PATMAN PLEADS CAUSE OF BONUS AT WASHINGTON

Would Issue Two Billion In Currency To Pay Ex-Servicemen

MANY VETERANS ARE JOBLESS TEXAN SAYS

Comparatively Few People On Hand As Hearing Opens Monday

WITNEY DENIES KNOWLEDGE OF BEAR RAID PLOT

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The fight for a soldiers' cause became deadlocked with only a few days of hearings before the Senate Select Committee on Small Business, White House, Washington, D.C., last night, Texas, argued for issuance of more than $2,000,000,000 of new currency to pay the veterans.

Patman, author of a bill for cash payment to adjust service certificates, was the first witness before the House ways and means committee, beginning consideration of one of the most highly controversial subjects before Congress. A presidential veto awaits the house bill if it reaches the White House.

Crip Presides

Action Chairman Crisp presided. He announced that the proponents of the bonus legislation would be heard first.

Only 10 of the 22 committee members were present, and the room contained no audience of only a dozen or so.

Patman told the committee that more than 2,000,000 veterans are jobless, and that the bill, if it passes, will be introduced by U.S. Senator Walcott.

Whitney was called before the committee today as a result of a pre-dramatic meeting Friday when three committee members reported they were planning a billion-dollar raid on the market for Saturday.

He previously informed the committee he had no intention of shorting accounts in the market which the committee asked could not be produced before Friday.

"We have no 'bears'," Whitney said, adding that the exchanges of the stock market "are as safe as steel."

lic Service of New Jersey and Consolidated Gas of New York.

The great question, Patman said, is "whether the veterans' payments can be made a vehicle to help the country back to prosperity."

Battle Rages Over Bonus

Crip placed in the record a telegram from Maj. Gen. Stanley Quinn, colonel of the bonus paymen-tment committee, regarding his inability to appear before the Select Committee.

"I have traveled through 42 states in the past six months, and every state and every place where find the soldiers in need of assistance," I shall make my personal business to do all I can to secure justice to the soldiers and their families, and other matter concerning their welfare."

LONDON (UPI) — Britain, in its reply to President Franklin D. Roosevelt's plan to impose a tariff on imports, has agreed to maintain its free trade policy, despite the language that it will stand absolutely by the treaty settlement. J. H. Thomas, dominion secretary, said London's position today.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court has declared unconstitutional the New York unemployment law passed to restore the state on the basis of the 1930 census.

Widespread Activity Occurs In Chile; Residents Are Panic Stricken

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — Volcanic activity in the Andes, with frequent eruptions, violent tremors, and occasional spurts of smoke and flame, reached high in the Cordillera, were reported today in an area extending 200 miles along the mountain range.

Heavy thunder, at times as loud as the roar of artillery, was heard here Sunday, and many houses were shaken by the shock soon after sunrise. The activity apparently extended from Concepcion on the Pacific coast to Santiago, 200 miles north and 100 miles west of the volcano of the Andes.

The Chilean coast is approximately 2,800 miles long. The eruptions were reflected in the volcanic activity in the famous Chilean lake region, "the beauty spot of the world."

Disturbances "belched" in the mountains, and the earth trembled and cracked panic among the residents of Santiago. Rumblings were reported from Los Andes.

Carabineros, Chile's State Police, who had been called to the scene, were not active, but that disturbances appeared to come from a crowd of vulcanites from La Chilca, about 200 miles west of Santiago.

FINLAND ATHLETIC AUTHORITIES FIND NURMI NOT GUILTY

Famous Runner Purged of Professionalism To Wed Rich Widow

ALO, Finland (UPI) — Paavo Nurmi, Finland's famous long-distance runner, was a happy man Friday, purged of professionalism by Finnish athletic authorities and returned to the wealthy widow, Mrs. Sybil Lenonkosa.

The Finnish Athletic League, through its president, Michael Kestilä, protested to the International Amateur Athletic Federation against Nurmi's recent temporary suspension. The League's protest declared that Nurmi's disqualification was entirely false.

And yesterday, at church the plans for Paavo's approaching wedding were announced for the first time, freedom having been granted in this ancient university town.

In Finnish athletic circles today it was generally agreed that the League's action would force the International Federation to reinstate Nurmi's suspension at its next meeting in Berlin. It is the intention of the League to submit the final report of the home branch of the organization.

Nurmi, who holds six world records, is now 34 and while he is not as fast on some of the distances as in former years, he still is regarded as the outstanding distance runner in the international and for the 26-mile marathon. He has indicated he will concentrate on the marathon if he goes to the A.A.U. trials.

At the news the charges against Nurmi have not been revealed, it was indicated at the recent Berlin meeting that they involved drug appearances in Poland, Italy and Germany.

SPORTSMEN URGE BI-PARTISAN FISH AND GAME BOARD

Boise Meeting Picks Committee To Draft Legislative Bill

Representatives of the Southern Idaho Fish and Game Association, home from a two-day conference of sportsmen at Boise, report that the meeting, which was attended by some 60 delegates, went on record as favoring the creation of a bi-partisan fish and game board, in place of the present system.

The action was taken Saturday night. A bill was drawn up to be presented to the next legislature to carry out the purposes of the action.

Such a board would consist of seven members. It is stated, two from each of the three sections of the state: north, southwest and southeast. One member would be large, to be selected by the governor on recommendation of the sportsmen's organizations. They would be appointed for terms of four, two for two years, two for four years and three for six years, and would serve without pay, but be allowed traveling expenses.

A $2 fish and bird license, with permit, placed on the market at a cost of $2 additional, was advocated by the association instead of the present $2 combination fishing and hunting license. This would allow a 30-day non-resident fishing license at a price of $2 and annual non-resident fishing license at $5.

SEALS, SENATORS HOLD LEADERSHIP

Each Team Takes Six Out of Seven Games During Opening Week

BY UNITED PRESS
The champion San Francisco Seals were still out in front today in the "Candy League" club's first year of play. The Seals were idle today awaiting the opening of the 1932 season which they hope will bring them more than 100 wins.

Although handicapped by the temporary loss of Shureton Woody English, the Seals hope to get into the "block of the pennant race" in the next few series. Chicago, in the first year of play, has won all but three of their 10 games.

Even with these wins the Seals have been unable to dominate the pennant winner's seat of taking six out of seven games in their initial series. Hollywood and Portland won their series four games three and were tied in second place.

The Seals won the series with the Seattle Indians yesterday by the score of 10-1. The Indians, who had a 10-1 record, were beaten by the Seals in their first game.

Solino moved out the Mexican tabloid shelter—the first 1-0 to 1-0 and the second, 3-2 to 2. It was a 10-1 battle last week but the Seals came through only once.

The Beavers leaned hard on their bats in Los Angeles and won the first of their morning games.

Los Angeles, which had won the first two games for the visitors had won 27 to 2 in the afternoon session. Portland was ahead in the first seven games and in Los Angeles, 10-1 to 10-0.

Hollywood just managed to even up the Oakland Aces in the fifth Encino series by winning the first two games of the day. The Stars won in the morning 7 to 5, while the Oaks came back in the afternoon and were beat-

AIR CONDITIONING

THE progress that industrial engineers are making in air conditioning devices makes it apparent that this new field of activity will become more and more important during the coming decade.

The Chesapeake & Ohio railroad the other day announced inauguration of a new, fast passenger train, the George Washington, on which every coach and Pullman will be fitted with an elaborate air conditioning apparatus. Even temperatures will be maintained constantly; dust will be eliminated, and the passengers will be kept comfortably warm in winter and comfortably cool in summer.

That such devices will become common equipment on all crack passenger trains before long seems probable. That they will, in addition, come into general use in homes and apartments is also probable.

LAW AND ORDER

A NEW impasse has been struck in the Lindbergh affair which more thoroughly arouses the nation than ever before.

Clever crooks are toying with the nation itself and defying the very government of the United States. Yet because of their uncanny and disarming ability, and for reasons of fear, the country finds itself in the uneasy predicament of agreeing that it is more important to restore the Lindbergh child to its parents, than it is to apprehend and punish the kidnappers.

Never has there been a more impressive example of the ruthless power of gangs and extortionists. Already the case is a national scandal. Whether the child is ever returned or not, the episode has served to draw the spotlight of shame on the ugly features of American crime. This may be just the beginning of a war to rid America of the unseen enemy which is sucking our lifeblood away.

Maybe little Charles Agustus will be the medium through which America will suddenly find itself. Maybe it required just such a sensational event to arouse the lethargy of a crime-dazed nation to a realization of the disrespect for law and order which exists everywhere.

POLITICS

FORMER GOVERNOR ALFRED E. SMITH has burned all bridges behind him in his determination to stand by friends who are waging his fight for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Those who are puzzled by the grim way Smith is holding on to what is generally recognized as a doomed hope may find the explanation in the intense, passionate loyalty of the happy warrior of 1928 to those friends who are standing by him now.

The steady sweep of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt has taken the heart out of the opposition. Politicians who couldn't see Roosevelt a month ago are now hedging previous bets because they are convinced he will be nominated. But instead of fading into the background, and preparing to make peace with his rival, Smith is digging in and throwing up new bastions.

Even while the news wires brought word of another Roosevelt sweep in Wisconsin, Smith broadcast at least the third time an emphatic denial that he was about to pull down his flag. He wrote to Democratic leaders in Connecticut, Pennsylvania and California denying that he was a stalking horse for any other candidate.

Smith stressed a significant assertion that he does not intend to betray or desert his friends who are working for him in several states. Therein probably lies the key to the strange course of Smith which mystified many. He may have started out convinced he had a real chance to be nominated. But he has become in fact practically a life raft for a number of Democratic politicians who for one reason or another did not get on the Roosevelt bandwagon. They are clinging to him, urging him on.

Some of these politicians guessed wrong months ago when Roosevelt managers made their first overtures. Some listened too seriously to the whisperings from that element in the Democratic party which anticipated earlier that Roosevelt could be stopped and the convention thrown into a deadlock in which the party "leaders" would name the candidate. Now Smith's fair-weather friends have fled and the reeling old guard has gathered around its grizzled leader.

The change is in the party. Primary after primary, convention after convention has shown that it does not want to revive the issues which wrecked it in 1928. Roosevelt, for all of the superior attitude which many politicians adopt toward him, is polling a primary vote which is setting Democratic records. His combination of organization and undenied popular vote getting ability have thrown everything else into shadow.

It looks like Roosevelt.

News in Brief

Assured For Speeding

An $8 fine was assessed on police Monday for violation of the city ordinances governing speed.

Filer Community Shocked By Fatality of Prominent Rancher

Several ranchers are being named here today for Louis G. Hill, 58, prominent Filer rancher, whose sudden death came Sunday morning.

The rancher will be condole at the White Mortuary here Tuesday morning. His body will be at the Twin Falls cemetery until Saturday evening.

Services will be conducted by the First Methodist church of Filer, who will be in charge.

He was a known family and prominent in many affairs in addition to his large ranch and stock operations. Mr. Hill had a large acquaintance, formed during 22 years residence in the valley.

Walt Ploger, Settler

At one time he and a brother, Harry, were the only two men in the valley who had adopted sugarbeet. When a son, Ed, died, he has been farming 160-acre farm in addition to feeding cattle and hogs. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jessie Hill, and son, Lloyd. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Roberta Hill and Mrs. Mabel Palmer, and Mrs. Anna Lester, who with her husband had moved to the Hill ranch a week ago from their home in Rosalia, Idaho.

Ed Ploger, 32, son of the deceased, was married to another brother, E. F. Ploger, Minneapolis, Minn. The difference in names is accounted for by two of the brothers having changed their names early in life.

Was Highway Official

Mr. Hill was born in California, Nov. 11, 1873. In 1892 he moved here with his family in hope to join the Petrified Forest. For years he served as a member of the board of directors of the Filer Highways district and through his active life had a variety of investments in numerous enterprises.

He was born early Sunday morning shortly after the birth of his thereafter Mrs. Hill heard the discharge of a gun in the house. She ran outside and called the family physician, Dr. F. A. Dwight, Filer, who in turn summoned Sheriff E. E. Prater.

The doctor was soon at the scene of the accident. The end of the barrel had been placed near the heart and discharged through one of the holes. Officers detailed from the state prison arrived and found all innocent was not necessary.

Act Unexplained

Some notes were left, so far as is known, which indicated the intention of the intended killer to have been avenged by the members of the family.

Mr. Hill last visited Twin Falls Saturday afternoon and had a business appointment Sunday. Although he had been dependent of late, members of the community said he had no money problems, confirming his claim that his financial affairs were in temporary good shape and his health was normal.

Robertson Files For State Legislature

John B. Robertson, Democrat, left Saturday afternoon and had a business appointment Sunday. Although he had been dependent of late, members of the community said he had no money problems. Announcement of his intention to file in the election to file in the Twin Falls cemetery.

Mr. Robertson is associated with his father, T. M. Robertson, in the reorganized Landa company and has been a Twin Falls resident for 22 years.

Endowment Fund Earnings Lower

HOMESTEAD (UPI) — In spite of attempts to discredit the efforts of homestead collectors who are attempting to obtain additional endowment funds, the fact remains that "endowment fund earnings have shown a marked decrease in recent years."

"So far we are in the habit of extracting approximately $5 per pupil from the state in the past," said W. D. Vincent, state controller of homesteads, "about $4.87 now, and last year the school census was turned over to the schools in 1929-30. To date, the amount has decreased to about $3.50 per pupil," Vincent said.

The University of Idaho faced a deficit of about $100,000 for the development of its endowment. Endowment fund earnings show a decrease of approximately $40,000 per year. Federal funds for university purposes are about equivalent to a decrease in fabrica rural population compared to total population since which federal fund distributions to the various states have been reduced.

The two state normal schools are confronted with decreases of $10,000 each. Grade schools of course suffer the same heavy cuts in endowment fund interest payments.

Drastic economies were practiced by the state government. Teachers salaries were reduced, supplies cut, structures for supplies were curtailed. Fuel in some instances was doubled. Even with these reduced expenses of the state government—many schools throughout the state have been forced to shorten their terms.

RISER REVIEWS POTATO TRENDS

Agriculture Department Official Summons Up Slaton In State

IDAHO FALLS. (UPI) — Potato marketing and production trends during recent months were reviewed today in a statement presented by Dr. G. C. Slaton, director of the United States Department of Agriculture.

"Men who have followed the marketing seasons for any year can easily determine annual market conditions for each season upon which to comment," Risner said. "The 1931-32 shipping period for the main crop of potatoes has been excellent, according to the latest information."

"Beginning with the planting of the crop, we find that the Idaho acreage is originally estimated to be 1,000,000 acres, a record during the past 50 years. Not only the state acreage, but also the national potato acreage was exceeded."

"The mid-winter growing conditions in Idaho were not favorable but the fall weather was quite conducive to proper development of the crop. The average yield per acre was 22 bushels per acre, which was lighter than the bumper production of 25 bushels per acre for the year 1930."

While Idaho shipping period is not yet finished the state movement up to April was 19,616 carloads, a larger number than last year, but nevertheless the volume of my previous season except 1930-1 and 1932-3 when the total forwarded were 32,903 and 21,395 respectively.
