LABOR'S FRIEND IN SENATE SEES GAIN IN EMPLOYMENT

Acceptance of Ideas Brings Cheer to Lawmaker

DISCUSSES PLAN

NEW YORK, (AP)—Although millions of men are out of work and are facing the threat of starvation, the federal relief bill passed by the last Congress bears the name and the stamp of the legislator as a friend of labor.

Senator Wagner, Democratic Senator from New York, who for four years has been fighting for social legislation to help both the employed and the unemployed, today in a speech in the Senate will discuss the plan which bears his name and the stamp of his conviction as a friend of labor.

He finds that this year, as never before, the problem and methods of labor have been crystallized in definite purpose and action. He says that he has never before found his strength has been so clear. He finds the power to create constructive legislation. He says that he has never before found the power to create constructive legislation.

Without the support of organized labor, he said, Senator Wagner today would have been a "dead letter." He says that he has never before found the power to create constructive legislation.

Full Service Wire Service... Published by THE IDAHO EVENING TIMES... SENATOR WAGNER SEES BETTER TIMES AHEAD

There are many who will say that this Labor Day will give labor very little to rejoice about, but we have the word of Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York, who has certainly been one of labor's champions...

These are, indeed, words of encouragement and good cheer for every man who is without a job. Senator Wagner has not been a man to build castles in the air.

Where, after one hundred and fifty years, does this great experiment, as the Father of our Country called it, stand today? At the moment, we are conscripted to work one day out of three for government.

Next week's news dispatches will tell us of other bureaus and commissions issuing more regulations prescribing a course of conduct for individuals to follow.

Our over-cautious statesmen should bear in mind that the world will forgive an occasional error if you bat out enough home runs.

The Idaho Evening Times FREE COOKING SCHOOL

TUESDAY WEDNESDAY THURSDAY FRIDAY
 Sept. 13 Sept. 14 Sept. 15 Sept. 16

2 to 4 P. M. DANCELAND

IF YOU ever lived in Kansas in July, you'll remember those popular programs that brought good music, real plays and entertaining lectures to town—the annual Chautauqua. This newspaper brings you a new sort of Chautauqua this year—the "Kitchen Chautauqua." The Kitchen Chautauqua is for your enjoyment—programs concerning the fine and honest tasks of broiling a steak and icing a cake, and of saving kitchen minutes for us in more recreational pursuits.

The theme of the Kitchen Chautauqua is the "happy kitchen—1932 style," where there's a frying pan and a double boiler there can be fun and enjoyment. The Kitchen Chautauqua will find for you... show you innumerable new ways in which to increase your store of romance in the kitchen—magic methods to squeeze hurry-up meals for a king out of an almost empty refrigerator and a dash of versatility... and furnish you a whole batch of practical delicious recipes at the same time.

We have made every preparation for the Kitchen Chautauqua—and remember, it's your cooking school. We know you'll enjoy it... that's why we arranged to bring it to you. We invite you to reserve each one of the days—NOW.
