NOTICE TO THE FRUIT GROWER
Owing to the cold and wet weather during the early spring, the cooling moth was very slow in emerging. It was advised to have the first cover spray completed by June 15th. The summer weather the last few days, has caused the moth to emerge much more rapidly, and to protect the fruit from the worms you should have your second spray on by June 23rd. I would advise that you use 1 per cent summer oil solution in this spray to kill the eggs of the moth that have been laid since the last cover spray was put on.

THE BONUS ARMY

It is easy to see that the "encampment" of the bonus army at Washington gives the capital city authorities one of the weirdest and most perplexing problems any municipal officials have ever had to face.

In strict logic, there is no reason whatever for the presence of all these impecunious veterans; no reason whatever why Washington should feed them and house them while they are waiting for a decision on their demands for money; no reason, in fact, why any outside parties should help them out of the predicament into which they have got themselves.

And yet—when 10,000 men drop down on you, lacking money, food or housing, you can't let them starve. Drive them out of town and you simply pass the problem on to some other city. Take care of them and you invite others to join their number.

It's a ticklish problem. The Washington officials have the sympathy of the rest of the country—if that's any comfort to them.

The old line politicians here sat back and laughed at all the troubles of Mr. Hoover's Bon Scouts in Chicago.

The inside situation is they do not intend to take much of a part in the coming campaign. They are indicating they will look after their own skins first. Some have arranged to turn over their state organizations to Hoover men as they will not be picked up in it.

Presidential jockeying certainly balled up the simplest political situation in the early part of the convention. They let things get out of hand where sober and more experienced heads could have anticipated matters before they got started.

The zapping genius of such men as Senators Watson, Smart and David Reed was poorly used.

ISSUES

There was an "amazing absence" of Hoover pictures in the convention city. One white-washed correspondent found only one in the whole of Chicago the first day. It hung in a loop sporadically with the inscription: "Smoke Experiment."

Administration men like Deuel Mills tried hard to get the newspapers to stress Mr. Hoover's reconstruction program in their accounts of the convention. The hubbub over publicity at the promenade given to the prohibition issue.

Washington Democrats privately admit the issue was being used shrewdly as a smoke screen to hide the embarrassing economic situation.

"That was strongly doubted but it worked out just as well for the Republicans."

NOTES

Chicago hotel men, merchants and even bootleggers squawked about it being a violation of the "dry" laws. They had not heard that the depression hit politics as well as other lines.

Scores of newspaper circulation reservations, thinking the show was not worth attending, had advanced copies of his speech until the last moment on the Democrats could not know that he was going to say... Also he could change it if necessary... There was much talk in Chicago that the Kansas City four years ago... and less money.

HOOPER

Local advocates of the Council for National Defense are much incensed at the manner in which Hoover killed off their petition. They had anticipated a temporary unpublished refusal, possibly to be rescinded after Congress adjourned. The President's reply scrubbed the picture.

Local anti-Hoover sentiment is on the increase. It is attributed in some quarters to his various attempts to put a stop to the national expediency of economic facts. The press expresses a viewpoint that is gaining.

HOOSIERS

The financial district is more fearful of Roosevelt's nomination than it was a few weeks ago. Signs are not lacking that Tammany may swing to his support. A personal friend of Roosevelt says that the Governor himself has no doubt he will be nominated.

Some of Roosevelt's advisers urged him to take up vigorously the cause of battle offered by Smith. The Governor retorted the suggestion. Observers believe his refusal to make enemies will stand him in good stead if and when trading regulations are in order. He is thus avoiding the pitfall which trapped Mead in 1924.

The council of Colonel Edward G. Bremer are said to have influenced his decision in favor of maintaining peace.

If Roosevelt gets the nomination, Lieutenant Governor Lehman is in line as his successor in New York state.

DEMOCRATS

One of the chief unofficial topics of conversation at the National Electric Light association's convention was the possibility of including the South-Baskob forces

95c MOON'S

BACK TO THE LAND

(Oregon Journal)

During the past five months 48 new settlers in Oregon have bought more than 7000 acres of land, valued at $265,000. They have come through contacts made by the office maintained at Los Angeles by the co-operative effort of the Portland Chamber of Commerce and the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce.

In making this announcement, "Commerce" published by the Portland Chamber of Commerce, explains: "These new settlers have been brought to Oregon through their investments notwithstanding the fact that no advertising along agricultural lines has been done during the past year."

This is to say that the momentum of a campaign instituted by aid of the old Oregon development fund continues. The word that spread throughout the nation of Oregon's advantages for farmers is still spoken. The fine work done by W. G. Ide and some others still wins results.

If it is a question of markets and prices there is little inducement to settle anywhere on the land. But in Oregon, where there is more than enough for everybody, there is a growing tendency on the part of the unsupplied to negotiate directly for a living with old Mother Nature. People who seek the soil for subsistence and with no idea of producing a surplus beyond their own necessities find realization easier in Oregon.

MAN'S SEVEN MISTAKES

Man's imperfections lead him to make many mistakes in life, and the pointing out of these frailties has engaged the attention of philosophers and reformers in all ages. A recent writer enumerates what he considers to be the seven greatest mistakes of man, as follows:

1. The delusion that individual advancement is made by crushing others down.
2. The tendency to worry about things that can not be changed or corrected.
3. Insisting that a thing is impossible because we ourselves cannot accomplish it.
4. Refusing to set aside trivial preferences in order that important things may be accomplished.
5. Neglecting development and refinement of the mind by not acquiring the habit of reading.
6. Attempting to compel other persons to believe and live as we do.
7. Failure to establish the habit of saving money.

This appears to be a pretty fair diagnosis of what is the matter with us, and everyone might profitably check up on himself in the light of these suggestions.

—Exchange.

It's little wonder the nudist movement is making such headway, considering the number of people who are constantly talking about having lost their shirts.

A writer says that a good story must always have an ending that satisfies. The trouble with that is that most wives won't wait to hear the end.

It is indicated by the baby show here Saturday that one thing the depression has not hit is the baby crop, God bless them!

If you do not already know it, Saturday of this week is the last day that last half of the 1931 real property taxes can be paid without penalty, and on Tuesday many of the new excise taxes goes into effect to help balance this dad-blamed budget.

There should be a big attendance at the meeting called for Monday night at Parish hall to organize for the work of the Associated Charities this next season. The officials of that organization deserve 100-percent cooperation.

CLEAN WHITE PURE

INVITING is the word... Chesterfield's attractive white package is certainly the proper introduction to the cigarettes inside it. For it suggests right off... they're pure. Examine the paper Chesterfields are rolled in. It's white... and pure. Now light up... You'll notice there's neither taste nor odor of burning paper. You get the full flavor of fine ripe tobacco. To make sure of purity... every ingredient and every method used in making Chesterfields... is checked by a staff of scientists. You always open that clean white package with confidence. It reminds you of the purity back of that satisfying taste. And remember, they're milder too!

Million Dollar Legs GRUBSTAKE FUND IDAHO MAN'S PLAN

Holas Resident Urges Scheme In Letter Sent To Senator Borah

HOLES (UP)—Suzocottan that at least a part of any fund provided for Idaho for direct relief...

The following excerpt from the letter explains Alkovich's plan:

"I fear a fund for direct relief will follow, we have our full quota of unemployed—good men and women who are in dire straits, anxious and willing to work, with nothing to eat except they can earn a little money to carry them through the winter months of this year of charity. Some of these are poorly clad and hungry."

Howard Condit Writer

"This is the time of year they should be profitably employed, and unless some means is provided for them in the New Year, our charitable institutions are sure to be overburdened this coming winter, and want for coal, fuel, clothing, our milk is in a way more pronounced than ever."

"I am a perfectly familiar man with certain plans here in the northwest that could be carried up at comparatively small expense in such a way that hundreds of men could earn wages or near wages, but these men must be grubstaked to the extent of about $100 each."

Fund Would Heavily

"This grubstake would provide the necessary camp and mining equipment and sufficient supplies to last for the first 30 or 40 days, after which time the grubstake group could be placed on a self-sustaining basis and within 30 or 40 days the grubstake money could be returned to the revolving fund where it would become available for further grubstaking purposes."

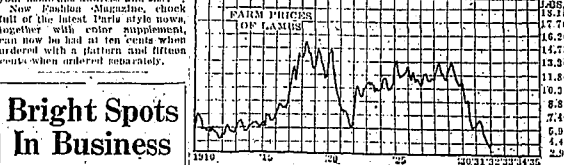

"... The time has passed here in the northwest when men can get out on the mountains in their shirts with a gold pan or a rocker and a pick and shovel and make money. Most of the easy mining is gone and it is now necessary for the men to work in larger groups and on the ground and to be equipped for them. They need more elaborate equipment in order to be successful, but nevertheless it can be done, and now is the time to do it."

Dry Head Seeks Comfort - At Chicago

There's only one way to watch a big show, and that's in comfort, according to Bishop James H. Cannon, Jr., dry leader. And this picture, telephotoned from Chicago to San Francisco, shows the bishop about to remove his coat at Wednesday's session of the Republican national convention.
