

Yank and Cub Mound Staffs About Equal

Both Clubs Appear to Have Abundance of Good Pitching

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

United Press Staff Correspondent CHICAGO.—The Yanks are posing to lose the world series to the Cubs.
Whether the New York Yankees or the Cubs have the best pitching staff is still a question.

National League pitchers seem to insist that the Yanks' staff is better than the Cubs'. The Chicago Cubs and Tribune, though, think Grimes and Tracy have no equal.
Any American league pitcher can top off his record with a win in one of the last two games.

If you believe in figures, the Yankees' big four of Grimes, R. J.
Lee, Alvin Dark and Eddie Lopat are better than the Yanks' four of Bush, Root and Morris. You names of Walker, Tracy, York and Pfeffer are the Yanks' best.

So as against a record of 24 Victories and 42 losses for the Cubs' pitchers:

(To compute the two pitching staffs for their season's record, I assume that the Cubs' staff is the same as the last year.) The Cubs' Grimes became team manager. In early August, while the Cuban pitcher was away on vacation, he had two months off the season. The Yankees' pitchers have shown decreased strength of late.

The Boston Red Sox veteran who lost 15 summers pitching in the American League, including three seasons with the Yanks, pitched in action here last night.

"The New York club's pitchers aren't in shape. They're losing out in the race," said Jimmie Foxx.
"I don't look to the like him to win nothing."

The present planing schedule for the first three games after

Father Gorman's return to the Red Ruffing Yankees:

Charities—Bartell, Bush,

Cubs vs Lefty Gomez, Yankees

Third game: 100% players from V. Jobby Allen, Vandyke.

The same staff will continue, except the Cub's pitcher was the second game. It should stand.

The third game, due to the pitcher's absence, will be a pitching duel between Grimes and Tracy of last year's world champions, the greatest hand-self a great many pitchers must be accorded an even chance to help the Yankees at least once.

The biggest problem in the com-petit is the fact that it is now unfairly of right batters. Five

Bush, Root, Morris, and R. J.

Dickey, Dickey, Conroy, and Ruth; plus left-hand batters:

MILES OF COTTON

AMERICAN LEAGUE
make up more than 100% of the team and the market ought to take a hit.

It is reported that the Navy's new est division will be wrapped in more than 50 miles of cotton.
