

Farm Secretary Calls for Record Crops Next Year

Agriculture Department Announces Program for More Foodstuffs to 'Win the War'

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—With the assertion that "this is our war," Secretary of Agriculture Wickard called upon farmers today for an unprecedented production in 1942 of vital food supplies which he said would "win the war and write the peace."

Promising to prevent any sharp price slump due to increased production, the agriculture department here made public its program for more foodstuffs next year while Wickard, in a speech broadcast from San Francisco, explained that it was designed to build up a "stockpile" to feed this country and "those restless aggressors."

"It is perfectly plain now that it's Hitler and the Axis," Wickard said in an address over the NBC national farm and home hour. He added that the proposed "stockpile" would serve not only to feed the United States and Britain but also to give the starving, conquered people of Europe something to hope for, something that will spur them to their resistance to the aggressor.

"I know that if I were a Frenchman or a Dutchman," Wickard continued, "and I looked across the channel and saw that the British were eating better than we were, I would not give the British anything but the best of our American food, while I was living on oatmeal or something of a delicacy, I'd be willing to risk my neck and try to eat in some of that American food."

Assures Plenty Announcing the 1942 program, Secretary of Agriculture Wickard said it would secure "plenty of the commodities which will be increased next year while continuing to look in check the production of commodities which we already have large reserves." In the latter category are wheat, cotton and tobacco.

Wickard called particularly for expanded production of hogs, eggs, milk, cheese and chickens, and announced the agriculture department will support prices for these commodities until Dec. 31, 1941, at not less than 85 per cent of parity. All other commodities will be at parity at that level at which the commodity has the same purchasing power as in the 1924 period.

Avoid Mistakes Wickard said the expanded farm program would repeat "the mistakes" of the 1930's which he said had brought a long series of difficulties for farmers.

"The fact that we are asking for greatly increased production of some commodities does not mean that the country is on production of commodities," he continued. "We are asking to increase production of the hills and plains to get it."

"It will not be necessary to increase crop acreage next year," Wickard said, "the most urgent need was for more milk."

He called for the production of 125,000,000 pounds of milk in 1942, of about 820,000,000 pounds of eggs and the estimated 14,000,000,000 eggs for 1942.

The goal for eggs was set at 14,000,000,000, an increase of 7,000,000,000 in the number of hogs slaughtered was fixed, while increases also were asked in the production of beef and veal, chickens, lamb and mutton.

The wheat goal was placed at between 50 to 55 million acres, compared with an estimate of 45,500,000 this year.

Don't's Goal PORTER WORTH, Tex.—A large swarm of wasps attacked Leo (Dutch) Meyer, Texas Christian university football coach. Bung around the right eye and behind the right ear, the coach looked miserable. "Revival" he grunted. "I wish I could get my hands to swarm on officers like that, who wouldn't lose a game."

"Then he looked again. It was his cat. An investigation showed why and how—under the floor boards of the gray car were three newborn kittens."

Four-Day Display of Many Products and Variety of Entertainment Features Gets Under Way at Flier

Gates open this morning at 8 o'clock and close early Saturday morning on one of the nation's greatest displays of livestock, canning, kitchen goods and other exhibits—the Twin Falls county fair.

Judging was nearly completed yesterday and everything is in readiness to handle what is expected to be the largest crowd in the fair's history. All livestock judging except the Holstein cattle division was completed yesterday and a start was made on the judging of women's events. The entire list of winners will be announced by this evening.

Rodeo riders will compete for $2,500 in prizes and exhibitors will divide $200 in premiums during the four-day showing at the Flier fairgrounds. The arena will accommodate the parking of 1,000 cars inside the grounds and there is room for hundreds more in front of the grounds.

Starting the entertainment of the day, outside of the exhibits, will be the live music in front of the grandstand at 1:30 p. m. followed by the Siebrand Bros. Peculiarly circus, also in front of the grandstand.

Highlighting the evening's entertainment will be the Flier exhibition put on by the Twin Falls Pioneer riding club at 7:30 p. m. This is the first time the club has presented a circus in front of the grandstand.

Two fishermen, marooned overnight in Forest canyon in Rocky mountain national park, whitened their wetsuits until they managed to build a fire that saved them from freezing. No deaths were reported.

The temperature atop Pikes peak was nine degrees above zero. The Pikes peak highway was closed by snow.

Empire Forces Seize Norway's Spitzbergen Crew Members Escape in Sinking

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Tuesday, Sept. 9.—Canadian, British and Norwegian troops have occupied the Norwegian archipelago of Spitzbergen, 500 miles north of Norway in the Arctic ocean, to prevent seizure by Germans coveting its rich coal mines, the war office announced today.

A troopship escorted by British warships reached the island recently on a secret dash from Britain and took control without German opposition. The distance to and from Spitzbergen is about 2,500 miles.

The announcement did not disclose when the expedition returned to Britain and how many men were killed or wounded. Some of the ships already have returned to Britain and branch back about 1930 Norwegian sailors and their families—who are to live in the United Kingdom. Many of the men are janitors, the allied forces, it was said.

Germany Reports Leningrad Encircled

RAF Gives Berlin Worst Past in Bright Moonlight; Nazis Talk Revenge

(By The Associated Press) The Germans claimed last night an important victory in the east, the isolation of Leningrad by the capture of the nearby railway center of Schlusselburg, but seemed worried by the growing power of the British aerial offensive on the western front and by the small fires of rebellion that burned in occupied France.

RAF activity was topped by an overnight raid on Berlin which clearly was the most damaging ever delivered there.

Schlusselburg, 21 miles east of Leningrad and on the Neva river, fell to German troops who stormed it behind long and heavy columns of hundreds of dive bombers, the Nazi command announced, and in the process the Neva was reached on such a broad front as to cut off Leningrad itself from the Soviet mainland. This was the first time.

DONOR OF SHOSHONE FALLS PARK ADDS 100 'GINKGO' TREES TO GIFT

Observing for the first time the monument erected at Shoshone falls park in their honor and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Adams, Omaha, Neb. They donated the land to the city which now comprises Shoshone falls park. They visited the falls for the first time in five years this weekend. This is the first picture taken of Mr. Adams near the Shoshone falls since 1936. (News Photo and Engraving.)

About 100 "ginkgo" trees, the oldest-known form of tree living, have been donated to the city for use in Shoshone Falls park by Frederick J. Adams, Omaha, Neb., last night, a man who donated the city of 68 acres of land adjoining Shoshone falls in 1927. Mr. Adams made the announcement while he was here on a visit to the falls this weekend.

"Ginkgo" trees are the oldest species of trees in existence and the first of the tree in the United States was donated to the government about 75 years ago to be planted in Madison Park, Wash., D. C., by Mr. Adams. The tree resembles an American elm tree and grows to a height of about 25 to 30 feet high and 12 inches in diameter. It is a slow-growing tree, but its wide, deep-green leaves afford plenty of shade.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams said they were surprised at the recent developments being made to improve the falls and were far from disappointed with the beauty of the canyon.

The government made a national monument out of Dry Falls, Wash., in 1909, and Washington and Idaho have little in comparison with Shoshone falls. Mr. Adams said. "I hope the city would pay and we would have a national monument here. It would be a great thing for the city."

Large numbers of trees planted in groves will enhance the grandeur of the falls.

Mr. Adams and his wife, Martha, were accompanied by their son, Fred, and daughter, Mrs. Adams.

CITY ENTERTAINS VISITING TROOPS

250 Girls Answer Mayor's Call to Help Twin Falls Hold 'Open House'

About 250 Twin Falls girls last night answered the plea of Mayor Charles Koehler to help hold an "open house" for the visiting troops. The girls, under the direction of Leo Brown, city administrator, by turning out at the Radio Rodeo for a free dance to honor the troops, held their camp in record time at Harmon park after their arrival in the city after a day's journey. The troops, members of a provisional anti-air battalion, of the 10th Air Field Army, had made, traveled in 105 automotive units. "They will camp tonight at Harmon park."

Twin Falls held "open house" for the soldiers last night. Highlighting the entertainment planned for the troops was the dance at the Radio Rodeo. Girls responded to the city administration's plea for aid and showed the friends an entertaining evening, according to Mayor Koehler.

Two of the units—76th and 105th—were ordered to hold their camp in record time at Harmon park after their arrival in the city after a day's journey. The troops, members of a provisional anti-air battalion, of the 10th Air Field Army, had made, traveled in 105 automotive units. "They will camp tonight at Harmon park."

Lieut. Col. Frank E. Meek of Caldwell, commander of the unit, expressed his thanks to the city and over-exercised who aided in receiving the soldiers for the hospitality shown them.

Men From Estate to Be Pallbearers for President's Mother

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 8 (AP)—Men from the family estate will bear Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, 86-year-old mother of President Roosevelt, to her grave tomorrow, just as another generation of workmen will be buried in the same cemetery.

Simple Episcopal services, including a eulogy, will be held at 2 p. m. today in the Episcopal church, the home of Mrs. Roosevelt's ancestral home. The mother who saw her only son inaugurated three times as president of the United States will be buried in the churchyard of St. John's church, where she worshipped for more than half a century.

World-Wide Summary
Heads of nations throughout the world, American officials, and plain common citizens continue to exchange communications facilities with messages of condolence. They began coming by the hundreds from after Mrs. Roosevelt died at 11:45 a. m. yesterday, with her son beside her bed.

Mr. Roosevelt was alone today with his family and a few friends. An American flag flying at half staff from the Franklin D. Roosevelt White House was the only visible evidence of his sorrow.

The final arrangements for the funeral emphasized the chief executor's desire for privacy. He preferred that not even his close friends be present to share his bereavement. Only relatives and those who live on the 1200 rose estate, Hyde Park, will be invited.

It was as Franklin D. Roosevelt, the individual, more than as the president of a nation, that Mrs. Roosevelt bore his sorrow. Yet the duties of his office intruded into the privacy of his grief.
