Chance To Reconsider Merits Of Prohibition Looms For Americans

VOTERS READY FOR SHOWDOWN, OLAM

Informed Politicians Expect Republicans To Adopt Resubmission Plan

By Raymond Clapper
CHICAGO (UP)—Events are moving rapidly to give the American voter a final opportunity to consider the merits of prohibition. Republicans are planning to take the lead in this resubmission movement at their national convention next week.

One speaker recommending this, is reported to have been approved by President Hoover. It is being brought before a chief political adviser, Postmaster General Walter F. Brown, and by Carter H. Harrison, national chairman of the convention platform committee.

For the prohibition fight the convention would hardly have a single thrill. Chicago is going through the motions of putting on a national convention but without excitement. This convention's work is merely speaking in the language of the most colorful delegates, senators and congressmen will remain in Washington.

Wet Expensive Parties

Lavish spending of former days is missing. The brokers and Wall Street figures, who their previous years had made a fortune out of it, are in evidence. A sombre reminder of the times is the new newspaper, the fall of Samuel Insull, the public utility magnate who once dominated the industry in the United States. Senators for a Republican field only to have his candidate denied the seat.

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Roy G. Carrier, wealthy Hollywood business man was under heavy police guard today following apparently authentic reports that eastern gangsters had successfully kidnaped two other business men, netting $12,000 ransom and had departed Carrier on their next victim.

Police revealed that guards were assigned to Carrier last Saturday, and that he had been under watch night and day.

Three known gangsters, whose names were given police as having perpetrated the two kidnapings were the object of an intensive search.

Police then left for Europe, blocking for a time further plans of the kidnapers. He was to have returned by train Saturday night.

PROBE OF CARDINAL DEALS INDICATED

Baseball's Dictator Refuses to Discuss Investigation Plans

By George Kiriacy CHICAGO (UP)—Although Judge Keneady M. Landis, baseball commissioner, refused to discuss the matter, indications today were that the shuffling of players back and forth between the St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds has resulted in an official investigation.

Apparently there has been no violation of any baseball law but the numerous league involving a dozen players, between the two clubs have been accomplished in such a manner as to make the Cardinals' team look like just another member of the Cardinals' club. Mystery to Fans Before Judge Landis departed yesterday for North Carolina to wed his bride, many fans were questioning about the Cardinals' standstill.

Why, everybody knows about those trades in the judge's office. The fans of St. Louis don't know about them, Judge says. He writes letters to newspapers asking such questions as "How much did the trades pay for Frey and Heffner?" "Was any cash involved in the Heffner deal?" "Did the Cardinals pay off the notes for the Columbus club with players?" "Why did Judge Keneady refuse to discuss those matters?"

Remaining silent, he answered to a direct question as to whether he had the matter under investigation, Judge Landis was silent. Evidence that baseball men do not want to express an opinion on the matter involved in the St. Louis-Cincinnati matter was further established when William L. French, president of the Havana Club, was asked his opinion about the numerous trades. He replied: "I am not willing to say too big for the Reds. The Reds have obtained four players—Baird, Heffner, Heffner and Donnell—and had two other players—Frey and Heffner—traded to them by the Cardinals. Five Cincinnati players have been shipped to two Cardinal farms, Cutler and Young to Heffner and Eckert, Buzge and Shevlin to Columbus, which club was sold by Sidney Weil, Cincinnati president, to the Cardinals at the close of the 1930 season."

"Goofy Castilian" and Lefty Grove Hold Attention of Baseball Fans

Robert Hines Grove, who is just 11 years older than the "Goofy Castilian," scored his 11th win in 14 starts, when his Philadelphia Athletics downed Cleveland, 3 to 1. The Reds, however, lost to the major league season's strikeout record for a 10th game yesterday when they lost to the Detroit Tigers 10 to 1 for the time runs, accounting for four Yankee scores. Hines pitched out of his 17th of the season with Earl Cofas on base in the first inning and Lefty Gomez pitched in the fourth. The Tigers dropped to fourth place.

Lefty Grove pitched and batted his way to victory as the Athletics overcame Cleveland, knocking the Mackmen from fifth to third place. Cleveland dropped from first to fifth position. Grove struck out seven men and honored in the field. Detroit beaters: A triple by Charley Berry in the first inning, with the bats loaded, gave the Chicago White Sox a 3 to 2 victory over the Washington Senators. The Chicago Cubs recovered from the Boston Braves by beating Brooklyn, 7 to 5, in 14 innings. Washington beaters: A fifth run in the 14th with a triple and a double. The Braves lost to the St. Louis Cardinals, 10 to 4, after being out of the lead.

Writer Doubt Curley's Claim Strangler-Shikat Affair to Be for Keeps

By HENRY McILMORE NEW YORK (UP)—It is to be hoped that Monsieur Jacques Curley has only jesting when he said tonight's wrestler bout between Dick Shikat and Strangler Lewis was to be a serious short-term match for a showing of the match—which is nothing more than a bout staged without benefit of rehearsal—in three times smaller than the great diamond swamp at 11:30 p. m. (EDT).

It seems that when two psychodrama of near equal skill meet on the up and up, they spar for a few minutes, then go into a routine match for a showing of the evening. I am told that in such affairs excitement is afforded only when one of the combatants rolls over in order to allow his opponent to count the other side of their work. Now who wants to see that sort of thing? Certainly not Monsieur Curley's regular customers, who were treated on a steady diet of lilly gait butts, reverse flying tackles non-stop film from ring to mezzanine, rumples spins, Do-X whirles and other spacial spectacular nonsense.

Someone should write for Mr. Curley that in putting in a show in which he runs the risk of losing the faith and trust of his followers. For they have learned to lean upon Moe, Jack and his herd for hilarious, comfroyfery and are liable to bring anything else as fake and phoney. Besides, with the country in such an unstable state, there should be some one thing upon which the citizenry could depend. For a long time wrestling has been the pillar of great sport. # G. O. P. CHAIRMAN DISCONSOLATE AS WET FORGES GAIN

Poverty hangs over the party gathering, with a depressing effect. From such gloom thoughts the prohibition cause is seldom diverted.

Few Disconsolate

Republican leaders bring the word that the country is ready for a showdown. Political leaders from dry are not in the least dismayed of the party position. The most disconsolate leader in Senator Stephen P. Fox, chairman of the Republican national committee, for years the darling of the Anti-Saloon league, the man who undertook to keep the party dry. He was not at the country club meeting in Washington where the Republican senators discussed the re-organization plank.

Fox declined firmly to say whether he would support the re-organization proposal.

Nothing To Say

"I will not set a platform throughout the convention and I doubt if I will have anything to say about it," he commented.

Every informed politician around convention headquarters here says the Republican convention will go on record for re-organization. Some of them expect a fight, but will be largely in a fight as to how aggressive the plank shall be. The party's old-line drys have lost.

The Republican party, which won the victory four years ago on the champion of prohibition, with the drys lauding President Hoover now preparing to lead the way as the best ditch for the river, is toward a possible burial of what Mr. Hoover referred to as an "expensive noble in motives."

Dry States Fall In Line

Referendum supporters are confident they have a minimum exceeding the six delegates, which are necessary to put through a re-organization plank. Doss dry states like Indiana are swinging into line. Even Kansas, where Carry Nation sneaked her way to glory, is reported to be falling into the re-organization plank.

The Democratic convention is certain to go as far or farther than the Republicans on prohibition. Which will make it likely that the now congress can raise a two-thirds majority for submitting a constitutional amendment repealing or modifying the 18th amendment.

Nothing else arouses the slightest sliver of interest around convention haunts here. The re-organization of President Hoover and Vice President Curtis is taken for granted and rarely mentioned.

The top-down on what is going on behind the scenes in Washington and New York—for Idaho Times readers everywhere.

NEW YORK By James McHalla

FOMES

Secretary of Commerce Lamont recently called a meeting in New York of business organizations interested in home nationalization. The idea is to start a national campaign for new roofing, plumbing, heating, lighting, etc. American Radiator and John-Manville are strongly behind the movement.

COMMITTEE

The Young committee is commonly referred to in financial circles as the Twelve Apostles. They are generally regarded with more respect than they deserve.

GOLD

Sentiment is increasing that a gold embargo is inevitable soon if exports continue at the present rate.

The Federal Reserve credit program is seriously threatened by those experts having fifty million dollars of government securities and make much headway when one hundred million dollars of gold is shipped at the same time.

Hoarding is again definitely on the increase. This complicates the problem still further.

Expert opinion generally agrees that a gold embargo would have little effect on domestic conditions. Such a step would still leave us on a gold basis internally just as England is still on a domestic gold basis.

Reliable information indicates that Europe still has two billion dollars of American securities on hand even at present prices. Wholesale liquidation would cause plenty of trouble but is not generally apprehended.

Foreign central banks have been converting acceptances into cash deposits with the evident intention of withdrawing them. Conversions last week amounted to thirty-six million dollars.

New York banks took over most of the acceptances, which accounts for the unusual increase of loans on other than security collateral in the member bank statement.

BANKS

Member banks are getting more and more annoyed at the Federal Reserve for playing the government's game at their expense. When the president accuses them of hoarding they try to laugh it off. When the Federal Reserve ac-

ceeds them of hoarding they get mad. Holdings of government obligations by both Federal Reserve and member banks have increased enormously since 1921. In that year Federal Reserve banks only held two per cent of total Federal obligations and member banks 4 per cent more. Now the Federal Reserve banks hold 8 per cent and the member banks 22 per cent.

There is an interesting explanation of part of the increase in member bank investments last week. A number of banks have closed out loans on which the collateral had already shrunk below the value of the loan. In some such cases the banks have been buying by the securities themselves at a price above the market which transfers them toward showing a loss on loan account. Having the principle of carrying security investments at cost, they need show no bookkeeping losses at all unless liquidated in a panic.

The Chicago Federal Reserve Bank is still holding out against playing government securities like

DO YOU INHALE?

Silence may be golden

...but is that why other cigarette advertising is generally silent on this question?

WHEN the truth hurts—it's only natural to avoid the subject! Inbalng has long been an "unpunchable" topic in cigarette advertising. And no wonder! In every tobacco leaf—even the finest, the mildest—nature hides certain impurities which, when not removed, are unkind to delicate membranes!

And since knowingly or unknowingly every smoker inhales some part of the smoke from his or her cigarette, Lucky Strike developed that great scientific process which removes certain impurities. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? More than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

TONS OF CRICKETS PLACED IN PITS

Workers Hope To Avert In-festation In Eastern Idaho Next Year

POCATELLO (UP) — Confident that the worst of the danger had been averted, insect control workers who have been laboring from dawn until dusk during the past two days, believed that the tide was turning toward stopping next year's infestation in the bud.

Experts will trace the crickets to their egg beds, definitely locate them and then lay plans for their destruction before hatching begins.

The situation in southeastern Idaho still warrants careful watching. Charles W. Stetson, administrator of the University of Idaho, said today that the success of the control effort depends on the belief that there will be little if any crickets in the insects' wintering areas.

Whims and Hobbies of Great and Near-Great

Editors note: What are some of the idiosyncrasies, whims and hobbies of America's famous men and women? From many different sources the Editor has culled a list of great and near-great. They are presented in a series of three articles, the first of which follows.

By H. ALLEN SMITH

NEW YORK (UP) — President Hoover doesn't like linen suits, but he likes a hat, and he has a strong for him and cabbage.

These are only three of the characteristics of America's famous men and women gathered by the Editor. Every man and woman who has been in the public eye has been included in a number of ways, and that Vice President Charles H. McNary has an inordinate fondness for the race track. It is not widely known, however, that John D. Rockefeller, Jr.'s hobby is collecting Chinese porcelains.

President Roosevelt is a great collector of press photographs. At his office he works behind an old-fashioned rolling desk. He amuses the same brand of clear used by his father. He likes collecting rowing, tennis, and golf in his spare time. He is a profound student of both the Bible and Shakespeare.

Each Christmas, by tradition, members of his family gather in the great library for a solemn reading of Dickens' "Christmas Carol" from the original manuscript.

Amelia Earhart, famous aviator, is in the habit of eyeing a woman's necktie as she goes by. She doesn't play bridge, but she does play golf. She has a truck, but she doesn't drive it.

Charles Chaplin's telephone number is 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10-11-12-13-14-15-16-17-18-19-20-21-22-23-24-25-26-27-28-29-30-31-32-33-34-35-36-37-38-39-40-41-42-43-44-45-46-47-48-49-50-51-52-53-54-55-56-57-58-59-60-61-62-63-64-65-66-67-68-69-70-71-72-73-74-75-76-77-78-79-80-81-82-83-84-85-86-87-88-89-90-91-92-93-94-95-96-97-98-99-00.

Myrtle Margaret and Douglas Edwards have about 50 pet names for each other. Mary Pickens, of the sheep, from 9 to 11 hours a day, Charles Chaplin can write equally well with both hands. He plays the violin, the saxophone and the cello. He always has a disturbance at his bedside.

H. L. Mencken plays the flute and has an orchestra, made up of his friends, who come to his home to play just for the fun of it. Mencken usually carries a brief case on the street. He is noted as a journey and he is an indignant foe of several Baltimore articles, who like to discuss philosophy and theology with him.

Leonard Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brown, arrived home Friday after completing the junior college work at H. of L. southern branch, Pocatello.

BURELY'S STATUS HIGHLY APPROVED

BURELY (Special) — An audit of the books and accounts of the city of Burley, recently completed by the Van Patten Auditing company and submitted to the city council at its last session revealed the city to be in excellent financial condition.

When Mayor K. C. Harlow was elected he inaugurated a program that he hoped would so reduce city expenses as to make a saving during the year of about $10,000, and with this end in view tax levies were reduced $5,000.

So well did the plan work, however, and so great have been the savings effected in the electrical, water and other departments, that this audit at the end of the year reveals that the actual reduction in operating costs has reached $20,000, double the amount hoped for and aimed at.

In addition, the bonded debt has been reduced $21,500, leaving a balance of only $30,000 bonded debt and cash balances held for the purpose are subtracted. At the present rate of progress, says Mayor Harlow, this will be reduced in three years or less, leaving the city free of debt.

Dr. Boyenger, the Foot Specialist is removing corns and calluses. He is located at 100 S. Second St., over Peasey Store.
