

Nazis, Russians Grapple in Battle On 500-Mile Line

Reds Smash Nazi Panzers Reported At Stalin Line Outposts

(By The Associated Press) MOSCOW, Saturday, July 5.—The Red army today reported smashing a great German effort to cross the historic Berezina river, strategic barrier on the road to Moscow where Napoleon lost 400,000 of his grand army on his retreat from the Russian city 129 years ago.

The Germans, apparently utilizing several drives to break through at this point along the Minsk-Moscow highway, reportedly tried to cross the river and each time were thrown back with huge losses, the Soviet information bureau announced.

700,000 Germans Lost
 (By The Associated Press) Columbia, S. C., Saturday, July 5.—A Moscow radio broadcast which declared "the name of German soldiers and casualties" since the start of the war amounts to 700,000.

The broadcast also stated that the Germans have been conquered are covered with the hands of hundreds of thousands of German soldiers," the radio said, declaring that "living German prisoners are being sent to the front from the German people" that the best divisions of the German army have been smashed by the Red army.

Apparently the main fighting continued in the region about Borsov, and this was said to have "developed unfavorably for the enemy" but the Russians acknowledged what may be a significant withdrawal in the vicinity of the town of Lepel.

80-Mile Battle
 The Russians announced that violent fighting raged throughout the 80-mile battle along the front near the city of Dvinsk, near the mouth of the Neva.

FIREMEN THRILL HOLIDAY THROUGH

Demonstration Shows Wares of Local Firehoses in Battling Flames

Twin Falls fire department members made a significant and interesting contribution to success of the July 4 and 5 celebration here when they appeared yesterday in a demonstration at the junior high school playground in full regalia and with some thrills tucked up their sleeves.

Immediately following the formal Independence day program at the city park, the demonstration brought many exclamations from the hundreds of persons who viewed it and also emphasized that the Twin Falls department is ready to meet nearly any fire-fighting emergency that may arise.

With the new truck service as a booster for water pressure demonstrations, firemen first demonstrated "fog" nozzles which provide a heavy spray for extinguishing fires and they a deluge set which throws out 170 gallons of water per minute.

At the Robert H. Warner memorial of the sponsoring Junior Chamber of Commerce announcing, the big moment of the demonstration came when a gas-and-oil filled pit was ignited, a blinding inferno flared up and a blinding inferno flared up.

The demonstration was directed by Roy Mingo in the absence of Fire Chief L. Z. Zeke Barrett.

In a shake-up in August, 1940 the Soviet government announced abolition of the system whereby political commissars were co-equals with army commanders, and made them assistant commanders, subordinate to military commanders and no longer authorized to counter-sign or veto orders.

It was admitted freely, however, that stiff opposition is being offered in the territory of old Poland and in the Baltic.

Unexpected Resistance
 German troops in the rear command area encountered unexpected resistance, the advance wedges driving into old Russia far to the east found more opposition developed on their flanks which required them to spread out and secure new encircling lines.

With the entire front in motion, the German difficulties of the campaign became apparent. German motorized equipment was forced to conquer sandy dunes and uncertain Russian roads; blistering heat was followed by rains in some sections; there even was snow in the lower sector, and in the area of the Pinsk marshes, swarms of insects plagued the troops.

Fighting Retreat
 But columns after columns of fresh German troops armed with their modern war apparatus, moved up while German war correspondents painted this picture of the Red army in fighting retreat.

Hundreds of thousands of Russian dead lay on the fields in the center of the 2,000-mile front, in the Bialystok sector, where two Russian armies have been reported trapped, more than 700,000 prisoners taken and several times that number of Russians slaughtered.

Soviet troops retreating four columns abreast along the Bialystok-Minsk road under the terrible pounding of Stukas.

Roads littered for 40 miles with the wreckage of Russian materiel, piles of wrecked trucks, tanks, the carcasses of horses and the bodies of troops.

Firemen Strut Stuff As Crowds Exclaim

Firemen shoot high during parade at city park.

At least that was the consensus last night at close of the first of two celebratory days beyond the "Old Fashioned Fourth" motif.

Opening with a "21-gun salute" they closed just as spectacularly with fireworks. Events in between included such highlights as a "Mid-day parade" in the morning, formal Independence day program at the city park in the early afternoon.

Mayor Charles A. Clark was principal speaker, and a demonstration by Twin Falls firemen immediately following.

In the afternoon also came the first of two cowboy-trim baseball games, with another game, fireworks and dancing in the evening.

Parade Today
 This morning the second day of the celebration opens with a gala parade at 11 a. m. in which various civic groups and businesses will be represented. The parade will be held at 11 a. m. and local stores will be open throughout the day, except for brief closing during the parade, according to Tom Alsworth, executive chairman in charge of the Jaycee-sponsored events.

After more than 500 children had marched through downtown Twin Falls, they entered at the city park for awarding of prizes by Howard Wiseman, Junior Chamber parade chairman, who was aided by Recreation association leaders. Treasurers were also displayed and a mass pledge of allegiance was led by C. A. Edmondson, U. S. Navy recruiter.

Street games were then conducted by Al Westergren and Charles Blewett, Jaycee co-chairmen, and results of plays were announced last night.

Band Plays
 The Twin Falls municipal band played during the picnic lunch hour, and this was followed by the formal program during which Governor Clark was featured.

Through them moved across the street the junior high school playground where Twin Falls firemen presented a spectacular display of firefighting methods.

Parade Winners
 Parade winners, as announced by Wiseman, are:

Costumes—Bonnie Von Al Lee, first; Richard Kunkle, second; and Eugene Lee, fourth.

Decorations—Don Penick, first; Lillian White, second; Edna May Lee, third; and Dick Penick, fourth.

Pets—Eddie Patrick, first; Tom Penick, second; Marvin Prater, third; and Robert Brice, fourth.

Vehicles—Donald Burdick, first; Walter Glah, second; Buddy Greer, third; and Katherine and Marian Merrill, fourth.

Prizes for the various divisions were awarded last night.

U. S. Forces At Outposts Redoubled

Army's Chief Discloses 116,700 American Troops Stationed at Overseas Garrisons

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 4.—General George C. Marshall reported today that American overseas garrisons had been more than doubled as a part of an urgent effort to keep defenses in a state of readiness.

Supplementing controverted recommendations he made yesterday that restrictions be lifted from service of national guardsmen and scientists, the chief of staff disclosed that since the eve of the war:

Overseas garrisons have been increased from 45,300 to 116,700 troops.

Harbor defense are manned now by 45,000 instead of 4,000.

Air corps tactical squadrons in the continental United States and offshore bases have been increased fivefold in number.

Two divisions of picked men—the regular army's 1st and 3rd—were being supplied with more modern arms than any other such units, have been trained with the navy and marines in landing operations such as might be demanded of an expeditionary force.

In recent months officers of the regular army have been retrained to maintain a high state of readiness for operation in mountainous country.

Currently study is being given to formation of a special division primarily for operation in mountainous country.

Meanwhile, in the two years covered by the biennial summary of military progress, the men under arms have increased from 114,000 to more than 1,400,000.

Fascist Leader in Africa Surrenders

(By The Associated Press) CAIRO, Egypt, July 4 (AP)—Italy's military situation in Africa is being described as "hopeless" by British officials here, and their native commander-in-arms, the middle east command announced today.

The commander announced that General Pietro Gazzeri, supreme commander of the remaining Italian forces under arms in Ethiopia, had surrendered with all the forces operating in Galla Sidama province.

It is believed that Gazzeri's forces numbered about 100,000 men, including 10,000 Italian troops.

The surrender of Gazzeri's forces is the latest in a series of defeats suffered by Italian troops in Africa.

The British and American forces in Africa are making rapid progress against the Italian forces.

The Italian forces in Africa are being completely isolated and are in a state of complete collapse.

NATION RENEWS SPIRIT OF 1776

Pledge of Allegiance, President's Speech Highlight Day

(By The Associated Press) In a pulse-quickening ceremony of unprecedented scope, Americans in every corner of the land pledged fealty to their flag yesterday after hearing President Roosevelt declare that they must stake their lives, if necessary, in the defense of liberty.

It was a Fourth of July marked by mingled emotions—the traditional holiday enthusiasm was sobered by the shadows of events overseas and by the gigantic armament facing in this country.

Speaking solemnly from his study in the new Franklin D. Roosevelt library at Hyde Park, the president told myriads of radio listeners that in these times flag-waving was far from enough.

"We cannot save freedom with placards and music," he said, "nor can we save it in our own mind, in our own hand, if all around us—our neighbor nations—have lost their freedom."

Then the voice of Chief Justice Harlan Fiske Stone was heard, leading the vast listening audience in the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The office of chief justice, headed by Mayor Fiorello L. La Guardia of New York, had arranged that Americans in every section of the country should cease whatever they were doing to take part in the ceremony.

Hence pleasure-bound motorists stopped their cars; soldiers in cantonments snapped to attention.

HEARS GOVERNOR
Idaho Chief Executive Brings
Independence Day
Message

In a setting of blue skies and the serenity of Twin Falls yesterday afternoon, Governor Clark addressed the people of Idaho in a message of peace and hope for the future. He urged that the people of Idaho should be united in their determination to stand for the principles of democracy and freedom.

The man who turned back the tide of history to lead America to face the problems of a modern world was Governor Charles A. Clark and he is honored as principal speaker during the formal Independence Day observances in Twin Falls today.

Following Governor Clark's address was a concert by the Twin Falls High School band. The program was followed by a dedication broadcast carrying a message by the Mayor of Twin Falls, L. D. C.

Mayor Appers... President of the Chamber of Commerce... The celebration and presentation of the Declaration of Independence... It was a day of peace and hope for the future.

History records show, as the people will readily recall, that the man stood with his hand on the copy of the Liberty Bell, and how the American people were united in their determination to stand for the principles of democracy and freedom.

When first lifted, it meant freedom for all men, and it meant that the people of this country were united in their determination to stand for the principles of democracy and freedom.

NIGHT EDITOR'S apprehensions as to how the Chicago would take the little job of being "re-created" and held in the city jail for "investigation" was all for nothing.

OCCUPATIONAL HAZARD

With all due lauders to the local firefighting group who stroled through the city streets in their asbestos suits, Night Editor feels that there is another hero amongst them.

JAPAN THREATENS DOMITE TRADE RUSSIA

Blockade of Vladivostok Would Hamper American War Aid

TOKYO, July 4 (AP)—Japan is intensifying its campaign of the limits of her territorial waters in the Pacific, in effect, would cut off Vladivostok, Russian big Pacific port, from normal contact with the rest of the world, and hamper any shipments of the United States material to the war-torn U.S.S.R.

Correspondents indicated Koki Ishii, cabinet spokesman, made this "positive disclosure" in a press conference today. "Has the Japanese government decided on this blockade?" Ishii answered "No." A German newspaperman asked whether the blockade would raise the question of expanding territorial waters beyond the internationally recognized limits.

"Of course," Ishii replied, "but the question has not been decided. Ishii indicated that the government would not discuss the possibility of United States aid shipments to Russia via Vladivostok, but that Japan would not be enclosed by the "hug" area of the Japanese islands.

The same time the newspaper Hoch commented: "The United States and its allies to the Soviet via the use of the oil-out aid lease-lend law may still pass through Japanese waters enroute to Vladivostok."

"This means that Germany must accept the blockade," the paper said. "The war thus would be extended to Japanese waters."

Japan is committed to Germany and Italy—both at war with Russia—to help them against any attack by the belligerent, but, until the government said Wednesday it had decided on a policy toward the blockade, war, Ishii would not say that that policy is not asked if it contains any Japanese neutrality. "My mouth is sealed," he said.

Russia's declaration that the Japanese decision had been passed on to the Russian Ambassador in Washington by Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov.

Newspaper discussion, indicating the Japanese might act to close routes to Vladivostok, has centered on Boya Strait, between Hokkaido and Sakhalin, only 25 miles wide, and the still narrower Tsushima Strait, between Hokkaido and Honshu, the main Japanese island.

There remain routes in the sea of Japan through its southern coast, the Korean peninsula, the Russian mainland, and the Russian-Beringian passage through the Gulf of Okhotsk around the northern tip of Sakhalin. However, the northern passage, besides being more than 2000 miles out of the way, is barred by the ice of the year.

"The implication that is Japan might declare her territorial waters a no-fly zone for the B-29 bombers, extended her territorial waters to 12 miles to facilitate the flight against war-torn Russia, which the Japanese might readily allow."

Chile Pledges Aid To Any American

SANTIAGO, Chile, July 4 (AP)—President-Military Juan Rosendo said today Chile would rush aid to any threatened American nation.

Speaking with U. S. Ambassador Claude Bissell during the Independence day ceremonies, Rosendo said: "If some day the territorial integrity or the independence of the sister American nation is threatened, Chile will rush its aid to the common effort, in accordance with its traditions of inter-American solidarity."

His statement came as a surprise in view of reports in international news that Chile gave only modified support to Uruguay's proposal to resist any American nation engaged in war with a non-American power as non-belligerent.

AGREEMENT NEAR IN COAL DISPUTE

Union and Producers Report Progress of Efforts to Avert Strike

WASHINGTON, July 4 (AP)—Southern soft coal producers and the United Mine Workers union, seeking the clean up wage negotiations before a scheduled strike in southern mines next Tuesday, made a joint announcement today that negotiations had first time in weeks that either or both of the groups had stated publicly that the negotiations were headed toward a conclusion.

President John L. Lewis of the mine workers union and L. Ebersole Gaines, chairman of the southern soft coal producers wage conference, made the joint announcement.

Lewis said both sides were summing up negotiating committees for the meeting at 2 p. m. (E.S.T.) tomorrow afternoon.

Soft coal miners are now on a five day paid vacation which expires Monday night, and the union has ordered its members in the southern Appalachian field to return to work by that time.

It was understood that only minimum pay rates in so-called tier mines, agreement on exact interpretation of language in the contract, and the like. The southern producers have agreed to eliminate the 40-cent-a-day wage differential between "tier" and "south."

IDAHO RECORDS TRAFFIC DEATHS

State Lists 18 Fatalities for Month as Against 19 Last Year

BOISE, July 4 (AP)— Idaho traffic accidents claimed 18 lives last month as compared with 19 for June a year ago, Law Enforcement Commissioner J. L. Walderton reported today.

Traffic deaths for the first six months of 1941 totaled 62, eight less than the 70 recorded during the same period last year, he said.

Only 18 of the state's 44 counties were without fatalities on July 1. Deaths were recorded in six counties which had passed five months without a fatality. They were Blaine, Franklin, Idaho, Lincoln and Oneida.

Twin Falls county led the June fatalities with three. Fremont and Canyon had two each.
