IDAHO SENATE HTS TRAFFIC BOTTLENECK

Endorsement Voted of Request to Wyoming to Enact Reciprocal Motor Carrier Legislation

By The Associated Press
BOISE, Feb. 8.—The 26th Idaho legislature ended the fifth week of its 60-day session today by senate passage of one measure—a senate joint memorial asking the Wyoming legislature to enact reciprocal motor carrier legislation to eliminate a "bottleneck" for Idaho shipments moving eastward.

Endorsement of the memorial came in the senate's first session of the regular session of a measure before it can be acted upon. Both house and senate put their final approval on final consideration of other bills.

Wyoming Bottleneck
Senator Deal (R-Canyon) explained the purpose of the memorial after Senate Majority Leader Blair (D-Ada) secured final suspension without objection.

Deal said Washington, Oregon, Nevada, California, Utah, Montana and Idaho had enacted reciprocal truck legislation to facilitate motor carrier transportation to and from Wyoming "has been a bottleneck."

"Potato growers in the Idaho Falls area suggest the Wyoming product by truck to eastern markets," Deal said. "They have a clear road except for the Wyoming barrier."

Senator Gillies (R-Teton) warned "these interstate barriers have created national defense stop gaps in the states in this matter, but unless we clean our own house we'll do it for them."

The memorial asks the Wyoming legislature now in session to adopt similar legislation and uniform laws regulating weights and sizes of interstate transportation.

Meanwhile, the house postponed consideration of a measure proposing the University of Idaho southern branch until a 10-man investigating committee has reported to the state's needs for the expansion.

Public Welfare
Droppers of the state hopper was an administration bill expected to bring about a party line struggle.

Public Welfare
The bill would create instead a commission of public assistance, departments of public health and charities and public safety.

The public assistance commission would be appointed by the governor, who would be ex-officio commissioner of the other two departments.

The federal social security board, which objected to an earlier measure, would be given the same powers.

GOODING BIDS FOR STATE HOSPITAL

Proposed Legislation Provides for Donation of College Buildings

BOISE, Feb. 8 (AP)—The senate state affairs committee today introduced a measure calling for establishment of a state tuberculosis hospital in buildings formerly housing the now defunct Gooding college.

Perry Mitchell (D-Lewis) senate president pro tem, is committee chairman.

One of the main conditions of the bill was provision that the buildings be donated to the state.

Remodeling, equipping and operation of the hospital, if the measure is passed by this session, would be under the state public welfare department.

The institution would be known as the Idaho Tuberculosis Hospital.

Today's bill marked the first appearance of any legislation for establishment of a state tuberculosis hospital, although Bennett county legislators have drafted they expect to enter a bill to establish such an institution at Lava Hot Springs.

Under a 1937 law, finally declared unconstitutional, several cities vied for the hospital.

Laval Declines Petain's Bid to Government Post

Shake-Up Impends at Vichy as Britain-Mop Up Bengasi Area and Plan Next Move in Africa

(By The Associated Press)
Navy Minister Admiral Jean Darlan is expected to be asked by Chief of State Marshal Philippe Petain to form a new French government at Vichy and already is canvassing likely candidates for cabinet posts, the Swiss telegraph agency reported early today (Sunday) from Vichy.

The agency said Admiral Darlan probably would return to Paris soon to confer with "various persons."

This report renewed speculation on the part to be played by Pierre Laval, one of the most puzzling figures in the confused picture of the government of France.

The agency said Admiral Darlan had refused to accept "ministerial of state and member of a committee of direction" in Petain's invitation. Laval is now in Paris.

The disclosure came as the British, victorious in their arduous Italian campaign, mopped up south of the captured naval and military base of Bengasi and left to speculation the next move in the desert drive.

It was made also as the British nation, cheered by the African successes, waited to hear Prime Minister Winston Churchill speak to them over the radio today, to rally the armed forces and explain their plans where British stands in relation to France. Churchill speaks at 9 p. m. (MST).

The Vichy government communication on the Laval case said that Admiral Petain made his offer in accordance with the policy of Monarchism which he had followed since he met Adolf Hitler last October and signed agreement to French-German collaboration.

Laval's Demands
The announcement was made after 20,000,000 marks ($8,000,000,000) a year available for war financing.

Nazi Army Crossing Border Signal for Bomb Attacks

(SOPA, Bulgaria, Feb. 8 (AP)—Great Britain has informed Bulgaria that its military objectives will be subject to aerial bombardment if the British legation was understood to be ready to leave Bulgaria at a moment's notice.

Further, the British were reported to have ascertained that Bulgaria would like to appear Bulgarian, but that passage of German troops through this country naturally would necessitate British military action, even though it would be "distasteful" to the British to bomb Bulgarian territory.

The British legation was understood to be ready to leave Bulgaria at a moment's notice.

Landon Opposes Grant Administration Forces Of Authority to Mow Down Proposed Police World Amendments

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Senate supporters of the loose-lead bill won their first test today when the foreign relations committee voted 10 to 5 to wind up its public hearings on Tuesday after the weekend. Willkie's testimony.

The decision, opposed by the opponents of the bill who are members of the committee, was reached at the close of a tumultuous day that saw these developments:

A British by Senator Clark (D-Mont.) sought hearing during the day, but was reported by Collier magazine, who was, Clark, asserted, a "professional propagandist" and "a member of the 'White House'."

Reynolds, headlined during the day, expressed belief the United States could help England to "find their way out" of the present crisis.

BRITAIN AWAITS CHURCHILL TALK

War Leader Expected to Rally Armed Forces to New Campaigns

LONDON, Feb. 8 (AP)—The vast portion of this island fortress, cheered by the British triumph of the day, waited today for Winston Churchill to talk to the armed forces to offer explanation for British stands in relation to France.

Churchill is expected to speak at 9 p. m. (MST) from the House of Commons.

Warfare on the British front dwindled to an aerial contest of three-way warfare.

Speculation on what the prime minister would say, however, centered on four points: France, the North African campaign, United States aid and possibility of invasion.

Neutral diplomatic sources said Churchill might clarify the British official attitude toward the waning Vichy government and the possibility of an appeal to the military honor of French army and officers.

Told Seekers Started the Western Settlements

The explorers, the fur traders, the miners—each played an important part in the early history of the mountain states.

First the explorers ventured over an unknown wilderness, then the fur traders introduced a romantic and profitable business, but the seekers after precious metals were largely responsible for developing and settling the territory.

In 1848 gold had been found at Sutter's Fort in California, but it was ten years later that first traces of gold were found in the sands of Cherry Creek near Denver, Colorado, and an important strike was made the next Spring at Central City, Colorado.

Gold was found in the Clearwater country in Idaho in 1860, on Grasshopper Creek in Montana in 1862, as forerunners of the mining industry so important to

SHEEP ASSIGNMENT

While the current war is not doing much to reduce surplus in the United States and Canada, or in many other surplus producing countries either for that matter, there is every prospect that the wool reserves of the nation are not going to be burdensome very long.

A soldier's woolen wardrobe includes two pairs of underdrawers, an overseas cap, two shirts, three blankets, two pairs of socks, one pair of gloves, two undershirts, one overcoat and one blanket.

By midsummer 1,400,000 American young men will be clothed. Eventually the United States Army may total 4,000,000 men.

WAR AND TRADE

Effects of war on America's foreign trade channels are marked. Despite the virtual elimination of shipments to and from Nazi-controlled Europe, the United States exports are the highest since 1928.

Now You Tell One

KIDDIES TELL PARENTS WHERE TO HEAD IN OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Omaha children, reversing the usual practice, are telling their mothers and dads to be careful crossing streets.

A passing truck driver, spotting a fire starting in the Patterson home, stopped his truck, grabbed a fire extinguisher and tried to smother the flames.

By the time the driver awakened the family by shouting "The blaze was out of control. The home was destroyed."

farm income for 1940 was nearly $9,100,000, or $500,000,000 above 1939.

And while cotton, wheat and tobacco of the principal crops have only suffered from diminished yields, only tobacco of the three returned a lower income.

WASHED UP

Britain certainly is bringing every pressure it can bear upon liquidating Mussolini in Africa and is in a fair way of doing so.

The signs of Italy's total military demoralization are plain. What the future of Italy is to be, no one can tell, but the dreams of empire are definitely washed up.

Other Points of View

COUNSEL FROM THE CAUTIOUS

When Clyde Siplester of Los Angeles, exclaimed this year's American driving champion—the award being for safety rather than speed—addressed an assembly of automobile owners and operators last week.

"Anticipated driving," as he designated unreticent vigilance while steering or also steering and braking, means watching out for what's going to happen in the next minute or two.

It is suggested that each motorist ought to make it a rule and a habit to let the other fellow have his way; either right or wrong.

"Motoring is becoming more of a problem than a pleasure at certain hours on certain streets of almost every city in the republic. It recalls the experience of a man who was once asked to give a lecture on the game of contract bridge.

"I've retired from business and am looking for recreation to play, my study."

Every year it seems that motoring is becoming more of a problem than a pleasure at certain hours on certain streets of almost every city in the republic.

AMERICA DRIFTING AWAY FROM LANDMARKS

This week the lend-lease bill is being debated in the house of representatives, while the senate foreign relations committee is still in session.

Readers of the outcome, here observers may detect a certain hesitancy in the senate.

It is recognized that effective functioning of the executive branch requires the cooperation of each branch, with adequate safeguards for the minority rights as well as those of the majority.

Without the hearings, public discussion, and open debate, emphasis frequently has been based upon considerations of aid and what is best for the so-called democratic nations of Europe.

It is high time that Americans and our public officials consider what is calculated to safeguard our own interests, for the sake of our own nation.

It is not from statism or toward or its institution in the United States. The real menace is that we are drifting away from the landmarks of our history.

LECTURE SHOWS INDUSTRY READY

Power Industry Prepared For Role in Any Emergency

Graphic evidence that the American electric industry is ready to do its part in the national defense program is provided by an illustrated talk being offered before various groups by the Idaho Power company, according to Ralph W. Carpenter, division manager.

Commentary upon 20 colored slides is provided by Al Gilbert during the presentation, which has been featured at meetings of the Twin Falls Kiwanis and Toastmasters clubs, as well as groups in Gooding, Jerome and Shoshone. A number of advance bookings have been completed for the 20-minute program.

The stereopticon talk shows that the power industry is prepared for any emergency without government aid, leaving federal money unencumbered for use on other defense needs.

Frankwork in the electrical industry, as a vital requirement of all industries and groups, enables the system to send power to any point of the nation when demanded by emergencies, according to power company officials.

Rehabilitation of St. Anthony Inmates Chief Factor in Delinquency Problem

BOISE, Feb. 8 (AP)—A three-man state committee appointed to investigate the Idaho industrial training school has determined on rehabilitation of released inmates as the most important factor in the state juvenile delinquency problem, Senator W. Scott Hall, committee member, said last night too many recidivists are being sent to the industrial school.

"Forty-two former inmates of the St. Anthony institution now are in the prison," he commented.

"One of the biggest reasons for this is the so-called stigma attached to the youths when they return home," Hall added.

Woicott Posts Third World Track Record in Week

Hurdler Forces Premier Milers Into Background

By BILL KING
 BOSTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—The nation's premier milers, long the idols of the Boston track public, were forced into the background tonight when Fred Woicott, Rice Institute's great hurdler, challenged his third world indoor record in a week by winning the Boston A.A.'s 45-yard high timber event in 8.8 seconds before 11,800 at the Boston Garden.

The splendid 4:10.7 performance of Les MacIntosh of New York University turned in to win the famed hunter mile by elbowed yards from Melvin of Wisconsin and finished with little enthusiasm from the overflow crowd, which was expecting something nearer 4:08.

Woicott defeated Ed Dugger, Tulsa's great Negro star, by a foot to come in the race-making finish, which included his new mark of 7.2 seconds for the 60-yard high hurdle in last Saturday's All-Ireland meet, and last night's lowering of the 60-yard record to 6.1 at Philadelphia.

Woicott's performance was equalled by three others, of whom the last was Dugger a year ago.

Although in competition for the second time in 24 hours, Woicott jumped tonight's competition by equalling the old 8.7 mark in his trial. He was clocked in 8.8 seconds while leading the field in the final, and then went out in the final, which included Al Gustafson of Detroit, Walter Hill of Tulsa, and Walter Hill of Tulsa.

MacIntosh, the only one of the world's best milers to remain out of last night's Penn A. C. meet at Philadelphia—where MacIntosh tripped over John Munk of Columbia, Mo., in 4:15—looked confident of the Hunter club by passing Chuck Penske of Wisconsin, last year's victor, during the second last lap.

During the Bell lap, Mel's closing drive pulled him into second place, about two yards ahead of Penske. Munk was fourth.

Pole-Vaulter Earle Meadows, of Los Angeles, joined Woicott in setting a new world indoor record. Meadows had the officials raise the bar to 14 feet 7 inches, seven-eighths of an inch higher than the world mark Conny Swenson, who had met two years ago, while Meadows' own best height was his first try. When the bar was re-measured, however, it was found to be up only 14 feet 6 1/2 inches, three quarters of an inch better than the old mark.

Two others, Kenny Dill, also of Los Angeles, and Dick Ganslen, of Rockdale, Va., cleared 14 feet 4 inches.

Handicap Favorite In Fourth Place

Midland Left Behind While Gen'l Manager Wins $10,000 Race

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 8 (AP)—Gen'l Manager, owned by W. B. Simpson, scored an upset win in the $10,000 San Carlos handicap today, defeating the favored Midland and ten other rivals in the seven furlong sprint over a heavy track at Santa Anita park here.

There was a photo finish for second and third places. The time for the winner was one minute 24 2/5 seconds. Historical set the pace but was overtaken by Gen'l Manager going into the stretch. Midland came up but could not hold Gen'l Manager, which won by four lengths. Viscosity finished second and Mystral, third, with only Midland fourth in a blanket finish for the runners-up.

Gen'l Manager paid $26, 90, and $5; Viscosity $10.50 and $0.40, and Mystral $3.50. Midland went toward a 4-5 betting favorite. It was the first defeat in five years going to the evens. Gen'l Manager is to win the coming $10,000 Santa Anita handicap.

A crowd of 27,000 saw the race.

This is the Adele jump. Skating backward at great speed she sticks the right toe into the ice and goes up in a ballet leap.

Don't Try These Stunts the First Time on Ice

When 16-year-old Adele Inge was a mere infant she tried to emulate the acrobatic stunts of her three older brothers. At 8 she could bend, all three. And at 10, after a fling at bareback riding, Adele took her acrobatics to the neighborhood skating rink in St. Louis and put 'em on ice. Now the self-laught Miss Inge is one of the nation's foremost acrobatic skaters. She first tries her acrobatics off the ice, then practices them on a special rink in the basement of her home. Here she is in a few stunts she uses in professional engagements:

Here is a split jump but Adele says rear leg is bad. Some stunts she says only she has done...

She gets up speed forward, turns for a fast back flip... The backward somersault is one.

And then goes over without touching her hands to the ice.

Quinn Denies Deal On With Stengel

President of Boston Bees Says Reports Look Like 'Lot of Bologna'

BOSTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—President Bob Quinn of the Boston Bees said today that club officials had carried on no negotiations with Casey Stengel, Bees' manager, for the sale of the club.

He said reports that Stengel and others were enlisting support to buy the controlling interest in the club from Charles F. Adams looked to him like a "lot of bologna."

The Bees' president added, however, that Max C. Meyer, Brooklyn manufacturer, mentioned as being interested with Stengel in the purchase, was a "very good friend of Stengel's."

He said that during the last world series he was informed that Meyer had promised financial support if he was interested in buying the Bees, but he added, Meyer was not interested himself, in making the purchase.

Events Slated At Wilson Lake

There'll be a warm time out Harrison way today—even though it's all on ice.

Plans have been completed for five bobbed riding and two types of races with prizes offered, according to a plan announced by sponsoring Haselton groups last night. The races will be a fifty race and best dog race on Wilson lake.

Twin Falls young people interested in participating are asked to meet at 2 p. m. today at the corner of second avenue and Second street, near the Musgrave Furniture store and they will be picked up by cars going to the event.

Ice is excellent at present, and the program will go off on schedule unless a thaw should occur.

Winners of 24 of Richest and Sportiest Events in U. S. to Compete

By MASON BRUNSON
 BALTIMORE, Feb. 8 (AP)—Two Maryland jockey club moved today to make the Franklin special a "super" horse race, bringing together the winners of 24 of the richest and sportiest events in the country for an "all-America" contest.

Under plans announced by Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, jockey club president, the winners of 14 of the leading fixtures for three-year-olds and 12 of the most important stakes for older horses will automatically become eligible for the special.

This, the "dream race" which Vanderbilt has been steadily promoting since 1937 will secure the status of a real national championship event.

Imagine the winner of the Santa Anita handicap, the Widener cup, the Kentucky derby, the Freehand, the Belmont steeple and other blue-ribbon events all in one race and you'll get some idea of what the jockey club has in mind for the special.

Vanderbilt's plan will add another coat of glamor and another touch of sportmanship to a race already renowned as the last accepting steeple to the "horse of the year" title—a race noted more for its prestige than its purse.

World Billiards Champ Triumphs

Hoppe Trims Reisel While Nearest Competitor Bows to Thurblad

CHICAGO, Feb. 8 (AP)—Wilton Hoppe, an expert among experts, became a prohibitive favorite to retain the world's three cushion billiards championship by winning his 12th consecutive match today in the current round-robin battle for the title.

This 56-year-old New York resident off a 33 inning victory over Otto Fickel, Philadelphia, 59 to 31, while his nearest competitor was losing his second match.

This was Jay Bozman, re-championed youngest of Vallejo, Calif., who was the only contestant given more than an outside chance of catching Hoppe until he lost today. Bozman's conqueror was Art Thurblad, Kenosha, Wis., former title holder who took a 50 to 45 decision in 37 innings. Bozman now has 10 victories in 12 matches as compared to Hoppe's string of 12 conquests.

This Hoppe and Bozman now have five matches apiece to play for the title.

Louis Cardinals for a reported price of $50,000.

Bozman said he would receive approximately $8,000 for his first season with the New York team.

SAFETY CAMPAIGN TO AID DRIVERS

Officials Unite in Plan for Safety Through Education

Designed to reach the 80 per cent of the driving public desiring highway safety but unable to achieve it because of inadequate information, an intensive educational campaign will be conducted by law enforcement agencies of Twin Falls county, Twin Falls city and state police, according to Everett W. Swerley, county prosecutor and spokesman for the combined groups.

The program will be brought to the people through law talks by officials before various clubs and organizations and by the press in conjunction with the "safe the safety campaign sponsored by Twin Falls merchants and housewives.

Clubs, civic organizations, church or women's groups may obtain services of state, county or city officers as speakers by getting in touch with representative of any of these units.

From the other minority of motorists who "don't care" about obeying traffic regulations, the 80 per cent of drivers who sincerely desire highway safety are unable to provide it because of inadequate knowledge of the rules of the road, according to Prosecutor Swerley.

The small group will be identifiable by established laws cannot be taken care of by law enforcement suits, while the vast majority of motorists who do not care will be assisted by the educational work.

"Many people have a firm conviction that they do know the rules of the road—but what they know is wrong," continued the official by pointing out that city surveys have shown wide-spread violations, many because of ignorance. Four tours of the city revealed the violations, while one man committed six violations in 10 minutes.

One plan for launching the campaign is the high rate of accidents in the county, bringing tremendous property damage and death and injuries.

Varied Exhibits Mark Scout Anniversary Week Here

Residents of Twin Falls and vicinity became increasingly conscious of Boy Scout Anniversary week yesterday through the medium of attractive window displays depicting purposes and accomplishments of the movement.

Prepared by various troops of the Twin Falls district, the displays included a "five" window exhibit at Van Engelen's store. Three scouts seated around a "camp fire" prepared meals against a setting of pine trees and logs. Members of Troop 65, sponsored by the Christian church, provided this demonstration which attracted dozens of shoppers throughout the day and again this evening.

A distinctive display appeared at the Idaho Power company, where Troop 65 of the Presbyterian church presented a camping scene and exhibit of scout work and awards.

Twin Falls Glass & Paint company was the scene of a varied exhibit arranged by Troop 67 of the Methodist church and the Idaho Department Store also featured a scouting scene. This was centered by a tent and model of a scout in full dress and was prepared by Kiwanis Troop 84.
