THREE FROM HEYBURN KILLED IN 1-84 ROLLOVER

Snew and ice may have caused accident

r Siedras Cates Irons Nows writer

Police said the season's first snowfall Tuesday may be connected to some minor crashes in Twin Falls, as well as a highway rollower that killed three people near Mountain Home.

The crash took the lives of three Heyburn residents riding in one vehicle that rolled at about 7:56 am. Tuesday along interstate 84, about 10 miles west of Mountain Home, according to a press release from the Idaho State Police. ilice. Road conditions at and around the westbound crash site were "slick," according to the ISP release.

Police said Nanette Hang Miller, 56, was driving a 1997 Chevrolet Blazer that went off the road into the median, rolled multiple times and carne to rest upright, blocking both eastbound 1-84 lanes. Miller and her two, passengers, Donna Hang, 76, and Eric Hang, 81, were killed instantly, according to the press release.
One of the passengers was ejected from the vehicle. Seat belts were worn only by the driver, and the front seat passenger, according to the release.
The Interstate was completely blocked for almost two hours while traffic was diverted to a nearby road; it was reopened by 10.15 a.m. The incident is still under investigation.

Slippery conditions on local roads in Twin Falls city and county also may have contributed to some non-injury crashes.

Bid war brewing

Boise firm disputes bid rejection on new high school project

By Andrea Gates

A Boise-based company says the Twin Falls School District has violated state law in rejecting its low bid for cable work at the new Canyon Ridge High School. Officials from System Tech Inc., say their $638,500 bid was nearly $63,000 lower than the next-highest company.

lower than the next-highest company.
But the bid was rejected by the district's contracted construction management company. District officials are saying little except that the rejection was due to a "legal technicality." They stress that the school board has yet to make a final deci-sion.

The bid fight comes as school officials cope with construction bids for the $37.6 million high school hat are coming in 15 to 25 percent over budget.

System Tech officials say they're teady to go to court to win the job.

The company, which is also running cable for the state Capitol enovation and has worked for several other public agencies, had a rough relationship with the school district even before it sent in its high school bid.

On Aug. 2d, the company control of the cabling were so narrowly written that the Acquittal of Iran's former nuclear negotiator seen as setback for Ahmadinejad

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — A former Iranian nuclear negoriator was acquitted Tuesdy of spying charges but convicted of acting against the Islamic government in a case that has become a center-piece in the feud between hard-line President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad and his too political rival.

Maimoud himadinejad and his top political tive. Hossein Mousavian appeared to be a setback for Ahmadinejad, who bad branded the diplomat a "spy" and made a weiled reference to him and other critics of his nuclear policies as "traitors."

Mousavian is a close ally of ormer President Hashemi Rafsanjani, a powerful figure in Iran's clerical leadership who is seen as a pragmatist. Allies of Rafsanjani have been increasingly public in their criticism of Ahmadinejad, accusing him of mismanaging the nuclear Ahmadinojad, accusing him of mismanaging the nuclear standoff with the West and of of mismanaging the nuclear standoff with the West and to liashing out against his trivals. The case against Mousavian from the start was seen as a part of the rivalry. Ahmadinejad implicitly accused. Rafsanjańfs camp of trying to influence the judiciary to acquit the negotiator. He vowed to stop them and expose his opponents as traitors, suggesting Mousavian had urged the West to toughen their stance on Iran in the nuclear dispute.

We don't see the connection. At other stores in Idaho you can buy guns, ammo and beer, too. Why isn't that a problem?
It isn't, o foourse, because most county commissions and city councils in the state understand the notion of compartmentalization. Or as Prof. Harold Hill said in "The Music Man:" 'A pool hall doesn't cause trouble; pool causes trouble." trouble

What the Twin Falls commissioners are out to do, of course, is discourage "head shops" such as

"We didn't think it fit well with Nagels.

"We didn't think it fit well with the community, and we have the right to do that." Commissioner Terry Kramer said. "It's that alternative kind of products that have been used in some of the illegal drug stuff."

Kramer, who has not visited the store, said the commissioners are making a "statement" and are listening to complaining neighbors. "The alcohol is a separate Issue but it's a controlling mechanism that we can use to control this business in that area." the commissioner said. "Alcohol will bring more people in, will bring more clients in. It will give them more opportunities to participate in this neighborhood the way that I don't think the neighborhood wants."

But Nagel passed a criminal background check from the state. And city and county police authorities say he is complying with the law.

Nor will the denial of the beer license make Nagel's business go awy.

So if instead of robacco and smoking products say he is complying with the law.

Nor will the denial of the beer license make Nagel's business go away.

So if instead of tobacco and smoking products Nagel were peddling hot dogs, would he pass muster with the county commission? No doubt.

The commissioners would do well to read the Equal Protection Clause in the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. It says the government must treat an individual in the same manner as others in similar conditions and circumstances.

Nagel's attorney will undoubtedly argue that the Twin Falls businessman has been denied equal application of the state's liquor laws. He's got a case.

The right way to crack down on drug abuse is to punish those who break the law, not those who engage in a business commissioners don't like. And whether or not people think it's bad to buy tobacco and pipes from a shop like this is immaterial when it comes to their neighbors' right to buy beer there.

Two hundred lashes for woman who was raped, under any circumstances in even the most traditional country, is barbarle—period, But what also keeps tripping off my tongue is this phrase "illegal mingling." It seems to me that if the Middle East could use more of anything these days it is more mingling.— If not between the sexts then at least between the sexts.

From Gaza to Lebanon to Pakistan to Iraq there is a huge struggle going on today, primarily between Muslim sects, over who canningle with whom. This is the central issue in Iraq: Can Iraq is hilies and Sunnismingle anymove, after the country be stable enough for us to reduce our troops? By mingling I mean something less than embracing each other, but more than total segregation.

To the extent that the surge in Iraq is worked, it's largely because those Shiltes and Sunnis who want to just wipe out the other sect and any of their own who don't agree.

There is only one good thing about extremists: They don't know when to stop. That was key to the surge. In anti-mingling, pro Qalda Iraq Sunnis went way too far— In beheading people, sucked-

A long road after PGA's Q-school, but a history of winners

NEW YORK (AP) — Eighteen players who made it through 108 holes of stomach churring last year at Q-school earned their PGA Tour cards, and what did that get them? A return trip to what many consider to be the toughest six days in golf.

The reality of Q-school is that six days is not nearly as difficult as the toughest six days in golf.

The final snage of PGA Tour qualifying starts today at Orange County National in Orlando, Ela, and most of the 166 players would do well to themember the words of Rich Been. He was asked what his goal was after carring his tour card in 1998.

"Keep my Job," Beem said, paus face and word.

"Are you kidding?" he continued. "I was so lost out there, I didn't even figure out until after the tournament in Hawait that they gave us free food. I ate hot dogs at that tent between the first and 10th tree all week. I never expected to be where I am

Today with the high cost of heating homes, hot water boilers are becoming more common again in all climates. This is partly due to the comfort and efficiency of a hot water system. Within recent years, technology improvements in gas and old boilers have made the equipment as efficient as forced air systems.

For cooling during the summer, there are several systems.

For cooling during the summer, there are several central air-conditioning alternatives to a standard ducted forced air system. The most common are mini-split ductiess systems and mini-duct, high-velocity systems. The mini-duct system can finally found it: The exact, polar opposite of Twin Falls.

Ivin Falls.
It's Sonoma County, the prosperous suburban San Francisco Bay Area county prosperous suburban San Francisco Bay Area county that's the heart of Northern California's wine country. I visited my son last week in Rohnert Park, where he works at Sonoma State University.

ASK ME Steve Crump

Both congressman representing Sonoma County are Democrats, as are all five of the county's representatives in the California Legislature and all five members of the Board of Supervisors, the California equivalent of the county commission. No Republican presidential candidate has carried Sonoma since Ronald Reagan in 1884, Democrat John Kerry won 67 percent of the votes in the county in the 2004 vote.

By contrast, no Democrat has represented Twin Falls since 1994 when Dennis Maushan was elected to the the county's representatives in the California Legislature ighan was elected to the Maughan was elected to the county commission; he switched parties three years later. Twin Falis County has tr gone Democratic in a presidential election since 1948; George W. Bush won the county by 67 percent in 2004.

As of October, the average home in Sonoma County sold for $$13,000 (the cur-rent average in Twin Falls is $168,343). The median family income in Sonoma is $61,921; in Twin Falls, it's s6i,921; in Twin Falls, it's $44,996. In Sonoma, the major issues of the past year included attempts to ban all genetically modified food from the county, an effort to censure Democratic U.S. Sen. Diane Feinstein of California for supporting Bush's nomination of Michael Mukaey for attorney general, and a campalga to get all of the city councils in the county to petition Congress to impeach and convict the president and the vice president. On the other hand, the biggest issue in Twin Falls over the past 12 months was probably the decision to block a gay float from the Western Days parade in Iune.

THE ACES ON BRIDGE

Bobby Wolff

'In crisis is cleverness born. – Chinese proverb

One of the regular recent attendees at the Fall Nationals is Martin Andresen, the Norwegian footballer. On this deal from the second qualifying session of the Nail Life Master Open Pairs held in Hawaii last year, two of the top qualifiers met, and the encounter left Sue Picus highly impressed with his defense. Picus was playing with Alex Ornstein; Andresen, with Tor Helness.

Against four spades Andresen led a top heart and could have ensured the defeat of the contract by continuing with another high heart. Instead, he shifted to a club, which looked to Picus like a singleton. Perhaps it would be best to win that lead in the South hand and run the spade jack, but if East won and gave partner a club ruff, another heart would doom the contract.

So Picus ruffed a heart to dummy at trick three and played the spade nine, letting it rice. Had Andresen taken this and played another heart, Picus would have won in dunmy, crossed to the diamond ace, and drawn trumps. Even on a club return, declarer can win, give up a diamond, and Even on a club return, declarer can win, give up a diamond, and still have the rest. But Andresen ducked the spade nine! Declarer was now dead, twist and turn as she might ! Maybe declarer's best line on the club play at trick two is to win in dummy and lead a spade to the jack. If THAT holds, lead a spade back to the nine, and now she has 12 tricks. That would teach West to try to be too clever. to try to be too clever.

ANSWER: There are some issues ANSWER: There are some issues that I feel very strongly about. Never listen to another word from anyone who tells you to pass this hand because you have only 11 points. With all the high cardis in the long suits and a convenient rebid over partner's expected heart response, this is a MUCH better opening than a flat 12-count! count!
