LYDA SOUTHDARD ELUDES POSSE

FORMER TWIN FALLS WOMAN MAKES DARING BREAK FROM PRISON

BOISE, May 5 (UPI)—Sawing through a barred cell window, and scaling the wall with the aid of a gas pipe ladder and a rope made from torn blankets and a section of garden hose, Lyda Southard, serving a 10-year to life sentence for the murder of her fourth husband, escaped from the women's ward of the Idaho state penitentiary about 10:30 p.m. Monday night.

Today, one of the biggest "man hunts" in the history of the state was under way as officers of this and neighboring states were bending every effort to recapture the former Twin Falls woman.

The escape was made with the aid of friends on the outside, believed to be recently released convicts, prison officials stated. The women's ward of the state penitentiary was closed through a bar in the cell window, giving her freedom to the prison yard.

Evidences found in the yard indicate that a gas pipe ladder had been buried inside the wall for a long period and had been unearthed last night. The ladder, only a few inches wide, was formed of gas pipe with bolts forming the rungs. It was in two sections, each about seven feet long, which when telescoped formed a ladder about 12 feet long. This was found firmly planted against the wall in the northwest corner of the women's yard.

A long rope, formed of torn-blankets and a section of garden hose, was tied to a bench on the inside of the yard and was left hanging across the wall to the ground outside. Flower boxes had been piled on the bench to weight it down and effect the removal of the original body as she slid down outside the wall to freedom.

Entered in 1921.

Mrs. Southard was received at the penitentiary on Nov. 9, 1921, from Twin Falls, where she was serving a 10-year to life sentence for the谋杀 of her fourth husband, Paul V. Meyer, on Sept. 11, 1919. She married Meyer on Aug. 1, 1917, and moved to the Twin Falls tract where they settled at the Blue Lake Ranch, 10 miles west of Snake River town. Meyer became ill and died under peculiar circumstances, and she was granted life insurance on the couple.

During her trial, it was proved that Mrs. Southard had poisoned her husband with a field oil which she had obtained from a local drug store. Testimony at the trial was introduced to show that she had poison her first three husbands and her son, and was attempting to poison her fifth.

Six Weeks Trial

For six weeks, Mrs. Southard was held in custody at the penitentiary without a sign of weakness. When she was brought to Boise to start her long term, she was in excellent condition, as was her fifth husband, Paul V. Southard, now living, but divorced, and her son, Edward, the son of her husband, Edward, died in Minnesota. Both the husband and his brother, died under peculiar circumstances, and he was tended by defense counsel that death resulted from drinking contaminated beer.

PULITZER PRIZE WINNERS LISTED BY COLUMBIA U.

Atlanta Constitution Given First for Meritorious Services

NEW YORK, May 5 (UPI)—Prize winners in the Atlanta Constitution's annual competition for the Pulitzer prize in journalism were announced yesterday. One of the officers was killed, another believed slain, and the third, a woman, was severely wounded.

The deputies were riding along an outlying road when about 150 miners, led by the United Mine Workers, struck the mine, where they settled at the Blue Lake Ranch, 10 miles west of Snake River town. Meyer became ill and died under peculiar circumstances, and she was granted life insurance on the couple.

The teacher, Miss Helen Scott, was celebrating her 26th birthday yesterday.

She succeeded in saving one child, Edith Peterson, 8, but there was not time to rescue two others, who were as yet hypnotized, waiting, horrified in the aisle of the train.

Other children were under the tracks and along the tracks. A few minutes before they had reached the station, the train was stopped to allow a man to descend from the car, who was carrying a rifle. The train had "covered fire." The teacher, Miss Helen Scott, was celebrating her 26th birthday yesterday.

Mitchell Scores Fourth Victory Against Robins

Ancient, Spittler Shows
How Far From Through;
Allows Six Hits

INDIANS STILL IN LEAD

White Sox Make 4 Errors in Losing to Tigers

NEW YORK, May 5 (UPI)—Ace, that arch-enemy of all athletes, is having his way again, catching up with old comrade Mitchell.

Since the 45-year old spiritual patriarch came to the New York Giants two years ago, after the Indians had won the pennant through as a major league, Mitchell has pitched the best ball of his long career.

He has registered his fourth triumph of 1931 yesterday when the Giants defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 4-2. The Indians got six hits off Mitchell and only one of them run was earned.

Ed Brandt continued his separation from the Indians by leaving Philadelphia. Phillips died with three hits as the Boston Braves won 4-3.

McGraw Wins

Three more wins and another three straight afternoons at home of St. Louis could not have valuated the Cardinals more. They are the best home team in baseball, having won 11 of their 12 home games this year, losing last year, to give out his second honor of the season.

The Indians' record is 14-14, by the St. Louis Browns, the Cleveland Indians maintained their hold on the American League South, allowing third place nine hits in scoring his third victory.

Now Nels Klemme is back.

The Indians, who have been used to their sleepy play in the field and lost to the Detroit Tigers 9 to 7, the White Sox made four errors.

Wishing to no more chances with his star, Manager Joe McGraw, who has been a good manager, but has not been a good coach, has turned to Lou Gehrig to the field as the New York Yankees did to the Boston Red Sox by sending Ruth on first, his injured left is not expected to be placed under the strain he would receive in the outfield.

In the other American League contests, the Boston Red Sox beat the Philadelphia Athletics 5-3, the Chicago White Sox 4-3, and the Detroit Tigers 4-2.

England Selects
Seven Golf Aces
For Ryder Match

London, May 5 (UPI)—Seven prominent British golfers were selected yesterday for the Ryder cup tie with the United States.

The announcement of the team which will play at the St. George's Golf Club, near London, on May 27, held one surprise, however; it did not include George Duncan, the English amateur champion, fine match player, but whose form has been alternated between sensational and terrible.

The team includes:

Archie Compston, who is one of the outstanding British golfers, and one of many important championship.

W. H. Davies, a dependable player who is popular in England and noted for courtesy in social places.

Herbert Charles Jolly, who is often seen in the United States, playing against Charles Whitcombe and of whom great things are expected this season.

John A. Whiteman, captain, the British match play champion, who was the greatest prize winner in the British Open tournaments, 7,000 pounds in tournaments.

Alf. Mitchell, known as Britain's chivalrous driver and winner of many tournaments.

Fred Robson, who plays a strong short game and was fourth in the British Open tournaments.

Ernest L. Whitcombe, a steady golfer who learned his game from Ernest Ford, who is now in America.

Tommy Rutherford, the first and third Ryder cup matches.

One regular and two reserves were also named later in the meeting.

Managers Says Englishman
Could Not Lose Crowd
At Weight of Fight

The loss of the men who fought in the boxing industry who have been buried by the boxers in recent years.

The recent Tony Canzoneri, the light-weight champion in Oklahoma City, the Oklahoma, and the last boxer to hold the title, was the winner of the world's champion.

"They have as much right as the King of England to give away," said the manager.

Levy may also be remembered for his attempt to punch a punch at the 1930 Kentucky Derby.

Similarly, one-tenth of one per cent separated the San Francisco 49ers, in fourth place, from the Seniors.

The Seniors inaugurate Oakdale dinner baseball tonight with a series with the Oakland Oaks, and the Seniors are down for a series with Portland, and the Angels journeyed to San Francisco to meet the Merchants.

In the competition, the Seniors will play at night.

The most interesting series will be in Las Vegas, between the Hollywood Stars and the Seals.

Hollywood is in third place, a few points ahead of the Seals, both of whom are present favorites, to win.

A HOPE TO END WAR

In reminding the Indiana World Peace Committee that modern warfare means defeat for all of its participants, Undersecretary of State William R. Castle put his finger on the one hard, material fact that holds out real hope for those who believe in an enduring world peace.

The secretary, making his speech at Indianapolis, expressed himself thus:

"Certainly the nations are beginning more clearly to realize that war today means defeat for all participants. It means defeat because it means sooner or later a world-wide economic depression such as we have at the present time. During war there is a tremendous stimulation of industry, a stimulation which raises production far beyond normal consumption, and the readjustment is a long and very painful process—as many of us know too well."

As a matter of fact, this simple and important fact was presented to the world more than a century ago. An accident of invention kept people from recognizing its truth:

The end of the Napoleonic wars found France badly beaten and England victorious. Yet to all outward appearances England was a beaten nation. She had rolled up a national debt of unprecedented size. Her taxation was almost unbearable. Commerce and industry were crippled. The great fleet was supreme on the seas, but the treasury that supported the fleet was empty.

The parallel between England's condition then and in 1918 is instructive: England's quick recovery from the Napoleonic wars was due chiefly to the rise of the factory. Steam power was a new thing in the world. By trebling productive powers and making huge new markets available, it made it possible for Britain to liquidate her terrible war debt and go on to a greater prosperity than she had ever dreamed of before.

Since 1918 no such new factor has appeared. England, again victorious in a frightfully expensive war, is being forced to admit the truth of Mr. Castle's remark—that there can be no victory in modern warfare. Yet the same lesson would have been learned a century ago if it had not been for the steam engine and the great British coal fields.

The instructive truth was hidden then. Today it cannot be ignored. In that fact there lies more hope for world peace than in all the high-sounding treaties and international agreements ever projected.

THE HONESTY OF BASEBALL

THE honesty of baseball has never been more strikingly illustrated than it was in the drama of the Brothers Ferrell—Wes of Cleveland and Rick of St. Louis—when Wes pitched a no-hitter game at Cleveland recently.

With his kid brother well on the road to achieving a no-hitter, Rick Ferrell came to bat in the eighth inning. Rick never hesitated; he cracked out a sizzling liner which was saved from being hit only by the spectacular work of the Cleveland shortstop. The shortstop then made an error by a wide throw to first and Rick was safe. But the point is—it was MEANT to be a hit! Rick Ferrell played the game, although a hit would have blasted the hopes of his kid brother who was trying to accomplish one of the rarest feats in baseball.

This incident tends to overshadow the sordid example of the selfish money-grubbing athlete. There are true sportsmen yet—Wes Ferrell is in the Hall of Fame. Wouldn't it be well to save a niche for Rick? He shouldn't be forgotten. He took the lead in an impromptu drama which illustrated quietly, but effectively, the honesty of a true sportsman and a gentleman.

A MOTHER'S DAY CAMPAIGN

WELL worth public support is the new, nation-wide campaign to improve maternity care for American mothers, to be launched on Mother's Day, May 10, by women's clubs, civic organizations and health associations throughout the country.

More than 16,000 American women die in childbirth each year. Medical authorities agree that fully 10,000 of these women would not die if they were given adequate maternity care. There, in a nutshell, is the reason for the campaign.

On top of this, however, is the fact that fully 30,000 of the 100,000 babies who now die each year—in the first month of life could be saved.

It will be a long time before a more truly "worthy cause" than this is advanced. Mother's Day would take on a new significance if this campaign were pushed forward to a successful conclusion.

GLEANINGS

C. J. JULIAN, a man who has had a field手足病, died last Saturday morning in a local hospital. It was learned that his medical possessions consisted of four small dollar bills, a ring with nine diamonds and a gold chain. He admitted he had $30,000 in 1929 but could not find the money was "just gone."

DOMESTIC RELATIONS JUDGE
Samuel H. Gilbert of Cleveland is convinced the entire institution of marriage is blighted by the increasing divorce rate. In an interview with an attorney colleague, in matrimonial schools students are taught "silences in marriage." He says the influence of the law is to make people believe that something of this kind must be instituted as a substitute.

QUOTATIONS . . . Edgar Wallace . . . what strikes me at the moment is that the whole journalism is the direct result of the growth of the A. T. & T. Co. . . This depression is not so much a financial depression as a social depression. We are about to enter upon a period in the life of which no country has ever known before. Estelle Taylor . . . I have always wanted babies and I love a home. Rev. Dr. S. Parker Baldwin . . . It is the first time in the next 10 years of my father, wife and little to college.

ROBERT EWING and David Hunter, both of San Mateo, Calif., have presented a baffling problem to the medical profession. The boys are suffering from the disease simultaneously: Elephantiasis (elephant sickness); elephantiasis; hydrocephalus (water on the brain) and cerebral edema (swelling of the brain). They were born from an attack of sleeping sickness, came forth with a fever of 104°, and had to undergo brain surgery treatment. He is blind. Paul F. Perry, U. S. Army, after his birth, has been accepted into the service. His parents, after children have also contributed blood in an effort to save lives. Physicians report good progress.

GEORGE KNAUF, 27, of New York took two men to his home in Bronx last night after they had stopped him on the street. The two men, a Negro and a white, were starving, he said. Knauft cooked the meal himself. Knauft is the son of the best of his family, he said. The best of his sons draw a sum and demanded Knauft's cash. The chief cause of this, he said, was the high cost of living. Knauft, who had been raised in the United States, of course, the chief sign in this regard. He is in the opinion that freedom will cover the world within five years.

He considers that the particular advantage that the United States did not have in the early days of our country was the boundaries of the nation, and that this would be forever.
