June contest to pair NFL. local players

TWIN FALLS - Twin Falls' police chief is distancing his department from a basketball game that will raise money for crime prevention.

Though the game will benefit crime fighting efforts of the Twin Falls Crime Prevention Association, Folice Chief Lee-De Vore worries that an excessive share of the money raised by phone solicitors will end up out of rown.

Colorado tensions climbing

Saturday's dual anniversary puts state, city on edge

DENVER — An uneasy calm enveloped the courthouse where Timothy McVeigh is on trial Thursday as the already tight security was boosted another notch in anticipation of the Oklahoma bombing anniversary.

Pairs of police officers stepped up patrols around the courthouse, while U.S. marshals escorted prosecutors from their office down the street to the courthouse door.

Death of the courthouse, while U.S. marshals escorted prosecutors from their office down the street to the courthouse door. Geteral building across the street, guards checked underneath vehicles for any sign of something amiss. At the heart of the caution is Saturday, the anniversary of both the Oklahoma City bombing and a raid on the Branch Davidians compound near Waco, Texas. "We're at increased awareness. That (courthouse) building is at the highest security and is above the national standards for top security for federal building with civilian employees," said Polly Baca, regional administrator of the Baca, regional administrator of the The trial is part of a series of unusual, unrelated events that have converged in Colorado, causing some concern among many residents.

As jury selection continued here, authorities kept searching the mountains for a bomb-laden warplane and looked into a puziling threat to the North-American Aerospace Defense Command in Colorado Springs.

Soldier says drill sergeant threatened her

AGRIPEM PROVING GROUND, Md. — A soldier who accuses her drill sergeant of raping her testified Thursday that he threatened to kill her if she told but boasted that nobody would believe her if she did.

The private first class said Army Staff Sgt. Delmar Simpson pulled down her shorts and raped her as she stooped to pick up something in his office in July. She said she was raped again on the bathroom floor in her benracks room in August.

The 20-year-old soldier was the fifth woman to accuse Simpson at his court-martial of rape in 1995 and 1996.

House has no plan to restart communications

HOUSE flass no pian to restairt communications Washington — Unlike other federal agencies and many private companies, the Blouse has no emergency plan for restoring computer and telephone operations if they are shut down by terrorists or accident, an inspector general's report says. House Inspector General John W. Lainhart IV concluded there was no justification for the House to risk a prolonged shutdown of its operations. Officials have relied "on the presumption that there are too many disaster scenarios" to initiate such a plant, and chose instead "to react to a disaster; assess its impact on the spot" and try-to recover, the recent report said.

And 85 percent are in it for the drugs.

That's what a pair of Brigham Young University psychologists discovered when they surveyed Utah gang members recently. Their findings should give pause to those who view street gangs as nothing worse than boys clubs for kids with bad tattoo.

There's a 'ocal movement of social critics just now that is convinced that gang members are fundamentally good youngsters who bond with one another because they lack economic opportunity and parental support.

Rather than sending them to prison, the argument goes, society should find ways to channel their energy in more positive ways.

You bet your Uzi.
—Fact is, gangs are collections of felons and felons-in-training who are out to gain by intimidation what they can't achieve by legitimate means.

Like, say, getting a job.

It's important to draw a distinction between truly actisk kids – youngsters who need and deserve attention – and nihillistic, street-wise opportunists who exploit the combination of antiheroic solidarity and teen-age rebellion that are gangs' fatal attraction.

Gangs are made up of pushers, thugs and users, and the criminals who run them grow rich on the misery of decent people unlucky enough to live on their truf.

They're not surrogate families.
They're dens of thieves.

Jon K. Moudy, 55, of Jerome is being held in the Jerome County Jail on $50,000 bond, Magistrate Judge Thomas Borreen said.

Moudy is scheduled to appear in district court Monday.

He was arrested April 8 after, a brief standoff with sheriff's deputies at his trailer house southwest of Jerome. During an argument with his 17-year-old son that evening, Moudy grabbed a 30-caliber military-style carbine from his bedroom and aimed it at the boy, said an arrest report prepared by Jerome County sheriff's Detective Dan Chatterton and filled with court documents.

The $100,000 Jerome received is more than small districts usually get, she said.

That's probably because Jerome has managed to keep its schools on the cutting ddge of computer technology, despite the district's small size and dight. budget, Thorsen said.

And that's no small feat in a state where many small and rural school districts have been falling behind the technology curve, she said.

Hearing witness testifies concerning Krieger murder

RUPERT - A convicted felon and acquainance of Giberto Rodriguez testified in a hearing Thursday that he watched Rodriguez carry the body of Regina Krieger from her house the might she disappeared.

Cody Thompson, who is serving a five-year sentence for burglary at the North Idaho Correctional Institution, took the stand in the first-degree murder trial of Jesus Diax Thursday. Diaz is charged with the April 1996 killing of Blake Morgan Jr.

Diaz's attorney Andrew Parnes has said he would like to include in his defense of Diaz evidence that implicates Rodriguez in Morgan's murder. Parnes said he will argue today why Thompson's testimony connecting Rodriguez to Krieger's murder should be admitted as well.

Thompson testified that he and another man waited in a Ford Mustang parked behind Krieger's house while Rodriguez was in the home for "approd-mately 30 minutes I'd say, maybe a little longer."

He said Rodriguez later pulled the car to the front of the house, went back in, and returned with Krieger's body in his arms.

Hagerman continues debate over consolidation

HAGERMAN - Lack of support for consolidating the Bliss and Hagerman school districts has little to do with maintaining individuality, but everything to do with timing.

About 25 members of the Hagerman community gathered at Hagerman's elementary school Wednesded evening to discuss long-range goals for the school district. Those goals include posibly consolidating with Bliss, or remaining autonomous and developing, a strategy for a new high school building.

While the majority in attendance said they favored consolidation, they were concerned with the time frame Bliss needs in order to decide on combining

"The consensus of this meeting is that pursuing a consolidation option with Bliss would hold the Hagerman School District up for several years, and we need a new school now," Hagerman School Board President John Mavencamp said.

During the meeting, Bliss School Board President John Mavencamp said.

During the meeting, Bliss School Board President Sans Standal reported, that the Bliss board would consider building a new grade school in Bliss now and take up the option of consolidating with Hagerman letter.

From a letter addressed to the Hagerman School Board, Standal read, "Comments from the ballots (from an April 9 Bliss town meeting) indicate a strong interest in pursuing the elementary building while still pursuing a consolidated 7-12 school with Hagerman."

Standal added, "It is apparent Bliss wants to have it both way, to get a new grade school and look at consolidation." "The consensus of this meeting is DEAR ABBY: For the last seven months, I was involved in a serious relationship with Rocky." I became close with his parents as well: I baked cooleies sion with his father and was considered part of the family.

Rocky and I began having difficulties. In the middle of one of our "breakups," his mother called me and told me how much she missed me. Even considering our young ages (16 and 17), she confessed she had hoped to see us marry one day. Her concern for my well-being touched me and I was grateful for her attention.

My relationship with Rocky has finally ended. It was my decision because I think he has a lot of growing up to do, and I don't see myself in his immediate future. But I miss the bond I had with Rocky's parents. Am I expected to remain friends with them, or do I now ignore their existence? I would appreciate existence? I would appreciate

DEAR ABBY: Why aren't you more honest with you readers and tell them why so many men are nervous about marriage? It's because the price of marriage is simply too high for most men. The majority lose 50 percent of their assets and 100 percent of their children when they divorce. They are the ones who pay child support. They are the ones who pay alimony. Men are the defendants in 70 percent of divorce cases and are blamed for most of the problems in a relationship. Nobody would expect a man invest in a business with a 50 percent failure rate and long-term financial and emotional consequences. fracture came from some blunt trauma."

Budget crunch will close middle school

PLUMMER — Lakeside Middle School will close after this school year and 15 district positions will be cut in preparation for an estimated 475,000 budget shortfall.

The deficir results mostly from high student absenteelsm and expiring federal grants. Students will be shifted to other schools. "It's been coming for a long time, but I still think it came as a shock," Plummer-Worley School Superintendent Bob Singleton said.

Compiled from wire reports

BOISE (AP) — With a draft grizzly bear recovery plan just weeks away, Gov. Phil Batt has tried again to block the experi-

Batt, leading the charge against restoration in the Selway-Bitterroot region, met Wednesday with members of the Interagency Grizzly Bear Committee. The panel already has endorsed the area as a bit-able recovery spot.

A draft study of options is reportedly awalting signatures next month that could send Idaho on another experiment to restore a predator lost from its rugged interior, following the gray wolf.

Grizzly advocates say they have worked to make the bear easier of Idaho residents to accept by reducing some federal protections while allowing logging to continue in fringe habitat.

But Batt remains against artificial recovery.

"The governor reiterated his belief that reintroduction is not

This is the last chance to save these forests before they are clear-cut and gone," Meloney said.

The proposal would prohibit logging in all roadless are in automation forests as well as in more than the Act to Baye America.

Selective timber harvesting would be allowed outside the core blological areas.

The measure is named after the non-profit conservation group, Save America. Forests, which has been pushing for a ban on clear-cutting for years. A pro-

Frank Poole: No longer lost in space

In "2001," the USSS Discovery was on a top-secret mission when something went terribly wrong. Alerted by HAL, the ship's computer, Frank Poole left the ship to repair a malfunction. There wasn't one — and HAL cut his lifeline, sending Poole floating off into space. While crewman David Bowman attempted a rescue, HAL killed the rest of the crew, who were in suspended animation. Then HAL refused to allow Bowman back on board.

It was a chilling moment in science fiction. The idea that a machine could be capable of treachery, and even murder, hande many of us squirm uncomfortably.

LOS ANGELES — Beautiful, yet ice-cold.
That's what first strikes you about Many I.
Blige as the most celebrated and enigmatic female singer in hip-hop soul walks onto a hotel patio for an interview — that and the fact site is 45 minutes late:
For those who have read over the years about Blige's sometimes chilly artitude with the media, the distant manner and the tardiness seem to signal mother tense encounter.

Libe the commendation of the content of t ness seem to signal another tense encounter.

Like the once media-aby Aretin Franklin, Bligs is able to sing about romantic heartache and personal setbacks so convincingly that it's casty to assume her personal life—which she keeps so guarded—has been filled with a fair shure of pair.

Indeed, troubled emotions have become the moses, doubled embotons nave become the signature theme in Blige's music, where the singer wears her heart on her sleeve. Not everything in her music is downcast, but the paint the state of the sleep the state of the paint of the state of the sleep the state of the paint of the state of the sleep the sleep and the sleep the sleep the sleep the sleep and the sleep the sleep the sleep the sleep find her way through tumultuous relation-ships, but is also wrestling with her own iden-tity.

In real life, too, the assumption — from the little information Blige has chosen to share with the public — is that the New Yorker is trying to find her balance in a world that, in the past, seemed in her mind hellbent on her destruction.

Blige acknowledges her reticence with the interview process.

"I can shut down when I want to," Blige says t one point in the interview. "I can tune you out point in the interview. "I can tune you out and act as if you're not even there. I can be talking to you right now and not even be here."

Mary I. Blige

But just when it looks as if nothing is going to melt the Blige ice barrier, she suddenly looks up at a hotel balcony high above and spots someone she knows. Her eyes brighten and her spirit lifts. The tight, sullen expres-sion disappears. She's actually as sunny as the

This audience has proclaimed Blige the queen of hip-hop soul not only because she often sings over hip-hop-influenced backing tracks, but also because her voice and perspective reflect the joy and pain of the culture.

The reason so many people gravitated to her second album, 1994's "My Life," was because the album felt like a cinematic rendition of her stormy, heart-wrenching relationship with Jodec lead singer KC Halley.

And her album sales reflect her premiere strus. Her first two albums have sold an estimated 25 million and 3 million copies, respectively, according to SoundScam:

"She is a sprinter, she has done a great job for us," coach Joleen Toone said. The coach added that her relays wouldn't do as well with out Nebeker.

The boys' competition was much closer. Declo finished first with 122 and Gooding railed by only 5.5 points to take second.

Though the team finished fourth, Valley did have some individuals shine. Casey Crumrine or "the track man" according to teammate Ryan Hansen, finished first in all three of his events, the 800, 1600, and 3200-meter runs. Crumrine finished the 3200-meter open in 10048, more than a minute faster than second place.

"It's my better race, I get my best times," said Crumrine, who tinished third at the state tournament last year in the 3200.

Blazers' trade was the art of the deal

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) —
Although he would never admit, Portland Trail Blazer's president Bob Whitsit was backed into a corner last summer.
Rod Strickland had demanded a trade, and everyone in the NBA knew it. Whitsit had to get rid of the unhappy point guard and, somehow, avoid-just-giving-himmay.

What followed was a trade that, in hindsight, might be one of the best the Blazers have ever made.

Rasheed Wallace, the key acquisition in the deal that sent Strickland to the Washington Bullets, has emerged in one Pordand season as the brightest young star on the NBA's youngest

The Blazers' front office virtually drools at the thought of how good he can be, and they're preparing to open team owner Paul Allen's gargantuan wallet to make sure he stays in Portland for a long time.

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP) — U.S. soccer star Eric Wynalda says he was misquoted: He doesn't hate Mexico. He just hates to lose to Mexico. The two countries play an important World Cup qualifier in Foxboro on Sunday, and a matchup that was once a cake-walk for Mexico is now shaping up as a genuine rivalry. "At the moment you have a rivalry – this is not friendly," Mexico coach Bora Milutinovic said after the team's first practice at Brandels University. "You want to win."

Milutinovic is responsible for some of the drama leading to this game at Foxboro Stadium. As U.S. coach for four years, the Yugoslav oversaw an improvement that culminated in a respectable U.S. showing in the 1994 World Cup. Before that, he coached Mexico and Costa Rica. The United States and Mexico are bidding for spots innext year's World Cup in France. Three nations will advance from the six-team group from North and Central America and the Caribbean.

Still the best advice around: Beat the taxman with an I

By James K. Glassman
The Weshington Post

At this time of year, it's good to remember that picking the right tax strategy can be far more important than picking the right stocks.

Consider two investors — call them Bill and Newt. Each puts $2,000 into a stock portfolio that produces an average return of 12 percent annually, including dividends of 3 percent. Assume also that Bill and Newt hold each stock an average of five years, then sell and replace it with another stock.

At the end of 20 years, Bill and Newt cach cout their stocks and pay the tuxes. At the end of 20 years, Bill ends yew with another stock.

At the end of 20 years, Bill ends yew with 511,528, Newt has 514,450. What gives? Simple. Bill owned his stocks in a naxable account. He didn't pay much in taxes each year, but he paid enough to deplete his account significantly over time. Newt owned his stocks in an IRA, or Individual Retirement Account. His income was too high to earn a deduction when he made his IRA contributions, but the profits on his stocks accumulated tax-free until he sold his shares and reduced. This tax deferral becomes vaulable in the long run.

So, Rule I for smart tax investing is: Open an IRA, or add to one you've already established.

If you're like me, you probably set up an IRA in the early 1930s, when they had few restrictions and were extremely you ular. In the 1986 tax reform, you may

That was a mistake. Although you can't immediately knock the $2,000 contribution off your gross income, thereby reducing your tax bill (if you're in a 31

Both cases include all taxes, including those paid when the IRA is cashed in.

Trade deficit shrinks slightly

WASHINGTON — America's trade deficit in February narrowed to $10.4 billion, after setting a record the previous month, the Commerce Department said late Thursday, after correcting a sizable error that had overstated the trade gap.

The department had originally reported the February deficit was $1.2 billion larger, at $11.6 billion, before discovering a major miscalculation of oil imports.

Commerce Undersecretary Everett Ehrlich called the size of the error unprecedented and blamed it on miscommunication between his agency, which compiles the trade statistics and the Customs Bureau, which gathers the raw data. Customs, in an effort to get a handle on late

Dow ends 3-day upswing

NEW YORK — Technology stocks struggled higher Thursday, but blue-chip shares faltered, halting a three-day rally that had nearly halved a month-long slide by the Dow Jones industrial average.

The Dow fell 21.27 to 6,658.60 after giving-back a 33-point gain that put the barometer of 30 big companies above 6,700 for the first time in three weeks.
Broad-market indicators turned mostly lower in the afternoon as investors moved to lock in some gains from the past few days.

"I was encouraged early in the day when I saw the recent strength, which had been limited to the Dow, spreading out to the Nasdag stocks," said Robert Stovall, president of Stovall/Twenty-First Advisers. But then in the afternoon, there was a lot of selling pressure in the bright, and that made things tall. "The Nasdag market snapped a two-day losing streak, rising 6.80 to 1,217.07 as investors bid up depressed computer-sector favorites such as Intel up 4 to 138; and Cisco Systems, up 2 to 49 1/2.

when you can start withdrawing your money, and penalties for taking it out before age 59 1/2, for taking too much out after that (yes, Uncle Sam punishes savers who are too diligent!) and for leaving too much for your heirs. Still, Robert Carlson, who chairs the Fairfax County, Va., mployee pension system and edits the newsletter Tax-Wise Money (1-800-433-1528), says the advantages of tax-deferral are so great that, if you hold your IRA investment for about 14 years, you'll still do better than you would with a taxable account even paying the 10 percent penalty for early withdrawal.

But one way to avoid the IRA inasies is to set up what I call a Low-Tax Retirement Account (or LTRA), which is based on the best loophole in the tax code: You don't pay capital gains taxes on something unless you sell it. Stocks that you buy and hold are the ultimate tax-deferred investments. You can put off paying taxes until you're dead — and, even then, your heirs can avoid them.

In your LTRA /which, of course, you don't have to set up in any official sense; it's just a plain old brokerage account, you'll want to own stocks that pay little or no dividends. Good examples are high-tech companies like Microsoft inc., or retailers like Wall-Mart Stores inc.

You can also own the careful. You can also own the careful. The store that you have to be careful. The store the form the inhibitines, the bill gets passed through to individual shareholders. And most fund managers don't care about tax consequences since their bonuses are determined by pre-tax returns.

Low-tax funds are those with low dividend yields and low turnover. Managers who sell their stock holdings often can produce hefty capital gains taxes for their investors. That's why index funds, which put mongroup of the store of the Growth was just 62 percent; for Dreyfus Growth Opportunity, 55 percent.

Low-Tax, highly rated stock funds, according to Morningstar, include Franklin Growth (1-800-325-358).
Princer Emerging Growth (1-800-425-358).
Princer Emerging Growth (1-800-451-3447), Wright International Blue Chip Equities (1-800-888-9471) and Yacktman (1-800-525-8258).
A good way to divide your retirement funds is to put buy-and-hold, low-turnover investments in an LTRA and bonds, high-dividend stocks and mutual funds with a trading-minded manager in your RRA Perfect for IRAs are zero-coupon Treasury bonds (where you pay a deep discount today for a bond that will pay full face value in 10 or 20 years).

THE ACES ON BRIDGE Bobby Wolff

"A definition is the enclosing a wilderness of idea within a wall of words."

--- Samuel Butlè

"What is a Coup en Passent?"
asks a reader, "Is it a fancy name for a routine play?".
The Encyclopedia of Bridge defines the coup as "the lead of a plain suit eard to promote a low trump behind a higher trump to a winning position." The name may seem fancy to some; however, one does not see the play every day.
Today's deal provides an example.
West leads his club king, continuing the suit when East plays his eight. South ruffs the third club, cashes his ace and dummy's queen of trumps; and gets badnews. Having lost two clubs and facing a trump and a diamond loser, how can South maneuver to make one of these losers disappear? The answer is to make two of his losers go on the same losing trick.

After the foul trump break is of his issers go on the same using take. The foul trump break is uncovered, South must try to uncovered. South must try to we remained the south must be southern the south of the south of "thirteener."

Note that South must be careful. If he tries to ruff dummy's fourth spade before cashing the high diamonds, East will discard a diamond, and South will lose the diamond, and South will lose the timing to make his game.

Reeve: Actor turns director for HBO

An accident like his easily could impede someone's professional pur-suits, but Christopher Reeve isn't letting that happen.

Paralyzed by a 1995 horse-riding fall, the movie screen's "Supermar is opening up new professional horizons for himself, as he proves by filling the role of director for the first time on Sunday's new HBO drama In the Gloaming," Glenn Close and David Strathairn ("The Firm") play a couple whose long-estranged son (Robert Sean Leonard, of "The Age of Innocence") returns home with the news that he is dying of AIDS. Though his relatives - also including his sister, portrayed by Bridget Fonda — are reluctant to deal with the situation by addressing it directly, the nurse hired to take care of him (Whoopi Goldberg) helps to facilitate the words and feelings cloaked by the family members. The tale was adapted for television by Will Scheffer from a short story by Alice

"I'm very proud of it," Reeve says of Sunday's project, "and I'm particularly grateful for the generosity of everybody who did this with me. I feel that all the actors and the peoave me a gift." One of those colleagues was Reeve's wife Dana leagues was Reeve's write Dana (seen as an actress lately on the CBS show "Feds"), who performs "In the Gloamings" theme song. vas so good, I kept it." At the time of his accident, Reeve was considering other ventures to direct. "I did feel I was prepared to do this," he reflects. "It's something I had done a little bit of before, some second-unit work on the 'Superman' films and little bits and pieces of other films. I was sup osed to direct a movie in the fall of 1995, so things were already in the works. He's left HBO since, but Michael Fuchs brought this project to me, and it was the perfect piece for me to get started with ... rela-tively contained, not too difficult to shoot, and a real opportunity for the

Doherty is 'Sleeping With the Devil'

If she wanted to test her abilities beyond "Beverly Hills, 90210," Shannen Doherty is getting those opportunities.

The former Brenda of that onging Fox series, the actress resurfaces in Tuesday's new CBS drama "Sleeping With the Devil," based on Suzanne Finstad's fact inspired book about a woman who blossomed with the love and support of a rich health-club owner (portrayed by Tim Matheson). However, his controlling nature eventually drove her to leave him ... a move to which he responded by having her gunned down, leaving her paralyzed.

She sought help in recovering from the attack by consulting Dr. Jerrold Petrofsky (played by David Bowe), who devised a computerbased means of helping people re-gain the ability to walk. As she progressed with her treatments, which culminated in her participation in the Honolulu Marathon, her attorney (Steven Ford) sought evidence to prosecute the man she knew was responsible for her injuries.

I tend to think of myself as someone who will only do a pro-ject if it's a challenge to me," Doherty confirms, "and this one had a lot of challenges. I learned all about paralyzation from the chest down, and I had to learn how to move around in a wheelchair .. which injured me twice. I fell backward, because it's not you normal wheelchair, it's more like small racing chair with absolute more brakes, and it's very easy sip over. While not admitting he loves Liza, Adam agreed to let Marian help save his marriage. She put a hug on Take's boat so he could eavesdrop. Erica told Jack she got Sonya illegally. Dimitri dissertion of the Carlo in his new plane, Maria almost saw Sonva's pirthmark, Mateo learned Earl is not Tanner's father. Meanwhile. Tariner brought a collapsed Havley to the hospital. Next Week: ment: Diana meets Brooke.

ANOTHER WORLD

Raines painted Neil as a villain to Joe, and implied the same to Joe, and implied the same about Joe to Neil. While Josie was distracted, Grant recalled how Carl set him up and left the "safe" house. He arrived at Cindy's desperate for the antidote. Joe warned Paulina she may hear unpleasant things about him. Bobby warned Vicky against probing his past. Next Week: Vicky gets news about Bobby.

AS THE WORLD TURNS

Still in a fugue state, Margo searched the police property room for the missing gun and later made a discovery that horri-fied her. Holden told Lily Jack is a Snyder. Mark saw Connor and David together, Lucinda urged Sam to stay around for a while. Holden tried to help Margo unblock her memory. Bob found John in his office "playing" at be-ing Chief of Staff. Connor found a fax dropped by David. Next Week: Lily learns something about Molly.

BOLD AND BEAUTIFUL

Asked if he shot Grant to help the Forresters, Enrique told Hunter if he were the shooter, Grant would be dead. But Claudia told Michael she's sure Enrique did it, and they should look for evidence to prove it. James was upset when Curtis chided him for how he treats Maggie. Sheila realized Curtis was falling for Maggie. Thorne stormed out when Taylor told Hunter Ridge visited her the night before. Feli-cia reassured Ridge of the fami-ly's support. At the ball, Eric proposed to Stephanie; Ridge arrived in Zorro costume. Next Week: Does Hunter really know whodunnit?

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Celeste told Kristen she doesn't believe John, Jr. is Kits-ten's baby, and that when she dream, Ian — with Max and time's looks at him, she hears us Kits' Maggie in tow — went to the emerge-song in her head. After learning Roman was dead, John asked Kristen to go with him to tell Marlena. In her absence Susan wandered around in the Kristen disguise. Bo and Abe trapped Viper (Shawn-D's shooter) and a volley of gunfire erupted. React-ing to her father's death. Sami recalled something about John huring Roman. To prove her sto-ry, Laura asked Jennifer and Mike to go to the Blake house with her to see the secret room. Meanwhile, Susan plotted being a family with John and "little Elvis." Next Week: Marlena and John get letters from Roman.

GENERAL HOSPITAL

Miranda and Brenda had an emotional confrontation. Later, Sonny's reply to her letter caused Brenda to do something about her pill habit. A.J. publicly admitted causing Jason's acci-dent. Later, he hit the bottle again, while Emily went with Matt to get high After exploding at Tony for praising Bobbie, Car-ly found solace with a sympa-thetic person. A new delivery prompted Felicia to suspect Kevin was back to his old ways. Next Week: Lucky shares good news with Nikolas; Emily is rushed to the ER.

GUIDING LIGHT

Vanessa met a man who would figure in her recovery. Later, Vanessa and Matt made a connection, although they were unaware they were talking to each other. Buzz and Jenna set up a new plan to get Jeffrey out of their lives. As part of his work-release program, Billy took a job with Buzz. Annie didn't believe Josh when he said Reva wasn't the reason he's ending their marriage. Rick's effort to help Abby backfired. Af-ter Amanda blasted him for neglecting her, Roger went to see Holly with a gift for Meg. Next Week: Rusty arrives to help house in New Orleans where he and Maggie learned they were twins, (Eleanor had an affair with John, but married Guy. She kept lan and John raised Maggie.) Blair's unborn baby was tested for a blood marrow match with Starr. Dorian told Clint ace reporter Mel Hayes was available for a job. Next Week: Blair and Todd get important news.

SUNSETBEACH

Cairlin told Cole she'll go away with him when Sean is out of the hospital. Ricardo learned Eddie found Cole's birth certificate in Del's briefcase, and realized Elaine's motive for killing Del may relate to her long-lost son. may relate to her long-lost son.
Tiffany got Sean to tell her about his failing eyesight. Olivia saw Cole and Caitlin in the grotto and realized she'd been sleeping with the man her daughter loves. Ben finally realized Meg is his cyber-soul mate, Dorothy from Kansas. After Elaine's arrest, Eddie told Annie she's off the hook. Later, Annie told Tim they should team up to keep Meg and Ben apart. Next Week: Elaine considers telling Cole she's his

YOUNG AND RESTLESS

In the mental hospital, Veronica. Josh's "dead wife," saw his photo in a magazine. Nikki asked Victor to help keep Nick, Sharon, and the baby in Genoa City. Nina was upset when Ryan didn't appear supportive of her decision to have therapy. Victoria told Ryan she intended to take back her job from him. Stunned to learn Noah is alive, Grace pondered what to do with Cassie (the daughter Sharon had given up for adoption). Sasha threatened Phyllis with a thick manuscript filled with "dirt" on Phyllis's dire deeds. Victor, Jr. asked Hope about the kiss she gave Kurt. Victor and Diane toasted their new project. Nick went off to his second job interview. Neil urged Malcolm to start a rela-tionship with Olivia. Next Week: A dark part of Chris-tine's past is about to re-

Maeve Kinkead: More than passion

Maeye Kinkead's leave of absence from "Guiding Light" — which began in the summer of 1996 ended officially on March 31, 1997, when she reberlain Lewis Reardon full time. During her leave. Maeve made occasional appearances on the soap to show us how Vanessa was dealing with the neurological disorder that prompted her to fake her death in a fiery accident before slipping off to Switzerland for treatment. (And lest we forget, she was aided and abetted by an angel, Zachary.) Vanessa left behind two mourning children: her daughter, Dinah, and her son, Bill, as well as a grieving widower, Matt Reardon (Kurt McKinney). Now, it looks as if all the romantics among us will soon see Vanessa and Matt reunited ...

Well, maybe not so soon. "Vanessa has been on such a strange odyssey," Maeve says, "that it will take some time to get her back to Springfield. It will be done slowly over the next several months. But I think that's the best way to do it.

Meanwhile, another man will have come into Vanessa's life, Michael Burke, her physical thera-pist, played by Peter Her-

Asked if any significant emotional relationship beyond healer and "healee" will develop between Rurke and Vanessn, Maeve said, "I don't know what kind of relationship it will be, but, yes, certainly, it will be a crucial relationship. Keep in mind that he, in some ways, takes the place of Zachary, the angel."

And speaking of Zachary — "That fact alone," says Maeve, alone," says Maeve, would tell me that Vanessa has to come back as quite a different person from the one who left Springfield, After all, she spoke with an angel. That has to be a life-changing experience. I also feel surviving a life-threatening iliness would change person whether she alked with angels or not.

"It won't be easy for Vanessa." Maeve says. "I would imagine that she might fantasize from time to time about being the person she was before all this happened to her. But she can't go back." Macve felt having the streaks of gray appear in Vanessa's hair helped show the progression of her difficult experience. As she puts it, "I thought it would show her in extremis'

While Kinkead feels it's an exciting challenge to play Vanessa as she moves past survival and into the recovery phase of her life — both physically and psychologically can only imagine how the writers must feel as they face the challenge of having to write this new sto-Oueen Maeve (also known as Queen Mab), was one of Ireland's great rulers. Kinkead's greatgrandfather was a friend of the Nobel Prize-winning Irish poet, William Butler Yeats, who helped lead the Celtic revival in Ireland, which brought new awareness of Irish history, which is how our Maeve got her name.
