BOISE (UPI) — The average welfare mother in Idaho must spend 42 per cent of the financial assistance she receives for housing and utilities. The State Health and Welfare Department has learned.

In order to have enough left for other necessities. More than 87 per cent of the welfare mothers are paying in excess of 25 per cent of their income on housing and more than 35 per cent are spending at least 50 per cent on housing.

Bill to merge elections moves forward in house

BOISE (UPI) — A bill to combine Idaho's presidential and regular primary elections moved forward Thursday when the State Affairs Committee sent it to the House floor for technical amendment.

He said the new power plant probably would result in a rate increase of two and one-half times what the people now are paying.

Soviets, China exchange insults

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — The Soviet Union and China, trading angry insults in the U.N. Security Council debate on the Middle East, have each accused the other of helping Israel against the Arabs. Soviet Ambassador Yakov Malik and Lal Ya-li, deputy chief of the Chinese delegation, tangled late Thursday in a bitter exchange that threatened to bog down the debate on Palestinian rights. Lal warned the Arabs the Soviet Union was "more sinister than the Zionists, with murder in its heart." He said neither of the two superpowers was "eking's term" for the Soviet Union and the United States — had any intention of seeking Middle East peace and were primarily interested in the area's oil politics. Lal accused the Soviet Union of providing manpower to Israel while the United States provided money and arms. Malik charged the Chinese sought to "aggravate and lock-up tension in the Middle East" to provoke war between the Arabs and Israel and eventually between the Soviet Union and the United States. "War in the Middle East is a fire under the window, sir, not under yours," Malik said. "We have quite enough of our own oil, thank you — more than enough. We don't need the Middle East oil."

Marxist forces start offensive

SILVA PORTO, Angola (UPI) — Thousands of Soviet-backed forces in Angola have launched major offensives in the north and south, forcing their pro-Western rivals to seek international mercenaries to stop the Marxist advances. Leaders of the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola said Thursday an armored column of about 1,000 soldiers of the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola backed by Cuban troops and Russian advisers, was advancing south toward the strategic eastern town of Luao. The town straddles the Benguela railroad, which is the copper export route for neighboring Zaire and Zambia. Commanders of the pro-Western forces about 300 miles south of the Marxist capital of Luanda said their troops were holding out against the strong attacks, which one ranking officer said were spearheaded by Cubans. "There is not a black face in sight," he told reporters. "In the north, pro-Western army sources said, the Popular Movement was consolidating its position after forcing soldiers of the National Front for the Liberation of Angola out of operational and military headquarters and capturing large quantities of arms and several aircraft. The U.S. State Department denied a report by the Scripps Howard newspapers that troops of the 20,000-member National Front were fleeing for their lives into neighboring Zaire. Scripps Howard said the report was made in a secret cable issued by Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. "All National Front resistance has collapsed," the cable was quoted as saying. "The situation was serious, but that fighting was continuing. National Union officials said since the Organization of African Unity had failed to work out a peaceful solution at its summit meeting in Ethiopia, the Angolan civil war would be settled on the battlefield and not at the conference table. A recruiting campaign for mercenaries was under way throughout the world to help the pro-Western allies. National Union officials said they were heavily equipped by the Popular Movement's Soviet-supplied equipment and would be looking for sophisticated weapons as well as men. National Union president Jonas Savimbi specifically excluded the United States from the recruiting campaign, saying he feared that might harm relations between Washington and Angola's anti-Soviet forces. The U.S. Senate recently voted to cut off military aid to the pro-Western forces.

Judge advocates death penalty

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The judge who sentenced Sara Jane Moore to life for trying to kill President Ford says such violence could be avoided in the United States if there was capital punishment. U.S. District Judge Samuel Conti made a strong plea Thursday for the death penalty, and criticized Moore's promissory sentences in sentencing her to 30 years in prison. "You would not be standing here before me today if we had in this country an effective capital punishment law," Conti said. Miss Moore pleaded guilty Dec. 16 to charges of trying to shoot Ford on Sept. 22 as he was leaving a downtown hotel. The President was unharmed and Miss Moore was quickly captured. She will be eligible for parole in 1989. She has the second person in California in recent weeks to receive a life sentence for trying to assassinate Ford. Conti said that if Miss Moore thought the moment she was going to fire at Ford that she would be executed by capital punishment, she would not be pulling the trigger and there are many more people in this country that would not be doing exactly the same thing.

Deaths probed

DETROIT (UPI) — A federal grand jury probing the mysterious deaths of 11 patients at a Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor heard testimony Thursday from four nurses employed at the facility last summer and then adjourned. Richard Delonis, chief of the U.S. attorney's criminal division in Detroit, said the grand jury would meet again to continue the investigation, but not before Jan. 27. "Today does not mark the end of their consideration of this case," he said. Federal investigators said at least eight of the deaths were suspicious enough to launch a hunt for a possible killer. The Ann Arbor case is one of two such cases currently under investigation in the country. The other is in Grand Rapids, where the state's Medical Examiners Board is studying a prosecutor's request to suspend the license of a doctor who was linked with several patients' deaths. Grand jurors are probing more than 33 breathing failures at the hospital over a six-week period ending Aug. 15, when the FBI entered the case. Investigators said eight patients apparently died from deliberate injections of a powerful muscle-relaxing drug based on the South American poison curare.

MRS. Mary Borah, 105, widow of former U.S. Sen. William E. Borah from Idaho, died Thursday at Marysville Nursing Home, Beaverton, Ore. She was the daughter of W.J. McConnell, who served Idaho as both senator and governor. A native of Moscow, Idaho, she married Sen. Borah in 1896. (UPI)

Psychiatrist opines on Patty

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A "prosecution" psychiatrist, under fire from defense attorneys for allegedly brooding Patricia Hearst's mind, said he was convinced she had nothing to do with engineering her own kidnap. "She had no more to do with getting herself kidnaped than you and I," Dr. Harry Kozol told U.S. District Judge Oliver Carter, Burlington, a special hearing Thursday on whether he should be allowed to continue examining Miss Hearst. Carter took the issue under consideration and said he would rule later. Miss Hearst, 21, daughter of San Francisco 21, Examiner President Randolph Syme was kidnaped by the Symbionese Liberation Army in February 1974. She was charged with being a member of an SLA team which held up a San Francisco branch bank the following April. Miss Hearst is scheduled for trial Jan. 26. She testified Wednesday that she broke down and cried while Kozol examined her in San Mateo County Jail in nearby Redwood City, where she is held without bail. Defense lawyers had asked that Carter keep the Boston doctor from questioning their client. Federal prosecutors then asked the judge that Miss Hearst's lawyers be banned from using testimony about her mental capacity unless she cooperates with Kozol. The newspaper heiress, who previously said she was brainwashed into joining the SLA, stared at the doctor as he denied that he implied while questioning her that she had planned her own kidnaping. "I asked her where they went after the bank robbery," Kozol said. "She said they went back to the apartment. I asked if she were committed for her role." Kozol quoted Miss Hearst as saying, "No, nobody was commended. We counted the money." The psychiatrist then quoted her as saying "Everybody was feeling good." Defense lawyers F. Lee Bailey and Albert Johnston had complained that during his examination Jan. 7, Miss Hearst burst from the room sobbing uncontrollably. Kozol told Carter she was not sobbing but rather "exploded with an utterance I won't repeat here and got up and left the room." He said she was fighting to hold back tears because I had asked questions about an episode in her life" apparently about her relationship with SLA member Willie Wolfe, killed in a shootout with police in Los Angeles. Wolfe reportedly had been her lover.

The far-leftist Popular Democratic Unit called the "Lisbon rally, which will be followed during the weekend by protests sponsored by both the Communists and the far left. Officer admits 'deed'

CHICAGO (UPI) — Chicago policeman Stanley Surdej said Thursday he saw his dog and he did it.

What he saw, he said, was a snowman — or, more accurately, a snowwoman which was "real grotesque and real obscene."

So, in the interest of public morals, Surdej said, he ran it over with his squad car.

Surdej told all in a letter to Mike Royko, a columnist for the Chicago Daily News, who had a "let it go" story on the snowwoman's slaughter.

On a recent, snowy night, Royko reported, two couples spent the evening constructing a "snowperson" on the sidewalk in front of their apartment.

The snowperson, apparently at the urging of the wives, turned out to be decidedly feminine. It was attracting neighborhood attention and Surdej's squad car moved it down.

Surdej, in making his confession, emphasized the Chicago Police Department has no policy, a girl or boy, snowman, male or female.

"This was the solitary act of one policeman — me," he wrote.

"The snowperson, he said, was built to resemble a woman and I think the builders should consult Gray's anatomy in the future."

"It was obscene-obscene being defined as appealing to the prurient interests of the average person."

Surdej said he knew the snowperson appealed to prurient interests because "my partner was aroused."

"So, in the public interest," he wrote, "I ran over it with my squad car."

View changed

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Virginia Knauer, a consumer protection agency, has done an about-face and now supports the Ford administration's consumer representation plan.

"It's very simple," Mrs. Knauer said. "I don't know why it wasn't thought of before. All over the government the doors are going to open wider and consumers are going to be consulted on policies affecting them."

Head lice found

ABERDEEN, Idaho (UPI) — An infestation of head-lice has forced school and health officials to close city schools for four days.

The closure was ordered after it was discovered that nearly 70 per cent of 550 elementary school students were infested with the pests.

Bingham County Public Health Nurse Tracy Tracy said the problem was discovered in the district before Christmas. She and school district officials had hoped the problem would be eliminated over the holiday but a check this week showed it was worse than ever.

Allman testifies

MACON, Ga. (UPI) — Rock musician Gregg Allman has testified before a federal grand jury investigating drug trafficking: Phil Walden, president of Capricorn Records Inc., the band's recording company.

Allman testified for six to eight hours earlier in the week.

"I understand no other member of the band was subpoenaed," Walden said.

Shakedown test flunked

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A new Kwik-Dash fire truck flunked its shakedown test.

Firemen at San Francisco International Airport ran the rig off the paved road to check its ability to maneuver on ground off runways.

It got stuck in the mud and had to be jacked up to be freed from the mire.

Sinatra replies

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Frank Sinatra's reply to Judith Campbell Exner was short, to the point and included a bow to Shakespeare.

Mrs. Exner, who says she had an affair with President John Kennedy after they were introduced by Sinatra, also said in a book outline she had a short romance with Sinatra.

Wring house

LYONNE, England (UPI) — Fred Spily had one too many at the party, so his wife left without him. Then Fred Spily had one or two more too many.

When he tumbled home to his street in Lydney, England, which is lined with identical houses, befuddled Fred was a bit annoyed. "The door key didn't fit."

"I thought my wife had barred all the doors in keep me out," Spily, 28, told a magistrate Thursday. So he broke a window, climbed in, took off his shoes and "lipped upstairs in bed."

Enter Irene Jupp, the Spily's next-door neighbor herself out late. On the stairs she found a strange pair of shoes, and in her bed — was Fred.

"I was annoyed at first," Mrs. Jupp said. "But now I can see the funny side of it."

Magistrates didn't laugh much. Fred fined $10 for breaking the window and ordered him to pay $4 in costs and compensation.

"I've never been as drunk as that before," Spily said.

Church eyes chance

BOSTON (UPI) — Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, says he has a chance to garner his party's presidential nomination if the other candidates weed each other out in early primaries and run short of money by the time he starts running in March.

"The way I see it, none of those actively campaigning right now are likely to emerge with a lead unless one of the candidates emerges as an early winner, they cancel themselves out," he told a news conference Thursday night.

"The advantage they will pick up from campaigning all this time may be offset because they will spend a great deal of money and perhaps I can come in late on near equal ground," he said.

The key, says Church — who will announce his candidacy formally in early March when his Senate Committee is investigating the U.S. intelligence community — is his work — is to go in the convention with last-minute momentum.

He said it's not fair to other candidates to leave his name on the Massachusetts March 2 primary ballot.

Sollah case studied

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — A federal judge is reviewing a defense request to dismiss the bank robbery charge against Steven Sollah, whose lawyers contend a fair trial is impossible because news stories linked him to the "LET FIGHT" SYMBIONE LIBERATION Army.

"I don't believe this court can look Mr. Sollah in the eye and say it can assure him a fair trial in the United States of America," attorney Sheldon Olsang argued Thursday.

February wedding date set at Buhl

Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

BUHL. — Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dolar, Buhl, announce the engagement of their daughter, Toni Dolar, to Kim Smurthwaite, Clearfield, Utah. Kim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Konrad Smurthwaite, Clearfield. The couple plans a Feb. 28 wedding in the Buhl Methodist Church.

Miss Dolar is a 1974 graduate of the Buhl High School and is a sophomore at the University of Idaho. Smurthwaite graduated from the Clearfield High School in 1972 and is attending the Utah Technical College in Salt Lake City. He will graduate in heavy-duty mechanics in June.

The couple plans to reside in Salt Lake City after their marriage.

DEAR ABBY: I understand that they now have a doll on the market that looks like a flat-chested pre-teen girl until you twist her arm. Then she "grows" an inch or so and sprouts a pretty little bust.

Abby, what kind of toy is this? Do you think children young enough to play with dolls should know about such things?

Where will all this end? Next thing you know there will be a boy doll that "becomes a man" when his arm is twisted. I think toys of this kind should be outlawed. Please print your opinion in the paper. Maybe others would like to comment.

DISGUSTED IN CLEVELAND

DEAR DISGUSTED: I see nothing wrong with a child's knowing that pre-teen girls develop into shapely young women. I think you're making mountains out of molehills.

Grange welcomes new members at KH

KING HILL. — Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fraker were given the fourth degree obligation and welcomed as new members of the King Hill Grange Tuesday evening.

Two resolutions to be considered and studied were received from the Maple Grove Grange. One concerned aid for overworked schools and the other an alternative to gun control.

Mr. Rodney Rubery announced the formation of the Snake River Valley Historical Society for the purpose of composing an early day history of the area for the bicentennial.

She asked everyone to check off pictures and write long three residents for information on the opening of the King Hill Irrigation Tract.

"The Commercial Hotel in Glenn Ferry has donated the use of a room for two months as an office for the society and the Idaho State Bank will copy photographs and news items free of charge.

Grange members voted to sponsor the project.

Mrs. Howard Pugmire, women's activity chairman, reported the national Grange needlework contest will be similar to last year's competition. She urged members to enter in sewing, needlework, knitting and other categories.

W.S. Kenyon gave a report on a tour of the Idaho School for the Deaf and Blind in Gooding and Mrs. Kenyon told of entertaining an 11-year-old resident of the school.

During the lecturer's hour, Arthur Greer read an article on New Year's resolutions from "U. S. News and World Report" on the bicentennial.

Mrs. Greer also gave a reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Pugmire furnished an oyster stew at the end of the business meeting.

DEAR ABBY: Although I've always been in a good physical condition, for the last year I've been lifting weights regularly as a form of exercise. I want to keep my muscles strong and maintain a good physique.

I've had people tell me that weight-lifting is very hard on the heart. Others say it creates back problems, and I've heard that if I discontinue it, in later life, I will become soft and flabby.

What do you say? Is weight-lifting beneficial to one's health? Are there any dangers? How does it compare with calisthenics such as push-ups, sit-ups, jogging and bicycling?

I've had so many different opinions. Maybe you can get the straight dope from someone who really knows.

WEIGHT-LIFTER

DEAR LIFTER: That's a heavy assignment, but I've polled some experts and the word from here is: Don't go in for weight-lifting without coaching from an expert. Weight-lifting alone will build muscles, but it won't keep you in shape unless you combine it with other forms of exercise. Before you undertake any strenuous exercise program, SEE YOUR PHYSICIAN to find out how much you can safely take.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem that I hope you won't think is too dumb to consider. It's my rotten mouth.

Whenever I get angry, I lose my temper and cuss a blur streak.

I am a 27-year-old housewife with average intelligence and two children ages 5 and 3.

When I use foul language, my sweet husband gets disgusted with me and says, "I wish you wouldn't use language like that."

I really want to stop it because I don't want to set a bad example for my children. I surely wouldn't want them to imitate me.

Please help me.

ASHAMED OF MYSELF

DEAR ASHAMED: Anger is an honest emotion. It's unhealthy to suppress it, so let it out! But instead of using foul language, substitute other words and expressions. ("Oh, what a mess of a cook!" would be better than "You're a real pig!")

It's not easy to break lifelong habits. But it's not impossible.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Laaky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212, for Abby's booklet "How to Write Letters for All Occasions." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (25¢) envelope.

Cattlemen claim beef prices dip

DENVER (UPI) — The American National Cattlemen's Association said today average retail beef prices in supermarkets dropped 3 cents per pound in January.

Association President Gordon Van Vleck said a survey of stores in 19 states showed the average price of five representative cuts of beef cost $1.54 per pound, compared with $1.57 in December.

He said the decrease reflected a decline in the price to feedlots of live cattle and costs to wholesalers. Van Vleck said January was the sixth straight month the average price did not increase.

Van Vleck said the average pound price of ground beef was 70 cents, round steak was $1.70, sirloin was $1.90, T-bone steak was $2.31 and chuck roast was 99 cents.

"Increases in transportation, packaging, labor and other costs keep farm to retail margins on the uptrend but cattle prices have declined enough in recent months to cause the decreases in retail prices," he said.

Van Vleck said, however, union contracts had kept production of retail food handlers down and said any new wage increases would result in higher costs for the beef.

Beekeeper sues US

SPOKANE (UPI) — A Sunnyside, Wash., beekeeper has filed a quarter-million-dollar damage suit against the federal government for loss of bees killed by pesticides.

James Busch contends that pesticides approved for application by the U.S. Department of Agriculture caused loss of about half of the 28,000 bee colonies he had in Washington, Idaho and California three years ago.

US trade review set

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Finance Committee plans to review government trade policies including the administration's controversial temporary grain export embargoes of last summer. Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., says.

Curtis directed the planning of a meeting here Tuesday with the executive committee of the Agriculture Council of America. ACA officials made a tape of the comments available Wednesday.

The Nebraska senator, a member of the Finance panel, said he opposed the grain embargoes which have drawn "criticism from farmers who believe the government means to help—reduce—grain prices."

"I doubt if everybody at the top side of the State Department realizes the damage this export control does," Curtis said.

Butz lauds process

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz Wednesday hailed a new chemical crop fertilization process as a "great development."

A group of Iowa State University researchers has developed a method for fertilizing soybeans that eliminates leaves during plant growth. The researchers predicted the process could boost soybean crop yields 10 to 20 bushels an acre at a cost of about 25¢ per acre.

Butz said soybean yields had stayed on the same plateau for years and the new process would lower the average cost of soybeans and increase the U.S. competitive edge of the world market.

"I think it's a great development," he said.

Butz met with a conference of Iowa Fertilizer and Agricultural Dealers Tuesday, where the fertilizer process was announced. At a news conference Wednesday, he argued against suggestions the nation could research alternative—or organic—fertilizers.

"That's like going back when I was a kid," he said.

Butz said "research" into organic methods was unnecessary because "We know what that is. We knocked the bugs off the potatoes with our hands and put them in kerosene cans to die."

Thousands flee farms

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (UPI) — At least 3,000 farmers and their families have temporarily abandoned their lands to join municipal food lines in Brazil's northeast to survive the worst drought in years.

The federal government in Brasilia earlier this week began a food airlift to the area of roughly 32,000 square miles covering four northeast states.

The government has reported no deaths so far. Reports of a food line of 6,000 persons came from the interior city of Itacuruba, and another 3,000 persons lined up in Ouricuri, in the coastal state of Pernambuco.

"The rains stopped in one of the worst hit areas in early December."

The governor of Piaui reported that 40 of the 114 municipalities in the state were in serious condition.

Ford price rollback due

DETROIT (UPI) — Industry sources said Thursday that at least a partial rollback of the Ford Motor Company's average $113.30 price increase was imminent.

Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers have claimed the auto company's go-it-alone increase hasn't hurt sales, but a few admitted in a UPI survey that they wouldn't mind seeing a rollback. Others, however, claimed prices should remain where they are.

How much of the price increase, which took effect Jan. 15, almost a month after it was announced, would be rolled back wasn't known, the industry sources said. It was known the No. 2 auto company, fell at least part of the increase had to remain to partially offset increases for some safety equipment.

The Ford increase consisted of an average $97 jump on the base car and $16 for optional equipment. On light trucks, the increase amounted to $123.

The Ford increase came under sharp attack by the Council on Wage and Price Stability earlier this week. The council claimed they were designed to widen profits and did not reflect increased costs.

The failure of General Motors, the traditional industry pricing leader, to join in a second round of increases on the 1976 models also was seen as a major factor in the Ford decision.

Ford Chairman Henry Ford II, in a pre-Christmas news conference, admitted a rollback might be in order if GM did not follow Ford's lead. And GM's top executives have steadfastly said they are watching the market to see if price hikes are warranted.

"The increase hasn't meant anything to our sales so far," said Rudolph Massas, sales manager at Bert Weinman

Ford in Chicago. "I think people are getting used to price increases on new cars. A few came around to heat the hike, but not many."

Robert Mahan, sales manager for San Francisco Lincoln-Mercury on the West Coast, also said it was too early to notice any real impact from the price increase.

Livestock dealer charged in Elko

ELKO — Lynn W. Rose, Elko, Nev., has been charged with violating financial requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Rose, registered as a dealer and market agent to buy, livestock, purchases feeder cattle throughout several states including Idaho. If the charge is proven, Rose would be placed under a cease and desist order and his registration could be suspended.

Charles Gene Bryan, Twin Falls, said he had delinquency notices from mid-May that tax deposits were not made on trust tax funds. He said income agreements were made for payments, "some calling for deposits as low as $2,000 a month, and they were never made."

First Security Bank, Pocatello, has served notice on William Kelley, the new operator at Idaho Falls. He said money is an escrow toward a purchase price of $725,000 and the loan balance due is $570,000. Three additional liens total about $1,000.

When that failed, Anglin and director Claude Howe agreed on Dec. 9 to pay $5,000 per week on delinquencies and $2,500 per week toward Idaho-exercise-taxes. Bryan said IRS received three checks and two "were no good."

Asked if any sums discovered due from other corporations would be repaid, Anglin said: "I can categorically say they will be paid."

He added that a $94,000 figure shown on the financial statement was not correct. He said "cash on hand in banks" should have added and loans in its subsidiaries.

Hospital use steady, income rises sharply

TWIN FALLS — Magic Valley Memorial Hospital reported little growth in days of hospital utilization provided to patients, but tripled its net income during 1975. The total number of days spent in the hospital by all categories of patients held nearly constant at just over 48,000. But net income rose to $366,000, up sharply from about $115,000 the year before.

Total examinations and treatments in the radiology department increased from 19,927 to 29,376. In the nuclear medicine department, the number of nuclear tests were down to 1,075. The department performed 191 scans, compared to 768 for 1974. Hospital Administrator James Rosenbaum said the decline was due to the fact that the department was "without a doctor in charge for part of 1975."

Pumpers pleased in rate hike role

TWIN FALLS — Concerted action paid off for pump irrigators in Wednesday's power rate decision by the Idaho Public Utilities Commission (IPUC), according to Mark Moorman, Murtaugh, president of the Idaho Irrigation Pumpers Association. Moorman said irrigators in southern Idaho "saved" about $1.5 million in electricity bills when the IPUC reduced Idaho Power Co.'s requested rate hike by about 9 per cent. Idaho Power asked a 25 1/2 per cent increase for pump irrigators, but the IPUC granted only a 16.3 increase.

Operations for MVAG to end June 30

By CHARLOTTE BELL Times-News writer JEROME — Determined to complete its obligations, the Magic Valley Association of Governments will operate until June 30 before it folds into history. But the executive board of MVAG voted Thursday to terminate the operations of MVAG at the end of fiscal year 1976. The vote came after county commissioners from eight Magic Valley counties voted earlier this month to cut off county funding for the MVAG.

Whether the MVAG has provided a level of services adequate to justify a ten cent per capita assessment town counties has been questioned at MVAG and commission meetings since the organization was formed in July of 1974. Del Taylor, executive director for MVAG, told the board MVAG could default on its state planning contract by giving 30 days notice and could then disband immediately. However, Taylor said there is enough funding to sustain MVAG until June which would allow it to complete work programs and fulfill contracts.

Operations for MVAG to end June 30

Some discussion was held over the possibility of continuing MVAG with a skeleton crew after the end of the fiscal year by contacting counties in favor of MVAG for funding. But the board decided without the cooperation and funding of the eight Magic Valley counties, there is no reason to continue. However, indications are the board will continue to look for possible avenues of funding.

TF couple files complaint

TWIN FALLS — Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Collinson, Twin Falls, have filed a complaint and request for jury trial in Fifth Judicial District Court here over the purchase of property. The plaintiffs state they purchased the property from defendants in the case, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hehrin, in 1974. They say the payment was $86,250. Mr. and Mrs. Collinson charge the defendants misrepresented workmanship and condition of the home and failed to make good on the payment for repairs and renovations of the home.

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1976

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Don't try to get praise and encouragement now, for you have too many problems and issues to work out and need to put all your effort into removing obstacles.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Handle serious matters instead of seeking recreation since they are important to you and the most with loved one.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Relieve tensions at home, and be more understanding. Add concerns, improvements to abode that all will appreciate. Rest.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): The planets are acting up, so use care, especially in motion. Shop with care, also. Keep an eye on your wallet.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): Think big and get big should be your motto today, but be careful in the expenditure of money. Study possible investments.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Don't procrastinate on personal obligations. Make yourself look more charming and be sure your hair, nails are in fine condition.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 23): Complete unfinished work and get rid of that feeling of being held down. Free time for what is more vital. Seek expansion.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Get friends to help you with some tasks you dislike but have to get done just the same. Discuss new plans with allies.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Be devoted, practical, and increase harmony at home. Be firm where you are in the firm, fun future entertaining.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Make arrangements now for amusements, recreation for the future. Spend little for fun today. Tone up house for comfort.

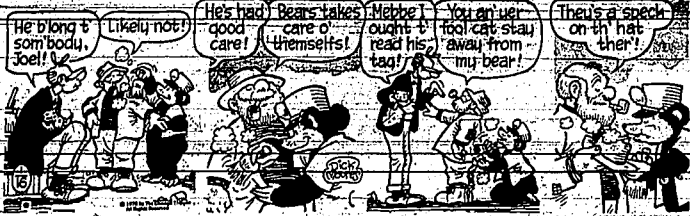

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Find better ways to handle any duties today without fail. Make sure wardrobe is in fine condition, neat, clean, streamlined.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Find out what partners think about mutual projects, then you can combine efforts more intelligently. Compliments make friend of hearts one.

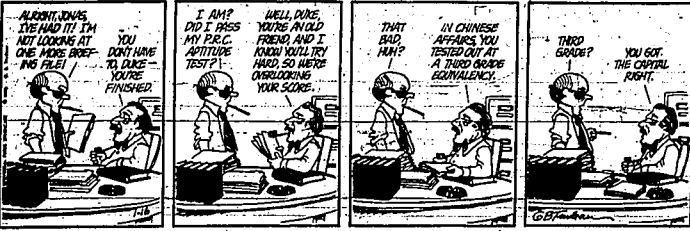

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Do work promised, even though it is not now to your liking. Show devotion to mate, though you are under some pressure.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will only need the right education, guidance, love, respect and life where the talents he or she are potentially most pronounced. Give as much encouragement as you can also, or your progeny will lose the fine incentive. Stant the education along lines of the highest professions that will bring in the highest returns monetarily. Religion a must early.

What's your stand on the use of the word "obey" in the marriage ceremony? Our Love and War man has been under the impression that the great majority of women want that little set of syllables left out of nuptials, but a recent survey conducted by the author in the able sampling nationwide, fewer than 1 per cent of the ladies said they objected most definitely to such in the ceremonial language. The rest said they just flatout didn't give a rat's nose, or words to that effect.

The contacts on a television set tuner tend to get corroded. Sometimes this gives you mighty bad reception of one channel or another. It can be cleaned out with a simple solvent that's available quite cheaply at a lot of hardware stores. But experts who have looked into the matter contend set owners have paid out millions of dollars for unnecessary repairs because of such minor corrosion.

MALPRACTICE LAWSUITS

Why is it that malpractice lawsuits against physicians are so rare in Canada? Inquires a columnist. Canadian lawyers don't accept clients on contingency which would allow them a percentage of the winnings rather than a flat fee. Does that explain it?

Introducing
"RED LETTER PRICES"

We call our new prices "Red Letter Prices" because we want every day to be a red-letter saving day for you. You may think of our new prices as "Discount" or "Low" or just plain old-fashioned "Cheaper." We promise you no other chain or group of stores will be able to bring you lower prices on a storewide basis than the new Smith's Food King.

Prices Effective
Thru Jan. 21, 1976

Introducing
Red Letter
"MANAGER'S SPECIALS."

Every week, the new Smith's Food King stores will offer exceptional bargains — at least one in every department — grocery, meat, produce, bakery and non-food. They will be chosen by our store managers, and prices will be in effect for one week only.
