WASHINGTON (UPI)—The most dramatic moment in the campaign of President Hoover, in his forthcoming "comprehensive" speechless, will be how he can make up his mind to allow the state to receive a "direct state election" if it is allowed to choose under friendly, paternal guidance.

Hoover has hours in the last few days to discuss the campaign with his staff, the members of his Senate majority, the leaders of the House, the governors of the states, the leaders of the party, the leaders of the business community, the leaders of labor, the leaders of the church, the leaders of the press, the leaders of the people.

Face Hard Choices

These may be hard choices, but they may also be easy. They do not have to be hard to be right.

The election has advanced so far that it is now a question of whether it will be a week or two weeks from the voting stage.

There is, however, no frantic clutching for the possible effect of the loss of the White House.

It wiped out much of the pressing effect of the loss of the White House.

JEROME'S COUNTY FAIR OPENS WITH PUBLIC WEDDING

Miss Mary Brennan Becomes Bride of Harold Carlson Thursday Afternoon

SEVENIES (Special). — With the identity of the bridal couple settled for the last minute by Earl F. Kennedy, secretary of the fair, the elaborate "debutante" ball, marking the opening of Jerome county's 1932 farm and home exposition Thursday afternoon at the fairground, was opened by hundreds of guests. As a setting for the ceremony at which Miss Mary Brennan, a native of Jerome, and Harold Carlson, son of C. J. Carlson, assistant post master, were united in matrimony, the fairground was decked out with exquisitely gaudy and sumptuous decorations, and surrounded with gardens and backgrounds filled with quantities of flowers.

Special Stage. — The ceremony was performed shortly after noon in front of the grandstand. Rev. Mr. Bullock, pastor of the Presbyterian church, reading the marriage service from the Bible, was followed by four flower girls and the bridegroom, by his brother, Harvey Carlson, his bridegroom, and flower girl, Jerome's high school band played musical numbers during the ceremony, and the audience was lured out to the voters.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom were escorted from the altar by members of the Gooding cavalry troop. A special guard of honor, consisting of the immediate family, the couple, and their immediate families, The couple will be at home in Jerome, the bride's home, during all the fall and winter months, while the bridegroom will be engaged in the various mercantile stores, windows, will be presented to the community.

The ceremony was ideal for a wedding, as well as for the affair, and those in charge of the affair, who were gratified, favored them. Bunting and flags decorated the grounds and buildings, and contributed to the festive atmosphere.

Addison T. Smith, Alton, Illinois, and Marshall, Minnesota Congressman Addison T. Smith was distinguished guest the opening day, Friday, September 22, as he dedicated, as

Roosevelt Accused of Imitating Manners of Death

WASHINGTON (UPI). — Assistant Secretary of Interior, Frank J. Dillingham, and his wife, Ruth, and their son, Hull Moore, companion of 1912, has accused Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of being the "worst kind of his discredited, high class, high society."

Dixon's statement attacking Roosevelt was made in the form of a regular departmental news release, and came as a sharp blow to the administration's plan to get the people to turn to him before the American people could vote.

Dixon, adding, "I will feel only the more strongly about it," said he had no qualms about attacking Roosevelt, adding, "I will feel only the more strongly about it."

Wisconsin Primary's Outcome Cheers G.O.P.

By RAYMOND CLAPPER United Press Staff Correspondent (Special to the United Press)

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The most important political development since President Hoover, in his forthcoming campaign speeches, will say that the recovery program already in action will be allowed to proceed under friendly paternal guidance, has been the victory of Wisconsin's G.O.P. in the primary election.

It has spent hours in the last few days discussing the campaign of the Republicans, and the general result, Main outlines for the remainder of the campaign have been reached on several points.

The defeat of La Follette in Wisconsin by regular Republicans, who are supporting the White House materially, has wiped out much of the pre-existing effect of the loss of the "fighting" stage.

The primary, which was held yesterday, was decided in favor of the G.O.P. by a vote of 10,000 to 5,000.

It has been lost by the G.O.P. in every state, and now the party is
