Russ spy suspect on hunger strike

Chicago Daily News
TOKYO — A Russian in Japanese custody for alleged espionage against the U.S. Navy is causing authorities here a severe headache with his Georgia stubbornness.
 Alexandre Malchukhine, 38, Tokyo correspondent for the Soviet Novosti news Agency, was today in his sixth day of a hunger strike in protest against his arrest. And he continues to resist public prosecutors' attempts to question him.
 Japanese police pounced on the Russian last Wednesday night as he left a Tokyo restaurant with an unidentified American seaman from the Seventh Fleet aircraft carrier Midway.
 He was first arrested on charges of violating Japan's alien registration laws by refusing to produce his passport.
 But the real reason for his detention is that police suspect he was trying to buy U.S. secrets from the seaman. Police allege he met the American sailor about 10 times in the past year and offered money for information on electronic equipment and military codes used by the U.S. Seventh Fleet communications network in East Asia.

 President Ford counted on the home folks in Michigan today to give his campaign new life, while Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. hoped to upset Democratic front-runner Jimmy Carter in Maryland and prove he could win outside his native California.
 Ford strategists called Michigan a "must win" state, and worried that George Wallace Democrats in the state would cross over to support GOP challenger Ronald Reagan. Ford predicted victory, but promised to stay in the race all the way to the national convention — even if he should lose his home state.

Carter tried to keep up his front-runner's momentum against Brown in Maryland, and in Michigan, where he faced a last-ditch effort by Rep. Morris Udall.
 Election officials reported a "rather heavy turnout" in Ford's hometown of Grand Rapids, Mich., this morning, after polls opened at 7 a.m., but said there was only light to moderate voting under cloudy skies in Detroit, which has about half the state's population.
 In Maryland, a 55 per cent turnout was an anticipated statewide despite forecasts of rain and thunderstorms.
 Polls in both states close at 8 p.m. EDT.

The primary season reaches the two-thirds mark shaping up this way:
 Michigan — Ford and Reagan compete for 84 GOP delegates that are selected in proportion to the popular vote. Jimmy Carter's main opposition for 133 Democratic delegates comes from Udall. Two million persons who can vote in either party, were expected to turn out at the polls.
 Maryland — Forty-three Republican delegates are at stake on a statewide proportional basis, and neither contender has campaigned in the state. Brown has spent $123,000 in hopes of heading off Carter in popular votes but has no pledged delegate states running in the contest for 53 convention votes. Turnout is expected to be 50 per cent for the Democrats, 25 per cent for the Republicans.
 After a string of five straight Ford wins, Reagan defeated the President in five of the six Republican primaries this month. Ford now trails the Callifornia in committed delegates, 585 to 577, with 133 needed for the nomination. There are 37 uncommitted Republican delegates, most of them in New York and Pennsylvania and leaning toward Ford.
 A reputation in his home state would be a crushing blow to Ford's hopes of winning.

Buhl party death probe continuing

By BONNIE BAIRD JONES
 Times-News writer
BLUM — Investigation continued today in the slaying of Terry Brannon, 25, Twin Falls, who was fatally beaten with a baseball bat Sunday night in a private high school party on a farm southwest of Blum.
 In custody in the Twin Falls County jail was Victor Keen, 20, Blum, charged with first-degree murder. He appeared in Magistrate Court Monday afternoon for arraignment. Judge Dan Meehl continued the arraignment until Keen obtains an attorney. He was held without bond.
 Sheriff Corder said Brannon was beaten about the head with a baseball bat in a fight witnessed by about 100 of the 200 persons attending the party. Corder said his officers will continue questioning witnesses today.
 Corder said the Blum senior class gathered at the Fred Knippes ranch shortly before 8 p.m. Sunday, following graduation exercises. Keen was taken to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises about 8 p.m. after he allegedly engaged in an altercation with Brannon.
 Sheriff Corder said Keen then returned to the party where he and Brannon allegedly again took up their fight.
 Brannon was taken to the Blum Police Department about 10 p.m. and then to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. He died in the hospital about 7 a.m. Monday of head injuries.
 Sheriff Corder said today he had not determined why some 200 young people attended the party which there are only 130 high school seniors in Blum. One resident of Blum said tickets were sold to the event, probably to help defray expenses.
 Dale Thomsberry, Blum High School principal, said the party was not a school function.
 One discouraging hint of activity: Thomsberry said, "One reason graduation was held on Sunday was so churches could become involved in the after ceremony activities."
 County Coroner Joyce Edwards said he has not decided if an inquest will be necessary. He said he will confer with County Prosecutor William Hillfield today to determine the matter.
 Officers arrested Keen at his home later Monday.

Building OK no advance

By DAVE HORSMAN
 Times-News writer
TWIN FALLS — William John won the right to build a triplex apartment house in Twin Falls, but he really lost.
 The Twin Falls City Council Monday night approved John's request to build the three-unit dwelling but lacked on a requirement that makes the project nearly impossible.
 In granting the request, the council also ruled that the private road leading to the property must be "brought up to the standards of a residential street in Twin Falls." That means the 25-foot-wide dirt road, which John shares with several other homeowners, must be widened to 50 feet and paved.
 The road is one block west of Eastland Drive and extends about 600 feet south from Elizabeth Boulevard.
 John today said he will abandon plans for the triplex and will build a duplex instead.

Typhoons batter Pacific Islands

AGANA, Guam (UPI) — Powerful tropical typhoons today touched off a killer mudslide in the eastern Caroline Islands and whipped the east coast of the Philippines.
 Officials said as many as nine persons may have died in Truk, eastern Caroline Islands, where Typhoon Pamela, packing winds in excess of 100 m.p.h., triggered a mudslide that buried a building.

Italian bishops warn of Red peril

ROME (UPI) — Italy's Roman Catholic bishops have warned voters of the perils of "atheistic communism" and reminded Catholics to remain on the Communist ticket in the June 20 elections that they face possible excommunication.
 The 200 bishops gathered in the Vatican Synod Hall burst into applause Monday when Cardinal Antonio Poma, speaking from the presidency bench under a large crucifix, issued the warnings against communism in the opening session of an annual Italian bishops' assembly.

More tremors shake N. Italy

UDINE, Italy (UPI) — The ground shook again before dawn today in earthquake-devastated northeastern Italy, but officials reported no new casualties or damage.
 The Trieste Geographic Observatory said the two latest tremors lasted for 13 the number of aftershocks since a disastrous quake battered 60 towns and villages near the Austrian and Yugoslav borders May 6, killing more than 900 persons.

Leonid absent

BERLIN (UPI) — The East German Communist party opened its ninth congress today with Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev absent.
 It was the third successive East European party Congress Brezhnev did not attend. Such congresses are major events for the Soviet bloc, and the absence of the 69-year-old Soviet leader again aroused speculation.

S. Africa calls for peace effort

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (UPI) — South Africa called for a new peace initiative to avert a "tragedy" in Rhodesia before Russia and Cuba are given a chance to intervene.
 South Africa offered to join other nations in trying to move the Rhodesian opposition back to negotiations.
 Foreign Affairs Minister Hilgard Muller said in a Senate debate Monday a formula must be found to "set a settlement here attractive to the various groups in Rhodesia."

Montreal cons release hostages

MONTREAL (UPI) — Two convicts who held two prison guards hostage for 12 hours released them unharmed today after prison officials agreed to transfer the two inmates to another prison.
 Guards Mario Rodrigues and S. Thibeault were kept tied to chairs in a cell in the segregation unit of the maximum security Laval Institute.

Argentine shootings claim 10 lives

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (UPI) — Ten persons — seven leftist guerrillas and three soldiers — died in shooting and bombing incidents, Argentine authorities said today.
 Six captured leftist guerrillas including a woman were shot to death in an escape attempt Monday night in the city of Cordoba, 64 miles northwest of Buenos Aires, the army announced. One policeman suffered a minor wound in the incident.

Hopping mad

LONDON (UPI) — Trains on London's Central Line subway service were halted by a berserk rabbit that jumped into one cab and bit, scratched and clawed the driver until he bled.
 London Transport, which operates the system, said Monday the rabbit attacked driver John Hunt.
 Hunt was treated at hospital for his injuries and his cab was taken to the workshop.
 London Transport did not say what happened to the rabbit.

Mishaps pursue lineman on way to TF hospital

By CHARLOTTE BELL
 Times-News writer
HUNT — Donald Braga, 23, Gooding, had more than his share of excitement Monday when the ambulance carrying him to the hospital for treatment of electrical burns rolled over.
 Braga, an Idaho Power Co. lineman, was working on a high voltage power line Monday when he apparently came in contact with a wire and was burned. En route to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, the ambulance being driven by Gary Luder, Twin Falls, went off the road on a curve on the Hunt road and rolled completely over.

 The driver of the ambulance was treated for minor injuries and released at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. Ken Sheldon, 19, a passenger, was held for observation and was reported in good condition by hospital officials this morning. Braga was reported "in good condition also. He was not injured in the accident. Another passenger in the ambulance, William Vesina, 37, Twin Falls, was also not injured.
 According to Jerome County Sheriff Eliza Hall, the ambulance sustained an estimated $3,000 damage and no citations have been issued.
 Hunt said Braga was transferred to the Valley Quik Response Unit vehicle and transported to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital with an Idaho State Police escort.
 Braga sustained burns on his hand, arm and the bottom of one foot in the electrical shock accident, Hall said.

TF bike lane inches off

TWIN FALLS — A Twin Falls bicycle lane project inched off the starting line Monday night.
 City Councilman Chris Talkington, an avid supporter of bike paths, agreed to study possible routes and propose a "very simple start on a system that can be developed through the years."
 It was apparent at the Monday night meeting that the city council sees no hope for construction of special paths, apart from motor routes. The expense would be prohibitive, according to several councilmen.
 Instead they suggested designated routes on the streets, possibly set off by painted stripes.
 The council reviewed a first report on bike lanes written by former assistant city engineer

Ed Kibbe. Kibbe proposed an extensive network of paths throughout the city that concentrated on access to schools and parks.
 The council, however, indicated that the plan was more helpful as an ultimate design than a starting point.
 Talkington said he would submit "a few primary routes" for consideration. He mentioned Locust Street as a likely choice.
 Mayor Paul Osbyn said he supports a bike route but personally would object to any plan that bans vehicle parking on one side of the streets.
 Gale Slett, acting as spokesman for a local group called Citizens for Bike Paths, said his organization "has the means to help" in the project, including donations of labor and money.

Carter 2nd pick

BOISE (UPI) — Gov. Cecil D. Andrus acknowledged to newsmen today that Jimmy Carter is his strongest choice for president in Idaho. Sen. Frank Church falls to win the nomination.
 "Definitely," Andrus said, when the question was put to him that way at a morning news conference.
 Andrus goes to Oregon Wednesday to campaign for Church, his number one choice for the Democratic nomination.

'74 deal to transfer Sierra control probed

By BILL LAZARUS
 Times-News writer
TWIN FALLS — The president of Sierra Life Insurance Co. agreed to sell control of the Twin Falls-based insurance company to a California firm in two connected transactions late in 1974.
 In an unusual aspect of the sale, Sierra President Fred Frazier agreed to accept more than $1 million above the market price for 124,000 shares of his personally owned stock in Sierra.
 In another part of the deal, Frazier agreed to sell 200,000 shares of Sierra-owned stock to the California firm for $4.50 a share. That was less than one-third the $15 per share price Frazier charged for his own stock in the company.
 In addition, Frazier accepted stricter terms for the purchase of his personal stock than for the purchase of Sierra-owned stock.

 (Stories tomorrow and Thursday will examine the value of land Frazier accepted as Sierra's security on a related $900,000 loan to the California buyer. That loan reportedly since has gone into default.)
First of a series
 Eventually, the takeover agreement and Frazier's $1 million stock bonanza fell through when the buyer reportedly failed to make payments on the stock; it was buying from Frazier.
 Even so, in subsequent actions, Frazier managed to more than double his personal ownership of Sierra stock by obtaining the 200,000 shares of the California firm had just purchased.

 Frazier did this at "no apparent net cost" to himself.
 Additionally, he came out of the deal with $15,000 in cash paid when his stock transaction was made in the first place.
 The sale of Sierra's 200,000 shares and the sale of Frazier's personal shares were directly connected with the corporate secretary of a firm directly involved on behalf of the buyers.
 The letter of intent, signed the month before the final stock transactions were signed, says that the purchase of Sierra stock and other purchases from Sierra were "conditioned upon" the sale of Sierra shares owned by Frazier "at a consideration of not less than $15 per share."

 The conditions were set by the buyers and were "acknowledged and agreed" to by Frazier, according to the letter.
 Despite his apparent financial interest in the sale of "control" in his company, Sierra's president signed a "disclaimer statement" dated Dec. 31, 1974, filed with the Idaho Department of Public Safety.
 In the disclaimer, Frazier was asked the question: "During the year 1974, did you have any material interest, direct or indirect, in any material transaction or any material proposal or other business to which the company, or any of its subsidiaries, was or is to be a party?"
 His answer was "No."

POCATELLO, Idaho (UPI) — Sen. Frank Church completed an interim-term campaign, swing Monday by telling a Pocatello news conference he wants Idaho Gov. Cecil D. Andrus in his cabinet if elected president. Asked if he would consider Andrus as a potential secretary of interior, Church said the two-term governor would be a top choice for any job he was elected to. "I would want him to be a part if he were willing," the Idaho Democrat said. Church, who campaigned in

Coeur d'Alene, Lewiston and Boise Sunday, made a quick visit by air to Salt Lake City Monday and then flew to Pocatello for a brief speech and news conference at the airport. About 100 persons turned out to see him. He headed then for Boise and a flight back to Washington, D.C., to set up a congressional oversight committee. Church said his surprise victory over former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter in Nebraska proves it still is possible to win the Democratic nomination. He said the bookfire started in Nebraska will carry over into the primaries of "last impression" before the convention. At his airport speech, he hit hard on his investigation into the intelligence agencies. He said there is a need for the CIA, and FBI but "they must reform." He said he was proud of his committee's work. Church criticized last two Republican administrations of Nixon and Ford for making no progress on energy policies. "We need a crash program that will work," he said. He made a pitch for geothermal energy development which, he said, could provide as much power as all hydroelectric projects in the state. He called for election of a western candidate, noting he is the only one from the Intermountain West.

Church seeks Utah votes

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Idaho Sen. Frank Church pleaded Monday for Utah's 18 votes to the National Democratic Convention on a questionnaire stop at the Salt Lake International Airport. Church held a brief news conference hours before Utah Democrats were to vote in a meeting of party activists. Church will be at the meeting across the state.

The voters attending the meetings will allocate Utah's presidential ballots at the party national convention this summer. The results, however, won't be known for several days.

"I don't know of any states that have a closer kinship than Utah and Idaho," said the grinning candidate on his third stop in Utah since his announcement. He is the only Democratic presidential candidate to stump for the state so far.

Church and his wife, Bethlene, flew in from Boise for the news conference, then headed back to Idaho on a chartered plane for campaign stops in his home state.

The Idaho senator denied the purpose of his campaign was to stop frontrunner Jimmy Carter, although he urged the supporters of other Democratic contenders to unite behind him in the western states.

Asked if the call for unity wasn't really a "code word" for stop Carter, Church replied, "No, it's a code word for support Church."

"I don't regard the nomination as all sewed up. The West can make a difference," he said. "If Humphrey Democrats and Kennedy Democrats and Utah Democrats and Jackson Democrats can unite behind the candidacy of Frank Church, then we can win in Utah as we did in Nebraska."

Church secured a narrow victory over Carter in the state and said he hoped Utahns would follow the same course and "prove that Western people can't be so readily programmed."

He also urged Utahns not to vote for candidates who have dropped out, declared they won't run, or can't win.

The voting for people who are no longer effectively in the race is simply to waste votes," Church said. "I hope Democrats won't waste votes."

The Idaho Democrat also said he was "sorry" the Mormon Church had been attacked during the campaign because of its policy of denying its priesthood to blacks.

The racial issue was injected into the campaign last week by Detroit Mayor Coleman Young, a black, who criticized Democratic candidate Morris Udall for belonging to a church that had such a policy.

Udall, who said he quit the church 30 years ago, demanded an apology, but none was given.

"I'm sorry that happened and I hope the controversy soon passes," said Church. "I know that's the way the leaders of the LDS Church feel and that's the way I feel."

Church also said Henry Kissinger's announcement that he would resign no matter what the outcome of the election "doesn't matter very much because we are going to have a Democratic President who, in any case, is going to appoint a new secretary of state."

Hall returning

LEWISTON (UPI) — The Lewiston Morning Tribune has reported that Wilbert D. "Bill" Hall, campaign secretary to presidential candidate Frank Church, will resign his position June 8 to become editorial page editor of the Lewiston Tribune.

Hall, 39, held the editorial position for nearly 10 years before resigning February 10, 1975, to become Church's press secretary.

Hall's original assignment on the Church staff was senior press aid and speech writer. In December he shifted to the Church for President forces to become the campaign's national press secretary.

Hall will resume his writing duties toward the latter part of June.

Rules under fire

BOISE (UPI) — Members of the Idaho Health Facilities Association protested the Department of Welfare's proposed rules for reimbursing nursing home and intermediate care facilities as more restrictive than federal regulations Monday.

Nursing home operators said the department is not paying enough for the 2,800 people in long-term care facilities.

James C. Wilson, director of the department of welfare and hearing officer at the meeting said, "We have been paying a $1.35 per day profit incentive. We're the only state I know of that pays on the basis of actual cost."

"We were told we could not continue doing this so we published these rules on an emergency basis. Nursing home operators felt some of wording did not leave as much leeway as federal regulations."

Wilson said 50 to 60 percent of the aid is paid by the federal government in Medicaid payments.

"They put up most of the money and therefore make most of rules," Wilson said the state can't pay more than Medicare would pay under the same circumstances in an effort to maintain costs.

Under Medicare policies 67 cents a day per patient would be the most the operator could be reimbursed depending on the amount of length the operator has in the facility.

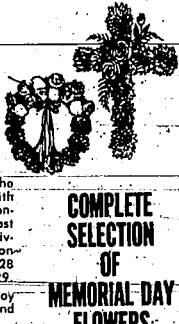

"The purpose of the hearings is to get input," Wilson said. He will make recommendations to Milton Klein, director of the Department of Health and Welfare, on the basis of the public hearing.

Wilson said the rules will become effective in 30 days.

Political dissent target of 47 spies, panel says

© Newsweek News Service
 WASHINGTON — Forty-seven spies and would-be spies for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) collected here the names of domestic activities of American political dissenters during the Johnson and Nixon administrations, Senate investigators said today.

The agents, ostensibly undergoing training for assignment abroad, were infiltrated into American radical groups and became a "main source" of domestic intelligence, the investigators said.

Their reports went into the files of project CHAOS, the most extensive program of domestic spying conducted by the CIA, according to a report by the staff of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities. It termed the project "a step toward the dangers of a domestic secret police."

Despite contributions from "CHAOS agents" placed within the radical community, the report said, the CIA was not able to give the White House what it was demanding under two presidents: evidence that the anti-war movement and black protest groups were sponsored or incited by foreign powers.

Launched in 1967 by order of President Lyndon B. Johnson, CHAOS recorded the names of 500,000 Americans in a CIA computer system code-named "HYDRA" before the project was terminated in 1974.

Initially, CHAOS obtained information from the FBI and from its overseas and domestic field offices. But in the fall of 1967, under pressure from the Nixon White House for proof of foreign links to U.S. dissidents, CHAOS chief Richard Ober "obtained his own agent program," the report stated.

"Over 40 potential recruits were evaluated," the report said. "Of these, 10 were referred by the FBI to whom they had already worked. Seven recruits developed unilaterally by the CIA also were used as CHAOS agents."

"CHAOS agents participated in radical activity here as part of their preparation for assignment overseas. In the process, they supplied detailed information on domestic activities of Americans.

"While here, the agents spent at least several weeks, and, in some cases, much longer immersed in the radical community."

"This not only enhanced their radical credentials and increased their familiarity with persons and groups they might be reporting on from abroad. It also afforded their case officer with an opportunity to train them, assess their progress, test the possibility that they were a plant—and evaluate how CHAOS could best use them abroad. This was done by extensive debriefing of the agents on the periodic basis."

The CHAOS case officer who debriefed the CHAOS agents "frequently amazed the FBI in the degree of information he could extract from the agents' experience," the report noted, adding, "He was like a vacuum cleaner."

One agent with particularly good access into the "highest levels" of one segment of the domestic radical community was the source of much information, "some extremely personal," about individuals on whom he reported and their "personal relationships," the report stated.

In another case, CHAOS received reports from Washington, D.C. construction workers and persons in similar trades and their relatives, who were employed through a CIA-front business to spy on several anti-war organizations including the Women's Strike for Peace, the Washington Peace Center, the Congress of Racial Equality, and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Despite reports from the CIA that dissident activity against the U.S. government was indigenous rather than foreign-sponsored, the Johnson and Nixon White Houses both remained unimpressed and pressed for expanded surveillance.

Both Ober and former CIA Director Richard Helms testified that this White House pressure "was a significant factor in the continued expansion of CHAOS," the report stated.

JAKE JACOBSEN
... no contest plea

Judge gives US witness probation

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (UPI) — Jake Jacobsen, the government's star witness in last year's bribery trial of former Treasury Secretary John Connally, has decided against challenging charges of stealing $825,000 and accepted a seven-year probation sentence.

Jacobsen entered the plea of no contest Monday to end the trial on its first day.

The plea closed three years of legal maneuvering which included plea bargaining, requests for immunity, dropped charges and three postponed trials.

The charges against Jacobsen, who briefly served as an aide to President Lyndon Johnson, involved a loan he granted himself while an officer and majority stockholder of First Savings and Loan Association of San Angelo.

The federal government brought their charges against Jacobsen in 1974, alleging the $825,000 loan was never repaid and was backed by property less than half the value of the loan.

But the Justice Department dropped its charges in late 1974 to secure Jacobsen's testimony against Connally, a former Texas governor who was serving in the Nixon administration.

Shortly after the federal charges were dropped, the state instituted its own indictments of Jacobsen.

Death warning studied for cigarette packages

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Cigarette sales are soaring so high that the government says it will investigate to see whether the tobacco is pushing the habit with unfair advertising.

The Federal Trade Commission said in its annual report to Congress that Americans smoked a record 603 billion cigarettes last year.

The agency recommended stronger warnings on cigarette packs and ads — perhaps by the use of a "death" symbol — and said it has started an industry-wide investigation "in order to determine whether there may be deception and unfairness" in cigarette ads.

There has been a "sharp increase" in cigarette consumption by women and young people, the report said, and the result was that last year Americans put their way through a projected 601 billion to 603 billion cigarettes — up more than 8 billion from 594.5 billion in 1974.

That compares to 584.7 billion in 1973 and 572 billion in 1971 — the year radio and television cigarette commercials were banned.

The commission did not elaborate on the investigation, but elsewhere in the report it said some ads appear to "encourage consumers to ignore the grave health consequences of 'quitting,'" the report added.

The agency told Congress it should consider changing the law to strengthen the written warning either to spell out the various types of diseases — such as cancer, heart disease and bronchitis — or simply reverse the label to say:

"Warning: Cigarette Smoking is a Major Health Hazard and May Result in Your Death."

 WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Rifle Association's Institute for Legislative Action has named Sen. James A. McClure, R-Idaho, "legislator of the year."

"Literally had it not been for Jim McClure's efforts in the Senate last year, we would be facing the bleak prospect of a ban on handgun ammunition," Harlan B. Carter, institute executive director, said.

Message of big legislation in the Senate prohibiting the impending ammunition ban by the consumer Product Safety Commission was brilliantly executed by Jim McClure," he said.

Giscard pledges friendship

WASHINGTON (UPI) — French President Valery Giscard d'Estaing says his country is as firm a friend today as it was when Lafayette helped fight the Revolutionary War 200 years ago.

Giscard was making the diplomatic rounds today — a speech to a joint session of Congress, a lunch given by Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and a return dinner at the French embassy for President Ford.

Monday, Giscard completed his first day in Washington with an exchange of toasts at a White House state dinner.

He said, "Nobody doubts France's commitment to the cause of peace" and added that France is a "solid ally" because its role involves no subservience.

He said that since the Martintique conference with Ford the United States and France have shared a desire to solve the problems of the world.

"Although our methods may sometimes be different," said the French leader, "both are inspired by liberty."

Hidden budget supported

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Pentagon is appealing to the Senate to keep the nation's annual intelligence budget hidden, fragmented and disorderly to confuse foreign analysts and protect U.S. secrets.

Defense Secretary Robert Ellsworth argued against too much order and logic in the annual intelligence budget in testimony released Monday by the Senate Armed Services Committee.

"Naturally, when you get things into a coherent, unitary picture in the intelligence field, foreign intelligence specialists and analysts are not so dumb that they can't figure out on the basis of a year-to-year comparison basis what is going on in our intelligence collection effort," he said.

The Senate today takes up an amendment by Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Armed Services panel, to accord the military intelligence services special protection by excluding them from the scrutiny of the proposed new Senate watchdog committee.

As the Senate resumed debate on the watchdog proposal Monday, the committee released Ellsworth's testimony claiming special security needs for the code-cracking National Security Agency and the Defense Intelligence Agency, military intelligence units.

But proponents of strong congressional oversight objected.

Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., said the defense agencies account for 50 per cent of the annual intelligence budget, and asked if it were "right and proper to exclude 50 per cent of the community" from congressional oversight.

Sen. Walter Mondale, D-Minn., said: "Ex-perience has taught us the need for auxiliary precautions. Secrecy, yes; unaccountability, no! That's why we must have full jurisdiction."

Child tells of abductor

DALLAS (UPI) — FBI agents interviewing a 1-year-old niece Moore, abducted May 3 and taken to New Orleans, say the child is unafraid to talk of her travels with her kidnaper, who bought her hot dogs and took her swimming in a lake "as big as an ocean."

Linda Moore had a tearful reunion Monday in New Orleans with her daughter and the two then flew back home to Dallas.

FBI agents interviewed Nicole for two hours Monday evening over dinner and planned to conduct more interviews today.

Agents said Nicole remembers swimming in a "lake as big as an ocean," a possible reference to Lake Ponchartraine near New Orleans and eating hot dogs and corn dogs bought by the kidnaper. The girl referred to her abductor only as "Joe," agents said.

Nicole was found unharmed Sunday in a wandering state at the New Orleans Charity Hospital.

'Plumber' rulings split

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Court of Appeals has upheld the convictions of former White House aides John D. Ehrlichman and Gordon Liddy for their roles in the 1971 break-in at Dr. Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist's office.

But the same three-judge court Monday had sympathy for Bernard L. Barker and Eugenio R. Martinez, whom it called "footsoldiers of the Watergate affair," and reversed their convictions in the same case.

All four were convicted by a jury of violating the civil rights of Dr. Louis F. Blumstein, Beverly Hills when Barker, Martinez and Felipe DeDiego, on Liddy's orders, broke into Fiedling's office to obtain Ellsberg's psychiatric records.

At the time, Ellsberg faced trial for revealing the Pentagon Papers, topsecret Defense Department documents detailing U.S. involvement in Vietnam. The charges were dismissed when word of White House involvement in the break-in was made public.

Ehrlichman was also convicted on two counts of lying to a grand jury investigating the break-in.

Ehrlichman and Ekl Krogh supervised the White House unit nicknamed "the plumbers," which also tapped telephones of newsmen and aides to Henry Kissinger to track down leaks of secret information.

Blumstein's ruling will have the most direct effect on Ehrlichman, who faces a 20 month to five year sentence and has never been imprisoned. His appeal in connection with the 1972 Watergate break-in is pending at the same appeals court.

Liddy's sentence is concurrent with one received for the Watergate break-in. He is still in prison.

Solon eyes Cuban role

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An Illinois congressman is demanding information on news reports of Cuban troops in Panama.

Rep. Philip M. Crane, R-Ill., said Monday he planned a "resolution of inquiry" in the House, demanding information from the Pentagon.

The resolution of inquiry, which must be acted upon by a committee within seven days or be subject to immediate action on the floor, asks for information "relative to the extent of—Cuban or other foreign military or paramilitary presence in the Republic of Panama or in the Panama Canal Zone."

Crane said if reports that nearly 3,000 Cuban military personnel stationed in Panama are true, the situation "would constitute a major threat to the security of the Panama Canal and the safety of American citizens in the Canal Zone."

If a committee and the House pass the resolution of inquiry, Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld "would be required to supply the information within 15 days of the date of the House's action."

McClure a friend of gun owners

No issue divides the eastern United States from the West quite like the issue of gun control. In the East, gun control legislation often is touted as a cure for crime.

Out West, guns aren't considered a tool of the criminal but the friend of the sportsman.

McClure's opposition to gun control is an example of a man working for his constituents. Westerners are taking a hard line on new gun control laws because they view efforts to take away guns as infringement of constitutional rights.

Jim McClure's fight against gun control is a worthwhile effort because he may force other Senators to look for more realistic legislation to battle crime.

Primary victors unknown

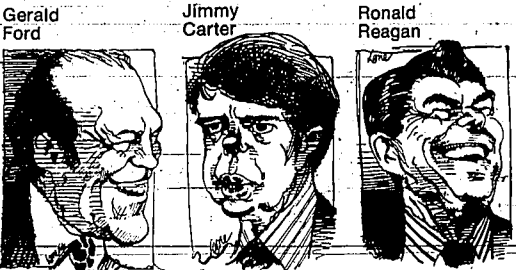

At a little beyond midpoint in the nation's political primaries it remains far from clear what will happen at the nominating conventions. Nebraska - he lost to Mr. Reagan. Where he had not shown up at all for a long time - West Virginia - he won.

Civil control of Soviet military may be goal

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

WASHINGTON - Accumulating evidence suggests that a majority in the Soviet leadership is trying to assert civilian authority over the armed forces and to bring military spending under control.

Spokesmen for Ford and Reagan said they would prefer to conduct these activities themselves. But because of campaign spending limitations and the tight nomination battle, neither man feels he can spare any money or staff for post-convention planning.

$70,000 will be paid for out of the $3.4 million the committee is permitted to spend for the general election under federal campaign financing rules.

Thus, the primary scramble at a little over the halfway mark has left a trail of slight confusion and bewilderment. The unexpected has happened more times than it should again.

'74 deal to transfer Sierra control probed

However, Idaho officials who have seen the contracts say they have found no illegalities.

Mike Brassey, deputy director of the Idaho Department of Finance, said he saw "no obvious problem" in reviewing the stock sale contracts. He said there was "no inherent problem" in Frazier's receiving a higher price for his stock than the price received by Sierra for its stock.

"I haven't seen any violation of the law," Deputy Insurance Director David Vaughn said. He said he was principally interested in making sure the state's insurance code was complied with in the deals. But he said he did not notice any type of Idaho Code violation.

Idaho Insurance Department Director Monroe Gollagher said he does not know whether Frazier was involved in a conflict of interest in the stock deals. He said information about the transactions was turned over to the Idaho Department of Finance for its consideration.

Regarding Frazier's disclaimer to the Idaho Department of Insurance that he had no interest in any material transaction in which Sierra was involved, Gollagher at first said, "It looks to me like this was a simple, inadvertent error on their part."

He said Sierra already had advised the department of the transactions prior to the disclaimer statement being filed. Gollagher added, however, that the disclaimer statement is public information while the form in which Sierra reported the transactions is not public without the company's agreement.

Later, Gollagher said he "got to reading the law a little bit more" and decided that Frazier had not made a mistake by denying any material interest in any transaction in which Sierra was involved.

"The actual transaction that Fred Frazier did make at that time was not with Sierra or any of its subsidiaries. It was a private transaction with National Funding Corporation," Gollagher said.

He said the form under which the disclaimer is filed is "not intended to cover all transactions of stock between individuals."

When asked about the letter-of-intent concerning the Frazier-National Funding and the Sierra-National Funding deals, Gollagher said he would have to have the department's lawyer study the matter.

The next day, Gollagher again described the Frazier-National Funding stock agreement as "entirely private transaction."

"The (Frazier) was not selling any stock to or from the company. I'm going to rest on that," Gollagher said. He maintained this shows that Frazier had no "direct" interest in any Sierra transaction.

Regarding Frazier's voucher that he had no "direct or indirect" interest in any company transaction during the year, Gollagher said,

"The term indirect in and of itself means there has to be a legal interpretation made."

"At this time it hasn't appeared to us that there has been any violation of the insurance code," Gollagher said. Then, he added, "I'm going to hold in reserve my right to consider that."

Frazier now refuses to comment to the Times-Sun, although in an earlier interview he defended the deal.

He said he had been ordered by the Idaho Department of Insurance to sell Sierra's stock in Greater Idaho Corp. and that the groups involved in buying the stock also wanted an option to his own controlling stock in Sierra.

"I was under the hammer when I did that deal. I did not want to sell my stock" in Sierra, Frazier said. He said he did it in order to comply with the order to sell the stock in Greater Idaho.

Regarding the higher price set for his personal stock, Frazier said, "They paid the market price for what they got. They paid Frazier trading prices for the rest." He claimed the right to sell his own stock for whatever price he could obtain.

In a taped interview with KTFI Radio News, Frazier also defended the deal, saying the long-term payout period for the purchase of his own shares was a factor in the higher price for his stock.

However, for Sierra's 200,000 shares Frazier required the buyers to pay Sierra yearly over 15 years at 6.25 per cent interest. The yearly payments for the first 14 years would be made on a 30-year payout schedule, with the balance of the loan due on the fifteenth year.

For his own stocks Frazier required considerably stricter terms on payments. In the nine months following the signing of the agreement, the buyers would have to pay Frazier $300,000 cash. Then, the buyers would have to pay for the rest of his stock over six years with 7 per cent interest due each year on the remaining balance.

Also, Frazier required his own stock for the 200,000 of Sierra stock put up as security on the buyers' promise to pay him for his stock.

Transactions detailed
On Dec. 19, 1974, Frazier, as Sierra president, agreed to sell 200,000 shares of Sierra common stock at $4.50 per share. The sale was to National Funding, a California Corporation owned by the same men who were indirectly purchasing Greater Idaho Corp's stock from Sierra.

The sale of the 200,000 shares of stock was "finalized and closed" on Dec. 30, 1974, according to state records.

On the same day, Frazier executed an agreement to sell National Funding his 124,000 shares in Sierra for $1.86 million — or $15 a share.

According to a lawsuit Sierra has since filed in federal court, National Funding agreed that until Frazier was paid in full for his stock, he would retain voting rights on his own 124,000 shares plus the 200,000 shares of Sierra stock sold to National Funding.

Also, the 124,000 Frazier shares being sold to National Funding and the 200,000 newly issued Sierra shares sold to the corporation were put up as security on National Funding's promise to buy Frazier's 124,000 shares at $15 a share for $1.86 million, according to the Sierra lawsuit.

National Funding did not meet its promised payments to Frazier, the suit states, and Frazier sold the 324,000 shares of Sierra, stock which was his security in December 1975.

Records which Sierra has presented to the Idaho Department of Insurance show that during 1975 the 200,000 shares of Sierra stock owned by National Funding were acquired by Greater Idaho Corp.

Other insurance department records show that Frazier during December 1975 acquired by "foreclosure sale" the 200,000 shares of stock owned by Greater Idaho.

According to a letter to Greater Idaho Corp. which Sierra has included as an exhibit in its suit, Frazier notified Greater Idaho on Jan. 5 this year that he sold the 324,000 shares of stock (his 124,000 plus the 200,000) for $486,000 on Dec. 28, 1975.

Frazier told KTFI News that he sold the shares to himself.

The letter to Greater Idaho Corp. said that the proceeds of the sale were applied in accord to the provisions of the Stock Purchase Agreement between Frazier and National Funding. It said there was no cost charged for conducting the sale.

Under the terms of the Frazier-National Funding agreement, the proceeds of such a foreclosure sale would first go to pay off the sale and then would be applied to pay Frazier for any of the remaining $1.86 million debt. Then, if any money or stock were left over, it would go to National Funding.

In other words, the $486,000 proceeds from the sale would have reverted back to Frazier, under the terms of the agreement.

Effectively, Frazier acquired an additional 200,000 shares of Sierra stock at no apparent net cost to himself.

At $486,000 for 324,000 shares, Frazier sold the stock to himself at $1.50 per share. In his letter to Greater Idaho he said this was the going market price for the stock at the time.

By acquiring 200,000 additional shares of Sierra stock, Frazier's percentage ownership of Sierra was about doubled.

State records show that after Frazier purchased 200,000 shares he directly owned a total of 327,533 shares of Sierra stock or approximately 35 per cent of the company's total 941,468 shares of stock.

Prior to the sale of 200,000 shares of authorized but unsold Sierra stock to National Funding, a total of 761,468 shares of Sierra stock had been issued. If Frazier had owned 137,533 shares of this stock — 200,000 shares less than he had acquired — he would have held about 18 per cent of the company. That is just slightly more than half of his 35 per cent ownership after he acquired the 200,000 additional shares.

But, Frazier's acquisition of the 200,000 additional Sierra shares is being questioned by some of the same parties Sierra has filed suit against in U. S. District Court in Boise.

Earlier this year Sierra sued the current majority owners of Greater Idaho Corporation stock for the stock they own in Greater Idaho.

In a counter suit, Dalhart, Builders Diversified Services and Floyd C. Anglin sued Frazier, Sierra and Sierra's attorney for $14 million. As part of their suit they charged that "in conjunction with their purchase of Greater Idaho Corp. stock and 200,000 shares of Sierra stock, Frazier required purchase of about 132,000 Sierra shares "owned by him and his close associates individually for $15 per share when said stock was trading at about $1 per share."

The suit charges that Frazier "converted the said 322,000 shares of stock to his own use without notice or other legal action."

Other records show that the Frazier-National Funding stock deal was tied to Sierra's sale of Greater Idaho stock and the Western Skies Motel to Powder Mountain Ski Corp., a Colorado corporation, which later transferred these assets to Dalhart. Sierra earlier had been ordered by the Idaho Department of Insurance to divest itself of its stock in Greater Idaho and the Western Skies Motel.

Dalhart, the firm that acquired the stock, is an Oklahoma City-based corporation owned by the same five men who own National Funding.

A "letter of intent" dated Nov. 6, 1974, was signed both by Rudy Lang, a Dalhart owner and Secretary of Powder Mountain, and Frazier. It said Powder Mountain's purchase of Western Skies Motel, Greater Idaho stock, and stock in Sierra was "conditioned upon the Board of Directors of Sierra and you (Frazier) agreeing to selling to us or our nominee the controlling shares of the capital stock of Sierra Life owned by you on a time payment plan to be negotiated, but payable over a period of not greater than eight years and at a consideration of not less than $15 per share."

The letter went on to say "It is agreed that the present management of Sierra Life will remain until said stock has been paid for in full. This sale of the controlling shares of your stock is to be formally agreed to between us or our nominee prior to Dec. 31, 1974, being an absolute requirement by us for purchasing the said assets from Sierra Life Insurance Co."

Appearance made

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Retired U.S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas made a rare public appearance Monday at a memorial service for two Portland attorneys. Douglas, 77, was admitted to Good Samaritan Hospital May 6 for further instruction in the use of a pain control device. Douglas left the U.S. Supreme Court after a serious heart attack. Douglas was taken in his wheelchair into the courtroom of U.S. District Judge Gus Solomon for a 15-minute memorial service honoring Robert F. Maguire and Charles A. Hart.

Hart in hospital

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich., is back in Bethesda Naval Hospital for medical tests, but his office says the senator hopes to be back in the Senate in a few days. Hart has been receiving treatment and undergoing regular tests since last September when a cancerous growth was found beneath his left arm. Another cancerous area was found behind his neck, but doctors so far have failed to locate the primary source of the disease. Hart's office said the senator recently has experienced occasional stomach upset not treatment induced, and entered the hospital Monday for a series of tests.

Cooper to quit

COMBERSET, Ky. (UPI) — John Sherman Cooper, the first U.S. ambassador to East Germany, says he will resign his diplomatic post and return to Kentucky next October. Cooper, 74, disclosed his retirement plans in a broadcast interview Monday. He said he had notified President Ford of his intention to resign because "it's time" to step aside and let a younger man take the job.

Economic outlook

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The American economy is showing signs heading for "a fairly strong growth through 1976 and 1977," according to Alan Greenspan, chairman of President Ford's Council of Economic Advisers. "The economy is in the early stages of expansion," Greenspan said Monday night. Business, he said, is "very favorable." Greenspan, here to address the Economic Club, also said the government faces a hard fight to contain "inflationary forces."

Betty will be guest

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Betty Ford will be the guest of honor at an annual First Lady's Breakfast sponsored by the Congressional Club Thursday. Wives of members of the Cabinet, Congress and government dignitaries have been invited to attend the breakfast at the Sheraton American Hotel. On Friday, Mrs. Ford will give a reception for the wives and widows of former members of Congress.

Jackson on trade

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., says he stands behind "The Jackson Amendment" linking Improved U.S. trade relations with the Soviet Union to a liberalizing of Soviet emigration regulations. At the National Conference on Soviet Jewry Monday, Jackson said he remains "proud of what we have accomplished" in passing the amendment despite criticism by Washington and renunciation of the Trade Act by Moscow.

Suit slows settlement

WILMINGTON, Del. (UPI) — Until a 15-year-old damage suit filed by Trans World Airlines against Howard Hughes is resolved, the Delaware Chancery Court technically will control the assets of the Summa Corp., the deceased billionaire's $2 billion conglomerate. As part of continuing legal dispute between TWA and Hughes, the Chancery Court "sequestered" the assets of the company in 1962, known then as Hughes Tool Co., until the defendant appeared in court. Hughes' attorneys sought unsuccessfully to quash the sequestration and, according to the Wilmington attorneys for Summa and TWA, the sequestration order was never lifted.

Historical shows, comedy capture top Emmy awards

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Historical accounts of the romance of Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt, the life of athlete Babe Didrikson Zaharias and the Lindbergh kidnapping trial captured the most prestigious Emmy awards Monday night. But the "Mary Tyler Moore Show," the contemporary comedy entering its fifth and final year next season, won five Emmys including Outstanding Comedy Series. To emerge as the year's most honored prime time series or show, ABC, which telecast the 24-hour Television Academy Awards show, led its network rival with 17 Emmys in the diversified presentation. CBS was next with 15, followed by NBC with 11 and PBS with 6. The syndicated show, "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman" won one Emmy. "Franklin and Eleanor," the romanticized ABC Theater production about the presidential couple, Roosevelt's, captured four Emmys, including the coveted award as Outstanding Drama or Comedy Special. "NBC Saturday Night," in its rookie season, also took four awards, including Outstanding Comedy-Variety or Music Series.

only three Emmys, and lost the Outstanding Limited Series Award to the critically-acclaimed "Upstairs, Downstairs." The other best show Emmys went to "Police Story" as Outstanding Drama Series, "Gypsy in My Soul" as Outstanding Comedy-Variety or Music Special and "Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic" as Outstanding Classical Music Program. Susan Clark, who portrayed the triumphs in life and death of Babe Didrikson Zaharias, and Anthony Hopkins, who played the part of Bruno Hauptmann in "The Lindbergh Kidnapping Case," won the Emmys for Outstanding Lead Actress and Actor in a Drama or Comedy Special. The "other" best actress Emmys went to Miss Moore (her fifth) for a comedy series, Michael Learned of "The Waltons" for a drama series, Rosemary Harris of "Masterspiece Theatre's" "Notorious Woman" for a limited series and Kathryn Walker of "The Adams Chronicles" for a single appearance in a series. Winners of the other best actor, Emmy were Jack Albertson of "Chico and the Man" for a comedy series, Peter Falk of "Colombo" (who and Edward Asner of "Rich Man, Poor Man" for a single appearance in a series. "Ted Knight and Betty White" won for Outstanding Continuing Performance by a Supporting Actor and Actress in a Comedy Series for their roles on "The Mary Tyler Moore Show." Chevy Chase of "Saturday Night," Anthony Zerbe of "Harry O.," Gordon Jackson of "Upstairs, Downstairs" and Ed Flanders of ABC Theatre's "A Moon for the Misbegotten" won the other best supporting actor awards. "Ellen Corby" of "The Waltons," Vicki Lawrence of "The Carol Burnett Show," Rosemary Murphy of "Eleanor and Franklin" and Flannula Flanagan of "Rich Man, Poor Man" were the other best supporting actress winners. The ABC telecast of the Winter Olympics in Innsbruck, Austria last February won three sports Emmys, including Outstanding Individual Achievement in Sports Programming.

Few changes due in area weather

TWIN FALLS—The general weather pattern of the past two weeks will probably continue through mid-June.
Maurice Fabulon of the National Weather Service office for agriculture said today that prospects are for precipitation to average a little below normal and temperatures to average near normal over Idaho for the next 30 days.
"This would indicate that field work and other outside activities should have favorable weather much of the time," he said. "Irrigation requirements would be a little heavier than usual at this time of year, especially in small grain fields which are growing rapidly."
Pre-irrigation will likely be necessary to insure good germination of the crops which will be planted during the next few weeks. Soil temperatures were averaging 50 degrees or higher in most major agricultural valleys 31 mid-May, so germination should be rapid with most crops," Fabulon said.
However, persons wanting to plant tender crops or gardens should remember that at mid-May there is still a 50 per cent change of low temperatures near 32 degrees and damaging frost in the Magic Valley, he said. The frost threat drops to about 10 per cent by early June.
Precipitation usually averages about an inch in most southern Idaho agricultural valleys during the last half of May and the first half of June, usually falling in the form of short periods of heavy showers. Sunny periods usually lengthen, with the pattern of warm to hot days with low humidity becoming established by the second week in June.
Some early alfalfa fields were reaching the bud stage at mid-day, so haying season will be arriving shortly.

Prospect notices required

BOISE (UPI) — Prospectors and miners who plan to work on national forest lands should file operating plans or notices as early as possible this year.
Vern Hamre, regional forester has announced.
The notice should be submitted to the district ranger who has jurisdiction in the area where the operation will be conducted.
Any person who will conduct mining operations that might disturb the surface resources on national forest lands is required to submit a "Notice of Intention to Operate."
If it is determined that the operation is likely to cause such a disturbance, a more detailed operating plan will be required.
Hamre said the regulations are designed to protect resources such as animal, timber, wildlife, watersheds and recreation without unreasonably restricting the activities of prospectors and miners.
Hamre said most national forest lands are open to prospecting and entry under the 1972 Mining Laws.

Fair theme set

BURLEY — The theme of the 1976 Cassia County Fair will be "Beautiful Red, White and Blue."
Monica Anderson, a Burley, has received a $25 savings bond for the winning entry in a theme contest sponsored by the Cassia County Extension Homemakers Council.
Dean Draper, parade chairman, said the parade will be at 10 p.m. Aug. 18.
The annual Country Western Jamboree, sponsored by the Burley Exchange Club, is slated Aug. 18, with the fair and rodeo Aug. 18-21.
Horse races are scheduled Aug. 20-22.

Utah milk output up...

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Utah's dairy farmers produced 77 million pounds of milk last month — up one million pounds from the state's 1975 output for the month of April.
The Utah Crop and Livestock "Reporting Service" said the state had 78,000 dairy cows in both months, but production increased from 980 pounds of milk per cow in April 1975 to 990 pounds of milk per cow for April 1976.
For the first four months of this year milk production has reached 296 million pounds, up from 296 million pounds for the January-April period in 1975.

during the next few days.
The next cold front now in the eastern Pacific is expected to weaken as it moved eastward into the stationary high pressure system over the Pacific northwest.
Only an increase in high cloudiness is expected in the Magic Valley area from this front.
All farm activities should be in full swing through the remainder of the week with mostly clear skies and gusty afternoon winds. Evaporation will average 35 to 40 of an inch per day.
The extended outlook for Thursday through Saturday calls for near seasonal temperatures with highs in 70s and lows in the 40s.

DOWNHOME

Water adequate

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Utah's farmers will apparently have enough water for the coming summer irrigation months.
The U.S. Soil Conservation Service says the state's 27 major reservoirs — not counting water storage projects in the Upper Colorado River Basin — had 3,574,000 acre feet of irrigation water stored as of May 1.
This was 75 per cent of usable storage capacity, and 10 per cent above the 1975 average for May 1. And much of the 1976 spring runoff has yet to reach the reservoir.
Of the 27 reservoirs, only the small Gunnison and Porcupine reservoirs were below the May 1, 1975, storage amounts — both by 1,000 acre feet of water.
Strawberry Reservoir, Utah Lake and Woodruff Reservoir were all filled above normal capacity. "Utah Lake" was holding 948,000 acre feet of water as of May 1 — more than 50,000 acre feet above its listed usable capacity.
The moon experiences several thousand quakes a year, almost all of them registering less than two on the Richter scale.

DEAR ABBY: GRANNY-TO-BE is thrilled at the prospect of becoming a grandmother even though her unmarried daughter, who is on welfare, has no plans to marry the baby's father and chooses not to disclose his identity!

You say, "That's her business and her secret." Abby, don't you think a child has the right to know who his real father is? And don't you think that when the child grows up, he should have the right to get in touch with his real father, if he chooses to do so?

Also, maybe the father wants to support his child. Women talk about WOMEN'S rights. How about MEN'S rights?

-MEN'S LIBBER

Nurses protest

DEAR LIBBER: Fortunately (or possibly unfortunately), since women literally carry the load alone and deliver it, it is their prerogative as to whether or not to inform the father. And not all fathers are willing to owe up to it. But read on for another enlightened viewpoint:

DEAR ABBY: Concerning the unmarried mother-to-be who is on welfare and prefers to keep the identity of her baby's father a secret: According to you, it may be her business and her secret, but that baby becomes the taxpayers' burden, and we taxpayers are sick and tired of supporting illegitimate children.

With all the resources available to prevent pregnancies, there is no excuse for any sexually active female to bear a child. And why should the father be excused from the responsibility of supporting his child? Yet, you would let taxpayers assume this responsibility because some 21-year-old female decides she wants to be a mother.

We are five registered nurses. Sign us

DEAR ABBY: My husband's new teeth don't fit him right and he talks funny, but that's not the problem. Every time I ask him to repeat something, he gets mad at me and says, "Why don't you get a hearing aid?"

Abby, there is nothing wrong with my hearing. It's the way he talks. Lately I have to be careful not to ask him to repeat anything for fear he'll take my head off.

How can I handle this problem without starting World War III?

DEAR WIFE: Make a deal with Al. Tell him that you will have your hearing tested if he'll go back to the dentist who made his new teeth and get an adjustment.

Dietrich announces two class leaders

DIETRICH — Four Dietrich High School students have been selected for special recognition.

Chris Ridinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Ridinger, Dietrich, is this year's valedictorian. Ridinger, presently the student body president, is also president of the senior class.

He has attended Boys' State and been a Senate page. He has also been included in "Who's Who Among American High School Students," and is master of Dietrich Grange No. 121 and editor of the yearbook.

Ridinger is active in basketball, track and drama and plans to attend Idaho State University in the fall.

Louis Ballard, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Stoddard, Dietrich, is this year's salutatorian. Ballard, vice president this year and a past class representative, was a nominee to "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

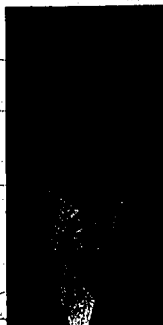

He is a member of Lettermen's Club, editor of the school paper and on the annual staff. He, also, plans to attend ISU this fall.

Zelma Bingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bingham, Dietrich, has been selected to attend Girls' State this summer. Miss Bingham is active in basketball, volleyball, photography and the school paper.

She is presently class secretary and is a member of the LDS Church.

Jeff Astle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Astle, Dietrich, has been selected as a delegate to Boys' State this summer and elected as student body president at the high school.

Astle is active in sports and drama. He is a past class president and has held other class offices. He is currently student body secretary.

Women's liberation gains men followers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Six out of 10 Americans now favor the concept of women's liberation, and more men than women like the idea, according to a life insurance industry study.

The study, saying public acceptance is increasing gradually, said women's liberation now finds favor with 60 per cent of adult Americans and more men than women reported being "completely for" the movement.

Acceptance of the idea of birth control was even higher, favored by three out of four adults with only 14 per cent completely opposed.

When asked to choose among various life goals, four in five persons put "a happy family life" first. Only 7 per cent would reject the traditional family.

There would seem to be a contradiction between the current broad approval of the traditional family and support for the women's movement, which includes such goals as "emancipation" of women from strictly household and childrearing responsibilities," the report said.

The 1975 survey of adults 18 and older was published by the Institute of Life Insurance and released Sunday. It also found increasing pessimism about personal control over key aspects of life such as saving regularly, finding a better paying job, or improving medical care.

the suit after East ducked. East took the club and played his queen of spades. Back in dummy, South led a low diamond. East rose with the king and led a third spade which South ruffed with the nine.

West did the best he could. He discarded his last diamond but South was now in full control. He led a low heart toward dummy and West, could take his jack of trumps but that was all.

ASK THE JACOBS

A Florida reader wants to know what you should bid with ▲Q J 9 x ♥ Q ▲K x ▲8 x x. Your left-hand opponent has opened one club, your partner overcalled one diamond and third hand has bid one heart. This is a tough one. We would bid one spade (you hate to overlook a chance to bid the ranking suit.) but two diamonds is certainly a good second choice. Either call may be the winner.

(Do you have a question for the experts? Write "Ask the Jacobs" care of this newspaper. The Jacobs will answer individual questions if stamped, self-addressed envelopes are enclosed. The most interesting questions will be used in this column and will receive copies of JACOBY MODERN.)

By Oswald & James Jacoby
It required no real celebration on the part of South to know that East would show up with practically all the missing high cards. Therefore, after winning the trump lead in dummy, South promptly cashed dummy's ace of trumps.
East's king dropped and South stopped to consider how to go about taking care of West's four trumps. He finally decided that he had to leave the trumps entirely alone until after developing some minor suit tricks.
He led a club and continued

Janet Guthrie passes Indy 500 test

DRIVER Janet Guthrie, the first woman to qualify for the Indy 500 trials, grins as she removes her rookie stripe after the test. Guthrie's fastest lap was 171.429 mph. She will now try to qualify for the Indy 500 race itself. (UPI file)

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Dark rain clouds which hung over the Indianapolis Motor Speedway again Monday shooed a silver lining for Janet Guthrie, the first woman ever entered for the Memorial Day holiday 500-mile race.

Guthrie finally got a chance to run her car long enough to complete her rookie driver's test and she gained approval from the governing U.S. Auto Club.

She breezed through the final 35-lap phase of her test without a hitch, hitting a top lap of 171.429 miles per hour on the 50-mile effort which had to be run at speeds above 165 m.p.h.

Plagued by car troubles and bad weather, the blonde New Yorker spent most of her time during weekend qualifying in the first turn with former three-time winner Muri Rose who tutored her on techniques of driving at Indianapolis.

"He was very helpful," she said ecstatically after getting her final USAC approval. "A lot of what he told me was about how to make my car last 500 miles. I hope I get to put what he said in use."

Guthrie said car owner Rolla Vollstedt promised her and her crew a champagne dinner Monday night after she completed the test.

"Everybody is happy," she explained. "She praised every member of her crew for staying up all night in efforts to iron out the car's problems."

"I'm just glad to get this first part over," she said. She said she had driven a total of about 60 laps — or 150 miles — in the car. That included the 40 consecutive laps she took to pass the rookie test, the minimum number of circuits required for the examination.

Four veteran drivers man posts in the four turns to observe a rookie during testing. The four who checked out Guthrie were Gay Bellenhausen, Al Loquasto, Graham McRae and Tom Biglow.

Guthrie said she expected to begin working up to qualifying speeds starting Tuesday. She made no prediction of what speed she hopes to attain.

"I'll leave that up to Rolla (her car owner)," she said. "I'll just run at whatever I feel comfortable."

Success at the rookie test came just when Guthrie was beginning to wonder if her own personal little black cloud was hovering over the Indianapolis Speedway.

Veteran signs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Veteran offensive guard Ernie Janet, who has seen service with four National Football League teams, was signed Monday by the Washington Redskins as a free agent.

Janet, a 6-foot-4, 252-pounder, graduated from the University of Washington in 1971, and was a second round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers. He later played with the Chicago Bears, Green Bay Packers and Philadelphia Eagles.

Mays, Mets negotiate

NEW YORK (UPI) — M. Donald Grant, chairman of the board of the New York Mets, said Monday he is "hopeful a solution will be reached in the near future," which will eliminate the existing stalemate between Willie Mays and the club.

Negotiations between Grant and Mays have been continuing the past two weeks.

The problem between Mays and the Mets arose because the duties he was to perform after his playing days were finished were never specifically spelled out in 1972 when the Mets reached a 10-year agreement with him after obtaining him from the San Francisco Giants.

Trevino breaks into PGA top ten winners

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lee Trevino, winner of the Colonial National Invitational, moved into the top 10 money winners on the PGA tour for the first time this year with the $40,000 first prize check, boosting his earnings to $104,994. He climbed from 14th to 6th.

Hubert Green, who has led the money list since winning three consecutive events in March, increased his lead over the field by finishing in the top eight in the Colonial, winning $5,226. He pushed his total for the year to $73,456.

Don January led for third at Dallas, winning $11,800, and achieved a personal record. His year's total of $111,284, good for fifth place this week, marks the first time in the career of the 46-year-old January that his winnings have gone over $100,000.

The other top ten leaders include: Halie Irwin, remaining second with $152,303; Ben Crenshaw, remaining third with $152,297; Jack Nicklaus, remaining fourth with $17,283; J. C. Sneed dropped from fifth to seventh with $101,453; Mark Hayes dropped from seventh to eighth with $98,561; Johnny Miller dropped from eighth to ninth with $96,594, and Al Geiberger dropped from ninth to tenth with $87,381.

UCLA coach blasts NCAA and Olympic committee

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Jim Bush, UCLA track coach, Monday chastised both the United States Olympic Committee and the NCAA for not assisting amateur athletes.

"They (the United States Olympic Committee) have the money to help athletic programs," Bush told the Southern California track writers. "They should put Chevron track in some areas and lights for existing fields and pay coaches to help train athletes after they leave college."

"If we don't do something, we will take the worst licking ever in the 1980 Olympic games in Moscow," Bush said. "In reference to the NCAA's limitation of track scholarships to 14 while permitting 20 for Hockey, Bush said, 'The NCAA is one of the most powerful organizations in the country, but they make some of the most stupid rules.'"

Bush said that several foreign athletes are training at both UCLA and the University of Southern California for the 1978 Olympics at Montreal.

"They are subsidized by their countries," Bush said. "They drive good cars. They live well here. But our athletes like Maxie Parks and Benny Brown who have chances for medals in the 400 meters, and hurdler Clin Jackson, are unable to find part-time work to feed themselves and have time to prepare for the games."

Bush said he has been a member of a committee composed of congressmen, mayors, coaches and former Olympians, which has been holding meetings in Chicago.

"We know we wouldn't be able to take over, but we have made some proposals that included the naming of the head coach two years in advance of the games. This committee's existence did scare the heck out of the establishment olympic committee and it has now adopted some of our proposals."

Cavaliers mentor coach of year pick

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cleveland Coach Bill Fitch, who transformed the expansion Cavaliers from the laughing stock of the league into bonafide playoff contenders before becoming embroiled in a bitter war with owner Nick Mileti, Monday was named NBA Coach of the Year by Commissioner Larry O'Brien.

Fitch, who also serves as the club's general manager, received 24 1/2 votes from a panel of 51 writers and broadcasters in the 18 NBA cities for leading Cleveland to the Central Division championship and its first berth in the playoffs.

"The first thing I'd like to say," Fitch said when informed of the honor bestowed upon him, "is I'm aware that it's an award that could have gone to other coaches because their clubs had outstanding years. The award just as easily could have gone to Jojo Meacham of the Phoenix or Al Attles of Golden State or even K.C. Jones of Washington for that matter."

Attles, who led the Warriors to their winningest season ever, finished a close second with 21 1/2 votes in the tightest race since 1966 when Philadelphia's Dolph Schayes edged Boston's Red Auerbach by four votes.

"It's an individual award but it's really a team award," Fitch said. "I'm aware of all the people who make it possible, including Nick Mileti, regardless of what you read in the papers."

"It's the biggest compliment that could possibly be paid to my basketball team because they make the coach look good or bad. It is also a compliment to my very capable assistant coach (Jim Rodgers) and staff around me because they all worked so hard to make it possible."

The Cavaliers currently trail the Boston Celtics three games to two in the Eastern Conference finals with game No. 5 scheduled for Tuesday night in Cleveland, when Fitch will be presented with the award by O'Brien.

Fitch, who left the University of Minnesota in 1970 to take on the reigns of the expansion Cavaliers, suffered through a dismal rookie campaign when Cleveland lost its first 15 games and finished with a 15-67 record.

"I think at that stage you're just looking to get day-to-day and trying to improve on that status," Fitch recalled. "I think I worked just as hard then as I did this year but we had different results with different people."

The team improved steadily and last year missed out on the playoffs on the final play in the final game of the season. This year, the Cavaliers qualified for the playoffs for the first time, winning 49 games, third most in the NBA, ending a string of five consecutive division titles by Washington.

Cleveland then eliminated the Bulls in the conference semifinals.

Successful drafting coupled with some shrewd trading helped the Cavaliers rise to prominence.

Olympic coach speaks out on American amateur status

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (UPI) — Dean Smith, head coach of the U.S. Olympic basketball team this year, said Monday he doesn't feel Olympic basketball is an amateur event for most countries.

"I think that we're the only amateur team in the Olympics," Smith told news conference.

Smith, who coached the national basketball coach at the University of North Carolina, hedged, however, when asked to compare other Olympic teams with the top National Basketball Association squads in the United States.

"I wouldn't say the Celtics would have an easy time (with the other countries' teams), but I'd like to have their chances," Smith said.

Smith and his staff will begin tryouts May 30 at North Carolina State University in Raleigh, narrowing a field of 56 to 18 by June 5. The remaining aspirants will move to Chapel Hill where 12 will be picked to go to the Olympics.

After the group is reduced to 15, as many as nine games will be played against professional and national teams prior to the Olympics. Two of the games have been scheduled against the Denver Nuggets of the American Basketball Association, one June 17 in Greensboro and the other June 18 in Raleigh.

Smith was asked to pick a favorite in the Olympics and reached for a familiar frame of reference.

"It's like the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament," he said. "There's so much balance. The U.S.A., Yugoslavia, Italy, Cuba, any of these could win the gold medal."

Smith said he realizes the challenge he faces.

"It's always important to win in the Olympics," he said. "There are a lot of alumni out there."

Famous Scalp Specialist Tells Truth About Saving Falling Hair

These private individual consultations will be held at the Holiday Inn, 1350 Blue Lakes Blvd., on Wednesday, May 18, from 1:00 to 8:30 p.m. Ask hotel clerk for Mr. T. C. Conner. He will do the rest. Phone 733-0656.

TWIN FALLS, May 18 — In an interview T. C. Conner, nationally famous consultant for the International Hair and Scalp Specialists, Inc., said, "There are many different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one (not even so-called cure-all) could correct all the disorders," he explained.

Guaranteed — "International, recognizing that most people are skeptical, offers a guarantee," Conner said. "Once a person avails himself of the International treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. You will be given a written guarantee from the beginning to end on a pro-rated basis."

Discouraged — "First the international consultants are quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the 'hopeless' cases are few. Everyone is given a complete private consultation to determine the condition of his or her scalp, and cause for their hair trouble."

Free Consultations — "This consultation is very thorough and highly technical. It requires 20 to 30 minutes. There is no charge for this consultation and no appointment is necessary. After the consultation he or she is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost. After starting treatment, a consultant will return to check client progress. To provide the opportunity of having normal, healthy hair, to thousands who are desperately looking for help, the firm is sending specialists to various cities throughout the United States to conduct consultation and start home treatment.

Hopeless Cases Refused — "No Cure All... We have no cure-all for slick, shiny baldness. International consultants will accept only clients whose hair we feel sure will respond to treatment. They cannot help individuals who are slick bald or whose hair is thinning and excessive hair loss, called male pattern baldness, where no treatment, including the international treatment, is of any value. Therefore, International will continue their policy of refusing all hopeless cases."

There is one thing Conner wants to be certain every man and woman knows: If hair appears to recede at the temples or a spot begins to show up on the crown of the head, there is something wrong and it should be given immediate attention.

Hair For Lifetime — "If clients follow our directions during treatment, and after they finish the course, there is no reason why they will not have hair all the rest of their lives. Conner said, "Our firm is definitely behind this treatment. It depends on the individual client's faithful observation of a few simple rules."

How's Your Hair? — "If it worries you, just go to the Holiday Inn, 1350 Blue Lakes Blvd., on Wednesday, May 18, from 1:00 to 8:30 p.m. Ask for Mr. T. C. Conner. Or phone 733-0656. No appointment necessary. Interviews are given in private with no possible embarrassment."

Royals clip Rangers in 12th

KANSAS CITY (UPI) — Rookie Tom Poquette lined a two-out double into the right field corner to score Al Cowens in the 12th inning and lift the Kansas City Royals to an 8-7 victory over Texas and within one game of the Rangers in the battle for first place in the American League West.

After relief pitcher Steve Foucault had retired the first two Royals in the 12th inning, Cowens—walked—on—four straight pitches and Poquette hit Foucault's first hit down the line. Tom Hall pitched 2-1-3 shutout innings for his first victory as a Royal.

The Rangers put together four walks and four singles to score six runs and tie the score in the top of the ninth. The big blow was a two-run two out single by Jeff Burroughs, who had opened the inning with a single.

Texas had taken a 1-0 lead in the first when Juan Beniquez doubled to open the game and came home on a Toby Harrah single. Buck Martinez, who knocked in Hal Mettne with a fifth inning sacrifice fly, singled in two runs in the second inning to put the Royals ahead and Cowens singled in two more in the fourth inning and scored on a Poquette single to give Kansas City a 5-1 lead.

Orioles top Brewers

BALTIMORE (UPI) — A throwing error by catcher Darrell Porter allowed Tony Muser to score the winning run with two out in the bottom of the ninth inning Monday night and climax a three-run Baltimore rally as the Orioles downed the Milwaukee Brewers 4-3.

Muser singled across two runs with the bases loaded after relief pitcher Eduardo Rodriguez had walked three straight batters with one out. Pinch-hitter Royal Stillman received an intentional pass from relief pitcher Tom Murphy, who got pinch-hitter Elrod Hendricks to bounce a ground ball to first baseman George Scott whose throw to the plate got the second out of the inning.

Twins drop A's

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (UPI) — Steve Brye singled home Bobby Randall in the 11th inning to give the Minnesota Twins a 5-4 win over the Oakland A's Monday night and provide Bill Campbell with his fifth victory of the season.

Jim Todd, the loser, 2-5, walked Randall to open the inning. Randall advanced to second on Dave McKay's sacrifice and scored the winning run on Brye's hit.

Oakland's Billy Williams homered in the seventh inning to tie the score at 4-4 after the Twins had gone ahead 4-3 in the fifth on a run-scoring triple by Rod Carey and a run-scoring single by Dan Ford.

Boston blanks Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — Luis Tiant, off to the second best start of his career, shrugged off chilling 40-degree temperatures Monday night to pitch a fivehitter and hurl the Boston Red Sox to a 7-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Boston's Carlton Fisk was the only player able to make a dent in the 28-mile per hour winds that blew straight in from the outfield by hitting his sixth homer to lead off the fifth inning.

The wind literally gave the Red Sox two runs in the fourth when Carl Yastrzemski's towering pop-up to right eluded right fielder Rusty Staub and fell just feet behind the second baseman as two runs scored.

Rick Burson doubled to start the Boston third against loser Joe Coleman, 2-3, and scored the first run when Rick Miller followed with a triple. Cecil Cooper singled Miller home and eventually scored himself on a single by Dwight Evans. Miller also singled home a run in the eighth inning.

Angels thump White Sox

CHICAGO (UPI) — Bill Melton, returning to Comiskey Park for the first time since being traded last winter, drove in three runs with two singles and a triple Monday night to lead the California Angels to a 10-5 rout of the Chicago White Sox behind the seven-hit pitching of Frank Tanana.

Melton singled home a run during a three-run first inning, tripled in another run in the third and singled home a run in the sixth as the White Sox tagged Jesse Jefferson with a loss in his first start of the year.

The Angels took advantage of Jefferson's wildness to build a 6-0 lead after three innings. Jefferson gave up eight walks, five hits and seven earned runs before being relieved in the fifth inning and four of the men he walked eventually scored. He also hit one batter who scored and made three wild pitches, one of them accounting for a run.

Reliever Jim Otten, in his first full inning, gave up five singles and three runs in the sixth as the Angels padded their lead to 10-0.

HOUSTON (UPI) — A throwing error by shortstop Darrell Chaney pulled first baseman-Darrell Evans off first base and allowed the winning run to score with two out in the ninth inning Monday night and the Houston Astros salvaged a split of their doubleheader with the Atlanta Braves with a 3-2 victory.

In the first game, Andy Messersmith recorded his first victory of the season for the Braves by allowing the Astros just seven hits in a 3-2 victory.

Reds top Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Ken Griffey drove in three runs with a single and a triple Monday night to lead the Cincinnati Reds to a 5-3 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers before 53,652—largest crowd in the majors this season.

The triumph enabled the Reds to regain first place in the National League West.

The Reds sent nine men to the plate against Don Sutton, now 4-1, in the second inning and scored four times with Griffey capping the rally with a two-run single. The Reds' right fielder also tripled in Pete Rose in the seventh inning.

Pat Zachry, a 6-foot-5-inch, rookie right-hander, improved his record to 2-0 with relief help from Rawly Eastwick. Zachry gave up eight hits and only one earned run while striking out seven in seven innings.

Cesar Cedeno walked to start the Astros' ninth inning in the second game. Bob Watson bunted him to second and Cedeno moved to third on a long fly to left field. Ken Boswell hit a sharp grounder to shortstop Chaney and on the throw to first base umpire Harry Wendelstead ruled the runner safe as the throw was wide of the bag.

Atlanta players and coaches charged on the field after the call and Wendelstead and Braves' manager Dave Bristol engaged in a shoving match as the umpires left the field with a police escort.

Ken Henderson's leadoff homer in the fourth gave the Braves a 1-0 lead in the nightcap, but Houston tied the score in the fourth when Cedeno singled, stole second, moved to third on a fly-ball and scored on a wild pitch by Roger Moret. Houston took a 2-1 lead in the fifth when Roger Metzger doubled and pitcher Gilbert London singled and Atlanta tied the score at 2-2 in the seventh on Evans' walk and singles by Lee Lacy and Vic Correll.

and did not walk a batter in the first and sixth innings. The Braves with run-scoring singles in the first and sixth

7 TF school districts vote today

TWIN FALLS.—Patrons in all seven school districts in Twin Falls County are voting today in annual trustee elections. Polls close at 8 p.m.

In addition, both Kimberly and Hansen residents will decide on special levies. Kimberly district is being asked to approve a 6 mill override levy, while Hansen voters have a 3 mill plant facilities levy on the ballot.

In Twin Falls School District 411, only one of two open seats is being contested. KTFI radio manager Richard Ryall, appointed earlier to fill a vacancy on the board, is running unopposed for his seat from Zone 1.

In Zone 2, incumbent Byron Snyder is being challenged by farmer Gary Custer. Ryall is seeking a three-year term. Custer and Snyder are seeking a two-year term.

Twin Falls voters will cast their ballots at either Hickett or Lincoln school. A special meeting of the Twin Falls School Board will be held at 9 p.m. following the election.

Four races are seeking the two trustee posts in the Kimberly election. A three-way race has developed in Zone 2 where Wall Slaughter, retired teacher; Thomas C. Davis, Western Equipment Co. employee; and Larry Wooten, farmer and fertilizer, are candidates. Incumbent Jack Claiborn is not seeking re-election.

Robbie G. Collins, fertilizer dealer, is running unopposed in Zone 3. Incumbent Holland (Holly) Houfburg is not seeking re-election.

At Filer, only one position is to be filled Tuesday. In Zone 2, Everett Andrews, incumbent, is running unopposed. The polls will be open from noon to 8 p.m. at the high school.

A Blauhaug woman is running to fill the unexpired term of her late husband, Miriam Alfred was appointed to serve until the next election after the death of her husband, Robert Alfred.

Allen Cummins is seeking the post in Zone 2, with J. Jensen considered a write-in candidate. Incumbent Earl Wright is not seeking re-election.

Buhl Trustee George Atkins is unopposed in his bid for re-election in Zone 5. Only one post is up for election Tuesday in the Buhl district.

Two trustee positions will be filled at Castleford. John Coltrien, a farmer, is unopposed in Zone 5. John Ensansa and Ken Tverdy are competing in Zone 4. Neither of the incumbents, James Wheeler and Marvin Cox, filed for re-election.

At Hansen, two men are vying for the one post to be filled in Zone 5 Tuesday. Candidates for the three-year term are George Peters and Virgil Pace. Incumbent Ted Crockett is not seeking re-election.

Win really loss for TF triplex

The property is zoned residential medium density, which allows construction of duplexes without special permits imposed by the city. However, fall under conditional use standards and open the way for requirements such as the road improvement.

Councilmen H. E. Cheney, Leon Smith and Chris Talkington dissented in the vote on John's request. Cheney charged that the condition requiring improvement of the road is "terribly unreasonable."

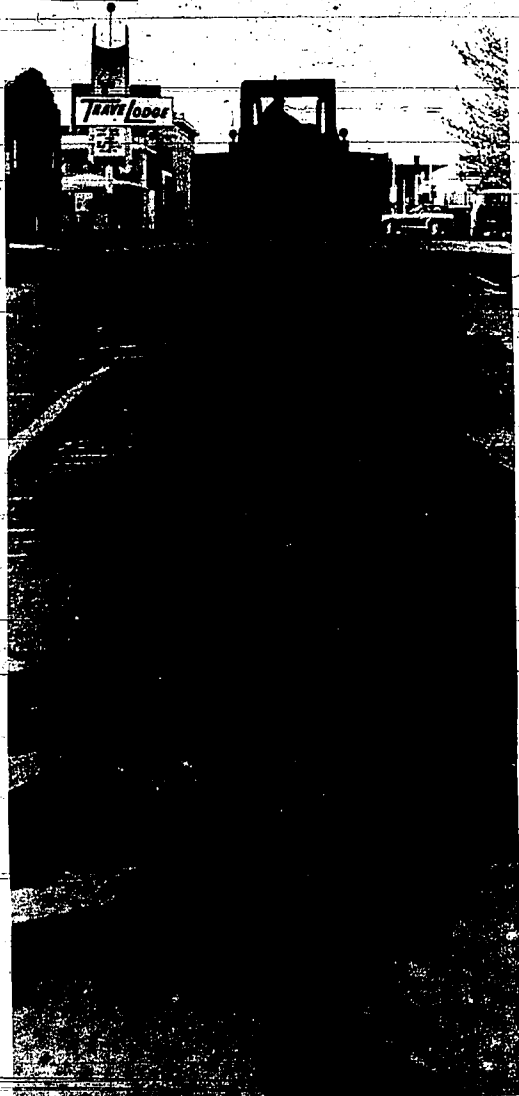

Several homeowners on the drive attended the council meeting to protest John's request. They claimed a triplex would increase traffic on the route and endanger children.

The residents also submitted a formal petition opposing the development.

In other action Monday, the council: Adopted an ordinance annexing 10 acres of the Orchardara Subdivision in the northwest section of the city with a residential-professional zoning designation. The Twin Falls Planning and Zoning Commission had recommended that only the eastern three acres of the property be annexed.

Approved a resolution clearing the way for negotiations with the U. S. Army Reserve for a long-term lease of property near the Twin Falls City-County Airport. The Army Reserve, currently located on Kimberly Road, plans to build new facilities on the site. The resolution sees the total cost for a 99-year lease on about 15 acres at $1 but leaves the location open to negotiation.

Approved bids totaling $17,855 for lighting improvements at the Jaycees baseball field in Harmon Park. The cost includes a maximum of $2,500 for removal of old lighting equipment, $6,162 for lighting fixtures and $9,193 for installation of wiring and electrical equipment.

TF street project

"RIPPER" plows up pavement in the middle of Second Avenue West in Twin Falls today. Second Avenue West and South will be widened and paved this summer by the Idaho Department of Highways. The total project calls for improvement of Twin Falls' one-way couplet, including Second Avenues North and East.

Applications now accepted

TWIN FALLS — South Central Community Action Agency (SCCAA) will accept applications through May 28 from low-income people who would like a solar furnace installed at no cost to them in their home.

The SCCAA has received $2,500 to build a solar furnace in one existing home. Labor and materials will be furnished by the agency.

A preliminary consulting meeting held a week ago resulted in a decision to use the money to build a system which will utilize a forced hot air system using water and rocks as its "storage battery." This system was chosen as "the most efficient method to use in terms of output and money to be expended."

A meeting of consultants for the project will be held May 20 to aid in further planning efforts. Following the May 28 deadline, a committee will select a house based upon "assessed need and feasibility of installation."

For applications or questions, contact Richard Leslie at SCCAA headquarters 733-9351.

CSI budget increases 20%

By GEORGE WILEY Times-News writer

TWIN FALLS — College of Southern Idaho trustees Monday approved next year's budget showing a 20 per cent spending increase.

The budget projected revenues and expenditures of about $4.13 million for 1977, compared to the $3.44 million expended in fiscal 1976.

According to CSJ president James L. Taylor, most of the increase was due to higher outlays for vocational education programs.

Monies projected for vocational instruction next year rose to about $1.09 million compared to the $838,000 expended this year.

The budget, Taylor added, also reflected salary increases of about 11 per cent for fiscal 1977. Salaries projected for 1977 rose to about $1.16 million from the $1.04 expended in fiscal 1976.

In other action the CSI board approved the appointment of Dr. Ray Strawser as academic dean. Sitawser will replace Dr. Paul T. Smith, who earlier announced his resignation effective July 1.

Strawser had previously served the college as coordinator of senior citizens programs. Asked if the academic dean vacancy had been advertised prior to Strawser's appointment, Taylor said the position had been listed with three college placement offices and that other applications had been received.

He said the vacancy had not been advertised locally or through the news media. Such advertisement, Taylor said, he believed to be unnecessary since the administration had intended from the beginning to name Strawser to the post.

The CSI board also approved the appointment of Dr. Taylor as a director of the national board of the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges.

Taylor told the board he was asked earlier Monday to serve on the twelve-member national board. Trustee Robert Blastock called Taylor's appointment "a great honor."

"I have no question but what you should accept," Blastock said. Taylor had asked the board for approval since the appointment would mean about four trips each year to association meetings in Washington, D.C.

Taylor said this "concern would be to develop legislation and provide direction for rural community and junior colleges."

Monday night at the monthly board meeting the budget for the 1976-77 school year of $406,000 was adopted. It is a 13 per cent increase over last year's budget.

Rev. Darwin Secord, Kimberly-Hansen Methodist pastor, will speak at the combined baccalaureate and graduation services at 8:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium. The class scholastic leaders, Tammy Higgins, valedictorian, and Kelly Christensen, salutatorian, will speak during the commencement portion of the service.

Wednesday night a banquet is scheduled at the school for the 42 eighth grade students. This "graduation" event is continued each year because of community interest, according to Supt. Garth Miller, but is not really a graduation exercise.

The board Monday allowed the girls track team for the "Inlie Relay" to enter in a state track meet in Boise Friday and Saturday. The Hansen team placed second in the regional competition.

No SNRA construction planned

By BART QUESNELL Times-News writer

KETCHUM — No new construction in the Sawtooth National Recreation area (SNRA) is planned this summer, according to Supt. Gray Reynolds.

During an interview Friday, Reynolds said no money is available for construction during the transition quarter.

The "federal budgeting procedures and fiscal dates have changed," he said. The first construction is scheduled for October on the skeleton structure of the headquarters building at North Fork, Reynolds said, predicting the SNRA crew could move into the building by winter.

Tourist attendance continues to climb each year inside the SNRA, Reynolds said. The 750,000-acre multiple-use area sees nearly a four-percent increase in tourists a year, he said. The tourist season is three weeks ahead of last year, he added.

On the fourth of July, with people moving in for bi-centennial celebrations, Reynolds predicts the SNRA will be overflowing with people. Fees for overnight facilities at Redfish Lake have risen to $3, he said. All other campgrounds will charge $2 per night.

Reynolds said the SNRA is trying to get rid of lakeshore camping because of the resource damage that is occurring. All new campgrounds will be set back off lakeshores and installed with sprinkling systems, he said.

The SNRA will also eliminate two-and-three-family use of single camping units, he said.

Redfish, Stanley and Alturas lakes are used the most, he said. New construction around those lakes should be completed by 1978.

About 10 per cent of the family camping units inside the SNRA will be rested each year, Reynolds said. Vegetative compaction has become severe in some areas. He asked all motorists to stop at information centers in Ketchum or inside the SNRA for information.

"Mining is still one of the most difficult problems we face," Reynolds added. Under the instructions creating the SNRA, mining cannot impair the scenic and pastoral values established. All mining claims must be proven valid, he said, in order to continue.

The U.S. Forest Service is still guessing there may be 5,000 to 7,000 mining claims inside the SNRA, he said. Reynolds said 100 of those claims have been proven valid, while 620 claims relinquished. There are now 500 reports for contest on others, he added.

The Hoo Doo Mine is the only one in operation inside the SNRA, Reynolds said. American Smelting and Refining Co., which has large deposits of molybdenum in the White Cloud Mountains still continues assessment work it has made no indications that it will mine the area.

Reynolds said the Animal Unit Months (AUMs) for domestic animals inside the SNRA may increase. The forest service readjusted AUMs last year downward, Reynolds said.

An AUM is the approximate amount of forage that a cow and calf require each month.

The Bureau of Land Management has transferred management duties on federal lands inside the SNRA to the forest service, Reynolds said. In addition, those private lands which were bought should provide increased grazing, Reynolds said.

"I think there may be an increase in the AUMs on many of these private lands which came to the forest service last year," Reynolds said.

Wildlife has preference over domestic animals, he said, and habitat conflicts will continue to be resolved to benefit the wildlife.

The forest service is concerned, he said, how to protect the habitat supporting about 50 bighorn sheep in the SNRA. The East Fork of the Salmon River habitat area is the most important for year-round use, he said.

Climatically, little moisture exists in the East Fork, according to Reynolds.

'Save the Hall' project outlined by Buhl Jaycees

By LORAYNE O. SMITH Times-News writer

BUHL — Efforts of the Buhl Jaycees to arouse community support to retain the former American Legion Hall for a community meeting place were outlined Monday by Buhl, Chamber of Commerce members.

Larry Lammers, Jaycee chairman of the "Save the Hall" project, said his group had leased the hall from the American Legion post in 1968 on a 15-year lease.

He said several other organizations have used the facility over the years, but the rental fees brought in only $600 last year, compared to $1,000 required to pay for heat and insurance alone.

The old stone structure on Broadway Avenue is basically sound, Lammers said, but the roof needs to be repaired, restrooms remodeled and the ceiling needs repainting because of a leaky roof. Jaycees also plan to panel over the windows to avoid continued breakage and repaint the exterior.

The Jaycees estimate the cost at about $5,000. Part of the cost could be eliminated by using volunteer labor to get the building back in condition "so that any group would be proud to use it," Lammers said.

The building has the largest dance hall in the community and banquet facilities. Several groups have expressed interest in continuing to use the hall, Lammers said. These include the Buhl dance club and senior citizens.

Chamber members told Lammers they feel community support will be forthcoming once the Jaycees make sure they have a long-term lease "in black and white."

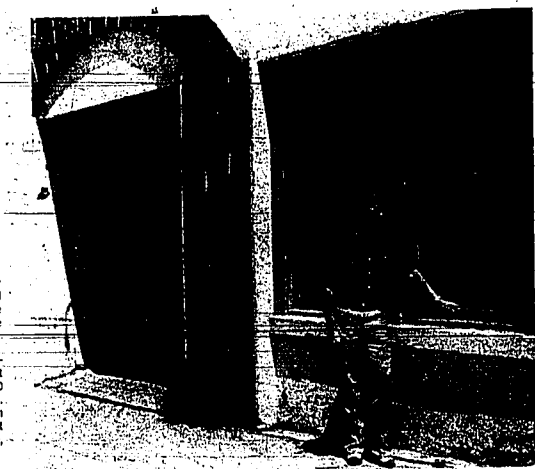

People are not inclined to give either money or labor to remodel the building if the possibility exists that the Legion post will sell the structure when the original 15-year lease expires in 1983, one person said.

Lammers said the Buhl Dance club will match any money raised, and $75 already has been donated.

An auction is scheduled at the parking lot of the Farmers National Bank May 28 to raise funds for the project with Lyle Masters donating his auctioneering services.

Lions Club members have offered to sand and refinish the floor, Lammers said, and anyone willing to offer labor should contact Russellively Jr., a drafting instructor at College of Southern Idaho who leads the work detail.

Lammers said a meeting of community representatives is scheduled Thursday night to continue plans for the project.

Our Love and War man repeatedly, has advised the single girl in search of a matrimonial mate to buy herself a place at the rail on a saltwater fishing excursion. But here's a young lady who says that's impossible; she gets seasick! All right, take a night school course in business law. That's the sort of thing numerous young men do when they're out to better themselves. Carry some books, my dear. And drop them occasionally.

If you consider yourself double-jointed in the wrist or thumb or fingers possibly, what you actually have are extraordinarily flexible ligaments.

"Fens" was the Middle English word for "defense," which is where we got our word for the sport called "fencing."

MIXED DRINK

Q. "What's 'snowshoe grog'?"
A. A mixed drink of brandy and peppermint schnapps. The winter sport resorts have been featuring it lately.

Nowhere else in the world are so many salttrays stolen as in Las Vegas. The amount of money that the Soviet Union gets from the taxes it levies on liquor is said to be equal to its entire defense budget. A study of the ancient Egyptian pharaohs, whose bodies were mummified, reveals that most of them were blond. To a few people, it is realized that the Americans lost not won the Battle of Bunker Hill. Apartment house managers report that women use a lot more yastar than the male tenants.

BRICK

Maybe you missed that police report out of Providence, R. I.—Somebody called the lawmen to say a brick had been thrown through the plate glass window of a McDonald's restaurant there. Inside, officers found the brick with a note attached: "You deserve a brick today."

Client asks how much liquor a man could drink in a day without getting drunk. Depends on how slowly he drinks and on his frame of mind, sure enough. If, then, a fellow of average size should be able to sip seven pints of beer, four of wine or one of whiskey, providing by spaces out the intake.

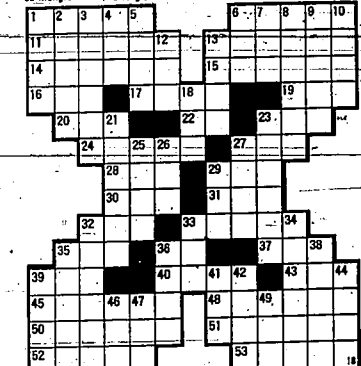

That phrase "dutch treat" alludes back to the early settlers of New Amsterdam. They brought with them from Holland their cows, pigs, sheep and various cooking necessities, so became renowned for their ability to take care of themselves, or pay their own way, as it were.

Opening planned at new TF firm

TWIN FALLS—Sergene's Wigwam, 132 2nd St. E., will hold its grand opening, Wednesday through Saturday, May 22.

The shop carries a full line of wigs, hairpieces, Merle Norman Cosmetics, handbags, men's toiletries, jewelry and scarves.

Sergene Sorenson, owner-operator, said the enterprise follows two other ventures already established in Burley. She bought the Wigwam in Burley in 1969 and purchased the Ponderosa Beauty Salon at the Ponderosa Inn in 1973.

She purchased the Twin Falls Merle Norman franchise from Jack and Laura Caton in March and decided to offer the cosmetics in addition to the shop's selection of wigs and hairpieces.

Mrs. Sorenson was trained in wig styling and care at Romano's in San Bernardino, Calif., and received training in cosmetics from the Merle Norman school in Los Angeles.

"The Twin Falls TF firm features wig styling by two young women trained in cosmetology. Judy Martens received her training at Lela's College of Hair Design in Los Angeles. Carla Benette learned at Mr. Lee's in Spokane.

"The shop is now preparing to take appointments for individual styling lessons. We will give lessons in how to apply make-up," Mrs. Sorenson said. "We also have tips on complexion, care, special instruction on eye make-up, and how to care for eye brows, nail care and creative make-up."

Court OK's challenge dismissal

BOISE (UPI) — In a 3-2 opinion, Idaho's Supreme Court affirmed today the dismissal of a suit challenging the constitutionality of the Idaho Public Denial Act.

Justice Allan G. Shepard wrote the majority opinion in which Chief Justice Joe McFadden and Justice Charles R. Donaldson concurred. Justice Robert Bakes said the appeal should be dismissed on grounds the lower court opinion in question was not an appealable one and District Judge Boyd Thomas, Idaho Falls, concurred.

The Idaho Association of Public Denial Technicians, Inc., brought the action against the Idaho Board of Dental Examiners, arguing the act was unconstitutional in four respects.

First, the plaintiffs contended the act denied them a fundamental right to practice their profession without affording them due process. Justice Shepard dismissed this argument, indicating this same issue had been addressed and decided contrary to the technicians' position in three previous Supreme Court opinions.

Efficiency study set

BOISE (UPI) — A planning consultant team from the University of Idaho has begun an efficiency study in the office of Secretary of State Pete T. Conrath.

Conrath said the team will conduct both short range and long range planning for his office. He said the major thrust will be to consider areas where mechanization might replace manual processing.

The secretary of state's office is a central depository for tens of thousands of documents. Each year more files are being processed and filed as a result of business expansion and in several areas personnel are functioning at or near peak capacity as work levels continue to increase, he said.

Conrath said it is becoming more and more necessary to expand, increase capacity in order to maintain a high level of efficiency and service.

Four Minico girls enter Rupert queen competition

RUPERT—Four candidates have entered the competition for queen during the Rupert Bicentennial Fourth of July Rodeo.

Already registered with the Rupert Chamber of Commerce are Terri Shockey, 17, Judy Tucker, 18, and Penny Weimer, 18, all of Rupert; and Shelly Moore, 17, of Paoli.

The deadline for entry in the 1976 rodeo queen contest is Thursday.

One of the contestants will be chosen to reign over the 1977 Fourth of July Rodeo. Two girls will be asked to ride at attendants for the reigning 1976 queen, Linda Schenk.

Judging will be at 2:30 p.m. on June 27 at the Mindoka County Fairgrounds. The first practice session will be at 8 p.m. Monday at the fairgrounds.

Chamber officials said other entry papers have been taken out, but only the four had been returned.

Terri Shockey was the first to file. She is a junior at Minico High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gales Shockey.

Shelly Moore is a 130-pound blue-eyed blonde who will ride a seven-year-old mare named Ginger. It is part quarter horse and part thoroughbred.

Terri lists various sports among her activities. She works at the Rupert Bowl and hopes to step into office work when she finishes school.

Judy Tucker is the only second-year candidate entered. She is a senior at Minico High and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Moore.

She belongs to the Rodeo Club and competes in barrel racing and pole bending, as well as having gone to district and regional competition in drama for Minico.

She is 5-foot-5 and weighs 105 pounds, has blonde hair and gray-green eyes. Her horse, Poco Polly, is a 12-year-old.

Judy Tucker is a senior at Minico and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tucker.

An even five feet and 115 pounds, Judy has brown hair and hazel eyes. Her horse is Mounty Man.

She bowls, is a member of the Rodeo Club and has been in 4-H work nine years.

Penny Weimer, another Minico senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Weimer.

She is 5-foot-2 and 125 pounds, with blonde hair and brown eyes. She will ride a 12-year-old blue-roan Appaloosa named Tava.

Shelley is a 4-H member and is active in the Women's Equestrian Trail Club. She plans to study a veterinary technician course at Northwest College of Seattle.

Contestants in the Rupert rodeo must be 17-24 years old and unmarried. They must live in Mindoka County, the Jackson area of Cassia County or the east end of Jerome County.

Each contestant is sponsored by two Rupert merchants for $25 each. They will be judged 65 per cent on riding, 20 per cent on appearance and 15 per cent on personality.

The candidates appear on radio and television and at such events as parades and other fairs and rodeos. The winner will compete for the Miss Rodeo Idaho title.

Giscard displays linguistic talents

WASHINGTON (UPI)—French President Valery Giscard d'Estaing displayed his impressive linguistic and relative talents Monday at arrival ceremonies on the White House lawn.

Giscard responded to President Ford's welcoming remarks, first in French and then did his own translation in English. In both cases he spoke from memory without notes.

Prisoner move set

BOISE (UPI)—Five female offenders will be moved to the North Idaho Correctional Institution today under a pilot program that will emphasize personal responsibility.

Don Erickson, director of corrections, announced today: The women will be housed in separate facilities available at the site. He said they will be integrated into the existing programs, including school, under strict supervision.

Female offenders will be selected by a classification process, attempting to place mostly women who are sentenced for 120-day evaluation periods; but others who fit the proper criteria will also be housed there, Erickson said.

The selection process will take into consideration an offender's ability to take part in this type of minimum security setting. The philosophy of the program is to instill a high degree of personal responsibility in the participants, he said.

Jerome receives 5 bids

JEROME—The Jerome City Council has received five bids for proposed addition to the Jerome Civic Club Memorial Library.

Apparent low bidder for the addition of 950 square feet was J.A. Clawson Construction Company, Twin Falls, at $22,000 with a 90-day construction time.

Howard Hansen Construction, Jerome, was second low bidder at $23,800 with a 60-day completion time. The third lowest bid was from Arrington Brothers Construction, Twin Falls, at $24,995 with a 120-day completion time. Other bidders were Otis Hall Construction, Twin Falls, $28,400 in 60 days; and Design Builders Associates, Twin Falls, $28,500, 110 days.

The City Council has taken all bids under advisement to check specifications. It is expected the contract will be awarded at a regular City Council meeting Tuesday night.

The state library board has awarded a grant to the Civic Club Library to help defray the cost of the project. The state will pay 60 per cent on a matching fund basis.

Teens arrested in Burley

BURLEY—Two teen-agers were arrested by Burley City detectives after an altercation that required hospital treatment of one of the policemen.

A Burley juvenile was to be arraigned in Cassia County Magistrate Court Monday on a charge of aggravated assault.

Nelson Nez, 18, also was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace by fighting.

The juvenile allegedly struck Detective Jay Jensen on the shoulder with a car jack. Jensen was treated at Cassia Memorial Hospital for bruises.

Jensen and Detective Frank Segovia received a report about 10 p.m. Saturday of a fight at a downtown bar.

Segovia said that Jensen started questioning one person who was bleeding at the nose when they arrived.

The person ran and Jensen gave chase. When he grabbed him, the man allegedly fought with him.

Segovia, who had been questioning witnesses, said he turned in time to see the juvenile strike Jensen on the shoulder with the car jack.

Segovia ran to the spot and helped Jensen subdue the two men. In addition to Jensen's injuries, the clothes of both detectives were torn.

Floods leave 5,000 homeless

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanzania (UPI)—Floods caused by rising waters of 300-mile-long Lake Nyasa have left more than 5,000 Africans homeless and caused extensive damage to crops and property, a government official announced today.

George Chale, district development director at Kyaola, on the shore of the lake, said the floods resulted from torrential rain, causing the lake to overflow its banks in many areas.

He said the homeless were being housed with relatives or in school buildings.

Bank of Idaho. Helping people just like you.

What could be more important than people. They're what Bank of Idaho is all about. It's helping people just like you.

Whatever you do, whoever you are... Bank of Idaho is right there with you. Because day in and day out, Bank of Idaho helps people with more bank services than any other bank in Idaho.

A variety of checking and savings accounts, each especially tailored to the particular requirements of each customer, Day and Night Teller service, loans for any worthwhile purpose and the convenience of credit cards and check cashing cards... more than 40 bank services... the type of personal banking services only the people at a commercial bank such as Bank of Idaho can provide.

Do all your banking at Bank of Idaho where people try to know and understand you, because every day Bank of Idaho is helping people just like you.
