Douglas hospitalized

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Retired U.S. Justice William O. Douglas was reported in good condition today at Good Samaritan Hospital, where he is receiving physical therapy for the effects of a stroke suffered a year ago.

Douglas, 77, was admitted to the hospital Sunday for continued rehabilitation and because he was experiencing discomfort, a hospital spokesman said.

Douglas was in "good condition and good spirits," according to Dr. Joseph Paquet, the justice's longtime physician.

Blast kills 3

MADRID, Spain (UPI) — Three workers died and five were injured today in an acetylene gas explosion at the Chrysler automobile factory, police said.

Trudeau disappointed

PARIS (UPI) — Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau said Sunday he is disappointed but not angry at not being invited to the Rambouillet summit conference.

In a Montreal interview with French television, Trudeau said, "I believe it was a sort of misunderstanding that will be straightened out in the future."

Trudeau added, "Certainly, Canada would have liked to be present. I know that the other participants, except France, wanted this as well."

Cleaver to surrender

PARIS (UPI) — Former Black Panther Eldridge Cleaver went to the U.S. embassy today and told officials he will return to the United States Tuesday after seven years in exile.

Cleaver, 40, who fled the United States to avoid imprisonment, reportedly has decided to surrender to American authorities.

He is wanted in California for violation of parole terms and for prosecution on assault charges in connection with a shooting with Oakland, Calif., police.

Anti-bribe bill planned

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Les Aspin, D-Wis., says U.S. firms paid $306 million in bribes, political contributions and fees in foreign countries — and he wants to curb those payments.

Aspin said he will propose legislation to make it a federal crime for a U.S. company "to offer a bribe or demand a kickback from a foreigner in the course of doing business."

Exxon Chairman Clifton C. Garvin Jr. said Sunday he had called a halt to Exxon political contributions in foreign countries. He told reporters on a television panel program, "CBS's Face the Nation" that Exxon had made such contributions to political parties in Australia and Japan as well as Italy, where Exxon disclosed earlier payments totaling $16 million had been made to political parties.

Arafat in Libya

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Palestinian "Revolution" leader Yasser Arafat arrived in Benghazi, Libya, Saturday night, the Arab Revolution News Agency said Sunday.

The Libyan agency said the chairman of the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), was accompanied by Abdel Mohsen Abou Melzar, PLO's official spokesman.

Fromme trial resumes

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — President Ford's unprecedented testimony that he heard no "click" when Lynette Fromme thrust a pistol at him could help her defense fight the charge she attempted to kill the chief executive, her attorney says.

Attorney John Virga was to make his opening statement to the eight-woman, four-man jury and call the first of his "live" witnesses today in the trial of Miss Fromme, 27, a red-haired follower of convicted mass murderer Charles Manson.

Abortion ruling set

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today agreed to review a Massachusetts law which requires an unwed minor to obtain the consent of both parents before she can undergo an abortion.

The Court said it would hear arguments in the Massachusetts case along with an appeal raising similar challenges to the Missouri abortion law which the justices already had agreed to hear later this term.

Soviets restore relations

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union announced today it is restoring diplomatic relations with Uganda just six days after breaking them off.

Committee works overtime on Douglas replacement

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An American Bar Association committee worked into the early morning hours today preparing its report on the qualifications of 11 men being considered by President Ford to succeed William O. Douglas on the Supreme Court.

Warren Christopher, the panel chairman, said members would continue to review names "over the next several days at least." An ABA spokesman said "they haven't completed anything" and might not finish until next week.

ABA recommendations have no binding effect on Ford, who may select someone not on the list. But the Senate will seek an ABA recommendation on whoever is nominated.

The list contains only names of men, while a campaign has developed among women's groups to persuade Ford he should name the first woman ever to the court.

Christopher said he would keep Attorney General Edward Levi advised on the committee's decisions as it worked through the list submitted by the President.

Sunday evening, Christopher said only about half the names had been discussed, and "We're still far from completion."

The spokesman said the members of the ABA Standing Committee on Federal Judiciary would talk by telephone, and no further meetings have been scheduled.

The committee of 12 ABA members plus five other lawyers met from 10 a.m. Sunday until past midnight to review the list Levi gave it on Thursday. The panel had planned to send Levi its recommendations early this week, but Sunday's meeting took longer than expected and it was not clear how long it would take to complete the report.

Presumably the committee was voting on which of three categories it would place each candidate. The categories are "not qualified," "qualified" and "meeting high standards of judicial temperament," integrity and competence."

Even a vote of "qualified" would be a setback for a candidate hopeful of getting the nomination because it would mean the ABA is not enthusiastic about the person.

The list is known to include two politicians, Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich. and Rep. Charles Wiggins, R-Calif. It also includes Solicitor General Robert Bork and several judges on U.S. courts of appeals.

Everyone on the ABA committee and on the list of possible nominees is a white male.

ABA committee chairman Warren Christopher, a former deputy attorney general now practicing law in Los Angeles, refused to speculate on how the committee would view any individual candidate.

SECURITY FORCES and newsmen surround President Ford, British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt, French President Giscard d'Estaing and Japanese Premier Takao Aoki as they walked today from the Chateau de Rambouillet to the City Hall in Rambouillet, France. (UPI)

MV beet growers collect $$$

By CRICKET BIRD
Times-News writer

TWIN FALLS — Nearly $20 million will be pumped into the economy of Magic Valley in the next few days as growers receive initial payments for this year's sugar beet crop.

Most of the money will probably be used to pay off loans, according to the manager of a large farm loan operation.

Amalgamated Sugar Co. has mailed initial payment checks of $44 million to sugar beet growers in Idaho, Oregon and Utah, with $19.3 million going to growers in the Twin Falls and Mini-Cassia districts.

Payment levels are down substantially from last year, according to Henry Zobell, agriculture vice president for Amalgamated. The miller payment this year is $23.70 per ton, compared with $31.40 for Idaho beets last year, he said.

The drop in payment level is primarily due to a "weak" market, he added. Growers are paid for their beets on the basis of the sugar content and the net amount Amalgamated receives for the sugar from Oct. 1 this year to Sept. 30, 1976, Zobell said.

Earl Stansell, manager of the Production Credit Association, said the sugar beet payments make a definite impact in the Magic Valley.

"November is historically our biggest month for repayment," he said. "The farmers who have grown beets come right in and apply (the payment) on their loan."

Most other payments are sporadic, Stansell said, but added, "On the day following a beet payment, you have a lot of traffic in the office. It's very noticeable."

Most farmers will use the payments to repay loans, Stansell predicted. If it's a good year, they might use any leftover to buy new machinery or other goods.

Zobell said the sugar crop was "looking better" than was expected because of a favorable growing season in August and September.

TF officials say humans not involved in mutilations

By BONNIE BAIRD JONES
Times-News writer

TWIN FALLS — Martians, cultists and pranksters aren't involved in cattle mutilations in Twin Falls county, according to sheriff's officers here.

Investigations of all supposed cattle and horse mutilations reported in Twin Falls county this year have convinced the Twin Falls county sheriff's office no mutilations by human hands have occurred.

Acting Sheriff T. M. Kendrick said all dead animals he has seen as well as those investigated by the county's range officers have died of natural causes followed by "mutilation" by predators.

When the animal dies, he said, coyotes or packs of dogs frequently move in and attempt to eat the meat.

He said the animals will first work on the soft flesh areas because of the toughness of the cow hide. As a result many of the dead animals are found with missing sex organs, udders, and with parts of the tongue, nose or eyes missing. Birds will also tear away the eyes, ears and nose of the animal.

Kendrick said as the dead animal's body begins to swell the torn skin will stretch tight, giving the appearance of a clean sharp cut.

"In those I have seen, you can sometimes find a fine jagged edge in layers of skin under the outer layer," Kendrick said.

Sheriff Paul Corder said he agrees with this theory and personally feels there have been no mutilation by humans in this county.

"I can't say this holds true in all areas and there may or have been a group of people killing livestock for some reason, but I do not feel any of the deaths in our county were from other than natural causes," Corder said.

Kendrick said many of the animals had been dead for a long period of time when officers were notified and it was difficult to determine if they had been shot or had died of natural causes.

One case of a skin being peeled away on a live animal, Kendrick said, was diagnosed by a veterinarian as a crack-in-the-skin from a combination of antibiotics of food supplements that had sun.

Kendrick said a law enforcement officer, received in the local sheriff's office from North Dakota also labeled all so-called mutilation cases in that state as the result of predator attacks of feeding after the animal had died.

The state veterinarian in Utah has also announced all cases known to his department in that state have proven to be natural causes or predator kill.

Kendrick said he had occasion to visit with news representatives from Utah who were checking on Twin Falls county cases.

"They told me there was one case in that state where they long time cattlemen said they were certain the animal had died by or been mutilated by some strange method," Kendrick said.

In the case of horses found dead near Muthaugh, Kendrick said they had been dead for a long period of time and it was difficult to determine a cause, but he yelled, damage to the carcasses had been caused by predators.

"This is not to say that in some areas, there may be something else killing the animals, but in our area, I would say no. Sometimes the publicity given such cattle deaths will encourage someone else to want to get into the act and some animals may have been cut up by such persons," Kendrick said.

Laos, Thailand battle on river

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI) — Laoan and Thai gunboats sank a Thai gunboat on the Mekong river today, launching of an escalating battle between the two nations that continued hours after dark.

Field reports said Thai helicopter gunships hovering on their side of the Mekong river just northwest of the Laoan capital of Vientiane were firing at Pathet Lao forces inside Laos.

Crime rate soars

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Serious crime rose more last year than in any previous year on record, the FBI said today.

The FBI's 253-page 1974 Uniform Crime Report said 10.1 million serious crimes occurred in 1974, about 15 million more than in 1973 — an increase of 18 per cent. Serious crime includes murder, rape, robbery, assault, burglary, theft and auto theft.

The increase is the biggest shown in the 14 years records have been kept in the present form and probably was the biggest in history, an FBI spokesman said.

There were 4,821 serious crimes per 100,000 population, nearly the crime for every 20 persons. There was a sharper increase in crimes against property than for crimes of violence.

When a preliminary 1974 report in March showed an increase of nearly 17 per cent, Attorney General Edward Levi said the figures "represent a tragic failure on the part of our present system of criminal justice."

The report showed percentages of increase were lowest — 12 per cent — in cities of more than 250,000 population compared to 20 per cent increases in suburban and rural areas.

Crime rates remained much higher in the urban centers, however. The rate per 100,000 inhabitants was 5,621 for metropolitan areas, 4,027 for other cities and 1,746 for rural areas.

Thefts showed the biggest increase, 21 per cent, followed by burglaries 18.5 per cent, robberies 15.1 per cent, rapes 7.8 per cent, assaults 8.5 per cent, murders 5.5 per cent and auto thefts 5.2 per cent.

Preliminary 1975 estimates show the high rate of crime has continued this year. A report for the first quarter showed another 18 per cent gain, but by June 30 it had dropped to 13 per cent.

Death contributed heavily to the big general increase, the report showed. Arrests of persons under 18 years old increased 9 per cent. For those over 18 the increase was 1 per cent.

Women have become involved in serious crimes in far greater numbers than ever, the report showed.

Court upholds sex act laws

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court ruled today that broad application of laws banning "crimes against nature" are not unconstitutionally vague if there are state court interpretations generally defining what conduct is prohibited.

With three justices dissenting, the Court summarily reversed a decision by the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which had held the law in Tennessee was too vague and did not give a definite, clear warning what acts might be held illegal.

In its unsigned opinion, the Supreme Court noted that statutes against "crimes against nature" stemmed from the common law of England and had been widely adopted since the birth of the United States. "Crimes against nature" have generally meant a wide variety of unusual sex acts.

"Anyone who cared to do so could certainly determine what particular acts have been considered crimes against nature," the Court said in reinstating a five to seven-year prison sentence for Harold Locke.

Locke was convicted of entering a neighbor's apartment wearing a butcher knife and performing cunnilingus on her.

The Supreme Court had upheld the constitutionality of such laws twice before. It noted that in some states the law is narrowly interpreted to prohibit only sodomy. In other states, such as Tennessee, it is applied more broadly.

Although the Tennessee courts had not applied the law against cunnilingus in the past, the Supreme Court noted it had been applied against (Lellico). The justices said Locke was put on notice that his state was applying the law broadly — and that cunnilingus would be a included offense.

Valley obituaries

James W. West

HEYBURN — James Wilburn West, 71, Heyburn, former Kimberly resident, died Sunday afternoon at the home of his daughter following a sudden illness.

He was born March 29, 1904, in Tennessee. He married Jewell Harrison in 1935. She died March 10, 1949. Mr. West then married Mary Jenkins in May, 1950, and she died in February, 1953. He worked as a carpenter and was a member of the carpenter's union and the Kimberly senior citizens group.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ralph (Barbara) Johnson, Heyburn, and Mary Jane West. Burial: two step-daughters, Evelyn Frederick, Riverside, Calif., and Peggy Williams, San Ramon, Calif.; one brother, Claude West, Riverside; three sisters, Irene Osborne, San Diego, Calif.; Lillian Bryan, and Marie Glascock, Birmingham, Ala.; 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the McCulloch Funeral Chapel, Heyburn, with Bishop Ray Bailey officiating. Burial will be in the Riverside Cemetery at Heyburn. Friends may call at McCulloch's Wednesday afternoon and evening and prior to services Thursday.

Virgil Gilliland

FILER — Virgil Franklin Gilliland, 64, Filer, died Sunday at the Veterans Hospital, following a long illness.

He was born Jan. 21, 1911, at Fidelity, Kans., and married Mary Elizabeth Hollis at Holton, Kans., on Aug. 6, 1937.

The couple came to Filer in 1947 and had lived here since that time. Prior to his retirement, Mr. Gilliland was employed by Ore-Ida Foods. He was a veteran of World War II, serving with the U.S. Army.

Survivors include his wife, Filer, four brothers Jess Gilliland, Salina, Kans.; Charles E. Gilliland, Atchison, Kans.; Everett Gilliland, Lancaster, Kans.; and Harvey Gilliland, Elftingham, Kans.; two sisters Mrs. Thelma Houck, Delta, Kans., and Mrs. Lena Webster, Whiting, Kans.

He was preceded in death by one brother.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the Chaney Mortuary in Filer, Kans. Final rites will be in the Muscatel Cemetery, Kansas.

Friends may call at White Mortuary Tuesday evening.

The family suggests that memorials be made to the Cancer Fund.

Donnie Pearce

He was preceded in death by an infant daughter and his father.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday, 1 p.m. at the United Methodist Church of Rupert with the Reverend Mervyn C. Shay officiating. Interment will be in the Fairhaven Cemetery Santa Ana, California. Friends may call at Walk-Hensan Mortuary, Tuesday at afternoon and evening and at the place of service one hour prior service Wednesday.

Raymond Hammond

RUPERT — Raymond Jay Hammond, 21; Rupert resident, died November 15 due to a boating accident.

Funeral services and complete obituary will be announced by Walk-Hensan Mortuary, Rupert.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The attorneys for Patricia Hearst are confident the odds favor them because of an appellate court decision in another case — in their attempt to get a two-month extension of her Dec. 15 trial date.

The defense legal team has said the newspaper heiress' mind is still tangled because of the "brainwashing" she underwent while with the Symbionese Liberation Army. The lawyers say they need more time to prepare her case.

Attorneys for the defense and prosecution have a closed-door meeting scheduled today with U.S. District Judge Oliver Carter to discuss the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals' decision in the case of Sara Jane Moore, accused of trying to kill President Ford.

The court said a judge could decide if the "apple" of psychiatric examinations could be deducted from provisions of the new federal Speedy Trial Act, which says a defendant must be brought to trial within 90 days of arrest.

Miss Moore was sent to San Diego for a two-month psychiatric evaluation.

Miss Hearst, 21, daughter of San Francisco Examiner President Randolph Hearst, underwent a similar evaluation in San Mateo County Jail in nearby Redwood City, where she is being held without bail on bank robbery charges.

U.S. prosecutors sought quick trials for both Miss Hearst and Miss Moore to abide by the new speedy trial act.

Miss Hearst was arrested here Sept. 18. She was abducted by the SLA on Feb. 4, 1974. The bank robbery occurred three months after her kidnapping. She had through taped communications she had joined the SLA.

Carter ruled recently Miss Hearst was mentally competent to stand trial and he set Thursday for pretrial motions. But the Thursday hearing may not occur if the judge agrees to permit an extension of the trial date.

At the request of the defense, Dr. William Sargent, a brainwash expert who testified prisoners held by the Irish Republican Army and British soldiers during World War II, flew here from London Friday night and visited Miss Hearst during the weekend.

The defense said it hopes Sargent would back its contention Miss Hearst needs immediate psychiatric help. Now, the lawyers said, she is not able to assist them in preparing their defense because of the fragile state of her mind.

delivered to a congressional committee last week by Harold Saunders, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Near Eastern Affairs.

The communication "includes mistakes and extensive distortion from a factual and political point of view which cannot be disregarded."

Israeli political sources said the government was disturbed by Saunders' suggestion there were moderate elements in the PLO, arguing instead that the entire group was extremist.

The sources said Israeli leaders also objected to Saunders' reference to the Palestinian question as the heart of the problem. They consider refusal by the Arab nations to recognize Israel as the major stumbling block to peace.

Israel sets conditions for talks

By United Press International

Israel says it will agree to reopen the Geneva peace talks if Syria renews the mandate for U.N. troops patrolling the cease-fire lines in the Golan Heights. The mandate expires Nov. 30.

In our answer we repeated and emphasized that Israel will not conduct any negotiations with the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Rabin said in a communique: "The newspaper Ma'ariv reported in a dispatch from the United Nations that staff sources there said Syria was ready to extend the mandate for two to three months if Secretary General Kurt Waldheim went to Damascus to suggest the move."

At the United Nations, a spokesman for Waldheim said Sunday the secretary general was considering a Middle East trip to discuss renewing the agreement.

The Israeli communique also said a U.S. State Department position paper on the Palestinian question was inaccurate and showed "extensive bias."

Moore trial delayed

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The case of Sara Jane Moore, 45, a former FBI informant accused of trying to kill President Ford, could become the first exception to the new federal speedy trial law.

Miss Moore, mother of a 9-year-old boy, was arrested Sept. 22 after firing a pistol at Ford as he emerged from a downtown San Francisco hotel. The bullet missed the president.

A judge had set Dec. 15 for her trial. But her attorneys said the law's requirement that suspects be tried within 90 days of arrest did not take into consideration mental evaluations. The statute went into effect Sept. 29.

Miss Moore recently underwent two months of psychiatric examinations at a federal correctional facility in San Diego to determine whether she is mentally able to stand trial.

Her attorneys successfully appealed to the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals that they be given an additional two months to prepare their case because their client was in southern California.

U.S. District Judge Samuel Conit was to rule today on whether Miss Moore is mentally competent.

Church support urged

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The president of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops today urged a church agenda including more support for human rights, protection of the unborn and a wider role for women in the church.

Archbishop Joseph L. Bernardini made his remarks as he presided for the first time over the annual fall meeting of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops. The Cincinnati prelate was elected president of the conference at last fall's meeting.

The issue of women's roles in the church was not officially before the conference, but it was certain there would be discussion of the issue.

In his opening remarks, Bernardini said, "in dialogue with the Church we must seek ways which bring more women, with their unique talents and charisma, into the mainstream of the life of the church."

"But we must be certain that what is done is consistent with the will of Christ. It is against these demanding criteria that arguments for ordination of women must and will be measured."

Probe set

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A rocket scheduled to be launched this week has been equipped with an instrument to help determine if deodorants, insecticides and hair sprays are ruining the earth's protective ozone layer.

Some scientists fear the gases in ordinary spray cans are rising into the atmosphere, reacting with gases there and eroding the ozone layer which shields the earth from ultraviolet radiation from the sun.

Deodorant, ozone protection and hair spray have been related to higher incidence of skin cancer.

Chief gives theft warning

TWIN FALLS — With opening of the ski season at hand, Detective Chief Tim Qualls, Twin Falls, today reminded skiers there are ski thieves who show up as regularly as the snow season. Every skier should keep a record of the serial number of his skis and have an identifying mark on them in case of theft. If the skis do not have a number, the skier may bring them to the Twin Falls police Department detective's office and have an identifying number stenciled on them.

Many persons use name plates which are removable and are not adequate proof of ownership when removed. Some other identifying mark, the name engraved in the skis themselves, or a serial number which has been recorded in the owner's records would protect the owner and help in recovery of the stolen skis if they are located by officers. Qualls also said there are still far too many gun thefts being experienced with the current hunting season. Gun racks in the cabs of pickup trucks are designed for carrying the guns, not storing them, he said.

Collective bargaining laws aired at meet

BY BONNIE BAIRD JONES
Times-News Writer

TWIN FALLS — Collective bargaining laws with proper arbitration would eliminate the possibility of civil employee strikes, Jim Martinez, Idaho State Council of Firefighters said here Saturday.

Martinez, district seven vice president for the state association of firefighters was one of several speakers addressing concluding sessions of the three-day collective bargaining seminar sponsored by the International Association of Firefighters and the Idaho Council.

A total of 26 delegates from eight Idaho cities and Ogden, Utah, attended the educational program.

Bart Brown, Idaho Commissioner of Labor, also spoke Saturday discussing the proposed collective bargaining legislation for all public employees. The bill has twice been defeated by the Idaho legislature, he said, but will be introduced again in the coming session.

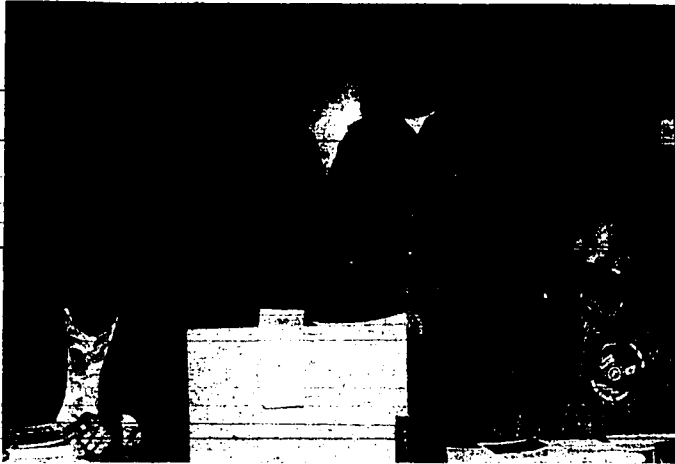

Brown said should the new bill be adopted it would encompass the firefighters. Only the firefighters and school teachers have been able to achieve passage of legislation allowing them to organize and represent members in collective bargaining for working conditions and benefits.

Robert Chase, Boise, president of the Idaho State Council of Firefighters conducted seminar sessions introducing speakers.

Dr. Ross Atwood, director of education for the International Association of Firefighters, Washington, D.C., stressed the importance of education of the public through public relations programs and of members through education within the organization.

TF woman heads unit

TWIN FALLS — Mrs. Nedra Gentry, Twin Falls, was elected president of the Desert Gold CowBelles Friday at the group's luncheon meeting in the Holiday Inn.

Church's 'rogue elephant'

WASHINGTON — A widely overlooked declaration by Rep. Otis Pike of New York that the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) has not been a rogue elephant reflects widening disillusionment with the way Sen. Frank Church of Idaho is conducting his investigation of U.S. intelligence while eyeing a bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Church, chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, last July described the CIA as a "rogue elephant rampaging out of control" in plotting assassinations of foreign leaders — a characterization he since has steadfastly defended. Thus, a flat rejection of that charge by Pike, chairman of the House Intelligence Committee, amounts to both vindication of CIA officials and repudiation of Sen. Church.

Pike's statement was not personally aimed against Church. Nevertheless, it indicates that the general belief Church is fastidiously conducting a model investigation has given way to disillusionment about him within the intelligence community, and by some members including a Democrat or two in his committee. While Church's standing on the Democratic party's left wing has been raised to presidential stature, he now may face revolt within his own committee.

The first sign of Church, solemn and studious, running less than a clinically non-political investigation on July 16 in an interview with Muriel Dobson of the Baltimore Sun, Church predicted the committee's report on political assassinations would reveal the CIA as a "rogue elephant" acting without presidential authorization. Challenged for substantiation on NBC's "Meet the Press" Aug. 12, Church declared: "I think that that statement will be borne out when the evidence is fully disclosed in the report." Nor has he backed down since then.

But some Church committee members believe the rogue elephant charge mainly reflected the chairman's desire to shield President John F. Kennedy from complicity in assassination plots against Fidel Castro. Beyond that, the charge may reflect an anti-CIA bias — by committee staffers and perhaps Church himself — so strong they do not want the agency's misadventures blamed on presidential direction.

With committee members maintaining a facade of unity, such criticism was not made public. Similarly, Pike has never uttered a critical word about his Senate counterpart's conduct of the CIA investigation.

But Pike's investigators found the CIA, far from a rogue elephant, was a domesticated plow horse yoked to presidential desires. The CIA vigorously resisted helping the Kurdish revolt in Iraq until directly ordered by President Richard M. Nixon. Similarly, covert CIA activities in Chile generally were approved against by the CIA but insisted on by the Nixon White House.

More instances were discovered by the Pike committee but remain secret. In one case, an ambassador threatened to order a Marine guard to arrest a CIA station chief unless he embarked on a particularly unsavory covert operation.

Backed by such evidence, Pike declared in an open session of his committee Nov. 4: "What we have learned since (the investigation began) is that the CIA was no rogue elephant. The CIA was not going out on its own ... carrying projects out. The CIA was not a runaway."

Pike surely sought no confrontation with Church. Pike generally says he simply did not know the rogue elephant term was Church's and had he known, would not have repudiated it. But he was, if inadvertently, bolstering Church's critics inside the Senate committee.

Simultaneously, Church is criticized for stressing headline-grabbing diversions — assassination plots and secret poisons — while neglecting central issues. While deploring Pike's blanket denunciations of CIA operations, intelligence officials grudgingly admit his investigation has easily surpassed Church's in coming to grips with the cost, effectiveness and overall utility of the nation's intelligence effort.

The Church committee's most frequently cited horrible example was its ballyhooed hearing, over live television, on the CIA's disobedience of presidential orders to destroy lethal shellfish toxin. The story, peddled all over Capitol Hill by White House operatives, had been rejected by Pike but was accepted by Church. While enabling the White House to show itself in a better light, it also supplied some evidence — fragmentary though it was — for Church's rogue elephant theory.

Still, the Church committee has been more careful than the Pike committee in safeguarding sensitive information — until recently, that is. After forcing open hearings on communications intelligence activity, Church now wants to make public the assassinations report and hold open hearings on CIA covert activities.

The result may be a revolt by committee members, who would be aided — significantly though unwittingly — by Otis Pike's not guilty verdict from the other side of the Capitol.

Time to protect interests

Editor, Times-News: Fellow-citizens and customers of Idaho Power Company:

Our clean air and our ever-shrinking pocketbooks are about to be sold down the river to serve the interests of people who will never breathe the air they will foul or pay the outrageous prices for power which they will charge: the people of whom I speak are the major stockholders of Idaho Power.

The coal-burning plant they plan to build near Boise, called Pioneer, ranks with the biggest boondoggles of our time. Please forget any old assumptions that Idaho Power is a company whose goal is supplying power and serving the public interest!

The goal of this company is a simple, straightforward one: to make all the money they can. The officers who serve the major stockholders of this company are hired, fired or fired, on the basis of the profits they can create for the benefit of Eastern insurance companies and banks. They are trying to create these profits, at our loss through the Pioneer plant.

Please join us in stopping them. Don't be afraid to stand up and say "no" loudly to protect your interests (our nation was founded on this kind of spirit). Join Citizens for Alternatives to Pioneer. Help raise money to fight back.

And join us on Nov. 29 at Seven-Mile Danceland for our Fresh Air Party. Your donation will pay your way into the party, where Tar-water and other Idaho talent will provide some fine entertainment. It will also buy much needed assistance in the form of legal aid, research support, and other services.

Have a hand in a decision that will affect your future!

Another voice against ERA

Editor, Times-News: Thanks to the good judgment and common sense of America's working women, the NOW (National Organization for Women) sponsored women's strike, scheduled for Oct. 30, failed beautifully.

Tuesday, Nov. 4, the states of New York and New Jersey voted No when ERA appeared on their ballots. More and more women are beginning to realize that the so-called Equal Rights Amendment to the U.S. Constitution is a fraud and will not accomplish what its proponents say it will, but rather will only bring about the disorganization of our "family oriented" society, resulting in less freedom for everyone and more federal control of our lives.

When Congress passed and sent the ERA to the state legislatures for ratification on March 22, 1972, most of the 34 states which have ratified did so within the first few weeks. Idaho's legislature ratified on March 23, 1972, only two days after it was sent to the states. No public hearings were held and no debate preceded the legislature's vote. Very swift action for such an important issue.

Since that time a greater awareness has prompted millions of working women and homemakers all over the nation to write to their state legislators to urge them to either rescind or reject the Equal Rights Amendment in their states.

In 1974 Idaho's move to rescind passed the House but failed in the Senate by only two votes. Seven other states rejected ERA and one state rescinded.

It should be noted that ERA must be ratified by 38 states before it becomes a part of the U.S. Constitution and if that happens it can only be changed by another constitutional amendment. No state has any obligation to "conform its laws to the ERA" at this time, as some of its proponents claim.

The states of Maryland and Washington have added state equal rights amendments to their state constitutions. Space allowed to me in the public forum does not permit my going into the multitude of problems those states are having trying to conform their laws to ERA but their experience should stand as a warning to the rest of us.

The year 1975 should be Idaho's year to rescind ERA. I urge all women who haven't already done so to educate yourselves to the danger in this amendment. Information is available locally from the "STOP ERA" committee, phone 733-7115.

Take advantage of hearing any speaker or reading any information which will tell you what women are already losing and stand to lose under ERA. It isn't too early to let your legislators know how you feel about this important issue.

Get informed and let's "STOP ERA" LOUISE KOONTZ Kimberly

Sierra Life story hit

Editor, Times-News: For quite some time I have felt the need to write my feeling to you about some of your articles. It appears your paper has, over the years, attempted to deliberately sabotage a fine company that is a real financial asset to Twin Falls and the surrounding areas.

I am, of course, referring to Sierra Life Insurance Company and the irresponsible headline article in last Sunday's Times-News.

While I realize it is your responsibility to sell papers, and you feel people will buy sensationalism, I do not feel you are aware of the damage you are doing to a perfectly solvent legal reserve life insurance company, much less the extra pressures and burdens you are placing on some real fine agents by the adverse publicity.

The headline Sunday was obviously done with tongue-in-cheek attitude but many people won't bother to read the entire article which would help to put a different light on things, so they read that Sierra Life is "insolvent." I have some 1,500 clients who are some of the finest people in the world. I'm happy they bought "me" and know that I am not going to lie or mislead them in any way, regardless of what they read in the news papers.

If you continue to peek away trying to un-determine a real fine financial institution, you just might possibly succeed, and if you do, you and greater Twin Falls will be the losers!

Thank you for your courtesies over the years, but cancel my subscription as I can no longer support you.

WILBURN W. "Jim" WINKLE, CLU General Agent Sierra Life Insurance Co.

No Hagerman foot-dragging

To the people of Hagerman: One of the candidates in our recent election for the City of Hagerman stated he would "like to have the state run tests" on our domestic water. In order to clarify this wrong thinking, I should like to submit the following:

First of all we do have the health department drop-by and, unannounced, take samples of our water at various locations.

This we welcome as we certainly do not want to offer contaminated water. It is true the health department on two different samplings found our city water unsuitable for human consumption because of bacteria count. This was caused by the malfunctioning of our chlorinator. This in turn was caused by persons unknown vandalizing, three different times, our chlorinator building. The heaters were stolen and the door destroyed causing freezing damage and water damage to the building and the unit.

After several attempts to salvage the unit, we were advised by the health department to ask our people to boil the water used for drinking.

This we did. Realizing it was not feasible to try further repair to the old unit, we contacted a supplier in Boise who located a new unit in Salt Lake City; this came to us by auto express and was in service in less than twenty-four hours from the time of the health department request.

We have a letter from the health department complimenting us on our excellent and speedy cooperation. This letter is on file at the Hagerman city office and our clerk, Mrs. Herrington, would gladly show this letter to any interested person.

The city has water samples taken at two week intervals at various water user locations. These are sent to the Health Department for testing. Water test results are returned to the city and are filed at the city office. These are also available to interested citizens.

The candidate also accused the council of "dragging its feet too long" on our proposed sewer system. This is misleading as we have been making every effort to satisfy a great number of federal and state agencies.

We have also taken an option on approximately twenty-eight acres of ground for sewerage disposal facility location. This, we are advised will accommodate a population. Four times our present count.

It would have been possible to predict "three years ago," as it is now just when a completion date could be. The citizens of Hagerman may rest assured if someone is "dragging their feet," it is not your council.

Denying, with a number of governmental utilities is quite a complicated matter and one which is quite time consuming. G. P. GILLY RUSSELL-Hettinger mayor Hagerman

Old barn in use

Editor, Times-News: I enjoyed very much your pictures and story about the old barns that have gone to pot around the country.

I do have one of these barns built back in 1910 and I still get a lot of use from it. I've kept it up in fairly good repair by putting a new metal roof on about 20 years ago and painted it once or twice since I've owned it these last 45 years.

I live just a half mile north of Main at Filler and used to milk quite a few cows. Since I quit milking I use the cow side of the barn for a shop and the horse side to house my two small tractor.

I just thought I would write and let you know. FRED MUNYON Filler

American annals

By Encyclopaedia Britannica UPI

"YANKEE DOODLE"

France, Spain, the Netherlands, Germany, and Hungary have all claimed "Yankee Doodle," but the melody seems to have come first from England, where it was a children's game song called "Lucy Locket." Brought to America by the English soldiers who fought in the French and Indian War, the song became popular among the colonists, each settlement having its own set of lyrics. During the Revolutionary war, the British soldiers used a derisive set of lyrics to mock the shabby colonial soldiers, and the colonists in turn had another set of words that eventually became their battle cry. "Yankee" was a contemptuous nickname the British used for the New Englanders; and "doodle" meant "dope, halfwit, fool."

Namesakes paid

BOISE (UPI) — State warrants payable to 7 number of well-known names have crossed the desks of the state treasurer's office the past couple of months.

They weren't for the celebrities, however, but for Idahoans with similar names. Gen. Ison, administrative assistant to Treasurer Marjorie Ruth Moon, said:

Today, Mrs. Ison flipped over a warrant payable to "Howard Hughes." Earlier, she handled warrants payable to persons with such names as Patricia Nixon, Martha Mitchell, Orville Wright and Ethel Kennedy.

FBI directs intensive search for 2 wanted men

ONTARIO, Ore. (UPI) — The FBI directed a house-to-house and aircraft search Sunday for two men — one possibly a fugitive American (Idaho Movement leader — who fled from a shootout with police. The common-law wife of one of the men and three other persons were arrested.

The arrest of Darlene Pearl Nichols, 20, Pine Ridge, S.D., added to the conjecture that one of the men sought was her common-law husband, Dennis Banks, 38. Banks was wanted for failing to appear for sentencing Aug. 5 on rioting and assault charges involving a 1973 demonstration at the Custer, S.D. County Courthouse.

Banks and Leonard Peltier, 31, wanted for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for attempted murder at a police office in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1974, was listed earlier by the FBI as believed to be traveling in either a mobile home or a white station wagon.

The FBI said it had no assurance that the two men sought were either Banks or Peltier, although the vehicles involved in the Friday night incident were a mobile home and white station wagon.

White officers conducted a house-to-house search Saturday, aircraft flew along the Snake River that divides Oregon and Idaho in hopes of spotting either man.

The terrain is mainly ranch land. Bank's wife was charged with violation of provisions of her release on bond from charges last month involving alleged interstate transportation of explosive devices and firearms with serial numbers obliterated.

The charges grew out of an incident on the Kansas Turnpike where the car she was in blew up several months ago.

A second woman, Naguset Eask, 30, New Brunswick, Canada, also was held on federal charges, while Russell James Redner, 28, Eureka, Calif., and Kenneth Landhawk, 21, Pine Ridge, S. D., were jailed on state charges of carrying concealed weapons.

A child with the four adults was placed in the care of State Children's Service officials. State Police said the Friday night shooting started when trooper Ken Griffiths stopped the mobile home with New Mexico license plates and the station wagon, assessing the description of those given in the FBI teletype bulletin.

Griffiths said that when he got out of his patrol car and started searching occupants of the vehicles, one man jumped a fence and ran into a nearby field alongside the highway. A second man also was believed to have fled the scene shortly later.

Griffiths said a shot was fired at him and then the mobile home driver took off, but ran into the median about three-quarters of a mile west of the Idaho state line. Griffiths was joined by other officers and several rounds, including tear gas shells, were fired at the mobile home before the four surrendered.

The van, registered to Frances Martin, Taos, N.M., had about a dozen bullet holes in it.

Council agenda includes report

MOSCOW, Idaho (UPI) — An informational report which elicits the difficulties of collective bargaining at the University of Idaho will be discussed at a faculty council meeting Tuesday.

Prepared by the Faculty Council's ad hoc committee on collective bargaining, the report concludes that "the case for collective bargaining by faculty of the University of Idaho is compelling," but the "climate for successful negotiations is not hospitable."

The report said salaries at the University of Idaho are poor, "no matter what commonly used basis for comparison is employed." It added the average faculty salary of $15,300 is well below that of the Pacific states ($19,800) and the Mountain states ($16,430).

Paramedics welcomed

CALDWELL, Idaho (UPI) — Nampa and Caldwell ambulances will take on new and welcome passengers today, when eight Canyon County paramedics start riding.

The paramedics finished the classroom and clinical part of their five months of training Friday and now will enter the internship phase by riding with the ambulances.

Gerald Dilley, Nampa, one of the eight paramedics, said they will be able to administer hospital care at the scene of an accident or on the way to the hospital. Paramedics are in direct contact with a physician at the hospital and will be supervised by nurses and doctors during their internships.

Land-use plan okayed

BOISE (UPI) — A land-use plan for the Shafer Bunde Planning Unit, which covers most of the foothills north of Boise, has been approved by Edward C. Maw, supervisor of the Boise National Forest.

Maw said the plan supercedes the multiple-use plans developed for the area in 1967 and has been under development since June, 1973. A committee made up of representatives of landowners, wildlife, watershed and recreation aided in the development.

The plan calls for grazing in the Shafer Creek area and primarily recreation in Bogus Basin and prohibits any activities that will damage the watershed or scenic value of the Dry Creek timber ridge visible from Boise.

Vallivue selected

CALDWELL, Idaho (UPI) — The Vallivue High School drill team has been selected by the U.S. Bicentennial Commission to represent Idaho in the 1976 Cherry Blossom Festival parade in Washington, D.C.

Drill team coordinator Susan Seltz said the Pale-ette will be the only drill team from Idaho at the parade, since the commission chose a single team from each state for the April 10 event.

The 40-member group needs to raise about $20,000 to make the trip, she said. The girls are planning several fund-raising events.

Senate committee readies secret-sharing law

ON Y. Times Service
WASHINGTON — The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence is preparing legislation that would for the first time formally entitle Congress to share national security intelligence with the executive branch, committee sources said Saturday.

Interviews with key administration and intelligence officials disclosed that the Ford administration would not oppose this facet of legislative oversight. Moreover, congressional and administration sources said they believed such a system would avoid much of the "suspicion," as one source put it, that had erupted in disputes over secret administration policy in Chile and Southeast Asia.

He was referring to the confrontation that was developed between the House Select Committee on Intelligence, headed by Rep. Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., and Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger.

Under the proposal now being prepared by a drafting group of the Senate committee, a congressional oversight committee would be empowered to order the intelligence agencies to report on their knowledge of any subject of national security.

But Hoover's advice was not followed, and Mrs. Rosenberg and her husband, Julius, who were convicted of conspiring to pass atom bomb secrets to the Russians, were electrocuted at Sing Sing Prison on the night of June 19, 1953.

But Hoover recommended a 30-year sentence. The maximum under the law — for Mrs. Rosenberg. "This woman is the mother of two small children," Hoover wrote.

Election panel check urged

ON Y. Times Service
WASHINGTON — Rep. Wayne L. Hays has drafted a plan to restrict the independence of the Federal Election Commission, one that would give him an effective veto over all the agency's proposed reform regulations.

submitted to Congress, unless either the Senate or House votes disapproval of them during that period.

the present one, under which a disapproval resolution must be brought to the House floor, debates there on the merits and then given a recorded up-or-down vote.

Members of the Federal Election Commission reserved comment on the move until they could examine the language of the Hays amendment, but informal reaction among the agency staff was strongly adverse.

Since this would be the same information with which the President forms foreign policy moves, Congress would be in a far better position to understand and evaluate the President's actions.

The Hoover memo was found in a sheaf of correspondence in Rosenberg materials made public by the U.S. Attorney's office here in response to a

NYC tax question looms

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — Gov. Hugh Carey's plan for the fiscal rescue of New York City and the state still has its biggest problem in the state legislature, where members must consider more than $1 billion in new state and city taxes.

more from city residents — are yet to come. A freeze on state workers' salaries, local tax increases of more than $400 million and a penny increase in the current four-cent state sales tax coupled to an income tax credit for persons making less than $20,000.

The governor also has proposed a one-cent hike in the city's four-cent sales tax. Together with the state increase, the proposals would bring the sales levy in the nation's largest city to 10 per cent.

In Washington, the House takes up a bill today to provide $4 billion in loan guarantees, with a year-long Tuesday.

Economy blamed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — United Autoworkers President Leonard Woodcock said today an under-achieving economy is to blame for the high cost of the food stamp program.

President Ford reportedly is satisfied with the Democratic governor's plan to balance the state budget and has dropped his opposition to federal aid to keep the city solvent. But the mammoth tax package has drawn opposition from Democrats in the legislature.

Azores warn

LISBON, Portugal (UPI) — The regional governor of the Azores served notice today on the Portuguese government to end the "anarchy" on the mainland or see those mid-Atlantic islands break away from Lisbon rule.

The Azores will not be dependent on a state of anarchy, Gen. Alvaro de Magalhães said. "The regional junta will refuse any government that is nonrepresentative and acting against the will of the Portuguese people."

The governor took his stand as local Popular Democrats organized a protest against the permanent crises on the mainland. The Azorean Liberation Front, an illegal separatist movement, thrives in its support behind the rally, but the local Socialists issued a statement condemning it. Shortly after the Socialist statement was made public, a bomb heavily damaged the party's offices in the Azorean capital of Ponta Delgada. Police said the grenade explosion ripped apart the offices, but caused no injuries.

There has been heavy local agitation for the Azores to declare themselves independent for the past six months. Many politicians have credited Magalhães, who until now has supported the central government, with keeping this from happening.

The growth of the separatist movement has been linked to the reputed desire of many Azoreans to strengthen their already close ties with the United States.

10,000 in Soviet prisons

LONDON (UPI) — The Soviet Union has imprisoned at least 10,000 political and religious prisoners and all are mistreated, Amnesty International said today.

"There are at least 10,000 political and religious prisoners in the USSR today" under conditions which "violate international standards for the treatment of prisoners," the non-government group concerned with prisoners' rights said in an exhaustive report.

Its 154-page study, published simultaneously in five languages, said Soviet authorities publish no prison statistics and deny the existence of political prisoners.

"They are certain to say that our estimate is too high," an Amnesty spokesman said. "But if they are correct they should break with tradition and publish the true figures themselves."

Amnesty charged that Soviet prisoners are "kept in constant hunger," made "vulnerable to illness and injury," forced to "work at hard physical tasks which are usually unpleasant and often unhealthy or dangerous."

Lebanese cabinet huddles

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Premier Rashid Karami summoned his cabinet to an emergency meeting today to discuss social and economic reforms he hopes to make the basis of a lasting peace between Christian and Moslem militias.

The late morning cabinet session was scheduled to coincide with a meeting of security officials on ways to resolve violations of the two-week-old cease-fire between the warring factions.

The security committee announced after a meeting Sunday the situation in the war-torn capital had improved despite scattered violations that claimed five lives over the weekend.

The casualty toll from seven months of on-and-off civil war in Lebanon now stands at more than 4,000 dead and 8,000 wounded.

Beirut remained relatively quiet, although sniper fire in some sections and civilian roadblocks in others kept tension high.

Karami, a Sunni Moslem, said he had proposed several reforms to give Moslems more of an equal footing in Lebanon's complex political system.

These included the abolition of religion as a standard in considering parliamentary representation and employment in the civil service, Karami said.

Since independence 32 years ago, the Christians have enjoyed a 6 to 5 edge over Moslems in parliamentary representation and top government jobs — a disparity that has been at the root of the recent fighting.

In other developments, papal envoy Cardinal Paolo Bertoli left Lebanon Sunday after apparently falling in a weeklong Vatican bid to restore peace.

Political sources said Bertoli came away without the agreement he had hoped to forge although they added that realistically, he could not have hoped to achieve one considering the broad political and social chaos that prevails.

OPEC eyes aid program

VIENNA, Austria (UPI) — Finance ministers of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries met today to discuss using some of the cartel's huge profits to aid developing nations straggled by soaring oil prices.

OPEC sources said the meeting is part of a campaign to improve the cartel's image and offset charges that increased oil costs are hurting Third World nations.

Umid Zaheri, OPEC chief of information, said the cartel's 13 members are already spending three to four percent of their gross national product to help developing nations.

"We haven't talked much about it, but it's a fact," he said. Zaheri said the finance ministers would consider new plans to aid "developing nations, which are trying to cope with a 50 per cent increase in oil prices in little more than two years."

It is estimated that increased oil costs have added $8.5 billion to the cost of the underdeveloped nations' imports. For some, higher oil prices have meant less fertilizer and less food.

One plan before the finance ministers is an Iranian proposal to establish a $5 billion fund for a five-year program to make outright grants to developing nations.

Under the plan, each OPEC member would contribute 10 cents from every barrel of oil exported to a fund to be administered by either the World Bank or the International Monetary Fund.

The ministers also planned to discuss the possibility of quoting oil prices in special drawing rights from the International Monetary Fund instead of dollars.

Special drawing rights are an artificial currency based on the weighted value of 16 currencies, including the dollar.

Such a switch, which has been under discussion for several months, would be designed to protect oil revenues against drops in the value of the dollar.

Build a Personal Retirement Fund with IRA at Jerome First Federal

What is IRA?
It is a personal tax-sheltered retirement plan available now under the Federal Pension Reform Act of 1974.

How does IRA, the Individual Retirement Account Work?
Each year you can set aside in a qualified IRA plan up to 15% of your earned income (but not exceeding $1500 yearly), free of current federal income taxes.

The income earned by your IRA plan is also exempt from federal income taxes until you actually begin withdrawals.

You may deduct your IRA contribution (up to 15% or $1500) from gross income, whether you itemize deductions or take the standard deduction.

Who can participate in IRA?
The IRA plan is open to both full-time and part-time employees, including a spouse working full or part-time, and self-employed individuals not covered by the Keogh plan.

Can IRA Deposits Be Made By Payroll Deduction?

Yes, if your employer will install an Employee Savings Plan.

Must I Have My IRA Plan Approved by the IRS?

No, the Internal Revenue Service has already approved our basic plan.

How Are IRA Funds Invested At First Federal?
In an Insured Savings Account always worth 100 cents on the dollar. They earn the highest interest rates permitted by Federal regulation, compounded daily for maximum earnings.

your health

BY GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

headaches, even at home? — Mrs. E.D.

Dear Dr. Thosteson:
I am a married woman, 45 years old, and have been bothered with motion sickness since I was a young child. During the past few years my husband and I have gone on cruises. But regardless of how long or short the cruise or how calm the water may be, I am bothered by this. I must take pills for it. They seem to help some, but I'm never completely free of nausea and the dizzy, swaying feeling.

Your childhood mastoid surgery indicates you were at one time subject to infection of the middle ear. Mastoids are the bony prominences that can be felt behind the ears. You would be wise to return to an ear specialist to see if this earlier problem is not a factor today.

The mastoids are relatively close to the middle ear, where the body's equilibrium is maintained. Your vision should be checked for a refractive error. This can be a factor in motion sickness.

Dizziness spoils trip

Every so often, while at home, I find on awakening I'm fighting a sick, dizzy headache and nausea that lasts from a couple of days to a week. When I was five years old I was operated on for double mastoids, but since then I have not been bothered with earaches, except on rare occasions.

My husband and I are planning another cruise soon and I would like to be able to enjoy myself the whole time. Is it possible? Could retiring late a few nights a week trigger these sick, dizzy Discouraging this as a source of your seasickness, there are many practical things you can try to help make your voyage a bit more pleasant. Good rest a couple of days before you board can help. Motion sickness is exaggerated by fatigue.

You should not eat heavy meals. Stay away from alcohol during the trip. Get out in the air as much as possible, especially in the daytime, when most motion sickness seems to be exaggerated.

Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-H. V. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Where can a person buy salt peter? Do I need a doctor's prescription to get it? Is it tasteless? And does it do what they say it does to a man's sex urge? You can't send me a personal reply because my husband opens all the mail. Please answer in your column as soon as possible as I don't know how much longer I can put up with this. Thank you.

ALL WORE OUT IN L.A.

DEAR ALL: Salt peter can be purchased at a pharmacy. It is technically termed "potassium nitrate," and I am informed that no prescription is required. But because it's used in making explosives, some pharmacists refuse to sell it to minors. It tastes like table salt, but if you expect it to reduce a man's sexual appetite, you could be disappointed.

Salt peter won't help

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and a good holiday question someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner?" And your answer is always, "Why not alternate?"

Abby, my husband and I struggled with that problem for years, and we resolved it according to your suggestion. Both sets of parents lived nearby, and it seemed the only fair thing to do. So for 22 years, we spent Thanksgiving and Christmas in parents' homes instead of our own. It never dawned on us until this year—as our children are ready to strike out on their own—that we never developed our own holiday traditions. We always went to Grandma's for the holidays. She insisted on doing all the cooking herself—and then she complained for months about how much work it was and how tired she got. When we, her daughters and daughters-in-law, asked if we could bring something for the dinner, she wouldn't hear of it. When we brought food without asking her, she refused to serve it, so we finally gave up.

I realize now what a high price I've paid over the years for peace in the family. I wish I hadn't. Abby, please urge young marrieds to dare to have their own holiday celebrations in their own homes. Suggest that they invite their parents and grandparents, who might even be relieved to be finally free of the burden of entertaining three generations.

DOING MY OWN THING

DEAR DOING: Thank you for an excellent letter. Perhaps it will inspire others to "do their own thing," too. It makes a lot of sense.

DEAR ABBY: Our son is 20. Roger attends a local college but doesn't live at home. The problem is the hair hassle.

Last summer my husband asked Roger several times to please get a haircut. Let me stress that we don't object to long hair. If it's kept neat, but it seems that every time Roger came home he needed a haircut. His excuse last time was, "Haircuts are too expensive." So his father gave him $100 and said, "That should take care of your haircuts for a year!"

Roger accepted the money.

Well, Roger was home last weekend and nothing had changed. He still needed a haircut! My husband says if that kid shows up for Thanksgiving needing a haircut he is going to demand the return of $100. Would this be fair?

ROGER'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If Roger accepted the money with the understanding that he'd keep his hair cut, he should either uphold his end of the bargain or return the money.

Cassia zone foes strong

By SHANE O'NEILL Times-News writer

BURLEY - Opposition to zoning is strong in some of the smaller cities and rural communities of Cassia County. When the planning commission holds its public hearing at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Burley High School auditorium, it can expect opposition to zoning outside the Burley area and even to any zoning of non-incorporated land.

Already complaints have been voiced about the cost of administering zoning, building permits and inspection. Many county residents want their areas zoned 0-1, reserved for remote areas that require no zoning or regulation. The proposed ordinance provides only that auto wrecking and salvage yards be 500 feet away and not visible from any public street and terminals for gravel pits be reconditioned.

Obviously, the planning commission does not contemplate all unincorporated areas being in 0-1 (outlying) zoning.

Second in series

The purposes of zoning, as listed by the ordinance, are to promote "health, convenience, order, prosperity and general welfare," encourage orderly growth, secure safety and economy, lessen congestion of streets and overcrowding of land, foster agriculture and industry, improve property values and provide "a beautiful, healthy and "protect both urban and non-urban development.

The ordinance would establish a planning and zoning commission as a permanent part of advisory government, with a zoning administrator to enforce the ordinance.

The 12-member commission, not more than one third from cities, would hear and review appeals and have jurisdiction over conditional use permits and variances.

One of the duties of the zoning administrator and building inspector would be the issuance of building permits. This also has come in for criticism from outlying area in Cassia County.

The requirement is that a permit must be obtained "to construct, erect, move or repair a building," with a fee schedule running from $3 up. It provides that no permit "is required in the 0-1 zone. A permit also is not needed for minor repairs to buildings which do not involve structural alterations or an increase in floor area."

The proposed zoning ordinance would set one agricultural zone category a residential-agricultural zone, a buffer zone, three residential and three commercial zones, and single zone categories for industrial parks, industry and manufacture, outdoor recreation, multiple use, outlying and special (for cemeteries, fairgrounds and airports).

It prohibits nonconforming uses within a zone to be extended or enlarged. It allows existing ones to continue, but requires an eight-foot fence to hide them from public streets.

Replacement is allowed, but a discontinued use cannot be resumed after six months.

It provides minimum space requirements for each zone and prohibits cutting off a parcel of sub-minimum dimensions from a larger one except to increase size of an adjoining lot. Accessory buildings cannot cover more than 30 per cent of the rear yard.

Churches, schools, day care and other public buildings must be set back from the street one foot beyond the required setback for each foot of height above the maximum listed for the zone.

Old case for new items

Fairfield clinic provides rural area medical help

By LORAYNE O. SMITH Times-News Writer

FAIRFIELD - The Fairfield Clinic is one community's answer to the problem many small rural areas have obtaining medical services.

For three years the clinic has been in operation. Two Halley doctors come to Fairfield two afternoons a week to administer medical help and the rest of the week the clinic is "manned" by employees who make appointments, answer questions and handle first aid cases.

The clinic operates out of Fairfield's only drug store.

For part of the three years a paramedic and registered nurse were associated with the operation, but the paramedic moved and Mrs. Kathy Lee, a registered nurse, has taken "maternity leave."

Now the three women employees, one a licensed practical nurse, alternately "mind the shop."

The clinic was long operated by the late Dr. Marion Kerns who typified the image of country doctor.

Since Dr. Kerns also was a pharmacist it was perfectly understandable for him to operate a drug store in connection with his practice.

Because his store was located in a small community (Fairfield's population is about 400) the drug store included as many items for sale as possible.

The Kerns store no longer can be termed a drug store since there is no pharmacist there, but the usual sundry items, as well as a surprisingly wide variety of gift items are displayed for sale in the front room of the clinic.

Since Magic Valley newspapers are also delivered there for sale, the clinic has considerable activity. Many telephone calls were received and some older residents inquired about prescriptions or asked when the doctors would be in.

"They haven't got used to the different hours since the paramedic left," Mary Kirtland, the LPN, said. She works two afternoons a week and administers first aid. Elizabeth Gill also works there part-time.

Ann Lee, wife of Sheriff Harold Lee, basically operates the business aspect of the clinic. She is in charge of ordering supplies and merchandise and says, "If we run out of something it's my fault."

She has long been involved in the operation of the clinic, working with Dr. Kerns and his daughter, Kathy Lee.

Her current employers, Dr. Alden Packer and Dr. Robert W. Givens, receive a $250 monthly subsidy from the Camas County, which also pays another $250 monthly subsidy for the operation of the office and women's salaries.

County Clerk George Gill said Camas County has long contributed financially so Camas Prairie residents could have medical services. Dr. Kerns received a retainer fee as county physician.

Fairfield, the only incorporated city in the county, is 35 miles from Gooding and probably 40 miles from Halley, where Dr. Packer and Dr. Givens have their office.

Mrs. Lee said after Dr. Kerns retired because of illness he still assisted in emergencies as long as he was able and helped his patients get appointments with other doctors.

After his death, county commissioners contacted several doctors, inviting them to take over the clinic facilities. These include an examining room, private office and small waiting room in the rear of the building.

The Halley doctors feel they are helping the Fairfield community and even though they are only at the Clinic Monday and Wednesday afternoons, the setup is "lots better than nothing," as Mrs. Lee said.

She said some Camas residents have been drawn to Halley, thus boosting the two general practitioners' overall clientele and "works both ways."

She says the clinic personnel has been fortunate that most emergencies have occurred when the doctors were there.

Snowmobilers nix ski area

TWIN FALLS - No designated cross country skiing areas are planned in the South Hills partly, because Magic Valley snowmobile organizations say cross country skiers harass deer and other big game.

As part of their multiple use plan for the South Hills the Twin Falls district office of the Sawtooth National Forest originally set aside 160 acres of land 13 miles south of Rock Creek for use by cross country skiers exclusively.

But at a snowmobile club meeting in Halley last week, Twin Falls district ranger Lou Munson says he was convinced to drop the special cross country area.

Munson, said today that snowmobile and trail cycle clubs across the Magic Valley oppose a cross country ski area.

The continued groups have told Munson cross country skiers take dogs with them and harass deer and big game as much as or more than snowmobilers, he said.

Cross country skiers also like to use snowmobile tracks to ski in, he said.

In addition, Munson said the group felt it was unfair to single out one group for special privileges.

Munson told the often vocal group gathered in Halley last week, "We gave them the worst area we could find," referring to the proposal in the Deadline Ridge facility.

Twin Falls and Ketchum district rangers were invited to the meeting in Halley to discuss proposed off-road vehicle regulations in the Sawtooth Mountains.

Written input will close January 15, 1976. Munson said. Data from all hearings will be gathered along with all written statements. Public hearings will be scheduled in March with updated drafts, he said, which will probably exclude the Deadline Ridge cross-country only proposal.

The final proposal will be drawn in July and implemented Dec. 31, 1976. Munson said the only input so far on the OHV proposals has been from the meeting he attended in Halley.

In the six years Munson has been with the Twin Falls ranger district, he said very few cross country skiers have used the South Hills.

"People just don't do it here," he said.

He said cross country skiers can use the nearly 200,000 acres available along with the other off-road enthusiasts. Munson said he had not closed his mind entirely to the cross country proposal.

"However, I just don't see any reason at this point to isolate a spot for them," he said.

Crime and land-use plans studied by American Party

By SHANE O'NEILL Times-News Writer

BURLEY - Crime and comprehensive land use plans were major concerns of the American Party state convention in Burley Saturday.

Land use and determining sentencing of convicted criminals were among the five state party initiatives presented to the group under state party sponsorship.

Three initiatives would support the right to bear arms, lower the signature requirement on recall movements and protect initiative movements.

The land use initiative, if approved by the state's voters, would repeal the law passed by the legislature during the last session which requires local communities develop comprehensive land use plans and zoning and subdivision ordinances.

Although many jurisdictions already are working on such plans before the legislative action, public opposition has been vocal.

The proposed initiative, in effect, prohibits the state from forcing local jurisdictions to develop comprehensive plans for land use.

The criminal initiative would legislate determinate sentencing, setting minimum jail sentences for certain crimes.

It is designed to prevent judges from giving suspended sentences on certain crimes and placing the convicted person on probation.

Another petition opposes firearm control laws and reaffirms the right of the people to keep and bear arms.

Also presented was an initiative petition that would set the number of signatures required to bring about an election to recall an official at 15 per cent of the total vote cast for that office.

Paulsen said he thought the law now requires signatures equal to the number that elected that official.

The remaining measure would prevent the state legislature from amending any initiative presented by the people for statewide ballot.

Paulsen indicated that at least one other initiative petition, having to do with schools, is in the drafting process now.

State president John McAdams took charge of afternoon and evening sessions, which were hosted by the Cassia County American Party at Price's CAFE here.

An estimated 35 people attended. Rev. Alva Winder, Altamont, Committee, was the guest speaker.

"We feel we have too much encroachment by the federal government that is forcing us into things we don't want," stated Jesse Beuller, Burley, head of the Cassia County group.

He charged that regional government is bypassing state government.

"HEW (Department of Health Education and Welfare) has more authority now than the United States Congress has," he said.

Buhl pushes bond issue

BUHIL - Members of the Citizens advisory committee are busy promoting a $2.3 million bond issue to build a new Buhl High School.

The bond vote is scheduled this Thursday with polls open 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Voting will be on school and at the business office at Thousand Springs Trout Farm.

Presentations are being made to employees at the major businesses in Buhl, according to Mrs. Thorell Range, committee member. These include Rangan's, Shields and Green Giant Co. where employees are allowed to leave their work to listen to information about the proposed election.

The proposal includes construction of a three-year high school which would include 11 classrooms, two science labs, an industrial art shop complex and speech-drama lab as well as administrative offices, media center and physical education facility.

The floor plan, drawn by Ed Peterson, a C.T.A. Architect, in Boise, allows for future expansion of auditorium, music and gymnasium facilities. Peterson designed the College of Southern Idaho and several other area schools, according to Dan Mate, superintendent here.

An open house is scheduled this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rangan, for persons who have been unable to attend presentations made to other groups. She said committee members have spoken at some of the area granges and other organizations.

The advisory committee, headed by Dr. T.L. Tappan, was formed last spring to study the needs of patrons of the Buhl district.

The new school will be built on the Wilson property already owned by the district. Plans are to use the present high school for a three-year junior high and demolish the old F.H. Buhl building which was erected in 1908 and currently used as a junior high school.

No voter registration is required in the bond election and anyone 18 years or over, who resides in the district and is a citizen may vote by signing a voter's oath.

ERA debate set Tuesday - TWIN FALLS - Equal Rights Amendment opponent Senator Mary Helms of Oklahoma will hold a press conference to which state legislators have been invited. A challenge to debate the pros and cons of the ERA has been issued to Dorothy Geist, head of the Twin Falls League of Women Voters. The ERA debate is scheduled for Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Holiday Inn Blue Ball Room. For more information, phone Donna Mauldin at 733-1147.

Seminar announced - TWIN FALLS - A genetics seminar for physicians and nurses has been scheduled for Wednesday by the Southeastern Idaho Center for Health Resources Inc. in cooperation with co-sponsors. The event will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Shields Building, Room 117, at the College of Southern Idaho. Dr. Jerry Prescott, an associate professor of medical genetics and prenatal medicine at the University of Oregon Medical Center, Portland, and co-director of the Prenatal Diagnosis Clinic, Portland, will conduct the seminars. The program will include recent advances in medical genetics in regard to prenatal diagnosis, new chromosome defects, new modes of treatment of genetic disease and genetic counseling in high risk pregnancies.

WRRCC plans flood meeting - SHOSHONE - The Wood River Resource Council of Governments will meet at 8 p.m. Nov. 25 at the courthouse in Shoshone. According to Don G. Fredericksen, Gooding, chairman of the group, the Corps of Engineers will inform the local members on studies completed on the flood control of Little Wood River for Shoshone and Gooding.

Jerome eyes fair, rodeo plans - JEROME - Plans are under way in Jerome for next year's annual fair and rodeo tentatively scheduled for Aug. 16, 17 and 18. Fair board members are encouraging community participation in planning next year's fair and rodeo. The board also seeks recommendations on a five-year plan of improvements of the fairgrounds facilities. The up-grading of the fairgrounds is expected to start as soon as the plan is completed. The fair board will announce the time and place of its next meeting to enable county citizens a chance to express their opinions.

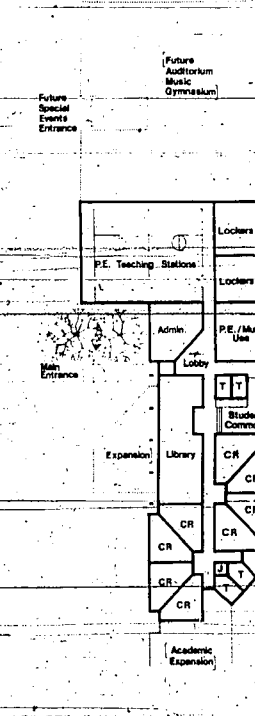

Man stabbed

BURLEY - A Burley man was stabbed Sunday evening when three men attacked him in his apartment here.

Lalo Diaz, 49, is in a satisfactory condition today at Cassia Memorial Hospital.

He told police that three men tore down the door to his apartment and attacked him about 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

Diaz received three stab wounds, one above the heart, one in the stomach and one on the side.

Stocks at midday

NEW YORK (UPI) - With hopes rising for a resolution of New York's financial crises, investors drove prices higher Monday in moderate trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

The advance was cautious, however, because many investors were waiting to see what the New York state legislature would do with tax proposals, which are a key to a $6 billion rescue plan Gov. Hugh Carey proposed for the New York City and the state. The legislature approved a three-year moratorium on New York City notes, but a battle looms on the tax package. The Ford administration, which has indicated it might consider short-term federal assistance, said the legislature must complete the Carey package before it acts.

Meanwhile, although there was some concern Friday about a sharp $2 billion surge in the nation's money supply, analysts said they expected the Federal Reserve Board to maintain its accommodative monetary policy. Fed Chairman Arthur F. Burns indicated that last Tuesday in a discussion with Republican congressmen.

Farming now termed 'dangerous' occupation

By United Press International
Every morning when Lowell Lenschow leaves the house his wife says, "Just be careful."

Jane Lenschow issues the warning because her husband works in the third most dangerous industry in the United States. He is an American farmer.

Most farm families are acutely aware of the hazards, especially during the fall harvest season when their big machines are in continual use. Almost all know someone who has been maimed or killed by them.

"We had a friend who just lost part of his leg in a combine," Mrs. Lenschow said. "The corn had gotten caught and he climbed up to kick the corn down with his foot, and it got caught."

Several years ago, a neighbor of the Lenschows in rural Hampshire near Elgin, Ill., was killed in a tractor accident.

Such incidents are not uncommon. In 1974, there were 54 work-related deaths on American farms for every 100,000 workers, compared to 15 deaths per 100,000 workers in all industries.

Only mining and construction workers have higher on-the-job death rates, and the statistics don't even include injuries.

"It is definitely decreasing slowly," says NSC agricultural safety engineer Bill Hanford. "Hopefully, it's because of a little more emphasis on safety education, and they've probably got more safety features on the equipment than in previous years."

Ray Bruce, a spokesman for John Deere and Company, a major supplier of farm machinery, says most farmers now buy optional safety equipment when they purchase tractors and other big machines.

The U. of I.'s Hogsett said a major factor behind the increased concern for safety is farm women.

"Every spring and fall a tremendous number of farm ladies are pressed into service and are beginning to ask for training in tractor driving skills," he said. "We started a program for them three years ago and we're getting outstanding results. Women can swing a big strong ax in this area," he said.

Steelers drop Chiefs

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Quarterback Terry Bradshaw threw for 203 yards and two touchdowns Sunday and Franco Harris rushed for 119 yards to lead a balanced Pittsburgh Steelers' attack in a 28-3 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs.

The victory stretched the Steelers' win string to seven games, a club record, and put their record at 8-1. The Chiefs dropped to 4-5.

Rams defeat Falcons

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Los Angeles Rams used three field goals by Tom Dempsey and a 13-yard touchdown pass from James Harris to Ron Jessie Sunday to beat the defensively stubborn but offensively punchless Atlanta Falcons 16-7.

The Falcons, who got inside the Los Angeles 35 only once all afternoon, kept the Rams from scoring a touchdown until early in the final period when Harris connected with Jessie for the 10th time in the game on the 13-yard scoring play.

Eagles down Giants

NEW YORK (UPI) — Horst Muhlmann, who didn't even reach the goalpost on two previous attempts, kicked a 30-yard field goal with 28 seconds to play Sunday as the Philadelphia Eagles ended a fivegame losing streak with a 13-10 victory over the New York Giants.

Muhlmann's field goal, his second of the day, was set up by wide receiver Charles Smith's 20-yard run to the 25 on a double reverse and came three plays after the Eagles had failed to move the ball any farther.

Cowboys nip Patriots

FOXBORO, Mass. (UPI) — Roger Staubach riddled the New England defense for three long scoring passes Sunday, two to Drew Pearson, to lead the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-31 victory over the Patriots in a National Football League game.

Staubach, who completed 10 of 14 passes for 190 yards, threw scoring bombs of 33 and 31 yards to Pearson and 41 yards to Golden Richards. The Cowboys other points came on Doug Dennison's six-yard run and Tony Fritsch's field goals of 43 and 26 yards.

Lions stop the Packers

PONTIAC, Mich. (UPI) — Errol Mann kicked a 23-yard field goal with only 17 seconds left to play Sunday to give the Detroit Lions a 13-10 victory over the Green Bay Packers.

Quarterback Joe Reed, who only completed three of 11 second-half passes, hit wide receiver Tony Harris with a 48-yard strike to set up the game-winning score. Three fumble running plays later, including a fumble which Detroit recovered, Mann averted sudden death overtime with the kick.

Vikings stomp Saints

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Fran Tarkenton threw three touchdown passes Sunday to lead the Minnesota Vikings to their ninth straight victory of the season, a 20-7 decision over the New Orleans Saints.

Tarkenton, who completed 25 of 39 passes for 310 yards, hit John Gilliam for scoring strikes of 33 and 13 yards and threw to Ed Marinaro for a four-yard touchdown.

The Saints' only touchdown was set up by a Marinaro fumble, which was recovered by Steve Baumgartner on the Vikings' 25-yard line. Two plays later Archie Manning passed 25 yards for a touchdown to tight end Paul Seal.

Colts trounce Jets

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Bert Jones riddled the New York Jets' secondary for 277 yards and three touchdown passes, one a club-record 50 yards to Roger Carr, to spark the Baltimore Colts to their fourth straight victory Sunday, 52-19.

The win boosted the Colts' record to 5-4, the first time Baltimore has been above .500 since 1971, and marked the first time since their 1970 Super Bowl season they have won four in a row. It was also the first time since 1964 the Colts have scored 52 or more points in a game.

The loss was the sixth straight for the Jets, who fell to 2-7.

Jones, who completed 15 of 22 attempts, connected with Carr and running back Don McCauley for first-half scoring strikes as the Colts ran up a 31-6 lead. The lanky quarterback hit Glenn Douglas for a second-half touchdown before leaving the game at the close of the third period with sore ribs.

Oilers upset Dolphins

HOUSTON (UPI) — Romie Coleman's seven-yard touchdown run with 1:11 left Sunday boosted the Houston Oilers to a 20-19 victory over the Miami Dolphins.

Big defensive end Bubba Smith blocked two Garo Yepremian extra point kicks, the second coming after Miami's Don Nottingham ran three yards for a go-ahead touchdown earlier in the fourth quarter.

Trailing 19-13 with 6:07 to play, quarterback Dan Pastorini guided the Oilers 89 yards in 15 plays on a drive capped by Coleman's run.

Skip Butler, who booted two first-half field goals of 43 and 25 yards, added the game-winning extra point.

Broncos top Chargers

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — The Denver Broncos, after stopping San Diego on the one-yard line, marched 99 yards for the tiebreaking touchdown in the final period Sunday and Jim Turner added a 46-yard field goal to spark a 27-17 victory over the winless San Diego Chargers.

The Chargers moved 51 yards to the Bronco one where Bo Matthews was stopped for no gain on fourth down before Denver launched its go-ahead drive.

49'ers rip the Bears

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Delvin Williams ran for 106 yards Sunday, the first time a 49er has gone over the century mark this year, and Steve Spurrier, in his second straight start, directed a near flawless offense that carried San Francisco to a 31-3 victory over the Chicago Bears.

Raiders thump Browns

OAKLAND (UPI) — Quarterback Ken Stabler threw four touchdowns to lead the Oakland Raiders to a 39-17 victory Sunday and lead the Cleveland Browns their ninth straight National Football League defeat.

Stabler broke a 17-17 tie with his third-touchdown pass of the game when he connected with receiver Fred Biletnikoff in the third quarter to send Oakland on the way to its seventh victory in nine games.

Stabler passed to wide receiver Cliff Branch for the first two touchdowns, good for 22 and 21 yards. Running back Clarence Davis caught a 31-yard pass in the fourth quarter.

The Raiders' other touchdown came on a 26-yard run by Davis in the closing minutes.

The Browns' only points came on a 10-yard run by Greg Pruitt that tied the score 7-7 in the first quarter. The Browns trailed 17-10 at the half but took the second half kickoff and marched for the tie.

Utah Stars folding?

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Utah Stars' owner Bill Daniels is trying to raise enough money to meet his players' payroll due Monday.

A spokesman for the American-Basketball Association club said Sunday that Daniels was "trying to put things together so he can keep the team in Salt Lake." The spokesman said Daniels was "hopeful" he could meet the payroll which was estimated at between $50,000 and $60,000.

Cotton Bowl pick

ATHENS, Ga. (UPI) — The University of Georgia Sunday announced it had accepted a bid to play in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Jan. 1.

The Bulldogs, currently 8-2 with a nationally televised Thanksgiving night game at Georgia Tech left on its regular-season schedule, will play the champion of the Southwest Conference, either third-ranked Texas A & M, sixth-ranked Texas or 17th-ranked Arkansas.

It will be Georgia's 17th bowl trip and its ninth in the 12 seasons that Vince Dooley has been head coach of the 19th-ranked Bulldogs. Georgia last played in the Cotton Bowl after the 1966 season and beat SMU, 24-9.

Cards nip Redskins

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Jim Bakken booted a 37-yard field goal in overtime Sunday to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 20-17 win over the Washington Redskins in the battle for first place in the National Football Conference's Eastern Division.

St. Louis won the toss to receive in the overtime period and Terry Metcalf returned the kick 27 yards to the Washington 25.

Jim Oils rushed for 34 yards in the ensuing drive, which moved to the Washington 20 and set up Bakken's game-winning kick seven minutes into the period.

FORECAST FOR TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1975

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Today's Full Moon is almost exclusively concerned with practical matters so give special attention to finances and arrange for any payments and collections due. Study ways to increase prosperity in the future.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Changing financial arrangements you've made can make collections and bill paying easier. Discuss pending matters with clients.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Discuss any unclear points with associates and cement better relations. Avoid one who opposes you strongly. Enjoyable p.m.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Garner all information needed to solve some personal problem which seems to crop up every Full Moon. Be diplomatic.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Talk over with congenials how to have a more worthwhile social time in the future. Group affairs can help businesswise.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can reach important, business or personal decisions quickly now. Also wind up loose ends of business matters.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Find the best methods for operating in the days ahead so you advance more rapidly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Clear up responsibilities so you don't need to worry about them any longer. Be thoughtful with close ties.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Handle some fixed situation with a partner tactfully. Don't alienate anyone who means a great deal to you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Get at work required to clear up some private anxiety that has you in a dither. Improve wardrobe. Avoid troublesome person.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You can gain your finest aims by using right methods now, so enjoy yourself more in the future. Be courteous.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Make changes at home to increase beauty and harmony. Consult with kin before putting some new interest to work.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You can now communicate well with those who can help you get ahead faster in the future. Handle transportation matters.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she can take on big interests and make them work satisfactorily, so be sure to give the finest education you can afford and care can be tremendous success in this lifetime, along with practical lines. Teach early to make decisions quickly without long deliberation. Give good spiritual training, also.

A couple of Swedish doctors admit that some people have become addicted to a special sort of chewing gum hipped up with nicotine. But those chewers have quit smoking, it's reported, and they no longer fear lung cancer. Advantage of nicotine gum over snoose, it's said, is the gum chewers don't need cuspidors.

REMEMBER I TOLD YOU about those touch football teams that require three girls and three boys on each squad. A pair of scholars studied their action to see if they behaved differently from all-male players. They do. They stand real close in their huddles with their arms around one another's shoulders.

BEAUTY

Q "What counts most in a beauty contest, a girl's face or her figure?"

A Depends. That beauty expert Eric Morley of England says the figure is more important. He has run over 2,000 such contests. In his opinion, a winner should stand 5 feet 6 and measure 36-25-35. As far as the face goes, he thinks the eyes rate more attention than the bone structure.

THE OPINION is reportedly common among black men that white men's hair when wet has an obnoxious odor.

HOW MANY first names can you come up with that are pronounced like letters of the alphabet? Such as Jay, Or, Kay, Or, Bee, Or, Dee, Am, advised by our Name Game man that there are at least eight.

SLICK DEAL

Enrico Pacelli of Milan, Italy, has 11 children. He got behind in his rent. Bailiffs were due at his place one recent afternoon to evict him. Enrico telephoned a motion picture company. When the bailiffs showed up, Enrico's 11 youngsters armed with brooms, garden spades and sundry such weapons, did battle with the bailiffs in a 90-minute struggle. After the movie company's cameramen got it all down on film, they paid Enrico's overdue rent. That was his deal, clever fellow.

THAT RUSSIAN EXILE Alexander Solzhenitsyn points out: The Russian czars killed about 17 victims a year. The infamous Spanish inquisitors killed about 10 victims a month. But the Soviet Dictator Josef Stalin's henchmen in the late 1930s killed about 9,000 victims a week.

ASTRE

A Little Car You Can Feel At Home In . . .

1976 PONTIAC ASTRE

You've heard all the sales pitches for little subcompact cars, right? Low price. Efficient performance. Low maintenance costs. Etc., etc., etc. We know. We've been there. But we also know that there has to be more to a small car than just efficient performance, low price and low maintenance. Our goal for the 1976 Astre was to come up with a little car you can feel at home in. Even if you're used to a much larger car. That explains Astre's basic interior. It's a beauty. The nylon-blend, cut-pile carpeting, the simulated rosewood applique on the instrument panel, the bucket seats (dark near form-fitting), the sporty plaid cloth or all-Morrokide upholstery. Nice.

On other occasions it means the difference between making and losing the contract.

Oswald: "Against a slam contract your first decision must be whether or not to attack; your second, where to attack if an attack appears to be called for."

Jim: "Now take a look at the West hand. You hold the king of trumps and two queens; yet your opponents have galloped into a slam. You expect your king of trumps will be a winner. South has bid two, three and six spades. Where is the other trick going to come from?"

Oswald: "The answer is that if it is going to come from diamonds your partner will have a diamond trick that will keep it if it is going to come from hearts or clubs, then you had better lead one of those suits right away."

Jim: "The suit to attack in is clearly your short one. You only have three hearts. There is a good chance that you will score a heart trick if your partner holds the king. You

Ask the Jacobys

A Florida reader has two questions about the Jacoby Transfer Bid. We will answer one today and one tomorrow and will discuss the bid at length early next year. The first question is: "How do you transfer to the minor suits?" The simplest way is to use the two-spade response to one no trump as a transfer to clubs and the three-club response as a transfer to diamonds.

(Do you have a question for the experts? Write "Ask the Jacobys" care of this newspaper. The Jacobys will answer individual questions if stamped, self-addressed envelopes are enclosed. The most interesting questions will be used in this column and will receive copies of JACOBY MODERN.)
