.

The only Americans whose identities have been released were Wayne Wilcox, 41, cultural attaché at the U.S. embassy in London, his wife, Paula, and two of their four children, Kathleen, 16, and Clark, 13.

Embassy consultant Milton McDonough said: "We don't know exactly how many Americans were on board because the passenger list does not name nationalities — even first names. But through telephone calls from family and friends we have established 22 names."

Miss McDonough said "no names could be released until next of kin are notified."

The secretary general of France's civil aviation board, Maurice Grumaud, told a television interviewer Monday.

It looks like an explosion, "initial or technical, not a terrorism," he said.

The explosion must not have been very strong since the plane was able to continue on after crash, he said.

Grumaud cautioned, however, that "all the possibilities are being examined."

A preliminary report would be prepared for the airport director found an onboard explosion the most likely cause of the crash.

The official 30-man inquiry team, including Turks, Frenchmen, Americans and Englishmen, opened its first meeting at Le Bourget airport today.

A preliminary report will be submitted to the government at an unspecified date, but the officials said conclusions of a definitive inquiry will take a long time, probably several months.

Saigon, Viet Cong POW exchange set

Saigon (UPI) — The South Vietnamese government and the Viet Cong today agreed to complete their long-delayed exchange of war prisoners at the 23-hour Viet Cong government spokesman said today the government promised to release its last 163 prisoners.

He said the Viet Cong would men over 20 government soldiers and 25 civilians to South Vietnamese authorities in two field positions.

The exchange ended months of bitter rivalry between the Saigon government and the Viet Cong since the Jan. 29 cease-fire called for prisoner exchange.

Captives seized since the Paris truce accord, however, were not included in the exchange agreement.

Sears testimony slated

NEW YORK (UPI) — The government was expected to bring on one of its biggest guns today, Harry L. Sears, as a witness in its attempt to send two former dominant figures in the Nixon administration to jail on charges of selling political influence for $200,000 cash.

Sears, named in the indictment as one of two bagmen who delivered a secret $200,000 donation from trader Robert L. Vesco to be used in the 1972

Nixon campaign, has been called by the prosecution "the middle man" and "one of the central figures" in the case.

Former Attorney General John N. Mitchell, 60, and former Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans, 66, are accused of conspiracy, obstructing justice and perjury by an alleged attempt to obstruct a federal investigation of Vesco, now a fugitive, in exchange for the gift.

Sears, a New Jersey attorney and Vesco associate, former State Senate Republican leader and state chairman of the 1972 presidential campaign, was a defendant but his case was severed.

Assistant U.S. Attorney James W. Rayhill disclosed in his opening statement in U.S. District Court Friday that the government has promised Sears' testimony.

Some stage-setting and backgrounding witnesses were expected to precede Sears to the stand.

Rayhill told the jury that Sears "was bought and paid for by Robert Vesco — he was in Vesco's pocket." He said Sears got $50,000 a year from Vesco, who also advanced him $20,000 to pay debts incurred in the 1969 gubernatorial primaries.

Space Needle death site

PAUL H. BAKER, 29, Columbus, Ohio, borrowed money, took a ride on the observation deck of the Seattle Space Needle and jumped 520 feet Monday night to become the Needle's first suicide.

Baker had been living here for two months; the King County medical examiner's office said.

"The Space Needle, which measures 607 feet to its point, was built in 1962 as the symbol of the Seattle World's Fair."

The Space Needle Restaurant is located just below the observation deck from which Baker jumped.

Verdi's famed opera, "The Masked Ball," is based on an historical event — the assassination of Gustavus III of Sweden at a masked ball.

Why is your A.D. Pharmacist called "personal"?

Because he's always available for personal consultation. He makes sure you understand your doctor's instructions for medicine. It's a very good idea to check with him on non-prescription drugs. The fifth largest cause of hospital admission is drug misuse resulting from self-medication. Be sure to ask your A.D. Pharmacist.

Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband insists that because boys will be boys, every boy should have his first sexual experience with a prostitute. He has several reasons: she can teach him about sex, there are no repercussions from the encounter, and it's preferable to learning with some Mama's girl in the back seat of a car.

I didn't know whether to laugh or fit him but on re-considering, I informed him that the boy could wind up with V.D. and as for learning about sex in a house of prostitution, that was tantamount to learning about good food in the town sewer.

Educational course?

I also asked him if he thought that when our daughters reach their late teens, they should go to a male prostitute, to learn all about sex, 'cause 'girls will be girls,' just as boys will be boys. He didn't think that was funny, and said to ask Abby. So I'm asking you.

DEAR M.C.: If prostitutes offer educational courses for inexperienced boys, it's news to me. Perhaps your husband knows some who do. He has a graduate degree and what if a student develops such a graduate degree in "Mama's manna" that he keeps going back for graduate courses?

I'm on your side, Mother. And I'll bet the prostitutes are, too.

DEAR ABBY: I am nearly 60 years old and have a question which I hope you can answer for me as it has troubled me for a long time. I have a photograph of my dear departed mother, and her first child—my older sister, who is also now dead. I know that it is possible to have pictures copied. I imagine they simply take a picture of the original, which should do no damage to the original.

My problem is that this picture refuses to do that. The original picture is out of her sight. She is now convinced that it will do the original no harm in having a picture taken of it but is there any place where this can be done while a person waits? She will not hear of leaving it overnight anywhere. She lives in Chicago. Thank you.

SIGN ME OLD

DEAR OLD: There ought to be a photographic studio in Chicago that would produce a copy of the original while you and your relative wait. Ask around.

DEAR ABBY: Here's how I have succeeded in getting my name off "junk" mailing lists: I simply cross off my name and address, and write "RETURNED TO SENDER" on the envelope. Then I drop it in a mailbox.

I sent the company money to receive the price of a mail-back so they seem eager to drop my name from their list. Of course, you may refuse the mail without opening the envelope and you get off numerous bills that way.

Teacher salary measure stalls

By DAVID ESPO
 T-N Capitol Bureau

Senate Health, Education and Welfare Committee took no action Monday on a proposal to set a $7,300 floor on teachers' salaries in the state.

Committee members, who decided earlier in the session to introduce the bill, are now looking at a measure that would raise the level of pay to beginning instructors with a bachelor's degree to $7,300 over a three-year period.

Early in the session, the Idaho Education Association, which has a three-year incremental plan, would have local school districts to fund the increased payroll costs.

Currently, according to a study by a group appointed by the State Board of Education, one district has a minimum salary of $4,800, while only two districts have a minimum salary of $7,300 or over.

Sen. Robert Saxvick, I-10, suggested that instead of passing legislation establishing an entire pay scale for teachers, the committee should deal with beginning teachers. He said that might make the plan more acceptable to the "troops" people involved directly.

He suggested permitting local school districts to devise their own salary schedules above the beginning level. But Saxvick responded the floor provision would actually be a ceiling if the measure were adopted, and opposed the idea.

Sen. Tom Swenson, R-Camden, said it would be difficult to pass any legislation because of the necessity of the economy. If a depression should hit the country, he said, school districts wouldn't have the funds to fund the minimum salary costs.

Valley votes

T-N Capitol Bureau

BOISE — Here is the roll call of Magic Valley representatives on the reapportionment bill that passed the House Monday on a vote of 42-28. The measure splits Gooding County between two legislative districts, and also puts the Bell Rapids area of Twin Falls County into a district with Camas and Pocatello.

Joint panel OK's first budget bill

BOISE (UPI) — The Joint Finance-Appropriation Committee Monday approved the first of the budget measures — a bill which would give public schools more than $1 million over this year's appropriation.

By a vote of 11-7, the committee adopted a 1975 fiscal budget figure of $715,000,000 and by the same vote moved it to the floor with a "do pass" recommendation.

It was one of three figures recommended to the committee. A recommendation of $70,300,000 was voted on first, but that went down 19-85 for a vote of 6-13.

The figure approved by the committee represented more than a million dollars more than that requested by the State Board of Education and was $2.5 million above the recommendation of the Senate Health, Education and Welfare Committee.

Appropriated for fiscal 1974 was $69.3 million.

Gov. Cecil D. Andrus suggested in his budget message $67,000,000, which included $8.7 million in revenue sharing funds. The governor requested an increase of $10,700,000 for fiscal 1975.

Amended remap bill clears Gem House

BOISE (UPI) — House Republicans used their legislative majority today to amend and pass a 42-28 reapportionment bill that one member said "makes everybody a little bit mad."

Basically, the bill is the same as one approved earlier by the House, except it includes Eastern Idaho and takes some population out of Canyon County as well as Ada County and puts it into District 9.

Neither Ada or Canyon counties liked the amendments plugged into the measure, but most of them went along with the changes for they were explained in a Republican caucus.

Rep. Harold Reid, D-Cromwell, said the bill is a "one-party system" in reapportionment.

"I'm sorry we've got to a situation where we don't have a two-party system in reapportionment," Reid said, calling

New no-fault bill printed

BOISE (UPI) — After a lengthy discussion, the Senate Finance Committee today voted 5-2 to print a no-fault insurance bill.

The move rescinded an action by the committee last week when it stalled printing on a 3-3 vote.

Spokesman for the Idaho State Bar, legal lawyers and the insurance industry appeared before the committee to push for introduction of their versions of no-fault.

Noting that this was the 50th day of the current session, Senate Assistant Majority leader David Bivens, R-Fayette, said he was starting out about 30 days too late.

Order delays board hearing

BURLEY — A court restraining order was served on the Cassia County School board by attorneys for the father of a junior high school student at a special school board expulsion hearing Monday night. The restraining order prevented the board from proceeding with a hearing until the case can be heard in juvenile court. It also ordered the reinstatement of the student who has been suspended from school since Feb. 20. The order issued by Magistrate Judge Gleason Anderson calls for a juvenile hearing Thursday. School board attorney Herman Brumbaugh said the board agrees the expulsion hearing until after the legal question is settled. The school board had sought to expel the student because of alleged truancy.

TWIN FALLS — A small Twin Falls group is trying to pull area taxpayers together to protest state and unrepresentative taxes. The People's Coalition, according to member Hal Halper, is an organization that wants to get people together to do the protest they decide upon.

The group plans a public meeting to discuss the tax structure and to decide what to do next. The group is not yet organized, but Halper says it is unfair and they've got to do something.

A statement distributed by the group quoted from the declaration of rights in the Idaho State Constitution saying that "an individual is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their equal protection and benefit, and they have the right to alter, reform or abolish the same whenever they shall deem necessary." The tax community, played for the good of the community, should be used for the good of the community.

the community that pays it," the statement said. "When the taxes paid exceed the needed reinforcement and reimbursement owed to and expected by the community, it is time to alter the discretionary flow of these taxes."

For example, the statement said, gasoline taxes are rising to the point where many people can hardly afford this necessary while the US government is trading the country's oil rights to Arab states which refuse to give this country oil.

Halper said, "We don't disagree with all taxes. We agree with taxes that work for the American people and not for the fattenings of other people. Our tax dollars are being used to pollute the streets aren't safe, the water is polluted, the air is polluted, he said, "and where is all the money going?"

Halper said, "Simply an organization to help people decide on. We are a group of respectable citizens who are outraged and fed up with the inequality and unconstitutionality of our tax law."

Players association picks up insurance voided by owners

CHICAGO (UPI)—The National Football League Players Association will continue group life and health insurance for members for at least one month after the policy provided by league owners is canceled March 31, player representatives decided Monday night.

Cost of continuation of the insurance was estimated at about $5,000 monthly. Individual players will be asked to pay the cost of their family policies estimated at $20 a month.

The board of player representatives planned to meet early next week to see if they wanted to continue in the group plan. It emphasized the insurance would be continued for a month.

The union will allow any members and their families to be without health and hospital insurance for a month.

Ed Garvey said a director of the association is in contact with the owners by the end of the first month. The players' board has authorized us to continue for a second month.

You can be certain that our negotiations with the owners will include retroactive payment of insurance premiums that have been paid by the NFL PA of our players.

Earl F. Washington, the union's financial officer, said gross revenue of $2 million per club is available in 1973 and that the gross profit on the average for the clubs was just over $2 million per club.

ISU-Montana battle may put loser in NIT

MISSOULA, Mont. (UPI)—For the first time in the history of the Big Sky Conference basketball race the runner-up might go somewhere besides the consolation tournament.

Montana and Idaho State tied for the Big Sky title with 11-3 conference records. They are both the overall and "other" conference champions.

Montana best Idaho State in the playoff between the center court championship game. The game was played on the 1973-74 season. The game was a close one, but Idaho State won by a score of 75-72.

For other teams, an NCAA or NIT bid would be a first. When State has been the traditional Big Sky representative in the NIT tournament, but the Idaho's finished third in the conference this year, failing to win the league crown for the first time in 1973.

What's the most boring job in the world? That's what the members of Harvard's Institute of Policy Studies wanted to know. Their intensive investigations resulted in a list of these, live jobs as the most boring of all: 1. Assembly line worker, 2. Elevator operator, 3. Pool taker, 4. Bank guard, 5. Housewife. Also listed by the outfit as among the most boring of occupations are those of key puncher, copy machine operator and highway toll collector.

Bean prices continue climbing

DENVER, Colo. — Bean prices continued to climb this week, still holding at about 500 per cent of last year's prices at the same time.

The transportation of "agriculture marketing service" in Denver lists southern Idaho pintos at $60 to $60 per hundred weight last week compared to $40-$45 last week and $2.00 to $2.25 a year ago.

Colorado Northern were selling at $55-$57 this week up about $1 and compared to $9.50 last year. The supply of Wyoming, Nebraska and North Dakota pintos was not sufficient to establish a market.

Great Northern of Southern Idaho went for $47 to $50 last week, $45 to $48 a week ago and $15 to $15.25 last year.

Two red and pink in Idaho sold at $56-$60 last week.

Chicago — Beans closed with a gain of 12 1/2 cents at $12-12 1/2 last year.

The marketing service indicated all bean varieties again registered gains as demand outstripped supply.

Trading was limited as some buyers reduced stocks for month-end tax inventory.

However, as growers held remaining stocks in extremely high hands, available supplies remained insufficient to meet trade needs.

Most grower bids and selling prices subject to negotiations as supplies "dropped and markets advanced."

Prices normally were about $2 to $5 higher on pinks and reds with extremely limited offerings in Idaho and Washington supplies too short to provide an estimate of market levels.

Bargaining meet in Burley Friday

BURLEY — Potato growers bargaining committees have received a 10 percent offer for all potatoes grading US No. 2 processing grade and better.

He said final settlement on contracts is pending agreement on several of the quality incentive clauses.

Members of the growers have been meeting regularly with bargaining personnel from the growers.

Current offers of the US and Canada will have current information regarding potato stocks, planting intentions and bargaining progress.

all citizens of concern, Huntman said.

Spuds slide

CHICAGO — For the fourth day in a row, May Idaho russet potatoes moved lower.

Closing at 45.25 per hundredweight.

Commodity News Service said the closing price was a cent off the daily trading floor.

Volume was moderate-124 traders.

Chicago prices again followed the lead of New York.

Maine potatoes, which posted limit losses.

Cash markets reported slow trade, with Idaho russets steady at 44.00-44.50 per cwt Monday.

Cattle futures off

CHICAGO — Live-cattle futures closed with limit losses in every contract Monday after opening lower and an early drop to limit levels.

It was the fourth consecutive day of limit losses, and Commodity News Service reported restricted volume at 2,023 contracts traded.

The main weakness reportedly stems from clogged pipelines and the liquidation of heavy cattle, combined with a drop in consumer demand.

Effects were also felt in the dressed beef market, where 500,000 pound carcasses fell 2 cents to 68 cents per pound. All other weights slipped a cent to a low of 62.01 cents for 800-900 pound carcasses.

Feeder cattle futures also edged lower.

Contracts after opening, limit loss and trading eased down most of the day.

Volume was restricted, with only 39 contracts traded.
