Detroit Speed-Boat Pilot Avenges More Than 111 Miles An Hour

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — With the speedboat Miss America II, he avenged the world's record today.

The veteran Detroit speed boat pilot negotiated the Indian Creek course in an average speed of 111 miles per hour, based on two runs in opposite directions.

His speed bettered "by more than a mile an hour" the record of 110.223 miles per hour set by the Queen of England in Italy last year.

Wood had set a new American record of 110.735 miles per hour three days ago, but the Queen was not recognized as a record because it did not surpass "by a sufficient margin" Don's record.

He said then he was satisfied his other American record was good for a mile or two an hour better speed and would continue trials until he got it out of her.

Wood's first run today, southbound, was at the fastest speed he has ever attained—112.43 miles per hour; his elapsed time for both round trips was 56.6 seconds.

DON'T NESS WITH MY PAL ALEX!

FLINT WOULD GO TO ANY LENGTH FOR A PAL.

FLINT RHEM

NO DIE FIRST!

NOW YOU TAKE A SHOT OR ELSE!

BUT ALEX WOULD FALL FOR A STORY LIKE THIS.

THEY ALL LAUGHED WHEN FLINT RHEM vowed that his affection for a teammate caused him to break training rules. Old Grover Alexander, star pitcher of the Cardinals, had the habit of slightly mounding and Rhem always kept him company. Alex evidently could stand up under more pressure than Flint—and when Flint came to the park no condition to pitch, he said he had kept temptation from Alex by consuming it all himself. An even louder laugh was raised by Flint when shortly before the 1930 world series, it was reported that he had been kicked off the Cardinals and ordered, at the point of a revolver, to imbibe that which does a male athlete most harm. The Cardinals were in the stretch drive for the pennant and it cost Manager Gabby Street several hours. It cost Flint a stiff fine, but he got a chance to pitch in a world series game.

ALBION NORMAL TEAM LOSES TO LOCAL QUINTET

McElwain's Friendly Five Hoopsters Beat Teachers 42 to 31

Playing without the stellar services of Al Westergard, former All-American, the McElwain's Friendly Five, Twin Falls town team, turned back the invading Albion Normal school players on the local floor Thursday night. Westergard, who apparently injured his knee in the Nickle college game last week, will be out of the lineup for some time.

"GOD PUNISHING ALLIES"—KAISER

Briand
Doris A. I. 32
Unconventional compliments & warm admiration for your brilliant "Germany Not Guilty" in which you call Prof. B. Smith a "worthless b*ll". There is not the slightest doubt about who were the real culprits that started the World War. They stand arraigned before the International Military Tribunal awaiting their verdict. The "World Court" the Allies are also differing from in its judgment. The Kaiser is nothing but a man of honor. Yours ever, Doris A. I. 32

Declaring that "Prussia is punishing the allies" for their crimes in 1914 and 1918, former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany recently asserted that "Prussia" Germany was not responsible for the World War. In a letter to Professor M. H. Cochran of Princeton University, Princeton, Mo., in the wife shown here with a late picture of the former ruler, he says: "There is no such thing as a 'war criminal'. The real 'war罪' that started the World War. They stand arraigned before the tribunal of history, awaiting her verdict. The 'World Court' the Allies are also differing from in its judgment. The Kaiser is nothing but a man of honor. Yours ever, Doris A. I. 32
