Bee populations on the decline

SPOKANE (AP) — Nature's bilghts, pesticides and foreign imports have combined to make life tough for the state's commercial honeybees and their keepers. The number of beekerpers and bee colonies have been dropping across the nation for about 50 years. The rate of decline has accelerated in recent years due to cheap imported honey and the spread of pests such as tracheal mites and varroa mites. The number of Commercial beekerpen in the best 2,000, with Washington state's total down to about 100.

Many of those still in the business in Washington are older, third- and fourth-generation keepers who wonder how long they can lest, given current conditions.

Though keepers sell honey from their hives, pollination is a major source of keepers' income. The average keeper cams $30 or of the several weeds hervice of pollination. The economies plus the mites suggest that it isn't the business or get into if you want to make

Number of full-time law enforcement officers on the rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of full-time state and local away enforcement officers increased and the state of the state o unday.

According to a report by the ureau of Justice Statistics, the umber of law enforcement offiers grew during that four-year period by more than 68,000 to reach 423,000.

Of those officers, 64 percent, were uniformed personnel whose regular duties included responding to calls for service, compared with 59 percent who filled that job in 1993.

Proponents of community policing applauded the numbers as evidence that a crime bill to put more police on the streets and in partnership with neighborhoods is working.

It's time for Vacation Travel Tips, the fea-ture whose motto is: "Don't let your sum-per vacation fun be spoiled by a grenade strack!" This year my No. 1 tip is simed specifically at those of you who are plan-ning to take your summer vacations in Taniand. The tip is es follows: Watch our.

I'm not saying don't go to Thailand. Thailand is a lovely country, in fact, the word "Thailand" means, iterally, "land of Thai." I have never personally been there, but I have seen several pictures of it in National Geographic (unless that was India). Also, I offere act at my local Thare railed "volcano chicken," a traditional Thailand is the form a type of chicken that is extremely spicy. On Thail farms, this chicken has to be lept away from the other animals, because every now and then it goes "Cluck!" and bursts into flame. So you should never eat it without beer.

My point is that I love Thailand, and you should definitely vacation there. But you should be aware of an alaming Associated Press news story, sent in by aller reader. Hast cocurred in Thailand became of gange fighting over — I swear I am not making his up— but dung. According to the article, some villagers in an area northeast of langkok had been "gathering but dung in a mountain cave," and when they emerged from the cave, "with seven sacks of valuable dung," somebody threw a grenade at them. The story states that Thai police "believe rival dung gatherers' were behind the extract." Unfortunately, the story does not answer any of the questions that immediately pring to mind, namely.

1. It there a rock bard called "Rival Bat Pame Gatherers"? 2. Whu not?"

1. Is there a rock band called "Rival Bat ung Gatherers"? 2. Why not?

Estate Shape A GOVERNMENT WILL

reads S. Voorlace: State any send to have a waiting wall?

Yes. The default will provided by kisho haw may not distribute operty to the specific family members in the proportions you ould like. For instance, the separate property one spouse brought to marriage does not all pass to the surviving spouse. Fallif goes to e deceased spouse's children by a prior marriage.

The state's will does not necessarily select the best present to ease seconder to settle the estate, gasuliam to care for children, trustee to manage assets for minors or young adult beneficiaries. In large estates the absence of tax-aring trusts counted by will in result unnecessarily in money being paid to the government.

Benefit. A well-designed will not only simplifies estate interment later on; but it also increases the likelihood that platfulf mily conflict among survivors will be minimized if not altragetier oxided.

Cotton socks, aside from not having much pudding, hold moisture from sweat. What makes blisters? Moisture and friction. Make sure the elastic is snug so socks won't side down and add to the friction component. But the impedes circulation.

Tricks of the trade: Buy in bulk. Catalogs and some stores often sell three pairs for a discounted per-pair price. You might not need as much padding as say Thorlos, so why spend the extra money? Check out the discount-store selection. You can find Coal.Max blend socks with some padding for $4 to $6 for two pairs.

THE ACES ON BRIDGE®

"When all other sins are old, avarice is still young." — French proverb to beat the game one unselliah rick.

Note North's bidding. His cuebid of two hearts promised a good hand and asked South for further definition. When South merely rebid his spade suit, North's raise saked him to "look again." South then re-evaluated his holding and did the game.

West led fourth best in partmor's suit, and East took his king.
Oblivious to the bidding, East cashed his heart ace and switched to his singleton chih. When West didn't win the ace, East tried diamounds after he won his trump acc. West didn't have that ace either, and South escaped with his vulnerable game.
