These Favoring Bout Certain If World Held a Large Crowd If Held at Chicago

CHICAGO, Jan. 13 (UP)—Will hope of securing the max honorarium for the boxing championship bout featuring the Chicago champion, British official today, considered plans for a contest between Jimmy Griffin and Jack Sharkey as a small-scale, but not a first-class, boxing program.

Griffin-Sharkey match would be a natural pay-off, said officials. Sharkey has turned down offers of $100,000 and $50,000 to meet Griffin in a first-class bout. Griffin, 27, is a former world champion and has a record of 11 wins and 10 losses. Sharkey, 30, is a former world champion and has a record of 11 wins and 10 losses.

COUNCIL HEARS AIRPORT PLANS

At a further step in planning for the state law affecting ownership of land, the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday afternoon, heard the plans of the county engineer, George C. Wiley, chairman of the bureau of parks, regarding the proposed airport.

The plan is to acquire the land by purchase or by donation, and to build a runway of concrete or gravel, and to build a hangar and other buildings.

Although the plan is to acquire the land by purchase or by donation, it is possible that the county will purchase the land from the state.
