RAILWAY-AUTO IN RECORD RUN

SUCCEEDS CARDENZO
ON N. Y. BENCH

CHINA'S HERO COMMANDER VISITS FRONT LINE

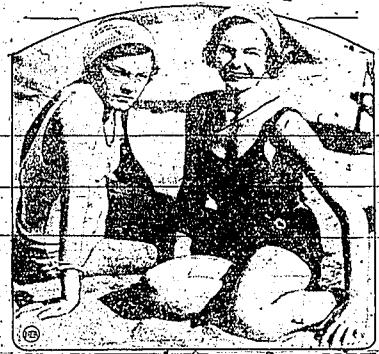

SEARCH HINDERED BY STORM

It's only six hours and 78 minutes by railroad-airmail from Miami, Fla., northward to Jacksonville. That's 42 minutes better than the best previous rail time. And here you see the pneumatic-tired car, the irregular train which has broken all records. In the foreground is G. H. Hurley, division superintendent of the Seaboard Railways; H. Gold, of West Palm Beach, train master, and Clifford D. Smith, engineer.

WHERE LINDY CASE FIGURE WAS EMPLOYED

AS GUNS ROARED ON SHANGHAI FRONT

A MOMENT LATER THE STEEPLE FELL!

In split-like a buzz, flitting match, the century-old Baptist church at Hamden, Mass., was being consumed by fire when this remarkable night photograph was taken. A few seconds after the camera clicked, the blazing steeple plunged into the smoking ruins of what had been the church's auditorium.

PRETTY TRICK, EH?

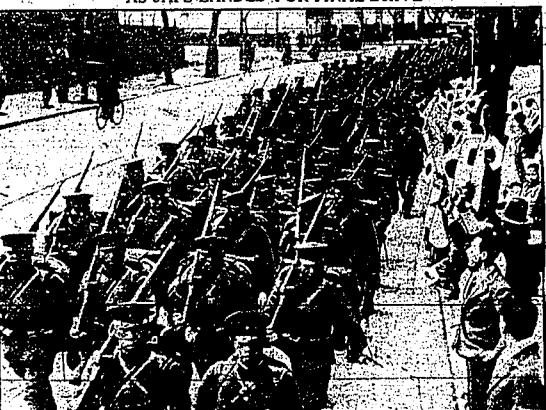

It was a lucky day for that professional beach-comber, our encompass. For not only did lovely Dorothy Lester of Chicago consent to pose charmingly as you see her here, but her pet poodle dog begged to be allowed in the picture, too. The scene is Miami Beach, Florida.

New chief of the U. S. Navy's Akron is Commander A. M. Dresser, above, who has been named to succeed Lieut. Com. C. E. Rosendahl.

EASTON BOMB
SUSPECT HELD

Their-only-hurricane the scattered ruins of a building demolished by shellfire, troops of the defending-Chinese forces are shown in this picture, with machine guns and rifles leveled, they crouched to await a Japanese charge. These are Cantonese soldiers: note on their backs the huge, umbrella-shaped shovel hats which are part of their year-round equipment.

AS JAPS LANDED FOR FINAL DRIVE

MOST ENGAGING—AND MOST ENGAGED

Intense excitement and joy pervaded the Japan's concession at Shanghai, China, as Chinese troops of the 10th local landed to overcome stubborn resistance of the Chinese defenders on the edge of the city.
The upper picture shows Japanese civilians cheering soldiers of the Ninth division of the Nippon army as they marched through the streets shortly after arrival. Lower picture shows guns of the Woosung forts, where the Chinese made such stubborn resistance against the Jap attack despite inadequate equipment.

Three nights, feather in his cap, embezzled $100,000 and then fled to safety with his wife, Anna, who is reported to have been engaged. Among those who see her future husband are a young Australian architect, Sander, an American film producer, a London banker, and a heavy-duty millionaire.

SOUSA'S FAME SECURE

DEATH has claimed a number of distinguished Americans within the last year. Among them must certainly be reckoned the late John Philip Sousa.

Sousa, most assuredly, will never be ranked among the great musicians. He would not have ranked himself there. But it is probable that his name will be remembered for a long, long time—as long, very likely, as men still go to war, or have armies, or hold any kind of parades in which quick-step marching tunes are essential.

It lay in this man's genius to provide some of the most stirring march tunes that have ever been written. Thousands upon thousands of Americans have stepped in time to their exciting bars; thousands upon thousands who are now unborn will do so in the future. Sousa's fame may lie in a very narrow field, but it is about as secure as a musician's can be.

PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE

THE present Congress seems to be preparing to put through some kind of bill definitely promising independence for the Filipinos and setting a more or less definite date for the change to go into effect.

This is, of course, nothing less than plain justice, since the government years ago went on record unequivocally with a pledge that the islanders would eventually get their freedom. The nation's honor will look just a little bit clearer when an independence bill is finally passed.

The Senate is soon to vote on a bill which would make the Filipinos free in from 17 to 19 years; a bill which will come up for a vote in the House would cut the time to about eight years. Offhand, it would seem that the House bill is the better. Why postpone the process so long? If we are going to give our island wards their freedom, might it not be just as well for us to do it as fast as we comfortably can?

COMMERCIALISM AT ITS WORST

IF THERE exists anywhere any sort of booby prize for those who most callously disregard the privacy and the feelings of other people, it ought to go to those New Jerseyites who tried to make a little easy money by offering to fly sightseers over the Lindbergh estate near Hopewell, N. J., for $2.50 apiece.

Not in a long time has unthinking commercialism offered the nation quite so ugly a spectacle.

Duplicates of this prize, by the way, ought to be struck off for all the people who accepted the proposition and spent $2.50 for the privilege of being carried over the estate. Those people, beyond doubt, would have been happier if they could actually have been escorted into the Lindbergh home, so that they could have poked their grubby fingers at Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh at close range. As it was, they had to be content with a distant view; but it may comfort them to know that they have earned the contempt of decent folk.

THE JOB RIOTS

NEWS of the clash between police and unemployed men at the gates of the Ford plant on the edge of Detroit is tragically disturbing—not because it indicates any new danger from violent Communism, but because it proves that we have not yet learned how to deal with desperate men who cannot get jobs.

There were Communist agitators in the mob at Dearborn, of course. It goes without saying that the fighting, if not definitely caused by them, was at least right in line with their ideas.

But it is simply idiotic to suppose that a majority of the 3000 men who marched to the plant, or even a sizeable percentage of them, went out with any idea of provoking violence, or took with them any positive desire to see the existing framework of American society torn down.

They may have some of those ideas now, but it is very doubtful that they had them before the fight. They were simply distracted men for whom America today has no work. They wanted, somehow, to get out of the slough of despond; they wanted jobs, and if they couldn't get them they at least wanted to dramatize their plight and express their feelings.

But organized society had no way of meeting them but by using force. It killed four of them, wounded 15 or 20 more and threw 15 into jail.

By doing this, what did it accomplish?

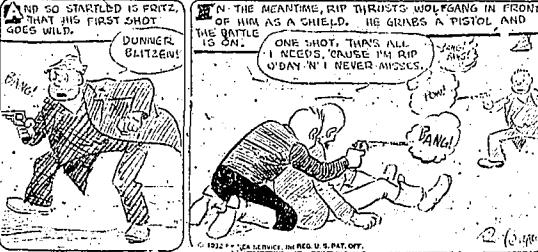

It made a lot of those 3000 permanently bitter. It gave the Communist organizers throughout the country a tremendous lot of new fuel for their sputtering fire that they are trying—with scant success, thus far—to start. It enormously emphasized the sad fact that organized society sometimes seems a lot readier to hit jobless men over the head than it is to keep them from going hungry.

A newspaper photographer who covered the protest said its start said:

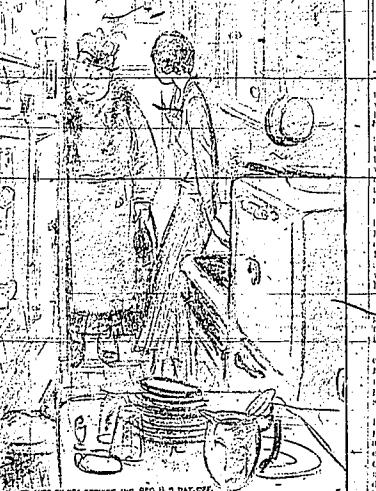

“As the men formed, they were a jolly lot, some laughing and joking as they marched to Dearborn.” Marchers who laugh and joke are not dangerous. When organized society does its best to make them stop laughing and joking, it is acting with supreme bitterness.

Former Rupert Girl Is Married

PATIENT (Continued) — Miss Mary Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, formerly connected with the Caledonian hotel in Rupert, was married Wednesday, March 13, to George Geyer of San Antonio, Tex. The ceremony was performed in the Episcopal church.

Miss Williams' parents are now in California. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Stuart Severn and was followed by a prayer by Rev. J. H. Weidner, pastor of the Methodist church in Rupert. The Rev. W. C. Cronk, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated.

Irish stories, "Mrs. Frank Trimmed Her Hair," "The Story of Old Erin," and "Where The River Shannon Flows," were Maude Laycock's refreshments. Refreshments were served by Margaret Tracy, wife of the Rev. W. C. Cronk. The next meeting of the Council will be held at the home of Mrs. S. A. Paxton Thursday, March 24.
