Batt, supporters promote waste pact

Kempthorne joins state tour

By N.S. Nokkentved

TWIN FALLS - About a dozen supporters greeted Gov. Phil Batt as he steeped off a small jet at the Twin Falls alterport Thursday. He was in town to drum up support in defense of his nuclearwaste agreement. Batt is on a statewide tour opposing Proposition Three, which would overturn that agreement and require popular and legislative approval of any such deals in the future.

Batt was accommended by U.S.

Batt was accompanied by U.S. Sen. Dirk Kempthorne and state

Attorney General Al Lance. They had come to shore up the defense against the ini-tiative, which they said would be detrimental to Idaho.

called for in the agreement is an important part of the effort to put waste into is asfer form and would "incinerate that fuel" to reduce the volume to make it that fuel to reduce the volume to make it that the same day, at a luncheon meeting of the Twin Falls Kiwanis Club, Batt said the plant would melt "transuraije" waste—contaminated with small amounts of plutonium – reducing the volume 10-toom before shipping to a disposal facility in New Mexico.

According to the Energy Department, the mixed waste plant would treat about 55 million cubic feet of radioactive waste mixed with hazardous chemicals.

W EATHER FACTS

With cooler weather approaching, you're probably reaching for a sweater,
But here's something to keep in mind when trying to keep warm. Several layers of lightweight clothing keep, you warmer than one heavy item. The additional layers are more effective in trapping several layers of air.
Although you won't need those extra layers yet, you may want to keep a sweater around in the interim.

Special election fraud units set up throughout nation

WASHINGTON (AP) —
Attorney General Janet Reno directed all 94 U.S. attorneys and the FBI to set up special election fraud units throughout the mation to investigate complaints from Tuesday's election.

In addition, the Justice Department will send more than

Take a Look at the Idaho Groups Voting NO on Proposition 2

Get the facts before voting on Proposition 2-the Bear Hunting Initiative. Because this initiative isn't really about bears.

It's about out-of-state animal extremists who have come into Idaho to dictate wild animal policy and kick off their hidden agenda-to eventually eliminate the use of animals for anything, without regard for the cost to taxpayers, the negative economic impact on fourism and ranching, and the safety of Idahoans.

In addition, Sen. Craig is a member of the Senate Education Technology—Working Group; which has worked toget Idaho access to the latest technologies and seeks to bring the 21st century into today's classrooms. Because of Larry's effort in this group, more Idaho classrooms are connected to the Internet and other recently developed technologies.

Larry Craig has always supported education and believes the answers to our educational system rest in the hands of parents, local school districts and state officials. Sen. Craig believes that the role of the federal government in education should be to generate ideas and provide flexibility for local school districts. solid waste mandate, the £911 contu-sion and the frustrating juvenile jus-tice dilemma.

Brent has confronted these challenges head-on with thoughtful energy in a fair manner, always listening to others' in-put and searching for the best use of the taxpayer's dollar. Usually, among elect-ed officials, you'll find turf battles going on, with every level of government vy-ing for credit or not willing to give up their own area of "power." Brent is like a breath of fresh air. He doesn't care who gets the credit just as long as the job gets done. He's also very willing to combine forces with other entities to get the best bang for the bucks.

We're lucky to have Brent Reinke heading up the team in our Twin Falls. County Courthouse. He deserves anoth-er term.

I wonder just who is pulling Walter Minnick's strings? I see by looking at his Sinance disclosures that 78 percent of his individual contributions come from out of state. Here are some of the examples by state: Oregon, S12,825;
Utah, S5,200; New York, S41,525; Illinois, S14,850; Malne, S6,250; Maryland, S4,000; New Jersey, S9,200; California,
S5,970; Connecticut; S11,500; Washington, D.C., S3,550; Washington state, out of state: $174,109.78.

Craig more representative of Idaho

I am new to Idaho, this year will be the first election where I will vote for U.S. senstor for this state.
I know nothing about the two men,
Sen Larry Craig and Walt Minnick, who are both running for the seat other than seeing pictures of them. I must say that Mr. Mannick had the edge in that department.
What declives the weak the TV ads that were run by those backing Walt Minnick, As soon as I saw the ads pointing out that Sen. Craig had voted to cut beneffects to the elderly in order to give a tax break had to Sen. Walt Minnick would be.
If elected, Walt Minnick would vote for any tax bill that came onto the Boor. He would state in favor on any environmental issues, regardless how radical. He would vote to punish any business that showed a profit. He would vote for the most restrictive gun laws, including a total ban of all firearms, and he would vote to favor criminals and against the victims of crime. The ads all say, "Larry Craig for them. Walt Minnick for us."

Just be aware that the "us" they speak of are those who are paying for Minnick's campaign. "Them" are the dumb hicks of Idaho.

Larry Craig will be a senator for Idaho. In my opinion, Walt Minnick would be a senator for the eastern union bosses, foreign agents and drug dealers and all others who control the Democratic Party.

Craig has demonstrated leadership

Craig has demonstrated leadership Idahogus have a very important choice to make this election year. We have a proven, honest, hard-working leader in Sen. Larry Craig. He has played an integral role in passing common-sense legislation in the Senate that is both fair and equitable to western ranching and environmental interests. The Public Rangelands in Management Act of 1996 addressed the concerns of the fair and experimental fair the senate that the can listen to rate-duck growment for fairly as well as environmentalists and draft legislation that benefits all. In a broader sense, Larry is a staunch supporter of balancing the federal budget and shrinking the size of the federal govegment.

supporter of banking the size of the fed algove ment. Larry Craig's foresight and ability has proven to me that he is the right person in the right place at the right time. Let's vote to keep him there. SCOTT C. BEDKE

May God guide us in our voting

May God guide us in our voting.

I have been hearing a lot about the One Percent Initiative.

Some years back, one of the initiatives was a I percent limit on property taxes. The initiative passed. I voted for it. I wanted anything that would save me money?

The initiative did not go into effect the next year. The politicians decided to change the property value in some of Idaho. The property halue in some of Idaho. The property yalue of the property yalue of the property will be property to the new value, but I did get to pay the taxes on the new value! By the time the 1 percent came into effect, my taxes on the property had more than doubled!

I am not asying that would happen today. I am sharing my experience, strength and hope. Life does not always happen the way we expect it. Webstock. The second definition said: "Having practical wisdom; prudent; shrewd; diplomatic." I would not mind being known for having these qualities.

The third definition was: "craft; unscrupulous!" I do not want people to use these words describing me! Reality is, I have the ability to be all of them. Paul, the apostle, was a politician. A beautiful example is when he wrote a letter to Philemon. Paul intercedes between Philemon, Paul intercedes between Philemon, the slave owner, and Onesimus, the runaway slave.

This is similar to when Jesus intercedes, for those who believe in him, before the father.

One of the neat things about the United States of America is we get to vote on which politician is going to represent us. My hope is we pray and get guidance and direction from God.

The dollar bill still has "In God We Trust" on it.

Vote!

Vote!
Ido not know which way I am going to vote on the One Percent Initiative, but I am going to vote.
Thank you from a politician?!

Seldl, Dodd embody family values Thursday night, I had the honor of meeting John Seidl, a candidate for our House of Representatives in Washington, I was very impressed by his ideas, as well as the fact that he is definitely as well as the fact that he is definitely not a caréer politician.

I am a mother, so naturally the issues that concern me most are those involving children. John Seidl is dedicated to making this state a better place for our children to grow up. He is against sending our power to California, Seidl knows that deregulation of our electrical power means more power for California and more cost for Idaho in this generation and the generations to come. He knows that "families suffer when parents are not paid a living somia and more cost for feding and in misgeneration and the generation in misgeneration and the generations to come. He knows that "families suffer when parents are not paid a living wage or forced to spend time away from their children when forced to hold down second or third jobs."

He is cominitied to taking care of our seniors (Shouldhi't we all, they are the people who gave us everything we have today.) John believes in having a clean election, because what kind of example are we to old children when we drag people through the muck? Most importantly, he is determined to make our schools a better place for quality learning. John Seidl is my, choice to serve fedho in the House in the upcoming years because of his basic compassion and love for all people.
On a local level, Tim Dodd shows these same characteristics. Tim is a loving and devoted father. He pust his children and all of our children first. He has a smart sense for managing money. Tim cares about our public schools. He shows a strong sense of wanting what is right for the people of Idaho. This last point has an example just in his running for office. He firmly believes that candidates should not run uncontested. This is why, even though he went into the race late,
he was not discouraged because he is a person who will act on his beliefs.

These young adults want to be

Throw for a fact that at the old high school, the kids crossed the grassy area on went across the street to smoke, buy and do drugs, draft and alcoholic beverages, shoplift and disappear for the rest of the day to "go have fun." Before I forget, I also feel that he "new" junior high needs to be a closed campus also. I am so sick and tirted of driving through town and having to dodge the junior high students running free across the street. These younger students think that it is really funny that the high school is "penned up" and they can do anything they want. Don't believe me? Drive Highway 30 through Filer during lunch hour and anytime shortly before school is dismissed. These students that be tel common sense go out the window because they are no longer at the elementary location and now they are "all—growed up."

I am not saying that every one in Filer has a "bad" child. What I am saying is, it is time for the parents. os top up and make an attempt to keep the "bad influences" to a minimum and to try to keep an unsuspecting parent from having a dearly loved child killed while hurrying around during lunch hour. Even some experts abhor partial-birth abortions

Thanks to Ms. Wendy Boums for her letter of Oct. 10. Very good job!

An editorial article in the Wall which the procedures of extracting the fetus or baby from the mother was described in gruesome detail, as did Ms. Bourna.

I make no claim to any sort of professionalism – none! And I suppose neither does Ms. Bourna, however, we both maintain an abhorrence to partial-birth abortions. These people named in the Journal of that editorial are, hoyeever, highly professional, to wit?
Of the two authors, one is a clinical professor of obseturies and gynecology at Wright Stare

The otto is directed the control

I would say they would know what they are talking about!
Very impressive positions and professional attainment.
They used a term in the article that said, "Now may we speak?"
Their statements took an exact

Proposition One. Two writers

Proposition 13 in California. In have extolled the "success" of Proposition 13 in California. In 1990, I moved my family to California so I could attend graduate school. I was rescued from there this past July and have gratefully returned to Idaho. So, how has California fared under Prop. 13?

As one writer pointed out, the scare stories didn't happen – at first. The state had a huge surplus, which it was able to distribute for a few years. But now.

Our daughter attended kinder, parten through second grade in schools there, Her kinderparten. Lass had 31 students. There was an aide for a few hours each week. Her salary and benefits were paid for by donations solicited from parents. The school didn't have money for an aide. We barely escaped having to place our daughter in Richunond schools, which were in Burkrupter, Every year, purents are asked for donations to fund schools. By high school, the total bankruptcy. Every year, parents are asked for donations to fund schools. By high school, the total can be more than 5500 for non-athletes, much more for athletes. Who has benefited from Prop. 13? Private schools have done quite well, as parents flock to remove their children from underinded public schools. Some property owners have done well if they have stayed in their homes. If they move, their taxes soar. On the other hand, community sports teams have suffered because park districts have to charge huge use fees for fields. People who like to camp have suffered because the state parks don't have money (many will soon close). You may recall that, they years ago, the state couldn't litter years ago, the state couldn't. soon close). You may recall that, three years ago, the state couldn't pay its employees. It had to issue Youchers. All government reviewes in California are pretty much tied to the economy because so much is dependent on sales and income taxes. Has California survived? Yes. But at what cost? Do we want this for Idaho?

Bombings described as 'domestic terrorism'

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—
Describing bombings in the Spokane Valley as "domestic terrorism," prosecutors have asked a federal magistrate for more timé to prepare indistrates against three men.
Prosecutors, in court documents filed Wednesday, said they need a two-month delay in filing indistruents because the templexity of the-case and the complexity of the-case and because the FBFs crime laboratories are swamped with other cases. . .

U.S. Magistrate Cynthia Imbrogno will hear argumentsFriday afternoon on the prosecution's request. Her decision could be appealed by either side.

If the delay is granted, a grand jury would be asked to return indictments after secretly hearing evidence in the case in early January. The trial of the trio wouldn't be held until mid-March at the earliest.

Thursday accused Republican Rep. Helen Chenoweth of misleading voters about his labor support with an advertisement that takes his comments out of context.

"Helen Chenoweth knows she's in desperate trouble," Williams, said. "This is a last-minute, last-ditch, desperate smear tactic."

But Chenoweth spokes-woman Khris Bershers denied the charge and rejected Williams' demand that the ad be pulled.

"This was his entire quote."

The controversy came just five days before the election and against the backdrop of a new public opinion poll showing the race is a dead heat. The poll conducted for The Idaho SpokesmanReview, KTVB-TV and KTIQ-TV of just over 400 likely voters last week gave Chenoweth and Williams each 44 peen Labor 1. The latest flap is over a television ad Chenoweth began running district wide on Wennesday declaring that Williams has been bought and paid for by organized labor. The ad includes a tape recording of Williams from an Oct. 17 debate in Coeur d'Alence, saying, "They're not buying anything except a men-per of Congress who they know will agree with them."

Bill for murder cases creeps over $175,000

The Innes-Hows

RUPERT - Taxpayers bill for cases involving three Minidoka County murder suspects has topped $175,000.

Defense, attorneys representing Corey Hood, Kody Butcher and Jesus Diaz have billed the county $138,573.27, at a rate of $125 an hour. Investigative fees bring the total for the defense case to $152,768.57.

The trials of Butcher and Diaz are scheduled to begin early in 1997. A decision is still pending on whether Hood will stand trial on two counts of first-degree murder or be sentenced on a pair of voluntary manslaughter charges this don't stop with the defense. A special deputy

Falconry – an ancient sport with modern appeal

By Steve Koehler
Ilmes-Nows correspondent

WENDELL'—Obsession — that's how several of the region's fall-coners and their wives describe falconry.

For David Skinner of Fairfield, Charles Browning of Shoshone, and Ross Dickinson of Twin Falls, the wonder of falconry is in the flight, an act which undoubtedly fuels the obsession.

On his arm, protected by a heavy leather glove, the falconer carries his falcon — a symbol of freedom and power. The magnificent creature is released and climbs from earth into the heavens. Then the falconer watches the spectacular dive of his bird of prey, fulfilling its instinct to survive, as it makes a kill.

Skinner described hunting with a falcon, a sport which also uses a trained hunting dog.

First, his dog, a German short-hair pointer, spots game. Then Skinner releases his falcon and moves to where the dog is pointing. Waving his falconer's glove signals to the falcon that he is ready to flush game. The bird responds by flying overhead. He flushes the quarry ducks, pheasants or gross. Then he cries the falconer's call — "HO, HO, HO, O" — alerting the falcon to the birds. The falcon dives for the carch, and if it's successful, Skinner shares the meat with his bird of prey.

"It's not just a method to take game," Browning said. "It's much eatch, and if it's successful, Skinner shares the meat with his bird of prey, "It's not just a method to take game," Browning said. "It's much reaster to de this with a guar. It's to see the flight, see the hawk pursuing game."

"Moss, falconers call it a specialized form of-bird watching, rather than hunting." Dickinson said. "Most of the time the bird is not really killing something." Falconers call in their birds with a whistle or lure. Dickinson said hawks, or "short vings," are trained to return to the glove, then receive a bir of mean; falcons, or "long vings," are trained to fly to a wings," are trained to fly to a long the property of the

Skinner flies a prairie falcon named Zuna, and Dickinson has a goshawk named Tigerlily. It takes hundreds of hours to raise and train a bird, Browning said. Though labor-intensive, raising the birds also can be fun for the obsessed. Browning's wilconsinside their home. "They're like having a little flying puppy dog," she said. "They're wonderful."

Falconry requires great dedication – and a license jointly administered by the state Department of Fish and Game and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

"Some call falconry an art form or life-style, but whatever else it is, it isn't a casual undertaking," said falconer Judertaking, "said falconer based owned stop most people."

A beginner must have a sponsor who is a licensed falconer with at least two years' experience. The apprentice must pass a written test and have the necessary equipment and a facility that passes inspection.

The apprentice may possess only one bird at a time, and the bird must be either a red-falled hawk or American kestrel.

After two years, the appren-prey except those restricted by law — such as endangered species.

The general-class falconer advances to master falconer after five years' experience. The master falconer may possess three birds for hunting.

Skinner's mentor, Charles Browning, said a falconer's permit lasts three years, then the falconer's facility is reinspected. Browning, regional director of the I daho Falconers' Association verpressed his view on becoming a falconer." It's definitely not pet keeping. The said. It's very demanding, but it also has equivalent rewards."

But gleaning the rewards of the birds' cute behavior requires work far beyond that of a pet. Mike Todd of. the Idaho Department of Fish and Game said falconry is as intense as rais-ing a child – perhaps more so. Flying a raptor involves many hazards, Charles Browning said.
Power limes, fences, vehicles or a hungry, polden, eagle or, greathorned owl can claim the life of a hawk or falcon. And falcons can get lost chasing a duck to the far side of a canal or across a field, Dickinson said. So a falconer often attaches a tiny radio-transmitter to the leg, neck or tail of his bird.

SARAJEVO, Bosnia-Hergeovina — With less than two months remaining in its mission, the multinational peace force in Bosnia has shrunk to around 43,000 stidiers, NATO officials said Thursday.

The scale-down is part of a withdrawal policy intended to leave around 20,000 troops of the once $0,000-strong force in the country by the end of the year.

At the same time, NATO planners are trying to determine what kind of force, if any, is needed for 1997.

Around 12,000 U.S. soldiers remain in the peacekeeping mission. They have been joined this month by about 3,400 other Americans whose main function is to assist in the withdrawal of all U.S. troops planned by March 1997.

MOSCOW—It was a common crime, but a rare dimer.

Thieves who struck the U.S. Peace Corps headquarters in the Russian capital took nearly $30,000 — and a 5-pound hunk of mean, which they microwaved and are before leaving, the Moscow Times-reported Thursday.

Andreu Kisilev, a spokesman for the Moscow police, said the thefi wasn't especially well-done. The thieves saved through Jans on the ground-floor window over the weekend, and took dollars and publes from the safe.

The Peace Corps staff discovered the robbery Monday marging.

U.S. Embassy spokesman Richard Hoaqland said American officials were working with Moscow police to solve the crime.

Antarctic nations mull rise in krill harvest

SYDNEY, Australia — The penguins, seals and whales of Antarctica survive by eating krill, and they share their food with a protein-hungry world.

tein-hungry world.

Hunjans scoop up lons of the shrimplike creatures each year for their own use — as fish food, fish bait and as a delicacy for seafood lovers who savor its crab-like taste.

Harvesting of krill is still unregulated in the Australian Antarctic maters of the southeast Indian Ocean. But while Antarctic nations provisionally approved setting an annual limit on fishing in these waters, the proposed limit has raised debate over whether the limit is too link.

too lax.

Under the proposal by the Australian Antarctic Division — expected to be approved Friday — the krill catch will be limited to a penses 85,000 tons a year — about seven times the amount that krill havesters around the world take in every year.

Mexican prisoners demand early release

THEALGHI PHISDHETS URHIGHER EATHY FEIGLASE

TAPACHULA, Mexico — Two prisoners in this southern city have sewn their lips and eyelds shut to demand an early release, the La Jornada newspaper reported Thursday.

Humberté Crux Martinez and Edgar Komero Diaz say that a government official signed a document last October following their 20-day hunger strike ordering their early release.

They have been on another hunger strike since Oct. 7 when they sewed their lips shut, the paper said- They sewed their eyelids closed on Wednesday.

Sylvia Hutton back on the road, will hit Jackpot

She once had only one name

Sylvia.

Now she has two: Sylvia

Sylvia.

Now she has two: Sylvia Hutton.

After a nine-year hiatus from touring, the singer says she has more to say with her music and is ready to go back on the road.

'In 1987, 'Hutton explained in a telephone call, 'I decided to take some time off the road. had been out 250-plus days a year for cight years.'

As Sylvia, she had recorded six albums for RCA 'Records, 'Her single' 'Nobody' went 'No. 1 and sold to the time of 2' million.

Record company executives gave the OK to her using only her first name after they rejected hermarried name at that time, Sylvia Allen. RCA decision-makers didn't want her to use Allen

Allen. RCA decision-makers didn't want her to use Allen because they had singer Deborah Allen on their roster and they didn't want a deplicate surname. Her maiden name, Kitoy also was rejected. "They said it didn't sound showbizzy enough," Sylvia said. "So very spontaneously, "Sylvia said. "So very spontaneously," Sylvia said. "So very spontaneously, so use a phony last name." So Sylvia it was, for recording, for appearances on television talk shows and for host and cohost duties for such high-profile events as the Academy of Country Music and Music City News awards shows. She even had her own TNN show, "Holiday Courmet," in 1988-89, which gave her experience in being a host and in interviewing other people her experience in being a host and in interviewing other people her experience in being a host and in interviewing other people. So even though she was off theroad, Sylvia kept her hand in the performing end of the business via television and accasional sign at Nashville's Bluebird Cade.

During the mine years she stayed home in Nashville, she got into songwriting, collaborating and Sylvia sing her people as a singer." It has a singer in the single her with a song. It has given me direction and a depth."

In addition, she said, she has matured since she cut her first song at age 21. As her 40th birth-day looms on Dee, 9, she said, it is more important now to sing song that reflect what is going on in her life. She has learned that some things are especially impor-tant. Honesty is one. And depth of lyrics is another. "I'm attracted to music that pulls me in."

She sings the story of her transi-tion in "Sylvia: The Real Story," released this month on the indepen-dent Red Pony Records label. She wrote seven of the 45 tuss on the CD. Her dream is to have a bigger independent label, such as Rounder Records, pick up the package or sign her for another album.
"I want to keep my power to create a record the way I want it," she said.
"And, so far as touring, she is ready to get back on the road 12s to 150 days a year." The bottom line is I love to sing," she said.
"I'd like to de three or four shase a week three would be ideal about three weekends a month."

These lawyers' questions are worthy of contempt

DEAR READERS: And you thought there was nothing funny about the law. David Broome of Phoenix sent me something that may change your mind. These are questions (taken from official U.S. court records) lavyers have put to people on the stand:

- Question: Was that the same nose you broke as a child?
- Q: Now, doctor, isn't it true that when a person dies in his sleep, in most cases he just passes quietly away and doesn't know anything about it until the next morning?
- Q: What happened then?
 A: He told me, he says, "I have t kill you because you can identify me. Q: Did he kill you?
- Q: Was it yet or your brother that was killed in the war?
- Q: The youngest son, the 20-year-old, how old is he?

DEAR ABBY - Abigail VanBuren

- Q: Were you alone or by
- Q: How long have you been a French-Canadian?
- Q: Do you have any children nything of that kind?
- Q: I show you Exhibit 3 and ask you if you recognize that picture.
 A: That's me.
 Q: Were you present when that picture was taken?
- Q: Were you present in court this morning when you were sworn in?

- Q: Now, Mrs. Johnson, how was your first marriage terminated?
- Q: Do you know how far reguant you are now?
 A: I'll be three months on Nov. 8.
 Q: Apparently, then the date of onception was Aug. 8?
- conception was Aug. 8?

 A: Yes.
 Q: What were you doing at that time?
- Q: Mrs. Jones, do you believe are emotionally stable?
- ou are emotionally stable?

 A: I used to be.

 Q: How many times have you ommitted suicide?
- Q: So you were gone until ou returned?
- · Q: She had three children.

A: None. Q: Were there girls?

Q: You don't know what it was, and you didn't know what it looked like; but can you describe it?

- Qr You say that the stairs ent down to the basement? went down to the basement?

 A: Yes

 Q: And these stairs, did they go up also?
- Q: Have you lived in this
- Q: Do you recall approxi-mately the time that you exam-ined the body of Mr. Edington at the Rose Chapel? A: It was in the evening, The autopsy started about 8:30 n.m.
- p.m. Q: And Mr. Edington was dead at the time, is that correct?

"Primary Colors," by Anonymous (Warner, $6,99) — Sure, you'know now that the author is Joe Klein and that his story is generously based on Bill Clinton's 1992 campaing for the White House. But if you haven! tread it, you might think this was just a guessing game, as you try to discern-the true identity of such characters as New York governor Orlando Ozio, tabloid tale-teller Cashmere MeLeod or campaign strategist Richard Jemmons. But "Primary Colors" is also a witty, well-written political novel with obvious parallels to Robert Penn Warren's classic "All the King's Men"). The chronicle of Southern governor Jack Stanton's presidential campaign is told by Henry Burton, grandson of a famed civil rights leader, who learns through purtot, graneson of a ratheu crurights leader, who learns through polls, strategy sessions, press conrerences and primaries the realities of running for president — and the corrupting nature of power.

"Sights Unseen," by Kaye Gibbons (Avo., S.93) — With, compelling candor, Bartie Barnes looks back to her childhood and the effect that her mother's mental illness had on her tightknit family in small-town North Carolina. This deceptively simple autobiographical novel spins around Maggie Barnes' steweck manic episode in 1957, during which she believes soap opera stars are coming for dinner and attempts to run over a woman she says is "trying to steal her soul."

'Toy Story' now told on video

New videos in Twin Falls stores this week:

"Toy Story" (G) — As everyone knows, toys come to life when we humans are not around. No, this has never actually been proven. But what other explanation accounts for the fact that the Barney doll you just know you put in the toy box last know you put in the toy box last know you put in the toy box last know you put in the toy look light on the burning.

Toy Story" sheds light on an adocumentary but listed in actual processed how members of the toy community have for years carried off their remarkable deception.

Presented by Walt Disney Pictures, the movie is billed as the first entirely computer-animated full-length feature film. Toy Story" is also a very entertaining family film.

Beneath its gleaming high-tech surface, the new movie has a modest charm that reminded me of a homemade pupper show. Much of the story is set within the confines of two suburban homes, and a lot of it takes place in the bedroom of a 6-year-old boy.

When little Andy leaves his room, his toys, of course, spring to life. These include the loyal Slinky Dog, a wimpy, dinosang. Called Rex. Bo Peep (a middly sexy lampstand figurine), a know-teal-piggy bank named Hamm and the insocible Nir. Portot Head.

Andy's favorite is Woody, an old-fashioned cowboy doll who will have to the film of Burz Lightycan, a space-ranger action figure with karrate-chop action, popo-put wings and a Dudley Doright personality.

'The plot concerns how Woody— an otherwise affable guy—becomes a green-eyed moster

Beatles wrap up magical mystery tour with 'Anthology 3'

And now it emds.

A year of unprecedented success for a band that has been gone for more than a quarter-century.

A flood of unreleased tracks—more than 150 — released on six discs during 11 months.

Resels and resls of videography—10 hours over eight volumes of home video, sold in a boxed set for $150.

It's obvious now that the Beatles have made more money with the 1995-1996 "Anthology" series than they did even when they were at the apex of the planet's rock scene 30 years ago.

But nowhere has it been as clear as it is on the final installment how planet's rock scene 30 years ago.

But nowhere has it been as clear as it is on the final installment how palif most of the outtakes were compared with the real songs.

"Anthology 3" (Capital) completed the series of double disc outtakes when it was released Tuesdon.

The Beatles were the world's most important rock group not only because of the genius in writing and performing, but also in choosing to release the correct akes on the finished albums.

By the time we reach the chronological period covered by "Anthology 3," the band had long since stopped touring—so there are no live performances or large are not live beauth as the area of the rest. "Matilda" — Played by the grave, matter-of-fact Mara Wilson ("Mrs. Doubtire"), Matilda is a bright girl whose rotten parents (Damy DeVito and Rhea Perlman) don't care about her. But, with the help of books, Matilda gets back at them and at Mrs. Trunchbull, the sweaty, gin-blossomed shotputter who presides over Matilda's school —in the-same way that Id Amin-presided over Uganda. Marker and Duke Erikson to see if they could turn them into songs. With some loose outlines of songs, the men searched for a female fead vocalist, knowing they didn't want the whiny singers who lately have dominated rock. They found just the person when Marker spotted Shirley Manson of the Scottish band Angelfish on MIV one night.

"Duke, Stuve. and I. are calm-Midwestern boys, and Shirley is extremely entonian," Vig said. "Shechanges her mind, she is really the emotional lightning rod in Garbage. We can feed off her intensity."

Manson's first visit to Wisconsin was a disaster, though. "It didn't turn out at all. We didn't give her any input. She was uncomfortable." Yet, the singer from Edinburgh, Scotland, returned to cheese courtry and imposed her will, taking the song "Queer" and reworking the lyrics into a quieter, more subtecentext Scudenly, with Manson as pricist, Garbas self-titled debat work came our last fall with Manson having a no-hold-barred conversation with God. By Chris Sheridan The Associated Press

When millions of Americans and Canadians sit down in their casy chairs Friday night for the first televised NBA game of the season, the newest thing they'll see will look like something from 50 years ago.

The New York Knicks and Toronto Raptors will be wearing old-fashioned uniforms to commemorate the NBA's 50th anniversary. It will be the first of 22 games this season in which teams go retro.

Tigers edge American Falls, stay alive in state football playoff hunt

POCATELLO - Five yards were not going to keep Jerome from scoring, and notified was the Tigers' coach.

On fourth down and three yards to go from the American Falls' 5-yard line, Jerome dicthed its conservative offen-sive attack and went for the critical third quarter conversion.

"stye attack and went for the critical hird quater conversion.

The result, a five-yard touchdown run by Sean Roberts, was the difference in Jeroma's 14-12 win over the Beavers in the first stand of the A-2 state playoffs.

The Tigers play the winner of tonight's Shelley-Soda Springs contest next Saturday in the quarterfinals at Idaho State University's Holt Arena.

Before making the gusty call, coach Elmer Musgrave called timeout and visited his offensive unit. Instincts said kick the field goal and settle for a 10-6 lead, but quarterback Parad Thompson talked Musgrave out of it.

"They called the play. They said we could get it," Musgrave said.

Other games - D3

On the play, Thompson shuffled left efore pitching to Roberts, who beat a eaver defender to the corner for the score.

The third quarter touchdown didn't seem that important until $3 seconds remained in the game. That's when Relayer back-up quarterback Andy Brower hit a wide-open Christian Hoyiberg streaking down the sideline for a 76 yard touchdown.

The Tiger dedense, tough against the run all game, regrouped to turn Brower, back at the one when American Falls went for the two point conversion and the tie.

"Our defense has been good all year. We banged them pretty hard tonight,"

Jerome forced three turnovers, including a fumble recovery by Wes Jones at the Beavers' 15 yard line that set up the game-winning touchdown.

American Falls charged back after Roberts' score: The Beavers drove 53 yards down to the five, but the Tigers responded with their backs to the wall.

In four tries from the Jerome five-yard line, American Falls could only move the ball down to the two. A swarm of Tiger defenders walled off Brower on fourth-and goal from the two, stopping the Beaver drive.

"I thought we were the stronger foot-ball team coming into this game. They banged us pretty good," Musgrave said. "This is what playoff football is all ahout."

21-year-old Mariner named AP player of the year

NEW YORK - Alex Rodriguez, who began the season batting ninth for Seartle and became the top hitter in the majors at age 21, was voted The Associated Press major league player of the year Thursday. Rodriguez hit 358 with 36 home runs and 123 RBIs in his first full year in the big leagues. He set modern-day marks for shortstops in hits (215), extra-base hits-(91) and runs scored.(141).

"It was a very himbling year," the said. "All they asked me to do was hit 240, hit 10 home runs and drive in 40. But I still need to improve."
Rodriguez received 103 votes from a nationwide punel of sports writers and broadcasters. San Diegothird baseman Ken Caminit was second with 12 votes, and Adanta pitcher John Smoltz third with nine in baloing completed before the playoffs.

The overall No. 1 pick in the 1993 draft, Rodriguez made hit smajor league debut the next year at 18. During the 1995 season, he was sent down to the minors four times by the Mariners, hit 232 1n-48 games, and backed up Luis Sojo in the playoffs.

Rider's 'fresh start' turns sour Cigar retires; a racing era ends

NEW YORK (AP) - Cigar will pack no more racetracks or grace any more winners' circles.

Anientia's favorite race horse is retired and will make a farewell appearance at the National Horse Show on Saturday in Mailson Square Garden.

Cigar's owners, Allen Paulson and his wife Madeleine, officially retired the 6-year-old horse Thursday in an announcement released by the Garden in connection with the horse show.

'I think it's a great way to say goodbye,' Madeleine Paulson and deserves it.'

The retirement was expected. Shortly after Cigar finished third in the Breeders' Cup Classic on Saturday at Woodbine, Allen Paulson said: "Cigar loves the attention and deserves it."

Sundin slaps in career goal 200 as Leafs float by N.Y. Islanders

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) —
There were book for Kirk Muller, and no cheers for Doug Gilmour and Mats Sundin.
Muller, making his first trip back to Long Island since the Islanders traded him, certainly didn't expect to be lauded. Neither did Gilmour and Sundin despite milestone accomplishments.

Pro hockey

Gilmour scored his 350th career goal and Sundin had his 200th as the Toronto Maple Leafs defeated the New York Islanders 53 Thursday night.

Mike Craig and Sergei Berezin also scored for the Maple Leafs, who have won two straight road games. Felix Porvin stopped 29 shots to even his record at 5-50.

Zigmund Paliffy scored twice for the Islanders, who are winless in their last six games (0-4-2). Todd Bertuzzi also tallied for New York. "We're all doing our right jobs, and that's why we'been winning." Muller said.

was a 20 shutout at Chicago, the first of Mikhail Shtalenkov's NHL carear.

The team with NHL's second-lowest combined salary (516.2 million) is playing like it. The Ducks have scored only once in their last '11 power plays and are averaging a league-worst 2.25 goals. They have lost a clubrecord eight in a row, and are 0.5 at bome for the first time in their four-year history.

The reasons for the decline go far beyind Kanjar sinjuny. Coach, Rom Wilson missed the start of training camp while coaching the United States to an upset of Canada in the World Cup. The goaltending has been suspect, the defense inconsistent and the forwards ill-quipped to generate much offense and finish plays around the net.

Much of that is-expected to change with the return of Kariya, who had missed only one of his 130 games before this season while scoring 147 points.

"There's no doubt he's an emorional lift to their team and a great all-around hockey player,"

Wilson and Kariya insist that his return wasn't rushed because of the Ducks' dreadful record.

"I wouldn't be playing if I felt I had to test it out there," said Kariya, who didn't practice with the feam until Saturday. "I just went all out. I hit a couple of times. It felt great."

But Kariya's rustiness was evident in the first period, when Sclanne found him all alone in 'front of the net. He tried to change the puck from his forehand to his backhand, and it rolled off his stick.

'I was not expecting the pass," Kariya explained. "And the way my hands are at this point, I shouldn't have just tried to one-time it at the net and keep everything simple. I played to the best of my ability, but there were plays where I saw things that, my body wasn't reacting to."

Kariya was stopped on all six of his shots at goaltender Corey Hirsch. But his presence was obvious in terms of a higher number of scring chances for the power play, where he was the power play, where he was the proper play where he was the power play, where he was the power play was a fatiguing faster than I normally would." Vandal QB leads nation's best passing offense

MOSCOW (AP) - He lost his starting quarterback job at UCLA, so Ryan Fien did what, any Southern Californian would do. He moved to Idaho.
The senior, whose name is pronounced "Feen," has led the University of Idaho to the action is top passing offers with an average of $29 yards per game.

"It was like it was meant to be," the 6-3, 207-pound quarter-back said. "I'm happy to be out

The dream-come-true for Fien is a nightmare for opponents. Through his first seven games as a Vandal, Fien has completed 183 of 306 passes for 2,555 yards, 18 rouchdowns and nine interceptions.

18 touchdowns and nine inter-ceptions.

He is second in the nation to Wyoming's Josh Wallwork in total offense, averaging 360 yards per game to Wallwork's 362. Only Steve Sarkisian of Brigham Young, at 329, is also averaging more than 300 yards per game.

If anything could make the season better, it would be a winning team.

Harything could make the season batter, it would be a winning team.

But the Vandals are 3-4 in their first season in Division 1.A, heading into this weekend's pame against Eastern Washington.

Some Big West Conference opponents must lose if Idrho is to reach the Las Vegas Bowl.

But there have been some interesting games.

One of the best was the season-opener against Wyoming, which pitted Wallwork against Fien. Wyoming, now ranked No. 17, came back to win 40-38 in Laramie as Wallwork and Fien lit up the sky.

Wallwork threw for 485 yards and three touchdowns. Figure 15 was well would be season with the work of $9 passes for four touchdowns. Fien said he was determined to make an impact right away.

Fien, from Simi Valley, Calif., went to UCLA out of high school, and played sporadically, throwing 128 passes over three seasons. Be started three of the first four games last year, but landed in the doghouse when he criticated coach Terry Donahue for yanking him, in a loss, at Washington State.

Eien didn't hunt-long-for-a new-team. His high school coach remembered that Chris Tormey had tried to recruit Fien when Tormey was an assistant at Washington.

He called Tormey, now the head coach at Idaho, to inforn him of Fien's availability.

"We were definitely interest-ed," Tormey said, Idaho's quar-terback position was unsettled because of injuries, and Fien wasa good fit for a pass-happy offense that ranks just 58th among 109 teams in rushing. In addition, because Idaho was still technically in Division 1-Aa, when Fien joined, he did not have to wait the mandatory year before playing, as Division 1-A rules required. Tormey basically handed the starting job to Fien, and said the transition has worked well. He was impressed that Fien did not badmouth UCLA. "He didn't come in and act like a hot shot," Tormey said. "I wish a hot shot," Tormey said. "I wish we could get him back for another year."

Newton's wit and wisdom were on display Thursday for a national conference call. Although he didn't offer any of the side-splitting cracks he's known for, he still put on a pretty decent show.

But Newton was forced to go on the defensive when the conversation inevitably reached the topic—of the Cowboys'-off-field image.

"I really don't think about it, sir," said Newton, adding the formal title in obvious sarcasm. "Twe got too many football games too play, I just go home to my wife and kids and we have fun."

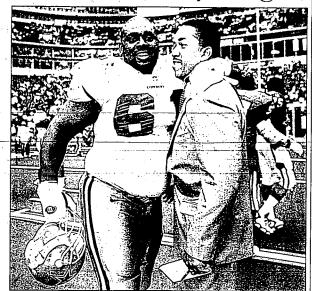

Back when the seedy side of the Michael Irvin mess was unfolding, Newton tried quelling matters by saying: "We got us a little place over 'here where we're running some whores in and out, trying to be responsible, and we're criticized for that, too."

Anyway, on Thursday he insisted, "It don't make no difference what people say."

Newton described the team's critics as "the high-tech, corporate likes" and not "the guy at "He's the high-tech, corporate likes" and not "the guy at "He's the women make it where he can't even afford to go to the game."

Kenyon favored among men in wide-open marathon field

NEW YORK (AP) - The Kenyans are everywhere, dominating, road racing like no other—country's runners. And they'll be all over the New York City, Marathon course Sunday, Among the approximate 29,000 entrants are 23 men listed as elite competiors, and 12 of those are Kenyans. The two-time defending women's champion, Tegla Loroupe, is a Kenyan, too. From the great Kip Keino to Moses Tanui, the Kenyans believe in their ability to outrun athletes from any other country over middle and long distances. This year alone, they have been overwhelming. Wife's relatives convince man Pacific Northwest has what it takes TACOMA, Wash. (AF) — Jim VanWie and his son-inclaw, Ron Johnson, aren't Japanese. They don't even look Japanese. Sook Johnson, aren't Japanese Toey, and they running Tacoma Tofu, the area's only Japanese grocery and tofu factor? That's the thing that really blows everybody's mind, Johnson said. "There's a tofu factory with white guys behind the cumfer."

nery with white guys behind the counter."

Made from soybeans, tou is a protein-rich, cheeselike food that's a staple in the traditional Asian diet. While its origins are Chinese, the food is common in Japan and many other countries. And despite VanWie and Johnson's appearances, the operation does have Japanese coots. The idea was spawned 10 years ago when relatives of VanWie's wite, Yoshko, were visting from Japan. VanWie, now 67, find despite of the proceeding the state of the procedure of th suaded VanWie that he should make tofu.

"We just started on a whim," VanWie admits.

A whim and $175,000 of tofu-making equipment later, Tatoma Tofu was born.

Tofu was born.

Now the business has grown so much that the two men are preparing to move from their tiny lakewood location to the heart of Tacoma. The new building will be more than four times as large as the present one.

But getting started was far

But getting started was far from easy.

"Help!" was the first thing VanWie said when a shipping container full of hardware from Japan was dumped in his driveway. Linckily Johnson is mechanical-ly adept. Guided by photos of the finished product, Johnson had assembled most of the machinery

James VanWie, 67, president of Tacoma Tofu, Inc

before a tofu master arrived from Japan to teach the two men how to make bean curd.

At first, Johnson was puzzled more by the tofu than the machines that churn it out.

"I never knew what the stuff was before I started making it," he said.

Basic elements of the tofu business, such as acquiring the proper beans, also proved troubleme. Now they get a truckload quality soybeans every six months from an lowa farm.

And the electrical power supply in the Tacoma Tour building, located between a pizza restaurant and a gus station on Bridgeport Way, had to be altered to meet the standards of rant and a gas station on Fridgeport Way, had to be altered to meet the standards of the Japanese equipment.

But one important resource was easy to come by. VanWie says that it's Tacoma's high-quality water that makes Tacoma Tofu a treat even for visitors from Japan. "We can't take credit for it," he laughs. "It's the water." "The water is a big factor in making good tofu," Johnson. 43. said. "There's lots of washing. You're in water all day long." Tofu is made by lirst soaking the soybeans overnight. They are then ground with water and the mash is placed in a huge steamer. Squeezing the pulp produces soy milk. Add a congulant and stir the misture into forming trays, and you've got a 30-gand slab of tofu, Johnson said. Tofu and its bypendid say might be mistare into forming trays, and you've got a 30-gand slab of tofu, Johnson said. also stocks Asian groceries like soup mixes, moodles, spices and other goodies. VanWie and Johnson, have-squeezed two aisles of retail goods and the tofur-making machinery into a 1,700-square foot building. Two shoppers can barely squeeze by each other in one aisle. Five full-time employees silently working with the bears and machines bump shoulders behind the counter as they produce close to 2,000 pounds of tofu a day.

Housing affordability slips

WASHINGTON — The ability of the typical American family to buy an existing home slipped from July through September as higher prices and mortgage rates offset increases in incomes, a real estate trade group said Thursday.

The National Association of Realtors said its Housing Affordability Index dipped to 120 during the third quarter from 121-9 during the previous three months. It was the lowest since the index registered 1189 during the second quarter of 1992.

Traditional strategy works well when bulls run the market too

NEW YORK (AP) — When you invest in mutual funds in the midst of a raging bull market, it's us-easy-to-get too greedy as it is to be too cautious.

The fear of missing out on a bonarra can be every bit as troublesome as the fear of getting caught in a market drop.

But there is a simple, adaptable mechanism that almost anyone can use for simultaneous protection from both those hazards. It's that old standby of small investors, dollar cost averaging — a strategy based on a program of regular investments of fixed amounts that buy you more shares when prices are low, and fewer shares when prices are ligh.

Through all kinds of market

-saares when prices are low, and -fewer shares when prices are high.

Through all kinds of market weather, averaging provides a disciplined strategy to keep-building your savings without letting your emotions either run away with you or bog you down.

At times like now, when stock prices are soaring to record highs, dollar cost averaging provides an added reassurance.

If you're worried that stockshave grown too expensive, with an averaging program you know that your fixed regular investments — whether $50 a quarter or $5,000 a month - are buying fewer shares at today's high fewer shares at today's high ments — whether 530 a quarter or 55,000 a month — are buying fewer sharies at today's high prices than you bought earlier at Jower net asset values per share. Dollar cost averaging has "almost magical properties," in the words of Norman Fosback, editor. of a series of investment letters published by the Institute for Econometric Research in Deerfield Beach, Fla. "The average cost per share bought via a dollar cost averaging program is always less than the average of the prices at which the shares are bought."

OF MUTUAL INTEREST

To see how this works, consider this example. You make your first investment. In: the Hypothetical Fund with $2,000 at $20 a share, for a total of 100 shares. A year later, you invest anoth-er $2,000. In the interim, the price, as determined by the net asset value of Hypothetical's portfolio, has risen to $25 a share, so you get just 80 shares for your money.

so you get just 80 shares for your money.

The average price in those two massactions was $22.50 a share. But; with 180 shares bought for a total of $4,000, your average cost is $22.22.

The greater the volatility of Hypothetical's NAV from one purchase to the next, the more pronounced is the benefit of the dollar cost averaging effect.

Many variations are possible of the state of the control of the control don't invest any additional amounts at all after their initial purchase of a fund still may find themselves in the role of dollar.

themselves in the role of dollar cost averagers.

That situation arises because funds that realize profits on stocks or bonds they sell, or receive interest or dividends on securities they hold, must pass substantially all of those gains through to their shareholders each year.

If you, like most fund investors, have these distributions untegrate.

If you, like most fund investors, have these distributions automatically reinvested in new shares, you pay the going price at the time of reinvestment. If the price is relatively high, well, the amount reinvested buys fewer shares than it would have at a lower price.

This happens as a matter of regular routine for people who reinvest dividends in bond funds that make monthly distributions based on the interest payments

THE ACES ON BRIDGE

"Life is short and so is money." —Bertolt Brecht

The 1996 Cavendish Invitation at Calcutta in NYC drew 40 pairs of top players from the United States and eight other countries It was an exciting event, with the auction pool reaching record fevels (Each pair is auctioned to the highest bidder.) With so much money at stake, one should expert increased deceptive bidding and play, all within strict chical boundaries. Today's hand offers an example. All but one North-South pair scored a game on this hand. Those an example. All but one North-South pair scored a game on this hand. Those in spades lost two diamonds and in spade. Those in no-trump also un scrambled to winners.

The successful detenders against four spades, Gerry Sosler and Larry Cohen of NYC., man aged to mislead declarer to heat the game. West led his diamond king and East (Cohen) falsecarded violently with his diamond lower to the second with the second another diamond, and South had a tough decision. Should he allow East to score the "obvious" ruff with a small trump and then try to find the trump gueen?

Understandably, he ruffed with dumny's 10, creating two trump winners for East and down one for South.

Note the effectiveness of East's deception. The bidding indicated there were no tricks coming from outside the diamond and trump suits It could cost nothing to deceive partner regarding diamonds. It paid off handsomely when East's gamble enticed declarer into a losing play.

Doh! The Simpsons say goodbye to Springfield in season's opener

TV Data

Does Superman still work in Metropolis? Does Fred Flintstone still punch a time clock in Bedrock? So how could Homer Simpson ever leave Springfield? Well, fasten your seat belts, fans, because Homer is driving his family to Cypress Creek, a pristing com-munity "up north" where one man's vision has brought about a worker's paradise with virgin forests, good schools, high profits and yes, nuclear power.

The eighth season blighted urban space premiere of "The has been reclaimed for Simpsons" airs Sun-upscale coffee bars day, Nov. 3, on Fox. (The season premiere was delayed because of Fox's postseason coverage of Major League Baseball)

Most series don't make it eight seasons. and those that do usually feel the need to freshen up a bit - ei-

O: James Spader always plays such creepy parts. Does he come from a seedy background? - D.F.

A: Hardly, Spader, 36, is from a family of educators from Boston and attended the prestigious prep school, Phillips Academy. His first roles reflected that. He played yuppies, mostly, notably as Diane Keaton's ambitious assistant in "Baby Boom." His role as the slightly seamy video voyeur in the 1989 film "sex, lies" and videotape" established him as someone who-could-play-less wholesome parts.

Tougher parts, such as the hit man in the recent "Two Days in the Valley" resulted.

Hie next film. "Crash," should really stretch the limits. It's about a group of people who find sexual stimulation in car accidents. Ted Turner, the owner of the studio releasing it, was reportedly so disturbed by it that it was pulled from this fall's schedule. It may be released next year.

Spader's next project. the medical satire "Critical Care," should be less disturbing.

O: I like Dana Carvey, but his movie career seems to have bombed. Does he regret leaving "Saturday Night Live"? — T.K.

· A: His representative answered a terse "no when we asked, and, of course, Carvey, 41, did pay a return visit to the show recently as host. But it's true that his film career, apart from the "Wayne's World" movies, hasn't exactly sparkled - neither did his recent TV show,

"The Dana Carvey Show." As for upcoming projects, all his rep would say was "they're being discussed."

Cooper stays aboard for 6,000 episodes

On October 22, "The Young and the Restless" marked the taping of its 6.000th episode.

Jeanne Cooper, as Katherine Reynolds Chancellor Thurston Sterling, is the only actor still on the show who was part of the cast during its-momentous-firstyear on the air back in 1973.

Daytime Diat Seli Groves

Jeanne - who came to "Y&R" with a long list of credits that includ ed films, prime-time television, and Emmy nominations for her work in the Vince Edwards series, "Ben Casey" — said that while it's relatively easy to move between films and nighttime television. "Going into daytime means meeting a whole new, set of challenges and demands. When you are, every day, putting out the work with the passion you choose to put into it, it can take its toll. Unlike prime time which has hiatuses, and unlike films, which come to an end, we go on and on. You learn very earlythat when you commit voorself to this medium. you have agreed to live a life-parallel-to-your-

Jeanne's fans include her contemporaries as well as younger viewers in that so-called demographically correct age group of 18 to 49 to which television executives cater in behalf of their advertisers. "I feel much of television is too hung up on age," Jeanne says. "The audience will always respond to an actor they like. For example, I get mail from people in this country who feel Katherine should have more of a love life - and I agree. I also get mail from viewers in other countries in which the show is seen who adore Katherine and say how much they want to be be her age.

"It's interesting that for years, in this country, youth was all; it you were a woman, you were dead once you passed boomers are suddenly screaming. "What hap pened? I'm SI How did I get to be 50? Well, you got there the way the rest of ustid — a year at a time."

But while films (until recently — note the success of "The First Wives Club" with 50 ish Bette Midler, Goldie Hawn, and Diane Keaton) and prime-time television have been catering largely-to-youth; the soaps have tended to respect all generations, some, like "Y&R," more so than others.

"That's absolutely true," Jeanne said. "When I turned 50 on the show, we had a big celebration. And over the years, the older characters have remained strong and important."

Jeanne, the nother of three: daughter Caren and sons, Collin and Corbin Bernsen, and grandmother of five, and the public that women S0, 60, and older are vital, dynamic people who fall in love, are energetic, and have a wisdom that comes with experiencing life."

Week of November 1 - 7, 1996 12:30 1:00 1:30 2:00 Ken Olin talks about why he Free Channels Figure Skating: U.S. Pro Champs. Relativity "No Job Too Small" A 3535753 KSAH returned to series TV with 'EZ Streets Proceeding On (Off Air) KIPT

Knight Ridder News

If you looked only at resumes, you might think Ken Olin is starring in "EZ Streets" because he and creator Paul Haggis ("Due South") once worked together on ABC's "thir-tysomething." But just as it is in the CBS drama, which premieres in its regular time slot Wednesday night, the truth is more complicated. "My daughter and CBS entertainment president Les Moonves' daughter are very good friends," Olin said Monday in a phone in terview from Los Angeles. where he lives with his wife, actress Patricia Wettig, and their two children.

On visits to pick up his 11-year-old after play dates with Moonves' 12-year-old, the actor/director and the network exec would occasionally chat about Olin's coming to CBS to do a series. The University of Pennsylvania grad (Class of '76) had been in no hurry to return to the weekly grind after "thirtysomething" ended, choosing instead to work as a director and to act in TV movies and miniseries. Eventually, though, he found a project he was interested in producing, and "I went to see Les."
Fine, said Moonves, but first I have this script I'd like you to read.

"I sat down and read it, and I said, This is the best pilot I've ever read," he said, "When I read this pilot; all of my reservations about doing another series went out the window.

Haggis, who'd worked as a writer on "thirtysomething" in its first season, wasn't so sure.

Just as Olin had known Haggis only as a writer "expressing someone else's vision" on "thirtysomething," Haggis knew OJin only as Michael Steadman, and wasn't sure he had the edge required to play undercover cop Cameron Ouinn. Moonves, Olin said, was less worried "Les was an actor early in his career, and I think he doesn't tend to be as narrow-minded about someone's abilities" based on their last project, he said.

To convince Haggis, Olin sent him a copy of last year's NBC miniseries 'Dead by Sunset," in which he did a chilling turn as a sociopathic family man and wifekiller.

It seems to have worked While Olin said that he liked the idea of playing a character who was a very physical kind of a character, who was not that complex" - the flip side of Michael Steadman - "I didn't make a decision to play Quinn in order to distance mysell didn't feel I needed to.

he caid from Michael because I problem.

Being identified with Michael "felt much more like a burden at times when I was in the middle of doing that show. For some reason, that character became something of an icon in a very particular miliou. I did work on that character," he said. There was some acting involved It's hard when there seems to be so little perspective" about the differences between an actor and the character he plays,

Olin directed Wednes day night's episode, but directing isn't part of the deal Streets," he said.

The logistics of playing the show's central character would make it difficult to direct many episodes anyway, he said. "I just can't imagine when we're going to have an episode when Quinn has a light

Directing the first episode after the pilot which aired as a two-hour movie on Sunday - allowed him to do much of the needed preparation before shooting began, he said.

"I don't know right now that I'll direct another episode for a while."

Tune into NBC's nutty 'News Radio'

Week of November 1 - 7, 1996

Title New York Daily News

Although NBC cornedies dominate the ratings charts. the quality of the shows is for from uniform:

The best cornedies - "Se-Frasier, infeld ' "Friends." "3rd Rock From the Sun" - dependably crank out first-rate enterminment. The does - "Mr. Rhodes," "Jeff Foxworthy,"
"The Single Guy" - are best and easily forgotten.

In the vast and varied middle ground, some shows set and meet modest goals ("Something So Right," "Wines"). Others aim high er but fall short ("Caroline in the City," "The John Larroquette Show \ And some are still struggling with selfdiscovery, achieving modest creative success as they do ("Men Behaving Badly").

Then there's "NewsRadio" (Wednesdays at 9 ET on NBC), which is - in technical TV terms - one weird show. Created by executive producer Paul Simms and directed by Torn Cherones. "NewsRadio" focuses on the peculiar people at WNYX, a fictional all-news radio station in New York.

Although ensemble sitcoms traditionally include at least one sane character for stability and the perspective of normalcy - on "NewsRadio," everybody's

That includes news director Dave Nelson (played by Dave Foley), a recent Wisconsin transplant. Any claims Nelson may have to sanity went right out the window last week when he confronted the demon who stole two whole years of his high-school life; the Stangate Defender arcade game.

The guaranteed laughgetter of the bunch clearly is Vicki Lewis, who plays Nelson's secretary, Beth - a gum-chewing pheromone machine whose maturation appears to have been arrested somewhere between the toddler years and adolesono: Canful viewers may have noticed her in the background of a scene a couple of weeks ago licking empty ice cube trays.

Phil Hartman, Stephen Root and Andy Dick aren't far behind her. Hartman plays Bill McNeal, a news and authoritative on the air but who, off the air, is a preening, posturing and hopelessly ignorant manipulator. Root is station owner Jimmy James, a man whose wealth allows his bizarre sense of reality to go unchal-lenged. And Dick plays Matthew, a fearful geek whose ability to function at all in the world is miracu-

The closest to normal "NewsRadio" ever comes is assistant news director Lisa Miller (Maura Tierney), but her insecurities - not to mention her romance with Nelson - make her hold on that distinction tenuous at

Brassy news anchor Catherine Duke (Khandi Alexander) and station technician Joe (Joe Rogan) complete the WNYX familv. which is not so much dysfunctional as it is just plain

Very deverly written, well stared and brilliantly cast, all that keens "NewsRadio" off NBC's A team is a sketchcomedy sensibility that limits character growth. It is, nevertheless hilarious

orth watchina

· "Melrose Place" - Kelly Rutherford shakes up the pot as Megan, a new interest for the

· "Just Like Dad" — Twelve-year-old Charlle (Ben Diskin) is picked on by bullies and passed over by girls, which leads him to spurn his own nerdish pop (Wallace Shawn) in favor of a bodybuilder surrogate dad (Nick Cas-savetes) for a Father/Son Picnic. Although he achieves fleeting popularity, he soon finds him-self in a dire predicament — and in need of the talents of both father figures, DISNEY.
