

Baseball Teams Discard Members as 23-Player Limit Goes Into Effect

NEW YORK (UPI) — The pruning knife was expected to lop off many major league players today as managers pared down squads to the 23-player limit, effective tomorrow.

The trade winds could blow up a nice flurry in the American circuit, where the Yankees seem to be the only contented outfit. Philadelphia needs pitching strength, and Washington could use a couple of good hitters. Cleveland has good field troubles.

Boston's Red Sox made their third important trade in a week yesterday when they sent outfielder Earl Wehle to Detroit in exchange for Jimmie Foxx, Eddie Lopat, and Roy Johnson, outfielder.

The Yankees moved out Cleveland yesterday, 8 to 7. Babe Ruth had his 21st home run of the season.

Jimmy Foxx made his 23rd home run and the Red Sox earned 10-8, 8 to 1. Lefty Grove secured his 12th victory in 15 starts.

The Chicago White Sox defeated the Red Sox, 7 to 6. The winning Chicago runner was the first to score, securing Kress by the seventh.

Washington at St. Louis was played in a double-header Sunday. Rain washed out all games in the National League.

By United Press

Babe Ruth homered and walked around for three runs in four times up.

Lou Gehrig doubled and walked accounting for two runs, in four tries.

Frank Simmons went hitless in five trips to the plate.

Jack Wilson and Bill Terry were idle.

GOLF

By Art Krenz

As I stated yesterday, there is no model putting stance one must follow. In fact, success, yes there are certain things one should not do.

It is best to stand comfortably well over the ball with a slight bend in the knees, and let the weight bearing a little more of the weight than the right.

Don't crutch so the shaft of the putter just touches your stomach.

Put the ball in the center and concentrate. Then when you have sighted the line to the hole, focus the eye on the ball, stand still and strike the putt.

That "line" of "Bobbing" that in the heavens, is curiously estimated from 200,000,000 to 300,000,000 miles.

THE FLAG

The American flag with its thirteen stripes and thirteen stars, was authorized on June 14, 1777, and continued to be used as the national emblem until Congress passed one act increasing the number of stars to 15; then to 20, and finally it was designated that one star would be added for each new state in the union, the star to be added on the Fourth of July next following such admission.

Flag Day this year is of especial significance, as the nation celebrates the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington, the Father of His Country, and certainly one of the greatest contributors to the flag as an institution.

INSULL'S CASE

One of the news stories telling of Samuel Insull's retirement from guidance of his vast industrial empire contained the following highly significant paragraph:

"In the years following 1924, according to observers, he himself became imbued with a belief that 'a new and everlasting era of prosperity' had arrived—a belief said to have been largely responsible for the present financial affairs in his utility system."

About all one can say to that is that Mr. Insull wasn't alone in his delusion. A lot of the rest of the populace used to feel the same way, too; and what happened to them is just about what happened to Mr. Insull. The whole country, in short, was deluded, and the country now is paying for its delusion. Mr. Insull simply typifies what befell the nation as a whole.

THE SILLY SEASON FOR POLITICS

The St. Louis lawyer who is seeking a Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate, and whose platform calls for the payment by the federal government of $720 a year to every citizen of the country, with $240 extra-for each minor, serves to remind us that the political silly season is about to open in earnest.

Every campaign always brings to light a few candidates who are willing to promise the moon itself in their appeals to the voters; but it is evident that this year is going to give us an unusual number of them.

The voters are dissatisfied, restless; they want an improvement in their condition very badly, and when they feel that way the ordinary politician outdoes himself in making promises. Probably no one will go any farther than this St. Louis candidate—it would-be almost-impossible—but there will be a lot of campaign promises hardly less fantastic than his.

THE JUNKERS RETURN

Newspapers in Paris have been discovering a revival of the old spiked-helmet, 1914, brand of German imperialism lately.

With Von Papen sitting in the chancellery at Berlin, with the stiff-necked, die-hard Junker aristocracy laying strong hands on the government and grotesque Hitler rising behind like a black cloud, it is quite evident that the French editors are just about right.

Germany is turning once more to the class that led it up to and into the war. And in that fact there is an indication of the woeful way in which the world at large has failed to handle an acute problem.

The imperialism that guided German policy under the Hohenzollerns was not peculiar to Germany, of course. Every large European nation was more or less infected. But Germany seems to have had the worst case, and the things that happened from 1914 to 1918 proved rather clearly that that imperialistic attitude, and the actions which it gives rise to, are extremely dangerous to the world's well-being.

After the armistice in 1918 imperialism went reeling. It is the fashion now to sneer at that "make the world safe for democracy" slogan of war days; but, really, there was a whole lot in it. At the end of 1918 a long step had been taken toward accomplishment of that ideal. If the right kind of program could have been followed, imperialism would have been dead forever.

But today, nearly 14 years after the armistice, the old imperialism is returning to Berlin; and it is impossible to escape the conclusion that the world's blindness and stupidity helped to revive it.

If a fairer, less vengeful peace could have been made, if the victors had not gone beyond all reason in trying to squeeze gold out of the conquered, if a real world-like disarmament program could have been accepted—then the old Junker imperialism would not be getting a new lease on life.

What happened in 1914 was tragic proof that world statesmanship had been incompetent. The events of this year seem to be offering us another

Writers Of Idaho Are Program Topic

Mrs. Margaret Noble Kwei and Mrs. Ella White entertained the Literary Guild at a study dinner preceding its study hour Monday evening at the country home of the former. Mrs. L. C. Daly and Mrs. Ophelia Lewis were present. Ruthie, Rosalie, Ruthie, formed the entertainers.

Miss Mary Goldham was in charge of the evening's program presenting books by Idaho authors. Mrs. J. E. Johnson reviewed "Meet and Mingle-Wives," a book of poems by Mrs. Gray Stone Contee.

Mr. George Haller, member of the Guild, who has been absent for several months, was present at the meeting.

NAZARENE PASTOR AND FAMILY HONORED

Rev. Mr. Herschel Murphy and their two children, Mrs. Murphy, wife, and Mrs. Janice Murphy, who recently came here from Clarendon, Texas, were honored at a reception at the First Christian Church, Nazarene, Monday evening. The reception was given at the home of Mrs. Paul Strother, 520 Second Avenue east. Rev. Murphy has assumed charge of the church, Rev. Mackey Brown and charge of the program.

Brief addresses of welcome were made by Dr. W. G. Gibbs, president of the church; Mrs. Martha D. Barnes, president of the Women's Missionary Society; Henry C. Thompson, pastor; Mrs. Anna Young, Peppermint society; and Clarence M. Littlewill, superintendent of the Sunday school. The response was given by Rev. Murphy.
